Because that whan thou go fore for thy instruction & louynge admonicion therto, the Reue= rende father in god, Nicolas, Bisshoppe of Salisbury hath prescribed the this prayer folowynge, taken out of the same.

Jacob. 1.

O Lorde God almyghtye whiche longe agoo saydest by the mouthe of James thyn Apostle: If any of you lacke wys= dom, let hym aske it of God whiche geueth it plenteously to all men, and casteth no man in the tethe, and it shalbe geuen hym. Heare my peticion for this thy promes sake.

Ps. 140. Ps. 129. Gen. 9.

Let my prayer ascende luckely in to thy syght lyke incense. Let thyne eare be attent vnto my depe desyre. Geue me wysdome which is euer assistent about thy seate. And put me not out from amonge the chyl= dren, for I am thy seruaunt and ẏ sonne of thy handmayde. Sende her (I meane thy godly wysedome) out of thyne holy heauens, and from the trone of thy maiestye, that she maye be with me, and laboure with me, ẏ I may knowe what is acceptable in thy syght. Oh lerne herte. Shewe me thy wayes o Lorde, & teache me thy patthes. Leade me in to thy trueth and lerne me, for thou art the God of my helth.

Ps. 26.

And on the do I depende alway. Heare now my voyce O Lorde with which I haue cryed vnto the. Haue mercy vpon me, and gracyously heare me for Jesus Christes sake oure Lorde, which lyueth and reyg= neth with the his father & the holy goost worlde without ende. Amen.

After the ende of any Chapter (yf thou wylt) thou mayest saye these verses folowynge.

Ps. 118.

LEade me (o Lorde) in thy waye, and let me walke in thy trueth.
Oh let myne herte delyte in fearynge thy name.

Order my goynges after thy worde, that no wyckednes reygne in me.

Kepe my steppes within thy patthes, lest my fete turne in to any contrary waye.

Miles Coverdale's Translation

Unto the moſt victorious Prynce and oure moſt gracyous ſoueraigne Lorde, kynge Henry the eight kynge of Englonde and of Fraunce, lorde of Irlonde, &c.

Defendour of the fayth, and vnder God the chefe and ſuppreme heade of the Church of Englonde. 1535

¶ The rycht & iuſt adminiſtracyon of the lawes that God gaue vnto Moſes and vnto Joſua: the teſtimonye of faythfulnes that God gaue of Dauid: the plenteous abundaunce of wyſdome that God gaue vnto Salomon: the lucky and proſperous age with the multiplicacyon of ſede whiche God gaue vnto Abraham and Sara his wyfe, be geué vnto you moſt gracyous Prynce, with your deareſt iuſt wyfe, and moſt vertuous Prynceſſe, Quene Anne, Amen.

CAiphas beynge byſſhope of that yeare, lyke a blynde prophete (not vnderſtandyng what he ſayd) prophecied, that it was better to put Joh. 11. e
Chriſt vnto death, then that all the people ſhulde perysſhe: he meanyng, that Chriſt was an heretike, a deceauer of the people, & a deſtroyer of the lawe, and that it was better therfore to put Chriſt vnto death, thã to ſuffre hym for to lyue, and to deceaue the people. &c. where in very dede Chriſt was the true prophete, the true Meſſias, and the onely true Sauiour of the worlde, ſent of his heauenly father to ſuffre the moſte cruell, moſt ſhamefull, and moſt neceſſary death for our redempcyon: accordyng to ỹ meanynge of the prophecie truely vnderſtonde.

Euen after the ſame maner ỹ blynde byſſhoppe of Rome, (that blynde Baalam I ſaye) not vnderſtondynge what he dyd, gaue vnto your grace this tytle: Defendour of the fayth, onely becauſe your hyghnes ſuffred your byſſhoppes to burne Gods worde the rote of fayth, and to perſecute the louers and myniſters of ỹ ſame. where in very dede the blynde byſſhoppe (though he knewe not what he dyd) prophecied, that by the ryghteous admyniſtracyon and contynuall diligence of youre grace, the fayth ſhulde ſo be defended, that Gods worde the mother of Fayth with the frutes therof, ſhulde haue his fre courſe thorowe out all Chriſtendome, but ſpecyally in your realme.

¶ Your hyghneſſe now of your pryncely benignite wyll pardon me to compare theſe two byſſhoppes (I meane byſſhoppe Caiphas and the byſſhoppe of Rome) & their prophecies together, I doute not but we ſhal fynde them agree lyke bretheren, though the one be a Jewe and the other a counterfayte Chriſtian. Fyrſt, Caiphas prophecied that it was better to put Chriſt vnto death, then that the people ſhulde perysſhe. The byſſhoppe of Rome alſo, not knowynge what he prophecied, gaue youre grace this tytle: Defendour of the fayth. The trueth of both theſe prophecies is of the holy gooſt (as was Baalams prophecie) though they that ſpake thẽ, knewe not what they ſayd. The trueth of Caiphas prophecie is, that it was neceſſary for mans ſaluacyon, that Chriſt by his death ſhulde ouercome death, and redeme vs. And the trueth of oure Baalams prophecie is, ỹ your grace in very dede Nume.
ſhulde defende the Fayth, yee euen the true fayth of Chriſt, no dreames, no fables, 24. c.
no hereſie, no papiſticall inuencions, but the vncorrupte fayth of Gods moſt holy worde, which to ſet forth (prayſed be the goodnes of God, and increace youre gracyous purpoſe) your hyghnes with youre moſt honorable councell, applyeth all his ſtudye and endeuoure.

Theſe two blynde byſſhopes now agree in ỹ vnderſtãdyng of their prophecies: for Caiphas taketh Chriſt for an heretike, Oure Balaã taketh the worde of Chriſt for hereſie. Caiphas iudgeth it to be a good dede to put Chriſt vnto death, that he shulde not deceaue the people. Oure Balaam calleth defendynge of the fayth, the suppressyng, keepyng secrete, and burnyng of the worde of fayth: lest the lyght there of shulde vtter his darknes: lest his owne Decretales & Decrees, his owne lawes and constitucions, his owne statutes and inuencions shulde come to none effecte: lest his intollerable exactions and vsurpacions shulde lose theyr strengthe: lest it shulde be knowen what a theefe and murtherer he is in the cause of Christ, and how haynous a traytoure to God and man in defraudynge all Christen kynges & prynces of theyr due obedience: lest we youre graces subiectes shulde haue eyes in the worde of God, at the last to spye out his crafty conueyaūce and iuglynges: and lest men shulde se, how sore he and his false Apostles haue deceaued all Christendome, specyally youre noble realme of Englonde.

Thus your grace seyth how brotherly the Jewysh bysshoppe and oure Balaam agree together, not onely in myter and outwarde appearaunce: but as the one persecuted the Lorde Jesus in his owne persone, so doth the other persecute his worde and resysteth his holy ordynaunce in the auctorite of his anoynted kynges. For so moche nowe as the worde of God is the onely trueth that dryueth awaye all lyes, and discloseth all iuglyng and disceate, therfore is oure Balaam of Rome so lothe that the scripture shulde be knowē in the mother tonge: lest yf kynges and prynces (specially aboue all other) were exercysed therin, they shulde reclame and chalenge agayne theyr due auctorite, which he falsely hath vsurped so many yeres, and so tye hym shorter: and lest the people beyng taught by the worde of God, shulde fall from ẏ false fayned obedīēce of hym and his disguysed Apostles, vnto the true obedience commaunded by Gods owne mouthe: as namely, to obey theyr prynce, to obey father and mother. &c. and not to steppe ouer father and mothers bely to enter in to his paynted religions, as his ypocrites teache: For he knoweth well ynough, that yf the cleare Sonne of Gods worde come ones to the heate of the daye, it shal dryue awaye all the foule myst of his deuelysh doctrines. Therfore were it more to the mayntenaunce of Antichristes kyngdome, that the worlde were styll in ignoraunce and blyndnes, and that the scripture shulde neuer come to lyghte. For the scripture (both in the olde testament and in the new) declareth moste aboūdauntly that the office, auctorite and power geuen of God vnto kynges / is in earth aboue all other powers: let them call thē selues Popes, Cardynalles, or what so euer they Ro.13.a will, the worde of god declareth them (yee and commaundeth them vnder payne of dampnacion) to be obedient vnto the temporall swerde: As in the olde Testament
Math. 17.d, all the Prophetes, Preestes and Leuites were. And in the new Testament Christ &
Tit.3.a his Apostles both were obedient them selues, and taught obedience of all men vn-Exod. to theyr prynces āde temporall rulers: which here vnto vs in the worlde present the 22.d. persone of God, and are called Goddes in the scripture, bycause of the excellēcy of Psal. theyr office. And though there were no mo auctorities but the same, to proue the p̄- 81.a. eminence of the temporall swerde, yet by this the scripture declareth playnly, that as there is nothyng aboue God, so is there no man aboue the kynge in his realme but that he onely vnder God is the chefe heade of all the cōgregacyon and church of the same. And in token that this is true, there hath ben of olde antiquite (and is yet vnto this daye) a louynge ceremonye vsed in your realme of Englonde, ẏ whā your graces subiectes reade your letters, or begynne to talke or comē of your hyghnes, they moue theyr bonettes for a signe & token of reuerence vnto your grace, as to theyr most soueraigne lorde & heade vnder God. which thyng no man vseth to do to eny bysshoppe. wherby (yf oure vnderstondyng were nat blynded) we myght euydently perceaue, that euen very nature teacheth vs the same, that scripture cōmaūdeth vs: and that lyke as it is agaynst Gods worde that a kynge shulde not be the chefe heade of his people, euen so (I saye) is it agaynst kynde that we shulde knowe any other heade aboue hym vnder God.

And that no preest nor bysshoppe is exempte (nor can be lawfully) from the obedience of his prynce, the scripture is full both of strayte cōmaundemētes, & practises

of the holyest men. ✠ Aaron was obedient vnto Moses, and called hym his lorde, though he was his owne brother. Eleasar and Phinees were vnder the obedience of Josua. ✠ Nathan the prophete fell downe to the grounde before kynge Dauid, he had his Prynce in such reuerence (He made not the kynge for to kysse his fote as the bysshoppe of Rome maketh Emperours to do) Notwithstondynge he spared not to rebuke hym, and that right sharply whan he fell from the worde of God to adultery and manslaughter. For he was not afrayed to reproue hym of his sinnes, nomore than Helyas the prophete stode in feare to saye vnto kynge Achab: ✠ It is thou and thy fathers house that trouble Israel, because ye haue forsaken ỹ commaundementes of the Lorde, and walke after Baal. And as Johan Baptyste durst saye vnto Kynge Herode: It is not lawful for the to take thy brothers wyfe. But to my purpose I passe ouer innumerable mo ensaples both of the olde Testament and of the new, for feare lest I be to tedyous vnto your grace. Sūma, in all godly regimentes of olde tyme the kynge and tēporall iudge was obeyed of euery man, and was alwaye vnder God the chefe and supreme heade of the whole congregacyon, and deposed euen prestes whan he sawe an vrgent cause, as Salomon dyd vnto Abiathar. who coulde than stonde agaynst the godly obedience of his prynce (excepte he wolde be at defyaunce with God and all his holy ordinances) that were well acquaynted with the holy scripture, which so earnestly cōmendeth vnto euery one of vs the auctorite and power geuen of God vnto kynges and temporall rulers. Therfore doth Moses so strately forbyde the Israelites to speake so moche as an euell worde agaynst the prynce of ỹ people, moche lesse than to disobeye hym, or to withstonde hym. Doth not Jeremy the prophete and Baruc also exhorte the people in captiuite, to praye for the prosperous welfare of the kynge of Babilon, and to obeye hym, though he was an infidele. In the new Testament whā oure sauioure Christ (beyng yet fre ✠ Lorde of al kynges ✠ prynces) shewed his obedience in payenge the trybute to oure ensample, ✠ dyd he not a miracle there in puttynge the pece of money in the fysshes mouth (that Peter myght paye the custo mer therwith) and all to stablysshe the obedience due vnto prynces. ✠ Dyd not Joseph and Mary the mother of our sauiour Christ departe frō Nazareth vnto Bethleē, so farre from home, to shewe theyr obedience in payenge the taxe to the prynce. And wolde not oure Sauioure be borne in the same obedience. ✠ Doth not Paule pronounce hym to resyste God hym selfe, that resysteth the auctorite of his prynce. And (to be shorte) the Apostle Peter dothe not onely stablysshe the obedience vnto prynces and temporall rulers but affirmeth playnly the kynge (and no bysshoppe) to be the chefe heade. Innumerable places mo are there in scripture, which bynde vs to the obedience of oure prynce, and declare vnto vs, that no man is nor can be lawfully excepte from the same: but that all the mynisters of Goddes worde are vnder the tēporall swerde: ✠ Prynces onely to owe obedience vnto God ✠ his worde.

And where as Anthichrist vnto youre graces tyme dyd thrust his heade into ỹ imperiall crowne of your hyghnes (as he doth yet with other noble prynces mo) that lerned he of Sathā the authour of pryde, and therin doth he both agaynst the doctryne ✠ also agaynst ỹ ensample of Christe: whiche because his kyngdome was not of this worlde, medled with no temporal matters, as it is euydent both by his wordes and practyse: Luc. xii. Math. xxvi. Joh. vi. Joh. xviii. where he ỹ hath eyes to se, maye se: ✠ he ỹ hath eares to heare, maye heare, ỹ Christes admynistracion was nothyng tēporall, but playne spirituall, as he hym selfe affirmeth ✠ proueth in the fourth chapter of saynt Luke out of the prophete Esay: where all bysshoppes and prestes maye se, how farre theyr byndynge and lowsynge extendeth, and where in theyr office consisteth, namely in preachynge the Gospell. ✠c.

wherfore (most gracyous prynce) there is no tonge I thynke, that can fully expresse and declare the vntollerable iniuries, which haue bene done vnto God, to al prynces and to the comynalties of all christen realmes, sence they which shulde be onely the ministers of Gods worde, became lordes of the worlde, and thrust ỹ true and iust prynces out of theyr rowmes. whose herte wolde not pitie it (yee euē with lamentacyon) to remember but onely the vntollerable wronge done by that Antychrist of Rome vnto youre graces most noble predecessoure kynge Johñ? I passe ouer his pestilent pykynge of Peter pens out of youre realme: his stealynge awaye of youre money for pardons: benefices and bysshoprykes: his disceauyng of youre subiectes soules with his deuelyshe doctrynes and sectes of his false religions: his bloudsheddyng of so many of your graces people, for bokes of the scripture, whose herte wolde not be grieued (yee and that out of measure) to call to remēbraūce, how obstinate and disobedient, how presumptuous & stubburne that Antychrist made the bysshoppes of youre realme agaynst your graces noble predecessours in tymes past, as it is manyfest in ỹ Cronicles? I trust verely there be no suche now within youre realme. yf there be, let them remembre these wordes of scripture: Presumptuousnes goeth before destrucciō, & after a proude stomacke there foloweth a fall.

what is now the cause of all these vntollerable and nomore to be suffred abhominacions? Truely euen the ignoraunce of the scripture of God. For how had it els ben possyble, that such blyndnes shulde haue come in to ỹ worlde, had not ỹ lyghte of Gods worde bene extyncte? How coulde men (I saye) haue bene so farre from the true seruyce of God, and from the due obedience of theyr prynce, had not the lawe of God bene clene shut vp, depressed, cast aside, and put out of remembraunce? As it was afore the tyme of that noble kynge Josias, and as it hath bene also amonge vs vnto youre graces tyme: by whose most ryghteous admynistracyon (thorowe the mercyfull goodnes of God) it is now founde agayne, & as it was in the dayes of that most vertuous kynge Josias. And praysed be the father, the sonne, and the holy goost worlde without ende, which so excellently hath endewed youre Prynce ly hert with such feruentnes to his honoure, and to the welth of youre louyng subiectes, that I maye ryghtuously (by iust occasyons in youre persone) cōpare youre hyghnes vnto that noble and gracyous kynge, ỹ lanterne of lyghte amonge prynces, that feruent protectour and defender of the lawes of God: which cōmaunded straytly (as youre grace doth) that the lawe of God shulde be redde and taught vnto all ỹ people: set the prestes to theyr office in the worde of god: destroyed Idolatry and false ydols: put downe all euell customes and abusyons: set vp the true honoure of God: applyed all his studye and endeuoure to the ryghtuous admynistracyon of the most vncorrupte lawe of God. &c. O what felicite was amonge ỹ people of Jerusalem in his dayes? And what prosperous health both of soule & body foloweth the lyke mynistracion in youre hyghnes, we begynne now (praysed be God) to haue experience. For as false doctryne is the orygenall cause of all euell plages and destruccyon, so is ỹ true executynge of the lawe of God ād the preachyng of the same, the mother of all godly prosperite. The onely worde of god (I saye) is the cause of all felicite, it bryngeth all goodnes with it, it bryngeth lernynge, it gēdreth vnderstondynge, it causeth good workes, it maketh chyldren of obedience, breuely, it teacheth all estates theyr office and duety. Seynge then that the scripture of God teacheth vs euery thynge sufficiently, both what we oughte to do, and what we oughte to leaue vndone: whome we are bounde to obey, and whome we shulde not obeye: therfore (I saye) it causeth all prosperite, and setteth euery thyng in frame: and where it is taught and knowen, it lyghteneth all darkenesses, cōforteth all sory hertes, leaueth no poore man vnhelped, suffreth nothynge amysse vnamended, letteth no prynce be disobeyed, permytteth no heresie to be preached: but refourmeth all thinges, amēdeth that is amysse, and setteth euery thynge in order. And why? because it is geuen by the inspiracyon of God, therfore is it euer bryngynge profyte and frute, by teachynge, by improuynge, by amendynge and refourmyng all thē ỹ wyl receaue it, to make them parfecte & mete vnto all good workes.

2. Tim. 3.b.

Consyderynge now (most gracyous prynce) the inestimable treasure, frute & prosperite euerlastynge, that God geueth with his worde, and trustynge in his infynite goodnes that he wolde bryng my symple and rude laboure herin to good ef-

fecte, therfore as the holy goost moued other me to do the cost herof, so was I boldened in God, to laboure in the same. Agayne, consyderynge youre Imperiall maiestye not onely to be my naturall soueraigne liege Lorde & chefe heade of ỳ churche of Englōde, but also the true defender and mayntayner of Gods lawes. I thought it my dutye and to belonge vnto my allegiaunce, whan I had translated this Bible, not onely to dedicate this translacyon vnto youre hyghnesse, but wholy to commytte it vnto the same: to the intent that yf any thynge therin be translated amysse (for in many thynges we fayle, euen whan we thynke to be sure) it may stode in youre graces handes, to correcte it, to amende it, to improue it, yee & cleane to reiecte it, yf youre godly wysdome shall thynke it necessary. And as I do with all humblenes submitte myne vnderstondynge and my poore translacyon vnto ỳ spirite of trueth in your grace, so make I this protestacyon (hauyng God to recorde in my cōscience) that I haue nether wrested nor altered so moch as one worde for the mayntenaūce of any maner of secte: but haue with a cleare conscience purely & faythfully translated this out of fyue sundry interpreters, hauyng onely the manyfest trueth of the scripture before myne eyes: Trustynge in the goodnes of God, that it shalbe vnto his worshippe: quietnes and tranquilite vnto your hyghnes: a perfecte stablyshment of all Gods ordynaunces within youre graces dompnion: a generall comforte to all Christen hertes, and a continuall thankfulnesse both of olde and yonge vnto god, and to youre grace, for beynge oure Moses, and for bringynge vs out of this olde Egypte from the cruell handes of our spirituall Pharao For where were the Jewes (by ten thousande partes) so moch bounde vnto kynge Dauid, for subduynge of greate Goliath and all theyr enemyes, as we are to your grace, for delyuerynge vs out of oure olde Babylonycall captiuyte: For ỳ which delyueraunce and victory I beseke oure onely mediatoure Jesus Christ, to make soch meanes for vs vnto his heauenly father, ỳ we neuer be vnthankfull vnto hym nor vnto youre grace: but that we euer increace in the feare of him, in obedience vnto your hyghnesse, in loue vnfayned vnto oure neghbours: and in all vertue that commeth of God. To whom for ỳ defendynge of his blessed worde (by your graces most rightfull administracyon) be honoure and thankes, glory and dominyon, worlde without ende, Amen.

ỳ youre graces humble subiecte and dayly orator, Myles Couerdale.

A prologe.

Myles Couerdale Unto the Christen reader.

Onsiderynge how excellent knowlege and lernynge an interpreter of scripture oughte to haue in the tongues, and ponderyng also myne owne insufficiency therin, & how weake I am to perfourme ỳ office of a translatoure, I was the more lothe to medle with this worke Notwithstondynge whan I cõsydered how greate pytie it was that we shulde wante it so longe, & called to my remembraunce ỳ aduersite of them, which were not onely of rype knowlege, but wolde also with all theyr hertes haue perfourmed ỳ they beganne, yf they had not had impediment: considerynge (I saye) that by reason of theyr aduersyte it coulde not so soone haue bene brought to an ende, as oure most prosperous nacyon wolde fayne haue had it: these and other reasonable causes consydered, I was the more bolde to take it in hande. And to helpe me herin, I haue had sondrye translations, not onely in latyn, but also of the Douche interpreters: whom (because of theyr synguler gyftes & speciall diligence in the Bible) I haue ben the more glad to folowe for the most parte, accordynge as I was requyred. But to saye the trueth before God, it was nether my laboure ner desyre, to haue this worke put in my hande: neuertheles it greued me ỳ other nacyõs shulde be more plenteously prouyded for with ỳ scripture in theyr mother tongue, then we: therfore whan I was instantly requyred, though I coulde not do so well as I wolde, I thought it yet my dewtye to do my best, and that with a good wyll.

Where as some men thynke now ỳ many translacyons make diuysyon in ỳ fayth and in the people of God, ỳ is not so: for it was neuer better with the congregacion of god, then whan euery church allmost had ỳ Byble of a sondrye trãslacion. Amonge the Grekes had not Origen a specyall translacyon? Had not Vulgarius one peculyar, & lykewyse Chrysostom? Beside the seuentye interpreters, is there not the translacyon of Aquila, of Theodotio, of Symachus, and of sondrye other? Agayne amonge the Latyn men, thou findest ỳ euery one allmost vsed a specyall & sondrye translacyon: for in so moch as euery bysshoppe had the knowlege of ỳ tongues, he gaue his diligence to haue the Byble of his awne translacion. The doctours, as Hireneus, Cyprianus, Tertullian, S. Jherome, S. Augustine, Hylarius & S. Ambrose vpon dyuerse places of the scripture, reade not ỳ texte all alyke.

Therfore oughte it not to be taken as euel, ỳ soch men as haue vnderstondynge now in oure tyme, exercyse them selues in ỳ tongues, & geue their diligence to translate out of one language in to another. yee we ought rather to geue god hye thankes therfore, which thorow his spyrite stereth vp mẽs myndes, so to exercise them selues therin. wolde god it had neuer bene left of after ỳ tyme of S. Augustine, then shulde we neuer haue come in to soch blindnes & ignorauce, in to soch errours & delusyons. For as soone as the Byble was cast asyde, & nomore put in exercyse, then beganne euery one of his awne heade to wryte what so euer came in to his brayne and ỳ semed to be good in his awne eyes: and so grewe ỳ darknes of mẽs traditiõs And this same is ỳ cause ỳ we haue had so many wryters, which seldome made mẽcyon of ỳ scripture of the Byble: & though they some tyme aleged it, yet was it done so farre out of season & so wyde from ỳ purpose, that a mã maye well perceaue, how that they neuer sawe the ryght ordynall.

Seynge then ỳ this diligent exercyse of translatynge doth so moch good & edifyeth in other languages, why shulde it do euell in ours? Doutles lyke as all nacyons in ỳ dyuersite of speaches maye knowe one God in the vnyte of fauth, and be one in loue: euen so maye dyuerse translacyons vnderstonde one another, & that in the head articles & grounde of oure most blessed fauth, though they vse sondrye wordes. wherfore me thynke we haue greate occasyon to geue thankes vnto God, that he hath opened vnto his church the gyfte of interpretacyon & of pryntyng, and that there are now at this tyme so many, which with soch diligẽce and faithfulnes inter pzete ỹ ſcripture to the honoure of god and edifyenge of his people, where as (lyke as whan many are ſhutynge together) euery one doth his beſt to be nyeſt the marke. And though they can not all attayne therto, yet ſhuteth one nyer then another, and hytteth it better then another, yee one can do it better thē another. who is now then ſo vnreaſonable, ſo deſpytefull, oꝛ enuyous, as to abhoꝛre him ỹ doth all his diligence to hytte ỹ pzycke, and to ſhute nyeſt it, though he myſſe & come not nyeſt the marke? Ought not ſoch one rather to be commēded, and to be helped foꝛwarde, that he maye exercyſe himſelfe the moꝛe therin?

Foꝛ the which cauſe (acoꝛdyng as I was deſyꝛed) I toke the moꝛe vpon me to ſet foꝛth this ſpeciall tranſlacyon, not as a checker, not as a repꝛouer, oꝛ deſpyſer of other mens tranſlacyons (foꝛ amonge many as yet I haue founde none without occaſyon of greate thankeſgeuynge vnto god) but lowly & faythfully haue I folowed myne interpꝛeters, & that vnder coꝛrecyon. And though I haue fayled eny where (as there is noman but he myſſeth in ſome thynge) loue ſhall conſtyꝛe all to ỹ beſt without eny peruerſe iudgment. There is noman iyuynge ỹ can ſe all thynges, neither hath god geuen eny man to knowe euery thynge. One ſeyth moꝛe clearly then another, one hath moꝛe vnderſtondyng then another, one can vtter a thynge better then another, but noman ought to enuye, oꝛ diſpyſe another. He that can do better then another, ſhulde not ſet him at naught ỹ vnderſtondeth leſſe: yee he that hath ỹ moꝛe vnderſtondyng, ought to remembꝛe that the ſame gyfte is not his but Gods, and ỹ God hath geuē it him to teach & enfourme the ignoꝛaunt. yf thou haſt knowlege therfoꝛe to iudge where eny faute is made, I doute not but thou wilt helpe to amende it, yf loue be ioyned with thy knowlege. Howbeit wherin ſo euer I can perceaue by my ſelfe, oꝛ by the infoꝛmacyon of other, that I haue fayled (as it is no wonder) I ſhall now by the helpe of God ouerloke it better & amende it.

Now wil I exhoꝛte the (who ſo euer thou be ỹ readeſt ſcripture) yf thou fynde oughte therin ỹ thou vnderſtondeſt not, oꝛ that apeareth to be repugnaunt, geue no temerarious ner haſtye iudgmēt therof: but aſcrybe it to thyne awne ignoꝛaunce, not to the ſcrypture, thynke ỹ thou vnderſtondeſt it not, oꝛ ỹ it hath ſome other meanynge, oꝛ ỹ it is happlye ouerſene of ỹ interpꝛeters, oꝛ wꝛonge pꝛynted. Agayne, it ſhall greately helpe ỹ to vnderſtonde ſcripture, yf thou marke not onely what is ſpoken oꝛ wꝛytten, but of whom, & vnto whom, with what woꝛdes, at what tyme where, to what intent, with what circumſtaunce, conſyderynge what goeth beꝛoꝛe, and what foloweth after. Foꝛ there be ſome thynges which are done & wꝛyttē, to the intente ỹ we ſhulde do lykewyſe: as whan Abꝛaham beleueth God, is obedient vnto his woꝛde, & defendeth Loth his kynſman from violent wꝛonge. There be ſome thynges alſo which are wꝛyttē, to the intente ỹ we ſhulde eſchue ſoch lyke. As whan Dauid lyeth with Vrias wyfe, & cauſeth him to be ſlayne. Therfoꝛe (I ſaye) whan thou readeſt ſcripture, be wyſe & circumſpecte: & whan thou commeſt to ſoch ſtraunge maners of ſpeakynge & darke ſentences, to ſoch parables & ſimilitudes, to ſoch dꝛeames oꝛ viſionsas are hyd from thy vnderſtondynge, cōmytte them vnto God oꝛ to the gyfte of his holy ſpꝛete in them ỹ are better lerned then thou.

As foꝛ the commendacyon of Gods holy ſcripture, I wolde fayne magnifye it as it is woꝛthy, but I am farre vnſufficiēt therto. & therfoꝛe I thoughte it better foꝛ me to holde my tonge, then with few woꝛdes to pꝛayſe oꝛ commēde it: exhoꝛtynge ỹ (moſt deare reader) ſo to loue it, ſo to cleue vnto it, & ſo to folowe it in thy daylye conuerſacyon, ỹ other men ſeynge thy good woꝛkes & the frutes of ỹ holy gooſt in the, maye pꝛayſe the father of heauen, & geue his woꝛde a good repoꝛte: foꝛ to liue after the lawe of God, & to leade a vertuous conuerſacyon, is the greateſt pꝛayſe ỹ thou canſt geue vnto his doctryne.

But as touchynge the euell repoꝛte and diſpꝛayſe that the good woꝛde of God hath by the coꝛrupte and euell conuerſacyon of ſome, ỹ daylye heare it and pꝛofeſſe it outwardly with theyꝛ mouthes, I exhoꝛte ỹ (moſt deare reader) let not ỹ offende thee ner withdꝛawe thy mynde frō the loue of ỹ trueth, nether moue ỹ to be partaker in lyke vnthankfulnes: but seynge ỹ lighte is come in to the worlde, loue nomore the workes of darknes, receaue not the grace of god in vayne. Call to thy remembraunce how louynge & mercifull God is vnto the, how kyndly and fatherly he helpeth the in al trouble, teacheth thyne ignoraunce, healeth the in all thy sycknesse, forgeueth the all thy synnes, fedeth ỹ, geueth the drynke, helpeth ỹ out of prison, norysheth the in straunge countrees, careth for the, & seyeth ỹ thou wante nothynge. Call this to mynde (I saye) & that earnestly, and consydre how thou hast receaued of god all these benefites (yee and many mo then thou canst desyre) how thou art bounde lykewise to shewe thy selfe vnto thy neghboure as farre as thou canst, to teach him yf he be ignoraunt, to helpe him in all his trouble, to heale his sycknes, to forgeue him his offences, and that hartely, to fede him, to cherish him, to care for him, and to se ỹ he wante nothyng. And on this behalfe I beseke the (thou ỹ hast ỹ ryches of this worlde, and louest God with thy harte) to lyfte vp thyne eyes, and se how greate a multitude of poore people renne thorow euery towne: haue pitie on thyne awne flesh, helpe them with a good harte, and do with thy councell all that euer thou canst, that this vnshamefast beggynge maye be put downe, that these ydle folkes maye be set to laboure, & that soch as are not able to get theyr lyuynge, maye be prouyded for. At the leest thou ỹ art of councell with soch as are in auctorite, geue them some occasyon to cast theyr heades together, and to make prouysyon for the poore. But the in remembraunce of those noble citees in other countrees, that by the auctorite of theyr princes haue so richely & well prouided for theyr poore people, to the greate shame & dishonestye of vs, yf we lykewyse receauynge ỹ worde of God, shewe not soch lyke frutes therof. wolde God ỹ those men (whose office is to mayntayne ỹ comon welth) were as diligent in this cause as they are in other. Let vs bewarre by tymes, for after vnthankfulnes there foloweth euer a plage: the mercyful hande of God be with vs, & defende vs that we be not partakers therof.

Go to now (most deare reader) & syt the downe at the Lordes fete and reade his wordes, & (as Moses teacheth the Jewes) take them in to theyr herte, & let thy talkynge & communicacion be of them whan thou sytteste in thyne house, or goest by ỹ waye, whan thou lyest downe, & whan thou ryseth vp. And aboue all thynges fassyon thy lyfe, & conuersacion acordyng to the doctryne of the holy goost therin, that thou mayest be partaker of ỹ good promyses of god in the Bible, & be heyre of his blessynge in Christ. In whom yf thou put thy trust, & be an vnfayned reader or hearer of hys worde with thy hert, thou shalt fynde swetenesse theryn, & spye wonderous thynges, to thy vnderstondynge, to the auoydynge of all seditious sectes, to the abhorrynge of thy olde synfull lyfe, & to the stablyshynge of thy godly conuersacyon. Deute. 6. a.

In the first boke of Moses (called Genesis) thou mayest lerne to knowe the almightye power of god in creatynge all of naught, his infinite wysdome in ordrynge the same, his ryghteousnes in punyshynge ỹ vngodly, his loue & fatherly mercy in comfortynge the righteous with his promes. &c.

In the seconde boke (called Exodus) we se the myghtye arme of god, in delyuerynge his people from so greate bondage out of Egypte, and what prouysyon he maketh for them in the wildernes, how he teacheth them with his wholsome worde and how the Tabernacle was made and set vp.

In the thyrde boke (called Leuiticus) is declared what sacrifices the prestes & Leuites vsed, and what theyr office & ministracyon was.

In the fourth boke (called Numerus) is declared how the people are nombred and mustred, how the captaynes are chosen after ỹ trybes & kynreds, how they wente forth to ỹ battayll, how they pitched theyr tentes, & how they brake vp.

The fyfth boke (called Deuteronomium) sheweth how that Moses now beynge olde, rehearseth the lawe of god vnto ỹ people, putteth them in remembraunce agayne of all the wonders & benefices that god had shewed for them, and exhorteth them earnestly to loue ỹ Lorde theyr god, to cleue vnto him, to put their trust in him and to herken vnto his voyce.

After the death of Moses doth Josue bryng the people in to the lõde of promes where God doth wonderous thynges for his people by Josue, which distributeth ỹ londe vnto them, vnto euery trybe theyr possession. But in theyr wealth they forgat the goodnes of God, so that oft tymes he gaue thẽ ouer in to the hande of theyr enemies. Neuertheles whan so euer they called faithfully vpon him, and conuerted, he delyuered them agayne, as the boke of Judges declareth.

In the bokes of the kynges, is described the regiment of good and euell prynces, and how the decaye of all nacions commeth by euel kynges. For in Jeroboam thou seyst what myschefe, what ydolatrye & soch like abhominacyon foloweth, whã the kynge is a mayntayner of false doctryne, ãd causeth the people to synne agaynst God, which fallinge awaye from gods worde, increased so sore amonge them, that it was the cause of all theyr sorowe and misery, & the very occasion why Israel first and then Juda, were caryed awaye in to captyuite. Agayne, in Josaphat, in Ezechias and in Josias thou seyst the nature of a vertuous kynge. He putteth downe the houses of ydolatrye, seyth that his prestes teach nothynge but ỹ lawe of God, cõ naundeth his lordes to go with them, and to se that they teach the people. In these kynges (I saye) thou seyst the cõdicyon of a true defender of ỹ fayth, for he spareth nether cost ner laboure, to mantayne the lawes of God, to seke the welth & prosperite of his people, and to rote out the wicked. And where soch a prince is, thou seyst agayne, how God defendeth him and his people, though he haue neuer so many enemyes. Thus wente it with thẽ in the olde tyme, and euen after ỹ same maner goeth it now with vs: God be praysed therfore, ãd graunte vs of his fatherly mercy, that we be not vnthankfull: lest where he now geueth vs a Josaphat, an Ezechias, yee a very Josias, he sende vs a Pharao, a Jeroboam, or an Achab. 2. Par. 17. b.

In the two first bokes of Esdras & in Hester thou seyst the delyueraunce of the people, which though they were but fewe, yet is it vnto vs all a speciall cõforte, for so moch as God is not forgetfull of his promes, but bryngeth them out of captiuite, acordynge as he had tolde them before.

In the boke of Job we lerne comforte and pacience, in that God not onely punysheth the wicked, but proueth & tryeth the iust and righteous (howbeit there is noman innocent in his sighte) by dyuerse troubles in this lyfe, declaryng therby, ỹ they are not his bastardes, but his deare sonnes, and that he loueth them.

In the Psalmes we lerne how to resorte onely vnto God in all oure troubles, to seke helpe at him, to call onely vpon him, to satle oure myndes by pacẽce, & how we ought in prosperite to be thankfull vnto him,

The Prouerbes and the Preacher of Salomon teach vs wysdome, to knowe God, oure owne selues, and the worlde, and how vayne all thynges are, saue onely to cleue vnto God.

As for the doctryne of the Prophetes, what is it els, but an earnest exhortacion to eschue synne, & to turne vnto God: a faythfull promes of the mercy ãd pardon of God, vnto all them ỹ turne vnto him, and a threatenyng of his wrath to the vngodly: saynge that here and there they prophecye also manifestly of Christ, of ỹ expulsion of the Jewes, and callynge of the Heythen.

Thus moch thought I to speake of ỹ olde Testament, wherin almyghtie God apeneth vnto vs his myghtye power, his wysdome, his louynge mercy & righteousnesse: for the which cause it oughte of no man ts be abhorred, despysed, or lyghtly regarded, as though it were an olde scripture ỹ nothyng belõged vnto vs, or ỹ now were to be refused. For it is Gods true scripture & testimony, which the Lorde Jesus commaundeth the Jewes to search. who so euer beleueth not the scripture, beleueth not Christ, and who so refuseth it, refuseth God also. Jo. 5. d

The New Testament or Gospell, is a manyfest and cleare testymony of Christ how God performeth his ooth and promes made in the olde Testament, how the New is declared and included in the Olde, and the Olde fulfylled and verifyed in the New.

Now where as the moſt famous interpreters of all geue ſondrye iudgmentes of the texte (ſo farre as it is done by ỹ ſpirete of knowlege in the holy gooſt) me thynke noman ſhulde be offended there at, for they referre theyr doinges in mekenes to the ſpirete of trueth in the congregacyon of god: & ſure I am, that there commeth more knowlege and vnderſtondinge of the ſcripture by theyr ſondrie tranſlacyons, then by all the gloſes of oure ſophiſticall doctours. For that one interpreteth ſomthynge obſcurely in one place, the ſame tranſlateth another (or els he him ſelfe) more manifeſtly by a more playne vocable of the ſame meanyng in another place. Be not thou offended therfore (good Reader) though one call a ſcrybe, that another calleth a lawyer: or elders, that another calleth father & mother: or repentaunce, that another calleth pennaunce or amendment. For yf thou be not diſceaued by mens tradicõs, thou ſhalt fynde nomore dyuerſite betwene theſe termes then betwene foure pens and a grote. And this maner haue I vſed in my tranſlacyon, callyng it in ſome place pennaunce, that in another place I call repentaunce, and that not onely becauſe the interpreters haue done ſo before me, but that the aduerſaries of the trueth maye ſe, how that we abhorre not this worde pẽnaunce (as they vntruly report of vs) no more then the interpreters of latyn abhorre penitere, whan they reade reſipiſcere. Onely oure hertes deſyre vnto God, is, that his people be not blynded in theyr vnderſtondyng, leſt they beleue pennaunce to be ought ſaue a very repẽtaunce, amẽdment, or conuerſyon vnto God, and to be an vnfayned new creature in Chriſt, and to lyue accordyng to his lawe. For yf ſhall they fal in to the olde blaſphemy of Chriſtes bloude, and beleue, that they thẽ ſelues are able to make ſatiſfaccion vnto God for theyr awne ſynnes, from the which erroure god of his mercy and plẽteous goodnes preſerue all his.

Now to conclude: for ſo moch as all the ſcripture is wrytten for thy doctryne & enſample, it ſhalbe neceſſary for the, to take holde vpon it, whyle it is offred the, yee and with ten handes thankfully to receaue it. And though it be not worthely miniſtred vnto the in this tranſlacyon (by reaſon of my rudnes) yet yf thou be feruẽt in thy prayer, God ſhal not onely ſende it the in a better ſhappe, by the myniſtracyon of other that beganne it afore, but ſhall alſo moue the hertes of them, which as yet medled not withall, to take it in hande, and to beſtowe the gifte of theyr vnderſtondynge theron, as well in oure language as other famous interpreters do in other languages. And I praye God, that thorow my poore miniſtracyon here in, I maye geue them that can do better, ſome occaſyon ſo to do: exhortyng the (moſt deare reader) in the meane whyle on Gods behalfe, yf thou be a heade, a Iudge, or ruler of ỹ people, that thou let not the boke of this lawe departe out of thy mouth, but exerciſe thyſelfe therin both daye and nyghte, and be euer readyng in it as longe as thou lyueſt: that thou mayeſt lerne to feare the Lorde thy God, & not to turne aſyde from the commaundement, nether to the right hande ner to the lefte: leſt thou be a knower of perſonnes in iudgmẽt, and wreſt the righte of the ſtraunger, of the fatherles or of the wedowe, and ſo ỹ curſe to come vpon the. But what office ſo euer thou haſt wayte vpon it, and execute it, to the mayntenaunce of peace, to the welth of thy people, defendynge the lawes of God, and the louers therof, and to the deſtruccyon of the wicked.

yf thou be a preacher, and haſt the ouerſighte of the flocke of Chriſt, awake and fede Chriſtes ſhepe with a good herte, & ſpare no laboure to do them good, ſeke not thy ſelfe, & bewarre of fylthy lucre/but be vnto ỹ flocke an enſample, in ỹ worde, in cõuerſacyon, in loue, in feruentnes of ỹ ſpirete, and be euer readynge, exhortynge, & teachynge in Gods worde, that the people of God renne not vnto other doctrynes and leſt thou thy ſelfe (whan thou ſhuldeſt teach other) be founde ignoraunt therin And rather then thou woldeſt teach the people eny other thynge then Gods worde take the boke in thyne hande, & reade the wordes cuẽ as they ſtonde therin (for it is no ſhame ſo to do, it is more ſhame to make a lye) This I ſaye for ſoch, as are not yet experte in the ſcripture, for I reproue no preachyng without the boke as longe as they ſaye the trueth.

yf thou be a man that hast wyfe and childre, first loue thy wyfe, accordynge to the ensample of the loue, wherwith Christ loued the cõgregacion, and remembre that so doynge, thou louest euen thyselfe: yf thou hate her, thou hatest thine awne flesh: yf thou cherishe her and make moch of her, thou cherisest & makest moch of thyselfe for she is bone of thy bones, & flesh of thy flesh. And who so euer thou be that hast childre, bryng them vp in the nurtour and informacion of the Lorde. And yf thou be ignorant, or art otherwyse occupied lawfully that thou canst not teach them thy selfe, then be euen as diligent to seke a good master for thy childre, as thou wast to seke a mother to beare them: for there lieth as great weight in the one as in ỹ other. yee better it were for thẽ to be vnborne, then not to feare God, or to be euel brought vp. which thynge (I meane bryngynge vp well of childre) yf it be diligently loked to, it is the vpholdinge of all comon welthes: and the negligence of the same, the very decaye of all realmes. Ephe. 5.c. Ephe. 6.a.

Fynally, who so euer thou be, take these wordes of scripture in to thy herte, and be not onely an outwarde hearer, but a doer therafter, and practyse thyselfe therin: that thou mayest fele in thine hert, the swete promyses therof for thy consolacion in all trouble, & for the sure stablyshinge of thy hope in Christ, and haue euer an eye to ỹ wordes of scripture, that yf thou be a teacher of other thou mayest be within the boundes of the trueth, or at the leest though thou be but an hearer or reader of another mans doynges, thou mayest yet haue knowlege to iudge all spretes, and be fre from euery errour, to the vtter destruccion of all sedicious sectes & straunge doctrynes, that the holy scrypture maye haue fre passage, and be had in reputacion, to the worshippe of the author therof, which is euen God himselfe: to whom for his most blessed worde be glory & dompnion now & euer.

Amen.

The IIII. Chapter.

A MOreouer Adam laye with Heua his wyfe, which cōceaued & bare Cain, and sayde, I haue opteyned ye man of the LORDE. And she proceaded forth, & bare his brother Abell. And Abell became a shepherde, but Cain became an husbande man.

And it fortuned after certaine daies, that Cain brought of the frute of the earth, an offrynge vnto ye LORDE. And Abell brought also of the firstlinges of his shepe, and of ye fat of them. And the LORDE had respecte vnto Abell and to his offerynge: but vnto Cain and his offerynge he loked not. Then was Cain exceadinge wroth, and his countenaunce chaunged. And Cain laye with his wyfe, which conceaued and bare Henoch. And he buylded a cite, and called it after the name of his sonne Henoch. And Henoch begat Irad, Irad begat Mahuiael. Mahuiael begat Mathusael. Mathusael begat Lamech.

And Lamech toke him two wynes: ye one was called Ada, & the other Zilla. And Ada bare Jabel, of whom came they that dwelt in tentes and had catell. And his brothers name was Juball: Of him came they that occupied harpes & pypes. And Zilla she also bare Tubalcain, a worker in all connynge poyntes of metall & yron. And Tubalcains sister was called Naema.

The VI. Chapter.

SO whan men beganne to multiplie vpon the earth, and had begot them doughters, the children of God sawe the doughters of men, that they were fayre, and toke vnto thē wyues soch as they liked. Then sayde ỳ LORDE: My sprete shal not allwaye stryue with man, for he is but flesh also. I wil yet geue him respyte an hundreth and twēty yeares. There were giauntes also in the worlde at that tyme. For whan the children of God had lyen with the doughters of men, and begotten them children, ỳ same (children) became mightie in the worlde, and men of renowne. A 1.Pet.3.c

But whan the LORDE sawe ỳ the wickednes of man was increased vpon ỳ earth, and that all ỳ thought and imaginacion of their hert was but onely euell contynually, it repented him, that he had made man vpon the earth, and he sorowed in his hert, and sayde: I wyll destroye man kynde which I haue made, from the earth: both man, beest, worme, and foule vnder the heauen: for it repenteth me, that I haue made them. Neuertheles Noe founde grace in the sight of the LORDE. B 1.Re.15.c Esa.42.c

This is ỳ generacion of Noe. Noe was a righteous and parfecte mā, and led a godly life in his tyme, and begat thre sonnes: Sem, Ham and Japhet. Notwithstondinge ỳ earth was corrupte in ỳ sight of God, and full of myscheue. Then God loked vpon ỳ earth: and lo, it was corrupte (for all flesh had corrupte his waye vpon the earth.) Eccl.44.b

Then sayde God vnto Noe: Then ende of all flesh is come before me, for the earth is full of myscheue before them. And lo, I wyll destroye them with the earth. Make the an Arcke of pyne tre, and make chambers in it, C and pitch it within and without with pitch and make it after this fashion: The length shal be thre hundreth cubites, the bredth fiftie cubites, and the heyght thirtie cubites. A wyndow shalt thou make aboue of a cubyte greate: but the dore shalt thou set in the myddest in the syde of it: And the Arke shalt thou make with thre lofte one aboue another. For lo, I wyll bringe a floude of water vpon the earth, to destroye all flesh (wherin the breth of life is) vnder the heauē: All that is vpon earth, shal perisshe.

D But with the wyll I make a couenaunt, and thou shalt go in to the Arcke with thy sonnes, with thy wyfe, and with thy sonnes wyues. And of all creatures what so euer flesh it be, thou shalt bringe in to the Arcke, euen a payre: the male and the female, that they maye lyue wt the: Of foules after their kynde, of beastes after their kynde, and of all maner wormes of the earth after their kinde. Of euery one of these shal there a payre go in vnto the, that they maye lyue. And thou shalt take vnto the all maner of meate that maye be eaten, and shalt laye it vp in stoare by the, that it maye be meate for the and them. And Noe dyd acordinge to all that God commaunded him.

The VII. Chapter.

A AND ỹ LORDE sayde vnto Noe: Go in to the Arcke thou & thy whole house: for the haue I sene righteous before me at this tyme. Of all cleane beastes take vnto the seuen and seuen, the male and his female. And of vncleane beastes a payre, the male and his female. Like wyse of the foules vnder the heauen, seuen and seuen, the male and his female, that there maye be sede left a lyue vpon the whole earth.

a. Pet. 2. b
Leuit. 11. a

For yet after seuen dayes, I wil sende raine vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, and wyll destroye all maner of thinges that I haue made, from of the face of the earth.

And Noe dyd all that the LORDE com B
maunded him. Sixe hūdreth yeare olde was he, whan the water floude came vpon earth. And he wente in to the Arcke, with his sonnes, his wyfe, and his sonnes wyues, for the waters of the floude. Of cleane beastes and of vncleane, of all fethered foules, & of all that crepeth vpon earth, wente in vnto him to the Arcke by pares, a male and a female, as ỹ LORDE cōmaunded him. And whan the seuen dayes were past, the water floude came vpon the earth. Matt. Luc.

In the sixe hundreth yeare of Noes age, vpon the seuentene daye of the seconde moneth, that same daye were all ỹ fountaynes of the greate depe broken vp, and the wyndowes of heauen were opened, and there came a rayne vpon ỹ earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes.

Vpon the selfe same daye wēte Noe in to C
the Arcke, with Sem, Ham and Japhet his sonnes, and with his wyfe, and the thre wyues of his sonnes, and all maner of beastes after their kynde, all maner of catell after their kynde, all maner of crepynge thinges (that crepe vpō the earth) after their kynde, and all maner of foules (what so euer coude flye & what so euer had fethers) after their kynde: These wente all vnto Noe in to the Arcke by cooples, of all flesh in whom was the breth of life. And these were the male & the female of all maner of flesh, and wente in, acordinge as God commaūded him. And the LORDE shut (the dore) vpon him.

Then came the water floude fourtie dayes vpon the earth, and the water increased, and bare vp the Arcke, and lift it vp ouer ỹ earth. Thus the water preuayled, and increased sore vpon the earth, so that the Arcke wente vpon the waters. Yee the waters preuayled and increased so sore vpon earth, that all the hye mountaynes vnder the whole heauen were couered. Fyftene cubytes hye preuayled ỹ waters ouer the mountaynes, which were couered. D Eccli.

Then all flesh that crepte vpon earth, perisshed, both foules, catell, beastes, and all ỹ moued vpon earth, and all men. What so euer had the breth of life vpon the drye londe, dyed. C

Thus was destroyed all that was vpon the earth, both man and beast, both wormes and foules vnder ỹ heauē: all these were destroyed from the earth, Saue Noe onely remayned, and they that were with him in the Arcke. And the waters preuayled vpon the earth, an hundreth and fiftie dayes. Sap. xi

The VIII. Chapter.

A THen God remembred Noe and all the beastes, and all the catell that were with him in the Arcke, and caused a wynde to come vpon the earth: and ỳ waters ceassed, and the fountaynes of the depe and the wyndowes of heauen were stopte, and therayne of heauē was forbydden, and the waters ranne styll awaye from ỳ earth, and decreased after an hundreth and fiftye dayes.

Vpon the seuentene daye of the seuenth moneth rested the Arcke vpon the mountaynes of Ararat. And the waters wēte awaye and decreased vntyll the tenth moneth: for the first daye of the tenth moneth, the toppes of the mountaynes appeared.

Afcer fourtie dayes Noe opened ỳ wyndow of the Arcke which he had made, & sent forth a rauen, which flew out, and + came agayne, vntyll the waters were dryed vp vpō the earth.

B Then sent he forth a doue from him, to wete, whether the waters were fallē vpon the earth. But when ỳ doue coude fynde no restynge place for hir fete, she came agayne vnto him in to the Arcke, for the waters were yet vpon the face of all the earth. And he put out his hande, and toke her to him in to the Arke.

Then he abode yet seuen dayes mo, & sent out the doue agayne out of the Arke: & she returned vnto him aboute the euen tyde: and beholde, she had broken of a leaf of an olyue tre, & bare it in hir nebb. Then Noe perceaued, that the waters were abated vpon the earth. Neuertheles he taried yet seuen other dayes, and sent forth the doue, which came nomore to him agayne.

In the sixte hundreth and one yeare of Noes age, vpon the first daye of ỳ first moneth, the waters were dryed vp vpon the earth. Then Noe toke of the hatches of the Arke, and sawe ỳ the face of the earth was drye. So vpon the seuen and twentye daye of the seconde moneth the whole earth was drye.

Then spake God vnto Noe, and sayde:

C Go out of the Arke, thou and thy wyfe, and thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wyues with the. As for all the beastes that are with the, what so euer flesh it be (both foule & catell and all maner of wormes that crepe vpon the earth) let them go out with the, and be ye occupied vpon the earth, growe and multiplye vpon the earth.

So Noe wente out, with his sonnes, and with his wife, and with his sonnes wyues. All the beastes also and all the wormes, and all the foules, and all that crepte vpon the earth, wente out of the Arke, euery one vnto his like.

And Noe buylded an altare vnto ỳ LORDE, and toke of all maner of cleane beastes & of all maner of cleane foules, and offred brēt sacrifices vpon ỳ altare. And ỳ LORDE smelled the swete sauō, & sayde in his hert: I wyl hence forth curse the earth nomore for mās sake, for the ymaginacion of mans hert is euell, euen from the very youth of him. Therfore from hēce forth I wil nomore smyte all that lyueth, as I haue done. Neuer shall sowynge tyme and harueste, colde & heate Sommer and wynter, daye and nyght ceasse so longe as the earth endureth.

The sonnes of Noe which wente out of the Arke, are these: Sem, Ham and Japhet. As for Ham, he is the father of Canaā. These are Noes thre sonnes, of whom all londes were ouerspred.

D Noe beganne to take hede vnto ỹ tyllinge of the grounde, & planted a vyniarde. And Thē tooke Sem and Japhet a mantell and put it vpō both their shulders, and wente backwarde, and couered their fathers secretes: & their faces were turned aside, ỹ they shulde not se their fathers preuyties.

So whan Noe awaked from his wyne, and perceaued what his yonger sonne had done vnto him, he sayde: Cursed be Canaan, and a seruaunt of seruauntes be he vnto his brethren. He sayde moreouer: Prayse be the LORDE God of Sem, and Canaan be his seruaunt. God increase Japhet, and let him dwell in the tentes of Sem, and Canaan be his seruaunt.

And Noe lyued after the floude thre hundreth & fiftie yeare, so ỹ his whole age was ix. hūdreth and fyftie yeare, and so he dyed.

The X. Chapter.

THis is the generacion of the childrē of Noe, Sem, Ham, and Japhet, & they begat children after the floude. A

The children of Japhet are these: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Jauan, Tubal, Mesech and Thyras. The childrē of Gomer are these: Ascenas, Riphat and Togarma. The children of Jauan are these: Elisa, Tharsis, Cithim and Dodanim: Of these are deuided the Iles of ỹ Heithen in their countrees, euery one after his speach, kynred and people. 1. Par.

The childrē of Ham are these: Chus, Misraim, Phut and Canaan. The children of Chus are these: Seba, Heuila Sabtha, Reyma and Sabthecha.

The children of Reyma are these: Sheba B and Dedā. Chus also begat Nemrod, which beganne to be mightie in the earth, and was a mightie hunter in the sight of the LORDE. Therof commeth the prouerbe: This is a mightie hunter before the LORDE like as Nemrod. And the origenall of his kyngdome was Babel, Erech, Acad & Chalne in ỹ londe of Synear. Out of that lōde came Assur, and buylded Ninive, and ỹ stretes of ỹ cite, and Calah, and Ressen betwene Ninyue & Calah: This is a greate cite. Mizraim begat Ludim, Enamim, Leabim, Naphtuhim, Pathrusim & Casluhim, from whence came the Philistynes and Capthorims. Canaā also begat Zidon his eldest sonne, & Heth, Jebusi, Emori, Girgosi, Hiui, Arki, Sini, Arnadi, Zemari & Hamati: frō whence ỹ kynreds of ỹ Cananites are dispersed abrode. And ỹ Coastes of ỹ Cananites were frō Sidō forth thorow Gerar vnto Gasa, tyll thou cōmest vnto Sodoma, Gomorra, Adama, Zeboim, & vnto Lasa. These are the children of Ham in their kynreds, tunges, londes & people. And Sem which is ỹ father of all the children of Eber, & the elder brother of Japhet, begat childrē also. And thesē are his children: Elā, Assur, Arphachad, Lud & Aram. The childrē of Aram are these: Vz, Hul, Gether & Mas.

Gene. Deu. 32. a

Ionas

D And Arphachsad begat Sala, and Sala begat Eber. Eber begat two sonnes: the name of the one was Peleg, because that in his tyme the worlde was deuyded, and his brothers name was Jaketan. And Jaketan begat Almodad, Saleph, Hazarmaphet, Jarah, Hadoram, Vsal, Dikela, Obal, Abimael, Seba, Ophir, Heuila & Jobab: All these are ỹ childrē of Jaketan. And their dwellynge was from Mesa, tyll thou come vnto Sephar a mountayne of ỹ east. These are ỹ children of Sem in their generacions, tunges, londes and people.

This is now ỹ generacion of ỹ children of Noe in their kynredes & people. Of these were ỹ people vpon earth spred a brode after ỹ floude. The XI. Chapter.

A MOreouer all the worlde had one tonge & language. Now as they wente* towarde the East, they founde a playne in ỹ londe of Synear, & there they dwelt, & saide one to another: Come on, let vs make bryck & burne it. And they toke bryck for stone, & slyme for morter. And sayde: Come, let vs buylde a cite & a tower, whose toppe maye reach vnto heauē, ỹ we maye make vs a name, afore we be scatred abrode in all londes. Then came ỹ LORDE downe, to se ỹ cite & tower, ỹ ỹ childrē of mē had buylded. And ỹ LORDE saide: Beholde, the people is one, & haue one maner of language amōge thē all, & this haue they begonne to do, & wil not leaue of from all ỹ they haue purposed to do. Come on, let vs go downe, & cōfounde their tonge euē there, ỹ one vnderstonde not what another saieth. Thus ỹ LORDE scatred thē frō thēce in all lōdes, so ỹ they left of to buylde the cite. Therfore is it called Babell, because the LORDE cōfounded there the language of all the worlde, and from thēce scatred them abrode in to all londes.

These are ỹ generacions of Sem. Sem was an hundreth yeare olde, and begat Arphachsad two yeare after the floude, and lyued therafter fyue hūdreth yeare, and begat sonnes and doughters.

Arphachsad was fiue & thirtie yeare olde, and begat Salah, and lyued therafter foure hundreth and thre yeare, and begat sonnes & doughters.

C Salah was thirtie yeare olde, and begat Eber, & lyued therafter foure hūdreth & thre yeare, & begat sonnes and doughters.

Eber was foure and thirtie yeare olde, & begat Peleg, and lyued therafter foure hundreth and thirtie yeare, and begat sonnes & doughters.

Peleg was thirtie yeare olde, and begat Regu, and lyued therafter two hūdreth and nyene yeare, and begat sonnes & doughters.

Regu was two and thirtie yeare olde, and begat Serug, and lyued therafter two hundreth and seuen yeare, and begat sonnes and doughters.

Serug was thirtie yeare olde, and begat Nahor, and lyued therafter two hundreth yeare, and begat sonnes & doughters.

Nahor was nyene and twentye yeare olde, and begat Terah, and lyued herafter an hundreth and nyentene yeare, and begat sonnes and doughters.

Terah was seuentie yeare olde, and begat Abram, Nahor and Haran. D

These are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor and Haran. And Haran begat Lot, but Harā dyed before Terah his father in ỹ londe where he was borne, at Vr in Chaldea. Iosu. 24. a 1. Par. 1. b

Then Abram and Nahor toke them wynes. Abrams wife was called Sarai, & Nahors wyfe Milca the doughter of Haran, which was father of Milca and Jisca. But Sarai was baren, and had no childe. Gen. 20. c Gen. 22. d

Then toke Terah Abrā his sonne, & Lot his sonne Harans sonne, & Sarai his doughter in lawe, his sonne Abrams wife, & caried them wt him from Vr in Chaldea, to go in to the lande of Canaan. And they came to Haran, & dwelt there. And Terah was two hundreth & fyue yeare olde, and dyed in Haran. Iosu. 24. a 2. Esd 9. b Iudit 5. b

The XII. Chapter.

AND ỹ LORDE sayde vnto Abram: Get the out of thy countre, and from thy kynred, and out of thy fathers house, in to a londe which I wil shew the. And I wil make of the a mightie people, and wyll blesse the, and make the a greate name, yee thou shalt be a very blessynge. I wil blesse them that blesse the, and curse them that curse the: and in the shal all the generacions of the earth be blessed. A Actō. 7. a Gen. 27. c Gene. 18. Gen. 22. c Actō. 3. c

Then wente Abram out, as the LORDE commaunded him, and Lot wente with him. Fyue & seuentie yeare olde was Abrā, whan he wente out of Haran. So Abram toke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers sonne, wt all their goodes which they had gotten, and soules which they begat in Harā, and departed to go in to ỹ londe of Canaan. And wht they were come in to the same londe, he wente thorow, tyll he came vnto the place of Sichem, and vnto the Okegroue of More: for ỹ Cananites dwelt in ỹ lōde at ỹ same tyme. Gen. 12. b

Gen.17.a

ꝛ sayde: This londe wil I geue vnto ẏ sede. And there he buylded an aulter vnto ẏ LORDE, which appeared vnto him. Thē brake he vp frō thēce, vnto a mountayne ẏ laye on ẏ east syde of the cite of Bethel, ꝛ pitched his tent: so ẏ he had Bethel on the west side, and Ay on ẏ east syde: ꝛ there buylded he an altare also vnto the LORDE, ꝛ called vpon the name of the LORDE. Afterwarde departed Abram farther, ꝛ toke his iourneye southwarde. But there came a derth in the londe.

C Then wente Abram downe in to Egipte to kepe himself there as a straunger, for the derth was sore in the londe. And whan he was come nye for to entre in to Egipte, he sayde vnto Sarai his wife: Beholde, I knowe ẏ thou art a fayre woman to loke vpon.

Gen. 20.a and 26.a

Now whan the Egipcians se the, they wil saye: She is his wife, and so shal they slaye me, and saue the alyue. Therfore (I pray ẏ) saye thou art my sister, that I maye fare the better by reason of the, and that my soule maye lyue for thy sake.

D Now whan he came in to Egipte, ẏ Egipcians sawe ẏ woman, ẏ she was very faire: ꝛ Pharaos princes sawe her also, ꝛ praysed her before him. Then was she brought in to Pharaos house, and Abram was well intreated for hir sake: and he had shepe, oxē, and he Asses, seruauntes, maydēs, she Asses and Camels.

Esa.43.a

But ẏ LORDE plaged Pharao ꝛ his house wt greate plages, because of Sarai Abrās wife. Then Pharao called Abrā vnto him, and sayde: Why hast thou dealt thus wt me? Wherfore toldest thou not me at the first, ẏ she was thy wife? Why saydest thou then, that she was ẏ sister? Wherfore I toke her to my wife. And now lo, there is ẏ wife, take her, and go thy waye. He gaue his officers also a charge ouer him, to conveye him out, and his wife, and all that he had.

The XIIII. Chapter.

A SO Abrā departed out of Egipte, wt his wife, ꝛ with all ẏ he had, ꝛ Lot wt him also, towarde ẏ south. Abram was very rich in catell, siluer ꝛ golde. And he wente on forth from the south vnto Bethel, vnto the place where his tent was at ẏ first, betwene Bethel and Ay: euen vnto ẏ place where he had made the altare before, ꝛ where he called vpon the name of the LORDE Lot also which wente with him, had shepe, greate catell ꝛ tentes: so ẏ the londe was not able to receaue them, that they might dwell together: for the substaunce of their riches was so greate, that they coude not dwell together. And there fell a strife betwene the hirdmen of Abrams catell, and the hirdmen of Lots catell. The Cananites also and the Pheresites dwelt at that tyme in the londe.

Gen.13.a

Then sayde Abram vnto Lot: O let there be no strife betwene me and the, and betwene my hyrdmen and thine, for we are brethrē. Is not all the whole londe open before the? Departe fro me, I praye the. Yf thou wilt go to the left hande, I wil take the right: Or yf thou wilt go to the right hande, I wil take the left. Then Lot lift vp his eyes, and beheld all the countre rounde aboute Jordā, that it was a plenteous countre of water. For before the LORDE destroyed Sodoma and Gomorra, it was rounde aboute Zoar, euen as the pleasaunt garden of the LORDE, and as the londe of Egipte.

Then Lot chose all the coastes of Jordā, C and toke his iourney towarde ẏ East. And so the one brother departed from the other. Abram dwelt in the lande of Canaan, and Lot in the cities of the same coastes, and pitched his tent towarde Sodome. But ẏ men of Sodome were wicked, and synned exceadingly agaynst the LORDE.

Ezz

Now whan Lot was departed from Abram, the LORDE saide vnto Abram: Lift vp thine eyes, and loke from the place where thou dwellest, northwarde, southwarde, D eastwarde, and westwarde: for all the londe that thou seist, wyll I geue vnto the and to thy sede for euer, and wyll make thy sede as the dust of the earth: so that yf a man can nombre the dust of the earth, he shall nombre thy sede also. Arise, and go thorow the londe, in the length and bredth, for I wyl geue it vnto the.

Act

So Abram remoued his tent, and wente and dwelt in ẏ Okegroue of Mamre, which is in Ebron, and buylded there an altare vnto the LORDE.

The XIIII. Chapter.

AND it chaunsed in the tyme of Amraphel the kynge of Synear, Arioch A the kynge of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer the kinge of Elam, & Thydeal the kynge of ỹ heithen, That they made warre wt Bera ỹ kynge of Sodome, and wt Birsa the kynge of Gomorra, & with Sineab the kynge of Adama, & with Semeaber the kynge of Zeboim, and with the kynge of Bela, which is called Zoar. These came all together in to the brode valley, where now the salt see is: for twolue yeares were they subiectes vnto kinge Kedorlaomer, & in the thirteenth yeare they fell from him. Therfore in the fourteenth yeare came Kedorlaomer, and the kynges ỹ were with him, & smote the Giauntes in Astaroth Karnaim, & Susim at Ham, & Emim in the felde of Kiriathaim, and ỹ Horites in their owne mount Seir vnto the playne of Pharan, which bordreth vpō the wildernes. And then they turned, & came to the well of iudgment (which is Cades) & smote all the countre of the Amalechites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon Thamar.

B Then wente out the kynge of Sodome, & the kynge of Gomorra, & the kynge of Adama, and the kynge of Zeboim, and the kynge of Bela (called Zoar) & prepared them selues to fight in the brode valley wt Kedorlaomer the kynge of Elam, & with Thideal ỹ kynge of the heithen, & with Amraphel ỹ kynge of Synear, & with Arioch the kynge of Ellasar: foure kynges wt fyue. And ỹ brode valley had many slyme pyttes. But the kynge of Sodoma and Gomorra were put to flight, & fell there, & the residue fled vnto ỹ mountaynes. Then toke they all the goodes at Sodoma and Gomorra, & all their vytales, & wente their waye. They toke Lot also Abrams brothers sonne, & his good (for he dwelt at Sodome) and departed.

C Then came one that had escaped, and tolde Abram the Aleaunt, which dwelt in the Okegrone of Mamre the Amorite, which was the brother of Escol & Aner: for these were confederate with Abram.

Now whan Abram herde ỹ his brother was taken, he harnessed his bonde seruauntes borne in his owne house, three hundreth & eightene, & folowed after them vntill Dan, & deuyded thē, & fell vpō them by night wt his seruauntes, and smote thē, and chased them awaye vnto Hoba, which lieth on ỹ left hande of the cite of Damascos, and brought agayne all the goodes, and also his brother Lot, and his goodes, ỹ wemen also and the people. And as he came agayne from the slaughter of Kedorlaomer & of the kinges that were with him, the kynge of Sodome wente to mete him in to the playne felde, which is called kynges dale. Num 31.b

D But Melchisedech the kynge of Salem brought forth bred and wyne. And he beynge the prest of the most hye God, blessed him and sayde: Blessed be thou Abram vnto the most hye God possessor of heauen and earth. And praysed be God the Hyest, which hath delyuered thine enemies in to thy handes. And Abram gaue him tythes of all. Hebr. 7.a

Then sayde the kynge of Sodome vnto Abram: Geue me the soules, and take ỹ goodes vnto thy self. But Abram sayde vnto the kinge of Sodome: I lift vp my honde vnto the LORDE the most hye God, possessor of heauen and earth, that I wyll not take of all that is thyne, so moch as a threde or a shue lachet, lest thou shuldest saye: I haue made Abram ryche: Saue onely that which the yonge men haue spent, and the men Aner Escol and Mamre, that wente with me, let them take their parte.

The XV. Chapter.

A IT happened after these actes, ỹ the worde of ỹ LORDE came vnto Abrā in a vysion, and sayde: Feare not Abram, I am thy shylde and thy exceadinge greate reward. But Abram sayde: LORDE LORDE, what wilt thou geue me? I go childles, and the seruaunt of my house (this Eleasar of Damascos) hath a sonne. And Abram sayde moreuer: Beholde, vnto me hast thou geuen no sede: and lo, the sonne of my housholde shal be myne heyre. And beholde, the worde of the LORDE spake vnto him, and saide: He shal not be thine heyre, but one that shal come out of thine owne body, he shal be thine heyre. And he bad him go forth, and sayde: Loke vp vnto heauen, and tell ỹ starres: Canst thou nombre them? And he sayde vnto him: *Euen so shal thy sede be. Deu. 10.d Esa. 49.d Iere. 33.d *Ro. 4.d

But Abram sayde: LORDE LORDE, Wherby shall I knowe, that I shall possesse it? And he sayde vnto him: Take a cow of three yeare olde, and a she goate of three yeare olde, and a ramme of three yeare olde, and a turtyll doue, and a yonge pigeon. And he toke all these, and deuyded them in the myddes, and layde the one parte ouer agaynst the other, but the foules deuyded he not. And the foules fell vpō the flesh, but Abram droue them awaye. But the people whō they shal serue, wyl I iudge. Afterwarde shall they go forth with greate substaunce: and thou shalt departe vnto thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good age. The XVI. Chapter.

A SArai Abrams wife bare him no children: but she had an handmayde an Egipcian, whose name was Agar, and sayde vnto Abram: Beholde, the LORDE hath closed me, that I can not beare. Go in (I praye the) vnto my mayde: peraduenture I shalbe multiplied by her, more then by myself. And Abram herkened vnto the voyce of Sarai. Than Sarai Abrams wife toke Agar hir mayde ỳ Egipcian (after they had dwelt ten yeare in the londe of Canaan) and gaue her vnto hir hußbande Abrā, to be his wife. And he wente in vnto Agar, and she conceaued. Now whan she sawe ỳ she had conceyued, she despysed hir mastresse.

Gen. 30.a

B Then sayde Sarai vnto Abram: I must suffre wronge for thy sake. I laydemy mayde by the: but now because she seyth, that she hath conceaued, I must be despysed in hir sight: the LORDE be iudge betwene me and the. And Abram sayde vnto Sarai: Beholde, thy mayde is vnder thine auctorite, do with her, as it pleaseth the.

Now whan Sarai dealt hardly wt her, she fled from her. But the angell of the LORDE founde her besyde a well of water in the wilderneße (euen by the well in the waye to Sur) and sayde vnto her: Agar Sarais maide, whence commest thou? & whyther wylt thou go? She sayde: I flie from my mastresse Sarai. And the angel of the LORDE sayde vnto her: Returne to thy mastresse agayne, and submitte thyselfe vnder hir hande.

C

And the angel of the LORDE sayde vnto her: Beholde, I wil so encreace ỳ sede, that it shall not be nembred for multitude. And the angel of the LORDE sayde further vnto her: Beholde, thou art with childe, & shalt bringe forth a sonne, and shalt call his name Ismael, because the LORDE hath herde ỳ trouble. He shal be a wylde man. His hande agaynst euery man, and euery mans hande agaynst him: and he shal dwel ouer agaynst all his brethren.

And she called the name of the LORDE ỳ spake vnto her: Thou art the God that seist me. For she sayde: Of a suertye I haue sene the backe partes of him that sawe me. Therfore called she the well: The well of the liuinge that sawe me. Which (well) is betwene Cades and Bared.

And Agar bare Abram a sonne, and Abram called his sonnes name which Agar bare him, Ismael. And Abram was foure score yeare olde and sixe, whan Agar bare him Ismael.

NOw whan Abram was nyentye yeare olde and nyene, the LORDE appeared vnto him, & sayde vnto him: * I am the allmighty God, walke before me, & be vncorrupte. And I wyll make my couenaunt betwene me & the, and wyl multiplye the exceadyngly. Then fell Abram vpon his face.

A

And God talked furthur with him, and sayde: Beholde, It is I, and haue my couenaūt with the, and thou shalt be a father of many people. Therfore shalt thou nemore be called Abram, but thy name shal be Abraham: For I haue made the a father of many nacions, & I wil multiplye the exceadingly, and wil make people of ỳ, * yee and kynges also shal come out of the. and thy sede after the thorow out their posterities, that it maye be an euerlastinge couenaunt, so that I wyll be the God of the, and of thy sede after the. And vnto the and to thy sede after the, will I gene the lande, wherin thou art a straunger: euen all the lande of Canaan for an euerlastinge possession, and will be their God.

B And God sayde moreover vnto Abraham: Kepe my couenaunt then, thou and they sede after the. This is my couenaunt which ye shal kepe betwene me and you, and thy sede after ỳ thorow out their posterites. Euery manchilde that is amonge you, shalbe circumcyded: and ye shall circumcyde the foreskynne of yo flesh. This same shalbe a token of the couenaunt betwene me and you. Enery manchilde whan it is eight dayes olde, shalbe circũcyded thorow out youre posterities: In like maner all houßholde folkes borne at home, or bought, or eny other also that is a straũger and not of thy sede. Thus shall my couenaunt be in youre flesh for an euerlastinge couenaunt. And yf there shalbe any manchilde vncircumcided in the foreskinne of his flesh, his soule shalbe roted out from his people, because he hath broken my couenaunt.

C And God sayde vnto Abraham: Sarai thy wyfe shall nomore be called Sarai, but Sara shal be hir name: for I will blesse her, and gene the a sonne of her. I wil blesse her, and people shall come of her, yee and kynges of many people. Then fell Abrahã vpõ his face, and laughed, and sayde in his hert: Shal a childe be borne vnto me that am an hundreth yeare olde? And shall Sara ỳ is nyentie yeare olde, beare? And Abrahã sayde vnto God: O that Israel might lyue in thy sight. Then sayde God: Yee euen Sara thy wyfe shall beare the a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Isaac: for with him wil I make my euerlastinge couenaunt, and with his sede after him. And as concernynge Ismael also, I have herde thy request: Beholde, I have blessed him, and will increase him, and multiplye him exceadingly. Twolue princes shal he beget, and I wyll make a greate nacion of him.

D But my couenaunt wyll I make wt Isaac, whom Sara shal beare vnto the, euẽ this tyme twolue moneth. And he left of talkynge with him, and God wente vp from Abraham. Than toke Abraham his sonne Ismael, and all the seruauntes borne in his house, and all that were bought, (as many as were men childre in his house,) and circumcyded the foreskynne of their flesh, euen the same daye, as God had sayde vnto him. And Abraham was nyentie yeare olde and nyne, whan he cut of the foreskynne of his flesh. As for Ismael, he was thirtene yeare olde, whan the foreskynne of his flesh was circumcyded. Euen vpon one daye were they all circumcyded: Abraham, and Ismael his sonne, and all the men in his house, (whether they were borne at hom, bought, or eny other straunger:) they were all circumcyded with him.

Then sayde ỹ LORDE vnto Abraham: Wherfore doth Sara laugh, and saye: Is this true in dede, that I shal beare, and yet am olde? Shulde eny soch thinge be to harde for the LORDE? Aboute this tyme (yf I lyue) I wil come to the agayne, & Sara shal haue a sonne. Then Sara denyed it, and sayde: I laughed not, for she was afrayed. But he sayde: It is not so, thou dyddest laughe. Then the men stode vp from thence, and turned them towarde Sodome: and Abraham wente with them, to bringe them on their waye.

C Then sayde the LORDE: How can I hyde fro Abraham, ỹ thinge that I wil do? seynge he shal be a greate and mightie people, and all ỹ people vpō earth shalbe blessed in him? For I knowe him that he wil cōmaunde his children and his housholde after him, to kepe the waye of ỹ LORDE, and to do after right and conscience, that the LORDE maye bringe vpō Abraham what he hath promised him. And the LORDE sayde: There is a crie at Sodome and Gomorra, which is greate, & their synnes are exceadinge greuous: therfore will I go downe & se, whether they haue done all together, acordinge to that crye, which is come before me, or not, that I maye knowe. And the men turned their face, and wēte towarde Sodome. But Abraham stode still before ỹ LORDE, and stepte vnto him, and sayde:

Wilt thou then destroye the righteous with the vngodly? peraduēture there maye be fiftie righteous within ỹ cite: wilt thou destroye those, and not spare the place, for fiftie righteous sake that are therin? That be farre frō the, ỹ thou shuldest do this, and to slaye the righteous with the vngodly, and that the righteous shulde be as the vngodly. That be farre from the. Shulde not the iudge of all the worlde do acordinge to

D right? And the LORDE sayde: Yf I fynde fiftie righteous at Sodome in the cite, I wil spare all the place for their sakes.

Abraham answered, and sayde: O se, I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto the LORDE, howbeit I am but dust and asshes.

Gen.2.b

Peraduenture there maye be fyue lesse then fiftie righteous therin: Wilt thou then destroye the whole cite because of those fyue? He sayde: yf I fynde fyue and fourtie therin, I will not destroye them.

And he proceded further to speake vnto him, and sayde: Peraduenture there might be fourtie founde therin. And he sayde: I wil do nothinge vnto them for those fourtyes sake. Abraham sayde: Oh let not my LORDE be angrie, that I speake yet more. Peraduēture there might be thirtie founde therin. And he sayde: Yf I fynde thirtie therin, I will do nothinge vnto them. And he sayde: O se, I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto my LORDE.

Peraduēture there might be twētie founde therin. He answered: I wyll not destroye them for those twentyes sake. And sayde: O let not my LORDE be angrie, that I speake yet once more. Peraduenture there might be ten founde therin. He saide: I wil not destroye them for those ten sake.

And the LORDE wente his waye, whan he had left talkynge with Abraham. And Abraham returned vnto his place.

The XIX. Chapter.

AT the euenynge came the two angels vnto Sodome. And Lot sat vnder the gate of the cide. And whē he sawe them, he rose vp for to mete them, and bowed him self downe to the grounde vpon his face, & sayde: Se lordes, turne in (I praye you) in to youre seruauntes house, and tarye all night: let youre fete be waßhen, so maye ye ryse tomorow by tymes, and go youre waye. Neuertheles they sayde: Nay, but we wyll byde in the stretes all night. Then compelled he them sore: and they turned in vnto him, and came in to his house. And he made them a feast, and baked swete cakes, and they ate.

But before they wente to rest, the men of the cite of Sodome came and compased the house rounde aboute, yonge and olde, all the people from all quarters, and called Lot, and sayde vnto him: Where are the mē that came vnto the to night? Bringe them out here vnto vs, that we maye knowe them.

And Lot wente out at the doze vnto thē, and shut the doze after him, and sayde: O brethren, do not so wickedly. Beholde, I haue two doughters, which yet haue knowne no man: them will I bringe out vnto you, do with them as it liketh you. Onely do nothinge vnto these men of God, for therfore are they come vnder the shadowe of my rofe. But they sayde: Come thou hither. Then sayde they: Camest not thou onely herin as Wel, we will deale worse with the thē with them.

C And they pressed sore vpon ỳ man Lot.
Pet.2.b And whan they ranne to, and wolde haue broken vp the dore, the men put out their

And ỳ men saide vnto Lot: Hast thou yet here eny sonne in lawe, or sonnes or doughters? Who so euer belongeth vnto the in the cite, bringe him out of this place: for we must destroye this place, because the crye of them is greate before the LORDE, which hath sent vs to destroye them. Then wente
Lot forth, and spake to his sonnes in lawe, which shulde haue maried his doughters, and sayde: O stonde vp, and get you out of this place, for the LORDE wyll destroye this cite. Neuertheles they toke it but for a sporte.
Now whan the morninge arose, the an-
A gels caused Lot to spede him, and sayde:
p.10.b Stonde vp, take thy wife & thy two doughters which are at hande, that thou also pe-

him and his wife, and his two doughters by the hande (because the LORDE was mer cifull vnto him,) and brought him forth, & set him without the cite.
And whē they had brought him out, they sayde: Saue thy soule, and loke not behynde the, nether stonde thou in all this countre: Saue thy self vpon the mountayne, that thou perish not. Then sayde Lot vnto thē: Oh no my LORDE, beholde, in as moch as thy seruaūt hath founde grace in thy sight, & makest ỳ mercy greate, which thou hast shewed vnto me, in that thou sauest my soule alyue. I can not saue my self vpon the mountayne. There might some myshappen fall vpon me, that I shulde dye. Beholde, he re is a cite by, that I maye flye vnto, and it is a litle one: let me saue myself there in. Is it not a litle one, that my soule maye lyue?
E Then sayde he vnto him: Beholde, I haue loked vpon the in this poynte also, that I will not ouerthrowe the cite, wherof thou hast spoken. Haist the, and saue thy self there: for I can do nothinge tyll thou be come thither. Therfore is the cite called Zoar.
And the Sonne was vp vpon the earth,
whan Lot came in to Zoar.
Then the LORDE caused brymstone Esa.13.d

that that grew vpon the earth. And his wi Lu.17.d

Abraham rose vp early in the morninge, Gen.18.
and gat him vnto the place, where he had stonde before the LORDE, and turned his face toward Sodoma and Gomorra, and F all ỳ londe of that countre, and loked. And beholde, there rose vp a smoke from ỳ coun tre, as it had bene ỳ smoke of a fornace. For whan God destroyed ỳ cities of the region, he thought vpon Abraham, and conueyed Lot out of the cities which he ouerthrew, wherin Lot dwelt.
And Lot departed out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountaynes with both his daughters (for he was afrayed to tary at Zoar) and so remayned he in a caue wt both his daughters.

Then sayde ỳ elder vnto the yonger: Our re father is olde, and there is not a man more vpon earth, that can come in vnto vs after the maner of all the worlde. Come therfore, let vs geue oure father wyne to drynke, and lye with him, that we maye saue sede of oure father. So they gaue their fa- G hir father: and he perceaued it not, nether when she laye downe, ner when she rose

On the morow the elder sayde vnto the yonger: Beholde, yesternight laye I with my father: let vs geue him wyne to drynke this night also: that thou mayest go in and lye with him, that we maye saue sede of oure father. So they gaue their father wyne to drynke that nyght also: And the yonger arose like wyse, and laye with him: & he perceaued it not, nether when she laye downe, ner when she rose vp.

Thus were both the doughters of Lot with childe by their father. And the elder bare a sonne, and called him Moab, of whom come ỹ Moabytes vnto this daye. And ỹ yonger bare a sonne also, and called him the sonne Ammi, of whom come the children of Ammon vnto this daye.

The XX. Chapter.

A AS for Abraham, he departed thence, into the south countre, and dwelt betwixte Cades and Sur, and was a straunger at Gerar, and sayde of Sara his wife: She is my sister. Then Abimelech the kinge of Gerar sent for her, and caused her be fett awaye.

Gen. 12. c
and. 26. a

But God came to Abimelech by nyght in a dreame, & sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou art but a deed man, for the womans sake which thou hast taken, for she is a mans wife. Nevertheles Abimelech had not yet touched her, and sayde: LORDE, wilt thou sley a righteous people? Sayde not he vnto me: she is my sister? Yee and sayde not she her self also: he is my brother? With a pure hert & with innocent handes haue I done this.

B And God sayde vnto him in a dreame: I knowe that thou dyddest it wt a pure hert, and therfore I kepte the, that thou shuldest not synne agaynst me, nether haue I suffred the to touch her. Now therfore delyuer the man his wife ageyne, for he is a prophet: and let him pray for ỹ, and thou shalt lyue. But and yf thou delyuer her not ageyne, be sure, that thou shalt dye the death, and all that is thine.

Then Abimelech rose vp by tymes in the mornynge, and called all his seruauntes, and tolde all these thinges in their eares, and the men were sore afrayed, and Abimelech called Abraham, and sayde vnto him: Wherfore hast thou done this vnto vs? And what haue I offended ỹ, that thou shuldest bryng on me and on my kyngdome so greate a C synne? Thou hast not dealt with vs, as a man shulde deale. And Abimelech saide moreouer vnto Abraham: What sawest thou, ỹ thou hast done this thinge?

Abraham sayde: I thought: peraduenture there is no feare of God in this place, & they shall sleye me for my wifes sake, And of a trueth she is my sister, for she is my fathers doughter, but not my mothers doughter, and is become my wife. So whan God charged me to wadre out of my fathers house, I sayde vnto her: Shew this kyndnes vpon me, that, where so euer we come, thou Gen. 12 saye of me, that I am thy brother.

Then toke Abimelech shepe and oxen, ser D nauntes and maydens, and gaue them vnto Abraham, and delyuered him Sara his wife agayne, and sayde: Beholde, my londe stondeth open before the, dwell where it liketh the. And vnto Sara he sayde: Beholde, I haue geuen thy brother a thousande syluer pens: lo, he shalbe vnto the a couerynge of the eyes, for all that are with the, and euery where, and a sure excuse.

As for Abraham, he prayed vnto God: Then God healed Abimelech, and his wyfe, and his maydens, so that they bare childre. For afore the LORDE had closed all the matrices of Abimelechs house, because of Sara Abrahams wife.

The XXI. Chapter.

THe LORDE also vysited Sara, accor A with her, euen as he had sayde. And Hebr Sara was with childe, and bare Abraham a sonne in his olde age, euen in the tyme appoynted, like as God had spoken vnto him afore. And Abraham called his sonne which was borne vnto him (whō Sara bare him) Isaac, and circumcided him the eight daye, Matt

* like as God commaunded him. An hun Iosu

And Sara sayde: God hath prepared a ioye for me, for who so euer heareth of it, wyll reioyse with me. She sayde moreouer: Who wolde haue saide vnto Abraham, that Sara shulde gene children sucke, and beare him a sonne in his olde age: And the childe grew, and was weened. And Abraham made a greate feast, in ỹ daye whan Isaac was weened.

And Sara sawe the sonne of Agar the B Egipcian (whom she had borne vnto Abraham) that he was a mocker, and sayde vnto Abraham: Caste out this bonde mayden and D hir sonne, for this bonde maydēs sonne shall Iudic not be heyre wt my sonne Isaac. This wor Gala de displeased Abraham sore, because of his sonne.

Nevertheles God sayde vnto him: let it not displease the because of the childe and the hand mayde: What so euer Sara hath sayde vnto the, folowe it, for in Isaac shall Rom

the sede be called vnto the. As for the bonde maydens sonne, I wyll make a people of him also, because he is of thy sede.

Then Abraham rose vp early in the mornynge, and toke bred and a botell with water, and put it vpon Agars shulders, and gaue her the childe, and sent her awaye. Then departed she, and wandred out of the waye in ỹ wyldernes beside Berseba. Now whan the water in the botell was out, she layed the childe vnder a bush, and wente, and sat hir downe ouer on ỹ other syde, a bowe shote of. For she sayde: I can not se the childe dye. And she sat hir downe ouer on ỹ other syde, and lifte vp hir voyce, and wepte.

C Then God herde the voyce of the childe, and the angell of God called vnto Agar out of heauen, and sayde vnto her: What ayleth the, Agar? Feare not, for God hath herde ỹ voyce of the childe, where he lyeth. Aryse and take the childe, and holde him by the hande, for I wyll make a greate people of him. And God opened hir eyes, that she sawe a well of water.

Then wente she and fylled ỹ botell with water, and gaue ỹ childe drynke. And God was with the childe, which grew vp, and dwelt in ỹ wildernes, and became a connynge archer, and dwelt in ỹ wildernes of Pharan, and his mother toke him a wyfe out of the londe of Egipte.

At the same tyme talked Abimelech and Phicol his chefe captayne with Abraham, and sayde: God is with the in all that thou doest. Therfore sweare now vnto me by God, that thou wilt not hurt me, ner my children, ner my childers children: but that thou shalt shewe vnto me (and to the londe wher in thou art a straunger) the same kyndnesse that I haue done vnto the.

Then sayde Abraham: I wyll sweare. And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for the well of water, which Abimelechs seruauntes had taken awaye by violence. Then answered Abimelech: I knewe not who dyd it, nether dyddest thou tell me, and I haue not herde of it but this daye.

D Thē toke Abraham shepe and oxen, and gaue them vnto Abimelech, and they both made a bonde together. And Abraham set seuen lambes by them selues. Then sayde Abimelech vnto Abrahā: What meane those seuen lambes, which thou hast set by them selues? He answered: seuē lambes shalt thou take of my hande, that they maye be wytnes vnto me, that I haue dygged this well. Therfore is the place called Berseba, because they sware there both together. And so they made the bonde at Berseba.

Then rose Abimelech and Phicol his chefe captayne, and departed agayne into the londe of ỹ Philistynes. And Abraham planted trees at Berseba, and called vpon the name of the LORDE ỹ euerlastinge God, and was a straunger in ỹ londe of the Philistynes a longe season.

The XXII. Chapter.

A Ludit. 6. Eccl. 44. Heb. 11. d

After these actes God tempted Abraham, and sayde vnto him: Abraham. And he answered: I am here. And he sayde: Take ỹ sonne, this onely sonne of thine, euē Isaac whom thou louest, and go thy waye in to the londe of Moria, & offre him there for a burntofferynge, vpon a mountayne that I shal shew the. Then Abraham stode vp by tymes in the mornynge, and sadled his Asse, and toke with him two yonge men, and his sonne Isaac, and cloue wodd for the brentofferynge, gat him vp, and wente on vnto the place, wherof the LORDE had sayde vnto him.

Vpon the thirde daye Abraham lift vp his eyes, and sawe the place a farre of, and sayde vnto his yonge mē: Tary ye here with the Asse: as for me and the childe, we wyl go yonder: and whan we haue worshipped, we wyll come to you againe. And Abrahā toke the wodd to the brentofferynge, and layed it vpon Isaac his sonne. As for him self, he B toke the fyre and a knyfe in his hande, and wente on both together.

Then sayde Isaac vnto his father Abraham: My father. Abraham answered: here I am, my sonne. And he sayde: lo, here is fyre and wodd, but where is the shepe for the brentofferynge? Abraham answered: My sonne, God shall prouyde him a shepe for the brentofferynge. And they wente both together.

And whan they came to the place which

God shewed him, Abraham buylded there an altare, and layed the wodd vpon it, and bande his sonne Isaac, layed him on the altare, aboue vpō the wood, and stretched out his hande, and toke the knyfe, to haue slayne his sonne.

C Then the angell of the LORDE called from heauen vnto him, and sayde: Abraham Abraham. He answered: here am I. He sayde: Laye not thy handes vpon the childe, & do nothinge vnto him: for now I knowe Mac. 2 f Ro. 8. d that thou feareste God, and hast not * spared thine onely sonne for my sake. Then Abraham lift vp his eyes, and sawe behynde him a ramme, holdē fast by the hornes in the breres, and wente, and toke the ramme, and offred him for a brent sacrifice, in steade of his sonne. And Abraham called the place. The LORDE shall prouyde. Therfore it is a comon sayenge yet this daye: Vpon the mountayne shal the LORDE prouyde.

And the angell of the LORDE cryed vnto Abraham from heauen the seconde tyme, and sayde: I haue sworen by myne owne self (sayeth the LORDE) that for so moch as thou hast done this, and hast not spared thine onely sonne, I wyll prospere and multiplye thy sede as the starres of heauen, and as the sonde vpon the see shore. And thy sede shall possesse the gates of his enemies: and * in thy sede shal all the nacions of the earth be blessed, because thou hast herkened vnto my voyce. Eccl. 6. b Ecclesiast. 44. c Gen. 24. g Gen. 12. a Galat. 3. b Act. 3. d

D So Abraham turned a geyne to the yonge men, and they gat vp, and wente together vnto Berseba, and dwelt there.

After these actes it fortuned, that it was tolde Abraham: Beholde, Milca hath borne children also vnto thy brother Nahor: namely, * Hus the eldest, and * Bus his brother, and Kemuel, of whom came the Syrians: and Cesed, and Haso, and Pildas, and Jedlaph and Bethuel. And Bethuel begat Rebecca. These eight dyd Milca beare vnto Nahor Abrahams brother. And his concubyne called Rehuma, bare also: namely, Theba, Sahan, Thahas, and Maacha. Iob 1. a Iob 32. a

The XXIII. Chapter.

A SAra was an hundreth and sene and twentye yeare olde: so longe lyued she, and dyed in the head cite which is called Hebron, in the lande of Canaan. Then wente Abraham, to mourne and wepe for her. Afterwarde he stode vp from his coarse, and talked with the Hethites, & sayde: I am a straūger and an indweller amonge you, geue me a possession to bury in with you, that I maye bury * my coarse by me. Act. 8. a Some read * my carsen lyeth foren

Then the Hethites answered Abraham, and sayde vnto him: O heare lorde, thou art a prynce of God amonge vs: bury thy dead in the best of oure sepulcres, there shall none of vs forbyd the, that thou shuldest not bury thy deed in his sepulcre. Then Abraham stode vp, and thanked the people of the londe: namely the Hethites.

And he talked with them, and sayde: If B it be youre wyll that I burye my coarse by me, heare me thē, & speake for me to Ephron the sonne of Zoar, that he maye geue me the dubble caue, which he hath in the ende of his felde. For a reasonable money let him geue it me, for a possession to burye in amōge you. For Ephron dwelt amonge the Hethites.

Then answered Ephron the Hethite vnto Abraham, that the Hethites might heare, before all that wente out and in at the gates of his cite, and sayde: No my lorde, but heare me: As for the felde, and the caue also that is therin, I geue it the: and in the sight of my people I geue it the, to burye thy dead in.

Then Abraham thanked the people of the londe, and talked with Ephron, that the people of the londe might heare, and sayde: Heare me then, Receaue of me the money that I geue the for the felde, and so wyll I burye my deed there.

Ephron answered Abraham, and sayde C vnto him: Heare me my lorde: The felde is worth foure hundreth Sycles of syluer: but what is that betwixte me and the? Burye thy deed. Abraham herkened vnto Ephron, and weyed him the money which he had sayde, that the Hethites might heare: namely foure hundreth syluer sycles of currant money amonge marchaumtes.

Thus Ephrons felde (where in the dubble caue is) which lyeth ouer before Mamre, euen the felde and the caue, was made sure for Abrahams owne good, with all the trees of the felde also rounde aboute, in the sight of the Hethites, and of all that go out and in at the gates of his cite. Then Abraham buried Sara his wife in the dubble caue of the felde, that lyeth ouer before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the londe of Canaan. So the felde and the caue therin was made sure of the Hethites vnto Abraham, for a possession to bury in.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

ABraham was olde and well stricken A in age, and the LORDE had blessed him in all thinges. And he sayde vnto his eldest seruaunt of his house, which had the rule of all his goodes: Laye thine hãde vnder my thye, that I maye make the sweare by ẏ LORDE the God of heauen and earth, that thou take no wife vnto my sonne amonge ẏ doughters of ẏ Cananites, (amonge whom I dwell) but that thou go in to my countre and * to myne owne kynred, and bringe my sonne Isaac a wife.

The seruaunt sayde: What and the woman wyl not folowe me in to this countre: shal I then cary thy sonne agayne in to yonder londe, where thou camest out of? Abraham sayde vnto him: Beware of that, that thou bringe not my sonne thither agayne. The LORDE, the God of heauen, which toke me fro my fathers house and from the londe of my kynred, and that talked with me, and sware also vnto me, and sayde: Vnto ẏ sede wyll I geue this londe: Euen he shall sende his angell before the, that thou maiest bringe my sonne a wife from thence. But yf the woman wyll not folowe the, thou art discharged of this ooth: onely bringe not my sonne thither agayne. Then ẏ seruaunt layed his hãde vnder his master Abrahams thye, and sware the same vnto him.

So the seruaunt toke ten Camels of the Camels of his master and departed, and had wt him of all maner of goodes of his master, and gat him vp, and departed vnto Mesopotamia, to the cite of Nahor. Then let he the Camels lye downe without before the cite besyde a well of water in the euenynges, aboute the tyme that the wemen vsed to go forth, and to drawe water. And he sayde:

O LORDE, thou God of my master Abraham, mete me to daye, and shew mercy vnto my master Abraham. Lo, I stonde here besyde the well of water, & the mens doughters of this cite wyll come forth to drawe water: Now yf there come a damsell, to whom I saye: bowe downe thy pytcher, & let me drynke, and yf she saye: drynke, and I wyll geue ẏ Camels drynke also: That ẏ same be she, whom thou hast prouyded for thy seruaunt Isaac: & that I maye knowe by ẏ same that thou hast shewed mercy vpon my master.

And or euer he had left of speakynge, beholde, Rebecca the doughter of Bethuel (which was the sonne of Milca, that was the wyfe of Nahor Abrahams brother) came forth, and bare a pytcher vpon hir shulder, and she was a very fayre damsell of face, and yet a virgin, and vnknowne of eny man: She wente downe to the well, and fylled hir pitcher, and came vp agayne. Then ranne the seruaunt to mete her, and sayde: Let me drynke a litle water out of ẏ pitcher. And she sayde: drynke syr.

And haistely let she downe the pitcher in hir hande, and gaue him drynke. And whan she had geuen him drynke, she sayde: I wyll drawe for thy Camels also, tyll they haue dronke ynough. And she made haist, and poured out hir pitcher in to the trough, and ranne agayne to the well to drawe, and drew for all his Camels. The mã marueyled at her, and helde his tonge, tyll he knewe whether the LORDE had prospered his iourney or not.

Now whan the Camels had all dronken, he toke a goldẽ earynge of half a Sycle weight, and two bracelettes for hir handes, weynge ten Sycles of golde, and sayde: Doughter, whose art thou? tell me. Is there rowme for vs in thy fathers house to lodge in? She sayde vnto him: I am the doughter of Bethuel, the sonne of Milca, whom she bare vnto Nahor. And sayde moreuer vnto him: We haue plentye of litter and prouender, and rowme ynough to lodge in.

Then the man bowed himself, and thanked the LORDE, and sayde: Praysed be the LORDE the God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawen his mercy and his trueth fro my master, for the LORDE hath brought me the waye to my masters brothers house. And the damsell ranne and tolde all this in hir mothers house. And Rebecca had a brother called Laban.

And Laban ranne to the man without by the well syde: and that came by the reason that he sawe the earynges, and the bracelettes vpon his sisters handes, and herde the wordes of Rebecca his syster, that she sayde: thus spake the man vnto me.

And whan he came to the man, beholde, he stode by the Camels at the well syde. And he sayde: Come in * thou blessed of the LORDE, wherfore stondest thou without? I haue dressed the house, and made rowme for ẏ Camels. So he brought the man in to ẏ house, and vnbridled the Camels, and gaue them litter and prouender, and water to wash his fete, and the mens that were with him, and set meate before him.

Nevertheles he sayde: I wil not eate, tyll I haue fyrst tolde myne erãde. They answered: Tell on. He sayde: I am Abrahams ser-

And my master hath taken an ooth of me and saide: Thou shalt not take a wife for my sonne amonge the doughters of the Cana/nites, in whose lande I dwell, but go ỳ waye to my fathers house and to myne owne kynred, and there take a wyfe for my sonne. But I sayde vnto my master: What and the wo man wyl not folowe me? Then sayde he vnto me: The LORDE (before whom I walke) shall sende his angell with the, and prospere thy iourney, that thou mayest take a wife for my sonne of myne owne kynred, and of my fathers house. And so whan thou commest to my kynred, yf they geue her not vnto ỳ, thou shalt be discharged of myne oothe.

S So I came this daye vnto the well of water, and sayde: O LORDE thou God of my master Abraham, Yf thou hast prospered my iourney that I go: Beholde, I stonde here by the well of water: Now yf there come forth a virgin to draw water, and I saye vnto her: geue me a litle water to drinke out of thy pitcher, and she saye vnto me: Drynke thou, and I wyll drawe water for thy Ca/mels also that the same be the womā, which the LORDE hath prouyded for my masters sonne. Now or euer I had spoken out these wordes in my hert, beholde, Rebecca commeth forth with a pitcher vpon hir shulder, and goeth downe to the well, and draweth.

Then sayde I: geue me a drynke. And immediatly she toke downe the pitcher frō hir shulder, and sayde: drynke, and I wyll geue thy Camels drynke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the Camels also to drynke. And I axed her, and sayde: Doughter, who se art thou? She answered: I am ỳ dough ter of Bethuel the sonne of Nahor, whom Milca bare vnto him. Then layed I the earinge vpon hir face, and the bracelettes vpon hir handes, and bowed myself, and thanked the LORDE, and praysed the God of my master Abraham, which had brought me ỳ right waye, to take my masters brothers doughters vnto his sonne.

Yf ye be they then that shew mercy and faithfulnes vnto my master, tell me: Yf not, yet tell me, that I maye turne me to ỳ right hande or to the left.

Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and sayde: This is come of the LORDE, therfore can we saye nothinge agaynst the, ne ther euell ner good. There is Rebecca before the, take her, and go thy waye, that she maye be thy masters sonnes wife, as the LORDE hath sayde. When Abrahams seruaunt herde these wordes, he bowed him self vnto the LORDE flat vpon the earth, and toke forth Jewels of syluer and golde, and rayment, and gaue them vnto Rebecca. But vnto hir brethren and the mother, he gaue spyces. Then he ate and dronke, and the men also that were with him, and ta ried there all night.

But in the mornynge he arose, and G sayde: Let me departe vnto my master. Neuertheless hir brother and hir mother sayde: Let the damsell tary with vs at the leest ten dayes, and then shall she go. Then sayde he vnto them: holde me not, for the LORDE hath prospered my iourney: let me go, that I maye departe vnto my master. Then sayde they: let vs call the damsell, and axe her, what she sayeth therto. And they called Rebecca, and sayde vnto her: Wilt thou go with this man?

And she answered: Yee I wyll go with him. So they let Rebecca their syster go with hir norse and Abrahams seruaunt, and his men. And they blessed Rebecca, and sayde vnto her: Thou art oure syster, growe in to many thousande tymes thousan des, and thy sede possesse the gates of his Gen.
enemies.

So Rebecca gat hir vp wt hir damsels, and satt them vpon the Camels, and wente their waye after the man. And the seruaunt toke Rebecca, and departed.

As for Isaac, he was commynge from 17.c
* the well of ỳ liuynge & seynge, for he dwelt 6.Ca in the south countre, and was gone forth to his meditacions in the felde aboute the euen tyde. And he lift vp his eyes, and sawe, that there were Camels commynge. And Rebecca lift vp hir eyes, and sawe Isaac. Then lighted she of the Camell, and sayde vnto ỳ seruaunt: What man is this, that commeth agaynst vs in the felde? The seruaūt sayde: The same is my master.

Then toke she hir cloke, and put it aboute her. And the seruaunt tolde Isaac all the earande that he had done. Then Isaac brought her in to his mother Saras tent, and toke Rebecca, and she became his wife, and he loued her. So Isaac was comforted ouer his mother.

The XXV. Chapter.

A Braham toke another wife called Ketura, which bare him Simram & Jakſan, Medan & Midian, Jeßbak and Suah. Jakſan begat Seba and Dedan. The children of Dedan were Aſſurim, Latuſim, and Leummim. The children of Midian were Epha, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaa. All theſe are the children of Ketura. And Abraham gaue all his goodes vnto Iſaac: As for the children that he had of the concubynes, he gaue them giftes, and (whyle he yet lyued) he ſent thē awaye from his ſonne Iſaac, eaſtwarde in to the eaſt countre.

This is the age of Abraham which he lyued: euen an hundreth and fyue and ſeuentye yeare, and fell ſicke and dyed in a good age, whan he was olde, & had lyued ynough and was gathered vnto his people. And his ſonnes Iſaac and Iſmael buried him in the dubble caue in the felde of Ephron the ſonne of Zoar the Hethite, which lyeth ouer before Mamre, in the felde that Abraham bought of the Hethites. There was Abraham buried with Sara his wife. And after the death of Abraham God bleſſed his ſonne Iſaac. And he dwelt by the well of the lyuynge and ſeynge.

This is the generacion of Iſmael Abrahams ſonne, whom Agar Saras mayde the Egipcian bare vnto him. And theſe are the names of Iſmaels children, of whom their kynredes are named. The eldeſt ſonne of Iſmael, Nebaioth, Cedar, Abdeel, Mibſam, Miſma, Duma, Maſa, Hadar, Thema, Jethur, Naphis and Kedma. Theſe are the children of Iſmael with their names in their courtes and cities * twolue londeprynces. And this is the age of Iſmael, euen an hundreth and ſeuen and thirtie yeare, and he fell ſicke and dyed, and was gathered vnto his people. He dwelt from Heuila vnto Sur eowarde Egipte, as men go to the Aſſirians And he dyed in the preſence of all his brethren.

This is the generacion of Iſaac the ſonne of Abrahā. Abraham begat Iſaac. Iſaac was fourtye yeare olde, whan he toke to wyfe Rebecca the doughter of Bethuel ỹ Syrian of Meſopotamia, & Sister of Laban the Syrian.

Iſaac beſought the LORDE for his wyfe (becauſe ſhe was baren) and the LORDE was intreated, and Rebecca his wyfe conceaued. And the children ſtroue together in her wombe. Then ſayde ſhe: Yf it ſhulde go ſo with me, why am I then with childe? And ſhe wente for to aſke the LORDE. And the LORDE ſayde vnto her: Two maner of folke are in thy wombe, and two maner of people ſhall be deuyded out of thy body, and the one nacion ſhall ouercome the other, and the greater ſhall ſerue the leſſe. 2. Reg. 8. c Rom. 9. b

Now whan the tyme came that ſhe ſhulde be delyuered, beholde, there were two twyns in hir wombe. The firſt that came forth, was reed, all rough as an hyde, and they called him Eſau. Anone therafter came his brother forth, which helde the hele of Eſau with his hāde, and they called him Jacob. Thre ſcore yeare olde was Iſaac, whan they were borne. And whan the boies were growne vp, Eſau became an hunter, & an huſbande man. As for Jacob, he was a ſymple man, and dwelt in the tentes. And Iſaac loued Eſau, becauſe he ate of his veniſon. But Rebecca loued Jacob. Ioſu. 24. a Oſe. 12. a D

And Jacob dight a meace of meate. Thē came Eſau from the felde, and was weery, and ſayde vnto Jacob: Let me proue of ỹ reed meace of meate, for I am fayntie (therfore is he called Edom.) But Jacob ſayde: Sell me this daye thy byrthright. Eſau anſwered: Lo, I muſt dye neuertheleſſe, what good then ſhall my byrthright do me? Jacob ſayde: Then ſweare vnto me euen this ſame daye. And he ſware vnto him, and ſo he ſolde his byrthright vnto Jacob. Then Jacob gaue him bred and that meace of ryſe. And he ate and dronke, and ſtode vp, and wente his waye. And ſo Eſau regarded not his byrthright. Hebr. 12. c

The XXVI. Chapter.

There came a derth in the londe, paſſynge the other that was in Abrahams tyme. And Iſaac wente to Gerar, vnto Abimelech the kynge of ỹ philiſtynes. Then the LORDE appeared vnto him, and ſayde: Go not downe in to Egipte, but tary in the lande that I ſhall ſaye vnto the. Be thou a ſtraūger in this lande, and I wil be with the and bleſſe the. For vnto the and thy ſede wyll I geue all this londe, and wyll perfourme myne ooth that I ſware to thy father Abraham. And I wyll multiplye thy ſede as the ſtarres of heauen, and vnto thy ſede wyll I geue all this londe, and thorow thy ſede ſhall all nacions be bleſſed, becauſe Abraham was obedient vnto my A Gen. 12. c Eccleſiaſticj 44. d Gen. 15. c and 22. c voyce, and kepte myne ordinaunces, my cõmaundementes, my statutes, and my lawes.

So Isaac dwelt at Gerar. And whan the men of the same place axed him of his
Gen.12.c and 20.a wife, he sayde: she is my sister. For he was afrayed to saye: she is my wife, (thinkinge thus:) they might slaye me for Rebeccas sake, for she was beutifull to loke vnto. Now whan he had bene there a longe season, Abimelech the kynge of the phylistynes loked out at a wyndow, and sawe Isaac sportinge with Rebecca his wife.

B Then Abimelech called Isaac, and sayde: Beholde, she is thy wyfe, why saydest thou then: She is my sister? Isaac answered him: I thought, I might peraduenture haue died because of her. Abimelech saide: Why hast thou then done this vnto vs? It coude lightly haue come to passe, that some of the people might haue lyen with thy wyfe, and so haddest thou brought synne vpõ vs. Thẽ Abimelech commaunded all the people, and sayde: Who so toucheth this man or his wyfe, shal dye the death.

And Isaac sowed in that londe, and founde the same yeare an hundreth buschels, for the LORDE blessed him. And he became a greate man, wente forth, and grew, tyll he was exceadinge greate, so that he had moch good in shepe and greate catell, and a greate housholde. Therfore had the philistynes
Gen.21.c envye at him, and stopped all the welles, that his fathers seruauntes had dygged in the tyme of Abraham his father, and fylled them with earth, In so moch that Abimelech also himself sayde vnto him: Departe from vs, for thou art farre mightier then we.

C Then departed Isaac from thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. And whan he was satled, he caused to dygge vp the welles agayne, that they had dygged vp in his father Abrahãs tyme, which the philistynes had stopte after the death of Abraham, and he called thẽ after ẏ same names that his father had named them withall.

Isaacs seruauntes also dygged in the valley, and there they founde a well of lyuinge water. But the hyrdmen of Gerar stroue
Gen.19.a with Isaacs hyrdmen, and saide: The water is ours. Then called he the well Esek, because they had done him wronge.

Then dygged they another well, and stroue for that also: therfore called he it Sytena. So he gatt him from thence, and dygged another well, for the which they stroue not: therfore he called it Rehoboth, and sayde: Now hath the LORDE made vs rowme, and letten vs growe in the londe. Afterwarde he departed thence vnto Berseba. D

And the LORDE appeared vnto him the same night, and sayde: I am the God of thy father Abraham, feare thou not, for I am with the, and wyll blesse the, and multiplye thy sede for my seruaunt Abrahams sake. Then buylded he an altare there, and called vpon the name of the LORDE, and pitched his tent there, and there his seruauntes dygged a well. Ge

And Abimelech wente vnto him from Gerar, and Ahusath his frende, and Phicol his chefe captayne. But Isaac sayde vnto Ia them: Wherfore come ye to me? seynge ye hate me, and haue put me awaye from you? They sayde: We se with open eyes, that the LORDE is with the, therfore we deuysed that there shulde be an ooth betwixte vs and the, and that we wolde make a bonde with the, that thou do vs no harme, like as we haue not hurte the, and as we haue done nothinge vnto the, but all good, and let the departe in peace.

As for the, thou art ẏ blessed of the LORDE. Then Isaac made them a feast, and they ate and dronke. And on the morow they arose, and sware one to the other. And Isaac let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

The same daye came Isaacs seruauntes, and tolde him of the well that they had digged, and sayde vnto him: We haue founde water. And he called it Saba. Therfore is ẏ cite called Bersaba vnto this daye.

The XXVII. Chapter.

WHan Esau was fourtye yeare olde, A he toke wyues: Judith the doughter of Beri the Hethite, and Basmath the doughter of Elon the Hethite: both these were disobedient vnto the spirite of Isaaac and Rebecca.

And it came to passe when Isaac was olde, his eyes waxed dymme of sight, and he called Esau his greater sonne, and sayde vnto him: My sonne. He answered him: Here am I. And he sayde: Beholde, I am olde, and knowe not whan I shal dye. Now therfore take thy geer, thy quyuer and thy bowe, and get the forth to the felde, and take me some venyson, and make me meate (soch as I loue) and brynge it me herein, that I may eate, ẏ my soule maye blesse the, before I dye.

But Rebecca herde these wordes, that Isaac sayde vnto his sonne. And Esau went his waye in to the felde, to hunte venyson, and to bringe it home. Then sayde Rebecca vnto Jacob hir sonne: beholde, I haue herde thy father talkinge with Esau thy B brother, and sayenge: Bringe me venyson, and make me meate, that I maye eate, and blesse the before ỹ LORDE, yer I dye. Nowe therfore my sonne, heare my voyce, what I commaunde the: Go thy waye to the flocke, and fetch me two good kyddes, that I maye make meate of them for thy father, soch as he loueth: this shalt thou bringe in vnto thy father, that he maye eate, that he maye blesse the before his death.

Neuertheles Jacob sayde vnto Rebecca his mother: Beholde, my brother Esau is rough, and I am smooth: then might my father peraduenture fele me, and I shulde seme vnto him as though I begyled him, and so bringe a curse vpon me and not a blessynge. Then sayde his mother vnto him: That curse be vpon me my sonne, folowe thou my voyce: go thy waye and fetch it me. So he wente his waye, and fetched it, and brought it vnto his mother.

C Then his mother made meate, accordinge as his father loued, and toke Esaus hir elder sonnes costly rayment (which she had with her in ỹ house) and put them vpon Jacob hir yonger sonne. But the kyddes skynnes put she aboute his handes, and where he was smooth aboute the neck: and so she put the meate with bred (as she had made it) in hir sonne Jacobs hande.

And he brought it in vnto his father, and sayde: My father. He answered: here am I, who art thou my sonne? Jacob sayde: I am Esau thy firstborne sonne, I haue done as thou saydest vnto me: arise, syt vp, and eate of my venyson, that thy soule maye blesse me. But Isaac sayde vnto his sonne: My sonne, how hast thou founde it so soone? He answered: The LORDE ỹ God brought it to my hande.

Thē sayde Isaac vnto Jacob: Come neare my sonne, that I maye fele the, whether thou be my sonne Esau or not. So Jacob wēte vnto Isaac his father. And whan he had felt him, he sayde: The voyce is Jacobs voyce, but the handes are the handes of Esau. And he knew him not, for his handes were rough like as ỹ handes of his brother Esau. And he blessed him.

D And he sayde vnto him: art thou my sonne Esau? He answered: Yee I am. Then sayde he: Bringe me here then to eate of thy venyson my sonne, *that my soule maye blesse the. Then he brought it him, and he ate: and he brought him wyne also, and he dranke. And Isaac his father sayde vnto him: Come nye, and kysse me my sonne. So he came nye, and he kyssed him.

*that my hert maye wysh the good.

Then smelled he the sauoure of his clothes, and blessed him, and sayde: Beholde, the smell of my sonne is as ỹ smell of the felde, which ỹ LORDE hath blessed. God gene the of the dew of heauen, and of the fatnesse of the earth, and plenteousnes of corne and wyne. Nacions be thy seruauntes, and people fall downe at ỹ fote. Be thou lorde ouer thy brethren, and thy mothers children fall downe at thy fote. Cursed be he, that curseth the: and blessed be he, that blesseth the.

E Now whan Isaac had made an ende of blessynge, and Jacob was scace gone out from his father Isaac, his brother Esau came from his huntinge, and made meate also, and brought it vnto his father, and sayde vnto him: Arise my father, and eate of ỹ sonnes venyson, that thy soule maye blesse me. Then answered him Isaac his father: Who art thou? He sayde: I am Esau thy firstborne sonne. Then was Isaac exceadingly amased above measure, and saide: Who? Where is then the hunter that brought me, and I haue eaten of all afore thou camest, and haue blessed him? And he shall be blessed still.

Whan Esau herde these wordes of his father, he cried loude, and was exceadynge sory, and sayde vnto his father: O blesse me also my father. But he sayde: Thy brother came with sotyltie, and hath taken thy blessinge awaye. Then sayde he: He maye well be called Jacob, for he hath vndermined me now two tymes. My byrth right hath he awaye, and beholde, now taketh he awaye my blessynge also.

And he sayde: Hast thou not kepte one
F blessynge for me? Isaac answered, and sayde vnto him: I haue made him lorde ouer ỹ, and all his brethren haue I made his seruāutes. With corne & wine haue I prouyded him. What shal I do vnto the now my sonne? Esau sayde vnto his father? Hast thou not one blessynge more my father? O blesse me also my father.

And he lift vp his voyce, & wepte. Then Isaac his father answered and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou shalt haue a fat dwellinge vpon earth, & of ỹ dew of heauen from above: with thy swerde shalt thou get thy lyuynge, and shalt serue thy brother. And it shall come to passe, ỹ thou shalt put of his yock, * and plucke it from thy neck.

*4. Re. 8. c

G And Esau bare euell wyll vnto Jacob, because of the blessynge that his father had blessed him withall, and sayde in his herte: The tyme wyll come shortly, that my father shal mourne, for I wil slaye my brother Jacob. Thē was it tolde Rebecca of these wordes of hir elder sonne, and she sent, and bad call for Jacob hir yonger sonne, and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thy brother Esau threateneth the, that he wil slaye the. And now my sonne heare my voyce: Get the vp, and flye vnto my brother Laban in Haran, and tary there with him a whyle, * tyll the furiousnes of thy brother be swaged, and till his wrath agaynst ỹ be turned from the, and he forget what thou hast done vnto him. So wyll I then sende for the, and cause the be fetched from thēce. Why shulde I be robbed of you both in one daye?

*Gen. 31. a

And Rebecca sayde vnto Jsaac: I am weery of my life, because of the doughters of Heth: Yf Jacob take a wife of the doughters of Heth, * which are as the doughters of this londe, what shall this life then profit me?

*Gen. 10. c

The XXVIII. Chapter.

A Some rede: * talked louingly with him.

Then called Jsaac his sonne Jacob and * blessed him, and charged him, & sayde vnto him: Take not a wife of the doughters of Canaan, but get the vp, and go in to Mesopotamia vnto the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and take ỹ there a wife of ỹ doughters of Laban ỹ mothers brother. And the Allmightie God blesse the, and make the frutefull, and multiplye the, (that thou mayest be a multitude of people) and geue the the blessynge of Abraham vnto ỹ & thy sede with the, that thou mayest possesse the lande, wherin thou art a straunger, * which God gaue vnto Abraham. So Jsaac let Jacob departe, that he might go in to Mesopotamia vnto Laban the sonne of Bethuel of Siria, ỹ brother of Rebecca, his and Esaus mother.

B Now when Esau sawe that Jsaac had blessed Jacob, and let him departe in to Mesopotamia, that he might take a wife there: and ỹ, as he blessed him, he charged him, & sayde: Thou shalt not take a wife of the doughters of Canaan, and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone vnto Mesopotamia: seynge also that Jsaac his father loked not gladly vpon the doughters of Canaan, he wente his waye vnto Jsmael, and besyde the wyues that he had afore, he toke Mahaloth the doughter of Jsmael (Abrahās sonne) the sister of Nebaioth, to wife.

C As for Jacob, he departed from Bersaba, and wente vnto Haran and came to a place, where he taried all night: for the Sonne was downe. And he toke a stone of ỹ place, & put it vnder his heade, and layed him downe in ỹ same place to slepe. And he dreamed, and beholde, there stode vpon ỹ earth, a ladder, whose toppe reached vnto the heauen. And beholde, the angels of God wente vp and downe vpon it, and the LORDE stode vpon it, and sayde:

I am the LORDE God of thy father Abraham, and the God of Jsaac: The londe ỹ thou lyest vpon, wyl I geue vnto the, and to thy sede: and thy sede shal be as ỹ dust of ỹ earth. And thou shalt sprede forth towarde the west, east, north, and south: and thorow the and thy sede shall all the kynreds vpon earth be blessed. And beholde, I am with ỹ, and wyll kepe the where so euer thou goest, & wyl brynge the hither agayne in to this lande: for I wil not leaue the, tyll I haue made good, all that I haue promysed the.

D Now whan Jacob awaked from his slepe, he sayde: Surely the LORDE is in this place, and I knew not. And he was afraied, and sayde: How fearfull is this place: here is no thinge els but an house of God, & a gate vnto heauē. And Jacob arose early in the morynge, and toke the stone that he had layed vnder his heade, and set it vp, and powred oyle vpon it. And he called the place Bethel, but afore the cite was called Lus. And Jacob made a vowe, and sayde: Yf God wyll be with me, and kepe me in this iourney ỹ I go & geue me bred to eate, and clothinge to put on, and brynge me peaceably home agayne vnto my father: Thē shall the LORDE be my God, and this stone that I haue set vp, shal be an house of God: and all that thou geuest me, I wyl geue the the tenth therof.

The XXIX. Chapter.

A Then Jacob gat him vp vpon his fete; and wente in to the east countre, & loked aboute him, and beholde, there was a well in the felde, and ỹ flockes of shepe therby, for the flockes dranke of the well. And there laye a greate stone at the welles mouth, and thyther they vsed to brynge the flockes, and to roule the stone from ỹ mouth of the well, and to geue the shepe drynke, & so they put the stone agayne vpon the welles mouth in to his place.

And Jacob sayde vnto them: Brethren, whēce be ye? They answered: we are of Haran. He sayde vnto them: Knowe ye Laban the sonne of Nahor? They answered: We knowe him well. He sayde: Is he in good health? They answered: he is in good health. And lo, there commeth his doughter Rachel with the shepe. He sayde: It is yet hye daye, & is not yet tyme to dryue in the catell: geue the shepe to drynke, & go youre waye, & fede them. They answered: We can not, tyll all the flockes be brought together, and tyll we roule the stone from the welles mouth, & so geue the shepe drynke.

B Whyle he yet talked with them, Rachel came with hir fathers shepe, for she kepte ẏ shepe. Whan Jacob sawe Rachel ẏ doughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the shepe of Laban his mothers brother, he wēte, & rouled the stone from the welles mouth, and gaue his mothers brother shepe to drynke, and kyssed Rachel, lift vp his voyce, and wepte, and tolde her, ẏ he was hir fathers brother, and ẏ sonne of Rebecca. Then ranne she, and tolde her father.

Whā Laban herde of Jacob his sisters sonne, he ranne to mete him, and enbraced him, and kyssed him, and brought him in to his house. And so he tolde him all this matter. Thē sayde Laban vnto him: Wel, thou art my bone and my flesh. Abyde with me a moneth longe. But after that saide he vnto Jacob: Because thou art my brother, shalt thou therfore serue me for nought? Tell me, what shall thy wages be. Laban had two doughters, the eldest was called Lea, & the yongest Rachel. And Lea was tender eyed, but Rachel was beutyfull & well fauoured of face, and Jacob loued her well, and sayde: I will serue the seuen yeare, for Rachel thy yongest doughter. Laban answered: It is better that I geue her the, then vnto another: tary thou with me.

C So Jacob serued seuen yeare for Rachel, and they semed vnto him but few dayes, he loued her so well. And Jacob saide vnto Laban: geue me my wyfe, for the tyme is come that I shulde lye with her. Thē Laban bad all the people of that place, and made a mariage. But at euē he toke his doughter Lea, and brought her in vnto him, and he laye w̄ her. And Laban gaue Zilpa his mayde vnto his doughter Lea to be hir mayde.

But on the morow, beholde, it was Lea. And he sayde vnto Laban: Why hast thou done this vnto me? Haue not I serued ẏ for Rachel? Why hast thou then begyled me? Laban answered: It is not the maner in oure countre, to mary the yongest before the eldest. Holde out this weke, & I will geue the this also, for the seruyce ẏ thou shalt do me yet seuen yeares more. Jacob dyd so, & helde out ẏ weke. Then gaue he him Rachel his doughter to wyfe. And Laban gaue Bilha his mayden vnto Rachel his doughter to be hir mayden. So he laye with Rachel also, & loued Rachel more thē Lea, and serued him yet seuen yeares more.

But when the LORDE sawe, that Lea D was nothinge regarded, he made her frutefull, and Rachel baren. And Lea cōceaued, and bare a sonne, whom she called Ruben, 1. Para. 2 and sayde: The LORDE hath loked vpon my aduersite. Now wyll my hußbande loue me. And she conceaued agayne, and bare a sonne, and sayde: The LORDE hath herde that I am despysed, and hath geuē me this also, and she called him Symeon. She cōceaued yet agayne, and bare a sonne, and sayde: Now wyll my hußbande kepe me company agayne, for I haue borne him thre sonnes, therfore called she his name Leui. She conceaued ẏ fourth tyme, and bare a sonne, and sayde: Now wyll I geue thankes vnto the LORDE, therfore called she him Juda, and left bearynge.

The XXX. Chapter.

When Rachel sawe that she bare no A children vnto Jacob, she had enuye at hir sister, & saide vnto Jacob: Geue me childrē also, or els I am but deed. But Jacob was very wroth at Rachel, & sayde: Am I then in Gods steade, which kepeth ẏ frute of ẏ wombe from ẏ? Neuertheles she sayde: Beholde, there is Bilha my mayden, lye w̄ her, ẏ she maye beare vpon my lappe, & that I maye be increased by her. And so she gaue him Bilha hir mayden to wyfe.

And Jacob laye with her. So Bilha conceaued, and bare Jacob a sonne. Then say-

de Rachel: God hath geuen sentence on my syde, and herde my voyce, and geue me a son
B ne, therfore called she him Dan. Bilha Rachels mayde cõceaued agayne, and bare another sonne vnto Jacob. Then sayde Rachel: God hath turned it with me, and my sister, and I have gottē the vpperhande. And she called him Nephthali.

Now whan Lea sawe that she had left bearynge, she toke Silpa hir mayde, and gaue her vnto Jacob to wyfe. So Silpa Leas mayde bare Jacob a sonne. Then saide Lea: This is good lucke, & she called him Gad. After this Silpa Leas mayde bare Jacob another sonne. Then sayde Lea: Well is me, for the doughters will call me blessed, and she called him Asser.

Ruben wente out in the tyme of ỹ wheate harueste, and founde Mandragoras in the felde, and brought them home vnto his mother Lea. Then sayde Rachel vnto Lea: Ge
C ue me some of ỹ sonnes Mãdragoras. She answered: Hast thou not ynough that thou hast taken awaye my hußbande, but wilt take awaye my sonnes Mandragoras also? Rachel saide: Wel, let him lye with the this night for thy sonnes Mandragoras. Now whan Jacob came home at euen from the felde, Lea wente forth to mete him, and sayde: Thou shalt lye w̄ me, for I haue bought the for my sonnes Mandragoras.

And he slepte with her that night. And God herde Lea, and she conceaued, and bare Jacob the fifth sonne, & sayde: God hath rewarded me, because I gaue my mayden vnto my hußbande, and she called him Issachar. Lea conceaued yet agayne, and bare Jacob the sixte sonne, and sayde: God hath endewed me with a good dowry. Now wyll my hußbande dwell with me agayne, for I haue borne him sixe sonnes, & she called him Zabulon. After that she bare a doughter, a Ge.34.a whom she called *Dina.

D Neuertheles God thought vpõ Rachel, and herde her, and made her frute full. Then she conceaued, and bare a sonne, and sayde: God hath taken awaye my rebuke, and she 1.Par.2.a called him Joseph, and sayde: God geue me yet another sonne.

Now whan Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob sayde vnto Laban: Let me go, & departe in to my place and vnto myne owne lande: geue me my wyues and my children, (for the which I haue serued the) ỹ I maye go: for thou knoweste, what seruyce I haue done the. Laban sayde vnto him: Can I not fynde fauoure in thy sight? I perceaue, that 2.Re.11.d God hath blessed me for thy sake. Appoynte thou the reward, ỹ I shal geue the. But he saide vnto him: Thou knoweste how I haue serued the, and what maner of catell thou hast vnder me. Thou haddest but litle afore I came hither, but now is it growne into a multitude, and the LORDE hath blessed ỹ for my sake. And now whan shall I loke to E myne owne house also? He saide: What shal I then geue the?

Jacob sayde: Thou shalt geue me nothinge at all, but yf thou wilt do this for me ỹ I saye, then wyll I fede and kepe thy shepe agayne. I wyll go thorow all thy flockes to daye, and separate thou from amonge them all the shepe that be spotted and partye coloured, and all blacke shepe amonge the lambes. Now loke what shalbe partie coloured and spotted amõge the kyddes, the same shal be my rewarde: so shal my righteousnes testifie with me to daye or tomorow, whan it cõmeth vnto my rewarde before the, so that, what so euer is not spotted and partye coloured amonge the kyddes, and blacke amõge the lambes, let that be theft with me.

F Then sayde Laban: Beholde, let it be so as thou hast sayde. And that same daye he sundered out the speckled and partye coloured goates, and all the spotted and partye coloured kyddes (where there was eny whyte vpon them) and all that was black amonge the lambes, and put them vnder the hande of his children, and made rowme of thre dayes iourney wyde betwixte him and Jacob. So Jacob kepte the residue of Labans flocke.

But Jacob toke staues of grene wyllies, hasell and of chestnottrees, and pylled whyte strekes in them, and layed the staues that he had pylled, in the drynkinge troughes before the flocke, which came there to drynke, Ge.31.d that they shulde conceaue, whan they came to drynke. So the flockes conceaued ouer ỹ staues, and brought forth speckelde, spotted and partye coloured.

G Then Jacob parted ỹ lambes, and put them to the flocke vnto the spotted: and all that was blacke in Labans flocke, that put he vnto the spotted. And he made him a flocke of his owne, which he put not vnto Labans flocke. Neuertheles in the first buckynge tyme of the flockes, he layed the staues in the drynkinge troughes before the eyes of the flockes, that they shulde conceaue ouer the staues. But in the latter buckynge tyme he layed them not in. So the later were Labans, but the firstlinges were Jacobs.

Thus the man became exceadinge riche, so that he had many shepe, maydens & seruaun tes, Camels and Asses.

The XXXI. Chapter.

A HE herde also of ỳ wordes of Labans children, that they sayde: Jacob hath brought all o' fathers good vnto him self, & of oure fathers good hath he gotten these riches. And Jacob behelde Labans countenaunce, & beholde, it was not towarde him as yesterdaye and yeryesterdaye.

Gen. 28.b And the LORDE sayde vnto him: * Departe agayne to thy fatherlãde, and to thy kynred, I wyll be with the. Then sent Jacob and bad call Rachel and Lea into the felde to his flockes, and sayde vnto them: I se youre fathers countenaunce, that it is not towarde me like as yesterdaye and yeryesterdaye: but the God of my father hath bene with me. And ye knowe, that I haue serued youre father with all my power.

B And he hath disceaued me, and chaunged my wages now ten tymes. But God hath not suffred him, to do me harme. Yf he sayde: The partye coloured shalbe thy reward, then the whole flocke bare partye coloured. Yf he sayde: The speckelde shalbe thy reward, thẽ the whole flocke bare speckelde. Thus hath God with drawen youre fathers goodes from him, and geuen them vnto me. For whan the buckynge tyme came, I lift vp myne eyes and sawe in a dreame, and beholde, the rammes leapte vpon the flocke that was speckelde, spotted, & partye coloured.

And the angel of God sayde vnto me in a dreame: Jacob. And I answered: here am I. He sayde: lift vp thine eyes, and beholde, the rammes leape vpon the speckelde, spotted, and partie coloured flocke: for I haue sene all ỳ Laban doth vnto the. I am ỳ God Gen.28.d at Bethel, * where thou dyddest anoynte the stone, & maydest a vowe there vnto me. Get the vp now, & departe out of this londe, & go agayne in to the londe of thy kynred.

C Then answered Rachel and Lea, and sayde vnto him: As for vs, we haue no porcion ner inheritãce more in oure fathers house, & he hath cõsted vs as straũgers, for he hath solde vs, & spent vp o' wages. Therfore hath God withdrawẽ o' fathers riches from him vnto vs & oure children. What so euer now God hath sayde vnto the, that do.

So Jacob gat vp, and set his children and wyues vpon Camels, and caried awaye all his catell and all his substaunce, that he had gotten at Mesopotamia, ỳ he might come vnto Jsaac his father in the lande of Canaan. Labã was gone to clyppe his flocke, and Rachel stale hir fathers * ymages. Thus dyd Jacob steale awaie ỳ hert of Laban ỳ Syrian, in ỳ he tolde him not that he fled. So he fled, & all that was his, gat vp, and passed ouer the water, & went straight towarde the mount Gilead. Gen. 31. 1.Re.13. *Gen 35.

D Vpon the thirde daye it was tolde Laban, that Jacob fled. And he toke his brethrẽ vnto him, and folowed after him seuen dayes iourney, and ouertoke him vpon the mount Gilead. But God came vnto Laban the Syrian in a dreame by nyght, & sayde vnto him: Bewarre, that thou speake no thinge to Jacob but good. And Labã drewnye vnto Jacob. As for Jacob, he had pyched his tente vpon the mount. And Laban with his brethrẽ pytched his tent also vpon the same mount Gilead.

Then sayde Laban vnto Jacob: What hast thou done, that thou hast stollen awaie my hert, and caried awaye my doughters, as though they had bene taken captyue wt ỳ swerde. Wherfore kepte st thou that secrete, that thou woldest flye, and hast stollen awaye from me, and toldest me not, that I might haue brought the on the waye with myth, with synginge, with tabrettes and harpes: and hast not suffred me to kysse my children and doughters. Thou hast done foolishly, and so moch might I haue made, that I coude haue done you euell: but youre fathers God saide yesterdaye vnto me: Bewarre, that thou speake nothinge vnto Jacob but good. And for so moch then as thou woldest nedes departe, and longedest sore after ỳ fathers house, why hast thou stollen away my goddes?

E Jacob answered and sayde vnto Laban: I was afrayed, that thou shuldest haue taken away thy doughters from me: but loke by whom thou fyndest thy goddes, let the same dye here before oure brethren. Seke that thine is by me, and take it awaye. (But he knew not, that Rachel had stollen them.) Then wente Laban in to Jacobs tent and in to Leas tent, and in to both the maydens tẽtes, and founde nothinge: and out of Leas tente he wente in to Rachels tent. Then toke Rachel the ymages, and layed them vnder the Camels strawe, and sat downe vpon them. But Laban searched the whole tent, and founde nothinge. Then sayde she vnto hir father: Be not angrie my lorde, that I can not ryse vp vnto the: for it goeth wt me after the maner of wemen. So he sought,

And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban, answered & sayde vnto him: What haue I trespased or offended, þ thou art so whote vpon me? Thou hast searched all my housholde stuff, & what hast thou founde of thy housholde stuff? Laye it here before my brethren & thyne, þ they maye iudge betwene vs both. Twentye yeare haue I bene wt the: thy shepe & goates haue not bene vnfrutefull, the rammes of thy flocke haue I not lx.22.b eaten: Loke what was * torne of beastes, I brought it not vnto þ, I was fayne to paie it my self: thou requyredest it of my hande, whether it were stollen fro me by daye or by nyght. On the daye tyme the heate cõsumed me, and the frost on the nyght, and my slepe departed fro myne eyes.

E Thus haue I serued twentye yeare in thy house, fourtene yeares for thy doughters, & sixe for thy flocke, and ten tymes hast thou chaunged my reward: & yf the God of my father the God of Abraham, and the feare of Isaac had not bene on my syde, thou haddest latten me go awaye emptye. But God hath loked vpon myne aduersite and labour, and rebuked the yesterdaye.

Laban answered and sayde: The doughters are my doughters, & the children are my childrẽ, and the flockes are my flockes, & all that thou seist is myne. What can I do this daye vnto these my doughters, or to their children whom they haue borne? Now therfore come on, let vs make a couenaunt (I & thou) which maye be a wytnesse betwene me and the. Then toke Jacob a stone, & set it vp (for a piler or marckstone) and sayde vnto his brethren: Gather stones. And they toke the stones, and made an heape, & ate vpon the same heape. And Labã called it Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it Gilead: (either of them after the properte of his language.)

Ps.34.f sayde: The LORDE loke betwene me and þ, whan we are departed þ one from þ other: yf thou vexe my doughters, or take other wynes vnto them. There is no mã with vs, but lo, God is the wytnesse betwene me and the. And Laban sayde moreouer vnto Jacob: Beholde, this is the heape, and this is the marckstone that I haue set vp betwixte me and the: the same heape be wytnesse, and the same marckstone also be wytnesse, yf I passe ouer vnto the, or yf thou passe ouer this heape & marckstone vnto me, to do eny harme. The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, and the God of their fathers, be iudge betwene vs.

And Jacob sware vnto him by the feare of his father Isaac. And Jacob offred an offeryng vpon the mount, and called his brethrẽ to eate bred. And whan they had eaten, they taried vpon the mount all nyght. But vpon the morow Laban rose vp early, & kyssed his childrẽ & doughters, & blessed thẽ, & departed, and came agayne vnto his place. As for Jacob, he wente on his iourney, & the angels of God met him. And whan he sawe them, he sayde: It is Gods hoost, & called the same place Mahanaim.

The XXXII. Chapter.

JAcob sent messaungers before him A
* Iosu. to his brother Esau * in to the lande of Seir, of the felde of Edom, & commaunded thẽ, & sayde: Saye thus vnto my lorde Esau: Thy seruaunt Jacob sendeth þ this worde: I haue bene out wt Laban, & haue bene hither to amonge straungers, & haue oxen & Asses, shepe, seruauntes & maydẽs, & haue sent forth to shewe it the my lorde, þ I might fynde fauoure in thy sight.

The messaungers came agayne vnto Jacob, and sayde: We came vnto thy brother Esau, & he commeth forth also agaynst the with foure hundreth men. Then was Jacob sore afrayed, and wyst not what waye to turne him self, & deuyded the people that was with him, and the shepe, and the oxen, & the Camels in to two droues, & sayde: Yf Esau come vpon the one droue, and smyte it, the other shal escape.

Jacob sayde moreouer: O God of my fa- B E

And there he taried that nyght, and toke C brother Esau, two hũdreth she goates, twentye he goates, two hundreth shepe, twentye rammes and thirtie mylck camels wt their foales, fourtye kyne, ten bullockes, twentye she Asses with ten foales, and put them in the handes of his seruauntes, euery flock by them selues, & sayde vnto them: Go ye forth before me, & put a space betwixte one flocke after the other, and commaunded the first and sayde:

When my brother Esau meteth the, and axeth the: Whose art thou? & whyther goest thou? and whose are these that thou dryuest before the? Thou shalt saye: They be thy seruaunt Jacobs, which sendeth a present vnto his lorde Esau, and commeth behynde vs him self.

D Thus commaunded he the seconde also, and the thirde, and all them that folowed the flockes, and sayde: Like as I haue tolde you, so speake ye vnto Esau, whan ye mete him, and saye vnto him also: Beholde, ỳ seruaũt Jacob is behynde vs. For he thought: I wyll reconcyle him with the present that goeth before me, after warde wyll I se him my self, peraduenture he shall receaue me to grace.

So the present wente before him, but he taried in the tente the same night, and rose vp in ỳ night, and toke his two wyues and the two maydens and his eleuen sonnes, and wente vnto the foorde of Jacob, toke them and caried them ouer the water, so that all that he had came ouer, and taried him self alone on this syde.

Then wrestled there a man with him vntyll the breake of ỳ daye. And whan he sawe ỳ he might not ouercome him, he touched the senowe of his thye, and ỳ senowe of his thye shrancke in wrestlinge with him. And he sayde: Let me go, for ỳ daye breaketh on. But he answered: I will not let ỳ go, except thou blesse me. He sayde: What is thy name? He answered: Jacob. He sayde: Thou shalt nomore be called Jacob, but Israel, for thou hast stryuen with God and with men, and hast preuayled. And Jacob axed him, & sayde: Tell me, what is ỳ name? But he sayde: Why axest thou what my name is? And he blessed him there. And Jacob called the place Peniel, for I haue sene God face to face, & my soule is recouered. And as he came ouer frō Peniel, ỳ Sonne rose vpō him, & he halted vpon his thye. Therfore eate the children of Israel no vane vpon the senow of ỳ thye vnto this daye, because ỳ vane vpon the senow of Jacobs thye was touched.

The XXXIII. Chapter.

A JAcob lift vp his eyes, & sawe his brother Esau cōmynge with foure hundreth men: and he deuyded his children vnto Lea vnto Rachel, and to both the maydēs, and set the maydens with their children before, and Lea with hir childrē after, and Rachel with Joseph hynder most. And he went before them, and bowed him self to the grounde seuen tymes, tyll he came to his brother. * But Esau ranne to mete him, and embraced him, and fell aboute his neck, & kyssed him, and wepte, and lift vp his eyes, and sawe the wyues with the children, and sayde: What are these with the? He answered: They are the children, which God hath geuen vnto thy seruaunt. And the maydens came forth with their children, and dyd their obeysaunce vnto him. * Ge. 27. g

Lea came forth also with hir childrē, and B kneled vnto him. Afterwarde came Joseph and Rachel forth, and kneled vnto him likewyse. And he sayde: What meanest thou wt all the droue that I met? He answered: that I might fynde grace in the sight of my lorde, Esau sayde: I haue ynough my brother, kepe that thou hast. Jacob answered: Oh nay, but yf I haue founde grace in ỳ sight, receaue my present of my hande (for I sawe thy face, as though I had sene the face of God) and be at one with me. Take this present in good worth, that I haue brought ỳ, for God hath geuen it me, & I haue ynough of all thinges. So he compelled him to take it. 2. Re. 19. c Hest. 15. b

And he sayde: Let vs go on and take oure C iourney, I wyll go in thy company. But he sayde vnto him: My lorde, thou knowest that I haue tender children by me, and small and greate catell also, which are yet but yonge: yf they shulde be dryuē ouer in one daye, the whole flocke wolde dye. Let my lorde go on before his seruaũt. I wyll dryue after fayre and softly, (there after as the catell & the children can go,) tyll I come to my lorde in Seir. Esau sayde: Yet wil I leaue some of my people with the. He answered: What nede is it? Let me but onely fynde grace in the sight of my lorde.

So Esau departed againe the same daye D towarde Seir, and Jacob toke his iourney towarde Sucoth, and buylded him an house, and made tētes for his catell. Therfore is the place called Sucoth.

Afterwarde came Jacob peaceably vnto the cite of Sichem, which lyeth in ỳ lande of Canaan, after that he was come agayne out of Mesopotamia, and pitched before the cite, and bought a pece of londe of the children of Hemor ỳ father of Sichem for Gen. 28. c Iosu. 24.

Some reade: *an hundreth lambes.

*an hundreth pens. There pitched he his tent, and there he set vp an altare, and called vpon the name of the mighty God of Israel.

The XXXIIII. Chapter.

A Dina ỳ doughter of Lea, which she bare vnto Jacob, wente out to beholde the doughters of the londe. Whan Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Hevite (which was lorde of the lōde) sawe her, he toke her, and laye with her, and forced her, and his hert hanged vpon her, and he loued ỳ damsell, and talked louyngly with her, and spake to his father Hemor: Get me this mayden to wife.

And Jacob vnderstode, that Dina his doughter was defyled, and his sonnes were with the catell in the felde, and Jacob held his tonge tyll they came. Then Hemor the father of Sichem wente forth vnto Jacob to comen with him. In the meane season came Jacobs sonnes from ỳ felde. And whan they herde it, it greved the men, and they were very wroth, that he had wrought foly in Israel, and lyen with Jacobs doughter: for so was not the vse to do.

B Then comened Hemor with thē, and sayde: My sonne Sichems hert longeth for youre doughter, O geue hir him to wife: make frendshipe with vs, geue vs youre doughters, and take ye oure doughters, and dwell with vs, the londe shall be open vnto you, dwell and occupie, and haue youre possessions therin. And Sichem sayde vnto hir father and brethren: Let me fynde grace with you: loke what ye appoynte me, I will geue it: requyre the dowrye and gift of me hardely, I wyll geue it acordinge as ye wyll axe, onely geue me the damsell to wife.

Then Jacobs sonnes answered Sichem and Hemor his father (and spake disceatfully, because their sister Dina was defyled) & sayde vnto them: That can we not do, to geue oure sister to an vncircumcided man: for that were a shame vnto vs.

C Neuertheles we wyll consente vnto you, yf ye wylbe like vnto vs, and be circumcided as many as are males amonge you: then will we geue you oure doughters, and take youre doughters vnto vs, and dwell with you, and be one people. But yf ye wyll not herken vnto vs, to be circumcided, then wyl we take oure doughter, and go oure waye.

These wordes pleased Hemor and his sonne wel, and the yongeman defarde not to do the same, for he had lust to Jacobs doughter: and he was holden in honoure aboue all in his fathers house. Then came Hemor and Sichem his sonne vnder ỳ gate of cite, and comened with the citisens of the cite, and saide: These men are peaceable with vs, and will dwell in the lande and occupye: now is the londe brode of both the sydes, we wyl take their doughters vnto vs, and geue them oure doughters.

But then wyll they consent vnto vs, to D dwell by vs, and to be one people with vs, yf we circumcyse all the men children amonge vs, like as they are circumcysed: their catell and goodes, and all that they haue, shal be ours, yf we consent vnto them, that they maye dwel with vs.

And they herkened vnto Hemor and Sichem his sonne, as many as wente out and in at ỳ gate of his cite, and circumcided all the males, that wente out and in at his cite. And vpon the thirde daye (whan it was payne full to them) the two sonnes of Jacob Simeon and Leui Dinas brethren, toke euery man his swerde, and wente boldly in to the cite, * and slew all the males, and slew Hemor also and Sichem his sonne with the edge of the swerde, and toke their sister Dina out of Sichems house, and wente their waye.

Then came Jacobs sonnes ouer the slayne, and spoyled the cite (because they had defyled their sister) and toke their shepe, oxen, Asses, and what so euer was in the cite and in the londe, and all maner of goodes: All their children and wynes toke they captyne, and spoyled all ỳ was in the houses.

And Jacob sayde vnto Symeon and Leui: Ye haue brought it so to passe, ỳ I stynke before the inhabiters of this lande, ỳ Canamites and Pherezites, & I am but a small nombre: Yf they gather them selues now together against me, they shal slaye me, so shal I be destroyed with my house. But they answered: Shulde they thē deale with oure sister as with an whoore?

The XXXV. Chapter.

A ANd God sayde vnto Jacob: Get the vp, and go vnto Bethel, & dwell there, and make there an altare vnto the God, that appared vnto the, * whan thou fleddest from thy brother Esau. Then sayde Jacob vnto his housholde and to all ỳ were with him: Put awaye from you ỳ straunge * goddes, that are amonge you, and clense youre selues, and chaunge youre clothes, and let vs get vp, and go vnto Bethel, that I maye there make an altare vnto the God, 28.c which herde me in the tyme of my trouble, and hath bene with me in the waye that I haue gone.

B Then gaue they him all the straunge goddes that were vnder their handes, and their earynges, and he buried them vnder an Oke that stode beside Sichem, & departed. And there came a feare of God vpon the cities that laye roūde aboute, so that they folowed not after ỳ sonnes of Jacob. So came Jacob vnto Lus in ỳ lande of Canaan (which is called Bethel) and all the people that were with him, and there he buylded an altare, and called ỳ place Bethel, because the LORDE appeared vnto him there, whan he fled

So God departed from him, from ỳ place where he talked wh him. And Jacob set vp a piler of stone, in the place where he talked with him, & poured drynkofferynges theron, and poured oyle vpon it. And Jacob called ỳ place where God talked with him, Bethel.

D And he departed from Bethel: and whan he was yet a felde brode from Ephrath, Rachel traueyled, & the byrth came harde vpon

And Jacob had twolue sonnes. The sonnes of Lea were these: Ruben Jacobs first borne sonne, Simeon, Leui, Juda, Isachar, & Zabulō. The sonnes of Rachel, were Joseph and Ben Jamin. The sonnes of Bilha Raches mayde: Dan, and Nepthali. The sonnes of Silpa Leas mayde: Gad and Aser. These are ỳ sonnes of Jacob, which were borne vnto him in Mesopotamia. And he came to his father Isaac to Mamre in to the head cite which is called Hebron, wherein Abrahā & Isaac were straūgers. And Isaac was an hundreth & foure score yeare olde, & fell sicke, and dyed, & was gathered vnto his people, whan he was olde, & had lyued ynough: and his sonnes Esau & Jacob buried him.

And Esau toke his wines sonnes & doughters, and all the soules of his house, his substaunce, and all the catell with all the goodes that he had gotten in the lande of Canaan, and wente in to a countre awaye frō his brother Jacob: for their substaunce was so greate, that they coude not dwell together: and the londe wherin they were straungers, might not holde them because of their goodes. So Esau dwelt vpon mount Seir. And Esau is Edom.

This is ỳ generacīō of Esau, of whō are B come ỳ Edomites vpon ỳ mount Seir. And these are ỳ names of the childrē of Esau: Eliphas ỳ sonne of Ada Esaus wife: Reguel ỳ sonne of Basmath Esaus wife: The sonnes of Eliphas were these: Theman, Omar, Zepho, Gaetham & Kenas. And * Thimna *Ge. 36.d was a concubyne of Elyphas ỳ sonne of Esau, and bare him Amaleck. These are ỳ children of Ada Esaus wyfe.

The children of Reguel are these: Nahath Serah, Samma, Misa. These are the children of Basmath Esaus wife.

The children of Aholibama Esaus wife, the doughter of Ana, that was the childes childe of Zibeon (which she bare vnto Esau) are these: Jeus, Jaelam and Korah.

Some reade: *an hundreth lambes.

*an hundreth pens. There pitched he his tent, and there he set vp an altare, and called vpon the name of the mightie God of Israel.

The XXXIIII. Chapter.

A DIna ỳ doughter of Lea, which she bare vnto Jacob, wente out to beholde the doughters of the londe. Whan Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Hemite (which was lorde of the lōde) sawe her, he toke her, and laye with her, and forced her, and his hert hanged vpon her, and he loued ỳ damsell, and talked louyngly with her, and spake to his father Hemor: Get me this mayden to wife.

And Jacob vnderstode, that Dina his doughter was defyled, and his sonnes were with the catell in the felde, and Jacob helde his tonge tyll they came. Then Hemor the father of Sichem wente forth vnto Jacob to comen with him. In the meane season came Jacobs sonnes from ỳ felde. And whan they herde it, it greued the men, and they were very wroth, that he had wrought foly in Israel, and lyen with Jacobs doughter: for so was not the vse to do.

B Then comened Hemor with thē, and sayde: My sonne Sichems hert longeth for youre doughter, O geue hir him to wife: make frendshipe with vs, geue vs youre doughters, and take ye oure doughters, and dwell with vs, the londe shall be open vnto you, dwell and occupie, and haue youre possessions therin. And Sichem sayde vnto hir father and brethren: Let me fynde grace with you: loke what ye appoynte me, I will geue it: requyre the dowrye and gift of me hardely, I wyll geue it accordinge as ye wyll axe, onely geue me the damsell to wife.

Then Jacobs sonnes answered Sichem and Hemor his father (and spake disceatfully, because their sister Dina was defyled) & sayde vnto them: That can we not do, to geue oure sister to an vncircumcided man: for that were a shame vnto vs.

C Nevertheles we wyll consente vnto you, yf ye wylbe like vnto vs, and be circumcided as many as are males amonge you: then will we geue you oure doughters, and take youre doughters vnto vs, and dwell with you, and be one people. But yf ye wyll not herken vnto vs, to be circumcided, then wyl we take oure doughter, and go oure waye.

These wordes pleased Hemor and his sonne wel, and the yongeman defer de not to do the same, for he had lust to Jacobs doughter: and he was holden in honoure aboue all in his fathers house. Then came Hemor and Sichem his sonne vnder ỳ gate of cite, and comened with the citisens of the cite, and saide: These men are peaceable with vs, and will dwell in the lande and occupye: now is the londe brode of both the sydes, we wyl take their doughters vnto vs, and geue them oure doughters.

But then wyll they consent vnto vs, to D dwell by vs, and to be one people with vs, yf we circumcyse all the men children amonge vs, like as they are circumcysed: their catell and goodes, and all that they haue, shal be ours, yf we consent vnto them, that they maye dwel with vs.

And they herkened vnto Hemor and Sichem his sonne, as many as wente out and in at ỳ gate of his cite, and circumcided all the males, that wente out and in at his cite. And vpon the thirde daye (whan it was pa ne full to them) the two sonnes of Jacob Si Ind. meon and Leui Dinas brethren, toke euery man his swerde, and wente boldly in to the cite, * and slew all the males, and slew He- *Ca. mor also and Sichem his sonne with the edge of the swerde, and toke their sister Dina out of Sichems house, and wente their waye.

Then came Jacobs sonnes ouer the slay E ne, and spoyled the cite (because they had defyled their sister) and toke their shepe, oxen, Asses, and what so euer was in the cite and in the londe, and all maner of goodes: All their children and wyues toke they captyue, and spoyled all ỳ was in the houses.

And Jacob sayde vnto Symeon and Leui: Ye haue brought it so to passe, ỳ I stynke before the inhabiters of this lande, ỳ Cananites and Pheresites, & I am but a small nombre: Yf they gather them selues now together against me, they shal slaye me, so shal I be destroyed with my house. But they answered: Shulde they thē deale with oure sister as with an whoore?

The XXXV. Chapter.

AND God sayde vnto Jacob: Get the A vp, and go vnto Bethel, & dwell there, and make there an altare vnto the God, that appared vnto the, * whan thou *Ca. fleddest from thy brother Esau. Then sayde Jacob vnto his housholde and to all ỳ were with him: Put awaye from you ỳ straunge * goddes, that are amonge you, and clen- *Ca. se youre selues, and chaunge youre clothes, and let vs get vp, and go vnto Bethel, that I maye there make an altare vnto the God, 28.a which herde me in the tyme of my trouble, and hath bene with me in the waye that I haue gone.

B Then gaue they him all the straunge goddes that were vnder their handes, and their earynges, and he buried them vnder an Oke that stode beside Sichem, & departed. And there came a feare of God vpon the cities that laye rounde aboute, so that they folowed not after ỳ sonnes of Jacob. So came Jacob vnto Lus in ỳ lande of Canaan (which is called Bethel) and all the people that were with him, and there he buylded an altare, and called ỳ place Bethel, because the LORDE appeared vnto him there, whan he fled from his brother. Then dyed * Debora Rebeccas norse, and was buried beneth Bethel vnder the Oke, and it was called the Oke of lamentacion.

12.a And God appeared agayne vnto Jacob, after that he was come out of Mesopotamia, and blessed him, & saide vnto him: Thou art called Jacob, neuertheles thou shalt no more be called Jacob, but Jsrael shal be ỳ name. And so was he called Jsrael.

C And God sayde vnto him: * I am the Almightie God, be frute full and multiplye: people and a multitude of people shal come of the, and * kynges shall come out of thy loynes: and the lande that I gaue vnto Abraham and Jsaac, wyll I geue vnto the, & wyl gene it vnto thy sede after the. So God departed from him, from ỳ place where he talked wh him. And Jacob set vp a piler of stone, in the place where he talked with him, & poured drynkofferynges theron, and poured oyle vpon it. And Jacob called ỳ place where God talked with him, Bethel.

D And he departed from Bethel: and whan he was yet a felde brode from Ephrath, Rachel traueyled, & the byrth came harde vpon hir. But whan she had soch payne in trauelynge, ỳ myd wife sayde vnto her: feare not, for thou shalt haue this sonne also. But as hir soule was departynge, ỳ she must dye, she called him Ben Oni: neuertheles his father called hi Bē Jamin. So Rachel died, & was buried in the waye towarde Ephrath, which now is called Bethlehē. And Jacob set vp a piller vpon hir graue, there is Rachels grauestone vnto this daye. And Jsrael departed, and pitched his tent beyonde the tower of * Eder.

E And it chaunsed, that when Jsrael dwelt in that londe, Ruben wente * and laye with Bilha his fathers concubyne, and that came to Jsraels eares.

Ge.49.a

And Jacob had twolue sonnes. The sonnes of Lea were these: Ruben Jacobs first borne sonne, Simeon, Leui, Juda, Jsachar, & Zabulō. The sonnes of Rachel, were Joseph and Ben Jamin. The sonnes of Bilha Raches mayde: Dan, and Nepthali. The sonnes of Silpa Leas mayde: Gad and Aser. These are ỳ sonnes of Jacob, which were borne vnto him in Mesopotamia. And he came to his father Jsaac to Mamre in to the head cite which is called Hebron, wherein Abrahā & Jsaac were straūgers. And Jsaac was an hundreth & foure score yeare olde, & fell sicke, and dyed, & was gathered vnto his people, whan he was olde, & had lyued ynough: and his sonnes Esau & Jacob buried him.

The XXXVI. Chapter.

A This is the generacio of Esau, which is called Edom. Esau toke wynes of the doughters of Canaan. * Ada the doughter of Elō the Hethite: & Ahalibama the doughter of Ana, the childes childe of Zibeon the Heuyte: And Basmath * Jsmaels doughter, the sister of Nebaioth. And Ada bare Eliphas vnto Esau. Basmath bare Reguel. Ahalibama bare Jeus, Jaelam, & Korah. These are the childrē of Esau, ỳ were borne vnto him in the lande of Canaan.

And Esau toke his wiues sonnes & doughters, and all the soules of his house, his substaunce, and all the catell with all the goodes that he had gotten in the lande of Canaan, and wente in to a countre awaye frō his brother Jacob: for their substaunce was so greate, that they coude not dwell together: and the londe wherin they were straungers, might not holde them because of their goodes. So Esau dwelt vpon mount Seir. And Esau is Edom.

B This is ỳ generacio of Esau, of whō are come ỳ Edomites vpon ỳ mount Seir. And these are ỳ names of the childrē of Esau: Eliphas ỳ sonne of Ada Esaus wife: Reguel ỳ sonne of Basmath Esaus wife: The sonnes of Eliphas were these: Theman, Omar, Zepho, Gaetham & Kenas. And * Thimna was a concubyne of Elyphas ỳ sonne of Esau, and bare him Amaleck. These are ỳ children of Ada Esaus wyfe.

The children of Ahalibama Esaus wife, the doughter of Ana, that was the childes childe of Zibeon (which she bare vnto Esau) are these: Jeus, Jaelam and Korah.

C These are the princes amōge the childrē of Esau. The children of Eliphas the first sonne of Esau, were these: The prynce Theman, ỳ prynce Omar, the prynce Zepho, the prynce Kenas, the prynce Korah, the prynce Gaethan, the prynce Amaleck. These are the princes of Eliphas in the lāde of Edō, and are the children of Ada.

And these are the children of Roguel Esaus sonne: ỳ prynce Nahath, ỳ prynce Serah, ỳ prynce Sāma, ỳ prynce Misa. These are ỳ princes of Reguel in ỳ londe of ỳ Edomites, & they are ỳ children of Basmath Esaus wife. These are the children of Ahalibama Esaus wife: The prynce Jeus, ỳ prince Jaelam, the prynce Korah. These are the princes of Ahalibama, ỳ doughter of Ana Esaus wife. These are ỳ childrē of Esau and D their princes. He is Edom. The children of Seir ỳ Horite ỳ dwelt in the londe, are these: Lothan, Sobal, Zibeon, Ana, Dison, Ezer & Disan. These are the princes of the Horites, all children of Seir in the londe of Idumea. But ỳ childrē of Lothan were these: Hori, & Hemā, & Lothās sister was called * Thimna.

* Ge. 36.b

The children of Sobal were these: Alnā, Manahat, Ebal, Sepho & Onā. The childrē of Zibeō were: Aia & Ana. This is the same Ana ỳ foūde * Mules in ỳ wyldernes, whā he kepte his fathers Zibeons Asses. The children of Ana were: Dison: & Ahalibama, ỳ is ỳ doughter of Ana. The childrē of Dison were: Hemdan, Eßban, Jethrā & Charan. The children of Ezer were: Bilhan, Seauā, & Ackan. The children of Disan were: Uz & Aran.

These are ỳ prices of ỳ Horites: The prince Lothan, ỳ prynce Sobal, ỳ prynce Zibeō, ỳ prynce Ana, ỳ prynce Dison, ỳ prince Ezer, ỳ prynce Disan. These are the princes of the Horites, which ruled in ỳ londe of Seir.

E The kynges that reigned in the londe of Edumea (before the childrē of Jsrael had eny kynge) are these: Bela ỳ sonne of Beor was kynge in Edumea, & ỳ name of his cite was Dinhaba. And whā Bela died, Jobab ỳ sonne of Serah of Bosra was kinge in his steade. When Jobab dyed, Husam out of ỳ lōde of the Themanites was kynge in his steade. Whan Husam dyed, Hadad ỳ sonne of Bedad (which slewe ỳ Madianites in ỳ Moabites felde) was kinge in his steade, & the name of his cite was Anith. Whan Hadad dyed, Samla of Masreck was kinge in his steade. Whā Samla died, Saul of Rehoboth by ỳ water syde, was kinge in his steade. Whan Saul dyed, Baal Hanā the sonne of Achbor was kynge in his steade. Whā Baal Hanā the sonne of Achbor dyed, Hadad was kinge in his steade, & the name of his cite was Pagu, & his wifes name was Mehet Abeel, the doughter of Matred, the doughter of Mesahab. Thus are the princes of Esau called in their kynreds, places & names: The prynce Thymna, ỳ prynce Alua, ỳ prynce Jetheth, the prynce Ahalibama, the prynce Ela, the prynce Pynon, the prynce Kenas, ỳ prynce Theman, ỳ prince Mibzar, the prince Magdiel, ỳ prynce Jrā. These are the princes in Edumea, like as they dwelt in ỳ lāde of their possessions. And Esau is ỳ father of ỳ Edomites.

The XXXVII. Chapter.

A Jacob dwelt in ỳ lande, wherin his father was a straunger, namely in the lāde of Canaā. And these are ỳ generacōs of Jacob. Joseph was seuētene yeare olde, whā he became a keper of the catell wt his brethren, & the lad was wt the children of Bilha & Silpa his fathers wyues, and tolde their father of ỳ euell reporte ỳ was of thē. Jsrael loued Joseph more thē all his childrē because he had begottē him in his olde age, and he made him a cote of many coloures.

Now whā his brethrē sawe, ỳ his father loued him more thē all his brethrē, they had euell wyll at him, & coude not speake a frēdly worde vnto hī. * Joseph also had once a dreme, and tolde his brethrē therof. Thē hated they him ỳ more, for he sayde: Heare J praye you what J dreamed. Me thought we were byndinge sheeues vpō ỳ felde, & my shefe arose, and stode vp, and youre sheeues rounde aboute made obeysaunce vnto my shefe.

Then sayde his brethrē vnto him: Shalt thou be ō kinge, and haue domyniō ouer vs? And they hated him yet ỳ more, because of his dreame, & his wordes. And he had yet another dreame, which he tolde his brethrē, & saide: Beholde, J had yet another dreame: Me thought ỳ Sonne & ỳ Moone & eleuen starres made obeisaūce to me. And whā this was tolde his father and his brethrē, his father reproued him, & sayde vnto him: What maner of dreame is this, ỳ thou hast dreamed? Shall J & thy mother, & thy brethren come & fall before ỳ vpon the groūde? And his brethrē had envie at him. But his father marcked this sayenge.

Now whā his brethren were gone forth C to kepe their fathers catell in Sichē, Jsrael sayde vnto Joseph: Do not ỳ brethren kepe the catell in Sichem? Come, J wil sende the vnto thē. He answered: * Here am J. And he v.b sayde: Go thy waye, and loke whether it be well wt thy brethren and with ỳ catell, and bringe me worde agayne how it is. And he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, to go vnto Sichem.

Then a certayne man founde him, wandringe out of his waye in the felde, which axed him, and sayde: Whom sekest thou? He answered: I seke my brethren: tell me I pray the where they kepe. The man sayde: They are gone from hence, for I herde them saye: let vs go vnto Dothan. Then folowed Joseph after his brethren, and founde them at Dothan.

D Now whan they sawe him a farre of, afore he came at the, they deuysed to sleye him, and sayde one to another: Lo, there cometh the dreamer, * come on, and let vs sley him, & cast him in a pytt, and saye: a wicked beast hath deuoured him: the shal it be sene, what his dreames are.

When Ruben herde that, he wolde haue delyuered him out of their handes, & sayde: * O let vs not sley a soule. Ruben sayde moreouer vnto him: Shed no blonde, but cast him into this pytt ẏ is in the wyldernes, & laye ye no hades vpon him. (He wolde haue delyuered him out of their hades, ẏ he might haue brought him agayne vnto his father.)

E Whan Joseph now came to his brethre, they stryped him out of his cote, that partye coloured cote which he had vpon him, & toke him and cast him in to a pytt. But the same pytt was emptye, and no water in it, & they sat them downe to eate. In the meane season they lift vp their eyes, and sawe a cōpany of Ismaelites cōmynge from Gilead, with their camels, which bare spyces, balme, and myrre, and were goinge downe into Egipte.

Then saide Juda vnto his brethre: what helpeth it vs, that we sleye oure brother, and hyde his blonde? Come, let vs sell him vnto the Ismaelites, that oure handes be not defyled vpon him, for he is oure brother, oure flesh and blonde. And they herkened vnto him.

And as the Madianites marchaunt men wente by, they drew Joseph out of the pytt, and solde him vnto the Ismaelites (for twēty syluer pens) which brought him in to Egipte. Act. 7.b

F Now whan Ruben came agayne vnto the pytt, & founde not Joseph therin, he rent his clothes, and came agayne to his brethre and sayde: The lad is not yonder, whyther shal I go? Then toke they Josephs cote & slewe a goate, and dypped the cote in ẏ blonde, and sent awaye that partie coloured cote, and caused it be brought vnto their father and sayde: This haue we founde, loke, whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

But he knewe it, and sayde: It is my sonnes coate, * a wicked beast hath deuoured him, a rauyshinge beast hath rauyshed Joseph. And Jacob rēte his clothes, and put a sackcloth aboute his loynes, & mourned for his sonne a longe season. And all his sonnes & doughters came vnto him to cōforte him. But he wolde not be cōforted, & saide: With sorowe wil I go downe in to the graue vnto my sonne. And his father wepte for him. But the Madianites solde him in Egipte vnto potiphar pharaos chefe Marshall. *Ge. 44.d

The XXXVIII. Chapter.

A IT fortuned at the same time, ẏ Juda wente downe frō his brethren, & gat him to a man called Hyra at Odollam. And there Juda sawe a mā of Canaās doughter called Sua, and toke her. And whē he had lyen with her, she conceaued and bare a sonne, whom she called Er.

And she conceaued agayne, & bare a sonne whō she called Onā. She proceaded yet further, & bare a sonne, whō she called Sela. And whā she had borne him, she left of bearinge.

And Juda gaue his first sonne Er a wife, whose name was Thamar. But he was wicked before the LORDE, therfore the LORDE slew him. Then sayde Juda vnto his sonne Onan: Go lie with thy brothers wife, and marye thyself with her, that thou mayest rayse vp sede vnto thy brother. But when B Onan knewe that the sede shulde not be his owne, whan he laye with his brothers wife, he let it fall vpon the earth and destroyed it, ẏ he shulde not geue sede vnto his brother. This thinge that he dyd displeased the LORDE sore, and he slewe him also. Deut. 25.a

Then sayde Judas vnto Thamar his sonnes wyfe. Remayne a wyddow in thy fathers house, tyll my sonne Sela be growne: for he thought: peraduenture he might dye also like as his brethren. So Thamar went hir waye, and remained in hir fathers house. Now whā many dayes were past, ỳ doughter of Sua Judas wife dyed. And whan Juda had left mournynge, he wente vp vnto

*Ge. 31. c Thimnath * to clyppe his shepe with his
2. Re. 13. e shepherde Hyra of Odollam.

C Then was it tolde Thamar: beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp vnto Thimnath, to clyppe his shepe. Then put she of ỳ wyd dowes garmentes that she had vpon her, covered and dysgysed hir self, ꝛ sat hir downe without the porte by the waye syde towarde Thymnath. For she sawe that Sela was growne, and she was not geuen vnto him to wife.

Now whan Juda sawe her, he thought it had bene an whoore, for she had covered hir face: and he gat him to her in the waye, and saide: I praye the let me lye with the, for he knewe not that it was his doughter in lawe. She answered: What wilt thou geue me, that thou mayest lie with me? He sayde: I wil sende the a kydd from the flocke. She answered: Geue me a pledge then, tyll thou sende it me. He sayde: What pledge wilt thou that I geue the?

D She answered: Thy signet, and thy bracelet, and thy staff that thou hast in thy hā/de. Then he gaue it her, and laye with her, and she was with childe of him. And she gat hir vp, and wente hir waye, and layed of hir cloke, and put on hir wyddowes garmētes agayne.

Juda sent the kydd by his shepherde of Odolla, to fetch the pledge agayne from the woman, and he founde her not. Then axed he the men of the same place, ꝛ sayde: Where is the whoore ỳ sat without in the waye? They answered: There hath no whoore bene here. And he came agayne vnto Juda, and saide: I haue not founde her, moreover ỳ men of the same place saide: that there hath no whoore bene there. Juda sayde: Let her take it vnto her, lest we happly be shamed, for I haue sent the kydd, and thou hast not founde her.

E After thre monethes it was tolde Juda: Thamar thy doughter in lawe hath plaied the whoore: and beholde, by whordome is she gotten with childe. Juda sayde: bringe her forth, that she maye be brent. And whan she was brought forth, she sent vnto hir father in lawe, and sayde: By the man ỳ owneth these, am I ẅ childe. And she sayde: Knoweest thou whose is this signet, this bracelet ꝛ this staff? Juda knewe thē, ꝛ sayde: She is more righteous thē I, for I gaue hir not my sonne Sela: But he laye nomore with her.

Whan the tyme came that she shulde be delyuered, there were two twyns founde in hir wombe. And as she was now in trauelynge, the one put out his hande. Then the mydwife toke and boūde a reed threde about it, and saide: This shal come out first. But whan he pluckte in his hande agayne, his brother came forth. And she sayde: Wherfore is there a rent mayde for thy sake? And he was called * Phares. Afterwarde came his brother forth, which had ỳ reed threde about his hande, and he was called Zarah.

The XXXIX. Chapter.

JOseph was brought downe in to Egipte, ꝛ Potiphar an Egipcia̅ pha- 2 C raos chefe marshall bought him of ỳ Ismaelites, ỳ brought him downe. And ỳ LORDE was ẅ Joseph, in so moch ỳ he became a luckye mā, ꝛ was in his master ỳ Egipcians house. And his master sawe ỳ the LORDE was ẅ him: for what so euer he dyd, the LORDE made it to prospere in his hāde: so ỳ he founde fauō in his masters sight, ꝛ was his seruaunt. He made him ruler of his house, and put all that he had, vnder his hande. And from the tyme forth that he had made him ruler of his house and all his goodes, ỳ LORDE blessed the Egipcians house for Josephs sake: and there was nothynge but the very blessynge of the LORDE in all ỳ he had in ỳ house ꝛ in the felde, therfore left he all ỳ he had, in Josephs hande. And medled with nothinge himself, saue onely the bred that he ate. And Joseph was fayre of bewtye, and well fauoured of face.

And it fortuned after these actes, that his B masters wife cast hir eyes vpon Joseph, and sayde: Slepe with me. But he denyed, and saide vnto her: Beholde, my master knoweth not what is in ỳ house, and all that he hath, that hath he put vnder my hande. And there is no man so greate in the house as I, and he hath kepte nothinge fro me, excepte the: for thou art his wife. How shulde I then do so greate euell, and synne agaynst God? But she spake soch wordes vnto Joseph daylie. Neuertheles he herkened not vnto her, to slepe by her, or to be in her company.

It fortuned vpon a tyme, that Joseph C
wente in to the house to do his busynesse, and there was none of ỳ folkes of the house there by. And she caught him by his garment, ꝛ sayde: Slepe with me. But he left the garment in hir hande, and fled, and gat him out of the house.

Now whā she sawe that he had left his garmēt in hir hande, and fled out, she called the folkes in the house, and sayde vnto thē: Lo, he hath brought vs in the Hebrue, to do vs shame. He came in here vnto me, to slepe by me: but I cried with loude voyce. And whan he herde that I made a noyse & cried, he left his garmēt here by me, and fled, and ranne out.

D And she layed vp his garmēt by her, tyll his master came home, and tolde him euen the same wordes, and sayde: The Hebrue seruaunt whom thou broughtest here vnto vs, came in here to me, for to do me shame. But whan I made a noyse and cried, he left his garment here by me, and fled out. Whan his master herde the wordes of his wyfe which she tolde him, and sayde: Thus hath the Hebrue seruaunt done vnto me, he was very wroth.

E Then his master toke him, and put him in 4.c the preson, wherin the kinges presoners laie. And there he laye in preson. But the LORDE was with him, and had mercy vpon him, & caused him to fynde fauo' in the sight of the officer of ỳ preson, so that he committed all the presoners of the preson vnto his hādes: that what so euer were done, might be done by him. For the officer of the preson sawe, ỳ the LORDE was with him in all ỳ was vnder his handes, and that what so euer he dyd, the LORDE made it to come prosperously to passe.

The XL. Chapter.

A AND it fortuned after this, that ỳ kynge of Egiptes chefe butlar and ỳ chefe baker offended their lorde the kynge of Egipte. And Pharao was angrie wt them, & caused them be put in preson in ỳ chefe marshals house, where Joseph laye preso ner. And the chefe marshall put Joseph vnto them, ỳ he might serue them. And so they were in preson for a season.

And they dreamed, both the butlar & the baker in one night, euery mā his owne drea me, and euery dreame had his interpretaciō. Now in the mornynge whan Joseph came in vnto them, and sawe that they loked sadly, he axed them and sayde: Why loke ye so sadly to daye? They answered: We haue dreamed, and haue no man to declare it vnto vs. Joseph sayde: Interpretinge belongeth vnto God, but tell it me yet.

B Then the chefe butlar tolde Joseph his dreame, and saide vnto him: I dreamed that there was a vyne before me, which had thre braunches, and it budded, grewe and bare blossoms, and the grapes therof were rype. And I had Pharaos cuppe in my hande, & toke (the grapes) and wronge thē in to ỳ cup pe, and gaue Pharao the cuppe in his hāde.

Joseph sayde: This is the interpretaciō: The thre braunches are thre dayes, and ouer thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and putt the in thine office agayne, that thou mayest geue him the cuppe in his hande after the olde maner, whā thou wast his butlar. But whan thou art in thy prosperite, thynke vpon me, and shewe me kyndnesse, that thou mayest certifie Pharao of me, ỳ he maie bringe me out of this house: for I was preuely caried out of the lande of the Hebrues, and here also haue I done nothinge, that they shulde haue put me in this dongeon.

Whan the chefe baker sawe, that the in- C terpretacion was good, he sayde vnto Joseph: I dreamed, that I bare thre wyker baskettes vpon my heade, and in ỳ vppermost basket all maner of bakē meates vnto Pharao, and the foules ate out of the basket vpon my heade.

Joseph answered, and sayde: This is the interpretacion: The thre basketes are thre dayes, and after thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and hange the vpon the galowe, and the foules shal eate thy flesh from of ỳ.

And vpon the thirde daye it came to passe, that Pharao helde his * byrth daye, and made a feast vnto all his seruauntes, and to ke the chefe butlar and the chefe baker before all his seruauntes, and restored the chefe butlar to his butlarshipe agayne, so that he reached the cuppe in to Pharaos hande. As for the chefe baker, he caused him be hanged like as Joseph had interpretated vnto him. Neuertheless the chefe butlar thought not on Joseph, but forgat him. * Mat. 14.2

The XLI. Chapter.

AND after two yeares Pharao had a A dreame, how that he stode by a water syde: and beholde, out of the water there came seuen goodly kyne, and fatfleshed, and wente fedinge in the medowe. After these he sawe other seuen kyne come out of the water, which were euell fauoured and leane fleshed, and wente by the kyne vpon ỳ water syde: and the euell fauoured leene kyne ate vp the seuen goodly and fatt kyne. Then Pharao awaked.

And he slepte agayne, and dreamed the seconde tyme. And he sawe that seuen eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, full and good. Afterwarde he sawe seuē thynne and hir waye, and remained in hir fathers house. Now whā many dayes were past, ẏ doughter of Sua Judas wife dyed. And whan Juda had left mournynge, he wente vp vnto

C Then was it tolde Thamar: beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp vnto Thimnath, to clyppe his shepe. Then put she of ẏ wyd dowes garmentes that she had vpon her, covered and dysgysed hir self, & sat hir downe without the porte by the waye syde towarde Thymnath. For she sawe that Sela was growne, and she was not geuen vnto him to wife.

Now whan Juda sawe her, he thought it had bene an whoore, for she had covered hir face: and he gat him to her in the waye, and saide: I praye the let me lye with the, for he knewe not that it was his doughter in lawe. She answered: What wilt thou geue me, that thou mayest lie with me? He sayde: I wil sende the a kydd from the flocke. She answered: Geue me a pledge then, tyll thou sende it me. He sayde: What pledge wilt thou that I geue the?

D She answered: Thy signet, and thy bracelet, and thy staff that thou hast in thy hā/de. Then he gaue it her, and laye with her, and she was with childe of him. And she gat hir vp, and wente hir waye, and layed of hir cloke, and put on hir wyddowes garmētes agayne.

Juda sent the kydd by his shepherde of Odolla, to fetch the pledge agayne from the woman, and he founde her not. Then axed he the men of the same place, & sayde: Where is the whoore ẏ sat without in the waye? They answered: There hath no whoore bene here. And he came agayne vnto Juda, and saide: I haue not founde her, moreouer ẏ men of the same place saide: that there hath no whoore bene there. Juda sayde: Let her take it vnto her, lest we happly be shamed, for I haue sent the kydd, and thou hast not founde her.

E After thre monethes it was tolde Juda: Thamar thy doughter in lawe hath plaied the whoore: and beholde, by whoredome is she gotten with childe. Juda sayde: brynge her forth, that she maye be brent. And whan she was brought forth, she sent vnto hir father in lawe, and sayde: By the man ẏ owneth these, am I wt childe. And she sayde: Knoweest thou whose is this signet, this bracelet & this staff? Juda knewe thē, & sayde: She is more righteous thē I, for I gaue hir not my sonne Sela: But he laye nomore with her.

Whan the tyme came that she shulde be delyuered, there were two twyns founde in hir wombe. And as she was now in trauelynge, the one put out his hande. Then the mydwife toke and bounde a reed threde about it, and saide: This shal come out first. But whan he pluckte in his hande agayne, his brother came forth. And she sayde: Wherfore is there a rent mayde for thy sake? And he was called * Phares. Afterwarde came his brother forth, which had ẏ reed threde about his hande, and he was called Zarah.

The XXXIX. Chapter.

IOseph was brought downe in to Egipte, & Potiphar an Egipcia Pharaos chefe marshall bought him of ẏ Ismaelites, ẏ brought him downe. And ẏ LORDE was wt Joseph, in so moch ẏ he became a luckye mā, & was in his master ẏ Egipcians house. And his master sawe ẏ the LORDE was wt him: for what so euer he dyd, the LORDE made it to prospere in his hāde: so ẏ he founde fauō in his masters sight, & was his seruaunt. He made him ruler of his house, and put all that he had, vnder his hande. And from the tyme forth that he had made him ruler of his house and all his goodes, ẏ LORDE blessed the Egipcians house for Josephs sake: and there was nothynge but the very blessynge of the LORDE in all ẏ he had in ẏ house & in the felde, therfore left he all ẏ he had, in Josephs hande. And medled with nothinge himself, saue onely the bred that he ate. And Joseph was fayre of bewtye, and well fauoured of face.

And it fortuned after these actes, that his B masters wife cast hir eyes vpon Joseph, and sayde: Slepe with me. But he denyed, and saide vnto her: Beholde, my master knoweth not what is in ẏ house, and all that he hath, that hath he put vnder my hande. And there is no man so greate in the house as I, and he hath kepte nothinge fro me, excepte the: for thou art his wife. How shulde I then do so greate euell, and synne agaynst God? But she spake soch wordes vnto Joseph daylie. Neuertheles he herkened not vnto her, to slepe by her, or to be in her company.

It fortuned vpon a tyme, that Joseph C wente in to the house to do his busynesse, and there was none of ẏ folkes of the house there by. And she caught him by his garment, & sayde: Slepe with me. But he left the garment in hir hande, and fled, and gat him out of the house.

Now whā she sawe that he had left his garmēt in hir hande, and fled out, she called the folkes in the house, and sayde vnto thē: Lo, he hath brought vs in the Hebrue, to do vs shame. He came in here vnto me, to slepe by me: but I cried with loude voyce. And whan he herde that I made a noyse & cried, he left his garmēt here by me, and fled, and ranne out.

And she layed vp his garmēt by her, tyll his master came home, and tolde him euen the same wordes, and sayde: The Hebrue seruaunt whom thou broughtest here vnto vs, came in here to me, for to do me shame. But whan I made a noyse and cried, he left his garment here by me, and fled out. Whan his master herde the wordes of his wyfe which she tolde him, and sayde: Thus hath the Hebrue seruaunt done vnto me, he was very wroth.

Then his master toke him, and put him in the preson, wherin the kinges presoners laie. And there he laye in preson. But the LORDE was with him, and had mercy vpon him, & caused him to fynde fauo in the sight of the officer of ỳ preson, so that he committed all the presoners of the preson vnto his hādes: that what so euer were done, might be done by him. For the officer of the preson sawe, ỳ the LORDE was with him in all ỳ was vnder his handes, and that what so euer he dyd, the LORDE made it to come prosperously to passe.

The XL. Chapter.

And it fortuned after this, that ỳ kynge of Egiptes chefe butlar and ỳ chefe baker offended their lorde the kynge of Egipte. And Pharao was angrie w them, & caused them be put in preson in ỳ chefe marshals house, where Joseph laye presoner. And the chefe marshall put Joseph vnto them, ỳ he might serue them. And so they were in preson for a season.

And they dreamed, both the butlar & the baker in one night, euery mā his owne dreame, and euery dreame had his interpretacio. Now in the mornynge whan Joseph came in vnto them, and sawe that they loked sadly, he axed them and sayde: Why loke ye so sadly to daye? They answered: We haue dreamed, and haue no man to declare it vnto vs. Joseph sayde: Interpretinge belongeth vnto God, but tell it me yet.

Then the chefe butlar tolde Joseph his dreame, and saide vnto him: I dreamed that there was a vyne before me, which had thre braunches, and it budded, grewe and bare blossoms, and the grapes therof were rype. And I had Pharaos cuppe in my hande, & toke (the grapes) and wronge thē in to ỳ cuppe, and gaue Pharao the cuppe in his hāde.

Joseph sayde: This is the interpretacio: The thre braunches are thre dayes, and ouer thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and putt the in thine office agayne, that thou mayest geue him the cuppe in his hande after the olde maner, whā thou wast his butlar. But whan thou art in thy prosperite, thynke vpon me, and shewe me kyndnesse, that thou mayest certifie Pharao of me, ỳ he maie bringe me out of this house: for I was preuely caried out of the lande of the Hebrues, and here also haue I done nothinge, that they shulde haue put me in this dongeon.

Whan the chefe baker sawe, that the interpretacion was good, he sayde vnto Joseph: I dreamed, that I bare thre wyker baskettes vpon my heade, and in ỳ vppermost basket all maner of bakē meates vnto Pharao, and the foules ate out of the basket vpon my heade.

Joseph answered, and sayde: This is the interpretacion: The thre baskettes are thre dayes, and after thre dayes shall Pharao take the, and hange the vpon the galowe, and the foules shal eate thy flesh from of ỳ.

And vpon the thirde daye it came to passe, that Pharao helde his * byrth daye, and made a feast vnto all his seruauntes, and toke the chefe butlar and the chefe baker before all his seruauntes, and restored the chefe butlar to his butlarshipe agayne, so that he reached the cuppe in to Pharaos hande. As for the chefe baker, he caused him be hanged like as Joseph had interpretated vnto him. Neuertheles the chefe butlar thought not on Joseph, but forgat him. * Mat. 14.a

The XLI. Chapter.

And after two yeares Pharao had a dreame, how that he stode by a water syde: and beholde, out of the water there came seuen goodly kyne, and fatfleshed, and wente fedinge in the medowe. After these he sawe other seuen kyne come out of the water, which were euell fauoured and leane fleshed, and wente by the kyne vpon ỳ water syde: and the euell fauoured leene kyne ate vp the seuen goodly and fatt kyne. Then Pharao awaked.

And he slepte agayne, and dreamed the seconde tyme. And he sawe that seuen eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, full and good. Afterwarde he sawe seuē thynne and blasted eares come vp, and the seuen thynne eares deuoured the seuen greate and full eares. Then Pharao awaked, and sawe that it was a dreame. And whan it was daye, his spriete was troubled, and he sente out, & caused to call all the soythsayers in Egipte & all the wyse men, and tolde them his dreame. But there was none, that coude tell Pharao the interpretacion of it.

B Then spake the chefe butlar vnto Pharao, and saide: This daye do I remembre my fawte. Whan Pharao was angrie with his seruauntes, and put me in preson with ỹ chefe baker in ỹ chefe marshals house, we dreamed both in one night euery mā his dreame, hauinge his owne interpretacion. Then was there with vs a yonge man an Hebrue, the chefe marshals seruaunt, vnto whom we tolde it, and he declared oure dreames vnto vs, vnto euery mā acordinge to his dreame. And as he declared it vnto vs, so came it to passe. For I was restored vnto myne office, and he was hanged.

Then Pharao sent and called for Joseph and they let him out of the dongeon. And he let himself be shauen, and chaunged his clothes, and came in vnto Pharao. Then saide Pharao vnto him: I haue dreamed a dreame, and there is no man that can interprete it: but I haue herde tell of the, that whā thou heareste a dreame, thou declareste it. Joseph answered Pharao, and sayde: God shall geue Pharao a prosperous answere, yee well without me.

C Pharao sayde vnto Joseph: I dreamed that I stode by a water syde, and beholde, out of the water there came seuen kyne, fatfleshed and goodly, and wente fedinge in ỹ medowe. And after them I sawe other seuē kyne come out, thynne, euell fauoured, and leenfleshed. So euell fauoured sawe I neuer in all the lande of Egipte. And the seuen leene and euell fauoured kyne, ate vp the seuen first fat kyne. And whan they had eatē them vp, a man coude not perceaue that they had eaten them, & were as euell fauoured as they were afore. Then I awaked.

And I sawe agayne in my dreame seuen eares of corne, growinge vpō one stalke, full and good. Afterwarde there spronge vp seuen wythred eares, thynne and blasted, and the seuen thynne eares deuoured the seuen good eares. And I haue shewed it vnto my soithsayers, but they can tell me nothinge therof.

D Joseph answered Pharao: Both Pharaos dreames are one. God sheweth Pharao what he wil do. The seuen good kyne are seuen yeares, and the seuen good eares are seuen yeares also. It is one dreame. The seuen leene and euell fauoured kyne, that came vp after them, are seuen yeares. And the seuen thynne and blasted eares, shalbe seuen yeares of derth. This is now the thinge which I tolde Pharao, that God sheweth Pharao, what he wyll do.

Beholde, there shal come seuen yeares of greate plenteousnes in ỹ whole lande of Egipte, and after the same there shall come seuen yeares of derth, so that all this plenteousnes shalbe forgotten in ỹ lande of Egipte: and the derth shall consume the lande, so that the plenteousnes shal not be perceaued in the lande, because of the derth that commeth therafter, for it shall be very greate. Where as Pharao dreamed the seconde tyme, it signifieth that this thinge is surely prepared of God, and that God wil shortly bringe the same to passe.

Let Pharao now prouyde for a man of E vnderstondinge & wysdome, whom he maye set ouer the lande of Egipte, and se that he ordene officers in the londe, and take ỹ fifth (parte) of the lande of Egipte in the seuen plenteous yeares, and gather all ỹ foode ỹ shal come of the plenteous yeares, that they maye laye vp corne vnder Pharaos power for sustenaunce in the cities, and kepe it, ỹ there maye be foode founde prepared for the lande in the seuen deare yeares, which shall come vpon the lande of Egipte, that the lande be not destroyed of honger. The sayenge pleased Pharao well and all his seruaūtes. And Pharao sayde vnto his seruauntes: How might we fynde soch a man, in whom is the spriete of God? And sayde vnto Joseph: For so moch as God hath shewed ỹ all this, there is none of soch vnderstondinge & wysdome as thou.

Thou shalt be ouer my house, and acordinge vnto thy worde shall all my people obeye: onely in the kynges seate wyll I be more then thou. And he sayde: Beholde, I haue set the ouer the whole lande of Egipte. And he toke of his ringe from his hāde, and gaue it Joseph in his hāde, and clothed him with whyte sylke, and honge a cheyne of golge aboute his neck, and made him ryde vpō the seconde charet: and caused it be proclamed before him, that men shulde bowe their knees vnto him, as to him whō Pharao had set ouer the whole lande of Egipte.

And Pharao sayde vnto Joseph: I am Pharao: without thy wyll shall no man mo ne his hande or his fote in all the lãde Egipte. And he called him * Zaphnath Paena, & gaue him a wife, euen Asnath the doughter of Potiphar the prest of On. So Joseph wente out, for to vyset the lande of Egipte. (And he was thirtie yeare olde, whan he stode before Pharao.) And he departed from Pharao, and wente thorow all the lande of Egipte.

* Zaphnath paenathat is the hyer expoſition of ſecret thinges, or a reuelation to ſeere thinges hope-

And the londe dyd so those seuen plenteous yeares, and they gathered all the foode of the seuen yeares that were in the lande of Egipte, & layed it in the cities. Loke what foode grewe in the felde rounde aboute euery cite, they put it therin. So Joseph layed vp the corne in store, and that moch aboue measure, as the sonde of the see: in so moch ỹ he left of nombrynge of it, for it coude not be nombred.

G And vnto Joseph there were borne two sonnes (before ỹ derth came) whom Asnath the doughter of Potiphar prest of On bare vnto him. And the first called he Manasses: for God (sayde he) hath caused me to forget all my laboure, and all my fathers house. The seconde called he Ephraim: for God (sayde he) hath caused me to growe in ỹ lande of my trouble.

Now whan ỹ seuen plenteous yeares were ended in Egipte, then begamne the seuen deare yeares to come, wherof Joseph had sayde. And there was derth in all landes, but in all the lãde of Egipte there was foode. Now whan the lande of Egipte beganne to suffre honger also, the people cryed vnto Pharao for bred. But Pharao sayde vnto all ỹ Egipcians: Go vnto Joseph, what he sayeth vnto you, ỹ doo. So whan there was derth in all ỹ lãde, Joseph opened all ỹ was by him, & solde vnto the Egipcians. Thus ỹ derth prenayled in the lande, & all countrees came to Egipte to bye at Joseph: for the derth was mightie in all landes.

The XLII. Chapter.

A When Jacob sawe that there was moch corne in Egipte, he sayde vnto his sonnes: Why gape ye? Beholde, I heare that there is moch corne in Egipte, go downe & bye vs corne, ỹ we maie lyue, & not dye. So Josephs ten brethrẽ wente downe to bye corne in Egipte. As for Ben Jamyn Josephs brother, Jacob wolde not let him go wt his brethrẽ, for he sayde: Some myssortune might happen vnto him. So ỹ childrẽ of Jsrael came to bye corne, amonge other ỹ came wt them: for there was derth also in ỹ lande of Canaan. But Joseph was gouernoure in the lande, and solde corne vnto all the people in the lande.

Now whã his brethrẽ came to him, they fell downe to the grounde before him vpon their faces. And he sawe them, & knewe thẽ, and helde him self straunge towarde them, and talked roughly with them, and saide vnto them: Whence come ye? They sayde: Out of the lande of Canaan to bye vytayle. Neuertheles though he knewe them, yet knewe they not him. And Joseph thought vpon ỹ dreames that he had dreamed of them, and sayde vnto them: Ye are spyes, and are come to se where the lande is open. Gen. 37.ã

B They answered him: No my lorde, thy seruauntes are come to bye vytayle: we are all one mans sonnes, we are vnfayned, and thy seruauntes were neuer spyes. He sayde vnto thẽ: No, but ye are come to se where the lande is open. They answered him: We thy seruauntes are twolue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the lãde of Canaan, and the yongest is with oure father: as for one, he is awaye.

Joseph sayde vnto them: This is it that I sayde vnto you: spyes are ye. Here by wyll I proue you: By the life of Pharao ye shall not get hence, except youre yongest brother come hither. Sende awaye one of you to fetch youre brother, but ye shalbe in preson. Thus wyll I trye out yo wordes, whether ye go aboute wt trueth or not: for els, by the life of Pharao ye are spyes. And he put thẽ together in warde thre dayes longe.

C Vpon the thirde daye he sayde vnto thẽ: Yf ye will lyue, thẽ do thus, for I feare God: Yf ye be vnfayned, let one of youre brethren lye bounde in youre preson: but go ye youre waye, and cary home the necessary foode, & bringe me youre yongest brother, so wyll I beleue youre wordes, that ye shall not dye. And so they dyd.

And they sayde one to another: This haue we deserued against oure brother, in that we sawe the anguysh of his soule, whan he besought vs, and we wolde not heare him: therfore cõmeth now this trouble vpon vs. Ruben answered them, and saide: Tolde not I you ỹ same, whan I sayde: * Offende not agaynst ỹ lad, but ye wolde not heare. Now is his blonde requyred. But they knew not that Joseph vnderstode it, for he spake vnto thẽ by an interpreter. And he turned him from them, and wepte. Now whan he had turned him to them agayne, and talked wt them, he toke Symeon from amonge them, & bounde him before their eyes, and commaunded to fyll their sackes wt corne, and to put euery mans money in his sack, and to geue euery one his expenses by the waye. And so was it done vnto them.

D And they laded their corne vpon their Asses, and departed thence. But whan one opened his sacke to gene his Asse prouender in the Inne, he spyed his money in his sack mouth, and sayde vnto his brethren: My money is restored me agayne: lo, it is in my sack. Then their hertes fayled them, and they were afrayed amonge them selues, and sayde: Wherfore hath God done this vnto vs?

Now whan they came home to Jacob their father in the lāde of Canaan, they tolde him all that had happened vnto them, & sayde: The man that is lorde of the londe, spake roughly to vs, and toke vs for spyes of the countre. And whan we answered: we are vnfayned, & were neuer spyes, but are twolue brethren the sonnes of oure father: one is awaye, and the yongest is yet this daye wt oure father in the lande of Canaan, he sayde: Hereby wyl I marke, that ye are vnfayned: Leaue one of youre brethren with me, & take foode necessary for youre houses, & go youre waye, and brynge youre yongest brother vnto me: so shal I knowe that ye are no spyes, but vnfayned: thē shal I delyuer you youre brother also, and ye maye occupie in the lande.

E And whan they opened their sackes, euery man founde his boundell of money in his sacke. And whā they and their father sawe, that it was the bundels of their money, they were afrayed.

Then sayde Jacob their father: Ye haue robbed me of my children. Joseph is awaye, Simeon is awaye, and ye will take Ben Jamin awaye: It goeth all ouer me. Ruben answered his father & sayde: Yf I brynge him not to the againe, then slaye my two sonnes: delyuer him but in to my hande, I wyl brynge him agayne vnto the. He sayde: my sonne shal not go downe with you: for his brother is deed, and he is left alone. Yf eny myssfortune shulde happen vnto him by the waye ye go, ye shulde bringe my graye hayre with sorowe downe vnto the graue.

The XLIII. Chapter.

A BVt the derth oppressed ye lande. And whan all the vytales that they had brought out of Egipte were spent, Jacob their father sayde vnto them: Go agayne, and bye vs a litle foode.

Thē Juda answered him, and sayde: The man sware vnto vs, and sayde: ye shal not se my face, excepte youre brother be with you. Yf so be now that thou wilt sende oure brother with vs, we wil go downe, and bye the foode. But yf thou wilt not sende him, we wyl not go downe. For the man sayde vnto vs: Ye shal not se my face, excepte youre brother be with you.

Israel sayde: Wherfore haue ye done this B euell vnto me, to tell ye man, that ye had yet a brother? They answered: The man enquered so straitely of vs and of oure kynrede, & sayde: Is youre father yet a lyue? Haue ye yet a brother? Then tolde we him, as he axed vs. How coulde we knowe, that he wolde saye: brynge youre brother downe wt you? Then sayde Juda vnto Israel his father: Let the lad go with me, that we maye get vs vp and take oure iourney, and lyue, and not dye, both we and thou, and oure childrē.

* I wyll be suertye for him, of my handes shalt thou requyre him. Yf I brynge him not vnto the agayne, & set him before thine eyes, I wil beare ye blame my life longe. For yf we had not made this tarienge, we had now bene come agayne twyse.

Then sayde Israel their father vnto thē: Yf it must nedes be so, then do this: take of the best frutes of the lande in youre sackes, and brynge the man a present: a curtesy balme, and hony, and spyces, and myrre, and dates, and almondes. Take other money with you also, and the money that was brought agayne in youre sacke mouthes, cary it agayne with you: peraduenture it was an ouersight. And take youre brother, get you vp, & C go agayne vnto the man. The Allmightie God geue you mercy in the sight of ye man, that he maye let you haue youre other brother, and Ben Jamin. As for me, I must be as one, that is robbed of his children.

Then they toke the present, and other money with them, and Ben Jamin, gat thē vp, and wente in to Egipte, and stode before Joseph. Then Joseph beheld them with Ben Jamin, and sayde vnto the ruler of his house: Bringe these men in, and sley, & make ready, for they shal dyne with me at noone. And the man dyd as Joseph bad him, & brought the men in to Josephs house.

Whan they were brought in to Josephs house, they were afrayed, and sayde: We are brought hither because of the money, that came agayne in oure sackes at the first, to pyke a quarell with vs, and to laye sometinge to oure charge, and to take vs for bonde seruauntes with oure Asses.

Therfore came they to ye man, that was D

ruler of Josephs house, and talked w̄ him
Gen.42.c at the doore, and sayde: Syr, we came downe at the first to bye foode, and whan we came in the Inne, and opened oure sackes, beholde, euery mans money was in his sack mouth with full weight: therfore haue we brought it with vs agayne, & haue brought other money with vs also, to bye foode: but we can not tell, who put oure money in oure sackes.

He sayde: Be content, feare you not, youre God euen ỹ God of youre fathers hath gen̄ you ỹ treasure in youre sackes, I had youre money. And he brought forth Simeon vnto them, and led them in to Josephs house, and gaue them water to wash their fete, & gaue their Asses prouender.

And they made readye ỹ present, ageynst Joseph came at noone: for they herde, ỹ they shulde dyne there. Now whan Joseph went in to the house, they brought him home ỹ present that they had, and fell downe to the grounde before him. But he welcomed them curteously, and sayde: Is youre father, (that olde man which ye tolde me of) in good health? Is he yet alyue? They answered: Thy seruaunt oure father is in good health, and is yet alyue. And they bowed them selues, and fell downe before him.

And he lift vp his eyes, and sawe his brother Ben Jamin his mothers sonne, and sayde:
Gen.43.b Is this youre yongest brother, that ye tolde me of? And he sayde moreouer: God be mercifull vnto the my sonne. And Joseph 1.Re.3.d made haist (for the grounde of his hert was kyndled towarde his brother) and sought how he might wepe, & wente in to his chamber, and wepte there.

And whan he had washed his face, he wente out, and refrayned him self, and sayde: set bred (on the table.) And they brought vnto him by him self, and vnto them by thē selues, and to the Egipcians also that ate w̄ them, by them selues. (For the Egipcians darre not eate bred with the Ebrues, that is an abhominacion vnto them.) And they were set ouer agaynst him, the first borne acordinge to his first byrth, and the yongest after his youth. They marueled at it amonge them selues, and there were brought them sundrye meates from his table. But Ben Jamins parte was fyue tymes more then the other. And they dronke, and were mery with him.

The XLIIII. Chapter.

AND Joseph commaunded the ruler of his house, and sayde: Fyll the mens sackes with foode, as moch as they maye carye, and put euery mans money in his sacke mouth, & put my syluer cuppe in the sack mouth of the yongest with the money for ỹ vytayles. He dyd as Joseph had sayde. And on the morow whan it was daye, they let ỹ men go with their Asses.

But whan they were out of the cite, and not come farre, Joseph sayde to the ruler of his house: Vp, and folowe after the mē, and whan thou ouertakest them, saie vnto them: Wherfore haue ye rewarded euell for good? Is not that it, that my lorde drynketh out of? and that he prophecieth withall? Ye haue euell done of you, that ye haue done.

And whan he had ouertaken them, he sayde the same wordes vnto them. They answered him: Wherfore saieth my lorde soch wordes? God forbyd, that thy seruauntes shulde do eny soch thinge? Beholde, the money that we foūde in oure sackes mouthes, that brought we vnto the agayne, out of the lande of Canaan: how shulde we then haue stollen either syluer or golde out of thy lordes house? Loke by whom it shall be founde amonge thy seruauntes, let him dye: yee and we also wyll be my lordes bondmen. He sayde: let it so be, as ye haue spoken. Loke by whom it shall be founde, let him be my seruaunt, but ye shalbe harmlesse.

And they made haist, and toke downe euery man his sack to the grounde, and euery man opened his sack: And he searched & begame at the greatest vnto the yongest, and the cuppe was founde in Ben Jamins sacke. Then rente they their clothes, and euery man lade the burthen vpon his Asse, & wente agayne vnto the cite. And Juda wente with his brethren vnto Josephs house (for he was there yet) and they fell before him on the groūde. Joseph sayde vnto them: What maner of dede is this, that ye haue done? Knewe ye not, that soch a man as I am, can prophecy?

Juda sayde: What shall we saye vnto my lorde? or how shal we speake? and what excuse shal we make? God hath founde out ỹ wickednesse of thy seruauntes. Beholde, we and he, by whom the cuppe is founde, are my lordes seruauntes. But he sayde: God forbyd that I shulde do so. The man by whom the cuppe is founde, shall by my seruaunt, but go ye vp in peace vnto youre father.

Thē stepte Juda vnto him, and sayde: My lorde, let thy seruaunt speake one worde in thine eares my lorde, be not displesed at

D Then saydest thou: Bringe him downe vnto me, and I wil se him. But we answered my lorde: The lad can not come from his father, yf he shulde come from him, he were but a deed man. Then saydest thou vnto thy seruauntes: Yf youre yongest brother

The XLV. Chapter.

A Then coude not Joseph refrayne him self before all them that stode aboute him: and he cōmaunded euery man to go out from him, and there stode no man by him, whan Joseph vttred him self vnto his brethren. And he wepte loude, so that ỳ Egipcians and Pharaos housholde herde

But God sent me hither before you, ỳ he B might let you remayne vpon earth, and to saue youre lyues by a greate delyueraunce. And now, it was not ye then that sent me hither, but God which hath made me a father vnto Pharao, & lorde ouer all his house, and a prynce in the whole lande of Egipte. Haist you therfore, and go vp vnto my father, and saye vnto him: Thy sonne Joseph sendeth the this worde: God hath made me lorde in all Egipte, come downe vnto me, & tarye not, thou shalt dwel in the lande of Gosen, and be with me: thou and thy children, and thy childers childrē, thy small and greate catell, and all that thou hast. There wyll I make prouysion for the (for there are yet fyne yeares of derth) that thou perishe not & thine house, and all that is thyne. Beholde, youre eyes and the eyes of my brother Ben Jamin se, that I myne owne self speake vnto you by mouth. Shewe my father all my worshipe in Egipte, and all that ye haue sene: haist you, and come downe hither with my father.

Esa.52.a

And Pharao spake vnto Joseph: Saye vnto thy brethren: Do thus, lade youre beastes, go youre waye, and whan ye come in to the lande of Canaan, take youre father and youre housholdes, and come vnto me, I wyl geue you of the goodes in the lāde of Egipte, so that ye shall eate the fatt in the lande.

As for his father, he sent him ten Asses laden with goodes out of Egipte, and ten Asses with corne and bred, and vytayles for his father by ỹ waye. So he sent awaye his brethren, and sayde vnto them: Stryue not by the waye.

E Thus they departed out of Egipte, and came to the lande of Canaan vnto Jacob their father, and tolde him, and sayde: Thy sonne Joseph is yet alyue, and is a lorde in all the lande of Egipte. But his hert waue red, for he beleued them not. Thē tolde they him all the wordes of Joseph, which he had sayde vnto them. And whan he sawe ỹ charettes that Joseph had sent to fetch him, his spirite reuyued, & he sayde: I haue ynough, that my sonne Joseph is yet a lyue I wil go, and se him, before I dye.

The XLVI. Chapter.

A ISrael toke his iourney with all that he had. And whan he came to Berseba, he offred offerynges vnto ỹ God of his father Isaac. And God spake vnto him in a vision by night: Jacob Jacob. He sayde: here am I. And he saide: I am ỹ mighty God of thy father, be not afrayed to go into Egipte, for there wyl I make a greate people of the. I wyll go downe with the, & wil bringe the vp also. Act.7.b

Then Jacob gat him vp from Berseba, and ỹ children of Israel caried Jacob their father with their children and wyues vpon the charettes that Pharao had sent to cary him. And they toke their catell & substaunce which they had gotten in the lande of Canaan, and so came in to Egipte: * Jacob & all his sede with him, his children & his childers children with him, his doughters, and the doughters of his children, & all his sede.

Esa.52.a

B These are ỹ names of the children of Israel, which came in to Egipte, Jacob & his sonnes. * The first borne sonne of Jacob: Ruben. The children of Ruben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Charmi. The children of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachim, Zohar and Saul the sonne of the Canamitish woman. The children of Leui: Gerson, Cahath & Merari. The children of Juda: Er, Onan, Sela, Phares & Serah. But Er and Onan dyed in the lande of Canaan. The children of Phares: Hesron and Hamul. The children of Issachar: Thola, Phua, Job & Semron. The children of Zabulon: Sered, Elon and Jahleel. These are the children of Lea, which she bare vnto Jacob in Mesopotamia with his doughter Dina. These all together with sonnes & doughters make thre & thirtie soules.

* Ge.29.c

The children of Rachel Jacobs wife: Joseph and Ben Jamin. And vnto Joseph in ỹ lande of Egipte * were borne Manasses and Ephraim, whom Asnath the doughter of Potiphar prest of On bare vnto him. The children of Ben Jamin: Bela, Becher, Asber, Gera, Naamā, Ehi, Ros, Mupim, Hupim and Ard. These are the children of Rachel, which were borne vnto Jacob, fourtene soules alltogether.

* Ge.41.g

The children of Dan: Husim. The children of Nephtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, Sillem. These are the children of Bilha, whom Laban gaue vnto his doughter Rachel, & she bare Jacob these seuen soules. All the soules ỹ came wt Jacob in to Egipte, which proceaded out of his loynes (beside the wyues of his children) are alltogether fire & sixtie soules. And Josephs children which were borne vnto him in Egipte, were two soules: so that all the soules of the house of Jacob which came in to Egipte, were seuentye. D

Deut.10.c

And he sent Juda before him vnto Joseph, to shew him the waye to Gosen, & they came in to the lande of Gosen. Then Joseph bended his charett fast, and wente vp to mete Israel his father vnto Gosen. And whan he sawe him, he fell aboute his neck, & wepte sore vpon his neck. Then sayde Israel vnto Joseph: Now am I content to dye, for so moch as I haue sene thy face, that thou art yet alyue.

Joseph sayde vnto his brethren, & to his fathers house: I will go vp, & tell Pharao, & saye vnto him: My brethren and my fathers house are come vnto me out of the lande of Canaan, and are kepers of catell (for they are men that deale with catell:) their small & greate catell, and all that they haue, haue they brought with them. Now yf Pharao call you, and saye: what is youre occupacion? then ye shal saye: Thy seruauntes are men ỹ haue dealt wt catell from oure youth vp hytherto, both we & oure fathers, that ye maye E dwell in the lande of Gosen: for the Egipcians abhorre all kepers of catell.

The XLVII. Chapter.

A Then came Joseph, and tolde Pharao & sayde: My father and my brethren, their small & greate catell, & all ỳ they have, are come out of ỳ lande of Canaan: & beholde, they are in the lande of Gosen. And he toke fyue of his brethren, & presented them vnto Pharao. Then sayde Pharao vnto his brethren: What is youre occupacion? They answered: Thy seruauntes are kepers of catell, we and oure fathers also. And they sayde moreouer vnto Pharao: We are come to dwell with you in the lande, for ỳ seruauntes have no pasture for their catell, so sore doth the derth oppresse the lande of Canaan. Now therfore let ỳ seruauntes dwell in the lande of Gosen.

B Pharao sayde vnto Joseph: Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto the: the lande of Egipte is open before the, let them dwell in the best place of the lande, & se ỳ they dwell euen in the lande of Gosen. And yf thou knowest that there be men of actiuyte amõge thẽ, make thẽ rulers of my catell.

Joseph brought in Jacob his father also, & set him before Pharao. And Jacob thanked Pharao. But Pharao axed Jacob: How olde art thou? Jacob sayde: The tyme of my * pylgremage is an hũdreth and thirtie yeares: litle and euell is the tyme of my pilgremage, and attayneth not vnto the tyme of my fathers in their pylgremages. And Jacob thanked Pharao, and wẽte out from him.

Psal. 118.c

C So Joseph prepared dwellinges for his father and his brethren, & gaue them a possession in the lande of Egipte, euen in the best place of the lande, namely, in the lande of Raemses, as Pharao cõmaunded. And he made prouysion for his father and his brethren, and all his fathers house with bred, euen as yonge children.

There was no bred in all the londe, for the derth was very sore: so ỳ the lande of Egipte & the lande of Canaan were fameshed by ỳ reason of the derth. And Joseph brought together all the money that was founde in Egipte and Canaan, for ỳ corne that they bought. And he layed vp all the money in Pharaos house.

Now whan money sayled in the lande of Egipte and Canaan, all the Egipcians came vnto Joseph, & saide: Geue vs bred. Why suffrest thou vs to dye before ỳ, because we are without money? Joseph saide: Bringe hither youre catell, so wil I geue you for youre catell, seynge ye are without money. Then brought they their catell vnto Joseph. And he gaue them bred for their horses, shepe, oxen and Asses. So he fed them with bred ỳ yeare, for all their catell.

Whan ỳ yeare was ended, they came vnto him the next yeare, & sayde vnto him: We wil not hyde it from o' lorde, ỳ not onely the money, but all the catell also is spent vnto o' lorde: & there is nothinge left more for o' lorde, but onely o' body & oure lande. Wherfore suffrest thou both vs to dye, and oure londe? Take vs and oure lãde for bred, that we and oure lande maye be bonde vnto Pharao: gene vs sede, that we maye lyue and not dye, & ỳ the lande become not a wildernesse.

E Ge. 25.c

So Joseph toke all the lande of Egipte in for Pharao: for the Egipcians solde euery man his lande, because ỳ derth was so mighty vpon them: and so the lõde became Pharaos, with the people that wente out and in at his cities, from one syde of Egipte vnto the other, excepte the prestes londe, that toke he not in: For it was ordened of Pharao for the prestes, that they shulde eate that which was appoynted them, which he gaue them, therfore they neded not to sell their londes.

Gen. 41.g

Gen. 25.d

F Then sayde Joseph vnto the people: Beholde, I haue taken possession of you and youre lande this daye for Pharao, Beholde, there haue ye sede, sowe the londe, and of the corne ye shall geue the fifth parte vnto Pharao: foure partes shalbe youres, to sowe the londe for youre sustenaunce, and for youre houses and children.

They sayde: Let vs but lyue, & fynde grace before the oure lorde, we wyl gladly be pharaos seruauntes: So Joseph made thẽ a lawe vnto this daye ouer the Egipcians londe, to geue Pharao the fifth parte, excepte the prestes londe, which was not bonde vnto Pharao.

G So Israel dwelt in Egipte in the londe of Goſen, and had it in poſſeſſion, and grew and multiplied exceadingly. And Jacob lyued ſeuentene yeare in the lande of Egipte, ſo that his whole age was an hūdreth and ſeuen and fourtye yeares.

Now whan these came to the playne of Atad ỹ lyeth beyonde Jordane, they made there a very greate and bytter lamentacion, & * he mourned for his father seuẽ dayes. And * Eccl. whã the people in the lande (the Cananites) sawe the mournynge in the playne of Atad, they sayde: The Egipcians make there grea te lamētacion. Therfore is the place called: The lamentacion of the Egipcians, which lyeth beyonde Jordane.

And his children dyd as he had cōmaunded them, and caried him to ỹ lande of Canaan, and buried him in ỹ dubble caue, that Abraham bought with the felde for a possession to bury in, of Ephron ỹ Hethite ouer ageynst Mamre. So Joseph toke his iourney agayne in to Egipte with his brethren, and with all those that wente vp with him to burye his father, whan they had buried him.

C But Josephs brethrē were afrayed, whā their father was deed, and sayde: Joseph might happly haue indignacion at vs, and recompense vs all the euell that we dyd vnto him, therfore let they saye vnto him: Thy father commaunded before his death, and sayde: Thus shal ye saye vnto Joseph: O forgeue thy brethren the offence and their synne, that they dyd so euell vnto the. O forgeue now this trespace of vs the seruauntes of thy fathers God. But Joseph wepte, whan they spake so vnto him.

And his brethren wente, and fell downe before him, and sayde: Beholde, here are we thy seruauntes. Joseph sayde vnto thē: Feare ye not, for I am vnder God. Ye thought euell ouer me, but God hath turned it vnto good, to do as it is come to passe this daye, for the sauynge of moch people. Therfore be not ye now afrayed, I wyl care for you and yours children. And he comforted them, and spake louyngly vnto them.

Thus dwelt Joseph in Egipte with his fathers house, and lyued an hūdreth and ten yeare, and sawe Ephrayms children, vnto ỹ thirde generacion: In like maner the children of Machir the sonne of Manasses, begat children also vpon Josephs lappe. D

Psal. 127. a

And Joseph sayde vnto his brethren: I dye, and God wyl vyset you, and bringe you out of this lande, to the lande that he sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Therfore toke he an ooth of the childrē of Israel, and sayde: Whan God shal vyset you, * thē cary my bones frō hence. So Joseph dyed, whā he was an hūdreth and ten yeare olde, and they embawmed him, & layed him in a chest in Egipte.

The first Chapter.

THese are ỳ names of the childrē of Israel, that came with Jacob in to Egipte: euery one came in wt his house, Ruben, Simeon, Leui, Juda, Isachar, Zabulō, Ben Jamin, Dan, Nephtali, Gad and Aser. And of all the soules that came out of the loynes of Jacob, there were seuentie.

As for Joseph, he was in Egipte all ready. Now whā Joseph was deed, and all his brethren, and all they that lyued at that tyme, the children of Israel grewe, and increased, and multiplied, and became exceadinge mightie, so ỳ the lande was full of them.

Thē came there a new kynge ouer Egipte, which knewe nothinge of Joseph, and sayde vnto his people: Beholde, the people of the children of Israel are many, & mightier then we: Vp, let vs deale wysely with them, ỳ there be not so many of them. For yf there shulde ryse vp eny warre agaynst vs, they might ioyne them selues also vnto oure enemies, and ouercome vs, & so get them out of the lande.

And he set worke masters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burthens. (For they buylded the cities Phiton and Raemses, for treasuries vnto Pharao.) But the more they vered them, the more they multiplied and grew.

Therfore had they indignaciō at the children of Israel, and the Egipcians compelled the children of Israel without mercy to do seruyce, and made their lyues bytter vnto them with grenous laboure in claye and brycke, and with allmaner of bondage in ỳ felde, and with allmaner of laboure, which they layed vpon them without mercy.

And the kynge of Egipte sayde vnto the mydwyues of the Hebrue wemen. (Of the which one was called Siphra, and the other Pua:) Whan ye helpe the wemen of the Hebrues, and se vpon the stole, that it is a sonne, then slaye him: but yf it be a doughter, let her lyue. Neuertheles the mydwyues feared God, & dyd not as the kinge of Egipte commaunded them, but let the children lyue.

Then the kynge of Egipte called the mydwyues, and sayde vnto them: Wherfore do ye this, that ye let the children lyue? The mydwyues answered Pharao: The wemen of the Hebrues are not as the wemen of Egipte, for they are sturdy wemen: or euer the mydwyues come at them, they are delyuered.

Therfore God dealt well with the mydwyues. And the people multiplied, and became exceadinge mightie. And for so moch as the mydwyues feared God, * he made them houses. Then Pharao commaūded all his people and sayde: All the sonnes that are borne, cast in to the water, but let all the doughters lyue. * Psalmo 126.a

The II. Chapter.

A ANd there wente forth a man of the house of Leui, and toke a doughter of Leui. * And the wife conceaued and bare a sonne. And whan she sawe ỳ it was a proper childe, she hyd him thre monethes. And whan she coude hyde him no longer, she toke an Arke of redes, and dawbed it ouer with slyme and pitch, and layed the childe therin, and set it amonge the redes by the waters brynke. But his sister stode a farre of, to wete what wolde come of him. Exod. 6.c * Act. 7.c Heb 11.d

And Pharaos doughter came downe, to wash herself in the water: And hir maydens walked by the water syde: and whan she sawe the Arke amonge the redes, she sent one of hir maydens, and caused it to be fett. And whan she opened it, she sawe ỳ childe: and beholde the babe wepte. Then had she pytie vpon it, and sayde: It is one of the Hebrues children.

B Then sayde his syster vnto Pharaos doughter: Shal I go, and call the a nurse of the Hebrues wemen, to nurse ỳ the childe? Pharaos doughter sayde vnto her: Go thy waye. The mayde wente, and called the childes mother. Then sayde Pharaos doughter vnto her: Take this childe, and nurse it for me, I wyll geue ỳ thy rewarde. The woman toke the childe, and nursed it.

And whan the childe was growne, she brought it vnto Pharaos doughter, and it became hir sonne, and she called him Moses. For she sayde: I toke him out of the water.

Vpon a tyme whan Moses was greate, he wente forth vnto his brethren, and loked vpon their burthens, and sawe, that an Egipciā smote one of his brethren ỳ Hebrues. And he loked rounde aboute him: and whan he sawe that there was no man, he slew the Egipcian, and buried hīn in the sonde.

The next daye he wente forth also, and sawe two men of the Hebrues stryvnnge together, and sayde to the vngodly: Wherfore smytest thou thy neghboure? But a Ge. 19.b Mat. 21.c Act. 7.c he sayde: * Who made the a ruler or iudge ouer vs? Wilt thou slaye me also, as thou slewest the Egipcian? Thē was Moses afrayed, and sayde: How is this knowne? And Pharao herde of it, and sought for Moses, to slaye him. But Moses fled from Pharao, and kepte him in the lande of Madian, and sat him downe by a wells syde.

C The preist Madian had seuen doughters, which came to drawe water, and fylled the troughes, to geue their fathers shepe to drinke. Then came the shepherdes, and droue thē awaye. But Moses gat him vp, and helped them, and gaue their shepe to drynke. And whan they came to Reguel their father, he saide: How came ye so soone to daie? They sayde: A man of Egipte delyuered vs from ỳ shepherdes, and drew vnto vs, and gaue the shepe to drynke. He sayde vnto his doughters. Where is he? Wherfore let ye the man go, that ye called him not to eate with vs?

D And Moses was content to dwell with Nu. 12.a * Exo 18.a the man. And he gaue Moses his doughter Zipora, which bare him a sonne, and he * called him Gerson, for he sayde: I am become a straunger in a straunge lande. And she bare him yet a sonne, whom he called Elieser, and sayde: The God of my father is my helper, and hath delyuered me from Pharaos hāde.

But after this in processe of tyme, the kynge of Egipte dyed. And the childrē of Israel sighed ouer their laboure, and cried. And Iudic. 2.c Gen. 15.c their crye ouer their labō, came before God. And God herde their cōplaynte, & remēbred his couenaunt * with Abraham Isaac and Jacob. And God loked vpon the childrē of Israel, and God knew it.

The III. Chapter.

A MOses kepte the shepe of Jethro his father in lawe preist of Madian, & droue the shepe on the backsyde of the wyldernes, and came to the mountayne
4. Esa. 14.a Act. 7.d of God, Horeb. And the angell of ỳ LORDE appeared vnto him in a flāme of fyre out of the bush. And he sawe that ỳ bush brent wt fyre, and yet was not consumed, and saide: I wil go hence, and se this greate sight, why ỳ bush is not brent.

Whan the LORDE sawe, that he wente his waye to se, God called vnto him out of the bush, and sayde: Moses, Moses. He answered: Here am I. He sayde: Come not hither, put thy shues of thy fete, for the place Iosu. 5.d where vpon thou stondest, is an wholy grou-

de. And he sayde moreouer: I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, ỳ God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses couered his face, for he was afrayed to loke vpon God.

And the LORDE sayde: I haue sene the trouble of my people in Egipte * & haue herde their crye ouer those that oppresse them. I knowe their sorowe, and am come downe to delyuer them from the power of the Egipcians, and to carye them out of that lande, in to a good and wyde londe, euen in to a londe that floweth with mylke and hony, namely, vnto the place of the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuytes & Jebusites, For so moch now as the complaynte of the childrē of Israel is come before me, & I haue sene their oppression wherwith the Egipcians oppresse them: Go now ỳ waye therfore, I wil sende the vnto Pharao, that thou mayest brynge my people the childrē of Israel out of Egipte. Moses sayde vnto God: Who am I, ỳ I shulde go vnto Pharao, and brynge the childrē of Israel out of Egipte?

He sayde: I wyll be with the: & this shall be the token, ỳ I haue sent the. Whan thou hast brought my people out of Egipte, ye shal serue God vpon this mountayne. Moses sayde vnto God: Beholde, whan I come to the childrē of Israel, and saye vnto them: The God of youre fathers hath sent me vnto you, & they saye vnto me: What is his name? what shal I saye vnto them? God saide vnto Moses: I wyl be what I wyll be. And he sayde: Thus shalt thou saye vnto ỳ childrē of Israel: * I wyl be hath sent me vnto you. And God sayde moreouer vnto Moses: Thus shalt thou saye vnto the childrē of Israel: The LORDE God of youre fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, ỳ God of Jacob hath sent me vnto you, this is my name for euer, and my memoriall from childe to childes childe. Go thy waye therfore, and gather the elders of Israel together, and saye vnto them: The LORDE God of youre fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob hath appeared vnto me, and sayde: I haue vysited you, and sene what is done vnto you in Egipte, and haue sayde: I wil brynge you out of the trouble of Egipte, in to ỳ lande of ỳ Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuites & Jebusites: in to a lōde ỳ floweth with mylke and hony. And yf they heare ỳ voyce, then shalt thou and the elders of Israel go in to the kynge of Egipte, and saye vnto him: The LORDE God of ỹ Hebrues hath called vs: Let vs go now ther fore thre dayes iourney in the wyldernes, ỹ we maye do sacrifice vnto the LORDE oure God.

But I knowe, that the kynge of Egipte wil not let you go, but thorow a mightie hãde. For I will stretch out myne hande, & smyte Egipte wt all maner of wonders which I will do therin: after ỹ shal he let you go. And I wil geue this people fauoure in the sighte of the Egipcians: so that whan ye go forth, ye shal not go forth emptie: but euery wife shall borowe of hir neghboures & of her that sogeourneth in hir house, Jewels of syluer and golde and rayment: those shal ye put vpon youre sonnes and doughters, and spoyle the Egipcians.

The iiij. Chapter.

MOses answered, & sayde: Beholde, they shall not beleue me, ner heare my voyce, but shal saye: The LORDE hath not appeared vnto the. The LORDE sayde vnto him: What is ỹ, that thou hast in thine hande? He saide a staff. He sayde: Cast it from the vpon the grounde. And he cast it frõ him: then was it turned to a serpent. And Moses fled frõ it. But ỹ LORDE saide vnto him: Stretch forth thine hande, & take it by the tayle. Then stretched he forth his hande, and toke it, and it became a staff agayne in his hande. Therfore shal they beleue that ỹ LORDE God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Jsaac & God of Jacob hath appeared vnto the.

And the LORDE sayde furthermore vnto him: Thrust thine hãde in to ỹ bosome. And he thrust it in to his bosõme, & toke it out: beholde, thẽ was it leper like snowe. And he saide: Put it in to ỹ bosome agayne. And he put it agayne in to his bosome, & toke it out: beholde, thẽ was it turned againe as his flesh. Yf they wil not beleue the, ner heare ỹ voyce of the first token, yet shal they beleue the voyce of the seconde token. But yf they wil not beleue these two tokens ner heare thy voyce, then take of the water of the ryuer, and poure it vpon the drye londe: so shall the same water ỹ thou hast takẽ out of ỹ ryuer, be turned vnto bloude vpõ ỹ drye londe.

But Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Oh my LORDE, I am a man ỹ is not eloquẽt, from yesterdaye & yeryesterdaye, & sence the tyme ỹ thou hast spoken vnto thy seruaunt: for I haue a slowe speach, & a slowe tunge. The LORDE sayde vnto him: Who hath made the mouth of man? Or who hath made the domme, or the deaf, or the seynge or ỹ blynde? Haue not I the LORDE done it? Go now thy waye therfore, I wil be wt thy mouth, & teach the what thou shalt saye.

But Moses sayde: My LORDE, sende whom thou wilt sende. Then was the LORDE very angrie at Moses, and saide: Do not I knowe then, ỹ thy brother Aaron the Leuite is well spoken? And beholde, he shal go forth to mete ỹ: & whan he seyth the, he shal reioyse from his hert. Thou shalt speake vnto him, & put the wordes in his mouth: & I wil be with thy mouth & his, and teach you what ye shall doo: & he shall speake vnto the people for the. He shal be thy mouth, & thou shalt be his God. And take in thine hande this staff, wher with thou shalt do tokens. Exod. 4.e

Moses wẽte, and came agayne vnto Jethro his father in lawe, and sayde vnto him: Let me go (I praye the) that I maye turne agayne vnto my brethrẽ, which are in Egipte, and se whether they be yet alyne. Jethro sayde vnto him: Go thy waye in peace. The LORDE sayde also vnto him in Madian: Go ỹ waye, turne againe in to Egipte, for ỹ mẽ are deed, that sought after thy life. So Moses toke his wife, and his sonnes, and caried them vpon an Asse, & wente againe in to the lande of Egipte, & toke the staff of God in his hande. And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: When thou cõmest agayne in to Egipte, se ỹ thou do all the wonders (before Pharao) which I haue put in ỹ hãde. But I wil harde his hert, ỹ he shall not let the people go. And thou shalt saie vnto pharao: Thus sayeth ỹ LORDE: Jsrael is my firstborne sonne, & I saye vnto the: Let my sonne go, ỹ he maye serue me: Yf thou wilt not let him go, then wil I slaye thy firstborne sonne. Exod. 7.a Exod. 12.e

And as he was by the waye in the Jnne, the LORDE met him, and wolde haue slayne him. Then toke Zipora a stone, and circumcyded the foreskynne of hir sonne, and touched his fete, and sayde: A bloudy brydegrome art thou vnto me. Thẽ let he him go. But she sayde: A bloudy brydegrome, because of the circumcision. a Iosu. 5.a

And the LORDE sayde vnto Aaron: Go mete Moses in the wildernes. And he wẽte, & met him on the mount of God, and kyssed him. And Moses tolde Aaron all the wordes of the LORDE, which had sent him: & all the tokens ỹ he had charged him withall. And they wẽte, & gathered all the elders of the childrẽ of Jsrael. And Aaron tolde all ỹ wordes, ỹ the LORDE had spokẽ vnto Moses: & dyd the tokens before the people, & the people beleued. And whan they herde ỹ the LORDE vysited the children of Israel, and loked vpon their trouble, they bowed them selues, and worshipped.

The V. Chapter.

A Afterwarde wente Moses & Aaron, & spake vnto Pharao: Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: let my people go, ỳ they maye kepe holy daye vnto me in the wildernes. Pharao answered: * What felowe is the LORDE, that I must heare his voyce, and let Israel go? I knowe not the LORDE, nether wil I let Israel go.

* Iob 21.b

They sayde: The God of the Hebrues hath called vs. Let vs go nowtherfore thre dayes iourney in the wildernes, & do sacrifice vnto the LORDE o' God, ỳ there happen not vnto vs pestilẽce or swerde. Thẽ sayde ỳ kynge of Egipte vnto thẽ: Why make ye ỳ people (thou Moses & Aaron) to leaue their worke? Get you hẽce to yo' laboure. Pharao saide moreouer: Beholde, ỳ people are to many in ỳ lande, and yet wil ye byd them ceasse from their laboure.

B The same daye therfore dyd Pharao cõmaunde the workmasters of the people, and their officers, and sayde: Ye shal not gather and geue the people eny more strawe, to burne bryck, as yesterdaye and yeryesterdaye. Let them go, and gather them strawe them selues. And the nombre of the brycke which they made yesterdaye & yeryesterdaye, shall ye laye vpon them neuertheles, and mynish nothinge therof: for they are ydle. Therfore crye they and saye: We wil go, and do sacrifice vnto oure God. Let the men be kepte downe wt laboure, ỳ they maye haue to do, & not to turne them selues to false wordes.

Then wente the workmasters of the people & their officers out, & spake vnto the people: Thus sayeth Pharao: There shall no strawe be geuen you, go youre waye youre selues, and get you strawe, where ye can fynde it. But of youre labo' there shall nothinge be mynished. Then were the people scatred in all ỳ lande of Egipte, to gather stubble, that they might haue strawe.

C And the workmasters haistied them forwarde, & sayde: Fulfill yo' daye worke, like as whan ye had strawe. And the officers of ỳ children of Israel, whom Pharaos workmasters had set ouer them, were beaten, & it was saide vnto them: Wherfore haue ye not fulfilled yo' appoynted daye worke to daye and yesterdaye, like as in tymes past?

Than wente the officers of the children of Israel, & cõplayned vnto Pharao: Wherfore wilt thou deale thus wt thy seruauntes? Thy seruauntes haue no strawe geuen the, & yet must we make the brycke that are appoynted vs. And beholde, thy seruauntes are beaten, & thy people are euell intreated. Pharao sayde: Ye are ydle, ydle are ye, therfore saye ye: we will go, and do sacrifice vnto the LORDE. Go now yo' waye therfore, & worke: there shall no strawe be geuen you, but the nombre of brycke shal ye delyuer.

Then sawe the officers of the children of Israel, ỳ it was not amended, for it was sayde: ye shal mynish nothinge of the daye worke of the brycke. And whan Moses & Aaron wente from Pharao, they came forth to mete them, & sayde vnto them: The LORDE loke vpon you, & iudge it, for ye haue made the sauoure of vs to stynke before Pharao and his seruauntes, and haue geuen them a swerde in their handes, to slaye vs.

But Moses came agayne vnto the LORDE, and sayde: LORDE, wherfore dealest thou so euell wt this people? Wherfore hast thou sent me? For sence the tyme that I wente in vnto Pharao, to speake vnto him in thy name, he hath dealt euell with this people, and thou hast not delyuered ỳ people. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Now shalt thou se, what I will do vnto Pharao, for thorow a mightie hande must he let them go, thorow a mightie hande must he dryue them from him out of his londe.

The VI. Chapter.

AND God spake vnto Moses, & sayde vnto him: I am ỳ LORDE, & I appered vnto Abraham, Isaac & Jacob, an Allmightie God: but * my name, LORDE, haue I not shewed vnto them: My couenaunt also haue I made with them, that I wil geue them the londe of Canaan, the londe of their pilgremage, wherin they haue bene straungers. Moreouer I haue herde the complaynte of the children of Israel, whom ỳ Egipcians oppresse with laboure, and haue remembred my couenaunt.

Therfore saye vnto the childrẽ of Israel: I am the LORDE, & wil brynge you out from yo' burthens in Egipte, & wil rydd you from youre laboure, and wil delyuer you thorow a stretched out arme & greate iudgmẽtes, and will receaue you for my people, & will be yo' God: so that ye shal knowe, that I the LORDE am yo' God, which brynge you out from the burthen of Egipte, and will brynge you in to the lande, ouer the which I haue lift vp my hande, to geue it vnto Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, ỳ same wil I geue vnto you for a possession. I the LORDE.

Moses tolde this vnto the childrē of Israel. But they herkened not vnto him, for very anguysh of spirete, & for sore laboure. Thē spake the LORDE vnto Moses, & sayde: Go thy waye, & speake vnto Pharao the kynge of Egypte, þ he let the childrē of Israel go out of his lande. But Moses spake before þ LORDE, & saide: Beholde, þ childrē of Israel herkē not vnto me, how shulde Pharao thē heare me? And I am also of vncircumcised lyppes.

So the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & gaue thē a commaundemēt vnto the childrē of Israel, & vnto Pharao the kynge of Egipte, þ they shulde brynge the childrē of Israel out of Egipte.

These are þ heades of the house of their fathers. The children of Ruben the first sonne of Israel, are these: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, Charmi: These are the generacions of Ruben.

The children of Gerson are these: Libni and Semei in their generacions. The childrē of Kahath are these: Amram, Jezear, Hebron, Vsiel. Kahath was an hundreth & three & thirtie yeare olde. The children of Merari are these: Maheli and Musi. These are þ generacions of Leui in their kynreds.

And Amram toke his vncles doughter Jochebed to wife, which bare him Aaron & Moses. Amram was an C. & vij. & thirtie yeare olde. The childrē of Jezear are these: Korah, Nepheg, Sichri. The children of Vsiel are these: Misael, Elzaphan, Sithri.

Aaron toke Elizaba þ doughter of Aminadab Nahassons sisters to wife, which bare him Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar, Ithamar.

The childrē of Korah are these: Assir, Elkana, & Abiassaph. These are þ generaciōs of þ Korahites. Eleasar Aarons sonne toke one of the doughters of Putiel to wife, which bare him Phineas. These are the heades amonge the fathers of the generacions of the Leuites.

This is þ Aaron & Moses, vnto whom þ LORDE sayde: Bringe þ childrē of Israel out of the lande of Egipte w̄ their armies. It is they (namely Moses & Aaron) þ spake vnto Pharao the kynge of Egipte, þ they might brynge the children of Israel out of Egipte. The same daie spake þ LORDE vnto Moses in þ lande of Egipte, & sayde: I am þ LORDE, speake thou vnto Pharao þ kynge of Egipte, all þ I saye vnto þ. And he answered before þ LORDE: Beholde, I am of vncircumcised lippes, how shall Pharao thē heare me? Exod. 6. b

The VII. Chapter.

The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, I haue made the a God ouer Pharao, & Aarō þ brother shal be þ prophet. Thou shalt speake all þ I cōmaūde þ: but Aaron þ brother shal speake vnto Pharao, þ he maye let the childrē of Israel go out of his lande. Nevertheles I wil harden Pharaos hert, þ I maye multiplye my tokens & wonders in the londe of Egipte. And Pharao shal not heare you, þ I maye shewe my hande in Egipte, & brynge myne armyes, euen my people the childrē of Israel out of þ lande of Egipte, by greate iudgmētes. And þ Egipcians shal knowe, þ I am the LORDE, whan I shal stretch out my hande vpon Egipte, and brynge the children of of Israel out from amonge them. Exo. 4. d

Moses and Aaron dyd as the LORDE cōmaūded them. And Moses was foure score yeare olde, & Aaron thre & foure score yeare olde, whan they spake vnto Pharao. And þ LORDE sayde vnto Moses & Aaron: Whan Pharao sayeth vnto you: Shew youre wonders, then shalt thou saye vnto Aaron: Take thy staff, and cast it before Pharao, & it shal turne to a serpent.

Then wēte Moses & Aaron in vnto Pharao, & dyd as the LORDE cōmaunded them. And Aaron cast his staff before Pharao & before his seruauntes, & it turned to a serpēt. Then Pharao called for þ wyse men & Sorcerers. And the Sorcerers of Egipte also dyd like wyse with their Sorceries, and euery one cast his staff before him, & they turned vnto serpentes. But Aarons staff deuoured their staues. So Pharaos hert was hardened, and he herkened not vnto them, euen as the LORDE had sayde.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: The hert of Pharao is hardened, he refuseth to let þ people go. Get þ vnto Pharao in the mornynge, beholde, he shal come vnto þ water, mete thou him vpō the waters brynke, & take þ staff which turned to a serpēt, in thine hande, & saye vnto him: The LORDE God of the Hebrues hath sent me vnto the, & sendeth þ worde: Let my people go, that they maye serue me in the wylderneſſe: but hither to thou woldest not heare. Exod. 3. a Therfore thus sayeth the LORDE: Hereby shalt thou knowe, ỳ I am ỳ LORDE. Behold, wt the staff ỳ I haue in my hande, wil I smyte the water which is in ỳ ryuer, & it shal be turned in to bloude: so that the fisshes in the ryuer shall dye, & the ryuer shall stynke: & it shall greue the Egipcians to drynke of ỳ water of the ryuer.

D And ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses: Saye vnto Aaron: Take ỳ staff, & stretch out thine hãde ouer ỳ waters of Egipte, ouer their ryuers & brokes & pondes, & ouer all water poles, ỳ they maye be turned to bloude, & that there maye be bloude in all ỳ lande of Egipte, both in vessels of wodd and stone.

Psal. 77. e Moses & Aaron dyd as ỳ LORDE cõmaunded them, & lift vp the staff, & smote the water ỳ was in the ryuer, before pharao & his seruauntes, & all the water in the ryuer was turned into bloude, & the fysh in the ryuer dyed, & the ryuer stanke, so ỳ the Egipcians coulde not drynke of the water of ỳ ryuer, & there was bloude in all the lande of Egipte. And the Sorcerers also of Egipte, dyd likewyse with their Sorceries. But pharaos hert was hardened, & he herkened not vnto thẽ, * like as the LORDE had sayde. And pharao turned him self, & wente home, & set not his hert there on. All the Egipciãs dygged rõnde aboute ỳ ryuer, for water to drinke: for they coude not drynke of ỳ water out of the ryuer. And this endured seuen dayes longe, that the LORDE smote the ryuer.

The VIII. Chapter.

A THe LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go ỳ waye to pharao, & speake vnto him: Thus saieth the LORDE: Let my people go, ỳ they maye serue me: Yf thou wilt not let thẽ go, beholde, I wil smyte all ỳ borders of ỳ lõde wt frogges, so ỳ the ryuer shal scraule wt frogges: these shal clymme vp, & come in to thine house, in to ỳ chamber, where thou slepest, vpon thy bed, and in to the houses of thy seruauntes, amonge thy people, in to thine ouens, and vpon thy dowe: and the frogges shall come vp vpon the, and vpon thy people, and vpon all thy seruauntes.

B And the LORDE spake vnto Moses: Saie vnto Aaron: Stretch forth thine hande wt thy staff ouer the streames, & ryuers, & pondes, and let frogges come vpon the londe of Egipte. And Aaron stretched his hãde ouer the waters in Egipte, & there came vp frogges, so ỳ the londe of Egipte was couered.

Psal. 77. e and 104. d The Sorcerers also dyd likewyse, wt their Sorcerirs, & caused frogges to come vpõ ỳ lõde of Egipte. Thẽ called pharao for Moses & Aaron, & sayde: Praye the LORDE for me, ỳ he maye take awaye the frogges fro me & fro my people, & I will let ỳ people go, ỳ they maye do sacrifice vnto the LORDE.

C Moses sayde: Haue thou the honꝰ before me, & appoynte me, whã I shal praye for ỳ, for ỳ seruauntes and for thy people: ỳ the frogges maye be dryuen awaye frõ the & frõ thy house, & remayne onely in the ryuer. He sayde: Tomorow. He sayde: Euen as thou hast sayde, ỳ thou mayest knowe, ỳ there is none like vnto the LORDE ỏ God: And the frogges shal be takẽ from the, & from ỳ house, from thy seruauntes, & from thy people, & remayne onely in the ryuer.

So Moses & Aaron wẽte from pharao, & Moses cried vnto the LORDE for the appoyntment ouer the frogges, which he had promysed vnto pharao. And ỳ LORDE dyd as Moses sayde. And the frogges dyed in ỳ houses, in ỳ courtes, & vpon ỳ felde: & they gathered thẽ together, here an heape, & there an heape, & the lande stanke of them. But whan pharao sawe ỳ he had gotten breth, his hert was hardened, and he herkened not vnto thẽ, euen as the LORDE had sayde.

D And the LORDE spake vnto Moses: Saie vnto Aaron: Stretch out thy staff, & smyte the dust vpon the earth, ỳ there maye be lyse in the whole lõde of Egipte. They dyd so. And Aaron stretched out his hande wt his staff, & smote the dust vpon the earth, & there were lyse vpon men and vpon catell: All the dust of the lande was turned vnto lyse in all the lande of Egipte.

The Sorcerers also assayde likewyse wt their Sorcerirs ỳ they might brynge forth lyse, but they coude not. And ỳ lyse were vpon men & catell. Then sayde ỳ Sorcerers vnto pharao: Jt is the fynger of God. But pharaos hert was hardened, & he herkened not vnto thẽ, euen as the LORDE had sayde.

E And ỳ LORDE saide vnto Moses: Get ỳ vp tomorow by tymes, & stonde before pharao: beholde, he wil go vnto the water, & speake thou vnto him: Thus saieth ỳ LORDE: let my people go, ỳ they maye serue me: yf not, beholde, I wil cause cruell wormes (or flyes) to come vpon the, thy seruauntes, ỳ people, & thy house, so ỳ all the Egipcians houses, & the felde, and what theron is shall be full of cruell wormes: & the same daye wil I separate the londe of * Gosen, wherin my people are, so ỳ no cruell worme shal be there, that thou mayest knowe, that I am ỳ LORDE in the myddest of the earth. And I wil set a deliuerãnce betwene my people and thyne.

Tomorow shal this token come to passe.

And the LORDE dyd so. And there came perlous cruell wormes in to Pharaos house, in to his seruauntes houses, & vpon all the londe of Egipte: and the londe was marred with noysome wormes.

F Thē called Pharao for Moses & Aaron, & sayde: Go yo waye, & do sacrifice vnto yo God in ỹ londe. Moses sayde: It is not mete, ỹ we shulde so do, so shulde we offer ỹ abhominacion of ỹ Egipcians vnto the LORDE o God. Beholde, yf we shulde offer the abhominacion of ỹ Egipcians before their eyes, shulde they not stone vs? Thre dayes iourney will we go in the wyldernes, and do mod.c sacrifice vnto the LORDE oure God* like as he hath sayde vnto vs.

Pharao sayde: I wil let you go, ỹ ye maie do sacrifice vnto the LORDE yo God in the wyldernes (onely ỹ ye go no farther) & praye for me. Moses sayde: Beholde, whan I am come forth from ỹ, I wil praye vnto ỹ LORDE, ỹ the cruell wormes maye be taken from Pharao, & from his seruaūtes, & frō his people, euen tomorow: onely disceaue me no more, that thou woldest not let the people go to do sacrifice vnto the LORDE.

And Moses wēte out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the LORDE. And the LORDE dyd as Moses sayde, & toke awaye the cruell wormes from Pharao, from his seruauntes, and from his people, so ỹ there remayned not one. But Pharao hardened his hert euē then also, and let not ỹ people go.

The IX. Chapter.

A THe LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go in to Pharao, and speake vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of ỹ Hebrues: let my people go, ỹ they maye serue me. Yf thou wilt not, but holde them longer, beholde, the hande of the LORDE shal be vpon thy catell in the felde, vpon horses, vpon Asses, vpon Camels, vpon oxen, vpon shepe with a very sore pestilence. And ỹ LORDE shall make a diuysion betwene the catell of the Israelites & the Egipcians, so ỹ there shal nothinge dye of all that the children of Israel haue. And ỹ LORDE appoynted a tyme, and sayde: Tomorow shal the LORDE do this vpon earth.

B And the LORDE dyd the same on the morow. And there dyed of all maner of catell of the Egipcians: but of ỹ catell of ỹ children of Israel there dyed not one. And Pharao sent thither, & beholde, there was not one of the catell of Israel deed. But Pharaos hert was hardened, so ỹ he let not ỹ people go. Then sayde ỹ LORDE vnto Moses & Aaron: Take youre handes full of aßshes out of the fornace, & let Moses sprenkle it towarde heauen before Pharao, that it maye be dust in all the lande of Egipte, & that there maye be sores & blaynes vpon men & vpon catell in all the lande of Egipte.

And they toke aßshes out of ỹ fornace, & stode before Pharao, & Moses sprenkled it towarde heauē. Then were there sores and blaynes vpon men & vpon catell, so that the Sorcerers might not stōde before Moses by reason of the sores. For there were sores vpō C the Sorcerers as well as vpon all the Egipcians. But the LORDE hardened Pharaos hert, so that he herkened not vnto them, euē as the LORDE had sayde vnto Moses.

Then sayde the LORDE vnto Moses: Get the vp tomorow by tymes, & stonde before Pharao, & speake vnto him: Thus sayeth ỹ LORDE God of the Hebrues: let my people go, ỹ they maye serue me, els wyll I at this tyme sende all my plages in to thine hert, & vpon thy seruaūtes & vpon thy people: that thou mayest knowe, ỹ there is none like me in all londes. For I will now stretch out my hande, & smyte the & thy people wt pestilence, so ỹ thou shalt be roted out from the earth. Some reade: *I haue holden the vp.
Yet haue I* stered ỹ vp for this cause, euen to shew my power vpon ỹ, and that my name might be declared in all londes.

Thou holdest my people yet, & wilt not let them go, beholde, tomorow about this tyme wyll I cause a mightie greate hayle to rayne, soch as hath not bene in the londe of Egipte, sence the tyme that it was groūded, hither to. And now sende thou, & saue thy catell, & all ỹ thou hast in the felde: for all men & catell that shalbe founde in the felde, & not brought in to the houses, yf the hayle fall vpon them, they shall dye. Now who so feared the worde of the LORDE amonge Pharaos seruauntes, caused his seruauntes & catell to flye in to the houses: but loke whose hertes regarded not the worde of ỹ LORDE, left their seruauntes and catell in the felde.

Then sayde the LORDE vnto Moses: E
Strech out thy hande towarde heauē, that it maye hayle vpon all the lande of Egipte, vpon men, vpon catell, & vpon all herbes of the felde in the lande of Egipte. So Moses Psal. 77. e & 104. d stretched out his staff towarde heauen, and the LORDE caused it to thonder & hayle, so ỹ the fyre ranne alonge vpon the earth. Thus the LORDE hayled & rayned vpon the londe of Egipte, so that the hayle & fyre wente so horybly together, as neuer was in all the lā de of Egipte, sens the tyme that there were

F people therin. And the hayle smote the whole lande of Egipte, all that was vpon ẏ felde, both men & catell, & smote all the herbes vpon the felde, & brake all the trees vpon ẏ felde, saue onely in the lande of Gosen, where the childrē of Israel were, there it hayled not. Then sent Pharao & called for Moses & Aaron, & sayde vnto them: Now haue I synned, ẏ LORDE is righteous, but I & my people are vngodly. Pray ye vnto the LORDE, that the thonder & hayle of God maye ceasse, then wyl I let you go, that ye shal tary here no longer. Moses sayde vnto him: Whan I am come out of the cite, I wyll stretch out myne handes vnto the LORDE, so shal the thonder ceasse, & there shal be nomore hayle: that thou mayest knowe, that the earth is the LORDES. But I knowe, ẏ both thou & thy seruauntes feare not yet the LOR
G DE God. Thus the flax and the barlye were smytten: for the barlye was shot vp, & ẏ flax was boulled: but the wheate and ẏ rye were not smytten, for they were late sowen.

So Moses wente from Pharao out of ẏ cite, & stretched out his hādes vnto ẏ LORDE. And ẏ thōder & the hayle ceassed, & the rayne dropped not vpō the earth. But whā Pharao sawe ẏ the rayne & thonder & hayle ceassed, he synned agayne, and herdened his hert, he & his seruauntes. So Pharaos hert was hardened, ẏ he let not the childrē of Israel go, euē as the LORDE had sayde by Moses.

The X. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE saide vnto Moses: Go in vnto Pharao, for I haue hardened his hert & the hertes of his seruaūtes, ẏ I might do these my tokēs amonge thē, & that thou mightest shewe it in the eares of thy childrē & of thy childers childrē, what I haue done in Egipte, and how I haue shewed my tokens amōge thē, that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE.

So Moses & Aaron wente in vnto Pharao, & spake vnto him: Thus sayeth ẏ LORDE God of the Hebrues: How longe refusest thou to submyt thy self vnto me, to let my people go, ẏ they maye serue me? Yf thou wilt not let my people go, beholde, tomorow wil I cause greshoppers to come vpon all places, ẏ they maye couer the lande, so ẏ the lande can not be sene, & they shal eate vp ẏ
B is left you & was delyuered frō the hayle: & shal eate vp all yor grene trees vpon the felde, & shal fyll thy house, all ẏ seruaūtes houses, & all the Egipcians houses: soch as ẏ fathers & ẏ fathers fathers haue not sene, sens the tyme ẏ they were vpon earth vnto this daye. And he turned him, & went out from Pharao. Then saide Pharaos seruauntes vnto him: How longe shall we be snared after this maner? Let the men go, that they may C serue ẏ LORDE their God. Knowest thou not yet, ẏ Egipte is destroyed? Moses & Aaron were brought agayne to Pharao, which saide vnto them: Go yor waye, & serue ẏ LORDE yor God. But who are they ẏ shall go? Moses sayde: We wil go wt yonge & olde, wt sonnes and doughters, with shepe and oxē for we haue a feast of the LORDE. He sayde vnto thē: Let it be so, the LORDE be with you: Shulde I let you go & yor childrē also? loke that ye haue not some myschefe in hāde. Not so, but go ye that are men, and serue the LORDE, for that was youre desyre. And they thrust them out from Pharao.

Thē saide ẏ LORDE vnto Moses: Stretch D out thine hande ouer ẏ londe of Egipte, for the * greshoppers, ẏ they maye come vpō ẏ * Phi. Sap. loc. Apo. londe of Egipte, & eate vp all the herbes in the londe, wt all ẏ escaped the hayle. Moses stretched out his staff ouer ẏ lande of Egipte, & the LORDE brought an east wynde into the londe all ẏ daye & all ẏ night, & in the mornynge, the east wynde brought the greshoppers. And they came ouer the whole lande of Egipte, and lighted in all places of Egipte, so exceadinge many, that before tyme there were neuer soch, nether shalbe here after: for they couered the londe, and made it darcke. And they ate vp all the herbes in ẏ londe, & all the frutes vpon the trees which remayned frem ẏ hayle, & left no grene thinge behinde in the trees & herbes vpon the felde in all the lande of Egipte.

Then Pharao called for Moses & Aaron E in all ẏ haist, & saide: I haue synned against the LORDE yor God, & against you: forgeue me my synne this once also, & pray the LORDE yor God, ẏ he maye take awaye fro me this death onely. And he wēte out from Pharao, & prayed vnto the LORDE. Thē the LORDE turned a maruelous strōge west wynde, and toke vp the greshoppers, & cast them into the reed see, so that there was not one left in all the quarters of Egipte. But the LORDE hardened Pharaos hert, that he let not the childrē of Israel go. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Stretch out thine hāde towarde heauen, that it be so darck in the londe of Egipte, ẏ it maye be felt. And Moses stretched out his hāde towarde heauen, thē was there a thicke darckneſſe in all the londe of Sap. Egipte thre dayes, so ẏ in thre dayes no mā sawe another, nor rose vp from ỹ place where he was. But wt the childrē of Israel there was light in their dwellinges. Then Pharao called for Moses, & sayde: Go yo' waye & serue the LORDE: onely leave yo' shepe & yo' oxen here: let yo' childrē go wt you also. Moses sayde: Thou must geue vs offringes and brentofferynges, that we maye do sacrifice vnto the LORDE o' God. Oure catell shal go wt vs, and there shal not one hooffe be left behynde: for we must take therof for the seruyce of the LORDE o' God. Moreover we knowe not wherwithall we shal serue ỹ LORDE, tyll we come thither. But the LORDE hardened Pharaos hert, ỹ he wolde not let them go. And Pharao sayde vnto him: Get the hence fro me, & bewarre, that thou come nomore in my sight: For loke what daie so euer thou cōmest in my sight, thou shalt dye. Moses answered: Euē as thou hast sayde, I wil come nomore in thy sight.

The XI. Chapter.

AND the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I wil yet bringe a plage vpon Pharao and Egipte: after ỹ shal he let you go from hence, & shal not onely let all go, but also dryue you hence. Therfore saye now vnto the people, ỹ everyman borowe of his neghboure, & euery woman of his neghboures̄e, Jewels of syluer & golde: for the LORDE shal geue the people fauō in the sight of ỹ Egipcia̅s. And Moses was a very greate man in the lande of Egipte, in ỹ sight of Pharaos seruauntes, & in the sight of the people.

And Moses sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: At mydnight wil I go out in the lande of Egipte, & all ỹ first borne in the lande of Egipte shall dye: from Pharaos first sonne (ỹ sytteth vpon his seate) vnto the first sonne of the mayde seruaunte which is behynde ỹ mylle: & all the first borne amonge the catell: & there shalbe a greate crie in all the lande of Egipte, soch as never was, ner shalbe. But amonge all the childrē of Israel there shall not a dogg quatch wt his tonge, fro men vnto catell, ỹ ye maye knowe, how ỹ the LORDE hath put a differēce betwixte Egipte & Israel. Thē shal all these thy seruauntes come downe vnto me, & fal at my fote, & saye: Get the out, thou & all the people that are vnder the. After that wyl I departe. And he wēte frō Pharao wt a wroth full displeasure. The LORDE saide vnto Moses: Pharao herkeneth not vnto you, ỹ many wōders maye be done in ỹ lāde of Egipte. And Moses & Aaron dyd all these wōders before Pharao: but ỹ LORDE hardened his hert, ỹ he wolde not let ỹ childrē of Israel go out of his londe.

The XII. Chapter.

THe LORDE sayde vnto Moses & Aaron in the londe of Egipte: This moneth shal be with you ỹ first moneth & at it ye shall begynne the monethes of the yeare. Speake ye vnto all the congregacion of Israel, & saye: Vpon ỹ tenth daye of this moneth let euery one take a *lābe (or a kydd) where a housholder is, to euery house a lābe. But yf the housholde be to few for a lambe, thē let him & his neghbō ỹ is next vnto his house, take it acordinge to the nombre of ỹ soules, and counte to the lambe, what euery man maye eate. But it shal be a lambe without blemish, a male, & of a yeare olde. From amonge the lambes & goates shal ye take it. *Ioh.1.d

And ye shal kepe it vnto ỹ fourtene daye of the moneth. And euery man of the congregacion of Israel shal slaye it aboute the euenynge. And they shal take of his blonde, and stryke it on both the syde postes of the doore, and on the vpperdoore post of the house, that they eate it in. And so shal they eate flesh ỹ same night, rosted at the fyre, & vnleuended bred, and shal eate it with sowre sawse. Ye shal not eate it rawe, ner sodden with water, but onely rosted at the fyre, his heade wt his fete and pertenaunce. And ye shal leaue nothynge of it ouer vntyll the mornynge: but yf eny thinge be lefte ouer vntyll the mornynge, ye shal burne it with fyre. Exe. 9.a

Of this maner shal ye eate it: Ye shal begyrded aboute youre loynes, and haue youre shues vpon youre fete, and staues in yo' handes, and ye shal eate it with haist: for it is ỹ LORDES passeouer. * For in the same nighte wil I go thorow the londe of Egipte, & smyte all the firstborne in the lande of Egipte, from men vnto catell, & vpon all the goddes of Egipte wyll I do execucion. Euen I the LORDE. And the blonde shal be youre token, vpon the houses wherin ye are: ỹ whan I se the blonde, I maye passe ouer, and that the plage happen not vnto you, to destroye you, whan I smyte the londe of Egipte. *Pla.135.a Heb.11.a

C And this daye shall ye haue for a remembraunce, and ye shall kepe it holy for a feast vnto the LORDE, ye & all youre posterities, for a perpetuall custome. Seuen dayes shall
Exo. 23.b and .34.c ye eate vnleuended bred: namely, vpon the first daie shal ye leaue of with leuended bred in youre houses. Who so euer eateth leuended bred from the first daye vnto ỳ seuenth that soule shall be roted out from Israel. The first daye shall be called holy amonge you, and the seuenth also. No maner of worke shall ye do therin, saue what belongeth to the meate for all maner of soules, that onely maye ye do for you. And kepe you to leuended bred.

For euen vpon that same daye wil I bringe youre armies out of the londe of Egipte, therfore shall ye and all youre posterities kepe this daye for a perpetuall custome. Vpon the fourtene daye of the first moneth, Leui. 23.a Nu. 28.c at euen, shall ye eate vnleuended bred, vnto the one and twentye daye of the moneth, at euen: so that there be no leuended bred founde in youre houses seuen dayes. For who so euer eateth leuended bred, that soule shall be roted out from the congregacion of Israel, whether it be a straunger or borne in the londe. Therfore eate no leuended bred, but onely vnleuended bred in all youre dwellynges.

D And Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and sayde vnto them: Chose out, and take to euery housholde a shepe, and kyll passeouer vnto the LORDE: and take a bunch of ysope, and dyppe it in the blonde in the basen, and stryke it vpon the vpperposte and vpon the two syde postes, and none of you go out at the dore of his house vntyll ỳ morenynge, for the LORDE wyll go aboute and plage the Egipcians. And whan he seyth the blonde vpō the vpperposte, and vpon the two syde postes, he wyl passe ouer by the dore, and not suffre the destroyer to come in to youre houses to plage. Therfore kepe this custome for the and thy children for euer.

And whan ye be come in to ỳ londe that the LORDE shal geue you, (as he hath sayde) then kepe this seruyce. * And whan youre
* Ios. 4.d children saye vnto you: What seruyce is this, that ye haue? Ye shal saye: It is the sacrifice of the LORDES passeouer, which passed ouer by the children of Israel in Egipte, whan he plaged the Egipcians, and saued oure houses. Then the people bowed them selues, and worshipped. And the children of Israel wente and dyd, as the LORDE had commaunded Moses and Aaron.

And at mydnight the LORDE smote all the firstborne in the lande of Egipte: from pharaos first sonne (which sat vpon his seate) vntyll the first sonne of the presoner that was in the preson, and all the firstborne of the catell. Then pharao arose ỳ same night, and all his seruauntes, and all the Egipcians, & there was a greate crye in Egipte: for there was no house wherin there was not one deed.

And he called for Moses and Aaron in ỳ night, and sayde: Get you vp, and departe out fro my people, ye and the children of Israel: go youre waye, and serue the LORDE, as ye haue sayde: and take youre shepe and youre oxen with you, * as ye haue sayde, and departe, and blesse me also. And the Egipcians were fearce vpon the people, to dryue them haistely out of the londe, for they saide: we are all but deed.

And the people toke the rawe dowe, before it was leuended (for their foode) bounde in their clothes vpon their shulders. And the children of Israel had done * as Moses sayde, and borowed Jewels of syluer and golde, and clothes of the Egipcians: the LORDE also had geuen the people fauoure in the sight of the Egipcians, that they lent them, and so they spoyled the Egipcians.

Thus ỳ children of Israel toke their iourney from Raemses to Suchoth, * sixe hundreth thousande men of fote, besyde childre. There wente with them also moch cemō people, and shepe, and oxen, and exceadinge many catell.

And of the rawe dowe that they brought out of Egipte, they baked vnleuēded cakes: for it was not leuended, in so moch as they were thrust out of Egipte, and coude not tary: nether had they prepared them eny other meate.

The tyme ỳ the children of Israel dwele in Egipte, is foure hondreth and thirtie yeares. Whan the same were ended, the whole hoost of the LORDE wente out of the londe of Egipte in one daye. Therfore shall this night be kepte vnto the LORDE, because he brought them out of the londe of Egipte: And the children of Israel shall kepe it vnto the LORDE, they and their posterities.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses and G Aaron: This is the maner of the kepynge of passeouer: There shal no straūger eate of it. But who so is a bought seruaunt let him be circumcysed, & then eate therof. A straunger and an hyred seruaūt shal not eate of it. In one house shal it be eatē. Ye shal cary none of his flesh out of the house, and * ye shal not breake a bone of him. The whole congregacion of Israel shal do it.

But yf there dwel a straunger with the, & wil holde passeouer vnto the LORDE, let him circumcyse euery one that is male, and then let him first come, and do it, and be as one that is borne in the londe: for there shal no vncircumcysed eate therof. One maner of lawe be vnto him yt is borne in the londe, & vnto the straūger yt dwelleth amōge you. And all the childrē of Israel dyd as the LORDE commaunded Moses & Aaron. So vpō one daye the LORDE brought the childrē of Israel out of the lōde of Egipte with their armyes.

The XIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide: Sanctifie vnto me euery firstborne, yt breaketh all maner of Matrices amonge the childrē of Israel, both of men & catell: for they are myne. Then saide Moses vnto ye people: Thinke vpō this daye, in the which ye are gone out of Egipte from the house of bōdage, how yt ye LORDE brought you out frō thence wt a mightie hāde. Therfore shall ye eate no sowre dowe. This daye are ye gone out, euē in ye moneth of Abib.

Now whā ye LORDE hath brought ye in to ye lande of ye Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites & Jebusites, which * he sware vnto ye fathers to geue ye (euen a londe that floweth wt mylke & hony) then shalt thou kepe this seruyce in this moneth. Seuē dayes shalt thou eate vnleuended bred, & vpon the seuenth daye is the LORDES feast: therfore shalt thou eate vnleuended bred seuē dayes, that there be no sowre dowe, ner sowred bred sene in all thy quarters.

And thou shalt tell thy sonne at the same tyme, & saye: Because of that, which ye LORDE dyd for me, whan I departed out of Egipte. Therfore shalt it be a signe vnto ye in thine hande, and a token of remembraunce before thine eyes, that the lawe of ye LORDE maye be in thy mouth, how that ye LORDE brought the out of Egipte with a mightie hande: Therfore kepe this maner yearly in his tyme.

Whan the LORDE now hath brought ye in to ye lande of the Cananites (as he hath sworne vnto the and thy fathers) and hath geuen it the, then shalt thou sunder out vnto the LORDE all that breaketh the Matrice, and firstborne amonge thy catell, soch as is male. The firstborne of the Asse shalt thou bye out with a shepe: but yf thou redeme it not, then breake his neck. All the firstborne of men amonge thy childrē shalt thou redeme.

And whan thy childe axeth the to daie or tomorow: What is this? Thou shalt saye vnto him: The LORDE brought vs out of Egipte from the house of bondage wt a mightie hande: for whan Pharao was loth to let vs go, the LORDE slew all the firstborne in the lande of Egipte, from the firstborne of men vnto ye firstborne of the catell: therfore offer I vnto the LORDE all that breaketh ye Matrice, beynge a male, and ye firstborne of my childrē I redeme. And this shal be a signe vnto the in thine hande, and a token to thinke vpon before thine eyes, how that the LORDE brought vs out of Egipte with a mightie hande.

Now whan Pharao had let ye people go, God led them not the waye thorow the lōde of the Philistynes, which was ye nexte: for he thoughte: The people might repēt, whā they se warre, and so turne in agayne into Egipte. Therfore led he the people aboute, euen the waye thorow the wyldernes by ye reed see. And the childrē of Israel went harnessed out of the londe of Egipte. And Moses toke Josephs bones with him, * for he toke an ooth of the children of Israel, and sayde: God wyll surely vyset you, therfore cary awaye my bones with you from hence.

So they toke their iourney frō Suchoth, & pitched their tētes in Ethā in ye edge of the wildernes. And ye LORDE wēte before thē by daye in a piler of a cloude, to lede thē ye righe waye: and by night in a piler of fyre, that he might shewe thē light to walke both by daie and night. The piler of the clonde departed neuer from the people by daye, and the pyler of fyre departed not from thē by nyght.

The XIIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel, and byd them that they turne aboute, & pitch their tentes before the valley of Hyroth, betwixte Migdol & the see towarde Baal Zephō, and there pitch ye tentes right ouer by the see. For Pharao shall saye of the childrē of Israel: They can not tell how to get out of the londe, the wyldernesse hath shut them in. And I wyll harden his hert, ye he shal folowe after them, & I wil get me honoure vpon Pharao, and vpon all his power. And ye Egipcias shal knowe, ye I am the LORDE. And they dyd so.

B And whan it was tolde ye kinge of Egipte, ye ye people fled, his hert & his seruauntes were turned agaynst ye people, & saide: Why haue we done this, that we haue let Israel go, ye they shulde not serue vs? And he bounde his charettes fast, and toke his people wt him, and toke fyre hundreth chosen charettes, and the other charettes beside that were in Egipte, and the captaynes ouer all his: for the LORDE hardened ye hert of Pharao kynge of Egipte, that he folowed after the children of Israel. And the children of Israel wente out with an hye hande.

C And the Egipcians folowed after the, & ouertoke them (where they had pitched by ye see) with horses and charettes, and horsme, and with his power, in the valley of Hyzath towarde Baal Zephon. And whan Pharao Iosu.24.b came nye them, the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and beholde, ye Egipcians wente behinde the, and they were sore afrayed, and cried vnto the LORDE.

And sayde vnto Moses: Were there no
Psal.105.a graues in Egipte, ye thou hast brought vs awaye to dye in the wyldernes? Wherfore hast thou done this vnto vs, that thou hast caried vs out of Egipte? Is not this it, that we sayde vnto the in Egipte? Leaue of, & let vs serue the Egipcians: for it were better for vs to serue the Egipcians, then to dye in the wyldernes? Moses sayde vnto the peo-

Deu.28g vpon you this daye: * for these Egipcians whom ye se this daye, shall ye neuer se more for euer: the LORDE shal fight for you, onely quyete youre selues.

D The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Wherfore crieste thou vnto me? Speake vnto ye children of Israel, ye they go forwarde. But lift thou vp ye staff, & stretch out thine hade ouer Exp.14.a ye see, & parte it asunder, ye the children of Israel maye go in thorow ye middest of it vpon the drye grounde. Beholde, I wyll harden ye hert of the Egipcians, ye they shall folowe after you. Thus wyl I get me honoure vpon Pharao, & vpon all his power, vpō his charettes and horsmen: and the Egipcians shal knowe, that I am ye LORDE, whan I haue gotten me honō vpon Pharao, vpon his charettes, and vpon his horsmen.

Then the angell of God ye wente before
Psal.104.c the armies of Israel, remoued, and gat him behynde them: and the cloudy piler remoued also from before them, and stode behinde the and came betwirte the armies of the Egipcians and the armies of Israel. Ie was a darcke cloude, and gaue light that night, so that all the night longe these and they coude not come together.

Whā Moses now stretched forth his hāde ouer ye see, the LORDE caused it to passe awaye thorow a mightie eastwynde all that night, and made the see drye, and ye water deuyded it self a sunder. And the children of Israel wente in thorow the middest of ye see vpon the drye grounde: and ye water was vnto them as a wall, vpon their right hande & vpō their lefte. And ye Egipcias folowed, & wente in after the, all Pharaos horses, & charettes, & horsmē, euē in to ye middest of ye see.

Now whan the mornynge watch came, the LORDE loked vpō the armies of the Egipcians out the piler of fire and ye cloude, & troubled their armies, and smote the wheles from their charettes, & ouerthrew them wt a stomme. Then sayde the Egipcians: Let vs flye from Israel, the LORDE fighteth for the agaynst the Egipcians.

But ye LORDE saide vnto Moses: Stretch
J out thyne hande ouer the see, that ye water maye come agayne vpon the Egipcians, vpon their charettes, and horsmen. Then Moses stretched out his hande ouer the see, and the see came agayne before daye in his course and strength, and the Egipcians fled agaynst it. Thus the LORDE ouerthrew them in the myddest of the see, so that the water came agayne, and couered ye charettes and horsmen, and all Pharaos power which folowed after them in to the see, so that there remayned not one of them. But the children of Israel wente drye thorow ye myddest of the see, and the water was vnto them as a wall vpon their right hande and vpon their lefte.

Thus the LORDE delyuered Israel in ye daye from the hande of the Egipcians. And they sawe the Egipcians deed vpon ye see syde, and the greate hande ye the LORDE had shewed vpon the Egipcians. And ye people feared ye LORDE, and beleved him, and his seruaunt Moses.

The XV. Chapter.

A Then sange Moses and the childre of Israel this songe vnto the LORDE, and sayde:

I will synge vnto ye LORDE, for he hath done gloriously, horse & charet hath he ouer throwne in the see.

The LORDE is my strength, and my songe, and is become my salvacion.

This is my God, I wil magnifie him: he is my fathers God, I wil exalte him.

The LORDE is the right man of warre, LORDE is his name. The charettes of pharao & his power, hath he cast in to the see.

His chosen captaynes are drowned in the reed see, ye depe hath couered them: they fell to the grounde as a stone.

Thy right hande (O LORDE) is glorious in power: thy right hāde (O LORDE) hath smytten the enemies.

And with thy greate glory thou hast destroyed thine aduersaries: thou sentest out ye wrath, & it cōsumed them, euen as stobble.

In the breth of thy wrath the waters fell together, the flodes went vpon a heape: The depes plomped together in ye mydest of the see.

B The enemie thought: I will folowe vpon them, and ouertake them, and deuyde ye spoyle, and coole my mynde vpon them.

I wil drawe out my swerde, and my hande shal destroye them.

Thou blewest with thy wynde, the see couered them, and they sancke downe as leed in the mightie waters.

LORDE, who is like vnto the amonge ye goddes? Who is so glorious in holynes, fearfull, laudable, and doinge wonders?

Whan thou stretchedest out ye right hande, the earth swalowed them vp.

Thou of ye very mercy hast led this people, whom thou hast delyuered, and with ye strength thou hast brought them vnto the dwellynge of thy Sanctuary.

Whan ye nacions herde this, they raged, sorowe came vpon the philistynes.

Then were ye princes of Edom afrayed, tremblynge came vpō ye mightie of Moab, all the indwellers of Canaan waxed faynte harted.

C Let feare and drede fall vpon them thorow thy greate arme, that they maye be as stylll as a stone, tyll thy people (O LORDE) be gone thorow, tyll ye people whom thou hast gotten, be gone thorow.

Brynge them in, and plante them vpon the mountayne of thy enheritaunce, vnto ye place that thou hast made for thyne owne dwellynge euen to ye tēple (O LORDE) which thy handes haue prepared.

The LORDE shal be kynge for euer & euer. For Pharao wente in to the see with horses, and charettes, and horsmen, and the LORDE made the see fall agayne vpon them.

But the children of Israel wēte drye thorow the mydest of the see.

And Miriam the prophetisse, Aarons sister, toke a tymbrell in hir hande, and all the women folowed out after her with timbrels in a daunse. And Miriam sange before thē: O let vs synge vnto the LORDE, for he hath done gloriously, man and horse hath he ouer throwne in the see. Exo. 15.a

D Moses caused the children of Israel to departe out from the reed see, vnto the wylderne of Sur, & they wente thre dayes in ye wilderness, ye they founde no water. Then came they to Marath, but they coude not drinke ye water for bytternes, for it was very bytter. Therfore was it called Marah, (ye is bytternes.) Then ye people murmured against Moses, & sayde: What shal we drynke? And Moses cried vnto ye LORDE, which shewed him a tre: this he put in ye water, thē was it swete. Num. 33.b Iudith. 7.d Eccli. 17.a 4. Re. 4.f

There he made thē a statute, and a lawe, and tempted them, and sayde: Yf thou wylt herken vnto the voyce of ye LORDE ye God, & do that which is right in his sighte, and geue eare vnto his commaundementes, & kepe all his statutes, then wyl I laye vpon ye none of the sicknesses, that I layed vpon Egipte, for I am the LORDE thy surgione. Deut. 28.f

The XVI. Chapter.

AND they came vnto Elim, where there were twolue welles of water, and seuentie palme trees, and there they pitched by ye water syde. From Elim they toke their iourney, and the whole congregacion of the children of Israel came in to the wylderneſſe of Sin (which lyeth betwene Elim and Sinai) vpon the fyftene daye of the seconde monyth, after that they were departed out of the londe of Egipte. And ye whole multitude of the children of Israel murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron in ye wilderness, and saide vnto them: Wolde God we had dyed in the londe of Egipte by the hande of the LORDE, whan we sat by ye flesh pottes, and had bred ynough to eate: for ye haue brought vs out in to this wylderness, to cause this whole multitude dye of honger. Nu. 11.b

Thē sayde ye LORDE vnto Moses: beholde

I wyl rayne you bred from heauen, and let the people go out, and gather daylie, what they nede, that I maye proue whether they walke in my lawe or not. But vpon the sixte daye they shal prepare thē selues, that they maye bringe in twyse as moch as they gather daylie.

B Moses and Aaron sayde vnto all the children of Israel: At euen ye shall knowe, that the LORDE hath brought you out of the lōde of Egipte, and in the mornynge shall ye se the glory of the LORDE: for he hath herde youre grudginges agaynst the LORDE. For what are we, that ye grudge agaynst vs?

Num.11.d Moses sayde moreuer: At euen shall the LORDE gene you flesh to eate, and in the mornynge bred ynough: because ye LORDE hath herde youre grudginges, that ye haue grudged agaynst him. For what are we? Youre murmuringe is not agaynst vs, but agaynst the LORDE. And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Speake vnto the whole multitude of ye children of Israel: Come forth before the LORDE, for he hath herde youre murmuringes.

C And whyle Aaron spake thus vnto the whole congegacion of the childrē of Israel, they turned them towarde the wyldernes: and beholde, the glory of the LORDE appeared in a cloude, and the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I haue herde the murmuringe of ye children of Israel. Tell them: At euen shall ye haue flesh to eate, and in the mornynge shal ye be fylled with bred, & ye shall knowe, that I am the LORDE youre God.

And at euen the quayles came vp, and couered the tentes: and in the mornynge the dewe laye rounde aboute the tentes. And whan the dew was fallē, beholde, there laye a thinge in the wildernes, thynne and small, as the horefrost vpon the grounde.

D And whan the children of Israel sawe it, they sayde one to another: * This is Mā. For they wyst not what it was. But Moses sayde vnto them: It is the bred that ye LORDE hath genē you to eate. This is it that ye LORDE hath commaūded: Euery one gather for himself as moch as he eateth, and take a Gomor for euery heade, acordinge to the nombre of the soules in his tente.

Some reade: * What is this?

And the children of Israel dyd so, and gathered some more, some lesse. But whan it was measured out with ye Gomor, he that gathered moch, had not the more: and he ye gathered litle, wanted nothinge, but euery one gathered for himself, as moch as he ate. And Moses sayde vnto them: Let no mā leaue ought therof vntyll the mornynge. But they harkened not vnto Moses. And some left of it vntill the morninge. Then wared it full of wormes and stanke. And Moses was angrie at them.

And euery mornynge they gathered for them selues, as moch as euery one ate: but assoone as it was whote of the Sonne, it melted awaye. And vpon the sixte daye they gathered twyse as moch of bred, two Gomors for one. And all the rulers of the congregacio came in, and tolde Moses. And he sayde vnto them: This is it, that the LORDE hath sayde: Tomorow is the Sabbath of the holy rest of the LORDE: loke what ye wil bake, that bake: and what ye wyll seeth, that seeth: and that remayneth ouer, let it remayne, ye it maye be kepte vntyll the mornynge. And they let it remayne tyll the morow, as Moses commaunded. Then stanke it not, nether was there eny worme therin. Thē sayde Moses: Eate that to daye, for to daye is ye Sabbath of the LORDE, to daye shal ye fynde none in the felde. Sixe dayes shall ye gather it, but the seuenth daye is the Sabbath, wherin there shal be none.

But vpon the seuenth daye there went out some of the people to gather, and founde nothinge. Then sayde ye LORDE vnto Moses: How longe refuse ye to kepe my commaundementes and lawes? Beholde, ye LORDE hath geuen you the Sabbath, therfore vpon the sixte daye he geueth you bred for two dayes: therfore let euery man now byde at home, and noman go forth of his place vpon the seuenth daye.

So the people rested vpō ye seuenth daye. And the house of Israel called it Man, and it was like Coriander sede, and whyte, & had a taist like synnels with hony.

And Moses sayde: This is it that ye LORDE hath commaunded: Fill a Gomor therof to be kepte for youre posterities, ye they maye se the bred, wherwith I fed you, whan I brought you out of ye lande of Egipte. And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Take a cruse, and put a Gomor full of Man therin, and laye it vp before the LORDE, to be kepte for your posterities, as the LORDE commaunded Moses. So Aaron layed it vp there for a testimony to be kepte.

And the children of Israel ate man fourtye yeares, tyll they came vnto a lande, where people dwelt: euen vntyll they came to ỳ borders of the lande of Canaan ate they Man. A Gomor is the tenth parte of an Epha.

The XVII. Chapter.

AND the whole multitude of the children of Israel wēte on their iourneys out of the wyldernes of Sin (as the LORDE cōmaunded thē) & pitched in Raphidim. Then had the people no water to drynke. And they chode w̄ Moses, & sayde: Geue vs water, ỳ we maye drynke. Moses sayde vnto thē: Why chyde ye w̄ me: Wherfore tēpte ye ỳ LORDE: But whan the people thyrsted there for water, they murmured agaynst Moses, & sayde: Wherfore hast thou caused vs to come out of Egipte: to let vs, oure children, and oure catell dye of honger:

Moses cried vnto the LORDE, and sayde: What shal I do w̄ this people: They are all most ready to stone me. The LORDE saide vnto him: Go before the people, & take some of the elders of Israel with ỳ, and take in thine hande thy staff, wherwith thou smotest the water, and go thy waye: Beholde, I wyll stonde there before the vpon a rock in Horeb, there shalt thou smyte the rocke, so shall there water runne out, that the people maye drynke. Moses dyd so before the elders of Israel. Then was that place called Massa Meriba, because of the chydinge of the children of Israel, and because they tempted ỳ LORDE, and sayde: Is the LORDE amonge vs, or not:

Then came Ameleck, & fought agaynst Israel in Raphidim. And Moses sayde vnto Josua: Chose vs out men, go out, & fight against Amaleck, tomorow wil I stōde vpō the toppe of the hyll, & haue ỳ staff of God in my hande. And Josua dyd as Moses bade him, & fought agaynst Amalek. Moses & Aaron & Hur wente vp to ỳ toppe of the hyll. And whā Moses helde vp his hāde, Israel had the victory: but whan he let downe his hande, Amalek had the victory. Iudit. 4. e

But Moses hādes were heuy, therfore toke they a stone, & layed it vnder him, that he might syt vpon it. And Aaron & Hur stayed vp his hādes, the one vpon the one syde, and the other vpon ỳ other syde. So his handes were stedfast vntō ỳ Sonne wente downe. And Josua discomfited Amalek, & his people thorow the edge of the swerde.

And ỳ LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Wryte this for a remēbraunce in a boke, & cōmytte it vnto ỳ eares of Josua: * for I wyll rote out Amalek from vnder heauen, so that he shall nomore be remembred. And Moses buylded an altare vnto the LORDE, and called it: * The LORDE Nissi, for he sayde: The bat tayll of the LORDE shalbe agaynst Amalek thorow an hande vnder the defence of God from childe to childes childe. * Num. 24. d 1. Re. 15. a

* that is: The lorde is he that lifteth me vp.

The XVIII. Chapter.

AND whan Jethro ỳ prest in Madian Moses father in lawe herde of all ỳ God had done w̄ Moses & his people of Israel, how ỳ the LORDE had brought Israel out of Egipte, he toke Zipora Moses wife, whom he had sent backe, with her two sonnes. The one was called Gerson, for he sayde: I am become a straunger in a straunge londe. And the other was called Eliaser, for he sayde: The God of my fathers hath bene my helpe, and hath delyuered me from Pharaos swerde. Exod. 2. d

Now whā Jethro Moses father in lawe, and his sonnes and his wife came vnto him in the wyldernes by the mount of God, where he had pitched his tent, he sent worde vnto Moses: I Jethro thy father in lawe am come vnto the, and ỳ wife and both hir children with her. Then wente Moses forth to mete him, and dyd obeysāce vnto him, and kyssed him. And whan they had salmted ech other, they wente in to the tente.

Then Moses tolde his father in lawe all that the LORDE had done vnto Pharao and the Egipcians for Israels sake, and all the trauayle that had happened them by ỳ waye, and how the LORDE had delyuered them. Jethro reioyced ouer all ỳ good that the LORDE had done for Israel, ỳ he had delyuered them from the hāde of the Egipcians. And Jethro sayde: Praysed be tha LORDE, which hath delyuered you from the hande of the Egipcians and of Pharao, (and) that knoweth how to delyuer his people from the Egipcians hande. Now I knowe, that the LORDE is greater thē all goddes, because they dealt proudly wt them. And Jethro toke bremoffer ynges, and offered vnto God. Then came Aaron and all ỹ elders of Israel to eate bred with Moses father in lawe before God.

C On the next morow sat Moses to iudge the people, and the people stode rounde about Moses from the mornynge vntyll ỹ euen. But whan his father in lawe sawe all that he dyd with the people, he sayde: What is this, that thou doest with the people? Wherfore syttest thou alone, and all ỹ people stonde rounde aboute from the morninge vntyll the euen? Moses answered him: The people come to me, & axe councell at God: for whan they haue eny thinge to do, they come vnto me, that I maye iudge betwixte euery one & his neighboure, and shewe them the statutes of God, and his lawes.

His father in lawe sayde vnto him: It is not well that thou doest. Thou weeriest thy self, and the people that is with the. This busynesse is to sore for the, thou canst not perfourme it alone. But herken vnto my voyce, I will geue the councell, and God shall be with the. Be thou vnto the people to God warde, and bringe the causes before God, and prouide them with statutes and lawes, that thou mayest shewe thē the waie wherin they shulde walke, and the workes that they shulde do.

But loke out amonge all the people, for honest men, that feare God, soch as are true, & hate couetousnes: make these rulers ouer them, some ouer thousandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, and ouer ten, that they maye

D allwaye iudge the people. But where there

Deut.1.c is eny greate matter, that they bringe the same vnto the, and iudge the small causes them selues: so shall it be lighter for the, yf they beare the burthen with the. Yf thou shalt do this, then mayest thou endure the thinge that God chargeth the withall, and all this people maie go peaceably vnto their place.

Num.11.d Moses herkened vnto the voyce of his father in lawe, and dyd all that he sayde. And he chose honest men out of all Israel, and made them heades ouer the people, some ouer thousandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, and ouer ten, that they might allwaye iudge the people. As for soch causes as were harde, they brought them vnto Moses, and iudged the small matters them selues. So Moses let his father in lawe departe into his owne londe.

The XIX. Chapter.

IN the thirde moneth after that the children of Israel were gone out of the londe of Egipte, they came the same daye into the wyldernes of Sinai (for they were departed from Raphidim, and wolde into the wyldernes of Sinai) and there they pitched in the wyldernes ouer against the mounte. And Moses wente vp vnto God.

And the LORDE called vnto him out of the mount, and sayde: Thus shalt thou saye vnto the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: Ye haue sene what I haue done vnto the Egipcians, and how I haue borne you vpon Aegles wynges, & brought you vnto my self. Yf ye wyll harken now vnto my voyce, and kepe my couenaunt, ye shal be myne owne before all people: for the whole earth is myne: and ye shall be vnto me * a presterly kingdome, and an holy people. These are the wordes that thou shalt saye vnto the children of Israel.

Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and layed before them all these wordes, that the LORDE had commaunded. And all the people answered together, and sayde: * All that the LORDE hath sayde, wyll we do.

And Moses tolde the wordes of the people vnto the LORDE agayne. And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, I wyll come vnto the in a thicke cloude, that the people maye heare my wordes, which I speake vnto the, and beleue the for euer. And Moses shewed the wordes of the people vnto the LORDE.

The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go vnto the people, and sanctifie thē to daye and tomorow, ỹ they maye wash their clothes, and be ready agaynst the thirde daye: for vpon the thirde daye shall the LORDE come downe vpon mount Sinai before all the people. And set markes rounde aboute the people, and saye vnto them: Beware, that ye go not vp into ỹ mount, ner touch ỹ border of it. * For whosoeuer toucheth ỹ mount, shal dye ỹ death. There shal no hāde touch it, but he shall either be stoned, or shot therow: whether it be beest or man, it shal not lyue. Whan the horne bloweth, then shal they come vp vnto the mounte.

C Moses wente downe from the mount vnto the people, and sanctified them. And they waßhed their clothes. And he sayde vnto them: Be ready agaynst the thirde daye, and no man come at his wife.

Now whan the thirde daye came (and it was early) it beganne to thonder and lighten, and there was a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and a noyse of a trompet exceadinge mightie. And the people that were in the tentes, were afrayde. And Moses brought the people out of the tentes to mete ẏ God, and they stode vnder the mount.

But all mount Sinai smoked, because ẏ LORDE came downe vpō it with fyre. And the smoke therof wente vp as the smoke of a fornace, so that the whole mount was exceadinge terrible. And the noyse of the trompet wēte out, and was mightie. Moses spake, & God answered him loude. Now whan the LORDE was come downe vpon mount Sinai, euen vpon the toppe of it, he called Moses vp vnto ẏ toppe of the mount. And Moses wente vp.

D Then sayde the LORDE vnto him: Go downe, and charge the people, ẏ they preasse not vnto the LORDE to se him, and so many of them perishe. The rulers also that come nye vnto ẏ LORDE, shal sanctifie them selues, lest the LORDE smyte thē. But Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: The people can not come vp vpon mount Sinai, for thou hast charged vs, & sayde: Set markes aboute the mount, and sanctifie it.

The LORDE sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, get ẏ downe, Thou and Aaron with the shalt come vp: but the rulers and ẏ people shal not preasse to come vp vnto ẏ LORDE, lest he smyte thē. And Moses wente downe to the people, and tolde them.

The XX. Chapter.

The XXI. Chapter.

A Leuit.25.f Deu.15.b Iere.34.b THese are the lawes, that thou shalt laye before them. Yf thou bye a seruaunt that is an Hebrue, he shal serue the sixe yeares, in the seuenth yeare shall he go out fre and lowse. Yf he came alone, then shal he go out alone also: but yf he came maried, then shall his wife go out with him. Yf his master haue geuē him a wife, & she haue borne him sonnes or doughters, thē shal the wife and ẏ children be the masters, but he shall go out alone. Nevertheles * yf the seruaunt saye: I loue my master, and my wife and children, I wil not go out fre: then let his master bringe him before the Goddes, and holde him to the dore or post, and bore him thorow the eare with a botkin, and let him be his seruaunt for ever.

* Deu.15.c Yf a man sell his doughter to be an hand mayde, then shal she not go out as the men seruauntes. But yf she please not hir master, and he haue not maried her, then shal he let her go fre: but to sell her vnto a straūge people he hath no auctorite, for so moch as he hath despysed her. Yf he promyse her vnto his sonne, then shal he do vnto her after the lawe of doughters. But yf he geue him another wife, then shall he mynishe nothinge of hir foode, rayment, and dewtye of mariage. Yf he do not these thre, then shal she go out fre, and paye nothinge.

B Leu.14.d Matth.5.c * Nu.35.b Deut.19.a He that smyteth a man that he dye, shall dye the death. * Yf he haue not layed wayte for him, but God let him fall in his hande vnawares, then wil I appoynte the a place, where he shal flye vnto. But yf a man presume vpon his neghboure, and slaye him with disceate, * 3.Re.1.g then shalt thou take the same fro myne altare, that he maye be slayne. Who so smyteth his father or mother, shall dye the death.

He that stealeth a man, and selleth him, so that he be founde by him, the same shall dye the death.

* Who so curseth father and mother, shal dye the death. Yf men stryue together and one smyte another with a stone, or with his fist, so that he dye not, but lyeth in bedd: Yf he ryse, and go forth vpon his staff, thē shall he that smote him, be vngiltie: saue that he shal paye the losse of his tyme, and geue ẏ money for healynge him.

He that smyteth his seruaunt or mayde with a staff, that he dye vnder his handes, the same shall suffre vengeaunce therfore. But yf he endure a daye or two, then shall he suffre no vēgeaunce therfore, for it is his money.

C Yf men stryue, and hytt a woman with childe, so that ẏ frute departe from her, and no harme happen vnto her, then shall he be punyshed for money, as moch as the womans hußbande layeth to his charge, and he shall geue it, accordinge to the appoyntement of the dayes men. But yf there come harme vnto her there thorow, * then shal he paye soule for soule, eye for eye, toth for toth, hande for hande, fote for fote, burnynge for burnynge, wounde for wounde, stripe for stripe.

Yf a man smyte his seruaunt or his mayde in the eye, and destroye it, he shal let them go fre and lowse for the eye sake. In like maner yf he smyte out a tothe of his seruaunt or mayde, he shall let them go fre and lowse for the tothes sake.

* Yf an oxe gorre a man or a woman, that he dye, then shall that oxe be stoned, and his flesh not eaten: so is the master of the oxe vngiltie. But yf the oxe haue bene vsed to pushe in tymes past, & it hath bene tolde his master, and he hath not kepte him, and beside that slayeth a man or a woman, then shal ẏ oxe be stoned, and his master shal dye. But D yf there be money set vpon him, then, loke what is put vpon him, that shall he geue, to delyuer his soule. Likewyse shall he be dealte withall, yf he gorre a sonne or a doughter. But yf he gorre a seruaunt or a mayde, then shall he geue their master thirtie syluer Sycles: and the oxe shalbe stoned.

Yf a man open a well, or dygge a pytt, and couer it not, and there fall an oxe or Asse therin, then shall the owner of the pytt make it good with money, and restore it vnto his master: but the deed carcase shalbe his owne.

Yf one mans oxe gore another, that he dye, then shall they sell the lyuynge oxe, and deuyde the money, and the deed carcase shal they deuyde also. But yf it be knowne, that the oxe haue bene vsed to gore afore, then shal he paye his oxe for the other, & the deed carcase shal be his owne.

The XXII. Chapter.

A Yf a man steale an oxe or shepe, and slaye it, or sell it, he shall restore fyue oxen for an oxe, and * foure shepe for a shepe.

Yf a thefe be taken breakinge in, & vpon that be smytten that he dye, then shall not he that smote him, be giltie of his bloude. But yf the sonne be gone vp vpō him, then hath he committed manslaughter, and he shal dye.

A thefe shall make restitucion. Yf he haue nothige, thē let him be solde for his theft. But yf ỹ theft be founde by him alyue (from the oxe vnto the Asse or shepe) then shall he restore dubble.

Yf a man hurte a felde or vynyarde, so ỹ he let his catell do harme in another mans felde, the same shall make restitucion euen of the best of his owne felde and vynyarde.

* Yf a fyre come out, and take holde of ỹ thornes, so that the sheeues be consumed, or the corne that stondeth yet vpon the felde, he that kyndled the fyre shall make restitucion.

B * Yf a man delyuer his neghboure money or vessels to kepe, and it be stollen from him out of his house: yf the thefe be founde, he shal restore dubble. But yf the thefe be not founde, then shal the good man of the house be brought before the * Goddes (and shal sweare) that he hath not put his hande vnto his neghbours good.

Yf one accuse another in eny maner of trespace, whether it be for oxe, or Asse, or shepe, or rayment, what so euer it be that is lost: then shall both their causes come before the Goddes: Loke whom the Goddes condempne, the same shal restore dubble vnto his neghboure.

Yf a man delyuer vnto his neghboure an Asse, or oxe or shepe, or eny maner of catell to kepe, and it dye, or be hurte, or dryuen awaye that no man se it, then shall there an ooth of the LORDE go betwene them, that he hath not put his hande vnto his neghbours good: and the owner of ỹ good shal accepte it, so that the other shall not make it good. Yf a thefe steale it from him, then shal he make restitucion vnto the owner therof. But yf it be rauysshed (of beastes) then shal he brynge recorde therof, and not make it good.

Yf a man borowe ought of his neghbou C re, and it be hurte, or dye, so that the owner therof be not by, then shall he make it good. But yf the owner therof be by, then shal he not make it good, yf he hyred it for his money.

Yf a man begile a mayde, that is not yet spoused, and lye with her, the same shal gene her hir dowry, and take her to his wife. But yf hir father refuse to gene her vnto him, thē shall he weye there the money, accordinge to the dowry of virgins. Gen.34. Deu.22.

Thou shalt not suffre a witch to lyue. 1.Re.28.
* Who so lyeth wt a beest, shal dye the death. *Deu.27.
Who so offreth to eny goddes, saue vnto the LORDE onely, let him dye without redempcion.

Ye shall truble no wyddowe ner fatherlesse childe. Yf thou shalt trouble them, they shall crie vnto me, and I shall heare their crye: then shal my wrath waxe whote, so ỹ I shal sley you with the swerde, and youre wyues shalbe wedowes, and youre children fatherlesse. Iob 24.

* Yf thou lende money vnto my people that is poore by the, thou shalt not behaue thy self as an vsurer vnto him, nether shalt thou oppresse him with vsury. *Leu.25. Deut.23. Exe.22.b

Yf thou take a garment of thy neghbou D re to pledge, thou shalt gene it him agayne before the Sonne go downe: for his rayment is his onely couerynge of his slynne: wherin he slepeth. But yf he shall crie vnto me, I wyll heare him: for I am mercifull. Deu.24.

Thou shalt not speake euell of the Goddes, * and the ruler of thy people shalt thou not blaspheme. 2.Re.19. *Act.23.

Thy drie and moist frutes shalt thou not kepe backe. Thy first sonne shalt thou gene vnto me. So shalt thou do also with thine oxen and shepe. Seuen dayes let it be with the dame: Vpon the eighe daye shalt thou gene it vnto me. Ye shalbe holy people before me. Therfore shal ye eate no flesh, that is torne of beestes in the felde, but cast it vnto the dogges. Leui.22. Exe.44.

The XXIII. Chapter.

Thou shalt not accepte a vayne tale, A that thou woldest imagine the vngodly, and be a false wytnesse.

Thou shalt not folowe the multitude vn to evell, ner answere at the lawe that thou woldest (to folowe the multitude) turne a syde from the right.

Deu. 22.a Thou shalt not paynte a poore mās cause. Yf thou mete thine enemies oxe or Asse, goinge astraye, thou shalt brynge the same vnto him agayne.

Deu. 22.a Luc. 14.a Yf thou se the Asse of him that hateth the, lye vnder his burthen, thou shalt not let him lye, but shalt helpe him vp.

Thou shalt not wraist the righte of thy poore in his cause. Kepe the farre from false matters. The innocent and righteous shalt thou not sley, for I iustifie not ỳ vngodly.

Susan. g

Deu. 17.a Eccl. 20.d Thou shalt not take giftes: for giftes blinde euen them ỳ are sharpe of sight, & wraist the righteous causes.

Ge. 46.a Ye shall not oppresse a straunger, for ye knowe the hert of straungers, * for so moch as ye youre selues also haue bene straungers in the londe of Egipte.

B Leui. 25.a Sixe yeares shalt thou sowe thy londe, and gather in the frute therof: In the seuenth yeare shalt thou let it rest and lye still, that the poore amonge thy people maye eate therof: and loke what remayneth ouer, let ỳ beestes of the felde eate it. Thus shalt thou do also with thy vynyarde and olyue trees.

Exo. 20.b 34.c 35.a Deut. 5.b Sixe dayes shalt thou do thy worke, but vpon the seuenth daye thou shalt kepe holy daye, that thine oxe and Asse maye rest, and that the sonne of thy handmayden and the straunger maye refresh them selues.

All that I haue sayde vnto you, that kepe. And as for the names of other goddes, ye shall not remembre them, and out of youre mouthes shal they not be herde.

Exo. 23.a Thre tymes in the yeare shalt thou kepe feast vnto me: namely the feast of vnleuended bred shalt thou kepe, that thou eate vnleuended bred seuen dayes (* like as I commaunded ỳ) in the tyme of ỳ moneth Abib, for in the same wentest thou out of Egipte. (But appeare not emptye before me.) And ỳ feast whan thou first reapest thy labours, ỳ thou hast sowen vpon the felde. And the feast of ingatherynge in the ende of ỳ yeare, whan thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the felde. Thre tymes in the yeare shal every male that thou hast, appeare before the LORDE the Gouernoure.

C Thou shalt not offre the bloude of my sacrifice with sowre dowe, and the fat of my feast shal not remayne tall the mornynge.

The first of the first frutes of thy felde shalt thou brynge in to the house of the LORDE thy God. * And shalt not seeth a kydd, whyle it is in his mothers mylke.

Behold, I sende an angell before the, to kepe the in the waye, and to brynge the vnto the place, that I haue prepared. Therfore be warre of his face, and herken vnto his voyce, and anger him not, for he shall not spare youre myßdedes, & my name is in him. But yf thou shalt herken vnto his voyce, and do all that I shal tell the, then wyl I be enemie vnto thy enemyes, and aduersary vnto thy aduersaries.

Now whā myne angell goeth before the, & bryngeth the vnto ỳ Amorites, Hethites, Pheresites, Cananites, Henites & Jebusites, & I shall haue destroyed them: then * shalt thou not worshipe their goddes, ner serue them, nether shalt thou do as they do, but shalt ouerthrowe their goddes, & breake thē downe. But ỳ LORDE yo God shal ye serue, so shal he blesse thy bred & thy water, and I wyl remoue all sickneße from the.

There shalbe nothinge baren ner vnfrutefull in thy londe, and I wil fulfill the nombre of thy dayes. I wil sende my feare before the, and sley all the people where thou cōmest, & will make all thine enemies to turne their backes vpō the. I wyll sende hornettes before ỳ, and dryue out the Heuytes, Cananites and Hethytes before the:

In one yeare wyl I not cast thē out before the, ỳ the londe become not waist, & wylde beastes multiply agaynst ỳ: By litle & litle wyll I dryue them out before the, tyll thou growe, & haue the londe in possession. * And I wil set the borders of thy londe, euen from the reed see vnto ỳ see of the Philistynes, & from the wyldernes vnto the * water. For I wil delyuer the indwellers of the londe in to thine hande, ỳ thou shalt dryue them out before the. Thou shalt make no couenaunt wt them ner with their goddes, but let thē not dwell in thy lande, that they make the not synne agaynst me. * For yf thou serue their goddes, it wil surely be thy decaye.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

AND he sayde vnto Moses: Come vp vnto the LORDE thou & Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seuētie elders of Israel, & worshipe afarre of. But let Moses onely come nye vnto the LORDE, and let not them come nye, and let not the people also come vp with him.

Moses came and tolde the people all the wordes of the LORDE, & all the lawes. Then answered all the people with one voyce, and 19.b sayde: All ỳ wordes that the LORDE hath sayde, wyl we do.

B Then wrote Moses all the wordes of ỳ LORDE, & gat him vp by tymes in the mor-nynge, * & buylded an altare vnder ỳ mount with twolue pilers, accordinge to the twolue trybes of Israel: & sent twolue yonge mē of the children of Israel, to offre burntofferyn ges, and peace offerynges theron of bullockkes vnto the LORDE.

And Moses toke the half parte of the bloude, and put it in a basen, the other half sprenkled he vpon the altare: & toke the boke of ỳ couenaunt, & cried in the eares of the people. And whan they had sayde: All ỳ the LORDE hath sayde, wil we do, & herken vnto et.1.a him: * Moses toke the bloude, & sprenkled it 9.c vpon the people, & sayde: Beholde, this is ỳ
10.c bloude of the couenaunt that the LORDE maketh wt you vpon all these wordes.

C Then wente Moses & Aaron, Nadab &
19.d Abihu, & the seuentye elders of Israel vp, & sawe ỳ God of Israel. Vnder his fete it was like a stone worke of Saphyre, & as the fashion of heauē, whā it is cleare, & he put not his hāde vpō the pryncipall of Israel. And whan they had sene God, they ate & dronke.
20.11.d And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Co-31.d me vp vnto me vpon the mount, & remayne there, ỳ I maye geue the tables of stone, & ỳ lawe & commaundemētes ỳ I haue wryt ten, which thou shalt teach thē. Then Moses gat him vp & his myniſter Josua, & wen-te vp in to the mount of God, & sayde vnto the elders: Tary ye here, tyll we come to you agayne: beholde, Aaron and Hur are with you, yf eny mā haue a matter to do, let him bringe it vnto them.

Now whā Moses came vp in to ỳ mouñt,
a cloude couered ỳ mount: & the glory of ỳ LORDE abode vpon mount Sinai, & cou-ered it wt the cloude sixe dayes, & vpon the se-uēth daye he called Moses out of ỳ cloude.
And ỳ fashion of ỳ glory of ỳ LORDE was like a cōsumynge fyre vpon the toppe of ỳ mount in the sight of the children of Israel.
And Moses wente in to the myddest of the cloude, and ascēded vp in to the mount, and 20.24.d abode vpon the mount fourtye dayes & four tye nightes.

The XXV. Chapter.

A And ỳ LORDE talked wt Moses & ay-20.35.a de: Speake vnto ỳ childrē of Israel, ỳ they geue me an Heue offerynge, & take the some of euery man, that hath a fre wyllynge hert therto. And this is the Heue-offerynge that ye shal take of them: Golde, syluer, brasse, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, whyte twyned sylke, goates hayre, reed skyn nes of rammes, doo skynnes, fyne tre, oyle for lampes, spyces for the anoyntynge oyle, and for swete incense. Onyx stones and set sto nes for the ouerbody cote and for the brestlappe.

And they shall make me a Sanctuary, that I maie dwell amonge them. Like as I shal shewe ỳ a patrone of the Habitacion, and of all the ornamentes therof, so shall ye make it.

Make an Arke of fyne tre two cubytes B & a half longe, a cubyte & a half brode, and Exo.37.
a cubyte & an half hye: this shalt thou ouer leye with pure golde within and without, & make an hye vpō it a crowne of golde roun de aboute, and cast foure rynges of golde, & put them in the foure corners of it, so that two rynges be vpon the one syde, and two vpon the other syde. And make staues of fyn re tre, and ouerlaye them with golde, and put them in the rynges alonge by the sydes of the Arke, to beare it withall: and they shal abyde styll in the rynges, & not be takē out. And in ỳ Arke thou shalt laye the wyt-nesse, that I wyl geue the. Thou shalt make a Mercyseate also of pure golde, two cuby-tes and a half longe, and a cubyte & a half brode.

And thou shalt make two Cherubyns of beaten golde vpō both ỳ endes of the Mer cyseate, ỳ the one Cherub maye be vpon the one ende, & the other vpon the other ende, & so to be two Cherubyns vpon the endes of the Mercyseate. And the Cherubyns shall spreade out their wynges ouer an hye, ỳ they maye couer ỳ Mercyseate wt their wynges: & ỳ either of their faces maye be right ouer one agaynst another, and their faces shall loke vnto the Mercyseate.

And thou shalt set ỳ Mercyseate aboue C vpon the Arke. And in the Arke thou shalt laye the wytnesse, ỳ I shal geue the. From ỳ Num.7.d place wyll I testifie vnto ỳ, and talke with the, namely, from ỳ * Mercyseate (betwixte *Ro.3.c the two Cherubyns) which is vpon the Arke Heb.4.a of wytnesse, of all that I wyl cōmaunde ỳ vnto the children of Israel.

Thou shalt make a table also of fyne Exo.37.b
tre, two cubites longe, and one cubyte brode, and a cubyte and a half hye, and ouerlaye it with pure golde, and make a crowne of golde rounde aboute it, and an whope of an hā de brede hye, and a crowne of golde vnto ỳ whope rounde aboute.

And vnto it thou shalt make foure rynges of golde, on the foure corners in the foure fete of it: harde vnder the whope shall ỳ rynges be, to put in staues and to beare the table wt all: and thou shalt make the staues of Fyre tre, & ouerlaye them with golde, ỳ the table maye be borne therwith.

Thou shalt make also his disshes, sponnes, pottes, and flat peces of pure golde, to Leu.24.b poure out and in. And vpon the table thou shalt allwaye set shewbred before me.

D Moreouer thou shalt make a candelsticke Exo.37.c of fyne beaten golde, where vpon shall be
Num.8.a the shaft with braunches, cuppes, knoppes, and floures. Sixe braunches shall proceade out of the sydes of the candelsticke, out of euery syde thre braunches. Euery braunch shal haue thre cuppes, (like allmondes) thre knoppes, and thre floures. These shalbe the sixe braunches of the candilsticke. But the shaft of the candilsticke it self shal haue foure cuppes, knoppes and floures, and allwaie a knoppe vnder two braunches, of the sixe that proceade out of the candilsticke. For both the knoppes and braunches shall proceade out of the shaft, all one pece of fyne beaten golde.

And thou shalt make seuen lampes & bowethere on, that they maye geue light one ouer agaynst another, and snoffers and out quenchers of pure golde. Out of an hundreth pounde weight of pure golde shalt a Heb.8.a thou make it, with all this apparell. * And Acto.7.f se that thou make it after the patrone that thou hast sene in the mount.

The XXVI. Chapter.

A The habitacion shalt thou make of ten curteynes, of whyte twyned sylke, of yalowe sylke, of scarlet and purple. Cherubyms shalt thou make theron of broderd worke. The lenght of one curteyne shalbe eight and twentye cubytes ỳ bredth foure cubytes: and all the ten shalbe like, and shalbe coupled fyne and fyne together, one vnto the other. And thou shalt make loupes of yalowe sylke by the edge of euery curtayne, where they shalbe coupled together, that there maye be euer two and two fastened together vpon their edges: fiftie loupes vpon euery curteyne, that one maye fasten the other together. And thou shalt make fiftie buttons of golde, wherwith the curteynes maye be coupled together, one to the other, that it maye be one couerynge.

B Thou shalt make a coueringe also of goa-Exo.36.c tes heyer for a tente ouer the habitacion, of eleuen curteynes. The length of one curteyne shalbe thirtie cubytes, the bredth foure cubytes. And all the eleuen shalbe alike greate: fyne shalt thou couple together by the selues, & sixe also by them selues, ỳ thou mayest dubble the sixte curteyne in the fore front of the Tabernacle. And vpon euery curteyne thou shalt make fiftie loupes vpō the edges of them, that they maie be coupled together by the edges. And fiftie buttons of brasse shalt thou make, and put the buttons into the loupes, that the tent maye be coupled together, and be one couerynge.

As for the remnaunt of the curteynes of the tente, thou shalt let the halfe parte hange ouer behynde ỳ tēte, vpon both the sydes a cubyte longe, ỳ the residue maye be vpon the sydes of the Tabernacle, & couer it vpon both the sydes.

Besydes this couerynge thou shalt ma- C ke a couerynge of reed staynes of rammes. And aboue this a coueringe of doo skinnes.

Thou shalt make bordes also for the habitacion, of Fyre tre, which shall stonde: one borde shalbe ten cubytes longe, & a cubyte & a half brode. Two fete shal one borde haue, that one maye be set by the other.

Thus shalt thou make all the bordes for ỳ Tabernacle: Twentye of them shal stōde towarde the south, which shal haue fourtye sokettes of syluer vnder them, two sokettes vnder euery borde for his two fete.

Likewyse vpon the other syde towarde the north there shall stonde twentye bordes also, and fourtye sokettes of syluer, two sokettes vnder euery borde.

But behynde the habitacion towarde ỳ D west thou shalt make sixe bordes, and two bordes mo for the two corners of the habitacion, that euery one of them both maye be coupled from vnder vp with his corner borde, and aboue vpon the heade to come eauen together with a clāpe: so that there be eight bordes with their syluer sokettes, wher of there shalbe sixtene, two vnder euery borde.

And thou shalt make barres of fyre tre, E fyne for the bordes vpon the one syde of the Tabernacle, and fyne for the bordes vpon the other syde of the Tabernacle, and fyne for the bordes behynde ỳ Tabernacle towarde the west. And the barres shalt thou shute thorow ỳ myddest of the bordes, and fastē alltogether from ỳ one corner to ỳ other. And thou shalt ouerlaye the bordes & golde, and make their rynges of golde, that the barres maye be put therin. And the barres shalt thou ouerlaye with golde, and so shalt thou set vp the Tabernacle, accordinge to ỳ fashion as thou hast sene vpon ỳ mount.

I And thou shalt make a vayle of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke. And Cherubyns shalt thou make theron of broderd worke, and shalt hange it vpon foure pilers of Fyrre tre which are ouerlayed with golde, haurynge knoppes of golde, and foure sokettes of syluer. And the vayle shalt thou festen with buttons, and set the Arke of wytnesse within the vayle, that it maye be vnto you a difference betwixte the holy and the Most holy.

G And thou shalt set the Mercyseate vpon the Arke of wytnesse in the Most holy. But set the table without the vayle, and the candilsticke ouer agaynst ỳ table vpon ỳ south syde of the Tabernacle, that the table maie stonde on the north syde.

And in the dore of the Tabernacle thou shalt make an hanginge, of yalow sylke, purple, scarlet and whyte twyned sylke. And for the same hanginge thou shalt make fyue pilers of Fyrre tre, ouerlayed with golde, with knoppes of golde. And shalt cast fyue sokettes of brasse for them.

The XXVII. Chapter.

maye be foure square, & thre cubytes hye: thou shalt make hornes vpon the foure corners of it, & shalt ouer laye it with brasse. Make ashpānes, shouels, basens, fleshokes, colepānes. All ỳ apparell therof shalt thou make of brasse. Thou shalt make a gredyron also like a nett, of brase, & foure brasen ryngs vpon the foure corners of it: from vnder vp aboute the altare shalt thou make it, so that the gredyron reach vnto ỳ myddest of the altare. Thou shalt make staues also for the altare, of Fyrre tre, ouer layed with golde, and shalt put the staues in the rynges, that the staues maye be on both the sydes of ỳ altare, to beare it withall. And holowe with bordes shalt thou make it, like as it is shewed the in the mount.

B And to ỳ habitacion thou shalt make a courte, an hangynge of whyte twyned sylke: vpō ỳ one syde an C. cubytes lōge towarde the south, & xx. pilers vpon xx. brasen sokettes, & the knoppes & their whopes of syluer. Likewyse vpon ỳ north syde there shal be an hanginge of an C. cubytes lōge, twenty pilers vpon twenty brasen sokettes, and their knoppes & their whopes of syluer.

But vpon the west syde the bredth of ỳ courte shal have an hanginge of fiftie cubites longe, & ten pilers vpon ten sokettes. Vpō the east syde also shal the bredth of the courte haue fiftie cubytes, so that the hangynge haue vpon one syde fyftene cubites, and thre pilers vpō thre sokettes: And vpon ỳ other syde fiftene cubytes also, and thre pilers vpō thre sokettes.

And in the courte gate there shalbe an C hangynge twenty cubytes brode, of yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, and whyte twyned sylke, wrought with nedle worke, and foure pilers vpon their foure sokettes. All the pilers rounde aboute the courte shall haue syluer whopes, & syluer knoppes, & sokettes of brasse. And the length of ỳ courte shal be an hūdreth cubytes, the bredth fiftie cubytes, the heygth fyue cubytes, of whyte twyned sylke and ỳ sokettes therof shalbe of brasse. All ỳ vessels also of the habitacion to all maner seruyce, and all the nales of it, and all the nales of the courte shalbe of brasse.

And Aarō and his sonnes shal dresse it from the euenynge vntyll ỳ mornynge before the LORDE. This shalbe vnto you a perpetuall custome for youre posteritie amonge the children of Israel.

The XXVIII. Chapter.

A Nd thou shalt take vnto the Aaron A thy brother and his sonnes frō amonge the childrē of Israel, that he maye be my preist: namely Aaron & his sonnes Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar: & thou shalt make holy clothes for Aarō ỳ brother, honorable and glorious, & shalt speake vnto all them that are wise of hert, whom I haue fylled with the spirite of wisdome, that they make garmentes to Aaron for his consecracion, that he maye be my preist.

These are ỳ garmentes which they shal make: a brestlappe, an ouerbody cote, a tunycle, an albe, a myter and a girdell. Thus shal they make holy garmentes for ỳ brother Aarō and his sonnes, that he maye be my preist. They shal take therto golde, yalow silke, scarlet, purple, and whyte sylke.

The ouerbody cote shal they make of gol B de, yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke of broderd worke, that it maye be festened together vpon both the sydes by ỳ edges therof. And his gyrdell vpō it shall be of ỳ same womās shippe & stuff, euen of golde yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke. And thou shalt take two Onix stones, and graue in them the names of the children of Israel. Syx names vpon the one stone, and the sixe other names vpon the other stone accordinge to the order of their age. This shalt thou do by the stonegrauers that graue signettes, so that ye stones with the names of the children of Israel to be set rounde aboute with golde: and thou shalt put them vpon the two shulders of the ouer body cote, that that they maye be stones of remembraunce for the children of Israel, that Aaron maye beare their names vpon both his shulders before the LORDE for a remembraunce.

C Thou shalt make hokes of golde also, and two wrethē cheynes of pure golde, and shalt fasten them vnto the hokes.

The brestlappe of iudgment shalt thou make of broderd worke, euen after the worke of the ouerbody cote: of golde, yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, and whyte twyned sylke. Foure square shall it be and dubble, an hande bredth longe, and an handebredth brode. And thou shalt fill it with foure rowes full of stones. Let the first rowe be a Sardis, a Topas, and a Smaragde. The seconde: a Ruby, a Saphyre, and a Dyamonde. The thirde: a Ligurios, an Achatt, and an Ametyst. The fourth: a Turcas, an Onix, and a Jaspis. In golde shall they be sett in all the rowes, and shal stonde accordinge to ye twolue names of the children of Israel, grauen of the stonegrauers, euery one with his name accordinge to the twolue trybes.

D And vpon the brestlappe thou shalt make wrethen cheynes by ye corners of pure golde, and two golde rynges, so, that thou fastē the same two rynges vnto two edges of the brestlappe, and put the two wrethē cheynes of golde in the same two rynges, that are in two edges of the brestlappe. But the two endes of ye two wrethen cheynes shalt thou fasten in the two hokes vpon the ouerbody cote one ouer agaynst another.

And thou shalt make two other rynges of golde, and fasten them vnto ye other two edges of ye brestlappe, namely to ye borders therof, wherwith it maye hange on the ynsyde vpon the ouerbody cote. And yet shalt thou make two rynges of golde, and fasten them vpon the two edges beneth to the ouerbody cote, vpon the outsyde one ouer a-E gaynst another, where the ouerbody cote ioy-neth together. And the brestlappe shall be fastened by his rynges vnto the rynges of the ouerbody cote with a yalow lace, that it maye lye close vpon the ouerbody cote, and that the brestlappe be not lowsed from the ouerbody cote.

Thus shall Aaron beare the names of the children of Israel in ye brestlappe of iud-gment vpon his hert, whan he goeth in to the Sanctuary, for a remembraunce before the LORDE allwaye. And in the brestlappe of iudgment thou shalt put light and perfectnesse, that they be vpon Aarōs hert, whan he goeth in before the LORDE, and that he maye beare the iudgment of the children of Israel vpon his hert before the LOR-DE allwaye.

Thou shalt make the tunykle also to the ouerbody cote all of yalow sylke, and aboue in the myddest there shal be an hole, and a bonde folden together rounde aboute the hole, that it rente not. And beneth vpon the hemme thou shalt make pomgranates of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple rounde aboute, and belles of golde betwixte the same roun-de aboute: that there be euer a golden bell and a pomgranate, a golden bell and a pomgranate rounde aboute the hemme of the same tunycle. And Aaron shall haue it vpon him whā he ministreth, that the soūde ther of maye be herde, whan he goeth out and in at the Sanctuary before the LORDE, that he dye not.

Thou shalt make a foreheade plate also of pure golde, and graue therin (after the workmanshipe of the stone grauer): the holy-nes of the LORDE, & with a yalow lace shalt thou fasten it vnto the fore front of the my-ter vpon Aarons fore heade, ye Aaron maie so beare ye synne of the holy thinges, which the childrē of Israel halowe in all their gif-tes and Sanctuary. And it shall be allwaye vpon his fore heade, that he maye reconcyle them before the LORDE.

Thou shalt make an albe also of whyte G sylke, and a myter of whyte sylke, and a gyr-dle of nedle worke.

And for Aarons sonnes thou shalt make cotes, gyrdles and bonetes, honorable and glorious, and shalt put them vpon thy brother Aaron and his sonnes, and shalt anoyn te them, and fyll their handes, and consecrate them, that they maye be my prestes. And thou shalt make them lynnen breches, to couer the flesh of their preuities, from the loynes vnto the thyes. And Aaron and his sonnes shall haue them on, whan they go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, or go vnto the altare to minister in the holy, that they beare not their synne, and dye. This shalbe a perpetual custome for him, and his sede after him.

The XXIX. Chapter.

A THis is it also, that thou shalt do vnto them, that they maye be consecrated prestes vnto me. Take a yonge bullocke, and two rammes without blemish, vnleuended bred, & vnleuended cakes myxte with oyle, and wafers of swete bred tempered with oyle: Of wheate floure shalt thou make them all, and put them in a maunde, & bringe them in the maunde, with the bullocke & two rammes.

And thou shalt bringe Aaron & his sonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse, & wash them with water, & take the garmentes, and put vpon Aaron the albe and the tunycle, & the ouer body cote, & the brestlappe to ỹ ouer body cote, & shalt gyrde him on the out syde vpon the ouer body cote, and set the myter vpon his heade, and the holy crowne vpon the myter: and shalt take the anoyntinge oyle, and poure it vpon his heade, and anoynte him.

B Thou shalt bringe forth his sonnes also, & put the albes vpon them, and gyrde both Aaron & them with gyrdles, & set the bonettes vpon their heades, that they maye haue the prestihode for a perpetuall custome.

And thou shalt fyll the hãdes of Aaron and his sonnes, and bringe forth the bullocke before the Tabernacle of wytnesse. * And Aaron and his sonnes shall laye their hãdes vpon the heade of the bullocke, and thou shalt sley the bullocke before the LORDE, at the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and shalt take of his bloude, and put it vpon the homes of the altare with thy fynger, and poure all the other bloude vpon the botome of the altare.

And thou shalt take all the fat that coue reth the bowels and the nett vpon the leuer, and the two kydneys with the fat that is aboute them, and burne them vpon the altare. But the bullockes flesh, strynne and donge, shalt thou burne with fyre without the hooste: for it is a synneofferynge.

C The one ramme shalt thou take also, and Aaron with his sonnes shall laye their handes vpon his heade. And thou shalt halowe the altare, whan thou reconcylest it: & shalt anoynte it, that it maye be consecrated. Seuen dayes shalt thou reconcyle the altare, & consecrate it, that it maye be an altare of the Most holy. Who so wyll touch the altare, must be consecrated.

G And this shalt thou do with the altare: Nu 28.a 1.Par. 17.e Two lambes of one yeare olde shalt thou offer euery daye vpon it: the one lambe in the mornynge, and the other at euen. And to one lambe a tenth deale of wheate floure, mengled with ỹ fourth parte of an Hin of beaten oyle, and ỹ fourth parte of an Hin of wine for a drynkofferynge. With the other lambe at euen shalt thou do like as with ỹ meate offerynge and drynkofferynge in the mornynge, for a swete sauoure of sacrifice vnto ỹ LORDE. This is the daylie burntofferynge amonge youre posterities, at the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the LORDE, * Leui. 1.a Num. 12.a where I will protest vnto you, and talke with the. There wil I protest vnto the children of Israel, and be sanctified in my glory, and wyl halowe the Tabernacle of wytnes and the altare, and consecrate Aarō and his sonnes, to be my prestes. Leu 26.b 2.Cor.6.b And I wyl dwell amonge the children of Israel, & wyll be their God: so ỹ they shal knowe, how that I am the LORDE their God, which brought them out of the londe of Egipte, that I might dwell amonge them, euen I the LORDE their God.

The XXX. Chapter.

A Thou shalt make also an incense altare to burne incense, of fyrre tre, a cubyte longe & brode, eauen foure squared, and two cubytes hye with his hornes, & shalt ouerlaye it with pure golde, the rofe & the walles of it rounde aboute, and the hornes therof, & a crowne of golde shalt thou make rounde aboute it, and two golde ryngs on either syde vnder the crowne, that there maie be staues put therin, to beare it with all.

The staues shalt thou make of fyrre tre also, and ouerlaye thē with golde: and shalt set it before the vayle, that hangeth before the Arke of wytnesse, and before the Mercy seate ỹ is vpon the wytnesse, from whence I wyl protest vnto the. And Aaron shal burne swete incense theron euery mornynge, whā he dresseth the lampes. In like maner whan he lighteth the lampes at euen, he shall burne soch incense also. This shal be the daylie incense before the LORDE amonge youre posterities.

Ye shall put no straunge incense therin, & offer no burntofferynge, ner meatofferynge, nether drynkofferynge theron. And * vpon ỹ hornes of it shall Aaron reconcyle once in a yeare, with ỹ blonde of the synneofferynge, which they shall offer that are reconcyled. This shal be done amonge youre posterities for this is the most holy vnto the LORDE.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Whan thou nombrest the heades of the children of Israel, then shal euery one gene vnto the LORDE the reconcylinge of his soule, ỹ there happē not a plage vnto them, whan they are nombred. Euery one that is tolde in the nombre, shall gene half a Sycle, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary: * one Sycle is worth twentye Geras. This half Sycle shal be ỹ LORDES Heue offerynge. Who so is in the nombre from twenty yeare and aboue, shal gene this Heue offerynge vnto ỹ LORDE. The riche shal not gene more, and the poore shal not gene lesse in the half Sycle, which is geuen vnto the LORDE to be an Heue offerynge for the reconcylinge of their soules.

And this money of recōcilinge shalt thou take of the children of Israel, & put it to the Gods seruyce of the Tabernacle of wytnes, that it maye be a remembraunce vnto the children of Israel before the LORDE, that he maye let himself be reconcyled ouer their soules.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Thou shalt make a brasen lauer also with a fote of brasse to wash, and shalt set it betwixte the Tabernacle of witnesse and ỹ altare, and put water therin, that Aarō and his sonnes maye wash their handes and fete therout, whan they go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, or to the altare, to mynistre vnto the LORDE with offerynge incense, ỹ they dye not. This shalbe a perpetuall custeme for him and his sede amonge their posterities.

And ỹ LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Take vnto the spyces of the best, fyue hundreth Sycles of Myrre, and of Cynamō halfe so moch, euen two hundreth and fyftie, and of Calmus two hundreth and fiftye, and of Cassia fyue hundreth (after the Sycle of the Sanctuary) & an Hin of oyle olyue, and make an holy anoyntinge oyle, after the craft of the Apotecary.

D And there w̄ shalt thou anoynte the Ta- 8.b bernacle of wytnesse, & the Arke of wytnes, the table with all his apparell, ỹ candilsticke with his apparell, the altare of incense, the altare of burntofferynges with all his apparell, & the lauer with his fote: and thus shalt thou consecrate them, that they maye be most holy: for who so wil touch thē, must be consecrated. Thou shalt anoynte Aaron also, and his sonnes, and consecrate them to be my prestes.

And thou shalt speake vnto the childrē of Israel, and saye: This oyle shalbe an holy oyntment vnto me amonge yo^r posterities: It shal not be poured vpon mans body, nether shalt thou make eny soch like it, for it is holy: therfore shal it be holy vnto you. Who so maketh eny soch like, or geueth a straūger therof, the same shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Take vnto the spyces: Balme, Stacte, Galban, and pure franckencense, of one as moch as of another, and make incense therof (after the craft of the Apotecary) myngled together, that it maye be pure & holy. And thou shalt beate it to poulder, and shalt put of the same before the wytnesse in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, from whence I wyll protest vnto the, but it shalbe holy vnto the for the LORDE. Who so maketh soch to cense therwith, shalbe roted out from amōge his people.

The XXXI. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & 35.d saide: I haue called by name Bezaleel 1.b the sonne of Vri ỹ sonne of Hur, of ỹ trybe of Juda, * and haue fylled him with ỹ 7.b spirete of God, with wyßdome and vnderstōdynge and knowlege, and to worke with all maner of connynge worke, in golde, sylner, brasse, to graue stones connyngly, and to set them, to carue well in tymbre, and to make all maner worke. And beholde, I haue geuen him Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the trybe of Dan, to be his companyon, and haue geuen wyßdome in to the hertes of all that are wyse, that they shall make all that B I haue commaunded the: the Tabernacle 35. 36. of wytnesse, the Arke of wytnesse, the Mercyseate theron, and all the ornamentes of ỹ Tabernacle: the table and his apparell, the candilsticke and all his apparell, the altare of incense, the altare of burntofferynges w̄ all his apparell, the lauer with his fote, the myniſtrynge vestimentes of Aaron ỹ preſt, and the garmentes of his sonnes to serue like prestes, the anoyntinge oyle, and the incēse of spyces for ỹ Sāctuary. All that I haue commaunded the, shal they make.

And the LORDE talked vnto Moses, C and sayde: Speake vnto the childrē of Israel, and saye: Kepe my Sabbath, for it is a Exo.20. token betwene me and you, and youre posterities, that ye maye knowe, how that I am the LORDE which haloweth you: therfore kepe my Sabbath, for it shalbe holy vnto you. * Who so vnhaloweth it, shall dye the • Nu.15.c death: For who so doth eny worke therin, shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

Sixe dayes shall men worke, but vpon D the seuenth daye is the Sabbath * the holy Gene.2.a rest of the LORDE. Who so doth eny worke vpon the Sabbath daye, shall dye the death.

Therfore shal the childrē of Israel kepe the Sabbath, that they maye kepe it also amonge their posterities for an euerlastynge couenaunt. An euerlastynge token is it betwixte me and the childrē of Israel. For in sixe dayes made the LORDE heauē & earth, but vpon ỹ seuenth daye he rested, and was refreshed.

And whan the LORDE had made an ende of talkinge with Moses vpon the mount Sinai, he gaue him two tables of witnesse, which were of stone, and wrytten with the fynger of God. Exo.24.c and 32.d Deut.5.c and 9.b

The XXXII. Chapter.

BVt whan the people sawe that Mo- A ses made lōge taryenge to come downe frō the mount, they gathered thē togither ageynst Aaron, & sayde vnto him: Vp, and make vs goddes, to go before vs, Actes.7.c for we can not tell what is become of this man Moses, that brought vs out of Egipte. Aaron sayde vnto them: Plucke of the Iudic.8.c golden earynges from the eares of youre wynes, of yo' sonnes, & of yo' doughters, & bringe them vnto me. Then all the people pluckte of their golden earynges from their eares, & brought them vnto Aaron. And he toke them of their handes, & fashioned it wt

al. 105.c a grauer. And they made a molten calfe, and sayde: These are thy goddes (O Israel) that brought the out of the londe of Egipte.

B Whan Aaron sawe that, he buylded an altare before him, and caused it be proclamed, and sayde: Tomorow is the LORDES feast. And they arose vp early in the mornynge, and offred burntofferynges, and brought cor.10.a deadofferynges also: Then the people sat them downe to eate and drynke, & rose vp to playe.

eut. 9.c But the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go get the downe, for thy people whom thou broughtest out of the londe of Egipte, haue marred all: they are soone gone out of the waie, which I commaunded them. They haue made them a molten calfe, and haue worshipped it, & offred vnto it, & sayde: * These 3.Reg. 12.c are thy goddes (O Israel) that brought the out of the lande of Egipte.

C And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I se, that it is a styffnecked people, and now xo.32.a iu.14.b suffre me, that my wrath maye waxe whote ouer them, & that I maye consume them, so wil I make a greate people of the.

But Moses besought the LORDE his God, & sayde: Oh LORDE, wherfore wil thy wrath waxe whote ouer thy people, whom thou hast brought out of the lõde of Egipte wt greate power & a mightie hãde: Wherfore shulde the Egipcians speake, & saye: He hath brought thẽ for their myschefe, to slaye them in the mountaynes, and to destroye thẽ
D vtterly from the earth? O turne the from the fearcenesse of ỳ wrath, & be gracious ouer the wickednesse of thy people. Remembre thy seruaũtes Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Ge.22.c vnto whõ * thou swarest by thyne owne self, and saydest: I wil multiplye youre sede as the starres of heauen, and all the londe that I haue promysed you, wil I geue vnto youre sede, & they shall inheret it for euer. Thus the LORDE repented of the euell, which he sayde he wolde do vnto his people.

Moses turned him, & wente downe from the mount, and in his hande he had the two tables of wytnesse, which were wrytte vpon both the sydes, and were Gods worke, & the wrytinge was the wrytinge of God therin. Now whan Josua herde the noyse of ỳ people, as they shouted, he sayde vnto Moses: This is a noyse of warre in the hoost. He answered: It is not a noyse of them that haue the victory, and of them that haue the worse, but I heare a noyse of synginge at a daunse.

Whan he came nye vnto the hoost, and sawe the calfe, and the daunsynge, he was moued with wrath, and cast the tables out of his hande, and brake them beneth the mount. And he toke the calfe that they had made, and brent it with fyre, and stamped it vnto poulder, and strowed it in the water, & gaue it vnto the children of Israel to drynke, & sayde vnto Aaron: What dyd this people vnto the, that thou hast brought so greate a synne vpon them?

Aaron sayde: Let not the wrath of my lorde waxe fearce: thou knowest, that this is a wicked people. They sayde vnto me: Make vs goddes to go before vs, for we can not tell what is become of this man Moses, ỳ brought vs out of the londe of Egipte. I sayde vnto them: Who so hath golde, let him plucke it of, and geue it me: and I cast it in the fyre, therof came this calfe.

Now whan Moses sawe, that the people were naked (for Aaron, whan he set them vp, made them naked to their shame) he wẽte in to the gate of the hoost, and sayde: who so belongeth vnto the LORDE, let him come hither vnto me. Then all the children of Leui gathered them selues vnto him, and he sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: Euery man put his swerde by his syde, and go thorow in and out from one gate to another in the hoost, and slaye euery man his brother, frende, & neighboure.

The children of Leui dyd, as Moses sayde vnto them. And there fell of the people the same daye thre thousande men. Thẽ sayde Moses: Cõsecrate youre handes this daie vnto the LORDE, euery man vpon his sonne and brother, that the prayse maye be geuen ouer you this daye.

On the morow Moses sayde vnto the people: Ye haue done a greate synnne. Now I wil go vp vnto the LORDE, yf peraduenture I maye make an attonement for youre synnes.

Now whã Moses came agayne vnto ỳ LORDE, he saide: Oh this people haue done a greate synne, & haue made them goddes of golde. * Now forgeue them their synne: yf not, thẽ wype me out of ỳ boke, that thou hast wrytten. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: What: Him that synneth against me, wil I wype out of my * boke. Go thou ỳ

waye therfore, and bringe ye people thither
13.a as I haue sayde vnto the, Beholde, myne 23.c angell shall go before the. But in the daye of my visitacion I wyll vyset their synnes vpon them. So the LORDE plaged the peo ple, because they made ye calfe which Aaron made.

The XXXIII. Chapter.

A THe LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Go, departe hence, thou and the people, whom thou hast brought out of the lande of Egipte, vnto ye londe that I swa-re vnto Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and 22.c sayde: vnto yi sede wil I geue it, and I wyl 23.d sende an angell before the (and cast out the 7.d Cananites, Amorites, Hethites, Pheresites, 24.c Heuites and Jebusites) in to the londe that floweth with mylke and hony, for I wyll 32.c not go vp with the: for thou art an hard-necked people, I might consume the by the waye. Whan the people herde this euell tydinges, they sorowed, and no man put on his best rayment.

B And ye LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Spea ke vnto the children of Israel: Ye are a stysnecked people, I must once come sodenly vpon the, and make an ende of the. And now put of thy goodly araye from the, ye I maie knowe what to do vnto the. So the children of Israel laied their goodly araye from the, euen before the mount Horeb.

Moses toke the Tabernacle, & pitched it without a farre of from ye hoost, and called it the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And who so euer wolde axe eny question at the LORDE, wente out vnto the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the hoost. And whan Moses wente out vnto the Tabernacle, all the people rose vp, and stode euery one in his tent dore, and loked after Moses, tyll he was gone in to 31.d the Tabernacle. And whan Moses entred in to the Tabernacle, the cloudy pyler came downe, and stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, and he talked with Moses. And all the people sawe the cloudy piler stonde in the dore of the Tabernacle, and rose vp, and worshiped, every one in his tent dore.

C And the LORDE spake vnto Moses face
2.a to face, as a man speaketh vnto his frende.
And whan he turned agayne to the hoost, ye 1.g.c yonge mā Josua ye sonne of Nun his minister, departed not out of ye Tabernacle. And Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Beholde, thou saydest vnto me: Bringe ye people vp, and letteste me not knowe, whom thou wilt sende wt me, & yet hast thou sayde: I knowe the by name, and thou hast founde grace in my sight. Let me knowe thy waye therfore, wherby I maye be certified, ye I fynde grace in thy sight: And consydre yet, that this people is thy people.

He sayde: My presence shal go before the,
there with wyll I lede the. But he sayde vnto him: Yf thy presence go not, then cary vs not vp from hence: for wherby shal it be knowne, ye I and thy people haue founde fa noure in thy sight, but in ye thou goest with vs: that I & thy people maye haue some premynence before all people that are vpon the face of the earth. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: I wyll do this also that thou hast sayde, for thou hast founde grace in my sight, and I knowe the by name.

He sayde: Oh let me thē se thy glory. And D he sayde: I wyl cause all my good go ouer be fore thy face, and wyl let the name of ye LOR DE be called vpon before the. And I shewe Ro.9.b mercy, to whom I shewe mercy: and haue compassion, on whom I haue compassion.
And he sayde moreuer: Thou mayest not se my face, for there shall no mā lyue, ye seyth *Deu. 4.b me. And ye LORDE sayde farthermore: be- Iudic.6.c
holde, there is a place by me, there shalt thou and 13.d
stōde vpon the rocke. Now whan my glory Ioh.1.b
goeth forth, I wil put ye in a clyfte of ye roc ke, & my hande shal holde styll vpō the, tyll I be passed by. And whan I take awaye myne hande from the, thou shalt se my backparts, but my face shal not be sene.

The XXXIIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: A Hew the two tables of stone, like as ye Deu. 10.a first were, that I maye wryte in them the wordes, ye were in the first tables, which thou brakest: and be ready in the mornynge, that thou mayest come vp early vnto moūt Sinai, and stonde me vpon the toppe of the mount. And let no man come vp with the,
that there be no man sene thorow out all ye mount: and let nether shepe ner oxen fede before the mount.

And Moses hewed two tables of stone, like as the first were, & arose early in the mor nynge, & wente vp vnto mount Sinai, as ye LORDE comaunded him, & toke ye two tables of stone in his hāde. Thē came the LORDE downe in a cloude. And there he stepte vnto him, & called vpō ye name of ye LORDE. And whan ye LORDE passed by before his face, he cryed: LORDE LORDE, God, mercifull & gracī ous, & longe sufferinge, and of greate mercy Psal.85.c and trueth, thou that kepest mercy in stoa- and Exo.
re for thousandes, and forgeuest wickednes, Deu.5.b

xo 20.a no man innocent) * thou that visitest the wic
eut. 7.b kednesse of the fathers vpon ỹ children and childers children, vnto the thirde and fourth generacion.

B And Moses bowed him self downe vnto the earth, and worshiped him, and saide: LORDE, yf I haue founde grace in thy sight, thē let the LORDE go with vs (for it is an hard necked people) that thou mayest haue mercy vpon oure wickednesses and synnes, and let vs be thyne inheritaunce.

And he sayde: Beholde, I make a couenaunt before all ỹ people, & wil do wonders, soch as haue not bene done in all londes, and amonge all people. And all ỹ people amōge whom thou art, shal sē ỹ worke of ỹ LORDE, for a terryble thinge shal it be, ỹ I wyl do w the. Kepe that I commaunde ỹ this daye. Beholde, I wyl cast out before the: ỹ Amorites, Cananites, Hethites, Pheresites, Heuytes and Jebusites. * Bewarre, that thou make no couenaunt with the indwellers of the lande ỹ thou commest in to, lest they be cause of ỹ ruyne in the myddest of the: but their alters shalt thou ouerthrowe, & breake downe their goddes, and rote out their groaues: for thou shalt worshipe no other god. For ỹ LORDE is called gelous, because he is a gelous God: lest (yf thou make any agrement with the indwellers of the londe, and whan they go a whoringe after their goddes, and do sacrifice vnto their goddes) they * call ỹ, and thou eate of their sacrifice, and lest thou take of their doughters vnto thy sonnes to wyues, and the same go a whoringe after their goddes, & make thy sonnes go a whoringe after their goddes also.

xo.12.c * The feast of swete bred shalt thou kepe. Seuen daies shalt thou eate vnleuēded bred, like nd 23.b as I cōmaunded the in the tyme of the moneth Abib: for in the moneth Abib thou wentest out of Egipte. * All ỹ first breaketh the Matrix, is myne, soch as shalbe male amōge ỹ catell, ỹ breaketh the Matrix, whether it be oxe or shepe. But the first of thyne Asse shalt thou bye out w a shepe: yf thou redeme it not, then breake his necke. All the first borne of thy children shalt thou redeme.

Eccli. 35.a And se that no man appeare before me emptye.

23.b.35.a nēth daye shalt thou rest both from plowinge and reapynge. The feast of wekes shalt thou kepe with the firstlinges of the wheate harueste: and the feast of yngaderynge at ỹ yeares ende. Thryse in a yeare shal all ỹ men children appeare before the Souernoure, euen the LORDE and God of Israel.

Whan I shal cast out the Heithen before the, & enlarge ỹ borders, there shal no man desyre thy lōde: for so moch as thou goest vp thre tymes in the yeare, to appeare before ỹ LORDE thy God. Thou shalt not offer the bloude of my sacrifice w leuēded bred. And the offerynge of the Easterfeast shal not remayne ouer nyght vntill the mornynge. The firstlinges of ỹ first frutes of thy lōde shalt thou brynge in to the house of the LORDE thy God. * Thou shalt not seith a kydd, whyle it is yet in his mothers mylke.

And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: wryte these wordes, for because of these wordes haue I made a couenaunt with the & with Israel. And he was there with the LORDE fourtye dayes and fourtye nightes, and ate no bred, and dranke no water. And * he wrote in the tables the wordes of the couenaūt, euen ten verses.

Now whā Moses came downe fro moūt Sinai, he had the two tables of wytnesse in his hande, & wyst not ỹ the slaynne of his face shyned, because he had talked with him. And whā Aaron & all the childrē of Israel sawe ỹ the slaynne of his face shyned, they were afrayed to come nye him. Thē Moses called them. And they returned vnto him, both Aaron & all the chefest of the cōgregacion. And he talked w them. Afterwarde came all the children of Israel vnto him. And he cōmaunded thē, all ỹ the LORDE had sayde vnto him vpon the mount Sinai. Now whan he had made an ende of talkynge w thē, * he put a couerynge vpō his face. And whan he wēte in before ỹ LORDE to talke w him, he toke ỹ couerynge of, till he wēte out agayne. And whan he came forth & spake w the childrē of Israel what was cōmaunded him, thē the childrē of Israel sawe his face, how ỹ the slaynne of his face shyned: so he put the couerynge vpō his face agayne, tyll he wente in agayne to talke with him.

The XXXV. Chapter.

AND Moses gathered all the cōgregacion of ỹ childrē of Israel together, and sayde vnto them: This is it, ỹ the LORDE hath commaunded you to do: Sixe dayes shall ye worke, but the seuenth daye shall ye kepe holy: a Sabbath of the LORDES rest. Who so euer doeth eny worke therin, shall dye. Ye shal kyndle no fyre vpon the Sabbath daye in all youre dwellynges.

And Moses sayde vnto ỹ whole congregacion of the children of Israel: This is it, that the LORDE hath commaunded: Geue 35.a from amonge you ☞ heue offerynges vnto ☞

LORDE, so that euery one bringe the LOR-DES heue offerynge with a fre hert: golde, syluer, brasse, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, whyte sylke, and goates hayre, reed stryppes of rammes, doo stryppes, and fyne tre, oyle for the lampes, and spyces for the anoyntin ge oyle and for swete incense. Onix stones, and stones to be set in ☞ ouerbody cote, and for the brestlappe.

B And who so is wyse of hert amonge you, let him come, & make what the LORDE hath commaunded: namely, the habitacion with the tent & couerynge therof, the rynges, bor-des, barres, pilers & sokettes: The Arke w̄ the staues therof, the Mercyseate & the vay le: the table with his staues & all his apparell: & the shewbred: The cādilstycke of light and his apparell, and his lampes, & the oyle for the lightes: The altare of incense with his staues: The anoyntynge oyle and spy-ces for incense: The hangynge before ☞ Ta bernacle dore: The alter of burntofferynges with his brasen gredyron, staues and all his apparell: The laner with his fote: The han-ginges of the courte, with the pilers and so kettes therof, & the hangynge of the courte dore: The nales of the habitacion and of ☞ courte with their coardes: The mynistringe garmentes for the seruyce in the holy, ☞ ho ly vestimentes of Aaron the prest w̄ the ves-timentes of his sonnes for ☞ prestes office.

C Then wente all the congregacion of the childrē of Israel out fro Moses, & euery one brought the gift of his hert: & all that they wolde of fre will, the same brought they for an heue offerynge vnto the LORDE for ☞ worke of the Tabernacle of witnesse, & for all the seruyce therof, & for the holy vestimētes. Both men & wemen that were of a wyl lynge hert, brought bracelettes, earynges, rynges & gyrdels, and all maner Jewels of golde: Euery man also brought golde for Waue offerynges vnto the LORDE.

And who so euer foūde by him yalow syl ke, scarlet, purple, whyte sylke, goates hayre, reed stryppes of rāmes, and Doo stryppes, brought it. And who so euer hone vp syluer & brasse, brought it for ☞ heue offerynge vn to the LORDE. And who so euer founde fyne tre by him, brought it for all maner of wor ke of the Gods seruyce. And soch wemen as were wyse herted, spanne with their hādes, and brought their sponne worke of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, and whyte sylke. And soch wemen as had hye vnderstondinge in wysdome, spanne goates hayre.

As for ☞ prynces, they brought Onix stō D nes, and set stones, for ☞ ouerbody coate, and for the brestlappe, and spyces, and oyle for ☞ lightes, and for the anoyntinge oyle, and for swete incense. Thus the children of Israel brought fre wyllynge offerynges, both man and wemē, for all maner of worke, that the LORDE had commaunded by Moses, to be made.

And Moses saide vnto the childrē of Israel: Beholde, ☞ LORDE hath called by na- Exo.31.a me Bezaleel ☞ sonne of Uri, ☞ sonne of Hur of the trybe of Juda, & hath fylled him w̄
the spriete of God, that he maye haue wysdome, vnderstondinge, & knowlege for all ma ner of worke, to worke connyngly in golde, syluer & brasse, to graue precious stones & to set them, to carue in wodd, to make all maner of connynge workes, and hath geuē instruccion in his hert, both him and Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of ☞ trybe of Dan.
These hath he fylled w̄ wysdome of hert, to make all maner of worke, to carue, to broder, to worke with nedle worke, with yalow sylke, scarlet, purple and whyte sylke, and with weeuynge to make all maner of worke, and to deuyse commynge workes.

The XXXVI. Chapter.

Then wrought Bezaleel & Aholiab & A all the wyse herted men, vnto whom the LORDE had geuen wysdome & vnderstondinge to knowe, how they shulde make all maner worke for the seruyce of the Sanctuary, acordinge vnto all ☞ the LORDE commaunded. And Moses called for Beza-leel & Aholiab, & all the wyse herted men, vn to whom the LORDE had geuen wysdome in their hertes, namely, all soch as wyllingly offred them selues there, & came to laboure in the worke. And they receaued of Moses all the heue offerynges, that the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the ser uyce of the Sanctuary, that it might be ma de: & euery morninge brought they their wil linge offerynges vnto him.

Then came all the wyse men ☞ wrought B in the worke of the Sanctuary, euery one frō his worke that he made, & sayde vnto Moses: The people bringeth to moch, more thē nede is for the worke of this seruice, which the LORDE hath cōmaunded to make. Thē commaunded Moses, that it shulde be pro-clamed thorow out the hoost: No man bryn ge more to the heue offerynge of the Sanc tuary. Then were the people forbydden to bringe: for there was stuff ynough for all maner of worke, that was to be made, and to moch.

So all ye wyse herted men amonge the ye
Exo. 26.a wrought in ye worke of the Habitacion, made ten curtaynes of whyte twyned sylke, yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, with Cherubyns of broderd worke. The legth of one curtayne was eight and twentye cubites, and the bredth foure cubites, & were all of one measure: & he coupled the curtaynes fyue & fyue together one to the other.

C And made yalow loupes a longe by ye edge of every curtayne, where they shulde be coupled together: fiftie loupes vpō every curtayne, wherby one might be coupled to another. And made fiftie buttons of golde, and with the buttons he coupled the curtaynes together one to the other, that it might be one couerynge.

Exo. 26.b And he made xj. curtaynes of goates hayre (for the tent over the habitacion) of thirtie cubytes longe, & foure cubytes brode, all of one measure, & coupled fyue together by them selues, and sixe by them selues, & made fiftie loupes a longe by ye edge of every curtayne, wherby they might be coupled together, & made fiftie buttons of brasse, to couple ye tent together withall. And made ouer ye tent a couerynge of reed sleynnes of rammes, and ouer that a couerynge of Doo sleynnes.

D And made stondinge bordes for the Ha-
Exo. 26.c bitacion, of Fyre tre, euery one ten cubytes longe, and a cubyte and a half brode, & two fete vnto every one, wherby one might be ioyned to another: that on the south syde there stode twentye of the same bordes: and made fourtye syluer sokettes there vnder, vnder euery borde two sokettes for his two fete. In like maner for the other syde of the Habitacion towarde the north, he made twentye bordes also with fourtye syluer sokettes, vnder every borde two sokettes: But behynde the Habitacion vpon the west syde, he made sixe bordes, and two other for the corners of the Habitacion behynde, that either of them both might be ioyned with his corner borde from vnder vp, and aboue vpon the heade to come together with a clampe: so that there were eight bordes, and sixtene sokettes of syluer, vnder euery one two sokettes.

E And he made barres of Fyre tre, fyue for the bordes vpon the one syde of the Habitacion, and fyue vpon the other syde, and fyue behynde towarde the west: and made the barres to shute thorow the bordes, from the one ende to the other, and ouerlayde the bordes with golde. But their rynges made he of golde for the barres, and ouerlayde ye barres with golde.

And made Cherubyns vpon the hangynge with broderd worke, of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke. And made for the same, foure pilers of Fyre tre, and ouerlayed them with golde, and their knoppes of golde, and cast foure sokettes of syluer for them.

And made an hanginge in the Tabernacle dore, of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, and whyte twyned sylke, of nedle worke, and fyue pilers therto with their knoppes (& ouerlayed their knoppes and whopes with golde) and fyue sokettes of brasse there to.

The XXXVII. Chapter.

AND Bezaleel made the Arke of Fyre A tre, two cubites and a half lōge, a cu byte and a half brode, and a cubyte & a half hye, and ouerlayed it with fyne golde within and without, and made a crowne of golde vnto it rounde aboute, and cast for it foure rynges of golde to the foure corners of it, vpon euery syde two. And made staues of Fyre tre, and ouerlayed thē with golde, and put them in the rynges a longe by ye sydes of the Arke, to beare it withall.

And he made ye Mercyseate of pure golde two cubytes and a half longe, and a cubite and a half brode, & made two Cherubyns of fyne beaten golde vpon the two endes of the Mercyseate: One Cherub vpon the one ende, and the other Cherub vpon the other ende: and the Cherubyns spredde out their wynges aboue an hye, and couered ye Mercyseate ther with: and their faces stode one ouer agaynst the other, and loked vnto the Mercyseate.

And he made ye table, of Fyre tre, two cu B bytes longe, a cubyte brode, and a cubyte & a half hye, and ouerlayed it with fyne golde, and made therto a crowne of golde rounde aboute, and made vnto it an whoope of an hande bredth hye, and made a crowne of golde rounde aboute the whoope. And for it he cast foure golde rynges, & put them in the foure corners by the fete harde by the whoope, that the staues might be therin, to beare the table withall: & made the staues of Fyre tre, and ouerlayed thē with golde, to beare the staues withall. And the vessels vpon the table made he also of fyne golde: the disshes, spones, flat peces and pottes, to poure in and out withall.

And he made the candilsticke of fyne bea C

ten golde, where vpon was the shaft wt braū ches, cuppes, knoppes, & floures. Sixe braun ches proceaded out of ỹ sydes therof, vpon either syde thre braūches: vpō euery braūch were thre cuppes like allmōdes, wt knoppes and floures. Vpon the candilsticke self were foure cuppes with knoppes and floures, vn der euery two braūches a knoppe. The knop pes & braunches therof proceaded out of it, and were all one pece of fyne beaten golde.
And he made the seuen lampes with their snoffers & outquenchers of pure golde. Of an hūdreth weight of golde made he it, and all the apparell therof.

D He made also the altare of incense, of Fyr re tre, a cubyte longe and brode, eauen foure squared, and two cubytes hye with the hor nes of it, and ouerlayed it with fyne golde, the toppe and the sydes of it rounde aboute, and the hornes therof, and made a crowne vnto it rounde aboute of pure golde, & two golde rynges vnder the crowne on both the sydes, to put the staues therin, and to beare it withall: but the staues made he of Fyrre tre, and ouerlayed them with golde.

And he made the holy anoyntinge oyle, & the incense of pure spyces, after ỹ craft of the Apotecary.

The XXXVIII. Chapter.

A AND the altare of burntoffrynges ma Exo.27.a de he of Fyrre tre, fyue cubytes lōge & Par.4.a brode, eauen foure squared, & thre cubi tes hye. And made foure hornes, which pro ceaded out of the foure corners therof, and ouerlaied it with brasse. And he made all ma ner of vessels for the altare, cauldrons, sho uels, basens, flesh hokes, and colepannes all of brasse. And vnto the altare he made a brasen gredyron of net worke rounde aboute, from vnder vp vnto the myddest of the altare, & cast foure rynges in the foure corners of the brasen gredyron, for the staues: which he ma de of Fyrre tre, and ouerlayed them wt brass se, and put them in the rynges by the sydes of the altare, to beare it withall, and made it holowe with bordes.

And he made the Lauer of brasse, & his fote also of brasse vpon the place of ỹ hoost, that laye before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

B And he made the courte on ỹ south syde:
hangynges an hundreth cubytes longe, of whyte twyned sylke, with thre twētye pilers therof, and twentye sokettes of brasse: but the knoppes and whopes of syluer. In like maner vpon the north syde an hundreth cu bytes with twentye pilers, and twentye sokettes of brasse, but their knoppes & whoo pes of syluer. Vpon the west syde fiftie cuby tes with ten pilers and tē sokettes, but their knoppes and whoopes of syluer. Vpon the East syde fiftie cubytes. Fiftene cubytes vpon either syde of the courte dore, wt thre pi lers and thre sokettes: So that all the han ginges of the courte were of whyte twyned sylke, and the sokettes of the pilers were of brasse, & their knoppes and whoopes of syl uer: their heades were ouerlayed wt syluer, & all the pilers of the courte were whooped a-boute with syluer.

And the hangynge in ỹ courte gate ma- C de he wt nedle worke, of yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke, twentye cuby tes longe, & fyue cubytes hye, after the mea sure of the hanginges of the courte: foure pilers also therto, & foure sokettes of brasse, and their knoppes of syluer, and their hea des ouerlayed, and their whoopes of syluer.
And all the nales of the Habitacion and of the courte rounde aboute, were of brasse.

This is now the summe of the Habitaci on of wytnesse (which was counted at the cōmaundemēt of Moses to ỹ Gods service of the Leuites vnder the hāde of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the preist) which Beza-leel the sonne of Vri, the sonne of Hur of the trybe of Juda made, all as the LORDE com maunded Moses. And wt him Ahaliab ỹ son ne of Ahisamach of the trybe of Dan, a con nynge grauer, to worke nedle worke, wt yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte sylke.

All the golde ỹ was wrought in all this worke of the Sanctuary (which was geuen to the Waue offerynge) is nyne & twenty hū dreth weight, seuen hundreth & thirtie Sy-cles, after ỹ Sycle of ỹ Sanctuary. * The Exo.38.b
syluer ỹ came of the congregacion, was fy- D ue score hundreth weight, a thousande, seuen hundreth, fyue and seuentye Sycles, after ỹ Sycle of the Sanctuary: so many heades so many half Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary, of all that were nombred from twentye yeare olde and aboue, euen sixe hun dreth thousande, thre thousande, fyue hun-dreth and fiftye.

Of the fyue score hundreth weight of syl uer, were cast the sokettes of the Sanctuary, and the sokettes of the vayle, an hūdreth sokettes of the fyue score hundreth weighe, an hundreth weight to euery sokett. Of the thousande, seuen hundreth and fyue and seuentye Sycles were made the knoppes of the pilers (and their heades ouerlayed) and their whoopes.

As for the Waue offerynge of brasse, it was seuentye hundreth weight, two thousande and foure hundreth Sycles: Wherof were made the sokettes in the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the brasen altare, and the brasen gredyron therto, and all the vessels of the altare, and the sokettes of ỹ courte rounde aboute, and the sokettes of ỹ courte gate, all ỹ nales of the habitacion, & all ỹ nales of ỹ courte rounde aboute.

The XXXIX. Chapter.

A Exo 28.2 Of the yalowe sylke, scarlet, & purple, they made Aarons mynistringe vestimentes, to do seruyce in the Sanctuary, as ỹ LORDE cõmaunded Moses.

And he made the ouerbody cote, of golde, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke, and bett the golde in to thinne plates, and cut it in to wyres, that it might be wrought amonge the yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple and whyte sylke, & made it so, that ỹ ouerbody cote came together by the edges on both the sydes. And his gyrdel was after the same craft & worke: euẽ of golde, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple and whyte twyned sylke, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

And they wrought two Onix stones, set rounde aboute with golde, grauen by the stone grauer with the names of the childrẽ of Israel: and fastened them vpõ the shulders of the ouerbody cote, that they might be stones of remẽbraunce vnto the children of Israel, as the LORDE cõmaunded Moses.

B And they made the brestlappe after the craft & worke of the ouerbody cote: of golde, yalowe sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke, so that it was foure square & dubble, an hande bredth longe and brode, and fylled it with foure rowes of stones. The first rowe was: a Sardis, a Topas, and a Smaragde. The secõde: a Ruby, a Saphyre, & a Dyamonde. The thirde: a Ligurios, an Achat, and an Amatist. The fourth: a Turcas, an Onix & a Jaspis: closed rounde aboute with golde in all the rowes. And the stones stode after the twolue names of the children of Israel, grauen by the stone grauer, euery one with his name, acordinge to the twolue trybes.

And vpon the brestlappe they made wrythen cheynes of pure golde, and two hokes of golde, & two golde rynges, and fastened the two rynges vpon the two edges of the brestlappe: and ỹ two wrythen cheynes put they in the two rynges vpon the corners of the brestlappe. But the two endes of ỹ wrythen cheynes put they to the two hokes, & fastened them vpon the corners of the ouer body cote, one ouer agaynst another.

And they made two other rynges of golde, & fastened them to the other two corners of the brestlappe by the edge of it, that it might hange vpon the out syde of the ouerbody cote. And they made yet two other golde rynges, which they put beneth vpon the two corners of the ouerbody cote, one ouer agaynst another, where the ouerbody cote ioyneth together, that the brestlappe might be festened by his rynges vnto ỹ rynges of the ouerbody cote with a yalowe lace, that it might lye close vpon ỹ ouerbody cote, and not be lowsed from ỹ ouerbody cote, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

And he made the tunycle vnto the ouerbody cote, wrought all of yalow sylke, & the hole ther of aboue in the myddest, & a bonde foldẽ together rounde aboute the hole, that it shulde not rente. And beneth vpon ỹ hemme of it, they made pomgranates of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple, & whyte twyned sylke: & they made belles of pure golde, which they put betwixte ỹ pomgranates rounde aboute vpon the hemme of the tunycle, a bell & a pomgranate, a bell & a pomgranate rounde aboute, to do seruyce in, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

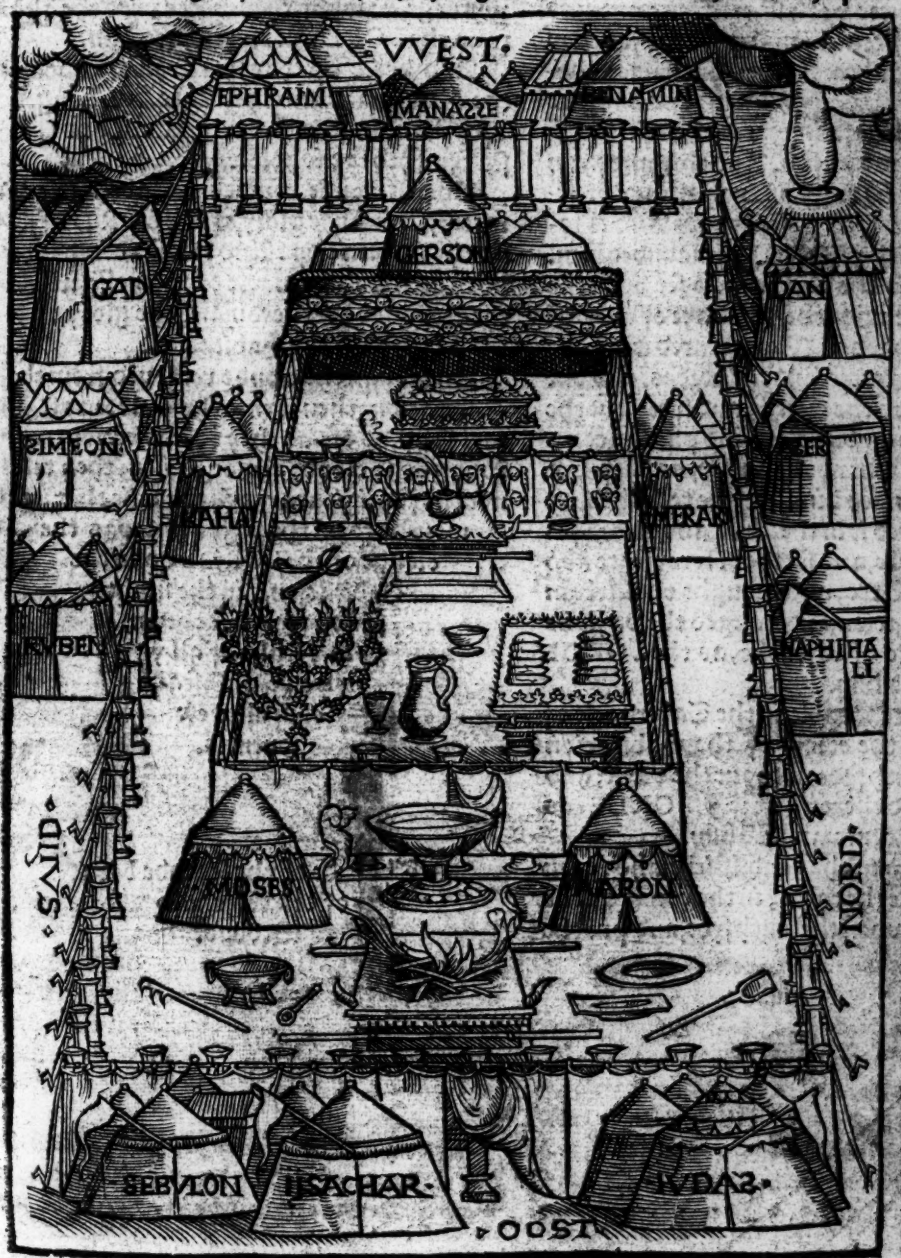
And they made albes also wrought of whyte sylke for Aaron & his sonnes, & ỹ myter of whyte sylke, and the goodly bonettes of whyte sylke, and breches of twyned whyte lynnen, and the girdle of nedle worke euen of whyte twyned sylke, yalow sylke, scarlet, and purple, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

They made the fore heade plate also of ỹ holy crowne, of pure golde, and wrote therin with grauen worke: the holynes of the LOR

D^, and festened a yalowe lace theron, to tye it vnto the myter aboue, as the LORDE cõmaunded Moses.

Thus the whole worke of ỹ Habitacion of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, was fynished. And the childrẽ of Israel dyd all that the LORDE cõmaunded Moses, & brought the Habitacion vnto Moses: the Tabernacle & all the apparell therof, the buttons, bordes, barres, pilers, sokettes, ỹ couerynge of reed skynnes of rammes, the couerynge of doo skynnes, & the vayle, ỹ Arke of wytnesse wt
E the staues therof, the Mercyseate, the table & all his apparell, & the shewbred, the candil sticke, wt the lampes prepared, and all his apparell, & oyle for the lightes, the golden altare, the anoyntinge oyle & incense, the hangynge in the Tabernacle dore, the brasen altare, & his brasen gredyron wt his staues, & all his apparell, ỹ laver wt his foote, the hangynges of ỹ courte wt the pilers & sokettes ther of, ỹ hanginge in the courte gate wt his pilers & nales, & all the ordynaunce for the seruyce of the Habitacion of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, ỹ mynistringe vestimẽtes of Aarõ ỹ prest, to do seruyce in ỹ Sanctuary, & the garmẽtes of his sonnes, ỹ they myght execute ỹ prestes office. Accordinge to all that ỹ LORDE cõmaunded Moses, euẽ so dyd the childrẽ of Israel in all this seruyce. And Moses sawe all ỹ worke, & they dyd it euẽ as ỹ LORDE had commaunded, and he blessed them.

The XL. Chapter.



And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: In the fyrst daye of the first moneth shalt thou set vp ỹ Habitacion of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, and shalt put the Arke of wytnes therin, and hange the vayle before ỹ Arke. And thou shalt bringe in the table, and garnish it, and bryngein the candilsticke, and put the lampes theron. And ỹ goldẽ aleare of incense shalt thou set before ỹ Arke of wytnesse, & hange vp the hanginge in the dore of the Habitacion. But the aleare of burntofferin ges shalt thou set before the dore of the Habitacion of the Tabernacle of wytnesse: & the lauer betwixte the Tabernacle of wytnesse and the altare, and put water therin, & set the courte rounde aboute, and hange vp the hanginge in the courte gate.

B And thou shalt take the anoyntynge oyle, and anoynte the Habitacion and all that Exo.30.c is there in, and shalt consecrate it, and all ỹ apparell therof, that it maye be holy. And thou shalt anoynte the altare of burntofferynges and all his vessels, and consecrate it, that it maye be most holy. The lauer also & his fote shalt thou anoynte & consecrate.

Exo.29.a And thou shalt brynge Aaron & his sonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and wash them with water, & put the holy vestimentes vpon Aaron, and anoynte him, and consecrate him, that he maye be my prest. And thou shalt brynge his sonnes also, and put the albes vpon them, and anoynte them, as thou hast anoynted their father, ỹ they maye be my prestes. And this anoyntinge shall they haue for an euerlastinge prestehode amonge their posterities. * And Moses dyd all as the LORDE cõmaunded him.

C Thus was the Tabernacle set vp in the Num.9.c seconde yeare vpon the first daye of the first moneth. And whan Moses reared it vp, he fastened ỹ sokettes and the bordes, and barres, and set vp the pilers, and spred out the tent ouer the Habitacion, and put the couerynge of the tent aboue an hye, as the LORDE commaunded him. And he toke the wytnesse, and layed it in the Arke, and put ỹ stanes in the Arke, and set the Mercyseate aboue vpon the Arke, and brought the Arke into the Habitacion, and hanged the vayle before the Arke of wytnesse, as the LORDE commaunded him.

And he set the table in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, in the corner of the Habitacion vpon the north syde without the vayle, and
*Exo.25.c prepared bred theron before ỹ LORDE, * as the LORDE commaunded him.

D And he set in the candilsticke also, euen ouer agaynst the table, in the corner of the Habitacion vpon the south syde, and put the lampes theron before ỹ LORDE, as the LORDE commaunded him. And the golden altare set he in also before the vayle, and brent swete incense theron, as the LORDE commaunded him. And hanged vp the hangynge in the Tabernacle dore. As for the altare of burntofferynges, he set it before the dore of the Habitacion of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, and offred burntofferynges and meate offerynges theron, as the LORDE commaunded him.

And the Lauer set he betwixte the Tabernacle of wytnesse and ỹ altare, and put water therin to wash withall. And Moses, Aaron and his sonnes washed their hãdes and fete ther at: for they ought to wash the, whan they wente in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, or whan they wente vnto the altare, as the LORDE commaunded him.

And he set vp the courte rounde aboute the Habitacion and the altare, and hanged vp ỹ hanginge in ỹ courte gate. Thus Moses fynished the whole worke.

Then a cloude couered ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the glory of the LORDE fylled the Habitacion. And Moses coulde not go in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, whyle the cloude abode theron, and the glory of ỹ LORDE fylled the Habitacion.

And whan the cloude remoued from the Habitacion, then wente the children of Israel forth, as oft as they toke their iourney. But yf the cloude remoued not, then toke not they their iourney, tyll the daie that it remoued: for in the daye tyme was the cloude of the LORDE vpon the Habitacion, & in the night seaso̅ was fyre therin, in ỹ sight of all ỹ house of Israel, in all their iourneis.

AND the LORDE called Moses, and spake vnto him out of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, and sayde: Speake vnto ỹ childrē of Jsrael, & saie vnto them: Who so euer amōge you wyl brynge an offerynge vnto the LORDE, let him brynge it of ỹ catell, euen of the oxen, & of the shepe. A Exo. 29. g

Yf he wyl brynge a burntofferynge of ỹ oxen (or greate catell) yt let him offre a male without blemysh, before ỹ dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, to reconcyle him self before the LORDE, & let him laye his hande vpon the heade of the burntofferynge, then shal he be reconcyled, so ỹ God shalbe mercifull vnto him. Exo. 29. b Leui. 3. a

And he shall kyll the yonge oxe before ỹ LORDE: and ỹ preestes Aarons sonnes shal brynge the bloude, and sprenkle it rounde aboute vpon the altare, that is before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the slaynne shalbe flayne from of the burntofferynge, and it shalbe hewen in peces. And the sonnes of Aaron the preest shal make a fyre vpon the altare, and laye wod aboue theron: and ỹ peces, the heade, and the fatt shal they laye vpon the wodd that lyeth vpon ỹ fyre on the altare. But ỹ bowels & legges shal be waßhen with water, and the preest shal burne all together vpon the altare for a burntsacrifice: this is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. B

Yf he wyl offre a burntsacrifice of the small catell, that is, of the lambes or goates, then let him offre a male without a blemysh. And he shall kyll it before the LORDE, euen at the corner of the altare on the north syde before ỹ LORDE. And (the preestes) Aarons sonnes shal sprenkle his bloude rounde aboute vpon ỹ altare, and it shal be hewen in peces. And the preest shall laye them with the heade and the fatt, vpon the wodd that C lyeth vpon the fyre on the altare. But the bowels and ỹ legges shal be waßhen with water. And ỹ preest shal offre it alltogether, and burne it vpon ỹ altare for a burntsacrifice. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

D But yf he wil offre a burntsacrifice of ỹ foules vnto the LORDE, then let him offre it of the turtill doues or of ỹ yonge pigeons. And the preest shal brynge it vnto the altare, and wrynge the neck of it a sunder, that it maye be burnt vpon the altare, and let the bloude of it runne out vpon the sydes of the altare, and the croppe of it with the fethers shalbe cast vpon the heape of aßshes beside the altare towarde the east, and he shall deuyde the wynges of it, but not breake the cleane of. And thus shall the preest burne it vpon the altare, euen vpon the wodd that lyeth vpō the fyre, for a burntsacrifice. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

The II. Chapter.

A Leui.6.b and 9.c Nu.15.a When a soule wyll offre a meatofferynge vnto the LORDE, then shal it be of fyne floure, and he shal poure oyle vpon it, and put frankencense theron, & so brynge it vnto Aarons sonnes the preestes. Then shal one of them take his handefull of the same floure, and oyle with all the frankēcense, and burne it for a remembraunce vpon the altare. This is an offeringe of a Leui.10.d swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. As for ỹ remnaunt of the meatofferynge, it shalbe Aarons and his sonnes. This shalbe ỹ most holy of the offerynges of the LORDE.

B But yf he wyll brynge a meatofferynge of that which is baken in the ouen, then let him take swete cakes of wheate, mixte with oyle, and vnleuended wafers anoynted with oyle. Neuertheles yf thy meatofferynge be eny thinge of that which is fryed in the panne, then shal it be of fyne swete floure myxte with oyle: And thou shalt cut it in peces, & poure oyle theron: so is it a meatofferynge. But yf thy meatofferinge be ought broyled on the gredyron, then shalt thou make it of fyne floure with oyle. And the meatofferynge that thou wilt make of soch thinges for the LORDE, shalt thou brynge vnto ỹ preest, which shal brynge it vnto the altare, & shal heue vp the same meatofferynge for a remēbraunce, and burne it vpon the altare. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. As for the remnaunt, it shal be Aarons and his sonnes. This shall be the most holy of the offerynges of the LORDE.

All the meatofferynges that ye wil offre vnto the LORDE, shal ye make without leuē. For there shal no leuē nor hony be burnt for an offerynge vnto the LORDE. But for the offerynge of the firstlinges shal ye offer them vnto the LORDE. Neuertheles they shal come vpon no altare for a swete sauoure.

All thy meatofferynges shalt thou * salt. And thy meatofferynge shal neuer be without ỹ salt of the couenaunt of thy God: for in all thy offerynges shalt thou offre salt.

But yf thou wilt offre a meatofferynge of the first frutes vnto ỹ LORDE, then shalt thou drye that which is grene, by the fyre, & beate it small, and so offre the meatofferynge of thy first frutes. And thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and laye frankēcense theron, so is it a meatofferynge. And then shall the preest beate it, and burne of the oyle with all the frankēcense for a remembraunce. This is an offerynge vnto the LORDE.

The III. Chapter.

But yf his offerynge be a deedofferinge of greate catell (whether it be oxe or cowe) then shal he offre soch as is without blemysh before the LORDE, & shal laie his hande vpon the heade of it, and kyll it before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the preestes Aarons sonnes, shall sprenkle the bloude rounde aboute vpon the altare, and shal offre of ỹ deadofferynge vnto the LORDE: namely, all the fat that is within, and the two kydneyes with the fat that is theron vpon the loynes, and the nett on the leuer vpō the kydneyes also. And Aarons sonnes shal burne it vpon the altare for a burntofferynge, euen vpon the wod that lyeth on the fyre. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

Yf his deadofferynge be of small catell, whether it be male or female, it shal be without blemysh: Yf it be a lambe, then shall he brynge it before the LORDE, & shal laye his hande vpon the heade of it, and sleye it before the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And Aarons sonnes shal sprenkle his bloude rounde about vpon the altare, and so offre of the deadofferynge vnto the LORDE: namely, the fat of it, all the rompe with the backe, and the fat that couereth the bowels, with all ỹ fat that is within, and the two kydneys with the fat that is theron vpon the loynes, & the nett on the leuer vpon the kydneys also. And the preest shal burne it vpon the altare, for ỹ meate of the offerynge vnto ỹ LORDE.

But yf his offeringe be a goate, and bringeth it before the LORDE, he shal laye his hande vpon the heade of it, and kyll it before the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And Aarons sonnes shal sprēkle the blonde rounde about vpō the altare, & shal offer therof a sacrifice vnto the LORDE: namely, the fat ẏ coue reth the bowels, and all the fat ẏ is within, the two kydneys with the fat that is theron vpon the loynes, & the net on the leuer vpon the kydneys. And the preest shal burne it vpō the altare, for the meate of the sacrifice to a swete sauoure.

All the fatt is the LORDES. Let this be a perpetuall lawe amonge yo̅ posterities in all youre dwellynges, that ye eate no fatt, ner blonde.

The IIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Speake vnto the childrē of Israel, and saye: Whan a soule synneth thorow ignoraunce in any commaundemēt of the LORDE, which he ought not to do: As namely, yf a preest which is anoynted, synne, that he make the people do amysse, he shall bringe for ẏ synne that he hath done, a yonge bullocke without blemysh vnto the LORDE for a synofferynge. And the bullocke shal he bringe to the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the LORDE, & laie his hāde vpō his heade, & kyll him before ẏ LORDE. And ẏ preest ẏ is anoynted, shal take of his blonde, & bringe it in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And he shall dyppe his fynger in to the blonde, & sprenkle therwith seuē tymes before the LORDE, towarde the vayle of ẏ holy. And he shal put of the same blonde vpon the hornes of the altare of incense, ẏ stondeth before ẏ LORDE in the Tabernacle of wytnesse: & all the blonde of the bullocke shal he poure vpon the botome of the altare of burntofferinges, ẏ stondeth at the entringe in of ẏ Tabernacle of wytnesse. And all the fat of the synofferynge shal he heue vp: namely, the fat ẏ coureth the bowels, & all the fat ẏ is within, ẏ two kydneys with the fatt that is theron vpon the loynes, and the net on the leuer vpon the kydneys also (like as he heueth it from the oxe in the deadoffrynge) and shall burne it vpon the altare of burntofferynges. But the flesh of the bullocke, and all the flesh, with the heade & legges, & the bowels and the donge, shal he cary altogether out of the hoost, in to a cleane place, where ẏ aßshes are poured out, & shal burne it vpon wodd with fyre.

Whan the whole cōgregacion of Israel synneth thorow ignoraūce, & the dede be hyd from their eyes, so ẏ they do ought agaynst eny of the cōmaundementes of the LORDE, which they shulde not do, & come afterwarde to the knowlege of the synne that they have done, they shal bringe a yonge bullocke for a synofferynge, and set him before ẏ dore of ẏ Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the Elders of the congregacion shall laye their handes vpon his heade before the LORDE, & kyll ẏ bullocke before the LORDE. And ẏ preest ẏ D is anoynted shal bringe of ẏ bullockes blonde in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse, & dyppe ther in with his fynger, and sprenkle ther with seuen tymes before the LORDE, euē before the vayle of the holy. And shall put of the blonde vpon the hornes of the altare, ẏ stondeth before the LORDE in the Tabernacle of wytnesse: & all ẏ other blonde shal he poure vpō the botome of ẏ altare of burntofferynges, ẏ stondeth before the dore of ẏ Tabernacle of wytnesse. But all his fatt shal he heue vp, & burne it vpō the altare: & shal do with this bullocke, as he dyd with ẏ bullocke of the synofferinge: Thus the preest shal make an attonement for them, & it shall be forgeuen them. And the bullocke shal he bringe without the hoost, and burne him, as he brent ẏ first bullocke. This shalbe ẏ synofferynge of the congregacion.

Whan a prynce synneth, & doth agaynst E the cōmaundement of the LORDE his God, ẏ he ought not to do, & offendeth ignorauntly, & commeth to the knowlege of his synne ẏ he hath done, he shal bringe for his offeringe an he goate without blemysh, & laye his hande vpō the goates heade, & slaye him in ẏ place where ẏ burntofferinges are slayne before ẏ LORDE. Thē shal ẏ preest take of ẏ blonde of ẏ synofferinge wt his fynger, and put it vpon the altare of burntofferynges, & poure the other blonde vpon the botome of the altare of burntofferynges. But all the fat of it shal he burne vpō the altare, like as the fat of the healthofferynge. And so the preest shal make an attonement for his synne, and it shal be forgeuen him.

Whā a soule of ẏ comon people synneth S ignorauntly, doinge eny thinge agaynst the cōmaundement of the LORDE, ẏ he ought not to do, & so offendeth, & cōmeth to ẏ knowlege of the synne ẏ he hath done, he shal bringe for his offerynge a she goate without blemysh, for the synne ẏ he hath done, and shal laye his hande vpon the heade of the synofferynge, & slaye it in the place of the burntofferynges. And the preest shall take of the blonde wt his fynger, & put it vpon the hornes of ẏ altare of burntofferynges, & poure all the blonde vpon the botome of the altare. But all the fat of it shal he take awaye, like as he taketh awaye the fat of the deadofferynge, and shal burne it vpon the altare for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. And so shal the preest make an attonemēt for him, and it shal be forgeuen him.

G But yf he bringe a lambe for a synofferynge, then let him bringe a female without blemysh, and laye his hande vpon the heade of the synofferynge, & kyll it for a synofferynge, in the place where the burntofferynges are slayne. And the preest shal take of ẏ blonde wt his fynger, & put it vpon the hornes of the altare of burntofferynges, & poure all the blonde vpon the botome of the altare. But all ẏ fatt therof shall he take frō it, like as he dyd the fat of the lambe of the healthofferynge, & shal burne it vpon ẏ altare for the LORDES sacrifice. And so ẏ preest shal make an attonement for the synne that he hath done, and it shalbe forgeuen him.

The V. Chapter.

A Leui.24.c Whan a soule synneth, ẏ he heare a cursynge, and is wytnesse therof, or hath sene it, or knowne it, & telleth it not, he Agg.2.b 2.cor.6.c is giltie of a trespace. Or whan a soule * toucheth eny vncleane thige, whether it be ẏ carion of an vncleane beast, or catell, or worme, & was not awarre of it, he is vncleane, and hath offended. Or whan he toucheth an vncleane man (what vnclennesse so euer a man is defyled withall) & was not awarre of it, & afterwarde cōmeth to ẏ knowlege therof, ẏ same hath offended. Or whan a soule swareth, so ẏ he pronounceth wt his mouth to do euell or good (what so euer it be that a man pronounceth wt an ooth) & was not awarre of it, & afterwarde cōmeth to the knowlege therof, he hath offended in one of these.

B Now whan it so is, ẏ he hath offended in one of these, & is enfourmed therof, what he hath synned, he shal bringe vnto ẏ LORDE for his trespace of this his synne ẏ he hath done, a female from the flocke, either a yewe or a she goate for a synofferynge: so shal the preest make an attonement for him concer-
Leui.12.d nynge his synne. * But yf he be not able to bringe a shepe, then let him bringe vnto ẏ LORDE for his offence that he hath done, two turtill doues or two yonge pigeons: one for a synofferynge, the other for a burntofferynge, and bringe them to the preest: Which shall make the first a synofferynge, and fyrst wringe the neck of it, so that he plucke it not cleane of, and sprenkle with the blonde vpō the sydes of the altare, and let the resydue of the blonde blede out vpon the botome of the altare: This is the synofferynge. As for the other, he shal make it a burntofferynge, after the maner therof. And thus shall the preest make an attonement for him concernynge the synne that he hath done, & it shalbe forgeuen him. But yf he be not able to bringe two turtill doues or two yonge pigeons, then let him bringe his offerynge for his synne, a tenth deale of an Epha of fyne floure for a synofferynge. But he shall put no oyle theron, ner laye frankēcense vpon it, for it is a synofferynge. And he shal bringe it vnto the preest, & ẏ preest shal take his hād full of it for a remembraunce, and burne it vpon the altare for an offerynge vnto the LORDE. This is a synofferinge. And so shal the preest make an attoment for him, concernynge his synne that he hath done, & it shalbe forgeuen him. And the remnaunt shall be the preestes, like a meatofferynge.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Yf a soule trespace, so ẏ thorow ignoraūce he offendeth in any thinge ẏ is halowed vnto the LORDE, he shal bringe his trespaceofferinge vnto the LORDE, euen a ramme from ẏ flocke without blemysh, worth two Sycles of syluer, * after the Sycle of the Sanctuary, for a trespace offerynge: and loke what he hath offended in the halowed thinge, he shall make restitucion, & gene the fifth parte more therto. And he shal delyuer it vnto ẏ preest, which shall make an attonement for him wt the ramme of the trespace offeringe, & it shalbe forgeuen him.

Whan a soule synneth, and doth ought agaynst eny cōmaundement of the LORDE, ẏ he shulde not do, & is informed therof, he hath trespased, & is giltie of the synne. And he shall bringe from the flocke a ramme wt out blemysh (that is worth a trespaceofferinge) vnto the preest, which shal make an attonement for him concernynge his ignoraunce which he dyd, and was not awarre, and it shalbe forgeuen him. This is the trespaceofferynge, because he trespaced agaynst the LORDE.

And ẏ LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Whan a soule synneth, & trespaceth agaynst the LORDE, so that he denyeth vnto his neghboure that which he gaue him to kepe, or that was put vnder his hande, or that he hath violently taken awaye, or gotten vnrighteously, or founde that was lost, and denyeth it with a false ooth, what so euer it be, wherin a man synneth agaynst his neghboure. Now whan it commeth so to passe, that he synneth after this maner, & trespaceth, he shal restore agayne that he to ke violently awaye, or gat wrongeously, or that was geuen him to kepe, or that he hath founde, or what so euer it be aboute ỹ which he hath sworne falsely, he shal restore it againe whole altogether, and geue the fifth parte more therto, euen to him that it belonged vnto, the same daye that he geueth his trespace offerynge. But for his trespace he shall brynge for the LORDE (euen vnto the preist) a ramme from the flocke without blemysh, that is worth a trespace offerynge. Then shall the preist make an attonement for him before the LORDE, and all that he hath synned in, shalbe forgeuen him.

The VI. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Commaunde Aaron and his sonnes, and saye: This is the lawe of the burntofferynge. The burntofferynge shall burne vpon the altare all night vntyll the mornynge. But the fyre of the altare onely shal burne theron. And ỹ preist shal put on his lynen albe, and his lynen breches vpon his flesh, and shal take vp the aßshes, that the fyre of the burntofferynge vpon the altare hath made, and shall poure them besyde the altare. Then shall he put of his rayment, and put on other rayment, and cary out the aßshes without the hooste, into a cleane place.

The fyre vpon the altare shal burne, and neuer go out. The preist shal kyndle wod ther on euery mornynge, and dresse the burntofferynge vpon it, and burne the fat of the deed offerynges theron. The fyre shall euer burne vpon the altare, and neuer go out.

B And this is the lawe of the meatofferynge, which Aarons sonnes shall offre before the LORDE vpon the altare. One of them shall heue his handfull of fyne floure of ỹ meatofferynge, and of the oyle, and all the frankencense that lyeth vpon the meatofferynge, and shall burne it vpon the altare for a swete sauoure a remembraunce vnto the LORDE. As for the remnaunt, Aaron and his sonnes shal eate it, and vnleuended shal they eate it in the holy place, namely, in the courte of the Tabernacle of witnesse. With leuē shal they not bake their porcion, which I haue geuen them of my offerynges. It shalbe vnto them most holy, as the synofferynge and trespace offerynge. All the males amonge the children of Aaron shall eate of it. Let this be a perpetuall lawe for youre posterities in the sacrifices of the LORDE. No man shall touch it, excepte he be consecrated.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and C sayde: This shalbe the offerynge of Aaron and of his sonnes, which they shall offre vnto the LORDE in the daie of their anoyntinge. The tenth parte of an Epha of fyne floure for a meatofferynge daylie, the one half parte in the mornynge, the other half parte at euen. In the panne with oyle shall thou make it, and brynge it fryed, and in peces shalt thou offer it for the swete sauoure of the LORDE. And the preist which amonge his sonnes shalbe anoynted in his steade, shall do this. This is a perpetuall dewtye vnto the LORDE. It shal be burnt altogether: for all the meatofferynges of the preist shalbe consumed with the fyre, and not be eaten.

And ỹ LORDE talked with Moses, and D sayde: Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, and saye: This is the lawe of the synofferynge: In the place where thou slayest ỹ bunrt offerynge, shalt thou slaye the synofferynge also before the LORDE. This is most holy. * The preist that offereth the synofferynge, Ose 4.b shal eate it in the holy place, in the courte of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse. No man shal touch ỹ flesh therof, excepte he be halowed. And yf eny garment be sprenkled with the bloude of it, it shalbe woshē in the holy place. And * the earthē pot that it is sodden in, Leui.11.e and 15.b shalbe broken. But yf it be a brasen pot, it shalbe scoured, and rēsed with water. All ỹ males amonge the prestes shall eate therof, for it is most holy. Notwithstondinge all ỹ synofferynge whose bloude is brought in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse to make an attonement, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fyre.

The VII. Chapter.

AND this is the lawe of the trespace- A offerynge, and it shal be most holy. In the place where the burntofferynge is slayne, shall the trespaceofferynge be slayne also, & there shall of his bloude be sprenkled rounde aboute vpon the altare. And all his fat shalbe offered: the rompe and the fat ỹ coūereth the bowels, the two kydneys with the fat ỹ is theron vpon the loynes, and the net on the leuer vpon the kydneys also. And the preist shal burne it vpon the altare for an offerynge vnto the LORDE. This is a trespace offerynge.

All the males amonge the prestes shal eate it in the holy place, for it is most holy: euen as the synofferynge, so shall the trespace of-ferynge be also, they shall both haue one lawe: and it shal be the prestes, that reconcyleth therw̄. Loke which prest offereth eny mans burntofferynge, the skynne of the same burntofferynge that he hath offered, shal be his. And euery meatofferynge that is baken in the ouen, rosted vpon the gredyron, or fryed in the panne, shal be the prestes ỹ offereth it. And euery meatofferynge ỹ is myngled with oyle, or drye, shal belonge vnto all Aaron sonnes, vnto one as well as another.

B Psal.115.a And this is ỹ lawe of the healthofferinge, that is offered vnto the LORDE. If they wyll offre a sacrifice of thankesgeuynge, then shal they offre vnleuended cakes mēgled with oyle, and swete wafers straked ouer with oyle, and fryed cakes of fyne flour emengled with oyle. This offerynge also shall they brynge vpon a cake of leuended bred, to the thankofferynge of his healthofferynge: and of them all he shall offre one for an heueofferynge vnto the LORDE. And it shalbe the prestes, that sprenkleth the bloude of the healthofferynge. And the flesh of the thankofferynge in his healthofferynges, shalbe eaten the same daye that it is offred, and there shall nothinge be left ouer vntyll the mornynge.

Leui.19.b And whether it be a vowe or a fre wyllofferynge, *it shalbe eaten the same daye that it is offred: yf ought be left ouer vntyll the mornynge, yet maye it be eaten. But loke what remayneth vnto ỹ thirde daye of the flesh that is offred, it shalbe brent with the fyre. And yf eny man vpon the thirde daie eate of ỹ offred flesh of his healthofferynge, he shall not be accepted that offred it. Nether shall it be rekened vnto him, but it shalbe refused. And loke which soule eateth therof, the same is giltie of a mysdede.

C And the flesh that toucheth eny vncleane thinge, shal not be eaten, but burnt with the fyre. But who so euer is cleane of body, shal eate of the flesh: and the soule that eateth of ỹ flesh of ỹ healthofferynge which belongeth vnto the LORDE, his vnclennes be vpon him, and he shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

And whan a soule toucheth eny vncleane thinge, whether it be an vncleane man, catell, or eny other abhominacion that is, and eateth of the flesh of the burntofferynge, that belongeth vnto the LORDE, the same shalbe roted out from amonge his people.

And the LORDE talketh with Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel, & saye: Ye shall eate no fat of oxen, lambes, and goates: neuertheles the fat of it that dyeth alone, and of soch as is torne of wylde beastes, that maye ye occupye to all maner of vses, but ye shall not eate it.

For who so euer eateth the fat of ỹ beest that is geuen vnto the LORDE for an offerynge, the same soule shalbe roted out from his people. Moreouer, ye shall eate no blou de, nether of catell, ner of foules, where so euer ye dwell. What soule eateth eny blou de, the same shall be roted out from his people.

And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Who so wyll offre his healthofferynge vnto the LORDE, the same shall also brynge with all, that belongeth vnto ỹ healthofferynge for the LORDE. But he shall brynge it with his hande for the offerynge of the LORDE: namely the fat vpon the brest shall he brynge, with the brest, to be a Waueofferynge before the LORDE. And the prest shall burne the fat vpon the altare, and the brest shalbe Aarons and his sonnes.

And the right shulder shal they geue vnto the prest for a gift of their healthofferynges. And loke which of Aarons sonnes offreth the bloude of the healthofferynges, and the fat, the same shall haue the right shulder for his parte. * For the Wauebrest and the heueshulder haue I taken of the children of Israel, and of their healthofferynges, and haue geuen them vnto Aaron the prest and vnto his sonnes for a perpetuall dewtye.

This is the anoyntinge of Aaron and of his sonnes, of the offerynges of the LORDE, in the daye whā Moses presented them to be prestes vnto the LORDE, what tyme as the LORDE commaunded (in the daye whan he anoynted them) to be geuen them of the children of Israel for a perpetuall dewtye, and vnto all their posterities. And this is the lawe of the burntofferynge, of the meatofferynge, of the synofferynge, of the trespace offerynge, of the offerynge of consecracion, and of the healthofferynges, which the LORDE commaunded Moses vpon mount Sinai, in the daye whan he gaue him in commaundement vnto the children of Israel, to offre their offerynges vnto ỹ LORDE in the wylderneſſe of Sinai.

The VIII. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Take Aaron and his sonnes wt him, & their vestimentes, & the anoyntinge oyle, * and a bullocke for a synofferynge, two rammes, and a maunde with vnleuended bred, and call the whole congregacion together, before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. Moses dyd as the LORDE commaunded him, and gathered the congregacion together vnto the dore of ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse, and sayde vnto them: This is it, that the LORDE hath commaunded to do. Leu.29.a

B And he toke Aaron and his sonnes, and waßhed them with water, and put the albe vpō him, and girde him with the girdell, and put vpon him the yalowe tunycle, and put the ouerbody cote vpon him, and girde him vpon the ouerbody cote, & put the breſt lappe theron, and in ỹ breſtlappe light and perfectneſſe: And ſet the myter vpon his heade. And vpon the myter euen aboue his fore heade, put he a plate of golde on the holy crowne: as ỹ LORDE cōmaunded Moses.

Exo.30.d And Moses toke the * anoyntinge oyle, & anoynted the Habitacion, and all that was therin, and consecrated it, and sprenkled ther with seuē tymes vpon the altare, and anoynted the altare with all his vessels, the lauer with his fote, that it might be consecrated: Leui.12.a * and poured the anoyntinge oyle vpon Aarons heade, and anoynted him, ỹ he might be consecrated.

C And he brought Aarons sonnes, and put albes vpon them, and girde them with the girdle, and put bonettes vpon their heades, as the LORDE commaunded him.

And he caused bringe a bullocke for a syn offrynge. And Aaron with his sonnes layed their handes vpon his heade, and then was he slayne. And Moses toke of the bloude, & put it vpon the hornes of the altare rounde aboute with his fynger, and purified the altare, and poured the bloude vpon the botome of the altare, and consecrated it, that he might reconcyle it. And toke all the fat vpō the bowels, the nett vpon the leuer, and the two kydneys with the fat theron, and burned it vpon the altare. But the bullocke wt his slaynne, flesh, & donge, burned he with fyre without the hoost, as the LORDE commaunded him. Exo.29.

D And he brought a ramme for a burntoffe rynge. And Aaron wt his sonnes layed their handes vpon his heade, & then was he slayne. And Moses sprenkled of ỹ bloude vpon the altare rounde aboute, hewed the ramme in peces, and burnt the heade, the peces, and the fatt. And waßhed the bowels and the legges with water, and so burnt ỹ whole ramme vpō the altare. This was a brunt offerynge for a swete sauoure, euen a sacrifice vnto the LORDE, * as the LORDE commaunded him. Exo.29.

He brought also the other ramme of the offerynge of the consecracion. And Aaron with his sonnes layed their hādes vpon his heade, and then was it slayne. And Moses toke of his bloude, and put it vpon the typpe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the greate too of his right fote.

E And he brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the bloude vpon the typpe of the right eare of them, and vpon ỹ thombes of their righte handes, and vpon the greate toes of their righte fete, and poured the resydue of the bloude vpon the altare rounde aboute. And he toke the fat and the rompe, and all the fat vpon the bowels, and the nett vpon the leuer, the two kydneys with the fat theron, and the righte shulder. And out of the maunde of vnleuended bred before the LORDE, he toke an vnleuēded cake, and a cake of oyled bred, and a wafer, and layed them vpō the fat, and vpon the right shulder, and put all together vpon the handes of Aaron and of his sonnes, and waued it for a Waueoffe rynge before the LORDE. Exo.29.

F And afterwarde toke he all agayne from their hondes, and burned them on the altare, euen vpon the burntofferinge: for it is an offerynge of consecracion for a swete sauoure, euen a sacrifice vnto ỹ LORDE. And Moses toke the breſt, and waued it a Waueoffe rynge before the LORDE, of the ramme of the offerynge of consecracion: the same was Moses parte, as the LORDE commaunded Exo.29.

Moses. And Moses toke of ỳ anoyntinge oyle, & of the bloude vpon the altare, & sprenkled it vpon Aaron & his vestimentes, vpon his sonnes & vpon their vestimentes, and so cõsecrated Aaron & his vestimentes, his sonnes and their vestimentes with him.

G And he sayde vnto Aaron & his sonnes: Seeth ỳ flesh before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, & there eate it, & the bred in ỳ maunde of the cõsecracion offeringes, as it is cõmaunded me, & sayde: Aaron & his sonnes shall eate it. As for ỳ which remayneth of the flesh & bred, ye shal burne it with fyre. And in seuẽ dayes shall ye not departe from ỳ dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, vntyll the daye, ỳ the dayes of yo' consecracion offerynges be at an ende: for seuẽ dayes must yo' handes be consecrated, as it is come to passe this daye: The LORDE hath cõmaunded to do it, that ye might be reconcyled. And ye shal tary before the Tabernacle of wytnesse daye and nyght seuen dayes longe, & shal kepe ỳ watch of ỳ LORDE, that ye dye not, for thus am I cõmaunded. And Aaron with his sonnes dyd all, that ỳ LORDE commaunded by Moses.

The IX. Chapter.

A AND vpon the eight daye Moses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the Elders in Israel, and sayde vnto Aaron: Take vnto the a yonge calfe for a synofferinge, and a ramme for a burntofferynge, both without blemysh, and brynge them before the LORDE, and speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Take an he goate for a synofferynge: and a calf, and a shepe, both of a yeare olde, and without blemysh for a burntofferynge: and an ore and a ramme for an healthofferynge, that we maye offre before the LORDE: and a meatofferynge myngled with oyle. For to daye shal the LORDE appeare vnto you.

B And they toke what Moses commaunded before ỳ dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the whole cõgregacion came nye, and stode before the LORDE. Then sayde Moses: This is it, which the LORDE commaunded that ye shulde do, and then shall the glory of ỳ LORDE appeare vnto you. And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: Go vnto ỳ altare, and * offre thy synofferynge and thy burntofferynge, and make an attonemẽt for the and for the people. Then offre the peoples offerynge, and reconcyle them also, as the LORDE hath commaunded.

Heb. 5. b and 7. d

Leui. 4. a And Aaron wente vnto the altare, and slewe ỳ calfe for his synofferynge, & his sonnes brought the bloude vnto him. And he dypte his synger in the bloude, and put it vpon the hornes of the altare, and poured ỳ bloude vpon ỳ botome of the altare. As for the fat and the kydneys & the net vpon the leuer of the synofferynge, he burnt thẽ vpon the altare, as the LORDE cõmaunded Moses. The flesh also and the hyde burnt he with fyre without the hoost.

C Afterwarde he slewe the burntofferinge, and Aarons sonnes brought the bloude vnto him, & he sprenkled it rounde aboute vpon the altare. And they brought him the burntofferynge in peces, & the heade: & he burnt it vpon the altare. And he washed the bowels and the legges, and burnt them aboue vpon the burntofferynge on the altare.

Le. Then brought he the offerynge of the people, and toke the goate, that synofferynge of the people, and slewe it, and made a synofferynge therof, as of the fyrst. And brought the burntofferynge, and dyd as the lawe is: and brought the meatofferynge, and toke his handfull, and burnt it vpon the altare, besyde the burntofferinge of the mornynge.

Le. D Afterwarde slewe he the ore and the ramme for the healthofferynge of the people. And his sonnes brought him the bloude, which he sprenkled vpon the altare rounde aboute. But the fat of the ore & of the ramme, the rompe, and the fat that coureth the bowels, & the kydneyes, & the net vpon the leuer, all soch fat laied they vpon the brest, and burnt the fat vpon the altare. But the brest and the right shulder waued Aaron for a Waueofferynge before the LORDE, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

Le. And Aaron lift vp his hãde ouer the people, and blessed them, and came downe from the worke of the synofferynge, burntofferynge, and healthofferynge. And Moses and Aaron wente in to the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And whan they came out agayne, they blessed the people. Then appeared the glory of the LORDE vnto all the people. For there came * a fyre from the LORDE, and vpon the altare it consumed the burntofferynge and the fat. Whan all the people sawe that, they reioysed, and fell vpon their faces.

The X. Chapter.

A AND ỳ sonnes of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, toke ether of thẽ his censoure, & put fyre therin, & layed incense vpon it, and brought straunge fyre before the LORDE, * which he commaũded them not. Then wente there out a fyre from ỳ LORDE, and consumed them, so that they dyed before the LORDE. Then sayde Moses vnto Aaron: This is it, that the LORDE sayde: I wil be sanctified vpō them that come nye me, and before all the people wil I be glorified. And Aaron helde his peace.

B Moses called Misael and Elzaphan the sonnes of Vsiel Aarons vncle, and sayde vnto them: Go to, and cary youre brethren out of the Sanctuary, without the hoost. And they wente, and caried them forth in their albes without the hoost, as Moses sayde.

Then sayde Moses vnto Aaron & to his sonnes Eleasar and Ithamar: * Ye shall not vncouer youre heades, ner rente yō clothes, that ye dye not, and the wrath come vpon the whole congregacion: Let youre brethrē of the whole house of Israel bewepe this 14.a burnynge, which the LORDE hath done. 5.a
C As for you, ye shall not go out from the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, lest ye dye: for the anoyntinge oyle of the LORDE is vpon you. And they dyd as Moses sayde.

The LORDE spake vnto Aaron, & sayde: 44.d Thou & thy sonnes wt the shal drynke no wyne ner stronge drynke, whan ye go in to the 51.b Tabernacle of wytnesse: that ye dye not. Let this be a perpetuall lawe vnto all yō posteritie: ỳ ye maye haue knowlege to discerne, what is holy and vnholy, what is cleane & vncleane: & that ye maye teach the children of Israel all the lawes, which the LORDE hath spoken vnto you by Moses.

D And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleasar and Ithamar his sonnes that were lefte: Take the remnaunt of the meatofferynge in the sacrifices of ỳ LORDE, and eate it without leuen beside the altare, for it is most holy, euen in the holy place shal ye eate it. For it is thy dutye and thy sonnes dutye in the sacrifices of the LORDE: for thus am I commaunded. But the Wauebrest and the Heueshulder shalt thou eate, and thy sonnes and thy doughters with the in a cleane place. For this dutye is geuen vnto the and thy children in the deedofferynges of the children of Israel. For the Heueshulder and the Wauebrest to the offerynges of the fat, shalbe brought in, that they maye be waued for a Waueofferinge before the LORDE. Therfore is it thine and thy childrens for a perpetuall dutye, as the LORDE commaunded.

And Moses sought for the goate of the E synofferynge, and founde it burnt. And he was angrie at Eleasar and Ithamar ỳ sonnes of Aaron, which were left alyne, and sayde: Wherfore haue ye not eaten the synofferynge in the holy place? for it is most holy, & he hath geuen it you, that ye might beare ỳ synne of the cōgregacion, to make a gremēt for them before the LORDE. Beholde, the bloude of it came not in to the Sanctuary: Ye shulde haue eaten it in the Sanctuary, as I was commaunded.

Aaron sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, this daye haue they offred their synofferynge & their burntofferynge before ỳ LORDE. And it is chaunsed me after this maner. And shulde I eate of the synofferynge to daye, & be mery before the LORDE? Whan Moses herde that, he was content.

The XI. Chapter.

AND ỳ LORDE talked wt Moses & Aaron & sayde: Speake vnto ỳ childrē of A Israel, and saye: These are the beestes Deu. 14.a which ye shal eate amōge all ỳ beestes vpō Act. 10.b earth: What so ever hath hoffe, & deuydeth it in to two clawes, & cheweth cud amonge the beestes, that shal ye eate. But loke what cheweth cud & hath hoffe, & deuydeth it not, as the Camell, the same is vncleane vnto you, & ye shal not eate it. The Conyes chewe cud, but they deuyde not the hoffe in to two clawes, therfore are they vncleane vnto you. The Hare cheweth cud also, but deuydeth not ỳ hoffe in to two clawes, therfore is he vncleane vnto you. And the Swyne deuy- B deth ỳ hoffe in to two clawes, but cheweth not the cud, therfore is it vncleane vnto you. Of the flesh of these shall ye not eate, ner touch their carcases, for they are vncleane vnto you.

These shall ye eate of all that are in the waters: What so ever hath fynnes and scales in the waters, sees & ryuers, that shal ye eate. But what so ever hath not fynnes and scales in the sees and ryuers, amonge all ỳ moue in the waters, & of all that lyue in the waters, it shalbe an abhominacion vnto you, so that ye eate not of their flesh, and that ye abhorre their carcases. For all that haue not fynnes & scales in the waters, shall ye abhorre.

C And these shal ye abhorre amonge ỳ foules, so that ye eate them not: The Aegle, the Goshauke, the Cormorannte, the Vultur, ỳ Kyte, and all his kynde, and all Rauens w̄ their kynde: the Estrich, ỳ Nightcrow, the Cocow, the Sparow hauke with his kynde, the litle Oule, the Storke, the greate Oule, ỳ Backe, the Pellycane, the Swanne, the Pye, the Heron, ỳ Jaye with his kynde, the Lapwynge, and ỳ Swalowe. And what so euer crepeth amonge the foules, and goeth vpon foure fete, shalbe an abhominaciō vnto you. Yet these shal ye eate of the foules that crepe and go vpon foure fete: euen those that haue no knyes aboue vpon ỳ legges, to hoppe withall vpon earth. Of these maye ye eate, as there is the Arbe with his kynde, and the Selaam with his kynde, & the Hargol with his kynde, & the Hagab w̄ his kynde. But what so euer els hath foure fete amonge the foules, it shalbe an abhominacion vnto you, and ye shal take it for vncleane. Who so euer toucheth the carcase of soch, shall be vncleane vntill ỳ euen: and who so euer beareth the carcase of eny of these, shall wash his clothes, and shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.

Agg 2. b

Therfore euery beest that hath hoffe, and deuydeth it not in to two clawes, & cheweth not cud, shalbe vncleane vnto you. Who so euer toucheth soch, shalbe vncleane. And what so euer goeth vpon handes amonge ỳ beestes that go vpon foure fete, shalbe vncleane vnto you. Who so euer toucheth the carcases of thē, shalbe vncleane vntyll euen. And he ỳ beareth their carcase, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euē: For soch are vncleane vnto you.

E These shalbe vncleane vnto you also, amonge the beestes that crepe vpon earth: ỳ Wesell, the Mouse, the Tode, euery one with his kynde, the Hedgehogge, the Stellio, the Lacerte, the Snale, and the Moule, these are vncleane vnto you amonge all that crepe. Who so euer toucheth the deed carcase of thē, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. And what so euer eny soch deed carcase falleth vpon, it shalbe vncleane, what so euer vessell of wodd it be, or rayment, or slynne, or bagge. And euery vessell that eny thinge is occupyed withall, shalbe put in the water, and is vncleane vntyll the euen, and then shal it be cleane. All maner of earthen vessell that eny soch carcase falleth in to, shal all be vncleane that therin is, & ye shal breake it. All mete which is eatē, that eny soch water commeth in to, is vncleane: & all maner of drynke that is dronkē in all maner of soch vessell, is vncleane. And what so euer eny soch carcase falleth vpō, it shalbe vncleane, whether it be ouen or kettell, so shal it be brokē, for it is vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you: Neuertheles the fountaynes, welles, & poundes of water are cleane. But who so euer toucheth their carcases, is vncleane.

Leui. 6. d and 15. b

And though the deed carcase of eny soch J fell vpon the sede that is sowne, yet is it cleane. But whan there is water poured vpon the sede, and afterwarde eny soch deed carcase falleth theron, then shall it be vncleane vnto you.

Whan a beest dyeth that ye maye eate, he that toucheth the deed carcase therof, is vncleane vntyll euen. Who so eateth of eny soch carcase, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. Likewyse he that beareth eny soch carcase, shal wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.

What so euer crepeth vpon earth, shall be an abhominacion vnto you, and shall not be eaten. And what so euer crepeth vpon ỳ bely, or all that goeth vpon foure or mo fete, amōge all that crepeth vpon earth, shall ye not eate, for it shalbe an abhominacion vnto you. Make not youre soules abhominable, and defyle you not in them, to stayne youre selues: for I am the LORDE youre God. Therfore shal ye sanctifie youre selues, that ye maye be holy, for I am holy. And ye shal not defyle youre selues on eny maner of crepynge beest, that crepeth vpon earth: for I am the LORDE, which brought you out of the londe of Egipte, that I might be youre God: therfore shal ye be holy, for I am holy.

Le. 11. a

This is the lawe ouer ỳ beestes and foules, & all maner of soules of crepynge beestes in the waters, and all maner of soules ỳ crepe vpon earth: that ye maie knowe to discerne what is vncleane & cleane, and what maner of beestes are to be eaten, and which are not to be eaten.

The XII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, J and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye: Whan a woman hath conceaued, and beareth a manchilde, she shalbe vncleane seuen dayes, so longe as she suffreth hir disease, * and in ỳ eight daye Ge shal ỳ flesh of his foreslynne be cut awaie. And she shal byde at home thre and thirtie dayes in ỳ bloude of hir purifienge: she shal touch no holy thinge, ner come in to ỳ Sanctuary, tyll the daies of hir purifienge be out. But yf she beare a maydechilde, thē shal she be vncleane two wekes, so longe as she suffreth hir disease, and sixe and three score daies shall she byde at home in the blonde of hir purifienge.

B * And whan the dayes of hir purifienge are out, for the sonne or for the doughter, she shal bringe a lambe of one yeare olde for a burntofferynge, and a yonge pigeon or a turtill doue for a synofferynge to the dore of ỳ Tabernacle of wytnesse vnto ỳ priest, which shal offre it before the LORDE, and make an attonemēt for her, and so shal she be clensed from hir bloudyssue. This is the lawe for her that beareth a manchilde or mayde childe.

But yf she be not able to bringe a shepe, then let hir take two turtill doues, or two yonge pigeons, the one for a burntofferynge, the other for a synofferynge, then shall the priest make an attonement for her, so that she shal be cleane.

The XIII. Chapter.

A AND ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & sayde: Whan there ryseth vp eny thinge in the skynne of a mans flesh, whether it be a scabbe or a glistrynge whyte (as though there wolde be a leprosy in ỳ ßkynne of his flesh) he shal be brought vnto Aaron the priest, or to one of his sonnes amonge ỳ prestes. And whan the priest seyth the plage vpon the ßkynne of the flesh, that the hayres are turned to whyte, and it seme deper in that place then the other ßkynne of his flesh, then is it surely a leprosy, therfore shal the priest loke vpon him, and iudge him vncleane.

But whan there is eny whyte plecke in the ßkynne of his flesh, and yet seme no deper then the other ßkynne of the flesh, and the hayres be not turned to whyte, thē shal the priest shut him vp seuen dayes, and on ỳ seuenth daye loke vpon him: yf the plage seme vnto him as afore, & hath frett no deper in the ßkynne, then shall the priest shut him vp yet seuen dayes mo. And whan he loketh on him agayne vpon the seuenth daye, and fyndeth, that the plage be darkish, and hath frett no deper in the ßkynne, thē shal he iudge him cleane, for it is but a ßkrefe, and he shal wasshy his clothes, & then is he cleane.

B But whan the scabbe fretteth farther in the ßkynne (after that he is sene of the priest, and iudged cleane) and he be now sene of the priest agayne: whan the priest seyth thē, ỳ the scabbe hath frett farther in the ßkynne, he shal iudge him vncleane, for it is surely a leprosy.

Whan a plage of leprosy is vpō a man, he shalbe brought vnto the priest. Whan he seyth and fyndeth, that there is whyte rysen vp in the ßkynne, and the hayre turned vnto whyte, and there be rawe flesh in the sore, thē is it surely an olde leprosy in ỳ ßkynne of his flesh, therfore shal the priest iudge him vncleane, and not shut him vp, for he is vncleane allready.

But whan the leprosy breaketh out in the ßkynne, and couereth the whole ßkynne, from the heade vnto the fote, all that the priest can se, So whan the priest loketh vpon it, and fyndeth, that ỳ leprosy hath couered all the flesh, he shal iudge him cleane, for so moch as it is turned all in to whyte vpon him, for he is cleane.

C Notwithstōdinge yf there be rawe flesh there, in the daye whan he is loked vpon, thē is he vncleane. And whan the priest seyth ỳ rawe flesh, he shall iudge him vncleane, for he is vncleane, & it is surely a leprosye. But yf the rawe flesh chaunge agayne, and be turned in to whyte, then shall he come vnto the priest. And whan the priest loketh vpon him, and fyndeth, that the plage is turned to whyte, he shall iudge him cleane, for he is cleane.

Whan there is a byle in the ßkynne of eny mans flesh, and healeth agayne, and afterwarde in the same place there aryse vp eny whyte thinge, or a glisterynge whyte somwhat reedish, he shal be sene of the priest. So whan the priest, seyeth, that it appeareth to be lower then the other ßkynne, and the hayre turned to whyte, then shall he iudge him vncleane, for it is surely a plage of leprosye broken out of the byle. But yf the priest se and fynde, that the hayres are not whyte, and it not lower then the other ßkynne, and is darkysh, he shal shut him vp seuen dayes.

D Yf it hath frett farther in the ßkynne, then shal he iudge him vncleane, for it is surely a plage of leprosye. But yf the glysterynge whyte abyde styll, and freate no farther, thē is it but a prynte of the byle, and the priest shal iudge him cleane.

Whan the ßkynne of eny mans flesh is hurt with fyre, and the prynte of the burninge be reedysh or whyte, and the priest loketh vpon him, and fyndeth the hayre turned to whyte vpon the mark of the burnynge, & it apeare deper then the other ßkynne, thē is there surely a leprosy broke out of ye prynte of ye burnynge: therfore shal ye preest iudge hi vncleane, for it is a plage of leprosye. But yf the preest se and fynde, that ye hayre vpon the prynte of the burninge is not turned vnto whyte, & is no lower then the other slaynne, and is darkish also, he shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

And vpon the seuenth daye he shall loke vpon him: yf it hath frett farther in ye slaynne, then shal he iudge him vncleane, for it is a leprosy. But yf it stode styll vpō the mark of the burnynge, and frett no farther in the slaynne, and is darkysh, then is it a sore in ye mark of the burnynge, & the preest shal iudge him cleane, for it is but the prynte of the burnynge.

E Whan a man or woman is slayne vpon the heade or beerd, and the preest seyth the mark, and fyndeth that it appeareth deper then the other slaynne, and the hayre be there golde and thynne, then shal he iudge him vncleane: for it is a slayfe of leprosy of the heade or of the beerde. But yf the preest se that ye slayfe apeare no deper thē the slaynne, and that the hayre is not of a pale colour, he shall shut him vp seuē dayes. And vpō the seuenth daye whan he loketh, and fyndeth, that the slayfe hath frett no farther, and there be no golden hayre there, and that the slayfe appeare no deper then the other slaynne, then let him be shauen: but so that he shaue not of the scabbe, and the preest shall shut him vp yet seuen dayes moo. And vpon the seuēth daye whā he loketh, and fyndeth that the slayfe hath frett no farther in the slaynne, and that it apeareth no deper then the other slaynne, then shall the preest iudge him cleane. And he shall wash his clothes, for he is cleane. But yf the scabbe freate farther in the slaynne (after ye he is iudged cleane) and the preest loketh, and fyndeth, that ye scabbe hath frett farther in the slaynne, then shal he seke nomore for golden hayres, for he F is vncleane. Neuertheless yf he se that the scabbe stondeth styll, & that pale hayres are there ryfen vp, then is ye scabbe hole, and he is cleane, therfore shall ye preest iudge him to be cleane.

Whā there is eny glisteringe whyte vpō ye slaynne of the flesh of a man or woman, and the preest seyth there that the glisteryngе whyte vanysheth: then is it but a whyte scabbe ryfen vp in ye slaynne, & he is cleane.

Whan the hayres fall out of the heade of a man or a woman, so that he is balde, the same is cleane. Yf they fall out of his fore heade, then is he fore heade balde & cleane. But yf there be a whyte reedish sore in the balde heade, or balde fore heade, then is there a leprosy ryfen vp in the balde heade or balde fore heade: therfore shal ye preest loke vpon him. And whan he fyndeth the whyte reedysh sore ryfen vp in his balde heade or balde fore heade, then shal ye slaynne of the flesh be as leprous, therfore is he a leprous man and vncleane. And the preest shall iudge him vncleane, because of ye same sore vpō his heade.

Who so now is leprous, his clothes shal G be rent, and the heade bare, & the lippes mofled, and shall in eny wyse be called vncleane. And as longe as the sore is vpon him, he Nu 5 shal be vncleane, dwell alone, and haue his dwellinge without the hooft.

Whan the plage of leprosy is in a cloth, whether it be wollen or lynnen, in the warpe or weft, whether it be lynnen or wollen, or in a slaynne, or in eny maner thynge that is made of slaynne. And whan ye plage is pale or reedish in the cloth or slaynne, either in the warpe or weft, or in eny maner thinge that is made of slaynne, the same is surely the plage of leprosy, therfore shall the preest loke vpon it. And whan he seyth the plage, he shal shut it vp seuen dayes. And vpon the seuēth daye whan he seyth that ye plage hath frett farther in the cloth, in the warpe or weft, in a slaynne or in eny maner thinge that is made of slaynne, then is it a fretinge plage of leprosye, and is vncleane. And the cloth shal be burnt, either warpe or weft, whether it be wollen or lynnē, or eny thynge made of slaynne, wherin is eny soch plage. For it is a plage of leprosy, and shal be burnt wt fyre.

But yf the preest se that the plage hath H frete no farther in ye cloth, either in the warpe or weft, or eny thinge made of slaynne, then shal he commaunde to wash the thinge that the plage is in, and shall shut it vp other seuen dayes. And whan the preest seyth (after that the plage is waßhen) ye the plage is not chaūged before his eyes, and hath frett no farther also, yet is it vncleane, & shal be burnt wt fyre: for it is depe fretē inwarde, and hath made slayfes. Neuertheles whan the preest seyth that the prynte is vanysshed after the washinge of it, then shall he rente it out of the clothe, and of the slaynne, out of the warpe or weft. But yf it appeare eny more in the clothe (either in the warpe, or in the weft) or eny maner thinge made of slaynne, then is it a waxinge plage: and with fyre shal it be burnt that eny soch plage is in. As for the cloth, either warpe or weft, or eny mas ner thynge made of slynne that is waßshē, and the plage be departed from it, it shalbe waßshen once agayne, & then is it cleane.

This is the lawe ouer the plage of lepro sy in clothes, whether they be wollen or lynnē (ether in the warpe or in the weft) and in eny maner of thinge made of slynne, to iudge them cleane or vncleane.

The XIIII. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: This is the lawe ouer ỹ leper, whan he shalbe clensed. He shall come vnto ỹ preest, and the preest shal go out of the hooste, and loke how the plage of lepro sye is healed vpon the leper. And he shal commaunde him that is to be clensed, to take two lyuinge byrdes, which are cleane, and Ceder wodd, and purple woll, and ysope: and shall commaunde the one byrde to be kylled in an earthen vessell ouer sprynginge water. And he shall take the lyuynge byrde with the Ceder wodd, the purple woll, and ysope, and dyppe them in the bloude of the slaine byrde vpon the sprynginge water, and sprenkle it seuen tymes vpon him that must be clensed from ỹ lepro sy. And so clense him, and let the lyuynge byrde flye at libertye into the felde.

B But he that is clensed, shal wasshe his clothes, and shaue of all his hayre, and bathe him self with water, so is he cleane. Afterwarde let him go in to the hooste, yet shall he tarye without his tent seuen dayes. And vpon the seuenth daye shal he shaue of all ỹ hayre vpon his heade, vpō his beerde, vpon his browes, so that all the hayre be shauen of, and he shall wasshe his clothes and bathe his flesshy in water, then is he cleane.

And vpō the eight daye shal he take two lambes without blemysshe, and a shepe of a yeare olde without blemysshe, and thre tenth deales of fyne floure for a meatofferynge, myngled with oyle, & a Logg of oyle. Thē shall the preest presente him that is clensed and these thinges before the LORDE, before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and shal take ỹ one lambe, and offre it for trespace offerynge, with the Logg of oyle, & shall waue them, before ỹ LORDE, and afterwarde slaye the lambe, where the synofferynge and burntofferynge are slayne, namely, in the holy place. For as the synofferynge, so is the trespace offerynge the preestes also, for it is most holy.

C And the preest shall take of the bloude of the trespace offerynge, and put it vpon the typpe of ỹ right eare of him that is clēsed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the greate too of his right fote. Afterwarde shall he take of the oyle out of the Logg, and poure it in to his awne left hande, and dyppe his right fynger in the oyle that is in his left hande, and sprenkle the oyle with his fynger seuen tymes before the LORDE. As for the remnaunt of the oyle in his hande, he shall put it vpon the typpe of the right eare of him that is clensed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, & vpon the greate too of his right fote, euen aboue vpon the bloude of the trespace offerynge. But the remnaunt of the oyle in his hande, shall he poure vpon the heade of him that is clensed, and make an attonement for him before the LORDE. And he shall make the synofferynge, and reconcyle him that is clēsed, because of his vnclennesse. And afterwarde shall he sleye the burntofferynge, and shal offre it vpon the altare with the meatofferynge, and make an attonement for him, & than is he cleane.

D But yf he be poore, and getteth not so mech with his hande, then let him take one lambe for a trespaceofferynge to waue it, to make an attonement for him, and a tenth deale of fyne floure myngled with oyle for a meatofferynge, and a Logg of oyle, & two turtyll doues, or two yonge pigeons which he is able to get with his hande, let the one be a synofferynge, the other a burntofferynge: and let him brynge them vpon the eight daye of his clensynge vnto the preest before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse before the LORDE.

Then shall the preest take the lambe for the synofferynge, and the Logg of oyle, and shall waue them all before the LORDE, and sley the lambe of the trespace offerynge: and take of ỹ bloude of the same trespaceofferynge, and put it vpon the typpe of the righte eare of him that is clensed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the greate too of his righte fote, and poure of the oyle in to his awne leste hande, and with his right fynger sprenkle the oyle that is in his left hande, seuen tymes before the LORDE.

E As for the remnaunt of the oyle in his hande, he shal put it vpon the typpe of the right eare of him that is clensed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, & vpon the greate too of his right fote, euen aboue vpō ỹ bloude of ỹ trespaceofferynge. The other oyle in his hāde shal he poure vpō ỹ heade of him ỹ is clensed, to make an attonement for him before the LORDE. And afterwarde of the one of the turtill dones or yonge pigeons (acordinge as his handes are able to get) he shal make a synofferynge, of ẏ other a burntofferynge, with the meatofferynge: and so shal the preist make an attonemẽt for him that is clensed before the LORDE.

Let this be the lawe for the leper, which is not able with his hande to get, that belongeth vnto his clensynge.

§ And the LORDE spake vnto Moses and Aaron, and sayde: Whan ye are come in to the lande of Canaan, which I geue you to possesse: and yf there happen a plage of lepresy in any house of youre possession, then shal he that oweth the house, come and tell the preist, and saye: Me thynke there is as it were a plage of lepresy in my house. Then shal the preist commaunde to rydde all thynge out of the house or euer the preist go in to se ẏ plage, lest all that is in the house be made vncleane. Afterwarde shall ẏ preist go in, to se the plage.

Now whan he loketh, and fyndeth, ẏ there be holowe strakes yalowe or reedish in the walles of the house, & they seme to be lower then the wall besyde, then shall he go out at the doze of the house, and shut vp the house for seuen dayes. And vpon the seuenth daye whan he commeth, and seyth that the plage hath fretten farther in the walles of the house, thẽ shall he commaunde to breake out the stones wherin the plage is, & to cast thẽ in a foule place without the cite, & the house to be scraped within rounde about, and the dust ẏ is scraped of, to be poured without ẏ cite in an vncleane place, & to take other stones, and put them in the place of the other, and to take other playster, and playster the house.

G Whan the plage then commeth agayne, and breaketh forth in the house, after ẏ the stones are brokẽ out, the playster scraped of, and the house playsterd of the new, thẽ shal the preist go in: and whan he seyth that the plage hath fretten farther in the house; then is there surely a fretinge lepresy in the house, and it is vncleane: therfore shal the house be broken downe, both the stones, and ẏ tymber and all the dust of the house, and shal be caried out of the cite in to an vncleane place. And who so goeth in to the house, whyle it is shut vp, is vncleane vntyll ẏ euen. And he ẏ lyeth therin, or eateth therin, shal wash his clothes.

But yf the preist se (whã he goeth in) that this plage hath frett no farther in the house, after that the house is new playsterd, the shal he iudge it to be cleane, for the plage is healed. And to a synofferinge for the house, he shal take two byrdes, Ceder wodd, & purple woll, and ysope, and slaye the one byrde in an erthen vessell vpon sprynginge water, and shall take the Ceder wodd, the purple woll, the ysope, and the lyuinge byrde, & dype them in the blonde of the slayne byrde vpon the sprynginge water, and sprenkle the house with all seuẽ tymes: and so shal he purifie the house with the blonde of the byrde, with the sprynginge water, with the lyuinge byrde, with the Ceder wodd, with the ysope, and with the purple woll. And the lyuynge byrde shall he let flye at libertye out of the towne in to the felde, & make an attonement for the house, and then is it cleane.

This is the lawe ouer all maner plage of lepresye & sprye, ouer ẏ lepresye of clothes and of houses, ouer sores, scabbes, and glisterynge whyte, that it maye be knowne, whan eny thinge is vncleane or cleane. This is ẏ lawe of lepresy.

The XV. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses and Aaron, and sayde: Speake to the chyldren of Israel, and saie vnto him: Whan a man hath a runnynge yssue from out of his flesh, ẏ same is vncleane: but thẽ is he vncleane by the reason of this yssue, whan his flesh is fretten of ẏ yssue or wounde. Euery bed where on he lyeth, & what so euer he sytteth vpon, shalbe vncleane.

And he that toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.

And he ẏ sytteth where he sat, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euẽ. Who so toucheth his flesh, shall wash his clothes, & bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. Whan he spytteth vpon him that is cleane, ẏ same shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, & be vncleane vntyll the euen.

And the saddell and what so euer he rydeth vpõ, shalbe vncleane. And who so euer toucheth eny thinge that hath bene vnder him, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. And who so beareth eny soch, shall wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. And whom so euer he toucheth, and washeth not his handes first, the same shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. * Whan he toucheth an erthen vessell, it shal be broken: but the treen vessell shal be rensed w̄ water. And whā he is clean of his yssue, he shal nombre vij. dayes, after ỹ he is made cleane, & wash his clothes, & bathe him self w̄ spryngynge water, thē is he cleane. And vpon the eight daye shal he take two turtill doues or two yonge pigeōs, and brynge them before the LORDE before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and geue them vnto the preest. And the preest shal make of the one a synofferynge, of the other a burntofferynge, and make an attonement for him before the LORDE, as concernynge his yssue.

C Whan a mans sede departeth from him in slepe, the same shal bathe all his flesh w̄ water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. And all clothes, and euery stryme that is stained with soch sede, shall he wash with water, & be vncleane vntyll the euen. A woman, by whom soch one lyeth, shall bathe hir self w̄ water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.

Whan a woman hath the bloude yssue of hir flesh, she shalbe put a parte vij. daies in to a sundrie place. Who so euer toucheth her, shal be vncleane vntyll the euē. And all that she lyeth vpon (as longe as she is put aparte) shalbe vncleane. And that she sytteth vpō, shalbe vncleane. And who so euer toucheth hir bed, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. And who so euer toucheth eny maner thinge that she hath sytten vpō, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euē.

D And yf a man lye with her (whyle she is Leui.18.c put a parte) he shalbe vncleane seuen dayes, and the bed that he laye vpon, shalbe vncleane.

Matt.9.c But whan a woman hath hir bloude yssue a longe season, not onely at the tyme of hir naturall course, but also out of the tyme of hir naturall course, then shall she be vncleane so longe as she hath the yssue: euē as she is at the tyme whan she is put aparte, so shall she be vncleane here also. What so euer she lyeth vpon all the tyme of hir yssue, shalbe as hir bed, whan she is put aparte. And all that she sytteth vpon, shalbe vncleane, as is hir vnclennesse, whan she is put aparte. Who so euer toucheth eny of them, shal be vncleane, and shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, & be vncleane vntyll the euen.

E But yf she be cleane of hir yssue, thē shal she nombre seuen dayes, afterwarde shall she be cleane: and vpon the eight daye shall she take two turtill doues, or two yonge pigeons, and brynge them vnto the preest before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the preest shall make of the one a synofferynge, of the other a burntofferynge, and make an attonement for her before the LORDE, as concernynge the yssue of hir vnclennesse.

Thus shal ye se that the childrē of Israel kepe them selues from their vncleānesse, that they dye not in their vnclennesse, whan they defyle my habitacion, which is amōge you.

This is the lawe ouer him that hath a runnynge sore, & him whose sede departeth from him in slepe, so that he is vncleane ther of. And ouer her that hath hir bloude yssue, and who so euer hath a runnynge sore, whether it be man or woman, and whan a man lyeth with her that is vncleane.

The XVI. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses (after that Aarons two sonnes were deed, * whan they offered before the Leu.10. LORDE) & sayde: Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, ỹ he go not at all tymes in to ỹ ynnermer Sanctuary, within the vale before the Mercyseate, which is vpon the Arke, ỹ he dye not: * for I wyll appeare in a cloude Exo.40. vpon ỹ Mercyseate. But herewithall shal 3.Re.8.b he go in, euen with a yonge bullocke for a synofferynge, and with a ramme for a burntofferynge, and shal put on the holy lynnen albe, and haue lynnen breches vpon his flesh, and gyrde him with a lynnē girdell, and haue the lynnen myter vpon his heade.

B For these are ỹ holy garmentes: & he shal bathe his flesh with water, & put them on: & of the cōgregacion of the childrē of Israel he shal take two he goates for a synofferynge, and a ramme for a burntofferynge.

And Aaron shal brynge the bullocke his owne synofferynge, * and make an attonemēt for himself and his house: and afterwarde shall he take the two goates, and present them before the LORDE, euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse, and shall cast lottes ouer the two goates: the lot of the one goate for the LORDE, and the other for the fre goate. And the goate that ỹ LORDES lot fell vpon, shal he offre for a synofferynge. But the goate, that the fre goates lot fell vpon, shal he present alyue before ỹ LORDE, to make an attonement for him, and to let the fre goate go into ỹ wyldernes. And so shal he brynge the bullocke of his synofferynge, and make an attonement for him and his housholde, and shal kyll him. Heb.9.b

And he shall take a censor full of coales from the altare that stondeth before the LORDE, and his handfull of beaten incense, and bringe them in within ỳ vayle, and put the incense vpon the fyre before ỳ LORDE, that the cloude of the incense maye cover the Mercyseate, which is vpon the witnesse, that he dye not. And he shall take of the bloude of the bullocke, and sprenkle it with his fynger towarde the Mercyseate on the foreside. Seuen tymes shall he sprenkle of the bloude thus with his fynger before the Mercyseate. Thē shal he kyll the goate which is the peoples synofferynge, & bringe in of his bloude within the vayle, & shall do with his bloude, as he dyd with the bloude of the bullocke, and sprenkle therwith also on the foreside towarde the Mercyseate, and so shal he reconcyle the Sāctuary from the vnclennesse of the childrē of Israel, and frō their trespaces in all their synnes. Thus shal he do vnto the Tabernacle of wytnesse, which is the habitacion with them amōge their vnclennesses.

No man shalbe in the Tabernacle of witnesse, whan he goeth in to make an attonement in the Sāctuary, vntyll he go out: and so shall he make an attonement for him self and his house, and for the whole congregacion of Israel. And whā he goeth forth vnto the altare that stondeth before the LORDE, he shal reconcyle it, and shal take of ỳ bullockes bloude, and of the goates bloude, & put it vpon the hornes of the altare rounde aboute. And with his fynger shal he sprēkle of the bloude theron seuen tymes, and halowes it, and consecrate it from the vnclennesse of the children of Israel.

And whan he hath made an ende of reconcylinge the Sanctuary, and the Tabernacle of witnesse, and the altare, he shal bringe the lyuynge goate.

Thē shal Aaron laie both his hādes vpō ỳ heade of him, & confesse ouer him all the myßdedes of ỳ childrē of Israel, & all their trespaces in their synnes, & shal laye thē vpō ỳ heade of the goate, & by some man ỳ is at hande, shal he let him runne in to the wilderness: ỳ the goate maye so beare all their myßdedes vpon him in to ỳ wylderneße, and he shal leaue him in the wylderneße.

And Aaron shal go in to the Tabernacle of witnesse, and put of the lynnen clothes, which he put on whā he wente in to ỳ Sāctuary, and shāl leaue them there, and bathe his flesly with water in the holy place, and put on his awne rayment.

And he shal go forth, and make his burnt offeringe, and the burntofferinge of the people, and make an attonement both for him self and for the people, and burne the fat of the synofferynge vpon the altare. But he ỳ caried out the fre goate, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, & then come in to the hoost.

The bullocke of the synofferynge, and ỳ goate of the synofferynge (whose bloude was brought in to the Sanctuary to make an attonemēt) shalbe caried out of ỳ hoost, & brent with fyre, both their skynnes, flesh, and donge. And he that burneth them, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him self with water, and then come in to the hoost.

And this shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto you: Vpon the tenth daye of the seuenth moneth shal ye humble youre soules, and do no worke, whether it be one of youre selues, or a straunger amonge you. For in this daye is youre attonemēt made, that ye maye be clensed from all youre synnes before the LORDE: therfore shall it be a fre Sabbath vnto you, and ye shal humble youre soules. Let this be a perpetuall lawe.

But the preest that is anoynted, and whose hande was fylled to be preest in his fathers steade, shal make this attonement, and shal put on the lynnen clothes, namely the holy vestimētes, so shal he recōcyle the holy Sāctuary, and the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the altare, and ỳ preestes, and all the people of the congregacion.* This shal be a perpetuall lawe vnto you, that ye reconcyle ỳ children of Israel from all their synnes once a yeare. And Moses dyd, as the LORDE commaunded him.

The XVII. Chapter.

AND ỳ LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde: Speake vnto Aaron & his sonnes, & to all ỳ childrē of Israel, & saye vnto them: This is it that ỳ LORDE hath commaunded: What so euer he be of ỳ house of Israel, ỳ kylleth an oxe, or lābe, or goate in the hoost, or out of the hoost, and bringeth it not before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, that it maye be brought vnto the LORDE for an offerynge before the Habitacion of ỳ LORDE, the same shal be giltie of bloude, as though he had shed bloude, and soch a man shal be roted out from amonge his people.

Therfore shall the children of Israel bringe their offerynges (that they wyll offre vpon the wyde felde) before the LORDE, euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse, vnto the preest, & there offre their healthofferynges vnto the LORDE. And the preest shal sprenkle the bloude vpon the altare of the LORDE before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and burne the fat for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE: and they shall offre their offerynges nomore vnto deuels, with whom they go a whorynge. This shal be a perpetuall lawe vnto them amonge their posterities.

C Therfore shalt thou saie vnto thē: What man so euer he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger also that is amonge you, which offereth a burntofferynge or eny other offerynge, and bringeth it not before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse to offre it vnto the LORDE, he shal be roted out from amōge his people.

And what man so euer it be (either of the house of Israel, or a straunger amonge you) that eateth eny maner of bloude, agaynst him wyll I set my face, and wil rote him out from amonge his people: for the soule of ỳ body is in the bloude, and I haue geuen it you for the altare, that youre soules maye be reconcyled ther with: For the bloude that is in the soule maketh attonement. Therfore haue I sayde vnto the children of Israel: No soule amonge you shall eate bloude, no ner eny straunger that dwelleth amonge you.

D And what man so euer it be amonge you (whether he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger amōge you) that at the huntynge taketh a beest or foule which maye be eaten, he shall poure out the bloude of the same, & couer it with earth: for all flesh lyueth in the bloude.

And I haue sayde vnto the children of Israel: Ye shall eate the bloude of no body: for the life of all flesh is in his bloude. Who so euer eateth it, shalbe roted out. And what so euer soule eateth that which dyed alone, or ỳ was torne of wylde beestes (whether he be one of youre selues or a straunger) the same shal wash his clothes, and bathe himself with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen, and then is he cleane. But yf he wash not his clothes, nor bathe him self, then shal he beare his synne.

The XVIII. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE talked wt Moses, & saide: Speake vnto the childrē of Israel, & saye vnto them: I am the LORDE youre God, Ye shall not do after ỳ workes of the lande of Egipte, wherin ye dwelt: nether after the doynges of the lande of Canaan, in to the which I will bringe you. Ye shal not walke after their customes, but after my lawes shall ye do, & my statutes shall ye kepe, that ye maye walke therin: for I am the LORDE youre God. Therfore shal ye kepe my statutes and my lawes. * For the man that doth the same, shall liue therin, for I am the LORDE. Ro. 10.

No mā shal come at his nerte kynßwomā, to vncouer hir preuytie: for I am ỳ LORDE.

Thou shalt not vncouer ỳ preuytie of ỳ fathers wife, for it is ỳ fathers preuytie. Deu. 22. and. 27. 1. Cor. 5.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy sister, which is the doughter of ỳ father or of ỳ mother, whether shye be borne at home or without.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy sonnes doughter, or of thy doughters doughter, for it is thine awne preuytie. Deu. 27. 2. Re. 15.

Thou shalt not vncouer ỳ preuytie of ỳ fathers wiues doughter, which is borne vnto him, and is thy sister. B

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy fathers sister, for it is thy fathers nerte kynßwoman.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy mothers sister, for it is ỳ mothers nerte kynßwoman. Leui. 20.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy fathers brother, to take his wife, for she is thine awnte.

Thou shalt not vncouer ỳ preuytie of ỳ doughter in lawe, for she is ỳ sonnes wife, therfore shalt thou not vncouer hir preuitie. Gen. 38. Deu. 27.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy brothers wife, for it is thy brothers preuytie. Leui. 20. Mat. 14.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy wife and of hir doughter also, nether shalt thou take hir sonnes doughter or hir doughters doughter, to vncouer their preuyties, for they are hir nerte kynßwomen. And it is wickednesse.

Thou shalt not take a wife and hir sister also, to vncouer hir preuytie, whyle she is yet alyue. C Gen. 29.

Thou shalt not go vnto a woman to vncouer hir preuytie, so longe as she hath hir disease in hir vnclennesse. Leu. 15. Eze. 22.

Thou shalt not lye with thy neyghbours wife to medle with her, for to defyle thy self withall. 2. Re. 11.

Thou shalt not geue of thy sede also, to be burnt vnto Moloch, lest thou vnhalowe the Leu. 20.

* Thou shalt not lye with mankynde as with womankynde, for ỳ is abhominacion.

Thou shalt lye with no maner of beest, to defyle ỳ self therwith. And no woman shal have to do wt a beest, for it is abhominacion.

Ye shal defyle youre selues in none of these thinges. For ỳ heithen (whom I wil cast out before you) have stayned them selues in all these, and the londe is defyled there thorow. And their wickednesse wyl I vyset vpō them, so that the londe shal spue out the indwellers therof. Therfore kepe ye my statutes and lawes, and do not one of these abhominacions, nether one of youre awne selues ner the straunger amonge you (for all soch abhominacions have ỳ people of this lōde done which were before you, & have defyled the lande) that the lande spue not you out also, whan ye have defyled it, as it spewed out the heythē, that were there before you. For who so ever commytte these abhominaciōs, the same soules shalbe roted out from amonge their people. Therfore kepe ye my statutes, that ye do not after ỳ abhominable customes, which were before you, that ye be not defyled therwith: For I am the LORDE youre God.

But he shal brynge for his trespace vnto ỳ LORDE (euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse) a ramme for a trespace offerynge: and the preest shal make an attonement for him with the trespace offerynge before the LORDE, concernynge the synne that he hath done: * so shall God be mercifull vnto him, as concernynge his synne which he hath done.

Heb.

What tyme as ye are come into the londe, and plante all maner trees wherof men eate, ye shall circumcise the foreskynne of the same with their frutes: thre yeares shall ye holde them for vncircumcysed, so that ye eate them not: but in the fourth yeare shall all their frutes be holy and praysed vnto ỳ LORDE. In the fifth yeare shall ye eate the stutes, and gather them in: for I am ỹ LORDE youre God.

Ye shal eate nothinge wt̄ blonde. Ye shall not regarde ỹ foules cryenge, ner chose out dayes.

Ye shal shaue no crownes vpō youre heade, nether shalt thou clyppe thy beerde cleane off.

Ye shal rente out no markes in youre body (for eny that is deed) ner make lettres vpō you: for I am the LORDE.

Thou shalt not holde thy doughter to whordome, that the londe fall not to whordome, and ware full of wickednesse.

Kepe my holy dayes, and stonde in awe of my Sanctuary: for I am the LORDE.

Ye shal not turne yō selues to ỹ Soythsayers, and axe nothinge at the expounders of tokēs, that ye be not defyled by them: for I am the LORDE youre God.

Thou shalt ryse vp before a graye heade, and shalt geue reuerence vnto the aged. For thou shalt feare God: for I am ỹ LORDE.

Whan there dwelleth a straunger amonge you in youre londe, ye shall not vexe him. He shal dwell with you, euen as one that is at home amonge you, & thou shalt loue him as ỹ self: for ye youre selues also were straungers in the lande of Egipte. I am the LORDE youre God.

Ye shal not deale wrōgeously in iudgmēt, with meteyarde, with weight, with measure: A true balaunce, a true weight, a true Epha, a true hin shalbe amōge you. For I am the LORDE youre God, which brought you out of the londe of Egipte, that ye shuld kepe & do all my statutes and lawes: for I am the LORDE.

The XX. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, and saide: Tell the children of Israel: Who so euer he be amonge the children of Israel, (or eny straunger that dwelleth in Israel) which geueth of his sede vnto Moloch, the same shall dye the death: the people of the lande shal stone him, & I wyll set my face agaynst that man, and wyll rote him out from amōge his people, because he hath geuen of his sede vnto Moloch, and defyled my Sanctuary, & vnhalowed my holy name. And though the people of the londe loke thorow the fyngers vpon that man, which hath geuen of his sede vnto Moloch, so that they put him not to death, yet wyl I set my face agaynst the same man, & agaynst his generacion: And him, and all that go a whorynge with him after Moloch, wyll I rote out from amonge their people.

Yf eny soule turne him to ỹ soythsayers and expounders of tokens, so that he goeth a whorynge after them, I wyl set my face agaynst the same soule, and wyl rote him out from amonge his people. Sanctifie youre selues therfore, & be holy: for I am holy euen youre God. And kepe ye my statutes, and do them: for I am ỹ LORDE that sanctifieth you.

Who so euer curseth his father or his mother, shall dye the death: his blonde be vpon him, because he hath cursed his father or mother.

He that breaketh wedlocke with eny mās wife, shal dye the death (both the aduouterer and ỹ aduoutaresse) because he hath broken wedlocke with his neyghbours wife.

Yf eny man lye with his fathers wife, so ỹ he vncouer his fathers preuyte, they shal both dye the death: their blonde be vpō thē.

Yf eny man lye wt̄ his doughter in lawe, they shall dye both of them, for they haue wrought abhominacion: their blonde be vpon them.

Yf eny man lye with the mankynde, as with womankynde, they haue wrought abhominacion, & shal both dye the death: their blonde be vpon them.

Yf eny man take a wyfe, and hir mother therto, the same hath wrought wickednes: he shalbe burnt with fyre, and so shal they also, that there be no wickednes amōge you.

Yf eny man lye with a beest, he shall dye the death, and the beest shal be slayne.

Yf a woman medle with a beest, so ỹ she haue to do wt̄ it, thou shalt put her to death, and the beest also, they shall dye the death: their blonde be vpon them.

Yf eny man take his sister, his fathers doughter, or his mothers doughter, and se hir preuyte, and she agayne se his secretes, it is a wicked thinge. They shalbe roted out in the sight of their people. For he hath vncouered his sisters preuyte, he shal beare his synne.

Yf a man lye with a woman in the tyme of hir sicknesse, and vncouer hir secretes, & open vp hir fountayne, and she vncouer the fountayne of hir blonde, they shall both be roted out from amonge their people.

Thou shalt not vncouer the preuytie of thy mothers sister, and of thy fathers sister: for soch one hath vncouered his nexte kynswoman, and they shal beare their synne.

Yf eny man lye with his vncles wyfe, the same hath vncouered the preuytie of his vn cle: they shal beare their synne, without children shal they dye.

u.18.b * Yf eny man take his brothers wyfe, ẏ tt.14.a is an vncleane thinge: they shalbe without children, because he hath vncouered his brothers secretes.

D So kepe now all my statutes & my lawes, & do them, ẏ the lode whither I bringe you to dwell therin, spewe you not out. And wal ke not ye in ẏ statutes of the heithen, which cut. 9.a I shal cast out before you. * For all soch thin ges haue they done, & I haue abhorred thē.

But I saye vnto you: Ye shall possesse their londe. For I wyll geue you to enhериtaunce a lōde, that floweth with mylke and hony. I am the LORDE youre God, which haue separated you from the nacions, that ye also shulde separate the cleane beestes frō the vncleane, and the vncleane foules from the cleane: & not to defyle youre soules vpon beestes, vpon foules & vpon all that crepeth cul.11.a on the grounde: which I haue separated vn eut.14.a to you, that they shulde be vncleane. Ther fo re shall ye be holy vnto me: for I the LOR-DE am holy, which haue separated you frō the nacions, that ye shulde be myne.

eu. 18.b Yf a man or woman be a soythsayer or Ec. 28.b an expounder of tokens, the same shall dye the death: they shalbe stoned, their bloude be vpon them.

The XXI. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Speake to ẏ prestes ẏ sonnes of Aaxe.44.d ron, & saye vnto thē: A prest shal defy le him self vpō no soule of his people, but vpon his nexte kynne ẏ belongeth vnto him:
as vpon his mother, vpō his father, vpō his sonne, vpō his doughter, vpon his brother, & vpon his sister, which is yet a virgin, & hath bene no mans wife (which belongeth vnto him) vpon her maie he defyle himself. Moro ner he shal not defyle him self vpō eny ruler in his people, to vnhalowe him self.

Leui. 19.f * He shall make no crowne also vpon his
xe. 44.c heade, ner shaue of his beerd, nether shall they cut out eny markes i their flesshe. They shalbe holy vnto their God, and not vn-halowe ẏ name of their God: for they offre the sacrifice of the LORDE, the bred of their God, ther fore shal they be holy.

B They shal take no whore, ner one that is .Tim.2.a defyled, or ẏ is put awaye frem hir hußban de, for he is holy vnto his God: ther fore shal he sanctifie him self, for he offreth the bred of thy God. He shal be holy vnto the, for I am holy, euen the LORDE that sanctifieth you.

Yf a prestes doughter fall to whoringe, she shalbe burnt with fyre, for she hath shamed hir father. He that is hye prest amonge his brethren, vpō whose heade the anoyntin ge oyle is poured, and his hande fylled (ẏ he might be arayed with the vestimentes) shal not vncouer his heade, ner cut his clothes, & shal come at no deed, * & shal defyle him self Lu.
nether vpon father ner mother. He shall not go out of the Sanctuary, that he vnhalowe not the Sanctuary of his God. For ẏ crow ne of the anoyntinge oyle of his God is vpon him, for I am the LORDE.

A virgin shal he take to wife, but no we- C dowre, ner deuorsed, ner defyled, ner whore, Ezr.
but a virgin of his awne people shal he take Mal.
to wife, ẏ he vnhalowe not his sede amonge his people. For I am ẏ LORDE, which sanc-tifie him.

And ẏ LORDE talked wt Moses, & sayde:
Speake vnto Aaron, & saie: Yf there be a ble myssh vpō eny of ẏ sede in yo^r generacions, the same shal not preasse to offre the bred of his God: * For who so euer hath a blemyssh a.d. vpon him, shal not come nere, whether he be blynde, lame, with an euell fauoured nose, wt eny myßshappen membre, or ẏ hath a broken fote or hande, or is croke backed, or hath eny blemyssh in the eye, or is gleyd, or is skyr vye or scaulde, or hath his stones broken.

Who so euer now of the sede of Aaron ẏ D prest hath eny blemyssh vpō him, shal not co me nye to offre ẏ sacrifice of the LORDE. For he hath a deformyte. Ther fore shall he not preasse vnto the bred of his God, to offre it.
Notwithstondinge he shal eate of the bred of his God, both of the holy, & of ẏ most ho ly: but he shal not go in to ẏ vayle, ner come nye the altare (for so moch as he hath a blemyssh vpō him) ẏ he vnhalowe not my Sāc tuary. For I am ẏ LORDE ẏ sanctifieth thē.
And Moses spake this vnto Aaron & to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel.

The XXII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, & A sayde: Speake vnto Aaron, & his son-nes, ẏ they absteyne from ẏ halowed thinges of the childrē of Israel, which they haue halowed vnto me, & ẏ they vnhalowe not my holy name: for I am ẏ LORDE. Saie now vnto them & their posterities: Who so euer he be of yo^r sede, ẏ commeth nye vnto the holy thinges, which the childrē of Israel halowe vnto the LORDE, & so defyleth him self vpon the same, his soule shal perisshe before my face: for I am the LORDE.

Who so euer of the sede of Aaron is a leper, or hath a runnynge yssue, shall not eate of the holy thinges, tyll he be clensed. Who so toucheth eny vncleane thinge, or whose se departeth from him by night, or who so toucheth eny worme that is vncleane vnto him, or a mā ẏ is vncleane vnto him, & what so euer defyleth hī, loke what soule toucheth eny soch, is vncleane vntyll the euen, & shall not eate of the holy thinges, but shall first bath his flesh with water. And whā ẏ Sonne is gone downe, and he cleane, then maye he eate therof, for it is his foode. Loke what dyeth alone, or is rent of wylde beestes, shall he not eate, ẏ he be not vncleane theron: for I am ẏ LORDE. Therfore shal they kepe my lawe, ẏ they lade not synne vpon them, & dye therin, whan they vnhalowe them selues in it. For I am ẏ LORDE, ẏ halowe them.

B A straunger shal not eate of the holy thinges, ner an housholde geste of the prestes, ner an hyred seruaūt. But yf ẏ prest bye a soule for his money, ẏ same maye eate therof. And loke who is borne in his house, maye eate of his bred also. Neuertheles yf the prestes doughter be a straungers wife, she shal not eate of the heueofferinges of holynes. But yf she be a wedowe, or deuorced, or haue no sēde, & commeth agayne to hir fathers house as afore (whan she was yet a mayden in hir fathers house) then shall she eate of hir fathers bred. But no straūger shal eate therof.

Who so els eateth of the halowed thynges, vnwyttingly, shal put ẏ fifth parte there vnto, and geue it vnto the prest with the halowed thinge, that they vnhalowe not ẏ halowed thinges of the childrē of Israel, which they heue vp vnto the LORDE, lest they lade them selues with myßdoinge and trespace, whā they eate their halowed thynges, for I am ẏ LORDE which halowe thē.

C And ẏ LORDE talked vnto Moses, & saide: Speake vnto Aaron & his sonnes, & to all ẏ childrē of Israel: * What so euer Israelite or straunger in Israel wyll do his offerynge, whether it be their vowe, or of fre wyl, that they wyll offre a burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, to reconcyle them selues, it shal be a male, and without blemysh, of the oxen, or lambes or goates. * What so euer hath eny blemish, shal they not offre, for they shal fynde no fauoure therwith.

And who so wyl offre an healthofferinge vnto the LORDE to separate out a vowe, or of fre wyl, oxen or shepe, it shalbe without blemysh, ẏ it maye be accepted. It shal haue no deformite. Yf it be blynde, or brokē, or wounded, or haue a wen, or strytye, or scabbed, they shal offre none soch vnto the LORDE, ner put an offerynge of eny soch vpō the altare of the LORDE.

An oxe or shepe ẏ hath myßshappē membres, or no rompe, mayest thou offre of a fre wyll: but to a vowe it maye not be accepted. Thou shalt offre also vnto the LORDE nothinge ẏ is bruised, or broken, or rent, or cutt out, & ye shal do no soch in youre londe. Moreouer ye shall offre no bred vnto youre God of a straungers hande: for it is marred of him, and he hath a deformite, therfore shal it not be accepted for you.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Whā an oxe, or labe, or goate is brought forth, it shal be seuen dayes with the dame, and vpon the eight daye & therafter it maie be offered vnto the LORDE, thē is it accepted. Whether it be oxe or lambe, it shall not be slayne with his yonge in one daye. D

But whā ye wil offre a thākoffringe vnto the LORDE ẏ it maye be accepted, ye shal eate it the same daye, & kepe nothinge ouer vntyll the morynge: for I am the LORDE. Therfore kepe now my commaundementes, and do them: for I am the LORDE, ẏ ye vnhalowe not my holy name, & that I maye be halowed amonge the childrē of Israel. For I am he that halowe you, euē ẏ LORDE, which brought you out of ẏ lōde of Egipte, ẏ I might be yor God: Euen I ẏ LORDE.

The XXIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde: Speake vnto ẏ childrē of Israel, and saye vnto them: These are ẏ feastes of the LORDE, which ye shal call holy dayes. A

Sixe dayes shalt thou worke, but the seuenth daie is the rest of the Sabbath, and shalbe called holy. Ye shal do no worke therin, for it is the Sabbath of the LORDE, where so euer ye dwell. Exo. 23.f Deu. 5.b

These are the feastes of the LORDE, ẏ are called holy, which ye shal call youre feastes: * Upon ẏ fourtene daye of ẏ first moneth at euen, is the LORDES Easter. And vpon ẏ fiftene daye of the same moneth is the feast of vnleuēded bred of the LORDE. Then shall ye eate vnleuended bred seuen dayes. Exo. 12.c Nu. 28.c Eze. 45.d

The first daie shalbe called holy amonge you, ye shal do no worke of bōdage therin, & seuē daies shal ye offre vnto ẏ LORDE. The seuēth daie shalbe called holy likewise, wherin ye shal do no worke of bondage also. B Nu. 28.d

And ẏ LORDE talked vnto Moses, & sayde: Speake to the childrē of Israel, & saye vnto them: * Whan ye come into the lande ẏ I shall geue you, and reape downe youre harueste, ye shal brynge a shefe of the first frutes of youre harueſt vnto the preſt, thē ſhall the ſheſe be waued before the LORDE, that ye maye be accepted: but this ſhal the preſt do the nexte daye after the Sabbath. And ỳ ſame daie that yo' ſheſe is waued, ſhal ye offre a burntofferinge vnto the LORDE, of a lam be which is without blemyſh and of one yeare olde, w' the meatofferynge, two tenth deales of fyne floure mengled with oyle, for an offerynge of a ſwete ſauoure vnto the LORDE: & the drynkofferynge alſo, euē the fourth parte of an Hin of wyne.

C And ye ſhall eate nether bred, nor cakes, Leuiti. 5. c ner furmentye (of new corne) tyll the ſame daye that ye bringe an offerynge vnto youre God. This ſhal be a lawe vnto youre poſterities, where ſo euer ye dwell.

Deu. 16. b Then ſhal ye nombre (from the nexte daye after the Sabbath, whan ye brought ỳ Waue ſheſe) ſeuen whole weekes, vntyll the nexte daie after ỳ ſeuēth weke, namely, fiftie daies, ſhal ye nombre, and offre new meatofferynges vnto the LORDE. And out of all youre dwellinges ſhal ye offre, namely, two Waue loaues of two tenth deales of fyne floure leuēded, and baken for the firſt frutes vnto ỳ LORDE. And with youre bred ye ſhal bringe ſeuen lambes of one yeare olde without blemyſh, and a yonge bullocke, and two rammes: this ſhal be the LORDES burntofferynge, meatofferynge, and drynkoffrynge. This is a ſacrifice of a ſwete ſauoure vnto the LORDE. Leuiti. 23. d

D Moreouer ye ſhal offre an he goate for a ſynofferynge, and two lambes of a yeare olde for an healthofferynge. And ỳ preſt ſhal waue it vpon the bred of the firſt frutes before the LORDE with the two lambes. And they ſhalbe holy vnto the LORDE, and ſhal be the preſtes. And this daye ſhal ye proclame, for it ſhalbe called holy amonge you: no ſeruyle worke ſhal ye do therin. A perpetuall lawe ſhall it be amonge yo' poſterities, where ſo euer ye dwell.

Leui. 19. c Deu. 24. d Whan ye reape downe ỳ harueſt of youre londe, ye ſhal not cut it cleane downe vpō the felde, ner gather vp all, but ſhal leaue it for the poore and ſtraungers. I am the LORDE youre God.

And ỳ LORDE talked with Moſes, and ſayde: Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, & ſaye: Vpon the firſt daye of the ſeuenth moneth ſhal ye haue the holy reſt of the remembraunce of blowinge, wherin ye ſhal do no ſeruyle worke, and ye ſhal offre ſacrifice vnto the LORDE. Leui. 23. a

E And the LORDE ſpake vnto Moſes, and ſayde: Vpon the tenth daye in this ſeuenth moneth is the daye of reconcylinge, which ſhalbe an holy conuocacion w' you. Ye ſhal humble youre ſoules therin, and offre vnto the LORDE, and ſhal do no ſeruyle worke in this daye: for it is the daye of attonement, that ye maye be reconcyled before the LORDE youre God. For what ſoule ſo euer hym bleth not him ſelf vpon this daye, the ſame ſhalbe roted out from amonge his people. And what ſoule ſo euer doth eny worke this daye, the ſame wil I deſtroye from amonge his people: therfore ſhall ye do no worke. This ſhalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto youre poſterities, where ſo euer ye dwell. It is the reſt of youre Sabbath, that ye maye humble youre ſoules. Vpon the nyenth daye of ỳ moneth at euen, ſhal ye kepe this holy daye from the euen forth vntyll the euē agayne. Leui. 16. a Nu. 29. a

And the LORDE talked with Moſes, & ſayde: Vpon the fiftene daye of the ſeuenth moneth, is the feaſt of Tabernacles ſeuen dayes vnto the LORDE. The firſt daye ſhal be an holy cōuocacion: no ſeruyle worke ſhal ye do therin. Seuen dayes ſhal ye offre vnto the LORDE. The eight daye ſhal be an holy conuocacion vnto you alſo, and ye ſhal offre vnto the LORDE: for it is the daye of gatheringe together: No ſeruyle worke ſhall ye do therin. ỳ Nu. 29. a Ioh. 7. a Theſe are the holy daies of the LORDE, which ye ſhall proclame and holde for holy conuocacions, that ye maye offre vnto the LORDE burntofferynges, meatofferynges, drynkofferynges and other offerynges, euery one acordinge to his daye, beſyde ỳ Sabbathes of ỳ LORDE, and youre giftes, and vowes, and frewyllofferynges, that ye offre vnto the LORDE.

So vpon the fiftene daye of the ſeuenth G moneth, whan ye haue brought in the increaſe of the londe, ye ſhall kepe the LORDES feaſt ſeuen dayes longe. The firſt daye ſhal be kepte holy daye, and the eight daye ſhal be kepte holy daye alſo. And vpon the firſt daie ye ſhal take of ỳ goodly frutefull trees, braunches of palme trees, & bowes of thicke trees, and Wyllies of the broke, and ſeuē dayes ſhal ye be mery before ỳ LORDE youre God: and thus ſhal ye kepe the feaſt vnto the LORDE ſeuen dayes in the yeare. This ſhalbe a perpetuall lawe amonge youre poſterities, that they kepe holy daye thus in ỳ ſeuenth moneth. Seuen dayes ſhal ye dwell in bothes. Who ſo euer is an Iſraelite borne, ſhal dwell in bothes, that they which come after you, maye knowe, how that I made ỳ children of Israel to dwell in bothes, whan I brought them out of the lōde of Egipte. I am the LORDE youre God. And Moses tolde the children of Israel these holy daies of the LORDE.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

A And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, 27.d
and sayde: Cōmaunde the children of Israel, that they bringe pure oyle olyue beaten for lightes, that it maye be allwaye put in the lampes, without before the vayle of wytnesse in the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And Aaron shall dresse it allwaye at euen and in the mornynge before the LORDE. Let this be a perpetuall lawe vnto youre posterities. The lāpes shal he dresse vpon the pure candilsticke before the LORDE perpetually.

B And thou shalt take fyne floure, and bake twolue cakes therof: two tēth deales shal 25.c
euery cake haue, and thou shalt laye them fyre on a rowe vpō the pure table before the LORDE. And vpon the same shalt thou laye pure frankencense, that it maye be bred of remembraunce for an offerynge vnto the LORDE. Euery Sabbath shal he prepare thē before the LORDE allwaye, and receaue them of the children of Israel for an euerlastinge couenaunt. And they shalbe Aarons and his sonnes, which shal eate them in the holy place. For this is his most holy of the offerynges of the LORDE for a perpetuall dewtye.

C And there wente out an Israelitish womans sonne, which was the childe of a man of Egipte (amonge the children of Israel) and strowe in the hoost with a man of Israel, 20.20.b and named the name of God blasphemously, and cursed. Then brought they him vnto Moses. His mothers name was Selomith, the doughter of Dibri, of the trybe of Dan. 15.d
And they put him in preson, tyll they were informed by the mouth of the LORDE.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Bringe him that cursed, out of the hoost, and let all thē that herde it, laye their handes vpon his heade, and let the whole congregacion stone him. And saye vnto the children of Israel. Who so euer blaspheme his God, shall beare his synne: and he that blaspheme the name of the LORDE, shal dye the death. The whole congregacio shal stone him. As the straunger, so shal he of the housholde be also. If he blaspheme the name, he shal dye. Mat. 26.g
Ioh. 19.a

D He that slayeth a man, shall dye the death. Exo. 21.b
but he that slayeth a beest, shall paye for it. Deut. 19.a Soule for soule. And he that maymeth his Iudic. 1.b
neghboure, it shall be done vnto him, euen Math. 5.c
as he hath done: broke for broke, eye for eye, *Math. 5.e
tothe for tothe: euen as he hath maymed a man, so shal it be done vnto him agayne, so that, who so slayeth a beest, shall paye for it: But he that slayeth a man, shal dye. There shal be one maner of lawe amonge you, to the straunger as to one of youre selues: for I am the LORDE youre God.

Moses tolde the children of Israel. And they brought him that had cursed, out of the hoost, and stoned him. Thus dyd the childrē of Israel as the LORDE cōmaunded Moses.

The XXV. Chapter.

A And the LORDE talked with Moses vpon mount Sinai, and sayde: Speake to the children of Israel, and saye Exo. 23.b
vnto them: Whan ye come in to the londe, the I shal geue you, the londe shal rest vnto the LORDE, so that thou sowe thy felde fyre yeares, and fyre yeares cut thy vynes, and gather in the frutes. But in the seuenth yeare the lōde shal haue his Sabbath of rest for a Sabbath vnto the LORDE, wherin thou shalt not sowe thy felde ner cut thy vynes.

Loke what groweth of it self after thy harueste, thou shalt not reape it. And the grapes that growe without thy labour, shalt thou not gather, for so mych as it is the yeare of the londes rest: But the rest of the lon- Deut. 15.
de shalt thou kepe for this intent, that thou mayest eate therof, thy seruaunte, thy mayde, thy hyrelinge, thy gest, thy straūger with the, thy catell, and the beestes in thy londe. All the increase shal be meate.

B And thou shalt nombre seuen of these yeare Sabbathes, that seuen yeares maye be tolde seuen tymes, and so the tyme of the seuen yeare Sabbathes make nyne and fourtye yeares. Then shalt thou let the blast of the horne go thorow all youre londe, vpon the tenth daye of the seuenth moneth, euen in the daye of attonement. And ye shal halowe the fiftieth yeare, and shall call it a fre yeare in the londe, for all them that dwell therin: for it is Eze.46.c the yeare of Jubilye. * Then shall every one amonge you come agayne to his possession and to his kynred: for the fiftieth yeare is ỹ yeare of Jubilye. Ye shal not sowe ner reape it that groweth of it self, ner gather the grapes, that growe without laboure. For the yeare of Jubilye shall be holy amonge you. But loke what the felde beareth, that shall ye eate. This is the yeare of Jubilye, wherin ye shal come againe every man to his owne.

C Now whan thou sellest ought vnto thy neghboure, or byest eny thinge of him, there shal none of you oppresse his brother: but acordinge to the nombre of the yeare of Jubilye shalt thou bye it of him: and acordinge to the nombre of the yeares of increase shalt he sell it vnto the. Acordinge to the multitude of the yeares shalt thou rayse the pryce, & and acordynge to the fewnesse of the yeares shalt thou mynish the pryce: for he shall sell it vnto the acordinge to the nombre of the increase. Therfore let no man defraude his neghboure, but feare ỹ God. For I am the LORDE youre God. Wherfore do after my statutes, and kepe my lawes, so ỹ ye do them that ye maye dwell safe in the londe. For the londe shal geue you hir frute, so that ye shal haue ynough to eate, and dwell safe therin.

And yf ye wolde saye: What shall we eate in the seuenth yeare, in as moch as we shal not sowe, ner gather in oure increase: I wyll sende my blessynge vpon you in the sixte yeare, that it shal brynge forth frute for thre yeare: so that ye shal sowe in ỹ eight yeare, and

Ruth.4.a shall he redeme that his brother solde. But whan a man hath none to redeme it, and cã get so moch with his hande as to redeme one parte, then shall it be rekened how many yeares it hath bene solde, and the remnaunt shal be restored vnto him to whom he solde it, ỹ he maie come agayne to his possession. But yf his hande can not get so moch, as to haue one parte agayne, thẽ shal it ỹ he solde be styll in the hande of the byer vntyll ỹ yeare of Jubilye: In ỹ same shal it go out, and returne to his owner agayne.

He that selleth a dwellinge house within the walles of the cite, hath an whole yeare respyte to lowse it out agayne: that shall be the tyme, wherin he maye redeme it. But yf he redeme it not a fore the whole yeare be out then shal he that bought it, and his successours kepe it for euer, and it shall not go out lowse in the yeare of Jubylie. Neuertheles yf it be an house in a vyllage that hath no wall aboute it, it shall be counted like vnto the felde of the coũtre, and maye be redemed and shal go out fre in the yeare of Jubilye.

The cities of the Lewites, and the houses in the cities that their possession is in, maye all waye be redemed. Who so purchaceth ought of the Lewites, shal leaue it in the yeare of Jubilye, whether it be house or cite that he hath had in possession. For the houses in the cities of the Lewites are their possession amonge the children of Jsrael. But the felde before their cities shal not be solde, for it is their awne for euer.

Whan thy brother wareth poore, and falleth in decaye beside the, thou shalt receaue him as a straunger, or gest, that he maye lyue by the: and thou shalt take no * vsury of him, ner more then thou hast geuẽ, but shalt feare thy God, that thy brother maye lyue besydes the. For thou shalt not lende him ỹ money vpon vsury, ner delyuer him thy meate vpon vauntage. For I am the LORDE yo God, which haue brought you out of the lõde of Egipte, to geue you the lande of Canaan, and to be youre God.

Whan thy brother wareth poore beside the, and selleth himself vnto the, thou shalt not holde him as a bõde mã: but as an hyred seruaunte and as a soiourner shall he be w the, and serue the vntyll ỹ yeare of Jubilye. Then shal he departe lowse from the, & his childrẽ with him, & shal returne to his awne kinred, and to his fathers possession: for they are my seruauntes, whom I brought out of the londe of Egipte. Therfore shal they not be solde like bondmen. And thou shalt not raigne ouer them with crueltie, but shalt feare thy God. But yf thou wylt haue bõde seruauntes and maydens, thou shalt bye them of the heithen, that are rounde aboute you: of the children of the soiourners and straungers amonge you, and of their generacions with you, and that are borne in youre londe, the same shal ye haue for bonde seruaũtes, & shal possesse them, & youre children after you for an euerlastinge possession, these shal be yo bondmen. * But ouer youre brethren the chilouer another with cruelte.

G Whan a straunger or soiourner wareth ryche by the, and thy brother wareth poore beside him, & selleth him self vnto ỳ straunger or soiourner by the, or to eny of his kynne, then shall he haue right (after that he is solde) to be redemed agayne. And eny of his brethren maye lowse him out: or his vncle or his vncles sonne, or eny other kynßman of his kynred: Or yf his awne hande getteth so moch, he shal lowse him self out, and shal reken with him that bought him, from ỳ yeare that he solde him self, vntyll the yeare of Jubilye. And ỳ money shal be counted accordinge to the nombre of the yeares that he was solde, and his wages of the whole tyme shalbe rekened withall.

Yf there be yet many yeares vnto ỳ yeare of Jubilye, then shal he (accordinge to the same) gene the more for his delyueraunce, therafter as he is solde. Yf there remayne but few yeares vnto the yeare of Jubilye, then shall he geue agayne therafter for his redempcion. And his wages from yeare to yeare shall he reken withall, and thou shalt not let the other raigne cruelly ouer him in ỳ sight. But yf he bye not him self out after this maner, then shal he go out fre in the yeare of Jubilye, and his childrē with him: for the childrē of Jsrael are my seruauntes, which I haue brought out of the londe of Egipte. I am the LORDE youre God.

*Ye shall make you no Jdols ner ymage, and ye shal reare you vp no piler, ner set vp eny markstone in youre londe, to bowe youre selues therto. For I am the LORDE youre God. Kepe my Sabbathes, and stonde in awe of my Sanctuary. I am the LORDE.

The XXVI. Chapter.

A Yf ye wyll walke now in my statutes, and kepe my commaundementes and do them, thē wyl I gene you rayne in due season, and ỳ londe shal geue hir increase, and the trees of ỳ felde shal brynge forth their frute. And the threßshinge tyme shall reache vnto the wyne harueste, and the wyne harueste shal reache vnto the sowynge tyme. And ye shall eate yor bred in plenteousnes, and shal dwell safe in youre londe. I wil geue peace in youre londe, so that ye shall slepe, and no man shall make you afrayed. I wyl ryd euell beestes out of youre londe, and there shall no swerde go thorow youre londe.

Ye shal chace youre enemies, & they shal fall in to ỳ swerde before you.* Fyue of you shal chace an hundreth: and an hundreth of you shal chace ten thousande. For youre enemies shall fall in to the swerde before you. B And I wyl turne me vnto you, and wyl cause you to growe and increase, and wyl set vp my couenaunt with you. And ye shal eate of the olde stoare, and shall let go the olde for plenteousnesse of the new.* I will haue my dwellynge amonge you, and my soule shall not refuse you. And I wyll walke amonge you, and wyl be youre God, and ye shalbe my people. For I am the LORDE youre God, which brought you out of the londe of Egipte, that ye shulde not be their bondmen. And I haue brokē the cepter of youre yocke, and caused you to go vp right. Exo. 29.g 2.Cor.6.c

But yf ye wil not harken vnto me, ner do all these commaundementes, and wyl despyse my statutes, and yf youre soules refuse my lawes, ỳ ye wyll not do all my commaundementes, & shal let my couenaunt stonde, then wyll I do this agayne vnto you. I wyl vysett you shortly with swellynges and feuers, which shal destroye ỳ eyes, & consume awaie ỳ hert. Ye shal sowe youre sede in vayne, and youre enemies shal eate it vp. Deut.28.b Mala.2.a

And I wyl set my face agaynst you, and ye shal be slayne before youre enemies. And they that hate you, shal haue dominion ouer C *And ye shall flye, whā no man chaseth you. Pro.28.a

But yf ye wyll not herken vnto me for all this, then wyl I make it yet seuen tymes more, to punysh you for youre synnes, that I maye breake ỳ pryde of youre strength, and wyl make youre heauen lyke yron, and youre earth as brasse: and youre trauaile and labō shal be but lost, so that youre londe shall not gene hir increase, and the trees in the londe shal not brynge forth their frute.

Yf ye walke yet agaynst me, and wyll not harken vnto me, then wyl I make it yet seuen tymes more, to punysh you because of youre synnes: & wyl sende wylde beestes amōge you, which shal robbe you, and destroie youre catell, and make you fewer, and youre hye waye shal become waist. D

But yf ye wyl not yet be reformed here withall, and wyll walke contrary vnto me, then wyl I walke contrary vnto you also, & wyll punysh you yet seuen tymes for youre synnes. And I wyl brynge vpon you a swerde of vengeaunce, which shall auenge my Testament. And though ye gather you together in to youre cities, yet wyll I sende the pestilence amonge you, and wyll delyuer you in to the handes of youre enemies. For I wil destroye youre prouysion of bred, so ỳ ten wemen shall bake youre bred in one ouen, and youre bred shal be delyuered out by weight. * And whan ye eate, ye shall not haue ynough. Ose. 4. b Mich. 6. c

E If ye wyl not yet for all this harken vnto me, & wyl walke contrary vnto me, then wyll I also walke cõtrary vnto you in wrathfull displeasure, and wyll punysh you seuen folde because of youre synnes, * so that ye shal eate the flesh of youre sonnes and doughters. 4. Re. 6. f And I wyl destroye youre hye altares, and rote out youre ymages, and wyll cast youre bodies vpon the bodies of youre Idols, and my soule shall abhorre you. And youre cities wyll I make waist, and brynge youre churches to naught, and wyll not smell youre swete odoures.

Thus wyll I make the londe desolate, so that youre enemies shall dwell therin, and make it waist: but you will I scater amonge the heythen, and drawe out the swerde after you, so that youre londe shal be waist, & youre cities desolate.

S Then shall the londe reioyse in hir Sabbathes, as longe as it lyeth wayst, and ye be in the enemies londe. Yee then shal the londe kepe holy daye, and reioyse in hir rest, as longe as it lieth wayst, because it coude not rest in youre Sabbathes, whan ye dwelt therin.

And as for them that remayne of you, I wyll make them faynteharted in the londe of their enemies, so that a shakynge leaf shall chace them. And they shall flye from it, as though a swerde persecuted them, and shal fall noman folowynge vpon them. And they shall fall one vpon another (as it were before the swerde) and noman yet chacynge them. And ye shall not be so bolde, as to withstonde youre enemies, and shal perisshe amonge the heithen, and the londe of youre enemies shal eate you vp.

And they that are left of you, shall pyne awaye in their myßdede, euen in the enemies londe, and in the myßdedes of their fathers shall they consume awaye. Then shall they knowlege their myßdedes, and the myßdedes of their fathers in the trespace, wherwith they haue trespaced agaynst me, and walked contrary vnto me. Therfore wyll I also walke contrary vnto thē, and wyll brynge them in to the enemies londe.

G Then shal their vncircumcysed herte be tamed. And then shall they ende their myßdedes. Deut. 4. c And I shal thinke vpō my couenaūt with Jacob, and vpon my couenaunt with Jsaac, and vpon my couenaunt with Abraham, and wyl thynke vpon the lōde. As for the londe, whan it shalbe left of them, it shal reioyse in hir Sabbathes, euen then, whan it lyeth waist, and they tylle it not. And they shall make attonement for their myßdedes, because they despysed my lawes, & their soules refused my statutes. Moreouer I haue not so refused them, that they shulde be in the enemies londe: nether haue I so vtterly abhorred them, that I wolde brynge them to naught, and breake my couenaunt wt them: for I am ye LORDE their God. And for their sake I wyl remēbre * my first couenaūt, whā I brought them out of ye londe of Egipte in the sight of the heythen, ye I might be their God. Euen I the LORDE.

These are the ordinaunces, statutes and lawes, which ye LORDE made betwixte him and the children of Jsrael vpon mount Sinai, by the hande of Moses.

The XXVII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde: Speake to ye children of Jsrael, & saye vnto them: Yf eny man make a speciall vowe vnto ye LORDE, so ye he pryse a soule, then shal this be the valuacion: A mā of twentye yeare olde vnto the thre score yeare, shalt thou set at fiftie syluer Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary: but a woman at thirtie Sycles. Yf it be fyue yeare olde vnto twentye yeare, thou shalt set it at twentye Sycles, whan it is a manchilde: but a woman at ten Sycles. Yf it be a moneth olde vnto fiue yeare, thou shalt set it at fyue Sycles of syluer, whan it is a māchilde: but a woman at thre Syluer Sycles. Yf he be thre score yeare olde and aboue, thē shalt thou set him at fiftene Sicles whā it is a mā a womā at tē Sicles. Yf he be to poore so to be set, thē let him present himself to ye prest, & ye prest shal value him. Neuertheles he shal value him, acordinge as ye hāde of him that vowed, is able to get. But yf it be a beest ye maye be offred vnto ye LORDE, all ye is offred vnto ye LORDE of soch, is holy: it shal not be altered ner chaunged, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good. Yf eny man chaunge it, one beest for another, then shal they both be holy vnto ye LORDE. But yf ye beest be vncleane which maye not be offred vnto ye LORDE, thē shal it be set, before ye prest, and ye prest shal value it, whether it be good or bad, & it shal stonde at the prestes valuynge. But yf eny man wil bye it out, he shal geue the fifth parte more, to that it was set at.

Whan eny mā sanctifieth his house vnto the LORDE for ye Sanctuary, the prest shall value it, whether it be good or bad. And as the prest valueth it, so shal it stonde. But yf he ẏ sanctified it, wyl redeme it, he shal gene ẏ fifth parte of syluer therto, aboue that it was set at: So shal it be his.

C Yf eny man halowe a pece of lõde of his heretage vnto the LORDE, it shalbe set acordinge to ẏ it beareth. Yf it beare an Homer of barlye, it shalbe valued at fiftye Sycles of syluer. But yf he halowe his londe immediatly from the yeare of Jubilye forth, then shal it be set acordinge to ẏ value therof. Yf he haue halowed it after the yeare of Jubilye, then shal the prest rekẽ it, acordinge to ẏ yeares ẏ remayne vnto ẏ yeare of Jubilys, & therafter shal he set it the lower.

But yf he ẏ sanctified the londe, wil redeme it agayne, then shal he geue the fifth parte of syluer therto, aboue that it was set at: So shal it be his. Yf he wil not lowse it out, but selleth it vnto another, then shal he redeme it nomore: but the same londe whan it goeth out fre in ẏ yeare of Jubilye, shal be holy vnto the LORDE, as a dedicated felde, and shalbe the prestes inheritaunce.

D Yf eny man halowe vnto the LORDE a felde, which he hath bought, and is not his inheritaunce, then shal ẏ prest reken it, what it is worth vnto the yeare of Jubilye, & the same daye shall he geue the pryce that it is set at, vnto the LORDE for the Sanctuary. But in ẏ yeare of Jubilye it shal returne vnto him that bought it, ẏ it maye be his inheritaunce in the londe. All maner of pryssinge

g Sãctuary. One Sycle maketh xx. Geras.
u45.c * The first borne amonge ẏ catell (which belongeth vnto the LORDE) shall no man Sanctifie vnto the LORDE, whether it be oxe or shepe, for it is the LORDES all ready. But yf there be eny vncleane thinge vpon the beest, thẽ shal it be lowsed out therafter as it is worth, and the fifth parte shalbe geuen more therto. Yf he wil not redeme it, thẽ let it be solde, as it is worth.

E There shall no dedicated thinge be solde ner bought out, ẏ eny man dedicateth vnto ẏ LORDE, of all ẏ is his good, whether it be mẽ, catell or lõde. For euery dedicated thinge, is most holy vnto ẏ LORDE. There shal no dedicated thinge of mã be bought out, but shal dye the death. All the tythes in the londe, both of the sede of the londe, & of ẏ frutes of the trees, are the LORDES, & shal be holy vnto the LORDE. But yf eny man wil redeme his tithes, he shall geue the fifth parte more therto. And all the tithes of oxen & shepe, & that goeth vnder the rod, the same is an holy tythe vnto the LORDE. It shall not be axed whether it be good or bad, nether shall it be chaunged. But yf eny man chaunge it, then both it & that it was chaunged withall, shal be holy, & not redemed.

The first Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses in ỳ wyldernesse of Sinai, in the Tabernacle of witnesse, the first daye of the secōde moneth in the seconde yeare, whā they were gone out of the lāde of Egipte, and sayde: Take ỳ summe of the whole congregacion of the children of Israel, after their kynredes & their fathers houses, with the nombre of the names, all that are males, heade by heade, frō twentye yeare and aboue, as many as are able to go forth in to ỳ warre in Israel. And ye shal nombre them acordinge to their armyes thou and Aaron, and of euery tribe ye shal take vnto you one captayne ouer his fathers house.

Nu. 26. a

These are the names of the captaynes that shal stonde with you. Of Ruben, Elizur the sonne of Sedeur. Of Simeon, Selumiel the sonne of Zuri Sadai. Of Juda, Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab. Of Isachar, Nathaneel the sonne of Zuar. Of Zabulon, Eliab the sonne of Helon. Amonge the children of Joseph: Of Ephraim, Elisama ỳ sonne of Amihud. Of Manasse, Gamaliel the sonne of Pedazur. Of Ben Jamin, Abidam ỳ sonne of Gedeoni. Of Dan, Ahieser the sonne of Ammi Sadai. Of Asser, Pagiel the sonne of Ochram. Of Gad, Eliasaph ỳ sonne of Deguel. Of Nephthali, Ahira the sonne of Enan.

These are the awncient men of the congregacion, the captaynes amonge the trybes of their fathers, which were heades and prynces in Israel.

And Moses & Aaron toke them (like as they are there named by name) and gathered the whole cōgregacion together also, ỳ first daye of the secōde moneth, and rekened thē after their byrth, acordinge to their kynreds and fathers houses by their names, frō twētye yeare and aboue, heade by heade, as the LORDE commaunded Moses, and nombred them in the wyldernes of Sinai.

The children of Ruben Israels first sonne, their kynreds & generacions after their fathers houses, in ỳ nombre of their names heade by heade, all ỳ were males, from twentye yeare & aboue, and were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Ruben, sixe and fourtye thousande, and fyue hundreth.

The children of Simeon their kynreds & generacions after their fathers houses in the nombre of the names heade by heade, all that were males from twētye yeare and aboue, and were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Symeon, nyne and fiftye thousande and thre hundreth.

The children of Gad their kynreds and generacions after their fathers houses in ỳ nombre of the names, from twentye yeare and aboue, all that were able to go forth to the warre, were nombre to the trybe of Gad, fyne and fourtye thousande, fyre hundreth and fiftie.

The children of Juda their kynreds and generacions after their fathers houses in ỳ nombre of the names, from twentye yeare and aboue, all that were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Juda, foure and seuentye thousande, ẏ fyre hundreth.

D The children of Jsachar their kynreds ẏ generacions, after their fathers houses in ỳ nombre of the names from twentye yeare ẏ aboue, all that were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to ỳ trybe of Jsachar, foure and fiftye thousande and foure hundreth.

The children of Zabulon their kynreds and generacions after their fathers houses in the nombre of the names from twentye yeare ẏ aboue, all that were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Zabulon, seuen and fiftye thousande and foure hundreth.

Josephs children of Ephraim, their kynreds ẏ generacions after their fathers houses in ỳ nombre of the names, from twētye yeare ẏ aboue, all ỳ were able to go forth to ỳ warre, were nōbred to the trybe of Ephraim, fourtye thousande ẏ fyue hundreth.

E The children of Manasse their kynreds ẏ generacions, after their fathers houses in ỳ nombre of the names from twentye yeare ẏ aboue, all ỳ were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Manasse, two ẏ thirtie thousande ẏ two hundreth.

The childrē of Ben Jamin their kynreds and generacions, after their fathers houses, in the nombre of the names from twentye yeare ẏ aboue, all that were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Ben Jamin, fyue and thirtie thousande and foure hundreth.

The children of Dan their kynreds and generacions after their fathers houses, in the nombre of the names, from twentye yeares and aboue, all that were able to go forth to the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Dan, two and thre score thousande, and seuen hundreth.

S The children of Asser their kynreds ẏ generacions, after their fathers houses in the nombre of the names, from twentye yeare ẏ aboue, all ỳ were able to go forth to ỳ warre, were nombred to the trybe of Asser, one ẏ fourtye thousande and fyue hundreth.

The childrē of Nephthali, their kynreds and generacions after their fathers houses in the nombre of the names, from twentye yeare ẏ aboue, all that were able to go forth vnto the warre, were nombred to the trybe of Nephthali, thre and fiftie thousande and foure hundreth.

These are they whom Moses and Aaron nombred with ỳ twolue prynces of Jsrael, wherof euery one was ouer ỳ house of their fathers. * And the summe of the children of Jsrael after their fathers houses, from twentye yeare and aboue (what so euer was able to go forth to the warre in Jsrael) was fyre C. thousande, thre thousande, fyue C. ẏ fiftie. But the Leuites after the trybe of their fathers, were not nombred amonge them. Exo. 12. f Num. 11.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and G saide: The trybe of Leui shalt thou not nombre, ner take the summe of them amonge ỳ children of Jsrael: but shalt appoynte them to the Habitacion of wytnesse, and to all ỳ apparell therof, and to all that belongeth therto. * And they shall beare the Tabernacle ẏ all the ordinaunce therof, and shal wayte vpon it, and shal pitch their tentes rounde aboute it. And whan men shal go on their iourney, the Leuites shal take downe ỳ Tabernacle. And whan the hoost pitch their tētes, they shal set vp the Tabernacle. And yf a straunger preasse nye vnto it, he shall dye. The children of Jsrael shal pitch their tentes, euery one in his awne armye, and by the baner of his awne companye. But the Leuites shall pitch rounde aboute the Tabernacle of wytnesse, that there come no wrath vpon ỳ congregacion of the children of Jsrael: therfore shal the Leuites wayte vpon the Habitacion of wytnesse. And the children of Jsrael dyd all, as the LORDE comaunded Moses. 1. Par. 14.

The II. Chapter.

AND ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses and A Aaron, ẏ sayde: The childrē of Jsrael shal pitch rounde aboute ỳ Tabernacle of wytnesse, euery one vnder his banner ẏ tokens, after their fathers houses.

On the East syde shall Juda pitch with his banner ẏ hoost, their captayne Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab. And his armie in the summe, foure ẏ seuentie thousande and fyre hundreth. Nexte vnto him shal the trybe of Jsachar pitch, their captayne Nathaneel the sonne of Zuar: and his armye in the summe, foure and fiftye thousande and foure hundreth. The trybe of Zabulon also, their captayne Eliab the sonne of Helon: his armye in the summe, seuen and fiftie thousands and foure hundreth.

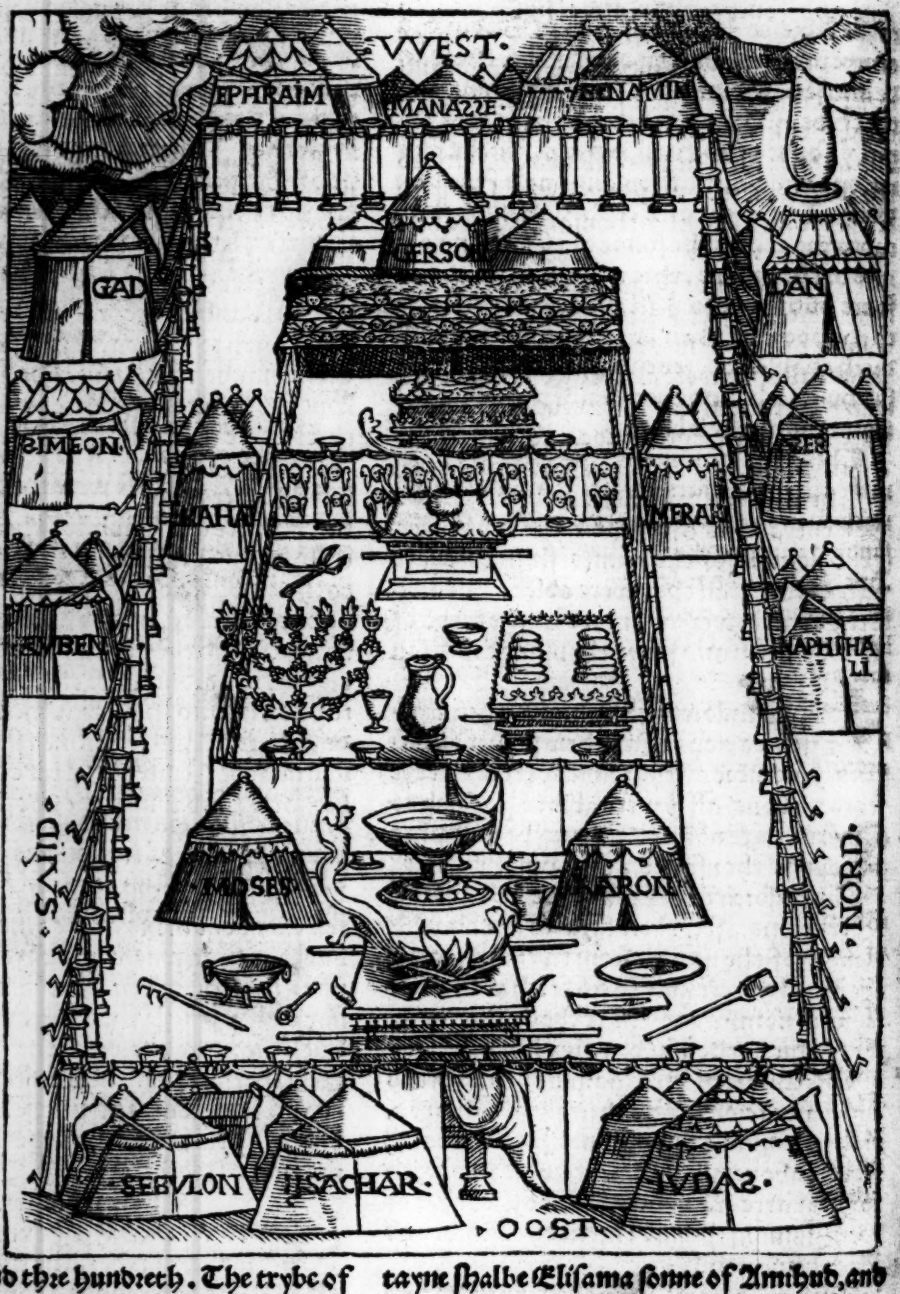
So ẏ all they which belõge to ẏ hoost of Juda, be in the ſumme an C. ſixe and foure ſcore thouſande, ⁊ foure hundreth be longinge to their armye, ⁊ they ſhall go before.

B On the South ſide ſhall lye the pauylions ⁊ baner of Ruben ẃ their hoost, their captaine Elizur ẏ ſonne of Sedeur: ⁊ his armie in the ſumme, ſixe ⁊ fourtie thouſande, ⁊ fyue C. Nexte vnto him ſhal the trybe of Simeon pitch, their captayne Selumiel ẏ ſonne of Zuri Sadai: ⁊ his armie in ẏ ſumme, nyne and fiftie thouſande, and thre hundreth. The trybe of Gad alſo, their captayne Eliaſaph ẏ ſonne of Deguel: ⁊ his armye in the ſumme, fyue ⁊ fourtye thouſande, ſixe hundreth ⁊ fiftie. So that all they which belonge to the hooſt of Ruben, be in the ſumme, an hundreth, one ⁊ fiftie thouſande, foure hũdreth and fiftye, belonginge to their armye. And they ſhall be the ſeconde in the iourney.

C After that ſhall the Tabernacle of wytneſſe go ẃ the hoeſt of the Leuites euẽ in ẏ myddes amõge the hooſtes: ⁊ as they lye in their tentes, ſo ſhal they go forth alſo, euery one in his place vnder his baner.

On the Weſt ſyde ſhall lye ẏ pauylions ⁊ baner of Ephraim ẃ their hooſt: their captayne ſhalbe Eliſama ſonne of Ammihud, and his armye in the ſumme, fourtye thouſande and fyue hundreth. Nexte vnto him ſhal ẏ trybe of Manaſſe pitch, their captayne Gamaliel the ſonne of Pedazur: his armye in the ſumme, two and thirtie thouſande ⁊ two hũdreth. The trybe of Ben Jamin alſo, their captayne Abidan the ſonne of Gedeoni: his armye in the ſumme, fyue and thirtie thouſande ⁊ foure hundreth. So ẏ all they ẃ which belonge to the hooſt of Ephraim, be in the ſumme, an hundreth thouſande, eight thouſande, ⁊ an hũdreth, belonginge to his armie. And they ſhal be the thirde in the iourney.

On the North ſyde ſhal lye ẏ pauylions ⁊ baner of Dan with their hooſt: their cap-



tayne Abieser ỳ sonne of Ammi Sadai, his armye in the summe, two and sixtye thousande and seuē hundreth. Nexte vnto him shal the trybe of Asser pitche: their captayne Pagiel ỳ sonne of Ochran, his armỳ in the summe, one and fourtie thousande, and fyue hundreth. The trybe of Nephthali also, their captayne Ahira the sonne of Enan: his armye in the summe, thre ꝛ fiftye thousande ꝛ foure hūdreth. So ỳ all they which belonge to the hoost of Dan, be in the summe, an hūdreth thousande, seuen ꝛ fiftie thousande, ꝛ sixe hundreth. And they shalbe the last in the iourney with their baners.

This is the summe of the children of Israel, after their fathers houses and armyes with their hoostes: euen sixe hundreth thousande, ꝛ thre thousande, fyue hūdreth ꝛ fiftie. But ỳ Leuites were not nombred in ỳ summe amonge the childrē of Israel, * as ỳ LORDE cōmaunded Moses. And ỳ childrē of Israel dyd all as the LORDE cōmaunded Moses. And so they pitched vnder their baners, ꝛ toke their iourney, euery one in his kynred, acordinge to the house of their fathers.

The III. Chapter.

THese are the generacions of Aaron ꝛ Moses, whan ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses at ỳ same tyme vpon mount Sinai. And these are ỳ names of the sonnes of Aron. The firstborne, Nadab: then Abihu, Eleasar ꝛ Ithamar. These are ỳ names of the sonnes of Aaron, * which were anoynted to be prestes, ꝛ their handes fylled for ỳ prestlode. But Nadab ꝛ Abihu dyed before ỳ LORDE, whā they offred straūge fyre before ỳ LORDE, in ỳ wildernesse of Sinai, ꝛ had no sonnes. But Eleasar and Ithamar executed ỳ prestes office wt their father Aaron.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, ꝛ sayde: Bringe hither the trybe of Leui, and set them before Aaron the preist, ỳ they maye serue wt him, ꝛ wayte vpon him ꝛ vpō the whole congregacion before ỳ Tabernacle of witnesse, and execute the seruyce of the habitacion, and kepe all the apparell of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and wayte vpon the childrē of Israel, to mynistre in the seruyce of the habitacion.

And thou shalt geue ỳ Leuites vnto Aaron and his sonnes for a gift, vnto every one his awne, from amonge the children of Israel. As for Aaron ꝛ his sonnes, thou shalt appoynte them to wayte on their prestes office. * Yf another preasse therto, he shal dye.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Beholde, I haue takē the Leuites frō amonge the childrē of Israel, for all the firstborne that open the Matrix amonge the children of Israel, so that the Leuites shalbe myne. * For the firstborne are myne, sence ỳ tyme that I smote all the firstborne in ỳ lande of Egipte, whā I sanctified vnto me all the firstborne in Israel, from mē vnto catell, that they shulde be myne. I the LORDE. Exod.13.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses in the wylderneesse of Sinai, and sayde: Nombre the children of Leui after their fathers houses and kynreds, all that are males of a moneth olde and aboue. C

So Moses nombred them acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, as he had commaunded. And these were the children of Leui with their names: Gerson, Kahath, Merari. The names of the children of Gerson in their kynreds, were: Libni and Semei. Exod.6.

The childrē of Kahath in their kynreds were, Amram, Jezehar, Hebron and Vsiel.

The children of Merari in their kynreds, were Maheli and Musi. These are the kynreds of Leui after their fathers houses.

These are ỳ kynreds of Gerson: The Libnites and Semeites, the summe was founde in nombre, seuen thousande and fyue hundreth, of all that were males of a moneth olde and aboue. And the same kynreds of the Gersonites shal pitche behynde the Habitacion on the west syde: Let Eliasaph the sonne of Lael be their ruler. And they shal wayte vpon the Tabernacle of wytnesse, of the habitacion, and of the tent, and couerynges therof, and the hangynge in the doze of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, the hangynge aboute the courte, ꝛ the hangynge in ỳ courtedoze, which (courte) goeth aboute the habitacion and the altare, and the cordes of it, ꝛ all that belongeth to the seruyce therof. D

These are the kynreds of Kahath: The Amramites, the Jezeharites, the Hebronites, and Vsielites, all that were males of a moneth olde ꝛ aboue, in nombre eight thousande and sixe hundreth, waytinge vpon the Tabernacle of the Sanctuary, ꝛ shal pitch on the south syde of ỳ Habitacion: Let Elisaphan the sonne of Vsiel be their ruler. And they shal kepe the Arke, the table, the candilsticke, the altare and all the vessels of the Sanctuary, to do seruyce in, and the vayle, and all that belongeth to the seruice therof. But the chefe of all the rulers of the Leuites, shalbe Eleasar the sonne of Aron the preist, ouer them that are apoynted to kepe the watch of the Sanctuary. E

These are ỳ kynreds of Merari: The Ma

helites and Misites, which were in nombre fyre thousande and two hundreth, all that we re males of a moneth olde and aboue: Let Zuriel ỳ sonne of Abihail be their ruler, and they shall pitche vpon the north syde of the Habitacion. And their office shalbe to kepe the bordes, and barres, and pilers, and sokettes of the Habitacion, and all the apparell therof and that serueth therto: ỳ pilers also aboute ỳ courte, with the sokettes, and nales, and cordes.

F But before the Habitacion and before ỳ
Tabernacle on the East syde shal Moses ꝛ Aaron ꝛ his sonnes pytche, that they maye wayte vpon the Sanctuary, ꝛ the children

the LORDE, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

The iiij. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses ꝛ Aaron, ꝛ sayde: Take ỳ summe of the childrẽ of Kahath from amonge the childrẽ of Leui, after their kynreds ꝛ fathers houses, from thirtie yeare and aboue vntill fifteye yeare, all that are mete for the warre, that they maye do the worke in the Tabernacle of witnesse. This shal be the office of the children of Kahath in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, which is most holy.

Whan the hoost breaketh vp, Aaron and his sonnes shall go in, and take downe the vayle, and couer the Arke of wytnesse ther with, and laye the couerynge of doo sklyn-nes vpon it, and sprede a whole yalowe clothe aboue theron, and put his staues therin.
And vpon the shewe table they shal sprede a yalowe clothe also, and set theron the dis-shes, spones, flatpeces and pottes to poure out and in, and the daylie bred shal lye vpon it, and they shall sprede a purple clothe ther ouer, and couer it with a couerynge of doo sklynnes, and put the staues of it therin.

And they shal take a yalowe clothe, and couer the cãdilsticke of light therwith, and his lampes, with his snoffers and outquenchers, and all the oyle vessels that belonge to the seruyce, and aboute all this shal they put a couerynge of doo sklynnes, and put it vpon staues.

So shal they sprede a yalowe clothe ouer B the golden altare also, and couer the same with a couerynge of doo sklynnes, and put it vpon staues. All the vessels that they occupye in the Sanctuary, shal they take, and put a yalowe clothe ther ouer, ꝛ couer them with a couerynge of doo sklynnes, and put them vpon staues. They shal swepe the asshes also from the altare, and sprede a clothe of scarlet ouer it, and set all his vessels ther on, that they occupye vpon it: colepames, flesshokes, shouels, basens, with all the appa rell of the altare, and they shal sprede a couerynge of doo sklynnes theron, and put his staues therto.

Now whan Aaron and his sonnes haue done this, and haue couered the Sanctuary
ꝛ all the ornamẽtes therof, whan the hoost breaketh vp, then shal the children of Ka- Nu hath go in, that they maye beare it, and the Sanctuary shall they not touche, *lest they dye. This is the charge of the childrẽ of Ka hath in the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

C And Eleasar the sonne of Aaron ỳ preist, shal haue the office, to prepare the oyle for the light, and the spyces for the incense, and the daylie meat offerynge, and the anoyntinge oyle, to order the whole habitacion, & all that therin is, in the Sanctuary and the ornamentes therof.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses and Aaron, & sayde: Ye shal not destroye the tribe of the kynred of the Kahathites amõge the Leuites, but this shal ye do with them, ỳ they maye lyue & not dye, yf they touche the most holy. Aaron and his sonnes shal go in, and appoynte euery one vnto his office & charge. But they shal not go in, presumptuously to loke vpõ ỳ Sanctuary, lest they die. And ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses and Aaron & sayde: Take the summe of the children of Gerson also, after their fathers house & kynred, from thirtye yeare & aboue, vntyll fiftye yeare, & appoynte them all ỳ are mete for the warre, to haue an office in the Tabernacle of wytnesse. n.s.d

D This shalbe the office of the kynred of the Gersonites, euẽ to serue & to beare. They shal beare the curtaynes of the habitacion and of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and his couerynge and the coueringe of doo skynnes, that is aboue theron, and the hanginge in the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and the hanginge aboute the courte, which goeth aboute the habitacion and the altare, and their cordes, and all the instrumentes ỳ serue for thẽ, and all that belongeth to their occupienge. Acordinge vnto the worde of Aaron and of his sonnes, shal all the office of the children of Gerson be done, what so euer they shall beare and occupye. And ye shal se, that they wayte vpon all their charge. This shal be ỳ office of ỳ kinred of ỳ children of ỳ Gersonites in ỳ Tabernacle of witnes. And their waytinge shal be vnder ỳ hãde of Ithamar, the sonne of Aarõ the preist.

E The children of Merari after their kynred and fathers house, shalt thou appoynte also, from thirtie yeare and aboue, vnto fiftie yeare, all that are mete for the warre, ỳ they maye haue an office in the Tabernacle of wytnesse. But vpon this charge shall they wayte acordinge to all their office in ỳ Tabernacle of witnesse, that they beare the bordes of the habitacion, and the barres, and pilers, and sokettes: the pilers of the courte also rounde aboute, and the sokettes and nales and cordes, with all their apparell, acordynge to all their seruyce. And vnto euery one shall ye appoynte his porcion of charge to waite vpon the apparell. Let this be the office of the kynred of the children of Merari, all that they shall do in the Tabernacle of wytnesse vnder the hande of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the preist.

And Moses and Aaron with the captaynes of the congregacion, nombred the S children of ỳ Kahathites, acordinge to their kynreds and houses of their fathers, from thirtie yeare and aboue, vntyll fyftye, all that were mete for the warre, to haue office in the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the summe was, two thousande, seuen hundreth and fyftie. This is the summe of the kynred of the Kahathites (which all had seruyce in the Tabernacle of witnesse) whom Moses and Aaron nombred, acordynge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

The children of Gerson were nombred also in their kynreds and fathers houses from thirtie yeare and aboue vntyll fyftie, all that were mete for the warre, to haue office in ỳ Tabernacle of witnesse, and the summe was two thousande, fyre hundreth and thirtie. This is ỳ summe of the kinred of the children of Gerson, which all had to do in the Tabernacle of wytnesse, whom Moses and Aaron nombred, acordinge to ỳ worde of ỳ LORDE.

The children of Merari were nombred also acordinge to their kynreds and fathers G houses, from thirtie yeare and aboue vntyll fyftye, all that were mete for the warre, to haue office in the Tabernacle of witnesse, & the summe was thre thousande, and two hundreth. This is the summe of the kynred of the children of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron nombred, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

The summe of all the Leuites, whom Moses and Aaron with the captaynes of Israel tolde, after their kinreds and fathers houses, from thyrtie yeare and aboue vntyll fyftye, all that wente in to do euery one his office, and to beare the burthen in ỳ Tabernacle of wytnesse, was eight thousande fyue hundreth and foure score, which were nombred acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses, euery one to his office & charge, as the LORDE commaunded Moses.

The V. Chapter.

A ND ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses, and A sayde: Commaunde the children of Israel, ỳ they put out of the hoost all ỳ lepers, and all that haue yssues, and that are Leui. 13. 15 defyled vpon the deed, both men and wome shall they putt out of the hooste, that they defyle not their tentes, wherin I dwell amonge them. And ỳ children of Israel dyd so, and put them out of the hoost, as ỳ LORDE had sayde vnto Moses.

And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel & saye vnto them: Whan a man or woman doeth a synne to eny body, and offendeth therwith agaynst the LORDE, then hath that soule a trespace vpon it. * And they shall knowlege their synne, that they haue done, and shall make amendes for their trespace, euen with the whole summe, and put ỳ fifth parte more therto, and geue it vnto him, agaynst whom they haue trespaced. But yf there be no man to make the amendes vnto for the offence ỳ he hath trespaced agaynst him, then shal the reconcylynge be made vnto the LORDE for the prest, besydes the ramme of the attonemēt, wherwith he shal be reconcyled.

Likewyse all the Heueofferynges of all that the children of Israel halowe vnto the LORDE, and offre vnto the prest, shall be his. And who so haloweth eny thinge, it shal be his. And who so geueth the prest eny thinge, it shal be his also.

And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Speake to the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan eny mans wife goth asyde, and trespaceth agaynst him, & eny mā lye with her fleshlye, and the thinge be yet hyd from his eyes, and is not come to light that she is defiled, and he can bringe no witnesse agaynst her (for she was not takē therin) and the sprete of gelousye kyndleth him, so that he is gelous ouer his wife: whether she be vncleane or not vncleane, then shal he bringe her vnto the prest, and bringe an offerynge for her, euen the tenth parte of an Epha of barlye meele, and shal poure no oyle theron, ner put frankensence vpon it: for it is an offerynge of gelousy, and an offeringe of remembraunce, that remembreth synne.

Then shall the prest beynge her, and sett her before the LORDE, and take of the * holy water in an earthen vessell, and put of ỳ dust that is on the floore of the habitacion, in to the water. And he shal set the wife before ỳ LORDE, and vncouer hir heade, and the offeringe of remembraunce which is an offeringe of gelousy, shall he laye vpon hir handes. And the prest shal haue in his hande bytter cursinge water, and shal coniure the wife, & saye vnto her: Yf no man haue lyē with the, and thou hast not gone asyde from thy husbande, to defyle thy self, then shall not these bytter cursinge waters hurte the. But yf thou hast gone asyde from thy husbande, so that thou art defyled, and some other man hath lyen with the besyde thy husbande, then shall the prest coniure the wife with this curse, and shal saye vnto her: The LORDE sett the to a curse and a coniuracion amonge thy people, so that the LORDE make thy thye rotte, and thy wombe to berst. So go this cursed water in to thy body, that ỳ wombe berst, and thy thye rotte. And the wife shal saye: Amen Amen.

So the prest shall wryte this curse in a byll, and wash it out with the water, and shall geue the wife of the bytter cursinge waters to drynke. And whā the cursinge water is gone in her, so ỳ it is bytter vnto her then shal the prest take the gelousy offerynge out of the wynes hande, and waue it for a meatofferynge before the LORDE, and offre it vpon the altare: namely, he shall take an handfull of the meatofferynge for hir remēbraunce, & burne it vpō the altare, & then geue the wife the water to drinke. And whā she hath dronken the water, yf she be defyled and haue trespaced agaynst hir husbande, then shal the cursinge water go in to her, and be so bytter, that hir wombe shal berst, and hir thye shall rotte, and the wife shal be a curse amonge hir people. But yf the same wife be not defyled, but is cleane, then shall it do her no harme, so that she maye be with childe.

This is the lawe of gelousy, whan a wyfe goeth asyde from hir husbande, and is defyled: Or whan ỳ sprete of gelousy kyndleth a man, so that he is gelous ouer his wyfe, ỳ he bringe her before the LORDE, and that ỳ prest do all vnto her accordinge vnto this lawe. And ỳ man shalbe gultlesse of the synne, but the wife shall beare hir myßdede.

The VI. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan a man or woman separateth them selues, to vowe a vowe of abstinence vnto the LORDE, he shal absteyne from wyne and strōge drynke. * Vyneger of wyne & of stronge drynke shal he not drynke, ner that is pressed out of grapes: he shall nether eate fresh ner drye grapes, so longe as his abstinence endureth. Moreouer he shall eate nothinge that is made of the vyne tre, from the wyne cornels vnto the hulle.

As longe as the vowe of his abstynence endureth, there shall no rasoure come vpon his heade, tyll the tyme be out which he absteyneth vnto the LORDE, for he is holy.

And he shall let the heer of his heade growe, and stonde bare openly. All the tyme ouer ỹ he absteyneth vnto the LORDE, shal he go to no deed. Nether shal he defyle him self at ỹ death of his father, of his mother, of his brother, or of his sister. For the abstinence of his God is vpon his heade, and ỹ whole tyme of his abstinence shall he be holy vnto the LORDE.

B And yf it chaunce eny man to dye sodenly before him, then shal ỹ heade of his abstynence be defyled. Therfore shal he * shaue his heade in the daye of his clensynge, that is vpon the seuenth daye: and vpon ỹ eight daye shall he bringe two turtill doues, or two yonge pigeons, vnto the preist before ỹ dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And the preist shall make the one a synofferynge, and the other a burntofferynge, and make an attonement for him, because he defyled him self vpon ỹ deed, and so shal he halowe his heade the same daye, that he maye holde out the tyme of his abstinence vnto the LORDE, and he shall bringe a lambe of a yeare olde for a trespaceofferynge. But ỹ daies afore shal be but lost, because his abstinence was defyled.

C This is the lawe of the absteyner. Whan the tyme of his abstinence is out, he shal be brought before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse. And he shal bringe his offeringe vnto the LORDE, euen an he lambe of a yeare olde without blemysh for a burntofferinge, & a shelambe of a yeare olde without blemysh for a synofferynge, and a ramme wout blemish for an healthofferynge, & a maũde w vnleuended cakes of fyne floure myngled with oyle, and swete wafers anoynted with oyle, & their meatofferinges & drynkofferynges.

And the preist shall bringe it before the LORDE, and shal make his synofferynge and his burntofferynge, and ỹ ramme shal he make an healthofferynge vnto the LORDE, with ỹ maunde of the vnleuended bred. His meatofferynge and drinkofferinge shal he make also. And he shall shaue the heade of the absteyners abstinence before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and shall take the heade heer of his abstinence, and cast it vpon the fyre that is vnder ỹ healthofferynge.

D And the sodden shulder of the ramme shall he take, and an vnleuended cake out of the maunde, and a swete wafer, and laye them vpon the handes of the absteyner: (after that he hath shauen of his abstinence.) And he shal Waue them before the LORDE. This is holy for the preist with the Wauebrest, and heue shulder. After that, maye the absteyner drynke wyne. This is the lawe of the absteyner, which voweth his offeringe vnto the LORDE for his abstynence, besydes that, which his hande can get. As he hath vowed, so shall he do acordinge to the lawe of his abstinence.

And the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, and saye: Thus shal ye saye vnto the childrẽ of Israel, whan ye blesse them.

* The LORDE blesse the, and kepe the. Eccli. 36. b

The LORDE make his face to shyne vpõ the, and be mercifull vnto the.

The LORDE lift vp his countenaunce vpon the, and geue the peace.

For they shal put my name vpõ the childr of Israel, that I maye blesse them.

The VII. Chapter.

A AND whan Moses had set vp the habitacion and anoynted it, and sanctifyed it with all the apparell therof: and had anoynted and halowed the altare also with all his vessels, Then offred the captaynes of Israel, which were the rulers in their fathers houses. Exo. 40 b

For they were the captaynes amonge ỹ kynreds, and stode ouer thẽ that were nombred. And they brought their offerynges before the LORDE, sixe couered charettes, and twolue oxen, for every two captaynes a charett, and an oxe for euery one, and brought them before the habitacion.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Take it of them, that it maye serue for the ministracion of the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and geue it vnto the Leuites, vnto euery one acordinge to his office. Then toke Moses the charettes and oxen, and gaue them vnto the Leuites.

Two charettes and foure oxen gaue he vnto ỹ children of Gerson acordinge to their office: and foure charettes and eight oxen gaue he vnto the children of Merari acordinge to their office, vnder the hande of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the preist.

But vnto the children of Kahath he gaue nothynge, because * they had an holy office vpon them, and must beare vpõ their shulders. And the captaines offred to the dedicacion of the altare, in the daye whan it was anoynted, and offred their gistes before the altare. B Num. 4. b 2. Re. 6. b

And ỳ LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Let euery captayne bringe his offerynge vpon his daye to the dedicacion of the altare.

On the first daye, Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab, of the trybe of Juda, offred his gyfte. And his gifte was a syluer charger, worth an hundreth and thyrtie Sycles: A syluer boule, worth seuentye Sycles (after the Sycle of the Sanctuary) both full of fyne floure myngled with oyle for a meatofferynge: And a golden spone, worth ten Sycles of golde, full of incense: A bullocke from amonge the greate catell, a ramme, a lambe of a yeare olde for a burntofferynge, an he goate for a synofferynge: And for an healthofferynge two oxen, fyue rammes, fyue he goates, and fyue lambes of a yeare olde. This is the gifte of Ahira the sonne of Enan.

This is ỳ dedicacion of the altare, what tyme as it was anoynted, vnto the which ỳ captaynes of Israel offered these twolue syluer chargers, twolue syluer boules, twolue spones of golde: euery charger conteynynge an hūdreth and thirtie Sycles of syluer, and euery boule seuentye Sycles. So that ỳ summe of all the syluer in the vessels, was two thousande and foure hundreth Sycles (after the Sycle of the Sanctuary). And the twolue spones of golde full of incense, conteyned euery one ten Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary: So that the summe of the golde in the spones, was an hundreth and twentye Sycles. I

The summe of the catell for the burntofferinges, was twolue bullockes, twolue rammes, twolue lābes of a yeare olde with their meatofferinges: And twolue he goates for synnofferinges. And the summe of the catell for the healthofferinges, was foure and twē tye oxen, thre score rammes, and thre score he goates, thre score lābes of a yeare olde. This is the dedicacion of the altare, after that it was anoynted.

And whan Moses wente in to the Tabernacle of wytnes, ỳ he might be commoned withall, he herde the voyce speakynge vnto him frō of the Mercy seate, which was vpō the Arke of witnes betwixte the two Cherubins, from thence was he cōmoned withall. Exo. 25. d

The VIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde: Speake to Aaron, & saye vnto him: * Whan thou settest vp ỳ lāpes, thou shalt set thē so, that they maye all seuē geue light abone vpō ỳ candilsticke. And Aaron dyd so, & set ỳ lampes vpō ỳ candilsticke, as ỳ LORDE cōmaunded Moses. The worke of ỳ cādilsticke was of beatē golde, both ỳ shaft & floures therof: Acordynge to ỳ visiō that the LORDE had shewed Moses, euen so A Exo. 25. d made he the candelsticke.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Take the Leuites frō amonge the chil dren of Israel, & clense them. But thus shalt thou do with them, that thou mayest clense them. Thou shalt sprenkle purifienge water vpon them, and lett a rasure go ouer their whole body, and washe their clothes, and then are they cleane. Then shall they take a yonge bullocke, and his meatofferynge of fyne floure myngled with oyle. And another yonge bullocke shalt thou take for a synofferinge.

B And thou shalt brynge the Leuites before the Tabernacle of wytnesse, and gather togeither the whole congregacion of ẏ children of Israel, and brynge the Leuytes before the LORDE. And the children of Israel shall laye their handes vpon the Leuites. And Aaron shal waue ẏ Leuites before the LORDE for the children of Israel, that they maye mynistre in the seruyce of the LORDE.

And the Leuites shall laye their handes vpon the heedes of the bullockes, and the one shalbe made a synnofferynge, the other a burntofferinge vnto the LORDE, to make an attonement for the Leuites. And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and his sonnes, and waue them before the LORDE, and so shalt thou separate them from ẏ children of Israel, that they maye be myne. Thē shall they go in, that they maye do seruyce in the Tabernacle of witnesse. Thus shalt thou clense thē, & waue them: for they are my Num.3.b gifte of the children of Israel, * and I haue taken them vnto me for all that openeth the Matrix, namely for the first borne of all the children of Israel.

C For euery first borne amonge the children
Exo.13.a of Israel is myne, both of men and of catell,
Luc.2.d sens the tyme that I smote all the first borne in the lande of Egipte, and sanctified them vnto myself, and toke the Leuites for all the first borne amonge the childrē of Israel, and gaue them for a gifte vnto Aarō and his sonnes from amonge the children of Israel, ẏ they shulde do the seruyce of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of witnesse, to make attonemēt for the children of Israel, that there be not a plage amonge the children of Israel, yf they wyll come nye ẏ Sanctuary.

And Moses with Aaron and the whole congregacīō of the childrē of Israel, dyd vnto the Leuites all as the LORDE had commaūded Moses. And they purified the Leuites, and wasshed their clothes. And Aaron waued them before the LORDE, and made attonement for them, that they might be cleane.

After that wente they in, to do their office in the Tabernacle of witnesse before Aaron and his sonnes: as the LORDE commaūded Moses concernynge the Leuites, euen so dyd they with them.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses & sayde: This is it that belongeth vnto the Leuites: * From fyue and twentye yeare and aboue, shal they go in to the office of the Tabernacle of witnesse. But frō fyftie yeare forth, they shal ceasse from the waitinge of the seruyce therof, and shall mynister no more, but shal appoynte their brethren to waite and to serue in the Tabernacle of wytnesse: but the office shal not they execute. Thus shalt thou do with the Leuites in their seruyces, that euery one maye wayte vpon his awne charge.

The IX. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses in the wilderneesse of Sinai, in ẏ first moneth of the seconde yeare that they were departed out of the lande of Egipte, & sayde: Let the children of Israel kepe Easter in his season, euen vpon the fourtene daye of this moneth at euen, in his season shall they kepe it, acordynge to all the statutes & lawes therof. And Moses spake to ẏ childrē of Israel, ẏ they shulde kepe Easter. And they kept Easter vpō the fourtene daye of the first moneth at euen in the wildernes of Sinai. Acordinge to all that the LORDE cōmaunded Moses, euen so dyd the children of Israel.

Then were there certayne men defyled of a deed man, so that they coulde not kepe Easter vpon that daye: these came before Moses and Aaron the same daye, and sayde vnto him: We are defiled of a deed mā: wherfore shulde we be despysed, that we must not bringe oure giftes in his season amonge the children of Israel? Moses sayde vnto them: Stonde styll, I wil heare what the LORDE commaundeth you.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Speake vnto the children of Israel, & saie: Whā eny man is defyled of a deed coarse, or is gone farre from you ouer the felde, or is amonge youre kynßfolkes, yet shall he kepe Easter, but in the seconde moneth vpō ẏ fourtene daye at euen, and they shal eate it with vnleuended bred and sowre sawse, and shall leaue none of it vntyll the morninge, * ner breake eny bone therof, and shal kepe it acordinge to all ẏ maner of ẏ Easter.

But he that is cleane, and not gone in a iourney, and is negligent to kepe the Easter, the same soule shal be roted out fromamōge his people: because he brought not his offre to the LORDE in his season, he shal beare his synne. And whan there dwelleth a straunger amonge you, he shal kepe Easter also vnto the LORDE, & shal holde it acordinge to ỹ ordinaunce and lawe of ỹ Easter. This statute shal be vnto you alike, to the straunger as to him that is borne in the londe.

C And ỹ same daye ỹ the Habitacion was set vp, a cloude couered it vpō the Tabernacle of witnesse, & at euen there was a symilitude of fyre vpon the Habitacion vntill the mornynge. So came it to passe allwaye, ỹ the cloude couered it by daye, & the symilitude of fyre by night. And whan the cloude was takē vp from the Habitacion, then the childrē of Israel wente on their iourney. And loke in what place the cloude abode, there the childrē of Israel pitched their tentes. Acordinge to the worde of the LORDE toke the children of Israel their iourney, and acordinge to his worde pitched they their tentes. So longe as the cloude abode vpon the Habitacion, they laye styll. And whan the cloude taried many dayes vpon the Habitacion, the childrē of Israel wayted vpon the LORDE, & wente not on their iourney.

D And whan it chaunced that the cloude abode vpō ỹ Habitacion eny space of dayes, then pitched they acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, & after the worde of the LORDE wente they on their iourney. Whan the cloude was there from the euenynge vntyll the mornynge, and so was taken vp, then wēte they on their iourney: and whether it was takē vp by daye or by night, they iourneyed. But whan it taried vpon the habitacion two dayes, or a moneth, or a longe season, then laye the children of Israel, and iourneyed not: and so whan it was taken vp, they wente on their iourney. For acordinge to the mouth of the LORDE they laye, and after the mouth of the LORDE they iourneyed, so ỹ they kepte the LORDES watch, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

The X. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Make the two trompettes of beaten syluer, that thou mayest vse them, to call the cōgregacion together, and whan the hoost shal breake vp. Whan they blowe with both, then shall the whole congregacion gather them selues together vnto the before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse. Whan they blowe but with one, then the captaynes, the rulers ouer the thousandes in Israel shal gather them selues together vnto the. Whan ye trompe, then shal the hoostes that lye on the East syde, breake vp. And whan ye trompe the seconde tyme, the hoostes that lye on the South syde, shal breake vp. For ye shall trompe, whan they shal take their iourneys. * But whan ỹ congregacion is to be gathered together, ye shal blowe, and not trompe. This blowinge wt the trompettes shal the sonnes of Aaron the preest do. And it shall be yͦ lawe for euer amonge youre posterities. Iudic.5.d

Whan ye go to a battayll in youre londe agaynst youre enemies ỹ vexe you, ye shall trompe with the trompettes, that ye maye be remembred before the LORDE yͦ God, and delyuered from youre enemies.

Like wyse whan ye are mery, and in youre feast dayes, & in youre new Monethes, ye shal blowe with the trompettes ouer youre burntsacrifices & healthofferinges, ỹ it maie be a remembraunce vnto you before youre God. I am the LORDE youre God. B

Vpon the twentye daye in the seconde moneth of the seconde yeare, arose the cloude from the habitacion of witnesse. And the childrē of Israel wente on their iourney out of the wylderneſſe of Sinai, and the cloude abode in the wylderneſſe of Paran, First brake vp (acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.) Namely, the baner of the hoost of Juda wente forth first with their armies, and ouer their hoost was Nahassō the sonne of Aminadab. And ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Isachar was Nathaneel the sonne of Zuar. And ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Zabulon was Eliab the sonne of Elon. And the habitacion was taken downe, and the children of Gerson and Merari bare the habitacion. Num.33.c Deut.1.a Num.1.a Num.4.a

After that wente the baner of the hoost of Ruben with their armies, and ouer their hoost was Elizur the sonne of Sedeur. And ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Simeon was Selumiel the sonne of Zuri Sadai. And Eliasaph the sonne of Deguel ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Gad. Then wente the Kahathites forwarde also, and bare the Sanctuary, and caused ỹ habitacion be set vp agaynst they came. C

After that wente the baner of the hoost of the children of Ephraim with their armies, and ouer their hoost was Elisama the sonne of Amihud. And Gamaliel the sonne of Pedazur ouer the hoost of the trybe of the children of Manasse. And Abidan the sonne of Gedeoni ouer the hoost of the tryb̄e of the childrē of Ben Jamin.

After that wente the baner of the hoost of the childrē of Dan with their Armyes, (and so were all the hoostes vp) and Ahieser the sonne of Ammi Sadai was ouer their hoost. And Pagiel ỳ sonne of Ochran, ouer the hoost of the tryb̄e of the childrē of Asser. And Ahira the sonne of Enan ouer the hoost of the tryb̄e of the childrē of Nephthali. Thus the childrē of Israel wēte forth with their armyes.

D And Moses spake vnto his brother in lawe, Hobab the sonne of Raguel of Madian: We go vnto the place, of the which ỳ LORDE sayde: I wil geue it you: Come now with vs therfore, and we wil do ỳ best with the, for the LORDE hath promysed good vnto Israel. But he answered: I wil not go wt you, but wil go in to myne awne londe vnto my kynred. He sayde: Oh nay, leaue vs not: for thou knowest where is best for vs to pytche in the wylderneſſe, and thou shalt be oure eye. And yf thou goest with vs, loke what good the LORDE doth vnto vs, the same wil we do vnto the. So they departed from the mount of the LORDE thre dayes iourney, & the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt wente before them those thre dayes iourney, to shewe thē where they shulde rest. And ỳ clonde of the LORDE was ouer them in the daye tyme, whan they wēte out of ỳ tētes.

And whan the Arke wente forth, Moses
Psal. 67.a sayde: ✕ Aryse LORDE, let thine enemies be scatered, and let them that hate the, flye before the. And whan it rested, he sayde: Come agayne O LORDE vnto the multitude of the thousandes of Israel.

The XI. Chapter.

A AND whan ỳ people waxed vnpaciēt,
Exo 16.a it displeased sore ỳ eares of ỳ LORDE.
Deut. 9.d And whan the LORDE herde it, his wrath waxed whote, & the fyre of ỳ LORDE burnt amōge them, so ỳt it cōsumed the vttemost of ỳ hoost. Thē cryed the people vnto Moses. And Moses prayed vnto the LORDE. So ỳ fyre quenched. And the place was called Tabera, because the fyre of the LORDE burnt amonge them.

Then the comon sorte of people ỳ was amōge them, fell a lustinge, and sat & wepte wt the childrē of Israel, and sayde: Who wyll geue vs flesh to eate? We remembre the fish, the we ate in Egipte for naught, & Cucumbers, Melouns, lekes, onyons, & garleke: But now is oure soule dryed awaye, oure eyes se nothinge then the Manna.

The Manna was like Coriāder sede, and to loke vpon, like Bedellion. And the people ranne here and there, & gathered it, & grounde it in Milles, and beate it in morters, and baked it in pānes, and made cakes of it, and it had a taist like an oyle cake. And whan ỳ dew fell vpon the tētes in the night, ỳ Manna fell therwith.

Now whan Moses herde the people wepe amōge their kynreds, euery one in his tētdore, then the wrath of the LORDE waxed exceadinge whote. And it greued Moses also. And Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Why vexest thou thy seruaunte? And why fynde not I fauoure in ỳ sight, ỳ thou layest ỳ burthen of all this people vpō me? Haue I thē cōceaued all this people, or begotten them, that thou shuldest saye vnto me: Cary them in thine armes (as a nurse beareth a childe) vnto the londe, that thou hast swōrne vnto their fathers? Where shal I get flesh, to geue all this people? They wepe before me, and saye: Geue vs flesh, that we maye eate. I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is to heuy for me. And yf thou wylt deale thus wt me: O kyll me then, yf I haue founde fauoure in thy sight, that I se not my wrechednesse.

And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: Gather vnto me ✕ seuentye men amonge the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest ỳ they are the Elders in ỳ people and officers ouer them, and bringe them before the Tabernacle of witnesse, and set them there with the: then wil I come downe, and talke with the euen there, & take of thy sprete that is vpon the, and putt it vpon them, that they maye beare the burthen of the people with the, ỳ thou beare not all alone.

And vnto ỳ people thou shalt saye: Sāctifye yo' selues agaynst tomorow, ỳ ye maye eate flesh: for youre wepynge is come into the eares of the LORDE, ye that saye: Who shal geue vs flesh to eate? for we were wil at ease in Egipte. Therfore shal the LORDE

geue you flesh to eate, not one daye, not two, not fyue, not ten, not twenty dayes longe, but a moneth longe, tyll it go out at youre noses, and tyll ye lothe it: euen because ye haue refused the LORDE, which is amonge you, and haue wepte before him, & sayde: Wherfore went we out of Egipte?

And Moses sayde: Sixe hundreth thousande fote men are there of the people amonge whom I am, and thou sayest: I wyll geue you flesh to eate a moneth longe. Shal the shepe and oxen be slayne to be ynough for them? Or shal all the fishes of the see be gathered together, to be sufficient for them? The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: * Is the LORDES hande shortened then? But now shalt thou se, whether my wordes shall be fulfilled in dede, or no?

And Moses wēte out, and tolde the people ye worde of the LORDE, and gathered the seuentye men amonge the Eldest of the people, & set them rounde aboute the Tabernacle. Then came the LORDE downe in a cloude, & spake vnto him, & toke of the sprete ye was vpon him, & put it vpon the seuentie Elders. And whan the sprete rested vpon them, they prophecied, and ceassed not.

But in the hoost there remayned yet two men, of whom the one was called Eldad, ye other Medad, & the sprete rested vpō them. For they were wrytten vp also, & yet were they not gone out vnto the Tabernacle, and they prophecied in the hoost. Then ran there a lad, & tolde Moses, & sayde: Eldad and Medad prophecie in the hoost. Then answered Josua ye sonne of Nun Moses seruaunte (whom he had chosen) and sayde: My lorde Moses, forbydde them. But Moses sayde vnto him: Art thou gelous for my sake? * wolde God, ye all the people of ye LORDE coulde prophecie, and that ye LORDE wolde geue them his sprete. So Moses and the Elders of Israel gat them to the hoost.

Then wente out the wynde from ye LORDE, & caused quayles to come from the see, & scatred thē ouer the hoost, here a dayes iourney, there a dayes iourney rounde aboute ye hoost, two cubytes hye aboue ye earth. Then the people stode vp all that daye and all ye night, and all the nexte daye, and gathered quayles: and he that gathered the leest, gathered ten Homers, & they tylled them rounde aboute the hoost.

But whyle ye flesh was yet betwene their tethe, & or euer it was vp, the wrath of the LORDE waxed whote amonge the people, * and slewe them with an exceadinge greate slaughter. Therfore is the same place called the graues of lust, because the voluptuous people were buried there. From the lustgraues toke the people their iourney vnto Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth. Num.33.c

The XII. Chapter.

And Miriam & Aaron spake agaynst Moses because of his wife the Morian. which he had taken, because he had take a Morian to wife, and they sayde: Doth the LORDE speake onely thorow Moses? Speaketh he not also by vs? And the LORDE herde it. * But Moses was a very meke man, aboue all men vpon earth. And haistely spake the LORDE vnto Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam: Go out ye three vnto ye Tabernacle of wytnesse. And they went out all three. Deu.24.b * Exo.2.c Eccli.45.b

Then came the LORDE downe in the cloudy piler, & stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, & called Aaron & Miriam, & they both wēte out. And he sayde: Heare my wordes: Yf eny man be a prophet of the LORDE, vnto him wil I shewe my self in a vision, or wil speake vnto him in a dreame. But not so wt my seruaunt Moses, which is faithfull in all my house. * Mouth to mouth speake I vnto him, & he seyth the LORDE in his fashion, not thorow darke wordes or licknesses: Wherfore were ye not afrayed then to speake agaynst my seruaunt Moses? Psal.98.b Heb.3.a * Exo.33.c

And ye wrath of the LORDE waxed whote ouer them, & he turned him awaye, and ye cloude also departed from the Tabernacle. And beholde, then was Miriam become leporus, as it were snowe. And Aaron turned him vnto Miriam, and sawe that she was leporous, and sayde vnto Moses: Oh my lorde, put not the synne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed and synned, that she be not as one that commeth deed out of his mothers wombe: It hath eaten vp half hir flesh allready. 2.pa.26.d

But Moses cried vnto the LORDE, & sayde: Oh God, heale her. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Yf hir father had spytte in hir face, shulde she not be ashamed seuen dayes? * Let her be shut out of ye hoost seuē dayes, after ylet her be receaued agayne. So Miriam was shut out of the hoost seuē dayes, & the people wente no farther, tyll Miriam was receaued againe. Afterwarde departed the people from Hazeroth, and pitched in ye wilderneese of Paran. The XIII. Chapter.

sonne of Gedeoni ouer the hoost of the tribe of the children of Ben Jamin.

After that wente the baner of the hoost of the children of Dan with their Armyes, (and so were all the hoostes vp) and Ahieser the sonne of Ammi Sadai was ouer their hoost. And Pagiel ye sonne of Ochran, ouer the hoost of the tribe of the children of Asser. And Ahira the sonne of Enan ouer the hoost of the tribe of the children of Nephthali. Thus the childrē of Israel wēte forth with their armyes.

D And Moses spake vnto his brother in lawe, Hobab the sonne of Raguel of Madian: We go vnto the place, of the which ye LORDE sayde: I wil geue it you: Come now with vs therfore, and we wil do ye best with the, for the LORDE hath promysed good vnto Israel. But he answered: I wil not go wt you, but wil go in to myne awne londe vnto my kynred. He sayde: Oh nay, leaue vs not: for thou knowest where is best for vs to pytche in the wylderneße, and thou shalt be oure eye. And yf thou goest with vs, loke what good the LORDE doth vnto vs, the same wil we do vnto the. So they departed from the mount of the LORDE thre dayes iourney, & the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt wente before them those thre dayes iourney, to shewe thē where they shulde rest. And ye cloude of the LORDE was ouer them in the daye tyme, whan they wēte out of ye tētes.

And whan the Arke wente forth, Moses
Psal. 67.a sayde: ✠ Aryse LORDE, let thine enemies be scatered, and let them that hate the, flye before the. And whan it rested, he sayde: Come agayne O LORDE vnto the multitude of the thousandes of Israel.

The XI. Chapter.

A AND whan ye people waxed vnpaciēt, it displeased sore ye eares of ye LORDE.
Exo 16.a
Deut. 9.d And whan the LORDE herde it, his wrath waxed whote, & the fyre of ye LORDE burnt amōge them, so ye it cōsumed the vttemost of ye hoost. Thē cryed the people vnto Moses. And Moses prayed vnto the LORDE. So ye fyre quenched. And the place was called Tabera, because the fyre of the LORDE burnt amonge them.

Then the comon sorte of people ye was amōge them, fell a lustinge, and sat & wepte wt the children of Israel, and sayde: Who wyll geue vs flesh to eate? We remembre the fish, the we ate in Egipte for naught, & Cucumbers, Melouns, lekes, onyons, & garleke: But now is oure soule dryed awaye, oure eyes se nothinge then the Manna.

The Manna was like Coriāder sede, and to loke vpon, like Bedellion. And the people ranne here and there, & gathered it, & grounde it in Milles, and beate it in morters, and baked it in pānes, and made cakes of it, and it had a taist like an oyle cake. And whan ye dew fell vpon the tētes in the night, ye Manna fell therwith.

Now whan Moses herde the people wepe amōge their kynreds, euery one in his tētdore, then the wrath of the LORDE waxed exceadinge whote. And it greued Moses also. And Moses sayde vnto the LORDE: Why vexest thou thy seruaunte? And why fynde not I fauoure in ye sight, ye thou layest ye burthen of all this people vpō me? Haue I thē cōceaued all this people, or begotten them, that thou shuldest saye vnto me: Cary them in thine armes (as a nurse beareth a childe) vnto the londe, that thou hast swoorne vnto their fathers? Where shal I get flesh, to geue all this people? They wepe before me, and saye: Geue vs flesh, that we maye eate. I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is to heuy for me. And yf thou wylt deale thus wt me: O kyll me then, yf I haue founde fauoure in thy sight, that I se not my wrechednesse.

And the LORDE saide vnto Moses: Gather vnto me ✠ seuentye men amonge the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest ye they are the Elders in ye people and officers ouer them, and bringe them before the Tabernacle of witnesse, and set them there with the: then wil I come downe, and talke with the euen there, & take of thy sprete that is vpon the, and putt it vpon them, that they maye beare the burthen of the people with the, ye thou beare not all alone.

And vnto ye people thou shalt saye: Sāctifye yo selues agaynst tomorow, ye ye maye eate flesh: for youre wepynge is come into the eares of the LORDE, ye that saye: Who shal geue vs flesh to eate? for we were well at ease in Egipte. Therfore shal the LORDE gene you flesh to eate, not one daye, not two, nor fyue, not ten, not twentye dayes longe, but a moneth longe, tyll it go out at youre noses, and tyll ye lothe it: euen because ye haue refused the LORDE, which is amonge you, and haue wepte before him, & sayde: Wherfore went we out of Egipte?

And Moses sayde: Sixe hundreth thousande fote men are there of the people amonge whom I am, and thou sayest: I wyll gene you flesh to eate a moneth lonqe. Shal the shepe and oxen be slayne to be ynough for them? Or shal all the fisshes of the see be gathered together, to be sufficient for them? The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Is the LORDES hande shortened then? But now shalt thou se, whether my wordes shall be fulfilled in dede, or no?

And Moses wēte out, and tolde the people ỹ worde of the LORDE, and gathered the seuentye men amonge the Eldest of the people, & set them rounde aboute the Tabernacle. Then came the LORDE downe in a cloude, & spake vnto him, & toke of the sprete ỹ was vpon him, & put it vpon the seuentie Elders. And whan the sprete rested vpon them, they prophecied, and ceassed not.

But in the hoost there remayned yet two men, of whom the one was called Eldad, ỹ other Medad, & the sprete rested vpō them. For they were wrytten vp also, & yet were they not gone out vnto the Tabernacle, and they prophecied in the hoost. Then ran there a lad, & tolde Moses, & sayde: Eldad and Medad prophecie in the hoost. Then answered Josua ỹ sonne of Nun Moses seruaunte (whom he had chosen) and sayde: My lorde Moses, for bydde them. But Moses sayde vnto him: Art thou gelous for my sake? * wolde God, ỹ all the people of ỹ LORDE coude prophecie, and that ỹ LORDE wolde gene them his sprete. So Moses and the Elders of Israel gat them to the hoost.

Then wente out the wynde from ỹ LORDE, & caused quayles to come from the see, & scatred thē ouer the hoost, here a dayes iourney, there a dayes iourney rounde aboute ỹ hoost, two cubytes hye aboue ỹ earth. Then the people stode vp all that daye and all ỹ night, and all the nexte daye, and gathered quayles: and he that gathered the leest, gathered ten Homers, & they kylled them rounde aboute the hoost.

But whyle ỹ flesh was yet betwene their tethe, & or euer it was vp, the wrath of the LORDE waxed whote amonge the people, * and slewe them with an exceadinge greate slaughter. Therfore is the same place called the graues of lust, because the voluptuous people were buried there. From the lust graues toke the people their iourney vnto Hazeroth, Num.11.c

The XII. Chapter.

AND Miriam & Aaron spake agaynst Moses because of his wife the Morian. which he had taken, because he had take a Morian to wife, and they sayde: Doth the LORDE speake onely thorow Moses? Speaketh he not also by vs? And the LORDE herde it. * But Moses was a very meke man, above all men vpon earth. And haistely spake the LORDE vnto Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam: Go out ye three vnto ỹ Tabernacle of wytnesse. And they wente out all three. A Deu.24.b * Exo.3.c Eccli.45.b

Then came the LORDE downe in the cloudy piler, & stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, & called Aaron & Miriam, & they both wēte out. And he sayde: Heare my wordes: Yf eny man be a prophet of the LORDE, vnto him wil I shewe my self in a vision, or wil speake vnto him in a dreame. But not so with my seruaunt Moses, which is faithfull in all my house. * Mouth to mouth speake I vnto him, & he seyth the LORDE in his fashion, not thorow darke wordes or lickenesses: Wherfore were ye not afrayed then to speake agaynst my seruaunt Moses? Psal.98.b Heb.3.a * Exo.33.c

And ỹ wrath of the LORDE waxed wrote ouer them, & he turned him awaye, and ỹ cloude also departed from the Tabernacle. And beholde, then was Miriam become lepous, as it were snowe. And Aaron turned him vnto Miriam, and sawe that she was lepous, and sayde vnto Moses: Oh my lorde, put not the synne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed and synned, that she be not as one that commeth deed out of his mothers wombe: It hath eaten vp half hir flesh allready. B 2.Pa.26.d

But Moses cried vnto the LORDE, & sayde: Oh God, heale her. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Yf hir father had spytte in hir face, shulde she not be ashamed seuen dayes? * Let her be shut out of ỹ hoost seuē dayes, after ỹ let her be receaued agayne. So Miriam was shut out of the hoost seuē dayes, & the people wente no farther, tyll Miriam was receaued againe. Afterwarde departed the people from Hazeroth, and pitched in ỹ wilderneese of Paran. Lcu.13.a Num.33.c

The XIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Sende forth men to spye out ỹ Deut.1.d

lande of Canaan (which I wil geue vnto ỹ children of Israel) of euery trybe of their fathers a man, and let them all be soch as are captaynes amonge them. Moses sent thē out of the wildernes of Paran, accordinge to the worde of the LORDE, soch as were all heades amonge the children of Israel, and these are their names:

Samma the sonne of Zacur, of the trybe of Ruben. Saphat the sonne of Hori, of the trybe of Simeon. Caleb ỹ sonne of Jephune, of the trybe of Juda. Igeal the sonne of Joseph, of the trybe of Issachar. Hosea the sonne of Nun, of ỹ trybe of Ephraim. Palti the sonne of Raphu, of the trybe of Benjamin. Gadiel the sonne of Sodi, of ỹ trybe of Zabulon. Gaddi the sonne of Susi, of the trybe of Joseph of Manasse. Ammiel the sonne of Gemalli, of the trybe of Dan. Sethur ỹ sonne of Michael, of the trybe of Asser. Nahebi the sonne of Naphsi, of the trybe of Nephtali. Guel the sonne of Machi, of the trybe of Gad. These are the names of the men, whom Moses sent forth to spye out the lande. As for Hosea the sonne of Nun, Moses called him Josua.

B Now whan Moses sent thē forth to spye out the lande of Canaan, he sayde vnto thē: Go vp southwarde, and get you vp to the mountaynes, and loke vpon the londe how it is: and the people that dwell therin, whether they be stronge or weake, fewe or many: and what maner of lande it is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad: & what maner of cities they be that they dwell in, whether they be fenced with walles, or not: and what maner of lande it is, whether it be fatt or leane, and whether there be trees therin, or not. Be of a good corage, and bringe of the frutes of the londe. It was euen aboute the tyme, that grapes are first rype.

They wente vp, & spyed the lande, from ỹ wildernes of Zin, vntyll Rehob, as mē go vnto Hemath. They wente vp also towarde the south, and came vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was, and Sesai and Thalmai, the children of Enack (Hebron was buylded seuen yeare before Zoan in Egipte.)

C And they came to the ryuer of Escol, and Deut.1.d there they cut downe a cluster of grapes, and caused two to beare it vpon a staffe, pomgranates also and fygges. The place is called the ryuer of Escol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe there.

And whan they had spyed out the lande, they turned bake againe after fourtye daies, and wente, and came to Moses and Aaron, & to the whole congregacion of ỹ children of Israel into ỹ wylderneſſe of Paran, eut vnto Cades, and brought them worde agayne, and to the whole congregacion, howit stode, and let them se the frute of the lande, and tolde them, and sayde: We came into ỹ lande, whither ye sent vs, where it floweth with mylke and hony, and this is the frute therof: sauynge that stronge people dwell therin, and the cities are exceadinge stronge and greate. And we sawe the children of Enack there also. The Amalechites dwell in the south countre, the Hethites, and Jebusites and Amorites dwell vpon the mountaynes, but the Cananites dwell by the see, and aboute Jordane.

Howbeit Caleb stylled ỹ people that was D agaynst Moses, and sayde vnto them: Let vs go vp, and conquere the lande, for we are able to ouercome it. But the men that wente vp with him, sayde: We are not able to go vp agaynst that people, for they are to stronge for vs. And of the lande that they had searched, they brought vp an euell reporte amonge the childrē of Israel, and saide: The lāde that we haue gone thorow to spye out, eateth vp the indwellers therof: and all the people that we sawe therin, are men of greate stature. We sawe giauntes there also, yee giauntes as the children of Enack: and we semed in oure sighte as ỹ gresshoppers, and so dyd we in their sighte.

The XIIII. Chapter.

Then the whole cōgregacion toke on, and cryed, and the people wepte ỹ night. And all the childrē of Israel murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregacion sayde vnto them: Oh that we had dyed in the lande of Egipte, or that we might dye yet in this wylderneſſe. Wherfore bringeth the LORDE vs into this lande, that oure wyues shulde fall thorow the swerde, and ouer children be praye? Is it not better, that we go agayne in to Egipte: And they sayde one to another: Let vs make a captayne, and go in to Egipte agayne.

But Moses & Aaron fell vpō their faces before ỳ whole cōgregacion of the multitude of the childrē of Israel. * And Josua ỳ sonne of Nun, & Caleb ỳ sonne of Jephune (which also had spyed out the lande) rente their clothes, & spake to the whole cōgregacion of the childrē of Israel: The londe ỳ we haue walked thorow to spye it out, is a very good lande. Yf the LORDE haue lust vnto vs, he shal brynge vs in to the same londe, & geue it vs, which is a lāde that floweth with mylke & hony. But in anye wyse rebell not ye agaynst the LORDE, & * feare not ỳ people of this lande, for we wil eate thē vp as bred. Their defence is departed frō them, * but the LORDE is wt vs, be not ye afrayed of them.

And all the people, bad stone them wt stones. Then appeared the glory of the LORDE in the Tabernacle of witnesse vnto all the childrē of Israel, & the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: How longe shal this people blaspheme me? And how longe wil it be, or they beleue me, for all the tokēs that I haue shewed amonge them? I wil smyte them with pestilence & destroye thē, & wil make of the a greater & mightier people then this is.

But Moses sayde vnto ỳ LORDE: Then shal ỳ Egipcians heare it (for wt thy power hast thou brought this people from amōge thē) so shal it be tolde the inhabiters of this lande also, which haue herde, ỳ thou O LORDE art amonge this people, ỳ thou art sene from face to face, & that thy cloude stondeth ouer them, and that thou goest before them in the cloudy piler on the daye tyme, and in the fyrie piler on the night season. Yf thou shuldest now slaye this people as one man, then the heythen that haue herde so good reporte of the, shulde saye: The LORDE was not able to brynge the people in to the londe, that he sware vnto them, therfore hath he slayne them in the wyldernes.

So let the power of the LORDE now be greate, acordinge as thou hast spoken and sayde: The LORDE is of longe sufferaunce and of greate mercy, and forgeueth synne and trespace, and leaueth no man innocent, & vysiteth the myßdede of the fathers vpon the childrē in to the thirde and fourth generacion. O be gracious now vnto the synne of this people acordinge to thy greate mercy, like as thou hast forborne this people also, euer from Egipte vnto this place. And the LORDE sayde: I haue forgeuē it, as thou hast sayde. But as truly as I lyue, all ỳ worlde shal be full of my glory. For of all ỳ men that haue sene my glory & my tokens, which I dyd in Egipte and in the wilderneße, and tempted me now ten tymes, & haue not herkened vnto my voyce, there shall not one se the londe that I sware vnto their fathers: nether shal eny of them that haue blaspheme me, se it. * But my seruaūt Caleb, because there is another maner spirite with him, & because he hath folowed me, him wil I brynge in to the lande, which he hath gone thorow, & his sede shal conquere it, and ỳ Amalechites also and the Cananites, that dwell in the lowe countrees. Tomorow turne you, and get you to the wyldernesse, in the waye towarde the reed see.

And ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & sayde: How lōge shal this euell multitude murmur agaynst me? For I haue herde the murmuringe of the childrē of Israel, ỳ they haue murmured agaynst me. Tell them therfore: * As truly as I lyue (sayeth ỳ LORDE) I wil do vnto you, euen as ye haue spoken in myne eares: Youre carcases shal lye in this wilderneße. And all ye that * were nombred from twentye yeare and aboue, which haue murmured agaynst me, shall not come in to the lande (cōcernynge the which I lift vp my hāde, ỳ I wolde let you dwell therin) saue Caleb ỳ sonne of Jephune, and Josua the sonne of Nun.

Youre childrē, of whom ye sayde: They shalbe a spoyle, them wyll I brynge in, so ỳ they shal knowe the lande, which ye haue refused. But ye with youre carcases shall lye in this wilderneße, and yo childrē shal wander in this wilderneße fourtye yeares, & beare yo whordome, tyll yo carcases be waisted in the wilderneße, acordinge to the nombre of ỳ fourtye dayes, wherin ye spyed out the londe. * A daye for a yeare, so ỳ fourtye yeares ye shall beare youre myßdede, that ye maye knowe what it is, whan I withdrawe my hande. Euen I the LORDE haue sayde it, & wil do it in dede vnto all this euell congregacion, that haue lift vp them selues agaynst me: In this wilderneße shal they be consumed, and there shal they dye.

So there dyed and were plaged before the LORDE all the mē, whom Moses sent to spye out the lāde, & came agayne, and made the whole cōgregacion to murmur agaynst it, because they brought vp a myßreporte of the lande, that it was euell. But Josua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb ỳ sonne of Jephu ne were left alyue, of the men that wente to spye out the lande. And Moses spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel. The toke the people greate sorowe.

And they arose early in ỳ mornynge, and wente vp to the toppe of ỳ mountayne, and sayde: Lo, here are we, and will go vp to the place, wherof the LORDE hath sayde: for we haue synned. But Moses sayde: wherfore go ye on this maner beyonde ỳ worde of the LORDE: It shall not prospere with you: go not vp (for ỳ LORDE is not amõge you) ỳ ye be not slayne before yo enemies. For the Amalechites and Cananites are there before you, & ye shal fall thorow ỳ swerde, because ye haue turned yo selues from the LORDE, and the LORDE shal not be with you.

But they were blynded to go vp to the toppe of the mountaine: neuertheles the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt & Moses came not out of the hooste. Then came downe ỳ Amalechites & Cananites which dwelt vpon that mountayne, and smote them and hewed them, euen vnto Horma.

The XV. Chapter.

AND the LORDE talked with Moses, and sayde: Speake to the childrẽ of Israel, & saye vnto them: Whan ye come in to the lande of youre dwellinge, which I shal geue you, and wil do sacrifice vnto the LORDE, whether it be a burntofferynge, or an offrynge for a speciall vowe, or a frewyll offerynge, or youre feast offerynges, that ye maye make a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE, of oxen or of shepe.

He ỳ wil offre now his gifte vnto ỳ LORDE, shal brynge for the meatofferinge a tẽth deale of fyne floure myngled with oyle of the fourth parte of an Hin, and wyne for ỳ drynkofferynge the fourth parte of an Hin also: to the burntofferinge, or eny other offeringe, whan a lambe is offred. But whã there is a ramme offred, thou shalt make the meatofferynge two tẽth deales of fyne floure myngled with oyle, of the thirde parte of an Hin, and ỳ thirde parte of an Hin of wyne also for a drynkofferinge: this shalt thou offre for a swete sauo vnto the LORDE.

But yf thou wilt offre an oxe for a burnt offerynge, or for a speciall vowe offerynge, or for an healthofferinge vnto the LORDE, thou shalt brynge to the oxe, the meatoffrynge, euen thre tenth deales of fyne floure myngled with half an Hin of oyle, & half an Hin of wyne for a drynkoffrynge. This is an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. Thus shalt thou do with an oxe, with a ramme, with a lambe, and with a goate. Accordinge as the nombre of the offerynges is, therafter shall the nombre of the meatofferynges and drynkofferynges be also.

He that is one of youre selues, shall do this, that he maye offre a sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE. And yf there dwell a straunger with you, or is amõge youre kynßfolkes, and wil do an offerynge vnto the LORDE for a swete sauoure, the same shal do as ye do. Let there be one statute for the whole cõgregacion, both vnto you and to the straungers. A perpetuall statute shal it be vnto youre posterities, that the straunger be euẽ as ye before ỳ LORDE. One lawe, and one ordinaunce shalbe vnto you and to the straunger that dwelleth with you.

And the LORDE talked with Moses, & sayde: Speake to the childrẽ of Israel, and saye vnto them: Whan ye come in to the lande, in to ỳ which I shal brynge you, so that ye eate the bred of the londe, ye shal heue vp an Heueofferynge vnto the LORDE, namely, a cake of the firstlinges of youre dowe shall ye geue for an Heueofferynge: as the Heueofferynge of the barne, euen so shal ye geue the firstlinges of youre dowe also vnto the LORDE, for an Heueofferynge amonge youre posterities.

And whan ye thorow ignoraunce ouersee eny of these commaundementes, which the LORDE hath spoken by Moses, and all ỳ the LORDE hath commaunded you by Moses (from the daye that the LORDE began ne to commaunde for youre posterities) and the cõgregacion do ought ignoraantly, the shal the whole congregacion offre a yonge bullocke from amonge the greate catell to a burntofferynge, for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE, with his meatofferynge and drynkofferynge as the maner is, and an hegoate for a synofferynge. And so shal the preest make an attonement for the whole congregacion of the children of Israel, and it shalbe forgeuen them: for it is an ignoraunce. And they shal brynge these their giftes for an offerynge vnto the LORDE, and their synofferynge before the LORDE for their ignoraunce, and it shalbe forgeuen the whole congregacion of the childrẽ of Israel, & the straunger also ỳ dwelleth amonge you, for so moch as all the people is in soch ignoraunce.

Yf one soule synne thorow ignoraunce, the same shal brynge a she goate of a yeare olde for a synofferynge. And the preest shall make an attonement for soch an ignoraunt soule with the synofferinge for the ignoraun ce before the LORDE, that he maye reconcyle him, and it shal be forgeuen him. And it shal be one lawe, (that ye shal do for ỹ ignoraunce) both vnto him that is borne amonge the children of Israel, and to the straunger that dwelleth amonge you.

But yf a soule do ought presumptuously, whether he be one of youre selues or a straunger, he hath despysed the LORDE: ỹ same soule shalbe roted out from amõge his people: because he hath despysed the worde of the LORDE, and hath left his commaundement vndone: that soule shall vtterly perisshe, his synne shalbe vpon him.

Now whyle the children of Israel were in the wylderneſſe, they founde a man gatherynge stickes vpon the Sabbath daye. And they that founde him gatherynge stickes, brought him vnto Moses and Aaron, and before the whole congregacion. And they put him in preſon, for it was not declared what shulde be done vnto him. The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: The man shall dye the death, the whole congregacion shal stone him without the hoost. Then the whole cõgregacion brought him out of ỹ hoost, and stoned him that he dyed, as ỹ LORDE commaunded Moses.

And ỹ LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Speake to the childrẽ of Israel, & saye vnto thẽ, ỹ they make them gardes vpon ỹ quarters of their garmentes amonge all yo posterities, and put yalowe rybandes vpon the gardes in ỹ quarters. And ỹ gardes shal serue you, ỹ ye maye loke vpon thẽ, and remembre all the cõmaundementes of the LORDE, & do them: that ye order not youre selues after ỹ meanynge of youre awne hert, ner go awhorynge after youre awne eyes. Therfore shal ye remembre and do all my commaundementes, and be holy vnto youre God. I am the LORDE youre God, which brought you out of the lande of Egipte, to be yo God. Euen I the LORDE youre God.

The XVI. Chapter.

AND Corah the sonne of Jezehar the sonne of Kahath, the sonne of Leui, with Dathan and Abiram the sonne of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth, ỹ sonnes of Rubẽ, stode vp agaynst Moses, with certayne men amonge the childrẽ of Israel, two hundreth & fyftie captaynes of the congregacion, councelers, & famous men. And they gathered them selues agaynst Moses & Aarõ & sayde vnto them: Ye make to moch a doo, for all the congregacion is holy euery one, and the LORDE is amonge them: Why lifte ye youre selues vp then aboue the congregacion of the LORDE?

Whan Moses herde ỹ, he fell vpõ his face, & saide vnto Corah, & to all his company: Tomorow shal ỹ LORDE shewe who is his, & who is holy to come vnto him. Whõ so euer he choseth, ỹ same shal come vnto him. This do: Take ỹ censors, thou Corah & all ỹ cõpanye, & do fyre therin, & put incense theron to morow before the LORDE: then whom so euer the LORDE choseth, the same shal be holy. Ye make to moch a doo, ye children of Leui.

And Moses sayde vnto Corah: Heare ye childrẽ of Leui, Is it not ynough vnto you, ỹ ỹ God of Israel hath separated you frõ ỹ multitude of Israel, ỹ ye shulde come nye him, to do the seruyce of the dwellynge place of the LORDE, and stonde before the people to myniſter vnto them? He hath caused the and all thy brethren the childrẽ of Leui with the, to come nye vnto him: and now ye seke the presthode also. Thou and all thy cõpany conspyre agaynst the LORDE. What is Aaron, that ye shulde murmur against him?

And Moses sent to call Dathã & Abirã ỹ sonnes of Eliab. But they saide: We wil not come vp. Is it to litle ỹ thou hast brought vs out of ỹ lande of Egipte (ỹ floweth wt mylke & hony) to kyll vs in ỹ wilderneſſe: but thou must raigne ouer vs also? How goodly well hast thou brought vs in to a londe, that floweth wt milke and hony, & geuẽ vs feldes and vyniardes in possession? Wilt thou put out these mens eyes? We will not come vp.

Then was Moses very wroth, & saide vnto ỹ LORDE: Turne ỹ not vnto their meatofferinges. I haue not takẽ so moch as an Asse frõ thẽ, nether haue I hurte eny of thẽ. And Moses sayde vnto Corah: Tomorow be thou & all ỹ companye before ỹ LORDE, thou, and they, & Aaron. And take euery one his censer, and put incense therin, and come before the LORDE, euery one with his censer (that is two hundreth and fiftye censers) and both thou and Aaron take either his censer.

And every one toke his censer, and put fyre therin, and layed incense theron, and came before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnes, and Moses and Aaron also. And Corah gathered ỳ whole congregaciō agaynst thē before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnes.

But ỳ glory of the LORDE appeared before ỳ whole congregacion. And ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron, & sayde: Separate youre selues frō this congregaciō, ỳ I maye shortly consume them. And they fell vpon their faces, & sayde: O God, thou God of the spretes of all flesh, yf one man haue synned, wilt thou therfore be wroth ouer the whole congregacion? And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & saide: Speake to the congregaciō, and saye: Come vp from ỳ dwellynge of Corah, and Dathan, and Abiram.

D And Moses stode vp, & wente vnto Dathan & Abiram, & the Elders of Israel followed him, & he spake to ỳ cōgregaciō, & saide: Departe frō ỳ tentes of these vngodly mē & touche nothinge ỳ is theirs, ỳ ye perisshe not in eny of their sinnes. And they gat them vp from the dwellynge of Corah, Dathan, & Abiram. But Dathan and Abirā came out, and stode in the dore of their tentes, with their wyues, and sonnes and children.

And Moses sayde: Hereby shal ye knowe that the LORDE hath sent me, to do all these workes, and that I haue not done them of myne awnē hert. Yf these men dye the comon death of all men, or be vysited as all men are vysited, then hath not the LORDE sent me. But yf the LORDE make a new thinge, and the earth open hir mouth, and swalowe them with all that they haue, so ỳ they go downe quycke in to hell, thē shal ye knowe, that the semen haue blaspheмed the LORDE.

E And whā he had spokē out all these wordes, ỳ groūde cloue asunder vnder thē, & the earth opened hir wouth, & swalowed thē, & their houses, & all the mē ỳ were & Corah, & all their substaūce, and they wente downe quycke in to the hell, with all that they had.

Psal. 105. b

And the earth closed vpō them, & so they perisshed from amonge ỳ congregaciō. And all Israel ỳ were aboute thē, fled at ỳ crye of thē, for they sayde: That ỳ earth swalowe not vs also. Moreouer the fyre came out frō the LORDE, and consumed the two hundreth and fyftye men, that offred the incense.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Speake to Eleasar ỳ sonne of Aaron ỳ prest, ỳ he take vp ỳ censers out of ỳ burninge, & scater ỳ fyre here & there (For the censers of these synners are halowed thorow their soules) ỳ they maye be beatē in to thynne plates, & fastened vpon ỳ altare. For they are offred before ỳ LORDE, & halowed: and they shalbe a token vnto ỳ childrē of Israel.

And Eleasar the prest toke ỳ brasen censers which they ỳ were burnt, had offred, & bet thē to plates, to fasten thē vpon ỳ altare for a remēbraunce vnto ỳ children of Israel ỳ no straunger (and he that is not of ỳ sede of Aaron) come nye to offre incense before the LORDE, ỳ it happē not vnto him as vnto Corah and his companye, accordynge as the LORDE sayde vnto him by Moses.

On the nexte morow murmured ỳ whole congregacion of ỳ childrē of Israel against Moses & Aarō, & saide: Ye haue slayne ỳ people of ỳ LORDE. And whan the cōgregaciō was gathered agaynst Moses & Aarō, they turned thē towarde ỳ Tabernacle of witnes And beholde, thē ỳ cloude couered ỳ Tabernacle, & ỳ glory of ỳ LORDE appeared. And Moses & Aarō wēte in before ỳ Tabernacle of witnes. And ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses & sayde: Get you out of this cōgregacion, I wil shortly consume thē. And they fell vpon their faces. And Moses sayde vnto Aaron: G Take the cēser & put fyre therin frō of the altare, & laye incēse theron, & go soone to the cōgregacion, & make an attonement for them. For the wrath is gone out from the LORDE, and the plage is begōne amonge the people.

And Aaron dyd as Moses sayde, & ranne in the myddest amonge ỳ congregaciō. And beholde, ỳ plage was begōne. And he burnt incēse & made an attonemēt for the people, * & stode betwene the deed & the lyuynge, and the plage ceassed. But there were fourteē thousande, and seuē hundreth deed in the plage, besydes them that dyed aboute the busynesse of Corah. And Aaron came agayne vnto Moses before the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse. And the plage ceassed.

The XVII. Chapter.

AND ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Speake to the children of Israel, &

take of thē twolue staues, of euery captayne of his fathers house one, and wryte euery mans name vpon his staffe. But Aarons name shalt thou wryte vpon the staffe of Leui. For euery heade of their fathers house shal haue a staffe. And laye thē in the Tabernacle of witnesse, before the witnesse where I testifie vnto you. And loke whom I shall chose, his staffe shal florishe, ℣ I maye stylle the grudginges of the childrē of Israel, which they grudge agaynst you.

And Moses spake vnto the childrē of Israel, & all their captaynes gaue him twolue staues, euery captayne a staffe, after ℣ house of their fathers. And Aarons staffe was amonge their staues also. And Moses layed the staues before the LORDE in the Tabernacle of witnesse.

B On the morow whā Moses wēte in to ℣ Tabernacle of witnesse, he founde ℣ * Aarōs rodde of the house of Leui florished, and brought forth blossoms, & bare allmondes. And Moses brought forth all ℣ staues frō ℣ LORDE before all ℣ childrē of Israel, that they might se it. And they toke euery mā his staffe.

The LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Bringe Aarōs staffe againe before the wytnesse, ℣ it maye be kepte for a tokē to the children of rebellion, that their murmuringes maye ceasse frome, lest they dye.

Moses dyd as ℣ LORDE cōmaunded him. And ℣ childrē of Israel sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, we cōsume awaie, we are destroied, & perishe. Who so cōmeth nye ℣ dwellynge place of ℣ LORDE, he dyeth. Shal we thē vterly cōsume awaie?

The XVIII. Chap.

A AND the LORDE sayde vnto Aaron: Thou & thy sonnes, & thy fathers house wt the shal beare the myßdede of ℣ Sanctuary: & thou & thy sonnes wt the shall beare the myßdede of yor priesthode. * But thy brethren of the trybe of Leui ℣ father, shal come nye the, & be ioyned vnto the, that they maye mynistre vnto ℣. But thou & thy sonnes wt the, shal mynistre before ℣ Tabernacle of witnesse. And they shal wayte vpō ℣ seruyce & vpon ℣ seruyce of the whole Tabernacle. But nye vnto the vessels of ℣ Sanctuary & to the altare, shall they not come, ℣ both they & ye dye not: howbeit they shal be ioyned vnto the, to wayte vpō the mynistracion in the Tabernacle of witnesse, in all the seruice of the Tabernacle. And there shal no straunger come nye vnto you.

Therfore wayte now vpon the seruyce of the Sanctuary, and vpon the seruyce of the altare, that there come no more wrath vpon the childrē of Israel. For lo, I haue take yor brethrē the Leuites frō amonge the childrē of Israel, to be youre gifte, for a presente vnto ℣ LORDE, to do ℣ seruyce in ℣ Tabernacle of witnes. As for ℣, and ℣ sonnes with the, B ye shal waite vpon youre prestes office, that ye maye minister in all maner busynes of the altare, and within the vayle: for yor priestes office geue I vnto you for a gifte to do seruyce. ℵ a straunger come nye, he shall dye.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Aaron: beholde, I haue geuen the my Heueofferynges: And all that the childrē of Israel halowe, haue I geuen vnto the, and to thy sonnes for a perpetuall dewtye. This shalt thou haue of the most holy thinges that they offer. All their giftes with all their meatofferinges, and with all their synofferynges, and wt all their trespace offerynges, that they geue me, the same shal be most holy vnto the and ℣ sonnes. In the most holy place shalt thou eate it. All that are males shall eate therof: For it shal be holy vnto the.

the Waueofferynges of the childrē of Israel, haue I geuen vnto the also, and to thy sonnes, and to thy doughters for a perpetuall dewtye. Who so is cleane in thy house, shal eate therof. All the fat of the oyle, and all ℣ fat of the wyne and corne of their firstlinges, that they geue vnto the LORDE, haue I geuen vnto ℣. The first frutes of all that is in their londe, which they bringe vnto the LORDE, shal be thine. Who so ever is cleane in thine house, shal eate therof.

All dedicate thinges in Israel shal be thine. All that breaketh the Matrix amonge all flesh, which they bringe vnto the LORDE, whether it be man or beest, shalbe thine. But so, that thou cause the firstborne of mā to be redemed, and that thou cause the first borne of vncleane beestes to be redemed also. They shal redeme it whan it is a moneth olde, and shall geue it lowse for money, euen for fyne Sycles, after the Sycle of the Sanctuary, * which Sycle is worth twentye Geras.) Exo.30.b Leu.27.d Eze.45.b

But the first frutes of an ore, or lambe, or goate shalt thou not cause to be redemed for they are holy. Their blonde shalt thou sprenkle vpon the altare, and their fat shalt thou burne for an offerynge of a swete sauoure vnto ℣ LORDE. Their flesh shalbe thine, like as ℣ Wauebrest and ℣ righe shulder is thine also. All the Heueofferinges that ℣ childrē of Israel halowe vnto ℣ LORDE, haue I geuen vnto the, & to thy sonnes, & to thy doughters with the for a perpetuall dewtye.

This shalbe a salted covenaūt for ever before ỳ LORDE, vnto the and thy sede with the.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Aarō: Thou shalt inheret nothinge in their londe, ner have eny porciō amonge them: for I am ỳ porcion, and thine enheritaunce amōge the children of Israel. Vnto the children of Leui have I geven all the tithes in Israel to inheritaunce, for ỳ seruyce which they do vnto me in the Tabernacle of witnesse, that from hēce forth the children of Israel come not nye the Tabernacle of witnes, to lade them selves with synne, and to dye: But the Levites shal do the seruyce in the Tabernacle of witnes, & shal beare their synne, for a perpetuall lawe amonge youre posterities. * And they shall inheret none inheritaunce amonge the children of Israel. For ỳ tithes of the childrē of Israel, which they heve vnto ỳ LORDE, have I geven vnto the Levites for an heretage. Therfore have I sayde vnto them, that they shall inheret no inheritaunce amonge the children of Israel.

And ỳ LORDE talked wt Moses, & saide: Speake to the Levites, & saye vnto them: Whā ye take of ỳ childrē of Israel ỳ tithes, ỳ I have geven you of thē for yō inheritaūce, ye shal take an heveofferinge of the same vnto the LORDE, euen the tenth of the tithe. And the same yō heveofferynge shall ye reken, as though ye gave corne out of the barne, and fullnesse out of the wynepresse.

Thus shal ye geve an heveofferynge vnto the LORDE of all yō tithes, which ye take of the children of Israel, ỳ ye maie geve the same heveofferynge of ỳ LORDE, vnto Aarō ỳ prest. And all ỳ ye geve of ỳ tythes, & halowe vnto ỳ LORDE for a gifte, ỳ same shall be his of the best. And saye thou vnto them: Whan ye thus heve vp ỳ fat therof, it shal be reken vnto the Levites as the increace of the barne, and as the increace of the wine presse. And ye maye eate it in all places, ye & yō children: for it is youre rewarde for youre seruyce in the Tabernacle of witnesse: and ye shal not lade synne vpon you in the same, whan ye heve the fat therof, and vnhalowe not the halowed thinges of the children of Israel, and ye shal not dye.

The XIX. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aarō & sayde: This custome shall be a lawe, which the LORDE hath cōmaunded, & sayde: Speake vnto ỳ children of Israel, ỳ they bringe vnto ỳ a reed cow without spot, wherin is no blemysh, & vpon whō there came neuer yock: and ye shal geve her vnto Eleasar the prest, * which shall bringe her without the hooste, and cause her to be slayne there before him.

And Eleasar ỳ prest shal take of hir blode with his fynger, and sprenckle it seuen tymes straight towarde the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse, and cause the cow to be burnt before him, both hir skynne and hir flesh, and hir blonde also with hir donge. And the prest shal take Ceder wodd and vsope, and purple woll, and cast it vpō the cow as she burneth, & he shal washe his clothes, and bathe his body with water, and the go in to the hooste, and be vncleane vntyll ỳ euē.

And he that burnt her, shal wash his clothes also with water, and bathe his body in water, & be vncleane vntyll ỳ euen. And one ỳ is cleane, shal gather vp the * aßshes of ỳ cow, and poure them without the hooste in a cleane place, that they maye be kepte there for sprenklinge water to the congregacion of the childrē of Israel, for it is a synofferinge. And he that gathered vp the aßshes of the cow, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. This shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto ỳ children of Israel, and to the straungers that dwell amonge you.

Who so now toucheth a deed mā, shal be vncleane seuen dayes: the same shall purifie himself here with, on the thirde daye and on the seuenth daie, and then shall he be cleane. And yf he puryfye not himself on the thirde daye, & on the seuenth daye, thē shall he not be cleane. But whā eny mā toucheth a deed personne, and wil not purifie himself, he defyleth the dwellynge of the LORDE, and the same soule shal be roted out of Israel, because the sprenklinge water is not sprenkled vpon him: and he is vncleane, as longe as he letteth not himself be pourged therof.

This is the lawe. Whan a mā dyeth in ỳ tente, who so ever goeth in to the tente, and all ỳ is in the tente, shal be vncleane seuē daies. And euery open vessel that hath no lydd nor couerynge, is vncleane. And who so euer toucheth one ỳ is slayne wt the swerde vpon ỳ felde, or eny other deed, or a deed mans bone, or a grave, ỳ same is vncleane seuē dayes.

So now for the vncleane personne, they shal take of ỳ aßshes of this burnt synofferinge, & put springinge water theron in to a vessell, and a cleane man shall take * ysope, & dyppe it in the water, and sprenkle it vpon the tents, and vpon all the vessels, and all the soules that are therin. Lykewyse also vpon him, ỳ hath touched a deed mans bone, or a slayne personne, or a deed body, or a grave.

And he that is cleane, shal sprenkle vpon the vncleane, ye thirde daye, & the seuēth daie, & purifye him on ye seuēth daye. And he shal washe his clothes, & bathe him self wt water, and so at euen he shalbe cleane.

But he yt is vncleane, and wil not purifye him self, ye same soule shal be roted out of ye cōgregacion. For he hath defyled the Sanctuary of the LORDE, & is not sprēkled wt sprēklinge water, therfore is he vncleane. And this shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto thē. And he ye sprenkled wt the sprēklinge water, shall wash his clothes also. And who so euer toucheth the sprēklinge water, shal be vncleane vntill the euen. * And what so euer he toucheth, shalbe vncleaner: & loke what soule he toucheth, shalbe vncleane vntill the euen.

The XX. Chapter.

AND the childrē of Israel came wt the whole cōgregacion into the wildernesse of Zin in the first moneth, * & the people abode at Cades. And there dyed Miriam, & was buried there. And the congregacion had no water, & they gathered them selues together agaynst Moses & Aaron, & the people chode with Moses, & sayde: Wolde God ye we had perished, * whan oure brethrē perished before the LORDE. Wherfore haue ye brought the cōgregacion of the LORDE into this wildernesse, ye we shulde dye here with oure catell? And wherfore haue ye brought vs out of Egipte into this place, where men can not sowe, where are nether fygges, ner vynes, ner pomgranates, & where there is no water to drynke?

And Moses & Aaron wēte frō the congregacion vnto ye dore of ye Tabernacle of witnesse, & fell vpon their faces. And the glory of the LORDE appeared vnto them. And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Take the staffe, & gather the cōgregacion together, thou & thy brother Aaron, & speake vnto the rocke before their eyes, & it shall geue his water. And thus shalt thou prouyde thē water out of the rocke, & geue the congregacion drynke, and their catell also.

Thē toke Moses the staffe before ye LORDE, as he commaunded him, & Moses & Aaron gathered the congregacion together before the rocke, & sayde vnto thē: Heare ye rebellions: Shal we prouyde you water out of this rocke? And Moses lift vp his hande, & smote ye rocke wt the staffe two tymes. Then came ye water out abūdantly, so ye the cōgregacion dranke, and their catell also.

But the LORDE sayde vnto Moses & Aaron: Because ye beleued me not, to sanctifye mē before ye childrē of Israel, ye shal not bringe this congregacion into the londe that I shal geue thē. This is ye water of strife, where the children of Israel strowe wt the LORDE and he was sanctified vpon them.

And Moses sent messaungers frō Cades vnto ye kynge of ye Edomites: This worde sendeth the ye * brother Israel: Thou knowest all ye trauayle that happened vnto vs, how that oure fathers wente downe into Egipte, & how we haue dwelt in Egipte a longe tyme, & how the Egipcians dealte euell with vs & ō fathers. And we cryed vnto ye LORDE which herde oure voyce, and sent his angell, & hath brought vs out of Egipte: And beholde, we are at Cades in ye cite without the borders of ye londe. * O let vs go thorow thy londe, we wyl not go thorow ye feldes ner vynyardes, ner drynke the water out of the foūtaynes. We wyl go the hye strete, and turne nether to ye right hande ner to ye lefte, tyll we be come past ye borders of thy countre.

But the Edomite answered him: Thou shal not go by me, or I wyl come agaynst ye with ye swerde. The children of Israel sayde vnto him: We wil go ye comō hye waye, & yf we or oure catell drynke of thy water, we wil paye for it: we wil do nothinge, but passe thorow on fote onely. But he sayde: Thou shalt not go thorow. And the Edomites came out against them with a mightie people & a strōge hande. Thus ye Edomites denied to gratite Israel passage thorow the borders of the lande. And Israel turned awaye from them.

And the children of Israel brake vp frō Cades, and came with the whole congregacion vnto mount Hor. And the LORDE spake vnto Moses & Aaron at mount Hor harde vpon the coastes of ye lande of ye Edomites, & sayde: Let Aarō be gathered vnto his people: for he shal not come into ye lande ye I haue geuen vnto ye childrē of Israel, because ye were dishobedient vnto my mouth at the water of strife. Take Aaron and Eleasar and his sonne, and bringe them vp vnto mount Hor, and strype Aaron out of his vestimentes, and put thē vpon Eleasar his sonne and there shall Aaron be gathered (vnto his people) and dye.

Then dyd Moses as the LORDE cōmaunded him, and they wente vp vnto Mount Hor in ye sight of the whole congregacion. And Moses toke Aarons clothes, & put thē vpon Eleasar his sonne. And Aaron dyed there, euen aboue vpon the mount. And Moses & Eleasar came downe from the mount. And whan the whole congregacion sawe that Aaron was awaye, they mourned for him thirtie daies thorow out the whole house of Israel.

The XXI. Chapter.

Nu. 33. d

AND whan Arad the kynge of the Cananites (which dwelt towarde the south) herde, that Israel came in by ỳ waie ỳ the spyes had founde out, he sought agaynst Israel, and toke some of them presoners. Then vowed Israel a vowe vnto ỳ LORDE, and sayde: Yf thou wylt geue this people vnder my hande, I wyll vtterly destroye their cities. And the LORDE herde ỳ voyce of Israel, and delyuered them the Cananites, and they vtterly destroyed them wt

Deut. 2. a Then departed they fro mount Hor on ỳ waye towarde the reed see, that they might go aboute the lande of the Edomites. And the soules of the people faynted by the waie

Than sent the LORDE fyrie serpentes amonge the people, which bote the peple, so that there dyed moch people in Israel. Thē came they vnto Moses, and sayde: We have synned, because we have spoken agaynst the

Then sayde the LORDE vnto Moses: Make the a brasen serpente, and set it vp for a token. Who so euer is bytten, and loketh vpon

4. Re. 18. a brasse, and set it vp for a token: and whan a serpent had bytten eny man, he behelde the brasen serpente, and recouered.

Num. 33. c And the children of Israel departed, and pitched in Oboth. And from Oboth they wente on, and pitched in Ijim by Abarim in the wylderneſſe ouer agaynst Moab, on the Eastsyde. From thence departed they, and pitched by the ryuer of Sared. From thence departed they, and pitched on this syde Arnon, which is in the wylderneſſe, and commeth out of the coastes of the Amorites. For Arnon is the border betwixte Moab and ỳ Amorites. Wherfore it is spoken in the boke of the warres of the LORDE: And go with violence both on the ryuer of Arnon, and on the founteyne of the riuer, which boweth downewarde to dwell at Ar, and leaneth theron, to be the border of Moab.

And from thence they came to the well. This is the well, wherof the LORDE spake vnto Moses: gather the people together, I wil geue them water. Then sange Israel this songe, and they sange one after another ouer the well: This is the well, that the prynees dygged: the nobles amonge the people have digged it thorow ỳ teacher and their staues.

And from this wildernes they wente vnto Mathana, and from Mathana vnto Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, and fro Bamoth vnto the valley that lieth in ỳ syde of Moab at the toppe of Pisga, and turneth towarde the wylderneſſe.

And Israel sent messaungers vnto Sihō the kynge of the Amorrites, and caused to saye vnto him: Let me go thorow ỳ lande, we wyl not turne in to ỳ feldes ner in to the vynyardes: nether will we drynke the water of the welles, ỳ hye strete wil we go, till we be past the borders of thy countre.

Howbeit Sihon wolde not geue the children of Israel licence to go thorow the coastes of his londe, but gathered all his people together, and wente out agaynst Israel in the wylderneſſe. And whan he came to Jaheza, he sought agaynst Israel. Neuertheleſſe Israel smote him with the edge of the swerde, and conquered his lande from Arnon vnto Jabock, and vnto the children of Ammon. For the borders of the children of Ammon were stroge. So Israel toke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of ỳ Amorites, namely at Hesbon, and in the townes belonginge therto. For Hesbon the cite was Sihons the kynge of the Amorites, and he had foughten before with the kynge of the Moabites, and conquered all his londe from him vntyll Arnon.

Wherfore it is sayde in the prouerbe: Come vnto Hesbon, let vs buylde and prepare ỳ cite of Sihon. For there is a fyre gone out of Hesbon, and a flamme from the cite of Sihon, which hath consumed Ar of ỳ Mo bites, and the citisens of ỳ toppe of Arnon.

Wo vnto the Moab, thou people of Camos
E art vndone. His sonnes are put to flighte, & his doughters brought captyue vnto Sihon the kynge of the Amorites. Their glory is come to naught from Hesbon vnto Dibon: waisted are they vnto Nopha, which reacheth vnto Mediba. Thus dwelt Israel in the lande of the Amorites.

And Moses sent out spyes vnto Jahesar, & they toke the townes belongynge therto, & cõquered the Amorites ỳ were therin. And they turned, & wente vp the waye towarde Basan. Then Og the kynge of Basan wẽte out agaynst them wt all his people, to fight in Edrei. And ỳ LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Feare him not, for I haue geuen him wt his lande & people in to thy hande, & thou shalt do with him, as thou dyddest with Sihon the kynge of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon. And they smote him, & his sonnes, & all his people (so ỳ there remayned none) & cõquered the londe. Afterwarde wẽte ỳ children of Israel, & pitched in ỳ felde of Moab beyonde Jordane by Jericho.

The XXII. Chapter.

A AND whan Balac ỳ sonne of Ziphor sawe all that Israel had done vnto the Amorites, and that the Moabites were sore afrayed of the people (ỳ was so greate) and that the Moabites stode in feare of the children of Israel, he sayde vnto ỳ Elders of the Madianites: Now shal this heape licke vp all that is aboute vs, euẽ as an oxe licketh vp the grasse in the felde. (And Balac ỳ sonne of Ziphor was kynge of the Moabites at that tyme.)

And he sent out messaungers vnto *Balaam the sonne of Beor, which was an interpreter. (The same dwelt by the water of the lande of ỳ children of his people) that they shulde call him, and he caused to saye vnto him: Beholde, there is come out of Egipte, a people, which couereth ỳ face of ỳ earth, and lyeth ouer agaynst me. Come now therfore, and curse me this people, for they are to mightie for me, yf peraduenture I might be able to smyte them, and to dryue them out of the lande. For I wote, that whom thou blessest, he is blessed: and whom thou cursest, he is cursed.

B And the Elders of the Moabites wente on with ỳ Elders of the Madianites, and had the reward of ỳ soyth sayenge in their handes, and they came vnto Balaam, & tolde him the wordes of Balaac. And he saide vnto thẽ: Tary here all night, & I will bringe you worde agayne, euen as the LORDE shal saye vnto me. So ỳ princes of ỳ Moabites abode with Balaam.

And God came vnto Balaam, & sayde: What men are these, which are with ỳ? Balaam sayde vnto God: Balac ỳ sonne of Ziphor the kynge of the Moabites hath sent vnto me: Beholde, there is a people come out of Egipte, and coereth the face of the earth, come now therfore, & curse me thẽ, yf peraduẽture I maye be able to fighte with them, & to dryue thẽ out. But God sayde vnto Balaam: Go not with them, & curse not that people, for they are blessed.

Then rose Balaam vp in the mornynge, C & sayde vnto the princes of Balac: Get you vnto youre londe, for the LORDE wyll not suffer me to go with you.

And the princes of ỳ Moabites gat thẽ vp, came to Balac, & saide: Balaam refuseth to come wt vs. Then sent Balac yet a greater cõpany of princes, & more honorable thẽ they. Whan they came to Balaam, they tolde him: Balac ỳ sonne of Ziphor sendeth ỳ this worde: Oh refuse not to come vnto me, for I wyll promote the vnto hye honoure, & wil do what so euer thou sayest vnto me. Come I praye the, curse me this people.

Balaam answered, & sayde vnto ỳ seruaũtes of Balac: *Yf Balac welde geue me Num.24.c his house full of syluer & golde, yet coulde I not go beyonde ỳ worde of the LORDE my God, to do litle or greate. Nevertheles tary ye here this night, ỳ I maye wete, what the LORDE wil saye more vnto me. Then came God to Balaam by night, & saide vnto him: Yf the men are come to call the, get the vp then, and go with thẽ: but what I shal saye vnto the, that shalt thou do.

Then rose Balaam vp in the mornynge, & D sadled his Asse, & wente wt the princes of ỳ Moabites. But the wrath of God was vpõ whote, because he wẽte. And the angell of ỳ LORDE stode in the waye, to withstode him. But he rode vpõ his Asse, & two seruauntes wt him. And ye Asse sawe ye angell of ye LORDE stondinge in ye waye, & his swerde drawen in his hãde. And ye Asse turned a syde out of ye waye, & wẽte in to the felde. But Balaam smote her, ye she shulde go in the waye.

Then stode the angell of the LORDE in ye pathe by the vynyardes, where there were walles on both the sydes. And whan ye Asse sawe the angell of the LORDE, she wrenshed vnto the wall, & thrust Balaams fote vnto the wall. And he smote her agayne. Thẽ wẽte the angell of the LORDE farther, & stode in a narow place, where there was no waye to turne, nether to the righte hãde ner to ye lefte. And whan the Asse sawe the angell of the LORDE, she fell downe vnder Balaam. Then was Balaams wrath furious, & smote the Asse with a staffe.

Then opened the LORDE the mouth of ye Asse, and she sayde vnto Balaam: What have I done vnto the, that thou hast smytten me now thre tymes? Balaam sayde vnto ye Asse: Because thou hast mocked me. Oh ye I had a swerde now in my hande, I wolde kyll the. The Asse sayde vnto Balaam: Am not I thine Asse, which thou hast rydden vpon in ye tyme vnto this daye? Was I euer wonte to do so vnto the? He sayde: No.

Then opened the LORDE the eyes of Balaam, ye he sawe ye angell of the LORDE stondinge in ye waye, & a drawẽ swerde in his hãde. And he enclyned him selfe, & bowed downe wt his face. And the angell of the LORDE sayde vnto him: Wherfore hast thou smyttẽ thine Asse now thre tymes? Beholde, I am come out to resiste ye, for ye waye is frowarde, & cõtrary vnto me. And ye Asse sawe me, & auoyded fro me thre tymes: or els yf she had not turned a syde fro me, I had slayne the, & saued the Asse alyue.

Then sayde Balaam vnto ye angell of ye LORDE: I have synned, for I wyst not, that thou stodest in the waye agaynst me. And now yf it displease ye, I wil turne agayne. The angell of ye LORDE saide vnto him: Go with the mẽ: but thou shalt speake nothinge els, then ye I shal saye vnto ye. So Balaam wente forth wt the princes of Balac. Whan Balac herde ye Balaam came, he wente out to mete him (in the cite of the Moabites ye lieth on the coaste of Arnon, which is on ye vtemost border) & sayde vnto him: Dyd not I sende for ye to call the? Wherfore camest thou not then vnto me? Thinkest thou ye I am not able to promote ye vnto honor? Balaam answered him: Lo, I am come vnto ye. But how can I saye eny thinge els, thẽ ye God putteth in my mouth? ye I must speake.

So Balaam wente with Balac, and (when they came vnto the cite on the vtemost border of his lande. And Balac slewe oxen and shepe, and sent for Balaam, and for the princes that were with him.

The XXIII. Chapter.

AND in the mornynge, Balac toke Balaam, and they wẽte vp to the hye place of Baal, that from thẽce he might se vnto the vtemost parte of ye people. And Balaam sayde vnto Balac: Buylde me here seuen altares, and prouyde me here seuen bullockes, and seuẽ rammes. Balac dyd as Balaam sayde. And both Balac and Balaam offred, on euery altare a bullocke & a ramme. And Balaam sayde vnto Balac: Stonde thou by ye burntofferynge, I wil go, yf happly the LORDE wil mete me, & call me, ye I maye tell the, what so euer he sheweth me. And he wente his waye, as he sayde.

And ye LORDE mett Balaam. And Balaam saide vnto him: Seuen altares have I prepared, and offred on euery altare a bullocke and a ramme. The LORDE put ye worde in Balaams mouth, and sayde: Go agayne vnto Balac, and saye on this wise. And whan he came agayne vnto him, beholde, he stode by his burntofferynge, with all ye princes of the Moabites.

Then toke he vp his parable, & sayde: Balac the kynge of the Moabites hath caused to fetche me out of Syria from the mountaynes towarde the East, (& sayde:) Come, curse me Jacob: come, defye me Israel. How shall I curse, whom God curseth not? How shal I defye, whom ye LORDE defyeth not? For frõ ye toppe of ye stonye rockes I se him, & from the hilles I beholde him. Beholde, ye people shal dwell by thẽselues, & shal not be reckened amõge the Heithẽ. Who can tell the dust of Jacob, & the nombre of the fourth parte of Israel? My soule die ye death of ye righteous, and my ende be as the ende of these.

Thẽ saide Balac vnto Balaam: What doest thou vnto me? I caused to fet ye for to curse myne enemies, & beholde, thou blessest thẽ. He answered & saide: Must I not kepe & speake ye, which the LORDE putteth in to me mouth? Balac saide vnto him: Come wt me yet vnto another place, frõ whence thou mayest se ye vtemost parte of them, & not se them all, and curse me them there.

And he toke him vp to a fre place, euẽ vnto the toppe of Pisga, & buylded seuen altares, and offered on euery altare a bullocke & a ramme. And he sayde vnto Balac: Stond

The XXVIII. Chapter.

A AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Cõmaunde ye childrẽ of Israel, & saye vnto thẽ: The offerynge of my bred which is my offerynge of the swete sauoure, shal ye kepe in his due season, that ye maie offre vnto me. And saye vnto thẽ: These are the offerynges that ye shal offre vnto the LORDE: Lambes of a yeare olde which are without blemysh, euery daye two for a daylie burntofferynge: the one lambe in the mornynge, the other at euen. And therto a tenth deale of an Epha of fyne floure for a meatofferynge, myngled with beatẽ oyle of the fourth parte of an Hin, this is a daylie burntofferynge, which ye offred vpon mount Sinai, for a swete sauoure of a sacrifice vnto the LORDE: And the drynkofferinge of the same, ye fourth parte of an Hin to a lambe, and this shalbe poured in the Sanctuary for a gifte vnto the LORDE. The other lambe shalt thou prepare at euẽ (like as the meat offerynge in the mornynge) & the drynkofferinge therof, for a sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE.

B On the Sabbath daye, two lambes of a yeare olde without blemysh, & two tẽth deales of fyne floure myngled with oyle, & the drynkofferynge therof. This is the burntofferynge of euery Sabbath, besyde the daylie burntofferynge, & his drynkofferinge.

And on the first daye of youre monethes ye shal offre a burntofferynge vnto ye LORDE: two yonge bullockes, a ramme, seuẽ lambes of a yeare olde without blemysh, and all waye three tenth deales of fyne floure for a meatofferynge myngled with oyle vnto euery bullocke: two tenth deales of fyne floure for a meatofferynge myngled with oyle vnto the ramme: and a tenth deale of fyne floure for a meatofferynge myngled with oyle vnto euery lambe. This is the burntofferynge of a swete sauoure, a sacrifice vnto ye LORDE.

C And their drynkofferynges shalbe, half an Hin of wyne vnto euery bullocke, the thirde parte of an Hin to the ramme, ye fourth parte of an Hin to euery lambe. This is the burntofferynge of euery moneth in the yeare. There shalbe offered an he goate also for a synofferynge vnto the LORDE, to the daylie burntofferynge with his drynkofferynge.

And on the fourtene daye of the first moneth is the Easter vnto the LORDE, and on the fyftene daye of the same moneth is the feast. Seuẽ dayes shal vnleuended bred be eaten. The first daye shalbe an holy conuocacion: No seruile worke shal ye do therin, and ye shal offre a burntofferynge vnto the LORDE: two yonge bullockes, one ramme, seuen lãbes of a yeare olde without blemysh, with their meatofferynge: three tenth deales of fyne floure myngled with oile to either bullocke, and two tenth deales to the ramme, and one tenth deale to euery lambe amonge the seuen lambes. And an he goate for a synofferinge, to make an attonement for you. And these shal ye offre in the mornynge, besydes the burntofferynge, which is a daylie burntofferynge. After this maner shal ye offre ye bred euery daye seuen dayes longe for an offeringe of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE, to the daylie burntofferynge, and drynkofferynge also. And the seuenth daye shal be called an holy conuocacion with you: no seruyle worke shal ye do therin. Leui. 23. D

And the daye of the fyrst frutes (whã ye offre the meatofferynge of the moneth vnto ye LORDE in youre wekes) shal be an holy cõuocacion also: No worke of bondage shal ye do therin. And ye shal offre a burntofferynge for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE: two yonge bullockes, a ramme, seuen lambes of a yeare olde, with their meatofferynges: three tenth deales of fyne floure myngled with oyle to euery bullocke, two tenth deales to the ramme, and one tent deale to euery lambe of the seuen lambes. And an he goate to make an attonement for you. This shal ye do, besydes ye daylie burntofferynge with his meatofferynge and his drynkofferinge. Without blemysh shal they be all. Leui. 23.

The XXIX. Chapter.

A AND the fyrst daye of the seuenth moneth shal be with you an holy cõuocacion. No seruyle worke shal ye do therin, for it is the daye of youre trompet blowinge. And ye shal offre a burntofferinge for a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE: a yonge bullocke, a ramme, seuen lambes of a yeare olde without blemish. And their meatofferinges: three tenth deales of fyne floure myngled wt oyle to the bullocke, two tenth deales to ye rãme, and one tenth deale vnto euery lambe of ye seuen lãbes. An he goate also for a synofferinge, to make an attonement for you, beside ye burntofferinge of ye moneth & his meatofferinge, & besyde ye daylie burntofferynge wt his meatofferynge & with their drinkofferinges, acordinge to the maner of thẽ for a swe- Leui. 23.

B vnto the LORDE for a swete sauoure: a yonge bullocke, a ramme, seuen lambes of a yeare olde without blemish, & their meatofferinges: thre tenth deales of fine floure myngled with oyle to the bullocke, two tenth deales to the rāme, & one tenth deale to euery one of the seuen lambes. And an he goate for a synofferinge, beside the synofferinge of the attonemēt, and ý daylie burntofferige & his meatofferinge, and & his drynkofferinge.
xxiii. k The fifteenth daye of the seuenth moneth shal be an holy cōuocacion & you, no seruyle worke shal ye do therin, and seuē dayes shal ye kepe a feast vnto the LORDE. And ye shal offre the LORDE a burntofferinge for a sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto the LORDE: thirtene yonge bullockes, two rāmes, fourtene lābes of a yeare olde without blemish, & their meatofferynges: thre tenth deales
C of fyne floure myngled with oyle to euery one of the thirtene bullockes, two tenth deales to ether of the two rammes, & one tenth deale to euery one of the fourtene lambes: & an he goate for a synofferynge, beside ý daylye burntofferynge with his meatofferynge and his drynkofferynge.

On the seconde daye, twolue yonge bullockes, two rammes, fourtene lambes of a yeare olde without blemysh & their meatofferinges and drynkofferynges to the bullockes, to the rammes and to the lambes in ý nombre of them acordinge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferinge, beside the daylie burntofferinge with his meatofferinge, and with his drynkofferynge.

On the thirde daye, eleuen bullockes, two rammes, fourtene lambes of a yeare olde & out blemish, with their meatofferinges, and drynkofferinges to the bullockes, to the rammes and to the lambes in their nombre acordinge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferynge, beside the daylye burntofferinge with his meatofferynge and his drynkofferynge.

On the fourth daye, ten bullockes, two
D rāmes, fourtene lambes of a yeare olde without blemysh, with their meatofferynges and drynkofferynges, to the bullockes, to the rāmes, and to the lambes in their nombre acordynge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferynge, beside the daylie burntofferinge & his meatofferinge, & his drynkofferinge. On the fifth daye, nyne bullockes, two rāmes, fourtene lambes of a yeare olde without blemysh, with their meatofferynges & drynkofferynges to the bullockes, to ý rammes & to the lambes in their nombre acordynge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferinge, beside ý daylie burntofferynge with his meatofferynge and his drynkofferynge.

On the sixte daye, eight bullockes, two rāmes, fourtene lābes of a yeare olde without blemysh, with their meatofferynges & drynkofferinges to the bullockes, to the rammes, & to the lambes in their nombre acordinge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferinge, beside the daylie burntofferinge with his meatofferynge and his drynkofferynge.

On the seuenth daye, seuen bullockes, two rammes, fourtene lambes of a yeare olde & out blemysh, with their meatofferinges and drynkofferinges to the bullockes, to the rammes, and to the lambes in their nombre acordynge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferynge, beside the daylie burntofferinge with his meatofferynge and his drynkofferynge.

On the eight daye shal ye gather the people together, No seruyle worke shall ye do therin. And ye shall offre a burntofferynge for a sacrifice of a swete sauoure vnto ý LORDE. A bullocke, a ramme, seuē lambes of a yeare olde without blemysh, with their meatofferynges and drynkofferynges to ý bullocke to the ramme, and to the lambes in their nōbre acordinge to the maner. And an he goate for a synofferinge, beside the daylie burntofferynge with his meatofferynge & his drynkofferynge.

These thinges shal ye do vnto ý LORDE in youre feastes, beside that ye vowe and gyue of a frewyll for burntofferinges, meatofferynges, drynkofferynges and healthofferinges. And Moses tolde the children of Israel all that the LORDE commaunded him.

The XXX. Chapter.

AND Moses spake vnto the rulers of the trybes of the children of Israel, and saide: This is it that the LORDE hath commaūded: Yf eny man make a vowe vnto the LORDE, or sweare an ooth, so that he binde his soule, he shal not breake his worde, but do all that is proceaded out of his mouth.

Yf a damsell make a vowe vnto ý LORDE, and bynde hirself, whyle she is in hir fathers house, and vnmaried, and hir vowe or bonde that she maketh ouer hir soule, commeth to hir fathers eares, & he holde his peace therto, thē all hir vowes & bondes ẏ she hath boūde hir self withall ouer hir soule, shal stōde in effecte. But yf hir father forbyd her ẏ same daye that he heareth it, thē shal no vowe ner bonde that she hath bounde hir self withall ouer hir soule, be of vayle. And the LORDE shalbe mercifull vnto her, for so moch as hir father forbad her.

Yf she haue an hußbande, & hath a vowe vpon her, or yf she haue letten go out of hir lippes a bōde ouer hir soule, & hir hußbande heare it, & holdeth his peace therat, the same daye that he heareth it, then hir vowe & bonde wherwith she hath boūde hir self ouer hir soule, shal stonde in effecte. But yf hir hußbande forbyd her the same daye that he heareth it, thē is the vowe lowse ẏ she hath vpō hir, & the bonde also that she hath letten go out of hir lippes ouer hir soule, and the LORDE shalbe gracious vnto her.

The vowe of a wyddowe, & of her ẏ is deuorced, all ẏ she byndeth hir self withall ouer hir soule, shal stonde in effecte vpō her.

Yf she vowe in hir hußbādes house, or binde hir self wt an ooth ouer hir soule, & hir husbande heare it, & holde his peace therto, and forbyddeth it not, thē shal all ẏ same vowe, & all ẏ she hath boūde hir self wt all ouer hir soule, stōde in effecte. But yf hir hußbāde disanulle it, ẏ same daye ẏ he heareth it, thē is it of no value ẏ is proceaded out of hir lippes, which she hath vowed or boūde ouer hir soule: for hir hußbāde hath made it lowse, & the LORDE shalbe gracious vnto her. And all vowes & oothes ẏ bynde to humble ẏ soule, maie hir hußbāde stablish or breake, thus: Yf he holde his peace therto frō one daie to another, then stablisheth he all hir vowes & bondes, ẏ she hath vpon her, because he held his peace, the same daye ẏ he herde thē. But yf he disanulle thē after ẏ he hath herde thē, then shal he take awaie hir mißdede.

These are the statutes ẏ the LORDE cōmaunded Moses betwene a man & his wife, & betwene the father & his doughter, whyle she is yet a damsell in hir fathers house.

The XXXI. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses, & sayde: Auenge the childrē of Israel of the Madianites, ẏ thou mayest afterwarde be gathered vnto ẏ people. Thē spake Moses vnto the people, & sayde: Harnesse some men amonge you to the warre agaynst the Madianites (ẏ they maye auenge ẏ LORDE vpon the Madianites) out of euery trybe a thousande, ẏ out of euery trybe of Israel ye maye sende some to the battayll. And from amonge the thousandes of Israel they toke one thousande out of euery tribe, euen twolue thousande prepared vnto the battayll. And Moses sent them with Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the preist in to the battayll, and the holy vessels and ẏ trompettes to blowe in his hande.

And they fought agaynst ẏ Madianites as ẏ LORDE cōmaunded Moses, & slew all ẏ males, & the kynge of the Madianites slew they also amonge the other that were slaine namely, Eui, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba, the fyue kynges of the Madianites. And they slew Balaam the sonne of Beor wt the swerde. And ẏ children of Israel toke the wemen of the Madianites presoners, & their childrē: all their catell, all their substaunce, and all their goodes spoiled they, and all their cities of their dwellynges & castels burnt they wt fyre. And they toke all ẏ spoyles, & all ẏ they coulde catche men & catell, and brought thē vnto Moses & to Eleasar the preist, and to ẏ congregacion of the children of Israel (namely ẏ presoners, and the catell ẏ were take, and the good that was spoyled) in to the hoost in the felde of the Moabites, which lyeth beside Jordane ouer against Jericho.

And Moses and Eleasar the preist and all the captaines of ẏ congregacion, * wēte out of the hoost to mete thē. And Moses was angrie at the officers of the hoost, which were captaynes ouer thousandes and hūdreds, ẏ came from the battayll, and sayde vnto thē: Haue ye saued all ẏ wemen alyue? Beholde, * haue not they (thorow Balaams busynes) turned awaye ẏ children of Israel to synne agaynst the LORDE vpō peor, & their came a plage ouer the whole cōgregacion of ẏ LORDE: Now therfore slaie all the males amōge ẏ childrē, & kyll all ẏ wemen ẏ haue knowne men & lyen wt them. But all the wemen children ẏ haue knowne no mē ner lien wt them, kepe those alyue for youre selues. And lodge ye without the hoost, all ẏ haue slayne any man, or touched the slayne, that on the thirde and seuenth daie ye maie purifie yō selues and those whom ye haue taken presoners. And all the clothes, and all stuffe that is made of ßkynnes, and all maner furres, and all vessels of wod shal ye purifie.

And Eleasar the preist sayde vnto ẏ captaynes of the hoost, ẏ wente out to the battayll: This is the statute of the lawe, which the LORDE cōmaunded Moses: Golde, siluer brasse, yron, tynne and leed, and all that suffreth the fyre, shall ye cause to go thorow the fyre, and clense it, that it maye be

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: Take the summe of the spoyle of those that are taken, both of wemen and of catell, thou and Eleasar the preest, and the chefe fathers of the congregacion, and geue ỳ halfe vnto those that toke the warre vpon them, and wente out to the battayll, and ỳ other halfe to the congregacion. And of the men of warre that wente out to ỳ battayll, thou shalt heue vnto the LORDE one soule of fyue hundreth, both of the wemen, oxen, Asses and shepe: Of their halfe parte shalt thou take it, and geue it vnto Eleasar the preest for an heueofferynge vnto the LORDE. But of the childrē of Israels halfe parte, thou shalt take one heade of fyftie, both of the wemen, oxen, Asses and shepe, and of all the catell, and shalt geue them vnto the Leuites, that wayte vpon the habitaciō of the LORDE.

And Moses and Eleasar the preest dyd as the LORDE commaunded Moses. And the spoyle and praye which ỳ men of warre had spoyled, was sixe hundreth thousande and fyue and seuentye thousande shepe, two and seuentye thousande oxen, one & three score thousande Asses: and the wemen ỳ had knowne no men ner lyen wt them, were two and thirtie thousande soules.

And the halfe parte which belonged vnto them that wente to the warre, was in nōbre three hundreth thousande, and seuen and thirtie thousande, and fyue hundreth shepe: of the which the LORDE had sixe hundreth, & fyue and seuentye shepe. Item sixe and thirtie thousande oxen: wherof the LORDE had two & seuentye. Item thirtie thousande & fyue hundreth Asses: wherof the LORDE had one & three score. Item sixtene thousande soules of wemen: wherof the LORDE had two & thirtie. And Moses gaue this heueofferynge of the LORDE vnto Eleasar the preest, as the LORDE commaunded him.

As for the other halfe which Moses deuyded vnto the childrē of Israel frō ỳ men of warre (namely ỳ halfe that fell to the congregacion) it was also three hundreth thousande, and seuen and thyrtie thousande, & fyue hundreth shepe, sixe and thirtie thousande oxen, thyrtie thousande & fyue hundreth Asses, and sixtene thousande wemen soules.

And of this halfe of the childrē of Israel toke Moses one of euery fyftie, both of the catell & of the wemen, and gaue them vnto ỳ Leuites, that waited vpon the habitaciō of the LORDE, as ỳ LORDE cōmaūded Moses.

And the captaynes ouer ỳ thousandes of the hooste, namely they that were ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, came forth vnto Moses, and sayde vnto him: Thy seruaūtes haue taken ỳ summe of ỳ men of warre, that were vnder oure hande, and there lacked not one: therfore bringe we a present vnto the LORDE, what euery one hath fonde of Jewels of golde, cheynes, bracelettes, rynges, earinges, and taches, that oure soules maye be reconcyled before the LORDE.

And Moses and Eleasar ỳ preest toke of them ỳ golde of all maner ornamentes. And all the golde of the heueofferynge that they heued vnto the LORDE, was sixtene thousande and seuen hundreth and fyfty Sycles, of the captaynes ouer thousandes and hundreds. For loke what euery one had spoyled, that was his awne. And Moses & Eleasar the preest toke the golde of the captaynes ouer thousandes and hundreds, and broughte it in to the Tabernacle of witnesse for a remembraunce of the childrē of Israel before the LORDE.

The XXXII. Chapter.

The childrē of Ruben and the childrē of Gad had an exceadinge grete multitude of catell, and sawe the londe of Jaeser and Gilead ỳ it was a mete place for catell, and came & spake vnto Moses and to Eleasar the preest, and to the captaynes of the congregacion: The londe of Atroth, Dibon, Jaesar, Nimra, Hesbō, Elale, Seban, Nebo, & Beon, which the LORDE smote before ỳ congregacion of Israel, is a mete londe for catell, and thy seruauntes haue many catell. And they sayde moreouer: If we haue fonnde fauoure before the, thē geue thy seruauntes this londe in possession, and we wyl not go ouer Jordane.

Moses sayde vnto them: Noure brethren shall go to the warre, and wyll ye tary here? Wherfore turne ye ỳ hertes of the childrē of Israel, that they shulde not go ouer into the londe that the LORDE shall geue them? Thus dyd youre fathers also, whan I sent them out from Cades Bernea, to spye out ỳ londe. And whan they were come vp to ỳ ryuer of Escol, and sawe ỳ londe, they turned the hertes of the childrē of Israel, so ỳ they wolde not in to the londe which ỳ LORDE wolde haue geuen them.

And the LORDE was wroth at the same tyme, & sware, & sayde: These men ỳ are come out of Egipte, from twẽtye yeare olde & above, shall not se the lande which I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, because they haue not wholy folowed me: saue Caleb ỳ sonne of Jephune ỳ Kenisite, & Josua ỳ sonne of Nun: for they haue wholy folowed ỳ LORDE. So the LORDE was wroth wt Israel, & let thẽ wander in the wildernesse fourtye yeares, tyll all ỳ generacion ỳ had done euell before the LORDE, was consumed.

C And beholde, ye are rysen vp in youre fathers steade, to increase the nombre of synfull men, & to augmente yet the wrath & indignacion of the LORDE agaynst Israel. For yf ye turne you backe from folowinge him, he shal yet leaue them more in the wildernes, & so shal ye destroye all this people.

Then stepte they to him, & sayde: we wyll but buylde shepefoldes here for oure shepe & catell, & cities for ỏ children: As for oure selues, we will go ready armed before the children of Israel, tyll we haue broughte them vnto their place: Oure childrẽ shal remayne in the fenced cities, because of ỳ indwellers of the londe. We will not turne home agayne, tyll the children of Israel haue taken euery one his inheritaunce in possession: for we wyll not inheret with them beyonde Jordane: for ỏ inheritaunce shal fall vnto vs vpon this syde Jordane Eastwarde.

D Moses sayde vnto them: * Yf ye wil do this, that ye wil harnesse youre selues to the warre before the LORDE, then go ouer Jordane before the LORDE, who so euer is harnessed amonge you, tyll he haue dryuen out his enemies before his face, and vntyll the londe be subdued before the LORDE, then shal ye returne, & be vngilty before the LORDE, and before Israel, & so shal ye haue this londe in possession before the LORDE. But yf ye will not do so, beholde, ye shal offende agaynst the LORDE, and be sure, that youre synne shal synde you out. Buylde cities now therfore for youre children, and shepefoldes and stalles for youre shepe and catell, and do as ye haue spoken.

E The childrẽ of Gad, & the childrẽ of Ruben sayde vnto Moses: Thy seruauntes shal do as my lorde hath cõmaunded. Oure children, wyues, substaunce, & all ỏ catell, shal be in ỳ cities of Gilead. But we ỳ seruauntes will go all harnessed for the warre vnto battaill before ỳ LORDE, as my lorde hath saide.

Thẽ Moses cõmaunded Eleasar ỳ prest & Josua the sonne of Nun, & the chefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, and saide vnto them: Yf the childrem of Gad & the children of Ruben go ouer Jordane wt you, all prepared to fight before the LORDE, & whan the londe is subdued vnto you, thẽ geue them the londe of Gilead in possessiõ. But yf they go not ouer with you in harnes, then shal they inheret wt you in ỳ lode of Canaã. Ios.4.e

The children of Gad and the children of Rubẽ answered, & sayde: As ỳ LORDE hath spoken vnto ỳ seruauntes, so wyll we do: we wil go harnessed before the LORDE in to ỳ lãde of Canaan, and possesse oure enheritaunce on this syde Jordane.

So Moses gaue vnto ỳ children of Gad and to the children of Ruben, and to the halfe trybe of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, ỳ kyngdome of Sihon kynge of the Amorites and the kyngdome of Og the kynge of Basan, the londe with the cities therof in all ỳ coastes of ỳ countre rounde aboute. Thẽ ỳ children of Gad buylded Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, Atroth, Sophan, Jaeser, & Jegabeha, Bethnimra, & Betharan, stronge fenced cities, & shepe foldes. The children of Ruben buylded Hesbõ, Eleale, Kiriathaim, Nebo, Baal Meon, & turned ỳ names, & Sibamas & gaue names vnto ỳ cities which they buylded. And ỳ children of Machir the sonne of Manasse wente in to Gilead, & conquered it, and droue out the Amorites ỳ were therin. Then Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir ỳ sonne of Manasse, & he dwelt therin. Jair ỳ sonne of Manasse wente and conquered the vyllagies therof, and called them Hauoth Jair. Nobah wente, and cõquered Kenath, with the townes belonginge therto, and called it Nobah, after his awne name. F Deut.3.b Ios.22.a.d

The XXXIII. Chapter.

THese are ỳ iourneys of the childrẽ of Israel, which wẽte out of ỳ lande of Egipte acordinge to their armies, by Moses & Aarõ. And Moses wrote their goinge out as they iourneyed, after ỳ cõmaundement of ỳ LORDE. And these (namely) are the yourneyes of their outgoinge. They departed frõ Raemses vpon ỳ fiftene daye of the first moneth (euen the morow after the Easter) thorow an hye hande, so that all the Egipcians sawe, and buried then their firstborne, whom the LORDE had slayne amonge them: for the LORDE executed iudgment also vpon their goddes. When they were departed from Raemses, they pitched in Succoth. And frõ Sucoth they departed, & pitched their tentes in Ethã, which lyeth in ỳ edge of ỳ wildernes. Frõ Etham they depar- A Exod.12.f B Exod.13.d

From Hyroth they departed, Exo.14.c & went in thorow ỹ middes of the see into ỹ wyldernes, and went thre dayes yourney in the wildernes of Etham, & pitched in Marah. From Marah they departed, and came vnto Elim, where there were twolue welles of water, and seuentye palme trees, Exo.16.a & there they pitched. From Elim they departed, and pitched by the reed see. From ỹ reed see they departed, and pitched in the wilderneſſe of Sin. From the wildernes of Sin they departed, and pitched in Daphka. Frō Daphka they departed, and pitched in Alus. Exo.17.a From Alus they departed, and pitched in Raphidim, where the people had no water to drynke. From Raphidim they departed and pitched in the wildernes of Sinai. Exo.19.a

C From Sinai they departed, and pitched Num.10.b at the Luſtgraues. Frō the Luſtgraues they Num.11.g departed, and pitched in Hazeroth. * From *Nu.12.b Hazeroth they departed, & pitched in Rithma. From Rithma they departed, and pitched in Rimon Parez. From Rimon Parez they departed, and pitched in Libna. From Libna they departed, and pitched in Riſſa. Frō Riſſa they departed, & pitched in Kehelatha. Frō Kehelatha they departed, & pitched in moūt Sapher. From moūt Sapher they departed, & pitched in Harada. Frō Harada they departed, pitched in Makeheloth. From Makeheloth they departed, & pitched in Tahath. From Tahath they departed, and pitched in Tharah. From Tharah they departed, and pitched in Mitka. From Mitka they departed, and pitched in Hasmona. From Hasmona they departed, and pitched in Mosseroth.

D * From Mosseroth they departed, and pitDeut.10.b ched in Bne Jaekon. From Bne Jaekon they departed, and pitched in Horgadgad. From Horgadgad they departed, & pitched in Jathbatha. From Jathbatha they departed, and pitched in Abrona. From Abrona they departed, and pitched in Ezeon gaber. From Ezeon gaber they departed, and pitched in ỹ wildernes of Zin, which is Cades. Nu.20.a

From Cades they departed, and pitched Nu.20.d at mount Hor, on the border of the londe of Deu.10.b Edom. Then Aaron the preſt went vp vnto mount Hor (accordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE) and died there in the fourteyeth yeare, after ỹ the children of Israel departed out of the londe of Egipte, in the firſt daie of the fifte moneth, whā he was an hundreth and thre and twentye yeare olde. And Arad the kynge of the Cananites, which dwelt in the ſouth countre of Canaherde ỹ the children of Israel came.

And from mount Hor they departed, and pitched in Zalmona. From Zalmona they departed, and pitched in Phimon. From Phimon they departed, * and pitched in Oboth. From Oboth they departed, and pitched in Jgim by Abarim vpon the border of the lande of ỹ Moabites. From Jgim they departed, and pitched in Dibon Gad. From Dibō Gad they departed, and pitched in Almon Diblathama. Frō Almon Diblathama they departed and pitched in the mountaynes of Abarim ouer agaynſt Nebo. From the mountaynes of Abarim they departed, and pitched in ỹ felde of the Moabites beſyde Jordane ouer agaynſt Jericho. Frō Beth haiſmoth vnto the playne of Sitim laye they in the felde of the Moabites.

And the LORDE ſpake vnto Moſes in the felde of the Moabites, by Jordane ouer agaynſt Jericho, and ſayde: Speake to the children of Israel, and ſaie vnto them: Whā ye are come ouer Jordane in the lande of Canaan, ye ſhal dryue out all the inhabiters before youre face, and plucke downe all their pilers, and all their ymages of metall, and deſtroye all their * hye places: that ye maye ſo take the londe in poſſeſſion and dwell therin. For I haue geuē you the londe to enioye it.

And the londe ſhall ye deuyde out by lott amonge youre kynreds. Vnto thoſe that are many, ſhall ye deuyde the more: And vnto them that are fewe, ſhall ye deuyde the leſſe. Euen as the lott falleth there vnto euery one, ſo ſhal he haue it, accordinge to the trybes of their fathers.

But yf ye wyll not dryue out the inhabiters of ỹ lande before yō face, then they whō ye ſuffre to remayne, ſhall become thornes in youre eyes, and dartes in youre ſydes, & ſhall vexe you in the londe where ye dwell. Then wil it come to paſſe, that I ſhal do vnto you euen as I thought to do vnto them.

The XXXIIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE ſpake vnto Moſes, and ſayde: Commaunde the children of Israel, and ſaye vnto them: Whan ye come into the londe of Canaan, the londe ỹ falleth to youre inheritaunce, ſhall haue his borders in the londe of Canaan. The South quarter ſhall begynne at the wyldernesſe of Zin by Edom, ſo that youre South quarter be from the edge of the Salt ſee, which lyeth towarde the South: and that ỹ ſame quarter for a compaſſe from the South vp to crabim, & go thoro w Zimma: & that his out gonge be from the South vnto Cades Barnea, & reache vnto Hazor Adar, and go thorow Azmona, and stretch out from Azmona vnto the ryuer of Egipte, and that the ende therof be at the greate see.

But the West quarter shal be this: namely the greate see, let ẏ be youre border towarde the West.

B The North quarter shalbe this: Ye shall compasse from the greate see vnto mount Hor. And fro mount Hor ye shall compasse tyll a man come vnto Hemath, that the out goynge therof be the coast of Zedada, and that the border of the same go out vnto Siphron, and that the goynge out of it be at Hazor Enan. Let this be youre North quarter.

And youre East quarter shall ye cõpasse from Hazor Enan vnto Sephan, & let the coaste go downe from Sephan and Ribla on the East syde of Ain. Thẽ let it go downe, & reache vnto the syde of the see of Chinereth East warde, and come downe by Jordane, so ẏ the goynge out of it be the Salt see. Let this bé youre londe with the borders therof rounde aboute.

C And Moses commaunded the childrẽ of Israel, and sayde: This is youre londe that ye shal deuyde out amonge you by lott, which the LORDE hath commaunded to geue vnto the nyne trybes, and to the halfe trybe.* For the trybe of the childrẽ of Ruben after their fathers housẽ, and the trybe of the childrẽ of Gad acordinge to their fathers housẽ, and the half trybe of Manasse haue receaued their porcion. Thus the two trybes and the halfe trybe haue their enheritaunce allready, on this syde Jordane, ouer agaynst Jericho, Eastwarde.

And the LORDE spake vnto Moses, and sayde: These are ẏ names of the men, which shal deuyde the londe amonge you. Eleasar the preist, and Josua the sonne of Nun. And the captayne of euery trybe shal ye take, to deuyde the londe.

D And these are the names of the men: Caleb the sonne of Jephune of the trybe of Juda. Semuel the sonne of Ammihud of the trybe of Simeon. Elidad ẏ sonne of Cislon of the trybe of Ben Jamin Buki the sonne of Jagli of the trybe of the childrẽ of Dan. Hamuel the sonne of Ephod, of the trybe of the childrẽ of Manasse amonge the childrẽ of Joseph. Kemuel the sonne of Siphthan, of the trybe of the childrẽ of Ephraim. Elizaphan the sonne of Parnach, of the trybe of the childrẽ of Zabulon. Palthiel the sonne of Asan, of the trybe of the childrẽ of Jsachar. Abihud the sonne of Selomi, of ẏ trybe of the children of Asser. Pedahel the sonne of Ammihud, of the trybe of the childrẽ of Nephtali. These are they whom ẏ LORDE commaunded, that they shulde deuyde the inheritaunce vnto the childrẽ of Jsrael in the londe of Canaan.

The XXXV. Chapter.

AND the LORDE spake vnto Moses in the felde of the Moabites by Jordane ouer agaynst Jericho, & sayde: Commaunde the childrẽ of Jsrael, that they geue vnto ẏ Leuites of the inheritaũce of their possession, cities to dwell in. The suburbes also aboute the cities shal ye geue vnto the Leuites, that they maye dwell in the cities, and in the suburbes to haue their catell, and substaunce, and all their beestes. A Iosu. 21.a

The suburbes which ye geue vnto ẏ Leuites, shal reache frõ the wall of ẏ cite outwarde, a M. cubites rounde aboute. Thus ye shal measure without the cite on ẏ East syde, two thousande cubites: & on ẏ South syde, two thousande cubites: & on ẏ West syde, two thousande cubites: & on ẏ North syde, two thousande cubites, so ẏ the cite be in the myddes. This shal be their suburbes.

* And amõge the cities which ye shal geue vnto the Leuites, ẏe shall geue thẽ sixe fre cities, that he which cõmitteth a slaughter, maie flye thither. Besydes the same ye shal geue thẽ yet two & fourtie cities: so ẏ all ẏ cities which ye geue vnto ẏ Leuites, be eighte & fourtye w̃ their suburbes. And of ẏ same ye shal geue the more, from thẽ ẏ haue moch in possession amonge the childrẽ of Jsrael: & the lesse from them, that haue litle in possession. Euery one (acordinge to his enheritaunce that is deuyded vnto him) shall geue of his cities vnto the Leuites. B Iosu. 20.a

And the LORDE talked w̃ Moses & saide: Speake to the childrẽ of Jsrael, & saye vnto thẽ: Whan ye come ouer Jordane into ẏ londe of Canaan, ye shall chose out cities to be fre cities, ẏ who so cõmytteth slaughter vnawarres, maye flye thither. And soch fre cities shalbe amonge you because of the auenger of bloude, that he which hath commyted slaughter, dye not, tyll he stonde in iudgment before the congregacion. And of thẽ cities which ye shall geue, there shalbe sixe fre cities. Thre shal ye geue on this side Jordane, and thre in the londe of Canaan. Exo. 21.b Deut. 19.a

These are the sixe fre cities, both for ẏ childrẽ of Jsrael & for the straungers, & for soch C

as dwell amōge you, ẏ whosoeuer hath slaine eny soule vnawares, maye flye thither.

Nu. 21. b He ẏ smyteth eny man wt an yron weapō, ẏ he dye, the same is a murthurer, & shal dye the death. Yf he cast at him wt a stone (wher with eny man maye be slayne) ẏ he dye ther of, then is he a murthurer, and shal dye the death. Yf he smyte him wt an handweapon of wodd (wherwith eny man maie be slayne) that he dye, then is he a murthurer, and shal dye the death. The auenger of blonde shal bringe ẏ murthurer to death. Whan he fyndeth him, he shal slaye him. Yf he thrust at him of hate, or cast ought at him with laienge of wayte, or smyte him of envye wt his hande, that he dye, then shal he that hath slayne him, dye the death: for he is a murthurer. The auenger of blonde shal bringe him to death, as soone as he fyndeth him.

D Deu. 19. a But yf he thrust him by chaunce, & not of envye, or hurle ought at him without eny layenge of wayte, or cast at him with a stone (wherof a man maye dye, & sawe it not) so ẏ he dye, & is not his enemie, nether thought him eny evell, thē shal the cōgregacion iudge betwene him ẏ hath cōmytted ẏ slaughter, and the auenger of blonde, in soch cases. And the cōgregacion shal delyuer the deed slayer from the hande of ẏ auenger of blonde, & shal let him come agayne to the fre cite, whither he was fled: & there shall he abyde vnto ẏ death of the hye prest, which was anoynted with ẏ holy oyle. But yf the deed slayer go out of the borders of his fre cite, that he was fled vnto, and the auenger of blonde fynde him without ẏ borders of his fre cite, and kyll him, he shal not be gyltye of blonde. For he shulde haue bydden in his fre cite vntyll ẏ death of the hye prest, & after ẏ hye prestes death to come agayne vnto the londe of his enheritaunce. This shalbe a statute of the lawe vnto you amōge youre posterities in all youre dwellinges.

E Deu. 17. b and 19. c The deed slayer shal be slayne at ẏ mouth of witnesses. * One witnesse shal not answere ouer a soule to death. And ye shal receaue none attonement ouer the soule of the deed-slayer (for he is giltye of death) but he shal dye the death. And ye shal receaue none attonement of him, which is fled to the fre cite, ẏ he shulde come agayne to dwell in the londe, tyll the hye prest dye. And defyle not ye ẏ londe wherin ye dwell. For who so is giltye of blonde, defyleth the londe: and the londe can not be reconcyled from the blonde that is shed therin, but onely thorow the blonde of him that shed it. Defyle not ye the londe that ye dwell in, wherin I dwell also. For I am the LORDE, which dwell amōge ẏ children of Israel.

The XXXVI. Chapter.

AND ẏ chefe fathers of the kynred of the childrē of Gilead ẏ sonne of Machir (which was the sonne of Manasse of the kynred of the children of Joseph) came forth, and spake before Moses, and before the captaynes amonge the chefe fathers of the childrē of Israel, and saide: Syr, the LORDE hath * commaunded, that ye shulde geue the londe by lott vnto the childrē of Israel to inherete. And thou my lorde hast commaunded thorow the LORDE, that the enheritaunce of ẏ brother Zelaphead shulde be geuē vnto his doughters. Now yf eny men out of the trybes of Israel take them to wyues, then shal oure fathers enheritaunce be lesse: and as moch as they haue, shal come to ẏ enheritaunce of the tryb that they come vnto. Thus shal the lott of oure inheritaunce be mynished. So whan the yeare of Jubilye commeth vnto the childrē of Israel, then shal their enheritaunce come to ẏ enheritaunce of the trybe, where they are. Thus shal oure fathers enheritaunce be mynished, as moch as they haue.

Moses charged the childrē of Israel (accordinge to the commaundement of the LORDE) and sayde: The tryb of the children of Joseph hath sayde righte. This is it that ẏ LORDE commaundeth the doughters of Zelaphead, and sayeth: * Let them mary as they like best, onely that they mary in ẏ kynred of the trybe of their father, that the enheritaunce of the children of Israel fall not frō one trybe to another. For euery one amonge the children of Israel shall cleue to the enheritaunce of the trybe of his father: & euery doughter that possesseth eny enheritaunce amonge the trybes of the childrē of Israel, shal be maryed vnto one of the kynred of the trybe of hir father: ẏ euery one amonge the children of Israel maye enioye his fathers enheritaunce, and that the enheritaunce fall not from one trybe to another: but that euery one maye cleue to his awne enheritaunce amonge the trybes of the children of Israel.

As the LORDE cōmaunded Moses, euē so dyd ẏ doughters of ẏ Zelaphead, Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milca & Noa & were maried vnto their fathers brothers sonnes, of ẏ kynred of the children of Manasse the sonne of Joseph. So their enheritaūce remayned in the trybe of the kynred of their father.

These are the commaundemētes & lawes, which ỳ LORDE commaunded by Moses vnto the childrē of Israel, in the felde of the Moabites by Jordane ouer agaynst Jericho.

The first Chapter.

A

These are the wordes that Moses spake vnto all Israel on the other syde Jordane in the wilderneſſe, in the playne felde towarde the reed see, betwene Paran, Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab, eleven daies iourney from Horeb, by the waye of mount Seir vnto Cades Bernea. And it fortuned the first daye of the eleuenth moneth in the fortieth yeare, that Moses spake vnto ỹ chil dren of Israel accordinge vnto all as ỹ LORDE commaunded him, * after he had smytten Sihon ỹ kynge of the Amorites which dwelt at Hesbon: and Og the kynge of Basan, that dwelt at Astaroth, and at Edrei.

On the other syde Jordane in ỹ lande of the Moabites, began Moses to declare this lawe, and sayde: The LORDE our God spake vnto vs vpon mount Horeb, & sayde: Ye have bene lõge ynough vpon this mountayne, turne you, & departed hence, that ye maye come to the mountaynes of the Amorites, and to all their neighbours in ỹ feldes, vpon mountaynes, and in the valleys towarde the South and towarde the see syde, of the lande of Canaan: and to mount Libanus, euen vnto the greate water Euphrates.

B Beholde, I have delyuered you the londe, go in, and take it in possession, which the LORDE sware vnto yõ fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, * that he wolde gene it vnto thẽ, and their sede after them.

Gene.15.d and 17.b

Then saide I vnto you at the same tyme: I am not able to beare you my self alone, for the LORDE youre God hath increased you, so that this daye ye are as ỹ starres of heauen in multitude. (The LORDE God of yõ fathers make you yet many thousande tymes mo, & blesse you, as he hath promysed you.) How can I alone beare soche cõbraunce, & charge, & stryfe amõge you? Prouyde you men of wyßdome & vnderstondinge, soch as are knowne amonge youre trybes, thẽ wil I set to be heades vnto you.

Exod.18.c

Then answered ye me, and sayde: It is a good thinge, that thou sayest thou wilt do. Then toke I ỹ heades of youre trybes, wyse and famous mẽ, and set them ouer you to be heades, ouer thousandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftye and ouer ten: and officers amonge youre trybes.

And I charged youre iudges at ỹ same tyme, & sayde: Heare youre brethrẽ, & * iudge righteously betwene euery man and his brother, and the straunger. Ye shall knowe no personne in iudgment, but shall heare the small as well as the greate, and be afrayed of no man: for the Judgment is Gods. But yf eny cause be to harde for you, let it be brought vnto me, ỹ I maye heare it. Thus commaunded I you at the same tyme, all ỹ ye shulde doo.

Then departed we from Horeb, and walked thorow the whole wylderneſſe (which is greate and terryble as ye have sene) by the waye to ỹ mountaynes of the Amorites, as the LORDE oure God commaunded vs, and came vnto Cades Bernea. Then sayde I vnto you: Ye are come to ỹ mountaynes of ỹ Amorites, which the LORDE ỹ God shal gue vs. Beholde, there the londe before the, which the LORDE thy God hath gevẽ vnto the: Go vp, & conquere it, as ỹ LORDE God of thy fathers hath sayde vnto the: * feare not, and be not discoraged.

Then came ye all vnto me, and sayde: Let vs sende men before vs, to spye vs out the londe, and to bringe vs worde agayne, by what waye we shal go vp, and to what cities we shal come. That pleased me well, and I toke twolue men from amonge you, of euery trybe one. Which whan they were departed, and wente vp to hye countre, and came to the ryuer Escol, they spyed it out, and toke of the frute of ỹ londe with thẽ, and brought it downe vnto vs, and brought vs worde agayne, and sayde: It is a good londe, that the LORDE oure God hath gemen vs.

But ye wolde not go vp, and were disobedient vnto the mouth of the LORDE youre God, and murmured in youre tentes, and sayde: Because the LORDE hateth vs, therfore hath he brought vs out of the londe of Egipte, to delyuer vs in to the handes of the Amorites, to destroye vs. Whither shal we go vp? Oure brethren have discoraged oure hertes, & saide: The people is greater & of hyer stature thē we, ẏ cities are greate, & walled euen vp to heauen. Moreouer we haue sene there the children of Enakim.

E But I sayde vnto you: Feare not, and be not afrayed of them: for the LORDE youre God goeth before you, and shall fighte for you, like as he dealte with you in Egipte before youre eyes, and in the wylderneſſe: where thou sawest, that the LORDE thy God bare the (euen as a man beareth his sonne) thorow out all the waye that ye haue walked, tyll ye came to this place. And yet for all this ye haue not beleued on the LORDE youre God, which wente before you, to searche you out a place, where ye shulde pitch youre tentes: by night in the fyre (to shewe you the waye, wherin ye shulde go) & on the daye tyme in the cloude.

Whan the LORDE herde ẏ voyce of yō wordes, he was wroth, and swore, and saide: There shall none of this euell generacion se that good londe, which I sware to geue vnto youre fathers, excepte Caleb the sonne of Jephune, he shal se it. And vnto him wyl I geue the londe that he hath troddē vpon, & to his children, because he hath perfectly followed the LORDE.

F The LORDE was angrye wt me also for youre sakes, and sayde: Thou also shalt not go in thither. But Josua ẏ sonne of Nun, which stondeth before the, he shal go in thither: Corage him, for he shal deuyde the enheritaunce out vnto Israel. And youre childrē, of whō ye sayde they shulde be a praye, and youre sonnes which this daie vnderston de nether good ner bad, they shal go in thither, vnto them wil I geue it, and they shall enioye it. But as for you, turne you, and take youre iourney to the wylderneſſe, euen the waye to the reed see.

Then answered ye, & sayde vnto me: We haue synned agaynst ẏ LORDE, we wil go vp, and fighte, accordinge to all that the LORDE hath commaunded vs. Now whan ye had prepared yo selues, euery one in his harneſſe, & were at the poynte to go vp to the mountaynes, ẏ LORDE sayde vnto me: Speake vnto them, ẏ they go not vp, & that they fighte not (for I am not amōge you) that ye be not smytten before youre enemies. Whan I tolde you this, ye wolde not heare, & were disobedient vnto the worde of the LORDE, and were presumptuous, and wente vp to ẏ mountaines. Then the Amorites that dwelt vpon the moūtaynes, came out against you, and chaced you, as Bees do, and smote you at Seir, euen vnto Horma. Now whan ye came againe, and wepte before the LORDE, he wolde not heare youre voyce, and enclyned not his eares vnto you. * So ye abode in Cades a longe season. Nu.20.a

The II. Chapter.

A Then turned we vs, and toke oure iourney to the wilderneſſe, euen the waye to the reed see (as the LORDE sayde vnto me) and compassed mount Seir a longe season. And ẏ LORDE saide vnto me: Ye haue cōpassed this mountayne now lōge ynough, turne you Northwarde, and commaūde the people, and saye: Ye shal go thorow ẏ coastes of youre brethren the children of Esau, which dwell at Seir: & they shal be afrayed of you. But take diligente hede to youre selues, that ye prouoke them not: for I wyl not geue you one fote bredth of their londe. * For mount Seir haue I geuen to the children of Esau to possesse. Ye shal bye meate of them for moneye, that ye maye eate. And water shal ye bye of them for money, that ye maye drynke. For the LORDE thy God hath blessed the in all the workes of thy hondes. He hath considered thy iourneyes thorow this greate wylderneſſe: and this fortye yeares hath the LORDE thy God bene with the, so that thou hast wanted nothinge. Nu.21.a Gen.36. Mal.1.a

B Now whan we were departed from o brethren the children of Esau, that dwelt vpon mount Seir, by the waye of the felde from Elath & Ezeon gaber, we turned vs, & wente by the waye of the wylderneſſe of ẏ Moabites. Then sayde the LORDE vnto me: * Thou shalt not vexe the Moabites, ner prouoke thē vnto battayll, for I wil not geue the of their londe to possesse. For Ar haue I geuen vnto the children of Lot in possession. * The Emims dwelt there before tyme, which were a greate stronge people, & hye of stature, as the Enakims: and were taken for giauntes, like as ẏ Enakims. And ẏ Moabites called them Emims. * The Zo rites also dwelt in Seir afore tyme, & ẏ children of Esau droue them out, and destroyed them before them, & dwelt in their steade: like as Israel dyd in ẏ lōde of his possession, that the LORDE gaue them. Iudic.3. Gen.14. Gen.36.

C Get you vp now, & go ouer the ryuer Sared. And we wente ouer. The tyme that we were goinge frō Cades Barnea, tyll we came ouer the ryuer Sared, was eight & thirtye yeares: tyll all the men of warre were wayſted out of the hooſt, * as the LORDE sware vnto them. The hande of the LORDE also was agaynst them, to destroye thē out Nu.14.c and 26.

of the hooste, tyll they were consumed.

And whan all the men of warre were cōsumed, so ỳ they were deed amonge the people, the LORDE spake vnto me, and sayde: This daie shalt thou go thorow the coast of ỳ Moabites by Ar, & shalt come nye vnto ỳ
Deu. 11.f children of Ammon, * whom thou shalt not vexe ner provoke. For I wyll not geve the of the lōde of the childrē of Ammon to possesse, for I have genē it vnto the childrē of Lot in possession. It was takē for a lōde of giauntes also, & giauntes dwelt therin afore tyme. And ỳ Ammonites calle thē Samsummins, which was a people that was greate, many, and of hye stature, as the Enakims.

D And these ỳ LORDE destroyed before thē, and let them possesse the same, so that they
Gen. 36.d dwelt in their steade. * Like as he dyd with the childrē of Esau, which dwell vpō mount Seir, whan he destroyed the Horites before them: and let them possesse the same, so that they have dwelt in their steade vnto this daye. And the Caphthorims came out of Caphther, and destroyed ỳ Anims (ỳ dwelt at Hazarim euen vnto Gaza) & there dwelt they in their steade.

Get you vp now, and departe, and go ouer the ryuer Arnon. Beholde, I have genē Sihon ỳ kynge of the Amorites at Hesbon in to thy hande: go to and conquere, and provoke him vnto battayll. This daye wyll I begynne, so that all naciōs vnder all the heauen, shal feare & drede ỳ: In so moch ỳ whā they heare of the, they shal tremble and quake for thy commynge.

E Then sent I messaungers from ỳ wylder
Num.21.c nesse of the East vnto Sihon the kynge at Deu.20.b Hesbon * wt peaceable wordes, and caused to saye vnto him: I wil go but thorow ỳ lōde, I wil go a longe by the hye waye, I wil nether turne to the righte hāde ner to ỳ lefte. Thou shalt sell me meate for money, that I maye eate: & water shalt thou sell me for money, that I maye drinke. Onely let me go thorow by fote, as the childrē of Esau (which Deu.20.c dwell at Seir) dyd vnto me: and the Moabites that dwell at Ar: vntyll I be come ouer Jordane, in to the londe which the LORDE oure God shal geve vnto vs.

But Sihon the kynge at Hesbon wolde not let vs go by him: for the LORDE ỳ God herdened his mynde, & made his hert tough that he mighte delyuer him in to thy hādes, as it is come to passe this daye.

And ỳ LORDE sayde vnto me: Beholde, I have begonne to delyuer Sihon with his londe before the: go to and cōquere, and possesse his lōde. And Sihō came out wt all his people to fight agaynst vs at Jahza. But the LORDE oure God delyuered him in to oure handes, so that we smote him with his children and all his people.

Then toke we all his cities at the same tyme, and destroyed vtterly all the cities, men, wemen, and children, and let none remayne saue the catell, which we caught to oure selues, & the spoyle of the cities that we wanne from Aroer, which lyeth vpon the ryuer syde of Arnon, and from the cite on the ryuer vnto Gilead. There was no cite that coulde defende it selfe from vs: the LORDE oure God delyuered vs all before vs. * But
Deu. vnto the londe of the childrē of Ammon thou camest not, ner to all that was on the ryuer Jabok, ner to ỳ cities vpō ỳ mountaines, ner vnto what so ever the LORDE oure God forbad vs.

The III. Chapter.

ANd we turned vs, & wente vp ỳ waie vnto Basan. And Og ỳ kynge of Ba Num. san, came out wt all his people to fight Deu. agaynst vs at Edrei. But the LORDE sayde vnto me: Be not afrayed of him, for I have delyuered him & all his people wt his lōde in to thy hande: & thou shalt do wt him, as thou dyddest wt Sihon kynge of ỳ Amo Deu. rites, which dwelt at Hesbon. Thus ỳ LORDE oure God delyuered Og ỳ kynge of Basan in to oure handes also with all his people: so that we smote him, tyll there was nothinge left ouer vnto him.

Then wanne we at the same tyme all his cities, & there was not one cite that we toke not from him, euen thre score cities, the whole region of Argob in the kyngdome of Og at Basan. All these cities were strōge, with hye walles, gates, and barres, besyde many other vnwalled townes.

And we vtterly destroyed them, as we D dyd with Sihon the kynge at Hesbon. * All Deu. the cities destroyed we vtterly, and the men, wemen, and children. But all the catell and spoyle of the cities canghte we for oure selues.

Thus toke we at the same tyme the londe out of the honde of the two kynges of the Amorites beyonde Jordane, from the ryuer of Arnon vnto mount Hermon (which the Sidons call Sirion, but the Amorites call it Senir) all the cities vpon the playne, and all Gilead, and all Basan vnto Salcha and Edrei, the cities of the kyngdome of Og at Basan. For onely Og the kynge of Basan remayned ouer of the giauntes. Behol-be, his yron bed is here at Rabath amonge the children of Ammon, nyne cubites longe, and foure cubites brode, after the cubite of a man.

This londe conquered we at the same tyme, from Aroer that lyeth on ỳ ryuer of Arnon. And vnto the Rubenites and Gaddites I gaue halfe mount Gilead with the cities therof: but ỳ remnaunt of Gilead, & all Basan the kyngdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe trybe of Manasse. The whole region of Argob with all Basan was called the giauntes londe.

Jair the sonne of Manasse toke all the region of Argob vnto the coastes of Gessuri and Maachati, and Basan called he Hanoth Jair after his awne name, vnto this daye: But vnto Machir I gaue Gilead. And vnto the Rubenites and Gaddites I gaue one parte of Gilead vnto the ryuer of Arnon (at the myddes of the ryuer is ỳ border) and vnto the ryuer Jabok, which is the border of the children of Ammon: the felde also, and Jordane (which is the coaste) from Cinereth vnto the see in the felde, namely, ỳ Salt see vnder mount Pisga, Eastwarde.

And I commaunded you at the same tyme, and sayde: The LORDE youre God hath geuen you this londe to take possession of it. Go youre waye forth therfore harnessed before youre brethren the children of Israel, all ye that be mete for the warre. As for youre wyues, and children and catell (for I knowe that ye haue moch catell) let them remayne in youre cities, which I haue geuen you, vntyl the LORDE youre God haue broughte yo brethren to rest also as well as you, that they also maye take possession of the londe, which ỳ LORDE youre God shal geue thẽ beyonde Jordane: and then shal ye turne agayne to youre awne possession, which I haue geuen you.

And I warned Josua at the same tyme, and sayde: Thine eyes haue sene all that the LORDE youre God hath done vnto these two kynges: euẽ so shal the LORDE do also vnto all ỳ kyngdomes whither thou goest. Feare them not, for the LORDE youre God shal fighte for you.

And I besoughte the LORDE at the same tyme, & sayde: O LORDE LORDE, thou hast begonne to shewe ỳ seruaunte thy greatnesse and thy mightie hãde. For where is there a God in heauen & earth, that can do after ỳ workes and after thy power? O let me go & se ỳ good londe beyonde Jordane, ỳ goodly hye countre, and Libanus.

But the LORDE was angrie with me for youre sakes, and wolde not heare me, but sayde vnto me: Be content, speake nomore to me of this matter. Get the vp to the toppe of mount Pisga, and lifte vp thine eyes towarde the west, and towarde the north, and towarde the south, and towarde ỳ east: and beholde it with thine eies, for thou shalt not go ouer this Jordane. And geue Josua his charge, and corage him, and bolde him, for he shal go ouer Jordane before the people, and shal deuyde vnto them the londe, that thou shalt se. And so we abode in the valley ouer agaynst the house of Peor.

The IIII. Chapter.

And now herken Israel vnto the ordinaũces and lawes, which I teach you that ye do them, ỳ ye maye lyue, and come in, & take possession of the londe, which the LORDE God of yo fathers geueth vnto you. Ye shal put nothinge vnto the worde which I commaunde you, nether do oughte therfrom, that ye maye kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE youre God, which I commaunde you. Youre eyes haue sene what the LORDE hath done vnto Baal peor: all them that walked after Baal peor, hath the LORDE thy God destroied from amonge you. But ye that cleue vnto the LORDE yo God, are all alive this daye. Beholde I haue taughte you ordinaũces and lawes, soch as the LORDE my God commaunded me, that ye shulde do euẽ so in the londe, vnto ỳ which ye shal come, to possesse it.

Kepe them now therfore and do them: for that is youre wyßdome and vnderstondinge in the sight of all nacions, which whã they haue herde all these ordinaunces, shall saye: O what a wyse and vnderstondinge folke is this? and how excellent a people? For where is there so excellent a nacion, that hath goddes so nye him, as the LORDE oure God is nye vnto vs, as oft as we call vpon him? And where is there so excellent a nacion, that hath so righteous ordinaunces and lawes, as all this lawe which I laye before you this daye.

Take hede to thy selfe now, and kepe well thy soule, that thou forget not the thinges which thine eyes haue sene, and that they departe not out of thy hert all the dayes of thy life. And thou shalt teach them thy children and thy childers children, the daye whã thou stodest before the LORDE thy God by mount Horeb, whan the LORDE sayde vnto me: Gather me the people together, that I maye make them heare my wordes, which they shal lerne, that they maye feare me all the dayes of their life vpon earth, * & that they also maye teach their children.

Eph.6.a

And ye came nye, & stode vnder ỳ mount. But the mount burnt euen vnto the myddes of heauen, and there was darknesse, clowdes, and myst. And ỳ LORDE spake vnto you out of the myddes of the fyre. The voyce of his wordes ye herde, neuertheles ye sawe no ymage, but herde the voyce onely. * And he declared vnto you his couenaunt, which he cõmaunded you to do, namely, the ten verses, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone. And the LORDE commmaũded me at the same time, to teach you ordinaunces & lawes that ye might do therafter in the londe, in to the which ye go to possesse it.

The V. Chapter.

AND Moses called all Israel, & sayde vnto thē: Heare Israel the ordinaunces & lawes which I speake in yo‘ eares this daye: lerne them, & kepe thē so, that ye do therafter. * The LORDE oure God made a couenaunt with vs at Horeb: he made not this couenaunt with oure fathers, but with vs, that are here this daie, and lyue euery one. He talked with vs face to face out of the fyre vpō the mount. I stode at the same tyme betwixte the LORDE and you, that I might shewe you the worde of the LORDE. For ye were afrayed of the fyre, & wente not vp to the mount, and he sayde:

I am the LORDE thy God, which haue brought the out of the londe of Egipte, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt haue none other goddes in my sighte. * Thou shalt make the no grauen ymage of eny maner of lickneſſe of the thinges ‡ are aboue in heauen, & beneth vpon earth, & in the water vnder the earth. Thou shalt not hono‘ them, ner serue thē. For I ‡ LORDE ‡ God am a gelous God, vysitinge the synne of the fathers vpō the children, vnto the thirde and fourth generacion, of thē ‡ hate me: & shewe mercye vpon many thousandes ‡ loue me, and kepe my commaundementes.

Thou shalt not take ‡ name of ‡ LORDE ‡ God in vayne: * for ‡ LORDE shal not holde him vngiltie, ‡ taketh his name in vaine. Leu.24.b

Kepe ‡ Sabbath daye, that thou sanctifye it, as the LORDE thy God hath commaūded the. Exo.23.b Sixe daies shalt thou laboure, and do all thy worke, but vpon the seuenth daye it is the Sabbath of the LORDE thy God: No maner worke shalt thou do in it, thou, and thy sonne, and thy doughter, and thy seruaunt, and thy mayde, and thine oxe, and thine Asse, and all thy catell, and the straunger which is within thy gates, that thy seruaunt and thy maydemaye rest as well as thou. For thou shalt remēbre, that thou thyselfe also wast a seruaunte in the londe of Egipte, and how that the LORDE thy God brought the out from thence with a mightye hande, and a stretched out arme. Therfore hath the LORDE ‡ God commaunded ‡ to kepe the Sabbath daye. C

Honoure thy father and thy mother, as the LORDE thy God hath commaunded the that thou mayest lyue longe vpō earth, and that it maye go well with the in the londe, which the LORDE thy God shall geue the. Exo.21.b Mat.15.a Ephe.6.a

* Thou shalt not kyll. Math.5.c

Thou shalt not breake wedlocke. Rom.13.b

Thou shalt not steale.

Thou shalt beare no false witnes agaīnst thy neighboure.

Thou shalt not * lust after ‡ neighbours wyfe. Rom.7.b and 13 b

Thou shalt not lust after thy neighbours house, londe, seruaunt, mayde, oxe, Asse, or what so euer he hath.

These are the wordes that the LORDE spake to all youre congregacion, vpon the mount out of the fyre of the clonde and darkneſſe with a greate voyce, and added nothinge therto. * And he wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and delyuered thē vnto me. Exo.31.d

But whan ye herde the voyce out of the darknes, and sawe the mount burne w‘ fyre, ye came vnto me all ye rulers amonge youre trybes, and youre Elders and sayde: Beholde, the LORDE oure God hath shewed vs his glory & his greatnes, and we haue herde his voyce out of ‡ fyre. This daye haue we sene, that God maie talke with a man, and he yet lyue. And now wherfore shulde we dye, that this fire shulde cōsume vs: Yf we shulde heare the voyce of the LORDE oure God eny more, we shulde dye. For what is all fleshe, that it shulde be able to heare ‡ voyce of the lyuynge God speakynge out of ‡ fyre, as we haue done, and yet lyue: Go thou and heare D

all ẏ the LORDE oure God sayeth, and tell Exo.19.b us. All ẏ the LORDE sayeth vnto the, that will we heare and do. Whan the LORDE her-de the voyce of yō wordes which ye spake vnto me, he sayde vnto me: I haue herde ẏ voyce of the wordes of this people, which Ier.24.b they haue spoken vnto ẏ. It is all good that and 31.f they haue spoken. But who shal geue them soch an herte, ẏ they maye feare me, & kepe all my cōmaundementes as longe as they ly ue, ẏ it maye go well with them, and with their childrē for euer: Go & saye vnto them:
Get you in to yō tentes agayne. But thou shalt stonde here before me, that I maye tell the all the commaundementes, and ordinaū ces and lawes which thou shalt teach them ẏ they maye do therafter in the lōde, which I shal geue thē to possesse. Take hede now therfore that ye do, as the LORDE yō God Deut.17.c hath commaunded you, * and turne not asyde nether to ẏ right hande ner to the lefte:
but walke in all ẏ wayes which the LORDE youre God hath commaunded you, that ye maie lyue, and that it maie go well with you, and ẏ ye maye lyue longe in ẏ londe which ye shall haue in possession.

The VI. Chapter.

A THese are the commaundementes, ordi naunces & lawes which ẏ LORDE yō
God hath cōmaunded, ẏ ye shulde

Deut.10.c ye go to possesse it, * that thou mayest feare
the LORDE ẏ God, & kepe all his ordinaūces & commaundementes, which I commaunde the, thou and ẏ children, and ẏ childers chil dren all ẏ dayes of youre life, that ye maye ly with ẏ, & that thou mayest multiplye great ly, as ẏ LORDE God of ẏ fathers hath promyſed the a londe ẏ floweth wt mylke & hony. Heare O Israel, the LORDE oure God is B one LORDE onely. And thou shalt lowe the Mat.22.d LORDE thy God wt all thy hart, with all ẏ

Mar.12.c soule, & with all thy mighte. * And these wor
Luc.10.c des, which I commaūde the this daie, shalt Deut.11.c thou take to hert, & shalt whet them vpon ẏ children, and shalt talke of them, whā thou syttest in thyne house, & whan thou walkest by the waie: whan thou lyest downe, & whā thou ryſest vp. And thou shalt bynde them for a signe vpon thine hande, and they shall be a token of remēbraunce before thine eyes, and thou shalt wryte them vpon the postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates.

Now whan ẏ LORDE ẏ God shal brin ge the in to ẏ londe wherof he sware vnto ẏ fathers Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob, and shal gene the greate & goodly cities, which thou hast not buylded: and houses full of all goo des, which thou hast not filled: & digged wel les which thou hast not digged: and vynyar des and olyue trees, which thou hast not pl ted, so ẏ thou eatest and art full: then bewar re that thou forget not the LORDE, which brought the out of the londe of Egipte, fro the house of bondage: but thou shalt feare the LORDE thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue, and sweare by his name. * And ye shal not folowe the other goddes of the na-cions which are aboute you (for the LORDE thy God is a gelous God in the myddest of the) that the wrath of the LORDE thy God ware not whote ouer the, and destroye the from the earth.

Ye shal not tempte ẏ LORDE youre God,
* as ye tempted him at Massa: but kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE yō God, and his witnesses, & his ordinaunces, which he hath commaunded the, that thou mayest do that which is right & good in ẏ sighte of the LORDE, ẏ thou mayest prospere, and ẏ thou mayest go in & conquere that good lon-de, which the LORDE sware vnto ẏ fathers, that he maye chace out all thine enemies before the, as the LORDE hath sayde.

Now whan thy sonne axeth the todaye or tomorow, and sayeth: What meane these witnesses, ordinaunces and lawes, that the LORDE oure God hath comaunded you?
Then shalt thou saye vnto thy sonne: We were Pharaos bondmen in Egipte, and the LORDE brought vs out of Egipte with a mightie hande, and the LORDE did greate & euell tokens & wonders in Egipte vpō Pharao and all his house before oure eyes, and brought vs from thence, to bringe vs in and to geue vs ẏ londe, that he sware vnto oure fathers. And therfore hath the LORDE com maunded vs to do a ordinge vnto all these ordinaunces, that we might feare the LOR-DE oure God, that we might prospere all the dayes of oure life, as it is come to passe this daye. And it shall be righteousnes vnto vs before the LORDE oure God, yf we kepe and do all these commaundementes, as he hath commaunded vs.

The VII. Chapter.

WHan ẏ LORDE ẏ God bringeth the in to ẏ londe where in to thou shalt come to possesse it, & roteth out ma nacions before the: the Hethites, Girgosites Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Hevites, and Jebusites, seuē nacions which are greater and mightier then thou: * and whan the LORDE thy God delyvereth thē before ỳ, that thou mayest smyte them, thou shalt vtterly destroye them, so that thou make no couenaunt with them, nor shewe them fauoure, and shalt make no mariages with them: Ye shall not geue youre doughters vnto their sonnes, ner take their doughters vnto youre sonnes. * For they will make youre sonnes departe frome, to serue straunge goddes: then shall the wrath of the LORDE wake whote vpon you, and destroye you shortly.

But thus shal ye do with them: Ye shal ouerthrowe their altares, breake downe their pilers, cut downe their groues, & burne their ymages with fyre. For thou art an holy people vnto the LORDE thy God. * The hath the LORDE thy God chosen, that thou shuldest be his awne peculier people, from amonge all nacions that are vpon the earth.

It was not because of the multitude of you aboue all nacions, that ỳ LORDE had lust vnto you and chose you. (For ye were the leest amonge all nacions) but because he loued you, and that he mighte kepe the ooth, * which he sware vnto youre fathers, he brought you out with a mightie hāde, and delyuered you frō the house of bondage, out of the hande of Pharao kynge of Egipte.

Thou shalt vnderstonde now therfore, that the LORDE thy God is a mightie and true God, which kepeth couenaunt and mercy vnto them that loue him, and kepe his cōmaundementes, euen thorow out a thousande generacions: And rewardeth them that hate him, before his face, that he maye destroye them: and wyll not be longe in tarienge to rewarde them (before his face) that hate him. Kepe now therfore the commaundementes, and ordinaunces and lawes, which I commaunde the this daye, that thou do therafter.

And yf ye shall heare these lawes and kepe them, and do therafter, then shal the LORDE thy God also kepe the couenaunt and mercy with the, which he sware vnto thy fathers: and shal loue the, blesse the, and multiplye the: he shal blesse the frute of ỳ wombe, and the frute of thy londe, thy corne, wyne and oyle, the frute of thy kyne, and the frute of thy shepe, in the londe that he sware vnto ỳ fathers to geue the. Blessed shalt thou be aboue all nacions, there shal no vnfrutefull persōne be in the, ner amonge thy catell. The LORDE shall put from the all maner of dysease, and shal brynge vpon the none of ỳ euell sicknesses of Egipte, * which thou hast sene, but shall put them vpon all those that hate the. Exo. 9.8

Thou shalt brynge to naught all the nacions, which the LORDE thy God shal delyuer the. Thine eye shall not spare them, and their goddes shalt thou not serue, for that shalbe thy decaye. Yf thou shalt saye in thyne hert: These naciōs are mo then I, how cā I dryue them out? Feare them not. Remembre what the LORDE thy God did vnto Pharao and to all the Egipcians, thorow greate tentacions (which thou hast sene with thine eyes) thorow tokens and wōders, thorow a mightie hande and a stretched out arme, wherwith the LORDE thy God brought the out. Euen so shall the LORDE thy God do vnto all ỳ nacions of whō thou art afrayed. Deu. 20.8 Iosu. 8.a

The LORDE ỳ God also shal sende hornettes amonge them, vntyll they that remayne and hyde them selues from the, be destroyed. Be not thou afrayed of them: for the LORDE thy God is in the myddes of the, euen the mightie and fearfull God. He (euen the LORDE thy God) shall rote out the nacions before the by litle and litle. Thou canst not consume them at one time, ỳ the beestes of the felde increase not vpon the. The LORDE thy God shall delyuer them before the, and shall smite them with a greate slaughter, tyll they be destroyed. And he shal delyuer their kynges in to thine hāde, and thou shalt destroie their names from vnder heauen. There shal no man make the resistaunce before the, vntyll thou haue destroyed them. Exo. 23.d and 33.a Ios. 24.c Exo. 23.d Ios. 10. 11. 12.

The ymages of their goddes shalt thou burne with fyre, & shalt not desyre the syluer or golde that is on them * or to take it vnto the, that thou snare not thy self therin: for it is abhominacion vnto the LORDE ỳ God. Therfore shalt thou not brynge the abhominacion in to thine house, ỳ thou be not damned as it is, but shalt vtterly defye it, and abhorre it, for it is damned. Deut. 13.c * Ios. 7.a 2. Ma. 12.f

The VIII. Chapter.

ALl the commaundementes which I commaunde ỳ this daye, shal ye kepe, so ỳ ye do therafter, that ye maye lyue and multiplye, and come in, and take possession of the lande, which ỳ LORDE sware vnto youre fathers: and thynke vpon all ỳ waie thorow the which the LORDE thy God hath led the this fortye yeares in the wylderneſſe, * that he mighte chasten the, and proue the, to wete whath were in thyne herte, whether thou woldest kepe his comaundemētes or no. Kepe therfore the commaundementes of the LORDE thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and feare him. For the LORDE thy God bryngeth the in to a good londe: A londe where in are ryuers of water, fountaynes and sprynges, which flowe by the hilles and valleys: A londe wherin is wheate, barlye, vines, fygge trees, and pomgranates: A londe wherin growe Olyue trees and honye: A londe where thou shalt not eate bred in scarcenes, and where thou shalt lacke nothinge: A lōde where ẏ stones are yron, where thou shalt dygge brasse out of hilles: * That whā thou hast eaten & art fylled, thou mayest praise the LORDE thy God, for that good londe, which he hath geuen the.

C Beware now therfore, that thou forget not the LORDE thy God, that thou woldest not kepe his commaundementes, and his ordinaunces, and lawes, which I commaunde the this daye: that (whan thou hast eaten & art fylled, and hast buylded goodly houses, & dwellest therin, and whan thy beestes and shepe, and syluer, and golde, and all ẏ thou hast, increaseth) thine hert ryse not then, and thou forget the LORDE thy God (which brought the out of the londe of Egipte, frō ẏ house of bondage, and led ẏ thorow this greate & terrible wyldernes, where were serpentes that spouted fyre, and Scorpions, & drouth, and where there was no water, and brought the water out of the hard flynte, and fed the in the wyldernesse with Manna wherof ẏ fathers knewe not, that he might chasten the, and proue the) to do the good afterwarde) and lest thou saye in thine hert: My power and the mighte of myne awne hande hath done me all this good: But that thou thynke vpon the LORDE thy God. For it is HE, which geueth the power to exercyse strength, that he maye performe the couenaunt, which he sware vnto thy fathers, as it is come to passe this daye.

But yf thou shalt forget the LORDE thy God, *and folowe other goddes, and serue them, and worshipe thē, I testifye ouer you this daye, that ye shal vtterly perishe. Euen as the Heythen whom ẏ LORDE destroyeth before youre face, so shall ye perishe also, because ye are not obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE youre God.

The IX. Chapter.

HEare O Israel, This daie shalt thou go ouer Iordane, that thou maiest come in to conquere the nacions, which are greater and mightier then thou, great cities, walled vp vnto heauen, a greate people and of an hye stature, namely the children of Enakim, whom thou hast knowne, and of whom thou hast herde saye: Who is able to stonde agaynst the children of Enakim? Therfore shalt thou knowe this daye, that the LORDE ẏ God goeth before the, a consumynge fyre. He shal destroye thē, and shall subdue them before the, and shal driue them out, & shortly shall he brynge thē to nought, as the LORDE hath promysed the.

Now whan the LORDE thy God hath expelled them out before the, saye not thou thē in thine hert: The LORDE hath brought me in to take possession of this lande for myne awne righteousnes sake, where as ẏ LORDE yet dryueth out the Heithen before the, because of their vngodlynes.

For thou commest not in to take their londe in possession, for thine awne righteousnes sake, and because of thy right hert: but the LORDE dryueth out these Heythen, for their awne vngodlynesse sake, and that he maye performe the worde, which the LORDE hath sworne vnto ẏ fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob.

Vnderstonde now therfore, that the LORDE ẏ God geueth not the this londe to possesse it, for thine awne righteousnes sake. For thou art a styffnecked people.

Remembre and forget not, how thou displeasedest the LORDE thy God in the wyldernesse. Sence ẏ daye that thou departedest out of the londe of Egipte, tyll ye came vnto this place, haue ye bene disobedient vnto the LORDE.

For in Horeb ye angred the LORDE, so that of wrath he wolde haue destroyed you, whan I was gone vp to ẏ mount, to receaue the tables of stone, namely the tables of the couenaunt * which the LORDE made with you, and I abode fortye dayes & fortye nightes vpon the mount, and ate no bred, & dranke no water: and the LORDE gaue me ẏ two tables of stone, wrytten with the fynger of God, and in them was acordinge to all the wordes, which the LORDE sayde vnto you vpon the mount out of the fyre, in the daye of the gatheringe together.

C And after the fortye dayes and fortye nyghtes, ỳ LORDE gaue me ỳ two tables of stone, namely ỳ tables of the couenaunt, and sayde vnto me: vp, & get ỳ downe quyckly from hence, for thy people whom thou broughtest out of Egipte, haue marred thē selues, they are soone gone out of the waye, which I commaunded them, and haue made them a molten ymage.

And the LORDE saide vnto me: I se this people, that it is a styffnecked people: let me alone, that I maye destroye them, and put out their name from vnder heauē. I wyl make of the a people mightier and greater thē this is.

And as I turned me, & wente downe frō the mount which brent vnto fyre, & had ỳ two tables of the couenaunt in both my hādes, I loked, & beholde, ye had synned agaynst ỳ LORDE yo' God, so ỳ ye had made you a molten calfe, & were soone turned out of ỳ waie which the LORDE had commaunded you. Then toke I the two tables, & cast them out of both my handes, & brake thē before youre eyes, & I fell before the LORDE *(euen as d.
d. at the first tyme) fortye dayes & fortye nyghtes, & nether ate bred, ner dranke water, because of all youre synnes which ye had synned, whan ye dyd soch euell in the sighte of the D LORDE, to prouoke him vnto wrath. For I was afrayed of the wrath and indignacion, wherwith the LORDE was angrie vnto you, euento haue destroyed you. And the LORDE herde me at that tyme also. b.

Moreouer the LORDE was very angrie vnto Aaron, so that he wolde haue destroyed him, but I made intercession for Aaron also at ỳ same tyme. As for youre synne (namely, the calfe that ye had made) I toke it, and burnt it with the fyre, and smote it a sunder, & gryn de it in peces, euen vnto dust, and cast the dust in to the broke that descended from the mount.

Ye displeased the LORDE also, * at Tabe ra, * and at Massa, * and at the lustgraues, * and whā he sent you from Cades Barnea, and sayde: Go vp, and conquere the londe which I haue geuen you. And ye were disobedient vnto the mouth of the LORDE youre God, and beleued not on him, and herkened not vnto his voyce: * for ye haue bene disobediēt vnto the LORDE, as longe as I haue knowne you. d.

E Thē fell I before ỳ LORDE fortye daies and fortye nyghtes, which I laye there. For ỳ LORDE sayde, he wolde destroye you. But I made intercession vnto the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE LORDE, destroye not ỳ people and thine enheritaunce, which thou throwe thy greate power hast delyuered, and broughte out of Egipte with a mighte hāde. Remembre thy seruauntes Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Loke not vpon the stubburnesse, and vngodlynesse and synne of this people (that the londe wherout thou hast broughte vs, saye not: The LORDE was not able to bringe them in to the lande, that he promysed them, and because he hated them, therfore hath he broughte them out, to destroye thē in the wylderneſse:) For they are thy people & thine enheritaunce, which thou hast broughte out vnto thy greate power, and with thy stretched out arme. Exo. 34.a Nu. 14.b Iosu. 7.b

The X. Chapter.

A T the same tyme sayde the LORDE vnto me: Hew ỳ two tables of stone like vnto the first, and come vp vnto me in to the mount, and make ỳ an Arke of wod, and in the tables I wyll wryte the wordes, that were in the first, * which thou brakest, and thou shalt laye them in the Arke. So I made an Arke of fyre tre, and hewed two tables of stone (like as the first were) & wente vp into the mount, and ỳ two tables were in my hande. A Exo. 34.a Exo. 32.c Deut. 9.c

Then wrote he in ỳ tables (acordinge as the first wrytinge was) the ten verses, which the LORDE spake vnto you out of the fyre vpon the mountayne, at the tyme of the gatheringe together. And the LORDE gaue thē vnto me. And I turned me, & wente downe from the mount, and layed the tables in the Arke which I had made, that they myghte be there, as the LORDE commaunded me. Exo. 34.d and 34.e Deu. 31.f

And the childrē of Israel departed from Beroth & Bne Jaekan vnto Mosera (there * dyed Aaron, & there was he buried: & Eleasar his sonne became preest in his steade.) Frō thence they departed from Gadgad. From Gadgad to Jathbath, a londe of ryuers of water. At the same season the LORDE separated out the trybe of Leui, to beare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, and to stonde before the LORDE, to mynister vnto him, and to prayse his name vnto this daye. Therfore shal the Leuites haue no porcion ner enheritaunce with their brethren: for the LORDE is their enheritaunce, as the LORDE thy God hath promysed them. B Nu. 33.d *Nu. 20.d Nu. 3.4.18 Nu. 18.a Iosu. 13.d

But I taried vpō the mount (like as afore) euen fortye dayes and fortye nyghtes, and the LORDE herde me at that tyme also, and wolde not destroye the. But he sayde vnto Deut. 9.d

me: Vp, & get the forth, þ thou mayest go before the people, þ they maye come in, and cõquere the lõde, which I sware vnto their fathers to geue them.

C Now Israel, what requyreth the LORDE thy God of the, but þ thou feare the LORDE thy God, and that thou walke in all his wayes, & loue him, & serue the LORDE þ God with all thy hert, & with all thy soule: and þ thou kepe the cõmaundementes of þ LORDE, & his ordinaunces, which I cõmaunde the this daye, þ thou mayest prospere? Beholde, the heauen & the heauen of all heauẽs and the earth, and all þ is therin, is þ LORDES þ God. * Neth hath he had a pleasure vnto þ fathers, to loue thẽ: and hath chosen their sede after thẽ, namely you, aboue all nacions, as it is come to passe this daye.

D Circumcyse therfore þ foreskynne of yõ hert, & be nomore styffnecked. For the LORDE yͦ God is God of all goddes, & LORDE ouer all lordes, a greate God, mightie & terrible, which regardeth no personne, & taketh no giftes, and doeth righte vnto the fatherlesse and wedowe, and loueth the straunger, to geue him fode & rayment. Therfore shal ye loue a straũger, for ye youre selues also were straungers in the londe of Egipte.

Thou shalt feare the LORDE thy God, him onely shalt thou serue, vnto him shalt thou cleue * & sweare by his name. He is thy prayse & þ God, which hath done for þ these greate & terryble thinges, þ thine eyes haue sene. Thy fathers wẽte downe into Egipte wt seuentye soules, but now hath þ LORDE thy God made the * as þ starres of heauen in multitude.

The XI. Chapter.

A Therfore shalt thou loue the LORDE þ God, & kepe his cõmaundemẽtes, his ordinaunces, his lawes, & his precептes all þ life lõge. And vnderstõde this daye, that which youre childrẽ knowe not: Which haue not sene the nurtoure of the LORDE yͦ God, & his greatnesse, & his mightie hande, & his stretched out arme, & his tokens and actes which he dyd amonge the Egipciãs, vnto Pharao the kynge of Egipte, & to all his londe, & what he dyd to the power of þ Egipcians, & vnto their horses & charettes, whan he broughte the waters of the reed see vpõ them, as they folowed after you, & how þ LORDE hath broughte them to naught vnto this daye: & what he dyd vnto you in the wildernesse, vntyll ye came vnto this place: what he dyd vnto Dathan and Abiram the children of Eliab the sonne of Ruben, how the earth opened hir mouth and swalowed them with their housholdes & tẽtes all their good that they had in the myddes amonge all Israel.

For youre eyes haue sene the greate workes of þ LORDE, which he hath done. Therfore shal ye kepe all the commaundementes which I commaunde you this daye, that ye maye be stronge to come in, and to conquere the londe, whither ye go to possesse it, & that ye maye lyue longe in the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto youre fathers, to geue vnto them and to their sede, euẽ a londe that floweth with mylke and hony: For the londe whither thou commest in, to possesse it, is not as the londe of Egipte, whence ye came out, where thou sowedest thy sede, and waterdest it at thy fote as a garden of herbes: but it hath hilles and valleys, which drynke water of the rayne of heauen, a londe that the LORDE thy God careth for. And the eyes of the LORDE thy God are allwayes therin from the begynnynge of the yeare vnto the ende,

If ye shal herken therfore vnto my commaundementes, which I commaunde you this daye, þ ye loue the LORDE youre God, and serue him, with all youre hert and with all youre soule * then wyl I geue rayne vnto youre lõde in due season, early and late, that thou mayest gather in thy corne, thy wyne and thine oyle: and I wyll geue grasse vpon thy felde for thy catell, that ye maye eate & be fylled.

But bewarre, þ youre hert be not disceaued, that ye go asyde, & serue other goddes, & worshipe them, and then the wrath of the LORDE ware whote vpõ you, and he shut vp the heauẽ, that there come no rayne, and the earth gene not hir increase, & ye perisshe shortly from the good lõde, which the LORDE hath geuen you.

Put vp therfore these my wordes in youre hertes and in youre soules, and bynde them for a signe vpon youre handes, þ they maye be a token of remembraunce before yͦ eyes: and teach them youre children, so that thou talke therof, whan thou sytteste in thine house, or walkest by the waye: whan thou lyest downe, and whan thou rysest vp: and wryte them vpon the postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates, that thou and thy children maye lyue longe in the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto thy fathers to geue them, as longe as the dayes of heauen endure vpon earth.

mentes which I commaunde you, so that ye do therafter, that ye loue the LORDE youre God, and walke in all his wayes, and cleue vnto him, then shall the LORDE dryue out all these nacions before you, so that ye shall cõquere greater and mightier nacions then ye youre selues are.

D All the places that the soles of youre fete treade vpon, shalbe yours, from the wylderne, and fro mount Libanus, and from the water Euphrates vnto ỹ vttemost see shal youre coastes be. Noman shal be able to wstonde you. The LORDE youre God shall let the feare and drede of you come vpon all ỹ londes wherin ye go, like as he hath promysed you.

Beholde, I laye before you this daye the blessynge and the curse. * The blessynge, yf ye be obedient vnto the commaundementes of the LORDE youre God, which I commaunde you this daye. The curse, yf ye wyl not be obedient to the commaundementes of the LORDE youre God, but turne out of the waye, which I cõmaunde you this daye, so that ye walke after other goddes, whom ye knowe not.

Whan ỹ LORDE ỹ God hath brought the in to the londe, whither thou commest in to possesse it, * then shalt thou geue the blessynge vpon mount Gryzim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal, which are beyonde Jordane the waye towarde the goinge downe of the Sonne, in the lõde of the Cananites, which dwell in ỹ playne felde ouer agaynst Gilgal, beside the Oke grone of More. For ye shal go ouer Jordane, that ye maye come in to take possession of the londe, which the LORDE youre God hath geuen you, to conquere it, and to dwell therin. Take hede now therfore, that ye do acordinge vnto all the ordinaunces and lawes, which I laye before you this daye.

The XII. Chapter.

A These are the ordinaunces and lawes which ye shal kepe, that ye do therafter in the londe, which the LORDE God of thy fathers hath geuen the to possesse, as longe as ye lyue vpon earth. * Destroye all the places, wherin ỹ Heithen (whõ ye shal conquere) haue serued their goddes, whether it be vpõ hye mountaynes, vpõ hilles, or amonge grene trees. And ouerthrowe their altares, and breake downe their pilers, and burne their grones with fyre, and hewe downe the ymages of their goddes, & bringe the names of them to naught out of the same place. Ye shal not do so vnto the LORDE youre God: but the place * which ỹ LORDE youre God shal chose out of all yo' trybes (that he maye let his name dwell there) shal ye seke, and come thither, * and thither shal ye bringe youre burntsacrifices, & youre other offerynges, and youre tithes and the heueofferynges of youre handes, and youre vowes, and youre fre wyll offerynges, and the firstborne of youre oxen and shepe: and there shall ye eate before the LORDE youre God, and reioyse ouer all that ye and youre houses haue geue with youre handes, because the LORDE thy God hath blessed the. * Ye shall do none of the thinges, ỹ we do here this daye, euery man what semeth him good in his awne eyes. For ye are not yet come to rest, ner to ỹ enheritaũce which the LORDE thy God shal geue the. 1.Reg.9 2.Par.7. Deu.14. 15.c.16.a 1.Reg.1. and 16.a Deu.29.

B But ye shal go ouer Jordane, and dwell in the londe ỹ the LORDE youre God shall deuyde out vnto you, & he shal geue you rest from all youre enemies rounde aboute, and ye shal dwell safe. Now whan the LORDE thy God hath chosen a place, to make his name dwell there, ye shall bringe thither all ỹ I haue commaunded you, namely, yo' burnt sacrifices, youre other offerynges, youre tythes, the heueofferynges of youre handes, & all youre fre vowes, which ye shall vowe vnto ỹ LORDE: and there shal ye eate, and reioyse before the LORDE youre God, ye and youre sonnes, and youre doughters, and youre seruauntes, and youre maydes, and the Leuites that are within youre gates, * for they haue no porcion ner inheritaũce with you. Deut.10.

Take hede vnto thy selfe, that thou offer not thy burntofferynges in what so euer place thou seyst: but in the place which ỹ LORDE shall haue chosen in one of thy trybes, there shalt thou offer thy burntofferynges, and do all that I commaunde the. Notwstondinge thou mayest kyll and eate flesh within all thy gates, after all the desyre of thy soule, acordynge to the blessynge of the LORDE thy God, which he hath geuẽ the: * both the cleane and vncleane maye eate it, as of the Roo and herte, onely the bloude shalt thou not eate, but poure it out as water vpon the earth. Deut.15.c

C But within thy gates mayest thou not eate of the tythes of thy corne, of thy wyne, & of thy oyle, ner of ỹ first borne of thine oxen and of thy shepe, or of ery of thy vowes which thou hast vowed, or of thy frewyllofferinges, or heueofferinges of thy handes: but before the LORDE thy God shalt thou Deut.14.c

eate them, in the place which the LORDE thy God choseth, thou & thy sonne, and thy doughter, thy seruaunt, thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within ỳ gates, & thou shalt reioyse before ỳ LORDE thy God, ouer all ỳ Deut. 7.d thou puttest thine hande vnto.* And beware, that thou forsake not the Leuite, as longe as thou lyuest vpon the earth.

But whan the LORDE thy God shal enlarge thy bordes of thy londe (as he hath promysed the) and thou saye: I wil eate flesh (for so moch as thy soule longeth to eate flesh) then eate flesh accordinge to all the desyre of thy soule. But yf the place that the LORDE thy God hath chosen (to let his name be there) be farre from the, then kyll of ỳ oxen and of thy shepe, which the LORDE hath geuen the, as he hath commaunded the, and eate it within thy gates accordinge Deut. 15.c to all ỳ desyre of thy soule. Euen as a Roo or Hert is eaten, maiest thou eate it: both the cleane and vncleane maie eate it indifferently.* Leu. 14.e Onely bewarre, that thou eate not the bloude: for the bloude is the life. Therfore shalt thou not eate the life wt the flesh, but shalt poure it out like water vpon the earth, ỳ thou mayest prospere, and ỳ children after the, whan thou hast done that which is righte in the sighte of the LORDE.

D But whan thou haloweste ought that Deu. 14.b and 15.c is thine, or makest a vowe, thou shalt take it, and bringe it vnto the place, that the LORDE hath chosen, and do thy burntoffe rynges with the flesh and bloude vpon the altare of the LORDE thy God. The bloude of thine offrynge shalt thou poure vpon the altare of the LORDE thy God, and eate the flesh. Take hede, and heare all these wordes, which I commaunde the, ỳ it maye go well with the, and thy children after ỳ for ever, whan thou hast done ỳ which is righte and acceptable in the sighte of the LORDE thy God.

Deu. 18.b and 23.c Whan the LORDE ỳ God hath roted out the Heithen before the, whither thou commest in to conquere them, & whan thou hast cõquered them, & dwelt in their londe, beware then, ỳ thou fall not in the snare after thẽ, whan they are destroyed before the: & that thou axe not after their goddes, & saye: Euẽ as these nacions haue serued their goddes, so wil I do also.* Thou shalt not do so vnto Deut. 18.b Ier. 19.a Isa. 65.a the LORDE thy God. For all that is abhominacion vnto the LORDE, & that he hateth, ỳ same haue they done vnto their goddes. For they haue burnt euen their sonnes and their doughters with fyre vnto their goddes.

All that I commaunde you, shal ye kepe, that ye do therafter.* Ye shal put nothinge Deu. 4.a therto, ner take ought there from.

The XIII. Chapter.

IF there ryse vp a * prophet or dreamer Deu. 18.a amonge you, and geue the a token or a wonder, and that token or wonder which he spake of, come to passe, and then saye: Let vs go after other goddes (whom thou knowest not) and let vs serue thẽ: Thou shalt not herken vnto the wordes of soch a prophet or dreamer.

For ỳ LORDE youre God proueth you, to wete whether ye lone him with all youre hert, & with all youre soule. For ye shall walke after the LORDE youre God, and feare him, and kepe his commaundementes, & herken vnto his voyce, and serue him, and cleue vnto him.* As for that prophet or dreamer, Deu. 18.a he shal dye: because he hath spoken to turne you awaye from the LORDE youre God (which broughte you out of the londe of Egipte, and delyuered you from the house of bondage) to thrust the out of the waye, which the LORDE thy God commaunded the to walke in, and so shalt thou put awaie the euell from the.

If thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, Deu. 13.a or thine awne sonne, or thy doughter, or the wyfe in thy bosome, or thy frende which is Deu. 13.a vnto the as thine owne soule, entyse the secretly, and saye: Let vs go and serue other goddes (whom thou knowest not, ner yet thy father) which are amonge the nacions rounde aboute you, whether they be nye vnto the or farre from the, from the one ende of the earth vnto the other: consente not vnto him, and herkẽ not vnto him. Thine eye also shal Deu. 13.a not pytie him, and thou shalt haue no compassion vpon him, ner kepe him secrete, but shalt cause him to be slayne: thine hãde shal be first vpon him, to cause him to be slayne, and then the handes of all the people. He shalbe stoned to death, because he wente aboute to thrust the awaye from the LORDE thy God, which broughte the out of the londe of Egipte from the house of bõdage:* ỳ Deu. 17.b all Israel maye heare, and feare him, and do nomore soch euell amonge you.

If thou heareste in eny cite which ỳ LORDE thy God hath geuẽ the to dwell in, that it is sayde: There are certayne men, the children of Belial, gone out from amonge you, and haue disceaued the inhabiters of their cite, and sayde: let vs go, and serue other goddes, whom ye knowe not.* Then shalt thou Deut. 17.b seke, make search, and enquere diligently.

And yf it be founde of a trueth, that it is so in dede, ẏ soch abhominacion is wroughte amonge you, then shalt thou smyte the indwellers of the same cite and their catell, with the edge of the swerde, and damne the cite with all that is therin: and all the spoyle therof shalt thou gather togeither in the myddes of the stretes of it, and burne with fyre, both the cite and all the spoyle therof togeither vnto the LORDE ẏ God, that it maye lye vpon a heape for euer, and neuer be buylded eny more. * And let nothinge of the damned thinge cleue vnto thy hande, that the LORDE maye be turned from the indignacion of his wrath, and graunte the mercy, and haue compassion on the, and multiplye the (as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers) because thou haß herkened vnto ẏ voyce of the LORDE thy God, to kepe all his commaundementes, which I commaunde the this daye, so that thou doest the thinge which is righte in the sighte of the LORDE thy God.

The XIIII. Chapter.

YE are the children of the LORDE youre God, Cut not youre selues therfore, ꝛ make you no baldnesse betwene youre eyes ouer eny deed. For thou art an holy people vnto the LORDE thy God. * And the LORDE hath chosen the to be his awne peculier people, from amõge all the nacions that are vpon the earth.

Thou shalt eate no abhominacion. These are the beestes which ye shal eate: Oxen, shepe, Goates, Hert, Roo, Bugle, wylde goate, Vnicorne, Origen, and Camelion. And euery beest that deuydeth his clawe, ꝛ cheweth cudd, shal ye eate. Neuertheles these shal ye not eate of them that chewe cudd, and deuyde not the hoffe in to two clawes: The Camell, the hayre, ꝛ the conye, for though they chewe cudd, yet deuyde they not the hoffe, therfore shal they be vncleane vnto you. The swyne, though he deuyde the hoffe, yet cheweth he not cudd, he shall be vncleane vnto you: ye shall not eate of the flesh of thē, and their deed carcases shal ye not touche.

This is it that ye shall eate of all that is in the waters: All that hath fynnes and scales, shall ye eate. But what so euer hath no fynnes ner scales, that shal ye not eate, for it is vncleane vnto you.

Eate of all cleane foules. But these are they, wherof ye shal not eate: The Aegle, ẏ Goshauke, the Cormoraunte, the Jrion, the Vultur, the Kyte with his kynde, ꝛ all Rauens in their kynde, the Estriche, the Nighte crowe, the Cocow, the Sparow hauke with his kynde, the litle Oule, the greate Oule, ẏ Backe, the Bytture, the Swanne, the Pellicane, the Pye, the Storke, the Heron, the Jaye ẅ his kynde, the Lapwynge, ẏ Swalawe: And all foules ẏ crepe, shal be vncleane vnto you, and ye shal not eate them.

Ye shall eate of nothinge ẏ dyeth aloner thou mayest geue it vnto ẏ straunger with in ẏ gate, that he eate it, or sell it to a straunger. For thou art an holy people vnto ẏ LORDE thy God. * Thou shalt not seeth a kydd, whyle it yet sucketh his mother. Exod. 23. and 34. C

Thou shalt separate out the tythe all the increase of thy sede, ẏ cõmeth out of ẏ felde euery yeare: ꝛ shalt eate it before ẏ LORDE ẏ God (* in ẏ place which he choseth, ẏ his name maye dwell there) namely of ẏ tythes of thy corne, of thy wyne, of thy oyle, ꝛ the first borne of thine oxen, and of thy shepe, ẏ thou mayest lerne to feare the LORDE thy God, all thy life longe. Exo. 34. C Esa. 65. C

* But yf the waye be to moch for ẏ, and the place, which ẏ LORDE thy God hath chosen to set his name there, be to farre from the: ꝛ thou canst not cary it that ẏ LORDE thy God hath blessed the withall, Then geue it for money, ꝛ take ẏ money in thyne hande, and go vnto the place which the LORDE thy God hath chosen, and geue the money for all that thy soule desyreth, whether it be oxē, shepe, wyne, stronge drynke, or for what so euer thy soule desyreth, and eate there before the LORDE thy God, and be mery, thou and thine housholde, and ẏ Leuite that is within thy gates. Thou shalt not forsake him, * for he hath no porcion nor inheritaunce with the. C Deut. 12. Baruc. 1. Leui. 18. C

In the thirde yeare shalt thou brynge forth all the tithes of thine increase of the same yeare, and shalt laye it within thy gates. Thē shal the Leuite (which hath no porcion ner enheritaunce with the) and ẏ straunger, and the fatherlesse, and the wedowe, which are within thy gates, come and eate, and fyll them selues, that the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in all the workes of ẏ handes which thou doest. Deu. 26. C

The XV. Chapter.

AT the seuēth yeare shalt thou make a Fre yeare. This is ẏ maner of the Fre yeare. * Who so euer lēdeth ought te with his hande vnto his neghboure, shal not requyre it of his neghboure or his brother: for it is called the Fre yeare vnto the LORDE. Of a straūger mayest thou requyre it: but vnto him that is thy brother, shalt A Leui. 25. B * Exo 22. C Esa. 58. b

For the LORDE ẏ God shal blesse the, as he hath promysed the. Thē shalt thou lende vnto many nacions, & shalt borowe of no man. Thou shalt raigne ouer many nacions, & no man shal reigne ouer ẏ.

B Bewarre, that there be not a poynte of Belial in thine hert, that thou woldest saye: The seuenth yeare, the yeare of Fredome is at honde. For yf thou lokest not frēdly vpō thy poore brother, and geuest him nothinge then shall he crye ouer the vnto the LORDE,

Deu. 24.b and it shall be synne vnto the: * But thou shalt geue him, and let it not greue thine hert that thou geuest him. For because of it, shall the LORDE thy God blesse the in all thy workes, and in all that thou puttest thine hande vnto. The londe shal never be without poore, therfore commaunde I the and saye, that thou open thine hande vnto thy brother, which is ready and poore in thy londe.

And whā thou delieuerest him fre, thou shalt not let him go from the empteye, but shalt geue him of thy shepe, of thy corne, and of ẏ wyne, so that thou geue him of that, which the LORDE thy God hath blessed the with all. And remembre that thou also wast a seruaunte in the lōde of Egipte, and how that the LORDE thy God delyuered the, therfore commaunde I the this thinge to daye.

And with thy mayde shalt thou do likewyse. And let it not seme greuous vnto the, to let him go fre from the (for he hath serued the sixe yeares as a dubble hyred seruaunt) then shall the LORDE thy God blesse the in all that thou doest.

All the first borne that come of thine oxen and shepe, ẏ are males, shalt thou halowe vnto the LORDE thy God. Thou shalt not plowe with the firstborne of thine oxē, and shalt not clyppe the firstborne of thy shepe. The XVI. Chapter.

OBserue the moneth Abib, ẏ thou offre Easter vnto the LORDE ẏ God: for in the moneth Abib the LORDE thy God brought ẏ out of Egipte by nighte. And for the Easter vnto ẏ LORDE thy God, thou shalt offre oxen & shepe, in ẏ * place which ẏ LORDE shal chose, ẏ his name maye dwell there. Thou shalt eate no leuended bred in ẏ feast. Seuen dayes shalt thou eate the vnleuended bred of thy tribulacion: For with soroufull haist camest thou out of the londe of Egipte, that thou mayest remēbre the daye of thy departinge out of ẏ londe of Egipte, all ẏ life longe. In seuē dayes shal there no leuēded bred be sene within all thy coastes: & of the flesh that is offred ẏ first daye at euen, there shal nothinge be lefte ouer night vntyll the mornynge.

Thou mayest not offre Easter wt in eny of thy gates, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the: but * in the place which the LORDE thy God hath chosen, that his name maye dwell there, there shalt thou offre this Easter, at euen whan the Sonne is gone downe, euen in the same season that thou camest out of Egipte: and thou shalt dighte it, and eate it in the place that the LORDE thy God hath chosen, and then turne the on the morowe, & go home in to thy tente. Sixe dayes shalt thou eate vnleuended bred, and on the seuenth daye is the gatheringe together of the LORDE thy God. Thou shalt do no worke therin.

Seuen wekes shalt thou nombre vnto ẏ, and begynne to nombre whan the sycle begynneth in the corne, and thou shalt kepe the. Feast of wekes vnto the LORDE thy God, that thou gene a frewyll offerynge of thine hande, acordinge as the LORDE thy God hath blessed the, and shalt reioyse before the LORDE thy God, thou and thy sonne, thy doughter, thy seruaunt, thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within thy gates, ỳ straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wedowe, that are amonge you, in the place which ỳ LORDE thy God hath chosen, that his name maye dwell there. And remembre, ỳ thou wast a seruaunte in Egipte, so that thou kepe and do these ordynaunces.

¶ The feast of Tabernacles shalt thou kepe seuen dayes, whan thou hast gathered in the frutes of thy barne & of thy wyne presse, and thou shalt reioyse in thy feast, thou and thy sonne, thy doughter, thy seruaunte, thy mayde, the Leuite, the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wedowe that are within ỳ gates. * Seuen dayes shalt thou kepe ỳ feast vnto the LORDE thy God, in the place that he hath chosen. For the LORDE thy God shal blesse the in all thy frutes and in all the workes of thine hãdes. Therfore shalt thou be glad.

Thre tymes in the yeare shal all thy males appeare before the LORDE thy God (in the place that he shall chose) namely, in the feast of vnleuended bred, in the feast of wekes, and in the feast of Tabernacles. He shal not appeare emptie before the LORDE, but euery one after the gifte of his hande, accordinge to the blessinge that the LORDE thy God hath geuen the.

The XVII. Chapter.

IVdges & officers shalt thou ordeyne within all ỳ gates, which ỳ LORDE thy God geueth the amõge thy trybes, ỳ they maye iudge the people with righteous iudgment. Thou shalt not wrest the lawe. Thou shalt knowe no personne also, ner take giftes. For * giftes blynde the eyes of ỳ wyse, & peruerte ỳ righteous causes. Loke what righte is, ỳ shalt thou folowe, that thou mayest lyue & possesse the londe, which the LORDE thy God shal geue the.

Thou shalt plante no grove (of what so euer trees it be) nye vnto the altare of the LORDE thy God, which thou makest the. Thou shalt set the vp no piler, which ỳ LORDE ỳ God hateth. * Thou shalt offre vnto the LORDE thy God no oxe or shepe, that hath a blemish or eny euell fauouredneesse on it: for that is abhominacion vnto the LORDE thy God.

If there be founde amonge you (within eny of thy gates which the LORDE ỳ God shal geue ỳ) a man or woman, that worketh wickednesse in ỳ sighte of the LORDE thy God, so that he transgresseth his conenaũte and goeth, and serueth other goddes, & worshippeth them, * whether it be Sõne or Mone, or eny of the hooste of heaven, which I haue not commaunded, and it is told the, & thou heaest of it, Then shalt thou make diligent search therfore. And yf thou fyndest that it is so of a trueth, that soch abhominacion is wrought in Israel, then shalt thou bringe forth the same man or ỳ same woma (which haue done soch euell) vnto thy gates and shalt stone them to death. At the mouth of two or thre witnesses shal he dye, that is worthy of death. At the mouth of one witnes shal he not dye. The handes of the witnesses shal be the first to kyll him, and the ỳ handes of all the people, that thou mayest put awaye the euell from the.

If a matter be to harde for the in iudgmẽt betwixte blonde and blonde, betwixte plee and plee, betwixte stroke and stroke, and yf there be matters of stryfe within thy gates * then shalt thou ryse, and go vp vnto ỳ place that ỳ LORDE thy God hath chosen: and shalt come to the prestes the Leuites, & to the iudge which shalbe at that tyme, and shalt axe. They shal shewe the how to iudge, and thou shalt do therafter, as they saye vnto the, in ỳ place which the LORDE hath chosen: and thou shalt take hede that thou do accordinge vnto all ỳ they teach the. Accordinge to the lawe ỳ they teach the, & after the iudgment that they tell ỳ, shalt thou do * so that thou turne not aside from ỳ same, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte.

And yf eny man deale presumptuously, so that he herkeneth not vnto the prest (which stondeth to do seruyce vnto the LORDE thy God) or to the Iudge, the same shal dye: and thou shalt put awaye the euell from Israel, that all ỳ people maye heare, and feare, and be nomore presumptuous.

Whan thou art come in to ỳ londe which the LORDE thy God shal geue the, & takest it in possession, and dwellest therin, and shalt saie: * I wil set a kinge ouer me, as all the nacions haue aboute me, thẽ shalt thou set him to be kynge ouer the, whom the LORDE thy God shal chose.

One of thy brethren shalt thou sett to be kynge ouer the. Thou mayest not set a straũger ouer the, which is not thy brother. Onely let him not haue many horses, ỳ he bringe not ỳ people againe in to Egipte therow ỳ multitude of horses, for as moch as ỳ LORDE hath sayde vnto you, that from hence forth ye shulde come nomore this waye agayne.

9. Reg. 4. 2. Par. 1.

He shall not haue many wyues also, that his hert be not turned awaye. Nether shal he gather him sylver and golde to moch.

And whan he is set vpon the seate of his kingdome, he shal take of the prestes the Leuites this seconde lawe, and cause it be wrytten in a boke, and that shall he haue by him, * and he shall rede therin all the dayes of his life, that he maye lerne to feare ỳ LORDE his God, to kepe all the wordes of this lawe, all these ordinaūces, so that he do therafter. He shall not lifte vp his herte aboue his brethren, and shall not turne asyde from the commaundement, nether to the right hāde ner to the lefte, that he maye prolōge his dayes in his kyngdome, he and his children in Israel.

The XVIII. Chapter.

THe prestes, the Leuites, all the trybe of Leui shal haue no parte ner enheritaunce wt Israel. The offerynges of ỳ LORDE & his enheritaunce shal they eate. Therfore shal they haue no inheritaunce amonge their brethren, because the LORDE is their enheritaūce, as he hath saide vnto thē This shalbe ỳ prestes dutye of the people, & of thē that offre, whether it be ore or shepe, so that they geue vnto the preist the shulder and both the chekes, and the brest. And the first frutes of thy corne, of thy wyne and of thy oyle, and the first of thy shepe sheringe. * For the LORDE thy God hath chosen him out of all thy trybes, to stonde and mynyster in the name of the LORDE, he and his sonnes all the dayes of their life.

Yf a Leuite come out of eny of thy gates or out of eny place of all Israel, where he is a gest, and cōmeth with all the desyre of his soule (vnto the place which the LORDE hath chosen) to mynister in the name of the LORDE his God, like as all his brethren ỳ Leuites, which stonde there before the LORDE, thē shal he haue like porcion of meate with the other: besydes that which he hath of the sōlde good of his fathers.

Whan thou commest in to ỳ londe which the LORDE thy God shal geue ỳ, thou shalt not lerne to do ỳ abhominacions of these nacions, that there be not founde amonge you, ỳ maketh his sonne or doughter go thorow the fyre, or a prophecier, or a chofer out of dayes, or that regardeth the soules cryenge, or a witch, or a conjurer, or soythsayer, or an expounder of tokens, or ỳ axeth eny thinge of the deed.

For who so ever doth soch, is abhominacion vnto the LORDE: and because of soch abhominacions doth the LORDE ỳ God dryue thē out before the. But thou shalt be perfecte with the LORDE ỳ God. For these nacions whom thou shalt conquere, whom the LORDE thy God hath geuen the, herken to the chofers out of dayes, and to the soythsayers: but so shalt not thou do vnto the LORDE thy God.

A prophet, like vnto me, shall the LORDE thy God raise the vp euen out of the, & from amonge thy brethren, * vnto him shal ye herkē, acordinge as thou desyredest before the LORDE thy God in Horeb, (in the daye of ỳ gatheringe together) & saydest: Let me here the voyce of the LORDE my God nomore, and se nomore this greate fyre, that I dye not. And ỳ LORDE saide vnto me: They haue well spoken. I wil rayse them vp a prophet from amonge their brethren like vnto the, and wyl put my wordes in his mouth, & he shal speake vnto them all that I shal cōmaunde him. * And who so euer wyl not herken vnto my wordes, which he shal speake in my name, of him wil I requyre it.

But yf a prophete presume to speake ought in my name, which I haue not cōmaunded him to speake: and he that speaketh in ỳ name of other goddes, ỳ same prophete shal dye. But yf thou saye in thine hert: How can I knowe what worde the LORDE hath not spoken? Euen whan the prophete speaketh in the name of ỳ LORDE, and the thinge followeth not, and commeth not to passe, ỳ same is the worde, ỳ the LORDE hath not spokē. The prophet hath spokē it presumtuously, therfore be not afrayed of him.

The XIX. Chapter.

WHan ỳ LORDE thy God shall haue roted out ỳ nacions, whose londe ỳ LORDE thy God shal geue the, so ỳ thou hast conquered them, and dwellest in their cities and houses, * thou shalt appoynte the out thre cities in the myddes of thy lōde, ỳ the LORDE thy God shal geue ỳ to possesse. Thou shalt prepare the waye, and parte the coastes of ỳ londe (which ỳ LORDE thy God shal deuyde out vnto the) in to thre partes, that whosoeuer hath commytted a slaughter, maye flie thither. And this shalbe the cause, that whosoeuer hath committed a slaughter, maye flye thyther, and lyue.

Yf eny man smyte his neghboure vnawarres, and hath not hated him in tyme passed (as whan a man goeth vnto the wod with his neghboure to hew downe tymber, and he turneth his hande wt the axe to hewe downe the wod, and the yron slyppeth from the helue, and hytteth his neghboure, that he dyeth) the same shal flye into one of these cities, that he maye lyue, lest the auenger of blonde folowe after the deedsleyer, whyle his hert is whote, and ouertake him, whyle the waye is so farre, and slaye him, where as yet no cause of death is in hī, for so moch as he hated him not in tyme passed. Therfore commaunde I the, that thou appoynte out thre cities.

And whan the LORDE ẏ God enlargeth thy borders, as he hath swome vnto thy fathers, & geueth the all the lōde which he promysed thy fathers to geue (so that thou kepe all these cōmaundementes, and do ẏ I commaunde the this daye, ẏ thou loue the LORDE thy God, and walke in his wayes all ẏ life longe) thē shalt thou adde yet thre cities vnto these thre, that innocent blonde be not shed in thy londe (which the LORDE ẏ God geueth the to enheritaunce) and so blonde come vpon the.

* But yf eny man beare hate agaynst his neghboure, and layeth waite for him, and ryseth agaynst him, and smyteth him that he dye, and flyeth into one of these cities, then shall the Elders of the same cite sende thither, and cause him to be fetched from thence, and delyuer him into the handes of the auenger of blonde, that he maye dye: thine eye shal not pitie him, and the gilteye blonde shalt thou put awaye frō Israel, that thou mayest prospere.

Thou shalt not remoue thy neghbours marck, which they of olde tyme haue set in thine enheritaunce, that thou enherytest in the londe, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the to possesse it.

One witnesse shal not stonde vp alone agaynst a man, ouer eny trespace or synne, what maner of synne so euer it be, ẏ a man can do, but in the mouth of two or thre witnesses shal every matter be stablished.

* But yf an vnrighteous wytnesse stonde vp agaynst eny man, to testifye eny trespace vpon him, then shall both the men that stryue together, stonde before the LORDE, before the prestes and Iudges, which shall be at the same tyme. * And the iudges shall make diligent inquisicion: & yf the witnesse be founde false, and hath geuē false witnesse agaynst his brother, then shall ye do vnto him, euen as he thoughte to do vnto his brother: that thou mayest put awaye the euell from the. * that other maye heare and feare, and take nomore vpon them to do soch wicked poyntes amonge you. Thine eye shall not pitie him. Soule for soule, eye for eye, to the for tothe, hande for hande, fote for fote. Exod. 21. c Leui. 24. c Math. 5. c

The XX. Chapter.

When thou goest out to battayll agaynst thine enemies, and seyst horses and charettes of the people more then thou, be not afrayed of them: for the LORDE thy God which brought ẏ out of the londe of Egipte, is with the. Now whā ye are come nye vnto the battayll, the prest shal steppe forth, & speake to the people, and saye vnto thē: Heare Israel: Ye go this daye in to the battayll agaynst youre enemies, let not yo^r hert faynte. Feare not, be not afrayed, ner a drede of them. * For the LORDE youre God goeth with you, to fyghte for you agaynst youre enemies, ẏ he maye saue you. A Deut. 7. d Deut. 11. c Num. 14. a 1. Mac. 4. a * Deu. 28. a

And the captaynes shal speake to ẏ people, and saye: Who so hath buylded a new house, and hath not dedicate it, let him go, and byde in his house, that he dye not in ẏ battayll, and another dedicate it. * Who so hath planted a vynyarde, and hath not yet made it comen, let him go, and byde at home, that he dye not in the battayll, and another make it comen. * Who so hath spoused a wyfe, and hath not yet brought her home, let him go, and byde at home, ẏ he die not in the battayll, & another bringe her home. 1. Mac. 3. g Deu. 24. a

And the captaines shal speake further vnto the people, and saye: He that feareth and hath a faynte hert, let him go, and byde at home, that he make not his brethrens hert fainte also, like as his hert is. And whan the captaynes haue made an ende of speakinge vnto the people, they shall set the rulers of the hoost before the people in the fore fronte. B Iudit. 7. a

Whan thou commest nye vnto a cite to fight against it, thou shalt offre them peace. If they answere the peaceably, and open vnto the, then shal all ẏ people ẏ is founde ther in, be tributaries vnto the, and serue ẏ. But yf they wyl not deale peaceably wt the, and wyll warre with the, then besege it: and whan the LORDE thy God delyuereth it into thy hande, thou shalt smyte all the males that are therin, with the edge of the swerde: saue the wemen and the childre. * As for the catell, and all that is in the cite, and all the spoyle, thou shalt take them vnto thy selfe, and eate the spoyle of thine enemies, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the. Thus shalt thou do vnto all the cities, that are very farre from the, and are not of the cities of these nacions. Num. 21. c Deut. 2. c Iosu. 8. a and 11. c

* But in the cities of these nacions, which C

the LORDE thy God shall geue the to enheritaūce, thou shalt leaue nothinge alyue that hath breth, but shalt vtterly destroye thē, namely * the Hethites, Amorites, Cananites, Pherezites, Heuites, & Jebusites, as the LORDE thy God hath commaunded the, ỳ they teache you not to do all ỳ abhominacions, which they do vnto their goddes, & so ye to synne agaynst the LORDE youre God.

Whan thou must lye a longe season before a cite, against the which thou makest warre to take it, thou shalt not destroye ỳ trees therof that thou woldest hew them downe vnto the are, for thou mayest eate therof: and therfore shalt thou not hew them downe. For it is but wodd vpon the felde, and no man, and can not come & be bullwerkes agaynst the. But the trees which thou knowest ỳ mē eate not of, those shalt thou destroye, and rote out, and make bullwerkes therof, agaynst the cite that warreth with the, tyll thou haue ouercome it.

The XXI. Chapter.

A Whan there is one slayne founde in ỳ londe which ỳ LORDE ỳ God shall geue ỳ to possesse it, & lyeth in ỳ felde, & it is not knowne who hath slaine him, then shal thy Elders & iudges go forth, and meet from the slayne vnto the cities that lye rounde aboute. Loke which cite is the nexte, ỳ Elders of the same shal take a yōge cowe, which hath not bene laboured, ner hath drawē in the yocke, & they shal bringe her into a valley, where as is nether earinge nor sowinge, and strike of hir heade there in the valley.

Then shal the prestes ỳ children of Leui come forth. (* For the LORDE thy God hath chosen them, to serue him, and to prayse his name: and at their mouth shal all plees and strypes be tryed.) And all the Elders of the same cite shall come forth vnto the slayne, & B wash their handes ouer ỳ yonge cowe, whose heade is stricken of in the valley, and shal answere and saie: Oure hādes haue not shed this bloude, nether haue oure eyes sene it. Be mercifull (O LORDE) vnto thy people of Jsrael, whō thou hast delyuered, * laye no innocent bloude vnto thy people of Jsraels charge: then shall they be reconcyled from the bloude. Thus shalt thou put awaye the innocent bloude from the, in that thou doest the thinge whis is righte in the sighte of ỳ LORDE.

Whā thou goest forth to warre against thine enemies, & the LORDE thy God delyuereth them in to thine handes, so that thou carriest awaye their presoners, and seist amōge the capetyues a bewtyfull woman, & hast a desyre vnto her to take her to thy wife, thou bringe her home to thine house, and let her shaue hir heade, and pare hir nayles, and put of hir clothes that she was taken presoner in, and let her sit in thine house, and wayle for hir father and mother a moneth longe after that lye with her, and wary her, and let her be thy wife. But yf thou haue no fauoure vnto her, then shalt thou let her go whither she wyll, and not to sell her, ner to make chenesaunce of her, because thou hast dishonoured her.

Yf a man haue two wyues, one that he loueth, and one that he hateth, and they bere him children, both the beloued and the hated, so that the firstborne be hirs that is hated, and the tyme commeth that he dealeth out the inheritaunce vnto his children, then can he not make the sonne of ỳ beloued firstborne before the firstborne sonne of the hated, but he shall knowe the sonne of the hated for ỳ first sonne, so that he geue him double of all that is at hande: * for the same is ỳ begynnynge of his strength, & the firstbyrthrighte is his.

* Yf eny man haue a stubborne and disobedient sonne, which herkeneth not vnto the voyce of his father, and mother, and whan they teach him nurtoure, wyll not folowe them, then shall his father and mother take him, and bringe him to ỳ Elders of their cite, and to the gate of the same place, and saye vnto the Elders of the cite: This oure sonne is stobburne and disobedīet, and herkeneth not vnto oure voyce, and is a ryotar and a dronkarde. Then shal all the men of ỳ same cite stone him to death: and thus shalt thou put awaye the euell frō the, that all Jsrael maye heare and feare.

Yf a man haue commytted a synne ỳ is worthy of death, and is put to death, so that he is hanged on tre, then shal not his bodyre mayne all night on tre, but thou shalt burye him the same daye (* For cursed is he of God that is hanged) that thou defyle not thy londe, which the LORDE thy God geueth the to enheritaunce.

The XXII. Chapter.

Yf thou se thy brothers oxe or shepe, go astraie, thou shalt not withdrawe thy selfe from them, but shalt bringe thē againe vnto ỳ brother. But yf ỳ brother be not nye vnto the, & thou knowest him not, then shalt thou take thē in to thine house, ỳ they maye be wt the, tyll ẏ brother axe after them, & then delyuer him thē agayne. In like maner shalt thou do with his Asse, wt his rayment, & with euery lost thinge of ẏ brother, which he hath lost, & thou hast founde it: thou mayest not withdrawe thy selfe.

Yf thou se thy brothers oxe or Asse fallen downe by the waye, thou shalt not wdrawe thy selfe from him, but shalt helpe him vp.

* A woman shall not weere ẏ which pertayneth vnto a man, nether shal a man put on womans raymēt. For who so euer doth soch, is abhominacion vnto ẏ LORDE ẏ God.

Yf thou chaunce vpon a birdes nest by ẏ waye in a tre, or on the grounde, with yonge or with egges, and the dame syttinge vpon the yonge or vpon the egges, thou shalt not take the dame with the yonge, but shalt let the dame flye, and take the yonge, that thou mayest prospere and lyue longe.

When thou buyldest a new house, make a battelment aboute thy rofe, that thou lade not blonde vpon thine house, yf eny man fall therof.

Thou shalt not sowe thy vynyarde with dyuerse sedes, that thou halowe not (to the fullofferinge) the sede which thou hast sowne, with the increase of the vynyarde.

Thou shalt not plowe with an oxe and an Asse together at one tyme.

Thou shalt not weere a garmēt, ẏ is mixte with wollen and lynnen together.

* Thou shalt make gardes vpon the foure quarters of thy garment, wherwith thou coueresst thy selfe.

Yf a man take a wife, and hate her when he hath lyen with her, and layeth eny shamefull thinge vnto hir charge, and bringeth vp an euell name vpon her, and sayeth: I toke this wife, & when I came to her, I founde her not a mayde. Then shall the father and mother of the damsell take her, and bringe forth the tokens of the damsels virginite before the Elders of the cite, euen vnto the gate. And ẏ damsels father shal saie vnto ẏ Elders: I gaue this man my doughter to wyfe. Now hateth he her, and layeth a shamefull thinge to hir charge, and sayeth: I founde not thy doughter a mayde. And lo, these are the tokens of my doughters virginite. And they shal spreade out the clothe before the Elders of the cite. So shal the Elders of the cite take that man, and chastice him, and put a pennaunce vpon him of an hundreth Sycles of syluer, and geue the same vnto the father of the damsell, because he hath brought vp an euell name of a mayde in Israel, and he shall haue her to wyfe, so ẏ he maye not forsake her all his life longe. But yf it be of a trueth, that the damsell is not founde a virgin, thē shal she be brought forth vnto the dore of hir fathers house, and the mē of the cite shal stone her to death, * because she hath wrought foly in Israel, and played the whore in hir fathers house. And so shalt thou put awaye the euell from the. Deu.22.c

Yf a man be founde lienge with a womā that hath a maried hußbande, they shal dye both the man, & the womā that he hath lien withall. And so shalt thou put awaye euell from Israel. Leui.20.b

Yf a mayde be handfested to eny man, & another man getteth her in the cite, & lyeth with her, ye shal bringe them both out vnto the gate of the cite, and stone them both, ẏ they dye. The damsell, because she cryed not, beynge in the cite. The man, because he hath brought his neghbours wife to shame. And thou shalt put awaye the euell from the.

But yf a man get an handfested damsell vpon the felde, and take her, & lye wt her, then the man that laye with her, shal dye alone, and vnto the damsell thou shalt do nothinge: for she hath done no synne worthy of death. It is like as yf a man rose against his neghboure, and slewe him, euen so is this also. For he founde her in the felde, and the handfested damsell cryed, and there was no man to helpe her.

Yf a man fynde a mayde that is not hād fested, and take her, and lye with her, and be founde, then shal he that laye with her, geue hir father fyfte Sycles of syluer, and shall haue her to wyfe, because he hath shamed her: he maye not forsake her all his life lōge. Exo.22.c

Noma shal take his fathers wife, ner vncouer his fathers coueryng. Leui.18.a Deu.23.c

The XXIII. Chapter.

There shal none that hath his stones broken or ẏ is gelded, come in to the cōgregacion of the LORDE. There shal no whores childe also come in to the cōgregacion of ẏ LORDE, no not after ẏ tenth generacīō, but shal neuer come in to ẏ cōgregacīō of ẏ LORDE. * The Ammonites & Moabites shal not come in to ẏ cōgregacīō of ẏ LORDE, no not after ẏ tenth generacion, but shall neuer come in, because they met you not wt bred & water in ẏ waye, whā ye came out of Egipte. * And besides ẏ, they hired agaynst you Balaā ẏ sonne of Beor, ẏ interpreter out of Mesopotamia, to curse ẏ. But ẏ LORDE ẏ God wolde not heare Balaam, Esa.56.a 2.Esd.13.a Num.22.a Iosu.24.b and turned the curse to a blessynge vnto the: becaus the LORDE ẏ God loued the. Thou shalt wysh him nether prosperite ner healthy all thy life longe for euer. Thou shalt not abhorre an Edomite: * for he is thy brother.

Gen.25.c

B An Egipcian shalt thou not abhoure, for thou wast a straunger in his londe. The children whom they beget in the thirde generacion, shal come in to the congregacion of ẏ LORDE.

2.Co.10.a Ephe.6.b * Whā thou goest out to fyghte agaynst thine enemies, kepe the from all wickednesse.

Yf there be eny man amonge you which is vncleane, so that eny thinge is chaunced to him by nyghte, the same shal go out of ẏ hoost vntyll he haue bathed himselfe with water before euen: and whan the Sonne is gone downe, he shall come in to the hoost agayne.

And without the hoost thou shalt haue place to resorte vnto for necessyte, ⁊ thou shalt haue a shouell vnder the gyrdle: and whan thou wilt set ẏ downe without, thou shalt dygge therwith: and whan thou hast done thine easement, thou shalt couer that which is departed from the. For the LORDE thy God walketh in thine hooste, to delyuer the, and to gene thine enemies before the. Therfore shall thy hooste be holy, that he se no vncleane thinge in the, and so turne himselfe from the.

C Thou shalt not delyuer vnto his master the seruaunt, which is escaped fro̅ him vnto the. He shall dwell with the in the place that he choseth within eny of thy gates, for his wealth, and thou shalt not vexe him.

Num.25.b Deut.22.c vMich.1.b There shal be no whore amonge ẏ doughters of Israel, nether whorekeper amonge the sonnes of Israel. * Thou shalt not bringe ẏ hyre of an whoore ner the price of a dogg in to the house of the LORDE ẏ God for eny maner of vowe: for they both are abhominacion vnto the LORDE thy God.

Exo.22.c Leuit.25.f a.Esd.5.a Thou shalt occupye no vsury vnto ẏ brother, nether with money, ner with fode, ner with eny maner thinge that vsury maye be vsed withall. (Vnto a straūger thou maiest lende vpō vsury, but not vnto thy brother) ẏ the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in all ẏ thou takest in hāde, in the lōde whither thou commest in to possesse it.

D Num.30.a Eccle.5.a Baruc.6.e Act.5.a Whan thou makest a vowe vnto ẏ LORDE ẏ God, to shalt not be slacke to performe it: for the LORDE thy God shal requyre it of the, and it shal be synne vnto the. Yf thou leaue vowinge, then is it no synne vnto the. But that which is proceaded out of ẏ lyppes shalt thou kepe, and do therafter, acordinge as thou hast vowed vnto the LORDE of a frewyll, which thou hast spoken w̄ thy mouth.

Whan thou goest in to thy neghbours vyniarde, thou mayest eate of the grapes acordinge to thy desyre, tyll thou haue ynough. But thou shalt put none in to thy vessell.

* Whan thou goest in thy neghbours cornefelde, thou mayest plucke the eares with thine hande, but with a sycle mayest thou not reape therin.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

When a man taketh a wife, and marieth her, and she findeth no fauour in his eyes because of eny vncleanesse, the̅ shal he wryte a byll of deuorcemēt, and geue it her in hir hāde, and sende her out of his house. Yf whan she is gone out of his house, she go, and be another mans wyfe, and the same seconde man hate her also, ⁊ wryte a byll of deuorcement, and geue it her in hir hande, and sende her out of his house: Or yf the same seconde man dye, which tooke her to wife, then hir first huſbande that put hir awaie, maie not take hir againe to be his wife, in so moch as she is defyled, for that is abhominacion before the LORDE: that thou make not the londe to synne, which the LORDE thy God hath geuen the to enheritaūce.

Whan a man hath newly taken a wyfe, he shall not go awarre fare, nether shall he be charged withall. He shal be fre in his house one yeare longe, that he maye be mery w̄ his wife which he hath taken.

Thou shalt no take ẏ nethermost and vppermost mylstone to pledge, for he hat set ẏ his lyuynge to pledge.

Yf eny man be founde that stealeth one of his brethren, from amonge the childre of Israel, and setteth him to pledge, or selleth him soch a thefe shal dye, that thou maiest put awaye the euell from the.

Kepe the from the plage of leprosie, that thou * obserue diligently and do acordynge vnto all that the prestes the Leuites teach the, as I haue commaunded them, ẏ shalt obserue and do therafter. Remembre what the LORDE thy God dyd vnto Miriam * by the waye, whan ye were come out of Egipte.

Yf thou lendest ẏ brother eny dett, thou shalt not go in to his house, and take a pledge, but shalt stonde without: and he, to whō thou lendest, shal bringe out his pledge vnto the. But yf it be a poore body, thou shalt not lye downe to slepe, with his pledge, but shalt delyuer him his pledge agayne, whan the Sonne goeth downe, that he maye slepe in his awne rayment, and blesse the, so shall the same be reckened vnto the for righteousnes before the LORDE thy God.

Thou shalt not withdrawe the hyre of ỳ nedye and poore amonge thy brethren, or straunger that is in thy londe, or within thy gates, but shalt geue him his hyre the same daye, that the Sonne go not downe theron, for so moch as he is nedye, and his life sustey ned therwith: that he call not vpon the LORDE agaynst the, and it be synne vnto the.

The fathers shal not dye for the children, ner the childrē for the fathers, but euery one shal dye for his awne synne.

* Thou shalt not wrest the righte of the straunger and of the fatherlesse. And ỳ wedowes rayment shalt thou not take to pledge: For thou shalt remembre, that thou wast a seruaunte in Egipte, and how that ỳ LORDE thy God delyuered the from thence, therfore commaunde I the to do this.

Whan thou hast reaped downe thine harueste in the felde, and hast forgotten a shefe in the felde, thou shalt not turne agayne to fetch it, but it shal be for the straunger, ỳ fatherlesse and the wedowe, that the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in all the workes of thy handes.

Whan thou hast plucked thine Olyue trees, thou shalt not plucke them vp cleane afterwarde: it shal be for the straunger, the fatherlesse and the wedowe. Whan thou hast gathered thy vynyarde, thou shalt not gather it vp cleane afterwarde: it shalbe for the straunger, the fatherlesse and the wedowe. And thou shalt remembre, that thou wast a seruaunt in the londe of Egipte: therfore cōmaunde I the to do this.

The XXV. Chapter.

Whan there is a stryfe betwene men, they shalbe brought before ỳ lawe and iudged: and the iudges shall iustifye the righteous, and condemne the vngodly. And yf the vngodly haue deserued strypes, the iudge shall commaunde to take him downe, and they shall beate him before him, acordynge to the measure and nombre of his trespace. * Whan they haue geuē him fortye strypes, they shall beate him nomore, lest (yf there be mo strypes geuen him) he be beaten to moch, and thy brother be horrible before thine eyes.

Thou shalt not mosell the mouth of the ore, that treadeth out the corne.

Whan brethren dwell together, and one of them dye without children, then shall not ỳ wife of the deed take a straunge man without, but hir kynsman shal go in vnto her, and take her to wyfe: and the first sonne that she beareth, shal he set vp after the name of his brother which is deed, that his name be not put out of Israel.

But yf the man wyl not take his kynswoman, then shal his kynswoman go vp vnder the gate to the Elders, and saye: My kynsman refuseth to stere vp a name vnto his brother in Israel, and wyl not marye me. Then shal the Elders of the cite call him, and comen with him. Yf he stonde then and saye: I wyl not take her, then shal his kynswoman steppe forth vnto him before the Elders, and lowse a shue frō his fote, and spyt in his face, and shal answere, and saye: Thus shal it be done vnto euery man, that wyl not buil de his brothers house. And his name shalbe called in Israel, thevnshodd house.

Yf two men stryue together, and the wyfe of one renne to, to delyuer hir husbande from the hande of him that smyteth him, & put forth hir hande, and take him by the secretes, then shalt thou cut of hir hande, and thine eye shal not pitie her.

Thou shalt not haue in ỳ bagg two maner of weightes, a greate and a small. Nether shalt thou haue in thyne house dyuerse measures, a greate and a small. Thou shalt haue a perfecte and iust weighte, and a perfecte and iust measure, that thy life maye be longe in the londe, which the LORDE ỳ God shal geue the. For who so euer doth soch (yee all they that do euell) are abhominacion vnto the LORDE thy God. * Remēbre what the Amalechites did vnto the by the waye, whā ye were departed out of Egipte, how they buckled with the by the waye, and smote thy hynmost, euen all that were feble, which came after the whan thou wast weerye and fainte, and they feared not God. Now whā the LORDE thy God bryngeth the, to rest frō all thine enemies rounde aboute in the londe which the LORDE thy God geueth the for inheritaunce to possesse, then shalt thou put out the remembraunce of the Amalechites from vnder heauen. Forget not this.

The XXVI. Chapter.

Whan thou comest into the londe that the LORDE thy God shal geue the to inheritaunce, and enioyest it, and dwellest therin, thou shalt take of all maner * first frutes of the londe, that come out of thy grounde, which the LORDE thy God geueth the, & shalt put them in a maunde, and go vnto the place which the LORDE thy God shal chose (ý his name maye dwell there) and thou shalt come vnto the preist which shalbe at that tyme, and saye vnto him: I knowlege this daye vnto the LORDE thy God, that I am come in to the londe, which ý LORDE sware vnto oure fathers to geue vs. And the preist shal take the maunde out of thyne hande, and set it downe before the altare of the LORDE thy God.

B Then shalt thou answere and saye before the LORDE thy God: The Syrians wolde haue destroyed my father, * which wēte downe in to Egipte, and was a straūger there with a small folke, and became there a naciō greate, mightie & full of people. * But the Egipciās intreated vs euell, and troubled vs, and layed an harde bondage vpō vs. Then cried we vnto ý LORDE, the God of oure fathers. And the LORDE herde oure cryenge, and loked on oure aduersite, laboure, and oppressiō, * & brought vs out of Egipte with a mightie hande, and a stretched out arme, and with greate terrybleneſſe thorow tokens and wōders, and hath broughte vs vnto this place and hath geuen vs this londe, that floweth with mylke and hony. Therfore bringe I now the first frutes of the londe, which the LORDE hath geuen vs. And thou shalt leaue them before the LORDE thy God, and geue thankes before the LORDE thy God, and reioyse ouer all the good, that the LORDE ý God hath geuen the, and thyne house: thou and the Leuite, and the straunger that is with the.

C Whan thou hast brought together all ý tythes of thine increase in the thirde yeare, which is a yeare of tithes, thou shalt geue it vnto the Leuite, to the straunger, to the fatherlesse, and to the wedowe, that they maie eate within ý gates, and be filled. And thou shalt saye before the LORDE thy God: * I haue broughte that halowed is, out of my house, and haue geuen it vnto the Leuyte, the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wedowe, acordinge to all thy commaundement which thou hast cōmaunded me. I haue not transgressed thy commaundementes, ner forgotten them. I haue not eaten therof in my heuyneſſe, ner taken awaye therof in vncleanneſſe. I haue not geuē therof vnto the deed. I haue bene obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE my God, and haue done all as he hath commaunded me. * Loke downe from thy holy habitacion, from heauen, and blesse thy people of Israel, and ý londe that thou hast geuen vs, as thou swarest vnto oure fathers, a londe that floweth with mylke and hony.

D In the daye whan the LORDE thy God commaunded the, to do acordynge vnto all these ordinaūces and lawes, that thou shuldest kepe them and do therafter with all thy hert and with all thy soule. * The same daye maydest thou a promysse vnto the LORDE, that he shulde be thy God, and ý thou woldest walke in all his wayes, and kepe his ordynaunces, his commaundementes, and his lawes, and to herken vnto his voyce. * And the LORDE promysed the vpō the same daye, that thou shuldest be his awne peculier people, like as he hath sayde vnto the (so ý thou kepe all his commaundementes) and that he wolde make the hye in prayse name and honoure aboue all nacions which he hath made * ý thou mayest be an holy people vnto ý LORDE thy God, as he hath sayde vnto the.

The XXVII. Chapter.

A ND Moses with ý Elders of Israel commaunded the people, & sayde: Kepe all the commaundementes which I commaunde you this daye. * And what time as ye go ouer Jordane, in to the londe ý ý LORDE thy God shal geue the, thou shalt set vp greate stones, and playster them with playster, and wryte vpon them all the wordes of this lawe: (whan thou art come ouer) ý thou mayest come in to the londe, which the LORDE thy God shall geue the, a londe ý floweth with milke and hony, as ý LORDE God of thy fathers hath promysed the.

Now whan ye go ouer Jordane, ye shall set vp these stones (wherof I cōmaunde you this daye) vpon mount Eball, and playster them with playster: * and there shalt thou buylde vnto the LORDE thy God an altare of stone, wherupon thou shalt lifte no yron. * Of whole stones shalt thou builde this altare vnto the LORDE thy God, and offre burntofferinges theron vnto the LORDE thy God: and thou shalt offre healthofferinges, and eate there, and reioyse before the LORDE thy God: and vpon the stones thou shalt wryte all the wordes of this lawe manyfestly and well.

And Moses with the preistes and Leuites ℣ spake vnto all Israel, and sayde: Take hede and heare O Israel: This daye art thou become the people of the LORDE thy God.

that thou mayest be obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God, and do acordinge vnto all his commaundementes and ordinaunces, which I cōmaunde the this daye.

* And Moses charged the people the same daye, and sayde: These shal stonde vpon mount Gusim to blesse the people, whan ye are gone ouer Jordane: Simeon, Leui, Juda, Jsachar, Joseph, and Ben Jamin. And these shal stonde vpon mount Eball to curse: Ruben, Gad, Asser, Zabulon, Dan & Nephtali. And the Leuites shal begynne, and saye vnto euery man of Jsrael, w̄ a loude voyce:

Cursed be he, that maketh eny carued Idoll or molten ymage (an abhominacion of the LORDE, a worke of the handes of ỹ craftesman) and putteth it in a secrete place. And all the people shal answere and saye, Amen.

* Cursed be he, that curseth his father and mother. And all the people shall saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, ỹ remoueth his neghbours mark. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, that maketh a blynde man go out of his waye. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, that wresteth ỹ righte of ỹ straunger, of the fatherlesse, & wedowe. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, that lyeth with his fathers wife, to vncouer his fathers couerynge. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, ỹ lyeth w̄ eny maner beest. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

* Cursed be he, ỹ lyeth w̄ his sister, which is the doughter of his father or of his mother. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, ỹ lyeth with his mother in lawe. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he that slayeth his neghboure secretly. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

* Cursed be he, that receaueth giftes to slaye the soule of innocent bloude. And all the people shal saye, Amen.

Cursed be he, that contynueth not in all ỹ wordes of this lawe, to do them. And all ỹ people shal saye, Amen.

The XXVIII. Chapter.

AND yf thou shalt herken vnto ỹ voyce of the LORDE thy God, to obserue and do all his commaundementes which I cōmaunde ỹ this daye, then shall the LORDE thy God set ỹ an hye aboue all nacions vpō earth, and all these blessynges shal come vpon the, and ouertake the, because thou hast bene obedient vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God. Blessed shalt thou be in the towne, and blessed in the felde. Blessed shalbe the frute of thy body, the frute of thy grounde, and the frute of thy catell, and the frute of thine oxen, and the frute of thy shepe. Blessed shal be ỹ baskett, & thy stoare. Blessed shalt thou be whā thou goest in, and blessed whan thou goest out. * And thine enemies that ryse vp agaynst the, shal ỹ LORDE cause to be smytten before thy face. They shal come out agaynst the one waye, & flye before the seuen wayes. Deu. 20.

The LORDE shal commaunde the blessynge to be with ỹ in thy cellers, and in all that thou takest in hande, and shal blesse the in ỹ londe that the LORDE thy God hath geuē the. The LORDE shal set the vp to be an holy people vnto himselfe (as he hath swore vnto the) yf thou kepe the commaundementes of the LORDE thy God: so that all nacions vpon earth shal se, that thou art called after the name of the LORDE: & they shal be afrayed of you. And ỹ LORDE shal make ỹ plenteous in goodes, in the frute of ỹ wombe, in the frute of thy catell, & in the frute of thy grounde, in the londe that the LORDE sware vnto thy fathers, to geue the.

* And the LORDE shal open vnto ỹ his good treasure, euen the heauen, to geue rayne vnto thy londe in due season, and to prospere all the workes of thine handes. * And thou shalt lēde vnto many naciōs, but thou shalt borowe of no man. And ỹ LORDE shal set the before, and not behynde: & thou shalt be aboue onely, and not benethe, yf thou be obedient vnto the commaundementes of ỹ LORDE thy God, which I commaunde the this daye to kepe and to do them: & yf thou * bowe not asyde from eny of these wordes, which I commaunde ỹ this daye, either to the righte hande or to the lefte, ỹ thou woldest walke after other goddes to serue them. Deut. 11. Deu. 15.a Deu. 4.a and 17.c

But yf thou wylt not herken vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God, to kepe and to do all his commaundementes and ordinaunces, which I commaunde ỹ this daie, * then shall all these curses come vpon the, and ouertake the. Cursed shalt thou be in the towne, and cursed in ỹ felde: cursed shal thy basket be, and thy stoare. Cursed shall be the frute of thy body, the frute of thy londe, the frute of thine oxen, and the frute of thy shepe. Cursed shalt thou be whan thou goest in, and cursed whā thou goest out. complayninge, and cursynge, in all that thou takest in hande to do, tyll he haue destroyed the & shortly broughte to the naughte, because of thy wicked inuencions, in that thou hast forsaken me.

C The LORDE shall make the pestylence to byde longe with the, tyll he haue consumed the out of the londe, into the which thou commest to possesse it. The LORDE shall smyte the with swellynge, fevers, heate, burnynge, venome, drouth, and paleneſſe, & shall persecute the, tyll he haue destroyed the.

Deut. 10.c * Thy heauen, that is ouer thy heade, shalbe of brasse, and the earth vnder the, of yron. The LORDE shall geue thy londe dust for rayne, and aßshes from heauen vpon the, vntyll thou be broughte to naught. The LORDE shall cause the be smytten before thine enemyes. Thou shalt come out one waye agaynst them, and seuen wayes shalt thou flye before them, and shalt be scatered amõge all the kyngdomes vpon earth. Thy carcase shalbe meate vnto all maner foules of the ayre, and to all the beestes vpon earth, and there shalbe no man to fraye them awaye.

The LORDE shall smyte the with ẏ botches of Egipte, with the Emorodes, with scalle, and maungyneſſe, that thou shalt not

And thou shalt grope at the noone daye, as ẏ blynde gropeth in darkneſſe, and shalt not prospere in thy waye. And thou shalt suffre vyolence and wronge all thy lifelonge, & no man shal helpe ẏ. * Thou shalt

Deu.20.a * Thou shalt buylde an house, but another shall dwell therin. Thou shalt plante a vnyarde, but shalt not make it comen.

D Thine oxe shalbe slayne before thine eyes, but thou shalt not eate therof. Thine asse shalbe violently taken awaye (euen before ẏ face) and shal not be restored ẏ againe. Thy shepe shalbe geuen vnto thine enemies, and no man shal helpe the. Thy sonnes and thy doughters shalbe geuen vnto another nacion, and thine eyes shal se it, and daſe vpon them all the daye longe, and thy hande shal not be able to delyuer them. The frute of ẏ londe and all ẏ laboure, shall a nacion eate, which thou knoweſt not: and thou shalt but onely be he that shalbe oppressed and suffre wronge, all the dayes of thy life. And thou shalt be cleane beſyde thy selfe for the sighte, which thine eyes shal se.

The LORDE shal smyte the with a myscheuous botch in ẏ knees & legges, so that thou canst not be healed, euen from the sole of thy fote vnto the crowne of thy heade.

The LORDE shal bringe the and thy kynge (which thou hast set ouer the) vnto a nacion, whom thou knoweſt not, nether thy fathers: and there shalt thou serue other goddes, euen wodd and stone: and thou shalt go to waist, and become a byworde, & a laughinge stocke amõge all nacions, whither ẏ LORDE hath caryed the.

Thou shalt cary out moch sede in to ẏ felde, and shalt gather but litle in: for the greßhoppers shal destroye it. Thou shalt plante vnyardes and dresse thẽ, but thou shalt nether drynke of the wyne, ner gather of ẏ grapes: for ẏ wormes shal consume it. Thou shalt haue Olyue trees in all ẏ coastes, but shalt not be anoynted with the oyle: for thy ne Olyue trees shalbe roted out. Thou shalt get sonnes and doughters, and yet not haue them: for they shal be caried awaye captiue. All thy trees and frutes of thy londe shall be marred with blastinge.

The straunger that is with ẏ, shal clymme vp ouer the, and be allwaye aboue the: but thou shalt come downe alowe, and lye euer beneth. He shal lende vnto the, but thou shalt not lende him. He shalbe before, but thou shalt be behynde.

And all these curses shall come vpon the, & and folowe the, and ouertake ẏ, tyll thou be destroyed, because thou herkeneſt not vnto ẏ voyce of the LORDE ẏ God, to kepe his commaundemẽtes and ordinaunces, which he hath commaunded the. Therfore shal there betokens and wonders vpon the, & vpon thy sede for euer, because thou hast not serued ẏ LORDE thy God with a ioyfull and good hert, whan thou haddeſt abundaunce of all thinges. And therfore shalt thou serue thine enemye, which the LORDE shal sende vpon the, in hunger and thyrst, in nakedneſſe, and neade of all thinge: & he shal put a yocke of yron vpon thy necke, vntyll he haue broughte the to naughte.

The LORDE shal bringe a nacion vpon the from farre, euen from the ende of ẏ worlde, as a flyenge Aegle: a people, whose speache thou canst not vnderstonde, an harde fauoured people, which regarde not the persoune of the olde, ner haue compassion on the yonge. And they shal eate vp ẏ frute of thy catell, & the frute of thy londe, tyll they haue destroyed the, and shall leaue the no

* Thou shalt eate the frute of thine awne body, the flesh of thy sonnes and of thy doughters, which the LORDE ỳ God hath geuē the, in that straytnesse and sege, wher with thine enemye shall besege the: so that it shal greue the man ỳ afore hath lyued tenderly and in voluptuousnes amonge you, to loke vpon his brother and vpon his wife ỳ lyeth in his bosome, and on the sonne that is left over of his sonnes, lest he shulde geue eny of them of the flesh of his children that he eateth, in as moch as there is nothinge left him in that straytnesse and sege, wherwith thine enemye shal besege ỳ within all thy gates. And the woman that afore hath lyued so tenderly and voluptuously amonge you, that she durste not set the sole of hir fote vpon the grounde for tendernes and voluptuousnes, shal be greued to loke vpon hir hußbande that lieth in hir bosome, and on hir sonne, and on hir doughter: euen because of hir doughters which she hath norished betwixte hir legges in hir lappe, and because of hir sonnes that she hath borne: For she shall eate them secretly for very scarcenesse of all thinges, in the straytnesse and sege, wherwith thine enemye shal besege ỳ with in thy gates.

If thou wilt not be diligent to do all the wordes of this lawe which are wrytten in this boke, that thou mayest feare this glorious and fearfull name, euen the LORDE thy God, then shal the LORDE entreate ỳ wonderously, with plages vpon ỳ and thy sede, yee with greate and continuall plages, with euell and contynuall sicknesses, and shal bringe vpō ỳ all ỳ sicknesses of Egipte (wherof thou wast afrayed) and they shal cleue vnto the. Therto all maner sicknesses and all maner plages, which are not wrytten in the boke of this lawe, shal the LORDE thy God cause to come vpon the, vntyll he haue destroyed the. And there shal be left but a fewe people of you, * which afore were as the starres of heauen in multitude: because thou hast not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God.

And as ỳ LORDE reioysed ouer you afore, to do you good, and to multiplye you, euē so shall he reioyse ouer you, to destroye you, and to bringe you to naughte, and ye shal be waysted from of the londe, whither thou goest now to possesse it. For the LORDE shal scater the amonge all nacions, from the one ende of the worlde vnto another, and there shalt thou serue other goddes, whom thou knowest not, ner yet thy fathers, euen wodd and stone. Ier. 31.a

And amonge those same nacions shalt thou haue no quyetnesse, nether shal the sole of ỳ fote haue eny rest: for the LORDE shal geue the there a fearfull hert, and dasynge of eyes, and a troubled soule, so that thy life shal hāge before the: Night and daye shalt thou feare, and shalt haue no trust in thy life. In the mornynge thou shalt saye: Who shall geue me the euenynge? And at euen shalt thou saye: Who shal geue me the mornynge? For the very greate feare of thine hert, which shal make the afrayed: and for the sighte of thine eyes which thou shalt se.

And the LORDE shal bringe the agayne into Egipte by shippe fulles, euen thorow the waye wherof I sayde vnto the: * Thou shalt se it nomore: and there shal ye be solde vnto youre enemies for bonde seruauntes and bonde maidens, and there shal be no man to bye you. Exo. 14.

And Moses called all Israel, and sayde vnto them: Ye haue sene all that the LORDE dyd before youre eyes in the londe of Egipte, vnto Pharao with all his seruaūtes, and all his londe, the greate tentacions which thine eyes haue sene, that they were greate tokēs and wonders. And yet vnto this daye hath not the LORDE geuen you an hert that vnderstondeth, eyes that se, eares that heare. *Exo. 19. Deu. 10.b Ier. 31.d

He hath caused you to walke fortye yeares in the wylderneße. Youre clothes are not wared olde vpon you, nether is thy shue wared olde on thy fote. Ye haue eaten no bred, and dronken no wyne, ner stronge dryncke, that ye mighte knowe, that he is ỳ LORDE youre God. Deu. 8.a

of Basan, came out agaynst vs vnto battayll, and we smote them, and toke their londe, and gaue it to enheritaunce vnto ẏ Rubenites and Gaddites, and to the halfe tribe of the Manassites. * Kepe now therfore the wordes of this couenaunt, and do therafter, that ye maye haue vnderstondinge in all that ye do.

Ye stonde this daye all before the LORDE youre God, the chefe rulers of youre trybes, youre Elders, youre officers, euery man in Israel, youre children, youre wynes, ẏ straungers that are in thine hoost, * from the hewer of ẏ wodd vnto ẏ drawer of ẏ water: that thou shuldest enter in to the couenaunt of the LORDE thy God, and in to the ooth which the LORDE thy God maketh with the this daye, that he mighte set the vp this daye to be a people vnto himself, and that he mighte be thy God, as he hath sayde vnto the, * and as he sware vnto ẏ fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

For I make not this couenaunt and this ooth with you onely, but both with you ẏ are here this daye, and stonde with vs before the LORDE oure God, and also with them that are not here with vs this daye. For ye knowe how we haue dwelt in the londe of Egipte, and how we came thorow the myddes of the Heythen, whom ye passed by, and sawe their abhominacions and their Idols, wodd and stone, syluer and golde, which were with them: Lest there be amõge you man or woman, or an housholde, or a trybe, which turneth awaye his hert this daye from the LORDE oure God, to go and to serue ẏ goddes of these nacions: and lest there be amonge you some rote, that beareth gall & wormwodd: so that though he heare the wordes of this curse, he blesse him selfe yet in his hert, and saye: * Tush, it shal not be so euell. I wil walke after the * meanynge of myne awne hert, that the dronken maye perishe with the thyrstie.

Then shall not the LORDE be mercifull vnto him, but his wrath and gelousy shall smoke ouer soch a man, and all the curses that are wrytten in this boke, shall lighte vpon him: and the LORDE shal put out his name from vnder heauen, and shall separate him vnto euell out of all the trybes of Israel, accordinge vnto all the curses of the couenaunt, that is wrytten in the boke of this lawe.

So the posterities of youre childrē which shal ryse vp after you, and the straungers that come out of farre countrees, shall saye (whan they se the plages of this londe, and the diseases wherwith the LORDE hath smytten it) that he hath brent vp all their londe with brymstone and salt, so ẏ it can not be sowne, ner is frutefull, nether groweth there eny grasse therin, * Like as Sodom, Gomor, Adama and Zeboim are ouerthrowne, which the LORDE ouerthrewe in his wrath and anger.

Then shall all nacions saye: * Wherfore hath the LORDE done thus vnto this londe: What greate wrothfull displeasure is this: Then shalt it be sayde: Euen because they haue forsaken the couenaunt of ẏ LORDE God of their fathers (which he made with them whan he broughte them out of the londe of Egipte) and they wēte, and serued other goddes, and worshipped thē, euen soch goddes as they knewe not, and whom he had not deuyded vnto them. Therfore the wrath of the LORDE waxed whote ouer this londe, to brynge vpon it all the curses that are wrytten in this boke. And the LORDE thrust them out of their londe wt greate wrath, indignacion & displeasoure & hath cast them into another londe, as it is come to passe this daye.

These are the * secretes of the LORDE oure God, which are opened vnto vs and oure children for euer, ẏ we shulde do all the wordes of this lawe.

The XXX. Chapter.

NOw whan all this commeth vpon the, whether it be the blessinge or ẏ curse which I haue layed before the, and thou goest in to thine hert, beynge amõge the Heithen, whither the LORDE thy God hath thrust the, and thou turnest vnto the LORDE ẏ God, so that thou herkenest vnto his voyce, thou and thy children with all ẏ hert and with all thy soule, in all that I commaunde the this daye, * then shal the LORDE thy God turne thy captiuyte, and haue compassion vpon the, and shal gather thy congregacion agayne from amonge all the nacions, whither the LORDE thy God hath scatered the.

And though thou weryest thrust out vnto the vttemost partes of the heauen, yet shall the LORDE thy God gather the from thence, and from thēce shal he fetch the, and shal brynge the in to the londe, which thy fathers haue possessed, and thou shalt enioye it, and he shal do the good, and multiplye the aboue thy fathers.

But all these curses shall the LORDE thy God laye vpon thine enemyes, and vpon them that hate the and persecute the. But thou shalt turne, and herken vnto the voyce of the LORDE, to do all his commaundementes, which I commaunde the this daye. And the LORDE thy God shal make the plenteous in all the workes of thine hãdes, in the frute of thy body, in the frute of thy catell, in the frute of thy londe to good.

*For the LORDE shall turne, to reioyse ouer the to good, as he reioysed ouer thy fathers, so that thou herken vnto the voyce of the LORDE thy God (to kepe his commaundementes and ordinaunces, which are wrytten in the boke of this lawe) and turne vnto the LORDE thy God with all thy hert and with all thy soule.

Nether is it beyonde the see, that thou neadest to saye: Who wyll go ouer the see for vs, and fetch it vs, that we maye heare it, and do it? For the worde is very nye vnto the, euẽ in thy mouth and in thine hert, that thou do it.

Beholde, I haue layed before you this daye, life and good, death and euell. For I cõmaunde the this daye, to loue the LORDE thy God, and to walke in his wayes, and to kepe his commaundementes, ordinaunces, and lawes, that thou mayest lyue and multiplye, and that the LORDE thy God maye blesse the in the londe, whither thou goest to possesse it.

I am this daye an hundreth and twẽtye yeare olde, I can nomore go out and in: the LORDE also hath sayde vnto me: *Thou Nu.20.b

the LORDE shal do vnto them, as he dyd vnto Sihon and Og the kynges of the Amorites and vnto their lõde, which he destroyed. Num.21.d

*Now whan the LORDE shal deliuer thẽ * Deu.7.a and 20.c before you, ye shal do vnto them acordynge vnto all the commaundementes which I haue commaunded you. Be manly and strõge, feare not, and be not afrayed of them. For the LORDE thy God himselfe shal go with B Iosu.1.a the, *and shal not fayle the, ner forsake the. Heb.13.a

And Moses called Josua, and sayde vnto him before all Jsrael: Be stronge and bolde, for thou shalt bringe this people in to Iosu.1.b
the londe, which the LORDE hath swome 3.Reg.2.a
vnto their fathers to geue them, and thou shalt parte it amonge them by lott. But the LORDE himselfe that goeth before you, euen hẽ shal be with the, and shal not fayle the, ner forsake the: Feare not, and be not afrayed.

And Moses wrote this lawe, and delyuered it vnto the prestes the children of Leui (*which bare the Arke of the couenaunt Num.3.c of the LORDE) and vnto all the Elders of Jsrael.

And he commaunded them, and sayde: C
*At the ende of seuen yeares, in the tyme 2.Esdr.8.a of the fre yeare, in the feast of Tabernacles whan all Jsrael come to appeare before the LORDE thy God, in the place that he shall chose, thou shalt cause this lawe to be proclamed before all Jsrael in their eares, namely, before the congregacion of the people, both of men, wemen, children, and thy straungers which are within thy gates: that they maye heare and lerne to feare the LORDE their God, and be diligent to do all the wordes of this lawe: and that their children also which knowe nothinge, maye heare and lerne to feare the LORDE yo' God, all youre lyue dayes which ye lyue in the londe, whither ye go ouer Iordane to possesse it.

D And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, thy tyme is come that thou must die, call Josua, and stonde in the Tabernacle of witnesse, that I maye geue him a charge. Moses wente with Josua, and stode in the Tabernacle of witnesse. And the LORDE appeared in the Tabernacle in a cloudy pyler Exo.33.b * and the same cloudy pyler stode in the dore of the Tabernacle.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Moses: Beholde, thou shalt slepe with ẏ fathers, and this people wyll ryse vp, and go a whoringe after straunge goddes of the londe in to 3.Reg.8.b the which they come, * and wyll forsake me, and breake the couenaunt which I haue made wt them. And then shall my wrath ware whote agaynst them, at the same tyme, & I shal forsake thē, and hyde my face frō them, that they maye be consumed. * And so whan
Dre.31.d moch aduersite & trouble commeth vpō thē, they shal saye: Is not all this euell come vpō me, because God is not with me? But I shal hyde my face at the same tyme because of all the euell that they haue done, in that they haue turned vnto other goddes.

E Wryte now therfore this songe, & teach it the children of Israel, and put it in their Deut.32.a mouth, that this * songe maye be a witnesse vnto me amonge the children of Israel. For I wil bringe them in to the londe which I sware vnto their fathers, that floweth with Deut.8.c mylke and hony. * And whan they eate, and are full and fatt, they shal turne vnto other goddes, and serue them, and blaspheme me, and breake my couenannt.

And so whan moch myschefe and tribulacion is come vpon them, this songe shall answere before them for a witnesse. It shall not be forgotten out of the mouth of their sede: for I knowe their ymaginacion, that they go aboute euen now, before I bringe them in to the londe, which I sware vnto them.

F So Moses wrote this songe at the same tyme, and taught it the children of Israel.
Ios.1.b And the LORDE gaue Josua the sonne of nd 23.c Nun a charge, and sayde: * Be stronge and Reg.2.a bolde, for thou shalt bringe the children of Israel in to the londe, which I sware vnto them, and I wil be with the.

Now whan Moses had wrytten out all the wordes of this lawe in a boke, he commaunded the Leuites (which bare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt) and sayde: Take the boke of this lawe, and laye it by the syde of the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, that it maye be there a wytnesse agaynst the: for I knowe thy stubburnesse and thy harde neck. Beholde, whyle I am yet alyue wt you this daye, ye haue bene disobedient vnto the LORDE: how moch more after my death?

Gather now vnto me all the Elders of youre trybes, and youre officers, ẏ I maye G speake these wordes in their eares, * and take heauen and earth to recorde agaynst them. For I am sure that after my death ye shall marre youre selues, and turne a syde out of the waye, which I haue commaunded you: and so shall my ysfortune happen vnto you hereafter, because ye haue done euell in the sighte of the LORDE, in prouokynge him thorow the workes of youre handes.

So Moses spake out the wordes of this songe euen to the ende, in the eares of all the congregacion of Israel.

The XXXII. Chapter.

HErken (O ye heauens) I wyll speake: and let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.

* My doctryne droppe as doth the raine, and my speach flowe as doth the dew.

Euen as the rayne vpon the grasse, and as the droppes vpon the herbe.

For I wyl call vpon the name of the LORDE, geue ye the glory vnto oure God.

* Perfecte are the workes of the Sterne, for all his wayes are righteous.

God is true, and no wickednes is there in him, righteous and iust is he.

The froward and ouerthwarte generacion hath marred them selues to himwarde and are not his children, because of their deformyte.

Thanke'st thou the LORDE ẏ God so, thou foolish and vnwyse people?

Is not he thy father and thy LORDE? Hath he not made the, and prepared the?

* Whan the most Hyghest deuyded ẏ nacions and scatred the children of men.

Then set he the borders of the nacions acordinge to the nombre of the children of Israel.

* For the LORDES parte is his folke,

Jacob is the meetlyne of his enheritaunce.
He founde him in the wylderneſſe, euen in the drye deſerte where he roared.
He led him aboute, and gaue him vnderſtondinge: He kepte him as the aple of his eye.
As an Aegle ſtereth vp hir neſt, and flotereth ouer hir yonge: Euen ſo ſtretched he out his fethers, and toke him, and bare him on his wynges.
The LORDE onely was his gyde, & there was no ſtraunge God with him.
He caried him ouer ỹ heigth of the earth, and fed him with the increaſe of the felde.
He cauſed him ſucke hony out of the rocke, and oyle out of the harde ſtone.
Butter of the kyne, and mylke of the ſhepe, with the fat of the lambes, and raumes of the ſonnes of Basan, and he goates with the fat of the kydneys, and wheate: And gaue him drynke of the very bloude of grapes.
And whan he was fat and had ynough, he waxed wanton.
He is fat, and thicke, and ſmothe, & hath letten God go, that made him, and deſpyſed the rocke of his ſaluacion.
He hath prouoked him to indignacion, thorow ſtraunge goddes, and thorow abhominacion hath he angred him.
They offred vnto felde deuels, & not vnto their God.
Vnto goddes whom they knewe not, eñ vnto new goddes, ỹ came newly vp, whom their fathers honoured not.
Thy rocke that begat ỹ, haſt thou deſpyſed: and haſt forgotten God that made the.
And whan the LORDE ſawe it, he was moued vnto wrath ouer his ſonnes and his doughters.
And he ſayde: I wyll hyde my face from them, I wyll ſe what their ende ſhal be: for it is a froward generacion, they are childrē in whom is no fayth.
They haue prouoked me in it that is not God: w their vanites haue they angred me.
And I agayne wil prouoke them, by thoſe that are no people: by a fooliſh nacion wil I anger them.
For the fyre is kyndled in my wrath, and ſhal burne vnto ỹ nethermoſt hell, and ſhal conſume the londe with the increaſe therof, and ſet the foundacions of ỹ mountaynes on fyre.
I wil heape myſcheues vpō them, I wil ſpende all myne arowes at them.

I wil ſende amonge them ỹ tethe of beeſtes, and furious ſerpentes.
Without ſhall the ſwearde robbe them, & feare in the chambers, both the yonge man and yonge woman, the ſuckynge childrē w the gray headed man.
I wyll ſaye: Where are they? I ſhall make their remembraunce to ceaſſe from amonge men.
Yf the wrath of the enemies were not gathered, leſt their enemies ſhulde be proude, & might ſaie: Oure hande is hye, and: The LORDE hath not done all this.
For it is a people, wherin is no councell, and there is no vnderſtondinge in them.
O that they were wyſe & vnderſtode this, that they wolde cōſidre what ſhulde happē vnto them hereafter.
How cōmeth it, ỹ one ſhall chace a thouſande of them, and ỹ two ſhal put ten thouſande to flyghte?
Is it not ſo, euen becauſe their rocke hath ſolde them, and becauſe the LORDE hath geuen them ouer?
For oure rocke is not as their rocke, of this are oure enemies iudges them ſelues. E Exo.14.c 1.Reg.5.b
Their vyne is of the vyne of Sodom, and of the feldes of Gomorra: their grapes are the grapes of gall, they haue bytter cluſters.
Their wyne is the poyſon of Dragons, & the furious gall of Adders.
Is not this hid with me, and ſealed vp in my treaſures?
Vengeaunce is myne, and I wyll rewarde in due ſeaſon. Their fote ſhall ſlyde, for the tyme of their deſtrucciō is at honde, and the thinge that is to come vpon them, maketh haiſte. Rom 12.c Heb.10.d
For the LORDE ſhall iudge his people, and ſhal haue compaſſion on his ſeruauntes. For he ſhal conſidre that their power is awaie, and that it is gone with them, which were ſhut vp and remayned ouer. 2.Ma.7.b
And he ſhal ſaye: Where are their goddes, their rocke wherin they truſted? Iere.2.d

I wil make myne arowes dronken with blonde, and my swerde shal eate flesh ouer ỳ blonde of the slayne, and ouer the captyuite, and in that the enemies heade shall be discouered.

Rom.15.a Reioyse ye Heythen with his people: for he wil auenge the blonde of his seruauntes, and wyl auenge him on his enemies, & wil be mercifull vnto the londe of his people.

And Moses came and spake all the wordes of this songe in the eares of the people, he and Josua the sonne of Nun. Now whā Moses had made an ende of speakinge all these wordes vnto all Israel, he sayde vnto thē: * Take to hert all ỳ wordes, which I testifye vnto you this daye, that ye commaunde youre children, to obserue and do all the wordes of this lawe. For it is no vaine worde vnto you, but it is yo' life: & this worde shal prolonge youre life in ỳ londe, whither ye go ouer Jordane to conquere it.

G Deut.6.b and 11.c

And ỳ LORDE spake vnto Moses ỳ same daie, & sayde: Get the vp to this mount Abarim, vpon mount Nebo, which lyeth in ỳ londe of the Moabites ouer agaynst Jericho, & beholde the londe of Canaan, which I shall geue vnto the children of Israel in possessiō. And dye thou vpon the mount, whan thou art come vp, and be gathered vnto thy people, * like as Aaron thy brother dyed vpon mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people: Because ye trespaced agaynst me amonge the children of Israel by the * water of stryfe at Cades in the wildernesse of Zin, and sanctified me not amonge the children of Israel. For thou shalt se the londe ouer against the, which I geue vnto ỳ children of Israel but thou shalt not come in to it.

The XXXIII. Chapter.

A THis is the blessynge, wherwith Moses the man of God blessed ỳ childrē of Israel before his death, and saide: The LORDE came from Sinai, * and rose vp vnto thē from Seir. He appeared fro mount Paran, and came & many thousande sayntes. At his righte hande is there a lawe of fyre for them: O how loued he the people: All his sayntes are in his hande, * they shall sit them selues downe at thy fete, and receaue of thy wordes. Moses commaunded vs the lawe, which is the enheritaunce of the congregacion of Jacob. And he was in the fulnesse of the kynge, & helde ỳ rulers of ỳ people together, with the trybes of Israel.

Exo.3.a *Exo.19.a

Let Ruben lyue, and not dye, and his people be fewe in nombre.

This is the blessynge of Juda. And he sayde: LORDE heare the voyce of Juda, and bringe him vnto his people: Let his hāndes multiplye him, and let him be helped frō his enemies.

And vnto Leui he sayde: Thy perfectnes and ỳ lighte be accordinge vnto the man of thy mercy, * whō thou hast tempted at Massa, whan ye stroue by the water of stryfe. * He that sayeth vnto his father and to his mother: I se him not: and to his brother, I knowe him not: and to his sonne, I wote not of him, those haue obserued thy wordes, and kepte ỳ couenaunt: they shal teach Jacob thy iudgmentes, and Israel thy lawe: they shal laie incense before thy nose, & burnt offeringes vpon thine altare. LORDE, blesse thou his power & accepte the workes of his handes: smyte the loynes of them ỳ ryse vp agaynst him, & of them that hate him, that they lifte not vp them selues.

And to Ben Jamin he saide: The beloued of the LORDE shal dwell in hope on him: All the daye long: shal he wayte vpon him, and shal dwell betwene his shulders.

And to Joseph he sayde: * His londelieth in the blessynge of the LORDE, there are noble frutes of heauen, of the dew, and of the depe that lyeth beneth: There are noble frutes of the increase of the Sonne, and noble rype frutes of ỳ monethes: And of ỳ toppes of the mountaynes of olde, and of the hilles allwaye, and of the noble frutes of ỳ earth, and of t' fulnesse therof. The good will of him * that dwelleth in the bushe, come vpon the heade of Joseph, and * vpon ỳ toppe of his heade that was separated frō amonge his brethren.

His bewtye is as a firstborne oxe, and his hornes are as ỳ hornes of an Vnicorne: with the same shal he pusshe the nacions together, euen vnto the endes of the worlde. These are the thousandes of Ephraim, and the thousandes of Manasse.

And vnto Zabulon he sayde: Reioyse Zabulon of thy outgoynge: but reioyse thou Isachar of thy tentes. They shall call the people vnto ỳ hyll, and there shal they offre ỳ offeringes of righteousnes. For they shal sucke the abundaunce of the see, and the treasures hyd in the sonde.

And to Gad he sayde: Blessynge haue Gad, which maketh rowme. He dwelleth as a lyon, and spoyleth the arme and the toppe of the heade. And he sawe his begynnynge, that ỳ heape of the teachers laye hydde there, and came with the rulers of the people, and executed the righteousnesse of the LORDE, and his iudgment on Israel.

And to Dan he sayde: Dan a yonge lyon, he shal flowe from Basan.

And to Nephtali he saide: Nephtali shal haue abundaunce of pleasure, & shalbe full of the blessynge of the LORDE: his possession shalbe towarde the west and south. And to Asser he sayde: Asser be blessed wt sonnes, accepted be he with his brethren, and dyppe his fote in oyle. Yron and brasse be on thy shues. Thyne age be as thy youth.

There is no God as the God of the iust. He that sytteth vpon heauen, be thy helpe. And his glory is in the cloudes, that is the dwellynge of God from the beginnynge, and vnder the armes of the worlde. And he shal dryue out thyne enemye before the, and saye: Be destroyed. * And Israel shall dwell safe alone. The eye of Jacob shalbe vpon ỳ londe where corne and wine is, heauen also shal droppe with dewe. Happye art thou Israel, who is lyke vnto the? O thou people ỳ art saued by the LORDE, which is thy helpe, shylde, and the swerde of thy glorye. Thyne enemies shal pyne awaye, and thou shalt treade vpon the height of them.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

AND Moses wente from the felde of ỳ Moabites vp vnto mount Nebo, vpō ỳ toppe of moūt Pisga ouer agaynst Jericho. And the LORDE shewed him all the londe of Gilead vnto Dan, and all Nephtali, and the londe of Ephraim and Manasse, and all the londe of Juda, vnto ỳ vttemost see, and towarde the south, and the region of the playne of Jericho the cite of the palme trees euen vnto Zoar. And the LORDE sayde vnto him: This is the londe that I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and sayde: I wyll geue it vnto thy sede. Thou hast sene it with thine eyes, * but thou shalt not go ouer thither.

So Moses ỳ seruaunt of the LORDE died there in the londe of the Moabites, acordinge vnto the worde of ỳ LORDE. And he buried him in a valley, in the londe of the Moabites ouer agaynst the house of Peor. And no man knewe of his graue vnto this daye. And Moses was an hundreth and twentye yeare olde whan he dyed: his eyes were not dymme, and his chekes were not fallen. And the children of Israel weped for Moses in ỳ felde of the Moabites thirtie daies, and the dayes of the wepynge and mournynge for Moses were fulfilled.

And Josua the sonne of Nun was filled with ỳ spirete of wyßdome (* for Moses had layed his hande vpon him) and the children of Israel herkened vnto him, and dyd as the LORDE commaunded Moses. And there arose no prophet more in Israel, like vnto Moses, whom the LORDE knewe face to face in all tokens and wonders (which the LORDE sent him to do in ỳ londe of Egipte, vnto Pharao, and to all his seruaūtes, and his londe) and in all this mightie hande and greate visions which Moses dyd in the sighte of all Israel.

The first Chapter.

A Fter the death of Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE, spake the LORDE vnto Josua ỹ sonne of Nun Moses myniſter: My ſeruaunt Moses is deed, vp now, and go ouer this Jordane, thou and all this people in to the londe that I haue geuen the children of Israel. All the places that the soles of youre fete shal treade vpon, haue I geuen vnto you, as I sayde vnto Moses: From the wyldernesse and this Libanus vnto the greate water Euphrates: all the londe of the Hethites vnto the greate see towardeche west, shal be youre border. There shall noman be able to withstonde ỹ all thy life longe. And like as I was with Moses, so wil I be with the also. * I will not fayle the nether forsake the. Be stronge and bolde: for vnto this people shalt thou deuyde ỹ londe, which I sware vnto their fathers, to geue it them.

B * Be stronge therfore and very bolde, that thou mayest kepe and do euery thynge accordinge to the lawe, that Moses my seruaunt commaunded the. Turne not aſyde from it, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte, ỹ thou mayest deale wyſely whither so euer thou goest. * And let not the boke of this lawe departe out of thy mouth, but exercyse thy ſelfe therin daie and nighte, that thou mayest kepe and do euery thinge accordinge to it that is wrytte therin: Then shalt thou prospere in thy waies, and deale wyſely. Lo, I haue commaunded the to be stronge and bolde. Feare not, and be not afrayed: for the LORDE thy God is with ỹ, whither so euer thou goest.

Then commaunded Josua the officers of the people, and sayde: Go thorow the hoost, and charge ỹ people, and saye: Prepare you vytayles, for ouer thre dayes shal ye go ouer this Jordane, that ye maye come in and take possession of the londe, which the LORDE youre God shal geue you.

And to the Rubenites, Gaddites, and to the halfe trybe of Manasse, sayde Josua: Thynke vpon the worde, * that Moses the seruaunt of ỹ LORDE spake vnto you, and sayde: The LORDE yo' God hath brought you to rest, and geuen you this londe. Let youre wyues and children and catell remayne in ỹ londe, that Moses gaue you on this syde Jordane: But ye youre selues (as many as be fightinge men) shal go forth before youre brethren in harneſſe, and helpe them, tyll the LORDE haue brought youre brethren to rest also as well as you: that they also maye take possession of the londe, which the LORDE yo' God shal geue them: Then shal ye turne agayne in to the londe of youre possession, that ye maye enioye it, which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE hath geuen you on this syde Jordane towarde ỹ East. And they answered Josua and sayde: * All that thou hast commaunded vs, wyll we do: and whither so euer thou sendest vs, we wyl go thither. Like as we haue obeyed Moses, so wyl we be obedient also vnto the: Onely that the LORDE thy God be with ỹ, like as he was with Moses. Who so euer disobeyeth thy mouth, and herkeneth not vnto thy wordes in all that thou hast commaunded vs, shal dye: Onely be thou stronge and bolde.

The II. Chapter.

A Josua the sonne of Nun sent out two spyes preuely from Setim, and sayde vnto them: Go youre waye, loke vpon the londe and Jericho. They wente forth, * and came in to ỹ house of an harlot, called Rahab, and laye there. Then was it tolde the kynge of Jericho: Lo, there are men come in this nighte from the childrē of Israel, to spye the londe. Then sent the kynge of Jericho vnto Rahab, sayinge: Delyuer the men forth that are come vnto the in to thy house, for they are come to spye out the whole londe. Now as for the two men, the woman had hyd them, and sayde: There came men in vnto me in dede, but I knewe not whence they were. And at the shuttinge in of the gate whan it was darcke, they wente out, so ỹ I can not tell whither they be gone: folowe soone after them, for ye shal ouertake them. But she had caused them to clymme vp vnto the house toppe, and hyd them vnder the stalkes of flaxe, that she had prepared her vpō the toppe of the house. Howbeit the men folowed after them in ỹ waye towarde Jordane, euen vnto the ferye: and whan they that folowed vpon them were gone forth, the gate was shut.

B And or euer the men layed them downe to slepe, she wente vp to them vnto the house toppe, and sayde vnto thē: I knowe that
Deu. 28. a Iosu. 5. a the LORDE shal delyuer you the londe, * for the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and all the inhabiters of the londe are discoraged at youre commynge. For we haue herde, how

Iu. 6. d from death. The men sayde vnto her: * If we shewe not mercy and faithfulnesse vpon the, whan the LORDE geueth vs the londe, then let oure soule dye for you, so farre as thou betrayest not oure denyce. Then let she them downe thorow the wyndowe by a coarde: for hir house was in the wall of the cite, and in the wall was hir dwellynge. And she sayde vnto them: Go youre waye vp to the mountaynes, lest they mete you that folowe vpon you: and hyde youre selues there thre dayes, tyll they be come againe ẏ folowe after you, and then get you youre waye.

D But the men sayde vnto her: As for this ooth that thou hast taken of vs, we wyll be discharged of it whan we come in to ẏ londe, excepte thou knyttest in the wyndowe ẏ lyne of this rosecoloured rope (ẏ thou hast lettē vs downe with all) & gathereest vnto ẏ in to the house, thy father, thy mother, ẏ brethren & all thy fathers house. And loke who so euer goeth out at the doze of thy house, his blonde be vpon his owne heade, and we guiltlesse. But of all those ẏ are in ẏ house, yf a hande be layed vpon thē, their blonde shalbe vpō yͦ heade. And yf thou bewrayest eny of this denyce of ours, thē wil we be discharged of the ooth ẏ thou hast takē of vs. She sayde: Let it be so as ye saye, and she let thē go. And they wente their waye. And she knyt the rose coloured lyne in the wyndowe.

They wente on their waye, and came to the mountaynes, and remayned there thre dayes, tyll they that folowed vpon them were come agayne: for they soughte them thorow euery strete, & yet they founde them not. So the two men turned agayne, and departed from the mountaynes, and passed ouer (Jordane) and came to Josua the sonne of Nun, and tolde him euery thinge, as they had founde it, & they sayde vnto Josua: The LORDE hath geuē vs all the londe in to oure handes, and all they that dwell in the londe, are sore afrayed of vs.

The III. Chapter.

AND Josua rose vp early, and they departed from Setim, & came vnto Jordane, he and all the children of Israel, and remayned there all nyght, afore they wēte ouer. But after thre dayes wente the officers thorow ẏ hooste, and commaunded the people, and sayde: Whan ye se the Arke of ẏ couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, and the prestes from amōge the Leuites bearinge it, departe ye then out of youre place, and folowe after (but so, that there be rowme betwene you and it by two thousande cubites, & that ye come not nye it) ẏ ye maye knowe what waye ye shulde go: for ye neuer wente that waye afore.

And Josua sayde vnto the people: Hallowe youre selues, for tomorow shal ẏ LORDE bringe wonderous thinges to passe amōge you. And vnto the prestes he sayde: Beare ye the Arke of ẏ couenaūt, and go before the people. Then * bare they the Arke, and wente before the people. And the LORDE sayde vnto Josua: This daye wyl I begynne to make the greate in the sighte of all Israel, that they maie knowe, how that like as I was with Moses, so am I with the also. And commaunde thou the prestes that beare the Arke, and saye: Whan ye come before in the water of Jordane, stonde styll.

C And Josua sayde vnto the children of Israel: Come hither, & heare the worde of the LORDE youre God. He sayde moreouer: By this shal ye perceaue, that the lyuynge God is amonge you, and that he shall dryue out before you ỳ Canamites, Hethites, Hewites, Pheresites, Girgosites, Amorites and Jebusites. Beholde, the Arke of the couenaunt of him ỳ hath domynion ouer all londes, shall go before you in Jordane. Take now therfore twolue men out of ỳ trybes of Israel, out of euery trybe one. And whan the soles of the fete of the prestes that beare ỳ Arke of the LORDE the gouernoure of all londes, are set in the water of Jordane, then shal ỳ water of Jordane withdrawe it selfe from the water that floweth from aboue, that it maye stonde on a heape.

D Now whan the people departed out of their tentes, to go ouer Jordane, & the prestes bare the Arke of the couenaunt before the people, and came in to Jordane, & dypte their fete before in the water (as for Jordane on all his banckes it was full of all maner waters * of the londe) then the water that came downe frō aboue, stode straight vp vpon one heape, very farre from the cite of Adom, that lyeth on the syde of Zarthan: But the water that ranne downe to the see (euen to the salt see) fell awaye, and decreased.

So ỳ people wente thorow ouer agaynst Jericho. And the prestes that bare the Arke of the LORDE scouenaunt, stode drye in ỳ myddes of Jordane, readye prepared: & all Israel wēte thorow drye shod, vntyll ỳ whole people were all come ouer Jordane.

The IIII. Chapter.

A AND ỳ LORDE sayde vnto Josua: Take you twolue men, out of euery trybe one, & cōmaunde them, & saye: * Take vp twolue stones out of Jordane, from the place where the fete of the prestes stode in their araye: & cary them with you, ỳ ye maie leaue them in ỳ lodginge, where ye shal lodge this night. Thē Josua called twolue mē which were prepared of the children of Israel, out of euery trybe one, & sayde vnto thē: Go youre waye ouer before the Arke of the LORDE youre God in the myddes of Jordane, & take euery man a stone vpon his shulder, after the nombre of the trybes of ỳ children of Israel, ỳ they maye be a token amonge you. And whan youre children axe their fathers here after, and saye: What do these stones there? That ye maye then saye vnto them, how that the water of Jordane clawe in sunder before the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, whan it wente thorow Jordane, & that these stones are set for a perpetuall remembraunce vnto the children of Israel.

B Then dyd the children of Israel as Josua commaunded them, and bare twolue stones out of the myddes of Jordane (as the LORDE had sayde vnto Josua) * acordinge to the nombre of the trybes of the children of Israel, and broughte the same with them in to the lodginge, and leste them there. And Josua set vp twolue stones in ỳ myddes of Jordane, where ỳ fete of the prestes stode, that bare ỳ Arke of the couenaunt: and there they be yet vnto this daye. As for ỳ prestes that bare ỳ Arke, they stode in the myddes of Jordane, vntyll all was performed that the LORDE charged Josua to saye vnto ỳ people * acordinge as Moses gaue Josua in commaundemēt. The people also made haist, and wente ouer. Now whan all the people was gone ouer, the Arke of the LORDE wente ouer also, and the prestes wente before the people.

C * And the Rubenites, & Gaddites, and ỳ halfe trybe of Manasse wente harnessed before the childrē of Israel, like as Moses had sayde vnto thē: Aboute a fortye thousande men ready harnessed to the warre, wente before the LORDE to the battayll, vpon ỳ felde of Jericho. * In that daye the LORDE made Josua greate in the sighte of all Israel: and like as they feared Moses, so stode they in awe of him, all his life longe.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Josua: Commaunde the prestes which beare the Arke of witnesse, that they come vp out of Jordane. So Josua cōmaunded the prestes, & sayde: Come vp out of Jordane. And whan the prestes ỳ bare the Arke of the couenaūt of ỳ LORDE were come out of Jordane, and trode with the soles of their fete vpon the drye londe, ỳ water of Jordane came agayne in to his place, and flowed (like as afore tyme) vpon all his banckes.

D It was ỳ tenth daye of the first moneth, whan the people came vp out of Jordane: & they pitched their tentes in Gilgall vpon ỳ East syde of ỳ cite of Jericho. And ỳ twolue stones which they had taken out of Jordane, dyd Josua set vp at Gilgall, & sayde vnto the children of Israel: * Whan youre children are their fathers hereafter, & saie: What meane these stones? Ye shall tell thē, & saye: Israel wēte drye thorow Jordane, what tyme as ỳ LORDE yo God dryed vp ỳ water of Jordane before you, vntyll ye were ouer:

like as the LORDE yͤ God dyd in the reed xo.14.c see, * which he dryed vp before vs, ỽ we might te go thorow: that all the people vpon earth might knowe the hãde of the LORDE, how mightie it is, to the intent that ye shulde allwaye feare the LORDE youre God.

The V. Chapter.

A NOw whan all the kynges of ỽ Amo rites that dwelt beyonde Jordane westwarde, and all the kynges of ỽ Cananites by the see syde herde, how ỽ LOR DE had dryed vp the water of Jordane before the children of Jsrael, tyll they were co osu.2.b me ouer * their hert fayled them, nether was there eny more corage in them at the presence of the children of Jsrael.

At the same tyme sayde ỽ LORDE vnto xod.4.e Josua: Make the knyues * of stone, ỽ circum cyse the children of Jsrael agayne the secon de tyme. Then Josua made him knyues of stone, and circumcysed the childrẽ of Jsrael vpon the toppe of the foreskynnes. And the cause why Josua circumcysed all the males of the people ỽ were come out of Egipte, is this: for all the men of warre dyed in ỽ wil derneesse by the waye, after they were departed out of Egipte: for all the people that ca me forth, were circumcysed.

B But all the people that were borne in ỽ wylderneesse by the waye (after they departed out of Egipte) were not circumcysed:
for the children of Jsrael walked forty yea-res in the wylderneesse, vntyll all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egip te, were consumed, because they herkened not vnto the voyce of the LORDE, like as Nu.14.d the LORDE sware vnto them, * that they shulde not se the londe, which the LORDE sware vnto their fathers to gene vnto vs, euen a londe that floweth with mylke ỽ ho nye: their children which were come vp in their steade, dyd Josua circumcyse: for they had the foreskynne, and were not circumcy sed by the waye.

C And whan all the people were circumcysed, they abode in their place, euẽ in ỽ tẽte, tyll they were whole. And ỽ LORDE saide vnto Josua: To daie haue I turned ỽ shame of Egipte awaye from you, ỽ the same pla ce was called Gilgall vnto this daye. And xod.12.a whyle the children of Jsrael laye thus at Gilgall, they kepte Easter * the fourtenth daye of the moneth at euẽ in the felde of Je richo. And they ate of the corne of the lãde the seconde daye of the Easter: namely, vnle mended bred, ỽ fyne frye of ỽ yeare, euẽ the xod.16.f same daye. And vpon the morow, the * Man na sayled, whan they ate of the corne of ỽ londe, so that the children of Jsrael had no more Manna, but ate of the corne of the lan de of Canaan the same yeare.

And it fortuned that whã Josua was by Jericho, he lifte vp his eyes, ỽ was aware that there stode a mã agaynst him, and had a naked swerde in his hande. And Josua went te to him, ỽ sayde vnto him: Art thou one of vs, or of oure enemies? He sayde: Nay, but I am * the prynce of the LORDES hoost, and now am I come. Then fell Josua downe to the earth vpon his face, ỽ worshipped him, and sayde vnto him: What sayeth my LOR DE vnto his seruaunt? And the prynce of the LORDES hoost sayde vnto him: * Put ỽ shues of ỽ fete, for the place wherevpõ thou stondest, is holy. And Josua dyd so.

The VI. Chapter.

AS for Jericho, it was shut ỽ kepte because of the childrẽ of Jsrael, so that no man mighte go out ner in. But the LORDE sayde vnto Josua: Beholde, I ha ue geuen Jericho with ỽ kynge and men of warre therof, into ỽ hande. Let all the men of warre go once rounde aboute ỽ cite, and do so sixe dayes. But vpon the seuenth daye let the prestes take the seuen trompettes of the yeare of Jubilye before the Arke, and go the same seuenth daye seuen tymes about the cite, and let the prestes blowe the trompettes. And whan the horne of the yeare of Jubilye bloweth and maketh a sounde, so that ye heare the trompettes, all the people shal make a greate shoute, then shal the wal les of the cite fall downe, and ỽ people shal fall in, euery one straight before him.

Then Josua the sonne of Nun called ỽ prestes, and sayde vnto them: Beare vp the Arke of the couenaunt, and let seuen priestes take the seuen trompettes of the yeare of Jubilye before the Arke of the LORDE.
But vnto the people he sayde: Get you hen ce, and go rounde aboute the cite: and let him that is harnessed, go before the Arke of the LORDE. Whan Josua had spoken this vnto the people, the seuen prestes bare the seuen trompettes of the yeare Jubilye before the Arke of the LORDE, and went ỽ blew the trompettes, and the Arke of the LOR DES couenaũt folowed after them: and who so was harnessed, went before the prestes that blewe the trompettes, and the multitude folowed the Arke. And all was full of ỽ noyse of the trompettes. But Josua commaunded the people, and sayde: Ye shall ma ke no shoute, ner let youre voyce be herde, ther shall ye gene one worde out of youre mouth, vntyll the daye I saye vnto you: Make a shoute, then make a shoute.

C So the Arke of the LORDE wente once rounde aboute the cite, and came agayne into the hooste, & remayned therin: for Josua vsed to ryse vp early in the mornynge. And the prestes bare the Arke of the LORDE: so dyd the seuen prestes beare the seuen trompettes of the yeare of Jubilye before the Arke of the LORDE, and wente and blewe the trompettes: and who so was harnessed, went before the, but the multitude folowed the Arke of the LORDE. And all was full of the noyse of the trompettes.

The seconde daye wente they once aboute the cite also, and came agayne into the hooste. Thus dyd they sixe dayes. But vpon the seuenth daye whan the mornynge sprynge arose, they gat them vp early, and wente after the same maner seuen tymes aboute the cite, so that vpon the same one seuenth daye they wente seuen tymes aboute the cite.

D And at the seuenth tyme whan the prestes blewe the trompettes, Josua sayde vnto the people: Make a shoute, for the LORDE hath delyuered you the cite: Howbeit this cite, & all that is therin, shalbe damned vnto the LORDE: * onely the harlot Rahab shall lyue, & all that are with her in the house, for she hyd the messaungers, whom we sent forth. * Onely bewarre of it that is damned, lest ye damne youre selues (yf ye take ought of it which is damned) and make the hooste of Israel to be damned, and bringe it into myssfortune. But all the syluer and golde, with the ornamentes of brasse & yron, shalbe sanctified vnto the LORDE, that it maye come to the LORDES treasure.

Then made the people a greate shoute, and the prestes blewe the trompettes (for whan the people herde the noyse of the trompettes, they made a greate shoute) * and the walles fell, and the people clymmed vp into the cite, euery one straighte before hym. Thus they wanne the cite, and * destroyed all that was in the cite with the edge of the swerde, both man and woman, yonge and olde, oxe, shepe, and Asse. Deut.20

But Josua sayde vnto the two men which E had spyed out the londe: Go into the house of the harlot, and bringe out the woman fro thence with all that she hath, accordynge as ye haue sworne vnto her. Then the yonge men (the spyes) wente in, and brought forth Rahab with hir father and mother, & brethren, and all that she had, and all hir kynred, and caused her to dwell without the hooste of Israel. As for the cite, they brent it with fyre, & all that was therin: onely the syluer and golde, and the ornamentes of brasse and yron put they vnto the treasure in the house of the LORDE: but Josua let the harlot Rahab lyue; Heb.11.c Iacob.2.a with hir fathers house, and all that she had: & she dwelt in Israel vnto this daie, because she had hyd the messaungers who Josua sent vnto Jericho to spye.

At the same tyme sware Josua, and sayde: * Curssed be that man before the LORDE, 3.Reg.16. which setteth vp this cite of Jericho & buyldeth it: Whan he laieth the foundacion therof, let it cost him his first sonne: And whan he setteth vp the gates of it, let it cost him his yongest sonne. Thus the LORDE was with Josua, so that he was spoken of in all londes.

The VII. Chapter.

BVt the children of Israel had comyted a sinne in the thinge that was damned: for Achan the sonne of Charmi the sonne of Sabdi the sonne of Serah, of the tribe of Juda, toke some of it that was dāned. Then was the wrath of the LORDE fearce ouer the children of Israel. A Deut.7. Iosu.6.d a.Mac.12.

Now whan Josua sent out men from Jericho vnto Hai, which lyeth beside Bethaun on the east syde of Bethel, he sayde vnto them: Go vp, and spye the londe. And whan they had gone vp, and spyed out Hai, they came agayne to Josua, and sayde vnto him: Let not all the people go vp, but vpon a two or three thousande, that they maye go vp and smyte Hai, lest all the people weery them selues there, for they are but fewe.

So there wente vp, of the people vpon a three thousande men, and they fled before the men of Hai, and they of Hai smote vpon a fyre and thyrtie men of them, and chaced them from the porte vnto Sebarim, and smote them downe the waye. Then was the hert of the people discouraged, * and

Psa. 21.b became like water. As for Josua he rente his clothes, and fell vpon his face vnto the earth before the Arke of the LORDE, vntill the euentide, with the Elders of Israel, and cast dust vpon their heades.

B And Josua sayde: Oh LORDE LORDE, wherfore hast thou broughte this people ouer Jordane, to delyuer vs into the handes of the Amorites to destroye vs? O that we had taried beionde Jordane, as we begāne. Oh my LORDE, what shal I saye, whyle Israel turneth his backe vpon his enemies? Whā the Cananites heare of this, they shal compasse vs rounde aboute, yee and rote out oure names from of the earth. What wylt thou do then vnto thy greate name?

Then sayde the LORDE vnto Josua: Stōde vp, why lyest thou so vpon thy face? Israel hath offended, and trāsgressed ouer my couenaunt, which I commaunded thē. They haue taken also of the thinge that was damned, and haue stollen, and dyssembled, and layed it amonge their ornamentes. The children of Israel are not able to stonde before their aduersaries, but must turne their backes vpon their enemies: for they are accursed. I wyll nomore be with you from hēce forth yf ye put not out the damned from amonge you.

C Stonde vp, and sanctifie the people, and Re. 16.a saye: Sanctifie yo selues agaynst tomorow
eut. 13.c for thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel:
nd 17.b * There is a damned thinge in the O Israel, therfore canst thou not stonde before thine enemies, tyll ye put awaye the damned from amonge you. And ye shall ryse vp early, one trybe after another: and loke which trybe so euer the LORDE taketh, the same shall come forth, one kynred after another: and loke which kynred the LORDE taketh, the same shall come forth, one house after another. And loke what house the LORDE taketh, the same shal come forth, one housholder after another. And who so euer is founde in ye curse, the same shalbe burnt in the fyre with all that he hath: because he hath gone beyonde the couenaunt of the LORDE, and committed folye in Israel.

Then Josua gat him vp by tymes in the mornynge, and brought forth Israel, one try be after another, and ye trybe of Juda was taken. And whan he had brought forth the kynreds in Juda, ye kinred of the Serahites was taken. And whan he had brought forth the kynred of the Serahites, one housholde after another, Sabdi was taken. And whā he had brought forth his house, one housholder after another, Achan the sonne of Charmi ye sonne of Sabdi the sonne of Serah of the trybe of Juda, was taken.

And Josua sayde vnto Achan: My sonne, geue the glory vnto the LORDE the God of Israel, and geue him the prayse, and tell me, what thou hast done, and hide nothinge fro me.

Then answered Achan vnto Josua, and sayde: Verely I haue synned agaynst ye LORDE God of Israel, thus ꝛ thus haue I done: I sawe amōge ye spoiles a costly Babilonish garment, and two hūdreth Sycles of syluer and a tunge of golde, worth fiftye Sycles in weight, vnto the which I had a lust, and toke it: and beholde, it is hyd in the grounde in my tente, and the syluer vnder it.

Then Josua sent messaungers thither, which ranne to the tente, and beholde, it was hyd in his tente, and the siluer vnder it. And they toke it out of the tente, and broughte it vnto Josua, and to all the children of Israel and poured it before the LORDE. Then Josua and all Israel with him, toke Achan the sonne of Serah with the siluer, the garment and goldē tunge, his sonnes and doughters, his oxen and asses, and shepe, and all that he had broughte they in to ye valley of Achor.

And Josua sayde: For so moch as thou hast troubled vs, the LORDE trouble the this daye. And all Israel stoned him, and burned him with fyre with all that he had. And whan they had stoned him, they made ouer him a greate heape of stones, which remayneth vnto this daye. (So the LORDE turned from the rigorousnes of his wrath.) Therfore is the same place called ye valley of Achor vnto this daye.

The VIII. Chapter.

AND ye LORDE saide vnto Josua: Feare not, and be not afrayed. Take all the men of warre with the, and ryse, and get the vp vnto Hai. Beholde, I haue geuen into thy hande, the kynge of Hai with his people in his cite & countre. And thou shalt c do with Hai and the kynge of it, * as thou dyddest with Jericho and the kynge therof, sauynge that ye shal deale amõge you their c spoyle & catell: but set thou a * preuy watch behynde the cite.

Then Josua arose, and all ỹ men of warre, to go vp vnto Hai: and Josua chose thirtie thousande fightinge men, and sent them out by night, and commaunded them, and sayde: Take hede, ye shal be ỹ preuye watch behynde the cite, but go not to farre from the cite, and se that ye be redye alltogether. As a for me and all the people that is with me, we wyll make vs to the cite. And whan they come forth agaynst vs (* as afore) we wyll flye before them, that they maye folowe out after vs, tyll we haue prouoked them forth of the cite: for they shal thinke that we flye
B before them, like as at ỹ first. And whyle we flye before them, ye shal get you vp out of the preuy watch, and wynne the cite. For ỹ LORDE youre God shal delyuer it in to youre handes. But whan ye haue wonne the ci a.c te, set fyre vpon it, doinge * accordinge vnto the worde of the LORDE. Beholde, I haue commaunded you.

So Josua sent them awaye, & they went vnto the place of the preuy watch, and laye betwixte Bethel and Hai, on the west syde of Hai. But Josua abode that night amõge the people. And in the mornynge he arose early, and set the people in order, and wente vp with the Elders of Israel before the people towarde Hai: and all the men of warre that were with him, wente vp, & gat them forth, and came ouer agaynst the cite, and pitched their tentes on the north syde of Hai, so ỹ there was but a valley betwene him and Hai.

C He had taken aboute a fyue thousande men, and set them in the hynder watch betwene Bethel and Hai, on the west syde of the cite, and they ordred the people of the whole hooste that was on the north syde of the cite, so that the vttemost of the people reached vnto the west ende of the cite. So Josua wente the same nighte in to the myddes of the valley.

But whan the kynge of Hai sawe that, he made haist, and gat him vp early, and the men out of the cite, to mete Israel to ỹ battayll, with all his people, euen righte before the felde: for he wyst not that there was a preuy watch behynde him on the backe syde of the cite. But Josua and all Israel were feble before them, and fled by the waye to ỹ wylderneſſe. Then cried all the people in the D cite, that they shulde folowe vpon them, and they followed after Josua and rußshed out of the cite, so that there remayned not one man in Hai and Bethel, which wente not out to folowe vpon Israel, and they lefte the cite stondinge open, that they mighte persecute Israel.

The sayde ỹ LORDE vnto Josua: Reach out the speare that thou hast in thine hande, towarde Hai: for I wyll delyuer it in to thy hande. And whan Josua reached out the speare that was in his hande, towarde ỹ cite, ỹ hynder watch brake vp out of their place, and ranne (whan he had stretched out his hande) and came in to the cite, and wanne it, and made haist, & set fyre vpon it. And the men of Hai turned them, and loked behynde them, and the smoke of the cite wente vp towarde heauen, and they had no place to flie vnto, nether hither ner thither: and the people that fled towarde the wyldernes turned aboute, to folowe vpon them.

And whan Josua and all Israel sawe, ỹ E
the hynder watch had wonne the cite (for ỹ smoke of the cite ascended) they turned againe, and smote the men of Hai. And they in the cite came forth also agaynst them, so ỹ they came in the myddes amonge Israel on both the sydes, and they slewe them, so that there was not one man of them left ouer or escaped: and they toke the kynge of Hai alyue, and broughte him vnto Josua. And whã Israel had slayne all the inhabiters of Hai, which had folowed vpon them in the felde and in the wilderneſſe: and whan they were all fallen thorow the edge of the swerde, tyll they were destroied, thẽ turned all Israel vnto Hai, and smote it with the edge of ỹ swerde. And of all them which fell that daye fro man vnto womã, there were twolue thousande, all men of Hai.

But Josua withdrue not his hande (wher F with he reached out the speare) tyll all the inhabiters of Hai were vtterly destroyed, sa Num. 31.d

And all Israel with their Elders and officers and iudges, stode on both the sydes of the Arke, right ouer agaynst the priestes ỳ bare the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE, the straunger as well as one of them selues, the one halfe beside mount Gryzim, and Deu. 27. b the other halfe beside mount Ebal, *as Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE commaunded afore, to blesse the people of Israel. Afterwarde caused he to proclame all the wordes of the lawe of the blessynge and cursynge, as it is wrytten in the boke of the lawe. There was not one worde that Moses commaunded, but Josua caused it to be proclamed before all the congregacion of Israel, and before the wemē, and children, and straūgers which walked amonge them.

The IX. Chapter.

A NOw whan all the kynges that were beyonde Jordane vpon the mountaynes, and in the lowe countrees, & in all the hauens of the greate see, and beside mount Libanus, herde this (namely, ỳ Hethites, Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Henites and Jebusytes) they gathered thē selues together with one accorde, to fighte agaynst Josua, and agaynst Israel.

But whan the inhabiters of Gibeon herde, what Josua had done with Jericho and Hai, they dealte craftely, wēte on their waie, and made a message, and toke olde sackes vpon their asses, and olde rente wyne botels, and olde mended shues vpon their fete, and put on olde and peced garmentes, and all ỳ bred of their vytayles was harde and mouldē, and they wente vnto Josua in to ỳ hooste at Gilgall, and sayde vnto him, and to euery man in Israel: We are come out of a farre countre, therfore make now a couenaunt wt vs. Then sayde euery man in Israel vnto ỳ Heuyte: Peraduenture thou dwellest amonge vs, how can I then make a couenaunt with the?

They saide vnto Josua: We are ỳ seruaūtes. Josua sayde vnto them: What are ye? & whence come ye? They sayde: Thy seruaūtes are come out of a very farre countre, because of the name of the LORDE thy God. for we haue herde the reporte of him, and all that he dyd in Egipte, and all that he dyd vnto the two kynges of the Amorites beyonde Jordane, Sihon the kynge at Hesbō, and Og the kynge of Basan, which dwelt at Astaroth. Therfore sayde oure Elders and all the inhabiters of oure countre: Take fode with you for youre iourney, and go meete them, and saye vnto them: We are youre seruaūtes, therfore make now a bonde with vs: This oure bred that we toke out of oure houses for oure foode, was new whan we toke o' iourney towarde you: but now lo, it is harde & moulde. And these bottels fylled we new, and lo, they are rēte. And these oure clothes and shues are waxed olde, by ỳ reason of the sore longe iourney.

Then the captaynes toke their vytayles, and axed not the mouth of the LORDE. *And Josua made peace with them, and set vp a couenaunt with them, that they shulde be saued alyue, and the rulers of the congregacion sware vnto them. But thie dayes after that they had made a couenaunt with them, they herde, that they were their neighbours, and dwelt amonge them: For as the children of Israel wente forth on their iourney, they came on the thirde daye vnto their cities, which are called Gibeon, Caphira, Beeroth, and Cirath Jearim, and smote them not, because that the rulers of the congregacion had sworne vnto them by the name of the LORDE the God of Israel.

But whan all the congregacion murmured agaynst the rulers, all the rulers sayde vnto the whole congregacion: We haue sworne vnto them by the LORDE the God of Israel, therfore maye we not touch them. But this wil we do vnto them: Let them lyue, that there come no wrath vpon vs, because of the ooth that we haue made vnto them.

And the rulers sayde vnto them: Let them lyue, that they maye be *hewers of wodd and bearers of water for the whole congregacion, as the rulers haue sayde vnto them. Then Josua called them, and commened with them, and sayde: Wherfore haue ye disceaued vs, and sayde, that ye were farre from vs, where as ye dwell amonge vs? Therfore shall ye be cursed, so that of you there shall not ceasse seruaunes to hew wodd and to beare water for the house of my God.

They answered Josua, & sayde: It was tolde thy seruauntes, that the LORDE thy God commaunded Moses his seruaunt, that he shulde geue you the whole lōde, and that he wolde destroye all the inhabiters of the londe before you: therfore were we sore afrayed of oure lyues before you, and thus haue we done. But now lo, we are in thy handes: loke what thou thinkest good and righte to do vnto vs, that do.

And he dyd euen so vnto them, and delyuered them from the children of Israels hāde, that they shulde not slaye them. So vpō the same daye Josua made them hewers of wodd and water bearers for the congregacion, and for the altare of the LORDE vnto this daye, in the place that he shall chose.

The X. Chapter.

When Adonisedech the kynge of Jerusalem herde, that Josua had wonne Hai, and damned it, and done vnto Hai and ỳ kynge of it, like as he dyd vnto Jericho and to the kynge therof, * and that they of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were come vnder them, they were sore afrayed. For Gibeon was a greate cite, like as one of the kynges cities, and greater then Hai, and all the citesyns therof were men of armes. Therfore sent he vnto Hoham the kynge of Hebron, and to Pirea the kynge of Jarmuth, and to Japhia the kynge of Lachis, and to Debir the kynge of Eglon, and caused to saie vnto them: Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we maie smyte Gibeon, for they haue made peace with Josua and the children of Israel. Then came the fyue kynges of the Amorites together, and wente vp, the kynge of Jerusalem, the kynge of Hebron, ỳ kynge of Jarmuth, the kynge of Lachis, the kynge of Eglon, with all their armies, & layed sege vnto Gibeon, and foughte agaynst it.

Howbeit they of Gibeon sent vnto Josua to Gilgall, and caused to saye vnto him: Withdrawe not thine hande from thy seruauntes, come vp soone vnto vs: delyuer and helpe vs, for all the kynges of the Amorites that dwell vpon the mountaynes, are gathered together agaynst vs. Josua wente vp from Gilgall, and all the warryers and all the men armes with him. And the LORDE sayde vnto Josua: * Feare them not, for I haue geuē them in to thy hande. There shall not one of them be able to stonde before the. So Josua came sodenly vpon them, for all that night wente he vp from Gilgall. And the LORDE discomfyted thē before Israel, and smote them with a greate slaughter at Gibeon: & they chaced them the waie downe to Beth Horon, and smote them vnto Aseka and Makeda. Esa. 28. d

And whan they fled before Israel, the waye downe to Bethoron, the LORDE caused a greate hayle from heauen to fall vpon them, vnto Aseka, so that they dyed: & many mo of them dyed of the hayle, then the children of Israel slewe with the swerde. C

Then spake Josua vnto the LORDE (the same daye that the LORDE gaue ouer the Amorites before the children of Israel) and sayde in the presence of Israel: * Some, hold styll at Gibeon, and thou Moone in the valley of Aialon. Eccli. 46. a

Then the Some helde styll, and ỳ Moone stode, vntyll the people had auenged thē selues on their enemies. Is not this wryten in the boke of the righteous? Thus the Sonne stode styll in the myddes of heauen, and dyfferred to go downe for the space of a whole daye after. And there was no daye like vnto this (nether before ner after) whan the LORDE herkened vnto the voyce of one man: for the LORDE fought for Israel. And Josua wente agayne to Gilgall in to the tētes, and all Israel with him. As for the fyue kynges, they were fled, and had hyd thē selues in the caue at Makeda.

Then was it tolde Josua: We haue founde the fyue kynges hyd in the caue at Makeda. Josua sayde: Rolle greate stones then before the hole of the caue, and set men there to kepe them. D

As for you, stonde not ye styll, but folowe after youre enemies, and smyte them behynde, and let them not come in their cities, for the LORDE youre God hath delyuered thē in to youre hande. And whan Josua and ỳ children of Israel had ended the sore greate slaughter vpō them, so ỳ they were brought to naught, the remnaunt of them came in to the stronge cities.

So all the people came agayne to the hooste vnto Josua to Makeda in peace, and no man durst moue his tunge agaynst the children of Israel. Josua sayde: Open the mouth of the caue, and bringe the fyue kynge forth vnto me. They dyd so, and broughte the kynges vnto him out of the caue: the kinge of Jerusalem, the kynge of Hebrō, the kynge of Jarmuth, the kynge of Lachis, the kinge of Eglon.

Whan these fyue kynges were broughte forth vnto him, Josua called euery man of Israel, and sayde vnto the rulers of the men of warre that wente with him: Come forth and treade vpon the neckes of these kynges with youre fete. And they came forth, and trode vpon their neckes with their fete. And E Josua saide vnto them: Be not afrayed, and feare not: be stronge and bolde, for thus shal the LORDE do vnto all yo' enemies, agaynst whom ye fighte.

And Josua smote them afterwarde, and put them to death, and hanged them vpon fyue trees. And they hanged styll vpon the Deut.21.d trees vntyll the euenynge. * But whan the Sonne was gone downe, he commaunded to take them off from the trees: and they cast them in the caue, wherin they had hyd them selues, & before the hole of the caue they layed greate stones, which are there yet vnto this daye. The same daye wanne Josua Makeda also, and smote it with the edge of Deut.20.c the swerde, and the kynge therof, and, damned it, and all the soules that were therin, and let none remayne escaped: and dyd vnto Iosu.6.c the kynge of Makeda * as he dyd vnto the kynge of Jericho.

Then Josua and all Israel with him departed fro Makeda vnto Lybna, & foughte agaynst it. (And the LORDE gaue it with ỹ kynge therof into the hande of Israel) and smote it and all the soules that were therin, with the edge of the swerde, and let not one remayne in it: and dyd vnto the kinge therof as he had done vnto the kynge of Jericho.

F Afterwarde wente Josua and all Israel with him from Lybna vnto Lachis, and layed sege vnto it, and fought agaynst it. And the LORDE delyuered Lachis also in to the hande of Israel, so that they wanne it vpon the seconde daye, and smote it with ỹ edge of the swerde, and all the soules that were therin, accordinge to all as he had done vnto Lybna. At the same tyme Horam ỹ kynge of Gazer wente vp, to helpe Lachis. But Josua smote him with all his people, tyll there remayned not one.

And Josua wente with all Israel from Lachis, vnto Eglon, and layed sege vnto it, and fought agaynst it, and wanne it the same daye, and smote it with the edge of the swerde, and damned all the soules that were therin the same daye, accordynge vnto all as he had done vnto Lachis.

After that wente Josua with all Israel from Eglon vnto Hebron, and foughte agaynst it, and wanne it, and smote it with ỹ edge of the swerde, and the kynge of it, all the cities therof, and all the soules that were therin, and let not one remayne, according vnto all as he had done vnto Eglon and damned it, and all the soules that were therin.

Then turned Josua agayne with all Israel towarde Debir, and fought agaynst it, and wanne it, with the kinge of it, and all the cities therof, and smote them with the edge of the swerde, and damned all ỹ soules that were therin, and let not one remayne ouer. Euen as he had done vnto Hebrō and Lybna with their kynges, so dyd he also vnto Debir, and the kynge therof.

Thus Josua smote all the londe vpon the mountaynes, and towarde the south, and in the lowe countrees, and by the ryuers, with all their kynges, and let not one remaine ouer and damned all that had breth, * as the LORDE God of Israel had commaunded. Josua smote them from Cades Berne vnto Gaza, and all the londe of Gosen vnto Gibeon, and toke all these kynges with their londe at one tyme: for the LORDE God of Israel foughte for Israel. And Josua went agayne with all Israel to the tentes vnto Gilgal.

The XI. Chapter.

Whan Jabin the kynge of Aso: herde this, he sent vnto Jobab the kynge of Madon and to the kynge of Samron, and to the kynge of Achsaph, and to the kynges that dwelt towarde the north vpon the mountaynes, and in the playne on the southsyde of Cineroth, and in the lowe countrees, and in the lordshippes of Dorah by the see syde: and to the Cananites towarde ỹ east and west, to ỹ Amorites, Hethites, Pheresites, and Jebusites, vpon the mountaynes and to the Heuites, vnder mount Hermon in the londe of Mispa. These were out with all their armies, a greate people, as many as ỹ sonde of the see, and exceadinge many horses and charettes. All these kinges gathered themselues, and came, and pitched together by ỹ water of Meram, to fighte with Israel.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Josua: Feare them not, for tomorow aboute this tyme will I delyuer them all slayne, before the children of Israel: thou shalt lame their horses, and burne their charettes with fire. * And Josua came sodenly vpon them, and all the men of warre with him by the water of Meron, & fell vpon them. And the LORDE delyuered them into ỹ handes of Israel, and they smote them, and chaced them vnto greate and to the warme water, and to the playne of Mispa towarde ỹ east: and smote them, vntyll there remayned not one.

Then dealte Josua with them as ỹ LORDE had saide vnto him, & lamed theis horses, & brent their charettes. And he turned backe at the same tyme, & wanne Hasor, & smote ỹ kynge of it wt the swerde (for Hasor was afore tyme ỹ head cite of all these kyngdomes) and smote all the soules that were therin wt the edge of the swerde, and damned it, & let nothinge remayne that had breth, & damned Hasor with fyre. All the cities of these kyngdomes wãne Josua also, and smote thẽ with the edge of the swerde, and damned them, * acordinge as Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE commaunded. Deut.20.c

C Howbeit the cities that stode vpon the hilles, dyd not the children of Israel burne with fyre: but Hasor onely dyd Josua burne. * And all the spoyles of these cities and the catell, dyd the children of Israel deale amonge them, but smote all the men with the edge of the swerde, tyll they had destroyed them, and let nothinge remayne that had breth. As the LORDE commaunded his seruaunt Moses, and as Moses commaunded Josua, euen so dyd Josua, so that there was nothinge vndone of all that the LORDE cõmaunded Moses. Deut.20.d

So Josua toke all this lõde vpon ỹ moũtaynes, & all ỹ lyeth towarde the south, & all the londe of Gosen, and the lowe countre, & the playne felde, and the mountayne of Israel with the valley therof, from the mountayne that parteth the londe vp towarde Seir, vnto Baalgad, in the playne of moũt Libanus beneth mount Hermon. All their kynges toke he, and smote them, and put thẽ to death. * Howbeit he warred a longe season with these kynges. Iosu.9.a

D Yet was there not one cite, that yelded it selfe peaceably vnto the children of Israel * (excepte the Hewites, which dwelt at Gibeon) but they wanne them all with battayll. And this was done so of the LORDE that their hert was so hardened, to come against the children of Israel with battayll, ỹ they mighte be dãned, & no fauoure to be shewed vnto them, but to be destroyed, * as the LORDE commaunded Moses. Iosu.10.c

At the same tyme came Josua, and roted out the Enakims from ỹ mountayne, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from euery mountayne of Juda, and from euery mountayne of Israel, and damned thẽ with their cities, and let none of the Enakims remayne in the londe of the children of Israel, saue at Gasa, * at Gath, at Asod, there remayned of them. 1.Re.17

Thus Josua conquered all the londe acordinge vnto all as the LORDE sayde vnto Moses, & gaue it vnto Israel to enheritaunce, * vnto euery trybe his porcion, and ỹ londe rested from warre. Nu.26.

The XII. Chapter.

A These are ỹ kynges of the londe, whõ the children of Israel smote, & conquered their lõde, beyonde Jordane, eastwarde, frõ the water of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon, and vnto all ỹ playne felde towarde the east: * Sihon the kynge of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon, and had dominion from Aroer that lieth by the water syde of Arnon, and vnto the myddes of ỹ water: and ouer halfe Gilead, vnto the water of Jabok, which is the border of the children of Ammon: and ouer the playne felde, vnto the see of Cynneroth eastwarde, and vnto the see of the playne felde, namely the Salt see towarde the east, the waye vnto Beth Jesimoth: and from the south beneth by the ryuers of mount Pisga. Nu.21.c Deut.2.

B And the border of Og the kynge of Basan, which remayned yet of Raphaim, and dwelt at Astaroth and Edrei, and had the dominion ouer moũt Hermon, ouer Salcha, and ouer all Basan vnto the border of Gessuri & Maachati, & of halfe Gilead, which was the border of Sihon the kynge at Hesbon. Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE and the children of Israel smote them. * And Moses the seruaunt of ỹ LORDE gaue it vnto the Rubenites, Gaddites and to the halfe trybe of Manasse in possession. Nu.21.e Deut.3. Nu.32.c and 34. Deut.3. Iosu.13.

These are the kynges of the lõde, whom Josua & the children of Israel smote on this syde Jordane westwarde, frõ Baalgad vpõ the playne of mount Libanus, vnto ỹ moũt that parteth the londe vp towarde Seir, & that Josua gaue vnto the trybes of Israel in possession, vnto euery one his parte, what so ever was in ỳ moũtaynes, valleyes, playne feldes, by the ryuers, in ỳ wylderneſſes & towarde the ſouth, the Hethites, Amorites, Cananites, Pheresites, Heuites, and Jebuſites.

C The kynge of Jericho, the kynge of Hai, which lyeth beſyde Bethel, * the kynge of Jeruſalem, the kynge of Hebron, the kynge of Jarmoth, the kynge of Lachis, the kynge of Eglon, the kynge of Geſer, the kynge of Debir, the kynge of Geder, the kynge of Horma, the kynge of Arad, ỳ kynge of Libna, the kynge of Adulla, the kynge of Makeda, the kynge of Bethel, the kynge of Tapnah, the kynge of Hepher, the kynge of Aphek, the kynge of Laſaron, the kynge of Madan, the kynge of Haſor, the kynge of Simron Meron, the kynge of Achſaph, the kynge of Tahenah, the kynge of Megido, the kynge of Cades, the kynge of Jakneam by Carmel, the kynge in the lordſhippes of Dor, the kynge of the Heithen at Gilgall, the kynge of Thirza. Theſe are one and thirtie kynges.

The XIII. Chapter.

A NOw whan Josua was olde and well ſtricken in age, the LORDE ſayde vnto him: Thou art olde & well aged, and there remayneth yet moch of the londe to conquere, namely all Galile of the philiſtynes, and all Geſſuri, from Sihor which floweth before Egipte, vnto the border of Ekron, northwarde, which is rekened vnto the Cananites: fyue lordes of the philiſtynes, namely, the Gaſites, the Aßdodites, the Aſcalonites, the Gethites, the Ekronites & the Hauites. But from the north it is all ỳ londe of the Cananites, and Maara of the Sidonians vnto Aphek, euen vnto the border of the Amorites. Moreouer the londe of the Giblites eaſtwarde, from Baalgad vnder mount Hermon, tyll a mã come vnto Hamath, All they that dwell vpon the mount, from Libanus vnto the warme waters, and all the Sidonians. I wyl dryue them out before the children of Iſrael: Onely let them be dealte out amonge Iſrael, as I haue commaunded the.

B Deuyde thou this lõde now to enheritañce amonge the nyne trybes and ỳ halfe tryjoſu. 12.b be of Manaſſe. * For the Rubenites & Gadites with ỳ halfe trybe of Manaſſe, haue receaued their enheritañce, which Moſes gaIu. 22.d ue thẽ beyonde Jordane Eaſtwarde, * acordinge as Moſes the ſeruaunt of the LORDE gaue them the ſame, from Aroer which lieth vp by the water ſyde of Arnon, and the cite in the myddes of the water, & all the coaſte of Medba vnto Dibon, and all the cities of Sihon the kynge of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heßbon, * vnto the border of the children of Ammon: and Gilead and ỳ border of Geſſuri and Maachati, and all mou Hermon, and all Baſan vnto Salcha: all ỳ kyngdome of Og at Baſan, which dwelt at Aſtaroth and Edrei, that remained yet ouer of Raphaim. But Moſes ſmote them and droue them out.

The children of Iſrael droue not out the Geſſurites & Maachathites, but both Geſſur and Maachat dwelt amonge the childrẽ of Iſrael vnto this daye. * But vnto ỳ tribe of the Leuites he gaue no enheritaunce: for the offeringe of the LORDE God of Iſrael is their enheritaunce, acordinge as he hath promyſed them.

So Moſes gaue vnto the trybe of ỳ children of Ruben after their kynreds, ſo that their border was Aroer, which lyeth vpon the water ſyde of Arnon, and the cite in the myddes of the ſame water, with all the playne felde vnto Medba: Heßbon, and all the cities therof which lye in the playne felde: Dibon, Bameth Baal, & Beth Baal Meon, Jahza, Kedemoth, Mephaath, Kiriathaim, Sibama, Zeretha Sahar, vpon mount Emek, Beth Peor: the ryuers by Piſga, and Beth Jeſimoth, and all the cities vpon the playne, and all the realme of Sihon kynge of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heßbon, * whom Moſes ſmote with the princes of Madian, Eui, Rekem, Zur, Hur, & Reba, the mightiemen of kynge Sihon, which were inhabiters of the londe. And Balaam the ſonne of Beor the prophecier, dyd the children of Iſrael kyll with the ſwerde amonge the other that were ſlayne: and the border of ỳ childrẽ of Ruben was Jordane. This is the enheritaunce of the children of Ruben amonge their kynreds, cities and vyllages.

Vnto the trybe of the children of Gad D amonge their kynreds gaue Moſes, ſo that their border was, Jaheſar and all the cities in Gilead, and the halfe londe of the children of Ammon, vnto Aroer, which lyeth before Rabbath: and from Heßbon vnto Ramath Miſpe & Betonim: and fro Mahanaim vnto the border of Debir. But in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimra, Suchoth and Zaphon (which remayned yet of the realme of Sihon kynge of Heßbon) and was by Jordane, vnto the edge of the ſee of Cyneroth, on this ſyde Jordane eaſtwarde

This is the inheritaunce of the childrē of Gad in their kynreds, cities & vyllagyes.

Vnto the halfe trybe of the childrē of Manasse after their kynreds, gaue Moses, so that their border was fro Mahanaim, all Basan, all the kyngdome of Og kynge of Basan, and all the townes of Jair which lye in Basan, namely thre score cities. And halfe Gilead, Astaroth, Edrei, the cities of the kyngdome of Og at Basan, vnto the childrē of Machir the sonne of Manasse. This is the halfe porcion of the childrē of Machir after their kynreds.

This is it that Moses dealte out vpon the felde of Moab beyonde Jordane ouer agaynst Jericho eastwarde. * But vnto ỳ trybe of Leui gaue Moses no enheritaunce: for the LORDE God of Israel is their enheritaunce, as he hath promysed them.

The XIIII. Chapter.

This is it that the childrē of Israel haue enhereted in the londe of Canaan, * which Eleasar the preist, and Josua the sonne of Nun, and the chefe of the fathers amonge the trybes of the childrē of Israel parted out amonge them. * But by lot dyd they deuyde it out amōge them, acordinge as the LORDE cōmaunded Moses to geue vnto the nyne trybes and ỳ halfe: for vnto the two trybes and the halfe dyd Moses geue enheritaunce beyonde Jordane. * But vnto the Leuites he gaue no enheritaunce amonge them. * For of the childrē of Joseph there were two trybes, Manasses and Ephraim. Therfore gaue they the Leuites no porcion in the londe, but cities, to dwell therin, and suburbes for their catell and goodes. * Euen as the LORDE cōmaunded Moses, so dyd the childrē of Israel, and deuyded the londe.

Then came forth the childrē of Juda to Josua at Gilgall: and Caleb ỳ sonne of Jephunne the Kenisite sayde vnto him: Thou knowest what ỳ LORDE * sayde vnto Moses the man of God, concerninge me and the in Cades Bernea. I was fortye yeare olde, whan Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE * sent me out from Cades Bernea, to spye out the londe, and I broughte him worde agayne, euen as I had it in my hert. Howbeit my brethren that wente vp with me, discouraged the hert of the people: but I folowed ỳ LORDE my God vnto the vttemost.

Then sware Moses vnto me the same daye, and sayde: The londe whervpon thou hast troden with thy fote, shalbe thine enheritaunce and thy childrens for euer, because thou hast folowed the LORDE my God vnto the vttemost. And now hath the LORDE letten me lyue, * acordinge as he sayde. Nu.14.c
It is now fyue and fortie yeare sence ỳ LORDE spake this vnto Moses, whā Israel walked in the wildernesse. And now lo, this daie am I fyue and foure score yeare olde * and deci.46.
am yet as stronge to daye, as I was in that daye whan Moses sent me out: euen as my strength was then, so is it now also to fighte, and to go out and in.

Geue me now therfore this mountayne, wherof the LORDE spake in that daye, and thou herdest it the same daye: for now the Enakims dwell theron, and it hath greate and stronge cities: yf happly the LORDE wyl be with me, that I maye dryue thē out, as he hath sayde. Then Josua blessed him, * and so gaue Hebron vnto Caleb the sonne 3.Par.7.

The XV. Chapter.

The lot of the trybe of the childrē of Juda amonge their kynreds, was ỳ coaste of Edom by the wyldernesse of Zin, which borderth southwarde on the edge of the south coūtrees. Their south borders were from the vttemost syde of the salt see, that is, from the coast that goeth southwarde, and commeth out from thē ce towarde ỳ eastsyde of Acrabbim, and goeth forth thorow Zinna, and yet goeth vp from the south towarde Cades Bernea, and goeth thorow Hesron, and goeth vpto Adara, & fetcheth a compase aboute Carcaa, & goeth thorow Asmona, and commeth forth to the ryuer of Egipte, so that the see is the ende of ỳ border. Let this be youre border southwarde.

But the east border is from the salt see to the vttemost parte of Jordane.

The border northwarde, is from the see coast which is on ỳ edge of Jordane, and goeth vp vnto Beth Hagla, and stretcheth out from the north vnto Betharaba, and commeth vp vnto the stone of Bohen the sonne of Ruben, and goeth vp vnto Debir from ỳ valley of Achor, and from the north coaste that is towarde Gilgall, which lyeth ouer agaynst Adummim vpwarde, which is on the north syde of the water. Then goeth

it vnto ỹ water of Ensemes, and commeth
Reg.1.b out vnto the * well of Rogell. Then goeth it vp to the valley of the sonne of Hinnam, a longe besyde the Jebusite that dwelleth from ỹ southwarde, that is Jerusalem: and commeth vp vnto the toppe of the mount which lyeth before the valley of Hinnam from the westwarde, that bordereth on the edge of the valley of Raphaim towarde the north.

C Then commeth it from the toppe of the same mount vnto the water well of Nephtoah, and commeth out vnto the cities of mount Ephron, and boweth towarde Baala, that is Kiriath Jarim, and fetcheth a cõpasse aboute from Baala westwarde vnto mount Seir, and goeth by the northsyde of the mount Jarim, that is Chessalon: and cõmeth downe to Bethsemes, and goeth thorow Thimna, and breaketh out on the northsyde of Acron, and stretcheth forth towarde Sicron, and goeth ouer mount Baala, and commeth out vnto Jabneel: so that their vtemost border is the see.

The weste border is the greate see. This is the border of the childrẽ of Juda rounde aboute in their kynreds. Caleb the sonne of Jephune had his porcion geuẽ him amõge the childrẽ of Juda (as the LORDE cõmaunded Josua) namely * Kiriatharba of Ios.14.d the father of Enak, that is Hebron.

D * And Caleb droue from thence the three Judic.1.b sonnes of Enak, Sesai, Ahiman, and Thalmas begotten of Enak. And from thẽce he wente vp to the inhabiters of Debir. (As for Debir, it was called Kiriath Sepher afore tyme.) And Caleb sayde: * Who so smyteth Kiriath Sepher and wynneth it, I wyll geue him my doughter Achsa to wyfe. Then Athniel the sonne of Kenas the brother of Caleb wanne it: and he gaue him his doughter Achsa to wife.

Par.12.a

And it fortuned whan they wente in, that she was counceled of hir houßbande, to axe a pece of londe of hir father. And she fell downe from the asse. Then sayde Caleb vnto her: What ayleth the? She sayde: Geue me a blessynge, for thou hast geuẽ me a south (and drye) londe: geue me welles of water also. Then gaue he her welles aboue and beneth.

E This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of Juda amonge their kynreds. And the cities of the trybe of the childrẽ of Juda, from one to another by the coastes of the Edomites towarde the south, were these: Cabzeel, Eder, Jagur, Kina, Dimona, Adada, Kedes, Hazor, Jethnam, Siph, Telem, Bealot, Hazor Hadatha, Kirioth Hezron that is Hasor: Amã, Sema, Molada, Hazor Gadda, Hesmon, Beth palet, Hazer Sual, Beer Seba, Bißiothia, Baala, Jim, Azem, Eltholad, Chesil, Harma, Ziklag, Madmanna, Sansanna, Lebaoth, Silhim, Ain, Rimon. * These are nyne and twentye cities ỹ their vyllages.

But in the lowe countrees was Esthaol, Zaren, Asna, Saroah, Engannim, Thapua, Enam, Jarmoth, Adullam, Socho, Aseka, Saaraim, Adithaim, Gedera, Giderothaim. These are fourtene cities ỹ their vyllages.

Zenã Hadasa, Migdal Gad, Dilean, Mispa, Jaktheel, Lachis, Bazekath, Eglõ, Chebon, Lachmã, Chithlis, Gedoroth, Beth Dagon, Naama, Maketa. These are sixtene cities and their vyllages.

Libna, Ether, Asen, Jephthah, Asna, Nezib, Keila, Achsib, Maresa. These are nyne cities and their vyllages. * Ekron with hir doughters and vyllages. From Ekron vnto the see, all that reacheth vnto Asdod and the vyllages therof. Asdod with the doughters and vyllages therof. Gasa with hir doughters and vyllages vnto the water of Egipte. And the greate see is his border.

But vpon the mount was Samir, Jatir, Socho, Danna, Kiriath Sanna, that is Debir: Anab, Esthemo, Annim, Gosen, Holen, Gilo. These are eleuen cities and their vyllagies. Maon, Carmel, Siph, Juta, Jsrael, Jakdeã, Sanoah, Kain, Gibea, Thimna. These are ten cities and their vyllages. Halhul, Bethzur, Gedor, Maarath, Beth Anoth, Eltheko. These are sixe cities and their vyllages. Kiriath Baal (that is Kiriath Jearim) Harabba, two cities ỹ their vyllages. And in the wylderneße was Betharaba, Middin, Sechacha, Nibsan, and the Salt cite, and Engaddi. These are sixe cities and their vyllagies. * But the Jebusites dwelt at Jerusalem, and the childrẽ of Juda coude not dryue them awaye. So the Jebusites remayne with the childrẽ of Juda at Jerusalem vnto this daye.

The XVI. Chapter.

AND the lot fell vnto the childrẽ of Ephraim frõ Jordane ouer agayne Jericho, vnto the water on the eastsyde of Jericho, and the wylderneße, ỹ goeth vp from Jericho thorow the mountayne of Bethel, and commeth out from Bethel vnto Lus, and goeth thorow the coast of Ataroth Ataroth, and stretcheth downe westwar-de vnto ỳ coaste of Japhleti to ỳ border of the lower Bethoron, and vnto Gaser: and the ende therof is by the greate see. This the children of Joseph (Manasses & Ephraim) receaued to enheritaunce.

The Border of the children of Ephraim amonge their kynreds of their enheritaunce from the east, was Ataroth Adar vnto the vpper Bethoron, & goeth out westwarde by Michmethath that lyeth towarde the north, there fetcheth it a compasse towarde the east syde of the cite Thaenath Silo, B and goeth there thorow from the east vnto Janoha, and commeth downe from Janoha vnto Ataroth and Naaratha, and bordreth on Jericho, and goeth out at Jordane. From Thapuah goeth it westwarde vnto Naalkama, and the out goinge of it is at the see.

This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Ephraim amonge their kynreds. And all the borders, cities with their vyllages of the childrē of Ephraim laye scatred amonge the enheritaunce of the children of Manasse. And they droue not out ỳ Cananites, which dwelt at Gaser. So ỳ Cananites remayned amōge Ephraim vnto this daye, and became tributaries.

The XVII. Chapter.

A THere fell vpō the trybe of Manasse (for * he is Josephs first sonne) and it fell vpon Machir the first sonne of Manasse ỳ father of Gilead: for he was a mā of armes, therfore had he Gilead and Basan. It fell also vnto the other children of Manasse, namely vnto ỳ childrē of Abieser, the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Sechem, the children of Hepher, and the children of Semida: These are the childrē of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, males, amonge their kynreds.

But Zelaphead the sonne of Hepher the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, had no sonnes, but doughters, and their names are these: Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Milca, Tirza, and they came before Eleasar the preist, and before Josua the sonne of Nun, and before the rulers, and sayde: The LORDE commaunded Moses, to geue vs enheritaunce amonge oure brethren. And so they had enheritaunce geuen them amonge their fathers brethren, accordinge to the commaundement of the LORDE.

B There fell vpon Manasse ten meetlynes without the londe of Gilead and Basan, which lyeth beyōde Jordane. For ỳ doughters of Manasse receaued enheritaunce amonge his sonnes: but the other children of Manasse had the londe of Gilead. And the border of Manasse was frō Asser forth vnto Michmethath, that lyeth before Sichem, and reacheth vnto the righte syde of them of En Tapuah: for the londe of Tapuah fell vnto Manasse, and the border of Manasse is vnto the childrē of Ephraim. Then commeth it downe to Nahelkana towarde the south syde of the ryuer cities, which are Ephraims amonge the cities of Manasse. But from the north is the border of Manasse by the ryuer, and goeth forth by the see syde, south warde vnto Ephraim, and to Manasse northwarde, and the see is his coaste. And it shal border on Aser from the north, and on Jsachar from the easte.

So (amōge Jsachar and Asser) Manasses had Beth Sean and the townes therof, C and Jeblaam and the townes therof, and them of Dor and their townes, and them of En Dor and their townes, & them of Taanach and their townes, and them of Mageddo and their townes, and the thirde parte of (the cite) Nophet. And the children of Manasse coude not dryue awaye the inhabiters of these cities, but the Cananites beganne to dwell in the same londe. Howbeit whan the children of Jsrael were able, they made the Cananites tributaries, and droue them not out.

Then spake the children of Joseph vnto Josua, and sayde: Wherfore hast thou genē me but one porcion and one meetlyne of enheritaunce, and I am yet a greate people, as the LORDE hath blessed me so largely? Then sayde Josua vnto them: For so moch as thou art a greate people, go vp therfore into ỳ wodd, and make thy selfe ron me there in the londe of the Pheresites and Raphaim, seynge moūt Ephraim is to narowe for the.

Then sayde the children of Joseph: We D shal not be able to attayne vnto the mountaynes, for there are yron charettes amonge all the Cananites, that dwell in the londe of Emek, by whom lyeth Beth Sean and the vyllages therof, and Jesrael in Emek. Josua sayde vnto the house of Joseph, euen to Ephraim and Manasses: Thou art a greate people, & for so moch as thou art so greate, thou must not haue one lot, but the mountayne where ỳ wod is, shal be thine rote ỳ out for ỳ, so shall it be the out goinge of thy porcion, whan thou dryuest out the Canani tes, which haue yō charettes, & are mightie.

The XVIII. Chapter.

A AND all the multitude of the childrē of Israel gathered them selues together vnto Silo, and they set vp ỳ Tabernacle of witnesse, and the londe was subdued vnto them. But there were yet seuen trybes of the childrē of Israel, vnto whom they had not deuyded their enheritaunce.
And Josua sayde vnto the childrē of Israel: Howlonge are ye so slowe, to go and cō quere the londe, which the LORDE God of youre fathers hath geuen you? Chose you thre men out of euery trybe, ỳ I maye sende them, and that they maye get them vp and go thorow the londe, and descrybe it acor-dinge to the enheritaunces therof, and come vnto me.

Deuyde the londe in seuen partes. Judas shal remayne vpon his borders of the south syde, and the house of Joseph shal remayne vpon his borders of the north parte: but de scrybe ye the londe in seuen partes, and bryn ge them vnto me, then shal I cast ỳ lot for Ju.11.d you before the LORDE oure God. * For the d14.a Leuites haue no porcion amonge you, but the priesthode of the LORDE is their enhe-ritaunce. As for Gad & Ruben and ỳ halfe Ju 12.b trybe of Manasse, they haue receaued their enheritaunce beyonde Jordane eastwarde, which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE
gaue them.

B Then the men gat vp, to go their waye.
And whan they were aboute to go for to descrybe the londe, Josua commaunded them, and sayde: Go youre waye, and walke tho-row the londe, and descrybe it, and come agayne vnto me, that I maye cast ỳ lot for you before the LORDE at Silo. So the men departed, and wente thorow the londe, and descrybed it in seuen partes vpon a letter a-cordinge to the cities, and came to Josua in to the hoost at Silo. Then Josua cast the lot ouer them at Silo before the LORDE, and there distributed the londe amonge the chil-drē of Israel, vnto euery one his parte.

And the lot of the trybe of the childrē of Ben Jamin fell acordinge to their kyn-reds, and the border of their lot wente out betwene the childrē of Juda & the childrē of Joseph. And their border was on ỳ north quarter of Jordane, and goeth vp from the north syde of Jericho, and commeth vp to the mountayne westwarde, and goeth out by the wylderneſſe of Bethauen, and goeth from thēce towarde Lus, euen by the south syde of Lus (that is Bethel) and commeth downe vnto Ataroth Adar by the mountayne which lyeth on ỳ south syde of the lower Bethoron. Then boweth it downe, and strecheth a compasse vnto the south west quarter from the mount that lyeth ouer agayns Bethoron towarde the south, and goeth out vnto Kiriath Baal, ỳ is Kiriath Jearim, a cite of the childrē of Juda. This is the west border.

But the south border is from Kiriath C Jearim forth, and goeth out towarde the west, and commeth forth vnto ỳ water well of Nephtoah: and goeth downe by the edge of the mount, that lyeth before the valley of the sonne of Hinnam: and goeth dow-ne thorow the valley of Hinnam on ỳ south syde of the Jebusites, and commeth downe to the well of Rogell, and stretcheth from the northwarde, and cōmeth out vnto En Semes, and commeth forth to the heapes that lye vp towarde Adummim, and cōmeth downe vnto the stone of Bohen the sonne of Ruben, and goeth a longe beside ỳ playne felde which lyeth northwarde, and commeth downe vnto ỳ playne felde, and goeth beside Beth Hagla that lyeth towarde the north, and his ende is at the north border of B the Salt see, vnto ỳ edge of Jordane south warde. This is the south border.

But Jordane shal be the ende of the east D quarter. This is the enheritaunce of ỳ chil-drē of Ben Jamin in their borders rounde aboute, amonge their kynreds.

The cities of the trybe of the childrē of Ben Jamin amōge their kynreds are these:
Jericho, Beth Hagla, Emek Kezitz, Betha-raba, Zemaraim, Bethel, Auim, Haphar, Aphra, Caphar Amonai, Aphni, Gaba: these are twolue cities and their vyllages.

Gibeon, Rama, Beeroth, Mispa, Caphi ra, Moza, Rekem, Jeerpeel, Thareala, Ze-la, Eleph, and the Jebusites, that is Jerusalem, Gibeath, Kiriath: these are fourteen cities and their vyllages. This is the enhe-ritaunce of the childrē of Ben Jamin in their kynreds.

The XIX. Chapter.

THen fell the seconde lot of the trybe of the childrē of Simeon acordinge to their kynreds, and their enheritaunce was amonge the enheritaunce of ỳ childrē of Juda. * And to their enheritaun-ce they had Beer Seba, Molada, Hazar Sual, Baala, Azem, El Tholad, Bethul,

Hama, Ziklag, Betha Markaboth, Hazar Sussa, Beth Lebaoth, and Saruhen: these are thirtem cities & their vyllages. Ain, Rimon, Ether, Asan: these are foure cities and their vyllages. And all ye vyllages that lye aboute the cities vnto Balath Beer Ramath towarde the south. This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Simeon in their kynreds: for the enheritaunce of the children of Simeon is vnder the porcion of the children of Juda. For so moch as the enheritaunce of the children of Juda was to greate for them, ther fore inhereted the children of Simeon amonge their enheritaunce.

The thirde lot fell vpon the childrē of Zabulon after their kynreds. And the border of their enheritaūce was vnto Sarid, & goeth vp westwarde to Mareala, & bordreth vpon Dabaseth, and reacheth vnto the ryuer that floweth ouer agaynst Jakneam: & turneth from Sarid eastwarde vnto the border of Cisloth Thabor, and cōmeth out vnto Dabiath, and reacheth vp to Japia, and from thēce goeth it westwarde thorow Githa Hepher, and Ithazazim, and commeth out towarde Rimon, Hamethoar Hanea, & fetcheth a compasse aboute from the north vnto Nathon, & the goynge out of it is in ye valley Jephtha El, Katath, Nahalal, Simron, Jedeala, & Bethlehem: These are twolve cities and their vyllages. This is the enheritaūce of the childrē of Zabulon in their kynreds: these are their cities and vyllages.

The fourth lot fell vpō the childrē of Issachar after their kynreds, & their border was Jesraela, Chessulloth, Sunem, Hapharaim, Sion, Anaharath, Raabith, Rision, Abez, Remeth, En Gānim, Enhada, Beth Pazez, & bordreth vpon Thabor, Sahazima, Beth Semes, and ye outgoinge of it was at Jordane. These are sixtene cities and their vyllages. This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Issachar in their kynreds, cities and vyllages.

The fifth lot fell vpon the trybe of the children of Asser, after their kynreds. And their border was Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achsaph, Alamelech, Amead, Miseal, and bordereth on Carmel vnto the see, and on Sihor, and Libnath, and turneth towarde the east vnto Beth Dagon, and bordreth on Zabulon, and on the valley of Jephtael, and towarde the north syde of Beth Emek and Neiel: & commeth out vnto Cabul on the lefte syde of Ebron, Rehob, Hamon and Cana, vnto greate Sidon. And turneth towarde Rama, vnto the stronge cite of Tyr, and turneth towarde Hossa, and goeth out vnto the see, after ye .. etlyne towarde Achsib, Uma, Aphek, Rehob. C

These are two and twentye cities and their vyllages. This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Asser in their kynreds cities and vyllages.

The syxte lot fell vpon the children of Nephtali in their kynreds. And their border was frō Heleph Elon thorow Zaanaim, Adai Nekeb, Jabne El vnto Lakum, and goeth out vnto Jordane, and turneth westwarde to Asnoth Thabor, and cōmeth out from thence vnto Hukok, and bordreth on Zabulon towarde the south, and on Asser towarde the west, and on Juda by Jordane towarde the east: and hath stronge cities, Zidimzer, Hamath Rakath, Chinnaret, Adama, Rama, Hazor, Kedes, Edrei, En Hazor, Jereon, Migdal Elhare, Beth Anath, Beth Sames. These are nyentene cities and their vyllages. This is the enheritaunce of ye trybe of the children of Nephtali in their kynreds, cities, and vyllages.

The seuenth lot fell vpon the trybe of the children of Dan after their kynreds. And the border of their enheritaunce was Zarea, Esthaol, Irsames, Saalabin, Aialon, Jethla, Elon, Thimnata, Ekron, Elteke, Gibethō Baalath, Jehud, Bnerbarak, Gat Rimon, Me Jarkon, Rakon with the border by Japho, and on the same goeth the border of the children of Dan out. And the children of Dā wente vp, and foughte agaynst Lesem, and wanne it, and smote it with the edge of the swerde, and toke it in possession, & dwelt therin, and * called it Dan, after ye name of their father. This is the enheritaunce of the trybe of the children of Dan in their kynreds, cities, and vyllages. D Iudi. 18.

And whā ye lōde was all parted out with the borders therof, the children of Israel gaue Josua the sonne of Nun, an enheritaunce amonge them, and (acordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE) they gaue him ye cite that he requyred, namely, Thimnath Serah, vpon moūt Ephraim: there buylded he the cite, and dwelt therin. Iosue. 24.

These are the enheritaunces which Eleasar the preist and Josua ye sonne of Nun, and the chefest of the fathers amonge ye tribes, deuided out by lot vnto the childrē of Israel at Silo before the LORDE, euen before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnes, and so they ended the deuydinge out of the londe.

The XX. Chapter.

A And the LORDE spake vnto Josua, and sayde: Speake to the children of Israel: Geue amonge you fre cities, xo.21.b Deut.19.c whero I spake vnto you by Moses, that a deedsleyer which sleyeth a soule vnawarres and vnwittingly, maye flye thither, ỹ they maye be fre amõge you from the avenger of blonde. And he that flyeth to one of those cities, shal stonde without before the porte of the cite, and shewe his cause before the Elders of the cite, then shall they take him to them in to the cite, and geue him place to dwell with them.

B And yf the avenger of blonde folowe vpon him, they shall not delyuer the deedslayer in to his handes, for so moch as he hath slayne his neghboure vnawarres, and was not his enemye afore: but he shall dwell in ỹ cite, tyll he stonde before the congregacion in iudgment, vntyll the hye prest dye, which shall be at that tyme. Then shall the deedsleyer returne, and go vnto his awne cite, and vnto his house to the cite, from whence he was fled.

C Then appoynted they Kedes in Galile vpon mount Nepthali, and Sechem vpon mount Ephraim, and Kiriatharba, that is Hebron vpon moũt Juda. And beyõde Jordane on the east syde of Jericho, they gaue Beser in the wildernes vpon the playne out of the trybe of Ruben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the trybe of Gad, and Golan in Basan out of the trybe of Manasse.

These were the cities appoynted for all ỹ children of Israel, and for the straungers which dwelt amonge them, that whosoeuer had slayne a soule vnawarres, might flye thither, that he shulde not be put to death by the avenger of blonde, tyll he had stonde before the congregacion.

The XXI. Chapters.

A Then the chefe fathers amonge the Leuites came forth vnto Eleasar the prest and to Josua the sonne of Nun, and to ỹ awncient fathers amõge the trybes of the children of Israel, and spake vnto them at Silo in the londe of Canaan,
Num.35.a and sayde: * The LORDE commaunded by Moses, that we shulde haue cities geuen vs to dwell in, and the suburbes of the same for oure catell. Then the children of Israel gaue of their enheritaunce these cities and the suburbes therof, vnto the Leuites, acordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE.

And the lot fell vpon the kynred of the Kahathites, and the children of Aaron the prest amonge the Leuites, had by the lot thyrtene cities of the trybe of Juda, of the trybe of Simeon, and of the trybe of Ben Jamin. The other childrẽ of Kahath of the same kynred, had by the lot ten cities, of the trybe of Ephraim, of the trybe of Dan, and of the halfe trybe of Manasse.

But the children of Gerson of the same kynred had by the lot thyrtene cities, of the trybe of Jsachar, of the trybe of Asser, of ỹ trybe of Nepthali, and of the halfe trybe of Manasse at Basan.

The children of Merari of their kynred had twolue cities, of the trybe of Ruben, of the trybe of Gad, and of the trybe of Zabulon. So the children of Jsrael gaue these cities and their suburbes vnto the Leuites by lott, as the LORDE commaunded by Moses.

Of the trybe of the children of Juda, and of the trybe of the children of Simeon, they gaue these cities (which they named by name) vnto the children of Aaron of the kynred of the Kahathites amonge the children of Leui: for the fyrst lot was theyrs.

So they gaue them Kiriatharba, which was the fathers of Enak, that is Hebron vpon the mount Juda, and the suburbes therof rounde aboute. * But the felde of the cite and the vyllages therof, gaue they vnto Caleb the sonne of Jephune for his possession.

Thus gaue they vnto the children of Aaron the prest, the fre cite of the deedsleyers, Hebron and the suburbes therof, Libna and the suburbes therof, Jathir and the suburbes therof, Esthuma and the suburbes therof, Holon and the suburbes therof, Debir and the suburbes therof, Ain and the suburbes therof, Juta and the suburbes therof, Beth Semes and the suburbes therof, euen nyne cities of these two trybes.

But of the trybe of Ben Jamin they gaue foure cities, Gibeon and ỹ suburbes therof, Gaba, and the suburbes therof, Anathoth and the suburbes therof, Almon and the suburbes therof: so that all the cities of the children of Aaron the prest were thirtene with their suburbes.

The kynreds of the other children of Kahath the Leuites, had by their lott foure cities, of the trybe of Ephraim, and they gaue thẽ the fre cite of the deedsleiers, Sechẽ and the suburbes therof vpon mount Ephraim Gaser and the suburbes therof, Kibzaim and the suburbes therof, Bethron and the suburbes therof.

Of the trybe of Dan foure cities, Elthe-ke and ẏ suburbes therof, Gibthon and the suburbes therof, Aialon and the suburbes therof, Gath Rimon and the suburbes ther of. Of the halfe trybe of Manasses two ci-cies, Thaenach and the suburbes therof, Gath Rimon and the suburbes therof: so that all the cities of the other children of ẏ kynred of Kahath, were ten with their suburbes.

But vnto the children of Gerson amon-ge the kynreds of the Leuites were geuen,
Of the halfe trybe of Manasse two cities, the fre cite for the deedslayer, Gola in Ba-san and the suburbes therof, Beasthra, and the suburbes therof. Of the trybe of Issa-char foure cities, Kision and the suburbes therof, Dabrach and the suburbes therof, Jarmuth and the suburbes therof, Engan-nim and the suburbes therof. Of the trybe of Asser foure cities, Museal, Abdon, Helkath and Rehob with the suburbes therof. Of the trybe of Nephtali thre cities, the fre cite Kedes (for the deedsleyer) in Galile, Ha-moth, Dor, and Karthan with the subur-bes therof: so that all the cities of the kynred of the Gersonites were thirtene wt their suburbes.

Vnto the kynreds of Merari the other Leuites were geuen, Of the trybe of Za-bulon foure cities, Jakneam, Kartha, Dim-na and Nahalal wt ẏ suburbes therof. Of the trybe of Ruben foure cities, Bezer, Jah za, Kedemeth and Mephaat with their suburbes. Of the trybe of Gad foure cities, the fre cite for the deedsleyer, Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, Hesbon and Jaeser with their suburbes: so that all the cities of the children of Merari amonge their kyn-reds of ẏ other Leuites, were twolue. Thus all the cities of the Leuites amonge ẏ possession of the children of Israel, were eight and fortye with their suburbes. And these ci ties were so dealte out, that euery one had their suburbes rounde aboute, the one as the other.

Thus the LORDE gaue the children of Israel all the londe, which he had swor-ne vnto their fathers to geue: & they toke posses sion of it, and dwelt therin. And the LORDE gaue the rest before all those ẏ were aboute them * like as he sware vnto their fathers, & none of their enemies stode agaynst the, but all their enmies delyuered he in to their han de. And their myssed nothinge of all the good that the LORDE had promysed vnto
the house of Israel, it came euery whyt.

The XXII. Chapter.

Then Josua called ẏ Rubenites and A Gaddites, and ẏ halfe trybe of Ma-nasse, and sayde vnto them: Ye haue kepte all, * that Moses the seruaunt of the Num. 32.d
LORDE commaunded you, and haue herke- Deut. 3.b

a longe season, vnto this daye, and haue wayt to rest, as he promysed them, turne you now, and go youre waye to youre tentes in to the londe of youre possession, which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE gaue you beyõ-de Jordane.

But take diligent hede now, that ye do a-cordinge to the commaundement and lawe which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE
hath commaunded: * That ye loue the LOR- Deut. 10.c

So the Rubenites, Gaddites, and the halfe trybe of Manasse returned, and wen-te from the children of Israel out of Silo (which lyeth in the londe of Canaan) to go in to the countre of Gilead to the londe of their possession, that they mighte possesse it, acordynge to the commaundement of the LORDE by Moses.

And whan they came vnto the heapes C by Jordane, which lye in the londe of Canaan, the same Rubenites, Gaddites, and the halfe trybe of Manasses buylded there besyde Jordane, a fayre greate altare. But whan the children of Israel herde saye: Be-holde, the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe trybe of Manasse ha ue buylded an altare ouer agaynst the lon-de of Canaan vpon the heapes by Jordane on this syde the children of Israel, they gathered them selues together with the whole congregacion at Silo, to go vp agaynst the with an armye. And (in the meane season) they sent to them in to the londe of Gilead, Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the preist, and with him ten chefe prynces amonge the houses of their fathers, out of euery tribe in Israel one. And they came to the children of Ruben, to the children of Gad, and to the halfe trybe of Manasse in the londe of Gilead, and sayde:

D Thus sayeth the whole congregacion of Iudi.20.b the LORDE vnto you: * What trespace is this, ye haue trespaced agaynst the God of Israel, that ye shulde turne backe from the LORDE this daye, to builde you an altare, for to fall awaye from the LORDE?

Num.25.a * Haue we not ynough of the wickednesse of Peor? from the which we are not yet clensed this daye, and there came a plage amonge the congregacion of the LORDE: and ye turne you backe this daye from the LORDE, and this daye are ye fallen awaye from the LORDE, that he maye be wroth to daye or tomorow at the whole congregacion of the LORDE.

If the londe of youre possession be vncleane, then come ouer in to the londe that the LORDE possesseth, where the dwellynge of the LORDE is, and take possessions amonge vs, and fall not awaye from the LORDE and from vs, to builde you an altare with Iosu.7.a out the altare of the LORDE oure God. * Did not Achan the sonne of Serah trespace in the thinge that was damned, and the wrath came ouer the whole congregacion of Israel and he wente not downe alone for his myssedede?

E Then answered the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe trybe of Manasse, and sayde vnto the heades and prynces of Israel: The mightie God the LORDE, the mightie God the LORDE knoweth, and Israel knoweth also, yf this be a transgressynge or trespacynge agaynst the LORDE, then let it not helpe vs this daye: If we haue buylded the altare, because we wolde turne awaye backe from the LORDE, to offre burntofferynges or meatofferinges theron, or to make eny deedofferynges vpon it, then let the LORDE requyre it: And yf we haue not done it rather for very feare of this thinge, and sayde: To daye or tomorow mighte youre children saye vnto oure children:

What haue ye to do with the LORDE the God of Israel? The LORDE hath set Jordane for a border betwene vs and you ye children of Ruben and Gad, ye haue no portion in the LORDE: By this shulde youre children make oure children to turne awaye from the feare of the LORDE.

Therfore sayde we: Let vs make oure children an altare, not for sacrifice, ner for burntofferinge, * but that it maye be a tokē betwene vs and you, and oure posterities, that we maye serue the LORDE in his sighte with oure burntofferinges, deedofferinges, and other offeringes: and that youre children to daye or tomorow neade not to saye vnto oure children: Ye haue no parte in the LORDE.

And we sayde: But yf they shulde speake so vnto vs, or to oure posterities to daye or tomorow, then maye we saye: Beholde the symilitude of the altare of the LORDE, which oure fathers made, not for sacrifyce, ner for burntofferynge, but for a wytnesse betwene vs and you.

God forbydde, that we shulde fall awaye from the LORDE, to turne backe from him this daye, and to buylde an altare for sacrifice, for burntofferinge and for eny presente, without the altare of the LORDE oure God, that stondeth before his habitacion.

But whan phineas the preist, and the chefe of the congregacion, the prynces of Israel which were with him, herde the wordes, that the children of Ruben, Gad, and Manasse had spoken, they pleased them well. And Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the preist sayde vnto the children of Rubē, Gad and Manasse: This daye we knowe, that the LORDE is amonge vs, in that ye haue not trespaced agaynst the LORDE in this dede. Now haue ye delyuered the children of Israel out of the hande of the LORDE.

Then Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the preist, and the rulers returned out of the londe of Gilead, from the children of Ruben and Gad, vnto the londe of Canaā to the children of Israel, and brought them worde gayne of the matter.

Then were the children of Israel well ententē with the thinge. And they praysed the God of Israel, and sayde nomore that they wolde go vp agaynst them with an armye, to destroye the londe that the childrē of Ruben and Gad dwelt in. And the childrē of Ruben and Gad called the name of the altare: This altare be witnesse betwene vs, that the LORDE is God.

The XXIII. Chapter.

AND after a longe season, whan the LORDE had broughte Israel to rest from all their enemies rounde aboute: and Josua was now olde and well stricken in age, he called all Israel and their Elders, heades, iudges, and officers, and sayde vnto them: I am olde and well aged, and ye haue sene all that the LORDE youre God hath done vnto all these nacions in youre sighte. For the LORDE youre God himself hath foughte for you. Beholde, I haue parted amonge you ỳ rẽnaunt of the nacions by lot, vnto euery trybe his enheritaunce from Iordane forth, and all the nacions whom I haue roted out vnto the greate see westwarde.

And the LORDE youre God shal thrust them out before you, and dryue them awaye from you, that ye maye haue their londe in possession, as the LORDE youre God hath promysed you. Be strõge nowe therfore, that ye maye obserue and do all that is wrytten in the boke of the lawe of Moses: * so that ye turne not asyde from it, nether to the right hande ner to the lefte: that ye come not amonge ỳ remnaunt of these naciõs, which are with you: And se that ye make no mencion ner * sweare by the names of their goddes, nether serue them, ner bowe youre selues vnto them: But cleue vnto the LORDE youre God, as ye haue done vnto this daye: thẽ shal the LORDE dryue awaye greate and mighte nacions before you, like as there hath no man bene able to stonde before you vnto this daye. * One of you shall chace a thousande: for the LORDE youre God fighteth for you, acordinge as he promysed you. Take diligent hede therfore vnto youre soules, that ye loue the LORDE youre God.

But yf ye turne backe, and cleue vnto the se other nacions, and make mariages with them, so that ye come amõge them, and they amonge you, be ye sure then, that the LORDE youre God shall nomore dryue out all these nacions before you, * but they shall be vnto you a snare and net, and prickes in youre sydes, and thornes in youre eyes, vntyll he haue destroyed you from the good lõde, which the LORDE youre God hath geuen you.

Beholde, * this daye do I go the waye of all the worlde, and ye shal knowe euen from all youre hert and from all youre soule, that there hath not fayled one worde of all the good that the LORDE youre God promysed you. Now like as all the good is come that the LORDE youre God promised you:

* euen so shal the LORDE cause all euell to come vpon you, tyll he haue destroied you from this good londe, which the LORDE youre God hath geuen you: yf ye transgresse ỳ couenaunt of the LORDE youre God, which he hath commaunded you. And yf ye go yõ waye and serue other goddes, and worshipe thẽ, then shall the wrath of the LORDE waxe whote ouer you, & shall shortly destroye you out of the good londe, ỳ he hath geuen you. Deut.28.b

The XXIIII. Chapter.

A IOsua gathered all the trybes of Israel together vnto Sichem, and called the Elders of Israel, the heades, iudges and officers. And whã they were come before God, he sayde vnto all the people: Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: * Yõ fathers dwelt afore time beyõde ỳ water, Abrahã & Nahor & Tarah their father & serued other goddes. * Then toke I yõ father Abraham beyonde the water, & caused him to walke in the londe of Canaan, & multiplied his sede, and gaue him Isaac, and vnto Isaac I gaue Jacob and Esau, and gaue Esau moũt Seir to possesse. As for Jacob, & his childrẽ, they wente downe in to Egipte. Gen.11.d Gen.12.a Gen.21.a Gen.25.c Gen.32.a *Gen.46.a

B Then sent I Moses and Aaron, and plaged Egipte as I haue done amonge thẽ. After ỳ * brought I you and youre fathers out of Egipte. And whan ye came to ỳ see, and the Egipcians folowed vpon youre fathers with charettes and horse men vnto the reed see, then cryed they vnto the LORDE, which put a darckenesse betwene you and the Egipcians, and broughte the see vpon them, and ouerwhelmed them. And youre eyes haue sene what I dyd to ỳ Egipcians, & ye dwelt in ỳ wildernes a lõge season. And I broughte you in to ỳ londe of the Amorites, which dwelt beionde Iordane: & whã they foughte agaynst you, I delyuered them in to yõ hande, that ye mighte haue their countre in possession, and I destroyed them before you. And whan ye wente ouer Iordane, and came vnto Jericho, the citesyns of Jericho foughte agaynst you, the Amorites, Pheresites, Cananites, Hethites, Girgosites, Henites, & Jebusites: howbeit I delyuered thẽ into youre hande. * And I sent hornettes before you, which droue them out before you, na C Exo.33.a Deu.7.d

1 Reg 7 a Tob. 14.c the LORDE now therfore, and serue him perfectly and in the trueth, and let go the goddes, whom youre fathers serued beyonde the water and in Egipte, and serue ye ỹ LORDE.

D But yf ye like not to serue the LORDE, thē chose you this daye whom ye wyll serue: the God whom youre fathers serued beionde ỹ water, or ỹ goddes of the Amorites, in whose lōde ye dwell. As for me and my house, we wyll serue the LORDE. Then answered the people, and saide: God forbidde, that we shuld forsake the LORDE, & serue other goddes. For the LORDE oure God brought vs and oure fathers out of the londe of Egipte frō the house of bondage, and did soch greate tokens before oure eyes, and preserued vs all ỹ waye that we wente, and amonge all the nacions, whom we trauayled by. And the LORDE thrust out before vs all the people of the Amorites that dwelt in the londe. Therfore wyll we also serue the LORDE, for he is oure God.

E Josua sayde vnto the people: Ye can not serue the LORDE: for he is an holy God, mighty, and gelous, which spareth not youre trangressions and synnes. But yf ye forsake the LORDE, and serue a straunge god, Iosu.23.d then shall the LORDE turne him, and do you euell, and consume you, after that he hath done you good. The people sayde vnto Josua: Not so, but we will serue the LORDE. Then sayde Josua vnto the people: Ye are witnesses ouer youre selues, that ye have chosen you the LORDE, to serue him. And they sayde: Yee. Then put awaye from you (sayde he) the straunge goddes ỹ are amonge you, and enclyne youre hert vnto the LORDE the God of Israel. And the people sayde vnto Josua: We wyll serue the LORDE oure God, 4 Re.23.a and be obedient vnto his voyce.* So Josua made a couenaunt with the people ỹ same daye, and laied statutes & lawes before them at Sichem.

F And Josua wrote this acte in the boke of 1.Reg.7.c the lawe of God, and toke a greate stone, & set it vp there vnder an oke, which was in ỹ Sanctuary of ỹ LORDE, and sayde vnto all the people: Beholde, this stone shall be witnesse ouer you: For it hath herde all the wordes of the LORDE, which he hath spoken vnto vs, and shall be a witnesse ouer you that ye denye not youre God. So Josua let the people go euery one to his enheritaūce.

And it fortuned after these actes, that Josua the sonne of Nun ỹ seruaūt of the LORDE dyed, whan he was an hundreth and ten yeare olde, and was buried in the borders of his enheritaūce at Thimnath Serah, which lyeth on the mount Ephraim, on the northside of mount Gaas. And the children of Israel serued the LORDE as longe as Josua lyued, and the Elders (that lyued longe after Josua) which knewe all the workes of ỹ LORDE, that he had done vnto Israel. The bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had broughte out of Egipte, buried they at Sichem, in the pece of the londe, that Jacob boughte of the children of Hemor ỹ father of Sichem for an hundreth pens, and was the enheritaunce of the children of Joseph. Eleasar the sonne of Aaron died also, and they buried him at Gibeath, which was Phineas his sonnes, that was geuen him vpon mount Ephraim.

The firſt Chapter.

After the death of Joſua the childzen of Iſrael axed the LORDE, and ſayde: Who ſhall go vp & be ỏ captayne of warre againſt ỏ Canamites? The LORDE ſayde: Juda ſhall go vp. * Beholde, I haue delyuered the londe in to his hande. Then ſayde Juda vnto his brother Simeon: Go vp wt me in to my lot, and let vs fyghte againſt the Cananites, then wyl I go agayne with the in to ỏ lot: So Simeon wente with him.

Now whan Juda wente vp the LORDE delyuered the Cananites and Pheresites in to their hādes, & they ſlewe tē thouſande mē at Beſek: & they foūde Adoni Beſek at Beſek, & fought agaynſt him, and ſlewe the Cananites and Pheresites. But Adoni Beſek fled, and they folowed after him: and whan they had ouertaken him, they cut of the thōbes of his handes and fete.

Then ſayde Adoni Beſek: Three ſcore and ten kynges wt the thombes of their hādes & fete cut of, gathered vp the meate ỏ was leſte vnder my table. * Now as I haue done, ſo hath God rewarded me agayne. And he was broughte vnto Jeruſalē, where he dyed. Leu. 24.d Iudic. 15.c

But ỏ childrē of Juda fought agaynſt Jeruſalem, and wānе it, * and ſmote it with the edge of the ſwerde, and ſet fyre vpon the cite. Then wente the childzen of Iſrael downe, to fyghte agaynſt ỏ Canamites, ỏ dwelt vpon the mount, and towarde the ſouth, and in the valley. And Juda wente agaynſt the Cananites, which dwelt at Hebron. And from thence he wente agaynſt ỏ inhabiters of Debir (but Debir was called Kiriath Sepher afore tyme.) And Caleb ſayde: * He ỏ ſmyteth Kiriath Sepher, & wynneth it, I wyl geue him my doughter Achſa to wife. Then Athniel the ſonne of Kenas, Calebs yongeſt brother wānе it. And he gaue him his doughter Achſa to wife. And it fortuned ỏ whan they wēre in, ſhe was counceled of hir houſbande, to axe a pece of londe of hir father. And ſhe fell from the aſſe. Thē ſayde Caleb vnto her: What ayleth ỏ? She ſayde: Geue me a bleſſynge, for thou haſt geuen me a ſouth & drye londe, geue me alſo a watery londe. Then gaue he her a londe that was watery a boue and beneth. C Iosu. 15.d 2. Par. 12.a 1. Re. 17.c

And the childrē of ỏ Kenyte Moſes brother in lawe, wente vp out of the * palme cite, with the childzen of Juda in to the wylderneſſe of Juda, that lyeth on ỏ ſouth ſyde of the cite Arad: * and wente their waye, & dwelt amonge the people. And Juda wente with his brother Simeon, & they ſmote the Cananites at Zephath, & damned them, & called the name of the cite Horma. * Juda alſo wanne Gaſa with the borders therof, & Aſcalon with hir borders, & Accaron with the coaſtes therof. And the LORDE was wt Juda, ſo that he conquered the mountaynes: but them that dwelt in the valley coulde he not conquere, becauſe they had yron charettes. And accordinge as Moſes had ſayde, they gaue Hebron vnto Caleb, which droue out the thre ſonnes of Enak. Howbeit ỏ childzen of Ben Jamin droue not out ỏ Jebuſites which dwelt at Jeruſalem, but ỏ Jebuſites dwelt amonge the childzen of Ben Jamin at Jeruſalem vnto this daye. D Deu. 34.a Nu. 10.d 1. Nephtali droue not out ỹ inhabiters of Beth Semes, ner of Beth Anath, but dwelt amonge the Cananites which dwelt in the londe: howbeit they of Beth Semes and of Beth Anath were tributaries.

And the Amorites subdued the childrē of Dan vpon the mountaine, and suffred them not to come downe in to the valley. And the Amorites beganne to dwell vpō mount Heres at Aiolon and at Saalbim. Howbeit ỹ hande of ỹ house of Joseph was to sore for them, and they became tributaries. And the border of the Amorites was, as a mā goeth vp towarde Acrabim, and from the rocke, & from the toppe.

The II. Chapter.

A BVt there came vp a messaūger of ỹ LORDE from Gilgall vnto Bochim, and sayde: I haue caried you vp hither out of Egipte, and broughte you in to the londe that I sware vnto youre fathers, &
Deut. 7. a saide: + I wyl neuer breake my couenaunt wt you, that ye shulde make no couenaunt with the inhabellers of this londe, but breake downe their altares: Neuertheles ye haue not herkened vnto my voyce. Wherfore haue ye done this? Then saide I moreouer: I wyl not dryue them out before you, that they may be a fall vnto you, and their goddes a snare. And whan ỹ messaunger of the LORDE had spoken these wordes vnto all the childrē of Jsrael, the people lefte vp their voyce, & wept, and called ỹ name of the place Bochim, and offred there vnto the LORDE.

For whan Josua had sente awaye ỹ people, and the childrē of Jsrael were gone, euery one to his enheritaūce, for to take possession of the londe, + the people serued the LORDE as longe as Josua lyued and ỹ Elders, which lyued longe after Josua, and ỹ sawe all the greate workes of the LORDE, which he dyd for Jsrael.

Now whan Josua the sonne of Nun, the seruaunt of the LORDE, was deed (whan he was an hūdreth and ten yeare olde) they buried him in ỹ border of his inheritaunce at Timnath Heres vpon mount Ephraim on the north syde of mount Gaas. And whan all the same generacion was gathered vnto their fathers, there came vp after them another generacion, which knew not the LORDE, ner the workes that he had done for Jsrael.

Then wroughte the childrē of Jsrael euell before the LORDE, and serued Baalim, and forsoke ỹ LORDE the God of their fathers (which broughte them out of the londe of Egipte) and folowed other goddes & the goddes of the nacions that dwelt rounde aboute them, & worshipped them, & displeased the LORDE: for they forsoke ỹ LORDE euer more and more, and serued Baal and Astaroth.

Then ỹ wrath of the LORDE waxed whote vpō Jsrael, & he delyuered thē in to ỹ handes of those ỹ spoyled thē, that they mighte spoyle them, & solde thē in to the handes of their enemies rounde aboute, & they were not able to withstonde their enemies enymes, but what waye so euer they wolde out, ỹ hāde of the LORDE was agaynst thē to their hurte (euen as the LORDE sayde and swarē vnto them) and they were sore oppressed.

Now whan the LORDE raysed them vp iudges, which helped them out of the hande of soch as spoyled thē, they folowed not the iudges nether, but wente a whoringe after other goddes, & worshipped them, and were soone gone out of ỹ waye ỹ their fathers walked in, to heare the cōmaundementes of the LORDE, & dyd not as they dyd.

But whan ỹ LORDE raysed vp iudges vnto them, the LORDE was with ỹ iudge

and helped them out of the hande of their enemies, as longe as the iudge lyued. * For the LORDE had pitie of their complaynte, which they made ouer those ỹ subdued thē and oppressed them.

Neuertheles whan the iudge dyed, they turned backe, and marred all more thē their fathers, so that they folowed other goddes to serue them and to bowe them selues vnto them: they wolde not fall from their purposes, ner from their obstinate waye.

Therfore waxed the wrath of the LORDE allwaie so whote ouer Israel, that he sayde: Forso moch as the people haue transgressed my couenaunt, which I commaunded their fathers, & folowe not my voyce, I wil from hence forth dryue out none of the Heythen, whō Josua lefte behynde him, whā he dyed, * that by them I maye proue Israel, whether they wil kepe the waye of the LORDE, to walke therin, as their fathers dyd, or not. Thus the LORDE suffred all these nacions, so that in a shorte tyme he droue them not out, whom he had not geuen ouer in to Josuas hande. The III. Chapter.

A These are the nacions, whom the LORDE suffred to remayne, ỹ by them he mighte proue Israel, which had no vnderstondinge in the warres of Canaan: onely because ỹ the trybes of the childrē of Israel might knowe & lerne to warre, which afore had no knowlege therof, namely: The fyue lordes of ỹ Philistynes, & all the Cananites, & Sidonians, & the Hethites ỹ dwelt vpon mount Libanus, fro mount Baal Hermon, vntyll a man come vnto Hemath. The same remayned, that Israel might be proued by them, that it might be knowne whether they wolde herken to the commaundementes of the LORDE, which he commaunded their fathers by Moses.

Now whan the childrē of Israel dwelt thus amōge the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuites & Jebusites, * they toke their doughters to wynes, & gaue their doughters vnto their sonnes, & serued their goddes, and wroughte wickednes before the LORDE, & forgat the LORDE their God, & serued Baalim & Astaroth. Then ỹ wrath of ỹ LORDE waxed whote ouer Israel, & he solde thē vnder the hāde of Cusan Risathaim kynge of Mesopotamia, & so ỹ childrē of Israel serued Cusan Risathaim viij. yeare.

B Thē cried the childrē of Israel vnto (re. the LORDE, & the LORDE raysed thē vp a sauīo^r which delyuered thē, namely * Athniel ỹ sonne of Kenas, Calebs yongest brother. And the sprete of the LORDE came vpon him, & he was iudge in Israel, & wente out a warre fare. And ỹ LORDE delyuered Cusan Risathaim the kynge of Syria in to his hāde, so ỹ his hande was to strōge for him. * Then was the londe in rest fortye yeares. And Athniel the sonne of Kenas dyed.

But the childrē of Israel dyd yet more euell before the LORDE. Then the LORDE strengthed Eglon the kynge of ỹ Moabites agaynst ỹ childrē of Israel, because they wrought wickednesse before ỹ LORDE. And he gathered vnto him ỹ childrē of Ammon, & the Amalechites, & wēte and smote Israel, and conquered the * cite of the palme trees. And the childrē of Israel serued Eglon ỹ kynge of ỹ Moabites eighteene yeare. Thē cried they vnto the LORDE. And the LORDE raysed thē vp a sauioure, namely Ehud the sonne of Gera ỹ sonne of Jemini, which was a man that mighte do nothinge with his righte hande.

And whā the childrē of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglon the kynge of the Moabites, Ehud made him a two edged dagger of a spanne longe, & gyrded it vnder his garmēt vpō his righte thye, & broughte ỹ present vnto Eglon the kynge of ỹ Moabites. As for Eglon, he was a very fat man.

C And whan he had delyuered the presente, he let the people go that had caried the present, and he himselfe turned backe from the Idols at Gilgall, & caused to saye thus (vnto the kynge:) I haue a secrete thinge to tell the O kynge. And he commaunded to kepe sylence, & all they that stode aboute him, wente out from him.

And Ehud came in vnto him. He sat in a syled Sommer perler, which was for him selfe alone. And Ehud saide: I haue somwhat to saye vnto the of God. Thē rose he vp frō his seate. But Ehud put forth his lefte hande, & toke the dagger from his righte thye, & thrust it in to his bely, so ỹ the hefte wente in also after the blade, & the fatt closed the hefte: for he drue not ỹ dagger out of his bely, & ỹ fylthines departed frō him. But Ehud gat him out at the backe dore, & put to ỹ dore after him, and lockte it.

Now whan he was gone, his seruauntes came in, and sawe that the dore of the Sommer perler was lockte, and they sayde: perad uenture he is gone to the prevye in the syled Sommer perler.

D But whan they had wayted so lōge tyll they were ashamed (for no man opened the perler dore) they toke the keye, and opened it.

Then wēte the same man vp into ỹ countre of the Hethites, & buylded a cite, and called it Lus, & so is the name of it yet vnto this

But whan Israel was mightie, he made the Cananites tributaries, and droue them not out.

Iosu. 16. b In like maner Ephraim droue not out ỹ Cananites that dwelt at Gaser, but the Cananites dwelt amonge them at Gaser.

Zabulon also droue not out the inhabiters of Kitron and Nahalol, but ỹ Cananites dwelt amonge them, & were tributaries.

g Asser droue not out ỹ inhabiters of Aco, & ỹ inhabiters of Sidon, of Ahelab, of Achsib, of Helba, of Aphik & of Rehob, but ỹ Asserites dwelt amōge the Cananites that dwelt in the lōde, for they droue thē not out.

Nephtali droue not out ỹ inhabiters of Beth Semes, ner of Beth Anath, but dwelt amonge the Cananites which dwelt in the londe: howbeit they of Beth Semes and of Beth Anath were tributaries.

And the Amorites subdued the childrē of Dan vpon the mountaine, and suffred them not to come downe in to the valley. And the Amorites beganne to dwell vpō mount Heres at Aiolon and at Saalbim. Howbeit ỹ hande of ỹ house of Joseph was to sore for them, and they became tributaries. And the border of the Amorites was, as a mā goeth vp towarde Acrabim, and from the rocke, & from the toppe.

The II. Chapter.

A BVt there came vp a messaūger of ỹ LORDE from Gilgall vnto Bochim, and sayde: I have caried you vp hither out of Egipte, and broughte you in to the londe that I sware vnto youre fathers, & saide: I wyl neuer breake my couenaunt wt
Deut. 7. a you, that ye shulde make no couenaunt with the inhabiters of this londe, but breake downe their altares: Neuertheles ye have not herkened vnto my voyce. Wherfore haue ye done this? Then saide I moreover: I wyl not dryue them out before you, that they may be a fall vnto you, and their goddes a snare. And whan ỹ messaunger of the LORDE had spoken these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people lefte vp their voyce, & wept, and called ỹ name of the place Bochim, and offred there vnto the LORDE.

For whan Josua had sente awaye ỹ people, and the childrē of Israel were gone, euery one to his enheritaūce, for to take possession of the londe, the people serued the LORDE as longe as Josua lyued and ỹ Elders, which lyued longe after Josua, and ỹ sawe all the greate workes of the LORDE, which he dyd for Israel.

Now whan Josua the sonne of Nun, the seruaunt of the LORDE, was deed (whan he was an hūdreth and ten yeare olde) they buried him in ỹ border of his inheritaunce at Timnath Heres vpon mount Ephraim on the north syde of mount Gaas. And whan all the same generacion was gathered vnto their fathers, there came vp after them another generacion, which knew not the LORDE, ner the workes that he had done for Israel.

Then wroughte the childrē of Israel evell before the LORDE, and serued Baalim, and forsoke ỹ LORDE the God of their fathers (which broughte them out of the londe of Egipte) and folowed other goddes & the goddes of the nacions that dwelt rounde aboute them, & worshipped them, & displeased the LORDE: for they forsoke ỹ LORDE euer more and more, and serued Baal and Astaroth.

Then ỹ wrath of the LORDE waxed whote vpō Israel, & he delyuered thē in to ỹ handes of those ỹ spoyled thē, that they mighte spoyle them, & solde thē in to the handes of their enemies roūde aboute, & they were not able to withstonde their enemies eny more, but what waye so euer they wolde out, ỹ hāde of the LORDE was agaynst thē to their hurte (euen as the LORDE sayde and swarē vnto them) and they were sore oppressed.

Now whan the LORDE raysed them vp iudges, which helped them out of the handes of soch as spoyled thē, they folowed not the iudges nether, but wente a whoringe after other goddes, & worshipped them, and were soone gone out of ỹ waye ỹ their fathers walked in, to heare the cōmaundementes of the LORDE, & dyd not as they dyd.

But whan ỹ LORDE raysed vp iudges vnto them, the LORDE was with ỹ iudge

and helped them out of the hande of their enemies, as longe as the iudge lyued. * For the LORDE had pitie of their complaynte, which they made ouer those ꝑ subdued thē and oppressed them.

Neuertheles whan the iudge dyed, they turned backe, and marred all more thē their fathers, so that they folowed other goddes to serue them and to bowe them selues vnto them: they wolde not fall from their purposes, ner from their obstinate waye.

Therfore waxed the wrath of the LORDE allwaie so whote ouer Israel, that he sayde: Forso moch as the people haue transgressed my couenaunt, which I commaunded their fathers, & folowe not my voyce, I wil from hence forth dryue out none of the Heythen, whō Josua lefte behynde him, whā he dyed, * that by them I maye proue Israel, whether they wil kepe the waye of the LORDE, to walke therin, as their fathers dyd, or not. Thus the LORDE suffred all these nacions, so that in a shorte tyme he droue them not out, whom he had not geuen ouer in to Josuas hande.

The III. Chapter.

These are the nacions, whom the LORDE suffred to remayne, ꝑ by them he mighte proue Israel, which had no vnderstondinge in the warres of Canaan: onely because ꝑ the trybes of the childrē of Israel might knowe & lerne to warre, which afore had no knowlege therof, namely: The fyue lordes of ꝑ Philistynes, & all the Cananites, & Sidonians, & the Hethites ꝑ dwelt vpon mount Libanus, fro mount Baal Hermon, vntyll a man come vnto Hemath. The same remayned, that Israel mighte be proued by them, that it mighte be knowne whether they wolde herken to the commaundementes of the LORDE, which he commaunded their fathers by Moses.

Now whan the childrē of Israel dwelt thus amōge the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Heuites & Jebusites, * they toke their doughters to wyues, & gaue their doughters vnto their sonnes, & serued their goddes, and wroughte wickednes before the LORDE, & forgat the LORDE their God, & serued Baalim & Astaroth. Then ꝑ wrath of ꝑ LORDE waxed whote ouer Israel, & he solde thē vnder the hāde of Cusan Risathaim kynge of Mesopotamia, & so ꝑ childrē of Israel serued Cusan Risathaim viij. yeare.

Thē cried the childrē of Israel vnto (re. the LORDE, & the LORDE raysed thē vp a sauio' which delyuered thē, namely * Athniel ꝑ sonne of Renas, Calebs yongest brother. And the sprete of the LORDE came vpon him, & he was iudge in Israel, & wente out a warre fare. And ꝑ LORDE delyuered Cusan Risathaim the kynge of Syria in to his hāde, so ꝑ his hande was to strōge for him. * Then was the londe in rest fortye yeares. And Athniel the sonne of Renas dyed.

But the childrē of Israel dyd yet more euell before the LORDE. Then the LORDE strengthed Eglon the kynge of ꝑ Moabites agaynst ꝑ childrē of Israel, because they wroughte wickednesse before ꝑ LORDE. And he gathered vnto him ꝑ childrē of Ammon, & the Amalechites, & wēte and smote Israel, and conquered the * cite of the palme trees. And the childrē of Israel serued Eglon ꝑ kynge of ꝑ Moabites eighteene yeare. Thē cried they vnto the LORDE. And the LORDE raysed thē vp a sauioure, namely Ehud the sonne of Gera ꝑ sonne of Jemini, which was a man that mighte do nothinge with his righte hande.

And whā the childrē of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglon the kynge of the Moabites, Ehud made him a two edged dagger of a spanne longe, & gyrded it vnder his garmēt vpō his righte thye, & broughte ꝑ present vnto Eglon the kynge of ꝑ Moabites. As for Eglon, he was a very fat man.

And whan he had delyuered the presente, he let the people go that had caried the present, and he himselfe turned backe from the Idols at Gilgall, & caused to saye thus (vnto the kynge:) I haue a secrete thinge to tell the O kynge. And he commaunded to kepe sylence, & all they that stode aboute him, wente out from him.

And Ehud came in vnto him. He sat in a syled Sommer perler, which was for him selfe alone. And Ehud saide: I haue somwhat to saye vnto the of God. Thē rose he vp frō his seate. But Ehud put forth his lefte hande, & toke the dagger from his righte thye, & thrust it in to his bely, so ꝑ the hefte wente in also after the blade, & the fatt closed the hefte: for he drue not ꝑ dagger out of his bely, & ꝑ fylthines departed frō him. But Ehud gat him out at the backe dore, & put to ꝑ dore after him, and lockte it.

Now whan he was gone, his seruauntes came in, and sawe that the dore of the Sommer perler was lockte, and they sayde: perauenture he is gone to the prevye in the syled Sommer perler.

But whan they had wayted so lōge tyll they were ashamed (for no man opened the perler dore) they toke the keye, and opened it.

Beholde, then laye their lorde deed vpō the earth. As for Ehud, he was gotten awaye, whyle they made so longe tariēge, & he went ouer by the Idols, and ranne his waye vnto Seirath.

Iu.10.a And whan he came in * he blewe ỳ trompet vpō mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel wente with him from the mount, and he before them, and he saide vnto them: Folowe me, for the LORDE hath delyuered the Moabites youre enemies in to yo hande. And they folowed him, & wanne ỳ ferye of Iordane, ỳ goeth towarde Moab, & suffred no man to go ouer, and at ỳ same tyme they smote of the Moabites vpō a ten thousande men, all nobles and men of armes, so that there escaped not one. Thus were the Moabites broughte vnder the hande of the children of Israel at that tyme, and the londe was in rest foure score yeares.

pd.5.a Afterwarde was * Samgar ỳ sonne of Anath, which slewe sixe hundreth Philistynes with an ores gadd, and delyuered Israel also.

The IIII. Chapter.

A BVt the children of Israel dyd yet more euell before ỳ LORDE, whan Ehud was deed. And the LORDE solde thē in to the hande of Jabin the kynge of the Cananites, which dwelt at Hazor, & the chefe captayne of his hooste was Sissera, and he dwelt at Haroseth of the Heythen. And the childrē of Israel cried vnto the LORDE: for he had nyne hūdreth yron charettes, and subdued the children of Israel by violence twentye yeare.

At ỳ same tyme was Judgesse in Israel the prophetisse Debbora, the wyfe of Lapidoth, and she dwelt vnder ỳ palme of Debbora betwene Rama & Bethel, vpon mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came d.5.b vp vnto her to the lawe. She sent forth, * & called for Barak the sonne of Abi Noam of Kedes Nephtali, and sayde vnto him: Hath not ỳ LORDE the God of Israel cōmaunded the: Go thy waye, and get the vp vnto mount Thabor, & take wt the ten thousande men of the children of Nephtali & Zabulon? For I wil make Sissera the chefe captayne of Jabins hooste to come to the vnto Psal. 82.a ỳ * water of Cyson, with his charettes and with his multitude, and I wyll delyuer him in to thy hande. Barak sayde vnto her: Yf thou wilt come wt me, I wil go: but yf thou wilt not come with me, I wil not go.

B She sayde: I wyll go with the: neuertheles the prayse shal not be thine in this iourney that thou goest, but ỳ LORDE shal delyuer Sissera in to a womās hande. So Debbora gat hir vp, and wente with Barak vnto Kedes. Then Barak called Zabulon and Nephtali vnto Kedes, and wēte on fote ỳ ten thousande men. And Debbora wente w him also. As for Heber the Kenyte he was departed from the Kenytes from the children of * Hobab Moses brother in lawe, and had pitched his tent by ỳ Oke of Zaanaim besyde Kedes.

Then was it tolde Sissera, ỳ Barak the sonne of Abi Noā, was gone vp vnto mōt Thabor: & he gathered all his charettes together, nyne C. yron charettes, & all the people ỳ was with him from Haroseth of the Heythē, vnto the water Cyson. Debbora sayde vnto Barak: Vp, this is the daie wherin the LORDE hath delyuered Sissera in to ỳ hande: for ỳ LORDE shal go forth before ỳ. So Barak wente fro mount Thabor, and ỳ ten thousande men after him.

But the LORDE discomfited Sissera w C all his charettes & hooste, & made thē afrayed of the edge of the swerde before Barak, so ỳ Sissera leapte of his charet, & fled on fote. Neuertheless Barak folowed vpon the charettes & the hooste vnto Haroseth of the Heythen, & all Sisseras hooste fell thorow ỳ edge of the swerde, so ỳ not one escaped. As for Sissera, he fled on fote vnto the tente of Jael, ỳ wife of Heber ỳ Kenite. For there was peace betwene kynge Jabin at Hasor, & the house of Heber the Kenite.

Jael wēte forth to mete Sissera, & sayde vnto him: Turne in my lorde, turne in to me, & be not afrayed. And he turned in vnto her in to the tente, & she couered him with a garmēt. He sayde vnto her: I praye ỳ geue me a litle water to drynke, for I am a thyrst. * Thē 1d.d opened she a mylke pot, & gaue him to drynke, and couered him. And he sayde vnto her: Stōde in the tente dore, & yf one come & aske, is there eny man here? saye Noman.

Then Jael the wife of Heber toke a nale D of the tente, and an hammer in hir hande, & wente in preuely vnto him, & smote the nale in thorow the temples of his heade, so ỳ he sancke to ỳ earth. As for him, he was fallen on a slomber, and weery, and so he dyed. 4.a

But whā Barak folowed after Sissera, Jael wente for to mete him, and sayde vnto him: Come hither, I wil shewe the the man whom thou sekest. And whan he came in vnto her, he sawe Sissera deed, & the nale stickinge in his temples. Thus God brought downe Jabin the kynge of the Cananites 4.d

before the children of Israel at that tyme, & the hande of the children of Israel wente & subdued Jabin ỳ kynge of the Cananites, tyll they had roted him out. Then Debbora and Barac the sonne of Abi Noam, sange at the same tyme, and sayde:

The V. Chapter.

Ye that ryde vpō fayre Asses, ye that syt in iudgment and geue sentence, ye that go by the waye, prayse the LORDE.

Whā ỳ archers cried betwene ỳ drawers of water, then was it spokē of ỳ righteousnes of the LORDE, of the righteousnes of his houßbande men in Israel: then ruled the people of the LORDE vnder the gates.

Iud.4.a Vp Debbora vp, get the vp, get the vp, & rehearse a songe. * Arise Barak, & catch him ỳ catched the, thou sonne of Abinoam.

Then had the desolate the rule with the mightie of the people. The LORDE had ỳ dominion thorow the giauntes.

Iud.3.d * Out of Ephraim was their rote against Amalek, and after him Ben Jamin in thy people.

Out of Machir haue teachers ruled, and out of Zabulō are there become gouernours thorow the wrytinge penne.

And out of Isachar there were prynces with Debbora, and Isachar was as Barak in ỳ valley, sent with his people on fote: As for Ruben, he stode hye in his awne consayte, and separated him selfe from vs.

Why abodest thou betwixte the borders, C whan thou herdest the noyse of the flockes? because Ruben stode hye in his awne cōsayte, and separated him selfe from vs.

Gilead abode beyonde Jordane, and why dwelt Dan amonge the shippes? Asser sat in the hauen of the see, and taried in his pocions.

But Zabulons people ioperde their life vnto death: Nephtali also in the toppe of ỳ felde of Nerom.

The kynges came & foughte, then foughte ỳ kynges of the Cananites at Thaanah by the water of Megiddo, but spoyle of money broughte they not there from.

From heauē were they foughtē against, the starres in their courses foughte with Sissera.

He bowed him selfe downe at hir fete, he fell downe, and laye there. He sanke downe, and fell at hir fete: whan he had soncke downe, he laye there destroyed.

Hir mother loked out at the wyndewe, & cried piteously thorow the trallace: Why tarieth his charet out so lōge, that he cōmeth not? Wherfore do the wheles of his charet make so longe tarienge?

The wyseste amōge his ladies answered, & sayde vnto her: Shulde they not finde & deuide the spoyle, vnto euery man a fayre mayde or two for a pray, & partye coloured garmētes of nedle worke to Sissera for a spoyle, partye coloured garmentes of nedle worke aboute the necke for a pray?

Thus all thine enemies must perishe O

LORDE: but they that loue the, shal be euen as the Sonne rysinge vp in his mighte.

And the londe had peace fortye yeares.

The VI. Chapter.

A AND whan the children of Israel dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, the LORDE delyuered them vnder the hande of the Madianites vij. yeares. And whā the hande of the Madianites was to mighty ouer the children of Israel, the children of Israel made them clyffes in ỳ mountaynes, and caues and holdes, to defende them selues from ỳ Madianites. And whan Israel sowed eny thinge, ỳ Madianites and Amalechites, and the children towarde the south came vp vpon them, and pitched their tētes agaynst them, and destroyed the increase of the londe downe vnto Gasa, & let nothinge remayne ouer of the beestes in Israel, nether shepe, ner oxen, ner asses. For they came vp with their catell and tentes, as it had bene a greate multitude of greshoppers (so that nether they ner their camels mighte be nombred) and fell in to the londe, that they mighte destroye it. Thus was Israel exceadinge small before the Madianites. Then cried the children of Israel vnto the LORDE.

B But whan they cried vnto the LORDE because of ỳ Madianites, ỳ LORDE sent thē a prophet, which sayde vnto thē: Thus saieth the LORDE the God of Israel: I caried you out of Egipte, & broughte you out of ỳ house of bondage, & delyuered you from the hande of the Egipcians, & from the hāde of all them that oppressed you, and I haue thrust them out before you, & geuen you their lōde and sayde vnto you: I am the LORDE youre God. * Feare not ye the goddes of the Amorites, in whose londe ye dwell: neuertheles ye haue not herkened vnto my voyce.

* Exo. 17. g
Exo. 10. a

And there came an angell of the LORDE, & sat him downe vnder an Oke at Aphra, which belonged vnto Joas the father of ỳ Esrites, and his sonne Gedeon was threshinge wheate in the barne, that he mighte flye awaye before the Madianites.

C Then appeared vnto him the angell of ỳ LORDE, and sayde vnto him: The LORDE with ỳ thou mightie giaunte. But Gedeon sayde vnto him: Syr, yf the LORDE be wt vs, wherfore is all this then happened vnto vs? And where are all the wonders, which oure fathers tolde vs, & sayde: The LORDE brought vs out of Egipte? But now hath the LORDE forsaken vs, and delyuered vs in to the hande of the Madianites.

The LORDE turned him vnto him, & sayde: Go thy waye in this thy strength, thou shalt delyuer Israel out of the hande of ỳ Madianites. I haue sent the. But he sayde: My LORDE, wherwithall shal I delyuer Israel? Beholde, my kynred is the smalleste in Manasse, & I am the leest in my fathers house? The LORDE sayde vnto him: I will be wt the, so ỳ thou shalt smyte the Madianites, euen as though they were but one man.

He sayde vnto him: Yf I haue founde grace in thy sighte, then make me a token, that it is thou, which speakest with me: go not awaye, tyll I come to ỳ, and bringe a meat offerynge, to set before the. He sayde: I wyll tary, tyll thou cōmest agayne. And Gedeon wēte, and made ready a kydd, and an Epha of vnleuended floure, and layed the flesh in a maunde, and put the broth in a pot, and broughte it forth vnto him vnder the Oke, and came nye. But the angell of God sayde vnto him: * Take the flesh and the vnleuended bred, & set it vpon the stonye rocke that is here, and poure the broth theron. And he dyd so. Then the angell of the LORDE stretched out the staffe that he had in his hande, and with the ende of it he touched the flesh and the vnleuended floure: and the fyre came out of the rocke, and consumed the flesh and the vnleuended floure. And the angell of the LORDE vanyshed out of his sighte.

Now whā Gedeon sawe that it was an angell of ỳ LORDE, he sayde: O LORDE LORDE, haue I thus sene an angell of ỳ LORDE face to face? The LORDE sayde vnto him: Peace be with the, feare not, thou shalt not dye. Thē Gedeon buylded an altare there vnto ỳ LORDE, & called it: The LORDE of peace. The same stondeth yet vnto this daye at Apra, ỳ belōgeth vnto the father of ỳ Esrites.

And in ỳ same night sayde ỳ LORDE vnto him: Take a fedd bullocke frō amōge thy fathers oxen, & another bullocke of seuen yeare olde, and breake downe the altare of Baall which is thy fathers, and cut downe the grone that stondeth by it, and buylde thou an altare vnto the LORDE ỳ God aboue vpon the toppe of this rocke, and make it ready, and take the other bullocke, and offre a burntofferynge with the wodd of the grone that thou hast hewen downe. Then toke Gedeon ten men of his seruauntes, and dyd as ỳ LORDE sayde vnto him: but he was afrayed to do this by daye tyme, for his fathers house and the people in ỳ cite, and so he dyd it by nighte.

Now whan the people in the cite rose vp early in the mournynge, beholde, Baals alte-

re was broken, and the grove hewen downe by it, and the other bullocke a burntofferynge vpon the altare that was buylded, & one sayde vnto another: Who hath done this? And whan they soughte & made searche, it was sayde: Gedeon the sonne of Joas hath done it. Thē sayde the people of ỳ cite vnto Joas: Brynge forth ỳ sonne, he must dye, because he hath broken Baals altare, and hewen downe the grove therby. But Joas sayde vnto all them that stode by him: Wyl ye stryve for Baal? Wil ye delyuer him? he ỳ stryueth for him, shal dye this mornynge. Yf he be God, let him auēge him selfe, because his altare is broken downe. From ỳ daye forth was he called Jerubaal, because it was sayde: Let Baal auenge him selfe, that his altare is broken downe.

G Whan ỳ Madianites now & ỳ Amalechites, & the childrē towarde the south had gathered thē selues together, & were passed thorow (Jordane) & had pitched their tentes in the valley of Jesrael, the sprete of the LORDE endued Gedeon, & he caused the trompet to be blowne, & called (the house of) *Abieser, that they shulde folowe him: & he sent messaungers vnto all Manasse, & called them, ỳ they shulde folowe him also: and he sent messaungers likewyse vnto Asser & Zabulon & Nephtali, which came vp to mete him.

And Gedeon sayde vnto God: Yf thou wilt delyuer Jsrael thorow my hande, as thou hast saide, thē wil I laye a flese of woll in the courte: yf ỳ dew be onely vpon ỳ flese, & drye vpon all the grounde, then wyll I perceaue, that thou shalt delyuer Jsrael thorow my hande, as thou hast sayde. And it came so to passe. And whan he rose vp early on the morow, he wrāge ỳ dew out of the flese, and fylled a dyßshe full of water. And Gedeon sayde vnto God: Be not wroth at me, that I speake yet this one tyme. I wyl proue yet but once with the flese, let it be drye onely vpon the flese, and dew vpon all the grounde. And God dyd so the same nighte: so that it was drye onely vpon the flese, and dew vpon all the grounde.

The VII. Chapter.

Then Jerubaal (that is Gedeon) gat him vp early, and all the people that was with him, and pitched their tentes beside the well of Harod, so that he had the hooste of the Madianites on the north side behynde the hyll of More in the valley. A Iud. 6.

But the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon: The people that be with ỳ are to many for me to delyuer Madian in to their hande, lest Jsrael booste them selues agaynst me, and saye: My hande hath delyuered me. Cause a proclamacion now to be made in the eares of the people, and saye: * He that feareth, and is afrayed, let him turne backe, and get him soone from mount Gilead. Then returned there of the people aboute a two and twenty thousande so that there was left but ten thousande. Deu. 20. b. 1. Mac. 3. g.

And the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon. The people are yet to many: brynge them downe to the water, there wyl I proue them for ỳ: and of whom I saye that he shal go with the, the same shal go with the: but of whō I saie that he shal not go with the, the same shall not go. And he broughte the people vnto ỳ water. And the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon: Whosoeuer licketh of the water with his tōge, as a dogg licketh, make him stonde aside and lykewyse who soeuer falleth downe vpō his knees to drynke. Then was the nombre of them that had licked out of the hande to the mouth, three hundreth men. And the LORDE sayde vnto Gedeon: Thorow the three hundreth which haue licked, wyl I delyuer you, and geue ouer the Madianites in to thy hāde: As for the other people, let them go euery one vnto his place. B

And they toke vytayles with them for ỳ people, and their trompettes: but the other Jsraelites let he go, euery one vnto his tente. And he strengthed himselfe with the three hundreth men, and the Madianites hooste laye before him beneth in the valley. And the same nighte sayde the LORDE vnto him: Vp, and go downe in to the hooste, for I haue geuen them ouer in to thy hande. But yf thou be afrayed to go downe, then let ỳ seruaunt Pura go downe with the vnto the hooste, ỳ thou maiest heare what they saie: after that shalt thou be bolde, and thy honde stronge, that thou mayest go downe in to the hooste. C

Than wente Gedeon downe with his seruaunt vnto ỳ vtemoste parte of ỳ watchmē of armes ỳ were in ỳ hooste. And ỳ Madianites and Amalechites, and all the children of the south, had layed them selues beneth in the valley, as a multitude of greshoppers, and their Camels were not to be nombred for multitude, euē as the sonde on ỳ see shore. Now whan Gedeon came, beholde, one told another his dreame, & sayde: Beholde, I haue dreamed a dreame: Me thoughte a bakē barlye lose came rollinge downe to ỳ hoost of ỳ Madianites: and whan it came to the tente, it smote it, and ouerthrew it, and turned it vpsyde downe, so that the tente fell. Then answered the other: That is nothinge els then ỳ swerde of Gedeon the sonne of Joas ỳ Israelite: God hath geuē ouer the Madianites with all the hoost in to his hande.

Whan Gedeon herde this dreame told, & the interpretacion of it, he worshipped, and came agayne in to the hoost of Israel, and sayde: Vp, for the LORDE hath delyuered ỳ hoost of the Madianites in to youre hāde. And he deuyded the thre hundreth men in to thre partes, and gaue euery one a trompet in his hande, and emptye pytchers, and lampes therin, and sayde vnto them: Loke vnto me, and do ye euē so, and beholde, whā I come to the vttemost parte of the hoost, euen as I do, so do ye also. Whan I blowe ỳ trompet, and all that are wt me, then shal ye blowe ỳ trōpettes also rounde aboute all the hoost, and saye: Here the LORDE & Gedeon. Thus came Gedeon and the thre hundreth men with him vnto the vttemost parte of ỳ hoost (aboute the tyme whan the mydwatch begynneth) and waked vp the watchmē, and blewe with the trompettes, and smote asunder the pitchers in their handes.

So all the thre companies blewe with ỳ trompettes, and brake the pitchers. But the lampes helde they in their lefte hande, and the trompettes in their righte hāde, so that they blewe, and cried: Here the swerde of the LORDE and Gedeon. And euery one stode in his place aboute the hoost. Then ranne all the hoost, and cried and fled. And whyle the thre hundreth men blewe the trompettes, ỳ LORDE brought it so to passe, that * euery mans swerde in all ỳ hoost was agaynst another, and the hoost fled vnto Bethsitha Zererātha, and vnto the border of the playne of Mehohab besyde Tabath. And ỳ men of Israel of Nephtali, of Asser, & of Manasse cried, and folowed vpon the Madianites.

And Gedeon sent messaungers vp vnto all mount Ephraim, sayenge: Come downe against the Madianites, and stoppe the water from them vnto Beth Bara and Jordane. And then cryed all they that were of Ephraim, and stopped the water from them vnto Bethbara and Jordane, and toke two princes of the Madianites Oreb and Zeb, and slewe Oreb vpon the rocke of Oreb, and Zeb in the wynepresse of Zeb, and folowed vpon the Madianites, and broughte the heades of Oreb and Zeb, vnto Gideon ouer Jordane.

The VIII. Chapter.

AND the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him: Wherfore hast thou done this vnto vs, that thou hast not called vs, whā thou wentest forth to fyght agaynst ỳ Madianites? and they chode sore with him. But he sayde vnto them: What haue I done now that is like youre acte? Is not the gatherynge of Ephraim better then the whole harueste of Abieser? God hath delyuered ỳ princes of the Madianites Oreb and Zeb in to youre hande, how coulde I do that ye haue done? Whā he had sayde this, their blast was swaged from him.

Now whan Gedeon came vnto Jordane, he wente ouer with the thre hundreth mē that were with him, and they were weery, and folowed vpon their chace. And he sayde vnto the men of Sucoth: I praye you gene the people that are with me, some loaues of bred (for they are weery) that I maye folowe vpon Zebea and Salmana the kinges of the Madianites.

But the rulers of Sucoth sayde: Are the handes of Zebea and Salmana in thy handes allready, that we must gene bred vnto thy men of warre? Gedeon sayde: Well, whan the LORDE delyuereth Zebea and Salmana in to my hāde, I wyll thresshe youre flesh with thornes of the wylderneße and with breares. And from thence he went vp vnto Penuel, and spake euen so vnto them. And the mē of Penuel gaue him like answere as they of Sucoth. And he sayde also vnto the men of Penuel: Yf I come peaceably agayne, I wil breake downe this tower.

As for Zebea and Salmana, they were at Karkar, and their hoost with them vpon a fyftene thousande, which were all that were lefte of the whole hoost of the children of the Easte: for there were fallen an hundreth and twentye thousande, that coulde drawe the swerde.

And Gedeon wente vp by the waye, where they dwell in the tentes on the east side of Nobah and Jakbeha, & smote the hoost, for the hoost was careleße, and mystrusted nothinge. And Zebea and Salmana fled, but he folowed after them, and toke ỳ two kynges of the Madianites Zebea and Salmana, and put all the hoost in feare.

Now whan Gedeon ỹ sonne of Joas came agayne frō the battayll out of ỹ east, he toke a lad of the men of Sucoth, & examyned him, which wrote him vp the names of the rulers of Sucoth, and their Elders, euē thre score and seuentene men.

And he came to the men of Sucoth, & sayde: Beholde, here is Zebea & Salmana, cōcernynge whō ye laughed me to scorne, & sayde: Are the handes of Zebea and Salmana in thy hādes all ready, that we must geue bred vnto thy men which are weery? And he toke the Elders of the cite, and thornes out of the wildernes, and briers, and caused ỹ men of Sucoth to be torne therwith. * And the tower of Pennel brake he downe, and slewe the men of the cite.

And he saide vnto Zebea and Salmana: What maner of mē were they whō ye slewe at Thabor? They sayde: They were euen like the, & goodly men, as yf they had bene a kynges childrē. He sayde: They were my brethren, euen my mother sonnes: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, yf ye had letrē them lyue, I wolde not slaye you.

And he saide vnto his first borne sonne Jether: Stonde vp, & slaye them. Howbeit the lad drue not out his swerde, for he was afrayed, for so moch as he was yet but a lad. Zebea & Salmana sayde: Stonde thou vp, & slaye vs, for as the man is, soch is also his strēgth. So Gedeon arose, and slewe Zebea and Salmana, and toke the ornamentes that were aboute their Camels neckes.

Then sayde certayne in Israel vnto Gedeon: Be thou lorde ouer vs, thou and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, for so moch as thou hast delyuered vs from ỹ hande of ỹ Madianites. Neuertheles Gedeon saide vnto them: I wil not be lorde ouer you, nether shal my sonne be lorde ouer you, but the LORDE shalbe lorde ouer you.

Gedeon sayde vnto them: One thinge I desyre of you, Euery man gene me the earinge that he hath spoyled. (For in so moch as ỹ men were Ismaelites, they had earinges.) They sayde: Them wyll we geue the. And they spred out a cloth, and euery man cast the earinge theron that he had spoyled. And the golden earynges which he requyred, had in weight, a thousande and seuen hundreth Sycles of golde, besyde the spanges and theynes, and scarlet rayment which the kynges of the Madianites dyd weere, and besyde the neckbandes of their Camels. And Gideon made a cote armoure therof, and set it in his cite at Aphra. And all Israel wente there a whoringe after it, and it turned to an occasion of fallinge vnto Gedeon and his house.

Thus were ỹ Madianites brought downe before the children of Israel, and lifte vp their heade nemore: and the londe was in rest fortye yeares, as lōge as Gedeon lyued. G

And Jerubaal the sonne of Joas wēte & dwelt in his house. And Gedeon had thre score & ten sonnes, which were come out of his thye: for he had many wyues. And his concubyne which he had at Sichē, bare him a sonne also, whom he called Abimelech. And Gideon the sonne of Joas dyed in a good age, & was buried at Aphra in ỹ sepulcre of his father Joas the father of the Esrites. 4. Re. 10. a

But whan Gedeon was deed, the childrē of Israel turned backe, and wente awhoringe after Baalim, and made a couenaunt vnto Baal Berith, ỹ he shulde be their God. And ỹ childrē of Israel thoughte not on ỹ LORDE their God, which had delyuered them frō the hande of their enemies rounde about: and they shewed not mercy vnto the house of Jerubaal Gedeon, acordinge to all the good that he had done vnto Israel.

The IX. Chapter.

ABimelech the sonne of Jerubaal, wente A vnto Sichē to his mothers brethren, & spake vnto them, & to all the kynred of his mothers fathers house, and sayde: I praye you speake in the eares of all the men at Sichem: What is better for you, that thre score and ten men all children of Jerubaal shulde be lordes ouer you, or that one man shulde be lorde ouer you? Remembre also that I am youre bone and youre flesh.

Then spake his mothers brethrē all these wordes for him, in ỹ eares of all ỹ men at Sichem. And their hert enclyned to Abimelech, for they thoughte: He is oure brother: and gaue him thre score and ten sylueringes out of ỹ house of Baal Berith. And vō them Abimelech hyred men that were vagabundes and of light condicions, which folowed him. And he came to his fathers house vnto Aphra, and slew his brethren the children of Jerubaal, euen thre score men and tē vpon one stone. But Jotham the yongest sonne of Jerubaal remayned ouer, for he was hydd. And all the men of Sichem, and all the house of Millo gathered them selues together, and wente and made Abimelech kynge by the Oke that stondeth at Sichem. B 4. Par. 31. a

B Whan this was tolde Jotham, he wente, and stode vpon the toppe of mount Gusim, and lifte vp his voyce, cried, and sayde: Heare me ye men of Sichem, that God maye heare you also. The trees wente to anointe a kinde ouer them, and sayde vnto the Olyue tre: Be thou oure kynge. But the Olyue tre answered them: Shall I go and leaue my fatnesse (which both God and men commende in me) and go to be puft vp aboue the trees? Then sayde the trees vnto the fygge tre: Come thou and be kynge ouer vs. But the fygge tre sayde vnto the: Shal I leaue my swetnes and my good frute, and go to be puft vp aboue the trees? Then sayde the trees vnto the vyne: Come thou and be oure kynge. But the vyne sayde vnto them: Shal I leaue my swete wyne, which reioyseth God and men, and go to be puft vp aboue the trees? The sayde all the trees vnto the thorne bussh: Come thou, and be kynge ouer vs. And the thorne bussh sayde vnto the trees: Yf it be true, that ye anoynte me to be kynge ouer you, the come, and put youre trust vnder my shadowe. Yf no, then go fyre out of the thorne bussh, and consume the Ceder trees of Libano.

2. Par. 25. c
4. Esd. 4. b

C Yf ye haue done right now and iustly, that ye haue made Abimelech to be kynge: and yf ye haue done well vnto Jerubaal and to his house, and haue done vnto him as he deserued vnto you. Which (euen my father) sought for youre sakes, and ioperde his lyfe, to delyuer out of the Madianites hade, euen you, which are rysen vp this daye agaynst my fathers house, and haue slaine his childre, thre score persones vpon one stone, and haue made you a kynge (euen Abimelech the sonne of his handmaide) ouer the men at Sichem, for so moch as he is youre brother.

Yf ye haue done right now and iustly vnto Jerubaal and his house this daye, then reioyse ouer Abimelech, and let him reioyse ouer you. Yf no, then go fyre out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Sichem and the house of Millo: And fyre go out also fro the men of Sichem, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech. And Jotha (whan he had spoken this out) fled, and gat him out of the waye, and wente vnto Ber, and dwelt there because of his brother Abimelech.

D Now whan Abimelech had reigned thre yeare ouer Jsrael, * God sent an euell mynde betwene Abimelech and the men of Sichen (for the men of Sichem despysed Abimelech, and rehearsed the wronge done to the sonnes of Jerubaal, and their bloude, and layed it vpon Abimelech their brother which slewe them, and vpon the men of Sichem that strengthed his hande therto, that he mighte slaye his brethren.

Esa. 45. a

And the men of Sichem set an hyde watch vpon the toppes of the mountaynes, and spoyled all them that walked nye them by the waye, and it was tolde Abimelech. But there came Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethren, and entred in to Sichem, and the men of Sichem put their trust in him, and wente out in to the felde, and gathered their vynyardes, and pressed them, and made a daunse, and wente in to their goddes house, and ate and dranke, and cursed Abimelech.

And Gaal y sonne of Ebed sayde: Who is Abimelech? and what is Sichem, that we shulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Jerubaal, and hath set Sebul his seruaut ouer the men of * Hemor the father of Sichem? Wherfore shulde we serue him? Wolde God the people were vnder my hade, that I might put downe Abimelech.

And it was tolde Abimelech: Increase thine hooste, and departe. For Sebul the chefe ruler of the cite, whan he herde the wordes of Gaal y sonne of Ebed, he was wrothfully displeased, and sente message secretly to Abimelech, and caused to saye vnto him: Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethren are come to Sichem, and make the cite to be agaynst the.

Arise therfore by nyght, thou and thy people that is with the, and laye wayte for the in the felde: and tomorow whan the Sonne aryseth, get the vp soone, and fall vpon the cite: and yf he and the people that is with him come out vnto the, the deale with him, as thyne hande fyndeth.

Abimelech stode vp by nyght, and all the people that was with him, and layed wayte for Sichem with foure companies of men of warre. And Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out and stode at the dore of the gate of the cite. But Abimelech gat him vp out of the hinder watch, and the people that was with him. Now whan Gaal sawe the people, he sayde vnto Sebul: Beholde, there commeth a people downe from the toppe of y mount. Sebul saide vnto him: Thou seist y shadowe of the mountaines as though they were men. Gaal spake yet more and sayde: Beholde, there commeth a people downe from y myddes of the londe, and one bonde of men come by the waye to y witch Oke. The sayde Sebul: Where is now y mouth y sayde: Who is Abimelech, that we shulde serue him? Is not this ỳ people, whom thou hast refused? Go forth now, and fyghte with him.

Gaal wente forth before the citesyns of Sichem, and foughte with Abimelech. But Abimelech chaced him, so that he fled, and there fell many slayne euen vnto the gate of the cite. And Abimelech abode at Aruma. But Sebul droue awaye Gaal and his brethren, so that they must not remayne at Sichem. Vpon the morowe wente the people forth into ỳ felde. Whā this was tolde Abimelech, he toke the people, and parted them into thre bōdes of men, and wayted for thē in the felde. Now whan he sawe ỳ the people wēte out of the cite, he rose agaynst thē, and smote them.

G Abimelech and ỳ company of men that was with him, fell vpon them, and stepte vnto the dore of the porte: but the other two companies fell vpon all them that were in the felde, and slewe them. Thē foughte Abimelech agaynst the cite all ỳ same daye, and wanne it, and slewe the people that was there in, and brake downe ỳ cite, and sowed salt theron.

Whan all the men of the tower of Sichem herde this, they wente into a stronge holde of ỳ house of their God Berith. But whan Abimelech herde, that all the men of the tower of Sichem had gathered thē selues together, he wente vp vnto mount Zelmon, and all the people that was with him, and toke an axe in his hāde, and hewed downe a braunch of a tre, and toke it vp, & layed it vpon his shulder, and sayde vnto all the people that was with him: As ye haue sene me do, make ye haist, and do euen so as I. Then all the people hewed downe euery one a braūch, and folowed Abimelech: and they layed them to the holde, and set fyre vpon them agaynst them and the holde: and all the men of the tower of Sichem dyed thorow the smoke and fyre, vpon a thousande men and women.

As for Abimelech, he wēte vnto Thebetz, H and layed sege vnto it, and wanne it. But in the myddes of the cite, there was a stronge tower, vnto the which all the men and women, and all the citesyns of the cite fled, and shutt it after them, and clymmed vp to the toppe of the tower. Then came Abimelech vnto the tower, and soughte agaynst it, and came nye vnto the dore of the tower, that he might burne it with fyre. * But a woman 2.Re.11.c cast a pece of a mylstone vpon Abimelechs heade, and brake his braine panne. Then Abimelech in all the haist, called the seruaunt that bare his wapen, and sayde vnto him: Drawe out thy swerde, and kyll me, that it 1.Reg.31.a be not sayde of me: A woman hath slayne him. Then his seruaunt thrust him thorow, 1.Par.11.a and he dyed. Whan the Israelites which were with him, sawe, ỳ Abimelech was deed, they gatt them awaye euery one vnto his awne place.

Thus God recompenced Abimelech the euell that he had done vnto his father, whā he slewe his thre score and ten brethren: like wyse all the euell of the men of Sichem, dyd God reward them vpon their heade: and so Iud.9.f
the * curse of Jotham ỳ sonne of Jerubaal came vpon them.

The X. Chapter.

After Abimelech there rose vp another sauioure in Israel, Thola a man A of Isachar, and the sonne of Pua, the sonne of Dodo. And he dwelt at Samir vpō the mount Ephraim, and iudged Israel thre and twentye yeare, and died, and was buried at Samir.

After him stode vp one Jair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel two and twentye yeare, and hath thirtie sonnes, rydinge vpon thirtie asses foales: and had thirtie cities, whose names are Hauoth Jair (that is, the cities of Jair) vnto this daye, and lye in Gilead. And Jair dyed, and was buried at Camon. Iud.10.f

But the children of Israel wrought wickednes in the sighte of the LORDE, and ser- B

Then was ỳ wrath of ỳ LORDE fearce vpon Israel, and he gaue thē ouer vnder the hāde of the Philistynes, and of the children of Ammō. And they vexed and oppressed ỳ children of Israel eightene yeare longe, all the children of Israel that were beyonde Jordane in the londe of the Moabites, which lyeth in Gilead. The childrē of Ammon also wente ouer Iordane, and foughte agaynst Iuda, Ben Iamin, and agaynst the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was very sore troubled.

C Then cryed the childrē of Israel vnto the LORDE, and sayde: We haue synned agaynst the, for we haue forsaken oure God, & serued Baalim. But the LORDE sayde vnto the childrē of Israel: Did not the Egipcias, the Amorites, the childrē of Ammon, ỳ Philistines, the Sidonians, the Amalechites and Maonites oppresse you, and I helped you out of their hande, whan ye cryed vnto me: Yet haue ye forsaken me, and serued other goddes: Therfore wyll I helpe you nemore

Go youre waye, and crye vpon the goddes whom ye haue chosen, let them helpe you in the tyme of youre trouble.

D But the childrē of Israel sayde vnto the LORDE: We haue synned, do thou vnto vs what pleaseth the, onely delyuer vs at this tyme. And they put the straunge goddes frō them, and serued the LORDE, And his soule had pytie on the mysery of Israel.

And the childrē of Ammon called them selues together, and pitched in Gilead: But the childrē of Israel gathered them selues together also, and pitched at Mispa. And ỳ people of the chefest of Gilead sayde amōge them selues: Who so euer begynneth to fight agaynst the childrē of Ammon, shalbe head ouer all them that dwell in Gilead.

The XI. Chapter.

A Iephthae a Gileadite was a valeaūt man of armes, but an harlottes childe. Gilead begat Iephthae. But whan the wyfe had borne childrē vnto Gilead, and the same wynes childrē were waxē greate, they thrust out Iephtae, and sayde vnto him: Thou shalt not be heire in oure fathers house, for thou art another womās sonne. Thē fled he from his brethrē, and dwelt in the londe of Tob. And there resorted vnto him vagabūdes, and wēte out with him. And after a certayne tyme foughte the childrē of Ammon with Israel.

Now whā the childrē of Ammon foughte thus with Israel, the Elders wente from Gilead to fetch Iephthae out of the londe of Tob, and sayde vnto him: Come, and be oure captayne, and fight agaynst the childrē of Ammon. But Iephthae sayde vnto the Eldes of Gilead: Are not ye they that hate me and haue thrust me out of my fathers house, and now come ye to me whan ye are in trouble?

The Elders of Gilead sayde: Therfore to me we now againe vnto the, that thou mayest go with vs, and fighte agaynst the childrē of Ammon, and be oure captayne ouer all that dwell in Gilead. Iephthae sayde vnto the Elders of Gilead: Yf ye fetch me agayne to fighte agaynst the childrē of Ammon, and the LORDE delyuer them before me shal I then be youre heade? The Elders of Gilead saide vnto Iephthae: The LORDE be hearer betwene vs, yf we do not as thou hast sayde. So Iephthae wēte with the Elders of Gilead. And the people made him heade and duke ouer them. And Iephthae spake all this before the LORDE at Mispa.

Then sente Iephthae messaungers to the kynge of the childrē of Ammon, and caused to saye vnto him: What hast thou to do with me, that thou cōmest vnto me to fight agaynst my londe? The kynge of the childrē of Ammō answered Iephthaes messaungers: Because that Israel toke awaye my londe (whan they departed out of Egipte) from Arnon vnto Iabock, and vnto Iordane, gene it me agayne now therfore peaceably.

But Iephthae sent yet mo messaungers C to ỳ kynge of the childrē of Ammon, which sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth Iephthae: Israel hath taken no londe, nether from the Moabites ner from the childrē of Ammon: for when they departed out of Egipte, Israel walked thorow the wyldernes vnto the reed see, and came to Cades, and sent messaungers to the kynge of the Edomites, and sayde: Let me go thorow thy londe. But the kynge of ỳ Edomites wolde not heare the. They sent lykewyse vnto the kynge of the Moabites, which wolde not also. Thus Israel abode in Cades, and compased the lode of the Edomites and Moabites, and came on the eastsyde of the londe of the Moabites and pitched beyonde Arnon, and came not within the coaste of the Moabites. For Arnon is the border of the Moabites.

And Israel sent messaungers vnto Sihon the kynge of the Amorites at Hesbon, and caused to saye vnto him: Let me go thorow thy londe vnto my place. Neuertheles Sihon wolde not trust Israel to go thorow the border of his londe, but gathered all his people, and pitched at Jahza, and foughte with Israel. Howbeit the LORDE God of Israel gaue Sihon with all his people in to Israels hāde, so that they slewe them. Thus Israel conquered all the londe of the Amorites that dwelt in ỳ same countre. And they toke possessiō of all the borders of the Am tites, from Arnon vnto Jabok, & from ỹ wylderneſſe vnto Jordane. So ỹ LORDE God of Jſrael droue awaye the Amorites before his people of Jſrael, and wilt thou cõquere them? Is it not ſo, yf thy God Camos gaue the oughte to poſſeſſe, woldeſt thou not poſſeſſe it? What ſo ever the LORDE oure God hath geuẽ vs before vs to poſſeſſe, that ſhal we conquere and take in poſſeſſion.

E Haſt thou better right (thinkeſt thou) thẽ
a.a Balac the ſonne of Ziphor, the kynge of ỹ Moabites? Dyd he euer go to lawe or fighte agaynſt Jſrael? Though Jſrael haue dwelt now vpõ a thre hũdreth yeare in Heſbon, and in the vyllages therof, in Aroer and in the vyllages therof, and in all the cities that lye by Arnon. Why dyd not ye reſcue it at the ſame tyme? I haue not offended the, & thou doeſt me euell to fighte agaynſt me? The LORDE geue ſentence this daie betwene Jſrael and the children of Ammon.

Neuertheles the kynge of the children of Ammon wolde not heare ỹ wordes of Jephthae, which he ſent vnto him. Then came ỹ ſpirite of the LORDE vpon Jephthae, and he wente thorow Gilead and Manaſſe, and thorow Miſpa which lieth in Gilead, and fro Miſpa that lieth in Gilead, vnto ỹ children of Ammon.

J And Jephthae vowed a vowe vnto the aaa LORDE, and ſayde: *Yf thou wilt delyuer the childrẽ of Ammon in to my hande, what ſo euer commeth (firſt) out at the dore of my houſe in my waye, whan I returne agayne peaceably from the childrẽ of Ammon, that ſame ſhalbe the LORDES, and I wyl offre it for a burntofferynge.

So Jephthae wente vpon the children of Ammon, to fighte againſt them. And ỹ LORDE gaue them in to his hande, and he ſmote thẽ from Aroer tyll thou comeſt vnto Minnith, euen twentye cities, and vnto the playne of ỹ vynyardes a very greate ſlaughter, and thus were the children of Ammon ſubdued before the children of Jſrael.

Now whan Jephthae came to Miſpa vnto his houſe, beholde, his doughter wente out to mete him with tabrettes and daunces: and ſhe was his onely childe, & he had els neither ſonne ner doughter. And whan he ſawe her, he rente his clothes, & ſayde: Alas my doughter, thou makeſt my hert ſorouſull, and diſcomforteſt me: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the LORDE, and can not call it agayne.

She ſayde: My father, yf thou haſt opened thy mouth vnto the LORDE, then do vnto me as it is proceaded out of ỹ mouth, G acordinge as the LORDE hath auẽged the of thyne enemies the children of Ammon. And ſhe ſayde vnto hir father: Do this for me, geue me lene to go downe vpõ the mountaynes two monethes, that I maye bewepe my virginite with my playfeeres. He ſayde: Go thy waye. And he let her go two monethes. Then wente ſhe with her playefeeres, and bewayled hir mayden heade vpon the mountaynes. And after two monethes ſhe came agayne vnto hir father. And he dyd vnto her acordinge as he had vowed. And ſhe had neuer bene in daunger of eny man. And it was a cuſtome in Jſrael, that the doughters of Jſrael ſhulde go euery yeare, and mourne for the doughter of Jephthae the Gileadite, foure dayes in the yeare.

the children of Ammon, and the LORDE delyuered them in to my hande. Wherfore come ye vp to me, to fighte agaynſt me?

And Jephthae gathered all the men in B
Gilead, & foughte agaynſt Ephraim. And the men in Gilead ſmote Ephraim, becauſe they ſayde: Ye Gileadites are as they ỹ fle awaye before Ephraim, (and dwell) amõge Ephraim & Manaſſe. And the Gileadites toke ỹ ferye of Jordane from Ephraim. Now whã one of ỹ fugitiue Ephraites dyd ſaye: Let me go ouer, ỹ men of Gilead ſayde: Art thou an Ephraite: yf he anſwered: No, they bad him ſaye: Schiboleth, & he ſayde: Siboleth, & coulde not ſpeake it righte: then they toke him, & ſlew him at ỹ ferye of Jordane, ſo ỹ the ſame tyme there fell of Ephraim two & fortye M. Jephthae iudged Jſrael ſixe yeares. And Jephthae ỹ Gileadite dyed, & was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

After him iudged Jſrael one Ebzan of C Bethleem, which had thirtie ſonnes and as many doughters: and his thirtie doughters gaue he forth to mariage, and thirtie doughters toke he from without for his ſonnes, and iudged Jſrael ſeuen yeare, and died, and lyeth in Gilead. The childrē of Ammon also wente ouer Iordane, and fought agaynst Iuda, Ben Iamin, and agaynst the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was very sore troubled.

C Then cryed the childrē of Israel vnto the LORDE, and sayde: We haue synned agaynst the, for we haue forsaken oure God, & serued Baalim. But the LORDE sayde vnto the childrē of Israel: Did not the Egipcias, the Amorites, the childrē of Ammon, ỳ Philistines, the Sidonians, the Amalechites and Maonites oppresse you, and I helped you out of their hande, whan ye cryed vnto me: Yet haue ye forsaken me, and serued other goddes: Therfore wyll I helpe you nemore Deut. 32. e Iere. 2. d Go youre waye, and crye vpon the goddes whom ye haue chosen, let them helpe you in the tyme of youre trouble.

D But the childrē of Israel sayde vnto the LORDE: We haue synned, do thou vnto vs what pleaseth the, onely delyuer vs at this tyme. And they put the straunge goddes frō them, and serued the LORDE, And his soule had pytie on the mysery of Israel.

And the childrē of Ammon called them selues together, and pitched in Gilead: But the childrē of Israel gathered them selues together also, and pitched at Mispa. And ỳ people of the cheffest of Gilead sayde amōge them selues: Who so euer begynneth to fight agaynst the childrē of Ammon, shalbe head ouer all them that dwell in Gilead.

The XI. Chapter.

A Iephthae a Gileadite was a valeaūt man of armes, but an harlottes childe. Gilead begat Iephthae. But whan the wyfe had borne childrē vnto Gilead, and the same wyues childrē were waxē greate, they thrust out Iephtae, and sayde vnto him: Thou shalt not be heire in oure fathers house, for thou art another womās sonne. Thē fled he from his brethrē, and dwelt in the londe of Tob. And there resorted vnto him vagabūdes, and wēte out with him. And after a certayne tyme foughte the childrē of Ammon with Israel.

Now whā the childrē of Ammon foughte thus with Israel, the Elders wente from Gilead to fetch Iephthae out of the londe of Tob, and sayde vnto him: Come, and be oure captayne, and fight agaynst the childrē of Ammon. But Iephthae sayde vnto the Elders of Gilead: Are not ye they that hate me and haue thrust me out of my fathers house, and now come ye to me whan ye are in trouble?

The Elders of Gilead sayde: Therfore now we now againe vnto the, that thou mayest go with vs, and fighte agaynst the childrē of Ammon, and be oure captayne ouer all that dwell in Gilead. Iephthae sayde vnto the Elders of Gilead: Yf ye fetch me agayne to fighte agaynst the childrē of Ammon, and the LORDE delyuer them before me shal I then be youre heade? The Elders of Gilead saide vnto Iephthae: The LORDE be hearer betwene vs, yf we do not as thou hast sayde. So Iephthae wēte with the Elders of Gilead. And the people made him heade and duke ouer them. And Iephthae spake all this before the LORDE at Mispa.

Then sente Iephthae messaungers to the kynge of the childrē of Ammon, and caused to saye vnto him: What hast thou to do with me, that thou cōmest vnto me to fighte agaynst my londe? The kynge of the childrē of Ammō answered Iephthaes messaungers: Because that Israel toke awaye my londe (whan they departed out of Egipte) from Arnon vnto Iabock, and vnto Iordane, gyue it me agayne now therfore peaceably.

But Iephthae sent yet mo messaungers (to ỳ kynge of the childrē of Ammon, which sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth Iephthae: Israel hath taken no londe, nether from the Moabites ner from the childrē of Ammon: for when they departed out of Egipte, Israel walked thorow the wyldernes vnto the reed see, and came to Cades, and sent messaungers to the kynge of the Edomites, and sayde: Let me go thorow thy londe. Is it not so, yf thy God Camos gaue the oughte to possesse, woldest thou not possesse it? What so ever the LORDE oure God hath geuẽ vs before vs to possesse, that shal we conquere and take in possession.

Neuertheles the kynge of the children of Ammon wolde not heare ỳ wordes of Jephthae, which he sent vnto him. Then came ỳ spirite of the LORDE vpon Jephthae, and he wente thorow Gilead and Manasse, and thorow Mispa which lieth in Gilead, and fro Mispa that lieth in Gilead, vnto ỳ children of Ammon.

shulders & loynes: and wēte downe, & dwelt in the stone clyffe at Etam. Then wente the Philistynes vp, and layed sege vnto Juda, & pitched at Lechi. But they of Juda sayde: Wherfore are ye come vp against vs? They answered: we are come vp to bynde Samson, yt we maye do vnto him, as he hath done vnto vs.

C Then wēte there thre M. men of Juda downe to the stone clyffe of Etam, & sayde vnto Samson: Knowest thou not that the Philistynes raigne ouer vs? Wherfore hast thou done this then vnto vs? He sayde: As they dyd vnto me, so haue I done vnto thē agayne. They sayde vnto him: We are come downe to bynde the, & to delyuer yt into the hāde of the Philistynes. Samson sayde vnto thē: Then sweare & promyse me, yt ye wyll not slaye me. They answered him: We wyll not kyll the, we wil but bynde the, & delyuer the into their hande, & wyl not slaye the. And they bounde him with two new coardes & caried him from the stone. And whan he came vnto Lechi, the Philistynes shouted, and rāne vnto him. But yt spirite of yt LORDE came vpon him, & the coardes aboute his armes were like thredes burnt in the fyre, so yt the bondes were lowsed from his hondes.

D And he founde the cheke bone of a deed asse: then put he forth his hande, and toke it, & slewe a thousande men therwith: And Samson sayde: With an olde asses cheke bone, yee euē with the cheke bone of an asse haue I slayne a thousande men. And whan he had sayde yt, he cast yt cheke bone out of his hande, & called the place Ramath Lechi. But whā he was sore a thyrst, he called vpō the LORDE, & saide: Soch greate healthe hast thou geuē by the hāde of thy seruaunt, but now must I dye a thyrst, & fall in to yt hande of yt vncircūcised. Thē God opened a gome tothe in yt chekebone, so yt water wēte out: & whan he dranke, his spirite came agayne, & he was refreßshed. Therfore vnto this daye is ia yet called yt well of yt cheke bone of him yt made intercession. And he iudged Israel in the tyme of the Philistynes twētye yeare.

The XVI. Chapter.

A Samson wente vnto Gasa, & there he sawe an harlot, & laye with her. Thē was it saide vnto the Gasites: Samson is come hither. And they compaßed him aboute, & caused to laye wayte for him prevely, & watched all the nighte in the gate of yt cite, & all that nighte they helde them styll, & sayde: Abyde, tomorow whan it is lighte, we wyll slaye him. But Samson laye vnto mydnighte, then rose he at mydnighte, & toke holde on both yt syde portes of yt gate of the cite, w both the postes, & lifte them out with the barres, & layed them vpon his shulders, & bare them vp to yt toppe of yt mount ouer agaynst Hebron.

After this he fell in to the loue of a woman by yt broke of Sorek, whose name was Dalila, vnto whom the prynces of the Philistynes came vp, and sayde vnto her: Perswade him, and loke wherin he hath soch greate strēgth, & how we maye ouercome him, yt we mighte bynde him & subdue him, so wyll we gene the euery man a M. and an C. syluerlinges. And Dalila sayde vnto Samson: I praye the tell me, wherin thy greate strēgth is, & how thou mightest be bounde to be subdued. Samson sayde vnto her: Yf I were bounde with seuē roapes of fresh senewes, which are not yet dryed vp, I shulde be weake, and as another man. Thē the prynces of the Philistynes broughte vp vnto her seuen new roapes, which were not yet dryed vp, And she bounde him therwith. (But there was wayte layed for him besyde her in the chamber) and she sayde vnto him: The Philistynes vpon the Samson. Neuertheles he brake the roapes in sunder, euē as a twyned threde breaketh, whan it hath catched the heate of the fyre. And it was not knowne wherin his strength was.

Then sayde Dalila vnto Samson: behold, thou hast begyled me & dyssembled with me: tell me yet, wherwithall mayest thou be bounde? He answered her: Yf they bounde me with new coardes, wherwith no labor hath bene done, I shulde be feble, & as another man. Then toke Dalila new coardes, & bounde him withall, and sayde: The Philistynes vpō the Samson (but there was wayte layed for him in the chamber.) And he brake them from his armes, euen as it had ben a threde.

Dalila sayde vnto him: Yet hast thou begyled me & dessembled w me: O tell me yet, wherwithall mightest thou be bounde? He answered her: Yf thou playtest seuē hayres locke of my heade together in a fyllet, and fastenest them in with a nayle (I shulde be weake.) And she saide vnto him: The Philistynes vpō the Samson. But he awaked out of his slepe, & drue out yt playted hayres locke with the nale and the fyllet.

Thē sayde she vnto him: How cāst thou saye yt thou louest me, where as thine hert is not yet with me? Thre tymes hast thou dissceaued me, and not tolde me wherin thy greate strengthe is. So whan she was euery daye importune vpon him & her wordes, & wolde not let him haue rest, his soule was sycke euen vnto the deathe, & he shewed her his whole hert, & sayde vnto her: There came neuer rasoure vpon my heade, for I am a Nazarey of God fro my mothers wombe. If I were shauen, my strengthe shulde departe fro me, so that I shulde be weake, and as all other men. Now whan Dalila sawe that he had opened all his hert vnto her, she sent & called for the princes of the Philistynes, & sayde: Come yet once vp, for he hath opened his whole hert vnto me.

Then came the princes of the Philistynes vp vnto her, & broughte the money with them in their handes. And she made him to slepe vpon hir lappe, & called one which shaue of the seuen hayre lockes of his heade. And she beganne to vexe him. And his strengthe departed fro him. And she sayde vnto him: The Philistynes vpon the Samson. Now whā he awoke out of his slepe, he thoughte: I will go forth as I haue done a fore tyme, & ease my selfe, & knewe not that the LORDE was departed from him. But the Philistynes toke him, & put out his eyes, and broughte him downe to Gasa, & bounde him with fetters, and made him to grynde in the preson. But the heer of his heade beganne to growe agayne, where it was shauen of.

Whan the princes of the Philistynes were gathered together, to make a greate sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to be ioyfull, they sayde: Oure god hath delyuered Samson oure enemye into oure hande. Like wyse whan the people sawe him, they praysed their god, & sayde: Oure god hath delyuered into oure handes oure enemye, the destroyed oure londe, & slewe many of vs. Now whan their hert was ioyfull, they sayde: Let vs fetch Samson, that he maye make some pastyme before vs. Then fetched they Samson out of the preson, & he made pastyme before them. And they set him betwene two pilers. But Samson sayde vnto the lad that led him by the hande: Let me touche the pilers wher vpon the house stondeth, that I maye leane ther vnto. As for the house, it was full of men & wemen. All the princes of the Philistynes were there also, and vpon the rofe were aboute a thre thousande men and wemen, which beheelde what pastyme Samson made.

But Samson called vpon the LORDE, & sayde: O LORDE LORDE, thynke vpon me, & strengthe me but this once O God I beseke the, that for both myne eyes I maye auēge me on the Philistynes. And he toke holde of the two myddelers, that the house stode vpon & was holden by, the one in his righte hāde, & the other in his lefte, & saide: My soule dye with the Philistynes, & he bowed him selfe mightely: Then fell the house vpon the princes & vpon all the people that were therin, so that there were mo of the slayne which dyed in his deathe, the he slewe whyle he lyued. Then came his brethren downe and all his fathers house, and toke him, and caried him vp, and buried him in the graue of his father Manoah betwene Zarga and Esthaol. He iudged Israel twenty yeare.

The XVII. Chapter.

A There was a man vpō mount Ephraim, named Micha, which sayde vnto his mother: The thousande and hundreth syluerlinges which thou hast taken vnto the, & swome, and spoken of before myne eares: beholde, the same money is by me, I haue taken it vnto me. Then sayde his mother: The blessinge of the LORDE haue thou my sonne. So he gaue his mother the thousande & hundreth syluerlinges a gayne. And his mother saide: That money haue I sanctified vnto the LORDE with my hande for my sonne, to make a molten ymage: therfore I gene it the agayne. Neuertheles he delyuered the money agayne vnto his mother.

B Then toke his mother two hundreth syluerlinges, & put them forth to the goldsmyth, which made a molten ymage, that was afterwarde in Michas house. And thus the man Micha had a gods house, & made an ouerbody cote, & Idols, and fylled the handes of one of his sonnes, that he mighte be his prest. At the tyme was there no kynge in Israel, & euery man dyd the thinge that was righte in his awne eyes. There was a yōge man of Bethleem Juda, amōge the kynreds of Juda, and he was a Leuite, and was a straunger there. The same wente out of the cite of Bethleem Juda, to walke whither he coulde. Iud. 18. a and 21. d

C And whā he came vp to mount Ephraim vnto the house of Micha, to go on his iourney, Micha axed him: Whence cõmest thou? He answered him: I am a Leuite of Bethleem Juda, and am seeke ynge where I can. Micha sayde vnto him: Tary with me, thou shalt be my father and my preist, I will geue the every yeare ten syluerlinges and thy appoynted rayment, and meate and drynke: and the Leuite wente on. And the Leuite agreed to abyde with the man: and he helde the yonge man, as one of his owne sonnes. And Micha fylled the Leuites hande, that he might be his preist, and so he was in Michas house. And Micha sayde: I am sure the LORDE will do me good now, that I haue a Leuite to my preist.

The XVIII. Chapter.

A IN that tyme was there no kynge in Israel. And the tribe of the Damites sought them an enheritaunce to dwell in, for vnto that daie there was no enheritaunce fallen vnto them amonge the tribes of Israel. Iudi. 19.d And the childrē of Dan sent out of their kynreds fyue captaynes (which were men of armes) from Zarga and Esthaol, to spye and search out the londe. And they sayde vnto them: Go youre waie, and search out the londe. And they came vp to mount Ephraim in to the house of Micha, and taried there all nighte. And whyle they were there by Michas hus holde, they knewe the voyce of the yonge man the Leuite, and sayde vnto him: Who broughte the hither? What makest thou here? and why woldest thou come hither?

B He answered them: Thus and thus hath Micha done vnto me, and hath hyred me to be his preist. They sayde vnto him: Gape at God, that we maye perceaue, whether oure iourney which we go, shal prospere well or not. The preist answered them: Go youre waye in peace, youre iourney that ye go, is before the LORDE. Then the fyue men wente their waye, and came vnto Lais, and sawe that the people which was therin, dwelt sure, euen as the Sidonians, at rest, and careles, and that there was no lorde in the londe to vexe them, and were farre from the Sidonias, and had nothinge to do with eny man.

C And they came to their brethrē to Zarga and Esthaol. And their brethren saide vnto them: How is it by you? They sayde: Arise, let vs go vp vnto them, for we haue sene the londe, that it is a very good londe: make haist therfore, and be not slacke to go, that ye maye come to take possession of the londe. Whan ye come, ye shall come to a careles people, and the londe is wyde: for God hath delyuered this place in to yor hande, where nothinge wanteth of all that is vpon earth.

Then wente there thence out of the kynreds of Dan from Zarga and Esthael, fyue hundreth men ready wapened to the warre, and wente vp, and pitched at Kiriath Jearim in Juda: therfore called they the same place, the hooste of Dan, vnto this daye, which is behinde Kiriath Jearim.

And fro thence they wente vp vnto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Micha. Then answered the fyue men that were ouer to spye the londe of Lais, and sayde vnto their brethren: Knowe ye not that in these houses there is an overbody cote, Idols, and molten ymages? Now maye ye loke what ye haue to do. They departed thence, and came to the house of the yonge man the Leuite in Michas house, and saluted him frendly. But the fyue hundreth men, which were of the childrē of Dan, stode ready harnessed before the gate. And the fyue men that were gone out to spye the londe, were vp, and entred thither, and toke the ymage, the overbody cote, and the molten Idols. In the meane whyle stode the preist at the gate, with the fyue hundreth men harnessed.

Now whan these were come in to Michas house, and toke the ymage, the overbody cote, and the molten Idols, the preist sayde vnto them: What do ye? They answered him: Holde thy peace, and laye thine hande vpon thy mouth, and go with vs, that thou mayest be oure father and preist. Is it better for the to be preist in one mans house, then amonge a whole tribe and kynred in Israel? This pleased the preist well, and he toke both the overbody cote, and the Idols, and the ymage, and came in amonge the people. And whan they turned them and wente thence, they sent their children, and catell, and soch precious thynges as they had, before them.

Whan they were come farre now from the house of Micha, the men that were in Michas houses gathered the together by Michas house, and folowed the childrē of Dan, and cried vpon the childrē of Dan. They turned their faces aboute, and sayde vnto Micha: What ayleth the, that thou makest soch a crienge? He answered: Ye haue taken awaye my goddes, and the preist, and are goinge yor waie, and what haue I behynde? What is here? And yet ye saye vnto me: What ayleth the? But the childrē of Dan saide vnto him: Let not thy voyce be herde amōge vs, that some wrothfull mē thrust not at the, and so that soule and the soule of thy house be destroyed. So the childre of Dan wente on their waye. And Micha, whan he sawe ỳ they were to stronge for him, turned backe, and came agayne to his house.

G But they tooke that Micha had made, & the preest whom he had, & came vnto Lais, to a quyete carelesse people, and slewe them with the edge of the swerde, and burnt the ci te with fyre, and there was no man to dely-uer them: for they laye farre frō Sidon, and had to do with no man. And they laye in the valley which is besyde Beth Rehob. Then buylded they the cite, & dwelte therin, & called it Dan, after the name of their father Dan, whom Israel begat. And ỳ cite was called Lais afore tyme.

And the childre of Dan set vp the ymage for them, and Jonathan ỳ sonne of Gerson the sonne of Manasse, & his sonnes were preestes amōge the trybe of ỳ Danites, vnto the tyme ỳ they were led awaye captyue out of the londe. And thus they set awaye the ymage of Micha, which he had made, as longe as ỳ house of God was at Silo.

The XIX. Chapter.

AT the same tyme was there no kynge in Israel, and there was a man of Le-ui, which was a straūger besyde mount Ephraim, and had taken him a cōcubine of Bethleem Juda to wife: And whā she had played the harlot besyde him, she runne frō him to hir fathers house vnto Bethleem Ju da, & was there foure wonethes longe. And hir husbāde gat him vp, & wente after her, to speake frēdly wt her, & to fetch her agayne, had a seruaunt & a couple of asses wt him.
And she led him into hir fathers house. But whan the damsels father sawe him, he was glad, & receaued him: & his father in lawe, ỳ the damsels father kepte him, so ỳ he nayed three dayes wt him: thus they ate and dronke, and remayned there all nighte.

D But on ỳ fourth daye he gat him vp early, & wolde go his wayes. Then sayde ỳ damsels father vnto his sonne in lawe: Refresh thine hert first wt a morsell of bred, and then shal ye go. And they sat them downe, & ate and dronke both together: Then sayde the damsels father vnto the man: Oh tarye all nighte, ỳ we maie refresh thine hert. But ỳ mā arose, & wolde nedes go. And his father in lawe constrayned him to tarye all nighte.
On the fifth daye in the mornynge he gat him vp, and wolde be gone. Then sayde the damsels father: I praye the comforte thine hert, & let vs tary tyll ỳ daye be farther past, and so they ate both together.

And the man gat him vp, and wolde go C with his concubyne and with his seruaunt.
But his father in lawe the damsels father, saide vnto him agayne: Lo, the daye is spen te, & it begynneth to be euen, tary all nighte beholde, here is lodginge yet this daye, abyde here this nighte, it shal refresh thine hert:
tomorow by tymes get yow vp, and go youre waye vnto thy tente. Nevertheles the man wolde not tary, but gat him vp, and wente his waye, and came ouer agaynse Jebus (that is Jerusalem) and his couple of asses lade, and his concubyne with him.

Now whan they were come nye vnto Je bus, the daye fell fast awaye. And ỳ seruaūt sayde vnto his master: I praie you go on, and let vs turne in to this cite of the Jebusites, and tarye therin all nighte. Notwithstondin D gahis master sayde vnto him: I will not tur ne in to ỳ cite of the alienates, that are not of the childre of Israel, but I will go ouer vnto Gibea. And he sayde vnto his seruaūt: Go than before, that we maye come to some place, and tarye at Gibea or at Ramah all nighte. And they wente on and walked, and the Sonne wente downe vpon thē harde by Gibea, which lyeth in the trybe of Ben Jamin: and they turned in there, ỳ they nighte come in, and tarye at Gibea all nighte. But whan he came in, he sat him downe in ỳ stre te of the cite: for there was no man that wol de lodge them in his house that nighte.

And beholde, then came there an olde mā E from his worke out of the felde in the euenin ge: and he was also of mount Ephraim, and a straūger at Gibea: but ỳ mē of that place were ỳ childre of Jemini. And whan he lifte vp his eies, & sawe the straunger in the strete he sayde vnto him: Whither wilt thou go? & whence cōmest thou? He answered him: We are goinge on oure iourney from Bethel Ju da, vntyll we come besyde mount Ephraim, whēce I am, and wente vnto Bethleem Ju da, and now I go vnto ỳ house of ỳ LORDE & no mā wil harborow me. We haue strawe and prouēder for oure asses, and bred and wy ne for me and thy handmayden, and for the yonge man which is with thy seruaunt, so ỳ we wante nothinge.

The olde man sayde: Peace be with thee, J what soeuer thou wantest, thou findest it wt me, onely tarye not in the strete all nighte.
And he broughte him in to his house, and gi ue the asses prouender: and they washed their fete, and ate & dronke. And whā their hert was now ioyfull, the men of the cyte, the childre of Belial, came, and compassed

the house rounde aboute, and russhed at ỹ dore, and sayde vnto ỹ olde man, which was the good man of ỹ house: Bringe out the mā which is come in to thy house, that we maye knowe him.

Gen. 19. b But the good man of the house wente forth to them, and sayde vnto them: Oh no my brethren, do not so wickedly, consideringe this man is come in to my house: Oh do not soch folye. Beholde, I haue a doughter yet a virgin, and this man hath a cocubine, those wil I bringe forth vnto you, that ye maye humble them, and do with them as ye lyke: but do not soch foly vnto this man. Nevertheles the men wolde not herken vnto him. Then toke ỹ man his concubine and brought her forth vnto them: and they knewe her, and dealte shamefully with her all ỹ nighte vntill the morninge. And whan the morninge brake on, they let her go.

G Then came the woman early in the morninge, and fell downe at the dore of the mās house that her lorde was in, and laye there tyll it was light. Now whan hir lorde rose vp in the morninge, and opened the dore of the house, and went forth to go on his iourney, beholde, his concubyne laye at the dore of the house, and hir handes vpon the threshold. He saide vnto her: stonde vp, let vs go. Neverthelas she gaue him no answere. Then toke he her vp vpon his asse, gat him vp, and wente vnto his place.

Now whan he came home, he toke a swerde, and helde his concubyne, and cut her ī the bones and all in to twolue peces, and sent them in to all the coastes of Israel. Who so ever sawe it, sayde: Soch a thinge hath not bene done nor sene, sence the tyme that ỹ children of Israel departed out of the londe of Egipte, vnto this daye. Now as concernynge this, take youre advysement, and geue yō councell, and shew it forth.

The XX. Chapter.

A Then wente the children of Israel out and gathered a congregacion together as one man, frō Dan vntill Berseba, and from the londe of Gilead vnto the LORDE to Mispa: and there came together of all the quarters of the people, and of all the trybes of Israel in to the congregacion of the people of God, foure hundreth thousande fote men that drue out ỹ swerde. But the children of Ben Jamin herde, how that ỹ children of Israel were gone vp vnto Mispa. And the children of Israel sayde: Tell vs, how happened this euell?

Then answered the Leuite the husbande of the woman that was slayne, and sayde: I came to Gibea in Ben Jamin with myne cubyne, to tary there all nighte, then the ryssins of Gibea gat them vp agaynst me, and compased me aboute in the house by nighte, and thoughte to slaye me, and defyled my cubyne, so that she dyed: then toke I my cubyne, and cut her in peces, and sent the peces in to euery countre of the inheritaunce of Israel: for they haue done an abhominacion and folye in Israel. Beholde, here are ye children of Israel: aduyse you well, and take this matter in hande.

So all the people gat them vp as one mā, and sayde: Noma shal go in to his tente, nor departe to his house, but this wil we do now agaynst Gibea. Let vs caste lot, and take ten men of an hundreth, and an hundreth of a thousande, and a thousande of ten thousande, out of all ỹ trybes of Israel, ỹ they may take fode for ỹ people, to come to do with Gibea Ben Jamin, acordynge to their folye which they haue done in Israel. Thus all the men of Israel beynge confederate, gathered them selues together as one man vnto the cite. And the trybes of Israel sent men thro all the kinreds of Ben Jamin, and caused to saye vnto them: What maner of wickednes is this, that is done amonge you? Delyuer here thefore the men the children of Belial at Gibea, that we maye put them to death, and do awaye the euell out of Israel. Nevertheles the children of Ben Jamin wolde not folowe the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel, but gathered them selues out of ỹ cities vnto Gibea, to go forth in battayll agaynst the children of Israel.

And the same daye were there nombred of the children of Ben Jamin out of the cities, fyue and twentye thousande men, that drue the swerde, besyde the citesyns of Gibea of whom there were tolde seuē hundreth chosen men. And amōge all this people there were chosen out seuen hundreth men, which vsed not the right hande but the lefte, and yet with the slynge coulde they touche an heer, and not mysse. But the men of Israel, besyde them of Bē Jamin, were nōbred foure hūdreth thousande, which drue the swerde, and were all men of armes. And the children of Israel arose, and wente vp to the house of God (in Silo) and axed at God, and sayde: Who shall go vp for vs to beginne the battayll with ỹ children of Ben Jamin? The LORDE saide: Juda shall begynne.

So the children of Israel gat thē vp in ỹ morninge, and pitched ouer against Gibea, and man of Israel were out to fighte with Ben Jamin, and set them selues in araye to fighte agaynst Gibea. Then fell the children of Ben Jamin out of Gibea, and slewe the same daye amonge Israel two & twentye thousande to the grounde.

D But the people of the men of Israel comforted them selues, and made them ready to fighte yet more in the same place, after they had prepared them selues the daye afore. And the children of Israel wente vp, and wepte before the LORDE vntyll the euenynge, and axed at the LORDE, & sayde: Shall we go eny more to fighte with oure brethren the children of Ben Jamin? The LORDE sayde: Go vp vnto them. And whan the children of Israel gat them vp to the childrē of Ben Jamin on ỹ next daye, the Ben Jamites fell out of Gibea agaynst them the same daye, and slewe yet eightene thousande of ỹ children of Israel to the grounde, which all drue the swerde.

Then wente all the children of Israel vp, and all the people, and came to the house of God, and wepte, and taried there before the LORDE, & fasted that daye vntyll the euen, and offred burntoffrynges and deedofferynges before the LORDE. And the children of Israel axed at the LORDE (the Arke of the couenaunt of God was there at that tyme, and Phineas the sonne of Eleasar the sonne of Aaron stode before him at the same tyme) & they sayde: Shal we go forth eny more to fighte with oure brethren the childrē of Ben Jamin, or shal we leaue of? The LORDE sayde: Go vp, tomorow wyll I delyuer them in to youre handes.

E And the children of Israel set a preuy watch agaynst Gibea rounde aboute, and so the children of Israel wente vp to the children of Ben Jamin on the thirde daye, and set them selues in araye agaynst Gibea like as the other two tymes afore. Thē came the children of Ben Jamin out agaynst the people, & brake out of the cite, & beganne to slaye certayne wounded of the people (like as the other two times afore) in the felde vpon two stretes: wher of one goeth towarde Bethel, the other vnto Gilead vpon a thirtye men in Israel. Then thought the childrē of Ben Jamin: They are smytten before vs like as afore. But the childrē of Israel sayde: Let vs flye, that we maie prouoke them out of the cite in to the hye stretes.

Then all the men of Israel gat them vp from their place, and prepared them selues vnto Baal Thamar. And the hinder watch of Israel brake out of their place, from ỹ caue of Gaba, and came vnto Gibea, twentye thousande chosen men out of all Israel, so that it was a sore battayll: but they knewe not that the euell shulde happen vnto them. Thus the LORDE smote Ben Jamin before the children of Israel, so that the same daye the children of Israel destroyed fyue & twentye thousande and an hundreth men in Ben Jamin, which all drue the swerde.

For whan the childrē of Ben Jamin sawe that they were smitten, the men of Israel gaue them rowme (to flye). For they trusted to the watch, which they had sett by Gibea. And the watch made haist also, & brake forth vnto Gibea, and wente vpon it, and smote all the cite with the edge of ỹ swerde. They were appoynted betwene them selues the men of Israel and the hynder watch, to fall vpon them with the swerde, whan the smoke of the cite arose. Now whan the men of Israel turned them in the battayll, and Ben Jamin beganne to smyte the wounded in Israel vpon a thirtie men, and thoughte, they are smytten before vs, like as in the battayll afore, then beganne there a piler of smoke to arise vp from the cite. And Ben Jamin loked behinde them: and beholde, the flamme of ỹ cite wente vp vnto heauen. And the men of Israel turned them, and were fearce vpon ỹ men of Ben Jamin: for they sawe that the euell wolde happen vnto them.

And they turned them before the men of G Israel in the waye to the wylderneſſe, but the battayll folowed vpon them. And them of the cite destroyed they amōge them. And they compased Ben Jamin rounde aboute, and folowed vpon them vnto Menuah, and trode them downe tyll afore Gibea eastwarde. And there fell of Ben Jamin eightene thousande men, which were all men of armes.

Whan the remnaunt of Ben Jamin sawe that, they turned them and fled towarde the wilderneſſe vnto the stonye rocke of Rimon.

But in the same strete they slewe fyue thousande men, and folowed vpon them vnto Gideom, and slewe two thousande of thē: and so there fell the same daye of Ben Iamin fyue and twenty thousande men which drue ỳ swerde, and were all mē of armes. Onely sixe hundreth men turned backe, and fled towarde the wylderneſſe vnto the stonye rocke of Rimon, and abode in the rocke of Rimon foure monethes. And the men of Israel came agayne to the children of Ben Iamin, and smote them that were in the cite with ỳ edge of the swerde, both mē and catell and all that was founde: and what soeuer was foūde in the cite, they cast it in to the fyre.

The XXI. Chapter.

A THe men of Israel had swornē at Mispa, and sayde: No man shal geue his doughter to the Ben Iamites to wife. And the people came to the house of God (in Silo) ꝛ abode there before God vntill the euenynge, and lifte vp their voyce, and wepte sore, and sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, wherfore is this come to passe in Israel this daye: But on the morow the people gat thē vp early, and builded there an altare, and offred burntofferinges and deedofferynges.

And the children of Israel sayde: Where is there eny mā of the trybes of Israel, that is not come vp with the congregacion vnto the LORDE: For there was a greate ooth made, that who so came not vp to Mispa vnto the LORDE, shulde dye the deeth. And the children of Israel were sory for Ben Iamin their brother, and sayde: This daye is there one trybe lesse in Israel. How wyll we do that the remnaunt maye haue wyues: For
B we haue swornē by the LORDE, that we wyl not geue thē wyues of oure doughters. And they saide: Where is there eny mā of the trybes of Israel, that is not come vp to the LORDE vnto Mispa: And beholde, there was not one man of the citesyns of Iabes in Gilead.

Then sent the congregacion twolue thousande men of armes thither, and commaunded them, and sayde: Go youre waye, and smite the citesyns of Iabes in Gilead with the swerde, the wemen also and the children, but
Num. 31. c so that ye do after this maner: ✻ Se that ye damne all them that are males, and all the wemen that haue lyen with men. And amonge the citesins of Iabes in Gilead they foūde foure hundreth damsels, which were virgins, and had lyen with no man: those they broughte in to the hoost vnto Silo, which lyeth in the londe of Canaan.

Then sent the whole congregacion, and caused to talke with the children of Ben Iamin, which were in the stonie rocke of Rimō and called vnto them frendly. So the children of Ben Iamin came agayne at the same tyme, and thy gaue them wemen which they had of the wemen of Iabes in Gilead, and founde no mo after that maner. Then were the people sory for Ben Iamin, that ỳ LORDE had made a gappe in the trybes of Israel. And the Elders of the congregacō sayde: What wil we do, that the remnaunt maye haue wyues also: for the wemē in Ben Iamin are destroied, and they sayde: The enheritaunce of them of Ben Iamin that are escaped, must nedes remayne, that there be not a trybe destroyed out of Israel: ꝛ we can not geue them oure doughters to wiues. For the children of Israel haue swornē and sayde: Cursed be he that geueth a wyfe to the Ben Iamites.

And they sayde: Beholde there is a yearly feast of the LORDE at Silo, which lieth on the northsyde of the Gods house, and on the eastside of the strete as a mā goeth from Bethel vnto Sichem, and lieth on the south side of Libona. And they commaunded the children of Ben Iamin, ꝛ sayde: Go youre waye, and wayte in the vnyardes. And whan ye se that the doughters of Silo go forth by cōpanyes to daunse, get you out of the vnyardes, and euery man take him a wyfe of the doughters of Silo, and go youre waye in to the lōde of Ben Iamin. As for their fathers and brethren, whan they come to lawe with vs, we wyll saye vnto them: Be fauourable to them, for they haue nōt taken thē in battaill: but ye gaue thē not vnto them by time, and it is youre faute.

The children of Ben Iamin did so, and accordinge to their nombre toke them wyues from the daunse, whom they caught by violence, and wente their waye, ꝛ dwelt in their awne inheritaunce, and buylded cities and dwelt therin. The children of Israel also gat them vp from thence at the same time, euery one to his trybe and to his kinred, and departed thēce, euery man to his awne inheritaunce. ✻ At ỳ time was there no kynge in Israel, and euery man dyd ỳ thinge ỳ was right in his awne eies.

The ende of the boke of the Iudges, called Iudicum.

The boke of Ruth.

What this boke conteyneth.

Chap. I. Elimelech departeth from Bethleem with his wife and two sonnes in to the londe of the Moabites, where the father dyeth and both the sonnes. Ruth the wife of the one sonne goeth home with hir mother in lawe.

Chap. II. Ruth gathereth vp eares of corne in the felde of Boos hir housbandes kynsman.

Chap. III. Ruth lyeth her downe in the barne at Boos fete, and he geueth her good wordes, and laderth her with fire measures of barlye.

Chap. IIII. Boos marieth Ruth, which beareth him Obed Dauids graundfather.

The first Chapter.

IN ye tyme whan the Judges ruled, there was a derth in the londe. And there wente a man from Bethleem Juda to take his iourney into the londe of the Moabites wt his wife and two sonnes, which man was called Elimelech, and his wife Naemi, & his two sonnes, the one Mahelon, and the other Chilion: these were Ephrates of Bethleem Juda. And whan they came in to the londe of the Moabites, they dwelt there. And Elimelech Naemis housbande dyed, & she was left behinde wt hir two sonnes, which toke Moabitish wyues: the one was called Arpa, the other Ruth. And whan they had dwelt there ten yeare, they dyed both, Mahelon and Chilion, so that the woman remayned desolate of both hir sonnes and hir housbande.

Then gat she her vp wt both hir sonnes wyues, & wente agayne out of the lode of the Moabites (for she had herde in the londe of the Moabites, how the LORDE had visited his people & geuen them bred) & so she departed from the place where she was, & both hir sonnes wyues wt her. And as they wete by the waye to come agayne into the londe of Juda, she sayde vnto both hir sonnes wyues: Go yo waye, & turne backe ether of you to hir mothers house: the LORDE shewe mercy vpon you, as ye haue done on the dead & on me. The LORDE graunte you, that ye maie fynde rest ether of you in hir housbades house (whom ye shal get) and she kyssed them.

Then lift they vp their voyce, and wepte, & sayde vnto her: We wil go with the vnto the people. But Naemi sayde: Turne agayne my doughters, why wolde ye go with me? How can I haue children eny more in my body, to be youre housbandes? Turne agayne my doughters, and go youre waye, for I am now to olde to take an housbande.

And though I shulde saye: I hope this night to take an housbande & to bringe forth children, yet coulde ye not tary till they were growne vp: for ye shulde be to olde, so that ye coulde haue no housbandes. No my doughters, therfore am I sory for you, for the hade of the LORDE is gone forth ouer me.

Then lifte they vp their voyce, and wepte yet more, and Arpa kyssed hir mother in lawe (and turned backe againe) but Ruth abode styll by her. Neuertheles she sayde: Beholde, thy syster in lawe is turned backe vnto hir people and to hir god, turne thou againe also after thy sister in lawe. Ruth answered: Speake not to me therof, that I shulde forsake the, and turne backe from the: whither so euer thou goest, thither wil I go also: and loke where thou abydest, there wil I abide also: Thy people is my people, & thy God is my God. Loke where thou diest, there wil dye, and euen there wil I also be buried. The LORDE do this and that vnto me, death only shal departe vs.

Now whan she sawe, that she was stedfastly mynded to go with her, she spake no more to her therof. So they wente on both together till they came vnto Bethleem. And whan they were come in to Bethleem, the whole cite was moued ouer them, and sayde Is not this Naemi? Neuertheless she sayde vnto them: call me not Naemi, but Mara: for the Allmightie hath made me very sory. I departed full, but the LORDE hath brought me home agayne empty. Why call ye me then Naemi? whā the LORDE hath brought me lowe, and the Allmightie hath made me sory?

It was aboute the tyme of the begynninge of the barlye haruest, whan Naemi and his sonnes wife Ruth the Moabitysse, came agayne from the londe of the Moabites vnto Bethleem. There was a kinsman also of the kynred of Elimelech Naemis housbande, whose name was Boos, which was an honest man.

The II. Chapter.

AND Ruth the Moabitisse saide vnto Naemi: Let me go in to the felde, & gather eares of corne, after him, in whose sight I shal finde fauo. She sayde vnto her: Go thy waie my doughter. She wete on, & came & gathered after the reapers in the feld. And it fortuned that the same felde was the enheritaunce of Boos, which was of the kynred of Elimelech, and beholde, Boos came from Bethleem, and sayde vnto the reapers: The LORDE be with you. They answered: The LORDE blesse the. And Boos sayde vnto his yongman which had the oversight of ỳ reapers. Whose damsell is this? The yonge man that was set over ỳ reapers, answered and sayde: It is the damsell the Moabitisse, which came agayne with Naemi from the B londe of the Moabites. And she sayde: Let me plucke vp and gather (I praie the) betwene the sheues after the reapers; and thus is she come, and hath stonde here euer sence the mornynge, and within a litle whyle she wolde have bene gone home agayne.

Then sayde Boos vnto Ruth: Hearest thou my doughter? Thou shalt not come vpon another mans londe to gather, and go not awaye from hence, but tary with my dā sels, and loke where they reape in ỳ felde, go thou after them: for I haue cōmaunded my seruauntes that no man touch the. And yf thou be a thyrst, go thy waye to the vessell & drynke, where my seruauntes drawe. Then fell she downe vpon hir face, and bowed hir self downe to the earth, and sayde vnto him: How have I founde this fauoure in ỳ sighte, that thou woldest knowe me, which am yet a straunger?

C Boos answered and sayde vnto her: It is tolde me altogether, what thou hast done vnto thy mother in lawe after thy hußbādes death, how that thou hast left ỳ father and thy mother, and thy native countre, and art come to a people, whom thou hast not knowne afore. The LORDE recompence the thy doinge, and thy rewarde be parfecte wt the LORDE God of Israel, vnto whom thou art come to put thy trust vnder his wynges. She sayde: let me fynde fauoure (syr) before thyne eyes, for thou hast comforted me, and spoken frendly vnto thy handmaydē, where as I am not yet like one of ỳ handmaydēs.

Boos sayde vnto her: Whan it is eatinge tyme, come hither, and eate of the bred, and dyppe thy morsell in the vyneger. And she sat hir downe besyde the reapers. And he set parched corne before her, and she ate, & was
D satisfyed, and lefte ouer. And whā she rose to gather, Boos commaunded his seruauntes, and sayde: Let her gather betwene the sheues also, and do her no dishonestye: and caste of the sheues vnto her, and let it lye that she maye gather it vp, and se that no man reproue her for it.

So she gathered in the felde vntyll eue and she shaked out what she had gathered, and it was allmost an Epha of barlye: and she toke it vp, and came in to the cite, and shewed hir mother in lawe what she had gathered. She toke forth also, and gaue her of that which was left, wherof she was satisfyed. Thē sayde hir mother in lawe vnto her Blessinge have the man that hath knowne the, where thou hast gathered and laboured this daye.

She tolde hir mother in lawe by whom she had laboured, and sayde: The mans name, by whom I have wroughte to daye, is Boos. Naemi sayde vnto hir doughter in lawe: The blessynge of the LORDE have he, for he hath not lefte of to be mercifull vnto the lyuynge + and to the deed. And Naemi sayde vnto her: The same man belongeth vnto vs, and is oure nye kynsman. Ruth the Moabitisse saide: He saide moreouer vnto me: Thou shalt resorte vnto my seruauntes, tyll they have made an ende of all my harueste. Naemi sayde vnto Ruth hir doughter in lawe: It is better my doughter, that thou go forth with his damsels, lest eny man withstande the in another felde. Thus she kepte her selfe with Boos damsels, so that she gathered vntill the barlye harueste and the wheate harueste was out, and came againe to hir mother in lawe.

The III. Chapter.

AND Naemi hir mother in lawe sayde vnto her: My doughter, I wyll prouyde rest for the, that thou maiest prospere. Boos oure kynsman, by whose damsels thou hast bene, casteth vp barlye now this night in his barne. Bathe thy selfe therfore, and + moyssell the, and put on thy clothes, and go downe vnto the barne, so ỳ nemā knowe the, tyll they have all eaten and dronken.

Whan he layeth him downe then take hede, mark ỳ place where he lyeth downe, and come thou, and take vp the couerynge at his fete, and laye the downe, so shall he tell the what thou shalt do. She sayde vnto her: what so euer thou saiest vnto me, I wil do.

She wente downe to the barne, & dyd all as hir mother in lawe had cōmaunded her. And whā Boos had eatē & dronkē, his hert was mery, & he came and layed him downe behynde a heape of sheues. And she came secretly, and toke vp the coueringe at his fete, and layed hir downe. Now whā it was mid night, the man was afrayed, and groped aboute him, and beholde, a woman laye at his fete. And he sayde: Who art thou? She swered: I am Ruth thy handmayden, sprede ỳ wynges ouer thy hādmayden: for thou art the nexte kynsman.

C He sayde: The LORDES blessinge haue thou my doughter. Thou hast done a better mercy here after then before, ỳ thou art not gone after yonge men, nether riche ner poore.
Feare not nowe my doughter: All ỳ thou hast sayde, will I do for the: for all the cite of my people knoweth, ỳ thou art a vertuous wo-mā. Trueth it is now, ỳ I am a nye kynsmā, but there is one nyer then I. Tarye thou allnighte. Tomorow yf he take the, well: yf he like not to take ỳ, then wil I take ỳ my selfe, as truly as ỳ LORDE lyueth. Slepe thou tyll ỳ mornynge. And she slepte at his fete D vntyll ỳ morow. And she rose vp or euer one coulde knowe another. And he thoughte thus: That no mā knowe now ỳ there hath come a woman in to the barne, and he sayde:
Reach me the cloke ỳ thou hast on the, & hol de it forth. And she helde it forth. And he meet her sixe measures of barlye, and layed it vpon her, & she wente in to the cite, & came to hir mother in lawe, which sayde: How is it w the my doughter? And she tolde her all ỳ the mā had done vnto her, & sayde: These sixe measures of barlye gaue he me, for he say de: Thou shalt not come emptye vnto ỳ mo ther in lawe. She sayde: Abyde my dough-ter, tyll thou se what ỳ matter wil growe to:
for the man wilt not ceasse, tyll he bringe it to an ende this daye.

The iiij. Chapter.

A BOos wente vp to ỳ gate, and sat him downe there: & beholde, whan ỳ nye kynsman wente by, Boos spake vnto him, & sayde: Come & syt the downe here (and called him by his name.) And he came & sat him downe, & the toke tenmen of the Elders of ỳ cite, & sayde: Syt you downe here. And they sat thē downe. Thē sayde he to the nye kynßman: Naemi which is come againe frō d the lōde of the Moabites * offreth to sell ỳ n.b pece of londe, ỳ was oure brothers Eli Me lech, therfore thoughte I to shewe it before thine eares, & to tell the: Yf thou wilt redeme it, then bye it before the citesyns & before the Elders of my people: but yf thou wylt not redeme it, then tell me, ỳ I maie knowe:
for there is no nye kynsmā excepte thou, and I nexte after the.
B He sayde: I wil redeme it. Boos saide: In the daye ỳ thou byest the lōde out of ỳ han de of Naemi, thou must take Ruth also the Moabitisse the wife of the deed, that thou mayest rayse vp a name to ỳ deed in his inhe ritaunce. Thē sayde he: I can not redeme it, lest I happlye destroye myne awne enheritaunce. Redeme thou ỳ I shulde redeme, for I can not redeme it. But this was an olde custome in Israel concernynge the redem yn ge & chaūginge, ỳ all matters mighte be sta ble, the one put of his shue, & gaue it vnto ỳ other: ỳ was the testimony in Israel.
And the nye kynsman sayde vnto Boos:
Bye thou it, & he put of his shue. And Boos sayde vnto the Elders and to all the people:
Ye are witnesses this daie, ỳ I haue bough te out of the hande of Naemi, all that belonged to Eli Melech, and all that was Chi lions and Mahelons: And Ruth the Moa bitisse Mahelons wife, take I to wife, * that Deut.25.
I maye rayse vp a name vnto ỳ deed in his inheritaunce, and that his name be not ro- C ted out from amonge his brethren, and out of the gate of his place: Of this are ye wit nesses. And all the people that was in the ga te with the Elders, saide: We are witnesses.
The LORDE make the woman that comgeue the of this damsell.

So Boos toke Ruth, and she became his wife. And whan he laye with her, the LOR DE graunted her ỳ she conceaued, and bare a sonne. Thē sayde the wemen vnto Naemi: Praysed be the LORDE, which hath not suf D fred a kynsman to ceasse from the at this tyme, that his name maye contynue in Israel:
he shal restore thy life agayne, and prouyde for thine age. For ỳ sonnes wife which hath loued the, hath done him that is better vnto the, then seuen sonnes.
And Naemi toke the childe, and layde it vpon hir lappe, and became the norse of it, and hir neighbours gaue him a name & sayede: There is a childe borne vnto Naemi, and they called his name Obed. The same is the father of Jsai, which is ỳ father of Dauid.

The first Chapter.

THere was a man of Ramathaim Sophim of mount Ephraim, * whose name was Elcana ỹ sonne of Jeroham, ỹ sonne of Elihu, ỹ sonne of Tohu, ỹ sonne of Zuph, ỹ was an Ephrate. And he had two wyues, ỹ one was called Anna, ỹ other Peninna. As for Peninna, she had children, but Anna had no children. And ỹ same man wēte vp frō his cite * at his tyme, to worshippe and to offer vnto the LORDE Zebaoth at Silo. There were the prestes of the LORDE Ophni and Phineas, the two sonnes of Eli. Now whan it came vpon a daye that Elcana offred, he gaue partes vnto his wife Peninna, and to all his sonnes and doughters. But vnto Anna he gaue one deale heuely, for he loued Anna. Neuertheles * the LORDE had closed hir wombe, ỹ hir aduersary cast her in the tethe with hir vnfrutefulnes, because the LORDE had closed hir wombe: thus dyd she euery yeare, whan they wente vp to the house of the LORDE, and thus she prouoked her. So she wepte, and ate nothinge. But Elcana hir hußbande sayde vnto her: Wherfore wepest thou? and why eatest thou not? And wherfore is thine hert so greued? Am not I better vnto the then ten sonnes?

Then stode Anna vp, whan she had eaten and dronken at Silo. But Eli the prest sat vpon a stole by the poste of the temple of the LORDE. And she was full of heuynes in hir herte, and prayed vnto the LORDE, and wepte, and vowed a vowe, and sayde: O LORDE Zebaoth, yf thou wilt loke vpon the aduersite of thy handmayden, and thynke vpon me, and not forget thy handmayden, and wilt gene thy handmayden a sonne, I wil gene him vnto the LORDE all his life longe, * and there shal no rasoure come vpon his heade. Iud. 13. Num. 6

And whā she had prayed longe before ỹ LORDE, Eli toke hede to hir mouth, for Anna spake in hir hert, hir lippes onely moued, but hir voyce was not herde. Then thoughte Eli she had bene dronken, and sayde vnto her: How longe wilt thou be dronken? Let come from the the wyne that thou hast by the. Neuertheles Anna answered and sayde: No my lorde, I am a sorowfull woman, wyne and stronge drynke haue I not dronken * but haue poured out my hert before ỹ LORDE. Counte not thy handmayden a doughter of Belial: for out of my heuy thoughte and sorow haue I spoken hitherto. Psal. 41.

Eli answered her, and sayde: Go ỹ waye in peace, the God of Israel shal graunte ỹ thy petition that thou hast desyred of him. She sayde: Let thy handmayden fynde fauoure in thy sighte. So the woman wente hir waye and ate, and loked nomore so sorowfully: and on ỹ morow they gat them vp by tymes. And whan they had worshipped before ỹ LORDE, they returned, and came home vnto Ramatha.

And Elcana laye with Anna his wife, and the LORDE remembred her. And after certayne dayes, she cōceaued and bare a sonne, and called his name Samuel, for I haue desyred him (sayde she) of the LORDE. And whan the man Elcana wente vp with all his houßholde to offre sacrifice and his vowe vnto the LORDE at soch tyme as ỹ custome was, Anna wente not vp, but sayde vnto hir hußbande: (I wil not go vp) tyll ỹ childe be weened: then will I bringe him, that he maye appeare before the LORDE, and cōtynue there * for euer. Num. 8.

Elcana hir hußbande sayde vnto her: Thē do as thou thynkest best, tary tyll thou haue weened him: but the LORDE perfourme that he hath spoken. So the woman abode, and gaue hir sonne sucke, tyll she weened him. And whan she had weened him, she broughte him vp with her, with thre bullockes, with an Ephi of fyne floure, and a bottell of wyne, and broughte him in to ỹ house of the LORDE at Silo.

Neuertheles the childe was yet but yonge. And they slewe a bullocke, and broughte the childe vnto Eli. And she sayde: O my lorde, as truly as thy soule lyueth my lorde, I am the woman that stode here by ỹ, and made intercession vnto the LORDE, whan I prayed for this childe. Now hath ỹ LORDE graunted me my petition, which I desyred of him, therfore haue I geuen him ouer vnto the LORDE, as longe as he is lent vnto the LORDE. And they worshipped ỹ LORDE there.

The II. Chapter.

A AND Anna prayed, and sayde:
My hert reioyseth in the LORDE, & my horne is exalted in the LORDE.
My mouth is opened wyde vpō myne enemies, for I am glad of thy saluacion.
There is no man holy as the LORDE, for without the is nothinge, and there is no cōforte like vnto oure God.
Let go yo' greate boostinge of hye thynges, let go out of youre mouth that olde byworde: for the LORDE is a God ỹ knoweth all thinges, & he hath set all workes in order.
The bowe of the mightie is broken, and the weake are gyrded aboute with strength.
They that were fylled afore, are solde for bred: and they that were hongrie, are satisfied: vntyll the baren bare seuen, and tyll she that had many childrē, was become weake.
B * The LORDE slayeth, and geueth life: he cut. 12.f ledeth vnto hell, and bryngeth out agayne.
ip. 15.c The LORDE maketh poore and maketh
ob. 13.a riche: he bryngeth lowe and exalteth.
al. 112.a * He taketh vp the neady out of the dust, and liseth vp ỹ poore out of the myre, that he maye set them amonge the princes, and to let them inheret the seate of honoure: for the foundacions and corners of the worlde are the LORDES, and he hath set the compase of the earth theron.
He shall preserue the fete of his sayntes, but ỹ vngodly shal be put to sylēce in darcnesse. * For there is no mā that can do ought cut 8.d te of his owne power.
The LORDES enemies shal be put in feare before him, he shal thōder vpō thē in heauē.
The LORDE shall iudge the endes of the worlde, & shal geue strēgth vnto his kynge, & shall exalte the horne of his anoynted.
C Elcana wente his waye to Ramath vnto his house. And the childe became the LORDES mynister before Eli the preist. But Elis sonnes were the childrē of Belial, and knewe not the LORDE, ner the dutye of the prestes vnto the people: but whan eny man wolde offre ought, the prestes boye came, whyle the flesh was seethinge, and had a three forked flesh hoke in his hande, and thrust it in to the cauldron, or ketell, or panne, or pot: and loke what he drue forth with the flesh hoke, that toke the preist therof. Thus dyd they vnto all Israel, which came thither vnto Silo.
Like wyse, or ever they burned the fatt, the prestes lad came, and sayde vnto him that broughte the offerynge: Geue me the flesh, that I maye roste it for the preist, for he wyl receaue no sodden flesh of ỹ, but raue. Yf eny man sayde then vnto him: Let the fat burne as it oughte to do this daye, and afterwarde take what thine hert desyreth, then sayde he vnto him: Thou shalt geue me euen now: yf no, I wyll take it from the by violēce. Therfore was the synne of ỹ childrē very greate before the LORDE, for ỹ people spake euell of ỹ meatofferynge of ỹ LORDE. But Samuel was a mynister before the LORDE, and the childe was gyrded with an ouer body cote of lynnen. His mother also made him a litle cote of sylke, and broughte it vp vnto him at cōuenient tymes, whē she wente vp with hir hussbande to offer ỹ offerynge in due season.
And Eli blessed Elcana & his wife, and sayde: The LORDE geue the sede of this woman, for this good that thou hast lent vnto the LORDE. And they wēte vnto their place. And the LORDE vysited Anna, so that she cōceaued and bare thre sonnes and two doughters: but the childe Samuel grewe vp with the LORDE.
As for Eli, he was very olde, and herde of all that his sonnes dyd vnto all Israel, and how they laye with the wemen that serued God before the dore of the tabernacle of witnesse, and he sayde vnto them: wherfore do ye this? For I heare of youre euell conuersacion of all this people. Nay so my childrē, this is no good reporte that I heare, ye cause the people of the LORDE to offende. * Yf eny mā synne agaynst a man, the iudge cāne dresse it. But yf eny mā synne agaynst ỹ LORDE, who can redresse it? Neuertheles they herkened not vnto the voyce of their father, for the LORDES wyll was to slaye them. But the childe Samuel wente and grewe vp, & was accepted of the LORDE & of mē.
There came a man of God to Eli, and sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I shewed my selfe vnto thy fathers house, whan they were yet in Egipte vnder ỹ house of Pharao, and chose him there vnto my selfe before all the trybes of Israel, for the preisthode, that he shulde offer vpon myne altare, and burne incense, and weere the ouer body cote before me, * and vnto thy fathers house I gaue all the offeringes of the childrē of Israel. Why layest thou thy selfe then agaynst my sacrifices and meatofferinges, which I commaunded (to offer) in the habitacion: and thou honourest thy sonnes more then me, that ye might fede youre selues with the firstlinges of all the meatoffrynges of my people of Israel?

Therfore sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: I haue spoken, that thy house and thy fathers house shulde walke before me for euer. But now sayeth the LORDE: That be farre fro me. But who so euer honoureth me, him wil I honor also: as for those ỳ despyse me, they shal not be regarded. Behold, * the tyme shal come, that I wyll breake thyne arme in two, and the arme of thy fathers house, so that there shal no oldeman be in thy house. And thou shalt se thine aduersaries in the habitacion, in all the good of Israel, and there shal neuer be olde man in thy fathers house. Yet wyll I not rote out euery man of the fro myne altare, but ỳ thyne eyes maye be consumed, & that ỳ soule maye be sory: * & a greate multitude of thy house shal dye, whan they are come to be men.

And this shalbe a token vnto the, that shal come vpon thy two sonnes Ophni and Phineas: They shall both dye in one daye. * But vnto my selfe I wyll rayse vp a faithfull preest, which shal do accordinge as it is in my hert & in my soule: vnto him wyll I buylde a sure house, that he maye allwaye walke before myne anoynted. And who so euer remayneth of thy house, shall come and worshipe him for a sylver peny and for a pece of bred, and shall saye: I praye the leaue me to one preestes parte, that I maye eate a morsell of bred.

The III. Chapter.

AND whan the childe Samuel mynistred vnto the LORDE vnder Eli, the worde of ỳ LORDE was deare at the same tyme, nether was there eny sure & manifest vision. And it fortuned at the same tyme, that Eli laye in his place, * and his eyes beganne to be dymme, so that he coulde not se. And Samuel had layed him downe in ỳ temple of the LORDE (where the Arke of God was) before ỳ lampe of God was put out. And the LORDE called Samuel. He answered: Beholde, here am I. And he ranne vnto Eli, & sayde: Beholde, here am I, thou hast called me. But he saide: I haue not called the, go thy waye agayne, and laye the downe to slepe. And he wente his waye, and layed him downe to slepe.

The LORDE called againe: Samuel. And Samuel arose, & wente vnto Eli, & sayde: Beholde, here am I, thou hast called me. Neuertheles he sayde: My sonne, I haue not called the. So thy waye agayne, and laye the downe to slepe. As for Samuel, he knewe not the LORDE as yet, & the worde of ỳ LORDE was not yet shewed vnto him. And ỳ LORDE called Samuel ỳ thirde tyme. And he arose, & wente vnto Eli, & sayde: Beholde, here am

I, thou hast called me. Then perceaued Eli ỳ the LORDE called ỳ childe, & he sayde vnto him: Go thy waye agayne, & laye the downe to slepe: and yf the LORDE call the eny more, then saye: Speake LORDE, for ỳ seruaunt heareth. Samuel wēte his waye, and layed him downe in his place. Thē came ỳ LORDE, & stode, and called like as afore: Samuel, Samuel. And Samuel sayde: Speake (LORDE) for thy seruaunt heareth. And the LORDE saide vnto Samuel: Beholde, I do a thinge in Israel, ỳ who so euer shall heare it, both his eares shal glowe. In ỳ daie will I rayse vp vpon Eli * all ỳ I haue spokē cōcernynge his house. I will take it in hande, & perfourme it: for I haue tolde him, ỳ I wil be Judge ouer his housē for euer, because of the wickednes, ỳ he knewe how shamefully his childrē behaued thēselues, and hath not once loked sowerly therto. Therfore haue I swome vnto ỳ house of Eli, ỳ this wickednes of ỳ house of Eli shall not be recōcyled nether wt sacrifice ner wt meatoffringe for euer. And Samuel laye vnto ỳ morow, & opened the dores of the house of the LORDE.

But Samuel was afrayed to tell the vysion vnto Eli. Then Eli called him & sayde: Samuel my sonne. He answered: Beholde, here am I. He sayde: What is ỳ worde ỳ the LORDE hath spokē vnto the? hyde it not fro me. God do this & that vnto ỳ, yf thou hyde oughte fro me, of all that he hath talked wt the. Then Samuel tolde him altogether, & hyd nothinge from him. He sayde: It is the LORDE, let him do what pleaseth him.

Samuel grewe vp, & the LORDE was wt him, & there fell none of all his wordes vpō the earth. And all Israel frō Dan vnto Ber saba, knewe ỳ Samuel was faithfull to be a prophet of the LORDE. And the LORDE appeared agayne at Silo: for the LORDE shewed him selfe vnto Samuel at Silo, thorow the worde of the LORDE.

The IIII. Chapter.

AND all Israel spake of Samuel. And Israel wente forth to the battayll against the Philistynes, & pitched beside the * Helpe stone: As for the Philistynes, they pitched at Aphek, and prepared them selues agaynst Israel. And whan the battayll beganne, the hooste was denyded, so that Israel was smytten before the enemies, & in the edge in the felde they slewe aboute a foure thousande men. And whan the people came in to the hooste, the Elders of Israel sayde: Wherfore hath the LORDE caused vs to be smytten this daie before the Philistynes? Let vs take vnto vs the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt from Silo, & let it come amõge vs, that it maye helpe vs from the hande of oure enemies. And the people sent vnto Silo, & caused to fet thẽce the Arke of ỹ couenaunt of the LORDE Zebaoth, that sytteth vpon the Cherubins. And with the Arke of the couenaunt of God there were the two sonnes of Eli, Ophni and Phineas.

B And whan the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE came in to the hoost, all Israel shouted wt a greate shoute, so that the earth sounded withall. But whan the Philistynes herde ỹ noyse of ỹ shoute, they sayde: what noyse is this of soch greate shoutinge in the tentes of the Hebrues? And whan they perceaued ỹ the Arke of the LORDE was come in to the hoost, they were afrayed & sayde: God is come in to the hoost. And they sayde moreouer: Wo vnto vs, for it hath not bene thus afore tyme. Wo vnto vs. Who wil delyuer vs frõ the hande of these hye goddes? These are the goddes that smote Egipte wt all maner of plages in the wylderneße. Be stronge now and manly ye Philistynes, that ye serue not the Hebrues * as they haue serued you. Be manly and fighte.

Iud.13.a

C Then foughte the Philistynes, & Israel was smytten, & euery one fled vnto his tẽte, & there was a very greate slaughter, so that there fell of Israel thirtye thousande fote mẽ, & the Arke of God was takẽ, * & the two sonnes of Eli, Ophni and Phineas dyed.

1.Re.2.g

Then rãne there one of Ben Jamin out of the fore fronte of the battayl, & came vnto Silo the same daye, & had his clothes rente, and had earth vpõ his heade. And whan he came in, Heli sat vpon the seate, that he mighte loke towarde the waye: for his herte was fearfull aboute ỹ Arke of God. And whan the man came in to the cite, he tolde it forth: and all the cite cried. And whan Eli herde ỹ noyse of the cryẽge, he axed: What noyse of busynes is this? The man came haistely, and tolde Eli. (As for Eli, he was fourescore and eightene yeare olde, * and his eyes were dymme, so that he coulde not se.) The man sayde vnto Eli: I come and am fled this daye out of the hoost. He sayde: How is it my sonne?

1.Reg.4.a

D Then answered the tydinge bringer, & sayde: Israel is fled before the Philistynes, and a greate slaughter hath there bene amonge the people, & thy two sonnes Ophni & Phineas are dede, yee & the Arke of God is takẽ awaye. Whan he had made mencion of the Arke of God, he fell downe bacwarde from the seate by the gate, and brake his neck, and dyed: for he was olde, & an hewy man. He iud ged Israel fortie yeares. The wife of his sonne Phineas was wt childe, & shulde shortly be delyuered, whan she herde the tydinges ỹ the Arke of God was taken, and ỹ hir brother in lawe and hir hußbãde were dede, she bowed hir selfe and trauayled: for hir payne came vpon her. And whan she was now at the poynte of death, the wemen that stode by her, sayde: Feare not, thou hast a yõge sonne. But she gaue no answere, nether regarded it, and she called the childe Icabod, and sayde: The glory is gone from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken awaye, and hir brother in lawe and hir hußbande. And she sayde moreouer: The glory is gone from Israel, for the Arke of God is takẽ awaye.

The V. Chapter.

AS for the Arke of God, the Philistynes toke it and broughte it from the stone of helpe vnto Aßdod in to the house of Dagon, and set it beside Dagon. And whan they of Aßdod rose vp early on the morowe, they founde Dagon lyenge on his face vpon the earth, before the Arke of the LORDE. But they toke vp Dagon, and set him agayne in his place. Neuertheles whan they rose vp early on the nexte morowe, they founde Dagon lyenge on his face agayne vpon the earth before the Arke of the LORDE: but his heade and both his hãdes hewen of vpon the threßholde, so that the block laie there onely. Therfore the prestes of Dagon, and all they that go into his house, treade not vpõ the threßholde of Dagon at Aßdod vnto this daye.

But the hande of the LORDE was harde vpon them of Aßdod, and destroyed them, and smote Aßdod and all the borders therof in secrete places. Whan the men of Aßdod sawe that they were so plaged, they sayde: * Let not the Arke of the God of Israel tary with vs, for his hande is to harde vpõ vs & vpon ỹ god Dagon. And they sent forth and gathered all the prynces of the Philistynes vnto them, and sayde: What shal we do with the Arke of the God of Israel? Then answered they of Geth: Let the Arke of the God of Israel be borne aboute. And they caried the Arke of the God of Israel rounde aboute.

C But whā they bare it aboute, there was a very greate rumoure in the cite thorow the hande of the LORDE, and smote the people of the cite, from the smalleſt vnto the greateſt, and destroyed them in the secrete places. Then sent they the Arke of the LORDE vnto Ekron. But whā the Arke of the LORDE came vnto Ekron, they of Ekron cried: They haue caried the Arke of God aboute vnto me, to slaye me and my people.

D Then sente they forth, and gathered all ỳ prynces of the Philistynes together, and sayde: Sende awaye the Arke of the God of Israel agayne vnto hir place, that it slaye not me & my people: for there is a very greate rumoure with the deed in all the cite, and the hande of God is there. And the people that dyed not, were smytten in secrete places, so that the noyse of the cite wēte vp vnto heauen.

The VI. Chapter.

A Thus was the Arke of the LORDE in the londe of the Philistynes seuen monethes. And the Philistynes called their prestes and soythsayers, and sayde: What shal we do with the Arke of the LORDE: Shewe vs, wher with shal we sende it vnto hir place: They sayde: Yf ye wyll sende awaye the Arke of the God of Israel, sende it not awaye emptye, but geue a trespace offerynge: so shal ye be made whole, and ye shal knowe, why his hande departeth not from you.

They sayde: What is the trespace offerynge that we shall geue him: They answered: Fyue hynder partes of golde, and fyue golden myce, acordinge to the nombre of the fyue prynces of ỳ Philistynes. For there hath bene one maner of plage vpon you all, and vpon youre prynces. Therfore must ye make youre hynder partes of one faßshion and youre myce, which haue destroyed youre londe, that ye maye geue the God of Israel the honoure: peraduenture his hāde shal be the lighter vpon you and vpon youre God, and B vpon youre lende. Why harden ye youre hert, as the Egipcians and Pharao hardened their hert: Whan he shewed him selfe vpon them * dyd not they let them departe to go their waye:

* a.u.g

Go to now therfore, and make a new cart, and take two mylke kyne, vpon ỳ which there neuer came yock, and yocke them to ỳ cart, and let their calues tary behynde them at home: and take ye the Arke of the LORDE and laye it vpon the cart: and the Jewels of golde that ye geue him for a trespace offerynge put in a coffer beside it, & sende it awaye and let it go. And loke well: yf it go the waie of hir awne coaste Beth Semes, thē hath he done vs all this greate euell: Yf no, then shal ye knowe that his hande hath not touched vs, but ỳ it is happened vnto vs by chaūce.

The men dyd so, and toke two yonge mylke kyne, and yocked them to a cart, and held their calues at home, and layed the Arke of the LORDE vpon the cart, and the cofser with the golden myce, and with the ymages of their diseaſe. And the kyne wente C straight waye vnto Beth Semes vpon one hye strete, and wente on blearynge, and turned nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte. And the prynces of the Philistynes wente after them vnto ỳ coast of Beth Semes.

The Beth Samites were euen reapynge downe their wheate harueſt in the valley, and lyfte vp their eyes, and sawe the Arke, and reioyſed to se it. The cart came in to the felde of Josua the Beth Semite, and there it stode styll. And there was a greate stone, and they claue the tymber of the cart, and offred the kyne vnto the LORDE for a burntofferynge.

But the Lewites toke downe the Arke of the LORDE, and the coffer that was by it, wherin the Jewels of golde were, and set thē vpon the greate stone. The men of Beth Semes offred burntofferynges, and other offerynges also vnto the LORDE the same daye. And whan the fyue prynces of the Philistynes had sene it, they departed agayne the same daye towarde Ekron.

These are the golden diseases, that the D Philistynes offred for a trespace offerynge vnto the LORDE: Aßdod one, Gasa one: Ascalon one, Gath one, and Ekron one: and golden myce, acordynge to the nombre of all the cities of the Philistynes amonge the fyue prynces, from the walled cite vnto the vyllage, and vnto the greate playne felde, wher vpon they set the Arke of the LORDE (which was) vnto this daye vpon the felde of Josua the Beth Semite.

And certaine of Beth Sames were slaine because they had sene ỳ Arke of the LORDE, and he slewe fyfty e thousande and seuenty e men of the people. Then mourned the people, because the LORDE had done so greate a slaughter in the people. And the men at Beth Semes sayde: Who maye stōde before the LORDE so holy a God: And to whō shal he go frō vs: And they sent messaungers to ỳ inhabiters of Kiriath Jearim, saiēge: The Philistynes haue brought the Arke of God agayne, come downe, & fetch it vp vnto you.

The VII. Chapter.

A SO the men of Kiriath Jearim came downe, & fetched vp ỳ Arke of ỳ LORDE, & brought it in to ỳ house of Abinadab at Gibea, & they consecrated Eleasar his sonne, ỳ he might kepe ỳ Arke. And frō ỳ daye that the Arke of ỳ LORDE abode at Kiriath Jearim, ỳ tyme extended forth so longe tyll it came to twentye yeares: and all the house of Jsrael wepte after the LORDE.

Re. 6. a

But Samuel sayde vnto all the house of Jsrael: * Yf ye turne you withall youre hert vnto the LORDE, then put awaye from you the straunge goddes and Astaroth, and directe youre hert vnto the LORDE and * serue him onely, so shall he delyuer you out of the hande of the Philistynes. Then the childrē of Jsrael put awaye Baalim and Astaroth from them, and serued the LORDE onely.

B Samuel saide: Gather all Jsrael together vnto Mispa, that J maye praye for you vnto the LORDE. And they came together vnto Mispa, and drue water, & poured it out before the LORDE, and fasted the same daye, and there they sayde: We haue synned vnto the LORDE. So Samuel iudged the children of Jsrael at Mispa.

But whan the Philistynes herde that ỳ children of Jsrael were come together vnto Mispa, the prynces of the Philistynes wēte vp against Jsrael. Whan ỳ childrē of Jsrael herde that, they were afrayed of ỳ Philistynes, & sayde vnto Samuel: Ceasse not to crye vnto the LORDE oure God for vs, ỳ he maie helpe vs out of the hande of ỳ Philistynes. *

cclj. 4. c

Samuel toke a fat lambe, & offred an whole burntofferynge vnto the LORDE, & cried vnto the LORDE for Jsrael, and the LORDE herde him. And whyle Samuel was offerynge ỳ burnt sacrifice, ỳ Philistines came to fight agaynst Jsrael. But the LORDE thondred a thonder vpon the Philistynes the same daye & discōfyted thē, so ỳ they were smyttē before Jsrael. Thē wente ỳ men of Jsrael forth, & chaced ỳ Philistynes, & smote them till vnder BethCar. Then toke Samuel a stone, & set it vp betwene Mispa & Sen, & called it ỳ Helpstone, & sayde: Hither to hath the LORDE helped vs. Thus were the Philistynes brought downe, & came nomore within the border of Jsrael. And ỳ hāde of ỳ LORDE was against the Philistynes, as longe as Samuel lyued.

Re. 4. a

D So Jsrael gat the cities agayne, that the Philistynes had conquered, frō Ekron vnto Gath, with the borders therof, those did Jsrael rescue out of the hande of the Philistynes: & Jsrael had peace w the Amonites. Samuel iudged Jsrael as lōge as he lined, & rode aboute euery yeare vnto Bethel & Gilgal & Mispa: & whā he had iudged Jsrael in all these places, he came agayne vnto Ramath for there was his house, & there he iudged Jsrael, & builded an altare there vnto ỳ LORDE.

The VIII. Chapter.

BVt whan Samuel waxed olde, he set his sonnes to be iudges ouer Jsrael. His firstborne sonne was called Joel & the secōde Abia, & they were iudges at Bersaba. Neuertheles his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but enclyned vnto couetousnes, & toke giftes, & wraysted the lawe. Then all ỳ Elders in Jsrael gathered thē selues together, & came to Ramath vnto Samuel, & sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou art waxen olde, & thy sonnes walke not in ỳ wayes, * set a kynge now ouer vs therfore, to iudge vs, as all ỳ heithē haue. Thē was Samuel displeased whā they sayde: Geue vs a kynge, to iudge vs. And Samuel prayed before the LORDE.

The LORDE saide vnto Samuel: Herken vnto the voice of the people in all ỳ they haue sayde vnto the. * For they haue not refused the, but me, ỳ J shulde not be kinge ouer them. They do vnto the as they haue done euer sence the daie ỳ J brought them out of the londe of Egipte vnto this daye, and haue forsaken me, and serued other goddes. Herkē now therfore vnto their voyce. Yet testifye vnto them, and shewe them * the lawe of the kynge that shall raigne ouer them.

And Samuel tolde all the wordes of the LORDE vnto ỳ people, that requyred a kinge of him. This shal be the lawe of the kynge ỳ shal raigne ouer you: * Yor sonnes shall he take for his charettes, and for horsmen to runne before his charettes, and to be rulers & captaynes, to be plowemen to tyll his londe and to be reapers in his harueste, and to make his harnesse, and soch thinges as belonge to his charettes. As for yor doughters, he shall take thē, to be Apotecaries, cokes and bakers. Youre beste lōnde and vynyardes, and oyle gardens shall he take, and geue vnto his seruauntes: Of youre sedes also and viniardes shal he take the Tithes, & geue vnto his chāberlaynes and seruauntes. And youre seruāntes and youre maydes, and youre beste yonge men, and youre asses shal he take, and do his busynes withall. Of youre flockes shal he take the Tithes, and ye shal be his seruauntes. Whan ye shal crye then at the same tyme ouer youre kynge, whom ye haue chosen you, the LORDE shall not heare you at the same tyme. Neuertheless the people refused to heare the voyce of Samuel, and sayde: Nor so, but there shall be a kynge ouer vs, ẏ we maye be as all other heithē, ẏ o̊ kynge maie iudge vs, & go forth before vs, and goueme oure warres. Thē herkened Samuel vnto all ẏ ẏ people sayde, & tolde it before ẏ eares of the LORDE. The LORDE sayde vnto thē: Herken thou vnto their voyce, and make them a kynge. And Samuel sayde vnto the men of Israel: Go youre waye euery one vnto his cite.

The IX. Chapter.

A There was a man of Ben Jamin named * Cis, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeor, the sonne of Bethorah, ẏ sonne of Apiah, the sonne of a man of Jemini, a valeaunt man, which had a sonne named Saul, which was so goodly a yonge man, that there was not a goodlier amonge the children of Israel, higher by the heade then all the people. Cis the father of Saul had lost his asses, and he sayde vnto Saul his sonne: Take one of the children with the, get the vp, go thy waye, and seke the asses. And he wente his waye thorow mount Ephraim, and thorow the lōde of Solisa, and founde them not. They wente thorow the lōde of Saalim, & there they were not. They passed thorow ẏ lōde of Jemini, & foūde thē not. But whā they came in to the londe of Zuph, Saul sayde vnto the childe that was with him: Come, let vs go home agayne, lest my father let go the asses, and take care for vs. He sayde: Beholde, here is an honorable man of God in this cite, all that he sayeth, commeth to passe. Let vs go thither now, peraduenture he maye shewe vs oure waye which we go. But Saul saide vnto his childe: Though we shulde go, what bringe we the man? For the bred is gone out of o̊ waler, and els haue we no gifte to bringe the man of God, what haue we? The childe answered agayne, and sayde: Beholde, I haue the fourth parte of a syluer Sycle by me, ẏ same wyll we gewe the man of God, that he maye shewe vs oure waye.

B (Afore tyme in Israel, whan a man went to aske councell at the LORDE, he sayde: Come, let vs go to the Seer: for they that now are called prophetes, were called Seers afore tyme). Saul sayde vnto his childe: Thou hast well spoken, come let vs go. And whan they wente vnto the cite where the man of God was, and came vp to the cite, they founde damsels which were gone forth to drawe water, vnto them they sayde: Is the Seer here? They answered them and sayde: Yee. Beholde, he is there, make haist, for he came in to the cite this daye, because the people haue a sacrifice to do to daye in the hye place. Whan ye come in the cite, ye shal synde him, afore he go vp to the hye place for to eate: for the people wyll not eate tyll he come. For he shall blesse the offerynge, then shal they eate that are called. Therfore go yō waie vp, for euē now shal ye finde him.

And whan they came vp to the cite, and C were euen in the myddes of the cite, beholde, Samuel came forth in their waye, and wolde go vp to the hye place. (* But the LORDE had opened Samuels eare the daye afore, or euer Saul came, and sayde: Tomorow aboute this tyme wyll I sende a man vnto the out of the lōde of Ben Jamin, him shalt thou anoynte to be prynce ouer my people of Israel, that he maye delyuer my people from the hande of the Philistynes: for I haue loked vpon my people, and their crye is come before me.) Now whan Samuel beheld Saul, the LORDE answered him: lo, ẏ is the man of whom I tolde the, that he shulde raigne ouer my people. 1.Reg.15.a

Then came Saul vnto Samuel vnder ẏ gate, and sayde: Tell me (I praye the) where is the Seers house? Samuel answered Saul, and sayde: I am the Seer. Go vp before me vnto the hye place: for ye shall eate with me to daye, tomorow wyll I lett the go, and all that is in thyne hert, wyll I tell the: and as for the Asses which were lost thre dayes agoo, care not thou for them, for they are founde. And to whom shall belonge all that is pleasaunt in Israel? Shall it not belonge vnto the and to all thy fathers house? Saul answered: Am not I a sonne of Jemini, * and of the smalleste trybe, and my kynred the leest amonge all the kynreds of ẏ trybe of Ben Jamin? Why speakest thou so thē vnto me? Samuel toke Saul & his childe & brought them in to the perler where they shulde eate, and satt them aboue those that were called, of whom there were aboute a thirtie men. And Samuel sayde vnto the coke: Geue me the porcion that I gave the, and bad the kepe it by the. Then the coke toke vp a shulder, and bare it forth, and set it before Saul. And (Samuel) sayde: Beholde, this is left, laye it before the, and eate: for it was kepte for the agaynst this tyme, whan I called the people. Thus Saul ate with Samuel the same daye. Iudi.20.c 1.Re.15.d D

And whan they were gone downe from the hye place vnto the cite, he talked with Saul in the chamber. And they rose vp early on the morow. And whan the mornynge sprynge arose, Samuel called Saul in the chamber, and sayde: Vp, ẏ I maye sende

the thy waye. And Saul gat him vp: & they both wēte forth together, he and Samuel. And whan they came downe to the ende of the cite, Samuel sayde vnto Saul: Speake vnto ỳ childe, that he go on forth before vs, but stōde thou stylll now, that I maie shewe the what God hath sayde:

The X. Chapter.

THen toke Samuel a glasse of oyle, and poured it vpō his heade, and kissed him, and sayde: Seist thou that the LORDE hath anoynted the, to be the prince ouer * his enheritaūce: Whan thou goest now fro me, thou shalt fynde two men besyde * Rachels graue in the coast of Ben Jamin at Zelzah, which shal saie vnto the: The asses are founde, whom thou wentest to seke: and beholde, thy father hath put the asses out of his mynde, and taketh thoughte for the, and sayeth: What shall I do for my sonne?

Deut. 9.e

Gen. 35.d

And whan thou goest on forth from thence, thou shalt come to the Oke of Thabor, there shall thre men fynde the, which go vp vnto God towarde Bethel: one beareth thre kiddes, another thre loaues of bred the thyrde a bottel with wyne: and they shall salute the, and geue the two loaues, which thou shalt take of their hande. After that shalt thou come to the hyll of God, * where the Philistynes watch is: and whā thou comest there in to the cite, there shall mete the a company of prophetes commynge downe from the hye place, and before them a Psaltery, and tabret, a pype and a harpe, and they them selues prophecienge. And the spirite of the LORDE shall come vpon the, and thou shalt prophecye with them, and shalt be chaunged in to another man.

1. Reg. 13.a

Whan these tokens now come vnto the, * then do what so ever commeth vnder thyne hande: for God is with the. Thou shalt go downe before me vnto Gilgall: Beholde, thither wyl I come downe vnto the, that thou mayest offre burntofferynges and deedofferynges. Seuen dayes shalt thou tarye till I come to the, and shewe the what thou shuldest do. And whan he turned his shulder to go from Samuel, God chaunged him another hert, and all these tokēs came the same daye.

2. Reg. 2.a

1. Par. 12.a

And whan they came vnto the hill, beholde, there met him a company of prophetes, and the spirite of God came vpon him, so that he prophecyed amonge them. But whā they which knewe him before, sawe him that he prophecied with the prophetes, they sayde all amonge them selues: What is happened vnto the sonne of Cis? Is Saul also amonge the prophetes? And one ỳ was there, answered and sayde: Who is their father? Whereof came the prouerbe: Is Saul also amonge the prophetes? And whā he had left of prophecienge, he came vp to the hyll.

Sauls vncle sayde vnto him and to his childe: Whither wente ye? They answered: To seke the asses. And whan we sawe that they were awaye, we came vnto Samuel. Then sayde Sauls vncle: Tell me, what sayde Samuel vnto you? Saul answered his vncle: He tolde vs, ỳ the asses were founde. But of ỳ kyngdome he tolde him nothinge what Samuel had sayde.

Samuel called the people together vnto the LORDE to Mispa, and spake vnto the children of Israel: Thus saieth ỳ LORDE the God of Israel: I brought Israel out of Egipte, and delyuered you from the hande of ỳ Egipcians, and from the hande of all the kyngdomes that oppressed you. * But now haue ye refused yo' God, which hath holpen you out of all youre sorowes and troubles, & ye haue saide vnto him: Set a kinge ouer vs. Well, stonde ye now before ỳ LORDE accordinge to youre trybes and kynreds.

Now whan Samuel had brought forth all the trybes of Israel, the trybe of Ben Jamin was taken. And whan he had brought forth the trybe of Ben Jamin with his kynreds, the kynred of Matri was takē, & Saul the sonne of Cis was takē. And they sought him, but they founde him not.

Then axed they further at the LORDE whether he was for to come thither. The LORDE answered: Beholde, he hath hyd him selfe amonge ỳ vessels. Then ranne they thither, and fetched him. And whan he stode amonge the people, he was hygher by the heade then all the people. And Samuel sayde vnto all the people: There se ye him whom the LORDE hath chosen, for in all the people there is none like him. Then gaue all the people a shoute, and sayde: * God saue the new kynge.

Samuel tolde the people all the * lawe of the kyngdome, and wrote it in a boke, and layed it before the LORDE. And Samuel let all the people go, every one to his awne house. And Saul wente home also vnto Gibea, and there wente with him one parte of the hooste, whose hertes God had touched. But the childre of Belial sayde: What shal this felowe helpe vs, * and despysed him, & broughte him no presente. But he made him as though he herde it not.

The XI. Chapter.

NAhas ỳ Ammonite wete vp & layed sege vnto Jabes in Gilead. And all the men of Jabes sayde vnto Nahas: Be at one with vs, & we wyll serue the. But Nahas ỳ Ammonite answered them: I wil make a couenauut with you, of this condicion, that I maye thrust out all youre right eyes, and put you to shame amonge all Israel. Then sayde all the Elders of Jabes vnto him: Geue vs seuen dayes respyte, that we maye sende messaungers into all ỳ coastes of Israel: Yf there be then no sauioure, we wyl go forth vnto the.

So the messaungers came vnto Gibea of Saul, and spake this before the eares of the people. Then all ỳ people lifte vp their voyce, and wepte. And beholde, Saul came after the oxen out of the felde, and sayde: What ayleth the people that they wepe? So they tolde him the earande of the men of Jabes. * Then came the sprete of God vpon him, whan he had herde these wordes, and his wrath was sore moued, and he toke a couple of oxen, and hewed them in sunder, and sent them in to all the coastes of Israel by the messaungers, sayenge: Who so euer goeth not forth after Saul and Samuel, his oxen shalbe thus dealte withall.

Then fell the feare of the LORDE vpon the people, so that they wente forth like as one man, * and they were tolde at Basek, and of the childre of Israel there were thre hundreth thousande men, and thirtie thousande of the children of Juda. And they spake vnto the messaungers that were come: Saye thus to the men of Jabes in Gilead: Tomorow shal ye haue helpe, whan ỳ Sonne is at the whoteste. Whan ỳ messaungers came and tolde this to the men of Jabes, they were glad. And the men of Jabes sayde: Tomorow wyll we come forth vnto you, that ye maye do vnto vs, what so euer it pleaseth you. And on ỳ nexte morow Saul set the people in thre partes, and came into the hooste aboute the morynge watch, and smote the Ammonites tyll the daye was at the whoteste. As for those ỳ remayned, they were so scatred, that two of them abode not together.

Then sayde the people vnto Samuel: Where are they that sayde: * Shulde Saul raigne ouer vs? Delyuer vs here the men, that we maye put them to death. But Saul sayde: There shal noman dye this daye, for to daye hath the LORDE geuen health in Israel. Samuel sayde vnto the people: Come, let vs go vnto Gilgall, and renue the kyngdome there. Then wente all the people vnto Gilgall, and there they made Saul kinge before the LORDE at Gilgal, and offred deedofferinges before the LORDE. And Saul with all the men of Israel reioyced there greatly.

The XII. Chapter.

SAmuel sayde vnto all Israel: Beholde, I haue herkened vnto youre voyce in all that ye sayde vnto me, and haue made a kynge ouer you. And now lo, there goeth youre kynge before you. As for me, I am waxen olde and graye heered, and my sonnes are with you: and I haue gone before you fro my youth vp vnto this daye. Beholde, here am I: answere ye agaynst me before the RORDE and his anoynted, * yf I haue taken eny mans oxe or asse, yf I haue done eny man violence or wronge, If I haue oppressed eny mā, yf I haue receaued a gifte of eny mans hande, and kepte it secretly, I wil reste re it you agayne.

They saide: Thow hast done vs nether violente ner wronge, nether oppressed, ner taken ought of eny mans hande. He sayde: The LORDE be witnesse agaynst you, and so be his anoynted this daye, that ye haue founde nothinge in my hāde. They saide: Yee they shalbe witnesses. And Samuel sayde vnto the people: The LORDE which made Moses and Aaron, and broughte youre fathers out of the londe of Egipte (is here present.) Stode forth now therfore, that I maye iudge you before the LORDE ouer the righteousnes of the LORDE, which he hath done for you and youre fathers.

* Whan Jacob was come in to Egipte, youre fathers cryed vnto the LORDE. * And he sent Moses and Aaron to bringe youre fathers out of Egipte, and to cause them for to dwell in this place.

Yet wyll I call vpō the LORDE, so that he shal cause it thonder and rayne, that ye shall knowe and se the greate euell, which ye have done in the sight of the LORDE, in that ye have desyred to have a kynge.

And whan Samuel called vpon the LORDE, the LORDE caused it to thōder and raine the same daye.

D Then all the people feared the LORDE greatly and Samuel, and they sayde all vnto Samuel: Praie thou vnto the LORDE thy God for thy seruauntes, that we dye not: for beside oure sinnes we have done this euell also, that we have desyred vnto vs a kinge. Samuel sayde vnto the people: Feare not, ye have done all this euell in dede. The XIII. Chapter.

SAul had bene kynge one yeare, and whā he had raigned ouer Israel two yeares, he chose him three thousande mē out of Israel: two thousande were with Saul at Michmas vpon the mount of Bethel, and one thousande with Jonathas at Gibea of Ben Jamin. As for the other people, he let them go every one vnto his tente. But Jonathas smote ỳ Philistynes in their awne * watch, which was at Gibea. That came to ỳ Philistynes eares. And Saul caused to blowe the trompes in all the londe, & to saye: Let the Hebrues heare. And all Israel herde saye: Saul hath smytten the Philistynes watch, for Israel stanke before the Philistynes. And all the people cried after Saul vnto Gilgal.

Then the Philistynes gathered them selues together to fighte wt Israel, thirtie thousande charettes, sixe thousande horsmen, and other people beside, in nombre as the sonde by the See shore, and wente vp, and pitched at Michmas on the eastside of Bethaun. Whan the men of Israel sawe that myserie laye vpon the neckes of thē (for the people was come therto) they crope in to caues and dennes, in to rockes, and holes and welles. But the Hebrues wente ouer Jordane into ỳ lande of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul he was yet at Gilgal, and all the people were faynthearted after him. Then taried he seuen dayes accordinge to the tyme apoynted of Samuel. And whan Samuel came not vnto Gilgal, the people were scatered abrode from him. Then sayde Saul: Bringe me hither a burntofferinge and deedofferinges. And he offred a burntofferynge. But whan he had made an ende of the burntofferynge beholde, Samuel came. Then wente Saul forth to mete him, that he might salute him.

But Samuel sayde: What hast thou done? Saul answered: I sawe that the people was scatered abrode from me, and thou camest not in due season: and the Philistynes were gathered togethe at Michmas. Then sayde I. Now shall the Philistynes come downe to me vnto Gilgal, and I have not besought te the face of the LORDE: & so I boldened myselfe, & offred a burntofferynge.

Samuel sayde vnto Saul: Thou hast done foolishly, and not kepte the commaundement of the LORDE thy God, which he commaunded the. For (yf thou haddest not done this) he had prospered thy kyngdome vpō Israel for euer: but now shall not thy kyngdome contynue. * The LORDE hath soughte him out a man after his owne hert: him hath the LORDE commaunded to be prynce ouer his people, for thou hast not kepte ỳ the LORDE commaunded ỳ. And Samuel arose, and wente vp from Gilgal vnto Gibea Ben Jamin. 13.c

D And Saul nombred the people that was founde with him, vpon a sixe hundreth men. Saul & his sonne Jonathas, and ỳ people that was with them, taried at Gibea Ben Jamin: but ỳ Philistynes had pitched their tentes at Michmas. And out of the hoost of the Philistynes there wente thre bondes of men to destroye: one turned the waye towarde Ephra in to the londe of Sual: another turned towarde the waye of Bethoron: the thirde turned towarde the waye, that reacheth to the valley of Zeboim vnto the wyldernes.

But there was not a smyth founde in all the lōde of Israel: for ỳ Philistynes thoughte: The Hebrues mighte happly make swerdes and speares. And all Israel were fayne to go downe to the Philistynes, whan eny man had a plowshare, a mattock, an axe, or a sythe to sharpe: and the edges of the plowshares, and mattockes, & sickes, and axes, were laboured, and the poyntes blont. Now whan the daye of the battayll came, there was nether swerde ner speare founde in the hande of all the people, that was with Saul and Jonathas: but for Saul and Jonathas his sonne there was somwhat founde. And ỳ Philistynes watch wēte out ouer by Michmas.

The XIIII. Chapter.

A IT fortuned at ỳ same tyme, ỳ Jonathas sayde vnto his lad which was his wapen bearer: Come, let vs go ouer to the Philistynes watch ỳ lyeth aboue, & the tolde not his father. Saul dwelt at ỳ ende of Gibea vnder a pomgranate tre, which 11.d was in the suburbe. * And the people ỳ were by him, were vpon a sixe hundreth men. And Ahia the sonne of Achitob the brother of Icabod, the sonne of Phineas ỳ sonne of Eli ỳ prest of the LORDE at Silo, wayre the ouerbody cote. But the people knewe not that Jonathas was gone.

Betwene the passages where Jonathas soughte to go ouer vnto the Philistynes watch, there were two hye rockes, the one on the one syde, the other on the other: the one was called Bozez, the other Senne. And ỳ one laye on the north syde towarde Michmas, and the other on the south syde towarde Gaba. And Jonathas sayde vnto his wapen bearer: Come, let vs go ouer to ỳ watch of these vncircumcised, peraduenture the LORDE shall worke with vs, * For it is no 2.par.14 harde matter for the LORDE to helpe by many or by fewe. Then answered him his wapen bearer: Do all that is in thine hert, go on thy waie, beholde, I am with the, euen as thine hert wyll.

Jonathas sayde: Well than, Whan we B are gone ouer to the men, and come within the sighte of them, yf they saye: stonde styll, tyll we come to you, then wyll we stonde styll in oure place, and not go vp to them. But yf they saye: Come vp to vs, we wyll go vp to them, thē hath the LORDE delyuered them in to oure hande, and this shalbe a token for vs. Now whan they came both in the sighte of the Philistynes watch, the Philistynes sayde: Se, * ỳ Hebrues are gone out of their Iudit.14 holes, that they were crepte in to. And the men in the watch answered Jonathas and his wapē bearer, and sayde: Come vp to vs, and we wyll teach you what the matter is. Then sayde Jonathas to his wapen bearer. * Come vp after me, the LORDE hath i.mac.4 delyuered them into Israels hande. And Jonathas clamme vp with handes and fete, and his wapen bearer after him. And Jonathas smote them downe before him, and his wapē bearer slewe behynde him, so that the first slaughter that Jonathas and his wapen bearer dyd, was vpō a twentye men, with in the length of halue an aker of londe, which a pare of oxen maye tyll in one daye.

* And there came a fearfulnes and flight C in the hoost vpon the felde, and amonge all Iudi 14. the people of the watch: and vpon the * de- 1.Re.13. stroyers there came a fearfulnes also and flight, so that the londe was in a rumoure, and * there came a flight thorow God. And Iosu. 10. Sauls watchmē at Gibea Bē Jamin sawe, Iud.4.c that ỳ multitude gat them awaye, and ranne to and fro.

Saul sayde vnto the people that was with him: Tell and se which of vs is gone awaye. And whan they nombred, beholde, Jonathas & his wapen bearer was not there.

Then saide Saul vnto Ahia: Bringe hither the Arke of God (for at that tyme was the Arke of God with the children of Jsrael.) And whyle Saul was yet speakynge to the preest, the multitude in the Philistynes hoost gat vp, ranne, and was greate. And Saul sayde vnto the preest: Withdrawe thine hande. And Saul cried, and all the people that was with him, and came to the battayll. And beholde, * euery mans swerde was agaynst another, and there was a very greate rumoure.

* had hyd thē selues vpon mount Ephraim, whan they herde that the Philistynes fled, folowed after them in the battayll. Thus ỳ LORDE helped Jsrael at that tyme, and ỳ battayll lasted vnto Bethauen.

D And whan the men of Jsrael came forth, Saul charged all the people the same daye, and sayde: Cursed be euery man, which eateth bred vntyll euen, that I maye auenge me on myne enemies. Then all the people taisted no bred. And all the people of the londe came in to the wodd. But there laye hony vpon the felde: and whan the people came in to the wodd, beholde, the hony flowed, but no man put of it to his mouth with his hāde: for the people were afraied because of the ooth. As for Jonathas he had not herde, that his father had charged the people, and he put forth his staff that he had in his hande, and dypped the ende of it in ỳ hony combe, and turned his hande to his mouth, and his eyes were lighted.

Then answered one of the people, and sayde: Thy father hath charged the people, and sayde: Cursed be euery mā that eateth ought tē this daye. Neuertheles the people were faynte. Then sayde Jonathas: My father hath troubled the londe: Se how lighte myne eyes are become, because I haue taisted a litle of this hony. Yf the people this daie had eatē of the spoyle of their enemies that they founde, the slaughter shulde haue bene greater agaynst the Philistynes. Yet smote they the Philistynes the same daye fro Michmas vnto Aialon, and the people were very weery.

the bloude. Then was it tolde Saul: Behold, the people synne agaynst the LORDE, in that they eate bloude. He sayde: Ye haue done euell: roll vnto me now a greate stone. And Saul sayde moreouer: Go abrode amonge the people, and saye vnto them, that euery one bringe me his oxe and his shepe, and slaye them here, that ye maye eate, and not to synne agaynst the LORDE with eatynge of bloude. Then broughte all the people euery one his oxe with his hāde the same nighte, and slewe them there. And Saul buylded an altare vnto ỳ LORDE. This is the first altare that he buylded vnto the LORDE.

And Saul sayde: Let vs go downe after the Philistynes, by nighte, and spoyle them tyll it be cleare mornynge, that we let none escape. They answered: Do what so euer pleaseth the. But the preest sayde: Let vs go nye here vnto God. And Saul axed at God. Shal I go downe here after ỳ Philistines? ỵ wilt thou delyuer thē in to Jsraels hande? Neuertheles he answered him not at that tyme.

Then sayde Saul: Let all the armyes of the people come hither, and make search and se, in whom is this synne at this tyme. For as truly as God the Sauioure of Jsrael lyueth, ỵ though it be in my sonne Jonathas, he shal dye. And no man answered him of all the people. And he sayde vnto all Jsrael: Be ye on the one syde, I ỵ my sonne Jonathas wyl be on this syde. The people sayde vnto Saul: Do as it pleaseth the. And Saul sayde vnto the LORDE the God of Jsrael: Do thou that right is. Thē was Jonathas and Saul taken: but the people wente forth free. Saul sayde: Caste the lot ouer me and my sonne Jonathas. So Jonathas was taken. And Saul sayde vnto Jonathas: Tell me, what hast thou done? Jonathas tolde him, ỵ sayde: I taisted a litle hony with the staff that I had in my hande, and beholde, must I dye therfore? Thē sayde Saul: God do this and that vnto me, Jonathas thou must dye the death.

But the people sayde vnto Saul: Shulde Jonathas dye, that hath done so greate healthe in Jsrael this night? God forbyd. * As truly as the LORDE lyueth, there shal not one heer of his heade fall vpon ỳ earth: for with God hath he wroughte at this tyme. So the people delyuered Jonathas, that he dyed not. Then wente Saul vp from the Philistynes: and the Philistynes wente vnto their place.

But whan Saul had ꝯfirmed the kyngdome ouer Jsrael, he foughte agaynst all his enemyes rounde aboute, agaynst the Moabites, agaynst the childrē of Ammon, agaynst the Edomites, agaynst the kynge of Zoba, agaynst ỳ philistynes: and whither so euer he turned him, he gat ỳ victory. And he ma

There was a mightie sore warre against the philistynes, as lōge as Saul lyued. And where Saul sawe a man that was stronge and mete for ỳ warre, he toke him to him.

The XV. Chapter.

A Samuel sayde vnto Saul: * The LORDE sent me to anoynte the for to be Saul commaunded the people the same, and nombred them at Talaim, two hūdreth thousande fote men, & ten thousande men of Juda.

And whan Saul came to the cite of the Amalechites, he set an hynder watch by the B ryuer, and sayde vnto ỳ Kenites: Get you hence, departe, and go downe from ỳ Amalechites, ỳ I smyte you not with them, * for 10.d 11.d ye shewed mercy vnto all the children of Jsrael, whā they departed out of Egipte. So the Kenites gat them awaye from amonge the Amalechites.

Then smote Saul the Amalechites from Hemila vnto Sur (which lyeth ouer against Egipte) & toke Agag the kynge of ỳ Amalechites alyue, & damned all ỳ people wt the edge of the swerde. Neuertheles Saul and the people spared Agag, and the shepe and oxen ỳ were good and fat, and the lambes, and all that was good, and wolde not damne thē: but loke what was foule and nothinge worth, that they damned.

Then came the worde of the LORDE vn C

Now whā Samuel came to Saul, Saul sayde vnto him: Blessed be thou vnto ỳ LORDE, Jhaue performed the worde of ỳ LORDE. Samuel answered: What crye is this then of shepe in myne eares, and the crye of oxen which Jheare?

Samuel saide: Hath the LORDE pleasure in sacrifices and burnt offerynges, as in obeynge the voyce of the Samuel saide vnto Saul: I wil not turne backe with ỳ, for thou hast refused the worde of the LORDE, and the LORDE hath refused the also, ỳ thou shuldest not be kynge in Israel. And whan Samuel turned him backe to go his waye, he gat him by ỳ edge of his garment, & rēte it. Then sayde Samuel vnto him: The LORDE hath rente the kyngdome of Israel from ỳ this daye, & geuen it vnto ỳ neyghbō, which is better then thou. The ouer wynner in Israel also shal not lye, nether shal he repente: for he is no man, that he shulde repente.

G He sayde: I haue synned, yet honoure me now before the Elders of my people and before Israel, and turne backe with me, that I maye worshippe the LORDE thy God. So Samuel turned agayne after Saul, that Saul mighte worshippe the LORDE. But Samuel sayde: Bringe me hither Agag the kynge of the Amalechites. And Agag wente vnto him tēderly. And Agag saide: Thus departeth the bytternesse of death. Samuel

Re.17.d * And Samuel departed vnto Ramath. But Saul wente vp to his house at Gibea Saul. And Samuel sawe Saul nomore vnto the daye of his death. Nevertheles Samuel mourned for Saul, because it repented the LORDE, that he had made Saul kynge ouer Israel. The XVI. Chapter.

A AND ỳ LORDE sayde vnto Samuel: How longe mournest thou for Saul, whom I haue refused, that he shulde not be kynge ouer Israel? Fyll thine horne with oyle, go thy waye, I wyll sende the to Isai the Bethleemite: for amonge his sonnes haue I prouyded me a kynge. But Samuel sayde: How shal I go? Saul shal perceaue it, and shal slaye me. The LORDE sayde: Take the a calfe from the droue, & saye: I am come to do sacrifice vnto ỳ LORDE. And thou shalt call Isai to ỳ sacrifice, so shall I tell the what thou shalt do, that thou mayest anoynte me him, whom I shall shewe the. Samuel dyd as the LORDE sayde, and came to Bethleem. Then were the Elders of the cite astonnyed, and wente forth to mete
Re.3.b him, and sayde: * Is thy commynge peaceable? He sayde: Yee. I am come to do sacrifice vnto the LORDE. Sanctifye youre selues, & come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Isai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.

Now whā they came in, he behelde Eliab, & thoughte, whether he shulde be his anoynted before the LORDE. But ỳ LORDE sayde vnto Samuel: loke not vpon his countenaunce, ner vpon the tallnesse of his person, For I iudge not after the sighte of man. A man hath respecte vnto the thinge that is before his eyes, but the LORDE loketh vpon the hert. Then Isai called Abinadab, & broughte him before Samuel. And he sayde: This hath not the LORDE chosen. Then Isai broughte Samma. But he sayde: This also hath not the LORDE chosen. Then broughte Isai his seuen sonnes before Samuel. Nevertheles Samuel saide vnto Isai: The LORDE hath chosen none of these.

And Samuel sayde vnto Isai: Are here all the childrē? He sayde: There is yet one ỳ leest of all, and beholde, he kepeth the shepe. Thē sayde Samuel vnto Isai: Sende & cause him to be fetched, for we will not syt downe at the table, vntyll he come. Then sente he, & caused him be broughte. And he was well coloured wt fayre eyes & of a beutyfull countenaunce. And the LORDE saide: Aryse, and anoynte him, that is he.

Thē toke Samuel his oyle horne, & anoynted him amonge his brethrē. And the spirite of the LORDE came vpō Dauid frō ỳ daye forth. As for Samuel, he gat him vp, & wente vnto Ramath.

But the spirite of the LORDE departed from Saul, and an euell spirite from ỳ LORDE vexed him. Then sayde Sauls seruauntes vnto him: Beholde, an euell spirite from God vexeth the. Let oure lorde saie vnto his seruauntes which stonde before him, ỳ they seke a man which can playe vpon the harpe, and instrumente, that whan the euell spirite of God cōmeth vpon the, he maye playe wt his hande, to ease the withall. Then sayde Saul vnto his seruauntes: Prouyde me a that can playe well vpon the instrumente, & bringe him vnto me.

D Then answered one of the children, & sayde: Beholde, I sawe a sonne of Isai ỳ Bethleemite, which can playe vpon the instrumēte, an honest & valeaūt man, and one ỳ hath vnderstōdinge in matters, & is welfauoured. The Saul sent messaungers vnto Isai, sayēge: Sende me Dauid ỳ sonne, which is with the shepe. Then toke Isai an asse wt bred, & a bottell wt wyne, and a kyd, and sent it vnto Saul by Dauid his sonne. So Dauid came to Saul, & stode before him, & he loued him well, and he became his wapen bearer. And Saul sente vnto Isai, sayēge: Let Dauid remayne before me, for he hath founde fauō in my sighte. Now whan the spirite of God came vpō Saul, Dauid toke ỳ harpe, & played wt his hande: so was Saul refreßshed, & eased, & the euell spirite departed from him.

The XVII. Chapter.

A The Philistynes gathered their hooste to ỳ battayl, and came together to Socho in Juda, & pitched their tentes betwene Socho & Aseka, at the ende of Damin. But Saul & the mē of Israel came together, & pitched in the Oke valley, & prepared them selues to the battayll agaynst the Philistynes. And the Philistynes stode vpon a hyll on the one syde, and the Israelites vpon a hyll on the other syde, so that there was a valley betwene them.

Then stepte there forth from amōge the Philistynes a stoute bolde man, named Goliath of Gath, sixe cubites and an hande breth hye, and had an helmet of stele on his heade, and a fast habergion vpon him, and the weight of his habergion was fyue thousande Sicles of stele, and harnesse of stele had he vpon his legges, and a shylde of stele vpon his shulders: and the shaft of his speare was like a weuers lome, and the yron of his speare had sixe hundreth Sicles of yron, and his wapen bearer wente before him.

B And he stode and called vnto the hooste of Israel, and sayde vnto them: Wherfore are ye come forth to prepare youre selues to the battayll? Am not I a Philistyne, and ye the seruauntes of Saul? Chose one amonge you to come downe vnto me: yf he can fighte agaynst me and slaye me, then wil we be youre seruauntes: but yf I can ouercome him and slaye him, then shal ye be oure seruauntes, to do vs seruyce. And the Philistyne sayde: I haue spokē dißdanedly vnto the hooste of Israel this daye. Geue me one, and let vs fighte together. Whan Saul and all Israel herde these wordes of ỳ Philistyne, they were astonnyed, and sore afrayed.

But Dauid was the sonne of a man of Ephrata of Bethleem Juda, whose name was Isai, which had eight sonnes, and was an olde man in Sauls tyme, and was well stycken in age amonge men. And the three eldest sonnes of Isai were gone with Saul to the battayll. And there names were these: Eliab the first borne, Abinadab the seconde, and Samma the thirde. But Dauid was the yongest of all. So whan the three eldest were gone with Saul to the battayll, Dauid wente agayne from Saul, to kepe his fathers shepe at Bethleem. But the Philistyne stepte forth early in the mornynge and at euen, and stode there fortye dayes.

Isai sayde vnto Dauid his sonne: Take C this Epha of firmentye for thy brethren, and these ten loaues of bred (and runne to the hooste vnto thy brethren) & these ten newe cheses, and bringe them to ỳ captayne, and loke how thy brethren do, whether it go well with them or no, and take what they byd the. But Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the Oke valley, and foughte agaynst the Philistynes.

Then Dauid gat him vp early in the mornynge, and committed the shepe to ỳ keper, and toke his burthen, wente his waye, as Isai commaunded him, and came to the tēt. And the hooste was gone forth, and had prepared them selues, and cried in the battayll: For Israel had set them selues in araye, and the Philistynes were agaynst their hooste in their araye also.

Then lefte Dauid the vessell that he bare, with the keper of the stuffe, and ranne to the hooste, and wente in, and saluted his brethren. And whyle he was yet talkynge with them, beholde, then came vp the stoute bolde man, whose name was Goliath, the Philistine of Gath, out of the Philistynes hooste, and spake like as afore, and Dauid herde it. But euery man of Israel, whan he sawe the man, fled from him, and was sore afrayed of him.

And euery man in Israel sayde: Haue ye sene the man commynge vp hither? For he is come vp hither, to speake dißdanedly vnto Israel. And who so euer sinyteth him, him wyll the kynge make ryche, and geue him his doughter, and make his fathers house free in Israel.

Then sayde Dauid vnto the men that stode D by him: What shalbe done to the man, that smyteth this Philistyne, and turneth this shame awaye from Israel: For what is he this Philistyne this vncircūcysed, that defyeth the hoost of ỳ lyuynge God: Then the people tolde him as afore. Thus shall it be done vnto ỳ man that smyteth him. And Eliab his greater brother herde him talke with the men, and was very wroth agaynst Dauid, and sayde: Wherfore art thou come downe: and why hast thou left a fewe shepe in the wylderneſſe: I knowe thy presumptuousneſſe well ynough, and the wickednesse of thine hert: for thou art come downe to se the battayll. Dauid answered: What haue I downe now: Is there not an occasion: And he turned him selfe from him vnto another, and spake accordinge as he had sayde before. Then the people answered him like as afore.

And whan they herde the wordes which Dauid sayde, they tolde them in the presence of Saul, and he caused him be fetched. And Dauid sayde vnto Saul: Let no mans hert be discoraged because of him. Thy seruaunt shall go, and fighte with the Philistyne. Nevertheles Saul sayde vnto Dauid: Thou art not able to go agaynst this Philistyne to fighte with him, for thou art but a childe: but this is a man of warre from his youth vp.

E Dauid sayde vnto Saul: Thy seruaunt kepte his fathers shepe, and there came a lyon and a Bere, and caried awaye a shepe from the flocke, then wente I forth after him, and smote him, and delyuered it out of his mouth. * And whan he wolde haue bene vpon me, I toke him by his beerde, and smote him, and slewe him. So thy seruaunt smote both the Lyon and ỳ Bere. Therfore shall this Philistyne this vncircumcysed be euen as one of them: for he hath defyed the hoost of the lyuynge God. And Dauid sayde: The LORDE that delyuered me from ỳ Lyon and Beer, shall delyuer me also from this Philistyne.

And Saul sayde vnto Dauid: Go thy waye, the LORDE be with the. And Saul clothed Dauid with his clothes, and set an helmet of stele vpon his heade, and put an habergion vpō him. And Dauid girded his swerde aboue his clothes, and beganne to go, for he had neuer bene vsed to it afore. Then sayde Dauid vnto Saul: I can not go thus, for I haue not bene vsed to it, and so he laied it from him, and toke his staff in his hande, and chose fyue slighte stones out of the ryuer, and put them in the shepardes bagge which he had by him, and toke a slynge in his hande, and made him to the Philistyne. And the Philistyne wente forth, and made him to Dauid, and his wapen bearer before him.

Now whan the Philistyne loked * sawe Dauid, he thoughte scorne of him: for he was but a childe, well coloured, and beautyfull to loke vpon. And the Philistyne sayde vnto Dauid: Am I a dogg then, that thou commest vnto me with a staffe: And he cursed Dauid by his God, and sayde vnto Dauid: Come hither to me, I wil gene thy flesh to the foules vnder the heauen, and to the beastes in the felde. Nevertheles Dauid sayde vnto the Philistyne: Thou commest vnto me with swerde, speare and shylde. But I come vnto the in the name of the LORDE Zebaoth the God of the hoost of Israel, whom thou hast despysed. This daye shall the LORDE delyuer the into my hāde, that I maye smyte the, and take thy heade from the, and gene the bodies of the hoost of the Philistynes this daye vnto the foules vnder the heauen, and to the wylde beestes vpon the earth, that all the londe maye knowe ỳ Israel hath a God. And all this congregacion shal knowe, that the LORDE sauethe not ther thorow swerde ner speare: for the battayll is the LORDES, and he shal delyuer you into oure handes.

Now whan the Philistyne gat him vp, and wente forth and drue nye vnto Dauid, Dauid made haiste, and ranne from ỳ hoost vnto the Philistyne. And Dauid put his hāde in his bagg, and toke out a stone, and threw it with the slynge, * and hytt the Philistyne euen in the fore heade, so that the stone stacke in his fore heade, and he fell downe to the grounde vpon his face.

So Dauid ouercame ỳ Philistyne with the slynge and with ỳ stone, and smote him, and slewe him. And for so moch as Dauid had no swerde in his hande, he ranne and stode ouer ỳ Philistyne, * and toke his swe de, and drue it out of the sheeth, and slewe him, and smote of his heade withall. Whan the Philistynes sawe that the strongest of them was deed, * they fled. And the men of Israel and Juda gat thē vp, and cryed and folowed vpon the Philistynes, tyll they came vnto the valley, and to the Portes of Ekron. And the Philistynes fell downe slayne vnto Gath and to Ekron. And the children of Israel turned agayne from chasynge of the Philistynes, and spoyled their tentes. But Dauid toke the heade of the Philistyne, and broughte it vnto Jerusalem, as for his armoure, he layed it in his tente.

Whan Saul sawe Dauid go forth agaynst the Philistyne, he saide vnto * Abner his chefe captayne: Abner, whose sonne is this childe? Abner sayde: As truly as thy soule lyueth O kynge, I wote not. The kynge sayde: Axe thē whose sonne the yonge mā is. Now whan Dauid came agayne from the slaughter of the Philistyne, Abner toke him, and broughte him before Saul, and he had the Philistynes heade in his hande. And Saul sayde vnto him: Whose sonne art thou, thou yonge man? Dauid sayde: I am a sonne of thy seruaunt Jsai the Bethleemite.

The XVIII. Chapter.

A AND whan he had made an ende of talkynge with Saul, the soule of Jonathas was bounde with the soule of Dauid, and Jonathas loued him as his owne soule. And Saul toke him the same daye, and let him not go agayne to his fathers house. And Jonathas and Dauid made a couenaunt together, for he loued him as his owne soule. And Jonathas put of his owne cote that he had vpon him, and gaue it vnto Dauid: yee and his cloke, his swerde, his bowe, and his girdell. And Dauid wente forth whither so euer Saul sent him, and behaued him selfe wysely. And Saul set him ouer the men of warre, and he pleased all the people well, and all the seruauntes of Saul.

B Je fortuned, that whan Dauid was come agayne from the slaughter of the Philistyne, the wemen wente out of all the cities of Jsrael with songes & daunses, to mete kynge Saul, with tymbrels, with myrth, and with fyddels. And the wemen sange one to another, and played & sayde: * Saul hath smytten his thousande: but Dauid his ten thousande.

Then was Saul very wroth, and ỹ worde displeased him sore, and he sayde: They haue ascrybed ten thousande vnto Dauid, and but one thousande vnto me: what shal he haue more but the kyngdome? And from that daye forth, Saul loked sowerly vpō Dauid.

C The nexte daye after came the euell spryte of God vpon Saul, and prophecyed in ỹ myddes of the house. But Dauid played on the instrumente with his hande, as he was wonte daylie. And Saul had a iauelynge in his hande, and cast it, and thoughte: I wyll stycke Dauid fast to the wall. Nevertheless Dauid turned himselfe twyse awaye from him. And Saul was afrayed of Dauid: for the LORDE was with him, and was departed from Saul. Then Saul put him from him, and set him to be prynce ouer a thousande men, and he went out and in before the people. And Dauid behaued himselfe wysely in all his doynges, and the LORDE was with him.

D Now whan Saul sawe that he was so exceadynge wyse, he stode in feare of him. But all Jsrael and Juda loued Dauid, for he wente out and in before them. And Saul sayde vnto Dauid: Beholde, my greatest doughter Merob * wyl I gene the to wyfe: be stronge now, & gouerne the warres of the LORDE. For Saul thought: my hāde shal not be vpon him, but the hande of ỹ Philistynes. Nevertheles Dauid answerd Saul: Who am I? & what is my lyfe & the kynred of my father in Jsrael, that I shulde mary the kinges doughter? * 1 Re. 17. c

E But whan the tyme came, that Merob ỹ doughter of Saul shulde haue bene genē vnto Dauid, she was geuen vnto Adriel ỹ Meholathite to wyfe. Nevertheless Michol Sauls doughter loued Dauid. Whan this was tolde Saul, ỹ matter pleased him well, & he sayde: I wyl geue him her, ỹ she maye be a snare vnto him, & that the handes of ỹ Philistynes maye come vpon him. And he sayde vnto Dauid: This daye shalt thou be my doughters hußbāde ỹ secōde time. And Saul spake vnto his seruaūtes: Talke ō Dauid secretly & saye: Beholde, the kinge hath pleasure in the, and all his seruauntes loue the, mary thou therfore the kynges doughter.

F And Sauls seruauntes spake these wordes in the eares of Dauid. But Dauid saide: Thynke ye it but a small matter, to mary the kynges doughter? As for me, I am but a poore symple man. And Sauls seruauntes tolde him agayne, and sayde: Soch wordes hath Dauid spoken. Saul sayde: Then saye ye vnto Dauid: The kynge desyreth no dowry, but onely an hundreth foreskynnes of the Philistynes, that vengeaunce maye be taken of the kinges enemies. Howbeit Saul thought to cause Dauid be slayne by the hādes of the Philistynes. Then his seruauntes colde Dauid these wordes, and Dauid was contente with the matter, to mary the kynges doughter.

G And after a fewe dayes Dauid gatt him vp, and wente with his men, and smote two hundreth men amonge the Philistynes. And Dauid broughte their foreskynnes, and made their nombre sufficient vnto the kynge, ỹ he mighte mary the kynges doughter. Thē Saul gaue him his doughter Michol to wyfe. And Saul sawe and perceaued, that the LORDE was wt Dauid. And Michol Sauls doughter loued him. Then was Saul the more afrayed, and became his enemye as lōge as he lyued. And whan the princes of the Philistynes wēre forth, Dauid behaued himselfe more wysely then all the seruauntes of Saul in their outgoynge: so that his name was in greate reputacion.

The XIX. Chapter.

A SAul spake to Jonathas his sonne, and to all his seruauntes, that they shulde kyll Dauid. * Neuertheless Jonathas the sonne of Saul loued Dauid exceadingly, and tolde him, and sayde: Saul my father goeth aboute to slaye the. Kepe the therfore (I praye the) in the morninge and abyde in secrete, and hyde the. But I wyll go forth, and stonde besyde my father in the felde where thou art, and wyll speake of the vnto my father: and what soeuer I se I shal bringe the worde.

And Jonathas reported ỹ best of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and sayde vnto him: Oh let not the kynge synne agaynst his seruaunte, for he hath not synned agaynst the, and his doynge is very necessary for the, * he put his lyfe in his hande also, and smote the Philistyne, & the LORDE dyd a greate health vnto all Israel: this hast thou sene, and reioysed therof. Wherfore wylt thou then offende agaynst innocent blonde, that thou woldest kyll Dauid without a cause? Then herkened Saul vnto the voice of Jonathas and sware: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, he shal not dye. Then Jonathas called Dauid, and tolde him all these wordes, and brought him to Saul, so that he was in presence like as afore tyme.

But there arose a battayll agayne, and Dauid wente forth, and fought agaynst the Philistynes, and smote a greate slaughter, so that they fled before him. Neuertheles ỹ euell sprete of the LORDE came vpon Saul, and he sat in his house, and had a iauelynge in his hande. But Dauid plaied vpon the instrument with his hāde. And Saul thought with the iauelinge to sticke Dauid fast to the wall. Howbeit, he wente asyde frō Saul, and the iauelynge smote in the wall. And Dauid fled, and escaped that night.

Notwithstondinge Saul sent his messaungers to Dauids house, that they shulde laye wayte for him, and kyll him in the morninge. Michol Dauids wyfe tolde him this, and sayde: Yf thou saue not thy soule this night, thou shalt dye tomorow. Then Michol let him downe thorow the wyndow, so that he wente his waye, fled, and escaped. And Michol toke an ymage, and layed it in the bed, and laied a goates ßkinne at the heade of it, and couered it with clothes. Then Saul sent messaūgers, to fetch Dauid. But she sayde: He is sicke. Neuertheless Saul sent messaungers to se Dauid, & sayde: Bringe him vp to me with the bed, that he maye be slayne.

Now whan the messaungers came, beholde, the ymage laye in the bed, and a goates ßkynne at the heade of it. Then sayde Saul vnto Michol: Why hast thou beguyled me, and let myne enemye go, that he mighte escape? Michol sayde vnto Saul: He sayde vnto me: Let me go, or I wyl kyll the. So for Dauid, he fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel vnto Ramath, and tolde him all ỹ Saul had done vnto him. And he wente wt Samuel, and they abode at Naioth.

And it was tolde Saul: Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Ramath. Then Saul sente messaungers to fetch Dauid. And they sawe a company of prophetes prophecienge, and Samuel had the ouersight of them. Then came the sprete of God vpon the messaungers of Saul, so that they prophecyed also.

Whan this was tolde Saul, he sent other messaungers, which prophecied likewyse. Then sente he messaungers the thyrde tyme, and they in like maner prophecyed. Then wente he himselfe also vnto Ramath, and whan he came to the greate well which is at Secho, he axed and sayde: Where is Samuel and Dauid? Then was it tolde him: beholde, at Naioth in Ramath. And he wente thither, euen vnto Naioth in Ramath. And ỹ sprete of God came vpon him also, and he wēte & prophecied till he came vnto Naioth in Ramath. And he put of his clothes, & prophecied likewise before Samuel, & fell downe naked all that daye and all that nighte. * Here of came the prouerbe: Is Saul also amonge the prophetes?

The XX. Chapter.

A Dauid fled frō Naioth in Ramath, and came, & spake before Jonathas: What haue I done? What trespace haue I made? What haue I synned in ẏ sighte of thy father, ẏ he seketh to kyll me? He sayde vnto him: God forbyd, thou shalt not dye. Beholde, my father doth nothinge, nether greate ner small, but he sheweth it before myne eares. Wherfore shulde my father thē hyde this fro me? It shal not be so. Thē sware Dauid agayne, and sayde: Thy father knoweth well, ẏ I haue founde fauoure in ẏ sighte, therfore shal he thynke: Jonathas shal not knowe of this, lest it greue him. Verely, as truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as ẏ soule lyueth, there is but one steppe betwene me & death. Jonathas sayde vnto Dauid: I wil do for the what so euer thy hert desyreth. Dauid sayde vnto him: Behold, tomorow is the new Mone, that I shulde syt at the table with the kynge. Let me hyde my selfe therfore in the felde vnto the B thirde daye at euen. Yf thy father then aske after me, saye: Dauid prayed me, ẏ he might runne to Bethleem vnto his cite, for all his kynred haue there a yearly sacrifice. Yf he saye then: It is good, thē stondeth it well with ẏ seruaunt. But yf he be wroth, thou shalt perceaue that he intendeth euell. Do mercy therfore vpon thy seruaunt: * for with me ẏ seruaunt hast thou made a couenaunt in the LORDE. But yf there be eny trespace in me, then slaye me thy selfe, for why wolldest thou bringe me vnto thy father?

Jonathas sayde: That be farre from the, that I shulde perceaue my father to intende eny euell agaynst the, and shulde not tell the. Dauid sayde: Who shal bringe me worde, yf thy father geue the an harde answere? Jonathas sayde vnto Dauid: Come, let vs go forth into the felde. And they wente out both in to ẏ felde. And Jonathas sayde vnto Dauid:

LORDE God of Jsrael, yf I perceaue by my father tomorow or on the thirde daye, that it goeth well with Dauid, & sende not vnto the, and shewe the before thine eares, then let the LORDE do this and that vnto Jonathas. But yf my father delyte in euell agaynst the, I wil shewe it before thine eares also, and let ẏ go, that thou mayest departe in peace.

And the LORDE be with the, as he hath bene with my father. Yf I do it not, then do thou no mercy of the LORDE on me, while I lyue, no not whan I dye, and plucke thy mercy fro my house for euer. And whan the LORDE roteth out ẏ enemies of Dauid, euery one out of the londe, then let Dauid rote out Jonathas also with his house, and the LORDE requyre it of the hande of Dauids enemies.

And Jonathas proceaded further, and sware vnto Dauid (he loued him so well: for he loued him euen as his owne soule) and Jonathas sayde vnto him: Tomorow is ẏ new Mone, and thou shalt be axed after: for thou shalt be wanted where thou wast wonte to sit. But on the thirde daye come downe soone, & go in to ẏ place where thou hydest the on the worckdaye, & set the downe by the stone of Asel: then wyl I shute thre arowes on ẏ side, as though I wolde shute at a marck: and beholde, I wil sende the boye, and saye vnto him, Go seke ẏ arowes. Yf I saye now D vnto the lad: Lo, the arowes lye hitherwarde behynde ẏ, fetch them, then come thou, for it is peace, and there is no parell, as truly as the LORDE lyueth. But yf I saye vnto the lad: beholde, the arowes lye yonderwarde before the, then go thou thy waye, for the LORDE hath let the go. * As for that which 1.Re.20.1 thou and I haue spokē together, the LORDE is betwene me and the for euer.

Dauid hid himself in the felde. And whē the new Mone came, the kynge sat him downe at the table to eate. Whan the kynge had set him downe in his place as he was wonte by the wall, Jonathas stode vp, but Abner sat him downe beside Saul. And Dauid was myssed in his place. And Saul spake nothinge that daye, for he thoughte: There is somwhat happend vnto him, that he is not cleane. On the seconde daye of the new Mone, whan Dauid was myssed in his place, Saul saide vnto Jonathas his sonne: Wherfore is not the sonne of Jsai come to the table nether yesterdaye ner to daye?

Jonathas answered Saul: He prayed me E that he mighte go vnto Bethleem, and sayde: Let me go, for oure kynred hath a sacrifyce to do in the cyte, and my brother hath sent for me himselfe: yf I haue founde fauoure now in thy syghte, I wyll go, and se my brethren: therfore is he not come to the kynges table. Then was the kynge wroth at Jonathas, and sayde vnto him: Thou wicked and vnthrifte, I knowe how that thou hast chosen the sonne of Jsai, to the shame of thy selfe and of ỳ shamefull mother. For as longe as ỳ sonne of Jsai lyueth vpõ earth nether thou ner thy kingdome shal prospere. Sende now therfore, and cause him to be fet- 1.Re.20.c ched vnto me, * for he is a childe of death.

Jonathas answered his father Saul and sayde vnto him: Wherfore shal he dye? what hath he done? Then shot Saul the iauelynge at him, that he might smite him. Thẽ perceaued Jonathas, that his father was vterly determed to kyll Dauid, and he rose vp from ỳ table in a wroth full displeasure, and ate no bred ỳ same seconde daye of the new Mone: for he was vexed because of Dauid, that his father had done him soch dishonõ.

F On the morow wente Jonathas forth into the felde, at the tyme appoynted of Dauid, and a litle boy with him, and sayde vnto ỳ boy: Runne and sek me the arowes which J shute. Whan the boy ranne, he shot an arowe ouer him. And whan the boy came to the place whither Jonathas had shot ỳ arowe, Jonathas cryed after him, and sayde: The arowe lyeth yonder warde before the. And he cryed after him agayne: haist the, and stonde not styll. Then the boy gathered vp Jonathas arowes, and brought them to his lorde. And the boy knewe nothinge, onely Jonathas and Dauid knewe of ỳ matter.

Then Jonathas gaue his boy his wapẽs and sayde vnto him: Go thy ways, and cary them in to the cite. And whan the boy was gone, Dauid arose from the place towarde the south, and fell vpon his face to the groũde, and worshipped thre tymes, and they kissed one another, and wepte together. But Dauid most specially. And Jonathas saide 1.Re.20.d vnto Dauid: Go thy waye in peace: What soeuer we both haue sworne & spokẽ together in the name of the LORDE, the LORDE be witnesse betwene me and the, betwene my sede and ỳ sede for euer. And Jonathas gat him vp, and came in to the cite.

The XXI. Chapter.

A Dauid came to Nobe to ỳ prest Ahimelech. And Ahimelech was astonnyed, whan he sawe Dauid comminge, and sayde vnto him: Why commest thou alone, and noman is with the? Dauid sayde vnto * Ahimelech the prest: The kinge hath 1.Re.14.a cõmytted a matter vnto me, and sayde: Let nomã knowe wherfore J haue sent the, and what J haue commaunded the: for J haue appoynted my seruauntes to mete me here & there. * Yf thou haue now ought vnder thy 1.Re.25.b hande, a loafe of bred or fyne, geue me the same in my hande, or what so euer thou findest. 1.Re.8.b

The prest answered Dauid, and sayde: J haue no comen bred vnder my hande, but holy bred, yf the yonge men haue onely refrayned them selues from wemen. Dauid answered the prest, and sayde vnto him: The wemen were kepte thre dayes from vs whan we departed forth, and the yonge mens vessels were holy. But this waye is vnholy, neuertheless it shalbe santifyed to daye in the instrumentes. * Then the prest gaue him ỳ holy, in so moch as there was none other bred but the shewbredes, which were taken vp before the LORDE, that there might be other freshbredes set therin the daye whan he toke them awaye.

But the same daye was there a man spyred in before the LORDE, one of Sauls seruauntes, named Doeg an Edomite, ỳ mightiest amonge Sauls hyrdmen. And Dauid sayde vnto Ahimelech: Js there not a spere or a swerde here vnder thine hande? Jhaue not taken my swerde and weapens with me: for the kynges matter requyred haist. The prest sayde: The swerde of Goliath the Philistyne * whom thou smotest in the Oke valley, is here wrapped in a cloth behynde the ouerbody cote. Yf thou wylt haue it, take it, for here is els none but it. Dauid sayde: There is not soch another, gene me it.

And Dauid gat him vp, and fled from Saul, and came to Achis ỳ kynge of Gath. But Achis seruauntes sayde vnto him: This is Dauid the kynge of the londe, of whom they synge in the daunse, and sayde: * Saul hath smytten his thousande, but Dauid ten thousande. And Dauid toke these wordes to hert, and was sore afrayed of Achis the kynge of Gath, and altered his countenaunce before them, and shewed himself as he had bene madd in their handes, and skratched towarde the dores of the gate, and his slauerynges ranne downe his beerd. Then sayde Achis vnto his seruauntes: Beholde, ye se that the man is out of his wyt, why haue ye brought him vnto me? Haue J to fore madd men, that ye haue brought this body to be madd before me? Shulde he come in to my house?

The XXII. Chapter.

Dauid wente frõ thence, & fled vnto the caue of Adullam. Whan his brethren and all his fathers house herde that, they came downe thither vnto him. And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble and det, and sory of hert, and he became their heade, so that there re with him vpon a foure hundreth men.

And Dauid wente from thence towarde Maspa in the londe of the Moabites, and sayde vnto the kynge of the Moabites: Let my father and my mother go out and in amonge you, tyll I se what God wil do with me. And he lefte them before the kynge of the Moabites, so that they remayned by him, as longe as Dauid was in the castell. Nevertheles the prophet Gad sayde vnto Dauid: Abyde not in the castell, but go thy waye, and come into the londe of Juda. Then departed Dauid, and came into the wodd of Hareth. And Saul herde that Dauid and the men which were with him, were come forth.

B Now whyle Saul dwelt at Gibea vnder a grove in Rama, he had a Javelinge in his hande, and all his servauntes stode by him. Then sayde Saul vnto his servauntes that stode by him: Heare ye children of Jemini: Shal the sonne of Jsai geve lōdes and vyn yardes vnto you all, & make you all captaynes over thousandes and over hūdreds, that ye have all conspyred agaynst me, and there is no mā that sheweth it before myne eares, for so moch as my sonne also hath made a covenaunt with the sonne of Jsai: There is no man amonge you that letteth it for my sake, or that openeth it vnto myne eares: for my sonne hath stered vp my servauntes against me, that he maye laye wayte for me, as it is manifest.

Then answered Doeg the Edomite which stode beside Sauls servauntes, and sayde: I sawe the sonne of Jsai, that he came vnto Nobe, to Ahimelech the sonne of Achitob, which axed councell at the LORDE for him, and gave him fode, & the swerde of Goliath the Philistyne.

C Then sent the kynge, and caused to call Ahimelech the prest the sonne of Achitob, and all his fathers house, the prestes that were at Nobe, and they came all to the kynge. And Saul sayde: Heare thou sonne of Achitob. He saide: Here am I my lorde. And Saul sayde vnto him: Wherfore have ye cōspyred agaynst me, thou & the sonne of Jsai, that thou hast geven him bred and a swerde, and axed councell at God for him, to stere him vp, that he mighte laye awayte for me, as it is manifest?

Ahimelech answered the kynge and saide: And who is amonge all thy servauntes like Dauid, which is faithfull, and hath maried the kynges doughter, and goeth in thine obedience, & is honorably taken in thine house?

Have I begonne then first this daye to axe councell at God for him? That be farre fro me. Let not the kinge laie soch to his servauntes charge in all my fathers house: for thy servaunt knewe not of all these thinges nether small ner greate. Nevertheles the kynge saide: Ahimelech thou must dye the death, thou and all thy fathers house. And the kynge sayde to his fote men that stode by him: Turne you, and slaye the prestes of the LORDE, for their hande is with Dauid also.

D Not withstondinge the kynges servauntes wolde not not laye their handes vpon the prestes of the LORDE, to slaye them. Then saide the kynge vnto Doeg: Turne the, and slaye the prestes. 1.Reg.2.g Doeg the Edomite turned him, 3.Re.21.a and slewe the prestes, so that the same daye there dyed fyve and foure score men, which waye ouerbody cotes of lynnen. And Nob the cite of the prestes smote he with the edge of the swerde, both men and wemen, children and sucklynges, oxen and asses, and shepe.

Nevertheless there escaped a sonne of Ahimelech (the sonne of Achitob) whose name was Abiathar, and fled after Dauid, and tolde him, that Saul had slayne the prestes of the LORDE. Dauid sayde vnto Abiathar: I knewe well the same daye that Doeg the Edomite was there, that he wolde tell Saul. I am giltye of the soules of thy fathers house. Abyde thou with me, and feare not. He that layeth wayte for my lyfe, shall laye wayte for thyne also, and thou shalt be preserued with me.

The XXIII. Chapter.

AND it was tolde Dauid: Beholde, the A Philistynes fight against Cegila, and spoyle the barnes. Then Dauid axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shal I go, & smyte these Philistynes? And the LORDE sayde vnto Dauid: Go thy waye, thou shalt smyte the Philistynes, and delyver Cegila. But the men that were with Dauid, sayde vnto him: Beholde, we are here in feare in Jewry, and shall we go to Cegila vnto the hooste of the Philistynes? Thē Dauid axed at the LORDE agayne. And the LORDE answered him, and sayde: Vp, get the downe to Cegila, for I wil delyver the Philistynes in to thy hande.

So Dauid wente with his men vnto Cegila, and soughte agaynst the Philistynes, & drove awaye their catell, and smote them wt a greate slaughter. Thus Dauid delyvered them of Cegila. For whan Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled vnto Dauid at Cegila, he bare downe the overbody cote with him.

Thē was it tolde Saul, that Dauid was come to Cegila, and he sayde: God hath delyuered him in to my hāde, for he is shut fast in, now that he is come in to a cite which is kepte w' gates and barres. And Saul caused for to call all the people downe to ỹ batt aill vnto Cegila, ỹ they might besege Dauid and his men. But whan Dauid perceaued ỹ Saul intēded euell against him, he saide vnto Abiathar ỹ prest: ✱ Brynge me hither the ouerbody cote. And Dauid sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, thy seruaunt hath herde, that Saul goeth aboute to come for to destroye the cite of Cegila for my sake. Shal the cityzens of Cegila delyuer me ouer in to his handes? And shal Saul come downe, as thy seruaunt hath herde? Tell thy seruaunt this, O LORDE God of Israel. And the LORDE saide: He shal come downe.

C Dauid sayde: Shall the cityzens of Cegila delyuer me and my men in to Sauls handes? The LORDE sayde: Yee. Thē Dauid gat him vp with his mē, of whom there were vpon a sixe hundreth, & walked whither they coulde. Now whan it was tolde Saul that Dauid was escaped from Cegila, he let his iourney stonde. As for Dauid, he remayned in the wildernes in the castell, and abode vpon the mount in the wildernes of Siph. But Saul soughte him as longe as he lyued. Neuertheles God gaue him not in to his handes. And Dauid sawe, that Saul was gone forth to seke after his life. But Dauid was in the wildernes of Siph, in the wodd.

Then Jonathas the sonne of Saul gat him vp, and wēte vnto Dauid in to the wod, and strengthed his hande in God, and sayde vnto him: Feare not, my father Sauls hande shal not finde ỹ: and thou shalt be kynge ouer Israel, so will I be the nexte vnto the. D And ỹ my father knoweth right well. ✱ And 1. Re. 18. a and 20. b they made a couenaunt both together before the LORDE. And Dauid remayned in the wodd. As for Jonathas, he wente home agayne.

Par. 2. C But the Siphites wente vp to Saul vnto Gibeath, and sayde: Is not Dauid hyd with vs in the castell in ỹ wodd, vpon mōut Hachila, which lyeth on the righte hande of the wildernesse? Let the kynge come downe now therfore acordinge to all the desyre of his hert, and we wyll delyuer him in to the kynges hande. Then sayde Saul: Blessed be ye of the LORDE, that ye haue had pytie vpon me: Go youre waye now therfore, and be sure, that ye maye knowe and se in what place his fete haue bene, and who hath sene him there: for it is tolde me, that he is full of sotiltye. Loke well and spye out all the places, where he hydeth him, and come agayne to me, whan ye are sure, and I will go with you. Yf he be in the londe, I wyl enquere after him amonge all the thousandes in Juda.

Then gat they them vp, and wente their waye vnto Siph before Saul. But Dauid and his men were in the wyldernes of Maon, euen in the felde on the righte hande of the wildernes. Now whan Saul wente thither with his men to seke him, it was tolde Dauid and he gat him downe to the rocke, and abode in the wildernesse of Mahon. Whan Saul herde that, he folowed after Dauid in the wildernesse of Mahon. And Saul with his men wente on the one syde of the hyll, Dauid w' his men on ỹ other syde of ỹ hyll. But whan Dauid made haist to escape from Saul, Saul with his men compased about Dauid and his men, that he might take them. ✱ Neuertheles there came a messāger vnto Saul, and sayde: Make haist and come, for the Philistynes are fallē in to the londe. Then Saul turned him from chacynge of Dauid, and wente agaynst the Philistynes. Therfore is ỹ place called ✱ Sela Mahelkoth. And Dauid wente vp from thence, and abode in the castell at En Gaddi.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

NOw whan Saul came agayne from the Philistines, it was tolde him. Beholde, Dauid is in the wyldernes of Engaddi. And Saul toke thre thousande chosen men out of all Israel, and wente to seke Dauid with his men vpon the stony rockes of the wylde goates. And whan he came to the shepe foldes by ỹ waye, there was a cane, and Saul wente in to ✱ couer his fete. But Dauid and his men sat behinde within the cane.

Then sayde Dauids men vnto him: Lo, this is the daye, wherof the LORDE thy God hath sayde vnto the: Beholde, I wyll delyuer thyne enemye in to thy hande, that thou mayest do w' him what it pleaseth the. And Dauid stode vp, & cut of the typpe of Sauls garment quyetly. Neuertheles it smote him afterwarde in his hert, because he had cut of the typpe of Sauls garment, and sayde vnto his men: The LORDE let that be farre from me, that I shulde do it, & laye my hande vpon my lorde the LORDES anoynted: for he is ỹ anoynted of the LORDE. And Dauid withstode his seruaūtes with wordes, & suffred them not to ryse vp agaynst Saul.

But whan Saul gat him vp out of the caue, and was goinge his waye, Dauid rose vp also after him, and wente out of the caue, and cried behynde Saul, & sayde: My lorde the kynge. And Saul loked behynde him. And Dauid bowed downe his face to the earth, and worshipped, and sayde vnto Saul: Why herkenest thou vnto the wordes of men, that saye: Dauid seketh thy myssortune? Beholde, thine eyes se this daye that the LORDE gaue the in to my hande in the caue, and I was counceled to slaye the: Ne-uertheles thou wast sauoured, for I sayde: I wil not laye my hande vpon my lorde, for he is the LORDES anoynced. Beholde, my father the typpe of thy garment in my han-de, that I wolde not slaye the, whan I cut of the typpe of thy garment. Knowe and se, ỳ there is no euell ner trespace in my han de: neither have I offended the, and thou so-lowest after my soule, to take it awaye. The LORDE shal be iudge betwene me and the,

and auenge me on the, but my hãde shal not be vpon the, accordinge as it is sayde after the olde prouerbe: Vngodlynes commeth of the vngodly: but my hande shal not be vpon the. Whom persecutest thou O kynge of Israel, whom persecutest thou? a deed dogge?
a flee? The LORDE be iudge, and geue sentence betwene me and the, and cõsidre it, and defende my cause, and delyuer me from thy hande.

Now whan Dauid had spoken out these wordes vnto Saul, Saul sayde: Is not this thy voyce my sonne Dauid? And Saul lifte vp his voyce, and wepte, and sayde vnto Da-uid: Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast recompẽsed me good, but I haue rewarded the euell. And this daye hast thou shewed me how thou hast done me good, for so moch as ỳ LORDE hath delyuered me in to thy hande, and thou neuertheles hast not slaine me. What is he, which yf he fynde his enemye, wyllet him go in a good waye? The LORDE rewarde the good for ỳ thou hast done vnto me this daye? Beholde now, I knowe that thou shalt be kynge, & the kyng dome of Israel stondeth in thy hande: sweare now therfore vnto me by the LORDE, ỳ thou shalt not rote out my sede after me, nether destroie my name out of my fathers hou se. And Dauid sware vnto Saul. Then wen de Saul home, but Dauid gat him vp with his men vnto the castell.

The XXV. Chapter.

And Samuel dyed, and all Israel gathered them selues togethe, mourned for him, & buried him in his house at Ramath. As for Dauid, he rose, and wente downe in to the wylderneſſe of Paran. And there was a man at Maon, and his possession at Carmel, and the man was of greate power, and had thre thousande shepe, and a thousande goates. And it fortuned that he clypped his shepe at Carmel, and his name was Nabal, but his wynes name was Abigail, and she was a woman of good vnder-stondinge, & bewtyfull of face. But the man was harde, and wicked in his doynges, and was one of Caleb.

Now whan Dauid herde in the wyldernes ỳ Nabal clypped his shepe, he sent out ten yonge men, & saide vnto them: Go vp vn to Carmel, & whan ye come to Nabal, salute him frendly on my behalfe, & saye: Good luc ke, peace be wt the & thine house, & with all ỳ thou hast. I haue herde saye that thou hast shepe clyppers. Now ỳ shepherdes whom thou hast, haue bene with vs, we haue done them no dishonoure, and they wãted nothin ge of their nombre, as longe as they were at Carmel: Axe thy yonge men, they shal tell the, and let thy yonge men fynde sauoure in ỳ sighte: for we are come in a good daye, giue thy seruauntes & thy sonne Dauid what thy hande fyndeth.

And whã Dauids yonge men came, and spake all these wordes on Dauids behalfe vn to Nabal, they lefte of. But Nabal answered Dauids seruauntes, & sayde: What is he ỳ Dauid? & who is the sonne of Isai? There are many seruauntes now ỳ runne awaye from their masters. Shulde I take my bred, water and flesh, that I haue slayne for my clyppers, & geue it vnto mẽ whom I knowe not whence they are?

Thẽ Dauids yonge mẽ turned their waye agayne. And whan they came agayne vnto him, they tolde him all these wordes. Thẽ say de Dauid vnto his men: Euery man gyrde his swerde aboute him. And euery one gyr-de his swerde aboute him. And Dauid gyr-de his swerde aboute him also, and there wẽ te vp after him vpon a foure hundreth men, but two hundreth remayned wt the stuffe.

Neuertheles Abigail Nabals wife tolde
one of hir yonge men, and sayde: Beholde, Dauid sent messaungers out of the wyldernes to blesse oure lorde, Notwithstondinge he was fearce vpõ them, and yet haue they bene very profitable men vnto vs, and haue done vs no dishonoure, and we wanted none of the nombre as lõge as we walked with them, whan we were in the felde: but they haue bene oure wall daye and nyghte, as lon

ge as we kepte the shepe by them. Take hede now therfore, and loke well what thou doest, for there is surely a myssortune at hande agaynst oure lorde, & agaynst all his house. And he is a man of Belial, to whom no man darre saye eny thinge. Then Abigail made haist, and toke two hundred loaves of bred, and two botels of wyne, and fyue shepe ready dighte, and fyue measures of firmentye, and an hundreth frayles of rasens, and two hundreth frayles of fygges, & layed them vpō asses, and sayde to hir yonge men: Go ye youre waye before me, beholde, I wyl come after. And she tolde Nabal hir housbāde nothinge therof. And as she rode vpō the asse, and wente downe in the shadowe of ỳ hill, beholde, Dauid & his mē met hir downe, so that she came vpon them.

D But Dauid sayde: Wel, all that this man had in ỳ wyldernes, haue I kepte for naughte, so that there wanted nothinge of all that he had, and he rewardeth me euell for good. God do this and yet more vnto the enemies of Dauid, yf vntyll tomorow in the mornynge I leaue this man (of all that he hath) so moch as one that maketh water agaynst ỳ wall. Now whan Abigail sawe Dauid, she lighte downe from the asse in all the haist, and fell vpō hir face before Dauid, and worshiped him to the grounde, and fell at his fete, and sayde: Oh my lorde, let this trespace be myne, and let thy handmayde speake before thine eares, and heare the wordes of thy handmayden: Let not my lorde set his hert agaynst this Nabal the man of Belial, for he is a foole, acordinge as his name is called: his name is foole, and foolishnes is with him. As for me thy handmayde, I sawe not my lordes yonge men, whom thou dyddest sende.

But now my lorde, as truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, the LORDE hath kepte the backe, ỳ thou shuldest not come agaynst blonde, and he hath delyuered thine hande.

E Thine enemyes be now as Nabal, and so be they that wolde my lorde euell. Here is ỳ blessynge, ỳ thy handmayde hath brought my lorde, take it, and geue it vnto the yonge men, that walke vnder my lorde. For a sure house shal ỳ LORDE make my lorde, which fighteth the fighte of the LORDE, and no euell shall be founde in the all thy life longe. And yf eny man ryse vp to persecute ỳ, and to laye wayte for thy soule, then shal the soule of my lorde be bounde in the bundell of ỳ lyuynge, euen with the LORDE thy God. But ỳ soule of thine enemies shalbe turned backe wt the slynge. Whan the LORDE therfore doth all this good for my lorde (which he hath promysed the) and commaundeth ỳ to be his Duke ouer Israel, then shal it be no stomblinge blocke ner occasiion of sallynge vnto my lordes hert, that thou hast not shed blonde without a cause, and auenged thy selfe, then shal ỳ LORDE do good vnto my lorde, and thou shalt thynke vpon thy handmayden.

Then saide Dauid vnto Abigail: Blessed be the LORDE God of Israel, which hath sent the to mete me this daye: and blessed be thy speach, and blessed be thou, which hast kepte me backe this daye, that I am not come agaynst blonde, to auenge me with myne awne hande. Verely (as truly as the LORDE the God of Israel lyueth, which hath hyndred me that I shulde do the no euell) Yf thou haddest not met me in all the haist, Nabal shulde not haue had lefte him vntyll ỳ lighte mornynge, so moch as one that maketh water agaynst the wall. So Dauid toke of hir hāde what she had brought him, and sayde vnto her: Go vp in peace vnto thy house: beholde, I haue herkened vnto ỳ voyce, and accepted thy personne.

But whan Abigail came to Nabal, beholde, he had prepared a feast in his house like a kynges feast, and his hert was mery, for he was very dronken. And she tolde him nothinge, nether small ner greate vntyll ỳ clere mornynge. But whan it was daye, & the wyne was come from Nabal, his wife tolde him these thinges.

Then was his hert deed in his body, so that he became euen as a stone: and ouer ten dayes the LORDE smote him, so ỳ he dyed. Whan Dauid herde that Nabal was dead, he sayde: Blessed be ỳ LORDE which hath auenged my rebuke on Nabal, and preserued his seruaunt from euell. And the LORDE hath rewarded Nabal that euell vpon his heade.

And Dauid sent, and caused to talke with Abigail, ỳ he mighte take her to wife. And whan Dauids seruauntes came to Abigail vnto Carmel, they spake vnto her, and saide: Dauid hath sent vs vnto the, that he may take ỳ to wife. She rose vp, and worshipped vpon hir face vnto the earth, and sayde: beholde, here is thy handmayde, that she may do seruyce vnto the seruauntes of my lorde, and to wasshe their fete. And Abigail made haist, and gat her vp, and rode vpō an asse, and fyue maydens that were vnder her, and wente after Dauids messaungers, and became his wife. Dauid toke Ahinoam of Jesrael also, and they both became his wynes. But Saul gaue Michol his doughter the wife of Dauid vnto Phalti ye sonne of Lais of Gallim.

The XXVI. Chapter.

A 1.sa.23 THey of Siph came to Saul vnto Gibeath, & sayde: * Is not Dauid hyd vpō the hill of Hachila, which lyeth ouer agaynst the wylderneſſe? Then Saul gat him vp, and wente downe to the wildernes of Siph, and thre thousande chosen men of Israel with him, to seke Dauid in the wildernes of Siph, and pitched vpon the hill of Hachila, which lyeth by the waye before the wildernes. But Dauid remayned in the wyldernes, and whan he sawe that Saul came after him in to the wildernes, he sent out spyes, and knewe of a suertie, that he was come in dede.

And Dauid gat him vp, and came to the place where Saul had pitched his tēt, and sawe the place where Saul laye with his 1.sa.26 chefe capeayne * Abner ye sonne of Ner: for Saul laye in the tent, and the hooſt aboute him. Then answered Dauid, and sayde vnto Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abisai the sonne of Jeru Ja ye brother of Joab: Who wil go downe wt me to Saul in to the hooſt? Abisai sayde: I wil go downe with the.

D So Dauid and Abisai came to the people in the night season, & beholde, Saul laye and slepte in the tent, and his speare stacke in ye grounde at his heade. But Abner and the people laye rounde aboute him. Thē sayde Abisai vnto Dauid: God hath closed thine enemye in thyne hande this daye. Therfore will I now thruſt him thorow once with the speare euen in to the grounde, ye he shall haue ynough of it. Nevertheles Dauid sayde vnto Abisai: Destroye him not, for who wil laye hande vpon the anoynted of ye LORDE, & remayne vngiltye? Dauid sayde moreouer: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, yf ye LORDE him selfe smyte him not, or excepte his tyme come that he dye, or that he go in to the battayll and perisshe, the LORDE let it be farre fro me, that I shulde laye my hande on the LORDES anoynted. Take ye speare now therfore at his heade, & the cuppe of water, & let vs go. So Dauid toke ye speare & the cuppe of water at Sauls heade, & they wente their waye. And there was no man ye sawe it, ner perceaued it, nether awaked, but they slepte euery one, for there was a depe slepe fallen vpon them from the LORDE.

Now whan Dauid was come ouer on ye C other syde, he stode vpon the toppe of the mount a farre of (so that there was a wyde space betwene them) and cried vpon ye people, and vpō Abner the sonne of Ner, & sayde: Heareſt thou not Abner? And Abner answered and sayde: Who art thou that cryeſt so, and diseaseſt the kynge? And Dauid sayde vnto Abner: Art thou not a man? And where is there soch one as thou in Israel? Why hast thou not then kepte thy lorde ye kynge? for there is one of ye people come in to destroye thy lorde ye kynge. It is not well that thou hast done. As truly as the LORDE lyueth * ye are the children of death, because 1.Re.10. ye have not kepte youre lorde the LORDES anoynted. Beholde now, where is ye kynges speare, and the cuppe of watter that was at his heade.

Then knewe Saul the voyce of Dauid, and saide: * Is not that thy voyce my sonne 1.sa.24. Dauid? Dauid sayde: It is my voyce my lorde the kynge. And he sayde moreouer: Why doth my lorde so persecute his seruaunt? What haue I done? and what euell is there in my hande? Yet let my lorde the kynge heare but the wordes of his seruaunt: If ye D LORDE prouoke the against me, let there be smelled a meatoffrynge: but yf the children of men doit, cursed be they before the LORDE, because they haue thruſt me out this daye (that I shulde not dwell in the LORDES inheritaunce) and saye: Go ye waye, and serue other goddes. So fall not now my blode vpon the earth from the face of the LORDE. For the kynge of Israel is gone forth to seke a flee, as a partriche is folowed on vpō the mountaynes.

And Saul sayde: I haue synned: Come again Dauid my sonne, I wil do the no more hurte, because my soule hath bene deare in ye sighte this daye. Beholde, I haue done foolishly and very vnwysely. Dauid answered and sayde: Beholde, here is the kynges speare, let one of the yongemen come ouer here and fetch it. But the LORDE shal rewarde euery one accordinge to his righteousnes and faith, for ye LORDE delyuered ye this daye in to my hande: nevertheles I wolde not laie my hande vpō the LORDES anoynted. And as ye soule hath bene greatly reputed in my sighte this daye, so let ye LORDE repute my soule in his sighte, & delyuerme from all trouble. Saul saide vnto Dauid: Blessed be thou Dauid my sonne, thou shalt do it, & be able. But Dauid wente his waye, and Saul turned agayne vnto his place.

The XXVII. Chapter.

A DAuid thoughte in his hert: One of these dayes shal I fall into the handes of Saul: It is better that I get me my waye in to ỹ londe of ỹ Philistynes, that Saul maye leaue of from sekynge me in all the coastes of Israel, so shall I escape his handes. And he gat him vp, and wente ouer (with the sixe hundreth men that were with him) vnto Achis the sonne of Maoch kynge of Gath. So Dauid remayned by Achis at Gath, with his mē, euery one with his housholde, and Dauid with his two wyues, Ahinoam the Jesraelitisse, and Abigail Nabals wife of Carmel. And whan worde came to Saul that Dauid was fled vnto Gath, he soughte him nomore.

And Dauid sayde vnto Achis: Yf I haue founde grace in thy sighte, then let there be geuen me a place in one of the cities of the londe, that I maye dwell therin. Wherfore shulde thy seruaunt dwell in the kynges cite with the? Then Achis gaue him Siclag the same daye. Therfore belongeth Siclag to the kynges of Juda vnto this daye. The tyme that Dauid dwelt in the londe of the Philistynes, is foure monethes.

B Dauid wente vp with his men, and fell in to the londe of the Gessurites and Girsites, and Amalechites: for these were the inhabiters of this londe of olde, as thou commest to Sur vnto the lōde of Egipte. But whā Dauid smote ỹ londe, he let nether man ner woman lyue, and toke the shepe, oxen, asses, Camels and rayment, and returned and came to Achis. So whan Achis spake: Whither fell ye in to daye? Dauid sayde: Towarde the south parte of Juda, towarde ỹ south parte of the Jerahmielites, and towarde the south parte of the Kenites. But Dauid let nether man ner woman come lyuynge vnto Geth, and thoughte: They mighte peradnēture speake and reporte agaynst vs: thus dyd Dauid, and this was his maner as longe as he dwelt in ỹ londe of the Philistynes. Therfore Achis gaue credence vnto Dauid, and thoughte: he hath made him selfe stynke before his people of Israel, therfore shal he be my seruaunt for euer.

The XXVIII. Chapter.

A IT fortuned at ỹ same tyme, that the Philistynes gathered their hooste together to the battayll, to go agaynst Israel. And Achis sayde vnto Dauid: Thou shalt knowe, that thou and thy men shal go forth with me in the hooste. Dauid sayde vnto Achis: Well, thou shalt se what thy seruaunt shal do. Achis saide vnto Dauid: Therfore wyll I ordene the to be the keper of my heade as longe as I lyue. * As for Samuel, he was deed, and all ỹ people had mourned for him, and buried him in his cite Ramath. * So Saul had dryuen the soythsayers and expounders of tokens out of ỹ londe. Now whan the Philistynes gathered them selues together, and came and pitched their tentes at Sunem, Saul gathered all the people together, and they pitched at Gilboa. But whan Saul sawe the hooste of the Philistynes, he was afrayed, and his hert was discouraged, and he axed councell at the LORDE. But ỹ LORDE gaue him no answere, nether by dremes, ner by the * lighte, ner by prophetes.

Thē sayde Saul vnto his seruauntes: Seke me a womā which hath a spirite of soythsayēge, that I maye go vnto her, and axe of her. His seruauntes sayde vnto him: Beholde, at Endor is there a woman, which hath a spirite of soythsayenge. And Saul chaunged his clothes, and put on other, and went his waye and two men with him, and came by nighte vnto the woman, and sayde: Prophecye vnto me (I pray the) thorow the spirite of soythsayenge, and bringe me him vp whom I shal name vnto the. The womā sayde vnto him: Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath roted out the soythsayers and witches from the londe, wherfore wilt thou bringe my soule then in to ỹ nett, that I maye be slayne? But Saul swore vnto her by ỹ LORDE, and sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, there shall no harme happen vnto the for this. Then sayde ỹ woman: Whom shal I bringe vp vnto the? He sayde: Bringe me vp Samuel.

Now whan ỹ woman sawe Samuel, she cryed lowde, and sayde vnto Saul: Wherfore hast thou begyled me? Thou art Saul. And the kynge sayde vnto her: Feare not, what seist thou? The woman sayde vnto Saul: I se goddes cōmynge vp out of ỹ earth? He sayde: How is he shapened? She sayde: There commeth vp an olde man, and is clothed with a longe garment. Then perceaued Saul that it was Samuel, and bowed him selfe downe wt his face to the grounde, and worshiped him.

Samuel saide vnto Saul: Why hast thou disquyeted me, to cause me be broughte vp? Saul sayde: I am sore troubled, the Philistynes fighte against me, and God is departed fro me, and geueth me no answere, nether by prophetes ner by dreames: therfore haue I called the, ỹ thou mightest shewe me, what I

D shal do. Samuel sayde: What wilt thou axe at me, seynge the LORDE is departed from the, and is become thine enemye? The LORDE shal do vnto the euen as he spake by me, g.f and shall plucke the kyngdome out of thy hande, and gene it vnto Dauid thy neghboure, because thou hast not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE, ner perfourmed the displeasure of his wrath agaynst Amalek. Therfore hath the LORDE done this now vnto the. Moreouer the LORDE shal delyuer Israel with the also in to the handes of the h.i.a Philistynes: * tomorow shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me. And the hoost of Israel shal the LORDE delyuer in to the handes of the Philistynes. Then fell Saul immediatly vnto the earth, for he coulde not stonde, and was sore afrayed at these wordes of Samuel, so that there was nomore strength in him: for he had eaten no bred all that daye and all that nyght.

E And the woman wente in to Saul, & sawe that he was sore vexed, and sayde vnto him: Beholde, thy handmayde hath herkened vnto thy voyce, and I haue put my soule in my hande, so that I haue herkened vnto ỳ wordes which thou spakest vnto me. Therfore folowe thou also the voyce of thy handmayde. I wil set a morsell of bred before the to eate, that thou mayest come to thy strength, & go ỳ waye. But he refused, and sayde, I wil not eate. Then his seruauntes & the woman cõpelled him, so that he herkened vnto their voyce.

And he rose vp from ỳ grounde, and sat vpon the bed. The woman had a fat calfe at home, so she made haist, and kylled it, and toke meell and dyd kneet it, and baked swete cakes, & broughte them forth before Saul, & before his seruauntes. And whan they had eaten, they stode vp, and wẽte their waye ỳ nighte.

The XXIX. Chapter.

A The Philistynes gathered all their armies together at Aphek. But Israel pitched at Ain in Jesrael. And the princes of the Philistynes wẽte forth with hundreds and with thousandes, but Dauid and his men wẽte behynde with Achis. Thẽ sayde the princes of the Philistynes: What shal these Hebrues do: Achis saide vnto thẽ: Is not this Dauid ỳ seruaunt of Saul kynge of Israel, which hath bene with me now yeares and dayes, & I haue founde no euell in him sence the tyme that he fell to me vnto
h.i.c this daye? * Neuertheles the princes of ỳ Philistynes were wroth at him, & sayde vnto him: Let the man turne backe agayne, & abyde in his place, * which thou hast appoynted 1.Re.27 him, that he go not downe with vs to ỳ batayll, and become oure aduersary in ỳ felde. For wherin coulde he better do his lorde a pleasure, thẽ in the heades of these men? Is not this Dauid, of whom they synge in the daunce: * Saul hath smytte his thousande, 1.Re.18. and 21.d
but Dauid his ten thousande? Then Achis called Dauid, and sayde vnto him: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, I take the for an honest man, and thy out goynge and ingoynge with me in ỳ hoost pleaseth me well, and no euell haue I marked in the, sence ỳ tyme that thou camest to me vnto this daye. But thou pleasest not the princes. Returne now therfore, and go ỳ waye in peace, that thou do no euell in the sighte of the princes of ỳ Philistynes.

Dauid sayde: What haue I done, & what B hast thou marked in thy seruaunt, sence ỳ tyme that I haue bene in ỳ presence vnto this daye, that I shulde not come and fighte agaynst the enemies of my lorde the kynge? Achis answered and sayde vnto Dauid: I knowe well that thou pleasest myne eyes euẽ as an angell of God. But the princes of ỳ Philistynes haue sayde: Let him not go vp with vs vnto the batayll. Get the vp therfore tomorow by tymes, and ỳ lordes seruauntes which are come with the. And whan ye haue gotten you vp early in the mornynge, whan it is lighte, go ỳ waye. So Dauid & his men gat them vp early, to go their waye in the mornynge, and to come agayne in to the londe of the Philistynes. But the Philistynes wente vp towarde Jesrael.

The XXX. Chapter.

NOw whan Dauid came to Siclag A on the thirde daie with his men, the Amalechites had fallẽ in on ỳ south parte and at Siclag, and had smytten Siclag, and burned it with fyre, and had caried awaye the wemẽ out of it, both small & great. Neuertheles they had slayne no man, but dryuen thẽ thence, and were goynge on their waye. Now whan Dauid with his men came to the cite, and sawe that it was brent with fyre, and that their wyues, sonnes & doughters were led awaye captyue, Dauid and the people that was with him lefte vp their voyce, and wepte so longe tyll they coulde wepe nomore. For Dauids two wyues also were caried awaye captyue, Ahinoam ỳ Jesraelitisse, and Abigail Nabals wife of Carmel. And Dauid was very sorowfull, for the people wolde haue stoned him: for ỳ soule of all the people was in greate heuynes, euery one ouer his sonnes and doughters.

B Neuertheles Dauid strengthed him selfe in the LORDE his God, & sayde vnto Abia-1.Re.23.b thar ỳ preist the sonne of Ahimelech: "Bring me hither the ouerbody cote. And whan Abiathar had broughte the ouerbody cote vnto Dauid, Dauid axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shal I folowe vpon the men of warre, and shal I ouertake them? He sayde: Yee, folowe vpō them, thou shalt ouertake them, and shalt rescue the pray. Then wente Da-uid his waye, and the fyre hūdreth men that were with him. And whan they came to the ryuer of Besor, some stode styll. But Dauid and the foure hundreth men folowed after:
As for the two hūdreth men that stode styll, they had bene slowe to go ouer the ryuer of Besor.

And they founde a man of Egipte vpon
1.Sam.25.d the felde, him they broughte vnto Dauid, & gaue him bred to eate, and water to drynke, and gaue him a quantite of fygges, & two quantities of rasyns. And whan he had eaten, his sprete came to him againe: for in thre dayes and thre nightes he had eatē no bred, and dronke no water.

C Dauid sayde vnto him: Whose art thou?
& whence art thou? He sayde: I am a childe of Egipte, an Amalechites seruaunt, & my master hath forsaken me, because I was sicke thre dayes a goo. We fell her in towarde ỳ south syde of Chrethus, and vpon Juda, and towarde ỳ south parte of Caleb, & haue burned Siclag with fyre.

Dauid sayde vnto him: Wilt thou bringe me downe to these men of warre? He sayde: Sweare vnto me by God, ỳ thou shalt not slaye me, ner delyuer me in to my masters hā de, and I wil bringe the downe to these mē of warre. And he broughte thē downe, and beholde, they were scatred vpon all ỳ groun de, eatinge and drynkynge, and kepynge holy daye, and were makinge mery chere, becau se of all the greate spoyles that they had ta ken out of the londe of the Philistynes and of Juda.

D And Dauid smote them from ỳ morow tyll the euen, agaynst the nexte daye, so that there escaped none, excepte foure hundreth yonge men, which rode vpon camels, & fled.
So Dauid rescued all that the Amalechites had taken, and his two wynes, & there myss-ed nothinge, nether small ner greate, nether sonnes ner doughters, ner spoyles: and what so euer they had taken, Dauid broughte all agayne. And Dauid toke the shepe and oxē, and drowe ỳ catell before him. And they sade: This is Dauids spoyle.

And whan Dauid came to the two hun-dreth men, which had bene slowe to folow after Dauid, and abode at the ryuer of Be-sor, they wente forth to mete Dauid, and the people ỳ was with him. And Dauid came to the people, and salured them frendly.

Then answered soch men as were euill Belials men (amonge them that had gone with Dauid) and sayde: Seynge they wen-te not wt vs, they shal haue none of the spoy-les that we haue rescued: but let euery man take his wife & his children and be goynge.

Then sayde Dauid: Ye shall not do so (my brethren) with that which ỳ LORDE hath geuen vs, and hath preserued vs, and deliue-red these men of warre (which were comen gaynst vs) in to oure hādes. Who shulde cōsente vnto you herin? like as the portion is of them that wente downe to the battayll, so shal ỳ portion be of them also that abode wt the stuffe, & shalbe dewyded a lyke.

From that tyme forth hath this been an ordinaunce & lawe in Israel vnto this daye.
And whan Dauid came to Siclag, he sent of the spoyle vnto the Elders in Juda his neighbours, and sayde: Beholde, there haue ye the blessynge out of the spoyle of the enemies of the LORDE, namely vnto them of Bethel, vnto them at Ramath in the south, vnto them at Jathir, vnto them at Aroer, vnto them at Siphamoth, vnto them at Eschemoa, vnto them at Rachal, vnto them in the cities of the Jerahmielites, vnto them in the cities of the Kenites, vnto them at Hor-ma, vnto thē at Borasan, vnto thē at Atach, vnto them at Hebron, and vnto all the places where Dauid had walked wt his men.

The XXXI. Chapter.

BVt ỳ "Philistynes foughte agaynst Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistynes, and fell downe smytten vpon the mount Gilboa. And the Philistynes preassed vpon Saul and his son-nes, and slewe Jonathas, & Abinadab and Malchisua the sonnes of Saul. And the battayll was sore agaynst Saul, & the archers fell vpon him with bowes, and he was sore wounded of the archers.

Then sayde Saul vnto his wapēbearer:
Drawe out thy swerde, and thrust it therew-me, that these vncircumcised come not and slaie me, and make a laughinge stocke of me.
Neuertheles his wapenbearer wolde not, for he was sore afrayed. Then toke Saul ỳ swerde, and fell therin. Now whan his wapenbearer sawe that Saul was deed, he fell also vpon his swerde, and dyed with him. Thus dyed Saul and his thre sonnes, & his wapenbearer, and all his men together the same daye.

Whan ỹ men of Israel which were beyonde the valley, and beyonde Jordane, sawe, ỹ the men of Israel were fled, and that Saul and his sonnes were deed, they lefte ỹ cities, and fled also. Then came the Philistynes, & dwelt therin.

And On the nexte daye came the Philistynes to spoyle ỹ slayne, and founde Saul and his thre sonnes lyenge vpon mount Gilboa, and smote of his heade, and toke of his harnesse, C and sent it into the lande of the Philistynes rounde aboute, to shewe it in the house of their Idols, and amonge the people, & layed his harnesse in ỹ house of Astaroth: but his body hanged they vp vpō the wall of Bethsan.

Whan they of Jabes in Gilead herde, what the Philistynes had done vnto Saul, they gat them vp, as many as were men of armes, and wente all the nighte, and toke ỹ body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes from ỹ wall of Bethsan, broughte thē to Jabes, and brent them there, and toke their bones, and buried them vnder ỹ tre at Jabes, & fasted sēn dayes.

Fter ỹ death of Saul whan Dauid was come agayne from the slaughter of ỹ Amalechites, and had remayned two dayes at Siclag, beholde, on the thirde daye there came a man out of Sauls hooste, with his clothes rente, and earth vpon his heade. And whan he came vnto Dauid, he fell downe to the grounde, and worshipped. Dauid sayde vnto him: Whence commest thou? He sayde vnto him: Out of the hooste of Israel am I fled. Dauid sayde vnto him: Tell me, what is the matter? He sayde: the people is fled from the battayll, and many of the people are fallen: yee and Saul also is deed and his sonne Jonathas. Dauid sayde vnto the yonge mā that broughte him this worde: How knoweste thou that Saul and Jonathas his sonne are

B deed? The yonge man ỹ tolde him this, sayde: I came by chaunce vnto mount Gelboa, and beholde, Saul leaned vpon his speare, & the charettes and horsmē folowed harde after him: and he turned him aboute, and sawe me, and called me. And I sayde: Here, am I. And he sayde vnto me: What art thou? I sayde vnto him: I am an Amalechite. And he saide vnto me: Come to me, and kyll me, for anguysh hath gotten holde of me: for my life is yet whole within me. Then stepte I to him, and slewe him, for I knowe well that he coulde not lyue after his fall. And I toke the crowne from his heade, and the armelet frō his arme, and haue broughte it here vnto ỹ my lorde. Then toke Dauid holde of his clothes, * and rente them, and so dyd all the mē that were with him, & mourned, and wepte, and fasted vntyll the euen, ouer Saul & Jonathas his sonne, and ouer the people of the LORDE, and ouer the house of Israel, because they were fallen thorow the swerde.

C And Dauid sayde to the yonge man that broughte him worde: What art thou? He sayde: I am ỹ sonne of a straunger an Amalechite. Dauid sayde: How happeneth it that thou wast not afrayed to laye thine hāde vpon the LORDES anointed to destroye him? And Dauid sayde vnto one of his yonge men: Come hither, and slaye him. And he smote him that he dyed. Then sayde Dauid vnto him: Thy blonde be vpon thyne owne heade. * For thy mouth hath spoken against thyselfe and sayde: I haue slayne the anoynted of the LORDE. And Dauid mourned this lamentacion ouer Saul and Jonathas his sonne, and commaunded to teach the childrē of Juda the bowe. Beholde, it is writtē in the boke of the righteous.

The Eldest in Israel are slayne vpon thyne heigth of the. How are the Worthies fallē

* Tell it not at Gath: speake not of it in ỹ stretes at Ascalon: lest the doughters of ỹ Philistynes reioyse, lest the doughters of ỹ vncircumcysed tryumphe.

Ye mountaynes of Gelboa, nether dewe ner rayne come vpō you, nether lōde be wher of commeth heueofferynges: for there is ỹ shylde of the Worthies smytten downe, the shylde of Saul, as though he had not bene anoynted with oyle.

* The bowe of Jonathas fayled not, and * the swerde of Saul came not agayne voyde from the blonde of the slayne, and frō the fat of the giauntes.

Saul and Jonathas louely and pleasāt in their lyfe, and in their deeth were not parted asunder: lighter then Aegles, and stronger then lyons.

Ye doughters of Israel wepe ouer Saul which clothed yow with purple in pleasures, and decked you with Jewels of golde on youre garmentes.

How are the Worthies fallen so in the battayll? Jonathas is slayne vpon ỹ heigth of the.

I am sory for the my brother Jonathas: thou hast bene very louely vnto me: Thy loue hath bene more speciall vnto me, then the loue of wemen.

How are the Worthies fallen, and ỹ weapens destroyed?

The II. Chapter.

AFter these actes Dauid * axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shall I go vp into one of the cities of Juda? And the LORDE sayde vnto him: Go vp. Dauid sayde: Whither? He sayde: Vnto Hebron. So Dauid wente thither with his two wyues, Ahinoam the Jesraelitisse, and Abigail Nabals wyfe of Carmel. And Dauid broughte vp the men that were him also, euery one with his housholde, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. And ỹ men of Juda came, and there they anointed him kynge ouer the house of Juda.

And whā it was tolde Dauid, * that they of Jabes in Gilead had buried Saul, he sente messaungers vnto them, sayenge: Blessed be ye of the LORDE, that ye haue done soch mercy vpon youre lorde Saul, and haue buried him. The LORDE therfore showe mercy now and faithfulnes vpon you. And because ye haue done this, I also wyll do you good. Let youre hāde now therfore be comforted, and be ye stronge: for though Saul youre lorde be dead, yet hath the house of Juda chosen me to be kynge ouer them.

But Abner the sonne of Ner, which was Sauls chefe captayne, toke Jßboseth the sonne of Saul, and broughte him thorow the hoost, and made him kynge ouer Gilead, Assuri, Jesrael, Ephraim, Ben Jamin and ouer all Israel. And Jßboseth the sonne of Saul was fourtye yeare olde, whan he was made kynge of Israel, & he raigned two yeares. But the house of Juda helde with Dauid. The tyme ỹ Dauid was kynge at Hebron ouer the house of Juda, was seuen yeare and sixe monethes longe.

And Abner the sonne of Ner wēte forth with the seruauntes of Jßboseth the sonne of Saul, out of ỹ hoost vnto Gibeon. And Joab the sonne of Zeru Ja wēte forth with Dauids seruauntes, and they met together bythe pole at Gibeon, and these laye on the one syde of the pole, the other on the other syde. And Abner sayde vnto Joab: Let the yonge mē get them vp, and playe before vs. Joab sayde: Let them aryse. Then gat they them vp, & wente in nombre twolue of Ben Jamin on Jßboseth Sauls sonnes syde, and twolue of Dauids seruauntes. And euery one gat another by the heade, and thrust his swerde in his syde, and fell together: therfore is the place called Helkath hazurim (that is, the felde of the Worthies) which is at Gibeon.

And there arose a sore harde battayll the same daye. But Abner and the men of Israel were put to flighte of Dauids seruauntes. Thre sonnes of Zeru Ja were there, Joab, Abisai & Asahel. As for Asahel, he was lighte of fete as a Roo in ỹ felde, & folowed after Abner, and turned not aside nether to the righte hande ner to ỹ leste from Abner. Then Abner turned him aboute, and sayde: Art thou Asahel? He sayde: Yee. Abner sayde vnto him: Go thy waye ether to the righte hande or to the leste, and get the one of ỹ yonge men, and take his harnesse from him. Neuertheles he wolde not leaue of frō him. Then sayde Abner agayne to Asahel: Get the awaye fro me, why wilt thou that I smyte the to the grounde? and how darre I liffe vp my face before ỹ brother Joab? How beit he wolde not go his waye.

Then Abner thrust him in with a speare into his bely, so that the speare wēte out behynde him. And there he fell and dyed before him: and who so came to the place where Asahel laye deed, stode styll there. But Joab and Abisai folowed vpon Abner, till the sonne wente downe. And whan they came to ỹ hyll of Amma, which lieth before Giah, by ỹ waye to the wildernes of Gibeon, the children of Ben Jamin gathered them selues together behynde Abner, and grewe to a multitude, and stode vpon the toppe of an hyll.

And Abner called vnto Joab, and sayde: Shal the swerde thē deuoure without ende? Knowest thou not, that it wyll be bytter at the last? How longe wil it be or thou saie vnto the people, that they leaue of from their brethrē? Joab sayde: As truly as God lyueth yf thou haddest sayde thus daye in the morninge, the people had ceassed euery one from his brother. And Joab blewe the trompet, & all the people stode still, and folowed nomore vpon Israel, nether foughte they eny more.

Abner and his men wente all that same night ouer the playne felde, and passed ouer Jordane, & walked thorow all Bithron, and came to the tentes. Joab turned him from Abner, and gathered all ỹ people together. And of Dauids seruauntes there myssed nynetene men, and Asahel. But Dauids seruauntes had smytten so amonge Ben Jamin and the men of Abner, that thre hundreth and three score men were deed. And they toke vp Asahel, and buried him in his fathers graue at Bethleem. And Joab with his men wēte all that nighte: and at the breake of the daie they came vnto Hebron.

The III. Chapter.

AND there was a longe battayll betwene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid. But Dauid wente and increased, and the house of Saul wente and mynished. And vnto Dauid were children borne at Hebron. His firstborne sonne Ammon of Ahinoam the Jesraelitisse: the seconde Chileab of Abigail the wyfe of Nabal of Carmel: the thirde Absalon the sonne of Maacha the doughter of Thalmai kynge of Gessur: the fourth Adonia the sonne of Hagith: the fyfth Saphatia the sonne of Abital: ỹ sixte Jethream of Egla Dauids wife. These were borne vnto Dauid at Hebron.

Now whan it was warre betwene the house of Saul & the house of Dauid, Abner strengthed Sauls house. And Saul had had a concubyne, whose name was Rispa the doughter of Aia. And Jßboseth sayde vnto Abner: Wherfore liest thou with my fathers concubyne?

Then was Abner very wroth at these wordes of Jßboseth, and sayde: Am I a dogges heade then, that I agaynst Juda do mercy vnto the house of Saul thy father, and vnto his brethren and kynssolkes: and haue not delyuered the into ỹ hande of Dauid, and thou layest a trespace to my charge this daye for a womans sake: God do Abner this and that, yf I do not * as the LORDE hath sworne vnto Dauid, that the kyngdome maye be taken frō the house of Saul, and ỹ seate of Dauid set vp ouer Israel and Juda, from Dan vnto Berseba. Then coulde he not answere him one worde agayne, he feared him sō.

1.Reg.15.f and 16.c

And Abner sent messaungers vnto Dauid, sayenge: Whose is the londe? And sayde: Make thy couenaunt with me. Beholde, my hande shall be with the, to turne all Israel vnto the.

C

He sayde: Wel, I wyll make a couenaunt with the, but one thynge I desyre of the, that thou se not my face, excepte thou bringe me first Michol Sauls doughter, whan thou commest to se my face. Dauid sent messaungers also vnto Jßboseth the sonne of Saul, sayenge: * Gyue me my wyfe Michol, whom I maried with an hundreth foreßkinnes of the Philistynes. Jßboseth sent, and caused for to take her from the man * Palthiel the sonne of Lais. And hir hußbande wente with her, and wepte behynde her vnto Bahurim. Then sayde Abner vnto him: Turne backe agayne, and go thy waye. And he turned backe agayne.

1.Re.18.g

1.Re.25.g

And Abner talked with the Elders in Israel, and sayde: Youre myndes haue bene set afore tyme and longe a goo vpon Dauid, that he mighte be kynge ouer you, do it now therfore, for ỹ LORDE hath sayde of Dauid: I wil delyuer my people of Israel by the hāde of Dauid my seruaunt, from the hande of the Philistynes, and from the hande of all their enemies.

D

Abner spake also before the eares of Ben Jamin, and wente to speake before the eares of Dauid at Hebron all that Israel and the whole house of Ben Jamin was contente withall. Now whan Abner came to Hebron vnto Dauid, and twēty men with him, Dauid made them a feast. And Abner sayde vnto Dauid: I wyll get me vp, and go gather all Israel together to my lorde the kynge, and that they maye make a couenaunt with the, that thou mayest be kynge, at thy soules desyre.

So Dauid let Abner go from him in peace. And beholde, Dauids seruaūtes and Joab came from the men of warre, and brought a greate spoyle with them. And Abner was not now with Dauid at Hebron, for he had sent him from him, so that he was gone his waye in peace.

But whan Joab and all the hoost with him was come, it was tolde him that Abner the sonne of Ner came to the kynge, and how he had sent him frō him, so that he was gone his waye in peace. Then wente Joab in to the kynge, and sayde: What hast thou done? Beholde, Abner came to the, why hast thou sent him from the, that he is gone his waye? Knoweest thou not Abner the sonne of Ner? For he came to the to disceaue the, that he mighte knowe thy outgoynge, and ingoynge, and to spie out all that thou doest. And whan Joab wente out from Dauid, he sent messaūgers after Abner, to fetch him agayne from Bohar sira, and Dauid knewe not therof. Now whan Abner came agayne vnto Hebron, Joab brought him in to ỹ middes vnder ỹ gate, to talke w̄ him secretly, and thrust him there in to ỹ bely that he dyed, because of his brother Asahels bloude.

Whan Dauid knewe of it thereafter, he sayde: I am vngiltye, and so is my kyngdome for euer before the LORDE concernynge the bloude of Abner ỹ sonne of Ner: but vpon the heade of Joab fall it, and vpon all his fathers house, and in the house of Joab there ceasse not one to haue a rennynge yssue and a lepresy, and to go vpon a staffe, and fall thorow the swerde, and to haue scarnesse of bred. Thus Joab and his brother Abisai slewe Abner, * because he had slayne their brother Asahel in the battaill at Gibeon.

Dauid sayde vnto Joab and to all ỹ people ỹ was with him: Rente youre clothes, and gyrde sack cloth aboute you, and make lamentacion for Abner. And the kynge wente after the Bere. And whan they buryed Abner at Hebron, the kynge lifte vp his voyce, and wepte besyde Abners graue, and all the people wepte also.

And the kynge mourned for Abner, and sayde: Abner is not deed as a foole dyeth. Thy handes were not bounde, thy fete were not vered with fetters, thou art fallen as a man falleth before wicked vnthrifftes. Then all the people bewayled him yet more.

Now whan all the people came in to mynde with Dauid, whyle it was yet hye daye, Dauid sware, and sayde: God do this and that vnto me, yf I taiste ether bred or ought elles afore the Sōne go downe. And all ỹ people knewe it, and it pleased them well all that ỳ kynge dyd in the sighte of all the people. And all the people and all Israel perceaued the same daye, that it came not of the kynge, that Abner the sonne of Ner was slayne. And the kynge sayde vnto his seruauntes: Knowe ye not that this daye a prynce and a greate man is fallen in Israel? As for me, I am yet but tender and anoynted kynge. But these men the children of Zeruia are to harde for me. The LORDE recompence him that doth euell, accordinge to his wickednes.

The IIII. Chapter.

WHan Sauls sonne herde ỳ Abner was deed at Hebron, his hãdes were feble, & all Israell was sory. But there were two men captaynes ouer the soudyers vnder the sonne of Saul, the one was called Baena, the other Rehob, sonnes of Rimon ỳ Berothite, of the childrẽ of Ben Jamin: for Beroth was coũted also in Ben Jamin. And the Berothites were fled vnto Gethaim, & were straũgers there vnto this daye. Jonathas also the sonne of Saul had a sonne which was lame on his fete, & was fyue yeare olde whan the rumoure of Saul and Jonathas came from Jesrael. And his norse toke him, and fled. And whyle she made haist and fled, he fell, and was lame: And his name was Mephiboseth.

Then wente the sonnes of Rimon ỳ Berothite, Rehob & Baena, & came to the house of Isboseth, in the heate of the daye, & he laye vpõ his bed at the noone daie. And they came in to the house to fetch wheate, & thruste him in the bely, & gat them awaye. For whã they came into ỳ house, he laye vpõ his bed in his chamber, & they stickte him to death, & smote of his heade, and toke his heade, and departed by the waye of the playne felde all that nighte, and broughte the heade of Isboseth to Dauid vnto Hebron, and sayde vnto the kynge: Beholde, there is the heade of Isboseth the sonne of Saul thine enemye, which layed wayte for thy soule. This daye hath the LORDE auenged my lorde the kynge of Saul and his sede.

Then answered Dauid vnto Rehob and Baena his brother, ỳ sonnes of Rimon ỳ Berothite, & sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, which hath deliuered my soule out of all trouble, * I toke him ỳ brought me worde and sayde: Saul is deed, and he thoughte he had bene a good messaunger, and at Siclag I put him to death, vnto whom I shulde haue geuen a reward for his message,

And these vngodly personnes haue slayne a righteous man in his owne house vpon his bed. Nee shulde not I requyre his blonde of youre handes, and take you awaye from ỳ earth? And Dauid commaunded his yonge men, which slewe them, and smote of their handes and fete, and hanged them vp by ỳ pole at Hebron. But the heade of Isboseth toke they, and buried it * in Abners graue at Hebron. 2.Reg.4.f

The V. Chapter.

THen all the trybes of Israel came to Dauid vnto Hebron, and sayde: * Beholde, we are thy bone and thy flesh. And afore tyme whã Saul was kynge ouer vs, thou leddest Israel out and in. So the LORDE hath sayde: Thou shalt kepe my people of Israel, and shalt be the duke ouer Israel. And all the Elders in Israel came to ỳ kynge vnto Hebron. And kynge Dauid made a couenaunt with them at Hebron before ỳ LORDE. And they anoynted Dauid to be kynge ouer Israel. Thyrtie yeare olde was Dauid whan he was made kynge, and reigned fortye yeares. * At Hebron raigned he seuẽ yeares and sixe monethes ouer Juda: but at Jerusalem he reigned thre and thirtie yeres ouer all Israel and Juda. A 1.Par.11.b 2.Re.5.b

And the kynge wente with his men to Jerusalem, agaynst the Jebusites, which dwelt in the londe. Neuertheles they sayde vnto Dauid: Thou shalt not come hither but the blynde and lame shal dryue ỳ awaie. (They thoughte planely, that Dauid shulde not come in.) Howbeit Dauid wanne the castell of Sion, which is the cite of Dauid. Then sayde Dauid the same daye: * Who so euer smyteth the Jebusites, and opẽayneth the perquellies, the lame & the blynde, which (Jebusites) Dauids soule hateth. Herof cõmeth the prouerbe: Let no blynde ner lame come in to the house. So Dauid dwelt in ỳ castell, and called it the cite of Dauid. And Dauid builded rounde aboute fro Millo and within. And Dauid grewe, & the LORDE the God Zebaoth was with him. B 1.Pa.11.a Leui.21.c

And Hiram the kynge of Tyre sent messaungers vnto Dauid, and Ceder trees for walles, and Carpenters, and Masons, to build Dauid an house. And Dauid knewe, that the LORDE had confyrmed him kynge ouer Israel, and exalted his kingdeme for his people of Israels sake. And Dauid toke yet mo wyues and concubynes at Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and there were yet mo sonnes & doughters borne vnto him. * And these are the names of them that C 1.Par.14.a 1.Par.3.a

were borne vnto him at Jerusalem: Samma Sobab, Nathan, Salomon, Jebehar, Elisua, Nepheg, Japhia, Elisama, Eliada, Eliphalet.

And whan the Philistines herde that David was anoynted kinge ouer Israel, they wēte vp all to seke David. Whan Dauid perceaued that, he wēte downe in to a castell. But the Philistynas came and scatered them selues beneth in the valley of Rephaim. 4.Re 23.a
* And David axed at the LORDE, and sayde: Shal 2 Re 2 a I go vp agaynst the Philistynes? and wylt and 5.d
thou delyuer them in to my hande? The LORDE sayde vnto David: Go vp, I wyll delyuer the Philistynes in to thy hande.

D And Dauid came vnto Baal Prazim, and smote thē there, and sayde: The LORDE hath deuyded myne enemies, euen as the waters parte asunder: therfore is the same place called Baal Prazim. And they lefte their ymages there, but David and his men caried thē awaye.

Neuertheless the Philistynes wente vp agayne, and scatered them selues beneth in the valley of Rephaim. And David axed at the LORDE. The LORDE sayde: Thou shalt go vp, but compase them behinde, that thou mayest be vpon them euer agaynst the peer trees: and whan thou hearest vpon the toppe of the peertrees, the sounde of the goinge be bolde, for then is the LORDE gone forth before the, to smyte the hoost of the Philistines David dyd as the LORDE commaunded him and smote the Philistynes from Geba, tyll thou comest vnto Gaser.

The VI. Chapter.

A AGayne David gathered agayne all the yonge chosen men in Israel, euen thre thousande, and gat him vp, and wente with all the people that was with him of the citesins of Juda, to fetch vp the Arke of God from thence: whose name is: The name of the LORDE Zebaoth dwelleth theron 1.Par.14.a 1.Reg.6.c betwene the Cherubins. * And they caused the arke of God to be caried vpō a new cart, 1.Reg.7.a
* and fetched it out of ỹ house of Abinadab, which dwelt at Gibea. Vsa and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab droue ỹ new cart. And whan they broughte it with the Arke from the house of Abinadab which dwelt at Gibea, Ahio wente before the Arke: and David and all the house of Israel played before the LORDE, with all maner of instrumentes of pine tre, with harpes, and psalteries, and tabrettes, and belles, and Cymbals.

B * And whan they came to the barne floore of Nahon, Vsa stretched out his hande, 1.Pa.14.b
* and helde the Arke of God, for the oxen were out asyde. Then waxed the wrath of the LORDE fearce agaynst Vsa, and God smote him there because of his presumptiō, so that he dyed there besyde the Arke of God. Then was David sory, because the LORDE had made soch a rente vpon Vsa, and he called the same place Perez Vsa vnto this daye. And David feared the LORDE the same daie, and sayde: How shall the Arke of the LORDE come vnto me? And he wolde not let it be broughte to him in to the cite of David, but caused it be brought in to ỹ house of Obed Edom the Gathite. And whan the Arke of the LORDE had contynued thre monethes in the house of Obed Edom the Gathite, the LORDE blessed him and all his house.

And it was tolde kynge David, that the LORDE had blessed the house of Obed Edom and all that he had because of the Arke of God. * Then wente he, and fetched vp the Arke of God out of ỹ house of Obed Edom in to the cite of David with ioye. And whan they were gone sixe steppes in with the Arke of the LORDE, they offered an oxe and a fat shepe. And David daunsed vō all his might before the LORDE, and was girded with an ouerbody cote of lynnē. And David with all Israel brought vp ỹ Arke of the LORDE with tabrettes and trompettes.

And whan the Arke of the LORDE came in to the cite of David, Michol the doughte of Saul loked out at a window, and sawe kynge David leapynge, springinge and daūsynge before the LORDE, and despysed him in hir hert. But whan they brought in ỹ Arke of the LORDE, they set it in hir place in the myddes of the Tabernacle, which David had pitched for it. And David offred burnt offerynges and deedofferyges before ỹ LORDE. And whan David had made an ende of offerynge the burntofferynges and deedofferynges, he blessed the people in the name of the LORDE Zebaoth, and dealte out vnto all the people, and to the multitude of Israel, both to man and womā, vnto euery one a cake of bred, and a pece of flesh, and a meece of pottage. Then wente all the people their way, euery one vnto his house.

Whan David came agayne to blesse his house, Michol the doughter of Saul went forth to mete him, and sayde: How glorious hath the kynge of Israel bene to daye, which hath vncouered himselfe before the maydens of his seruauntes, like as the rascall people discouer them selues. But David saide vnto Michol: I wil playe before ỹ LORDE, which hath chosen me afore ỳ father, and afore all his house, because he hath commaunded me to be the prynce ouer the people of the LORDE, euen ouer Israel, and yet wyl I be vyler then so, and wyll be lowe in myne owne sighte: and with the maydens wherof thou hast spoken, wyll I be honoured. As for Michol the doughter of Saul, she had no childe vnto the daye of hir death.

The VII. Chapter.

A Now whan the kynge sat in his house, and the LORDE had geuen him rest from all his enemies on euery syde, he sayde vnto the prophet Nathan: Beholde, I dwell in a house of Cedre, and the Arke of God dwelleth amonge the curtaynes. Nathan sayde vnto the kynge: Go thy waye, what so euer thou hast in thine hert, ỳ do: for the LORDE is wt the. But the same nighte came ỳ worde of the LORDE vnto Nathan, & sayde: Go & speake to my seruaũt Dauid: Thus sayeth ỳ LORDE: Shalt thou buylde me an house to dwell in? I haue dwelt in no house sence the daye that I broughte the children of Israel vnto this daye, but haue walked in the Tabernacle and Habitacion, whither so euer I wente with the children of Israel. Dyd I euer speake to eny of the trybes of Israel (whom I commaunded to kepe my people of Israel) & sayde: Wherfore do ye not buylde me an house of Ceder wodd?

B So shalt thou speake now vnto my seruaunt Dauid: Thus sayeth the LORDE Zebaoth: * I toke the from the pasture whan thou wenteste behynde the shepe, ỳ thou shuldest be ỳ prynce ouer my people of Israel, & haue bene wt the whither so euer thou wenteste, & haue roted out all thine enemies before the, & haue made the a greate name, accordinge to the name of the greate men vpon earth. And for my people of Israel I wyll appoynte a place, and wyll plante them, that they maye remayne there, nomore to be remoued, and ỳ the childrẽ of wickednes oppresse them nomore, like as afore, and sence the tyme that I ordeyned Judges ouer my people of Israel. And I wyll geue the rest from all thine enemies. And the LORDE sheweth the, that the LORDE wyl make the a house.

C * Now whan ỳ tyme is fulfylled ỳ thou shalt slepe wt thy fathers, I wil after ỳ raise vp thy syde, which shal come of thy body: his kyngdome wyl I stablishe, he shal buylde an house for my name, * and I wyll stablyshe ỳ seate of his kyngdome for euer. * I wyll be his father, and he shall be my sonne. * Whan he doth a trespace, I wyll reprooue him with the rodd of men and with the plages of ỳ childrẽ of men: But my mercy shal not be withdrawen frõ him, as I haue withdrawẽ it frõ Saul, whõ I haue takẽ awaye before the. As for ỳ house & thy kyngdome, it shal be stablished for euer before the, & thy seate shal endure fast for euermore. 2. Re. 11 Psal. 88.

Whan Nathan had tolde all these wordes & all this vision vnto Dauid, kynge Dauid came and sat him downe before the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE God, who am I? and what is my house, ỳ thou hast brought me thus farre? This O LORDE God hast thou thoughte to litle also, but hast spoken of the house of thy seruaunt yet lõge for to come. O LORDE God, is that the lawe of men?

D And what shall Dauid speake vnto the? thou knowest thy seruaunt O LORDE God, for thy wordes sake and accordinge to ỳ hert hast thou done all these greate thinges, ỳ thou mightest shewe thẽ vnto thy seruaunt. Therfore art thou greatly magnified O LORDE God: * for there is none like the, & there is no God but thou, accordinge vnto all that we haue herde with ỏ eares. * For where is there a people vpon earth as thy people of Israel? For whose sake God wente to delyuer him a people, and to make him selfe a name, and to do them soch greate and terrible thinges in thy lõde before ỳ people, * whom thou hast delyuered vnto thy selfe frõ Egipte, from the people, and from their goddes. And thy people of Israel hast thou prepared the to be a people vnto thyne owne selfe for euer, and thou O LORDE art become their God. Deu. 32. Deu. 4. Exo. 14.

E Stablish now ỳ worde therfore for euer (O LORDE God) which thou hast spokẽ ouer thy seruaunt & ouer his house, & do accordinge as thou hast sayde. So shall thy name be greate for euer, so that it shal be sayde: The LORDE Zebaoth is the God ouer Israel, & the house of thy seruaunt Dauid shal be made sure before the. For thou LORDE Zebaoth, thou God of Israel hast opened the eare of thy seruaunt, and sayde: I wil buylde the an house. Therfore hath ỳ seruaunt founde his hert, to praye this prayer vnto the. * Now LORDE God thou thy selfe art God, & thy wordes shal be the trueth. Thou hast spoken soch good ouer thy seruaunt. Begynne now therfore, and blesse ỳ seruauntes house, that it maye be before the for euer, for thou LORDE God thyne awne selfe hast spoken it: and Deu. 32.

with thy blessynge shal thy seruauntes house be blessed for euer.

The VIII. Chapter.

A .Par.19.d And it fortuned after this, ỹ Dauid smote ỹ Philistynes, and discomfited them, and toke the brydell of bondage Nu.24.d out of the Philistynes hande. * He smote the Moabites also to the grounde, so that he broughte two partes of them to death, and let one parte lyue. Thus the Moabites were subdued vnto Dauid, so ỹ they brought te him giftes.

Dauid smote Hadad Eser also the sonne of Rehob kynge of Zoba, whan he wēte to fetch his power agayne at ỹ water Euphrates. And of them toke Dauid a thousande & seuen hundreth horsmen, and twenty thousande fote men, and lamed all the charettes, saue an hundreth which he kepte behynde. But the Siryans came from Damascon to helpe Hadad Eser kynge of Zoba. And Dauid smote two and twentye thousande men of the Syrians, and layed people vnto Damascus in Syria.

Thus was Syria subdued vnto Dauid, so that they broughte him giftes: for ỹ LORDE helped Dauid whither so euer he wente. And Dauid toke ỹ shyldes of golde, which Hadad Esers seruauntes had, and broughte them to Jerusalem. But from Bethah & Berothai ỹ cities of Hadad Eser toke Dauid very moch brasse.

B .Par.19.b * Whan Thoi the kynge of Hemath herde, that Dauid had smytten all the power of Hadad Eser, he sent his sonne Joram vnto Dauid to salute him frendly, & to blesse him, because he had foughten with Adad Eser and smytten him (for Thoi had warre with Hadad Eser) and had Jewels with him of syluer, of golde, and of brasse: which kynge Dauid halowed also vnto ỹ LORDE, with the syluer and golde which he sanctified vnto the LORDE from all the Heythē, whom he subdued, from Siria, fro Moab, from the childrē of Ammon, from the Philistynes, frō Amalek, from the spoyle of Hadad Eser ỹ sonne of Rehob kynge of Zoba.

C .Par.19.c Dauid gat him selfe a name also whan he came, * and smote eyghtene thousande of ỹ Sirians in ỹ Salt valley. And he layed peo Gen.25.c ple in all Edomea, * and all Edom was sub Nu.24.d dued vnto Dauid: for the LORDE helped Dauid, whither so euer he wente. Thus was Dauid kynge ouer all Jsrael. And he executed iudgmente and righteousnes vnto all ỹ .Re.10.d people. * Joab ỹ sonne of Zeruja was captayne ouer the hoost. Josaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler. Zadok the sonne of Achitob, & Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar were prestes. Seraia was Scryde. Benaia the sonne of Joiada was ouer ỹ Chrethians & Plethians. And the sonnes of Dauid were * prestes.

The IX. Chapter.

And Dauid sayde: Remayneth there yet eny man of Sauls house, that I maye do mercy vpon him for Jonathas sake? There was a seruaunt of Sauls house, named * Siba, whom they called vnto Dauid, & the kynge sayde vnto him: Art thou Siba? He sayde: Yee thy seruaunt. The kynge sayde: Js there yet eny man of Sauls house, ỹ I maye do the mercy of God vpon him? Siba sayde vnto the kynge: * There is yet a sonne of Jonathas, lame on his fete. The kynge sayde vnto him: Where is he? Siba sayde vnto ỹ kynge: Beholde, he is at Lodober in ỹ house of * Machir ỹ sonne of Ammuel. Thē sent kynge Dauid thither, & caused for to fetch him from Lodaber out of ỹ house of Machir the sonne of Ammuel.

Now whan Mephiboseth the sonne of Jonathas the sonne of Saul came vnto Dauid, he fell vpon his face, & worshiped him. Dauid sayde: Mephiboseth. He sayde: Here am I thy seruaunt. Dauid sayde vnto him: Feare not, for I wyll do mercy vpon the for thy father Jonathas sake, and wil restore vnto the all the londe of thy father Saul: but thou shalt eate bred daylie at my table. He worshiped and sayde: Who am I thy seruaunt, that thou turnest the to a deed dogge as I am?

Then the kynge called Siba ỹ seruaunt of Saul, and sayde vnto him: All ỹ hath belonged vnto Saul & to all his house, haue I geuen to thy lordes sonne. Tyll his londe for him therfore, thou & thy children & seruauntes, & bringe it in, ỹ it maye be bred for ỹ lordes sonne, and ỹ he maye enioye it: but Mephiboseth ỹ lordes sonne shal eate bred daylie at my table. Siba had fyftene sonnes & twentye seruauntes. And Siba sayde vnto ỹ kynge: Accordinge vnto all as my lorde the kynge hath commaunded his seruaunt, so shal his seruaunt do. And let Mephiboseth (sayde Dauid) eate at my table, as one of the kynges owne children. And Mephiboseth had a yōge sonne, whose name was Micha. But all ỹ dwelt in the house of Siba, serued Mephiboseth. As for Mephiboseth him selfe, he dwelt at Jerusalem: for he ate daylie at the kynges table * and was lame on both his fete.

The X. Chapter.

A 10.a AND it fortuned after this, that ỳ kynge of the childrẽ of Ammon dyed, & his sonne Hanun was kynge in his steade. Then sayde David: I wyll do mercy vpon Hanun the sonne of Nahas, as his father dyd mercy vpon me. And so he sent, and comforted him by his seruauntes ouer his fathers death. Now whan Dauids seruauntes came into the londe of the childrẽ of Ammon, the mightiemen of the childrẽ of Ammon sayde vnto Hanun their lorde: Thynkest thou it is for the honꝰ of ỳ father in ỳ sighte, ỳ David hath sent comforters vnto the? hath he not sent his seruauntes vnto ỳ (thynkest thou) to spye and search out the cite and to ouerthrowe it?

B Then toke Hanun the seruauntes of David, and shoue of the one halue of their beerdes, and cut of the halfe of their garmẽtes euen by the girdell, and so let them go. Whã this was tolde David, he sent to mete them: for the men were put to greate shame. And the kynge caused to saye vnto them: Abyde at Jericho, tyll youre beerdes be growne, & then come agayne.

Whan the childrẽ of Ammon sawe that they stynked in the sighte of David, they sent and hyred the Sirians of the house of Rehob, and the Sirians at Zoba euen twentye thousande fote men, and from the kynge of Maecha a thousande men, and from Istob twolue thousande men. Whan David herde that, he sent Joab with all the hoost of ỳ men of warre. And the childrẽ of Ammon wente forth, and prepared them selues to ỳ battayll before the intraunce of the gate. But the Siryans of Soba, of Rehob, of Istob and of Maecha were alone in the felde.

C Now whan Joab sawe that the battayll was set vpõ him before and behynde, he chose of all the best yonge men in Israel, & prepared him selfe agaynst the Syrians. And the resydue of the people put he vnder the hande of his brother Abisai, that he mighte prepare him agaynst the childrẽ of Ammon. And sayde: Yf ỳ Syrians be to mightie for me, helpe thou me: but yf the childrẽ of Ammon be to mightie for the, I shal helpe the. Take a good corage vnto the, and let vs be stronge for oure people, and for ỳ cite of oure God: nevertheles the LORDE do what pleaseth him.

And Joab made him forth with the people that was with him, to fyghte agaynst the Syrians: and they fled before him. And whan the childrẽ of Ammon sawe that the Syrians fled, they fled also before Abisai, & wente in to the cite. So Joab turned agayne from the childrẽ of Ammon, & came to Jerusalem. And whan the Syrians sawe ỳ they were smytten before Israel, they came together.

D And Hadad Eser sent & brought out ỳ Syrians beyonde the water, and conueyed their power in, & Sobath the chefe captayne of Hadad Eser wente before thẽ. Whan this was tolde David, he gathered all Israel together, & wente ouer Jordane, and came to Helam, & the Syrians prepared them selues agaynst David to fyghte with him, how beit the Syrians fled before Israel. And David slewe of the Syrians seuẽ hundreth charettes, & fortye thousande horsmẽ, & Sobath the chefe captayne smote he also, so that he dyed there. Whan the kynges which were vnder Adad Eser, sawe, that they were smytten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and were subdued vnto them. And the Syrians were afrayed to helpe the childrẽ of Ammon eny more.

The XI. Chapter.

A AND whan ỳ yeare came aboute what tyme as ỳ kynges vse to go forth, David sent Joab and his seruauntes with him, and all Israel, to destroye the childrẽ of Ammon, and to laye sege vnto Rabba: but David abode at Jerusalem. 1.Par.21.

And aboute the euẽtyde it fortuned that David arose from his restinge place, & wente vp to ỳ toppe of the kynges palace, and from ỳ toppe he sawe a woman* waßshinge hir selfe, and the woman was of a very fayre bewtye. And David sent, and caused to aske what woman it was, and sayde: Is not that Bethseba the doughter of Eliam the wife of Vrias the Hethite? And David sent messaũgers, and caused for to fetch her. And whã she was come in vnto him, he laye with her. Nevertheles she halowed hir selfe from hir vncleñes, and turned agayne vnto h Exo.2.a Susan.c

house. And the womā was with childe, and sent, and caused to tell Dauid and to saye: I am with childe. Dauid sent vnto Joab (sayē ge:) Sende me Vrias ỳ Hethite. And Joab sent Vrias vnto Dauid. And whan Vrias came to him, Dauid axed him yf it stode well with Joab, and with the people and with the battayll.

B And Dauid sayde to Vrias: Go downe in to thy house, and wash thy fete. And whan Vrias wente out of the kynges palace, the kynges gifte folowed him. And Vrias layed him downe to slepe before the kynges palace gate, where all his lordes seruauntes laye, & wente not downe in to his house. Whan worde came to Dauid: Vrias is not gone downe in to his house, Dauid sayde vnto him: Camest thou not ouer the felde? Why wentest thou not downe in to thy house? Vrias sayde vnto Dauid: The Arke and Israel & Juda abyde in the tentes: And Joab my lorde and my lordes seruauntes lye in ỳ felde, and shal I go in to my house to eate and drynke, and to lye with my wife? As truly as thou lyuest, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wyll not do this thinge. Dauid sayde vnto Vria: Abyde here then to daye, tomorow wil I let the go. So Vrias abode at Jerusalem the same daye, and the nexte also. And Dauid called him to eate & drynke before him, & made him dronken. And at euen he wente to lye him downe for to slepe vpon his couche with his lordes seruauntes, and wente not downe in to his house.

C On the morow wrote Dauid a letter vnto Joab, & sent it by Vrias. After this maner wrote he in the letter: Set Vrias in ỳ forest parte of ỳ batayll, & turne you behynde him, ỳ he maye be slayne. Now whā Joab layed sege to the cite, he set Vrias in ỳ place, where he knewe ỳ the mightiest men of Armes were. And whan the men of the cite fell out and foughte agaynst Joab, there fell certayne of ỳ people of Dauids seruauntes. And Vrias the Hethite dyed also.

Then sent Joab, and caused to tell ỳ kynge all the matter concernynge the battayll, and cōmaunded the messaunger, and sayde: Whan thou hast tolde ỳ kynge all the matter concernynge the batayll, and seist that he is wroth, and yf the kynge saye vnto the: Wherfore came ye so nye the cite with the batayll? Knowe ye not how they vse to shute from the wall? * Who smote Abimelech the sonne of Jerubaall? Dyd not a womā cast a pece of a mylstone vpō him from the wall, so that he dyed at Thebez? Why came ye so nye the wall? Then shalt thou saye: Thy seruaunt Vrias the Hethite is deed also.

Iud. 9.h

The messaunger wente his waye, and came and tolde Dauid all together, wherfore Joab had sent him. And the messaunger sayde vnto Dauid: The men preuayled against vs, and fell out vnto vs in to ỳ felde: and we were vpon them harde at the doore of ỳ porte. And the archers shot from the wall vpon thy seruauntes, and slewe certayne of the kynges seruauntes: and thy seruaunt Vrias the Hethite is deed also.

Dauid sayde vnto the messaunger: Thus shalt thou saye vnto Joab: Let not ỳ vexe the, for the swerde consumeth now one now another. Go forth with the battayll against the cite, that thou mayest destroye it, and confforte the men. And whan Vrias wife herde that Vrias was deed, she mourned for hir hußbande. But whā she had made an ende of mournynge, Dauid sent, and caused her be fetched vnto his palace, and she became his wyfe, and bare him a sonne. Nevertheles this dede ỳ Dauid dyd, displeased the LORDE.

The XII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE sent Nathan vnto Dauid. Whan he came to him, he tolde him: There were two men in one cite, the one riche, the other poore. The riche man had very many shepe and oxen: but the poore man had nothinge saue one litle shepe, which he had boughte, and norished it, so that it grewe vp with him and his children together. It ate of his bred, and dranke of his cuppe, and slepte in his lappe, and he helde it as a doughter. But whan there came a straunger vnto the riche man, he spared to take of his awne shepe & oxen (to prepare oughte for the straunger that was come vnto him) and toke the poore mans shepe, and prepared it for the man that was come vnto him.

Thē was Dauid wroth with greate displeasure agaynst that man, and sayde vnto Nathan: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, the man that hath done this, is the childe of death. * The shepe also shal he make good in foure folde, because he hath done soch a thinge, and not spared it.

Then sayde Nathan vnto Dauid: Thou art euen the man. Thus sayeth the LORDE the God of Israel: * I haue anoynted the to be kynge ouer Israel, and delyuered the out of the hande of Saul, and haue geuen the ỳ lordes house, and his wyues in to lappe, and the house of Israel and Juda haue I geuen the: and yf that be to litle, I wyl yet do this and that for the also. Wherfore hast thou then despysed the worde of the LORDE, to do soch euell in his sighte? Vrias the Hethite hast thou slayne with the swerde: his wife hast thou taken to be thy wyfe, but him hast thou slayne with ỹ swerde of the children of Ammon.

C Now therfore shal not ỹ swerde departe from thy house for euer, because thou hast despysed me, and taken the wife of Vrias the Hethite, to be thy wife. Thus sayeth the LORDE: Beholde, * I wyll rayse vp euell of thyne awne house, and wyll take thy wyues before thyne eyes, and wyl geue them vnto thy neghboure, so that he shall lye with thy wyues by Sonne lighte. For thou hast done it secretly, but I wyl do this in the sighte of all Israel, and by Sonne lighte.

Then sayde Dauid vnto Nathan * I haue synned vnto the LORDE. Nathan sayde vnto Dauid: So hath the LORDE also taken awaye thy synne, thou shalt not dye. But for somoch as thou thorow this dede hast caused the enemies of the LORDE to blaspheme, ỹ sonne that is borne vnto the, shall dye the death. And Nathan wente home. As for the childe which Vrias wife bare vnto Dauid, the LORDE smote it, so that it was deedsicke.

D And Dauid besoughte God for the childe, and fasted, and wente in, and laie all nighte vpon the earth. Then rose the Elders of his house, and wolde haue taken him vp frō the grounde: neuertheles he wolde not, neither ate he wt them. Vpon the seuenth daye ỹ childe dyed. And Dauids seruauntes durst not tell him that the childe was deed. For they thoughte: Beholde, whan the childe was yet alyue, we spake vnto him, and he herkened not vnto oure voyce, How moch more shall it greue him, yf we saye: The childe is deed? And Dauid sawe that his seruauntes made a whisperinge together, and perceaued that the childe was deed, and sayde vnto his seruauntes: Is the childe deed? They sayde: Yee. Then rose Dauid vp from the earth, and waßhed him selfe, and anoynted him, and put on other garmentes, & wente in to the house of the LORDE, and worshipped.

E And whan he came agayne, he commaunded to set bred before him, and ate. Then sayde his seruauntes vnto him: What maner of thinge is this that thou doest? Whan the childe was alyue, thou fastedst and weptest: but now that it is deed, thou stōdest vp and eatest? He sayde: I fasted and wepte for the childe whan it was yet a lyue, for I thoughte: Who knoweth, peraduenture the LORDE maye be gracious vnto me, that the childe maye lyue. * But now that it is deed, wherfore shulde I fast? Can I fetch it agayne? I shal go vnto it, but it shall not come agayne vnto me. And whan Dauid had comforted Bethseba his wife, he wente in vnto her, and laye with her. * And she bare a sonne, whom he called Salomon. And the LORDE loued him. And he put him vnder the hāde of Nathan ỹ prophet, which called him Jedidia because of the LORDE.

So Joab foughte agaynst Rabba of ỹ childen of Ammon, and wanne the kynges cite, & sent messāgers vnto Dauid, & caused to saye vnto him: * I haue foughte against Rabba, and haue wonne the water cite also. Gather thou therfore the residue of the people together, and laye sege to ỹ cite, and wynne it, that I wynne it not, and haue the name therof. So Dauid gathered all ỹ people together, and wente, & foughte agaynst Rabba, and wanne it, and toke their kynges crowne frō his heade (which in weight had a talente of golde, and precious stones) and was set vpon Dauids heade, and very moch spoyle caried he out of the cite. As for the people that was therin, he broughte thē forth, and layed them vnder yron sawes and hokes and wedges of yron, and burned thē in tyle ouens. Thus dyd he vnto all the cities of the childen of Ammon. Then returned Dauid and all the people vnto Jerusalem agayne.

Ecclī.48. 1.Par.3.2 Matt.1.a

F 1.Par.21.2

The XIII. Chapter.

A And it fortuned after this, that Absalom ỹ sonne of Dauid had a fayre sister, whose name was Thamar, & Ammon the sonne of Dauid loued her. And Ammon was in greate combraunce, in so moch that he was euen sicke, because of Thamar his sister. For she was a virgin, and Ammon thoughte it shulde beharde for him to do eny thinge vnto her. But Ammon had a frēde, whose name was Jonadab the sonne of Simea Dauids brother, And the same Jonadab was a very wyse man, which sayde vnto him: Why art thou so leane (thou kynges sonne) from daye to daye? Mayest thou not tell me? Then sayde Ammon vnto him: I loue Thamar my brother Absaloms sister exceadingly.

B Jonadab sayde vnto him: laye the downe vpon thy bedd, and make the sicke. And whan thy father commeth to loke how thou doest, saye vnto him: Oh let my sister Thamar come, that she maye fede me, and make a meece of meate before me, that I maye se it, & eate it of hir hande. So Ammon layed him downe, and made him sicke. Now whā the kynge came in to loke how he dyd, Ammon sayde vnto the kynge: Oh let my sister Thamar come, and make me a syppynge or two, and that I maye eate it of hir hande. Then sent Dauid for Thamar in to the house, and sayde vnto her: Go thy waye to thy brother Ammons house, & make him a meece of meate. Thamar wente vnto hir brother Amons house, but he laye in his bed. And she toke floure, and mixte it, and dighte it before his eyes, and made him a syppynge. And she toke the meece of meate, and poured it out before him: but he wolde not eate.

C And Ammon saide: Put forth every man fro me. And euery man wēte forth from him. Then sayde Ammon vnto Thamar: Bringe me that meece of meate in to the chamber, that I maye eate it of thy hande. Then toke Thamar ỳ syppynge that she had made, and broughte it vnto Ammon hir brother in to the chamber.

And whan she broughte it vnto him ỳ he mighte eate, he toke holde of her, & sayde vnto her: Come my sister, lye with me. Nevertheles she saide: Oh no my brother, force me not: for so do they not in Israel, do not thou soch foly. Whither shal I go with my shame? And thou shalt be as one of the vnwyse in Israel. But speake vnto the kynge, he shal not withholde me from the.

D Howbeit he wolde not herken vnto her, Gen. 34. a and ouercame her, * and forced her, and laye Leui. 18. a with her. And Ammon hated her exceadingly, so that the hate was greater then the love was before. And Ammon sayde vnto her: Vp, and get the hence.

She saide vnto him: This euell that thou thrustest me out, is greater then the other, that thou hast done vnto me. Nevertheles he herkened not vnto her, but called his boye that serued him, and sayde: Put awaye this woman fro me, and locke the dore after her. And she had a partye garment on: for soch garmentes wayre ỳ kynges doughters whyle they were virgins.

And whā his servaunt had put hir forth, & lockte the dore after her, Thamar strowed asshes vpon hir heade, and rente the partye garment which she had vpon her, and layed hir hande vpon hir heade, and wente on, and cryed. And hir brother Absalom sayde vnto her: Hath thy brother Ammon bene with the? Now holde thy peace my sister, he is thy brother, and take not the matter sore hert.

So Thamar remayned a wyddowe in brother Absaloms house. And whan kynge Dauid herde of all this, he was very sory. As for Absalom, he spake nether euell nor good to Ammon: but Absalom hated Ammon, because he had forced his sister Thamar.

After two yeares had Absalom shepe clyppers at Baal Hazor, which lyeth by Ephraim. And Absalom called all the kynges children, and came to the kynge, and sayde: Beholde, thy servaunt hath shepe clyppers, let it please ỳ kynge with his servauntes to go with his servaunte. But the kynge sayde vnto Absalom: No my sonne, let vs not all go, lest we be to chargeable vnto the.

And he wolde nedes have had him to go, howbeit he wolde not, but blessed him. Absalom sayde: Shall my brother Ammon go with vs then? The kynge sayde vnto him: Wherfore shall he go with the? Then was Absalom so importune vpon him, that he let Ammon and all the kynges childrē go with him.

But Absalom commaunded his yonge men, and sayde: Take hede whan Ammon is mery with wyne (and I saye vnto you: Smyte Ammon, and slaye him) that ye be not afrayed: for I haue commaunded you, be stronge, and playe the men. So Absaloms yonge men dyd vnto Ammon, as Absalom had commaunded them. Then stode all the kynges children vp, and every one gat him vp vpō his Mule, and fled. And whyle they were yet on their waye, the rumoure came to kynge Dauid, that Absalom had slayne all the kynges children, so that not one of them was lefte.

Then stode the kynge vp, and rente his clothes, & layed him downe vpon the earth, and all his servaūtes that stode aboute him, rente their clothes. Then answered Jonadab ỳ sonne of Simea Dauids brother, and sayde: Let not my lorde thynke that all the yonge men the kynges children are deed, but ỳ Ammon is deed onely: for Absalom hath kepte it in him selfe sence the daie that he forced his sister Thamar. Therfore let not my lorde the kynge take it so to hert, that all the kynges children shulde be deed, but that Ammon is deed onely.

G As for Absalom, he fled. And the yonge man that kepte the watch, lifte vp his eyes, and loked, and beholde, A greate people came in the waye one after another by the hill syde. Then sayde Jonadab vnto the kynge: Beholde, the kynges children come. Euen as thy seruaunt sayde, so is it happened. And whan he had ended his talkynge, the kynges children came, and lifte vp their voyce, and wepte.

The kynge and all his seruauntes wepte also very sore. But Absalom fled, and wente vnto Thalmai the sonne of Ammihud kynge of Gesur. As for David, he mourned for his sonne euery daye. Whan Absalom was fled and gone vnto Gesur, he was there thre yeare. And kynge David ceassed from goinge out agaynst Absalom, for he had comforted him selfe ouer Ammon that he was deed.

The XIIII. Chapter.

A Joab the sonne of Jeruja perceaued ỹ the kynges hert was agaynst Absalom, and sent vnto Thecoa, and caused to fetch from thence a prudent woman and saide vnto her: Make lamẽtacion, and weere mournynge garmentes, & anoynte the not with oyle: but sayne thy selfe as a woman which hath mourned longe ouer a deed, and thou shalt go in to the kynge, and speake so & so vnto him. And Joab tolde her what she shulde saye.

And whan the woman of Thecoa wolde speake with the kynge, she fell vpon hir face to the grounde, and worshipped, and sayde: Helpe me O kynge. The kynge sayde vnto her: What ayleth the? She sayde: I am a wedowe, a woman that mourneth, and my hußbãde is deed. And thy handmayde had two sonnes, which strowe together in the felde: and whylethere was noman to parte thẽ a sunder, the one smote the other, and slewe him.

And beholde, all the whole kynred ryseth vp.c vp agaynst thy handmayden, and saye: * Delyuer him which hath smytten his brother, that we maye kyll him, for the soule of his brother whom he hath slayne, and that we maye destroye the heyre also. And thus are they mynded to put out my sparke, which yet is lefte, that there shulde no name ner eny thinge els remayne ouer vnto my hußbãde vpon earth.

B The kynge sayde vnto the woman: Go ỹ waye home, I wil geue a cõmaundemẽt for ỹ. And the woman of Thecoa saide vnto ỹ kynge: The trespace be vpon me (my lorde ỹ kynge) and vpon my fathers house: but the kynge and his seate be vngiltye. The kynge sayde: Whe that speaketh agaynst the, bringe him vnto me, so shall he touch the nomore. She sayde: Let the kynge thynke vpon the LORDE his God, that there be not to many auengers of bloude to destroye, and that they bringe not my sonne to naught. He sayde: * As truly as the LORDE lyueth, there 1.Re.14.g shall not one heer of thy sonne fall vpon the earth. And the woman sayde: Let thy handmayde speake somwhat to my lorde the kynge. He sayde: speake on. The woman sayde: Wherfore hast thou deuised soch a thinge agaynst the people of God? And how happeneth it that the kynge speaketh soch, to make himselfe giltie, and causeth not his outlawe to be broughte agayne? For we all dye the death, and as the water that sinketh in to the earth, which is not taken vp. * And Lze.18. God will not take awaye the lyfe, but vnbethynketh himselfe, ỹ euen the very outlawes be not cleane thrust out from him.

Thus am I come also to speake this to C my lorde the kynge in the presence of the people, for thy handmayden thoughte: I wyll speake to the kynge, peraduenture he shall do that his handmayden sayeth, for he shall heare his handmayden, to delyuer me from the hande of all them, that wolde destroye me with my sonne from the enheritaunce of God. And thy handmayden thoughte, ỹ worde of my lorde the kynge shall be as a meatofferynge, * for my lorde the kinge is as 2.Re.19. an angell of God, so that he can heare good and euell, therfore shall the LORDE thy God be with the.

The kynge answered and sayde vnto the woman: Kepe nothynge fro me that I axe the. The woman sayde: Let my lorde the kinge speake on. The kynge sayde: Is not the hande of Joab with the in all this? The woman answered and sayde: As truly as thy soule lyueth (my lorde O kynge,) there is els noman nether at the righte hande ner at ỹ lefte, but euen as my LORDE the kynge hath sayde, for thy seruaunt Joab hath commaunded me, and he himselfe hath taught thy handmayden all these wordes, that I shulde turne this matter of this faßshiõ, this hath Joab thy seruaunt done. But my lorde is wyse, as the wyßdome of an angell of God, so that he knoweth all thynges vpon earth.

Then sayde the kynge vnto Joab: Be- D holde, I haue done this: go thy waye therfore and bringe the childe Absalom agayne.

Then fell Joab vpon his face vnto the grounde, and worshipped, and thanked the kynge, and sayde: This daye doth thy seruaunt perceaue, that I haue founde grace in thy syghte my lorde the kynge, in that the kynge doth as his seruaunt hath sayde. So Joab gat him vp, and wente vnto Gesur, and broughte Absalom to Jerusalem. But the kinge sayde: Let him go againe in to his house, and not se my face. Thus Absalom came agayne to his house, and sawe not ỹ kynges face.

But in all Jsrael there was not so fayre, and so marueloꝰ goodly a man, as Absalom. From the sole of his fote vnto the toppe of his heade there was not one blemysh in him. And whan his heade was rounded (that was comonly euery yeare, for it was to heuy for him, so that it must nedes haue bene rounded) the heer of his heade weyed two hundreth Sicles after ỹ kynges weight. And vnto Absalom there were borne three sonnes and one doughter, whose name was Thamar, and she was a woman of a fayre bewtye: So Absalom abode two yeare at Jerusalem, and sawe not the kynges face.

And Absalom sent for Joab, that he mighte sende him to the kynge. And he wolde not come to him. But he sent the seconde tyme, yet wolde he not come. Then sayde he vnto his seruauntes: Ye knowe Joabs pece of londe that lyeth by myne, and he hath barlye theron: go youre waye therfore and set fyre vpon it. So Absaloms seruauntes sett fyre vpon Joabs pece of londe.

Then Joab gat him vp, and came to Absalom in to the house, and sayde vnto him: Wherfore haue thy seruauntes set fire vpon my pece of londe? Absalō sayde vnto Joab: Beholde, I sent for the, and caused to saye vnto the: Come hither, that I maye sende the to the kynge, and to saye: Wherfore came I from Gesur? It were better for me that I were there yet. Let me therfore se the kynges face. But yf there be eny trespace in me, then put me to death. And Joab wente in to the kynge, and tolde him. And he called Absalom, to come in to the kynge, and he worshipped vpon his face to the grounge before the kynge. And the kynge kyssed Absalom.

The XV. Chapter.

And after this it fortuned that Absalom caused to prepare himselfe chearettes and horses, and fyfty men, which went his fotemē. And Absalō gat him vp allwaye early in the mornynge, and stode in the waye by the porte: and whan eny man had a matter which shulde come to the kynge for iudgment, Absalom called vnto him and sayde: Of what cite art thou? Yf he sayde then: thy seruaunt is of one of the trybes of Jsrael, then sayde Absalom vnto him: Beholde, thy matter is righte and plaine: but there is noman appoynted ỹ of the kynge to heare the.

And Absalom sayde: O who setteth me to be iudge in ỹ londe, that euery man with hath a plee or matter to do in ỹ lawe, might come to me, that I might helpe him to right. And whan eny man came to him to do worshippe & to do him obeisaunce, he put forth his hāde, and helde him & kyssed him. After this maner dyd Absalom vnto all Jsrael whan they came to the lawe vnto the kynge, and so dyd he steale awaye the hert of ỹ men of Jsrael.

After fortye yeares sayde Absalom vnto the kynge: I wil go and performe my vowe at Hebron, which I made vnto the LORDE. For thy seruaunt made a vowe, * whan I dwelt at Gesur in Siria, and saide: Whan ỹ LORDE bringeth me agayne to Jerusalem, I shal do a Gods seruyce vnto the LORDE. The kynge sayde vnto him: Go thy waye in peace. And he gat him vp, and wente vnto Hebron.

But Absalom had sent out spyes in all the trybes of Jsrael, sayenge: Whan ye heare the noyse of the trompe, saye: Absalom is made kynge at Hebron. There wente with Absalom two hundreth men called from Jerusalem, but they wente on symply, and knewe not of the matter. Absalom sent also for Achitophel (the Gilonyte) Dauids counceler, out of his cite Gilo. Now whan he did the sacrifice, the conspiracion was mighty and the people ranne together, and multyplied with Absalom.

Then came one which tolde Dauid, and sayde, that the hert of euery man in Jsrael folowed Absalom. Dauid sayde vnto all his seruauntes that were with him at Jerusalem: Vp, let vs fle, for here shall be no escapynge for vs before Absalom.

Make haist that we maye be goynge, lest he ouertake vs and catch vs, and bryng some mysfortune vpon vs, and smyte the cyte with the edge of the swerde. Then sayde the kynges seruauntes vnto him: Loke what my LORDE ỹ kinge choseth, beholde, here are thy seruauntes. And the kynge wente forth on fote wt all his housholde. * But ten concubynes lefte he to kepe the house.

And whan the kynge and all the people came forth on fote, they wēte farre from home, and all his seruauntes wente by him, and all the Chrethians and Plethians, and all the Gethites (euen sixe hundreth men) which were come on fote from Gath, wente before the kynge.

And the kynge sayde vnto * Jthai ỹ Gethite: Why goest thou also with vs? Turne backe, and byde with the kynge, for thou art a straunger: get the hence agayne vnto thy place. Thou camest yesterdaye, and to daye thou inperdest to go with vs: As for me, I wyl go whither I can: turne thou backe agayne, and mercy and faithfulnes happen vnto thy brethren with the. Jthai answered, and sayde: * As truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as my lorde the kynge lyueth, loke in what place my lorde the kynge shalbe, (whether it chaunce to life or death) there shal thy seruaunt be also.

Dauid sayde vnto Jthai: Then come, and go with vs. So wente Jthai the Gethite and all his men, and the whole multitude of the children that were with him. And all the lande wepte with loude voyce, and all the people with them. And the kynge wēte ouer the broke Cedron, and all the people wente ouer by the waye that goeth to the wyldernes.

And beholde, Sadoc was there also, and all the Lenites that were with them, & they bare ỹ Arke of the couenūat of God, and set it there. And Abiathar wente vp, tyll all the people came out of the cite. But the kynge sayde vnto Sadoc: Brynge the Arke of God in to the cite agayne. Yf I shal fynde grace before the LORDE, he shall fetch me agayne, and shall let me se it, and the house of it. But yf he saye thus: I haue no pleasure to ỹ, beholde, here am I, let him do with me as it pleaseth him.

And the kynge saide vnto Sadoc ỹ priest: O thou * Seer, turne agayne to ỹ cite with peace, and Ahimaas thy sonne with the and Jonathas the sonne of Abiathar: beholde, I wyl tary in the playne of the wyldernes, tyll the message come from you, and tell me. So Sadoc and Abiathar broughte the Arke of God agayne to Jerusalem, and remayned there.

But Dauid wente vp to mount Olyuete and wepte, & his heade was couered. And all the people that was with him, had euery man his heade couered and wente on and wepte. And whan it was tolde Dauid, that Achitophel was in the cōfederacy with Absalom, he sayde: LORDE turne thou Achitophels councell to foolishnes.

And whan Dauid came vp to the toppe of the mount, where the vse was to worshippe God, Chusai the Arachite met him with his cote rent, and earth vpon his heade. And Dauid sayde vnto him: Yf thou go with me, thou shalt be chargeable vnto me: but yf thou goest agayne in to the cite, and sayest vnto Absalom: I am thy seruaunt O kynge euen as I was thy fathers seruaunt, so wyll I now be thy seruaunt, * Then shalt thou bringe Achitophels councell to naughte. So is Sadoc and Abiathar ỹ priestes with the, and all that thou hearest out of the kynges house, tell it vnto Sadoc and Abiathar the priestes. Beholde, their two sonnes are with thē: Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc, and Jonathas the sonne of Abiathar, by them mayest thou sende me worde what thou hearest. So Chusai Dauids frende came in to the cite. And Absalom came to Jerusalem.

2. Re. 17. a and b. c

The XVI. Chapter.

AND whan Dauid was gone a lytle by from the toppe of the mount, beholde, Siba the seruaūt of Mephiboseth met him with a couple of asses sadled, wheron were two hundreth loaues of bred, and an hundreth quantities of rasyns and an hundreth quantities of fygges, and a bottell of wyne. Then sayde the kynge vnto Siba: What wilt thou do herewith? Siba sayde: The asses shalbe for the kynges housholde to ryde vpon, and the loaues and fygges for the yonge men to eate, and the wyne shalbe for them to drynke whan they are weery in the wyldernes. The kynge sayde: Where is thy lordes sonne? Siba sayde vnto the kynge: Beholde, he abyde that Jerusalē, for he saide: To daye shal ỹ house of Jsrael restore my fathers kigdome vnto me. The kynge sayde vnto Siba: Beholde, * all that Mephiboseth hath, shalbe thine. Siba sayde with reuerence, Let me finde grace in thy sighe my lorde O kynge.

2. Re. 9. d

But whan kynge Dauid came to Bahurim, beholde, there wente out a man of the kynred of the house of Saul, * whose name was Semei the sonne of Gera, which wente forth and * cursed, and cast stones at Dauid, and at all kynge Dauids seruauntes: and all the people and all the mightie men

Exo. 22. d

men were at his righte hande and at his lefte. Thus sayde Semei whan he cursed: Get the forth, get the forth thou bloudy hounde, thou man of Belial. The LORDE hath rewarded the for all the bloude of the house of Saul, ỹ thou becamest kynge in his steade. Now hath the LORDE geuen the kyngdome into ỹ hande of Absalom thy sonne, and beholde, now stickest thou in thine owne myschefe, for thou art a bloudy hounde.

But Abisai the sonne of Zeruja sayde vnto the kynge: Shall this deed dogg curse my lorde the kynge? I wyl go and take the heade awaye from him. The kynge saide: Ye children of Zeruja, what haue I to do w' you? Let him curse on, for the LORDE hath commaunded him: Curse Dauid. Who can saye now: Why doest thou so?

C And Dauid sayde vnto Abisai and to all his seruauntes: Beholde, my sonne which came of my body, seketh after my lyfe, how moch more now the sonne of Jemini? Let him curse on, for the LORDE hath commaunded him: * peraduenture the LORDE shall consydre my aduersyte, and recompence me good for his cursynge this daye. So Dauid wente on his waye with his men. But Semei wente on by the mount besyde him, and cursed, and cast stones at him, & threwe clottes of earth.

2.Re.2.g

And the kynge came in and all the people that was with him, weery, and refreshed himselfe there. But Absalom and all the people of the men of Israel came to Jerusalem and Achitophel with him. Whan Chusai the Arachite Dauids frende came into Absalom, he sayde vnto Absalom: God saue the kynge God saue the kynge.

D Absalom sayde vnto Chusai: Is this thy mercy vnto thy frende? Why art thou not gone with thy frende? Chusai sayde vnto Absalom: Not so, but loke whom the LORDE choseth, and this people, and all the men in Israel, his wyl I be, and byde with him. Secondly, whom shulde I serue? Shulde I not do seruyce before his sonne? Like as I haue serued in the presence of thy father, so wyll I do seruyce before the also.

And Absalom sayde vnto Achitophel: Geue vs youre councell what we shal do? Achitophel sayde vnto Absalom: * Go lye with thy fathers concubynes, whom he hath left to kepe the house, so shall all Israel heare that thou hast made thy father to stynke, and the hande of all them that are with ỹ, shal be the bolder. Then made they a tente vnto Absalom * vpon the house toppe. And Absalom laye with his fathers concubynes in the sighte of all Israel.

* The houses

At that tyme whan Achitophel gaue councell, that was euen as yf a man asked councell at God: So were all the councells of Achitophel both with Dauid and with Absalom.

The XVII. Chapter.

AND Achitophel sayde vnto Absalom: I wil chose out twolue thousande men and wyl get me vp, and persue Dauid by nighte, and fall vpō him whan he is faynt and weery: When I vexe him thē, so that all the people which is by him, flieth, I wil smyte the kynge onely, and bryng all the people vnto the agayne. So whan every man is brought vnto the as thou desyrest, then shal all the people be in peace. Absalom thought that good, and so dyd all the Elders in Israel. But Absalom sayde: I praye you call Chusai the Arachite also, and let vs heare what he sayeth therto. And whā Chusai came in to Absalom, Absalom saide vnto him: Thus hath Achitophel spoken, Sayest thou now, shal we do it or not?

Then sayde Chusai vnto Absalom: Is no good councell ỹ Achitophel hath geuen at this tyme. And Chusai sayde moreouer: Thou knowest thy father well and his men, that they are stronge and of a wrothfull stomack, euen * as a Beer that is robbed of her yonge ones in the felde, Thy father also is a man of warre, and wyl not be necligēt with the people. Beholde, he hath now peraduenture hyd hymselfe in some caue or in some place. Yf it came to passe then that it chaunced euell at the first, & there shulde come a rumour and saye: There is a slaughter done in the people that folowed Absalō: thē shulde euery man be discoraged, which els is valeaunt, & hath a hert like a lyō: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is stronge, and that all they which be with him, are mighty men.

But this is my cōcell, that thou gather together all Israel from Dan vnto Berseba in nombre as the sonde of the See, and go thou thine owne person amonge them, then wil we fall vpon him in what place we finde him, and wyll ouerwhelme him euen as the dew falleth vpon the earth, so that we shal not leaue one of him and of all his men. But yf he resorte in to a cite, then shal all Israel cast roapes aboute the same cite, and drawe it in to the riuer, so that there shal not one stone of it be founde

Then sayde Absalom and every man in Israel: The councell of Chusai the Arachite is better then Achitophels councell.

*But the LORDE broughte it so to passe, that ỹ good councell of Achitophel was hyndred, that the LORDE mighte brynge euell vpon Absalom.

*And Chusai sayde vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the prestes: Thus and thus hath Achitophel counceled Absalom and the Elders in Israel: but so and so haue I counceled. Sende now therfore in all the haist, and tell Dauid, and saye: Abyde not all nighte in the playne felde of the wyldernes, but get the ouer, that the kynge be not swalowed vp, and all the people that is with him. As for Jonathas and Ahimaaz, they stode by the well of Rogel, and a damsell wente thither and tolde them. They wente on their waye, and tolde kynge Dauid, for they durst not be sene to come in to the cite.

But a lad sawe them, and tolde Absalom. Neuertheles they wente on their waye, and came to a mans house at Bahurim, which had a well in his courte, and they wēte downe in to it. And the woman toke and spred a couerynge ouer the welles mouth, & strowed firmentye corne theron, that it was not perceaued. Now whan Absaloms seruauntes came to the woman in to the house, they sayde: where is Ahimaaz and Jonathas? The womā sayde vnto them: They are gone ouer the litle water.

And whā they soughte and founde them not, they wente agayne to Jerusalem. And whan they were gone, they clymmed vp out of the well, and wente their waye, and tolde Dauid ỹ kynge, and sayde vnto Dauid: Get you vp, and go soone ouer ỹ water, for thus and thus hath Achitophel geuen councell agaynst you.

Then Dauid gat him vp, and all the people that was with him, and passed ouer Jordane tyll it was cleare mornynge. And there was not one, but he wente ouer Jordane.

Whan Achitophel sawe that his cōcell wente not forth, he sadled his asse, gat him vp, and wēte home in to his cite and put his house to poynte, and hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buried in his fathers graue.

And Dauid came to Mahanaim, and Absalom wente ouer Jordane, & all the men of Israel wt him. And Absalom had set Amasa ouer the hoost in Joabs steade. Amasa was the sonne of a man, whose name was Jethra a Jesraelite, which laye with Abigail the doughter of Nahas the sister of Zeru Ja Joabs mother. But Israel and Absalom pitched in Gilead.

Whan Dauid was come to Mahanaim, *Nahas of Rabbath of the childrē of Ammon, and *Machir the sonne of Ammiel of Lodebar, and *Barsillai a Gileadite of Roglim broughte bedstuffe, tapestrie worke, basens, earthen vessell, whete, barly, meel, parched corne, beenes, otemeell, ryse, hony, butter, shepe and fat oxen vnto Dauid, and to ỹ people that was with him, for to eate: for they thought, The people shall be hongrie, weerye and thirstye in the wyldernes. 1.Re.11.a 2.Reg.8.a *2.Re.19.f 3.Reg.2.b

The XVIII. Chapter.

DAuid mustred the people ỹ was with him, and set captaynes ouer thē, ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds. A And sent out of the people one thirde parte vnder Abisai the sonne of Zeruja Joabs brother, and one thirde parte vnder Jthai the Gethite. And the kynge sayde vnto the people: I wyll go forth with you also. Neuertheles the people sayde: Thou shalt not go forth, for though we fle, or die halfe of vs they shal not regarde vs. For thou art as ten thousande of vs. Therfore is this better that thou mayest helpe vs out of the cite. The kynge sayde: Loke what ye are content withall, that wyl I do. And the kynge stode in the gate, and all the people wente forth by hundreds and by thousandes. And ỹ kinge cōmaunded Joab and Abisai, and Jthai, and sayde: Intreate me the yonge man Absalom gently. And all the people herde it, whē the kynge cōmaunded all the captaynes concernynge Absalom. And whan the people B were come forth in to the felde agaynst Israel, the battayll beganne in the wod of Ephraim. And the people of Israel were smitten there before Dauids seruauntes, so that there was a greate slaughter the same daye, of twentye thousande men. And the battaill was scatred abrode there in the londe. And the wod consumed moch more people the same daye, then the swerde consumed. 1.Re.3.b

And Absalom met Dauids seruauntes, and rode vpon a Mule. And whan the Mule came vnder a greate thicke Oke tre, his heade toke holde on the Oke, and so hanged he betwene heauen and earth, but the Mule ranne awaye from vnder him. Whan a certayne man sawe that, he tolde Joab, and sayde: Beholde, I sawe Absalom hange vpō an Oke tre. And Joab sayde vnto the mā ỹ tolde it him: Beholde, sawest thou that, why smotest thou him not there to the groūde? so wolde I haue geuen the of myne awne behalfe ten syluerlynges and a gyrdell.

The man sayde vnto Joab: Yf thou haddest weyed me a thousande syluerlynges in my handes, yet wolde I not haue layed my handes on the kynges sonne. For the kynge commaunded the and Abisai and Jthai before oure eares, and sayde: Kepe me the yonge man Absalom. Or yf I had dyssembled vpon the ioperdy of myne owne soule (for so moch as nothinge shulde be hyd from ỹ kinge) thou thy selfe shuldest haue stode against me. Joab sayde: Not so, I wil vpon him before thy face.

Then toke Joab three speares in his hande, and thrust Absalom thorow ỹ hert, whyle he was yet alyue vpon the Oke. And ten yonge men Joabs weapenbearers, came aboute him, and smote him to death. Then blewe Joab the trompe, and brought the people agayne, that they shulde folowe nomore vpon Jsrael. For Joab wolde fauour the people. And they toke Absalom, and cast him in the wod in to a greate pytt, and layed a greate heape of stones vpon him. And all Jsrael fled, euery one vnto his tente.

Absalom had set him vp a piler whyle he was yet alyue, which stode in the kynges valley, for he sayde: I haue no sonne, therfore shall this be a remembraunce of my name: and he called the piler after his owne name. And vnto this daie it is yet called Absaloms place.

Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc sayde: Let me runne now, and bringe the kynge worde, that the LORDE hath gotten him righte frō the hande of his enemies. But Joab sayde: Thou shalt bringe no good tidinges to daie another daye shalt thou bringe him worde, and not to daye, for the kynges sonne is deed But vnto Chusi sayde Joab: Go thou thy waye, and tell the kynge what thou hast sene. And Chusi did his obeysaūce vnto Joab, and ranne. Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc saide agayne vnto Joab: What and I ranne also? Joab sayde: What wilt thou runne my sonne? Come hither, thou shalt bringe no good tydinges. (He answered:) What and I ranne yet. He saide vnto him: Renne on ỹ waye then. So Ahimaas ranne the straighte waye, and came before Chusi.

As for Dauid, he sat betwene the two gates. And the watchman wente vp to ỹ toppe of the porte vpon the wall, and lifte vp his eyes, and sawe a man renninge alone, and cryed, and tolde the kinge. The kynge sayde: Yf he be alone, then is there good tydinges in his mouth. And as the same wente and came forth, the watchman sawe another man rennynge, and cryed in the porte and sayde: Beholde, there renneth a man alone. The kinge sayde: The same is a good messaunger also. The watchman sayde: I se the rennynge of the first as it were the rennynge of Ahimaas the sonne of Sadoc. And the kynge sayde: He is a good man, and bringeth good tidinges. Ahimaas cryed, and sayde vnto ỹ kinge: Peace, and worshipped before the kynge vpon his face to the grounde, and sayde: Praised be the LORDE thy God, which hath geuen ouer ỹ men that lifte vp their handes agaynst my LORDE the kynge.

The kynge sayde: Goeth it well with the yonge man Absalom? Ahimaas sayde: I sawe a greate vproure, whan Joab the kynges seruaunt sent me thy seruaunt, and I wote not what it was. The kynge sayde: Go aboute, and stonde here. And he wente about and stode there. Beholde, then came Chusi and sayde: I bringe good tydinges my lorde the kynge: The LORDE hath executed righte for the this daye, from the hande of all them that rose vp agaynst the. But the kynge sayde vnto Chusi: Goeth it well with the yonge man Absalom? Chusi sayde: Euen so goe it to all the enemyes of my lorde the kynge, and with all them that ryse vp agaynst the to do euell, as it goeth with the yonge man. Then was the kynge sorouffull, and wente vp in to the perler vpon the gate, and wepte, and as he wente, he sayde thus: O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalom, wolde God ỹ I shulde dye for the. O Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

The XIX. Chapter.

AND it was tolde Joab: beholde, ỹ kinge wepeth & mourneth for Absalom. And so out of ỹ victory of ỹ daye there came a mourninge amonge all the people. For the people had herde the same daye, ỹ the kynge toke on heuely because of his sonne. And ỹ people stale awaye the same daye, so that they came not in to the cite: as a people that is put to shame, pycketh them nes awaye, whan they are fled in a battayll. As for the kynge, he had couered his face, and cryed lowde, and sayde: Oh my sonne Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

But Joab came to the kynge in to the house, and sayde: This daye hast thou shamed all thy seruauntes (which haue delyuered thy soule this daye, and the soules of thy sonnes, of thy doughters, of thy wyues, and of thy cōcubynes) in that thou louest them that hate the, and hatest those that loue ỹ. for to daye thou shewest thyselfe, that thou carest not for the captaynes and seruauntes: For I perceaue this daye, that yf Absalom onely were alyue, and we all deed this daye, thou woldest thynke it were well.

B Get the vp now therfore, and go forth, and speake louyngly vnto thy seruauntes. For I sweare vnto the by ỹ LORDE, yf thou go not forth, there shall not be lefte the one man this nighte: this shalbe worse vnto ỹ. then all the euell that happened the sence ỹ youth vp hither to. Thē the kynge gat him vp, and sat in the gate. And it was sayde vnto the people: beholde, the kynge sytteth in the gate. Then came all the people before ỹ kynge. But Israel was fled euery one vnto his tent.

And all the people stroue in all the trybes of Israel, and sayde: The kynge ryd vs from the hande of oure enemies, and delyuered vs from the hande of the Philistynes, and was fayne to fle out of the lōde for Absalom. So Absalom whom we had anoynted ouer vs, is dead in the battayll. Why are ye so styll now, that ye fetch not the kynge agayne?

C The kynge sent vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the prestes, & caused to saye vnto thē: Speake to the Elders of Juda, & saye: Why wyll ye be the last to fetch the kynge agayne vnto his house? (for ỹ sayenge of all Israel was come before the kynge in to his house) ye are my brethren, my bone, and my flesh. Wherfore wyl ye then be the last to brynge the kynge agayne? And saye vnto Amasa: Art not thou my bone and my flesh? God do this & that vnto me, yf thou shalt not be the chefe captayne before me in Joabs steade, as longe as thou lyuest.

And he bowed the hert of all the men of Juda as of one man. And they sent vnto ỹ kynge: Come agayne, thou and all thy seruauntes: So the kynge came agayne. And whan he came vnto Jordane, ỹ men of Juda were come to Gilgal, for to go downe to mete the kynge, that they mighte brynge ỹ kynge ouer Jordane. And Semei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Jemini, which dwelt at Bahurim, made haist, and went downe with ỹ men of Juda to mete kynge David, and there were with him a thousande mē of Ben Jamin. Siba also the seruaunt of the 2.Re.16.a house of Saul with his fyftene sonnes and twenty seruauntes, & gat them thorow Jordane and passed ouer ỹ fery, that they might te brynge ouer the kynges housholde, and to do him pleasure.

But Semei the sonne of Gera fell downe D before the kynge, whan he passed ouer Jordane, and sayde vnto the kynge: O my lorde, laye not the trespace vnto my charge, & thynke not vpon it that thy seruaunt vexed the, * in the daye whan my lorde the kynge went 2.Re.16.b out of Jerusalem: and let not ỹ kynge take it to hert, for thy seruaunt knoweth that he hath synned. And beholde, this daye am I come the first amonge all the house of Joseph, for to go downe to mete my lorde the kynge.

Nevertheles Abisai the sonne of Zeru Ja ansixered and sayde: And shulde not Semei dye therfore, seynge he hath cursed ỹ anoynted of ỹ LORDE? But David sayde: * What 2.Re.16.b haue I to do with you ye children of Zeru Mat.16.c Ja, that ye wyll become Sathan vnto me this daye? Shulde eny man dye this daye in Israel? Thynkest thou that I knowe not, ỹ I am become kynge ouer Israel this daye? And ỹ kynge sayde vnto Simei: Thou shalt not dye? And the kynge sware vnto him.

Mephiboseth the sonne of Saul came E downe also to mete the kynge. And he had not made cleane his fete ner combde his beerde, nether had he waßshed his clothes from the daye that the kynge was gone awaye, vntyll the daye that he came agayne in peace. Now whā he came to Jerusalem for to mete the kynge, the kynge sayde vnto him: Mephiboseth, wherfore wentest thou not with me? And he sayde: My lorde O kynge, my seruaūt hath dealte vnrighteously with me: for thy seruaunt thoughte: I wil saddell an asse and ryde theron, and go vnto the kynge: for thy seruaunt is lame, and he hath accused thy seruaunt before my lorde ỹ kynge. * But my lorde ỹ kynge is an angell of God, Gen.33.b and thou mayest do what pleaseth the. For 2.Re.14.a all my fathers house was nothinge, but people of death before my lorde ỹ kynge. * And Heft.15.b yet hast thou set thy seruaunt among^st them 2.Re.9.b that eate at ỹ table. What other righteousnes haue I, that I shulde crye eny more vnto the kynge? The kynge sayde vnto him: What speakest thou yet more of thy matter: I have sayde: Thou and Siba parte the londe betwene you. Mephiboseth sayde vnto the kynge: Let him take it all, in as moch as my lorde ỳ kynge is come home in peace.

F And Barsillai the Gileadite came downe from Roglim, and broughte the kynge ouer Jordane, that he mighte cõueye him in Jordane. And Barsillai was very olde, so good 1.Re.17.e as foure score yeare olde, * the same had prouyded ỳ kynge of fode whyle he was at Mahanaim, for he was a very noble man. And the kynge sayde vnto Barsillai: Thou shalt go ouer with me, I wyll take care for the wmyne awne selfe at Jerusalem. But Barsillai sayde vnto the kynge: What have I yet to lyue, that I shulde go vp to Jerusalem wth the kynge? This daye am I foure score yeare olde. How shulde I knowe what is good or euell, or taist what I eate or drynke, or heare what the Musicians do synge? Why shulde thy seruaunt be chargeable first vnto my lorde the kynge? thy seruaunt shall go a litle with the kynge ouer Jordane. Why wil the kynge recompence me after this maner? Let thy seruaunt turne backe agayne, that I maye dye in my cite beside my father and my mothers graue. Beholde, there is thy seruaunt Chimeam, let him go ouer with my lorde the kynge, and do vnto him what pleaseth the.

G The kynge sayde: Chimeam shal go ouer with me, and I wyll do for him what liketh the: and what so euer thou desyrest of me, that wyll I do for the also. And whan all ỳ people was gone ouer Jordane and the kynge likewyse, the kynge kyssed Barsillai and blessed him, and he turned vnto his place. And ỳ kynge passed ouer vnto Gilgal, and Chimeam wente with him. And all the people of Juda broughte the kynge ouer, howbeit there was but halfe of the people of Israel there.

And beholde, thẽ came all the men of Israel vnto the kynge, & sayde vnto him: Why have oure brethren the men of Juda stollen the awaye, and have conueyed ỳ kynge and his housholde ouer Jordane, and all Dauids men with him? Then answered they of Juda vnto them of Israel: The kynge is of oure nye kynred, why are ye angrie therfore? Thynke ye that we have receaued eny fode or giftes of the kynge? Then answered they of Israel vnto them of Juda, & sayde: We have ten tymes more with the kynge and with Dauid, thẽ thou, why hast thou regarded me then so lightly, that oures were not the first to fetch oure kynge agayne? But they of Juda spake harder then they of Israel.

The XX. Chapter.

There was a famous man of Belial there, whose name was Seba ỳ sonne of Bichri, a mã of Jemini, which blewe the trompe, and sayde: * We have no porcion in Dauid, ner inheritaunce in ỳ sonne of Jsai: let euery get him to his tent, O Israel. Then fell euery man in Israel from Dauid, and folowed Seba the sonne of Bichri. But the men of Juda cleued vnto their kynge from Jordane vnto Jerusalẽ. When Dauid came home to Jerusalem, he toke the ten concubynes (* whom he had leste to kepe the house) and put them in a holde to be kepte, and made prouysion for them: but he laye not with them, and so were they shut vp vnto their death, and lyued wedowes.

And ỳ kynge sayde vnto Amasa: Call me all the men of Juda together agaynst the thirde daye, & be thou here present also. And Amasa wẽte to call Juda together. And he was slacke to come at ỳ tyme which he had appoynted him. And Dauid sayde vnto Abisai: Now shall Seba the sonne of Bichri do vs more harme then Absalom. Take thou ỳ lordes seruauntes, and folowe vpon him, lest he synde not some stroge cities for him, and so escape out of oure sighte. Then wente Joabs mẽ forth after him, and the Chrethians and Plethians, and all the mightie mẽ: and they wẽte out of Jerusalem to folowe vpon Seba the sonne of Bichri.

But whan they were by the greate stone at Gibeon, Amasa came before them. As for Joab, he was gyrded abone his garmente which he had on, and vpon it he had a swerde gyrded, which hanged by his thye in the sheeth, and wente easely out and in, and fell frõ him. And Joab sayde vnto Amasa: Peace be with the my brother. And Joab toke Amasa by the beerde with his righte hãde to kysse him. And Amasa toke no hede vnto ỳ swerde in Joabs hande, and he thrust him therwith in to the bely, ỳ his bowels ranne out vpon the earth, and he thrust at him no more. And so he dyed.

Joab & his brother Abisai folowed vpon Seba ỳ sonne of Bichri. And one of Joabs seruauntes stode by him, and sayde: Whan is he this ỳ wolde be agaynst Joab to please Dauid, and to be with Dauid in Joabs steade? As for Amasa, he laye rolled in his blonde in ỳ myddes of the strete. But when one sawe that all the people stode there still, he remoued Amasa from the strete vnto felde, and cast a clothe vpon him, for so moch as he sawe, that who so euer came by him, sto de styll. Now whan he was put out of the waye, euery man wete after Joab, to folowe vpon Seba the sonne of Bichri.

And he wente thorow all ỳ trybes of Israel vnto Abel Beth Maacha, and all the best chosen men gathered them selues together, & folowed after him, and came and besieged him at Abel Beth Maacha, and made a banke about to cite harde on ỳ wall. And all the people that was with Joab, layed to their ordynaunce, and wolde haue cast downe the wall.

Then cried there a wyse womā out of ỳ cite: Heare, heare, saye vnto Joab that he come hither, I wyl speake with him. And whā he came to her, the woman sayde: Art thou Joab? He sayde: Yee. She sayde vnto him: Heare the wordes of thy handmayden. He sayde: I heare. She sayde: The comon sayenge was somtyme: Who so wyll axe, let him axe at Abel, and so came it to a good ende.
D This is ỳ noble and faithfull cite in Israel, and wilt thou destroye the cite and the mother in Israel? Why wilt thou swalowe vp the enheritaunce of the LORDE?

Joab answered and sayde: That be farre, that be farre frome, that I shulde swalowe vp and destroye. The matter is not so, but a certayne man of mount Ephraim named Seba the sonne of Bichri, hath lifte vp him selfe agaynst kynge Dauid, delyuer him onely, and I wyl departe from the cite. The woman sayde vnto Joab: Beholde, his heade shal be cast vnto the ouer the wall. And the woman came in to all the people with hir wysdome. And they smote of the heade of Seba the sonne of Bichri, and cast it vnto Joab. Then blewe he the trompe, and they departed from the cite, euery one vnto his tent. But Joab came agayne to Jerusalem vnto the kynge.

* Joab was captayne ouer all the hoost of Israel: Benaia ỳ sonne of Joiada was ouer the Chrethians and Plethians: Adoram was rent gatherer: Josaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler: Seia was the scrybe: Sadoc and Abiathar were the prestes: Ira also ỳ Jairite was Dauids prest.

The XXI. Chapter.

A There was a derth also in Dauids tyme thre yeares together. And Dauid soughte the face of ỳ LORDE. And the LORDE sayde: Because of Saul and because of that bloudy housholde * ỳ he slewe the Gibeonites. Then the kynge caused for to call the Gibeonites, and spake vnto them. (As for the Gibeonites, they were not of ỳ children of Israel, but a remnaunt of the Amorites: howbeit * the children of Israel had swore vnto thē, and Saul soughte for to smyte them in his gelousy, for the childrē of Israel and Juda.) Then sayde Dauid to the Gibeonites: What shal I do vnto you? And where withall shal I make the attonement, that ye maye blesse ỳ enheritaunce of ỳ LORDE? The Gibeonites sayde vnto him: It is not for golde and syluer that we haue to do wt Saul and his house, nether haue we oughte to do for to slaye eny mā in Israel. 10su.9.c

He sayde: What saye ye then, that I shal B do vnto you? They sayde vnto ỳ kynge: The man that hath destroyed vs and broughte vs to naughte, shulde we destroye, that nothinge be lefte him in all the coastes of Israel. Let there be geuen vs seuen men of his sonnes, that we maye hange them vp vnto the LORDE at Gibea of Saul the chosen of the LORDE. The kynge sayde: I wyll geue them. Howbeit the kynge spared Mephiboseth ỳ sonne of Jonathas ỳ sonne of Saul, because of the ooth of the LORDE ỳ was betwene them: * namely, betwene Dauid & Jonathas the sonne of Saul. But the two sonnes of Rispa ỳ doughter of Aia, whom she had borne vnto Saul, Armoni & Mephiboseth, And the fyue sonnes of Michol the doughter of Saul, whom she bare vnto Adriel the sonne of Barsillai the Mahalothite, dyd the kynge take, and gaue them in to the handes of ỳ Gibeonites, which hanged thē vp vpō the mount before the LORDE. 1.Re.18.2 20.b.23.c

So these seuen fell at one tyme, and dyed C in the tyme of the first harueste, whan ỳ barly harueste begynneth. Then toke Rispa the doughter of Aia a sackcloth, & spred it vpon the rock in the begynnynge of the harueste, tyll the water from the heauen dropped vpō them, and suffred not the foules of the heauen to reste on them on the daye tyme, nether the wylde beestes of the felde on the nighte seasō. And it was tolde Dauid what Rispa the doughter of Aia Sauls concubyne had done.

And Dauid wente and toke the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathas his sonne from ỳ citesens at Jabes in Gilead (which they * had stollen from ỳ strete at Bethsan, where ỳ Philistynes had hanged thē, what tyme as the Philistynes had smytten Saul vpon mount Gilboa) and broughte them vp from thence, and gathered them together wt the bones of them that were hanged. And D 1.Re.31.c

ter: I have sayde: Thou and Siba parte the londe betwene you. Mephiboseth sayde vnto the kynge: Let him take it all, in as moch as my lorde ỳ kynge is come home in peace.

And the kynge sayde vnto Barsillai: Thou shalt go ouer with me, I wyll take care for the wt myne awne selfe at Jerusalem. But Barsillai sayde vnto the kynge: What have I yet to lyue, that I shulde go vp to Jerusalem wt the kynge? This daye am I foure score yeare olde. How shulde I knowe what is good or evell, or taist what I eate or drynke, or heare what the Musicians do synge? Why shulde thy seruaunt be chargeable first vnto my lorde the kynge? thy seruaunt shall go a litle with the kynge ouer Jordane. Why wil the kynge recompence me after this maner? Let thy seruaunt turne backe agayne, that I maye dye in my cite besyde my father and my mothers graue. Beholde, there is thy seruaunt Chimeam, let him go ouer with my lorde the kynge, and do vnto him what pleaseth the.

G The kynge sayde: Chimeam shal go ouer with me, and I wyll do for him what liketh the: and what so euer thou desyrest of me, that wyll I do for the also. And whan all ỳ people was gone ouer Jordane and the kynge likewyse, the kynge kyssed Barsillai and blessed him, and he turned vnto his place. And ỳ kynge passed ouer vnto Gilgal, and Chimeam wente with him. And all the people of Juda broughte the kynge ouer, howbeit there was but halfe of the people of Israel there.

And beholde, thẽ came all the men of Israel vnto the kynge, & sayde vnto him: Why have oure brethren the men of Juda stollen the awaye, and have conueyed ỳ kynge and his housholde ouer Jordane, and all Dauids men with him? Then answered they of Juda vnto them of Israel: The kynge is of oure nye kynred, why are ye angrie therfore? Thynke ye that we have receaued eny fode or giftes of the kynge? Then answered they of Israel vnto them of Juda, & sayde: We have ten tymes more with the kynge and with Dauid, thẽ thou, why hast thou regarded me then so lightly, that oures were not the first to fetch oure kynge agayne? But they of Juda spake harder then they of Israel.

The XX. Chapter.

THere was a famous man of Belial there, whose name was Seba ỳ sonne of Bichri, a mã of Jemini, which blewe the trompe, and sayde: * We have no porcion in Dauid, ner inheritaunce in ỳ sonne of Jsai: let euery get him to his tent, O Jsrael. Then fell euery man in Jsrael from Dauid, and folowed Seba the sonne of Bichri. But the men of Juda cleued vnto their kynge from Jordane vnto Jerusalẽ. Whan Dauid came home to Jerusalem, he toke the ten concubynes (* whom he had lefte to kepe the house) and put them in a holde to be kepte, and made prouysion for them: but he laye not with them, and so were they shut vp vnto their death, and lyued wedowes.

And ỳ kynge sayde vnto Amasa: Call me all the men of Juda together agaynst the thirde daye, & be thou here present also. And Amasa wẽte to call Juda together. And he was slacke to come at ỳ tyme which he had appoynted him. And Dauid sayde vnto Abisai: Now shall Seba the sonne of Bichri do vs more harme then Absalom. Take thou ỳ lordes seruauntes, and folowe vpon him, ỳ he synde not some strõge cities for him, and so escape out of oure sighte. Then wente Joabs mẽ forth after him, and the Chrethians and Plethians, and all the mightie mẽ: and they wẽte out of Jerusalem to folowe vpon Seba the sonne of Bichri.

But whan they were by the greate stone at Gibeon, Amasa came before them. As for Joab, he was gyrded aboue his garmẽt which he had on, and vpon it he had a swerde gyrded, which hanged by his thye in the sheeth, and wente easely out and in, and fell frõ him. And Joab sayde vnto Amasa: Prosperce be with the my brother. And Joab toke Amasa by the beerde with his righte hãde to kysse him. And Amasa toke no hede vnto ỳ swerde in Joabs hande, and he thrust him therwith in to the bely, ỳ his bowels ranne out vpon the earth, and he thrust at him no more. And so he dyed.

Joab & his brother Abisai folowed vpon Seba ỳ sonne of Bichri. And one of Joabs seruauntes stode by him, and sayde: What is he this ỳ wolde be agaynst Joab to please Dauid, and to be with Dauid in Joabs steade? As for Amasa, he laye rolled in his blonde in ỳ myddes of the strete. But whan one sawe that all the people stode there stil, he remoued Amasa from the strete vnto the

felde, and cast a clothe vpon him, for so moch as he sawe, that who so euer came by him, sto destyll. Now whan he was put out of the waye, euery man wēte after Joab, to folowe vpon Seba the sonne of Bichri.

And he wente thorow all ỳ trybes of Israel vnto Abel Beth Maacha, and all the best chosen men gathered them selues together, & folowed after him, and came and besēged him at Abel Beth Maacha, and made a banke about to cite harde on ỳ wall. And all the people that was with Joab, layed to their ordynaunce, and wolde haue cast downe the wall.

Then cried there a wyse womā out of ỳ cite: Heare, heare, saye vnto Joab that he come hither, I wyl speake with him. And whā he came to her, the woman sayde: Art thou Joab? He sayde: Yee. She sayde vnto him: Heare the wordes of thy handmayden. He sayde: I heare. She sayde: The comon sayenge was somtyme: Who so wyll axe, let him axe at Abel, and so came it to a good ende. This is ỳ noble and faithfull cite in Israel, and wilt thou destroye the cite and the mother in Israel? Why wilt thou swalowe vp the enheritaunce of the LORDE?

Joab answered and sayde: That be farre, that be farre frome, that I shulde swalowe vp and destroye. The matter is not so, but a certayne man of mount Ephraim named Seba the sonne of Bichri, hath lifte vp himselfe agaynst kynge Dauid, delyuer him onely, and I wyl departe from the cite. The woman sayde vnto Joab: Beholde, his heade shal be cast vnto the ouer the wall. And the woman came in to all the people with hir wysdome. And they smote of the heade of Seba the sonne of Bichri, and cast it vnto Joab. Then blewe he the trompe, and they departed from the cite, euery one vnto his tent. But Joab came agayne to Jerusalem vnto the kynge.

Joab was captayne ouer all the hoost of Israel: Benaia ỳ sonne of Joiada was ouer the Chrethians and Plethians: Adoram was rent gatherer: Josaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler: Seia was the scrybe: Sadoc and Abiathar were the prestes: Ira also ỳ Jairite was Dauids preest.

The XXI. Chapter.

There was a derth also in Dauids tyme thre yeares together. And Dauid sought hee the face of ỳ LORDE. And the LORDE sayde: Because of Saul and because of that bloudy housholde ỳ he slewe the Gibeonites. Then the kynge caused for to call the Gibeonites, and spake vnto them. (As for the Gibeonites, they were not of ỳ children of Israel, but a remnaunt of the Amorites: howbeit the children of Israel had swome vnto thē, and Saul sought for to smyte them in his gelousy, for the childrē of Israel and Juda.) Then sayde Dauid to the Gibeonites: What shal I do vnto you? And where withall shal I make the attonement, that ye maye blesse ỳ enheritaunce of ỳ LORDE? The Gibeonites sayde vnto him: It is not for golde and syluer that we haue to do wt Saul and his house, nether haue we oughte to do for to slaye eny mā in Israel. Iosu. 9. c

He sayde: What saye ye then, that I shal do vnto you? They sayde vnto ỳ kynge: The man that hath destroyed vs and broughte vs to naughte, shulde we destroye, that nothinge be lefte him in all the coastes of Israel. Let there be geuen vs seuen men of his sonnes, that we maye hange them vp vnto the LORDE at Gibea of Saul the chosen of the LORDE. The kynge sayde: I wyll geue them. Howbeit the kynge spared Mephiboseth ỳ sonne of Jonathas ỳ sonne of Saul, because of the ooth of the LORDE ỳ was betwene them: namely, betwene Dauid & Jonathas the sonne of Saul. But the two sonnes of Rispa ỳ doughter of Aia, whom she had borne vnto Saul, Armoni & Mephiboseth, And the fyue sonnes of Michol the doughter of Saul, whom she bare vnto Adriel the sonne of Barsillai the Mahalothite, dyd the kynge take, and gaue them in to the handes of ỳ Gibeonites, which hanged thē vp vpō the mount before the LORDE. 1. Re. 18. 20. b. 23. c

So these seuen fell at one tyme, and dyed in the tyme of the first harueste, whan ỳ barly harueste begynneth. Then toke Rispa the doughter of Aia a sackcloth, & spred it vpon the rock in the begynnynge of the harueste, tyll the water from the heauen dropped vpō them, and suffred not the foules of the heauen to reste on them on the dayetyme, nether the wylde beestes of the felde on the nighte seasō. And it was tolde Dauid what Rispa the doughter of Aia Sauls concubyne had done.

And Dauid went & toke the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathas his sonne from ỳ citesens at Jabes in Gilead (which they had stollen from ỳ strete at Bethsan, where ỳ Philistynes had hanged thē, what tyme as the Philistynes had smytten Saul vpon mount Gilboa) and broughte them vp from thence, and gathered them together wt the bones of them that were hanged. And 1. Re. 31. c

the bones of Saul and of his sonne Jonathas buried they in ỳ londe of Ben Jamin, besyde ỳ graue of his father Cis. So after this was God at one with the londe.

But there arose warre agayne of ỳ Philistynes agaynst Israel. And Dauid wente downe ꝛ his seruauntes with him, ꝛ foughte agaynst the Philistynes. And Dauid was weery, ꝛ Jesbi of Nob (which was one of the children of Rapha, and the weight of his speare was thre C. weight of brasse, and had a new harnesse vpon him) thoughte to smyte Dauid. Neuertheles Abisai the sonne of Zeruja helped him, ꝛ smote the Philistyne to death. Then sware Dauids men vnto
1.Re.18.a him, ꝛ sayde: * Thou shalt nomore go forth with vs vnto the warre, that the lanterne in Israel be not put out.

℣ * Afterwarde there arose yet warre at Par.21.a Nob with the Philistynes. Then Sibechai the Husathite smote Saph, which also was one of the childrē of Rapha.

And there arose yet warre at Gob with the Philistynes. Then Elhanan the sonne of Jaere Orgim a Bethleemite smote Goliath the Gethite, which had a speare, whose shaft was like a weeuers lome.

And there arose yet warre at Gath, where there was a cōtencious man, which had sixe syngers on his handes, and sixe toes on his fete, that is foure and twēty in the nombre, and he was borne also of Rapha. And whan he spake despitefully vnto Israel, Jonathas ỳ sonne of Simea Dauids brother smote him. These foure were borne vnto Rapha at Gath, and fell thorow the hande of Dauid and of his seruauntes.

The XXII. Chapter.

A AND Dauid spake the wordes of this songe before the LORDE, what tyme as the LORDE had delyuered him frō the hande of all his enemies, and from the hande of Saul, and he sayde.

The LORDE is my stony rock, ꝛ my castell, and my delyuerer.

God is my strength, in him wyl I put my trust: my shylde ꝛ the horne of my saluacion, my defence ꝛ my refuge, my Sauioure, thou shalt helpe me from violent wronge.

Psal.17.a * I wil call vpon the LORDE with prayse, so shal I be delyuered fro myne enemies.

For the sorowes of death cōpased me, and the brokes of Belial made me afrayed.

The paynes of hell came aboute me, and the snares of death had ouertaken me.

B Whā I was in trouble, I called vpō the LORDE, yee euen my God called I vpon, ꝛ so he herde my voyce frō his holy temple, ꝛ my cōplaynte (came) in to his eares.

The earth trembled and quaked, the foundacions of the heauen shoke and moued, because he was wroth.

Smoke wente vp from his nose, and consumynge fyre out of his mouth, coles were kyndled therof.

He bowed the heauens and came downe, and it was darke vnder his fete.

He sat vpon Cherub and dyd flye, and appeared vpon the fethers of the wynde.

He made darknes his pauylion roundeaboute him, thicke water in the cloudes of ỳ ayre.

At the brightnesse of him were the fyre coles kyndled.

The LORDE thondered from heauē, and the Hyest put forth his voyce.

He shot his arowes, and scatered them: he lightened, and discomfited them.

The pourynges out of the See were sene, and the foundacions of the earth were discouered at the chydinge of the LORDE, ꝛ at the breth of the spirete of his wrath.

He sent downe from aboue, and receaued me, and drue me out of many waters.

He delyuered me fro my stronge enemye, from them that hated me, for they were to mightie for me.

They ouertoke me in the tyme of my trouble, but the LORDE was my succoure.

He broughte me forth in to liberty: he delyuered me, because he had a fauoure vnto me.

The LORDE shal rewarde me after my righteousnes, and acordinge to the clennes of my handes shal he recompence me.

For I haue kepte ỳ waye of the LORDE, ꝛ haue not bene vngodly agaynst my God.

For I haue an eye vnto all his lawes, and haue not put his ordinaunces fro me.

Therfore wil I be perfecte vnto him, and wyl eschue myne awne wickednes.

So shal ỳ LORDE rewarde me after my righteousnes, acordinge to the clēnes of my handes in his eye sighte.

With the holy shalt thou be holy, and with the perfecte thou shalt be perfecte.

With the cleane thou shalt be cleane, and with the froward thou shalt be froward.

For thou shalt saue the poore oppressed people, and shalt set thine eyes agaynst the proude to bringe them downe.

For thou O LORDE art my lanterne. The LORDE shal lighte my darknesse.

For in ỳ I shal discōfite an hoost of men, ꝛ in my God I shal leape ouer the wall.

E The waye of God is perfecte: ỳ wordes of the LORDE are tryed in the fyre: he is a shylde for all thē that put their trust in him.

For where is there a God, excepte ỳ LORDE? Or who hath eny strength without oure God?

God hath strēgthed me with power, and made playne a perfecte waye for me.

He hath made my fete like hartes fete, & hath set me vp an hye.

He teacheth my handes to fighte, and bendeth the stele bowe with myne armes.

And thou hast geuen me the shylde of ỳ health, and with ỳ louynge correccion shalt thou multiplye me.

Thou hast enlarged my goinge vnder me, and myne ankles haue not slyded.

I wyl folowe vpon myne enemies, and destroye thē: and wyl not turne backe agayne, tyll I haue broughte them to naught.

I I wil cōsume them and thrust them thorow, that they come not vp: they shal fall vnder my fete.

Thou hast girded me with strength to ỳ battayll, and hast subdued them vnder me ỳ rose vp agaynst me.

Thou hast made myne enemies to turne their backes vpō me, that I might destroye them that hate me.

They shal crye, but there shalbe no Sauioure: yee euen vnto the LORDE, but he answereth them not.

I wil beate them as small as the dust of the earth: euen as ỳ claye of the stretes wil I make them thynne, and sprede them out abrode.

But me shalt thou delyuer from the stryuynges of the people, and shalt kepe me to be ỳ heade of the heythen: A people whom I haue not knowne, shal serue me.

G The straunge children haue denyed me: at the hearynge of the eare shal they herkē vnto me.

The straunge children are waxen olde, & are shut vp in their presons.

The LORDE lyueth, and blessed be my God, and magnified be the strength of my health.

God seyth that I be auenged, and subdueth the people vnto me.

He bryngeth me out fro myne enemies: & from them ỳ ryse vp agaynst me, shalt thou exalte me, and from ỳ cruell man shalt thou delyuer me.

* For this cause wyl I geue thankes vnto the amonge the heythen, and synge prayses vnto thy name.

Which doth greate health for his kynge, & sheweth mercy vnto Dauid his anoynted, and to his sede for euermore.

The XXIII. Chapter.

These are the last wordes of Dauid: A Dauid the sonne of Jsai sayde. The man, that was set vp to be ỳ anoynted of the God of Jacob, & a pleasaunt dyter of songes of Jsrael, sayde: The sprete of the LORDE hath spoken by me, and the vteraunce therof is done thorow my tunge. He sayde: The God of Jsrael hath spokē vnto me, the strength of Jsrael, the gouernoure amonge men, the righteous gouernoure in the feare of God. As the lighte is in ỳ mornynge whan the Sonne aryseth, so that for the brightnesse therof no cloude remayneth: and as the grasse loketh vpon the earth thorow the rayne, euen so shal my house be with God. * For he hath made an euerlastinge co 2.Re.7.C uenaunt with me, well appoynted on euery syde and sure. For this is all my health & pleasure, that it shal growe. But the Belial shal be vtterly & cleane roted out as the thornes, which mē take not in their hādes. And they ỳ touch them, shal destroye them wt yrons & speares: & in the fyre shal they be brent, that they maye be broughte to naught.

These are the names of Dauids Worthi B es: Jasabeam ỳ sonne of Hachmoni, the che 1.Par.11.F fest amonge thre, which liste vp his speare, & slewe eight hundreth at one tyme.

After him was Eleasar the sonne of Dodi the sonne of Ahohi amonge the thre Worthies with Dauid, whan they spake despytefully to the Philistynes, and were gathered together to the battayll, and the men of Jsrael wente vp. Then stode he vp and smote the Philistynes, tyll his hande was so weery that it crompled with the swerde. And the LORDE gaue a greate victory at the same tyme, so that the people turned after him to spoyle. After him was Samma the sonne of Age ỳ Hararite. Whā the Philistynes had gathered them selues in a company, and in the same place there was a pece of lōde full of small corne, and the people fled before the Philistynes, thē stode he in the myddes of ỳ pece of londe, & delyuered it, & smote ỳ Philistynes. And God gaue a greate victory.

And these thre pryncipall amonge thirtie, C came downe in the harueste vnto Dauid, in to 1.Par.12.G the caue of Adullam, & the hooste of ỳ Philistynes laye in ỳ valley of Rephaim. But Dauid was at the same tyme in the castell, and ỳ Philistynes people laye at Bethleem. And Dauid was desyrous, and sayde: Wol-de God ỹ ſome man wolde fetch me a drynke of water out of the well at Bethleem vnder the gate. Thē brake the thre Worthies into the hooſt of the Philiſtynes, and drue of the water out of the well at Bethleem vnder ỹ gate, & caried it & broughte it vnto Dauid: neuertheles he wolde not drynke it, but offred it vnto the LORDE, & ſayde: Thē LORDE let this be farre fro me, that I ſhulde do it. Is it not the blonde of the men that iooperded their lyues, and wente thither? And he wolde not drynke it. This dyd the thre Worthies.

D .Par.11.c 2.Re.21.d

* Abiſai ỹ brother of Joab the ſonne of Zeru Ja was one alſo chefe amōge thre. He liſte vp his ſpeare & ſmote thre hundreth, & was an awncient man amōge thre, & the no bleſt amonge thre, & was their ruler. But he came not vnto the thre. * And Benaia the ſonne of Joiada, the ſonne of Jſhail (a man of greate actes of Cabzeell) ſmote two mighty giaūtes of ỹ Moabites, & wēte downe, & ſlewe a lyon at a well in the ſnowe tyme. He ſmote alſo a fayre goodly man of Egipte, which had a ſpeare in his hande. But he wēte downe to him with a ſtaffe, and toke the ſpeare out of the Egipcians hande by violence, and ſlewe him with his owne ſpeare. This dyd Benaia the ſonne of Joiada, and was a famous man amōge thre Worthies, and more honorable then the thirtie, but he came not vnto the thre. And Dauid made him of his ſecrete coūcell.

Aſahel the brother of Joab is amonge ỹ thirtie: Elham his vncles ſonne at Bethleem. Samma the Haradite, Elika the Haradite, Helez the Paltite, Jra the ſonne of Tekoite, Abiſer the Anthothite, Mebunai the Huſathite, Zalmon the Ahohite, Maherai the Netophatite, Jthai the ſonne of Ribai of Gibea of the childrē of Ben Jamin, Benaia the Pirgathonite, Hidai of the broke of Gaas, Abialbon the Arbathite, Aſmaueth the Bahumite, Eliaheba the Baalbonite. The children of Jaſen and Jonathas: Samma the Hararite, Elipheler the ſonne of Ahaßbai ỹ ſonne of Maechathi, Eliam the ſonne of Achitophel ỹ Gilonite, Heſrai of Carmel, Paerai the Arbite, Jegael the ſonne of Nathan of Soba, Bani the Gadite, Zeleg the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the weapen bearer of Joab the ſonne of Zeru Ja, Jra the Jethrite, Gareb the Jethrite, Urias the Hethite. Theſe are alltogether ſeuen and thirtie.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

AND the LORDE was wrothfully displeaſed of ỹ new agaynſt Jſrael, and moued Dauid amonge them, becauſe he ſaide: Go, nombre Jſrael and Juda. And the kynge ſayde vnto Joab ỹ chefe captayne of his hooſt: Go aboute in all the trybes of Jſrael, from Dan vnto Berſeba, and nombre the people, that I maye knowe how many they be. Joab ſayde vnto the kynge: The LORDE thy God adde vnto this people an hundreth tymes as moch as it is now, that my lorde the kynge maye ſe his eyes luſt theron. But why hath my lorde the kynge a deſyre to this thinge? Neuertheles the kynges worde preuayled agaynſt Joab and the captaynes of the hooſt.

So Joab and ỹ captaynes of the hooſt wente forth from the kynge, to nombre the people of Jſrael, and paſſed ouer Jordane, and pitched at Aroer, at the righte hande of the cite which lyeth in ỹ ryuer of Gad, and at Jaſeer, & came to Gilead, and in the lowe countre of Hadſi, and came vnto Dan Jaan, and aboute Sidon, and came to the ſtronge cite of Tyrus, and all the cities of the Hemites and Cananites, and came forth to the ſouth parte of Juda vnto Berſeba, and wēte rounde aboute that countre, and after nyne monethes and twenty daies they came to Jeruſalem. And Joab delyuered vnto ỹ kynge the ſumme of the people that was nombred. And in Jſrael there were eight C. thouſande ſtronge men, that drue out the ſwerde: and in Juda fyue hundreth thouſande men. And after that the people was nombred, Dauids hert ſmote him ſelfe. And Dauid ſayde vnto ỹ LORDE: I haue ſynned ſore, that I haue done this. And now LORDE take awaie the treſpace of thy ſeruaunt. For I haue done very vnwyſely.

And whan Dauid roſe vp in the mornynge, the worde of the LORDE came vnto the prophet Gad, Dauids Seer, & ſayde: Go & ſpeake vnto Dauid. Thus ſayeth the LORDE: I bringe the thre thinges, chooſe the one of them, that I maye do it vnto the. Gad came vnto Dauid, and tolde him, and ſayde vnto him: Wilt thou that ſeuen yeare derth ſhall come in to thy londe? Or that thou be fayne to flye before thine aduerſaries thre monethes, and they to perſecute the? Or that there be peſtilence thre dayes in the londe? Take aduyſement therfore and ſe, what anſwere I ſhal bringe agayne vnto him ỹ ſent me.

Dauid ſayde vnto Gad: I am in extreme trouble. * Neuertheles (yf it maye be) let me rather fall in to ỹ handes of the LORDE (for his mercy is greate) I wyll not fall in to the handes of men.

So the LORDE sent pestilẽce in to Israel from the morow vnto the tyme appoynted, so that there dyed of the people from Dan vnto Berseba, thre score and ten thousande men. And whan the angel stretched his hande ouer Jerusalem to destroye it, the LORDE repented ouer the euell, and sayde vnto the angell: It is ynough, holde now thy hande. The angell of the LORDE was besyde the barne of Arafna the Jebusite. But whan David sawe the angell that smote the people, he sayde vnto the LORDE: beholde, I it is I that haue synned, I haue done the trespace: As for these shepe, what haue they done? Oh let thy hãde be agaynst me and agaynst my fathers house.

And Gad came to David at the same tyme, and saide vnto him: Go vp, and set vp an altare vnto the LORDE in ỳ barne of Arafna the Jebusite. So David wẽte vp as Gad sayde, and as the LORDE had commaunded. And whã Arafna loked aboute him, he sawe the kynge with his seruauntes goinge vnto him, and he worshipped vpon his face to the grounde, and sayde: Wherfore commeth my lorde ỳ kynge vnto his seruaunt? David sayde: To bye the barne of the, and to buylde an altare vnto the LORDE, that the plage mayẽ ceasse from the people.

But Arafna sayde vnto David: Let my lorde the kynge take it, and offre what pleaseth him. Beholde, there is an oxe for a burnt offerynge, and sledges, and vessels of oxen to the wodd. All this gaue Arafna vnto the kynge. And Arafna sayde vnto ỳ kynge: The LORDE thy God make the accepted vnto him. Neuertheles ỳ kynge sayde vnto Arafna: Not so, but I wyll bye it of the for as moch as it is worth. For I wyl not offre burntofferynges vnto ỳ LORDE, of ỳ which I haue for naughte. So David boughte the barne and the oxe for fiftye Sicles of syluer, and buylded an altare there vnto the LORDE, and offred burntofferynges & deedofferynges. And the LORDE was mercifull vnto ỳ londe, and ỳ plage ceassed from the people of Jsrael.

Chap. XXI. Achab oppresseth Naboth for his vynyarde. Elias rebuketh him.

Chap. XXII. Josaphat and Achab helpe one another to fighte. The prophet Micheas warneth them.

The first Chapter.

A Nd whā kinge Dauid was olde ⁊ well stryckē in age, he coulde not be warme, though he was couered with clothes. Then sayde his seruauntes vnto him: Let vs seke a yonge damsell a virgin for oure lorde the kynge, to stonde before the kynge, and to norysh him, ⁊ to slepe in his armes, and to warme oure lorde the kynge. And they sought a fayre dāsell in all the coastes of Israel, and founde Abisag of Sunem, and brought her vnto ỹ kynge. And she was a very fayre damsell, and norysshed ỹ kynge, and serued him. Howbeit the kynge knewe her not.

Adonias ỹ sonne of Hagith lifte vp him selfe, and sayde: I wyl be kynge. And he prepared him charettes and horsmen, and fyftie men to be renners on fore before him. And his father reproued hī not therfore, so moch as to saye: Wherfore doest thou so? And he was a man of a very fayre bewtye * and he had begotten him nexte after Absalō. And his matter stode by Joab ỹ sonne of Zeruja and by Abiathar the prest, which helped Adonias. But Sadoc the prest, and Benaia the sonne of Joiada, and Nathan the prest and Semei and Rei, and Dauids Worthies were not with Adonias.

Reg. 3. a

B And whā Adonias offred shepe and oxē, and fat catell beside the stone of Soheleth, which lyeth by the * well of Roget, he called all his brethrē the kynges sonnes, and all the men of Juda the kynges seruaūtes. But the prophet Nathan and Benaia, and the Worthies, and his brother Salomon called he not. Then sayde Nathan vnto Bethseba Salomons mother: Hast thou not herde ỹ Adonias is kynge, and oure lorde Dauid knoweth not therof? Come now therfore, I wyll gene the councell, that thou mayest delyuer thy soule and the soule of thy sonne Salomon. Come now and go in to kinge Dauid and saye vnto him: Hast not thou my lorde the kynge sworne and sayde vnto thy handmayden: Salomon thy sonne shall be kynge after me, and he shall sytt vpon my seate? Why is then Adonias made kynge? Beholde, while thou art yet there, and talkest with the kynge, I wyll come in after the, and tell forth thy tayle. And Bethseba wente in to the kynge to ỹ chamber. And the kynge was very olde. And Abisag of Sunem serued the kynge. And Bethseba bowed hirselfe, and worshipped the kynge.

The kynge sayde: What wilt thou? She sayde vnto him: My lorde, Thou hast sworne vnto thy handmayde by the LORDE thy God: Thy sonne Salomon shall be kynge after me and syt vpon my seate. But now lo, Adonias is kynge, and my lorde the kynge knoweth it not. He hath offred oxen and fat catell, and many shepe, and hath called all the kynges sonnes, and Abiathar the prest, and Joab the chefe captayne. But thy seruaunt Salomon hath he not bydden. Nauertheles thou my lorde art kynge, the eyes of all Israel loke vnto the, that thou shuldest shewe them who shall syt vpon the seate of my lorde the kynge after the. And whā my lorde the kynge slepeth with his fathers then shal I and my sonne Salomon be fayne to be synners.

But whyle she yet spake to the kynge, the prophet Nathan came, and she tolde ỹ kinge: beholde, there is the prophet Nathan. And whan he came in before the kynge, he worshipped the kynge vpon his face to the grounde, and sayde My lorde O kynge, hast thou saide: Adonias shal be kinge after me, ⁊ syt vpō my seate? For he is gone downe this daye, and hath offred oxen, and fat catell, ⁊ hath called all the kynges sonnes, and the captaynes, and the prest Abiathar. And beholde, they eate and drynke before him, and saye: God saue the kynge Adonias. But me ỹ thy seruaunt, and Sadoc the prest, and Benaia the sonne of Joiada, and thy seruaunt Salomon hath he not called. Hath my lorde the kynge commaunded this, and not certifyed his seruauntes who shall sytt vpon the seate of my lorde the kynge after him?

The kinge answered and saide: Call Bethseba vnto me. And she came in before the kinge. And whan she stode before the kynge, the kynge sware and sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth (which hath delyuered my soule out of trouble,) I wyl do vnto the this daye, euen as I sware vnto the by the LORDE the God of Israel, so that Salomon thy sonne shalbe kynge after me, and he shal sit vpon my seate in my steade.

Then Bethseba bowed hir selfe with hir face to the grounde, and thanked the kynge and sayde: God saue my lorde kynge Dauid for euermore. And the kynge sayde: Call me the prest Sadoc ⁊ the prophet Nathan, and Benaia the sonne of Joiada.

And whan they came in before the kynge, the kynge sayde vnto them: Take youre lordes seruauntes with you, and set my sonne Salomon vpon my Mule, and cary him downe to Gihon: and let Sadoc ỳ preist and the prophet Nathan, anoynte him there to be kynge ouer Israel, and blowe the trompe, and saye: God saue kynge Salomon, and go ye vp after him: and whan he commeth, he shal syt vpō my seate, and be kynge in my steade: for I haue ordeyned him to be prynce ouer Israel and Juda. Then answered Benaia the sonne of Joiada vnto the kynge, & sayde: Amen. The LORDE God of my lorde the kynge saye thus also. As the LORDE hath bene with my lorde the kynge, so be he with Salomon also, that his seate maye be greater then the seate of my lorde kynge Dauid.

Then wente they downe, the preist Sadoc and the prophet Nathan, and Benaia the sonne of Joiada, and the Chrethians, & plethians, & set Salomon vpon kynge Dauids Mule, & broughte him to Gihon. And Sadoc the preist toke the oyle horne out of the Tabernacle, and anoynted Salomon. And they blewe the trompe: And all ỳ people sayde: God saue kynge Salomon.

§ And all the people wente vp after him, and the people pyped with pypes, and was very ioyfull, so that the earth range at the noyse of them. And Adonias herde it, and all they whom he had called, which were wt him, and they had new eaten. And whan Joab herde the noyse of the trompe, he sayde: What meaneth this noyse of the cite and this busynes? But whyle he yet spake, beholde, Jonathas the sonne of Abiathar ỳ preist came.

And Adonias sayde: Come in, for thou art a valeaunt man, and bryngest good tydinges. Jonathas answered and sayde vnto Adonias: Alas, ỳ lorde kynge Dauid hath made Salomon kynge, and hath sent with him Sadoc the preist, and the propheth Nathan, and Benaia the sonne of Joiada, and the Chrethians and Plethians, and they haue set him vpon the kynges Mule: and Sadoc ỳ preist with the prophet Nathan hath anoynted him kynge at Gihon, and from thēce are they gone vp with ioye, that the cite range with all: that is the noyse that ye haue herde.

G Salomon also sytteth vpō the kynges seate, and the kynges seruauntes are gone in to wysh good lucke vnto ouer lorde kynge Dauid, and haue sayde: Thy God make Salomon a better name then thy name is, and make his seate greater then thy seate. And they haue wyßshed the kynge good lucke vpon the bed. Moreuer ỳ kynge hath sayde thus: Prayse be ỳ LORDE God of Israel, which this daye hath made one to syt vpon my seate, that myne eyes haue sene it.

Then were they afrayed, and gatt them vp all that were called by Adonias, and so they departed euery man his waye. But Adonias was afrayed of Salomon, and gat him vp, and wēte his waye, & toke holde of ỳ hornes of ỳ altare. And it was tolde Salomon: beholde, Adonias feareth kynge Salomō, & beholde, he taketh holde of the hornes of ỳ altare, & sayeth: Let kinge Salomō swear vnto me this daye, that he shall not slaye his seruaunt with the swerde. Salomon sayde: Yf he wil be an honest man, there shall not one heer fall from him vpon the earth: but yf there be euell founde in him, he shall dye. And kinge Salomō sent, and caused him to be fetched * from the altare. And whan he came, he fell downe before kynge Salomon. But Salomon sayde vnto him: Go ỳ waye in to thy house. Exo. 21. b

The ij. Chapter.

A NOw whan the tyme came that Dauid shulde dye, he commaunded Salomon his sonne, and sayde: I go the waye of all the worlde, Be thou strōge therfore, and shewe thyselfe a man, and kepe the watch of the LORDE thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and holde his ordinaunces, his commaundementes, his lawes, and his testimonies, * as it is written in the lawe of Moses, that thou mayest be wyse in all that thou doest, and whither so euer thou turnest the: that the LORDE maye rayse vp his worde, which he hath spokē ouer me, and sayde: Yf thy children kepe their waye and walke before me faithfully and truly and with all their hert and withall their soule, thē shal there neuer fayle the a man vpon the seate of Israel. 1.Pa.30.e And Salomon sat vpon the seate of Dauid his father, and his kyngdome was made very sure.

But Adonias the sonne of Hagith came in to Bethseba Salomons mother. And she sayde: Is thy commynge peaceable? He spake: Yee, and sayde: I haue somwhat to saye to the. She sayde: Saye on. He sayde:
C Thou knowest that the kyngdome was myne, and that all Israel had sett them selues vpon me, that I shulde be kynge, but now is the kyngdome turned, and become my brothers: for he hath it of the LORDE.

Now desyre I one peticion of the, Make not my face ashamed. She sayde vnto him: Saye on. He sayde: Speake vnto kyn*that is: He shall not denye the thy peticion. ge Salomon (for * he shall not shame thy face) that he maye geue me Abisag to wyfe. Bethseba sayde: Wel, I wil speake to the kynge for the.

And Bethseba came in to kynge Salomon to speake with him. And the kynge stode vp, and wente to mete her, and worshipped her, and sat him downe vpon his seate. And there was a chayre set for the kynges mother, so that she sat at his righte hande. And she sayde: One peticion desyre I of the make not my face ashamed. The kynge sayde: Axe O my mother, I wyl not shame thy face. She saide: Let Abisag of Sunem be geuen thy brother Adonias to wyfe.

D Then answered kynge Salomon, and saide vnto his mother: Why desyrest thou Abisag of Sunem for Adonias? Axe the kyngdome or him also, for he is my greater brother, * and hath Abiathar the prest, and Joab the sonne of Zeruja. And the kynge sware by the LORDE, and sayde: God do this and that vnto me, Adonias shall haue spoken this agaynst his lyfe. And now as truly as the LORDE lyueth which hath ordeyned me, and made me to syt vpon the seate of my father Dauid, and hath made me a house (* accordynge as he sayde) this day shal Adonias dye.

And kynge Salomon sent thither by Benaia the sonne of Joiada, which smote him that he dyed. And to the prest Abiathar sayde ỳ kynge: Go thy waye vnto Anathoth to thy londe, for thou art a man of deeth. Neuertheless I wyl not slaye the this day for thou hast borne the Arke of the LORDE God before my father Dauid, and hast suffred also where my father suffred.

Thus Salomō put forth Abiathar, that he must nomore be the prest of the LORDE, that the worde of the LORDE might be fulfilled, * which he spake ouer the house of Eli at Silo.

And this rumoure came before Joab: for Joab cleued vnto Adonias, and not vnto Salomon. Then fled Joab in to the Tabernacle of the LORDE, and toke holde of the hornes of the altare. And it was tolde kynge Salomon, that Joab was fled in to the Tabernacle of the LORDE, and beholde, he stondeth at the altare.

Then sent Salomon Benaia the sonne of Joiada, and sayde: Go slaye him. And whan Benaia came to the Tabernacle of the LORDE, he sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the kynge: Come forth. He sayde: Nō, I wyl dye here. And Benaia tolde this vnto the kynge agayne, and sayde: Thus hath Joab spoken, and thus hath he answered me.

The kinge saide vnto him: Do as he hath spoken, and slaye him, and bury him, that thou mayest put fro me and my fathers house the bloude which Joab hath shed without a cause, and that the LORDE maye recompence him his bloude vpon his heade, because he smote two men, which were more righteous and better then he, and slewe them with ỳ swerde that my father Dauid knewe not of: namely, * Abner ỳ sonne of Ner the chefe captaine ouer Israel, & Amasa the sonne of Jether ỳ chefe captaine ouer Juda ỳ their bloude maye be recompensed vpō ỳ heade of Joab and of his sede for euer: but Dauid and his sede, his house and his seate have peace for evermore of the LORDE.

And Benaia the sonne of Joiada wente vp, and smote him, and slewe him: & he was buried in his house in the wyldernes. And ỳ kynge set Benaia ỳ sonne of Joiada in his steade over the hoost. And * Sadoc ỳ prest dyd the kynge set in the steade of Abiathar.

And the kynge sent, and caused for to call Semei, and sayde vnto him: Buylde the an house at Jerusalem, and dwell there, and departe not from thence, nether hither ner thither. In what daye so ever thou departest forth, and goest over ỳ broke Cedron, be thou sure, that thou shalt dye the deeth: thy blonde be vpon thy heade. Semei sayde vnto the kynge: This is a good meanynge, as my lorde the kynge hath sayde, so shal thy servaunt do. So Semei dwelt at Jerusalem a longe season. But after thre yeare it fortuned that two servauntes ranne awaye from Semei vnto Achis the sonne of Maecha kynge of Gath.

And it was tolde Semei: beholde, thy servauntes are at Gath. Then Semei gat him vp, and sadled his asse, and wēte vnto Gath to Achis, for to seke his servaūtes. And whā he came thither, he broughte his servauntes from Gath.

And it was tolde Salomon, that Semei wente from Jerusalem vnto Gath, and was come agayne. Then sent the kynge, and caused for to call Semei, and sayde vnto him: Sware not I to the by the LORDE, and assured the, and sayde: Loke what daye so ever thou departest out and goest hither or thither, be sure that thou shalt dye the deathe? And thou saydest vnto me: I have herde a good meanynge. Why hast thou not kepte the then acordinge to the ooth of the LORDE, and commaundement that I commaunded the?

And the kynge sayde vnto Semei: Thou remembrest all ỳ wickednes, which thy hert knoweth * that thou dyddest vnto my father Dauid. The LORDE hath recompenced ỳ thy wickednes vpon thy heade. And kynge Salomon is blessed, and the seate of Dauid shalbe stablished before ỳ LORDE for ever. And the kynge commaunded Benaia ỳ sonne of Joiada, which wente forth, and smote him that he dyed. And the kyngdome was stablished by Salomons hande.

The III. Chapter.

Salomon made mariage wt Pharao the kynge of Egipte, & toke Pharaos doughter, and broughte her in to the cite of Dauid, tyll he had buylded his house, and the LORDES house, and the walles rounde aboute Jerusalem. But the people offred yet vpon the hye places: for as yet there was no house buylded vnto the name of the LORDE vnto that tyme. But Salomon loved the LORDE, and walked after the ordinaunces of Dauid his father: excepte onely that he offred and brent incense vpon the hye places.

* And the kynge wente vnto Gibeon, to do sacrifice there: for that was a goodly hye place. And Salomon offred a thousande burntofferynges vpon the same altare. * And the LORDE appeared vnto Salomon at Gibeon in a dreame of the nighte, and God sayde: Axe what I shal geve ỳ. Salomō sayde: Thou hast done greate mercy vnto my father Dauid thy servaunt. Like as he walked before the in faithfulnes and righteousnes, and in a true hert with the, & this greate mercy hast thou layed vp for him, and geuen him a sonne to syt vpon his seate, as it is now come to passe.

* Now LORDE my God, thou hast made thy servaunt kynge in my father Dauids steade: As for me, I am but a small yonge man, knowynge nether my outgoynge ner ingoynge. And thy servaunt is amonge the people whom thou hast chosen: which is so greate, that no man can nombre them ner describe them for multitude. Geve thy servaunt therfore an obedient hert, that he maye iudge thy people, & vnderstonde what is good & bad: for who is able to iudge this thy mighty people?

This pleased the LORDE well, that Salomon axed soch a peticion. And God sayde vnto him: For so moch as thou axest this, and desyrest not longe lyfe, nether riches, nether ỳ soules of thine enemies, but vnderstōdinge to heare iudgment, beholde, therfore have I done acordynge to thy wordes. * Beholde, I have geuen the an hert of wyse dome and vnderstondynge, so that soch one as thou hath not bene before the, nether shall ryse vp after the.

Yee and that thou hast not prayed for, have I geuen the also, namely, ryches, and honoure, so that amonge the kynges in ỳ tyme there is not soch one as thou. And yf thou wilt walke in my wayes, so that thou kepe myne ordinaunces and lawes, as Dauid thy father hath walked, then wyll I geve the a longe lyfe.

And whan Salomon awaked, beholde, it was a dreame, * and he came to Jerusalē, and stode before the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, and offred burntofferynges, and healthofferinges, and made a greate feast vnto his seruauntes.

At the same tyme came there two harlottes vnto ỹ kynge, and stode before him. And the one woman sayde: Oh my lorde, I and this woman dwelt in one house, and I was delyuered of a childe in the house with her: & on the thirde daye after that I was delyuered, she was delyuered of a childe also. And we were together, so ỹ there was no straunger in ỹ house, but we two: & this womans sonne died in the nighte (for she smoored him in the slepe) and she rose vp in the nighte, and toke my sonne fro my syde (where thy handmayde slepte,) and layed it in hir arme, and hir deed sonne layed she in myne arme. And whan I rose vp in the mornynge to geue my sonne sucke, beholde, he was deed. But in the mornynge I loked well, and beholde, it was not my sonne, whom I had borne.

D The other woman sayde: Not so, my sonne lyueth, and thy sonne is deed. But she sayde: Not so, thy sonne is deed, and my sonne liueth. And thus spake they before the kynge. And the kynge sayde: This womā saieth: my sonne lyueth and thy sonne is deed: Yonder woman sayeth: Not so, thy sonne is deed, & my sonne lyueth. And the kynge saide: Fetch me a swerde. And whan the swerde was brought before the kynge, the kynge sayde: Parte the lyuynge childe in two partes, and geue this woman the one halfe, and yonder woman the other halfe.

Then sayde the woman whose sonne lyued, vnto ỹ kinge: (for hir motherly hert was kyndled with pite ouer hir sonne) Oh my lorde, gene hir the childe alyue, and kyll it not. But the other sayde: Let it nether be myne nether thine, but let it be parted. Then answered the kynge, and sayde: Geue this woman the lyuynge childe, and slaye it not, for she is his mother. And all Israel herde of this iudgment that the kynge had geuen: and they feared the kynge, for they sawe that ỹ wysdome of God was in him to kepe iudgmēt.

The IIII. Chapter.

A Thus was Salomon kynge ouer all Israel. And these were his prynces: Asaria the sonne of Sadoc the preist: Elihoreph, and Ahi Ja the sonnes of Sisa, were prestes: Josaphat the sonne of Ahilud was chaunceler: Benaia ỹ sonne of Joiada was the chefe captayne: Sadoc and Abiathar were prestes: Asaria the sonne of Nathan was ouer the officers: Sabud the sonne of Nathan the preist was the kynges frende: Ahisar was stewarde: Adoniram the sonne of Abda was rent gatherer.

And Salomon had twolue offycers ouer all Israel, which made prouysion of fode for the kynge and his house: One had a monethlonge in ỹ yeare to make prouysion: The sonne of Hur vpon mount Ephraim. The sonne of Deber at Maçaz and at Saalbaim, & at Bethsames, and at Elon, and Beth Hani. The sonne of Hased at Aruboth, and had therto Socho and all the londe of Hepher. The sonne of Abinadab all ỹ lordshippe at Dor: & had Taphat Salomōs doughter to wife. Baena ỹ sonne of Ahilud at Thaenach & at Magiddo, & ouer all Beth Sean, which lyeth beside Zarthana vnder Jesrael from Beth Sean vnto the playne of Mehelo, tyll the other syde of Jakmeam. The sonne of Geber at Ramoth in Gilead: he had the townes of Jair the sonne of Manasse in Gilead, and had ỹ coastes of Argob which lyeth in Basan, euen thre score greate walled cities, and with brasen barres. Ahinadab ỹ sonne of Jddo at Mahanaim. Ahimaas in Nephtali: and he also toke Basmath Salmons doughter to wife. Baena the sonne of Husai in Asser and at Aloth. Josaphat the sonne of Paruha in Isachar. Semei the sonne of Ela in Ben Jamin. Geber the sonne of Uri in the londe of Gilead, in the londe of Sihon kynge of the Amoutes, and of Og the kynge in Basan. One officer was in the same londe. As for Juda and Israel, they were in nombre as the sonde of the see, and ate and dronke, and were mery. * Thus was Salomō lorde ouer all the kyngdemes (from the water of the londe of the Philistynes, vnto the border of Egipte) which brought him giftes, and serued him as longe as he lyued.

And Salomon had daylie to his vytayles thirtye quarters of fyne meel, three score quarters of other meel, ten fat oxen, and twenty small catell, and an hundreth shepe, beside hartes and Roes, and wilde goates, and fat capons, and foules. For he had the lordshippe of all the londe on this syde the water, fro Tiphsa vnto Gasa, and ouer all ỹ kynges on this syde ỹ water: & had peace of all his subiectes rounde aboute, so that Juda and Israel dwelt safe, euery one vnder his vyne, and vnder his figge tre, from Dan vnto Berseba, as longe as Salomon lyued.

And Salomō had fortye thousande cart horses, and twolue thousande horsmen. And the officers prouyded the kynge Salomon with vytayles: and what soeuer belonged to the kynges table, that brought euery man in his moneth, and myssed not: Barlye also & strawe for the horses and coursers, & brought them vnto the place where ỳ kynge was, every one after his charge.

1.c *And God gaue Salomon maruelous greate wyßdome and vnderstondinge, and a large hert, as the sonde that lyeth vpon ỳ See shore: so that the wyßdome of Salomon was greater then the wyßdome of all the children towarde the south and of all ỳ Egipcians. And he was wyser then all men, yee wyser then Ethan the Esrahite, Heman, Chalcal, and Darda, the sonnes of Maholi: and had a greate name amonge all the heythē on every syde. And he spake thre thousande *prouerbes, & his *songes were a thousande & fyue. And he spake of trees, from ỳ Ceder of Libanus vnto the Jsope ỳ groweth out of ỳ wall: he talked also of catell, of fowles, of wormes, of fißshes. And there came of all nacions to heare ỳ wyßdome of Salomon, and there came of all the kynges of ỳ earth, which had herde of his wyßdome.

B Whan Hiram herde the wordes of Salomon, he was very glad, and sayde: Praysed be the LORDE this daye, which hath geuen Dauid a wyse sonne ouer this greate people. And Hiram sent vnto Salomon, sayenge: Jhaue herde what thou hast sent vnto me: Jwyl do acordinge vnto all thy desyre with Ceders and pyne trees. My seruauntes shall bringe them downe from Libanus vnto ỳ See, and Jwyl make them to flote vpō the See, vnto the place which thou shalt shewe me, and there wyl J cause them to aryue, & thou shalt make thē to be fetched. But thou shalt fulfyll my desyre also, and gene fode vnto my housholde folkes. So Hirā gaue Salomon Ceders and pyne trees acordinge to all his desyre. But Salomon gaue Hiram twentye thousande quarters of wheate to eate for his housholde, and twētye quarters of beaten oyle. This gaue Salomon yearly vnto Hiram.

And the LORDE gaue Salomon wyßdome, acordynge as he had sayde vnto him, & there was peace betwene Hiram and Salomon, and they made a couenaunt both together. And Salomon made an outchosynge (of workmen) thorow out all Jsrael. And ỳ outchosynge was thirtie thousande mē, and he sent thē to mount Libanus euery two monethes ten thousande, so that they were one moneth vpon Libanus, and two monethes at home. And *Adoniram was ouer the outchosynge. 3.Re.4.a and 12.c

And Salomon had thre score thousande & ten that bare burthens, & foure score thousande that hewed tymber vpon the mount, beside Salomons chefe officers, which were ordeyned ouer the worke: namely thre thousande and thre hundreth, which ruled ỳ people that laboured there in the worke. And ỳ kynge commaunded, that they shulde breake out greate and costly stones, namely fre stone, for the foundacion of the house. And Salomons masons, and Hirams, and they that were in those coastes, hewed out & prepared tymbre and stones to the buyldinge of the house.

The VI. Chapter.

A IN the foure hundreth and foure score yeare after the departinge of the 2.Par.3.a Act.7.f children of Jsrael out of the londe of Egipte, in the fourth yeare of the raigne of Salomon ouer Jsrael, in the moneth Sif (ỳ is the seconde moneth) was the house buylded vnto the LORDE. This house that kynge Salomon buylded vnto ỳ LORDE, was thre score cubytes lōge, twenty cubytes brode, & thirtie cubites hye. And he buylded a Ioh.10.c Act.3.b and 5.b *porche before the temple of twentye cubytes longe after the bredth of the house, & ten cubites brode before the house. And in ỳ house he made wyndowes, which might be opened and shut with lyddes.

And roūde aboute by the wall of ỳ hou se he buylded a compase, so ẏ it wente both aboute the temple and the quere, and made his outwarde wall roũde aboute. The nether most stacion was fyue cubytes wyde, and ẏ myddest sixe cubites wyde, and the thirde seuen cubites wyde. For he layed balkes roũde aboute the house, that they touched not ẏ wall of the house.

B And whan ẏ house was buylded, it was buylded of whole and outbroken stones, so ẏ there was herde nether hammer ner axe, ner eny other instrument of yron, whan the house was a buyldinge.

But on the righte syde of the myddes of the house there was a dore, so ẏ they might go vp to the myddest stacion by a turne grese, & from the myddest stacion vnto ẏ thirde. Thus buylded he the house, & fynished it, & syled ẏ house both aboue & by the walles wᵗ Ceder wodd. He buylded a galery also aboue vpon the whole house fyue cubytes hye, and couered the house with Ceder tymber.

And the worde of the LORDE came vnto Salomon, & sayde: Let this be the house ẏ thou buyldest. Yf thou shalt walke in myne ordinaunces, & do accordinge to my lawes, & kepe all my cõmaundementes, to walke therin, then wyl I stablyshe my worde with ẏ, 1.Re.7.b (* as I sayde vnto Dauid thy father) & wyll dwell amonge the childrẽ of Israel, and wil not forsake my people of Israel.

C Thus Salomon buylded the house, & fynished it, & buylded the walles on the inside with Ceder tymber, from the grounde of ẏ house vnto the rofe, and syled it with tymbre on the ynside, and ouerlayed the floore of ẏ house with bordes of Pyne tre.

And behynde in the house he buylded a wall of Ceder tymber twentye cubytes longe, from the floore vnto the rofe. And there on the ynside buylded he the quere for the most holy. But the house of the temple before the quere was fortye cubites longe: on the ynside was the whole house of Ceder with throwne knoppes and floures, so that there was no stone sene. As for the quere, he prepared it on the ynside of the house, that the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE might be set therin. And before the quere (which was twentye cubites longe, twentye cubytes brode, and twentye cubytes hye, and ouerlayed with pure golde) he syled the altare with Ceder.

D And Salomon ouerlayed the house on ẏ ynside wᵗ pure golde, & shot barres of golde before the quere, which he had ouerlayed wᵗ golde, so that ẏ whole house was layed ouer with golde. And all the altare also before ẏ quere ouerlayed he with golde.

* He made also in the quere two Cherubins ten cubites hye of Olyue tre. One wynge of ether of the Cherubs had fyue cubytes, so that from the edge of his one wynge to the edge of his other wynge there were ten cubytes. Euen so had the other Cherub ten cubites also, and both the Cherubs were of one measure and of one quantitie so ẏ ether Cherub was ten cubites hye. And he put the Cherubins within in the house. And the Cherubins spred forth their wynges, so that the wynge of the one touched the one wall, and the other Cherubs wynge touched the other wall. But in the myddes of ẏ house the one wynge touched another. And he ouerlayed the Cherubins with golde.

And on all the walles of the house roũde aboute, he caused to make carued worke, with carued Cherubins, palme trees, and floures. And the pauement of the house ouerlayed he also with goldē plates. And at the intraunce of the quere he made two dores of olyue tre with fyue squared postes, and caused carued worke to be made therof with Cherubins, palme trees and floures, & ouerlayed them with plates of golde. So made he also at the intraunce of the temple, foure squared postes of Olyue tre, and two dores of Pyne tre (so that ether dore had two syde dores one hãginge to another) and made carued worke therof, palme trees and floures, right as it was appoynted.

And he buylded a courte also within wᵗ thre rowes of frestone, and with one rowe of playne Ceder tymber.

In the fourth yeare in the moneth Sif, was the foundacion of the LORDES house layed: and in the eleuenth yeare in the moneth Bul (that is the eight moneth) was the house fynished as it shulde be, so that they were seuen yeare a buyldinge of it.

The VII. Chapter.

BVt Salomon was a buyldinge his awne house thirtene yeare, & fynished it, namely, he buylded an house of the wodd of Libanus, an hundreth cubites longe, fiftye cubites wyde, & thirtie cubites hye, foure squared with rowes of pilers, and wᵗ carued Ceders. And the rofe aboue syled he also with Ceder wodd vpon the fyue & fortie pilers, for one rowe had fyftene pilers, so ẏ there stode euer thre pilers one right ouer agaynst another: so that euery space betwixte the pilers was one ouer agaynst another foure squared with the pilers.

And he made a porche with pilers which was fifrye cubites longe, and thirtie cubites brode, & yet a porche before it with pilers & ꝺ a greate poste. He made a porche also vnto ꝺ kynges seate (wherin ꝺ iudgment was kepte) and made it to be the porche of iudgment, and syled it with Ceder from the pauement vnto the pauement agayne, and his owne house wherin he dwelt, in ꝺ back courte made betwene ꝺ house and the porche like the other. And like vnto the porche made B he a house for Pharaos doughter, * whom Salomon had taken to wife.

All these were costly stone hewen after ꝺ measure, cut with sawes on euery syde, from the grounde vnto the rofe: and without the greate courte also. As for the foundacions, they were costly and greate stones, ten and eighte cubites greate: and costly fre stones theron acordinge to ꝺ measure, and Ceders. But the greate courte rounde aboute had thre rowes of fre stone, & one rowe of playne Ceders: Euen so also the courte by ꝺ house of the LORDE within, and the porch by the house.

And kynge Salomon sent to fetch one *Hiram of Tyre a wedowes sonne, of the tribe of Nephtali, and his father had bene a man of Tyre, * which was a connynge mā in metall, full of wyßdome, vnderstondinge and knowlege to worke all maner of metall worke. Whan he came to kynge Salomon, he made all his worke, * and made two brasen pilers, ether of them eightene cubites hye: and a threde of xij. cubites was the measure aboute both ꝺ pilers: and he made two C knoppes of brasse molten, to set aboue vpon the pilers: and euery knoppe was fyue cubytes hye: and on euery knoppe aboue vpon ꝺ pilers seuē wrythen ropes like cheynes. And vpon euery knoppe he made two rowes of pomgranates rounde aboute on one rope, wherwith ꝺ knoppe was couered. And the knoppes were like roses before ꝺ porche foure cubites greate. And the pomgranates in the rowes rounde aboute were two hūdreth aboue and beneth vpon the rope, which wēre rounde aboute the thicknes of the knoppe, on euery knoppe vpon both the pilers. And set vp the pilers before the porche of the temple. And that which he set on the right hande, called he Jachin: and that which he set on the lefte hande, called he Boos. And so stode it aboue vpon the pilers euen like roses. Thus was the worke of ꝺ pilers fynished.

D And he made a molten lauer ten cubytes wyde from the one syde to the other rounde aboute, and fyue cubites hye, and a threde of thirtie cubites lōge was ꝺ measure rounde aboute: and aboute the same lauer that was then cubites wyde, there wente knoppes on the edge therof rounde aboute the lauer. Two rowes were there of the knoppes molten with the lauer.

And it stode vpon twolue bullockes, wher of thre were turned towarde the north, thre towarde the west, thre towarde the south, and thre towarde the east, and the lauer aboue theron, so that all their hynder partes were within vnder the lauer: wherof the thicknesse was an handbreth: and the edge of it was like the edge of a cuppe, and as a fleured rose, and it conteyned two thousande * Battes.

*A Bat was a certayn measur of liqu re.

And he made ten brasen seates, euery one foure cubites longe and brode, and thre cubites hye. The seate was made so, that it had sydes betwene the ledges. And on the sydes betwene the ledges there were lyons, bullockes and Cherubins. And on ꝺ ledges which were aboue and beneth the lyons and bullockes, were the sydes made so, that they were set downwardes. And euery stole had foure brasen wheles with brasen axeltrees. And vpon the foure corners there were proppes molten, euery one ouer agaynst another, vnderset vnto the kettell.

And the soket vpon the stole was a cubyte hye and rounde, a cubyte and an halfe wyde: and on the soket there were knoppes in foldes, which were foure squared & not rounde. The foure wheles stode beneth by the sydes, & the axeltrees of the wheles were harde on ꝺ seate. Euery whele was a cubite and a halfe hye, and they were wheles like cart wheles. And their axeltrees, spokes, nales, & shaftes were all molten. And the foure proppes vpō the foure corners of euery seate were harde on the seate.

And on the soket aboue vpon the seate a cubyte and an halfe rounde aboute, there were ledges and sydes harde on the seate. And on the plat of the same sydes and ledges, he caused to carue Cherubins, lyons and palme trees, one by another rounde aboute theron. After this maner made he ten moltē seates, one maner of measure & widenes was in all.

And he made ten copper kettels, so that S one kettell cōteyned fortye Battes, and was foure cubites greate, and vpon euery seate was a kettell. And fyue seates set he on the righte syde of the house, and the other fyue on the lefte syde. But the lauer set he before on the righte hande towarde the south.

And Hiram made pottes also and shovels and basens, & so fynished he all the worke, that kynge Salomon caused to be made in the house of the LORDE: namely ỳ two pilers, and the rounde knoppes aboue vpon the two pilers, and the two wrythen ropes to couer the two rounde knoppes vpon the pilers. And the foure hũdreth pomgranates on the two wrythen ropes, euer two rowes of pomgranates vnto euery rope, to couer the two rounde knoppes vpon the pilers. And the ten seates, and ten kettels theron, and the lauer, and twolue bullockes vnder ỳ lauer. And the pottes, shouels and basens. And all the ornamentes which Hiram made vnto kynge Salomon for the house of the G LORDE, were of pure metall. In the countre by Jordane, caused the kynge them to be molten in thicke earth, betwene Sucoth and Zarthan. And Salomon let all the apparell be vnweyed, because the metall was so moch.

Moreuer Salomon made all the apperell that belonged vnto the house of the LORDE: namely a golden altare, a golden table that the shewbred laye on, fyue candelstickes on the righte hande, and fyue candelstickes on the lefte (before the quere) of pure golde, wt floures, lampes and snoffers of golde, therto flat peces, charges, basens, spones and censours of pure golde. And the hokes of ỳ dores on the insyde of the house in the most holy, and in the dores of the house of the tẽple of the LORDE were of golde.

Thus all the worke that kynge Salomon made in ỳ house of the LORDE, was fynisshed. * And Salomon brought in that his father Dauid had sanctified, of syluer and golde and ornamentes, and layed it amonge the treasures of the house of the LORDE.

Par.5.a

The VIII. Chapter.

A THen gathered kynge Salomon all ỳ Elders in Israel together, all the rulers of the trybes and prynces of the fathers amonge the children of Israel, vnto Jerusalem, to brynge vp the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE, * out of the cite of Dauid, that is Sion. And there resorted vnto kynge Salomon all the men in Israel, at the feast in the moneth Ethanim, that is ỳ seuenth moneth. And whan all ỳ Elders of Israel came, the prestes toke the Arke of the LORDE, and broughte it vp, and the Tabernacle of witnesse, and all the ornamentes of the Sanctuary that were in the Tabernacle. This dyd the prestes and the Leuites.

Re.8.d

And kynge Salomon and all the congregacion of Israel ỳ were gathered vnto him, wente with him before the Arke, and offred shepe and bullockes, so many, that they coulde not be nombred ner tolde.

So the prestes broughte the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt vnto hir place, euen into ỳ Quere of the house in the most holy vnder ỳ wynges of the Cherubins. For ỳ Cherubins spred out their wynges in the place where the Arke stode, and couered the Arke and the staues therof from aboue. And the staues were so lõge, that ỳ knoppes of them were sene from the Sanctuary before ỳ quere, but on the out syde were they not sene, and they were there vnto this daye.

And in the Arke there was nothinge, but onely the two tables of stone, * which Moses had layed therin at Horeb, whan ỳ LORDE made a couenaunt with the children of Israel, what tyme as they were departed out of the londe of Egipte.

But whan the prestes wente out of the Sanctuary, a cloude fylled the house of the LORDE, so ỳ the prestes coulde not stonder & execute the office for the cloude: for the glory of the LORDE fylled the LORDES house. Then sayde Salomon: * The LORDE sayde, that he wolde dwell in a darke cloude. I haue buylded an house, to be an habitacion vnto thee a seate, ỳ thou mayest dwell therin for euer. And ỳ kynge turned his face, & blessed all the congregacion of Israel. And all the cõgregacion of Israel stode, & he sayde:

Praysed be the LORDE God of Israel, which promised by his mouth vnto my father Dauid, and by his hãde hath fulfylled it, and sayde: * Sence the daye ỳ I brought my people of Israel out of Egipte, haue I chosen no cite amõge all the trybes of Israel, to buylde me an house, that my name might be there. But Dauid haue I chosen, to be ouer my people of Israel.

And in dede my father Dauid was mynded to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE God of Israel: nenertheles the LORDE sayde vnto my father Dauid: Whereas thou wast mynded to buylde an house vnto my name, thou hast done well, that thou art so aduysed. Howbeit thou shalt not buylde the house, but thy sonne which shal come out of thy loynes, he shal buylde an house vnto my name. And the LORDE hath performed his worde that he spake: For I am come vp in my father Dauids steade, and sytt vpon the seate of Israel, as the LORDE sayde: and haue buylded an house vnto the name of the LORDE God of Israel: and there haue I ordeyned a place for the Arke, wherin is the LORDES couenaunt, which he made with our fathers, whan he brought them out of ỳ londe of Egipte.

And Salomon stode before the altare of the LORDE in the presence of the whole congregacion of Israel, and helde out his handes towarde heauen, and sayde: * O LORDE God of Israel, there is no god like the, neither aboue in heauen, ner beneth vpō earth, thou that kepest couenaūt and mercy for all thy seruauntes that walke before ỳ with all their hert, thou that hast kept promes with my father Dauid thy seruaunt: With thy mouth thou saydest it, and with thy hande hast thou fulfylled it, as it is come to passe this daye. Now LORDE God of Israel make good vnto my father Dauid ỳ seruaunt, that which thou hast promysed him, and saydest: * Thou shalt not wante a man before me to syt vpon the seate of Israel, yf thy childrē kepe their waye, so ỳ they walke before me like as thou hast walked before me. Now thou God of Israel, let ỳ worde be verified, which thou hast promysed vnto my father Dauid thy seruaunt.

For thynkest thou ỳ God dwelleth vpon earth? * Beholde, the heauens and the heauens of all heauens maye not contayne the: how shulde then this house do it, that I haue buylded? But turne the vnto the prayer of thy seruaunt, and to his supplicacion (O LORDE my God) that thou mayest heare the thanke sgeuynge and prayer, which thy seruaunt maketh before the this daye, so that thine eyes be open ouer this house nyght and daye, euen ouer this place (wherof thou saydest: * My name shall dwell there.) That thou mayest heare the prayer which thy seruaūt maketh in this place, & heare the intercession of ỳ seruaunt & of thy people of Israel, which they shall make here in this place of thy habitacion in heauen: and whan thou heurest it, be gracious.

Whan eny mā synneth agaynst his neyghboure, and taketh vpon him an ooth wherwith he byndeth him selfe, and ỳ ooth commeth before thine altare in this house, then heare thou in heauē, and se that thy seruaunt̄es haue right, to condemne the vngodly, and to brynge his waye vpon his owne head, and to iustifie the righteous, to geue him accordinge to his righteousnes.

* Whan thy people of Israel is smytten before their enemies (whyle they haue synned agaynst the) and yf they turne vnto the and knowlege thy name, & make their prayer and intercession vnto the in this house, thē heare thou them in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synne of thy people of Israel, and brynge them agayne into the londe, ỳ thou hast geuen vnto their fathers. 1. Re. 17

* Whan the heauen is shut vp, so ỳ it rayneth not (for so moch, as they haue synned agaynst the) and yf they make their prayer in this place, and knowlege thy name, and turne from their synnes whā thou troublest them, heare thou them then in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synnes of thy seruauntes, and of thy people of Israel, that thou mayest shewe them the good waye, wherin they shulde walke, and let it rayne vpon the londe that thou hast geuen thy people to inheritaunce.

Whan a derth, or pestilence, or drouth, or burnynge, or gresshopper or catirpiller, is in their londe, or whan his enemye layeth lege to his portes in the londe, or whan eny other plage or disease happeneth, who so euer then maketh his prayer and peticion, * whether ỳbe eny other men or thy people of Israel (which thē are aware of their plage) euery one in his hert, and spredeth out his handes vnto this house: Heare thou then in heauen in the seate where thou dwellest, and be mercifull, & se that thou geue euery one accordinge as he hath walked, like as thou knowest his hert (for thou onely knowest the hert of all the children of men) that they maye allwaye feare the, as longe as they lyue in the lande, which thou hast geuen vnto oure fathers. Esa. 56. b

* And whan eny straunger, that is not of thy people of Israel, commeth out of a farre countre for thy names sake (for they shall heare of thy greate name, and of thy mightie hāde, and of thy outstretched arme) and commeth to make his prayer in this house, heare thou him then in heauen, euen in the seate of thy dwellynge, and do all for the which that straunger calleth vpon the, that all the nacions vpon earth maye knowe thy name, and that they maye feare the, as thy people of Israel do: and that they maye knowe, how that this house which I haue buylded, is named after thy name. Ioh. 12. c Acto. 8. c

Whan thy people go forth to the battayll agaynst their enemyes, the waye that thou shalt sende them * and shall praye vnto the LORDE towarde the waye of the cite which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue buylded vnto thy name, heare thou then their prayer and peticion Dan. 6. b in heauen, and execute iudgment for them.

cle. 7.c oh. 1. b When they synne agaynst the (for * there is no mā that synneth not) & thou be wroth, and delyuer thē vnto their enemyes, so that they cary them awaye captyue in to the enemyes londe farre or nye, and yf they remembre them selues in the londe where they are captyue, and turne, and make their intercession vnto the in the londe of their captyuite, and saye: We haue synned, & done amysse, and haue bene vngodly, and so turne vnto ỹ with all their hert, and with all their soule in the lōde of their enemies (which led them awaye captyue) and make their prayer vnto the towarde the waye of their londe, that thou hast geuen vnto their fathers, euen towarde the cite which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue buylded vnto thy name: then heare thou their prayer nos 9. b and supplicacion in heauen, * from the seate of thy dwellynge, and execute iudgment for them, and be mercyfull vnto thy people that haue synned agaynst the, and vnto all their trespaces, wherwith they haue trans- 1sd. 1. a gressed agaynst the, * and graunte thē mercy in the sighte of them which led them awaye presonners, that their enemyes maye be mercyfull vnto them: for they are thy people, and thyne enheritaunce, whom thou broughtest out of Egipte, from the yron fornace: that thine eyes maye be open vnto the peticion of thy seruaunt, and of thy people of Israel, that thou maiest heare them in all thinges for the which they shall call vpon no 19. a the * (for thou O LORDE LORDE) hast sundered them out to be an inheritaunce vnto thy selfe, from amōge all the nacions vpon earth, acordinge as thou saydest by Moses thy seruaunt, whan thou broughtest oure fathers out of Egipte.

Par. 7. a * And whā Salomon had ended all this prayer and peticion before the LORDE, he rose vp from the altare of the LORDE, and lefte of from knelynge and holdynge out of handes towarde heauen, and stode and blessed all the congregacion of Israel with loude voyce, and sayde: Praysed be the LORDE which hath geuen rest vnto his people, acordinge as he sayde. There hath not one fayled of all his good wordes, which he spake by his seruaunt Moses. The LORDE oure God be with vs, as he hath bene with oure fathers, and forsake vs not, nether withdrawe his hande from vs, but bowe oure hertes vnto him, that we maye walke in all his wayes, and kepe his commaundementes, ordinaunces and lawes, which he commaunded oure fathers. And these wordes wherwith I haue made my peticion before the LORDE, come nye vnto the LORDE oure God daye and nighte, that he maye execute iudgment for his seruaunt and for his people of Israel, euery one at his tyme: that all nacions vpon earth maye knowe, that the LORDE is God, & that there is none other. And let youre hert be perfecte with the LORDE oure God, to walke in his statutes, and to kepe his commaundementes, as it is this daye.

And the kynge with all Israel his people offred sacrifice before the LORDE. And Salomon offred deed offerynges (which he offred vnto the LORDE) two and twenty thousande oxen, and an hundreth & twenty thousande shepe. So the kynge and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORDE. The same daye dyd the kynge dedicate the myddelmost courte, which was before the house of the LORDE: that he might there perfourme the burntofferynges, meatofferynges, and the fat of the deedofferynges: for the brasen altare that stode before the LORDE, was to litle for the burntofferynges, meatofferynges, and for the fat of the deedofferynges.

And at the same tyme made Salomon a solempne feast, and all Israel a greate congregacion with him, from the border of Hemath vnto the ryuer of Egipte, before the LORDE oure God, seuen dayes, and yet seuen dayes, that were fourtene daies. And on the eight daye he let the people go. And they blessed the kynge, and wente vnto their tentes reioysinge and with a mery hert, because of all the good that the LORDE had done vnto Dauid his seruaunt, & to his people of Israel.

The IX. Chapter.

AND whan Salomon had fynished ỹ buyldinge of the house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, and all that his desyre and pleasure was to make, ỹ LORDE appeared vnto him the seconde tyme, * euen as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon. And the LORDE sayde vnto him: I haue herde thy prayer and peticion, that thou hast made before me, and haue sanctified this house which thou hast buylded, that I maye set my name there for euer: and myne eyes and my hert shalbe there allwaye. And yf thou walke before me (as thy father Dauid walked) with a perfecte and a true hert, so that thou do all that I haue commaunded the, and kepe myne ordinaunces and lawes, thy wyll I stablisshe the seate of thy kyngdome ouer Israel for euer, accordinge as I promysed thy father Dauid, and sayde: * Thou shalt not wante a man from the seate of Israel.

But yf ye turne back fro me, ye and youre childrē, and kepe not my commaundementes and ordinaunces which I haue layed before you, but go and serue other goddes, and worshipe them, then wyll I rote Israel out of the londe that I haue geuen them. * And the house that I haue halowed vnto my name, wyll I put awaye fro my face. And Israel shall be come a byworde and fabell amōge all nacions, and so shal this hye house: so that euery one ỹ goeth by, shall be astonyed, and make an hyssynge, and saye: * Wherfore hath the LORDE done thus vnto this londe and to this house? Then shal it be answered: Because they forsoke ỹ LORDE their God, (which brought their fathers out of the londe of Egipte) and haue receaued other goddes, and worshipped them, and serued them. Therfore hath ỹ LORDE brought all this euell vpon them.

Now whan the twentye yeares were ended, wherin Salomon buylded the two houses, the LORDES house and the kynges house, * where vnto Hiram the kynge of Tyre brought Salomō Ceder trees & Pyne trees, and golde after all his desyre, then gaue kynge Salomon vnto Hiram twentye cities in the countre of Galile. And Hiram departed from Tyre to vyset the cities which Salomon had geuen him, & they pleased him not, and he sayde: What maner of cities are these (my brother) that thou hast geuē me? And he called them the londe of Cabul vnto this daye. And Hiram sent vnto the kynge, sixe score hundreth weyght of Golde. And the same is the summe of the rate, that kynge Salomon rayse to the buyldinge of the house of the LORDE, and his awne house, & Millo, and the walles of Jerusalem, and Hasor, and Megiddo, and Gaser.

For Pharao ỹ kynge of Egipte came vp, and wanne Gaser, & brent it with fyre, & slewe the Cananites ỹ dwelt in the cite, & gaue it for a gifte vnto his doughter Salomōs wife. So Salomon buylded Gaser, & the lower Bethoron, and Baelath and Thamar, in ỹ wyldernes, in the londe, & all the cities of the corne houses that Salomon had, and all the cities of the charettes, & all the cities of the horsmen, and what it pleased him to buylde at Jerusalem, in Libanus, & in euery countre of his dominion.

And all the remnaunt of the people of the Amorytes, Hethites, Pherezites, Hewites and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, their children which they lefte behynde them in the londe (whom the children of Israel coulde not vtterly destroye) those dyd Salomon make tributaries vnto this daye.

* But of the children of Israel he made no bondmen, but let them be men of warre, and his seruauntes, and prynces, and knightes, and ouer his charettes and horsmē. And the officers which were ouer Salomons busynesse, were fyue hundreth and fyftye, which ruled the people, and performed the worke. Leui. 25

And Pharaos doughter wente vp from the cite of Dauid, in to hir house * which he had buylded for her. * Then buylded he Millo likewyse. And thre tymes in the yeare dyd Salomon offre burntofferynges and deed offerynges vpon the altare * that he had buylded vnto the LORDE, and burnt incense vpon it before the LORDE, and so was the house ended and fynished. 1. Re. 7. 2. Reg. 5. 7. Par. 4

* And Salomon made shippes also at Ezeon Geber, which lyeth by Eloth beside the Reed See shore in ỹ londe of the Edomites. And Hiram sent his seruauntes by shippe, which were shipmen, and had experience of the See, with Salomons seruauntes, and they came vnto * Ophir, and fetched from thence one & twenty score hundreth weyght of golde, and brought it vnto Salomon. 1. Re. 22 2. Par. 8. Iere. 10.

The X. Chapter.

AND whan kynge Salomons fame of the name of the LORDE came to the eares of the Quene of riche Arabia, she came to proue him with darke sentences. And she came to Jerusalem with a maruelous greate trayne, with camels which bare spyces, and moch golde, and precious stones And whan she came in to kynge Salomon, she spake vnto him all that was in hir hert. And Salomon tolde her euerythinge, and the kynge had nothinge in secrete, but he tolde it her. But whan the Quene of riche Arabia sawe all the wysdome of Salomon, and the house that he had buylded, and the meates of his table, and the dwellinges of his seruauntes, & the offyces of his ministers, and their garmentes, and his butlers and the burntofferynges which he offred in the house of the LORDE, she wondred exceadingly, and coulde no longer refrayne, 2. Par. 9. Mat. 12.

but sayde vnto the kynge: It is true that I B haue herde in my londe of thy behauoure and of thy wysdome. And I wolde not beleue it, tyll I came and sawe it with myne eyes: and beholde, the halfe hath not bene tolde me.

Thou hast more wysdome and good, the the fame is that I haue herde. Happye are thy people and thy seruauntes, that allwaie stonde before the, and heare thy wysdome.
Praysed be the LORDE thy God, which had soch a pleasure vnto the, that he set the vpon the seate of Israel: because he hath allwaye loued Israel, and hath set the to be kynge, that thou shuldest mantayne iustyce and equyte.

And she gaue the kynge syxe score hun-dreth weighte of golde, and very moch spyce, and precious stones. There came neuer so moch spyce thyther, as the Quene of riche Arabia gaue vnto kynge Salomon. And 1.Re.9.c Hirams shippes, * which caried golde out of Ophir, broughte maruelous moch costly tymber and precious stones from Ophir.
And of that costly tymber the kynge caused to make pilers in the house of the LORDE, and in ỹ kinges house, and harpes and Psal-C teries for the Musicians. There came nomo re soch costly tymber, nether was it sene vnto this daye. And kynge Salomon gaue the quene of riche Arabia, all that she desyred and axed, besydes that which he gaue her of a frye hande. And she returned, and departed in to hir lande with hir seruauntes.

The golde that came to Salomon in one yeare, was nyne and thyrtie score hundreth weighte, besydes that which came of chap-men, marchauntes and Apotecaries, and of the nexte kynges, and of the mightie men in the londe. And kynge Salomon caused to make two hundreth speares of beaten golde, syxe hundreth peces of golde put he to e-uery speare: and thre hundreth shyldes of ỹ best golde, euen thre pounde of golde vpon euery shylde. And the kynge put them in the 1.Re.7.a * house of the wod of Libanus.

B And the kynge made a greate seate of Iu-ory, and ouerlayed it with ỹ most precious golde. And the seate had syxe steppes, and ỹ heade of the seate was roũde behynde. And there were two postes to leane vpõ on both the sydes of the seate, and two lyons stode vpon the leanynge postes, and twolue lyons stode vpon the syxe steppes on both the sy-des. Soch one hath not bene made in eny kyngdome. All kynge Salomõs drynkynge vessels were of golde, and all the vessels in the house of ỹ wod of Libanus were of pure golde also: for syluer was not regarded in Salomons tyme. For the kynges Seeshippe ỹ sayled vpon the See with ỹ shippe of Hiram, came once in thre yeare, and broughte golde, syluer, Iuory, Apes, and Peacockes.

Thus was kynge Salomon greater in riches and wysdome, then all the kynges vpõ earth: And all the worlde desyred to se Salomon, that they mighte heare the wysdome which God gaue him in his hert. And they broughte him yearly euery man his presenvessels of syluer and golde, rayment and harnesse, spyces, horses and Mules. And Salomon broughte charettes and horsmen together, so that he had a thousande and foure hundreth charettes, and twolue thousande horsmen: and those he put in ỹ charet cities, and with the kynge at Jerusalem.

And the kynge broughte it to passe, that there was as moch syluer at Jerusalẽ as stones: and as many Ceders as there were wylde figge trees in the valleys. And Salomõs horses were broughte out of Egipte, and frõ Kewa: for the kynges marchauntes fetched them from Kewa for money. And a charet came vp out of Egipte for syxe hũdreth Sy-cles of Syluer, and an horse for an hũdreth and fyftye. Thus were they broughte also vnto all the kynges of the Hethites and to the kynges of Siria bytheir handes.

The XI. Chapter.

BVt kynge Salomon loued many out-landish wemen, * Pharaos doughter, and wemen of Moab, of Ammon, of Edom, of Sidon, and of Heth, euen of tho se nacions, that the LORDE spake of vnto the children of Israel: Go not ye vnto them, and let not them come vnto you: they shal surely bowe youre hertes after their goddes: Vnto these dyd Salomon enclyne with affec-cion. And he had seuen hundreth wemen to wyues, and thre hundreth concubynes, and his wyues turned his hert aside. And when he was now olde, his wyues bowed his hert after straunge goddes, so that his hert was not whole with the LORDE his God, as was the hert of Dauid his father.

So Salomon walked after Astaroth the god of the Sidonians, and after Malcom the abhominacion of the Ammonites. And Salomon dyd ỹ which displeased the LOR-DE, and folowed not ỹ LORDE to ỹ vttemost as dyd his father Dauid. Thẽ buylded Sa-lomõ an hie place vnto Chamos the abhominacio of ỹ Moabites (vpon the mount that lyeth before Jerusalẽ) and vnto Moloch the

B abhominacion of the Ammnnites.

Thus dyd Salomon for all his outlādisshe wyues, which brent incense, and offred vnto their goddes. But the LORDE was wroth
2 at Salomon, because his hert was turned a 1 syde from ỳ LORDE God of Israel, * which had two tymes appeared vnto him, and cōmaunded him, that he shulde not walke after other goddes: and yet kepte he not that the LORDE commaunded him. Therfore sayde the LORDE vnto Salomon: For so moch as this is done with the, and hast not kepte my couenaunt and myne ordinaunces, which I commaunded the, therfore wyll I also plucke thy kyngdome from the, and geue it vnto thy seruaunt: Neuertheles in ỳ tyme will I not do it, for thy father Dauids sake, but from the hande of thy sonne wyl I plucke it. Howbeit I wyl not plucke ỳ kyngdome cleane awaye. One trybe wyll I geue vnto thy sonne, for Dauid my seruauntes sake, and for Jerusalems sake which I haue C chosen.

And the LORDE raysed vp an aduersary vnto Salomon, euen Hadad the Edomite of the kynges sede, which was in Edom. For whan Dauid was in Edom, and Joab the chefe captayne wente vp to bury the slayne, he smote all the males in Edom. (For Joab remayned there sixe monethes and all Israel, tyl he had reted out all ỳ males that were in Edom.) Then fled Hadad, and certayne men of ỳ Moabites with him, of his fathers seruauntes. As for Hadad, he was a yonge man.

And they gat them vp fro Madian, and came vnto Paran, and toke men with them out of Paran, and came in to Egipte vnto Pharao the kynge of Egipte: which gaue him an house and certayne vytales appoynted, & gaue him a countre. And Adad founde greate fauoure in the sighte of Pharao, so that he gaue him to wife euen the sister of his owne wife Thaphenes the Quene. And Thaphenes sister bare him Genubath his sonne, and Thaphenes norished him vp in Pharaos house, in so moch that Genubath
D was in Pharaos house amonge Pharaos children.

Now whā Hadad herde in Egipte, that Dauid was fallē on slepte with his fathers, and ỳ Joab the chefe captayne was deed, he sayde vnto Pharao: Let me go in to my countre. Pharao sayde vnto him: What lackest thou with me, that thou wilt go in to thy countre? He sayde: Nothynge, but yet let me go.

God raysed him vp another aduersary also, one Rezon the sonne of Eliada, which fled from his lorde Hadad Ezer kynge of Zeba, and gathered men agaynst him, and was a captayne of the men of warre whan Dauid slewe them: and they wente vnto Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned at Damascus, and he was Israels aduersary as lōge as Salomon lyued. This is the harme ỳ Hadad suffred: therfore had he euell will at Israel, and was kynge ouer Israel.

Moreouer Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat E an Ephraite Salomons seruaunt (and his mothers name was Zeruga, a wedowe) lifte vp his hande also agaynst the kynge. And this is the cause wherfore he lifte vp his hande agaynst the kynge: Whan Salomon buyldded Millo, he shut vp a gappe in the cite of Dauid his father. And Jeroboam was a mā of armes. And whan Salomon sawe that it was a mete yonge man, he set him ouer all the burthens of the house of Joseph.

But at the same tyme it fortuned, that Jeroboam wente out from Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahias of Silo founde him by the waye, and he had a new cloke vpon him, and they two were alone in the felde. And Ahia toke holde of the new cloke ỳ he had on, and rente the same in to twolue peces, and sayde vnto Jeroboam: Take thou ten peces vnto the.

For thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Beholde, euen thus wyll I rente the kyngdome from the hande of Salomō, and wyll geue the ten trybes. One trybe shall he F haue for my seruaunt Dauids sake, and because of the cyte of Jerusalem, * which I 2.Par.7.c
haue chosen out of all the trybes of Israel: for they haue forsaken me, and worshipped Astaroth the god of the Sidonians, Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Malcō the god of the children of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, myne ordinaunces, and lawes, as dyd Dauid his father.

Notwithstondynge I wyll not take the whole kyngdome from out of his hande, but wil make him a prynce as longe as he lyueth for my seruaunt Dauids sake, whom I dyd chose, which kepte my commaundementes & ordinaunces. * From out of the hande of his 3.Re.12.c
sonne wyl I take the kyngdome, and wyl geue ten trybes vnto the, and one vnto his sonne, * that Dauid my seruaunt maye allwaye 3.Re.15.a
haue a lanterne before me in the cite of Jeru- Psal.131.b
salem, which I haue chosen, that I maye set my name there. Therfore wyl I take the now, to raygne ouer all that thine hert desyreth, and thou shalt be kynge ouer Israel.

G If thou folowe now all that I shall commaunde the, and walke in my wayes, and fulfill my pleasure to kepe myne ordinaunces and commaundementes, as dyd my seruaũt Dauid, then wyll I be with the, and buylde the a sure house, as I buylded vnto Dauid, and wyl geue Israel vnto the and therwith wyll I subdue the sede of Dauid, but not forevermore. But Salomon soughte to kyll Jeroboam. Then Jeroboam gat him vp, and fled in to Egipte to Sisak the kynge of Egipte, and remayned in Egipte, tyll Salomon dyed.

What more there is to saye of Salomon, and all that he dyd, and his wyßdome, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of Salomon. The tyme that Salomon was kynge at Jerusalem ouer all Israel, is fortye yeare. And Salomon fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buryed in the cite of Dauid his father, and Roboam his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XII. Chapter.

A AND Roboam wẽte vnto Sichem, for all Israel was come to Sichem to make him kynge. And whan Jeroboam
2. Pa. 10. a ỹ sonne of Nebat herde that, while he was
3. Re. 11 g yet in Egipte (whither he was fled for Salomon) he came agayne out of Egipte. And they sent for him, and called him. And Jeroboam with all the congregacion of Israel came and spake to Roboam, and sayde: Thy father made oure yock to harde: therfore make thou now the harde bondage and the sore yock lighter, and we wyll submytte oure selues vnto the. He sayde vnto them: Go youre waye vnto the thirde daye, and then come to me agayne. And the people wẽte their waye.

And Roboam the kynge helde a councell with the Elders that stode before Salomõ his father whyle he lyued, & he sayde: What is youre councell, that we maye geue this people an answere? They sayde vnto him: If thou do this people a pleasure to daye, and folowe their mynde, and heare them, and geue them good wordes, then shal they be obedient vnto the as longe as thou lyuest. Neuertheles he forsoke the councell that ỹ Elders had geuen him, and axed councell at the yonge men which were growne vp with him, and stode before him.

B And he sayde vnto them: What is youre councell that we maye answere this people which haue sayde vnto me: Make the yock lighter, that thy father hath layed vpõ vs. And the yonge men that were growne vp with him, sayde vnto him: Where as the people haue sayde vnto the: Thy father hath made oure yock to sore, make thou it easyer for vs, Thus shalt thou saye vnto them. My litle fynger shall be thicker then my fathers loynes. Now, my father layed a sore yock vpon you, but I wyl yet laye more theron: My father correcte you with scourges, but I wyl nourtoure you with scorpions.

So vpon the thyrde daye came Jeroboam with all the people vnto Roboam, as ỹ kynge had appoynted and saide, come to me agayne on the thyrde daye. And the kynge gaue the people an harde rough answere, and forsoke the coũcell that the Elders had geuen him, and talked with them after the councell of the yonge men, and sayde: My father made youre yock sore, but I wyll make it yet sorer vpon you. My father correcte you with scourges, but I wil nourtoure you with scorpiõs. Thus the kynge folowed not the peoples mynde, for he was turned so frõ the LORDE, that he mighte stablish his worde * which he spake by Ahias of Silo vnto Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat.

But whan all Israel sawe that the kynge wolde not heare them, the people gaue ỹ kynge an answere and sayde: * What porcion haue we then in Dauid or inheritaunce in the sonne of Jsai? Get the to thy tentes O Israel. Loke thou now to thy house thou Dauid. So Israel wente vnto their tentes. As for Roboam, he raigned but ouer ỹ children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Juda. And whan kynge Roboam sent thither Adoram the rentgatherer, all Israel stoned him to death. But kynge Roboam strengthed himselfe, and gat him vp in to a charet, to fle vnto Jerusalem. Thus departed Israel from the house of Dauid vnto this daye.

Now whan all Israel herde, that Jeroboam was come agayne, they sent for to call him to the whole congregacion, and made him kynge ouer all Israel. And no man followed the house of Dauid, saue onely the tribe of Juda. * And whan Roboam came to Jerusalem, all the house of Juda and the tribe of Ben Jamin (euen an hundreth and fyre score thousande chosen men of armes) gathered themselues together to fight against ỹ house of Israel, & to brynge the kyngdome agayne vnto Roboam ỹ sonne of Salomõ.

But the worde of God came to Semeis the man of God, and sayde: Speake thou to Roboam the sonne of Salemon kynge of Juda, and to all ỹ house of Juda and Benjamin, and to the other people, and sayeth: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Ye shall not go vp and fighte agaynst youre brethren the children of Israel. Let euery man go home agayne, for this is my dede. And they herkened vnto the worde of the LORDE, and turned back, to go their waye, as the LORDE sayde. But Roboam buylded Sichem vpon mount Ephraim, and dwelt therin, and departed thence, and buylded * Penuel.

Jeroboā thoughte in his hert: The kingdome shall fall agayne now vnto the house of David, yf this people go vp to offre in the LORDES house at Jerusalem, and so shall the hert of this people turne to their lorde Roboam kynge of Juda, and thē shal they slaye me, and fall agayne to Roboam kynge of Juda. And the kynge helde a councell * and made two golden calues, and sayde vnto them: It is to moch for you to go to Jerusalē: beholde, * there is thy God (O Israel) which broughte ỹ out of Egipte. And the one set he at Bethel, & the other in Dan. And this dede turned to synne, for the people went before the ons vnto Dan.

He made an house also in the hye places, * and made prestes of the smallest in the people, which were not of the childrē of Leui. And vpon the fiftene daye of the eighte moneth he made an holy daye, like as the solempne feast in Juda, and offered vpon the altare. Thus dyd he at Bethel, in doynge sacrifice vnto the calues which he had made, and at Bethel he ordeyned the prestes of the hye places that he had made: and offred vpon the altar (which he had made) at Bethel, the fiftene daye of the eight moneth, which he inuented of his owne hert. And he made the children of Israel an holy daye, & went vp to the altare to burne incense.

The XIII. Chapter.

AND beholde, there came a mā of God from Juda (thorow the worde of the LORDE) vnto Bethel, and Jeroboam stode by the altar to burne incense. And he cried agaynst the altare thorow the worde of the LORDE, and sayde: O altar, altar, thus sayeth the LORDE: Beholde, there shal be borne vnto ỹ house of David a sonne, Josias by name * which on the shal offer the prestes of the hye places, that burne incense vpon the, and mens bones shal he burne on the. And he gaue a wonder token the same daye, and sayde: This is the token, that the LORDE hath spoken it, beholde, the altar shall ryue, and the asshes, that are theron, shall be poured out.

But whan the kynge herde the worde of the man of God, that cried agaynst the altare at Bethel, he stretched out his hande by ỹ altare, and sayde: Laye hondes on him. And his hande that he stretched out, wythered, and he coulde not drawe it vnto him agayne. And ỹ altare reue, and the asshes were poured out from the altare, accordinge to the wonder token that the man of God had geuen by the worde of the LORDE.

And the kynge answered, and sayde vnto the man of God: * O praye the face of the LORDE thy God, and make intercession for me, that my hande maie be restored vnto me agayne. Then prayed the man of God vnto the face of the LORDE. And the kynges hande was restored him agayne, and became as it was afore. And the kynge sayde vnto the man of God: Come home with me, and dyne, and I wil geue the a reward.

But the man of God sayde vnto the kynge: Yf thou geuest me halfe thy house, I wil not come with the: for in this place wyll I nether eate bred, ner drynke water. For thus am I commaunded, and thus is it sayde vnto me by the worde of the LORDE: Thou shalt eate no bred, and drynke no water, nether returne the waye that thou wentest.

And he departed another waye, and returned not agayne the waye that he came to Bethel. But at Bethel there dwelt an olde prophet vnto whō his sonnes came, & tolde him all the workes ỹ the mā of God had done that daye at Bethel, & the wordes that he had spoken vnto the kynge. And their father sayde vnto them: Which waye is he gone? And his sonnes shewed him the waye that the man of God was gone: which came from Juda. He sayde vnto his sonnes: Saddell me the asse. And whā they had saddled him the asse, he rode theron, and went after the man of God, and founde him sytting vnder an Oke tre, and sayde vnto him: Art thou the man of God that came from Juda? He sayde: Yee.

He sayde vnto him: Come home with me, and eate bred. He sayde: I maye not turne backe with the, and come with the. Nether wyll I eate bred, ner drynke water with the in this place: for it is spoken vnto me by the worde of the LORDE: Thou shalt nether eate bred there, ner yet drynke water, nether shalt thou go agayne by the waye which thou wentest. He sayde vnto him: I myselfe am a prophet as well as thou, and an angell hath spoken with me by ỹ worde of the LORDE, and saide: Bringe him againe with the, that he maye eate bred, and drynke water. But he lyed vnto him, and broughte him agayne, so that he ate bred, and dranke water in his house.

And whan they sat at the table, the worde of the LORDE came to the prophet that had broughte him agayne, and cryed vnto the man which was come frō Juda, and saide: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Because thou
E haste bene disobedient vnto the mouth of ỹ LORDE, and hast not kepte the commaundement that the LORDE thy God commaunded the, but hast turned backe, and hast eaten bred, and dronke water in ỹ place, wher of he saide vnto the: Thou shalt nether eate bred ner drynke water, therfore shall not thy body come in to thy fathers graue.

And whan he had eaten bred and dronkē the asse was sadled vnto the prophet whom
3. Re 20.f he had brought agayne. * And whā he was gone, a lyon founde him by the waye, & slewe him, and his body was cast in ỹ waye. And the asse stode by him, and the lyon stode by the body. And whā men wente by, they sawe the body cast in the waye, and the lyon stondynge besyde the body, and came and tolde it in the cite, where the olde prophet dwelt.

F Whan the prophet which had broughte him agayne, herde that, he sayde: It is the man of God, that hath bene disobediēt vnto the mouth of the LORDE, therfore hath ỹ LORDE delyuered him vnto the Lyon, which hath rente him, and slayne him, acordynge to the worde that the LORDE spake vnto him. And he sayde vnto his sonnes: Saddell me the asse. And whan they had sadled it, he wente, and founde his body cast in the waie and the asse and the lyon stondynge beside ỹ body. The lyon had eatē nothinge of the body, nether had he torne the asse. Then toke the prophet the deed coarse of the man of God, and layed it vpō the asse, and broughte it agayne in to the cite of the olde prophet, to mourne, and to burye him.

G And he layed the coarse in his awne graue, and they mourned for him: Alas my brother. And whan they had buryed him, he saide vnto his sonnes: Whan I dye, burye me in the graue where the mā of God is buried,
4. Re. 23.d and laye my bones besyde his bones. * For it shal come to passe, that he cried (thorow the worde of the LORDE) against Bethel, and agaynst all ỹ houses of the hye places, which are in the cities of Samaria.

Howbeit after this acte dyd not Jeroboā turne from his euell waye, but was pernted, and made prestes of the hye places, euē of the smallest of the people: Loke whom it pleased him, his handes he fylled, & he was prest of the hye places. And this turned to synne vnto the house of Jeroboā, to destroye him and to brynge him to naughte.

The XIIII. Chapter.

AT the same tyme was Abia the sonne of Jeroboam sicke, and Jeroboam saide vnto his wyfe: Get the vp, and disguise the, so that no man perceaue that thou art Jeroboams wyfe, and go vnto Silo: beholde, there is the prophet Ahias, * which promysed me ỹ I shulde be kynge ouer this people: and take with the ten loaues of bred and cakes, and a cuppe with hony, & go to him, that he maye tell the how it shal go with the childe. And Jeroboams wyfe did so, and gat hir vp, and wente vnto Silo, and came in to the house of Ahias. But Ahias coulde not se, for his eyes were dymme for age. Nuertheles the LORDE sayde vnto Ahias: Beholde, Jeroboams wyfe commeth, to aske a matter at the for hir sonne, for he is sicke. Speake thou therfore vnto her thus & thus. Now whan she came in, she shewed hirself straunge. But whan Ahias herde the noyse of hir fete goynge in at the dore, he saide: Come in thou wyfe of Jeroboā. Why shewest thou thy selfe so straunge? I am sent vnto ỹ an harde messaunger.

Go thy waye and tell Jeroboam: Thus sayeth ỹ LORDE God of Israel: I haue exalted the from amonge the people, and set the to be prynce ouer my people of Israel, and haue rente the kyngdome from the house of Dauid, and geuen it the. But thou hast not bene as my seruaunt Dauid, which kepte my commaundemētes, and walked after me with all his hert, so that he did onely ỹ thinge that was righte in my sighte: and thou hast done worse then all they that haue bene before the: thou hast gone thy waye and made the other goddes, and molten ymages, to prouoke me vnto wrath, and hast cast me behynde thy backe.

Beholde therfore, I wil brynge myssfortune vpon the house of Jeroboam, and wyl rote out from Jeroboam euē him that maketh water agaynst the wall, the presoner and forsaken in Israel: and the posterite of ỹ house of Jeroboam wyll I swepe out, as donge is swepte out, tyll he be cleane broughte to naught. * He that dieth (of Jeroboam) in the cite, the dogges shal eate him vp. But him ỹ dyeth in the felde, shall the foules of the aire eat vp, for the LORDE hath spoken it.

C Get the vp therfore, and go home, & whan thy fete enter in to ỹ cite, the childe shal dye. And all Israel shal bewayle him, and burye him. For he onely of Jeroboam shal come to the graue, because there is some good founde in him before the LORDE God of Israel, in Jeroboams house. * But the LORDE shall rayse him vp a kynge, which shal rote out ỹ house of Jeroboam in that daie. And what is it, ỹ is now in hande all ready: And the LORDE shal smyte Israel, like as a rede is moued in the water: & shal rote out Israel from this good londe, that he gaue vnto their fathers, & shal scater them beyonde the water, because they haue made their groues to prouoke the LORDE vnto wrath. And Israel shall be geuen ouer because of the synne of Jeroboam, which hath synned him selfe, & made Israel to synne.

D And Jeroboams wife gat her vp, went hir waye, & came vnto Thirza. And whan she came vpō the thresholde of the house, ỹ childe dyed, & they buried him, & all Israel made lamentacion for him, * acordinge to ỹ worde of the LORDE, which he spake by his seruaunt Ahia ỹ prophet. * What more there is to saye of Jeroboam, how he foughte & raigned, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. The tyme that Jeroboam raigned, was two & twentye yeare. And he slepte with his fathers. And Nadab his sonne was kynge in his steade.

Roboam ỹ sonne of Salomon was kynge in Juda. * One and fortye yeare olde was Roboam whā he was made kynge, & seuentene yeare raigned he at Jerusalem, in the cite ỹ the LORDE had chosen out of all ỹ tribes of Israel, to set his name there. His mothers name was Naema an Ammonitisse. And Juda dyd ỹ which displeased the LORDE, & prouoked him to indignacion more thē all ỹ their fathers had done wt their synnes which they dyd: for they likewyse buylded them hye places, pilers, and groues vpō euery hye hill, and amonge all grene trees. There were whoremōgers also, & they dyd all ỹ abhominaciōs of ỹ heythē, whom ỹ LORDE droue out before the children of Israel.

E * But in ỹ fifth yeare of kynge Roboam wēte Sisack ỹ kynge of Egipte vp agaynst Jerusalem, & toke the treasure out of ỹ house of the LORDE, & out of the kynges house, & all that mighte be gotten, & toke all the shyldes of golde, * which Salomon caused to be made. In steade wherof ỹ kynge Roboam caused for to make shyldes of stele, & commytted them vnder the handes of the chefe fotemen, which kepte the dore of the kynges house. And as oft as the kynge went in to ỹ house of the LORDE, the fote men bare them, and brought them agayne in to the fote mens chamber.

What more there is to saye of Roboam, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. But betwene Roboam & Jeroboam there was warre as longe as they lyued. And * Roboam slepte with his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in the cite of David. And his mothers name was Naema an Ammonitisse. And his sonne Abia was kynge in his steade. 2.Par.12.

The XV. Chapter.

A IN the eightenth yeare of kynge Jeroboā the sonne of Nebat, was Abia kynge in Juda, and reigned thre yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was. * Maecha, the doughter of Abisalom, and he walked in all the synnes of his father, which he had done before him, and his hert was not perfecte with the LORDE his God, as was the hert of David his father. * For because of Dauids sake dyd the LORDE his God geue him a lanterne at Jerusalem, so ỹ he raysed his sonne after him, & manteyned him at Jerusalem, because Dauid dyd the thinge ỹ was righte in ỹ sighte of the LORDE, and departed not from all that he commaunded him as longe as he lyued (sauynge in the matter with * Vrias ỹ Hethite). But there was warre betwene Roboam and Jeroboam, as longe as he lyued. 2.Par.13. 2.Par.11. 3.Reg.11. 2.Re.11.a

What more there is to saye of Abia, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. There was warre also betwene Abia and Jeroboam. And Abia slepte with his fathers, and they buried him in the cite of Dauid. And Asa his sonne was kynge in his steade. * In ỹ twentyeth yeare of kynge Jeroboam ouer Israel, was Asa kynge in Juda, and reigned one & fortye yeare at Jerusalem. His graund mothers name was Maecha the doughter of Abisalom. And Asa dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, as dyd his father Dauid. And he remoued ỹ * whoremongers out of the londe, and put downe all the Idols that his fathers had made. * He put his mother from the mynistracion, that she had made vnto Miplezeth in ỹ groue. And Asa roted out hir Miplezeth, and brent it in the broke Cedron: but the hye places put he not downe. Yet was the hert of Asa perfecte with the LORDE as longe as B 2.Par.14.a 3.Re.22.g 2.Par.15.d

he lyued. And the syluer and golde, and vessels that his father had halowed, & soch as was sanctified vnto ỹ house of the LORDE, that broughte he in. And there was warre betwene Asa & Baesa the kynge of Israel, as longe as they lyued.

C 2.par.16.a Baesa the kynge of Israel wente vp agaynst Juda, and buylded Rama, that no man shulde go out and in of Asas syde the kynge of Juda. Then toke Asa all the syluer and golde that was lefte in the treasure of the house of the LORDE, and in the treasure of the kynges house, and delyuered it in 1Re 20.a to his seruauntes handes, & sent it vnto * Benadab the sonne of Tabrimon the sonne of Hesion kynge of Siria, which dwelt at Damascon, and let saye vnto him: There is a couenaunt betwene me and the, and betwene my father and thy father: therfore sende I the a present of syluer and golde, that thou shuldest breake the couenaunt which thou hast with Baesa the kynge of Israel, that he maye departe fro me.

Benadab agreed vnto kynge Asa, and sent his captaynes agaynst the cities of Israel, and smote Jion and Dan, & Abel Beth Maecha, and all Cineroth with the whole londe of Nephtali. Whā Baesa herde that, he left of from buyldinge Rama, and wente agayne vnto Thirza.

D Kynge Asa caused it be proclamed in all Juda: Here be no man excepte. And they toke awaye the stones and tymber from Rama, wherwith Baesa had buylded. And kynge Asa buylded Geba Ben Jamin & Mispa therwith.

What more there is to saye of Asa, and of all his power, and all that he dyd, and of ỹ cities which he buylded, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda: sauynge that in his olde age he was diseased in his fete. And Asa slepte with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in a.Par.17.a the cite of Dauid his father. * And Josaphat his sonne was kynge in his steade.

E But Nadab the sonne of Jeroboam was kynge ouer Israel in the secōde yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, & raigned ouer Israel two yeare, and dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of his father, and in his synnes, wherwith he made Israel to synne. Howbeit Baesa the sonne of Ahia of the house of Isachar conspired agaynst him, & smote him at Gibbethon, which was the Philistynes: for Nadab and all Israel layed sege to Gibbethon. So Baesa slewe him in the thirde yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, & was kynge in his steade. * Now whan he was kynge, he smote all the house of Jeroboam, and let nothinge of Jeroboam remayne that had breth, tyll he had destroyed it, acordynge to ỹ worde of the LORDE, which he spake by his seruaunt Ahia of Silo, because of Jeroboams synnes which he dyd, & made Israel synne withall: euen with ỹ prouokynge wherwith he displeased the LORDE God of Israel.

What more there is to saye of Nadab, & all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel, and there was warre betwene Asa & Baesa the kynge of Israel, as longe as they lyued.

In the thirde yeare of Asa kynge of Juda was Baesa ỹ sonne of Ahia kynge ouer all Israel at Thirza foure and twentye yeare, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of Jeroboam, and in his synnes, wherwith he made Israel to synne.

Neuertheles the worde of the LORDE came vnto Jehu the sonne of Hanani agaynst Baesa, and sayde: For so moch as I lifted the out of the dust, and made the prynce ouer my people of Israel, and thou walkest in the waye of Jeroboam, and makest my people ouer Israel for to synne, to prouoke me vnto wrath thorow their synnes, behelde, therfore wyll I take awaye the posterite of Beasa, and the posterite of his house, and wyll sett thine house euen as the house of G Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat. * He that of 1.Re.14.a Baesa dyeth in the cite, the dogges shal deuoure him: and who so beynge of him dyeth in the felde, the foules of the ayre shall eate him vp.

What more there is to saye of Baesa, & what he dyd, & of his power, beholde, it is wrytten in ỹ Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. And Baesa slepte with his fathers, & was buried at Thirza: & his sonne Ella was kynge in his steade. And the worde of ỹ LORDE came by the prophet Jehu the sonne of Hanani, ouer Baesa, and ouer his house, and agaynst all the euell that he dyd in the sighte of ỹ LORDE, to prouoke him vnto wrath thorow the workes of his handes: so that he became as the house of Jeroboam, and because he slewe * this man.

The XVI. Chapter.

IN the sixe & twentieth yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, was Ella the sonne of Baesa kynge ouer Israel at Thirza two yeare. Neuertheles his seruaunt Simri, ỹ principall man ouer the halfe of ỹ charettes cõspyred against him. As for Ella, he was at Thirza, dranke & was dronkẽ in ỳ house of Arza the ruler of Thirza. And Simri came in, and slewe him in the seuen & twentieth yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, and was kynge in his steade. * And whan he was kynge, and sat vpon his seate, he smote all the house of Baesa, & lefte not so moch as one to make water agaynst ỳ wall; his bloud auengers also & his frendes. * Thus dyd Simri destroye all the house of Baesa, accordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake ouer Baesa by the prophet Jehu, because of all the synnes of Baesa and of Ella his sonne, which they dyd, and made Israel for to synne, to prouoke the LORDE God of Israel vnto wrath thorow their vanities. What more there is to saye of Ella, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

In the seuen and twentieth yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, was Simri kynge vij. dayes at Thirza, and the people laye before Gibbethon of the Philistynes. But whan the people in the hooste herde saye ỳ Simri had conspired and slayne the kynge, then all Israel the same daye made Amri the chefe captayne kynge ouer all in the hooste. And Amri wente vp and all Israel with him from Gibbethon, and layed sege vnto Thirza. * But whan Simri sawe ỳ the cite shulde be wonne, he wente in to the palace in the kynges house, & brent it with ỳ kynges house, & dyed because of his synnes which he had committed, in that he dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of Jeroboam, and in his synnes which he dyd, wherwith he made Israel to synne.

What more there is to saye of Simri, and how he conspired, beholde, it is wrytten in ỳ Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. At the same tyme were ỳ people deuyded in two partes: the one parte helde with Thibni the sonne of Ginath, that they might make him kynge: the other halfe helde with Amri. But the people that helde with Amri, were mightier then the people which helde with Thibni ỳ sonne of Ginath. And Thibni dyed, and Amri was kynge.

In ỳ one and thirtieth yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, was Amri kynge ouer Israel twolue yeares, & raigned at Thirza sixe yeares. He boughte the mount of Samaria of Semer for two hundreth weight of syluer, & buylded vpon the mount, and called the cite which he buylded, after ỳ name of Semer ỳ owner of ỳ mount of Samaria. And Amri dyd that which was euell in ỳ sighte of the LORDE, and was worse then all they that were before him, and walked in all ỳ wayes of Jeroboam ỳ sonne of Nebat, and in his synnes, wherwith he made Israel to synne, so that they prouoked the LORDE God of Israel vnto wrath in their vanities. What more there is to saye of Amri, & all that he dyd, and his power that he exercysed, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. And Amri slepte with his fathers, & was buried in Samaria, and Achab his sonne was kynge in his steade.

In the eight & thirtieth yeare of Asa kynge of Juda, was Achab the sonne of Amri kynge ouer Israel, & raigned ouer Israel at Samaria two & twentie yeare, & dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, more thẽ all they ỳ were before him. And he thoughte it but a small matter to walke in the synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat: * and toke Jesabel the doughter of Eth Baal kynge of Sidon to wife, and wente and serued Baal, and worshiped him. And vnto Baal he set vp an altare in Baals house, which he buylded him in Samaria, and made a groue: so that Achab dyd more to prouoke the God of Israel vnto wrath, then all the kynges ỳ were before him in Israel.

At ỳ same tyme dyd Hiel of Bethel buylde Jericho: * Jt cost him his first sonne Abiram, ỳ he layed ỳ foundacion: & his yongest sonne Segub, ỳ he set vp the portes: Accordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake by Josua the sonne of Nun.

The XVII. Chapter.

AND Elias ỳ Thesbites one of the inhabiters of Gilead, saide vnto Achab: * As truly as the LORDE God of Israel lyueth, whose seruaunt Jam, there shal nether rayne ner dew come this yeare, except Jspeake it.

Luc. 4. c

And the worde of the LORDE came vnto him, and sayde: Get the hence, and turne the towarde the east, and hyde the by the ryuer Crith, which is ouer agaynst Jordane, and thou shalt drynke of the ryuer: and Jhaue commaunded the rauens, that they shal fede the there. He departed, and dyd accordinge to the worde of the LORDE, and wente his waye, and sat him downe by the ryuer Crith, which is ouer agaynst Jordane. And the rauẽs broughte him bred and flesh in the mornynge and in the euenynge, and he dranke of the ryuer.

And it fortuned after cerayne dayes, that the riuer was dryed: vp for there was no ray ne in the lōde. Then came ỹ worde of ỹ LOR vnto Sarepta, which lieth by Sidō: for there haue I commaunded a wedowe to make prouysion for the.

B And he gat him vp, and wente vnto Sa-repta. And whan he came to the gate of ỹ
F cite, beholde, the wedowe was there, and ga thered stickes. And he called her, and sayde:
Fetch me a litle water in a vessell, ỹ I maye drinke. And as she was goinge to fetch it, he cried vnto her, & sayde: Bringe me a morsell of bred also in thine hande. She sayde: As truly as the LORDE ỹ God lyueth, I haue no bred, but an handfull of floure in a pitcher, & a curtesy oyle in a cruse: and beholde, I haue gathered vp one or two stickes, & wyll go and prepare it for me and my sonne, that we maye eate and dye.

Elias sayde vnto her: Feare not, go thy waye, & do as thou hast sayde: yet make me first a morsell of bred therof, & bringe it me forth: & afterwarde shalt thou make it for ỹ & thy sonne. For thus sayeth ỹ LORDE God of Israel: The meell in the pitcher shall not be spent, & the oyle in ỹ cruse shall not fayll, vnto the daye ỹ the LORDE shal cause it for to rayne vpō earth. She wente & dyd as Eli as sayde. And he ate, & she also, and hir house a certayne season. The meel in the pitcher was not mynished, and the oyle in the cruse fayled not, accordinge to the worde of ỹ LOR DE which he spake by Elias.

C And after these actes the sonne of the wi fe of ỹ house was sicke: and his sicknes was so exceadinge sore, that there remayned no breth in him. And she sayde vnto Elias:
What haue I to do with the, thou man of God? Art thou come in vnto me, ỹ my synne shulde be kepte in remembraunce, & that my sonne shulde be slayne? He sayde vnto her:
Geue me thy sonne. And he toke him frō hir lappe, & caried him vp into ỹ chamber whe re he him selfe dwelt, and layed him vpō his bed, & called vpon the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE my God, hast thou dealt so euell wt
the wedow with whom I dwell, ỹ thou wol Eccli. 48.a dest slaye hir sonne? And * he stretched out him selfe ouer the childe thre tymes, & called vpon the LORDE, and saide: O LORDE my God, let the soule of this childe come agayn ne in to him. And the LORDE herde the voy ce of Elias. And the soule of the childe came agayne vnto him, & he reuyued. And Eli as toke the childe, and broughte him downe from the chamber in to the house and delyuered him vnto his mother, and sayde: Be-holde, thy sonne lyueth. And the woman say de vnto Elias: Now knowe I, that thou art a man of God, & that the worde of the LOR

DE is in thy mouth of a trueth.

The XVIII. Chapter.

AND after a longe season came ỹ worde of the LORDE vnto Elias in the thirde yeare, & sayde: * Go thy waye, & shewe ỹ selfe vnto Achab, ỹ I maye cause it for to rayne vpon earth. And Elias wen-te to shewe him selfe vnto Achab. But ther was a greate derth ī Samaria. And Achab called Abdia his chefe officer: (As for Ab-dia, he feared ỹ LORDE greatly: for whā Ie sabel roted out ỹ prophetes of ỹ LORDE, Ab dia toke an C. prophetes, and hyd them in ca ues, here fiftye, & there fiftye, & prouyded for them wt bred and water.) Achab now sayde vnto Abdia: Go thorow the londe vnto all the welles of water & ryuers, yf happlye we maye finde hay, & to saue ỹ horses & mules, ỹ all the catell perishe not. And they parted thē selues in to the londe, to go thorow it. Achab departed the one waye alone, and Ab dia ỹ other waye alone.

Now whan Abdia was on ỹ waye, Elias met him. And whan he knewe him, he fell downe vpon his face, & sayde: Art not thou my lorde Elias? He sayde: yee, go thy waye, and tell ỹ lorde: beholde, Elias is here. But he sayde: What haue I offended, that thou wilt delyuer thy seruaunt in to the handes of Achab, that he maye slaye me? As truly as the LORDE thy God lyueth, there is no people ner kingdome, but my lorde hath sent thither to seke the. And whan they sayde: He is not here, he toke an ooth of the same kyng dome and nacion, that they had not founde
the. And now thou sayest: Go tell ỹ LORDE: beholde, Elias is here. Now whan I were gone from the, the spirite of the LORDE shul-de take ỹ awaye, I can not tell whither: and yf I then came and tolde Achab, and fown de the not, he shulde slaye me: But thy ser-uaunt feareth the LORDE from his youth vp. Hath it not bene tolde my lorde what I dyd, whan Iesabel slewe the prophetes of the LORDE, how that I hyd an hundreth of the LORDES prophetes, here fiftye, and there fiftye in the caues, and prouyded for them with bred and water? And then sayest now: Go thy waye, tell thy lorde: Elias is he re, that he maye slaye me. Elias saide: As tru ly as ỹ LORDE Zebaoth lyueth, before whom I stōde, I wil shewe my selfe vnto him this daye. Then wēte Abdia to mete Achab, & tol de him. And Achab wēte for to mete Elias.

And whan Achab sawe Elias, Achab sayde vnto him: Art thou he that troublest Israel? He sayde: I trouble not Israel, * but it is thou and thy fathers house, because ye have forsaken the commaundementes of the LORDE, and walke after Baal. Go to, sende forth now, and gather me all Israel together vnto mount Carmell, and the foure hundreth and fiftye prophetes of Baal, and the foure hundreth prophetes of ỹ grove, which eate of Jesabels table. So Achab sent vnto all the children of Israel, & gathered the prophetes together vnto mount Carmell.

Then stepte Elias vnto all the people, & sayde: How longe halte ye on both ỹ sydes? If the LORDE be God, thē walke after him: but yf Baal be he, thē folowe him. And the people gaue him no answere. Thē sayde Elias vnto the people: I onely am lefte a prophet of ỹ LORDE: but Baals prophetes are foure C. and fiftie mē. Geue vs now two bullockes, & let them chose one bullocke, & hewe him in peces, & laye him vpō the wod, & put no fyre theron: so wil I take ỹ other bullock, & laye him vpō the wod, & put no fyre theron also: call ye then vpō the name of yor god, & I wil call vpō the name of the LORDE: loke which God now answereth with fyre, let the same be God. And all the people answered & sayde: That is righte. And Elias sayde vnto Baals prophetes: Chose ye one bullock, and do ye it first (for ye are many) and call ye vpon the name of youre god, & laye no fyre theron.

And they toke the bullock which he gaue them, & prepared it, & called vpon the name of Baal from the mornynge vntyll the noone daye, and sayde: O Baal heare vs. But there was nether voyce ner answere. And they hopped aboute the altare, as their vse was to do. Now whan it was noone daye, Elias mocked them, and sayde: Crye loude. For he is a god, peraduēture he is musynge, or hath somwhat to do, or is gone some iourneye, or happlye he slepeth, so that he wolde be waked vp. And they cried loude, and prouoked thē selues with knyues & borkens, (as their maner was) tyll ỹ blonde folowed. But whan ỹ noone daye was past, they prophecied vntyll the tyme that the meatofferynge shulde be offered, & there was nether voyce ner answere, ner one to regarde them.

Then sayde Elias vnto all the people: Come hither all ye people vnto me. And whan all ỹ people came to him, he repayred ỹ * altare of the LORDE ỹ was broken, * & toke twolue stones accordinge to the nombre of ỹ trybes of the childrē of Jacob (vnto whom the worde of the LORDE spake, and sayde: * Thy name shal be Israel) and of ỹ stones he buylded an altare in the name of the LORDE, & made a pytt rounde aboute the altare, like two fordowes in the corne londe, & prepared the wod, & hewed ỹ bullock in peces, and layed him vpon the wod, & sayde: Fetch foure pitchers full of water, and poured it vpō the burntofferynge, and vpon the wod. And he sayde: Do it yet once. And they dyd it once agayne. And he sayde: Do it ỹ thirde tyme. And they dyd it the thirde tyme. And ỹ water ranne aboute the altare, and ỹ pytt was full of water also.

And whan the tyme was to offer ỹ meat offerynge, Elias stepte forth, and sayde: O LORDE God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Israel, let it be knowne this daye, that thou art God in Israel, and I thy seruaunt, and that I haue done all this accordinge vnto ỹ worde. Heare me O LORDE, O heare me, ỹ this people maye knowe, how that thou art the LORDE God, that thou mayest afterwarde turne their hertes. * Then fell downe the fyre of the LORDE, and consumed the burntofferinge, the wodd, the stones and the earth, and licked vp the water that was in the pytt. Whan all the people sawe that, they fell vpon their faces, and sayde: The LORDE is God, ỹ LORDE is God. Elias sayde vnto them: * Laye handes vpon Baals prophetes, ỹ none of them escape. And they toke them. And Elias broughte them downe vnto ỹ broke Cyson, & slewe thē there.

And Elias sayde vnto Achab: Go vp, eate & drynke, for it soundeth as though it wolde rayne sore. And whan Achab wēre vp to eate & drinke. Elias asceded vp to the toppe of Carmel, & bowed him selfe downe to the earth, & put his heade betwene his knees, & sayde vnto his lad: Go vp, and loke towarde the See. He wente vp & loked, & sayde: There is nothinge. He sayde: Go agayne seuen tymes. And at the seuēth tyme he sayde: Behol de, there goeth vp a litle cloude out of the see, like a mans hande. He sayde: Go vp, and saie vnto Achab: Bynde ẏ charet, ⁊ go downe, ẏ the rayne ouertake the not. And or a mā coulde turne him, the heauen was blacke wᵗ cloudes ⁊ wynde, ⁊ there came a greate rayne. But Achab rode his waie, ⁊ departed vnto Jesrael. And the hāde of ẏ LORDE came vpō Elias, and he gyrde his loynes, ⁊ ranne before Achab, tyll he came vnto Jesrael.

The XIX. Chapter.

A AND Achab tolde Jesabel all ẏ Elias had done, ⁊ how he had slayne all Baals prophetes wᵗ the swerde. Thē sent Jesabel a messaunger vnto Elias, sayenge: The goddes do this ⁊ that vnto me, yf I tomorow aboute this tyme, make not thy soule as one of these. Then was he afrayed, ⁊ gat him vp, ⁊ wente where he wolde, ⁊ came vnto Berseba in Juda, and leste his lad there. But he him selfe wente a daies iourney in to ẏ wyldernes, ⁊ came in, ⁊ sat him downe vnder a Juniper tre, ⁊ wyßhed vnto his soule ẏ he mighte dye, ⁊ sayde: It is now ynough LORDE, take my soule, for I am no better then my fathers. And he layed him downe ⁊ slepte vnder the Juniper tre.

And beholde, ẏ angell touched him, ⁊ sayde vnto him: Stonde vp, and eate. And he loked aboute him, ⁊ beholde, at his heade there was a bred baken on the coles, ⁊ a cruse wᵗ water. And whan he had eaten and dronkē, he layed him downe agayne to slepe.

B And ẏ angell of the LORDE, came agayne the seconde tyme, ⁊ touched him, ⁊ sayde: Stonde vp, and eate, for thou hast a greate waye to go. And he arose, and ate and dranke, and wente on thorow the strength of that Iatt. 4. a vnto Horeb ẏ mount of God: and there he came to a caue, and abode there all nighte. And beholde the worde of the LORDE came to him, and sayde vnto him: What doest thou here Elias? He sayde: I haue benezelous for the LORDE God Zebaoth: for the children of Jsrael haue forsaken thy couenaunt, and broken downe thine altares, and slayne thy prophetes with the swerde, and I am leste onely, ⁊ they seke to take awaye my life. He sayde: Go forth, and stonde vpon the mount before the LORDE. And beholde, the LORDE wēte ouer: and a greate mighty wynde, which roue the mountaynes, and brake the harde stones, came before the LORDE, but the LORDE was not in the wynde. After the wynde came there an earthquake, but the LORDE was not in the earthquake.

And after the earth quake there came a fyre, but the LORDE was not in the fyre. And after the fyre came there a styll softe hyssinge. Whan Elias herde that, he covered his face with his cloke, and wente forth, and stode in the dore of the caue. And beholde, there came a voyce vnto him, and sayde: What hast thou here to do Elias?

He sayde: I haue benezelous for the LORDE God Zebaoth: * for the children of Jsrael haue forsakē thy couenaunt, broken downe thine altares, slayne ẏ prophetes wᵗ the swerde, ⁊ I onely am leste, and they seke to take awaye my life. But the LORDE sayde vnto him: Go ẏ waye agayne thorow the wyldernes vnto Damascon, ⁊ go in, * ⁊ anoynte Hasael kynge ouer Siria, * ⁊ Jehu the sonne of Nimsi kynge ouer Jsrael, ⁊ Eliseus ẏ sonne of Saphat of Abel Mehola to be prophet in ẏ steade. And it shal come to passe, ẏ, who so escapeth the swerde of Hasael, Jehu shall slaye him, ⁊ who so escapeth ẏ swerde of Jehu, Eliseus shal slaye him. * And I wil reserue vnto me vij. M. men in Jsrael: namely, all ẏ knees which haue not bowed thē selues vnto Baal, and euery mouth ẏ hath not kyssed him.

And he departed thence, ⁊ founde Elizeus ẏ sonne of Saphat, plowinge wᵗ twolue yocke of oxen before him, ⁊ he him selfe was amōge the twolue. And Elias wente vnto him, ⁊ cast his cloke vpon him. And he leste the oxen, ⁊ ranne after Elias, ⁊ sayde: * Let me kysse my father ⁊ my mother, and so wil I folowe the. And he sayde vnto him: Go thy waye, ⁊ come agayne, for I haue some what to do with the. And he ranne agayne from him, and toke a yock of oxen, and offred it, and sod ẏ flesh with the wod of the oxen plowes, and gaue it vnto the people to eate, and gat him vp, ⁊ folowed Elias, and myniſtred vnto him.

The XX. Chapter.

AND * Benadab ẏ kynge of Siria gathered all his power, ⁊ there were two ⁊ thirtie kynges wᵗ him, ⁊ horses ⁊ charettes, and he wente vp, and layed sege vnto Samaria, ⁊ foughte agaynst it. And he sent messaungers vnto Achab ẏ kynge of Jsrael in to ẏ cite, ⁊ caused to saye vnto him: Thus sayeth Benadab: Thy syluer ⁊ thy golde is myne, and thy wynes ⁊ thy best children are myne also. The kynge of Jsrael answered, ⁊ sayde: My lorde O kynge, euen as thou hast sayde, I am thine, and all that I haue.

And the messaungers came agayne, ⁊ sayde: Thus sayeth Benadab: For so moch as I haue sent vnto the, sayenge: Thy syluer ⁊ thy golde, thy wyues & thy childrē shalt thou geue me, tomorow aboute this tyme wil I sende my seruaūtes vnto the, ỳ they maye serch thyne house and the houses of thy subiectes: & loke what pleasaunt thinge thou hast, ỳ shal they take in their handes, and cary it awaye. So the kynge of Israel called all ỳ Elders of the lōde, & sayde: Mark well & se, what myschefe this mā seketh: he sent vnto me for my wyues & children, for syluer & golde, & I haue not sayde him naye. Then sayde all the Elders and all the people vnto him: Thou shalt not cōsente ner agree vnto him. And he spake vnto Benadabs messaūgers, Saye vnto my lorde ỳ kynge: All ỳ thynges wherfore thou dyddest sende vnto me ỳ seruaunt at ỳ first, wil I do, but this can I not do. And ỳ messaungers wēte, and tolde this againe. Thē sent Benadab vnto him sayēge: The goddes do this and ỳ vnto me, yf the dust of Samaria shalbe ynough, for euery one of my people to brynge me an handfull therof. But ỳ kynge of Israel answered, & sayde: Tell him, Let not him ỳ putteth on ỳ harnes, make his boast like him ỳ hath put it of. Whā Benadab herde ỳ (euē as he was drynkinge wt the kynges in ỳ pauylion) he sayde vnto his seruaūtes: Set yo selues in araye. And they set thē selues in araie against

And beholde, there came a pro- (ỳ cite.
phet vnto Achab ỳ kynge of Israel, & sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Hast thou sene all this greate multitude? Beholde, this daie wil I delyuer thē in to ỳ hande, so ỳ thou shalt knowe, how ỳ I am ỳ LORDE. Achab sayde: By whem? He sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Euen by the yonge men of the rulers of the londe. He sayde: Who shal order the battayll? He sayde: Thou. Then mustered he the yonge men of the rulers of the londe, & there were two hūdreth and two and thirtie of them: & after thē mustred he of the whole people of all the childrē of Israel, seuē thousande men, and they wente out in the noone daye. As for Benadab, he dranke and was dronken in the pauylion with the two & thirtie kynges which were come to helpe him. And the yonge men of the rulers of the londe wente forth first.

Benadab sent forth, & they brought him worde, & sayde: There come men out of Samaria. He sayde: Take them alyue, whether they be come forth for peace, or for warre. But whan the londe rulers yonge men were gone forth, and the hooste behynde them, euery one smote him ỳ came in his waye. And the Sirians fled, and Israel folowed after them. And Benadab the kynge of Syria escaped with horses and horsmē. And the kynge of Israel wente forth, and smote horses and charettes, and dyd a greate slaughter on the Syrians.

Then came there a prophet vnto the kynge of Israel, and sayde vnto him: Go thy waye and strengthe the, and take hede, and loke well what thou doest: for whan the yeare is aboute, the kynge of Syria shall come agaynst the of the new. For the kynge of ỳ Syrians seruauntes sayde vnto him: Their goddes are goddes of the mountaynes, therfore haue they gotten the victory. But let vs fyghte with them on the playne, and thou shalt se that we shal ouercome them. Do thus, put awaye the kynges euery one from his place, and set dukes in their steades, and appoynte the an hooste as was that which thou hast lost, & horses & charettes as the other were, and let vs fighte agaynst thē in the plaine, and thou shalt se that we shal haue the victory. He cōsented vnto their voyce, and dyd so.

Now whan the yeare was gone aboute, Benadab appointed the Sirians, and wente vp towarde Aphek, to fighte agaynst Israel, and the childrē of Israel mustred, and prouyded them selues with vytailes, and wēte to mete them, and pitched their tētes ouer against them, like two litle flockes of goates but the londe was full of the Syrians.

And there came a man of God, and sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Because the Syrians haue sayde, that the LORDE is a God of the moūtaynes and not a God of the valleys, therfore haue I geuen all this greate heape in to thy handes, that ye maye knowe how that I am ỳ LORDE. And they pitched their tentes right ouer agaynst them seuen dayes. But vpon ỳ seuenth daye they wente together in to the battayll: and the children of Israel smote of the Sirians an hundreth thousande foote men in one daye, and the remnaunt fled to Aphek in to the cite, and the wall fell vpon the other seuen and twenty thousande men. And Benadab fled also vnto the cite in to a litle chamber.

Then sayde his seruauntes vnto him: Beholde, we haue herde that the kynges of the house of Israel are mercifull kinges, Let vs therfore put sack cloth aboute oure loynes, and halters aboute oure neckes, & go forth to the kynge of Israel, peraduenture he shal let ỳ soule lyue.

And they put sack cloth aboute their loynes, and halters aboute their neckes, and came to the kynge of Israel, and sayde: Benadab thy seruaunt sayeth vnto the: O let my soule lyue. He sayde: yf he be yet alyue, he is my brother. And the men toke him shortly at his worde, and expounded it for them selues and sayde: Yee Benadab is thy brother. He sayde: Come and bringe him. Thē wente Benadab forth vnto him, and he caused him to syt vpon the charet, and sayde vnto him: The cities that my father toke from thy father, wyl I gene the agayne. And make thou stretes for thyselfe at Damascō, as my father did at Samaria, so wyl I let the go with a bonde of peace. And he made a couenaunt with him, and let him go.

Then spake there a man amonge the children of the prophetes vnto his neghboure by the worde of the LORDE: I praye the smite me. But he refused to smite him. Then saide he vnto him, because thou hast not herkened vnto the voyce of the LORDE, beholde, therfore shall there a lyon smyte the, whan thou goest fro me. And whan he wente frō him, a lyon founde him, and slewe him. Re 13.e

And he founde another man, and sayde: I praye the smyte me. And the man smote him, and wounded him. Then wente the prophet, and stepte vnto the kynge by the waye syde, and altered his face with aßshes. And whan the kynge wente by, he cried vpon ỹ kynge, and sayde: Thy seruaunt wente forth into the battayll, and beholde, there wente one aside, and broughte a man vnto me, and sayde: Kepe this mā: yf he be myssed, thy soule shall be in steade of his soule, or els thou shalt weye downe an hundreth weighte of syluer. And whyle thy seruaunt had here & there to do, he was awaye. The kynge of Israel sayde vnto him: It is thine owne iudgment, thou hast geuen it thyselfe.

Then put he the aßshes from his face in all the haist. And the kynge of Israel knewe him, that he was one of the prophetes. And he sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Because thou hast let the damned man go, therfore shall thy soule be for his soule, and thy people for his people. And the kynge of Israel departed vnto his house, beinge troubled in his mynde and full indignacion, and came to Samaria.

The XXI. Chapter.

AFter these actes it fortuned, that Naboth the Jesraelite had a vyniarde at Jesreel beside the palace of Achab kynge of Samaria. And Achab spake to Naboth, and sayde: Geue me thy vynyarde, I wyll make me an herbygarden therof, because it is so nye my house: I wyl gene the a better vynyarde for it: or yf it please the, I wyll gene the syluer for it, as moch as it is worth. But Naboth sayde vnto Achab: The LORDE let that be farre fro me, that I shulde gene ỹ my fathers heretage. Then came Achab home, beinge moued and full of indignacion, because of the worde that Naboth the Jesraelite had spoken vnto him, & sayde: I wyl not gene the my fathers inheritaunce. And he laied him downe vpon his bed, and turned his face aside, and ate no bred. Then Jesabel his wyfe came in to him and sayde vnto him: What is ỹ matter, that thy spirite is so cōbred, and that thou eatest no bred? He sayde vnto her: I haue spoke vnto Naboth the Jesraelite, and sayde: Geue me thy vynyarde for money: or yf it please ỹ, I wyl gene the another for it. But he sayde: I wyll not gene the my vynyarde.

Then sayde Jesabel his wyfe vnto him: What kingdome were in Israel, yf thou diddest it? Stonde vp, and eate bred, I wyl gene the the vynyarde of Naboth the Jesraelite. And she wrote a letter vnder Achabs name, and sealed it with his signet, and sent it vnto ỹ Elders and rulers in his cite, which dwelt aboute Naboth, and wrote thus in ỹ letter: Proclame a fast, and set Naboth aboue in the people, and set two men of Belial before him, to testifye and saye: Thou hast blasphemed God and the kynge. And bringe him forth, and stone him to death.

And the Elders and rulers of his cyte, which dwelt in his cite, dyd as Jesabel had commaunded them, accordynge as she had wrytten in the letter that she sent vnto them and they proclamed a fast, and caused Naboth to syt aboue amonge the people. Then came the two men of Belial, and stode before him, and testifyed agaynst Naboth in ỹ presence of the people, and sayde: Naboth hath blasphemed God and the kynge.

Then broughte they him out of the cite, and stoned him to death. And they sent Jesabel worde, sayenge: Naboth is stoned & put to death. Whā Jesabel herde that Naboth was stoned and deed, she sayde vnto Achab: Vp, and take possession of the vynyarde of Naboth the Jesraelite, which he denyed to gene the for money: for Naboth lyueth no more but is deed. And whan Achab herde ỹ Naboth was deed, he rose to go downe vnto the vyniarde of Naboth the Jesraelite, and to take possession of it.

But the worde of the LORDE came to Elias the Thesbite, and sayde: Get the vp, and go downe to mete Achab the kynge of Israel, which is at Samaria: beholde, he is in Naboths vynyarde, into the which he is gone downe to take possession of it, and talke thou with him, and speake: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Thou hast slayne, and taken in possession. And thou shalt talke moreouer vnto him, and saye: Thus sayeth the LORDE: * Euen in the place where the dogges licked vp Naboths bloude, shall the dogges licke thy bloude also. And Achab sayde vnto Elias: Hast thou euer founde me thine enemye? He saide: Yee, I haue founde the, because thou art euen solde to do euell in the sighte of the LORDE. Beholde, * I wyll bringe myssfortune vpon the, and take awaye thy posterite, and wil rote out from Achab, euen him that maketh water agaynst the wall, and him that is shut vp and lefte behynde in Israel: and thy house wyll I make as the house of Jeroboam ỹ sonne of Nebat, and as the house of Baesa the sonne of Ahia, because of ỹ prouocacion wherwith thou hast prouoked me vnto wrath, and made Israel to synne.

And ouer Jesabel spake the LORDE also and sayde: * The dogges shal deuoure Jesabel in ỹ felde of Jesrael. * Who so of Achab dyeth in ỹ cite, him shal the dogges eate vp: and who so dyeth in the felde, the foules vnder the heauen shall eate him vp. So cleane * solde to do myschefe in ỹ sighte of the LORDE hath no man bene, as Achab: for his Jesabel hath so disceaued him; and he maketh him selfe a greate abhominacion, that he goeth after Idols, accordige vnto all as dyd the Amorites, * whom the LORDE expelled before the children of Israel.

But whan Achab herde these wordes, he rēte his clothes, & put a sack cloth on his body, & fasted, and slepte in sackcloth, and went aboute hangynge downe his heade. And the worde of the LORDE came to Elias the Thesbite, & sayde: Hast thou not sene how Achab humbleth him selfe before me? For so moch now as he hūbleth him selfe in my sighte, I wil not bringe that plage whyle he lyueth: but by his sonnes life wil I bringe myssfortune vpon his house.

The XXII. Chapter.

AND there passed ouer thre yeares, that there was no warre betwene the Sirians & Israel. * But in the thirde yeare wente Josaphat the kynge of Juda downe to the kynge of Israel. And the kynge of Israel sayde vnto his seruauntes: Knowe ye not ỹ Ramoth in Gilead is ours? and we syt styll, and take it not out of the hande of the kynge of Syria. And he sayde vnto Josaphat: Wilt thou go with me to the battaill vnto Ramoth in Gilead? Josaphat sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: I wyll be as thou my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses. And Josaphat sayde vnto ỹ kynge of Israel: Axe this daye at the worde of the LORDE. Then the kynge of Israel gathered the prophetes aboute a foure hundreth men, and sayde vnto them: Shal I go vnto Ramoth in Gilead to fighte, or shal I let it alone? They sayde: Go vp, ỹ LORDE shal delyuer it in to ỹ kinges hande. But Josaphat sayde: Is there not one prophet here more of ỹ LORDE, that we maye axe at him?

The kinge of Israel saide vnto Josaphat Here is yet a man, one Micheas the sonne of Jemla, at whom we maye axe of the LORDE: but I hate him, for he prophecieth me no good, but euell. Josaphat sayde: Let not the kynge saye so. Then called the kynge of Israel a chamberlayne, and sayde: Bringe hither soone Micheas the sonne of Jemla. As for the kynge of Israel and Josaphat ỹ kinge of Juda, they sat ether of them vpon his seate, arayed in their garmentes in the place at ỹ dore of the porte of Samaria, and all ỹ prophetes prophecied before thē. And Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena had made him hornes of yron, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: With these shalt thou pusshe at ỹ Syrians, tyll thou bringe them to naughte And all the prophetes prophecied likewyse, and sayde: Go vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead, thou shalt prospere right well, & the LORDE shal delyuer it in to the kynges hande. And the messaunger that wente to call Micheas sayde vnto him: Beholde, The wordes of ỹ prophetes are with one acorde good before the kynge, let thy worde therfore be as their worde, and speake thou good also.

Micheas sayde: As truly as the LORDE liueth, loke what the LORDE sayeth vnto me, ỹ wyl I speake. And whan he came to the kynge, the kynge sayde vnto him: Micheas, shal we go vnto Ramoth in Gilead to fight or shall we let it alone? He sayde vnto him: Yee, go vp, thou shalt prospere righte well, the LORDE shall gene it in to the kynges hande. But the kynge sayde vnto him agayne: I charge ỹ that thou saye no other thinge vnto me but the trueth, in the name of ỹ LORDE. He sayde: I sawe all Israel scatred abrode vpon the mountaynes, as the shepe that haue no shepherde. And the LORDE saide: Haue these no lorde: Let euery one turne home agayne in peace. Then sayde ỳ kinge of Israel vnto Josaphat: Tolde not I ỳ that he wolde prophecye me no good, but euell:

D He sayde: Heare now therfore the worde of the LORDE: * I sawe the LORDE syt vpon Pa.18.c his seate, and all the hoost of heauen stodinge by him at his righte hande & at his lefte. And the LORDE saide: Who wil disceaue Achab to go vp, & fall at Ramoth in Gilead. And one sayde this, another that. Then wente there forth a spirite, & stode before the LORDE, and sayde: I wyl disceaue him. The LORDE sayde vnto him: Wherwith: He sayde vnto him: I wyll go forth, and be a false spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. He saide: Thou shalt disceaue him, and shalt be able: zec.14.b go forth and do so. Beholde now, * the LORDE hath geue a false spirite in ỳ mouth of all these ỳ prophetes, and the LORDE hath spoken euell ouer the. Then stepte forth Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena, and smote Micheas vpon the cheke, and sayde: What, is the spirite of the LORDE departed fro me, to speake with the: Micheas sayde: Beholde, thou shalt se it in ỳ daye, whan thou shalt go fro one chamber to another to hyde the.

The kynge of Israel sayde: Take Micheas, and let him remayne with Amon the ruler of the cite, and with Joas the kynges sonne, and saye: Thus sayeth the kynge: put E this man in preson, and fede him with bred and water of trouble, tyll I come agayne in peace. Micheas sayde: Yf thou commest agayne in peace, then hath not the LORDE spoken thorow me. And he sayde: herken to all ye people.

So the kynge of Israel and Josaphat ỳ kynge of Juda wente vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead. And the kynge of Israel sayde vnto Josaphat: Chaunge thy clothes, and come in to ỳ battayll in thine araie. The kinge of Israel chaunged his clothes also, and wente in to the battayll. But the kynge of Siria commaunded the rulers of his charettes (of whom there were two and thirtie) and saide: Ye shal fight nether agaynst small ner greate, but onely agaynst the kynge of Israel. And whan the rulers of the charettes sawe Josaphat, they thought it had bene the kynge of Israel, and fell vpon him with fightinge. But Josaphat cried. So whan the rulers of the charettes sawe that it was not ỳ kinge of Israel, they turned back fro him.

F A certayne man bended his bowe harde, and shott the kynge of Israel betwene the mawe and ỳ longes. And he sayde vnto his charetman: Turne thine hade, and cary me out of the hoost, for I am wounded. And ỳ battayll was sore the same daie. And the kinge stode vpō his charet, agaynst the Syriās and dyed in the eueninge, and the blouder ranne from the wounde in to the myddes of the charet. And whan the Sonne wente downe there was a proclamacion made in the hoost, and sayde: Euery one gett him in to his cite, and to his countre. Thus the kynge dyed, and was broughte vnto Samaria, and they buryed him in Samaria. And whan they waßshed the charett in the pole of Samaria, * ỳ dogges licked his blouder (but the harlottes waßshed him) accordinge to the worde of ỳ LORDE which he spake.

What more there is to saye of Achab, & all ỳ he dyd, and of the Ivery house which he buylded, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. So Achab slepte with his fathers, and his sonne Ahasia was kynge in his steade.

* And Josaphat the sonne of Asa was G kynge ouer Juda in the fourth yeare of Achab kynge of Israel, and was fyue and thirtie yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and raigned fyue and twentye yeare at Jerusalē. His mothers name was Asuba ỳ doughter of Silhi, and he walked in all the waye of his father Asa, & departed not there from And he dyd that which was right in ỳ sighte of the LORDE, yet put he not awaye ỳ hie places, and ỳ people offred and brent incese yet vpon the hye places, and he had peace with the kynge of Israel.

What more there is to saye of Josaphat and the mighte that he exercised, and how he fought, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. * He put out of the londe also the whoremongers that yet were leste, which remayned ouer in the tyme of his father Asa. And at that tyme there were no kynges in Edom. And Josaphat had causēd to make shippes vpon the See, which shulde go to fetch golde in Ophir, but they wente not: for they were broken at Ezeon Gaber. At that tyme sayde Ahasia the sonne of Achab vnto Josaphat: Let my seruauntes passe with thy seruauntes in the shippes. But Josaphat wolde not. And Josaphat slepte with his fathers, and was buried in ỳ cite of Dauid. And Joram his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The fyrst Chapter.

Hasia the sonne of Achab was kynge ouer Israel at Samaria in ỹ seuententh yeare of Josaphat kinge of Juda, & reigned ouer Israel two yeares, & dyd ỹ which was euell in ỹ sight of the LORDE, and walked in the waye of his father and of his mother, & in the waie of Jeroboam ỹ sonne of Nebat, which made Israel for to synne. And serued Baal, and worshipped him, and displeased the LORDE God of Israel, euẽ as his father dyd. The Moabites also fell awaye from Israel, whan Achab was deed.

And Ochosias fell thorow ỹ grate in his chãber at Samaria, and was deed sicke, and sent messaungers, and sayde vnto them: Go youre waye, and axe councell at Beelzebub the god of Ekron, whether I shall recouer from this sickneſſe. But the angell of ỹ LORDE sayde vnto Elias the Theßbite: Vp, & go mete the messaungers of the kynge of Samaria, and saie vnto them: Is there no God in Israel, that ye go to axe councell at ỹ god of Ekron? Therfore thus sayeth the LORDE: Thou shalt not come from the bed wheron thou lyeſt, but shalt dye the death. B

And Elias wente his waye. And whã ỹ messaunges came to Ochosias agayne, he sayde vnto thẽ: Why come ye agayne? They sayde vnto him: There came vp a man in oure waye, and sayde vnto vs: Go againe to the kinge that hath sent you, and saye vnto him: Thus saieth the LORDE: Is there no God in Israel, ỹ thou sendeſt to axe coũcel at Beelzebub ỹ god of Ekrõ? Therfore shalt thou not come from ỹ bed wheron thou lyeſt, but shalt dye the death. He sayde vnto them: What maner of man was it that mett you, and sayde this vnto you? They sayde vnto him: He had a rough heer vpon him, and a letheren gyrdell aboute his loynes. He sayde: It is Elias the Thesbite.

C And he sent vnto him a capteine ouer fyftye, with the same fyftye. And whan he came vnto him, beholde, he sat aboue vpon the mout. He sayde vnto him: Thou mā of God, the kynge sayeth: Thou shalt come downe Elias answered the captayne ouer fyftye, and sayde vnto him: Yf I be a man of God, the fyre fall downe then from heauen, and cō
Ecc. 9. f sume the and thy fyftie.* Then fell there fire from heauen, and consumed him and his fyftye. And agayne he sent another captayne ouer fyftye vnto him, with his fyftye, which answered, and sayde vnto him: Thou man of God, thus sayeth the kynge: Come downe in all the haist. Elias answered, and saide: Yf I be a mā of God, ỹ fire fall downe from heauen, and consume the and thy fyftye. Then fell the fyre of God from heauen, & consumed him, and his fyftye. Agayne, he sent vnto him the thirde captayne ouer fyftye, with his fyftie.

D Now whan he came to him, he kneled to Elias, and besoughte him, and sayde vnto him: Thou man of God, let my soule and ỹ soules of thy seruauntes these fyftye, be som what worth in thy syghte. Beholde, the fyre fell downe from heauen, and hath consumed the fyrst two captaynes ouer fyftye w̄ their fyftyes. But now let my soule be som what worth in thy syghte. Then saide the angel of the LORDE vnto Elias: Go downe with him, and feare him not. And he gatt him vp, and wente downe with him vnto ỹ kynge.

And he sayde vnto him: Thus saieth the LORDE: Because thou hast sent forth messāgers, and caused to axe councell at Beelzebub the god of Ekron, as though there were no God in Israel to axe coūcell at his worde, therfore shalt thou not come from the bed wheron thou hast layed the, but shalt dye ỹ death. So he dyed, acordynge to the worde of the LORDE which Elias sayde. And Joram (his brother) was kynge in his steade in the seconde yeare of Joram the sonne of Josaphat kynge of Juda: for he had no sonne.

What more there is to saye of Ochosias, what he dyd, beholde, it is wrytt̄e in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel.

The II. Chapter.

A When the LORDE was mynded to take vp Elias in the tempest, Elias and Eliseus wente from Gilgall. And Elias sayde to Eliseus: Tary thou herē I praye the, for the LORDE hath sent me vnto Bethel. But Eliseus sayde: As truly as the LORDE liueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wyll not forsake the. And whan they came downe vnto Bethel, the prophetes children that were at Bethel, wēte forth to Eliseus, and sayde vnto him: Knowest thou not, that the LORDE wyl take thy lorde awaye from thy heade this daye? He saide: I knowe it well, holde ye youre peace.

And Elias sayde vnto him: Eliseus, tary thou here I praye the, for the LORDE hath sent me vnto Jericho. Neuertheles he sayde: as truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wyl not forsake the.

And whan they came vnto Jericho, the prophetes children which were at Jericho, stepte forth to Eliseus and sayde vnto him: Knowest thou not that the LORDE wyll take ỹ lorde awaye from thy heade this daie? He sayde: I knowe it well, holde ye yo' peace. And Elias sayde vnto him: I praie the tary here, for ỹ LORDE hath sent me vnto Jordane. But he sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as thy soule lyueth, I wil not forsake the. And they wente both together. But fyftye men of ỹ prophetes children wēte forth, and stode ouer agaynst the a farre of: but they both stode by Jordane. Then toke Elias his cloke, and wrapped it together, and smote the water, which deuyded it selfe on both the sydes, so that they wēte dry shod thorow it. And whan they were come ouer, Elias sayde vnto Eliseus: Aske what I shall do for the, afore I be taken awaye from the. Eliseus saide: That thy spirite maye be vpō me to speake twyse as moch.

He sayde: Thou hast desyred an harde C thinge: neuertheles yf thou shalt se me whē I am taken awaye from the, it shal be so: Yf no, thē shal it not be. And as they were goinge together, and he talked, there came a fyrie charet with horses of fyre, and parted the both asunder.* And so wente Elias vp to heauen in the storme. But Eliseus sawe it, & cryed: My father, my father, the charetman of Israel and his horsmē. And he sawe him nomore.

And he toke holde of his clothes, and rente them in two peces, and toke vp Elias cloke that was fallen from him, and turned backe, and stode by the shore of Jordane, and toke the same cloke of Elias which was fallen from him, and smote it in the water, and saide: Where is now the LORDE God of Elias? And he smote it in to the water, and then parted it asunder on both the sydes, and E liseus went e thorow.

And whan the prophetes children which were at Jericho ouer agynst him, sawe him, they sayde: The spirete of Elias resteth vpō Eliseus, and so they wēte forth to mete him, and worshipped him to the grounde, and sayde vnto him: Beholde, there are fiftye valeaunt mē amonge thy seruauntes, let them go and seke thy lorde, per aduenture the spirete of the LORDE hath taken him, and cast him vpon some mountaine or in some valley. But he saide: Sende them not. Neuertheles they constrayned him, tyll he was ashamed, and sayde: Let them go. And they sent fiftye men, which soughte him thre dayes: but they founde him not, and came agayne vnto him. And he abode at Jericho, and sayde vnto them: Tolde not I you, that ye shulde not go? And the men of the cite sayde vnto Eliseus: Beholde, there is good dwellynge in this cite, as my lorde seyth, but the water is euell, and the londe vnfrutefull.

E He sayde: Bringe me hither a new vessell, & put salt in it. And they broughte it him. Then wēte he forth vnto the well of water, and cast the salt therin, & sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I haue healed this water: from hence forth shal there no deed ner vnfrutefulnes come of it. So the water was healed vnto this daye, acordinge to the worde of Eliseus which he spake.

And he wēte vp towarde Bethel. And as he was goynge vp by the waye, there came litle boyes out of the cite, and mocked him, & sayde: Come vp here thou balde heade, come vp here thou balde heade. And he turned him aboute. And whā he sawe them, he cursed them in the name of the LORDE. Then came there two Beeres out of the wod, and rente two and fortye of the children. From thence wēte he vp vnto mount Carmel, and from it turned he backe to Samaria.

The iij. Chapter.

A IOram the sonne of Achab was kynge ouer Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth yeare of Josaphat kynge of Juda, & raigned xij. yeares, & dyd ẏ which was euell in ẏ sighte of ẏ LORDE, but not as his father & his mother: for he put awaye ẏ pilers of Baal, which his father caused to make. Neuertheles he cleued vnto ẏ synnes of Jeroboā ẏ sonne of Nebat, which made Israel for to synne, & departed not there frō.

Mesa ẏ kynge of the Moabites had many shepe, & payed tribute vnto the kynge of Israel vnto the woll of an hundreth thousande lābes, & of an hūdreth thousande rāmes.

* But whan Achab was deed, the kynge of ẏ Moabites fell awaye frō the kynge of Israel. At ẏ same tyme wēte kynge Joram frō Samaria, & mustered all Israel, & sent vnto Josaphat kynge of Juda, sayenge: The kynge of the Moabites is fallen awaye fro me, come thou wt me to fighte agaynst ẏ Moabites. He sayde: I wil come vp, * I am euen as thou, and my people as ẏ people, and my horses as thy horses. And sayde moreuer: Which waye wil we go vp? He sayde: by the waye in the wylderneſſe of Edom. 4.Re.1.2 3.Re.22.1 B

So the kynge of Israel, the kynge of Juda, & the kynge of Edom wente forth. And whan they had gone aboute seuē dayes iourney, ẏ hoost & the catell ẏ were amonge thē had no water. Then sayde the kynge of Israel: Alas, the LORDE hath called these thre kynges, to delyuer thē in to the hande of the Moabites. But Josaphat sayde: * Is here no prophet of ẏ LORDE, ẏ we maye aske cōcell at ẏ LORDE by him? Then answered one of ẏ kynge of Israels seruauntes, & saide: Here is Eliseus ẏ sonne of Saphat, which poured water vpon Elias handes. Josaphat sayde: The worde of ẏ LORDE is with him. So the kynge of Israel & Josaphat, and ẏ kynge of Edom wente downe vnto him. 3.Re.22.7

But Eliseus sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: What hast thou to do wt me? go to the prophetes of thy father & to ẏ mothers prophetes. The kinge of Israel saide vnto him: No, for ẏ LORDE hath called these thre kynges, to delyuer them in to the handes of the Moabites. Eliseus sayde: As truly as the LORDE Zebaoth lyueth, before whom I stōde, yf I regarded not Josaphat the kynge of Juda, I wolde not regarde the, ner set ought by ẏ. So bringe me now a mynstrell. And whan the mynstrell played vpō the instrument, the hande of the LORDE came vpō him. And he sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Make pittes by this broke. For thus sayeth the LORDE: Ye shal se nether wynde ner rayne, yet shall the broke be full of water, that ye and youre housholdes & youre catell maie drynke. Yee and that is but a small thinge in the sighte of the LORDE. And the Moabites shal he delyuer in to youre handes, so ẏ ye shal smyte all the stronge cities, and all ẏ chosen cities * & shal fell downe all the good trees, and stoppe all the welles of water and all the good feldes shall ye make waist with stones. C D Deu.20.c

On the morow, whan the meatofferynge is offered, beholde, there came water ẏ waye from Edom, and fylled ẏ londe with water.

But whan the Moabites herde, ỳ the kynges came vp to fighte agaynst thē, they called all ỳ harnessed men, & their rulers, & stode on ỳ border. And whan they rose early in ỳ mornynge, & the Sonne wēte vp vpon ỳ water, the Moabites thoughte the water ouer agaynst thē to be euē as reed as blonde, & they sayde: Jt is blonde, ỳ kynges hāue destroyed them selues wt the swerde, & one hath smytten another. Now Moab get the vp to the spoyles. But whan they came to the tentes of Jsrael, the Jsraelites gat vp, & smote the Moabites, & they fled before them.

E Neuertheles they came in, & smote Moab, & brake downe the cities, & euery one cast his stone vpon all the good feldes, and made them full, and stopped all ỳ welles of water, and felled downe all the good trees, tyll there remayned but the stones in the brickwall, and they compased them aboute with slynges, and smote them.

But whā the kynge of ỳ Moabites sawe ỳ the battayll was to strōge for him, he toke to him seuen C. men, which drue ỳ swerde, to fall vpon the kynge of Edom: neuertheles they were not able. Then toke he his first sonne, which shulde haue bene kynge in his steade, and offred him for a burntofferynge vpon the wall. Then came there a greate wrath ouer Jsrael, that they departed from him, and turned agayne in to their londe.

The IIII. Chapter.

A AND there cried a woman amōge the wyues of the prophetes children vnto Elisēus, and sayde: Thy seruaunt my husbāde is deed, and thou knowest that thy seruaunt feared the LORDE. Now commeth the man that he was detter vnto, and wyll take awaye both my children to be bonde seruauntes. Elisēus sayde vnto her: What shal J do for the? Tell me, what hast thou in the house? She sayde: Thy handmayden hath nothinge in the house but a pitcher wt oyle. He sayde: Go ỳ waye, borowe without of all thy neighboures emptye vessels, & that not a fewe, and go in, and shut ỳ dore behynde the with thy sonnes, and poure of it in to all ỳ vessels: & whan thou hast fylled them, delyuer them forth.

She wente, and shut the dore vnto her with hir sonnes, which brought her the vessels, and so she poured in. And whan the vessels were full, she sayde vnto hir sonne: Bringe me yet one vessell. He sayde vnto her: There is not one vessell more here. Then stode ỳ oyle styll. And she sent, and tolde the man of God. He sayde: Go thy waye, sell the oyle, and paye the creditour: but lyue thou and ỳ sonnes of the residue.

And it fortuned at ỳ same tyme, that Elisēus wente vnto Sunem. And there was a riche woman, which helde him to eate with her: & as he passed oft thorow ỳ waye, he went in vnto her: & ate wt her. And she sayde vnto hir husbande: Beholde, J perceaue that this is an holy man of God, which goeth ouer thorow this waye, let vs make hī a little chamber of boordes, & set a bed, a table, a stole & a candelsticke therin, that whan he commeth vnto vs, he maye resorte thither.

And it fortuned vpon a tyme, that he came in, & layed him downe in the chamber, & slepte therin. And he saide vnto Gehasi his childe: Call this womā of Sunem. And whā he had called her, she stode before him. He sayde vnto him: Speake thou vnto her, beholde, thou hast ministred vnto vs in all these thinges, what shal J do for the? Hast thou eny matter to be spoken for to the kynge, or to the chefe captayne of the hoost? She sayde: Jdwell amonge my people. He sayde: What hast thou then to do? Gehasi sayde: Alas, she hath no sonne, and hir husbāde is olde. He sayde: Call her. And whā he had called her, she stode at the dore. And he sayde: Aboute this tyme yf ỳ frute can lyue, thou shalt enbrace a sonne. She sayde: Alas, no my lorde, thou man of God, lye not vnto thy handmayden. And the woman conceaued, and bare a sonne aboute the same tyme, whā the frute coulde lyue, accordynge as Elisēus had sayde vnto her.

But whan ỳ childe was growne, it fortuned, ỳ he wente forth to his father vnto the reapers, & sayde vnto his father: Oh my heade, my heade. He saide vnto his seruaūt: Bringe him to his mother. And he toke him, and broughte him to his mother: and she set him vpon hir lappe vntyll ỳ noone daye, & then he dyed. And she wente vp, and layed him vpō the bed of the man of God, & shut the dore, and wēte forth, & called hir husbande, & sayde vnto him: Sende me one of the seruaūtes, and an Asse, J wyl go quyckly vnto the man of God, and come agayne. He sayde: Why wilt thou go vnto him? To daye is it neither new moone ner Sabbath. She sayde: Well. And she sadled the asse, & sayde to the yongman: dryue forth, and kepe me not bak with rydinge, and do as J byd the.

So she wente, and came to the man of God vnto mount Carmell. Whā the man of God sawe her ouer agaynst him, he sayde vnto his childe Gehasi: Beholde, the Sunamit tisse is there, runne now & mete her, and axe her yf it go well with her, and hir husbande & hir sonne. She sayde: Well. But whan she came to the man of God vpon ỳ mount, she helde him by his fete. And Gehasi stepte to her, to put her awaye. But ỳ man of God sayde: Let her alone, for hir soule is in heuynes, and the LORDE hath hyd it fro me, and not shewed it me. She sayde: Whan desyred I a sonne of my lorde? Sayde I not, ỳ thou shuldest not mocke me?

D He sayde vnto Gehasi: Girde vp thy loynes, and take my staffe in thy hande, and go thy waye. * Yf eny man mete the, salute him not: and yf eny man salute the, thanke him not, and laye thou my staffe vpon ỳ childes face. But the childes mother sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, and as truly as ỳ soule lyueth, I wyll not leave the. Then gat he vp, and wente after her. As for Gehasi, he wente before them, and layed the staffe vpon the childes face, but there was nether voyce ner felynge. And he wente agayne to mete him, and shewed him, and sayde: The childe is not rysen vp.

And whan Eliseus came into the house, beholde, ỳ childe laye deed vpō his bed. And he wēte in, & shut the doze on thē both, & made his prayer vnto the LORDE, & wente vp, & layed him selfe vpon the childe, & layed his mouth vpon the childes mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his handes, & so stretched him selfe forth vpon him, so ỳ the childes body was warme. And he rose vp, & wente in to the house once hither and thither, & wente vp, & layed him selfe a longe vpon him. Then nesed the childe seuē tymes, and afterwarde the childe opened his eyes. And he cried vpon Gehasi, and sayde: Call the Sunamitisse. And whan he had called her, she came in vnto him. He sayde: Take there thy sonne. Then came she, and fell at his fete, and wozshipped vnto the grounde, and toke hir sonne, and wente forth.

E But whā Eliseus came againe vnto Gilgal, there was a derth in the londe, & the prophetes childzen dwelt before him, & he sayde vnto his seruaunt: Set on a greate pot, and make potage for the childzen of the prophetes. Then wente there one into the felde, to gather herbes, and founde a Cucumbers stalke, & gathered wylde Cucumbers therof his cotefull. And whan he came, he chopped it small for potage to the pott, for they knewe it not. And whā they poured it forth for the mē to eate, & they ate of ỳ potage, they cried and sayde: O thou man of God, deathe is in the pot: for they mighte not eate it. Nevertheles he sayde: Bzynge meel hither. And he put it in the pot, & sayde: Poure it out for the people, that they maye eate. And then was it not bytter in the pot.

There came a man from Baal Salisa, & broughte the man of God bzed of the first frutes, namely twentye barlye loaues, & new come in his garment. But he sayde: Geue it vnto ỳ people, that they maye eate. His my nister sayde: * How shall I geue an hūdreth men of this? He sayde: Geue it vnto the people, that they maye eate. For thus sayeth the LORDE: They shal eate, and there shall be leste ouer. And he set it before them, so that they ate, and there leste ouer, acozdinge to ỳ worde of the LORDE. Ioh.6.a

The V. Chapter.

A NAaman the chefe captayne of the kynge of Syria, was an excellēt mā in the sighte of his lorde, and moch set by (for thorow him the LORDE gaue healthy vnto Syria) and he was a mightie man, but a leper. And there had men of warre fallen out of Syria, and caried awaye a litle damsel out of the londe of Israel: the same was in seruyce with Naamās wife, and sayde vnto hir mastresse: O that my master were with the prophet at Samaria, he wolde heale him from his lepzosy.

Then wente he in to his lorde, and tolde him, and sayde: Thus and thus hath the damsel of the londe of Israel spoken. The kynge of Syria sayde: Go thy waye then, & I wyl wrytte a letter vnto the kynge of Israel.

And he wente, and toke with him ten hundreth weighte of syluer, and sixe thousande guldens, & ten chaunge of rayment, & broughte the letter vnto the kynge of Israel, with these wordes:

Whan this letter commeth vnto the, beholde, thou shalt vnderstonde ỳ I haue sent my seruaunt Naaman vnto the, that thou mayest heale him of his lepzosy.

And whan the kynge of Israel red the letter, he rente his clothes, & sayde: Am I God then, that I can kyll and quyckē agayne, ỳ he sendeth vnto me, to heale the man frō his lepzosy? Considze and se, how he seketh an occasion vnto me.

Whan Eliseus the man of God herde, ỳ the kynge of Israel had rente his clothes, he sent vnto him, sayenge: Why hast thou rente thy clothes? Let him come to me, that he maye knowe, ỳ there is a prophet in Israel.

C So Naaman came with horses and charettes, and helde still at the doze of Eliseus house. Then sent Elisews a messaunger vnto him, sayenge: Go thy waye, and waß she the seuen tymes in Jordane, so shal thy flesh be restored the agayne, & be clensed. Then was Naaman wroth, & wente his waye, & sayde: I thoughte he shulde haue come forth vnto me, & to haue stode here & to haue called vpō the name of the LORDE his God, & to haue touched the place with his hande, & so to haue put awaye the leprosy. Are not ye waters of Amana and pharphar at Damascon better then all the waters in Jsrael, ye I might waß she me therin & be clēsed? and he turned him, and wēte his waye in displeasure. Then his seruauntes gat thē to him, and sayde: Father, yf the prophet had cōmaunded the eny greate thinge, shuldest thou not haue done it? moch more thē yf he saye vnto the: Waß she the, & thou shalt be cleane. Then wēte he downe, & waßhed him selfe in Jordane seuē tymes (as the man of God sayde) & his flesh was restored him agayne, euen as the flesh

Luc. 4 c of a yonge childe. * and he was clensed.

D And he turned agayne to ye man of God with all his armye. And whan he came in, he stode before him, and sayde: Beholde, I knowe that in all londes there is no God, but in Jsrael. Take now therfore this blessynge I praye the of thy seruaunt. Neuertheles he sayde: * As truly as the LORDE ly
1. Re. 17 b Dan. 3. d ueth, before whom I stonde, I wil not take it. And he wolde nedes haue him to take it, but he wolde not. Then sayde Naaman: Mighte there not a burthē of this earth be geuē vnto ye seruaunt, as moch as two Mules maye beare? For thy seruaunt wyll nomore do sacrifice and offer burntofferynges vnto other goddes, but vnto the LORDE, That the LORDE maye be gracious vnto thy seruaunt, yf I worshippe in the house of Rimmon, whā my lorde goeth there in to ye house to worshippe, & leaneth vpon my hande. He sayde vnto him: Go thy waye in peace.

And as he was gone frem him a felde bredth in the londe, Gehasi the seruaunt of Elisews ye man of God thoughte: beholde, my lorde hath spared Naamā this Syrian, so that he hath not taken from him ye which he broughte: As truly as ye LORDE lyueth, I wil rūne after him, & take somthinge of him.

E So Gehasi folowed Naaman. And whā Naaman sawe ye he ranne after him, he lighte downe from the charet to mete him, & sayde: Are all thinges well? He sayde: Yee. But my lorde hath sent me, & caused to saye vnto the: Beholde, there are now come to me fro mount Ephraim two yonge men of the prophetes childrē, geue them a talēte of syluer (I praye the) & two chaunge of rayment. Naamā saide: Go to, take two talētes. And he cōpelled him, & bande two talentes in two bagges, and two chaunge of rayment, and delyuered it vnto two of his seruauntes, which bare it before him. And whan he came in ye darcke, he toke it from their handes, & layed it a syde in the house, & let the men go.

And whan they were gone their waye, he stode before his lorde. And Elisews sayde vnto him: Whence commest thou Gehasi? He sayde: Thy seruaunt wente nether hither nor thither. But he sayde vnto him: Went not my hert wt the, whan the man turned backe from his charet to mete the? Now thou hast takē the syluer & the rayment, olyue trees, vynyardes, shepe, oxen, seruauntes & maydens. But the leprosy of Naaman shal cleue vnto the & to thy sede for euer. * Then wēte he forth from him leporous as snowe.

The VI. Chapter.

The children of ye prophetes sayde vnto Elisews: Beholde, the place where we dwell before ye, is to narow for vs, let vs go vnto Jordane, & euery one fetch tymbre there, ye we maye there buylde vs a place to dwell in. He saide: Go yo waye. And one sayde: Go to then, & come wt thy seruauntes. He sayde: I wil go with you. And he wēte with them. And whan they came to Jordane, they hewed downe tymber. And as one was fellynge downe a tre, the yron fell in to the water, and he cried and sayde: Alas my lorde, & it is borowed. But the man of God sayde: Where fell it in? And whan he had shewed him the place, he cut downe a sticke, and thrust it in there. Then swām the yron. And he sayde: Take it vp. So he put forth his hande, and toke it.

And the kynge of Syria warred agaynst Jsrael, and toke councell at his seruauntes, and sayde: There & there will we lye. But the man of God sent to ye kynge of Jsrael, sayenge: Bewarre ye thou go not vnto that place, for the Syrians rest there. So the kynge of Jsrael sent vnto ye place wherof ye man of God tolde him, & kepte it, & helde watch there, & dyd that not once or twyse onely.

Thē was ye kynge of Syria herte vexed therfore, and called his seruauntes, and sayde vnto them: Wyll ye not tell me, which of oure men is fled vnto the kynge of Jsrael? Then sayde one of his seruauntes: Nor so my lorde O kynge, but Elisews the prophet in Jsrael telleth the kynge of Jsrael all that thou speakest in thy chamber when thou lyest. He sayde: Go youre waye thē and loke where he is, that I maye sende, and cause him be fetched. And they shewed him and sayde: Beholde, he is at Dothan. Thē sent he thither horses & charettes, & a greate power. And whā they came thither by nyghte, they compassed the cite aboute. And the mynister of the mā of God arose early to get him vp. And as he wēte forth, beholde, there laye an hoost of men aboute ỳ cite with horses and charettes.

D Then saide his childe vnto him: Alas syr, how wyll we nowdo? He sayde: * Feare not, for there are mo of them ỳ are with vs, then of those that are with them. And Eliseus prayed & sayde: LORDE open his eyes, ỳ he maye se. Then the LORDE opened ỳ childes eyes, ỳ he sawe, & beholde, ỳ mount was full of fyre horses & charettes rounde aboute Eliseus. And whā they came downe vnto him, Eliseus made his prayer, & sayde: LORDE smyte this people wt blyndnes. * And he smote thē with blyndnes accordinge to the worde of Eliseus. And Eliseus saide vnto them: This is not ỳ waye nor the cite, folowe me, I wil bringe you to the man whom ye seke. And he broughte them vnto Samaria.

E And whan they came to Samaria, Eliseus sayde: LORDE open these mens eyes, ỳ they maye se. And the LORDE opened their eyes, ỳ they sawe, & beholde, they were in the myddes of Samaria. And whan the kynge of Israel sawe them, he saide vnto Eliseus: My father, shal I smyte thē? He saide: Thou shalt not smyte thē: loke whom thou takest with thy swerde and bowe, smyte those. Set bred and water before them, that they maye eate and drynke, and let them departe vnto their lorde. Thē was there a greate dyner prepared. And whan they had eaten and dronken, he let them go to departe vnto their lorde. From that tyme forth came the men of warre of the Syrians nomore into the londe of Israel.

F After this it fortuned, that Benadab the kynge of Syria gathered all his hoost, and wēte vp, & layed sege vnto Samaria: & there was a greate derth at Samaria. But they layed sege to the cite so longe, tyll an Asses heade was worth foure score syluer pēs, and the fourth parte of a * Cab of doues donge worth fyue syluer pens. And whan the kynge of Israel wente vnto the wall, a woman cried vnto him and sayde: Helpe me my lorde O kynge. He sayde: Yf the LORDE helpe the not, wherwith shal I helpe the? with ỳ barne or with the wyne presse? And the kynge sayde vnto her: What ayleth ỳ? She sayde: This woman sayde vnto me: Geue vs ỳ sonne, that we maye eate him, tomorow wyll we eate my sonne. So we sod my sonne, & haue eaten him, and I sayde vnto her on ỳ thirde daye: Geue vs thy sonne and let vs eate him, but she hath hyd him awaye.

Whan the kynge herde the womans wordes, he rente his clothes, whyle he was goynge to the wall. Thē sawe all the people, that he had a sackcloth vnder vpon his body. G And he sayde: * God do this and that vnto me, yf the heade of Eliseus the sonne of Saphat shal this daye stonde vpon him. As for Eliseus, he sat in his house, & the Elders sat by him. And he sent a man before him, but or euer the messaunge came to him, he sayde vnto ỳ Elders: Haue ye not sene how this childe of murthure hath sent hither, to take awaye my heade? Take hede, whan the messaunger cōmeth, ỳ ye holde him at the dore. Beholde, ỳ noyse of his lordes fete foloweth him. Whyle he was thus talkynge wt them, beholde, ỳ messaunger came to him, & sayde: Beholde, this euell cōmeth of ỳ LORDE, and what more shal I loke for of the LORDE?

1. Re. 19. and 20. b

The VII. Chapter.

Eliseus sayde: Heare the worde of the LORDE. Thus sayeth the LORDE: A * Tomorow aboute this tyme shal a bußshel of fyne meel be solde for one Sycle, and two bußshels of barly for one Sycle vnder the porte of Samaria. Then a knyghte (vpon whose hande the kynge leaned) answered the mā of God, and sayde: And though the LORDE made wyndowes in heauē, how coulde soch a thinge come to passe? He saide: Beholde, thou shalt se it with thine eyes, & shalt not eate therof.

4. Re. 7. c

And there were foure leporous men at ỳ dore before the porte, and one sayde vnto another: Why tary we here whyle we dye? Though we thoughte to come in to the cite, yet is there derth in ỳ cite, and there shulde we be fayne to dye. And yf we tary here, we must dye also. Let vs go now, and flye vnto the hoost of the Syrians. Yf they let vs lyue, we shall lyue: yf they slaye vs, then are we deed. And so they gat them vp early, to come vnto the hoost of the Syrians. And whan they came to the vtermost ende of ỳ tentes, beholde, there was no body.

* For the LORDE had made the Syrians B to heare a noyse of horses, charettes, and of a mightie greate hoost, so that they sayde one to another amonge thē selues: Beholde, the kynge of Israel hath hyred the kynge of the Hethites, and the kynge of the Egipcians agaynst vs, to come vpō vs. And they gat them vp, and fled early in the twylight, and leste their bothes, and horses and Asses in the tentes as they stode, & fled every man where he mighte saue his life.

C Now whan the lepers came to the place of the tentes, they wente in to the tentes, ate and dronke, and toke syluer, golde and rayment, and wente and hyd it: & came agayne & entred in to another tent, and toke therout, and wente and hyd it. But one of them saide vnto another: Let vs not do thus, this daye is a daye of good tidynges. Yf we kepe this secrete and byde tyll the lighte mornynge, oure trespace wyl be founde out. Let vs go now therfore, that we maye come, & tell the kynges house.

And whan they came, they cried at the porte of the cite, and tolde them, and sayde: We came to the tentes of the Sirians, and beholde, there is no mā there, nether yet eny mans voyce, but horses and asses bounde, and the bothes as they stonde. Then cried ỳ porters and tolde it within in ỳ kynges house. And the kynge arose in the nighte, & sayde vnto his seruauntes: I will tell you how ỳ Syrians deale with vs: they knowe ỳ we suffer honger, and are gone out of the tētes, to hyde them selues in the selde, and thynke thus: whan they go out of the cite, we wyll take them alyue, & come in to the cite. Then answered one of his seruauntes, and sayde: Let vs take the fyue horses that remayne, which yet are leste in the cite (beholde, these are left therin for all ỳ multitude in Israel, which is destroyed) let vs sende these and se. Thē toke they two charettes with ỳ horses. And the kynge sent them vnto the tentes of the Syrians, and sayde: Go youre waye and se.

D And whan they wente after thē vnto Jordane, beholde, the waye laye full of garmentes and vessels, which the Syrians had cast from thē, whyle they made haist. And whan the messaungers came agayne, and tolde the kynge, the people wente forth, and spoyled the tentes of the Syrians. And a buſshel of fyne meell was solde for a Sycle, and two
4. Re. 7 a buſshels of barlye for a Sycle also, * acordinge to the worde of the LORDE. But the kynge appoynted the knyghte (vpon whose hande he leened) to be at the gate, & the people trode vpon him, so that he dyed, euen as the man of God sayde, whan the kynge came downe vnto him. And it came to passe euen as ỳ man of God tolde the kynge, whā he sayde: Tomorow aboute this tyme shall two buſshels of barlye be solde for one Sycle, and a buſshel of fyne meel for one Sycle vnder the gate at Samaria. And the knyghte answered the man of God, and sayde: Beholde, though ỳ LORDE made wyndowes in heaven, how coulde soch a thynge come to passe: Neuertheles he sayde: Beholde, with thine eyes shalt thou se it, and shalt not taste therof. And euen so fortuned it vnto him, for the people trode vpon him in the gate, & he dyed.

The VIII. Chapter.

ELiseus spake vnto the womā, whose sonne he had restored vnto life agayne, and sayde: Get the vp, & go with thine housholde, and be a straunger where thou canst: for the LORDE shall call for derth, which shal come in to the londe seuen yeare lōge. The woman gat her vp, and dyd as the man of God sayde, & wente with hir housholde, and was a straunger in the londe of the Philistynes seuen yeare. But whan the seuen yeares were ended, the woman came agayne out of the Philistynes lōde, and wente forth to crye vpon the kynge for hir house and londe. The kynge spake vnto Gehasi the seruaunt of the man of God, & sayde: Tell me all the greate actes that Eliseus hath done. And whyle he was tellynge the kynge how he had made one that was dead, to lyue agayne, beholde, the woman whose sonne he had caused to reuyue, came euen in the meane season, and cried vnto the kynge for hir house and londe. Then sayde Gehasi: My lorde O kynge, this same is the womā, and this is hir sonne, whom Eliseus restored vnto life agayne. And the kynge axed ỳ woman, and she tolde him. Then the kynge delyuered her a chamberlayne, & saide: Restore her agayne all that is hirs, and all the increase of the londe, sence the tyme that she leste the londe vntyll now.

* And Eliseus came to Damascon, & Benadab the kynge of Syria laye sicke. And it was tolde him, and sayde: The man of God is come hither. Then sayde the kynge vnto Hasael: Take giftes with the, & go mete the man of God, and axe councell at ỳ LORDE by him, and saye: Maye I recouer from this sickneſſe? Hasael wente for to mete him, and toke rewardes with him, and of all the goodes at Damascō, as moch as forty Camels mighte beare. And whan he came, he stode before him, and sayde: Thy sonne Benadab the kynge of Syria hath sent me vnto the, sayenge: Maye I recouer from this sickne-

Eliseus sayde vnto him: Go ẏ waye and tell him: Thou shalt recouer. But the LORDE hath shewed me, ẏ he shal dye ẏ death. And the man of God loked earnestly, & made a troublous countenaunce, & wepte. Thē sayde Hasael: Wherfore wepeth my lorde? He sayde: I knowe what euell thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel. Thou shalt burne their stronge cities with fyre, and slaye their yonge men with the swerde, and kyll their yonge children, and ryppe vp their wemen with childe.

C Hasael sayde: How so, is thy seruaunt a dogg, that he shulde do soch a greate thynge? Eliseus saide: The LORDE hath shewed me, ẏ thou shalt be kynge of Syria. And he wēte his waye from Eliseus, & came to his lorde, which saide vnto him: What saieth Eliseus vnto the? He sayde: He tolde me, Thou shalt recouer. But on the nexte daye he toke ẏ bed couerynge, and dypte it in water, and spred it ouer him, and he dyed, & Hasael was kynge in his steade.

In the fyfth yeare of Joram the sonne of Achab kynge of Israel, was Joram ẏ sonne of Josaphat kynge of Juda. Two & thirtie yeare olde was he whā he was made kynge, & reigned eighte yeare at Jerusalem, & walked in the waye of the kynges of Israel, as the house of Achab dyd (for Achabs doughter was his wife) & he dyd ẏ which was euell in ẏ sighte of the LORDE. Neuerthelesse the LORDE wolde not destroye Juda for his seruaunt Dauids sake, as he promysed him, to geue him euer a lanterne amōge his childrē.

At ẏ same tyme fell ẏ Edomites awaye from Juda, & made a kynge ouer them selues: ẏ cause was this, Joram had gone thorow Seira, and all the charettes with him, & had gotten him vp by nighte, and smytten the Edomites that were aboute him, and ẏ rulers ouer the charettes, so that the people fled vnto their tentes: therfore fell the Edomites awaye from Juda vnto this daye. At the same tyme fell Libna awaye also.

What more there is to saye of Joram, & all ẏ he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And Joram fell on slepe with his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in ẏ cite of Dauid. & Ochosias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

In the twolneth yeare of Joram the sonne of Achab kynge of Israel, was Ochosias ẏ sonne of Joram kynge in Juda. Two and twentye yeare olde was Ochosias whan he was made kynge, and reigned one yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Atalia the doughter of Amri kynge of Israel, & he walked in the waye of the house of Achab, & dyd that which was euell in the syght of ẏ LORDE, euen as dyd the house of Achab: for he was sonne in lawe in the house of Achab. And he wente with Joram the sonne of Achab in to the battayll agaynst Hasael ẏ kinge of Syria vnto Ramoth in Gilead, but ẏ Syrians smote Joram. Then Joram the kinge turned backe, to be healed at Jesreel of ẏ woundes, wherwith the Syrians had wounded him at Ramoth, whā he foughte with Hasael kinge of Syria. And Ochosyas ẏ sonne of Joram kinge of Juda, came downe to viset Joram the sonne of Achab at Jesreel, for he laye sicke. 4.Re.9.

The IX. Chapter.

A LIseus the prophet called one of the prophetes childrē, & sayde vnto him: Girde vp ẏ loynes, and take this cruse of oyle with the, and go vnto Ramoth in Gilead: and whā thou cōmest thither, thou shalt se there one Jehu, ẏ sonne of Josaphat the sonne of Nimsi, and go in, and byd him stonde vp amonge his brethren, and brynge him in to the ynmost chamber, & take thou ẏ cruse of oyle, and poure it vpon his heade, & saye: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I haue anoynted the to be kynge ouer Israel: & thou shalt open the dore, and flye, and not tary. And the prophetes yonge man, the childe wente his waye vnto Ramoth in Gilead. And whan he came in, beholde, the captaynes of the hoost sat there, and he sayde: I haue somwhat to saye vnto the O captayne. Jehu saide: Vnto wchom amonge vs all? He sayde: Euen vnto the o captayne. 4.Re.4. 2.Re.19.

Then stode he vp, and wente in. So he B poured the oyle vpon his heade, and sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: I haue anoynted ẏ to be kynge ouer the LORDES people of Israel, and thou shalt smyte thy lorde Achabs house, that I maye auenge the bloude of my seruauntes the prophetes, and the bloude of all the LORDES seruauntes, from the hande of Jesabel, that all the house of Achab maye perisshe. And I wyl rote out from Achab, euen him that maketh water agaynst the wall, and the closed vp and the desolate in Israel: and the house of Achab wyll I make euen as the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, and as the house of Baesa the sonne of Ahia, and ẏ dogges shall eate vp Jesabel vpon the felde at Jesreel, and noman shall burye her. And he opened the dore, and fled. 2.Re.21. 1.Re.15. 3.Re.14. 2.Re.21.

And whā Jehu came forth to his lordes C seruauntes, they saide vnto him: Are all thin ges well? Wherfore came this madd felowe vnto the? He saide vnto them: Ye knowe the man well, & what he hath spoken. They sayde: That is not true, but tell thou vs. He sayde: Thus and thus hath he spoken vnto me, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: I haue anoynted the to be kynge ouer Israel. Then made they haist, and euery one toke his garment and laied them vnder him in maner of a iudges seate, and blewe the trompet, and sayde: Jehu is made kinge. So Jehu the sonne of Josaphat the sonne of Nimsi, made a confederacion agaynst Joram. As for Joram he laye before Ramoth in Gilead with all Israel agaynst Hasael the kynge of Syria.

.Re. 8. d * But Joram the kynge was turned backe, ỹ he might be healed of the woundes wher with the Syrians had wounded him, whā he foughte with Hasael the kynge of the Syrians.

D And Jehu sayde: Yf it be youre mynde, there shall noman escape out of the cite, to go and tell it at Jesreel. And he rode, and departed vnto Jesrael: for Joram laye there, and Ochosias the kinge of Juda was come downe to vyset Joram. But the watchman that stode vpon the tower at Jesrael, sawe the company of Jehu commynge, and sayde: I se a company. Then sayde Joram: Take a charet, and sende to mete thē, and saye: Is it peace? And the charetman rode to mete them, and sayde: Thus sayeth the kynge: Is it peace? Jehu sayde: What hast thou to do with peace? Turne the behynde me. The watchman tolde it, and sayde: The messaunger is come vnto them, and cōmeth not agayne. Then sent he another charetman, which whan he came to them, saide: Thus sayeth the kynge: Is it peace? Jehu sayde: What hast thou to do with peace? Turne ỹ behynde me.

E And the watchman tolde it, and sayde: He is come to them: and commeth not agayne, and the goynge is as it were the goynge of Jehu the sonne of Nimsi: for he dryueth on as he were mad. Then sayde Joram: Binde the charet fast. And they bounde the charet, and so they wente forth, Joram the kynge of Israel, and Ochosias the kynge of Juda, euery one vpon his charet, to mete Jehu. And they founde him vpon the felde of Naboth the Jesraelite. And whan Joram sawe Jehu, he sayde: Jehu, is it peace? But he sayde: What peace? The whordome and witch craft of thy mother Jesabel is not yet come to an ende.

Then turned Joram his hande and fled, and sayde vnto Ochosias: There is treason Ochosias. But Jehu toke his bowe, & shot Joram betwene the armes, that the arowe wente thorow his hert, and he fell downe in his charet. And Jehu sayde vnto Bidkar the knyghte: Take and cast him in the pece of londe of Naboth the Jesraelite: for Inmembre sence thou rodest with me in a charet after Achab his father, that the LORDE wolde laye this heuy burthen vpon him. I holde (sayde the LORDE) I wyl recompence the ỹ bloude of Naboth and of his childrē, euen in this pece of londe. Take him now and cast him in to that pece of londe, * accordynge to the worde of the LORDE.

Whan Ochosias the kinge of Juda sawe this, he fled by the waie vnto ỹ garden house. But Jehu folowed after him, and commaunded to smyte him also vpon his charet in the goynge vp towarde Gur, which lieth by Jeblaam: and he fled vnto Megiddo, and dyed there. And his seruauntes caused him to be caried vnto Jerusalem, and there they buryed him in his awne graue with his fathers in the cite of David. Ochosias reigned ouer Juda in ỹ eleuenth yeare of Joram ỹ sonne of Achab. And whan Jehu came to Jesrael, and Jesabel herde therof, she coloured hir face, and decked hir heade, and loked out at the wyndowe. And whan Jehu came vnder the gate, she sayde: * Prospered Symri well that slewe his lorde?

And he lifte vp his face to the wyndow, and sayde: Who is with me? Then resorted there two or three chamberlaynes vnto him. He sayde: Cast her downe headlinges. And they cast her downe headlynges, so that ỹ wall and the horses were sprenkled with hir bloude, and she was troddē vnder fete. And whan he came in, and had eaten and dronken, he sayde: Loke vpon yonder cursed woman, & burye her, * for she is a kynges doughter. Neuertheles whan they wente in to burye her, they founde nothinge of her, but the ßkull and the fete, and the palmes of her handes. And they came agayne and broughte him worde. He saide: This is euen it that the LORDE spake by his seruaunt Elias the Thesbite, and sayde: In the felde of Jesrael shal the dogges eate Jesabels flesh. So the deed carcase of Jesabel became euen as donge in the felde of Jesrael, so ỹ a man coulde not saye: This is Jesabel.

The X. Chapter.

Achab had three score and ten sonnes at Samaria. And Jehu wrote a letter, and sent it to Samaria, vnto the rulers of the cite Jesrael, euen vnto the Elders, & to Achabs tuters, sayenge these wordes: Whan this letter commeth vnto you wh whom are youre lordes sonnes, charetes, horses, stronge cities, & ordynaunce, loke which is the best and most righteous amonge youre lordes sonnes, & set him vpon his fathers seate, and fighte for youre lordes house.

Neuertheles they were sore afrayed, and sayde: Beholde, two kynges were not able to stonde before him, how wyl we then endure? And they that were ouer the house and ouer the cite, and the Elders and tuters sent vnto Jehu, sayenge: We are thy seruauntes, we wyll do all that thou sayest vnto vs: We wil make no man kynge, do thou what pleaseth the. Then wrote he the seconde letter vnto them with these wordes: Yf ye be myne, and herken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men youre lordes sonnes, and bringe me them tomorow by this tyme vnto Jesrael.

B The kynges sonnes were thre score men and ten, and ỳ chefe men of the cite brought thē vp. Now whan this letter came they toke the kynges sonnes, and slewe them euen thre score men and ten, and layed their heades in baskettes, and sent them to him vnto Jesrael. And whan the messaunger came, & tolde him, and sayde: They haue broughte the heades of the kynges children. he sayde: Laye them vpon two heapes at the dore of the porte tyll tomorow.

And on the morow whan he wente forth, he stode, and sayde vnto all the people: Are ye righteous? Beholde, I haue made an appoyntmēt against my lorde, and slayne him, who hath slayne all these then? Understonde ye now therfore, that there is not fallen vpon the earth one worde of the LORDE, which he spake agaynst the house of Achab: and the LORDE hath done, euen * as he sayde by his seruaunt Elias. So Jehu smote all the remnaunt of the house of Achab at Jesrael, all his greate men, his kynssolkes, and his prestes, tyll there was not one lefte ouer. And he gat him vp, wente his waye, and came to Samaria.

C Bythe waye there was a shepherdes house, where Jehu founde the brethren of Ochosias kynge of Juda, and sayde: Whence are ye? They sayde: We are Ochosias brethren, and are goynge downe to salute the kynges children, and the quenes children. He sayde: Take them alyue. And they toke them alyue, and slewe them by the welles syde at the shepherdes house, euen two and fortye men, and let not one of them remayne.

And whan he wente from thence, he folde Jonadab ỳ sonne of Rechab, which met him, & saluted him. And he sayde vnto him: Is thyne hert righte, as myne hert is with thyne hert? Jonadab sayde: Yee. Yf it be so (sayde he) then geue me thy hande. And he gaue him his hande. And so he caused him to syt beside him in the charet, and saide: Cō me with me, and se my zele for the LORDE. And they caryed him with him vpon his charet. And whan he came to Samaria, he smote all that remayned of Achab at Samaria, tyll he had destroyed him, acordynge to the worde of the LORDE, * which he spake vnto Elias. 3.Re.21.c

And Jehu gathered all the people together, and saide vnto them: * Achab did Baal but litle seruyce, Jehu wyll serue him better. Call vnto me now therfore all Baals prophetes, all his seruaūtes and all his prestes, that there be none wantynge, for I haue a greate sacrifyce to do vnto Baal. Who so euer is myssed, shal not lyue. But Jehu dyd it craftely, that he mighte destroye all the mynisters of Baal. And Jehu sayde: Sanctifie ỳ feast vnto Baal, and proclame it. And Jehu sent in to all Jsrael, and caused all Baals ministers to come, so that there was nemā lefte behynde, which came not. And they came into Baals house, so that the house of Baal was full from one corner to another. D 3.Re.16.c

Then sayde he vnto him that had the rule of the vestrye. Bringe forth rayment for all Baals mynisters. And he broughte forth the rayment. And Jehu wente in to Baals house with Jonadab the sonne of Rechab, and sayde vnto Baals mynisters: Search and se that there be not here amōge you eny mynyster of the LORDE, but onely Baals mynisters.

And whan they came in to offer sacrifyces and burntofferynges, Jehu appoynted him foure score men without, & sayde: Yf eny of these men escape whom I delyuer vnder E youre handes, then shal the same mans soule be for his soule. Now whā he had made an ende of the burntofferynge, Jehu sayde vnto the fotemen and knyghtes: Go in, & smyte euery man, let noman go forth. And they smote thē with the edge of the swerde. And the fote men and knyghtes threw thē awaie and wēte vnto the cite of Baals house, and brought forth the piler in ỳ house of Baal, and brent it, and brake downe Baals pyler with the house of Baal, and made a preuy house therof vnto this daie. Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Jsrael. But Jehu lefte not of from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat (which caused Jsrael to synne) namely, from the golden calues at Bethel and at Dan. And the LORDE sayde vnto Jehu: Because thou hast bene wyllinge to do that which was righte in my sighte, & hast 3.Re.15.b done vnto Achabs house all that was in my hert, * therfore shall thy children syt vpon ỳ seate of Jsrael vnto the fourth generacion.

F Neuertheless Jehu was not diligent to walke in the lawe of the LORDE God of Jsrael with all his hert: for he lefte not of frō the synnes of Jeroboam which made Jsrael to synne. At the same time beganne the LOR
3.Re.8.a DE to be greued at Jsrael. * For Hasael smote them in all the borders of Jsrael from Jordane Eastwarde, and all the londe Gilead of the Gaddites, Rubenites and Manassytes, from Aroer that lyeth on the ryuer by Arnon, and Gilead and Basan.

What more there is to saye of Jehu, and all that he dyd, and all his power, beholde, it is wryten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Jsrael. And Jehu fell on slepe with his fathers, & they buryed him in Samaria. And Joahas his sonne was kynge in his steade. The tyme that Jehu reigned ouer Jsrael, is eight and twentye yeares at Samaria.

The XI. Chapter.

A Athalia the mother of Ochosias, whā
4.Pa.22.d she sawe that hir sonne was deed, gat her vp, and destroyed all the kynges sede. But Josēba kynge Jorams doughter the syster of Ochosias, toke Joas the sonne of Ochosias and stale him awaye with his norse in the chamber from amonge the kynges children which were slayne, and she hyd him from Athalia, so that he was not slayne. And he was hyd with her in the house of the LORDE sixe yeares. But Athalia was quene in the londe.

Pa.24.a Neuertheles in the seuenth yeare sent Joiada, and toke the rulers ouer hūdreds with the captaynes and fote men, and caused thē to come to him in to the house of the LORDE and made a couenaunt with them, and toke an ooth of them in the house of the LORDE, and shewed them the kynges sonne, and cōmaunded them, and sayde: This is it that ye shall do: One thirde parte of you which enter on the Sabbath, shall kepe the watch in the kynges house, and one thyrde parte shal be at the porte of Sur, and one thirde parte shal be at ỳ porte which is behynde the fote men, and ye shal kepe the watch at the house of Massa. But two partes of you all that D go of on the Sabbath, shal kepe the watch in the house of the LORDE aboute the kinge and ye shall get you rounde aboute ỳ kynge and euery one with his weapen in his hande: and who so euer cōmeth within ỳ wall, let him die, so that ye be with the kinge, whā he goeth out and in.

And the rulers ouer the hundreds dyd all 4.Pa as Joiada the preist had commaūded them, and toke vnto them their men which entred vpon the Sabbath, with those that went of on the Sabbath, and came to Joiada ỳ preist. And the preist gaue the captaynes speares and shyldes which had bene kynge Dauids, and were in the house of the LORDE. And the fote men stode aboute the kynge, euery one with his weapen in his hande, frō the corner on the righte syde of the house vnto the corner of the lefte syde, euen vnto the altare and to the house. And he brought forth the kynges sonne, and set a crowne vpon his heade, and toke the * witnes, and made him kynge, and they were glad, and clapped their handes together, and sayde: God saue the kynge.

C * And whan Athalia herde the noyse of 4.Pa the people that ranne rogether, she came to the people in to the house of the LORDE, and loked, and beholde, the kynge stode by the piler, as the vse was, and the syngers and trōpettes by the kynge: and all the people of ỳ lōde were glad, and blewe with trompettes. But Athalia rente hir clothes, & sayde: Vproure, vproure. Neuertheles Joiada ỳ preist commaunded ỳ rulers ouer hundreds, which were appointed ouer the hooste, and saide vnto them: Bringe her without the wall, and whosoeuer foloweth hir, let him dye of the swerde (for the preist had sayde, that she shulde not dye in the house of the LORDE.) And they layde handes vpō her, and she wente in by the waye where the horses go in to ỳ kynges house, and there was she slayne.

D Then made Joiada a couenaunt betwene the LORDE and the kynge, and the people, ỳ they shulde be the people of the LORDE. Lykewyse also betwixte the kynge and ỳ people. Then wente all the people of the londe in to the house of Baal, and brake downe his altares, and destroyed his ymages right well. And Mathan the preest of Baal slewe they before the altare: And the preest appoynted the officers in the house of the LORDE, and toke the rulers ouer hundreds, and the captaynes, and the sote men, and all ỳ people of the londe, & broughte the kynge downe from the house of the LORDE, and came the waye from the porte of the sote men vnto the kynges house, and he sat vpon the kynges seate. And all the people of the lõde were glad, and the cite was at rest. As for Athalia, they slewe her with the swerde in ỳ kynges house. And Joas was seuen yeare olde, whan he was made kynge.

The XII. Chapter.

A 4.Re.12.a IN the seuẽth yeare of Jehu, was Joas made kynge, and reigned fortye yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Zibea of Bersaba. And Joas dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, as longe as Joiada ỳ preest taught him. But they put not downe ỳ hye places: for the people offred & brent incense yet vpon the hye places.

And Joas sayde vnto the preestes: All the money that is sanctified to be bestowed vpõ ỳ house of the LORDE, namely the money ỳ euery man geueth vnto the treasury, and ỳ money that euery man geueth for his soule, and all the money that euery man geueth of a fre hert, to be bestowed on the house of the LORDE, let the preestes take it vnto them, euery one his porcion: with that shall they repayre the decaye in the house of the LORDE, where they fynde that there is eny decaye.

But whan ỳ preestes repayred not the decaye in the house vnto the thre and twẽtieth yeare of kynge Joas, Joas the kynge called Joiada the preest with the other preestes, and sayde vnto them: Wherfore do ye not repayre the decaye in the house?

B Therfore shall ye not take the money vnto you now euery one his porcion, but shall gene it to the decaye of the house. And the preestes agreed to take no money of the people, and to repayre the decaye of the house.

Then Joiada the preest toke a chest, and bored an hole aboue therin, and set it on the righte hande beside the altare, at the entrynge in to the house of the LORDE. And the preestes that kepte the threshold, put all the money therin that was broughte vnto the house of the LORDE. Whan they sawe then that there was moch money in the chest, * ỳ 4.Re.12.a kynges scrybe came vp with the hye preest, and bounde the money together, and tolde it as moch as was founde in the house of the LORDE. And so the ready money was geuen vnto them that wrought and were appoynted to the house of the LORDE, and they gaue it forth to the carpenters and to thẽ that buylded and wroughte in the house of the C LORDE, namely, to the dawbers and masons, and to them that boughte tymber and fre stone, to repayre the decaye in the house of the LORDE and all that they founde to haue nede of repayringe in the house.

Howbeit there were no syluer chargers, flat peces, basens, trompettes, ner eny other vessell of golde and syluer made on the house of the LORDE, of the money that was brought vnto the LORDES house: but it was geuen vnto the workmen to repayre the decaye in the house of the LORDE therwith. The men also that the money was delyuered vnto, for to geue the workmen, neded not to make eny acomptes, but did their busynes vpon credence. But the money of trespace offerynges and synneofferynges was not broughte vnto the house of the LORDE: for it was the preestes.

At the same tyme wente Hasael the kyn/ D of Syria vp, and foughte agaynst Gath, and wanne it. And whan Hasael set his face to go vp to Jerusalem, kynge Joas toke all that was sanctifyed, which his fathers Josaphat, Joram and Ochosias the kynges of Juda had halowed, and what he himselfe had sanctifyed, and all the golde that was founde in the treasures of the house of the LORDE, and in the kynges house, and sent it vnto Hasael the kynge of Syria. And so he departed from Jerusalem.

What more there is to saye of Joas, and all that he dyd, it is written in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And his seruauntes made insurreccion and conspyred, and smote him in the house of Millo, at the goynge downe vnto Silla. For Josebar the sonne of Simeath, and Josabad the sonne of Somer his seruauntes smote him to death: and he was buried with his fathers in the cite of Dauid. And Amasias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XIII. Chapter.

IN ỳ XXIII. yeare of Joas the sonne of A Ochosias kynge of Juda, was Joahas the sonne of Jehu kynge ouer

Israel at Samaria, seuentene yeare: & dyd ẏ which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked after the sinnes of Jeroboam ẏ sonne of Nebat (which caused Israel to synne) and lefte not of from them. And ẏ wrath of the LORDE ware whote vpon Israel, & he delyuered them ouer vnder the hande of Hasael kynge of Syria, and vnder the hande of Benadad the sonne of Hasael, as longe as they lyued.

And Joahas besoughte the face of the LORDE. And the LORDE herde him, for he consydered the myserie of Israel, how the kynge of Syria oppressed them. And ẏ LORDE gaue Israel a sauioure, which broughte them out of the power of the Syrians, so ẏ the children of Israel dwelt in their tentes, like as afore tyme.

B Yet lefte they not from the synnes of the house of Jeroboam, which caused Israel to synne, but walked in them. The groue at Samaria stode styll also. For of the people of Joahas there were no mo lefte, but fyftye horsmen, ten charettes, and ten thousande fote men: * for the kynge of Syria had destroyed them, and made them as the dust in the barne.

What more there is to saye of Joahas, and all that he dyd, and his power, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. And Joahas fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, & Joas his sonne was kinge in his steade.

C In the seuen and thirtieth yeare of Joas kynge of Juda, was Joas the sonne of Joahas kynge ouer Israel at Samaria sixtene yeare. And he dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and departed not from all the synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel for to synne, but walked in them. What more there is to saye of Joas, and what he dyd, & his power, how he foughte with Amasias kynge of Juda, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. And Joas fell on slepe with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat vpō his seate. And Joas was buried in Samaria wt the kynges of Israel.

As for Eliseus, he fell in to a sickenes, wher of he dyed. And Joas the kynge of Israel came downe vnto him, and wepte for him, and saide: My father, my father, the charet man of Israel, and his horsmen. Eliseus sayde vnto him: Take the bowe and the arowes And whan he had taken the bowe and the arowes, he sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: Bende the bowe with thine hande. And he

D bent it with his hāde. And Eliseus layed his hande vpon the kynges hande, and saide: Open that wyndowe towarde the East. And he opened it. And Eliseus saide: Shote. And he shot. He sayde: one arowe of the saluacion of the LORDE, one arowe of saluacion agaynst the Syrians: and thou shalt smyte the Syrians at Aphek, tyll they be broughte to naughte.

And he sayde: Take ẏ arowes. And whā he had taken them, he sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: Smyte the earth. And he smote thre tymes and stode still. Then was the man of God wroth at him, and sayde: Yf thou haddest smytten fyue or sixe times, thou shuldest haue smytten ẏ Syrians, tyll thou haddest vtterly broughte them to naughte. But now shalt thou smyte them thre tymes.

Whan Eliseus was deed and buried, the men of warre of the Moabites fell in to the londe the same yeare. And it fortuned ẏ they buryed a certaine man. But whā they sawe the men of warre, they cast the man into Eliseus graue. * And whan he was therin, and touched Eliseus bones, he reuyued, and stode vpon his fete.

So Hasael the kynge of Syria oppressed Israel, as longe as Joahas lyued. But the LORDE was gracious vnto them, and had mercy vpon them, and turned him to them for his couenauntes sake, with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and wolde not destroye thē * nether dyd he cast them out from his presence vnto this houre.

And Hasael the kinge of Syria dyed, and Benadad his sonne was kynge in his steade. But Joas turned backe, and toke out of the hande of Benadad the sonne of Hasael the cyties which he had takē in battaill out of the hande of his father Joahas: Thre tymes dyd Joas smyte him, and broughte the cities of Israel agayne.

The XIIII. Chapter.

IN the seconde yeare of Joas ẏ sonne of Joahas kynge of Israel, was Amasias the sonne of Joas kynge of Juda made kynge: * fyue and twenty yeare olde was he, whan he was made kynge, & reigned nyne and twentye yeare at Jerusalē. His mothers name was Joadan of Jerusalem. And he dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE: yet not as his father David, but euen as his father Joas did so dyd he also: for ẏ hye places were not put downe, but the people offred and brent incense yet vpon the hye places. Now whan he had gotten the power of the kyngdome, he smote his seruauntes * which had smyttē the kynge his father: but the childrē of ỹ deed slayers slewe he not, acordinge to ỹ which is wryttē in the boke of the lawe of Moses, where the LORDE hath cōmaunded & sayde:

* The fathers shal not dye for the childrē, & the childrē shal not dye for the fathers: but euery one shal dye for his awne synne.

B Ten thousande of the Edomites smote he also in the Salt valley, and wanne Sela in battayll, and called it Jatheel vnto this daye. * Then sent Amasias messaungers vn to Joas the sonne of Joahas the sonne of Jehu kynge of Israel, sayenge: Come hither, let vs se one another. But Joas ỹ kynge of Israel sent vnto Amasias the kynge of Juda, sayenge: The hawthorne that is in Liba-nus, sent to the Ceder tre in Libanus, sayege: Gene thy doughter vnto my sonne to wi fe. But a wylde beest of the felde ranne ouer ỹ hawthorne, and trode it downe. Thou hast smyttē the Edomites, therfore is thine hert waxen proude: Take the prayse, and byde at home: why stryuest thou for myssfortune, ỹ thou mayest fall, and Juda with the? Howbeit Amasias consented not.

C Then wēte Joas the kynge of Israel vp, and they sawe one another, he and Amasias the kynge of Juda at Beth Semes which lyeth in Juda. But Juda was smytten befo re Israel, so that euery one fled in to his tēte.
And Joas the kynge of Israel toke Ama sias the kynge of Juda, the sonne of Joas the sonne of Ochosias at Beth Semes, and came to Jerusalem, and brake downe ỹ wall of Jerusalem from ỹ porte of Ephraim vn to the corner porte, euen foure hundreth cu-bites lōge: and toke all the golde and syluer, and ornamentes that were founde in the house of the LORDE, and in ỹ treasures of the kynges house, & the childrē also to pled ge, & departed agayne to Samaria.

What more there is to saie of Joas, what he dyd, and of his power, & how he foughte with Amasias the kynge of Juda, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. And Joas fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria amon ge ỹ kynges of Israel. And Jeroboam his sonne was kynge in his steade.

D But Amasias the sonne of Joas kynge of Juda, lyued after the death of Joas the sonne of Joahas kynge of Israel, fiftene yea
re. What more there is to saye of Amasias, is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And they conspyred agaynst him at Jerusalem, but he fled vnto Lachis. And they sent after him vnto Lachis, and slewe him there. And they broughte him vpon hor ses, & he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in ỹ cite of Dauid. * And all the peo 2.par.

ple of Juda toke Asarias in his sixtenth yea re, and made him kynge in steade of Ama-sias his father. He buylded * Eloth, and 4.Re.
broughte it agayne vnto Juda, after that the kynge was fallen on slepe with his fathers.

In the fyftenth yeare of Amasias the son ne of Joas kynge of Juda, was Jeroboam the sonne of Joas kynge ouer Israel at Sa maria, one and fortye yeare. And he dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, and departed not from all the synnes of Je roboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Israel for to synne.

But the borders of Israel broughte he E agayne from Hemath vnto ỹ see that lyeth in the playne felde, acordinge to the worde of the LORDE God of Israel, which he spa ke by his seruaunt * Jonas ỹ sonne of Ami Ion.1.a thai the prophete, which was of * Gath Iosu. 19 Epher. For the LORDE considered the my serable affliccion of Israel, how that euen they which were shut vp and desolate, were awaye, and that there was no helper in Israel. * And the LORDE sayde not that he 4.Re.13 wolde destroye the name of Israel from vn Osc.1.a der heauē. And he helped thē by Jeroboam the sonne of Joas.

What more there is to saye of Jeroboam, and all that he dyd, and of his power, how he foughte, and how broughte Damas-con and Hemath agayne vnto Juda in Israel, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Israel. And Jeroboam fell on slepe with his fathers, with the kynges of Israel. And Zacharias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XV. Chapter.

IN the seuen & twentieth yeare of Je A roboam kynge of Israel, reigned Asa rias the sonne of Amasias kynge of Juda: and * was sixtene yeare olde whan he 2.par.26 was made kynge, and reigned two and fyftye yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Jechalia of Jerusalē. And he dyd righ re in the sighte of the LORDE, acordinge to all as dyd Amasias his father, sauynge that they put not downe the hye places. For the people dyd sacryfice and brent incense yet vpon the hye places. Howbeit the LORDE smote the kynge, so that he was leper vnto his death, * and dwelt in a frye house. But Leui.13.
Jotham the kynges sonne ruled the house, and iudged the people in the londe.

What more there is to saye of Asarias, & all ỳ he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And Asarias fell on slepe with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the cite of Dauid, & Jotham his sonne was kynge in his steade.

B In the eight and thirtieth yeare of Asarias kynge of Juda, was Zacharias the sonne of Jeroboam kynge ouer Jsrael at Samaria sixe monethes. And he dyd ỳ which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, euen as his fathers dyd. He departed not from ỳ synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Jsrael for to synne. And Sellum the sonne of Jabes conspyred agaynst him, and smote him in the presence of ỳ people, and slewe him, & was kynge in his steade. What more there is to saie of Zacharias, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the Re.10.e kynges of Jsrael. * And this is it, ỳ the LORDE sayde vnto Jehu: Thy children shall syt vpõ the seate of Jsrael vntyll the fourth generacion. And euen so came it to passe.

C Sellum the sonne of Jabes reigned in ỳ
Some reade: *Vsia. nyne & thirtieth yeare of *Asarias kynge of Juda, & reigned one moneth at Samaria. For Menahem the sonne of Gadi wẽte vp from Thirza, & came to Samaria, and smote Sellum the sonne of Jabes at Samaria, & slewe him, and was kynge in his steade.

What more there is to saye of Sellum, & of his sedicion which he stered vp, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Jsrael. At the same tyme dyd Manahem smyte Tiphsa, & all ỳ were therin, & the coastes therof from Thirza, because they wolde not let him in, and smote all their wemen wt childe, and rypte them vp.

D In the nyne & thirtieth yeare of Asarias kynge of Juda, beganne Manahem the sonne of Gad to reigne ouer Jsrael ten yeares at Samaria, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE. As longe as he lyued, departed he not from ỳ synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Jsrael for to synne. And Phul the kynge of Assiria came in to the lõde. And Manahem gaue vnto Phul a thousande talentes of syluer to holde with him, and to cõfirme him in the kyngdome. And Manahem raysed vp a tare in Jsrael vpon the richest, fiftye Sycles of syluer vpon euery man, to geue vnto ỳ kynge of Assiria. So the kynge of Assiria wẽte home agayne, and taried not in the londe.

What more there is to saye of Manahem, & all ỳ he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Jsrael. And Manahem fell on slepe wt his fathers. And Pecahia his sonne was kynge in his steade.

In the fiftieth yeare of Asarias kynge of Juda, beganne Pecahia the sonne of Manahem to reigne ouer Jsrael at Samaria two yeare, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE: for he departed not frõ the synnes of Jeroboam ỳ sonne of Nebat, which caused Jsrael for to synne. And Pecah the sonne of Romelia his knyghte conspyred agaynst him, & smote him at Samaria in ỳ palace of the kynges house wt Argob and Ariah, and fiftye men wt him of ỳ childrẽ of Gilead, & slewe him, & was kynge in his steade. What more there is to saye of Pecahia, & all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Jsrael.

In the two and fiftieth yeare of Asarias kynge of Juda, beganne Pecah the sonne of Romelia to reigne ouer Jsrael at Samaria, twentye yeare, & dyd that which was euell in the sighte of ỳ LORDE: for he departed not from the synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which caused Jsrael for to synne.

In the tyme of Pecah the kynge of Jsrael, came Teglatphalasser the kynge of Assiria, & toke Ion, Abel Beth Maecha, Janoha, Kedes, Hasor, Gilead, Galile, and all the londe of Nephtali, & caried thẽ awaye into Assiria.

And Osea the sonne of Ela conspyred agaynst Pecah the sonne of Romelia, & slue him, and was kynge in his steade in the twẽtieth yeare of Jotham the sonne of *Osias. What more there is to saye of Pecah, & all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Jsrael.

In the seconde yeare of Pecah the sonne of Romelia kynge of Jsrael, was Jotham the sonne of Osias kynge of Juda, & was fyue and twentye yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and reigned sixtene yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Jerusa the doughter of Sadok. And he dyd ỳ which was righte in ỳ sighte of the LORDE, according vnto all as dyd Osias his father, sauynge that he put not downe the hye places: for the people offred & brent incense yet vpon the hye places. He buylded the hye porte of the house of the LORDE. What more there is to saye of Jotham, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda.

At ỳ same tyme beganne ỳ LORDE to sende Rezin ỳ kynge of Syria, & Pecah ỳ sonne of Romelia in to Juda. And Jotham fell on slepe with his fathers, and was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Dauid his father. And Achas his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XVI. Chapter.

A IN the seuententh yeare of Pecah ỳ sonne of Romelia, was Achas the sonne of Jotham kynge of Juda. Twētye yeare olde was Achas whā he was made kynge, & reigned sixtene yeare at Jerusalem, & dyd not ỳ which was righte in the sighte of ỳ LORDE his God, as dyd Dauid his father: for he walked in the waye of the kynges of Israel, * yee and caused his sonne to go thorow the fyre, after the maner of the abhominacions of the heythen, whom the LORDE droue awaye before the childrē of Israel. And he dyd sacrifice, and brent incense vpon the hye places, & vpon all hilles, and amonge all grene trees. * Then wente Rezin the kynge of Syria and Pecah the sonne of Romelia kynge of Israel vp to Jerusalem to fighte agaynst it, and layed sege to Achas: but they coulde not wynne it. At the same tyme dyd Rezin the kynge of Syria, brynge * Eloth agayne vnto Syria, and thrust ỳ Jewes out of Eloth. But the Syrians came & dwelt therin vnto this daye.

B Nevertheles Achas sent messaungers vnto Teglatphalasser ỳ kynge of Assiria, sayēge: I am thy seruaunt & thy sonne, come vp & helpe me out of ỳ hande of the kynge of Syria, & of the kynge of Israel, which are rysen vp agaynst me. And Achas toke the syluer & golde ỳ was founde in ỳ house of ỳ LORDE, & in the treasures of ỳ kynges house, & sent a present to ỳ kynge of Assiria. * And ỳ kinge of Assiria cōsented vnto him, & wente vp to Damascon, & wanne it, & caried them awaye vnto Cira, & slewe Rezin. And kynge Achas wēte to Damascon for to mete Teglatphalasser ỳ kynge of Assiria. And whā he sawe an altare ỳ was at Damascon, kynge Achas sent a patrone & symilitude of ỳ same altare vnto the preest Urias, euen as it was made. And Urias the preest buylded an altare, and made it accordinge as kynge Achas had sent vnto him from Damascon, tyll Achas ỳ kynge came from Damascon.

C And whan ỳ kynge came from Damascon, and sawe the altare, he offred theron, & kyndled his burntofferynges and meatoffe-rynges vpon it, and poured his drynkofferinges theron, & caused the bloude of ỳ deedofferynges which he offred, to be sprenkled vpon the altare. But the brasen altare that stode before the LORDE, put he awaye, so that it stode not betwene the altare and the house of the LORDE, but set it in the corner on the north syde of the altare.

And Achas the kynge cōmaunded Urias ỳ preest, & sayde: Vpō the greate altare shalt thou kyndle ỳ burntoffrynge in the mornynge, & the meatoffrynge in the euenynge, & the kynges burntoffrynge & his meatoffrynge, & the burntoffrynge of all the people in the londe, wt their meatoffrynge & drynkoffrynge. And all the bloude of the burntofferynges, & all the bloude of the other offrynges shalt thou sprenkle theron: but with the brasen altare wyll I deuyse what I can. Urias the preest dyd all accordinge as Achas the kynge commaunded him.

And kynge Achas brake downe the seates, and put awaye the * ketell from aboue, 3.Re.7.c and toke the lauer from the brasen bullockes that were there vnder, and set it vpon ỳ pauement of stone. And the pulpit for the Sabbath which they had buylded in the house, and ỳ entrye of the kynges house turned he vnto the house of the LORDE, for the kynge of Assirias sake.

What more there is to saye of Achas, what he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in ỳ Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And Achas fell on slepe with his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Dauid. And Ezechias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XVII. Chapter.

IN the twolueth yeare of Achas the kynge of Juda, begāne Oseas ỳ sonne of Ela to reigne ouer Israel at Samaria nyne yeare, and dyd ỳ which was euell in ỳ sighte of the LORDE, but not as ỳ kynges of Israel ỳ were before him. Agaynst him dyd Salmanasar ỳ kynge of Assiria come vp. And Oseas was subiecte vnto him, & gaue him trybutes. But whā the ỳ kynge of Assiria perceaued ỳ Oseas had conspyred & sent messaungers to Sua ỳ kynge of Egipte, & payed not trybute yearly to ỳ kynge of ỳ Assirians, he beseged him & put him in prison. * And the kynge of Assiria wente vp in 4.Re.18.b to all the londe and to Samaria, and layed sege vnto it thre yeare. * And in the nyenth Esa.9.a yeare of Oseas dyd ỳ kynge of Assiria wynne Samaria, * and caried Israel awaye in 4.Es.17.c to Assiria, and set them at Halah and at Habor by the water Gosan, and in the cities of the Meedes.

B For whan the childrē of Israel synned agaynst ỳ LORDE their God, ỳ broughte them out of ỳ londe of Egipte, from the hāde of Pharao kynge of Egipte, and serued other goddes: and walked after the customes of the Heythē, whom the LORDE had dryuen out before the children of Israel, and dyd as the kynges of Israel, and prouoked ỳ LORDE their God, and dyd secretly the thinges that were not righte in the sighte of ỳ LORDE their God: namely in that they buylded them hye places in all cities, both in castels and stronge cities, and set vp pilers and groues, vpon all hye hilles, and amonge all greene trees, and brent incense there in all ỳ hye places, euen as dyd the Heythen, whom the LORDE had cast out before them, & wroughte wicked thinges, wherwith they prouoked the LORDE vnto wrath, & serued the Idols, Deut. 4 c wherof the LORDE sayde vnto them: * Ye shal not do soch a thynge.

¶ And whan the LORDE testified in Israel and Juda by all the prophetes and Seers, Ezec. 33 a sayenge: * O turne agayne from youre euell wayes, and kepe my commaundemētes and ordynaunces, acordinge to all ỳ lawe which I gaue vnto youre fathers, and that I sent vnto you by my seruauntes the prophetes:
Deut. 31. f Mal 3. b they wolde not herken, * but herdened their neckes, acordinge to the hardneck of their fathers, which beleued not on the LORDE their God. Yee they despysed his ordinaunces and his couenaunt which he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he witnessed amonge them, and walked in their awne vanities, and became vayne folowinge the Heythen, which dwelt rounde about them, concernynge whom the LORDE had commaunded them, that they shulde not do as they dyd. Nevertheles they forsoke all
2. Re. 12. d the commaundementes of the LORDE their God * and made them two molten calues and groues, and worshipped all the hoost
Deu. 18. b of heauen, & serued Baal, and * caused their sonnes and doughters to go thorow the fyre, and medled wt soythsayers and witches, and gaue them selues ouer to do that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE, to prouoke him vnto wrath.

¶ Then was the LORDE very wroth at Israel, and put them awaye frō his presence, so
2. Re. 17. c ỳ there remayned no mo * but onely ỳ trybe of Juda. Nether dyd Juda kepe the commaundemētes of the LORDE their God, but walked after the customes of Israel, which they dyd. Therfore dyd ỳ LORDE cast awaye all ỳ sede of Israel, and troubled them, and delyuered them in to the handes of the spoylers, tyll he had cast them out of his presence: for Israel was deuyded from the house of Dauid. And they made thē a kynge, one Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which turned Israel back from ỳ LORDE, & caused thē to synne sore. Thus walked the childrē of Israel in all ỳ synnes of Jeroboam, which he had done, & departed not frō them, vntyll ỳ LORDE put Israel out of his presence, acordinge as he had spokē by all his seruauntes ỳ prophetes. * So Israel was caried awaye out of their awne londe to Assiria vnto this

2. Re. 17. a daye.

¶ The kynge of Assiria caused men (daye. to come frō Babilon, from Cutha, frō Ana, from Hemath & Sepharuaim, & caused thē to inhabite ỳ cities in Samaria in steade of the childrē of Israel. And they toke possession of Samaria, & dwelt in ỳ same cities. But whā they begāne to dwell there, & feared not ỳ LORDE, the LORDE sent lyons amōge thē, which slewe them. And they caused it be sayde vnto ỳ kynge of Assiria: The Heythē whom thou hast broughte hither, & causedthem to inhabite the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of ỳ God of the londe. Therfore hath he sent lyons amōge them, & beholde, they slaye thē, because they knowe not the ordinaunce of the God of the londe.

¶ The kinge of Assiria cōmaunded & saide: Bringe thither one of ỳ prestes ỳ were caried awaye frō thence & let him go thither, & dwell there, & teach thē the ordinaūce of the God of ỳ londe. Then came one of ỳ prestes which were caried awaye from Samaria, & dwelt at Bethel, & taughte them how they shulde feare ỳ LORDE. But euery people made thē goddes, & put thē in the houses vpon ỳ hye places, which the Samaritanes had made, euery people i their cities wherin they dwelt. They of Babilō made Sochoth Benoth. They of Chut made Nergel. They of Hemath made Asima. They of Ana made Nibehas & Tharthak. They of Sepharuaim burnt their sonnes vnto Adramelech and Anamelech ỳ goddes of thē of Sepharuaim.

¶ And whyle they feared ỳ LORDE, (im. they made prestes in ỳ hye places of ỳ lowest amonge them, & put them in ỳ houses of ỳ hye places: thus they feared ỳ LORDE, & serued ỳ goddes also, acordinge to ỳ custome of euery nacion, from whence they were broughte. And vnto this daye do they after ỳ olde fashion, so ỳ they nether feare ỳ LORDE, ner yet kepe their awne ordinaunces and lawes, after the lawe and commaundement that the LORDE cōmaunded the childrē of Jacob, * vnto whom he gaue ỳ name of Israel, and made a couenaunt with them, and commaunded them, and sayde: * Feare nē other goddes, and worshipe them not, and serue them not, and offer not vnto them but the LORDE which broughte you out of the lõde of Egipte, with greate power and outstretched arme, him feare, him worshippe, & vnto him do sacrifice: and the statutes, ordinaunces, lawe & cõmaundement which he hath caused to be wrytten vnto you, those se that ye kepe, that ye allwaye do therafter, and feare none other goddes. And forget not the covenaunt which he hath made with you, lest ye feare other goddes. But feare ỹ LORDE youre God, he shall delyuer you from all youre enemies. Nevertheles they wolde not herken, but dyd after their olde custome.

Thus these Heythen feared the LORDE, and serued their Idols also, and so dyd their children and childers childrẽ likewyse. Euẽ as their fathers haue done before them, so do they vnto this daye.

The XVIII. Chapter.

A IN the thirde yeare of Oseas ỹ sonne of Ela kynge of Israel, reigned Ezechias ỹ sonne of Achas kynge of Juda. And he was fyue and twentie yeare olde whan he was made kynge, & reigned nyne & twentye yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Abi the doughter of Zachary. And he dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, accordinge vnto all as dyd David his father. * He put awaye the hye places, and brake downe the pilers, & roted out the grones, and brake the brasen serpente * which Moses had made. For vnto that tyme had the children of Israel brent incẽse vnto it. And it was called Nehusthan. He put his trust in the LORDE God of Israel, so that after him there was not his like amõge all the kynges of Juda nether had bene before him. He cleued vnto the LORDE, and departed not backe from him, and kepte his commaundementes, which the LORDE had cõmaunded Moses. And the LORDE was wt him. And whither so euer he wẽte forth, he behaued him selfe wysely. He resisted the kyng of Assiria, and was not subdued vnto him. * He smote the Philistynes also vnto Gasa, and their borders, from the castels vnto the stronge cities.

In the fourth yeare of Ezechias kynge of Juda (ỹ was the seuenth yeare of Oseas the sonne of Ela kynge of Israel) came Salmanasar the kynge of Assiria vp agaynst Samaria, and layed sege vnto it, and wanne it after thre yeares in the sixte yeare of Ezechias, that is in the nyenth yeare of Oseas kynge of Israel, thẽ was Samaria wonne. And the kynge of Assiria caried Israel awaye vnto Assiria, and set them at Halah and Habor by the water Gosan, and in the cities of the Meedes. And all because they herkened not vnto the voyce of the LORDE their God, and had transgressed his couenaunt: And as for all that Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE had commaunded thẽ, they had nether herkened vnto eny of those, ner done them.

In the fourtẽth yeare of kynge Ezechias dyd Sennacherib ỹ kynge of Assiria come vp agaynst all the stronge cities of Juda, & cõquered thẽ. Then sent Ezechias the kynge of Juda to ỹ kynge of Assiria vnto Lachis, sayenge: I haue offended, turne back fro me: loke what thou layest vnto me, I wil beare it. Thẽ the kynge of Assiria layed vnto Ezechias the kynge of Juda, thre hundreth talentes of syluer, & thirtie talentes of golde. * So Ezechias gaue all ỹ syluer ỹ was fõde in ỹ house of the LORDE, & in the treasures of ỹ kynges house. At ỹ same tyme brake Ezechias the kynge of Juda the dores of the tẽple of ỹ LORDE, & the plates of golde which he him selfe had caused to laye ouer thẽ, & gaue thẽ vnto the kynge of Assiria.

And the kynge of Assiria sent Thartan, and the chefe chamberlayne, & the chefe butler from Lachis to kynge Ezechias with a greate power vnto Jerusalem. And they wẽte vp: and whan they came there, they stode styll at the condyte by the ouer pole, which lyeth in the waye vpõ the fullers londe, and called vnto the kynge. Thẽ came there forth vnto them Eliachim the sonne of Helchias the steward, and Sobna the scrybe, & Joah the sonne of Assaph the Secretary.

And the chefe butler sayde vnto thẽ: Tell kynge Ezechias: Thus sayeth ỹ greate kynge, euẽ the kynge of Assiria: What presumpcion is this ỹ thou trustest vnto? Thinkest thou, ỹ thou hast yet councell and power to sighte? Where vnto trustest thou then, that thou art fallen of fro me? Beholde, puttest thou thy trust in this broken staffe of rede, in Egipte? which who leaneth vpon, it shall go into his hande, & pearse it thorow. Euen so is Pharao the kynge of Egipte vnto all them that put their trust in him. But yf ye wolde saye vnto me: We put oure trust in ỹ LORDE oure God. Is not that he, whose hye places and altares Ezechias hath takẽ downe, and sayde vnto Juda and Jerusalẽ: Before this altare which is at Jerusalẽ, shal ye worshippe?

Make a multitude now therfore vnto my lorde the kynge of Assiria, and I wil geue ỹ two thousande horses, let se yf thou be able to man them: how wilt thou then endure before the smallest prynce of my lordes subiectes? And trustest thou vnto Egipte because of the charettes and horsmen? But thinkest thou that I came vp hither without ỹ LORDE to destroye these cities? The LORDE hath commaunded me: Go vp in to that londe and destroye it.

Then sayde Eliachim the sonne of Helchia & Sobna and Joah vnto the chefe butler: Speake to thy seruauntes in the Syrias language, for we vnderstonde it, and speake not vnto vs in the Jewes speche before the eares of the people that are vpon the wall. Nevertheles ỹ chefe butler sayde vnto thē: Hath my lorde then sent me vnto thy lorde, or to the, to speake these wordes? Nee euen vnto the men, which syt vpon the wall, that they maye eate their owne donge and drynke their owne stale wt you. So the chefe butler stode and cried with loude voyce in the Jewes language, and spake and sayde: Heare the worde of the greate kynge the kynge of Assiria. Thus sayeth the kynge: Let not Ezechias disceaue you, for he is not able to delyuer you fro my hāde: & let not Ezechias make you to trust in the LORDE, sayenge: The LORDE shall delyuer vs, and this cite shal not be geuen in to the handes of ỹ kynge of Assiria. Folowe not ye Ezechias, for thus sayeth the kynge of Assiria:

Do me this blessynge, and come forth vnto me, so shal euery man eate of his vyne and of his fygge tre, and drynke of his well, tyll I come my selfe and fetch you in to a londe, which is like youre awne lōde, wherin is corne, wyne, bred, vynyardes, oyle trees, oyle and hony, so shal ye lyue, and not dye. Folowe not ye Ezechias, for he disceaueth you, when he sayeth: The LORDE shal delyuer vs. Haue the goddes of the heythen delyuered euery one his londe from the hande of the kynge of Assiria? Where are the goddes of Hemath and Arphad? Where are the goddes of Sepharuaim Hena and Jua? Haue they delyuered Samaria fro my hande? Where is there one god amonge the goddes of all londes, which hath delyuered his londe fro my hande? that the LORDE shulde delyuer Jerusalem fro my hande.

As for the people, they helde their peace, and gaue him no answere: for the kynge had commaunded and sayde: Answere him nothinge. Then came Eliachim the sonne of Helchia ỹ stewarde, and Sobna the scrybe, and Joah the sonne of Assaph the Secretary vnto Ezechias with rente clothes, and tolde him the wordes of the chefe butler.

The XIX. Chapter.

When Ezechias ỹ kynge herde this, he rente his clothes, & put on a sackcloth, & wente in to ỹ house of the LORDE, & sent Eliachim the stewarde & Sobna the Scrybe with the Eldest prestes, clothed in sackcloth, vnto the prophet Esay ỹ sonne of Amos, & they saide vnto him: Thus sayeth Ezechias: This is a daye of trouble, & of desiaunce & blasphemy. The childre are come to the byrth, & there is no strength to be delyuered of them. Yf happly the LORDE thy God wil heare all the wordes of ỹ chefe butler, whom his lorde the kynge of Assiria hath sent, to blaspheme ỹ lyuynge God, & to defye him with soch wordes as the LORDE thy God hath herde, therfore lifte thou vp thy prayer for the remnaunt, which are yet lefte behynde.

And whā kynge Ezechias seruauntes came to Esay, Esay sayde vnto them: Speake thus vnto youre lorde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Feare not thou the wordes ỹ thou hast herde, wherwith the kynge of Assirias seruauntes haue blasphemed me. Beholde, I wil put him in another mynde, so ỹ he shall heare tydinges, & go agayne in to his awne countre, * and in his awne londe wil I cause him to fall thorow the swerde.

And whan ỹ chefe butlar came agayne, he founde the kynge of Assiria fightinge agaynst Libna: for he had herde that he was departed from Lachis. And he herde of Tracha the kynge of the Morians: Beholde, he is gone forth to fighte with the. Then turned he back, & sent messaungers to Ezechias, & caused to saye vnto him: Let not thy God disceaue the, on whom thou trustest & sayest: Jerusalem shal not be geuē in to the hāde of the kynge of Assiria. Beholde, thou hast herde what the kynges of Assiria haue done vnto all londes, & how they dāned them, & shalt thou be delyuered? Haue ỹ goddes of ỹ heithen delyuered thē, whom my father destroyed, as Gosan, Haran, Reseph, & the childre of Eden which were at Thalassar? Where is ỹ kynge of Hemath, ỹ kynge of Arphad, & ỹ kinge of ỹ cite Sepharuaim, Hena & Jua?

And whan Ezechias had receaued the letters of the messaungers and had red them, he wente vp vnto the house of the LORDE, and layed them abrode before the LORDE, & made his prayer before the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE God of Israel, thou that syttest vpō the Cherubins, thou onely art God

amonge all ỳ kyngdomes of the earth, thou haſt made heauen and earth. Enclyne thine eare O LORDE, and heare: open thine eyes, and beholde, and heare the wordes of Sen nacherib, which hath ſent hither to blaſphe-me the lyuynge God. It is true (O LORDE) that the kynges of Aſſiria haue deſtroyed the heythen and their londe with the ſwerde, and haue caſt their goddes in the fyre: for they were not Goddes, but ỳ worke of mēs hondes, wodd and ſtone, therfore haue they deſtroyed them. But now O LORDE helpe thou vs out of his hande, that all the kyng domes vpon earth maye knowe, that thou LORDE art God alone.

D Then ſent Eſay the ſonne of Amos vnto
Ezechias, ſayenge: Thus ſayeth the LORDE God of Iſrael: Where as thou haſt made thy prayer vnto me concernynge Sennache rib ỳ kynge of Aſſiria, I haue herde it. This is it that the LORDE hath ſpoken agaynſt him: he hath deſpyſed ỳ and mocked the O virgin thou doughter Sion: he hath ſhakē his heade at the O doughter Ieruſalem.
1.b Whom haſt thou deſpyſed & blaſphemed?
4.d Ouer whom haſt thou lifte vp thy voyce?
5.a Euē agaynſt ỳ holy one in Iſrael haſt thou lifte vp thine eyes: thou haſt blaſphemed ỳ LORDE by thy meſſaungers, and ſayde: Tho row the multitude of my charettes haue I gone vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, vpon the ſydes of Libanus. I haue hewen downe his hye Ceders and his choſen pyne trees, and am come to the vttemoſt habitacien of the wod of Carmel that belongeth vnto it. I haue dygged and dronke vp the ſtraunge waters, and with ỳ ſoles of my fete haue I dryed vp the See.

E But haſt thou not herde how that I haue done this longe agoo, and haue prepared it from the begynnynge? Now haue I cau-ſed it for to come, that contencious ſtronge cities mighte fall in to a waiſt heape of ſtones, & they that dwell therin, ſhal be faynte, 19.a and fearfull and a ſhamed, & and ſhal be as the graſſe vpon the felde, and as ỳ grene her-be and hay vpon the houſe toppes, that wythereth afore it be growne vp. I knowe thy habitacion, thy out and ingoynge, and that 3 thou rageſt agaynſt me. For ſo moch then as thou rageſt agaynſt me, and ſeynge thy pre-ſumpcion is come vp to myne eares, ther fo re wyll I put a rynge in thy noſe, and a bridle bytt in thy lippes, and wyll bryn-ge the agayne, euen the ſame waye thou cameſt.

F And let this be a token vnto the O Ezechias. In this yeare eate ỳ which is fallen in the ſeconde yeare ſoch as groweth of it ſelfe: In ỳ thirde yeare ſowe and reape, and plante vynyardes, and eate the frute therof.

And the doughter Iuda which is eſcaped remayneth, ſhall from hence forth take rote beneth, and beare frute aboue. For the remnaunt ſhal go forth from Ieruſalem, & they ỳ are eſcaped, ſhall go out fro mount Sion.
The geloufy of the LORDE Zebaoth ſhall bryng this to paſſe.

Therfore thus ſayeth the LORDE concernynge ỳ kynge of the Aſſyrians: He ſhall not come in to this cite, and ſhall ſhute no a-rowe therin, nether ſhal there come eny ſhylde before it, nether ſhall he dygge eny backe aboute it, but ſhal go agayne the waye that he came, and ſhall not come in to this cite, ſayeth the LORDE: and I wyll defende this cite, to helpe it for myne awne ſake, and for my ſeruaunt Dauids ſake.

And in the ſame nyghte wente the angell G of the LORDE, and ſmote in the hooſt of the Aſſyrians, an hundreth and fyue and foure ſcore thouſande men. And whan they gatt them vp in the mornynge, beholde, all laye full of deed coarſes. * So Sennacherib the Tobi.1.d
kinge of Aſſyria brake vp, and departed, and returned, and abode at Niniue. And as he worſhipped in ỳ houſe of Neſrach his god, his awne ſonnes Adramalech and Sarazer ſmote him with the ſwerde, and fled in to ỳ londe of Ararat. And Aſarhadon his ſonne was kynge in his ſteade.

The XX. Chapter.

IN that tyme was Ezechias deedſicke. A
And the prophet Eſay ỳ ſonne of A- 2.Par.32.e mos, came to him, & ſayde vnto him: Eſa.38.a Thus ſayeth ỳ LORDE: Set thine houſe in or dre for thou ſhalt dye & not lyue. And he tur ned his face to the wall, and prayed vnto ỳ LORDE, and ſayde: Remembre (O LORDE) that I haue walked faithfully before the, & with a perfecte hert, and haue done ỳ which is good in thy ſyghte. And Ezechias wepte ſore. But whan Eſay was not gone out of halfe the cite, ỳ worde of ỳ LORDE came to him, & ſayde: Turne back, & tell Ezechias ỳ prynce of my people: Thus ſayeth ỳ LORDE God of thy father Dauid: I haue herde thy praier, & conſidered ỳ teares. Beholde, I wil heale ỳ: on the thirde daye ſhalt thou go in to ỳ houſe of the LORDE, & fiftene yeares wil
I adde vnto ỳ life, & wyll delyuer the & this cite from the kynge of Aſſyria, & this cite wil
I defende for myne awne ſake, and for my ſeruaūt Dauids ſake. And Eſay ſayde: Bun

ge hither a quantite of fygges. And whan they broughte them, they layed them vpon the sore, and it was healed.

B Ezechias sayde vnto Esay: Which is ỹ token, that the LORDE wyll heale me, and that I shal go vp in to the house of ỹ LORDE on the thirde daye? Esay sayde: This token shalt thou haue of the LORDE, that the LORDE shal do acordynge as he hath sayde. Shall the shadowe go ten degrees forwarde, or shal it turne ten degrees backwarde? Ezechias sayde: It is an easy thinge for the shadowe to go ten degrees downewarde, ỹ is not my mynde: but that it go ten degrees backwarde. Then cryed the prophet Esay Eccli. 48 e vnto the LORDE, * and the shadowe wente backe ten degrees in Achas Dyall, which he was descended afore.

Esa 39 a At the same tyme Merodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan kynge of Babilon, sent letters and presentes vnto Ezechias, for he had herde that Ezechias had bene sicke. And Ezechias reioyced with them, & shewed them all the house of rotes, the syluer, golde, spyces, and the best oyle, and the house of ordinaunce, and all that was founde in his treasures. There was nothinge in his house and in all his domynion, but Ezechias shewed it them.

C Then came Esay the prophet vnto kynge Ezechias, and sayde vnto him: What haue these men sayde? and whence came they vnto the? Ezechias sayde: They came to me out of a farre countre, euen from Babilon. He sayde: What haue they sene in thyne house? Ezechias sayde: They haue sene all that is in my house, and there is nothynge in my treasures but I haue shewed it them. Then sayde Esay vnto Ezechias: Heare the wor- 4 Re. 24 c meth, that it shall all be caryed awaye vnto Iere. 32. c Babilon, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue layed vp vnto this daye, and there shall nothinge be lefte, sayeth the LORDE. * Yee and Dan. 1. a the children which come of the, whom thou shalt beget, shalbe taken awaye, to be chamberlaynes in the kynge of Babilons palace. Ezechias sayde vnto Esay: It is good that the LORDE hath spoken. And he sayde moreouer: Let there be peace yet and faithfulnesse in my tyme.

What more there is to saye of Ezechias, and all his power, and what he dyd, and of the pole and water condyte, wher by he conueyed water in to the cite, beholde, it is wryten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. 2. Par. 32. f * And Ezechias fell on slepe with his fathers, and Manasses his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XXI. Chapter.

MAnasses was twolue yeare olde, whan he was made kinge, and reigned fyue and fyftye yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Hephziba. And he dyd that which was euell in ỹ sighte of the LORDE (euen after the abhominacions of the Heithen, whom the LORDE expelled before the children of Jsrael) and waxed forwarde, and builded vp the hye places which his father Ezechias had destroyed, and set vp Baals altares, and made groues (as Achab the kynge of Jsrael dyd) and worshipped all the hoost of heauen, and serued them. And buylded altares in the LORDES house, wherof the LORDE sayde: I wyll set my name at Jerusalem. And in both the courtes of the house of the LORDE buylded he altares vnto all the hoost of heauē. And * caused his sonne to go thorow the fyre, and regarded byrdes cryenge and tokens, and maynteyned soythsayers, and expounders of tokens, and so moch dyd he of this which was euell in the sight of the LORDE, that he prouoked him vnto wrath.

A groue Jdol also which he had made, set he in the house, wherof the LORDE sayde vnto Dauid and to Salomon his sonne: In this house, and at Jerusalem (* which I haue chosen out of all the trybes of Jsrael) wil I set my name for euer, and wyl nee cause ỹ fote of Jsrael to be remoued eny more from the londe, which I gaue vnto their fathers, yee so that they obserue and do acordynge vnto all that I haue charged them, and after all the lawe that my seruaunt Moses commaunded them. Neuertheles they wolde nee herken, but Manasses disceaued them, so ỹ they dyd worse then the Heithen, whom the LORDE expelled before ỹ children of Jsrael.

Then spake the LORDE by his seruauntes the prophetes, and saide: Because that Manasse the kynge of Juda hath gone these abhominacions, which are worse then all ỹ abhominacions that the Amorites haue done which were before them, and hath caused Juda also to synne agaynst their God, therfore thus sayeth the LORDE God of Jsrael: * Beholde, I wyll brynge soch a plage vpon Jerusalem and Juda, that who so euer heareth it, both his eares shal glowe, and ouer Jerusalem wyll I stretch forth the lyne of Samaria, and the weighte of the house of Achab, and wyll wype out Jerusalem, euen as one wypeth a platter, and I wyl ouerthrowe it.

And ỳ remnaunt of myne inheritaunce wil
I caſt out, & ſcater them abrode, & wil delyuer them in to the hãdes of their enemies, to be ſpoyled and rent of all their enemies: becauſe they haue done ỳ which is euell in my ſighte, & haue prouoked me vnto wrath, ſence the daye that I broughte their fathers out D of Egipte, vnto this daye. Manaſſes alſo ſhed exceadinge moch innocẽt bloude, ſo lon ge tyll Jeruſalẽ was full on euery ſyde, with out the ſynnes wherwith he cauſed Juda for to ſynne, ſo ỳ they dyd that which was euell in the ſighte of the LORDE.

What more there is to ſaie of Manaſſes, and all that he dyd, and his ſynnes which he committed, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cro nicles of the kynges of Juda. And Manaſſes fell on ſlepe with his fathers, and was buried in the garden beſyde his houſe, name ly, in the garden of Vſa, and Amon his ſon-ne was kynge in his ſteade.

Two and twentye yeare olde was Amon whan he was made kynge, & he reigned two yeare at Jeruſalem. His mothers name was Meſumeleth, ỳ doughter of Harus of Jat-ba, and he dyd euell in the ſighte of the LOR E DE, as Manaſſes his father had done, and walked in all the waye which his father wal ked, and ſerued the Idols which his father had ſerued, and worſhipped them, and for-ſoke the LORDE the God of his father, and walked not in the waye of the LORDE.

And his ſeruauntes conſpyred agaynſt Amon, & ſlewe the kynge in his houſe. But the people of the londe ſlewe all them ỳ had cõſpyred agaynſt kynge Amon. And the peo ple of the londe made Joſias his ſonne kyn ge in his ſteade. As for other thinges that Amon dyd, beholde, they are wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And he was buried in his graue in Vſas gardẽ. And Joſias his ſonne was kynge in his ſteade.

The XXII. Chapter.

A IOſias was eight yeare olde whã he 4.4.a was made kynge, & reigned one and thirtie yeare at Jeruſalem. His mothers name was Jedida the doughter of Adaia of Baſcath, and he dyd that which was righte in ỳ ſighte of the LORDE, and walked in all ỳ waye of David his father, & turned not aſyde, nether to the righte han de ner to the leſte.

Deu.5.d And in the eightenth yeare of kynge Jo ſias, the kynge ſent Saphan ỳ ſonne of Aſa lia the ſonne of Meſulam the ſcrybe, in to ỳ Re.12.b houſe of the LORDE, and ſayde: * Go vp to Helchias the hye preſt, that the money that is broughte vnto ỳ houſe of ỳ LORDE (which the treſholde kepers haue gathered of ỳ peo ple) maye be delyuered vnto them, that they maye gene it to the workmen which are ap-poynted in the houſe of the LORDE, & to ge-ue it vnto the labourers in the houſe (ỳ they maye repayre the decaye of the houſe) name ly, vnto the carpenters, and buylders, & ma-ſons, and to them ỳ bie timber & ſre ſtone for the repayringe of the houſe: but ſo ỳ there be no accomptes taken of them concernynge the money, that is vnder their hande, but ỳ they deale withall vpon credence.

And Helchias ỳ preſt ſayde vnto Saphã B the ſcrybe: * I haue founde the boke of the 2.Pa.34.c lawe in the houſe of the LORDE. And Helchias gaue the boke vnto Saphan, that he might reade it. And Saphan the ſcrybe bare it vnto the kynge, and brought him worde agayne, & ſayde: Thy ſeruauntes haue gathe red together ỳ money ỳ was founde in the houſe, & haue delyuered it vnto the workmẽ, which are appoynted in ỳ houſe of the LOR DE. And Saphan the ſcrybe tolde the kynge and ſayde: Helchias the preſt hath delyue-red me a boke, and Saphan red it before the kynge.

But whan the kinge herde the wordes of the boke of lawe, he rente his clothes. And the kynge cõmaunded Helchias the preſt, & Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan, & Achbor the ſonne of Michaia, and Saphan the ſcribe, & Aſaia ỳ kynges ſeruaunt, and ſayde: Go yõ waye and axe councell at the LORDE for me, Iere.21.a for the people, and for all Juda, concernynge C the wordes of this boke that is founde: for greate is the wrath of the LORDE that is kyndled ouer vs, because o^r fathers haue not herkened vnto the wordes of this boke, to do all that is wrytten vnto vs therin.

Then wente Helchias the preſt, and Ahicam, Achbor, Saphan & Aſaia vnto Hulda the prophetiſſe ỳ wife of Sellũ the ſonne of Thecua the ſonne of Harham the keper of ỳ clothes, and ſhe dwelt at Jeruſalem in the ſeconde porte, and they ſpake vnto her. And ſhe ſayde vnto them: Thus ſayeth ỳ LORDE God of Iſrael: Tell the man that ſent you vnto me, Thus ſayeth the LORDE: Beholde, I wil bringe euell vpon this place, and the inhabiters therof, euen all the wordes of ỳ lawe which the kynge hath cauſed to be red, becauſe they haue forſaken me, and brent incenſe vnto other goddes, to prouoke me vnto wrath with all the workes of their han-des. Therfore is my wrath kindled agaynſt this cite, and ſhall not be quenched.

D But tell this vnto the kynge of Juda, which hath sent you to axe councell at the LORDE: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Because thine hert is not departed frō the wordes which thou hast herde, and hast humbled thyselfe before the LORDE, to heare what I have spoken agaynst this place and the inhabiters therof (how that they shall become a very desolacion and curse) & hast rente thy clothes, and wepte before me, 4.Re. 22.f I have herde it, sayeth the LORDE: * therfore wyll I gather the vnto thy fathers, so ỳ thou shalt be put in to thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not se all the evell that I wyll bringe vpon this place. And they brought the kynge worde agayne.

The XXIII. Chapter.

A .Par.34.f AND the kynge sent forth, and all the Elders in Juda and Jerusalem resorted vnto him, and the kynge wente vp in to the house of the LORDE, and all the men of Juda, and all the inhabiters of Jerusalem with him, the prestes and prophetes and all the people both small and greate, * .Esd 8.a and all the wordes of the boke of the covenaunt that was founde in the house of the LORDE, were red in their eares. And the kinge stode vpon a piler, and made a covenaūt .Deu.24.e before the LORDE, that they shulde walke after the LORDE, and to kepe his commaundementes, witnesses, and ordinaunces with all their hert and with all their soule, ỳ they shulde set vp the wordes of this covenaunt, which are wrytten in this boke. And all the people entred in to the covenaunt.

And the kynge cōmaunded Helchias the hye prest, and the prestes of the secōde course, and the kepers of the threshold, ỳ they shulde put out of the temple all the vessels which were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the hoost of heauen, & he brent them without Jerusalem in the valley of Cedron, and the dust of them was caryed vnto Bethel.

B And he put downe the * Kemurims, whō .oph 1.a the kynges of Juda had founded, to burne incense vpon the hye places, in the cities of Juda, and aboute Jerusalem. He put downe also them that brent incense vnto Baal, to the Sonne, and the Mone, and the twolue tokens, and to all ỳ hoost of heauen. And the grove caused he to be caryed from the house of the LORDE out of Jerusalem in to ỳ valley of Cedron, and brent it in the valley of Cedron, and made it to dust, and cast the dust vpon the graues of ỳ comen people. And he brake downe the whorekepers houses which were by the house of the LORDE, wherin the wemen made mansions for the grove.

And he caused all the prestes for to come out of the cities of Juda, and suspended ỳ hye places, where the prestes brent incense, from Geba vnto Berseba. And brake downe the hye places in the portes, that were at ỳ dore of the gate of Josua ỳ shreve of the cite, at the lefte hande as one goeth to the cite porte. Yet had not the prestes of the hye places offred vpon the altare of the LORDE at Jerusalem, but ate vnleuended bred amonge their brethren.

He suspended * Tophet also in the valley of the children of Ennon, that noman shulde cause his sonne or his doughter to go thorow ỳ fyre vnto Moloch. And he put downe the horses, which ỳ kynges of Juda had set vnto the Sonne, at the intringe in to the house of the LORDE, beside the chest of Nethan Melech the chamberlayne which was at Paruarim, and the charettes of the Sonne brent he with fyre, and the altares vpon the rofe of Achabs perler, which the kynges of Juda had made. And the altares * which Manasses had made in the two courtes of the house of the LORDE, dyd the kynge brake downe. And ranne from thence, and cast the dust of them in to the broke Cedron.

And the hye places that were before Jerusalem on the righte hande of Mount Mashith * which Salomon the kynge of Israel had buylded vnto Astaroth the abhominacion of Sidon, and to Camos the abhominacion of Moab, and to Malcom the abhominacion of the children of Ammon, those did the kynge suspende, and brake the pilers, and roted out the grones, and fylled their places with mens bones.

And * the altare at Bethel, and the hye place that Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat made, which caused Israel to synne, the same altare brake he downe, and the hye place, & brent the hye place, and made it to dust, and brent vp the grove. And Josias turned him aboute, and sawe the graues that were vpō the mount, and caused the bones to the fetched out of the graues, and brent them vpō the altare, and suspended it, acordinge to the a.1 worde of the LORDE, * which the man of God cryed out, that tolde this before.

And he sayde: What titell is this, that I se here? And the men of the cite sayde vnto him: It is the graue of the man of God, which came from Juda, and cried out this that thou hast done agaynst ỹ altare of Bethel. And he sayde: Let him lye, no man touche his bones. Thus were his bones delyuered with the bones of the prophet that came from Samaria.

E He put awaye also all the houses of the hye places in the cities of Samaria (which the kynges of Israel had made to prouoke ỹ LORDE vnto wrath) and dyd with them acordinge to all as he had done at Bethel. And all ỹ prestes of the hye places that were there, offred he vp vpon the altares, and a.2 * so brent he mens bones theron, and came a.3 agayne to Jerusalem.

And the kynge commaūded the people, and sayde: Kepe Easter vnto the LORDE a.4 youre God, * as it is wrytten in the boke of this couenaunt. For there was no Easter so kepte as this, sence the tyme of the Judges which iudged Israel, and in all the tymes of the kynges of Israel, and of the kynges of Juda: but in the eightenth yeare of kynge Josias, was this Easter kepte vnto the LORDE at Jerusalem.

And Josias expelled all soythsayers, expounders of tokēs, ymages and Idols, and all the abhominacions which were sene in the londe of Juda and at Jerusalem, that he mighte set vp the wordes of the lawe, which were wrytten in the boke, that Helchias ỹ prest foūde in the house of ỹ LORDE.

F His like was no kynge before him, which so cōuerted vnto ỹ LORDE wt all his hert, wt all his soule, & with all his strength, acordinge to all the lawe of Moses. And after him came there not vp soch an other. Yet turned not the LORDE from the indignacion of his greate wrath, wherwith he was displeased ouer Juda, because of all the prouocacion wherwith Manasses had prouoked him. And ỹ LORDE sayde: * I wil put Juda a.5 out of my presence also, euen as I haue put awaye Israel: and this cite which I haue chosen, wyl I cast out, namely, Jerusalem, & the house wherof I sayde: My name shalbe there. What more there is to saye of Josias, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda.

In his tyme wēte Pharao Necho ỹ kynge of Egipte vp agaynst the kynge of Assyria by the water Euphrates. But kynge Josias wente agaynst him, and dyed at Megiddo, whā he had sene him. And his seruauntes caried him deed frō Megiddo, & brought him to Jerusalē, & buryed him in his graue. And the people of the londe toke * Joahas the sonne of Josias, and anoynted him, and made him kynge in his fathers steade. 2.Par.35.d

That is *Jechonias.

G Thre & twentye yeare olde was Joahas whā he was made kynge, & reigned thre monethes at Jerusalē. His mothers name was Hamutal ỹ doughter of Jeremia of Libna. And he dyd ỹ which was euell in ỹ sight of ỹ LORDE, euen as his fathers had done. But Pharao Necho toke him presoner of Rebla tha in the londe of Hemath, ỹ he shulde not reigne at Jerusalem: & raysed a taxe vpō the londe, an hundreth talētes of siluer, & one talente of golde. And Pharao Necho made Eliachim ỹ sonne of Josias kynge in his father Josias steade, & turned his name Joachim. * But Joahas toke he, & brought him in to Egipte where he dyed. And Joachim gaue the siluer & golde vnto Pharao, yet taxed he the londe, ỹ he might gene ỹ sylner acordynge to Pharaos cōmaundement. Euery one amonge the people in ỹ londe taxed he after his abilite in siluer & golde, to gene it vnto Pharao. Fyue & twentye yeare olde was Joachim whan he was made kynge, & reigned eleuen yeares at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Sebida ỹ doughter of Pedaia of Ruma, & he dyd euell in the sight of the LORDE, euen as his fathers had done. Iere.22.b

The XXIIII. Chapter.

A In his tyme came vp Nabuchodonosor ỹ kynge of Babilon, & Joachim was in subieccion vnto him iij. yeare. And he turned back, & rebelled agaynst him. And ỹ LORDE sent men of warre vpon him out of Chaldea, out of Syria, out of Moab, & frō amonge the childrē of Ammon, & caused thē for to come in to Juda, to destroie it acordinge to the worde of the LORDE, which he spake by his seruauntes the prophetes. It fortuned euē so vnto Juda, * acordynge to ỹ wor- 4.Re.23.f
de of the LORDE, that he wolde put them awaye from his presence, because of ỹ sinnes of Manasses which he dyd, & because of the innocent blonde that he shed. And he fylled Jerusalem with innocent blonde, therfore wolde not the LORDE be reconcyled.

B What more there is to saye of Joachim, and all that he dyd, beholde, it is wrytten in the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda. And Joachim fell on slepe with his fathers. And Iere.36.d * Joachim his sonne was kynge in his steade. And the kynge of Egipte came nomore out of his londe: for the kynge of Babilon had conquered all that was the kynge of Egiptes, from the ryuer of Egipte vnto ỳ water Euphrates. Eightene yeare olde was Joachim whan he was made kynge, and reigned thre monethes at Jerusalē. His mothers name was Nebustha the doughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. And he dyd euell in the sighte of the LORDE, euen as his father had done.

C At the same tyme wente the seruauntes of Nabuchodonosor kynge of Babilon vp to Jerusalem, and came vpon the cyte with ordinaunce of warre. And whan Nabuchodonosor and his seruauntes came to the cite they layed sege vnto it. But Joachim ỳ kynge of Juda wente forth to the kynge of Babilon with his mother, with his seruauntes, with his rulers and chamberlaynes. And the kynge of Babilon receaued him in the eight yeare of his reigne.

4.Re.20.c Esa.39.b * And he toke forth frō thence all the treasure in the house of the LORDE, and in ỳ kynges house, and brake all the golden vessell ỳ Salomon the kynge of Israel had made in the house of the LORDE (acordynge as the LORDE had sayde) and caryed awaye all Jerusalem, all the rulers, all the mightie men, euen ten thousande presoners, and all the carpenters, and all the smythes, and lefte none behynde but the poore people of the londe.

D * And he caryed Joachim awaye vnto
Deu.28.d Babilon, and the kynges mother, the kinges Ier.24.a wyues, and his chamberlaynes: and ỳ mightie men of the londe led he awaye presoners also from Jerusalem vnto Babilon, and seuen thousande of the best men, and a thousande carpenters and smythes, and all the Ier.37.a stronge men of warre. And the kynge of Babilon made Matania his vncle kynge in his steade, and turned his name Sedechias.

Ier.52.a * One and twentye yeare olde was Sedechias, whan he was made kynge, and reigned eleuen yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Amithal the doughter of Jeremia of Libna. And he dyd euell in the sighe of the LORDE, euē as Joachim dyd: for thus fortuned it vnto Jerusalē thorow the wrath of the LORDE, tyll he had cast them out frō his presence. And Sedechias fell awaye frō the kynge of Babilon.

The XXV. Chapter.

AND it fortuned, that in ỳ nyenth yeare of his reigne, vpon the tenth daye of the tenth moneth, Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon came with all his power agaynst Jerusalem. And they layed sege vnto it, and buylded stronge holdes rounde aboute it. Thus was the cite besieged vnto the eleuenth yeare of kynge Sedechias. But on ỳ nyenth daye of the fourth moneth was the honger so stronge in the cite, that the people of the londe had nothinge to eate. And the cite was broken vp, & all the men of warre fled in the night by the waye of the porte betwene the two walles, which goeth to the kynges gardē. But the Caldees laye aboute the cite. And he fled by the waye to the playne felde. Neuertheles the power of the Caldees folowed after the kynge, and toke him in the plaine felde of Jericho: and all the men of warre that were with him, were scatered abrode from him. And they toke the kynge, and led him vp to the kynge of Babilon vnto Reblatha. * And he gaue iudgmēt vpon him. And they slewe Ezechias children before his eyes, and put out Sedechias eies, and bounde him with cheynes, and caryed him vnto Babilon.

Vpon the seuenth daye of the fyfth moneth, that is the nineteth yeare of Nabuchodonosor kynge of Babilon, came Nabusaradan the chefe captayne the kynge of Babilons seruaunt, vnto Jerusalem, and brente ỳ house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, & all the houses at Jerusalem, and all the greate houses brent he with fyre. And all the power of the Caldees which was with the chefe captayne, brake downe the walles rounde aboute Jerusalem. As for the other people that yet were lefte in the cite, and were fallē vnto the kinge of Babilon, and the other common people, Nabusaradan the chefe captayne caryed them awaye. And of the poorest people dyd the chefe captaine leaue in ỳ londe to be wynegardeners and plowmen.

But the brasen pilers in the house of the LORDE, and the seates, and the brasen laver that was in the house of the LORDE, dyd ỳ Caldees breake downe, and caried the metall vnto Babilon. And the pottes, shouels, flesh hokes, spones, & all ỳ brasen vessell that was occupied in the seruyce, caried they awaye. And ỳ chefe captayne toke awaye ỳ censors and basens ỳ were of golde and syluer, two pilers, one lauer, and the seates ỳ Salomon had made for ỳ house of the LORDE. The metall of all these ornamentes coulde not be weyed. * Eightene cubytes hye was one piler, and ỳ knoppe theron was of brasse also, & three cubytes hye: & the rope and the pomgranates vpon the knoppe rounde aboute, were all of brasse. After the same maner was the other piler also with the rope.

And the chefe captayne toke Seraia the prest of the first course, & Sophony the prest of the seconde course, and three dorekepers, and one chamberlayne out of the cite, which was appoynted ouer ỳ men of warre: and fyue men that were euer before the kynge, which were founde in the cite: and Sophar the captayne, which taught the people of ỳ londe to fighte: and three score men of ỳ people of the londe, that were founde in the cite: these dyd Nabusaradan ỳ chefe captayne take, and broughte them to the kynge of Babilon vnto Reblatha. And the kynge of Babilon slewe them at Reblatha in ỳ londe of Hemath. Thus was Juda caried awaye out of his awne londe. * But ouer the remnaunt of the people in the londe of Juda, whom Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon lefte behynde, he set Godolias ỳ sonne of Ahicam ỳ sonne of Saphan. Now whã all the captaynes of the soudyers, & the men herde, that the kynge of Babilon had made Godolias gouernoure, they came to Godolias vnto * Mispa, namely, Jsmael ỳ sonne of Nathanias, & Johanna ỳ sonne Carea, & Seraia ỳ sonne of Tanhometh the Netophatite, & Jesanias ỳ sonne of Maechati wt their men. And Godolias sware vnto them & to their men, & sayde vnto them: * Feare not ye ỳ officers of the Caldees, tary in the londe, & submytte youre selues vnto the kynge of Babilon, & ye shal prospere. * But in the seuẽth moneth came Jsmael the sonne of Nathanias the sonne of Elisama (of the kynges kynred) and ten men with him, and slewe Godolias, and the Jewes and Caldees that were with him at Mispa. Then all the people gat them vp, both small and greate, and the captaynes of the hoost, and came in to Egipte, for they were afrayed of ỳ Caldees.

Howbeit in the seuen and thirtieth yeare after that Joachim the kynge of Juda was caried awaye on the seuen and twenty daye of the twolueth moneth, Euilmerodach the kynge of Babilon in the first yeare of his reigne, lifte vp the heade of Joachim ỳ kynge of Juda out of preson, and spake louyngly vnto him, and set his trone aboue ỳ tro nes of ỳ kynges that were with him at Babilon, and chaunged the clothes of his captiuyte. And he ate allwaye before him as longe as he lyued. And he appoynted him his porcion, which was euer geuẽ him daylie of the kynge, as longe as he lyued.

The V. Chapter.

A 4.b The children of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Serah, Saul: whose sonne was Sallum, whose sonne was Mipsam, whose sōne was Misma. The childrē of Misma were, Hamuel, whose sonne was Sachur, whose sonne was Simei. Simei had sixtene sonnes and sixe doughters, and his brethren had not many childrē. And all their kynred multiplied not as the 4.a children of Juda. But * they dwelt at Berseba, Molada, Hazar Sual, Bilha, Ezem, Tholad, Bethuel, Harma, Ziclag, Beth Marchaboth, Hazarsussim, Beth Birei, and Saraim: these were their cities vntyll ỳ tyme of kynge Dauid. And their townes, Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, Asan, these fyve cities, & all the vyllages that were aboute these cities, vntyll Baal, this is their habitacion and their kynred amonge them.

B And Mesobab, Jamlech, Josa the sonne of Amasia, Joel, Jehu the sonne of Jeschibia, the sonne of Seraia, the sonne of Asiel, Eliœnai, Jaecoba, Jesohaia, Asaia, Adiel, Jsmael and Benaia. Sisa the sonne of Siphei, ỳ sonne of Alon, the sonne of Jedaia, the sonne of Simri, the sonne of Semaia. These were famous prynces in their kynreds of the house of their fathers, and multiplied in nombre.

And they wente forth, that they might come vnto Gedor to the east syde of the valley, to seke pasture for their shepe. And founde fat and good pasture, and a londe large on both the sydes, quyete and riche: for they of Ham dwelt there afore tyme.

C And these that are now described by name, came in the tyme of Ezechias the kynge of Juda, and smote the tentes and dwellinges of those that were founde there, and damned them vnto this daye, and dwelt in their steade, for there had they pasture for their shepe.

There wente of them also (of the children of Simeon) fyve hundreth men vnto mount Seir, with their rulers: Platia, Nearia, Rephaia and Vsiel, the children of Jesei, and smote the remnaunt of the Amalechites (which were escaped) and dwelt there vnto this daye.

The VI. Chapter.

A The children of Ruben the first sonne of Israel: for he was the first sonne, but * because he defyled his fathers bed, therfore was his first byrthrighte geuen vnto the children of Joseph the sonne of Jsrael, & he was not rekened to ỳ first byrthrighte: for vnto Juda which was mightie amonge his brethren, was geuen the pryncipalite before him, and the first byrthrighte vnto Joseph. The children now of Ruben the first sonne of Jsrael are these: Hanoch, Pallu, Hesron and Charmi. Gen. 49. Exo. 6. b Nu. 26. a

The childrē of Johel were, Semaia, whose sonne was Gog, whose sonne was Semei, whose sonne was Micha, whose sonne was Reaia, whose sonne was Baal, whose sonne was Beera, * whom Teglatphalasser the kynge of Assiria caried awaye presoner. He was a prynce amonge the Rubenites. But his brethren amonge his kynreds (whā they were rekened amonge their generacion) had Jeiel and Sacharia to their heades. 4.Re. 15

And Bela the sonne of Asan the sonne of Sema, the sonne of Joel, * dwelt at Aroer, and vntyll Nebo & Baal Meon. And dwelt towarde ỳ East, as one cōmeth to the wyldernes by ỳ water Euphrates: * for their cattell were many in the londe of Gilead. Iosu. 13. c Nu. 32. d

And in ỳ tyme of Saul they foughte agaynst ỳ Agarites, which fell thorow their hande, and they dwelt in their tentes towarde all the East parte of Gilead. B

But the children of Gad dwelt ouer agaynst them in ỳ countre of Basan, vntyll Salcha. Joel the chefest, and Sapham the secōde, Jaenai and Saphat at Basan. And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, Mesullam, Seba, Jorai, Jaecan, Sia and Eber, these seuen.

These are the children of Abihail the sonne of Huri, the sonne of Jaroah, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Michael, the sonne of Jesisai, ỳ sonne of Jahdo, the sonne of Bus. Ahi the sonne of Abdiel, the sonne of Guni was a ruler in ỳ house of their fathers, and they dwelt at Gilead in Basan, and in ỳ vyllages therof, and in all the suburbes of Saron, vnto the vttemost partes therof. All these were rekened in the tyme of Jotham the kynge of Juda, and of Jeroboam the kynge of Jsrael.

The children of Ruben, the Gaddites & the halfe trybe of Manasses (of soch as were fightinge men, which wayne shylde & swerde, and coulde bende the bowe, and were men of armes) were foure and fortye thousande and seuen hundreth and thre score, that wente forth to ỳ warre. And whan they foughte agaynst ỳ Agarites, Jetur, Naphes and C

Nodab helped them, and delyuered ỹ Agarites in to their handes, and all that was wt them: for they cried vnto God in ỹ batayll. And he herde them, because they put their trust in him. And they caried awaie their cattell, fyue thousande Camels, two hundreth & fyftie thousande shepe, two thousande Asses, and an hūdreth thousande soules of men. For there were many wounded, for why? the battayll was of God. And they dwelt in their steade, vntyll the tyme that they were caried awaye presoners.

D Iosu.13.d The childrē of the halfe trybe of Manasses dwelt in ỹ londe * from Basan forth vntyll Baal Hermon & Senir, and mount Hermon: for they were many. And these were ỹ heades of the house of their fathers, Epher, Jesei, Eliel, Asriel, Jeremia, Hodaneia, Jahdiel, mightie valeaunt men, & awncient heades in the house of their fathers.

1.Re.15.d * And whā they synned agaynst ỹ God of their fathers, and wente awhorynge after the goddes of the people of the londe, (whom God had destroyed before them) the God of Israel stered vp the spriete of Phul the kynge of Assiria, and the spriete of Teglatphalassar the kynge of Assiria, and led awaye the Rubenites, Gaddites, and ỹ halfe trybe of Manasses, and broughte thē vnto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the water of Gosan vnto this daye.

The VII. Chapter.

A Gen.46.b The children of Leui were, Gerson, Kahath and Merari. The childrē of Kahath were, Amram, Jezeher, Hebron and Vsiel. The children of Amram were, Aaron, Moses and Miriam. The childrē of Aarō were, Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar and Ithamar. Eleasar begat Phineas. Phineas begat Abisua. Abisua begat Buki. Buki begat Vsi. Vsi begat Serahia. Serahia begat Meraioth. Meraioth begat Amaria. Amaria begat Achitob. Achitob begat Sadoc. Sadoc begat Ahimaas. Ahimaas begat Asaria. Asaria begat Johanan. Johanā begat par.26.c * Asaria: for he was prest in the house ỹ Salomon buylded at Jerusalem. Asaria begat Amaria. Amaria begat Achitob. Achitob begat Zadock. Zadock begat Sallum. 1.Re.22.b Sallum begat * Helchias. Helchias begat 1.Re.25.c Asaria. Asaria begat * Seraia. Seraia begat Josedec. But Josedec was caried awaie whā the LORDE caused Juda & Jerusalē to be led awaye captyue by Nabuchodonosor.

The children of Leui are these: Gerson, Kahath and Merari. These are the names of the children of Gerson: Libni and Semei. The names of the childrē of Kahat are these: Amram, Jezohar, Hebron and Vsiel. The names of the children of Merari are: Maheli and Musi. These are the kynreds of the Leuites amonge their housholdes.

Gersons sonne was Libni, whose sonne was Jahath, whose sonne was Sima, whose sonne was Joah, whose sonne was Jddo, whose sonne was Serah, whose sonne was Jeathrai. Kahats sonne was Aminadab, whose sonne was Corah, whose sonne was Assir, whose sonne was Elcana, whose sonne was Abiasaph, whose sonne was Assir, whose sonne was Thahath, whose sonne was Vriel, whose sonne was Vsia, whose sonne was

The childrē of Elkana were, Ama (Saul. sai & Ahimoth, whose sonne was Elkana, whose sonne was Elkana of Zuph, whose sonne was Nahath, whose sonne was Eliab, whose sonne was Jeroham, whose sonne was Elkana, whose sonne was Samuel. Whose first borne sonnes were Seni and Abija.

Meraris sonne was Maheli, whose sonne was Libni, whose sonne was Simei, whose sonne was Vsa, whose sōne was Simea, whose sōne was Haggia, whose sōne was Asaia.

These are they whom Dauid appoynted to synge in the house of the LORDE, where the Arke rested, & they myniſtred before the habitacion of the Tabernacle of witnes wt synginge, vntyll Salomon had buylded the house of the LORDE at Jerusalem, and they stode after their maner in their office. And these are they ỹ stode & their children. Of ỹ children of Kahath was Heman ỹ synger, the sonne of Joel, the sonne of Samuel, the sonne of Elkana, the sonne of Jeroham, ỹ sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Thoah, the sonne of Zuph, the sonne of Elkana, the sonne of Mahath, the sonne of Amasai, the sonne of Elkana, the sonne of Johel, the sonne of Asaria, the sonne of Sophonias, the sonne of Thahath, the sonne of Assir, the sonne of Abijasaph, the sonne of Corah, the sonne of Jezehar, the sonne of Kahath, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Israel.

And his brother Assaph stode at his right hande, and Assaph was the sonne of Barachia, the sonne of Simea, the sonne of Michael, ỹ sonne of Maeseia, the sonne of Malchija, the sonne of Athin, ỹ sonne of Zerah, the sonne of Adaia, the sonne of Ethan, the sonne of Sima, the sonne of Simei, the sonne of Jahath, the sonne of Gerson, the sonne of Leui.

Their brethren the childrē of Merari, stode on the leste hande, namely, Ethan the sonne of Vsi, the sonne of Abdi, the sonne of Malluch, the sonne of Hasabia, the sonne of Amazia, the sonne of Helchia, ỹ sonne of Amzi, the sonne of Bani, the sonne of Samer, the sonne of Maheli, the sonne of Musi, the sonne of Merari, the sonne of Leui.

As for their brethrē the Leuites, they were geuen to all the offices in the habitacion of the house of the LORDE: but the office of Aaron and his sonnes was to kyndle the fyre vpon the altare of burnt offerynges, and vpon the altare of incense, and to all the busynes in the most holy, and to make attonement for the people, acordinge as Moses ỹ seruaunt of God commaunded.

These are the children of Aaron: Eleasar his sonne, whose sonne was Phineas, whose sonne was Abisua, whose sonne was Buki, whose sonne was Vsi, whose sonne was Serahia, whose sonne was Meraioth, whose sonne was Amaria, whose sonne was Achitob, whose sonne was Sadoc, whose sonne was Ahimaas.

D And this is their habitacion and rowme in their borders, namely of Aarons children of the kynred of ỹ Kahathites: for this lot fell vnto them. * And they gaue thē Hebron 14.d
in the londe of Juda, & the suburbes of the u.b
same rounde aboute. But the selde of ỹ cite & the vyllages therof, gaue they vnto Caleb the sonne of Jephune. Thus gaue they vnto the children of Aaron these fre cities, Hebron & Libna with their suburbes, Jather, & Esthemoa, Hilen, Debir, Asan and Bethsemes, with their suburbes. And out of the tribe of Ben Jamin, Geba, Alemeth and Anathot wt their suburbes, so ỹ all the cities in their kinred were thirtene. The other childrē of Kahath of their kynred, had out of ỹ halfe trybe of Manasses, ten cities by lot. The children of Gerson of their kynred, had out of ỹ trybe of Jsachar, & out of the trybe of Asser, & out of the trybe of Nephtali, & out of the trybe of Manasses in Basan, thirtene cities. The childrē of Merari of their kynred, had by lot out of the trybe of Ruben, & out of the trybe of Gad, and out of the trybe of Zabulon, twolue cities.

And vnto ỹ Leuites gaue the childrē of Jsrael cities with their suburbes, namely by lot, out the trybe of the children of Juda, & out of the trybe of the childrē of Simeon, & out of the trybe of the children of Ben Jamin, euen those cities, which they appointed E
by name. * But the kynreds of the children 21.c
of Kahath had the cities of their borders out of the trybe of Ephraim.

So gaue they now vnto thē (namely vnto the kynred of the children of Kahath) ỹ fre cities, Sichem vpon mount Ephraim, Geser, Jakmeam, Bethoron, Aialon, and Gath Rimon with their suburbes. And out of ỹ halfe trybe of Manasses, Aner and Bileam with their suburbes. But vnto the children of Gerson they gaue out of the kynred of the halfe trybe of Manasses, Golā in Basan and Astharoth with their suburbes. Out of the trybe of Jsachar, Kedes, Dabrath Ramoth, and Anem with their suburbes. Out of the trybe of Asser, Masal, Abdō, Hukoh and Sehob, with their suburbes. Out of the trybe of Nephtali, Kedes in Galile, Hāmon and Kiriathaim with their suburbes. Vnto the other children of Merari gaue they out of the trybe of Zabulon, Rimano and Thabor with their suburbes. And beyōde Jordane ouer agaynst Jericho eastwarde besyde Jordane out of the trybe of Ruben, Bezer in the wildernes, Jahza, Kedemoth and Mepaath with their suburbes. Out of the trybe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, Heßbon and Jaeser with their suburbes.

The VIII. Chapter.

The children of Jsachar were, Thola, Pua, Jasub and Simrom, these foure. The children of Thola were, Vsi, Rephaia, Jeriel, Jahemai and Jebsam and Samuel, heades in the house of their fathers of Thola, & mighty men in their kynred, * in nombre in the tyme of Dauid, two 2.Re.24.
and twentye thousande and fyre hundreth. The children of Vsi were, Jesrahia. The children of Jesrahia were, Michael, and Obedia, Joel and Jesia: all these fyue were heades. And with them amonge their kynred in the house of their fathers there were ready harnessed men of warre to the battayll, fyre and thirtie thousande: for they had many wiues and children. And the mightie men of their brethren in all the kynreds of Jsachar, were seuē and foure score thousande, and were all nombred. A

The children of Ben Jamin, were, Bela, Becher, and Jedieel, these thre. The children of Bela, were, Ezbon, Vsi, Vsiel, Jeremoth & Jri, these fyue, heades in ỹ house of their fathers, mightie men: and were nombred two & twentie thousande and foure and thyrtie. B

The children of Nephtali were: Jahziel, Gen. 30. b Guni, Jezer and Sallum, * the children of Bilha.

The children of Manasses are these: Esriel, whom his concubyne Aramiel dyd beare. * But (first) begat he Machir the father Iosu. 17. a of Gilead. And Machir gaue wyues vnto Hupim & Supim, & their sisters name was Maecha. His secōde sonnes name was Zelaphehad. * And Zelaphehad had doughters. Num. 26. d 27. a. 36. a And Maecha ỳ wife of Machir bare a sōme whose name was Phares, & his brothers name was Sares, and his sonnes were Ulam and Rakem. Ulams sonne was Bedam. These are the children of Gilead ỳ sonne of Machir the sonne of Manasses. And his sister Molecheth bare Ishud, Abieser and Mahela. And Semida had these children: Ahean, Sichem, Likhi and Aniam.

C The children of Ephraim were these: Suthelah, whose sonne was Bered, whose sonne was Thahath, whose sonne was Eleada, whose sonne was Thahath, whose sonne was Sabad, whose sonne was Suthelah, whose sonne was Eser and Elead. And the men of Gath, that dwelt in the londe, slewe them, because they were gone downe to take their catell. And their father Ephraim mourned for them a longe season, and his brethren came to comforte him.

And he wente in to his wife, which conceaued, and bare a sonne, whom he called Bria, because of the aduersite that was in his house. His doughter was Seera, which builded the lower and vpper Bethoron, & Vsen Serea. Whose sonne was Rephad & Reseph, whose sonne was Thelah, whose sonne was Thahan, whose sonne was Laedan, whose sonne was Ammihud, whose sonne was Elisama, whose sonne was Nun, whose sonne was Josua.

And their substaunce & dwellynge was, Bethel and the vyllages therof, and towarde the East syde of Naeran, and towarde the westparte of Geser and ỳ vyllages therof. Sechem and hir vyllages vnto Aia and hir vyllages. And by the children of Manasses, Bethsean and ỳ vyllages therof, Thanach and the vyllages therof, Dor and the vyllages therof. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the sonne of Israel.

Moza begat Binea, whose sonne was Rapha, whose sonne was Eleasa, whose sonne was Azel. Azel had sixe sonnes, whose names were: Esricam, Bochru, Jesmael, Searia, Abadia, Hanan, all these were the sonnes of Azel.

The children of Esek his brother were: Vlam his first sonne, Jeus the seconde, Elipelet the thirde. The children of Vlam were valeaunt men, and coulde handell bowes, and had many sonnes, and sonnes sonnes an hundreth and fiftye. All these are of the children of Ben Jamin.

The X. Chapter.

AND all Israel were nombred: and beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Israel and Juda, and now are they caried awaie vnto Babilō for their synne, euen they ỹ afore dwelt in their possessions and cities, namely Israel, ỹ prestes, Leuites and Nethinim. But at Jerusalem dwelt certayne of the children of Juda, some of the children of Ben Jamin, some of the children of Ephraim and of Manasses. * Namely of the children of Phares the sonne of Juda, was Vthai the sonne of Ammihud the sonne of Amri, the sonne of Imri, the sonne of Bani. Of Solomi, Asaia ỹ first sonne, and his other sonnes. Of the children of Serah, Jeguel and his brethren, sixe hundreth, foure score and ten.

Of the children of Ben Jamin, Sallu ỹ sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Hodauia, ỹ sonne of Hasnua. And Jebneia the sonne of Jeroham. And Ela the sonne of Vsi the sonne of Michri. And Mesullam the sonne of Sephatia the sonne of Reguel the sonne of Jebneia. And their brethren in their kinreds nyne hundreth and syxe and fyftye. All these were heades of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

Of the prestes: Jedaia, Joiarib, Jachin, And Asaria the sonne of Helchia, the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Meraioth, the sonne of Achitob, prynce in the house of God. And Adaia the sonne of Jeroham, the sonne of Pashur, the sonne of Malchia. And Maesai the sonne of Adiel the sonne of Jachsera, the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Messylemeth, the sonne of Immer. And their brethren heades in the house of their fathers a thousande, seuen hundreth and three score valeaunt men in executynge the offyce in the house of God.

Of the Leuites of the children of Merari, Semaia the sonne of Hasub, the sonne of Asrikam, the sonne of Hasabia. And Bakbakar the carpenter and Galal. And Mathania ỹ sonne of Micha ỹ sonne of Sichri, the sonne of Assaph. And Obadia the sonne of Semaia, the sonne of Galal, ỹ sonne of Elkana, which dwelt in the vyllages of the Netophatites.

The porters were: Sallum, Acub, Talmon, Ahiman, with their brethren, and Sallum the cheefe: for hither to had the children of Leui kepte the watch at the eastsyde of the kinges gate by armies. And Sallum the sonne of Core, the sonne of Abiassaph, the sonne of Corah, and his brethren of his fathers house.

The Corahytes were in the worke of the seruyce, to kepe the thresholdes of the Tabernacle: and their fathers in the hoost of the LORDE, to kepe the intraunce. Phineas the sonne of Eleasar was the prynce ouer them, because the LORDE had bene with him before. Sacharia the sonne of Meselemia was keper at the dore of the Tabernacle of witnesse.

All these were chosen out to be kepers of the thresholdes euen two hundreth and twolue. These were nombred in their vyllages. And Dauid and Samuel the Seer fou̇ded them thorow their faith, that they and their children shulde kepe the house of the LORDE, namely to kepe the watch of ỹ house of the Tabernacle.

These dorekepers were appointed towarde the foure wyndes, towarde the East, towarde the West, towarde the North, towar de ȳ South. But their brethrē were in their vyllages, that they might come all waye en the seuenth daye to be with them: for vnto these foure maner of chefe dorkepers were the Leuites committed. And they had the ouersight of the chestes and treasures in ȳ house of God.

In the nyghte seasō also remayned they aboute the house of God: for their dewtye was to geue attendaunce to open euery mornynge. And some of them had the ouersight of the mynistrynge vessell: for they bare the vessell out and in. And some of thē were appoynted ouer the vessell, and ouer all the holy vessell, ouer the fine wheate floure, ouer ȳ wyne, ouer the oile, ouer the frankencense, ouer the swete odoures: but some of ȳ prestes

Vnto Mathithia one of the Leuites the fyrst sonne of Sallum the Corahite, were ȳ pannes cōmytted. And certayne of the Kahathites their brethren were appointed ouer the shewbred, to prepare it euery Sabbath daye.

℣ These are the heades of the singers amōge the fathers of the Leuites chosen out ouer the chestes: for daye and nyght were they in worke withall. These are the heades of ȳ fathers amonge ȳ Leuites in their kinreds. These dwelt at Jerusalem.

1. Par. 9. d *At Gibeon dwelt Jeiel the father of Gibeon, his wiues name was Maecha, and his fyrst sonne Abdon, Zur, Cis, Baal, Ner, Nadab, Gedor, Ahaio, Sacharia, Mikloth. Mikloth begat Simeam. And they dwelt also aboute their brethren at Jerusalem amonge theirs. Ner begat Cis, Cis begat Saul, Saul begat Jonathas, Malchisua, Abinadab, Esbaal. The sonne of Jonathas was Meribaal. Meribaal begat Micha. The childrē of Micha were, Pithon, Melech and Thaherea. Ahas begat Jaera, Jaera begat Alemeth, Asmaueth and Simri. Simri begat Moza. Moza begat Binea, whose sonne was Raphaia, whose sonne was Eleasa, whose sonne was Azel. Azel had sixe sonnes, whose names were: Asrikam, Bochru, Jesmael, Searia, Obadia, Hanan. These are the childrē of Azel.

The XI. Chapter.

A 1. Re. 31. a The Philistynes fought agaynst Israel. And they of Israel fled before the Philistynes, and ȳ wounded fell vpon mount Gilboa. And the Philistynes followed vpon Saul and his sonnes, and smote Jonathās, Abinadab and Malchisua ȳ sonnes of Saul. And the battayll was sore agaynst Saul. And the archers came vpon him, so that he was wounded of the archers. Then sayde Saul vnto his weapenbearer: Drawe out thy swerde, and thrust it thorow me, that these vncircumcysed come not, and deale shamefully with me. Nevertheles his weapenbearer wolde not, for he was sore afrayed. Then toke Saul his swerde, and fell therin. Whan his weapenbearer sawe that Saul was deed, he fell vpon his swerde also, and dyed.

Thus died Saul and his thre sonnes, and all his housholde together. And whan the men of Israel which were in ȳ valley, sawe, that Saul and his sonnes were deed, they lefte their cities and fled: and the Philistynes came and dwelt therin.

On the morowe came the Philistynes to spoyle the slayne, and founde Saul, and his sonnes lyenge vpon mount Gelboa, and stryped him out, and toke his heade, and his harnesse, and sent it aboute in to ȳ londe of the Philistynes, and caused it to be shewed before their Idoles and the people. And his weapens layed they in the house of their god, and stycked vp his heade vpon the house of Dagon.

But whan all they of Jabes in Gilead herde of euery thinge, that the Philistynes had done vnto Saul, they gat them vp (as many as were men of armes) and toke the body of Saul and of his sonnes, and brought them vnto Jabes, and buryed their bones vnder the Oke at Jabes, and fasted seuen dayes.

Thus dyed Saul in his trespace which he committed agaynst the LORDE, because * he kepte not the worde of the LORDE: & because he axed councell at the soythsayer, and axed not at the LORDE, therfore slewe he him, & turned the kyngdome vnto Dauid.

The XII. Chapter.

AND all Israel resorted to Dauid vnto Hebron, and sayde: Behelde, we are ȳ bone and thy flesh. And afore tyme whan Saul reigned, thou leddest Israel out and in. So the LORDE thy God hath sayde vnto the: Thou shalt kepe my people of Israel, and thou shalt be the prynce ouer my people of Israel. And all the Elders of Israel came to the kynge vnto Hebron. And Dauid made a couenaunt with them at Hebron before the LORDE. And they anoynted Dauid to be kynge ouer Israel * acordynge to the worde of the LORDE by Samuel.

And Joiada the prynce amonge them of Aaron with three thousande and seuen hundreth. Sadoc the yonge valeaunt man of armes with his fathers house, two and twentye rulers. Of the children of Ben Jamin Sauls brother, three thousande: for vnto that time helde many of thē yet with the house of Saul.

Of ỹ children of Ephraim, twentie thousande and eighte hundreth valeaunt men of armes, and famous in the house of their fathers. Of the halfe trybe of Manasses, eightenē thousande, named by name, to come and make Dauid kynge. Of the children of Jachar (which were men of vnderstondynge, whan nede requyred to knowe what Jsrael shulde do) two hundreth captaynes, and all their brethren folowed their worde. Of Sebulon, soch as wente forth in the hoost to ỹ warre, ready with all maner of weapens for the battayll, fyftye thousande, beynge of one mynde to kepe them selues in ordre.

Of Nephtali, a thousande captaynes, & with them soch as handled shylde and speare, seuen and thyrtie thousande. Of Dan, redy harnessed to the battayll, eight and twentye thousande, and sixe hundreth. Of Asser, soch as wente forth in ỹ hoost, ready harnessed to the battayll, fortye thousande. From beyonde Jordane, of the Rubenites, Gaddites and the halfe trybe of Manasses, with all maner of weapens to the battayll, an hūdreth and twentye thousande.

All these men of warre, ready harnessed to the battayll, came with a whole hert vnto Hebron, to make Dauid kynge ouer all Jsrael. And all Jsrael besyde were of one hert, that Dauid shulde be made kynge. And there were they with Dauid three dayes, eatynge and drynkynge: for their brethren had prepared for them. And soch neghbours were aboute them vntyll Issachar, Zabulon and Nephtali, brought bred vpon Asses, Camels, Mules and oxen to eate: meel, fyges, rasens, wyne, oyle, oxen, shepe, very many: for there was ioye in Israel.

The XIIII. Chapter.

A 6.a AND David helde a councell with the captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, and with all the princes, and sayde vnto all the congregacion of Israel: Yf it lyke you, and yf it be of the LORDE oure God, let vs sende forth on euery syde to oure other brethren in all the countrees of Israel, and to the prestes and Leuites in the cities where they haue suburbes, that they maye be gathered together vnto vs, and let vs fetch the Arke of oure God agayne vnto vs: for by Sauls tyme we axed after it. Thē sayde the whole cōgregacion, that the same shulde be done, for it pleased all the people well.

So David gathered all Israel together from Sihor of Egipte, tyll a man come vnto Hemath, to fetch the Arke of God from Kiriath Jearim. And David wente vp w̄ all Israel to Kiriath Jearim, which lieth in Juda, to bringe from thence the Arke of God the LORDE, that sytteth vpō the Cherubins, where the name is named: and they caused the Arke of God to be caried vpō a new cart from the house of Abinadab.

B Vsa and his brethren droue the cart. As for David and all Israel, they played with all their strength before God, with songes, with harpes, with psalteries, with tabrettes, with Cymbales and trompes.

But whan they came to the barne floore of Chidon, Vsa stretched out his hande to holde the Arke: for the oxen wente out aside. Then waxed the wrath of the LORDE fearce ouer Vsa, and smote him, because he stretched out his hāde to the Arke, so that he dyed there before God. Thē was David sory, because the LORDE had made sochy a rente vpō Vsa, and called the place Perez Vsa, vnto this daye. And David stode in feare of God the same daye, and sayde: How shal I bringe the Arke of God vnto me? Therfore wolde he not let the Arke of God be broughte vnto him in to the cite of David, but caried it in to the house of Obed Edom the Gathite. So the Arke of God abode with Obed Edom in his house thre monethes. And the LORDE blessed Obed Edoms house and all that he had.

The XV. Chapter.

A 2.reg.5.c AND Hiram the kynge of Tyre sent messaungers vnto David and Cedre tymber, and masons and carpenters, to buylde him an house. And David perceaued, that the LORDE had confirmed him kynge ouer Israel: for his kyngdome increased for his people of Israels sake. And David toke yet mo wyues at Jerusalem, and begat yet mo sonnes and doughters. And the names of them that were borne vnto him at Jerusalem, are these: Sammua, Sobab, Nathan, Salomon, Jebehar, Elisua, Elipalet, Noga, Nepheg, Japhia, Elisamma, Baal Jada, Eliphalet.

And whan the Philistynes herde that B
David was anoynted kynge ouer all Israel, they wente vp all to seke David. Whan David herde that, he wente forth agaynst them. And the Philistynes came, and scatered thē selues beneth in the valley of Rephaim. And David axed councell at God, and sayde: Shal I go vp agaynst the Philistynes? and wilt thou delyuer them in to my hande? The LORDE sayde vnto him: Go vp, and I wil delyuer them in to thy hande. And whan they were gone vp to Baal Prasim, David smote them there. And David sayde: God hath deuyded myne enemies thorow my hande, euen as the water parteth asunder: therfore called they the place Baal Prasim. And there lefte they their goddes. Then * commaunded David to burne them with fyre. Deut. 7.

But the Philistynes gat them thither a- C

the valley. And David axed councell at God agayne. And God sayde vnto him: Thou shalt not go vp behynde them, but turne the from them, that thou mayest come vpon thē ouer agaynst the peertrees. So whan thou hearest aboue vpon the peertrees the noyse of the goynge, go thou forth then to the batayll: for God is gone forth then before the to smyte the hooste of the Philistynes. And David dyd as God commaunded him. And they smote the hooste of the Philistynes from Gibeon forth vnto Gaser. And Davids name was noysed out in all londes. And the LORDE caused the feare of him to come vpō all the heythen.

The XVI. Chapter.

AND he buylded him houses in the cite A of David, and made ready a place for the Arke of God, and pitched a Tabernacle for it. At that tyme sayde David: The Arke of God is not to be borne, but onely of the Leuites: * for them hath the LORDE chosen to beare the Arke of the LORDE, and to minister vnto him for euer. Therfore gathered David all Israel together vnto Jerusalem, to bringe vp the Arke of the LORDE Num.4.

vnto the place which he had prepared for it.

And Dauid broughte the children of Aaron & the Leuites together. Of the children of Kahath: Vriel the chefe wt his brethren, an C. and twentye. Of the children of Merari: Asaia the chefe wt his brethrē, two C. and twentye. Of the childrē of Gerson: Joel the chefe wt his brethren, an C. and thirtie. Of ỹ childrē of Elizaphan: Semaia the chefe wt his brethren, two hundreth. Of the childrē of Hebron: Eliel the chefe, with his brethrē, foure score. Of the children of Vsiel: Amminadab the chefe, with his brethren, an hūdreth and twolue.

B And Dauid called Sadoc and Abiathar the prestes, and the Leuites, namely Vriel, Asaia, Joeli, Semaia, Eliel, Aminadab, and sayde vnto them: Ye are the heades of ỹ fathers amonge the Leuites: sanctifye yo⁹ selues therfore & youre brethrē, ỹ ye maye bringe vp the Arke of the LORDE God of Israel, to the place ỹ I haue prepared for it.

Par. 1. 4. b * For afore whan ye were not there, the LORDE oure God made a rent amonge vs, because we soughte him not, as we shulde haue done. So ỹ prestes & the Leuites halowed thē selues, ỹ they mighte bringe vp the Arke of the LORDE God of Israel. And the children of Leui bare the Arke of God the LORDE vpon their shulders with the staues theron, xo. 25. b * as Moses cōmaunded accordinge to ỹ worde of the LORDE.

And Dauid spake vnto ỹ rulers of ỹ Leuites, that they shulde ordeyne some of their brethren to be syngers with psalteries, harpes and loude instrumentes, and Cimbales, to synge loude with ioye.

C Then the Leuites appoynted Heman ỹ sonne of Joel: and of his brethren Assaph the sonne of Barachias: and of the children of Merari their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Cusaia: and with them their brethren of the seconde course, namely Zacharias, Jaesiel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Vnni, Eliab, Benaia, Maeseia, Mathithia, Elipheleia, Mikneia, Obed Edom, Jeiel, the dore kepers. For Heman, Assaph and Ethan were syngers, with brasen belles makynge a loude noyse: but Zacharias, Jaesiel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Vnni, Eliab, Maeseia & Benaia with phalteries to Alamoth: Mathithia, Elipheleia, Mikneia, Obed Edom, Jeiel & Asasia with harpes to synge aboue them on hye. Chenania the ruler of the Leuites was the master of Musick to teach them for to synge, for he was a man of vnderstondinge.

And Barachias and Elcana were the dorekepers of the Arke. But Sachania, Josaphar, Nathaneel, Amasai, Zacharias, Benaia, Elieser the prestes, blewe the trompettes before ỹ Arke of God. And Obed Edom and Jehia were dorekepers of the Arke.

So Dauid and the Elders of Israel, and D the captaynes ouer thousandes wente vp to fetch the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE out of the house of Obed Edom wt ioye. And whan God had holped the Leuites ỹ bare the Arke of the LORDES couenaunt, there were offred seuen bullockes & seuen rāmes. And Dauid had a lynnē garment vpō him, and so had all the Leuites ỹ bare the Arke, and ỹ syngers, and Chenania the master of Musick wt the syngers. Dauid had an ouerbody cote of lynnen vpon him alsō.

Thus all Israel brought vp the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE with myrth, with trompettes, tabrettes, & loude Cymbales, with psalteries and harpes. Now whan the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE came in to the cite of Dauid, Michol ỹ doughter of Saul loked out at a wyndowe: & whē she sawe kynge Dauid daunsynge & playenge, she despysed him in hir hert.

The XVII. Chapter.

AND whā they brought in the Arke of 2 God, they set it in ỹ Tabernacle, that Dauid had pitched for it, and offred burntofferynges & thankofferynges before God. And whā Dauid had ended the burntofferynges and thankofferynges, he blessed the people in the name of the LORDE, & distributed vnto euery man in Israel (both vnto man and woman) a cake of bred, and a pece of flesh and a meece of potage.

And he appoynted before the Arke of ỹ LORDE certayne Leuites to mynister, that they shulde geue prayse, thankes and loauinges vnto the LORDE God of Israel: namely Assaph the first, Zacharias the seconde, Jeiel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Mathithia, Eliab, Benaia, Obed Edom and Jehiel, with psalteries and harpes. But Assaph with loude Cymbales. Benaia and Jehasiel the prestes with tabrettes, allwaye before the Arke of ỹ couenaunt of God.

At the same tyme ordeyned Dauid first of 2 all to geue thākes vnto the LORDE by Assaph and his brethren.

O geue thankes vnto the LORDE, call Ps. vpon his name, tell the people what thinges he hath done.

O let youre songes be of him: prayse him, and let youre talkynge be of all his wonderous workes.

Geue his holy name a good reporte: let ỳ hert of them reioyce, that sẽke the LORDE.

O sẽke the LORDE and his strength, sẽke his face euermore.

Remẽbre his maruelous workes that he hath done, his wonders, and the iudgmẽtes of his mouth.

Ye sede of Israel his seruaunt, ye childrẽ of Jacob his chosẽ.

He is the LORDE oure God, his iudgmẽtes are in all londes.

C Be myndefull euer of his couenaũt what he hath commaunded in to a thousande generacions.

* Which he made with Abraham, & * his ooth vnto Isaac.

And he * comfirmed the same vnto Jacob for a perpetuall lawe, and to Israel for an euerlastinge couenaunt.

And sayde: Vnto the wyl I geue ỳ londe of Canaan, ỳ metelyne of yo' inheritaunce.

Whã they were yet but small & fewe in nõbre, and straungers in the same londe.

And they wente from one nacion to another, & from one realme to another people.

He suffred no man to hurte them, and reproued euen kynges for their sakes.

* Touch not myne anoynted, & do my prophetes no harme.

O synge vnto ỳ LORDE, let all ỳ earth be tellynge of his saluacion from daye to daye.

Declare his holynes amõge the heythẽ, & his wonderous workes amonge ỳ people.

For the LORDE is greate, and can not worthely be praysed, and more to be had in awe then all goddes.

As for all the goddes of the heythẽ, they are but Idols: * but it is the LORDE that made the heauens.

Thankes geuynge and worshipe are before him, strength and ioye is in his place.

Ascrybe vnto the LORDE ye kynreds of nacions: ascrybe vnto the LORDE worshipe and strength.

Ascrybe vnto the LORDE the honoure of his name: brynge presentes, and come before him, and worshipe ỳ LORDE in ỳ bewtye of holynes.

Let the whole earth stõde in awe of him: he hath made the compase of the worlde so fast, that it can not be moued.

Let the heauens reioyse, and let the earth be glad: and let it be tolde amonge the heythen, that the LORDE reigneth.

Let the See make a noyse, and the fulnesse therof: let the felde be ioyfull, and all that therin is.

Let all the trees in the wod leape for ioye before the LORDE, for he commeth to iudge the earth.

O geue thankes vnto the LORDE, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

And saye: Helpe vs O God oure Sauiour, and gather vs together, and delyuer vs from the heythen, that we maye geue thankes vnto ỳ holy name, and synge prayses vnto the in thy psalmes.

Praysed be the LORDE God of Israel from euerlastinge to euerlastinge: and let all people saye, Amen, And: prayse be vnto the LORDE.

So he lefte Assaph and his brethren there before the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE, to mynister allwaye before the Arke, euery daye his daye worke. But Obed Edom and their brethren, eight and threscore, and Obed Edom the sonne of Jedithun, and Hossa, to be dore kepers. And Sadoc ỳ prest, & his brethrẽ the prestes, lefte he before the habitacion of the LORDE vpon the hye place at Gibeõ, to offre burntsacrifices dayly vnto the LORDE vpon the altare of burnt offerynges in the mornynge & in the euenynge, as it is wrytten in the * lawe of the LORDE, which he cõmaunded vnto Israel. And with them Heman & Jedithun, and ỳ other chosen, which were named by name to geue thankes vnto the LORDE, because his mercy endureth for euer. And with them Heman & Jedithun to stryke vpon the tabrettes and Cymbales, and the musicall instrumentes of God. As for the childrẽ of Jedithun, he made them dorekepers. So all the people departed, euery one to his house: and Dauid returned also to blesse his house.

E Exo. 29. j Nu. 28. a

The XVIII. Chapter.

A IT fortuned whã Dauid dwelt in his house, he sayde vnto ỳ prophet Nathan: Beholde, I dwell in a house of Ceder, and the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE is amonge the curtaynes. 2. Re. 7. a

Nathan saide vnto Dauid: What so euer is in thine hert, that do: for God is with ỳ. But the same night came ỳ worde of God vnto Nathan, and sayde: Go and speake to Dauid my seruaunt: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Thou shalt not buylde me an house to be an habitaciõ: for I haue dwelt in no house sence the daye that I broughte forth the childrẽ of Israel, vnto this daye: But where the Tabernacle and habitacion hath bene, there haue I bene where so euer I haue walked in all Israel. Spake I euer to eny of the Judges in Israel (whom I commaunded to kepe my people) and sayde: Wherfore do ye not buylde me an house of Cedre tymber?

B So shalt thou speake now vnto my seruaunt Dauid: Thus sayeth the LORDE Zebaoth: I toke the from the pasture behynde the shepe, that thou shuldest be the prynce ouer my people, and haue bene with the whither so euer thou wentest, and haue roted out all thine enemies before the, and haue made the a name, acordinge to the name of the greate men that are vpō earth. And for my people of Israel, I wyll appoynte them a place, and wyl plante them, that they maye dwell there, and nomore to be remoued. And the childrē of wickednes shal oppresse them nomore, like as afore tyme, whan I cōmaunded the Judges ouer my people of Israel. And I wyl subdue all thine enemies, and do declare vnto the, that the LORDE wyl buylde the an house.

2. Re. 7. c
Psal. 131. b
* But whan thy dayes are fulfilled, that thou departest hence with ỳ fathers, I wyl after the rayse vp ỳ sede, which shall be euē one of thy sonnes: his kyngdome wyl I stablisshe, he shal buylde me an house, & I wyl make his seate sure for euer. I wyl be his father, and he shal be my sonne. And I wyl not withdrawe my mercy from him, as I haue withdrawen it frō him that was before the: But I wyll set him in my house and in my kyngdome for euer, so that his seate shalbe sure for euermore.

C And whā Nathan had spoken vnto Dauid acordinge to all these wordes & all this vision, kynge Dauid came and sat him downe before the LORDE, and sayde: O LORDE God, who am I? and what is my house, ỳ thou hast broughte me thus farre? And this (O God) hast thou thoughte yet to litle, but hast spoken of thy seruauntes house yet longe for to come. And thou LORDE God hast loked downe vpon me from aboue, euen as one man loketh vpon another. What more shal Dauid saye vnto the, ỳ thou bryngest ỳ seruaunt to soch honoure? Thou knowest thy seruaunt O LORDE, for thy seruauntes sake and acordinge to thy hert hast thou done all these greate thinges, that thou mightest shewe all greate thinges vnto thy seruaunt.

Deut. 32. f
LORDE, * there is none lykel the, and there is no God but thou, of whom we haue herde with oure eares. And * where is there a people vpon earth as thy people of Israel, where God wente to delyuer him a people, and to make him selfe a name thorow greate & terrible thinges, to cast out the heythen before thy people, whom thou hast delyuered out of Egipte? and ỳ people of Israel hast thou made ỳ people for euer, and thou LORDE art become their God.

Now LORDE, let the worde be verified for euer, that thou hast spoken ouer thy seruaunt and ouer his house, & do as thou hast spoken: and let thy name endure and be magnified for euer, that it maye sayde: The LORDE Zebaoth, the God of Israel is the God in Israel, and that the house of thy seruaunt Dauid maye be stablyßshed before the: for thou LORDE hast opened the eare of ỳ seruaunt, that thou wilt buylde him an house. Therfore hath thy seruaunt founde (confydence) to make his prayer before the. Now LORDE, thou art God, and hast promysed soch good vnto thy seruaunt. Begynne now to blesse the house of thy seruaunt, that it maye be euermore before the: for loke what thou blessest (O LORDE) the same is blessed for euer.

The XIX. Chapter.

After this smote Dauid the Philisthynes, and subdued them, and toke Gath & the vyllages therof out of the hande of the Philistynes. He smote the Moabites likewyse, so that the Moabites were subdued vnto Dauid, and gaue him trybute. He smote Hadad Eser also ỳ kynge of Zoba in Hemath, whan he wente to set vp his power by the water Euphrates.

And Dauid toke from him a thousande charettes, seuen thousande horsmen, and twē tye thousande fote men. And Dauid lamed all the charettes, and kepte an hundreth charettes ouer. And the Syriās came from Damascon, to helpe Hadad Eser the kynge of Zoba. Howbeit Dauid smote two & twentie thousande of the same Syrians, and layed men of warre at Damascon in Syria, so that the Syrians were subdued vnto Dauid, and broughte him trybute. For the LORDE helped Dauid, whither so euer he wente.

And Dauid toke the shyldes of golde, ỳ Hadad Esers seruaūtes had, & broughte thē to Jerusalē. And out of Tibehath & Chun the cities of Hadad Eser, toke Dauid very moch brasse, * where of Salomon made the brasen lauer, and pilers, and brasen vessels.

And whā Thogu the kynge of Hemath herde, ỳ Dauid had smytten all ỳ power of Hadad Eser, he sent his sonne Hadoā vnto kynge Dauid, to salute him & to blesse him, because he had foughtē wt Hadad Eser, & smytē hī (for Thogu had warre wt Hadad Eser) and all the same vessels of golde, syluer and of brasse, dyd kynge Dauid consecrate vnto the LORDE, with the syluer and golde that he had taken from the heythē, namely, from the Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites, philistynes, and Amalechites.

C And Abisai the sonne of Zeru Jasmote eighteene thousande of the Edomites in the Salt valley, and layed mē of warre in Edomea, so that all the Edomites were subdued vnto Dauid: for ỳ LORDE helped Dauid, whither so euer he wente.

Thus Dauid reigned ouer all Jsrael, and 2.a.c executed iudgment and righteousnes vnto all the people. Joab the sonne of Zeru Ja was captayne ouer the hoost. Josaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Chaunceler. Sadac the sonne of Achitob, and Ahimelech ỳ sonne of Abiathar, were prestes. Sauesa was Scrybe. Benaia the sonne of Joiada was 2.a.c ouer the Chrethians & Plethians. * And Dauids sonnes were chefe at ỳ kynges hande.

The XX. Chapter.

A Nd after this dyed Nahas ỳ kynge 10.a of the childrē of Ammon, and his sonne was kynge in his steade. Then sayde Dauid: Jwil do mercy vpon Hanun the sonne of Nahas, for his father dyd mercy vpon me: and so he sent messaungers to comforte him ouer his father. And whā Dauids seruauntes came in to the londe of the children of Ammon vnto Hanun to comforte him, the prynces of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanun: Thinkest thou that Dauid honoureth thy father in thy sighte, that he hath sent cōforters vnto the? Nee his seruauntes are come vnto the, to search and to ouerthrowe, and to spye out the londe. Then toke Hanun the seruauntes of Dauid, and shoue them, & cut the halfe of their garmentes of, euē by the loynes, & so let thē go. And they wente their waye, & sent men to tell Dauid. Neuertheles he sent to mete them (for ỳ B men were put to great shame) and the kynge sayde: Abyde at Jericho, tyll youre beerdes be growne, and then come agayne.

Whan the childrē of Ammon sawe, that they stynked in ỳ sighte of Dauid, both Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousande talētes of syluer, to hyre charettes and horsmen out of Mesopotania, out of Maecha and out of Zoba: and hyred two and thirtie thousande charettes, & ỳ kynge of Maecha with his people, which came & pitched their tentes before Medba. And the children of Ammon gathered them selues together out of their cities, and came to the battayll.

Whan Dauid herde that, he sent Joab thither with all the hoost of the men of armes. And the childrē of Ammon were gone forth, and prepared them selues to the battayll before the gate of the cite. But the kynges ỳ were come, kepte them asyde in the felde.

Now whā Joab sawe that the battayll C was agaynst him both before and behynde, he chosē of all the best yonge men in Jsrael, and prepared him selfe agaynst ỳ Syrians. As for ỳ residue of the people, he put them vnder the hande of Abisai his brother, that they shulde prepare them selues agaynst the children of Ammon, and he sayde: Yf ỳ Syriās be to mightie for me, helpe thou me: but yf the childrē of Ammon be to strōge for ỳ, Jshall helpe the: take a good corage vnto the, and let vs quyte oure selues manly for oure people and for the cities of oure God: neuertheles the LORDE do what pleaseth him. And Joab made him forth with ỳ people that was with him, to fighte agaynst ỳ Syrians: & they fled before him. And whan the children of Ammon sawe ỳ the Syrians fled, they fled also before Abisai his brother, and wente in to the cite. And Joab came to Jerusalem.

But whan the Syrians sawe that they D were smyttē before Jsrael, they sent messaungers, and brought forth ỳ Syrians which were beyonde the water. And Sophach the chefe captayne of Hadad Eser wente before them. Whā this was tolde Dauid, he gathered all Jsrael together, and wente ouer Jordane. And whan he came at them, he set ỳ battayll in araye agaynst them. And Dauid prepared him selfe to ỳ battayll agaynst ỳ Syrians, & they foughte with him: but ỳ Syriās fled before Jsrael. And Dauid slewe of the Syrians seuen thousande charettes, & fortye thousande fote men. And Sophach the chefe captayne slewe he also. And whan Hadad Esers seruauntes sawe that they were smyttē before Jsrael, they made peace wt Dauid & his seruauntes. And the Syrians wolde helpe the childrē of Ammon nomore.

The XXI. Chapter.

A Nd whan ỳ yeare came aboute, what A tyme as ỳ kynges vse to go forth, Joab brought the power of the hoost, 2.Re.11 & destroyed the londe of the children of Ammon, and came and layed sege vnto Rabba. But Dauid abode at Jerusalem. * And Joab smote Rabba, and brake it downe. 2.Re.12 And Dauid toke their kynges crowne from his heade, and founde the weighte of a talent of golde therin, & precious stones. And it was set vpō Dauids heade. And very moch spoyle caried he out of the cite. As for the people that were therin, he broughte thē forth, & parted them in sunder wt sawes, & hokes & betels of yron. Thus dyd Dauid vnto all ỳ cities of the childrē of Ammon. And Dauid departed againe, with the people vnto Jerusalem.

B Afterwarde arose there warre at Gasar with the Philistynes. Then Sibechai ỳ Husathite smote Sibai, which was one of the children of Rephaim, and he subdued him. And there arose warre agayne wt the Philistynes. Thē Elhamah ỳ sonne of Jair smote Lahemi ỳ brother of Goliath ỳ Gathite, whose speares staff was like a weuers leme. Afterwarde was there a battayll at Gath, where there was a man of a greate stature, ỳ had sixe fyngers and sixe toes, which make foure and twentye. And he was borne also of Rapha, and spake despytefully vnto Israel. But Jonathas the sonne of Simea Dauids brother smote him. These were the childrē of Rapha at Gath, & fell thorow ỳ hande of Dauid, and of his seruauntes.

The XXII. Chapter.

A Ande Sathan stode agaynst Israel, & entysed Dauid to nombre Israel. And Dauid sayde vnto Joab & to ỳ rulers of the people: Go yͤ waye, nombre Israel from Berseba vnto Dan, and bringe me the nombre of thē, that I maye knowe it. Joab sayde: The LORDE make his people an hundreth tymes mo then they are now. But my lorde O kynge, are they not all my lordes seruauntes? Why doth my lorde then axe therafter? Wherfore shal there a trespace come vpon Israel?

Neuertheles the kynges worde prevayled agaynst Joab. And Joab wente forth, and walked thorow all Israel, and came to Jerusalem, and delyuered vnto Dauid ỳ nombre of the people that was tolde. And of all Israel there were a thousande tymes a thousande, and an hundreth thousande men, that drue out the swerde: and of Juda foure hundreth thousande and seuētye thousande men, which drue out the swerde. As for Leui and Ben Jamin, he nombred them not amonge these: for the kynges worde was abhominable vnto Joab.

B But this displeased God righte sore: for he smote Israel. And Dauid sayde vnto God: I haue synned greuously, that I haue done this. But now take awaye the trespace of thy seruaunt: for I haue done very vnwysely. And the LORDE spake vnto Gad Dauids Seer, & sayde: Go speake to Dauid, & saye: Thus saieth the LORDE: Three thinges laye I before the, chose ỳ one of them, ỳ I maye do it vnto the. And whā Gad came to Dauid, he spake vnto him: Thus saieth the LORDE: Chose ỳ ether three yeare derth, or three monethes to flye before thine aduersaries, & before the swerde of thine enemies, ỳ it maye ouertake the: or three dayes ỳ swerde of the LORDE, & pestilēce in the londe, ỳ the angell of the LORDE maye destroye in all ỳ coastes of Israel. Loke now what answere I shal gene vnto him ỳ sent me. Dauid sayde vnto Gad: I am in greate trouble: nu wyl I rather fall in to ỳ hande of the LORDE, for his mercy is exceadynge greate, & I wil not fall in to the handes of men.

Then dyd the LORDE cause pestilence to come in to Israel, so that there fell of Israel three score & ten thousande mē. And God sent the angell to Jerusalē for to destroye it. And euen in the destruccion the LORDE considered, and he repēted of the euell, and sayde vnto the angell ỳ destroyer: It is ynough, holde now thy hande.

The angell of the LORDE stode beside ỳ barne of Arnan ỳ Jebusite. And Dauid lifte vp his eyes, and sawe the angell of ỳ LORDE stondinge betwene heauē and earth, and a naked swerde in his hande stretched out ouer Jerusalem. Then Dauid and ỳ Elders beynge clothed with sack cloth, fell vpō their faces. And Dauid sayde vnto God: Am not I he that caused the people to be nombred? I am he that hath synned and done euell: as for these shepe, what have they done? LORDE my God, let thine hande be agaynst me and agaynst my fathers house, and not agaynst thy people to plage them.

And the angell sayde vnto Gad, that he shulde speake vnto Dauid, that Dauid shulde shulde go vp, & set vp an altare in the barne of Arnan the Jebusite. So Dauid went vp acordinge to ỳ worde of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORDE. But whā Arnan turned him, and sawe the angell (and his foure sonnes with him) they hyd thē selues: for Arnan thrōshed wheate.

Now whan Dauid came to Arnan, Arnan loked, and was aware of Dauid, and wēte forth out of the barne, and worshipped Dauid with his face to the grounde. And Dauid sayde vnto Arnan: Gene me rowme in the barne, to buylde an altare vnto the LORDE therin: for ỳ full money shalt thou gene it me, that the plage maye ceasse from the people.

But Arnan sayde vnto Dauid: Take it vnto the, and let my lorde the kynge do as pleaseth him. Beholde, that oxe geue I for a burntofferynge, and those vessels to the oxe, and wheate for the meatofferynge, I geue it all. Nevertheles the kynge sayde vnto Arnan: Not so, but for ỹ full money wyl I bye it: for that which is thine wyl not I take for the LORDE, and offre a burntofferynge for nawghte.

So Dauid gaue Arnan for ỹ rowme, sixe hundreth Sycles of golde in weight. And there buylded Dauid an altare vnto ỹ LORDE, & offred burntofferynges & slaynofferynges. And whan he called vpō the LORDE, he herde him thordw the fyre from heauē vpon ỹ altare of the burntofferynge. And ỹ LORDE sayde vnto the angell, that he shulde put his swerde in to his sheeth.

At the same tyme whā Dauid sawe, that the LORDE had herde him vpon the corne floore of Arnan ỹ Jebusite, he dyd sacrifice there. For ỹ habitacion of ỹ LORDE which Moses had made in the wyldernes, and the altare of burntofferynges, was at that tyme in the hye place at Gibeon. But Dauid coulde not go thither to seke God before it, for he feared the swerde of the LORDES angell. And Dauid sayde: * Here shal be ỹ house of God ỹ LORDE, and this the altare of burntofferynges for Israel.

The XXIII. Chapter.

AND Dauid cōmaunded to gather together the straungers that were in ỹ londe of Israel, and appoynted masons to hewe stone for the buyldinge of the house of God. And Dauid prepared moch yron for nales in the dores of the portes, and for soch thinges as were to be naled together, and so moch brasse, that is was not to be weyed: and Cedre trees innumerable: for they of Zidon & Tyre brought Dauid moch Cedre tymbre: for Dauid thoughte, Salemō my sonne is but a childe and tender: But the house that shal be buylded vnto the LORDE, shal be greate, that his name & prayse maye be exalted in all londes, therfore wyl I prouyde for him. So Dauid made greate prouysion before his death.

And he called Salomon his sonne, & commaunded him to buylde the house of LORDE God of Israel, and sayde vnto him: My sonne, * I was minded to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE my God, but the worde of ỹ LORDE came vnto me, and sayde: Thou hast shed moch blonde, and stryken many battayls, therfore shalt thou not buylde an house vnto my name, for as moch as thou hast shed so moch blonde vpon the earth before me. Beholde, the sonne which shal be borne vnto the, shal be a quyete man: and I wyl cause him to be in rest from al his enemies on euery syde, for his name shalbe Salomon: for I wyll geue peace and rest vpon Israel as longe as he lyueth. He shal buylde an house vnto my name. He shal be my sonne, and I wyll be his father. And I wyl stablyshe ỹ seate of his kyngdome vpō Israel for euer.

Now my sonne, the LORDE shal be wyth the, and thou shalt prospere, that thou mayest buylde an house vnto the LORDE thy God, acordynge as he hath spoken of the. The LORDE also shal geue the wyßdome & vnderstondynge, and shal commytte Israel vnto the, that thou mayest kepe the lawe of the LORDE thy God. But then shal thou prospere, yf thou take hede to do after the ordynaunces and lawes which the LORDE commaunded Moses vnto Israel. Be stronge, and take a good corage vnto the, feare not, and be not faynt harted. Beholde, I haue in my powere prouyded for the house of the LORDE, an hundreth thousande talentes of golde, and a thousande tymes a thousande talentes of syluer, and brasse and yron without nombre: for there is so moch of it.

And tymbre and stone haue I prepared, thou mayest get more therof. Thou hast many workmen also, mesons and carpenters in stone and tymber, and all maner of men that haue vnderstondinge in all worke off golde, syluer, brasse, and yron without nombre. Yet get the vp, and be doynge, and the LORDE shal be with the.

And Dauid commaunded all the rulers of Israel, to helpe Salomon his sonne, and sayde: Is not the LORDE youre God with you, and hath geuen you rest on euery syde? for he hath delyuered the inhabiters of the londe in to youre handes, and the londe is subdued before the LORDE and before his people. Geue ouer youre hert now therfore and youre soule, to seke the LORDE youre God, and get you vp, and buylde a Sanctuary vnto the LORDE God, that the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE and the holy vessels of God, maye be brought in to the house, which shalbe buylded vnto the name of the LORDE. So Dauid made Salomon his sonne kynge ouer Israel, whan he himself was olde, and had lyued ynough.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

A AND Dauid gathered all the rulers in Israel together, and the prestes & Leuites, to nombre ỳ Leuites from thirtie yeare olde & aboue. And ỳ nombre of thē (which were strōge men) frō heade to heade, was eight and thirtie thousande: of whom there were foure & twentie thousande, which dyd their diligence in the worke ouer ỳ house of the LORDE, and fyue thousande officers and Judges, and foure thousande porters, & foure thousande that songe prayses vnto ỳ LORDE with instrumentes, which he had made to synge prayse with all.

And Dauid made the ordinaunce amonge the children of Leui, namely amōge Gerson, Kahath & Merari. The Gersonites were: Laedan and Simei. The children of Laedan: the first, Jehiel, Sethan, and Joel, these thre.

The children of Simei were: Salomith, Hasiel and Haran, these thre. These were the chefe amonge the fathers of Laedan. These also were the children of Simei: Jahath, Sina, Jeus and Bria, these foure were Simeis children also. Jahath was the first, Sina the seconde. As for Jeus and Bria, they had not many children, therfore were they coūted but for one fathers house.

B * The childrē of Kahath were: Amram, Jezehar, Hebron and Vsiel, these foure. The childrē of Amram were: Aaron and Moses.

xod. 6. c Par. 7. a

xo. 29. a * As for Aaron, he was separated, to be sanctified for the Most holy, he & his sonnes for euer, to burne incense before the LORDE, & to minister and blesse in ỳ name of the LORDE for euermore. And the children of Moses the man of God were named amonge ỳ tribe of the Leuites.

xod. 2. d * The childrē of Moses were Gerson and Elieser.

The children of Gerson, the fyrst was Sebuel. The children of Elieser, the fyrst was Rehabia & Elieser had none other children. But ỳ childrē of Rehabia were many therouer. The children of Jezehar were: Salomith the fyrst. The children of Hebron were: Jeria the fyrst, Amazia the seconde, Jahasiel the thirde and Jakmeam ỳ fourth. The children of Vsiel were: Micha the fyrst and Jesia the seconde.

C The children of Merari were: Maheli & Musi. The children of Maheli were: Eleasar and Cis. And Eleasar dyed, and had no sonnes but doughters. And the children of Cis their brethren toke them. The children of Musi were: Maheli, Eder and Jeremoth, these thre. These are the children of Leui amonge their fathers houses, and the chefest of the fathers, which were counted after the nombre of ỳ names heade by heade: which executed the worke of the offices in the house of the LORDE * from thirtie yeare olde & aboue. For Dauid sayde: The LORDE God of Israel hath geuen his people rest, & shall dwell at Jerusalem for euer.

Amonge ỳ Leuites also were the childē of Leui nombred from thirtie yeare olde and aboue, * that they neded not to beare ỳ habitacion with all the vessels of their office, but acordinge to ỳ last wordes of Dauid, ỳ they shulde stonde vnder the hande of the children of Aaron, to minister in the house of the LORDE in the courte, and to the chestes, and for purifyenge, and to all maner of sanctifyenge, and to euery worke of the office in the house of God. And for ỳ shewbred, for the fyne floure, for the meatoffrynge, for the vnleuended wafers, for the pannes, for ỳ fryenge, and for all maner of weight and measure. And in the mornynge to stonde for to gene thankes and to prayse the LORDE, and in the euenynge likewyse. And vpon all Sabbathes, Newmones and feastes to offre all the burntofferynges vnto the LORDE, acordinge to the nombre and ordre, allwaye before the LORDE: to wayte vpon the Tabernacle of witnesse and of the Sāctuary, and vpon their brethrē the children of Aaron, to minister in the house of the LORDE.

The XXV. Chapter.

THis was ỳ ordinaunce of the childrē of Aaron. * The children of Aaron were, Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar and Ithamar. But Nadab and Abihu dyed before their fathers, and had no children. And Eleasar and Ithamar were prestes. And Dauid ordred them after his maner: Sadoc out of the children of Eleasar, and Ahimelech out of the children of Ithamar, acordinge to their nombre and office. And there were mo chefe stronge men founde amonge the children of Eleasar, then the children of Ithamar. And he ordeyned them after this maner: namely, sixtene out of ỳ childrē of Eleasar to be rulers thorow out their fathers house: & eight of the children of Ithamar thorow out their fathers house. Nevertheles he ordeyned them by lot, because that both the pryncipall of the children of Eleasar and of Ithamar were in ỳ Sanctuary, and chefe before God. And the Scrybe Semeia the sonne of Nethaneel one of the Leuites, wrote them vp before ỳ kynge and before the rulers, and before Sadoc the prest, & before Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar, & before the chefe of the fathers amonge the prestes & Leuites: namely one fathers house for Eleasar, and the other for Ithamar.

And the first lot fell vpon Joiarib, the seconde vpon Jedana, the thirde vpō Harim, the fourth vpon Seorim, the fifth vpō Mal chia, the sixte vpon Meiamin, the seuenth vpon Hakoz, the eight vpon * Abia, the nyenth vpon Jesua, the tenth vpon Secha nia, the eleuenth vpon Eliasib, the twolueth vpon Jakim, the thirtenth vpon Hupa, the fourteneth vpon Jesebeab, the fiftenth vpon Bilga, the sixteenth vpon Immer, the seuententh vpon Hesir, the eightenth vpon Hapizez, the nyententh vpon Pethahia, the twentieth vpon Jehezkel, the one and twentieth vpon Jachin, the two & twentieth vpon Sa mul, the thre & twentieth vpō Dalaia, & fou re and twentieth vpō Maasia. This is their course after their office, to go in to the house of the LORDE, acordinge to their maner vnder their father Aaron, as the LORDE
God of Israel commaunded him.

Of the children of Leui amonge the chil dren of Amram, was Subael. Amonge the children of Subael, was Jehdea. Amonge the children of Rehabia, was & first Jesia.
Amonge the Jezeharites was Selomoth.
Amonge the children of Selomoth was Ja hath. The children of Hebron were: Jeria & first, Amaria the seconde, Jehasiel the thir-de, Jakneam the fourth.

The children of Osiel were: Micha. Amō ge the children of Micha was Samir. The brother of Micha was Jesia. Amonge the children of Jesia was Zacharias. The children of Merari were: Maheli & Musi, who se sonne was Jaesia. The childrē of Merari of his sonne Jaesia were: Soham, Sacur & Ibri. Maheli had Eleasar: for he had no sō nes. Of Cis, the children of Cis were: Jerah meel and Musi. The children of Musi were, Maheli, Eder and Jeremoth. These are the childrē of & Leuites thorow out & house of their fathers. And the lot was cast for them also besyde their brethren the children of Aa ron, in the presence of kynge Dauid and Sa-doc and Ahimelech, and before the chefe fathers amonge the prestes & Leuites, as well for the leest brother as for the chefest amon-ge the fathers.

The XXVI. Chapter.

A NOw Dauid with the chefe captaynes sundered to the offices amonge & chil drē of Assaph, Heman & Jedithun & prophetes with harpes, psalteries & Cymba les, and they were nombred vnto the worke acordynge to their office. Amonge the chil-drē of Assaph was Sakur, Joseph, Nethā-nia, Asarela, childrē of Assaph vnder Assaph which prophecyed besyde & kynge. Of Jed thun: The children of Jedithun were, Geda lia, Zori, Jesaia, Hasabia, Mathithia (Simei) these sixe vnder their father Jedithun wt har pes, whose prophecienge was to geue thākes and to praise the LORDE. Of Heman: The children of Heman were Bukia, Mathania, Osiel, Sebuel, Jerimoth, Hanania, Hanani, Eliatha, Gilthi, Remamthieser, Jasbaksa, Mallothi, Hothir and Mehesioth. All these were the children of Hemā the kynges Seer in the wordes of God to lyfte vp the horne:
for God gaue Heman fourtene sonnes & thre daughters.

All these were vnder their fathers Assaph Jedithun and Heman, to synge in the house of the LORDE with Cymbales, psalteries & harpes, acordynge to the office in the house of God besyde the kynge. And their nombre with their brethren, which were taughte in the songe of the LORDE (euery one hauynge vnderstondinge) was two hundreth & eight and foure score. And they cast the * lottes o- Pro.16.3 uer their office, for the leest as for the greatest, for the master as for the scolar.

And the first Lot fell vpō Joseph which was of Assaph: the seconde vpō Gedolia wt his brethrē and sonnes, of whom there were twolue. The thirde vpō Sacur with his sō nes & brethrē, of whō there were twolue. The fourth vpon Jezri with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue. The fyfth vpō Nethania with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The syxte vpon Bukia with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue. The seuenth vpon Jesreela with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The eighte vpon Jesaia with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue. The nyenth vpon Mathania with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The tenth vpon Simei with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue. The eleventh vpon Asraeel with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue. The twolueth vpon Hasabia with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The thirtenth vpon Subael with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue. The fourtenth vpon Mathithia with his sonnes & brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The fystenth vpō Jeremoth with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The syxtenth vpon Anania with his sonnes and brethren of whom there were twolue. The seuentēth vpon Jaßbekasa with his sonnes & brethren of whom there were twolue. The eightenth vpon Hanani with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The nyententh vpon Mallothi with his sonnes & brethren, of whom there were twolue. The twentieth vpon Eliatha with his sonnes and brethrē, of whom there were twolue. The one & twētieth vpon Hothir with his sonnes & brethrē of whom there were twolue. The two and twentieth vpon Gidalthi with his sonnes & brethren, of whom there were twolue. The thre and twentieth vpon Mehesioth with his sonnes and brethren of whom there were twolue. The foure and twētyeth vpon Romamthieser with his sonnes and brethren, of whom there were twolue.

The XXVII. Chapter.

A Of the ordinaūces of the dorekepers Amonge the Korahytes was Meselemia of the children of Assaph. The children of Meselemia were these: the fyrstborne Zacharias, the seconde Jediael, ỳ thirde Sebadia, the fourth Jathniel, ỳ fifth Elam, the sixte Johanan, the seuenth Elioenai. The children of Obed Edom were these: the fyrstborne Semaia, the seconde Josabad the thirde Joah, the fourth Sachur, ỳ fyfth Nethaneel, the sixte Ammiel, the seuenth Jsachar, the eight Pegulthai: for God had blessed him. And vnto Semaia his sonne there were sonnes borne also, which bare rule in the house of their fathers: for they were mightie valeaunt men. The children of Semaia were, Athni, Rephael, Obed and Elsabad, whose brethren were valeaunt men, Elihu and Semachia: all these were of the children of Obed Edom. Meselemia had children and brethren which were stronge men, euen eightene.

B Hossa of the children of Merari had children, Simri the chefest: for ỳ fyrstborne was not there, therfore dyd his father appoynte him to be chefest, the secōde Helchias, ỳ thirde Tebalia, ỳ fourth Zacharias. All the children and brethren of Hossa were thirtene.

This is the ordinaunce of the dorekepers amonge the heades of the valeaunt men in the offyce besyde their brethren, to mynister in the house of the LORDE. And the lot was cast for the small as for ỳ greate thorow out the house of their fathers at euery dore. The lot towarde the East fell vpon Meselemia. And the lot was cast for Zacharias his sonne, which was a man of prudent councell, & vnto him it fell towarde the North: But vnto Obed Edom towarde the South, and to his sonnes besyde the house of Esupim. And vnto Supim and Hossa towarde the West by the gate of Salechet in the strete of the burntofferinges, where the tabernacles stode together.

Towarde the East were there sixe of the Leuites. Towarde the north foure on ỳ daye tyme. Towarde the south foure on the daye season likewyse. Besyde Esupim two & two. By Parbar westwarde were there foure in the strete, and two besyde Parbar. These are the ordinaunces of the dorekepers amonge the children of the Korahites, and the children of Merari. Of the Leuites, was Ahia ouer the treasures of the house of God, and ouer the treasures that were sanctifyed.

Of the children of Laedan, the children of the Gersonites. Of Laedan were these the heades of the fathers, namely ỳ Jehielites. The children of the Jehielites were, Setha and his brother Joel ouer the treasures of the house of the LORDE. Amonge the Ammanites, Jezeharites, Hebronites and Vsielites, was Sebuel the sonne of Gerson the sonne of Moses, prynce ouer the treasures. His brother Elieser had a sonne Rehabia, whose sonne was Jesaia, whose sonne was Joram, whose sonne was Sichri, whose sonne was Selomith: the same Selomith and his brethren were ouer all the treasures of the thinges that were halowed, which kinge Dauid halowed, and the pryncipall of the fathers amonge the rulers ouer thousandes & ouer hundreds, and rulers in the hoest (of warres and spoyles had they halowed it, to repayre the house of the LORDE) and ouer all ỳ Samuel the Seer, and Saul the sonne of Cis, & Abner the sonne of Ner, and Joab the sonne of Zeruja had halowed: whatsoeuer was sanctifyed, it was vnder the hande of Selomith and his brethren. Amonge the Jezeharites was Chenaia with his sonnes for the worke without ouer Jsrael, offycers & Judges. Amonge the Hebronites was Hasabia & his brethren, valeaunt men, a thousande and seuen hundreth, ouer the effyces of Jsrael on this syde Jordane westwarde for all manner worke of the LORDE, and to serue the kinge.

But amonge the Hebronites was Jerias the chefest amonge the Hebronites of his kinred amōge the fathers. And search was made amonge them, and in the fortieth yeare of kynge Dauid there were founde valeaunt men at Jaeser in Gilead, and their brethren mightie men, two thousande and seuen hun-dreth pryncipall fathers, and Dauid set thē ouer the Rubenites, Gaddites, and ouer the halfe trybe of Manasses, for all soch busynes as belonged vnto God and the kynge.

The XXVIII. Chapter.

The children of Israel acordinge to their nombre, were heades of the fathers, and ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, & officers waytinge vpon the kynge, to go of & on after their course euery moneth one, in all ỳ monethes of ỳ yeare. Euery course had foure & twentye thousande.

Ouer the first course of the first moneth, was Jasebeam ỳ sonne of Sabdiel, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande. Of the children of Phares was the pryncipall amonge all the chefe captaynes in the first moneth.

Ouer the course of the seconde moneth was Dodai the Ahohite, and Mikloth was the prynce ouer his course. And vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The thirde pryncipall captayne of the thirde moneth, was Benaia the sonne of Joiada ỳ prest, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande. * This is ỳ Benaia the Worthie amonge thirtie and aboue thirtie, And his course was vnder his sonne Ammi Sabad.

The fourth in ỳ fourth moneth was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Sabadia his sonne after him, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The fifth in the fifth moneth was Samehuth the Jesrahite, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The sixte in the sixte moneth, was Ira ỳ sonne of Ickes the Thecoite, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The seuenth in the seuenth moneth, was Helez the Pelonite of the children of Ephraim, and vnder his course were foure and twēty thousande.

The eight in the eight moneth, was Sibechai the Husathite of ỳ Sarehites, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The nyenth in the nyenth moneth, was Abieser the Anthothite of the childrē of Jemini, & vnder his course were foure and twēty thousande.

The tenth in the tenth moneth, was Maherai the Netophatite of the Serahites, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The eleuenth in the eleuēth moneth, was Benaia the Pirgathonite of the children of Ephraim, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

The twolueth in the twolueth moneth was Heldai ỳ Netophatite of Athniel, and vnder his course were foure and twentye thousande.

Ouer the trybes of Israel were these: C
Amonge the Rubenites was Prynce Elieser the sonne of Sichri. Amonge the Simeonites was Sephatia the sonne of Maecha. Amonge the Leuites was Hasabia the sonne of Kemuel. Amonge the Aaronites was Sadoc. Amōge Juda was Elihu one of Dauids brethren. Amonge Issachar was Amri the sonne of Michael. Amonge Zabulō was Jesmaia the sonne of Obadia. Amonge Nephtali was Jeremoth the sonne of Asriel. Amonge the children of Ephraim was Hosea the sonne of Asasia. Amonge the halfe trybe of Manasses was Joel the sonne of Pedaia. Amonge the halfe trybe of Manasses in Gilead was Jeddo the sonne of Zacharias. Amonge Ben Jamin was Jaesiel the sonne of Abner. Amonge Dan was Asareel the sonne of Jeroham. These are the princes of the trybes of Israel.

But Dauid toke not the nombre of them that were twentye yeare olde and there vnder: for the LORDE had promysed to multiplye Israel as the starres of the ßkie. * Howbeit Joab the sonne of Zeruia had begonne to nombre them, and perfourmed it not: for there came wrath vpon Israel for the same cause, therfore came not the nombre in to ỳ Cronicles of kynge Dauid. 1. Par. 22. a

Ouer the kynges treasures was Asmaueth the sonne of Adiel. And ouer the treasures in the lōde, in the cities, vyllages and castels was Jonathan the sonne of Osia. Ouer the hußbandmen to tyll the londe was Esri the sonne of Chelub. Ouer the vynyardes was Simei the Ramathite. Ouer the wyne Cellers and treasures of wyne was Sabdi the Siphmite. Ouer the oyle gardens and Molberytrees in the lowe feldes, was Baal Hanan the Gaderite. Ouer the treasure of the oyle was Joas. Ouer ỳ oxen of the paßture at Saron was Sitari the Saronite. Ouer the oxen in the valleys was Saphath the sonne of Adlai. D

Ouer the Camels was Obil the Ismaelite. Ouer the asses was Jehethia the Meronothite. Ouer the shepe was Jasis the Hagarite. All these were rulers ouer kynge Dauids goodes. Jonathan Dauids vncle was of the councell a wyse man and a scrybe. And Jehiel, the sonne of Hachmoni

1.Re.46.d was with the kynges children.. Achitophel also was of the kynges councell. Husai the Arachite was the kinges frende. After Achitophel was Joiada ỹ sonne of Benaia and Abiathar. As for Joab, he was the kynges chefe captayne of warre.

The XXIX. Chapter.

A AND David gathered vnto Jerusalem all the rulers of Israel, namely ỹ prynces of the trybes, the rulers ouer the courses, which wayted vpon the kynge, the captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, the rulers ouer the goodes and catell of the kynge and of his sonnes, with the chā berlaines, warryers and valeaunt men. And David the kynge stode vp vpon his fete, and saide: Heare me my brethren and my people:

2 Re.7.a * I was mynded to buylde an house, where the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE shulde rest, and a fote stole for the fete of oure God, and prepared my selfe for to buylde, But God sayde vnto me: Thou shalt not buylde an house vnto my name, for thou art a man of warre, and hast shed blonde.

1.Par.23.b

B * Now hath the LORDE God of Israel chosen me out of all my fathers house, ỹ I shulde be kynge ouer Israel: for * Juda hath he chosen to be the Prynce, and in the house of Juda amonge my fathers children hath he had pleasure vnto me, to make me kynge ouer all Israel: and amōge all my sonnes (for the LORDE hath geuen me many sonnes) he hath chosen Salomon my sonne, to syt vpon the seate of the kyngdome of the LORDE ouer Israel, and hath sayde vnto me: * Salomon thy sonne shall buylde me an house and my courtes: for I haue chosen him to be my sonne, & I wil be his father, & wyll stablisshe his kyngdome for euer, yf he be constant to do after my commaundementes and lawes, as it is this daye. Now in the sight of all Israel the congregacion of the LORDE, and in the eares of oure God, se that ye obserue and seke all the commaundemētes of the LORDE yō God, that ye maye possesse this good londe and that ye and youre children maie haue ỹ inheritaunce therof for euer.

1.Par.6.a
1 Par.18.b
2.Par.6.b

C And thou my sonne Salomō, knowe thou the God of thy father, and serue him with all thy hert, and with the desyre of thy soule: for the LORDE searcheth all hertes, and vnderstondeth all thoughtes & ymaginacions. Yf thou seke him, thou shalt fynde him: but yf thou forsake him, he shall refuse the for euer. Take hede now, for the LORDE hath chosen the, to buylde an house to be the Sāctuary: be stronge, and make it.

And Dauid gaue Salomon his sonne a patrone of the porche, and of his house, and of the celles and perlers and ynnermer chambers, and of the house of the Mercyseate, & of all that he had in his mynde, namely of the courte of the LORDES house, and of all the oratories rounde aboute the treasures in ỹ house of God, and of the treasures of such thinges as were halowed, of the ordinances of the prestes, and Lewites, and of all ỹ busynesse of the offyces in the house of the LORDE.

Golde (gaue he him) after ỹ golde weight for all maner of vessels of euery offyce, and all siluer ornamentes after the weight for all maner of vessell of euery offyce: and weight for the golden candilstickes and golden lampes, for euery candilstycke and his lampes his weight: likewyse for the siluer candilsticke gaue he the weight to the candilsticke his lampes, accordynge as was requyred for euery candilstycke. He gaue golde also for ỹ tables of the shewbred, for euery table his weight: and syluer lykewise for the syluer tables. And pure golde for the fleshokes, bessens and censers: and for the golden cuppes vnto euery cuppe his weight: and for the siluer cuppes, vnto euery cuppe his weight: and for the altare of incense his weight, of the most pure golde.

And a patrone of the charett of the golden Cherubins, that they mighte sprede out them selues, and couer the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE. All this is geuen me in writynge of the hande of the LORDE, to make me vnderstonde all the workes of the patrone.

And Dauid sayde vnto Salomō his sonne: Be thou manly and stronge, and make it, feare not, and be not fayntharted, the LORDE God my God shal be with the, and shall not withdrawe his hande, ner fayle the, tyll thou haue fynished euery worke for the seruyce in the house of the LORDE. Beholde, the courses of the prestes and Lewites to all the offyces in the house of God are with the in euery worke, and are willinge, and haue wysdome to all the offyces: and so haue the prynces and all the people for euery thinge that thou hast to do.

The XXX. Chapter.

AND kynge Dauid sayde vnto all the congregacion: God hath chosen Salomon one of my sonnes, which yet is yonge and tender. But the worke is greate: for it is not a mans palace, but the LORDE Gods. Yet haue I after all my abilite pur-

red vnto the house of God, golde for the vessels of golde, syluer for them of syluer, brasse for them of brasse, yron for thē of yron, wod for them of wod, Onix stones, set Rubyes, & stones of dyuerse coloures, & all precious sto-mes, & Marble stones in multitude. Besydes this, for the good wyl ỳ I haue to the house of God, I haue of myne awne proper good thre M. talētes of golde of Ophir, & seuen M. talētes of pure syluer, which I geue vnto the holy house of God, besyde all ỳ I haue prepared, to ouerlaye ỳ walles of the house, ỳ the same which ought to be of golde, maye be of golde: & that it which ought to be of syluer, maye be of syluer: and for all maner of worke by the hande of the craftemen. And who is now fre wyllinge, to fyll his hande this daye vnto the LORDE?

B Then were the prynces of the fathers, ỳ prynces of the trybes of Israel, the captaynes ouer thousandes & ouer hundreds, the rulers ouer the kynges busynes, fre wyllinge, & gaue to ỳ myniſtracion in the house of God fyue M. talentes of golde, and ten M. gulddens, and ten M. talentes of syluer, eightene M. talētes of brasse, and an hundred M. ta-lētes of yron. And by whom so euer were foude stones, they gaue them to the treasure of the house of the LORDE, vnder the hāde of Jehiel the Gersonite.

And ỳ people were glad that they were fre wyllinge: for they gaue it wt a good wyll (euen with all their hert) vnto the LORDE. And Dauid also ỳ kynge reioyſed greatly, and prayſed God, and sayde before the whole congregacion: Prayſed be thou O LORDE God of Israel oure father, vnto the belongeth worſhippe and power, glory, victory & thankes: for all that is in heauen and earth, is thine: thine is ỳ kyngdome, and thou art exalted aboue all prynces. Thine are riches and honoure before ỳ, thou reigneſt ouer all, in thy hande conſiſteth power and might, in thy hāde is it to make euery man greate and stronge.

C Now thāke we the oure God, and prayſe ỳ name of thy glory: For who am I? What is my people? that we ſhulde be able with a fre wyll to offre, as this is done? For of the commeth all, and of thy hande haue we geuen it the: * For we are but pilgrems & ſtraū-gers before the, as were all oure fathers. Our life vpon earth is as a ſhadowe, and here is no abydinge. O LORDE oure God, all this abundaunce that we haue prepared to buyl-de the an house vnto thy name, came of thy hande, and is thine altogether. I knowe my God, that thou tryeſt the hert, and that vnfay-nednes is acceptable vnto the: therfore haue I geuē all this with an vnfayned hert, euē with a good wyll, and now haue I had ioye to ſe thy people (which here are preſent) offre with a fre wyll vnto the. O LORDE God of oure fathers Abraham, Iſaac, & Iſ-rael, kepe thou euermore ſoch purpoſes and thoughtes in ỳ hertes of thy people, & prepare thou their hertes vnto the. And graunte D my ſonne Salomon a perfecte hert, that he maye kepe thy cōmaundementes, thy teſti-monies, & thy ſtatutes, that he maye do all, & buylde this palace, which I haue prepared.

And Dauid ſayde vnto the whole cōgregacion: O prayſe the LORDE yͦ God. And all the cōgregacion prayſed ỳ LORDE God of their fathers, & bowed them ſelues, & wor-ſhipped the LORDE & then the kynge, and offred ſacrifices vnto the LORDE. And on ỳ nexte morow offred they burnte offerynges, a M. bullockes, a M. rāmes, a M. lābes wt their drynkofferynges, & plenteouſly offred they amonge all Israel. And they ate and dranke the ſame daie before the LORDE with greate ioye, and made Salomon the ſonne of Dauid kynge ỳ ſeconde tyme, and anoynted him to be ỳ prynce for the LORDE, * & Sa-doc to be the preſt. 1.Reg.1

* Thus ſat Salomon vpon the ſeate of ỳ E LORDE, kynge in his fathers ſteade, & proſpered. And all Israel obeyed him, & all ỳ rulers & mightie men, & all kynge Dauids children ſubmytted them ſelues vnto kynge Salomon. And ỳ LORDE made Salomon excellent & greate in ỳ ſighte of all Israel, * and 1.Re.4
gaue him ſoch a glorious kyngdome, as none had before him ouer Israel.

So had Dauid now bene kynge ouer all Israel. And ỳ tyme that he was kynge ouer Israel, is fortye yeares: At Hebron reigned he ſeuen yeare, and at Jeruſalem thre & thirtie yeare, & dyed in a good age, full of dayes, riches and honoure. And Salomon his ſon-ne was kynge in his ſteade.

Theſe actes of kynge Dauid (both ỳ firſt and laſt) beholde, they are wrytten amonge the actes of Samuel the Seer, and amonge the actes of the prophet Nathan, and amōge the actes of Gad the Seer, with all his kyngdome, power and tymes which paſſed vnder him, both vpon Israel & vpon all the kyngdomes of the earth.

The first Chapter.

ND Salomon the sonne of David was stablysshed in his kyngdome, and the LORDE his God was with him, & made him exceadinge greate. And Salomon spake vnto all Israel, to the captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hundreds, to the Judges, and to all ỳ prynces in Israel, and to the chefest fathers, so that they wente (Salomon and the whole congregacion with him) vnto the hye place which was at Gibea: * for there was ỳ Tabernacle of ỳ witnesse of God, * which Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE had made in ỳ wylderneſſe. * For David had broughte vp the Arke of God from Kiriath Jarim, whan he had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. As for ỳ brasen altare * which Bezaleel the sonne of Uri the sonne of Hur had made, it was there before the habitacion of the LORDE: and Salomon and the congregacion soughte God. And Salomon offred a thousande burntofferynges vpō the brasen altare that stode before the Tabernacle of witnesse.

In the same nighte appeared God vnto Salomon, and sayde vnto him: Aske, what shal I gene the? And Salomon sayde vnto God: Thou hast done greate mercy vnto my father David, and hast made me kynge in his steade. Now LORDE God, let ỳ worde that thou hast promysed vnto my father Dauid, be verified, * for thou hast made me kynge ouer a people, which is as many in nō bre as the dust vpon the earth. Graunte me wyßdome therfore and knowlege, ỳ I maye go out and in before this people: for who is able to iudge this greate people of thine?

Then sayde God vnto Salomon: For so moch as thou art so mynded, and hast not desyred riches ner good, ner honō, ner the soules of thine enemies, ner longe life, but hast requyred wyßdome and knowlege, to iudge my people, ouer whom I haue made the kynge, wyßdome therfore and knowlege be geuen the. Moreouer, riches ⁊ good and honoure wyll I geue the, so that soch one as thou hath not bene before the amōge the kynges, nether shal be after the.

C So came Salomon from the hye place (which was at Gibeon) vnto Ierusalē from ỳ Tabernacle of witnesse, and reigned ouer Israel. And Salomon gathered him charettes and horsmen, so that he had a thousande and foure hundreth charettes, ⁊ twolue thousande horsmen: and those appoynted he to be in the charet cities, and with the kynge at Ierusalem. And the kynge broughte it so to passe, that there was as moch syluer ⁊ golde at Ierusalē as stones: and as many Ceders, as the Molberyes trees, that are in the valleys. And there were horses broughte vnto Salomon out of Egipte, ⁊ the kynges marchauntes fetched them from Kena for money. And they came vp, and broughte out of Egipte a charet for sixe hūdreth syluer pēs, and an horse for an hundreth and fifty e. Thus broughte they also vnto all the kynges of the Hethites, and to the kynges of ỳ Syrians.

The II. Chapter.

A AND Salomon thoughte to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE, ⁊ an house for his kyngdome: and tolde out thre score and ten thousande men to beare burthens, and foure score thousande that hewed tymber vpō the mount, and thre thousande and sixe hundreth officers ouer them.

a * And Salomon sent vnto Hiram the kynge of Tyre, sayenge: As * thou dyddest with my father, ⁊ sendedst him Ceder trees, to buylde an house for to dwell in (euen so do thou to me also.) Beholde, I wyl buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE my God, to sanctifie it, for to burne good incense before him, and allwaye to prepare ỳ shewbred, and burntofferynges in the mornynge and in the euenynge, on the Sabbathes ⁊ New mones, and solempne feastes of ỳ LORDE oure God euermore for Israel.

And the house that I wyl buylde, shal be greate: for oure God is greater then all godes. But who is able to buylde him an house? For heauen ⁊ the heauens of all heauens maye not cōprehende him. Who am I then, that I shulde buylde him an house? But onely for this intent to burne incense before him? B

Sēde me now therfore a wyse mā to worke with golde, syluer, brasse, yron, scarlet, purple, yalow sylke and soch one as can graue carued worke with the wyse men that are with me in Iewry and Ierusalem, whom my father Dauid ordeyned. And sende me tymber of Ceder, pyne tre and costly wodd from Libanus: for I knowe that ỳ seruauntes can hewe tymber vpon Libanus. And beholde, my seruauntes shalbe with ỳ seruauntes, to prepare me moch tymber: for the house that I wyl buylde, shalbe greate ⁊ maruelous goodly.

And beholde, I wyl geue vnto the carpenters thy seruauntes which hewe the tymber, twētye thousande quarters, of beaten wheate, and twentye thousande quarters of barlye, and twentye thousande Batthes of wyne, and twentye thousande Batthes of oyle. C

Then sayde Hiram the kynge of Tyre by wrytinge, and sent it vnto Salomon: Because the LORDE loueth his people, therfore hath he made ỳ to be kynge ouer them. And Hiram sayde moreouer: Praysed be ỳ LORDE God of Israel, which made heauen earth, that he hath geuē kynge Dauid a wyse and prudent sonne, and soch one as hath vnderstondinge to buylde an house vnto the LORDE, ⁊ an house for his realme. Therfore sende I now a wyse man that hath vnderstondynge, * euen Hiram Abi (which is the sonne of a woman of the doughters of Dan, and his father was of Tyre) which can worke in golde, syluer, brasse, yron, stone, tymber, scarlet, yalowe sylke, lynnen, purple and to carue all maner of thinges, and to make what cōnynge thinge so euer is geuen him, with thy wyse men, and with the wyse men of my lorde kynge Dauid ỳ father. And now let my lorde sende the wheate, barlye, oyle and wyne vnto his seruaūtes, acordinge as he hath sayde, and so wyll we hewe ỳ tymber vpon Libanus, as moch as thou nedest, and wyll brynge it by flotes in the Sea vnto Japho, from whence thou mayest brynge it vp to Ierusalem. 2.Re.v.b D

And Salomon nombred all the straungers in the londe of Israel, acordinge to the nombre whan Dauid his father nombred them: and there were founde an hundreth & fiftye thousande, thre thousande and sixe hundreth. And of the same he made three score and ten thousande beares of burthens, and foure score thousande hewers vpō ỹ mount, and thre thousande and sixe hundreth overseers, which helde ỹ people at their worke.

The III. Chapter.

A AND Salomon beganne to buylde the house of the LORDE at Jerusalem
Par.22.d vpon the mount Moria, * that was shewed vnto Dauid his father, which Dauid had prepared for the rowme, vpon the rome floore of Arnan the Jebusite. In the seconde daye of the seconde moneth in the fourth yeare of his reigne begāne he to buylde. And so layed Salomon the foundacion to buylde the house of God: first the length thre score cubytes, the bredth twentye cubites: and the porche before the wydenes of the house, was twentye cubites longe, but the height was an hundreth and twentye, and he overlayed it on the ynsyde with pure golde.

But the greate house syled he with pyne tre, and overlayed it with the best golde, and made palme trees and throwne worke
B theron, and overlayed the house with precious stones to bewtifye it. As for the golde, it was golde of Paruaim. And the balkes and postes aboue, and the walles, and the dores of it overlayed he with golde, and caused Cherubins to be carued on the walles.

He made also the house of the Most holy, whose length was twentye cubites acordinge to the wydenesse of the house: and the bredth of it was twentye cubites likewyse, and he overlayed it with the best golde by sixe hundreth talentes. And for nales he gaue fiftye Sicles of golde in weight, and overlayed the chambers with golde. He made also in the house of the most holy, two Cherubins of carued worke, and overlayed them with golde: and the length on the wynges of the Cherubins, so that one wynge had fyue cubytes, and touched the wall of the house: and the other wynge had fyue cubytes also, and touched the wynge of the other Cherub.

C Euen so had one wynge of the other Cherub fyue cubites likewyse, and touched the wall of the house: and his other wynge had fyue cubites also, and touched the wynge of the other Cherub: so that these wynges of the Cherubins were spred out twentye cubites wyde. And they stode vpō their fete, and their face was turned to the house warde.

He made a vayle also of yalow sylke, scarlet, purple and lynworke, and made Cherubins theron. And before the house he made two pilers fyue and thirtie cubites longe, and the knoppes aboue theron, fyue cubytes. And he made throwne worke for the querre, and put it aboue vpon the pilers: and made an hundreth pomgranates, and put them on the wrythen worke. And he set vp the pilers before the temple, the one on the righte honde, and the other on the leste: and that on the righte honde called he Jachin, and that on the leste honde called he Boos.

The IIII. Chapter.

HE made a brasen altare also, twentye cubytes longe, and twentye cubytes brode, and ten cubites hye. * And he made a molten lauer ten cubites wyde fro the one syde to the other rounde aboute, and fyue cubytes hye. And a metelyne of thirtie cubites mighte comprehende it aboute. And ymages of Bullockes were vnder it. And aboute the lauer (which was ten cubites wyde) there were two rowes of knoppes, ỹ were molten withall.

It stode so vpon the bullockes, that thre were turned towarde the north, thre towarde the west, thre towarde the south, and thre towarde the east, and the lauer aboue vpon them, and all their hynder partes were on the ynsyde. The thicknesse of it was an handbredth, and the edge of it was like the edge of a cuppe, and as a floured rose. And it conteyned thre thousande Batthes.

And he made ten kettels, wherof he set fyue on the righte hande and fyue on the leste, to waßshe in them soch thinges as belonged to the burntofferynge, that they might thrust them therin: but ỹ lauer (made he) for the prestes to wasshe in.

Ten golden candelsticke made he also as they ought to be, and set them in the temple: fyue on the righte hande, and fyue on the leste. And made ten tables, and set them in the temple: fyue on the righte hande, and fyue on the leste. And made an hundreth basens of golde. He made a courte likewyse for the prestes, and a greate courte, and dores in the courte, and overlayed ỹ dores with brasse. And the lauer set he on the righte syde towarde the south east. And Hiram made cauldrons, shouels and basens.

So Hiram fynished the worke which he made for kynge Salomon in the house of God: namely the two pilers with the roundels and knoppes aboue vpon both the pilers, and both the wrythen ropes to couer both the roundels of ỹ knoppes aboue vpō the pilers, and the foure hundreth pomgranates on both the wrythē ropes, two rowes of pomgranates on euery rope, to couer the roundels of the knoppes that were aboue vpon the pilers.

C He made the stoles also and ỹ kettels vpon the stoles, and a lauer, and twolue bulloc kes there vnder. And pottes, shouels, flesho kes, and all their vessels made Hiram Abif of pure metall for kynge Salomon vnto the house of the LORDE. In the coaste of Jor dane dyd the kynge cause them to be molten in thicke earth betwene Suchoth and Zare datha.

And Salomon made all these vessels which were so many, that the weight of ỹ metall was not to be soughte out. And Sa lomen made all the ornamentes for the hous se of God: namely, the golden altare, the ta bles and the shewbreds theron, the candel stickes with their lampes of pure golde, to burne before the Quere accordinge to the man ner: and the floures and the lampes and the snoffers were of golde, all these were of pu re golde.

And the knyues, basens, spones and pot tes, were of pure golde. And the intraunce and his dores within vnto the Most holy, and the dores of the house of the temple we re of golde. Thus was all ỹ worke fynished, which Salomon made in the house of the LORDE.

The V. Chapter.

AND Salomon broughte in all ỹ his father Dauid had sanctified, namely, syluer and golde, and all maner of or namentes, and layed them in the treasures of the house of God. * Thē gathered Salo mon all the Elders in Israel together, all ỹ heades of the trybes, prynces of the fathers amōge the childrē of Israel vnto Jerusalē, to brynge vp the Arke of the couenaunt of the LORDE out of the cite of Dauid, that is Sion. And there resorted vnto the kynge all the men in Israel at the feast, that is in the seuenth moneth, and all ỹ Elders in Is rael came.

And ỹ Leuites toke the Arke, & brough te it vp with the Tabernacle of witnesse, and all the holy vessels that were in the Ta bernacle: and ỹ prestes and Leuites brough te them vp. As for kynge Salomon and all the cōgregacion of Israel that was gathe red vnto him before the Arke, they offred shee pe and oxen, so many, that no man coulde nombre ner reken them.

Thus the prestes broughte the Arke of ỹ B couenaunt of the LORDE vnto hir place in to the quere of the house, euen in to ỹ Most holy vnder the wynges of the Cherubins, so that the Cherubins spred out their wynges ouer the place of the Arke: and the Cheru bins couered the Arke and the staues ther of from aboue. And the staues were so longe, ỹ the knoppes of them were sene from the Ar ke before the quere, but on the outsyde were they not sene. And it was there vnto this daye. And there was nothinge in the Arke, saue the two tables, which Moses put ther in at Horeb, whan the LORDE made a cou enaunt with the childrē of Israel, what tyme as they were departed out of Egipte.

And whan the prestes wente out of the Sanctuary (for all ỹ prestes that were foun de, sanctified them selues, because the courses were not kepte) the Leuites with all those that were vnder Asaph, Heman, Jedithun C and their children and brethren, beynge clo thed in lynnen, songe with Cymbales, psalte ries and harpes, and stode towarde the east parte of the altare, and an hundreth & twen tye prestes with them, which blewe wt trom pettes. And it was, as yf one dyd trompet and synge, as though a voyce had bene her de of praysinge and geuynge thankes vnto the LORDE.

And whan the voyce arose from ỹ trom pettes, cymbales and other instrumentes of musick, and from praysinge the LORDE (be cause he is gracious, and because his mercy endureth for euer) the house of the LORDE was fylled on the ynsyde with a cloude, so ỹ the prestes coulde not stonde to mynister for the cloude: for the glory of the LORDE fyl led the house of God.

The VI. Chapter.

THen sayde Salomon: The LORDE A 3.Reg.8. sayde, that he wolde dwell in a darck cloude: I haue buylded an house to be an habitacion vnto the: & a seate, ỹ thou mayest dwell there for euer. And the kynge turned his face, and blessed all the congrega cion of Israel: for the whole cōgregacion of Israel stode, & he sayde: Praysed be the LOR DE God of Israel, which promysed by his mouth vnto my father Dauid, and with his hande hath fulfylled it, whā he sayde: * Sē 2.Re.7. ce the tyme that I broughte my people out 3.Re.8.C of the londe of Egipte, I haue chosen no ci te in all ỹ trybes of Israel, to buylde an hou

B And whan my father Dauid was mynded to buylde an house vnto the name of the LORDE God of Israel, the LORDE sayde vnto Dauid my father: Where as thou wast mynded to buylde an house vnto my name, thou hast done well: howbeit thou shalt not buylde the house, but thy sonne which shall come out of thy loynes, shal buylde the hou se vnto my name.

Thus hath ỳ LORDE now performed his worde, that he spake: for I am come vp in my father Dauids steade, and syt vpon the seate of Israel, euen as the LORDE sayde, & haue buylded an house vnto the name of ỳ LORDE God of Israel, & in it haue I put ỳ Arke, wherin is the couenaunt of ỳ LORDE, which he made with the childrē of Israel.

C And he stode before the altare of the LOR DE in the presence of the whole congregacion of Israel, and spred out his handes: for Salomon had made a brasen pulpit, and set it in the myddes of the courte, fyue cubites longe, and fyue cubites brode, and thre cubites hye: vpon the same stode he, and fell dow ne vpon his knees in the presence of the who le cōgregacion of Israel, and held out his
*Reg.8.c handes toward de heauē and sayde: * O LOR DE God of Israel, there is no god like the, nether in heauen ner vpon earth, thou that kepest couenaunt and mercy for thy seruaun tes, that walke before the with all their hert. Thou hast kepte promes vnto my father Da uid thy seruaunt: With thy mouth thou say dest it, and with thy hande hast thou fulfyl led it, as it is come to passe this daye. Now LORDE God of Israel, make good vnto my father Dauid ỳ seruaunt, that which thou hast promysed him, & sayde: Thou shalt not want a man before me, to syt vpon the seate of Israel: yf thy children kepe their waye, so ỳ they walke in my lawe, like as thou hast walked before me: Now LORDE God of Is rael, let ỳ worde be verified, which thou hast promysed vnto Dauid thy seruaunt.

But turne the vnto the prayer of thy seruaunt, and to his supplicacīō (O LORDE my God) that thou mayest heare the thankesgeuynge and prayer, which thy seruaunt maketh be fore the, so that thine eyes be open ouer this house daye and nighte, euen ouer this place (wherin thou saydest thou woldest set thy name) that thou mayest heare the prayer which thy seruaunt shall make in this place. Heare now therfore the intercession of thy seruaunt and of thy people of Israel, what so euer they shall desyre in this place: heare thou it from the place of thy habitacion, euē from heauen: and whan thou hearest it, be mercifull.

Whan eny mā synneth agaynst his neyg boure, and an ooth be put vpon him which he ought to sweare, and the ooth commeth before thine altare in this house, then heare thou from heauen, and se ỳ thy seruaunt ha ue righte, so that thou rewarde the vngodly and recōpence him his waye vpon his owne heade, and to iustifye the righteous, and to gene him accordinge to his righteousnes.

Whan thy people of Israel is smytten be fore their enemies (whyle they have synned agaynst the) and yf they turne vnto the, and knowlege thy name, and make their prayer and intercession before the in this house, then heare thou them from heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synne of thy people of Israel, & bringe them agayne into the londe, ỳ thou hast geuen them and their fathers.

* Whan the heauen is shut vp, so that it rayne not (for so moch as they have synned agaynst the) and yf they make their prayer in this place, and knowlege thy name, and turne from their synnes (whan thou hast brought them lowe) heare thou them then in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the synne of thy seruauntes, and of thy people of Israel, that thou mayest teach them the good waye wherin they shulde walke, and let it rayne vpon thy londe which thou hast geuen thy people to possesse.

Whan a derth, or pestilence, or drouth, or blastinge, or gresshopper or catirpiller, is in the londe: Or whan their enemye layeth siege to their portes in the lōde, or whan eny other plage or disease happeneth, who so euer that maketh his prayer or peticion amonge eny maner of men, or amonge all thy people of Israel, yf eny man fele his plage and disease, and spredeth out his handes vnto this hou se, heare thou then from heauen, euen from ỳ * seate of thy habitacion, and be mercifull, and gene euery man accordinge to all his wayes, in so moch as thou knowest his hert (for thou onely knowest the hert of the chil dren of men) that they maye feare the, and waye walke in thy wayes, as longe as they lyue in the londe, which thou hast geuen vn to oure fathers.

And whan eny straunger which is not of thy people of Israel, commeth out of a far re countre because of thy greate name, and mightie hande, and out stretched arme, and commeth to make his prayer in this house, heare thou him then from heauē, euen from the seate of thy habitacion: and do all for ỹ which that straunger calleth vpō the, that all the nacions vpon earth maye knowe thy name, and feare the, as thy people of Israel do: and that they maye knowe, how ỹ this house which I haue buylded, is named after thy name.

Let thy priestes O LORDE God be clothed with health, and let thy sayentes reioyse ouer this good. LORDE God, turne not awaye the face of thine anoynted: thinke vpon the mercies of thy seruaunt Dauid.

The VII. Chapter.

AND whā Salomō had ended his prai A er, there fell a fyre from heauen, and cō sumed the burntofferynge and the other offeringes. And the glory of the LORDE fylled the house, so that ỹ prestes coulde not go in to the house of the LORDE, while ỹ glory of the LORDE filled ỹ LORDES house. And all the children of Israel sawe the fyre fall downe, and the glory of the LORDE ouer the house: and they fell on their knees wt their faces to the grounde vpon the pauement, and worshipped, and gaue thankes vnto the LORDE, because he is gracious, and because his mercy endureth for euer. As for the kynge and all the people, they offred before the LORDE.

For kynge Salomon offred two and twē tye thousande bullockes, and an hundreth thousande and twentye thousande shepe, & so both the kynge and all the people dedicated the house of God.

But the prestes stode in their watches, & B
the Lewites with the musicall instrumentes of the LORDE, which kynge Dauid had caused to make for to geue thankes vnto the LORDE, (because his mercy endureth for euer) wt psalmes of Dauid thorow their hande. And the prestes blewe trompettes ouer agaynst them, and all Israel stode.

And Salomon halowed the myddelmost courte, which was before the house of the LORDE, for there prepared he the burntofferynges and the fat of the slayne offeringes: for the brasen altare that Salomon made, might not conteyne all the burntofferinges, meatofferynges, and the fat.

*And at the same tyme helde Salomon 1.Mac.4.
a feast seuen daies longe, and all Israel with him a very greate congregacion, from Hemath vnto the ryuer of Egipte, and on the eight daye helde he a conuocacion. For the dedicacion of the altare helde they seuen daies, and the feast seuen dayes also.

But on the thre and twentyeth daye of the seuenth moneth he let the people go vnto their tentes ioyfull and with mery hertes because of all the good, that the LORDE had done vnto Dauid, vnto Salomō, and to his people of Israel.

*Thus fynished Salomō the house of ỹ C LORDE, and the kinges house, and all ỹ came in his hert to make in the house of the LORDE, and in his awne house, prosperously. And the LORDE appeared vnto Salomon in the nighte season, and sayde vnto him: I haue herde thy prayer *and chosen this place vn- 2.Par.7.
to my selfe for an house of sacrifyce.

Beholde, whan I shut the heauē so ỹ it rai ne not, or commaunde the greshopper to cōsume the londe, or cause a pestilence to come amonge my people, to humble my people, which is named after my name: and yf they praye, and seke my face, and turne from their euell wayes, thē wyl I heare them from hea uen, and wyll forgeue their sinne, and heale their londe. So shal myne eyes now be open, and myne eares shal be attente vnto prayer in this place. Thus haue I now chosen this house, and sanctifyed it, that my name maye be there for euer: and myne eyes and my hert shal allwaye be there.

D And yf thou walke before me, as thy father Dauid walked, so that thou do all that I commaunde the, and kepe myne ordinaūces and lawes, then wyll I stablishe the sea te of thy kyngdome, accordynge as I promy sed thy father Dauid, and sayde: Thou shalt not wante a man to be lorde ouer Israel.
But yf ye turne backe, and forsake myne ordynaunces and commaundemētes which I haue layed before you, and so go youre waye, and serue other goddes, and worshipp them, thē wyll I rote * you out of my lon-de that I haue geuen you: and this house which I haue sanctifyed vnto my name, wil
I cast awaye out of my presence, and geue it ouer to be a byworde and fabell amōge all na cions. And euery one that goeth by, shall be astonnyed at this hye house, and shall hysse at it, and saye: * Wherfore hath the LORDE dealte thus with this londe and with this house: Then shall it be sayde: Euen because they haue forsaken the LORDE God of their fathers (which brought them out of the lon de of Egipte) & haue cleued vnto other god des, & worshipped them, and serued thē: therfore hath he brought all this euell vpon thē.

The VIII. Chapter.

A AND after twentye yeares (wherin Sa lomon buylded the house of the LOR DE and his awne house) he buylded the cyties also which Hiram gaue vnto Salomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell therin. And Salomon wente vnto He math Zoba, and made it stronge, and buyl-ded Thadmor in the wyldernes, and all the comecyties which he buylded in Hemath.
He buylded the vpper and lower Bethoron likewyse, so that they were stronge cities wt walles, portes and barres. And Baelath, and all the cornecites which Salomon had,
and all the cities of the charettes and of the horse men, and all that Salomon had lust to buylde, both at Jerusalem and vpon Li-banus, and in all the londe of his domy-nion.

All the remnaunt of the people of the Hc thites, Amorites, Pheresites, Hewites and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, and their children which they had lefte behynde them in the londe, (whom the children of Israel had not vtterly destroied) those dyd Salomon make trybutaries vnto this daye. As for the children of Israel, Salomon made no bondmen of them vnto his worke, but they were men of warre, and che-fe captaynes, and ouer his charettes & horsmen. And the chefe of kynge Salomons officers were two hundreth and fyftie, which ruled the people.

And Salomon caused Pharaos doughter to be fetched vp out of the cite of Dauid, into the house that he had buylded for her: for he sayde: My wyfe shall not dwell in the house of Dauid the kynge of Israel, for it is sanctifyed, in as moch as ỹ Arke of the LOR DE is come in to it.

Then offred Salomon burntofferynges C vnto the LORDE vpon the LORDES alta-re, which he had buylded before the porche, euery one vpon his daye to offre after the cō maundement of Moses, on the Sabbathes, Newmones & at the appoynted seasons of the yeare, euen thre tymes, namely in ỹ feast of vnleuended bred, in the feast of weekes, &
in the feast of Tabernacles.

And he set the prestes in ordre to their mi- C nistracion * accordynge as Dauid his father had appoynted, and the Leuites in their of-fyces, to geue thankes and to mynister in the presence of the prestes, euery one vpon his daye. And the dorekepers in their courses, e-uery one at his dore, for so had Dauid the mā of God commaunded.

And they departed not from the kynges D commaundement ouer the prestes and Le-uites in euery matter and in the treasures.
Thus was all Salomons busynesse made ready, from the daye that the foundacion of the LORDES house was layed, tyll it was fynished, so that the house of the LORDE was all prepared.

Then wente Salomon vnto Ezeon Ge- A ber, and vnto Eloth by the See syde in the londe of Edomea. And Hiram sent him ship pes by his seruauntes which had knowlege of the See, and they wente with Salomōs seruauntes vnto Ophir, and fetched from thence foure hundreth and fyftye talentes of golde, and broughte it vnto kynge Salomon.

The IX. Chapter.

A Nd whan the quene of rich Arabia herde the fame of Salomon, she came with a very greate tryne to Jerusalem (with Camels that bare spyces and golde, and precious stones) to prone Salomon with darke sentences. And whan she came vnto Salomon, she spake vnto him all that she had deuyſed in hir mynde. And the kynge tolde her all hir matters, & Salomon had nothinge in secrete, but he tolde it her.

And whan the Quene of riche Arabia sawe the wyßdome of Salomon, and ỳ hous ſe that he had buylded, the meates of his table, the dwellinges of his seruauntes, ỳ offices of his myniſters and their garmentes, & his butlers and their apparell, and his parler where he wente vp in to the house of the LORDE, she coulde no longer refrayne. And she sayde vnto the kynge: It is true that I haue herde in my londe of thy behaueoure and of thy wyßdome: howbeit I wolde not beleue their wordes, tyll I came my ſelfe, & sawe it with myne eyes: and beholde, the halfe of thy greate wyßdome hath not bene told de me: there is more in ỳ then the fame that I haue herde. Happye are thy men, and happie are theſe thy seruauntes, ỳ allwaye stonde before the, and heare thy wyßdome. Prayſed be the LORDE thy God, which had soch pleaſure vnto the, that he hath ſet the vpon his seate to be kynge vnto the LORDE thy God. Because thy God loueth Iſrael, to ſet them vp for euer, therfore hath he ordeyned ỳ to be kynge ouer them, that thou ſhuldeſt mayntayne iuſtice and equyte.

And she gaue ỳ kynge an hundreth and twentye talentes of golde, & very moch spyce & precious stones. There were no mo soch spyces as theſe that the Quene of riche Arabia gaue vnto kynge Salomō. And Hirams seruauntes and the seruauntes of Salomon, which broughte golde from Ophir, broughte coſtly tymber also & precious stones.

And of the same coſtly tymber dyd Salomon cauſe to make stares in the house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, and harpes and pſalteries for the Muſicians. There was no soch tymber sene before in the londe of Juda. But kynge Salomon gaue the Quene of riche Arabia all that she deſyred and axed, & moch more then she had broughte vnto the kynge. And she returned, and departed in to hir londe with hir seruauntes.

The golde that was broughte vnto Salomon in one yeare, was sixe hundreth and sixe and thre score talentes, beſydes that ỳ chapmen and marchauntes broughte. And all the kynges of the Arabians, and the lordes in ỳ londe broughte golde and ſyluer vnto Salomon. Of the which kynge Salomon made two hundreth speares of beaten golde, ſo ỳ sixe hundreth peces of beaten golde came vpō one speare: & thre hundreth ſhildes of beaten golde, ſo that thre hundreth peces of beaten golde came to one ſhylde: and the kynge put thē in the house of the wod of Libanus.

And the kynge made a greate ſeate of Ivory, and ouerlaied it with pure golde: and the ſeate had sixe steppes, and a foreſtole of golde feſtened vnto the ſeate, and it had two leanynge postes vpon both the sydes of the ſeate, and two lyons ſtode beſide the leanynge postes, and there ſtode twolue Lions vpō the sixe steppes on both the sides. In all realmes hath not soch one bene made.

And all kynge Salomons drynkynge veſſels were of golde, and all the veſſels of the house of the wod of Libanus, were of pure golde: for ſyluer was rekened nothinge in Salomons tyme. For the kynges shippes wente vpon the See with the seruauntes of Hirā, & came once in thre yeare, and broughte golde, ſyluer, Ivory, Apes and Pecockes.

Thus was kynge Salomon greater then all the kynges vpon earth, in riches and wiſdome. And all the kynges of ỳ earth deſired (to ſe) Salomons face, and to heare his wyſdome, which God had geuen him in his hert. And they broughte him yearly euery mā his preſent: Jewels of ſiluer and golde, raymēt, harneſſe, ſpyces, horſes and Mules.

And Salomon had foure thouſande charethorſes, and twolue thouſande horſmen, and put them in the charetcities, and with the kynge at Jeruſalem. And he was lorde ouer all the kynges from the water vnto the londe of the Philiſtynes, and to the coaſte of Egipte. And the kynge broughte it ſo to paſſe, that there was as moch ſyluer at Jeruſalem as stones: and as many Ceders, as there were Molbery trees in the valleys. And there were horſes broughte vnto him out of Egipte, and out of all countres.

What more there is to saye of Salomon, both of his firſt and of his laſt, beholde, it is writtē in the Cronicles of the prophet Nathan, and in the prophecies of Ahia of Silo, & in ỳ actes of Jeddi the Seer against Jeroboā ỳ sonne of Nebat. And Salomō reigned at Jeruſalē ouer all Iſrael fortie yeares. And Salomon fell on ſlepe wt his fathers, & was buried in the cyte of Dauid his father. And Roboā his sonne was kigē his steade.

The X. Chapter.

A 3.Re.12.a IEroboam wente vnto Sichem: for all Israel was come vnto Sichem: to make him kinge. And whan Jeroboā the sonne of Nebat herde that, which was in Egipte (* whither he was fled for kynge Salomon) he came agayne out of Egipte. And they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam came with all Israel, and spake to Roboam, and sayde: Thy father made ō yocke grevous: make thou lighter now ye harde bondage of thy father, and ye heuy yocke that he layed vpon vs, and we wyll submytte oure selues vnto the. He sayde vnto them: Come to me agayne ouer thre dayes. And ye people wente their waye.

B And Roboam the kynge axed coūcell at the Elders, which had stonde before Salomon his father whyle he lyued, and he sayde: What is youre councell, that I maye gene this people an answere? They spake vnto him, and sayde: Yf thou be lowynge vnto this people, and deale gently with them, and geue them good wordes, then shal they allwaye be obedient vnto the. Neuertheless he forsoke the councell of the Elders that they had geuen him, and toke councell at ye yonge men which were growne vp wt him, and stode before him. And he sayde vnto thē: What is youre councell, that we maye answere this people, which haue spoken vnto me, and saide: Make oure yock lighter, ye thy father layed vpon vs? The yongemen ye were growne vp with him, spake vnto him, and sayde: Thus shalt thou saye vnto the people, that haue talked with the & spoken: Thy father made oure yock to heuy, make thou ō yock lighter, Thus shalt thou saye vnto them: My litle finger shalbe thicker then my fathers loynes. Yf my father hath layed an heuy yock vpon you, I wyl make youre yock the more. My father chastened you wt scourges, but I wyl beate you with scorpions.

C Now whan Jeroboam and all the people came to Roboam on the thirde daye (accordynge as ye kinge sayde: Come to me againe on the thirde daie) the kynge gaue thē an harde answere. And Roboā the kynge forsoke ye councell of the Elders, & spake vnto thē after ye yonge mens councell, & sayde: Yf my father haue made yō yock to heuy, I wil make it yet heuyer. My father chastened you wt scourges, but I wyl beate you wt scorpiōs. Thus the kynge folowed not ye peoples minde: for so was it determyned of God, ye ye LORDE might stablishe his worde, * which he spake by Ahia of Silo, vnto Jeroboā ye sonne of Nebat. But whan all Israel sawe that the kynge wolde not consente vnto them, ye people answered the kynge, and sayde: What porcion haue we then in Dauid, or inheritance in the sonne of Jsai? Let euery man of Israel get him to his tent. Loke thou now to thy house Dauid. And all Israel wente vnto their tentes, so that Roboam reigned but ouer the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Juda. And Roboam sent forth Adoram the rent gatherer, but the children of Israel stoned him to death. And kynge Roboā strengthed himselfe vpon his charet, to flye vnto Jerusalem. Thus fell Israel awaie fro the house of Dauid vnto this daye.

The XI. Chapter.

AND whan Roboam came to Jerusalem, he gathered together the house of Juda and Ben Jamin (euen an hundreth and foure score thousande chosen men of armes) to fyghte agaynst Jsrael, that they mighte bringe the kyngdome agayne vnto Roboam. But ye worde of the LORDE came to Semaia the man of God, and sayde: Speake to Roboam the sonne of Salomon kynge of Juda, and to all Israel ye are in Juda and Ben Jamin, and saye: Thus sayeth the LORDE: Ye shal not go vp, ner fyght agaynst youre brethren: let euery man go home agayne, for this is my dede. They hatened vnto the wordes of ye LORDE, and went not forth agaynst Jeroboā. And for Roboā, he dwelt at Jerusalem, and buylded vp the stronge cities in Juda, namely Bethlē, Etan, Tekoa, Bethzur, Socho, Adullā, Gath, Maresa, Siph, Adoraim, Laches, Aseka, Zarega, Aialon, and Hebron (which were the fensed cities in Juda and Ben Jamin) & he made them stronge, and set prynces therin, & prouyded them of vytayles, oyle and wyne, and in all cities prepared he shildes and spares, and made them very stronge. And Juda and Ben Jamin were vnder him.

The Prestes and Lenites also came vnto him out of Jsrael and from all the borders therof, And lefte their suburbes & possession, and camt to Juda vnto Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sonnes expelled them, that they shulde not execute the offyce of ye prestehode vnto ye LORDE. But for himselfe he ordeined prestes to ye hye places, & to feldedeuils & calues, which he caused to make. And after them came there men out of all the trybes of Israel, which gaue ouer their hertes to seke ye LORDE God of Jsrael, & came to Jerusalem for to offre vnto the LORDE God of their fathers. And so strengthed they ye kingdome

Juda, and mãtayned Roboam the sonne of Salomon thre yeare longe: for they walked in ỹ waye of David & Salomon thre yeares.

And Roboam toke Mahelath ỹ doughter of Jeremoth ỹ sonne of David to wife, & Abihail the doughter of Eliab ỹ sonne of Jsai, which bare him these sonnes: Jeus, Semaria & Saham. After her toke he Maecha the doughter of Absalom, which bare him Abia, Athai Sisa and Selomith. But Roboam loued Maecha the doughter of Absalom better then all his wynes & concubynes: for he had eightene wynes and thre score cõcubynes, and begat eight & twentye sonnes, and thre score doughters. And Roboam set Abia the sonne of Maecha to be heade and prynce amonge his brethren: for he thought to make him kynge: for he was wyse, & more myghtie then all his sonnes in all the countrees of Juda & Ben Jamin, and in all the stronge cities. And he gaue them plenteousnes of fode, and desyred many wynes.

The XII. Chapter.

BVt whã the kyngdome of Roboam was confirmed and stablysshed, he forsoke the lawe of the LORDE & all Jsrael with him. And in the fyfth yeare of Roboam wẽte Sisack the kynge of Egipte vp agaynst Jerusalem (for they had transgressed agaynst the LORDE) with a thousande and two hundreth charettes, and with thre score thousande horsmen, and the people were innumerable that came with him out of Egipte, Libya, Suchim & out of Ethiopia, and he wanne the strõge cities that were in Juda, and came to Jerusalem.

Then came Semaia ỹ prophet vnto Roboam and to ỹ rulers of Juda (which were gathered together at Jerusalem for Sisack) & sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth ỹ LORDE: Ye haue lefte me, therfore haue J lefte you also in Sisacks hande. Thẽ the rulers in Jsrael with the kynge submytted them selues, and sayde: The LORDE is righteous.

But whã the LORDE sawe ỹ they hũbled them selues, ỹ worde of the LORDE came to Semaia, & sayde: They haue humbled them selues, therfore wyl J not destroye them, but J wyl geue them a litle delyueraunce, that my indignacion fall not vpon Jerusalem by Sisack: for they shalbe subdued vnto him, ỹ they maye knowe what it is to serue me, & to serue the kyngdomes of the worlde.

Thus wẽte Sisack the kynge of Egipte vp to Jerusalem, & toke the treasures in the house of the LORDE, & the treasures in the kynges house, and caried all awaye, and toke the shyldes of golde, that Salomon caused to make: in steade wherof kynge Roboã made shyldes of stele, and commytted thẽ vnto the chefe sotemen, which kepte the dore of the kynges house. And as oft as the kynge wente in to the house of the LORDE, ỹ sotemen came & bare them, & brought them agayne in to ỹ sotemens chãber. And for so moch as he submytted himselfe, ỹ wrath of ỹ LORDE turned frõ him, so that all was not destroied: for there was yet some good in Juda. 2.Par.9.b

Thus was Roboam the kinge stablished C in Jerusalem, and reigned. One and fortye yeare olde was Roboam whã he was made kynge, and reigned seuentene yeare at Jerusalem in the cite, which the LORDE had chosen out of all the trybes of Jsrael, to set his name there. His mothers name was Naema an Ammonitisse: and he did euell, and prepared not his hert to seke the LORDE. 2.Par.7.b

These actes of Roboam, both fyrst and last, are wrytten in the actes of Semaia the prophet, & of Jddo the Seer, and are noted, & so are the warres that Roboam and Jeroboam had together as longe as they lyued. And Roboam fell on slepe with his fathers and was buryed in the cite of David, & Abia his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XIII. Chapter.

JN the eighteenth yeare of kynge Je- A roboam, was Abia kynge in Juda, & reigned thre yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Michaia the doughter of Ueiel of Gibea. And there was warre betwene Abia and Jeroboam. And Abia prepared himselfe to the battayll with foure hũdreth thousande stronge chosen men of warre. But Jeroboam made himselfe ready to fight agaynst him wt eight hundreth thousande chosen men of strength.

And Abia gatt him vp vpon the hyll Zemaraim, which lyeth vpon mount Ephraim and sayde: Herken vnto me thou Jeroboam and all Jsrael: Knowe ye not that the LORDE God of Jsrael hath geuen Dauid ỹ kyngdome of Jsrael for euer, vnto him and his sonnes with a Salt couenaunt? But Jeroboã the sonne of Nebat, the seruaunt of Salomon Dauids sonne, gat him vp & fell awaye from his lorde. And there resorted vnto him vagaboundes and children of Belial, and haue strengthed them selues against Roboã the sonne of Salomõ: for Roboam was but yonge and of a fearfull hert, and coulde not resiste them.

Now thinke ye to set youre selues against B the kyngdome of the LORDE amonge

the sonnes of Dauid, for so moch as there is so greate a multitude of you, and haue ỹ gol-3.Re.12.d den calues * ỹ Jeroboam made you for goddes.
*3.Ka.n.d Haue ye not expelled the prestes of the LORDE the children of Aaron and the Leuites; and haue made you prestes of youre awne, euen as the people of the londes? Who so euer commeth to fyll his hande with a yonge bullocke and seuen rammes, shal be prestes vnto them that are not goddes.

But with vs is ỹ LORDE oure God, whō we forsake not: and the prestes that minister vnto the LORDE, the children of Aaron and the Leuites in their busines, and euery morynge and euery euenynge, kyndle they the burntofferynges vnto the LORDE, and the swete incense, and prepare the shewbred vpō the pure table, and the golden candilsticke with his lampes, to be kyndled euery euenynge: for we wayte vpō the LORDE oure God.

C As for you, ye haue forsaken him. Beholde, God is the captayne of oure hooste, and Num.10.a with vs are his prestes, and the * blowynge trompettes, to trompe agaynst you. Ye children of Israel, fight not agaynst the LORDE God of yō fathers: for ye shal not prospere.

Neuertheles Jeroboam made a preuy watch on euery syde, to come vpon them behynde, so that they were before Juda, and ỹ preuy watch behynde. Now whā Juda turned them, beholde, there was battayll before thē & behynde. Then cryed they vnto ỹ LORDE, & the prestes tromped with the trompettes, & whā euery man in Juda gaue a shoute, God plaged Jeroboam and Israel before Abia and Juda. And the children of Israel fled before Juda, and God gaue them in to their handes, so that Abia & his people dyd a greate slaughter vpon them, and there fell wounded of Israel fyue hundreth thousande chosen men.

D Thus were the children of Israel subdued at that tyme, but the children of Juda were comforted, for they put their trust in ỹ LORDE God of their fathers. And Abia folowed vpon Jeroboam, and wanne cities frō him, Bethel with the vyllages therof, Jesana wt hir vyllages, and Ephron with the villages therof, so that Jeroboam came nomore to strength, as longe as Abia lyued. And the LORDE smote him that he dyed.

Now whan Abia was strengthed, he toke fourtene wyues, and begat two and twentye sonnes and sixtene daughters. What more there is to saye of Abia, and of his wayes and his doynges, it is wrytten in the storye of the prophet Jddo. And Abia fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buryed him in the cite of Dauid: and Asa his sonne was king in his steade. In his tyme was the londe at rest ten yeares.

The XIIII. Chapter.

AND Asa dyd that which was good & right in the sighte of the LORDE his God, and put awaye the straunge altares, and the hye places, and brake the pillers, and hewed downe the grones, and bade vnto Juda, that they shulde sēke the LORDE God of their fathers, and to do after lawe and commaundementes. And the hye places and ymages put he awaye out of all the cities of Juda: and the kyngdome had rest before him. And he builded stroge cities in Juda, whyle the londe was in quietnesse, whyle there was no warre agaynst him in the same yeares: for ỹ LORDE gaue him rest.

And he sayde vnto Juda: Let vs buylde vp these cities, and fense them rounde about te with walles and towres, with portes and barres, while the londe is yet with vs: for we haue soughte thē ỹ LORDE oure God, and he hath geuen vs rest on euery syde. So they buylded, and it wente prosperously with them. And Asa had an hooste of mē which bare shyldes & speares, out of Juda thre C. thousande, and out of Ben Jamin two hūdreth and fourescore thousande, that bare shyldes & coude shute wt bowes, and all these were mighty stronge men.

But Serah the Moryan came out agaynst thē wt an hooste of a thousande times a thousande, and with thre hundreth chariottes, and came vnto Maresa. And Asa went forth agaynst him. And they prepared themselues to the battayll in the valley Zephata beside Maresa. And Asa called vpon ỹ LORDE his God and sayde: * LORDE, it is no difference wt ỹ, to helpe by fewe or by many. Helpe vs O LORDE oure God: for oure trust is in the, & in thy name are we come forth agaynst this multitude. LORDE oure God, let no man prevayle agaynst the.

And the LORDE smote the Morias before Asa and before Juda, so that they fled. And Asa with ỹ people that was by him, folowed vpon them vnto Gerar. And the Morias fell, so that none of them remained alyue, but were smytten before the LORDE and before his hooste. And they caried exceadinge moch spoyle from thence. And he smote all the cyties aboute Gerar, for a fearfulnesse of the LORDE came vpon them. And they spoyled all the cities, for there was moch spoyle in them. They smote the tentes of the cattell & so, and toke many shepe and Camels, and came agayne to Jerusalem.

The XV. Chapter.

AND the spirite of God came vpō Asarias the sonne of Obed, which wente forth to Asa, and sayde vnto him: Heareme Asa and all Juda & Ben Jamin: The LORDE is with you, whyle ye are with him: and yf ye seke him, he wylbe founde of you. But yf ye forsake him, he shal forsake you also. Nevertheles there shal be many dayes in Israel, that * there shalbe no true God, no preest to teach, & no lawe. And whan they turne in their trouble vnto the LORDE God of Israel, and seke him, he shalbe founde. At that tyme shall it not be well with him that goeth out and in: for there shal be greate vproures vpon all them ỳ dwell on the earth. For one people shall all to smyte another, & one cite another: for God shal vexe them wt all maner of trouble. But be ye stronge, and let not youre handes be feble: for youre worke hath his rewarde.

Whan Asa herde these wordes, and the prophecīege (of Asarias the sonne) of Obed the prophet, he toke a corage vnto him, and put awaye the abhominacions out of all ỳ londe of Juda and Ben Jamin, and out of the cities that he had wonne vpon mount Ephraim: and renued the LORDES altare, which stode before the porche of the LORDE. And all Juda and Ben Jamin gathered them selues together, and the straungers with them out of Ephraim, Manasses and Simeon: for there fell many vnto him out of Israel, whan they sawe that the LORDE his God was with him. And they resorted vnto Jerusalem in the thirde moneth of the fyftenth yeare of the reigne of Asa, and the same daye offred they vnto the LORDE of the spoyle that they had broughte, seuenhūdreth oxen, and seuen thousande shepe.

And they entred in to ỳ couenaunt, that they wolde seke the LORDE God of their fathers, with all their hert and with all their soule. And who so euer wolde not seke ỳ LORDE God of Israel, shulde dye, both small & greate, both man and woman; and they sware vnto the LORDE with loude voyce, with shoutinge, with trompettes and with shawmes. And all Juda were glad ouer the ooth: for they had swore with all their hert, and they soughte him with a whole wyll: and he was founde of them, and the LORDE gaue them rest on euery syde.

And Asa ỳ kynge put downe his mother from the mynistracion, that she had founded in the groue vnto Miplezeth. And Asa roted out hir Miplezeth, and beate it in sunder, and brent it by the broke Cedron. But the hye places were not put downe out of Israel. Yet was the hert of Asa perfecte as longe as he lyued. And loke what his father had halowed, and that he him selfe had halowed, he broughte it in to ỳ house of God, syluer, golde and ornamētes. And there was no warre vnto the fyue and thirtieth yeare of the reigne of Asa.

The XVI. Chapter.

IN the sixe and thirtieth yeare of ỳ reigne of Asa, wente Baesa the kynge of Israel vp agaynst Juda, and buylded Rama, to let Asa the kynge of Juda, ỳ he shulde not go out and in: But Asa toke forth the treasure in the house of the LORDE, and the syluer and golde in the kynges house, and sent it vnto Benadad ỳ kynge of Syria, which dwelt at Damascon, and caused to saye vnto him: There is a couenaunt betweue me and the, betwene my father and thy father, therfore haue I sent ỳ syluer and golde, that thou mayest breake ỳ couenaunt with Baesa the kynge of Israel, that he maye departe from me, Benadad herkened vnto kynge Asa, and sent his hooste agaynst the cities of Israel, which smote Eion, Dan and Abel Maim, and all the corne cities of Nephtali. Whan Baesa herde that, he lefte of from buyldinge Rama, and ceassed from his worke. But kynge Asa toke all Juda vnto him, and caried awaye ỳ stones and tymber (wherwith Baesa buylded) and he buylded Geba & Mizpa withall.

At the same tyme came Hanani the Seer vnto Asa the kynge of Juda, and sayde vnto him: Because thou hast trusted vnto the kynge of Syria, and not put thy trust in the LORDE thy God, therfore is the power of the kynge of Syria escaped thy hāde. Were not the Morians and Lybians a greate multitude with exceadinge many charettes and horsmen? Yet gaue the LORDE them in to thy hande, whan thou dyddest put thy trust in him: for the eyes of the LORDE loke rounde about all londes, to strengthe them ỳ are in him with all their hert. Thou hast done vnwysely, therfore shalt thou haue warre from hēce forth. But Asa was wroth at ỳ Seer, and put him in presō: for he murmured with him ouer this thinge. And Asa oppressed certayne of the people at ỳ same tyme.

These actes of Asa both first and last, be holde, they are wrytten in the boke of ỹ kynges of Juda & Israel. And Asa was diseased in his fete in the nyne and thirtieth yeare of his reigne, and endured ther ouer. * Nether soughte he the LORDE in the sickneſſe, but trusted vnto phisicians. Thus fell Asa on slepe with his fathers, & dyed in the one and fortieth yeare of his reigne, & was buried in his awne sepulcre which he had caused to be grauen for him selfe in the cite of David. And they layed him vpon his bed, which was fylled with swete odoures & all maner of spyces (made after ỹ Apotecaries craft) and made a very greate burnynge.

Ecclī. 38.b

The XVII. Capter.

A AND Josaphat his sonne was kynge in his steade, & waxed mightie against Israel. And he put men of warre in all the stronge cities of Juda, and set officers in the londe of Juda, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had wonne. And the LORDE was wt Josaphat: for he walked in the olde wayes of his father David, & soughte not Baalim, but the God of his father, & walked in his commaundementes, & not after the workes of Israel: therfore dyd the LORDE stablysshe the kyngdome in his hāde. And all Juda gaue presentes vnto Josaphat, & he had greate riches & worshippe. And whan his hert was coraged in the wayes of the LORDE, he put downe styll the hye places and grones out of Juda.

B In the thirde yeare of his reigne sent he his princes, Benhail, Obadia, Zacharias, Nethaneel & Michaia, to teach in the cities of Juda: & with them the Leuites: Semaia, Nethania, Sebadia, Asahel, Semiramoth, Jonathan, Adonia, Tobia & Tob Adonia, & with them ỹ prestes Elisama & Joram. And they taughte in Juda, & had the boke of the lawe of ỹ LORDE wt them, & wente aboute in all ỹ cities of Juda, & taughte the people.

And the feare of the LORDE came vpon all ỹ kyngdomes in the countrees that laye aboute Juda, so ỹ they soughte not agaynst Josaphat. And the philistynes broughte presentes and trybute of syluer vnto Josaphat. And the Arabians broughte him seuen thousande and seuen hundreth rammes, and seuen thousande and seuen hundreth he goates. Thus increased Josaphat, & grewe euer greater. And he buylded castels and corne cities in Juda. And dyd moch in the cities of Juda, and had valeaunt and mightie men at Jerusalem.

C And this was ỹ ordinaunce thorow out the house of their fathers, which were rulers ouer the thousandes in Juda. Adna captayne, & wt him were thre hundreth thousande mightie men. Nexte vnto him was Johanan ỹ chefe, and with him were two hundreth and foure score thousande. Nexte him was Amasia the sonne of Sichri the freewillinge of ỹ LORDE, and with him were two hundreth thousande valeaunt men. Of the children of Ben Jamin was Eliada a mightie man, and with him were two hundreth thousande ready with bowes and shyldes. Nexte vnto him was Josabad, and with him were an hundreth and foure score thousande harnessed men of warre. All these waited vpon the kynge, besydes those that the kynge had layed in the stronge cities throwout all Juda.

The XVIII. Chapter.

AND Josaphat had greate riches and worshippe, and made frendshippe with Achab. * And after two yeares wente he downe to Achab vnto Samaria. And Achab caused many shepe and oxē to be slayne for him and for ỹ people that were with him. And he counceled him to go vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead. And Achab the kynge of Israel sayde vnto Josaphat the kynge of Juda: Go with me vnto Ramoth in Gilead. He sayde vnto him: I am as thou, and my people as thy people, we wyll go with the vnto the battayll.

But Josaphat sayde vnto the kynge of Israel: Axe counsell (I praye the) this day at the worde of the LORDE. And the kynge of Israel gathered the prophetes together, euen foure hundreth men, & saide vnto them: Shal we go to the battayll vnto Ramoth in Gilead, or shal I let it alone? They sayde: Go vp, God shal delyuer it into the kynges hāde. But Josaphat sayde: Is there not yet one prophet of the LORDE here, ỹ we maye axe at him? The kynge of Israel sayde vnto Josaphat: There is yet one man, at whom we maye axe of ỹ LORDE: but I hate him, for he prophecieth me no good, but allwayes euell, namely Micheas the sonne of Jemla. Josaphat sayde: Let not the kynge saye so. And the kynge of Israel called one of his chamberlaynes, & sayde: Bringe hither soone Micheas the sonne of Jemla.

And the kynge of Israel, and Josaphat the kynge of Juda, sat either of them vpon his seate, arayed in their garmentes. Euen in the place at the dore of the porte of Samaria sat they, and all ỹ prophetes prophecied before them. And Sedechias the sonne of Chaena had made him hornes of yron, and sayde: Thus sayeth the LORDE: With these shalt thou pusshe at the Syrians, tyll thou bringe them to naughte. And all the prophetes prophecied likewyse, & sayde: Go vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead, and thou shalt prospere, and ỳ LORDE shal delyuer it in to the kynges hande.

And the messaunger that wente to call Micheas, spake vnto him, and sayde: Behold, ỳ wordes of the prophetes are with one acorde good before the kynge: let thy worde (I praye the) be as one of theirs, and speake thou good also. But Micheas sayde: As truly as the LORDE lyueth, loke what my God sayeth vnto me, ỳ wyl I speake. And whan he came to the kynge, the kynge sayde vnto him: Micheas, shulde we go vnto Ramoth in Gilead to the battayll, or shulde we let it alone? He saide: Go vp, and ye shal prospere. It shal be geuē you in youre handes. But ỳ kynge sayde vnto him: I charge ỳ yet agayne, that thou tell me nothinge but ỳ trueth in the name of the LORDE.

C Then saide he: I sawe all Israel scatered abrode vpō the mountaynes, as the shepe ỳ haue no shepherde. And the LORDE sayde: Haue these no lorde? Let euery one turne home agayne in peace. Thē sayde the kynge of Israel vnto Josaphat: Dyd not I tell the, ỳ he wolde prophecie me no good, but euell?

And he sayde: Therfore heare ye the worde of the LORDE: * I sawe the LORDE syt d vpon his seate, and all the hoost of heauen a stondinge at his ryghte hande & at his lefte. And the LORDE sayde: Who wyll disceaue Achab the kynge of Israel, that he maye go vp & fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And whan one sayde thus, another so, there came forth a spriete, and stode before ỳ LORDE, and sayde: I wyl disceaue him. The LORDE sayde vnto him: Wherwith? He sayde: I wyll go forth, and be a false spriete in the mouth of all his prophetes. And he sayde: Thou shalt disceaue him, and shalt be able: go thy waye, 4.b and do so. Beholde now, * the LORDE hath geuen a false spriete in the mouth of all these thy prophetes, and the LORDE hath spokē euell agaynst the.

D Then stepte forth Sedechias the sonne of Cnaena, and smote Micheas vpon the cheke, and sayde: Which waye is the spriete of ỳ LORDE departed fro me, to speake thorow the? Micheas sayde: Beholde, thou shalt se it, whan thou commest in to ỳ ynmost chamber to hyde the. But the kynge of Israel sayde: Take Micheas, and let him remayne wh Amon the ruler of the cite, and with Joas the sonne of Melech, and saye: Thus sayeth the kynge: Put this man in preson, and fede him wh bred and water of trouble, tyll I come agayne in peace. Micheas saide: Yf thou commest agayne in peace, then hath not the LORDE spoken thorow me. And he sayde: Herken to all ye people.

So the kynge of Israel, and Josaphat ỳ E kynge of Juda wente vp vnto Ramoth in Gilead. And ỳ kynge of Israel sayde vnto Josaphat: Chaunge thy clothes, and come to the battayll in thine araye. And ỳ kynge of Israel chaunged his rayment, & came in to the battayll. But the kynge of Syria had commaunded the rulers of his charettes: Ye shal fighte nether agaynst small ner greate, but onely agaynst the kynge of Israel.

Now whan the rulers of the charettes sawe Josaphat, they thoughte: Yt is ỳ kynge of Israel, and they wēte aboute to fighte agaynst him. But Josaphat cryed, and the LORDE helped him. And God turned them from him: for whan the rulers of the charettes sawe that it was not ỳ kynge of Israel, they turned back from him. But a certayne man bended his bowe harde, & shot the kynge of Israel betwene the mawe and the longes. Thē sayde he vnto his charet man: Turne thine hāde, and cary me out of the hooste, for I am wounded. And the battayll was sore the same daye. And the kynge of Israel stode vpon his charet agaynst the Syrians vntyll the euenynge, and dyed whā the Sonne wente downe.

The XIX. Chapter.

BVt Josaphat the kynge of Juda came home agayne in peace vnto Jerusalem. And Jehu ỳ sonne of Hanani the Seer wēte forth to mete him, & sayde vnto kynge Josaphat: Shuldest thou so helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the LORDE? And for this cause is ỳ wrath vpō the from the LORDE: nevertheles there is some good founde in the, that thou hast put the groues out of the londe, and hast prepared thine hert to seke God. So Josaphat abode at Jerusalem. A

And he wente agayne amonge the peo- B ple, from Berseba vnto moūt Ephraim, and broughte them agayne to the LORDE God of their fathers. And he set Judges thorow out the londe, in all the stronge cities of Juda, and a certayne in euery cite. And sayde vnto the Judges: Take hede what ye do: for ye execute not the iudgment of man, but of the LORDE, and he is with you in iudgmēt: therfore let the feare of the LORDE be with you, and bewarre, and do it: for with the LORDE oure God there is no vnrighteousnes, ner respecte of personnes, ner acceptinge of giftes.

C And at Jerusalem dyd Josaphat ordeyne certayne of the Leuites and prestes, and of the awncient fathers of Israel for ỳ iudgment of the LORDE, and ouer the matter of the lawe, and caused them to dwell at Jerusalem, and commaunded them, and sayde: See that ye do thus in the feare of the LORDE, in faithfulnes & in a perfect hert. In all causes that come vnto you from youre brethren (which dwell in their cities) betwene bloude and bloude, betwene lawe and commaundement, betwene statutes and ordinaunces ye shal enforme them, ỳ they synne not against the LORDE, and so the wrath to come vpon you and youre brethren. Do thus, and ye shal not offende.

Beholde, Amaria the prest is chefe ouer you in all causes of ỳ LORDE: so is Sabadia the sonne of Ismael prynce in the house of Juda in all the kynges matters: Ye haue officers likewyse the Leuites before you. Take a good corage vnto you, and be doynge, and the LORDE shalbe with the good.

The XX. Chapter.

A AFter this came the childrē of Moab, the children of Ammon, and certayne of Amanim wt them, to fighte against Josaphat. And they came and tolde Josaphat, and sayde: There cōmeth a greate multitude agaynst the from beyonde the See of Syria, & beholde, they are at Hazezon Thamar, that is Engaddi.

And Josaphat was afrayed, & set his face to seke ỳ LORDE, & caused a fast to be proclamed in all Juda. And Juda came together to seke the LORDE. And out of all ỳ cities of Juda came they to seke the LORDE. And Josaphat stode amōge ỳ cōgregacion of Juda & Jerusalem in the house of ỳ LORDE before the new courte, and sayde:

O LORDE God of oure fathers, art not thou God in heaven, and hast domynion in all the kyngdomes of the heythen? And in thy hande is strength and power, and there is no man that can withstōde the. Hast not thou o' God expelled the inhabiters of this londe before thy people of Israel? and hast geuē it vnto the sede of Abraham thy louer for euer? so that they haue dwelt in it, & haue buylded the a Sanctuary vnto y' name therB in, and sayde: Yf there come eny plage, swerde, indgmēt, pestilence, or derth vpon vs, we wyll stonde before this house euen before the (for thy name is in this house) and wyll crye vnto the in oure trouble, and thou shalt here, and shalt saue vs. Beholde nowe, the children of Ammon, of Moab, & they of mount Seir, vpon whom * thou woldest not suffre Deu. the children of Israel to go, whan they were out of the londe of Egipte, but they were fayne to departe from thē, and not to destroye them: and beholde, they deale contrarely with vs, and come to thrust vs out of the inheritaunce, that thou hast geuen vs in possession. O oure God, wylt thou not indge them? For in vs is no strength to withstonde this greate multitude that commeth agaynst vs. We knowe not what we shulde do, but oure eyes loke vnto the. And all Juda stode before the LORDE, with their children, wyues and sonnes.

But vpon Jehasiel the sonne of Zacharias, the sonne of Benaia, the sonne of Jehiel, the sonne of Mathania the Leuite of ỳ children of Assaph, came the spirite of the LORDE in the myddes of the congregacion, and sayde: Geue hede all thou Juda, and ye inhabiters of Jerusalem, and thou kynge Josaphat: Thus sayeth the LORDE vnto you: Be not ye afrayed, nether feare ye this greate multitude: for it is not ye that fighte, but God. Tomorow shal ye go downe vnto thē. And beholde, they go vp by Sis, and ye shal fynde them at the reed see by the broke before the wyldernes of Jeruel: for ye shall not fighte in this cause. Do ye but steppe forth, and stonde, and se the health of the LORDE that is with you. Feare not O Juda and Jerusalem, and be not afrayed, tomorow go ye forth agaynst them, and the LORDE shal be with you.

Thē Josaphat bowed him selfe wt his face to the earth, & all Juda, & the inhabiters of Jerusalem fell before the LORDE, & worshipped the LORDE. And the Leuites of ỳ childrē of the Kahathites & of the children of the Corahites arose to prayse the LORDE God of Israel wt loude voyce on hye. And they gat them vp early in ỳ mornynge, and wēte forth by the wyldernesse of Thekoa.

And whan they were goynge out, Josa- D phat stode, & sayde: Herke vnto me O Juda, & ye indwellers of Jerusalē: Put youre trust in the LORDE yo' God, & ye shal be safe: and geue credence vnto his prophetes, & ye shall prospere. And he gaue councell vnto ỳ people, and appoynted the syngers vnto ỳ LORDE, and them that gaue prayse in the bewtye of holynes, to go before the harnessed me, & to saye: O geue thankes vnto the LORDE, for his mercy endureth for euer. And whan they beganne to geue thankes and prayse, the LORDE caused the hynder watch that was come agaynst Juda, to come vpon the childrē of Ammon, Moab & them of mount Seir, and they smote them. Then stode the children of Ammon & Moab agaynst them of mount Seir, to damne them, and to destroye them. And whan they had destroyed them of mount Seir, one helped another to destroye them selues also. And whan Juda came to Mispa vnto the wyldernes, they turned them towarde the multitude, and beholde, the deed bodies laye vpō the earth, so that none was escaped.

E And Josaphat came with his people to deuyde the spoyles of them. And they founde amonge them so moch goodes and rayment and precious Jewels (which they toke from them) that they coulde not beare them. And the dayes were they deuydinge the spoyle, for it was so moch. On the fourth daye came they together into the valley of blessynge: for there blessed they the LORDE. Therfore is the place called the valley of blessinge vnto this daye.

So euery man of Juda & Jerusalem turned back agayne, & Josaphat before them, to go to Jerusalē with ioye: for ỹ LORDE had geuen them gladnesse on their enemies. And they entred into Jerusalem with psalteries, harpes & trompettes vnto the house of the LORDE. And there came a feare of God ouer all the kyngdomes in the londes, whan they herde that the LORDE had foughte agaynst ỹ enemies of Jsrael. Thus was ỹ kyngdome of Josaphat in quyetnes, & God gaue him rest on euery syde.

F And Josaphat reigned ouer Juda, & was fyue & thirtie yeare olde whan he was made kynge, & reigned fyue & twentye yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Asuba the doughter of Silhi. And he walked in the waye of his father Asa, & departed not a syde from doynge ỹ which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE: sauynge that ỹ hye places were not put downe, for the people had not yet prepared their hert to the God of their fathers. What more there is to saye of Josaphat, both the first & the last, beholde, it is wrytten in the actes of Jehu ỹ sonne of Hanani, which he noted vp in the boke of the kynges of Jsrael.

Afterwarde dyd Josaphat the kynge of Juda agree wt Ahasia the kynge of Jsrael, which was vngodly in his doynges. And he agreed with him to make shippes, for to go vpon the see. And they made the shippes at Ezeon Gaber. But Elieser the sonne of Dodana of Maresa prophecied agaynst Josaphat, and sayde: Because thou hast agreed with Ahasia, therfore hath the LORDE broken thy workes. And so ỹ shippes were broken, & mighte not go vpon the See.

The XXI. Chapter.

A ND Josaphat fell on slepe wt his fathers, & was buried wt his fathers in the cite of Dauid, & Joram his sonne was kynge in his steade. And he had brethrē the sonnes of Josaphat: Asaria, Jehiel, Zacharias, Asaria, Michael & Sephatia. All these were the children of Josaphat kynge of Juda. And their father gaue them many giftes of syluer, golde & Jewels, wt stronge cities in Juda. But the kyngdome gaue he vnto Joram: for he was the first borne. A 3.Re.22

But whan Joram came vp ouer his fathers kyngdome, & had gotten the power of it, he slewe all his brethrē with the swerde, & certayne rulers also in Jsrael. * Two & thirtie yeare olde was Joram whan he was made kynge, & reigned eight yeare at Jerusalē, & walked in the waye of ỹ kynges of Jsrael, euen as the house of Achab dyd (for Achabs doughter was his wife) & he dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE. 4.Re.8

Neuertheles ỹ LORDE wolde not destroie the house of Dauid, for the couenauntes sake, * which he made wt Dauid, and accordinge as he had sayde, ỹ he wolde geue him and his children a lanterne for euermore. B 2.Re.8

At ỹ same tyme fell ỹ Edomites awaye from Juda, and made a kynge ouer them selues: for Joram had gone ouer with his captaynes and all the charettes with him, & had gotten him vp in the night season, and slayne the Edomites on euery syde, and the rulers of the charettes: therfore fell ỹ Edomites awaye from Juda vnto this daye. At ỹ same tyme fell Lybna awaye from him also: because he forsoke the LORDE God of his fathers. He made hye places also on the mountaynes in Juda, & caused them of Jerusalē to go awhorynge, and disceaued Juda.

But there came a wrytinge vnto him frō the prophet Elias, sayenge: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of thy father Dauid: Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of thy father Josaphat, nether in ỹ wayes of Asa the kynge of Juda, but walkest in the waye of the kynges of Jsrael, and makest Juda and them of Jerusalem to go awhorynge after the whordome of the house of Achab, and hast slayne thy brethren also of thy fa- C thers house, which were better thē thou. Beholde, the LORDE shal smyte the wt a greate plage on thy people, on thy children & thy wyues, and on all thy substaunce. But thou thy selfe shalt haue moch sickneſſe in thy bowels, tyll thy bowels go forth from daye to daye for very diſeaſe.

D So ỹ LORDE rayſed vp agaynſt Joram, the ſprete of the Philiſtynes, & Arabians, which lye beſyde the Morians, and they went vp in to Juda, and wayſted it, and caried awaye all the ſubſtaunce that was founde in the kynges houſe, & his ſonnes, and his wyues, ſo ỹ there was not one ſonne lefte him, ſaue Joahas his yōgeſt ſonne. And after all this dyd ỹ LORDE ſmyte him in his bowels, with ſoch a ſickneſſe as coulde not be healed. And whyle that endured from daye to daye, whan the tyme of two yeares was expyred, his bowels wente from him wt his ſickneſſe, and he dyed in euell diſeaſes.

And they made not a burninge ouer him, as they dyd vnto his fathers. Two and thirtie yeare olde was he whā he was made kynge, and reigned eight yeare at Jeruſalē, and walked not well. And they buried him in the cite of Dauid, but not amōge the ſepulcres of the kynges.

The XXII. Chapter.

A Le. 8 d AND they of Jeruſalem made Ochoſias his yōgeſt ſonne kynge in his ſteade: for the men of warre that came wt the hooſt of the Arabians, had ſlayne all ỹ firſt, therfore reigned Ochoſias the ſonne of Joram kynge of Juda. Two and fortye yeare olde was Ochoſias whan he was made kynge, and reigned one yeare at Jeruſalem. His mothers name was Athalia the doughter of Amri. And he walked alſo in ỹ wayes of the houſe of Achab: for his mother entyſed him ſo ỹ he was vngodly. Therfore dyd he euell in ỹ ſighte of the LORDE, euen as ỹ houſe of Achab: for they were his councell geuers after his fathers death, to deſtroye him, and he walked after their councell.

B And he wente with Joram the ſonne of Achab kynge of Iſrael, to the battayll vnto Ramoth in Gilead, agaynſt Hazael the kynge of Syria. But the Syriās ſmote Joram, ſo ỹ he turned back to be healed at Jeſreel: for he had woundes that were geuen him at Rama, whan he foughte with Hazael the kynge of Syria. And * Aſarias the ſonne of Joram kynge of Juda wēte downe to vyſet Joram ỹ ſonne of Achab at Jeſreel, which laye ſicke: For it was ordeyned of God vnto Ochoſias, that he ſhulde come to Joram, & ſo to go forth with Joram agaynſt Jehu ỹ ſonne of Nimſi, * whom the LORDE had anoynted to rote out the houſe of Achab. 4.22

Now whan Jehu wolde be auēged of ỹ C houſe of Achab, he founde certayne rulers of Juda, and ỹ childrē of Ochoſias brethren which ſerued Ochoſias, and he ſlewe them. * And he ſoughte Ochoſias, and they ouertoke him, whā he had hyd him at Samaria: & he was broughte vnto Jehu, which ſlewe him, and they buried him, for they ſayde: he his the ſonne of Joſaphat, which ſoughte ỹ LORDE with all his hert. And there was no man more of the houſe of Ochoſias that mighte be kynge. 4.44

Whan Athalia the mother of Ochoſias D ſawe ỹ hir ſonne was deed, ſhe gat hir vp, & 4.8 deſtroyed all the kynges ſede in the houſe of Juda. But Joſabeath ỹ kynges ſiſter toke Joas ỹ ſonne of Ochoſias, and ſtale him awaye frō amonge the kynges childrē ỹ were ſlayne, & put him with his norſe in a chamber. Thus Joſabeath kynge Jorams doughter, the wyfe of Joiada the preſt, hyd him from Athalia, ſo ỹ he was not ſlayne: for ſhe was Ochoſias ſiſter. And he was hyd with them in the houſe of God ſixe yeares, for ſo moch as Athalia was quene in the londe.

The XXIII. Chapter.

BVt in the ſeuenth yeare was Joiada E bolde, and toke the rulers ouer hundreds: namely Aſaria ỹ ſonne of Jeraham, Iſmael ỹ ſonne of Johanan, Aſaria ỹ ſonne of Obed, Maeſeia ỹ ſonne of Adaia, and Eliſaphat ỹ ſonne of Sichri with him, into the couenaunt: and they wente about in Juda, and broughte ỹ Lewites together out of all the cities of Juda, and the cheffathers of Iſrael, to come vnto Jeruſalem. And all the cōgregacion made a couenaunt with the kynge in the houſe of God, and he ſayde vnto them: Beholde, the kynges ſonne ſhal be kynge, * euē as the LORDE ſpake cō 2.6 cernynge the children of Dauid.

This is it therfore ỹ ye ſhal do: The thirde F parte of you that entre on the Sabbath, ſhalbe amonge the preſtes & Lewites, which are dorekepers at the threſholdes: & one thirde parte in the kynges houſe, and one thirde parte at the grounde porte. But all the people ſhalbe in the courtes of the houſe of the LORDE, and that no man go in to the houſe of the LORDE, excepte the preſtes and Lewites that myniſter there, they ſhal go in: for they are halowed. And let all ỹ people wayte vpon the LORDE. And the Lewites ſhal get them rounde aboute ỹ kynge, euery man with his weapen in his hande. And who so els goeth in to ỹ house, let him dye. And they shall be wt the kynge whā he goeth out & in.

And the Leuites & all Juda dyd as Joiada ỹ preist had commaunded, and euery one toke his men that entred on the Sabbath, wt those ỹ wente of on the Sabbath: for Joiada ỹ preist suffred not those two companies to parte asunder. And Joiada ỹ preist gaue the captaynes ouer hundreds speares & shyldes, and kynge Dauids weapens, which were in the house of God, and set all the people euery one wt his weapen in his hande, from the righte corner of the house, vnto the leste corner of the altare, and to the house warde aboute the kynge. And they broughte forth the kynges sonne, & set the crowne vpon his 2.Re.d heade, and gaue them the * wytnesse, & made him kynge. And Joiada wt his sonnes anoynted him, & sayde: God saue the kynge.

But whan Athalia herde the noyse of ỹ people ỹ ranne together and praysed ỹ kynge, she wente forth to the people in to ỹ house of the LORDE, and loked: and beholde, ỹ kynge stode in his place at ỹ intraunce, and the rulers and trompettes aboute ỹ kynge: and all the people of the londe were glad, & blewe the trompes, and there were syngers ỹ coulde playe wt all maner of musicall instrumentes. But she rēte hir clothes, & sayde: Sedicion, sedicion. Neuertheles Joiada ỹ preist gat him forth with the captaynes ouer hundreds and rulers of the hoost, and sayde vnto them: Bringe her forth betwene ỹ walles, & who so euer foloweth her, shal be slayne with ỹ swerde: for the preist had cōmaunded, that she shulde not be slayne in ỹ house of the LORDE. And they layed handes on her. And whan she came at the intraunce of the horsgate of the kynges house, they put her to death there.

And Joiada made a couenaunt betwene him and all the people, and the kynge, ỹ they shulde be the people of the LORDE. The wēte all the people in to the house of Baal and destroyed it, & brake downe his altares & ymages, & slewe Mathan the preist of Baal before the altare. And Joiada appoynted ỹ officers in the house of the LORDE amōge the 4.xv prestes & Leuites * whom Dauid had ordeyned for ỹ house of the LORDE, to offre burnt 2.xx sacrifices vnto ỹ LORDE, as it is wrytten in the * lawe of Moses: wt ioye & songes made by Dauid. And ỹ porters set he at ỹ gates of ỹ house of ỹ LORDE, ỹ none shulde entre, which were defiled wt eny maner of thinge.

And he toke the captaynes ouer hūdreds and the mightie men and lordes of ỹ people, and all the people of the londe, and broughe the kinge downe from the house of the LORDE, and broughte him thorow the hye porte of the kynges house, and caused the kinge sit vpon the seate royall. And all the people of the lōde were glad, and the cite was at rest. But Athalia was slayne with the swerde.

The XXIIII. Chapter.

IOas was seuen yeare olde whan he A was made kynge, and reigned fortie 4.Re.12.
yeare at Jerusalē. His mothers name was Zibea of Berseba. And Joas dyd that which was right in the sight of the LORDE, as longe as Joiada the preist lyued. And Joiada gaue him two wiues, & he begat sonnes & doughters. Afterwarde deuysed Joas to renue the house of the LORDE, & gathered together the prestes and Leuites, & sayde vnto thē: Go forth vnto all the cities of Juda, & gather the money of all Jsrael, to repayre ỹ house of God yearly, and do it righte soone: but the Leuites made no haist.

Then the kynge called Joiada the prynce pall, and sayde vnto him: Why lokest thou not vnto the Leuites, ỹ they bringe in from Juda and Jerusalem, * the collection which Ex.30.d.
Moses the seruaunt of the LORDE appoynted to be gathered amōge Jsrael for the Tabernacle of witnes? For ỹ vngodly Athalia & hir sonnes haue waisted the house of God: and all that was halowed for the house of the LORDE, haue they bestowed on Baalim.

Then commaunded the kynge to make a B.
chest, and to set it without at the intraunce of the house of the LORDE: & caused it to be proclamed in Juda and Jerusalē, that they shulde bringe in to the LORDE, the collectiō, which Moses the seruaūt of God appointed vnto Jsrael in ỹ wildernes. Thē were all ỹ rulers glad, & so were all ỹ people, & broughte it, and cast it in to the chest, tyll it was full.

And whan the tyme was ỹ the Leuites shulde bringe the Arke at ỹ kinges cōmaundement (whan they sawe ỹ there was moch money therin) then came the kinges scrybe, & he ỹ was appoynted of the chefe preist, and emptyed the chest, and caried it againe in to his place. Thus dyd they euery daye, so that they gathered moch money together. And ỹ kinge & Joiada gaue it vnto ỹ workmasters of ỹ house of the LORDE, and they hired masons & carpenters to repayre the house of ỹ LORDE, and men that coulde worke in yron and brasse, to repayre the house of ỹ LORDE.

And the labourers wrought, so that ỹ re- C pairinge in ỹ worke wente forwarde thorow

their hande, and they set the house of God in his bewtye, and made it stronge. And whan they had performed this, they brought the residue of the money before the kynge and Joiada, wherof there were made vessels for the house of the LORDE, vessels for the ministracion and burntofferinge, spones and ornamentes of golde and siluer. And they offred burntofferynges allwaye in the house of the LORDE, as longe as Joiada lyued.

And Joiada waxed olde, and had lyued longe ynough, and dyed, & was an hundreth and thirtie yeare olde whan he dyed: and they buried him in the cite of Dauid, amonge the kynges, because he had done good vnto Israel, and towarde God & his house. And after the death of Joiada, came the rulers in Juda, and worshipped the kynge.

D Then consented the kynge vnto the. And they forsoke the house of the LORDE God of their fathers, and serued ye groues and ymages. Then came ye wrath of the LORDE vpō Juda and Jerusalem because of this trespace of theirs. Yet sent he prophetes vnto the, ye they shulde turne vnto the LORDE, & they testified vnto the: but they wolde not heare.

at. 23 e And the sprete of God came vpon * Zachary the sonne of Joiada the prest, which stode ouer ye people, & sayde vnto the: Thus sayeth God: Wherfore do ye transgresse the cōmaundementes of the LORDE, which shall not be to yō prosperite: for ye haue forsaken ye LORDE, ther fore shal he forsake you. Neuer theles they conspyred agaynst him, & stoned him at ye kynges cōmaundement in ye courte of the house of the LORDE. And Joas ye kinge thought not on the mercy ye Joiada his father had done for him, but slewe his sonne. Notwithstondinge whā he dyed, he sayde: The LORDE shal loke vpon it, and requyre it.

E And whan the yeare was gone aboute, ye power of the Syrians wente vp, & came to Juda & Jerusalem, and destroyed the rulers in the people, and sent all the spoiles of them vnto Damascon. For the power of the Syrians came but with a fewe men, yet gaue ye LORDE a very greate power in to their hande: because they had forsaken ye LORDE God of their fathers. They executed iudgment also vpon Joas. And whan they departed frō him, they lefte him in greate sickneses.

Neuertheles his seruauntes conspyred against him (because of the bloude of the children of Joiada the prest) & slewe him vpō his bed, & he dyed, and they buryed him in the cite of Dauid, but not amonge the sepulcres of the kynges. They that conspyred against him, were these: Sabad ye sonne of Simeath the Ammonitisse, and Josabad the sonne of Simrith the Moabitisse. As for his sonnes, and the summe that was gathered vnder him, and the buyldinge of the house of God beholde, they are wrytten in the storye in the boke of the kynges. And Amasias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XXV. Chapter.

TWye and twentye yeare olde was Amasias whan he was made kynge, and reigned nyne and twentye yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Joadan of Jerusalem. And he dyd ye which was right in the sighte of the LORDE, but not wt a whole her. Now whan his kingdome was in strēgth, he slewe his seruaūtes which had slayne the kinge his father. But their children slewe he not, for so is it wrytten in the boke of the lawe of Moses, * where the LORDE cō maundeth, and sayeth: The fathers shal not dye for the children, nether shal the children dye for the fathers: but euery one shal die for his awne synne.

And Amasias brought Juda together, and set them after the fathers houses, after the rulers ouer thousandes & ouer hundredes amonge all Juda and Ben Jamin, and nombred them from twentye yeare olde & aboue, and founde of thē thre hundreth thousande chosen men, which were able to go forth to the warre, and caryed speares and shyldes. And out of Israel appoynted he an hundreth thousande stronge men of warre for an hundreth talentes of siluer.

But there came a man of God vnto him, and sayde: O kynge, Let not the hoost of Israel come wt the: for the LORDE is not with Israel, nether with all the children of Ephraim. For yf thou commest to shewe ye boldnes in the battaill, God shal make the fall before thine enemies. For God hath power to helpe, and to cause for to fall. Amasias sayde vnto the man of God: What shal be done then with ye hundreth talentes ye I haue geuē ye soudyers of Israel? The mā of God sayde: The LORDE hath yet more thē this to gene the. So Amasias separated out the men of warre which were come to him out of Ephraim, ye they shulde departed vnto their place. Then waxed their wrath very whote agaynst Juda, and they wente agayne vnto their place in wrothfull displeasure. And Amasias strēgthed himselfe, and caried out his people, and wente forth in to the Salt valley, and smote ten thousande of the children of Seir.

And the childrē of Juda toke ten thousande of thē alyue, whom they broughte vp to the toppe of a mountayne, and cast thē downe headlinges from the toppe of the mount, so that they all to barst in sunder. But ỹ childrē of the men of warre whom Amasias had sent awaye agayne (that they shulde not go to the battayll with his people) fell in to the cities of Juda, from Samaria vnto Beth Horon, and smote thre thousande of mē, and toke moch spoyle.

C And whan Amasias came agayne from the slaughter of the Edomites, he broughte the goddes of the children of Seir, and made them his goddes, and worshipped before them, & brent incense vnto them. Then was the LORDE very wroth at Amasias, & sent vnto him a prophet, which sayde vnto him: Why sekest thou the goddes of the people, which coulde not delyuer their folke from ỹ hande? And whan he talked with him, the kynge sayde vnto him: Haue they made ỹ of the kynges councell? Ceasse, why wilt thou be smytten? Then the prophet ceassed, & sayde: I perceaue, that the LORDE is mynded to destroye ỹ, because thou hast done this, and herkenest not vnto my councell.

44b And Amasias ỹ kynge of Juda toke coūcell, & sent vnto Joas the sonne of Joahas ỹ sonne of Jehu, kynge of Israel, sayēge: Come, let vs se one another. But Joas the kynge of Israel sent vnto Amasias ỹ kynge of Juda, sayenge: The hawthorne in Libanus sent vnto ỹ Cedre tre in Libanus, sayēge: Gene thy doughter vnto my sonne to wife. But a wylde beest in Libanus ranne ouer ỹ hawthorne, & trode it downe. Thou thinkest: Behold, I haue smytten the Edomites, therfore is thine hert proude to boaste. Now byde at home: why stryuest thou after myssortune, that thou mayest fall & Juda wt the?

Neuertheles Amasias consented not: for so was it broughte to passe of God, ỹ they mighte be geuen in to the handes of the enemies, because they soughte the goddes of ỹ Edomites. Then wente Joas the kynge of Israel vp, & they sawe one another, he and Amasias the kynge of Juda, at Beth Semes which lyeth in Juda. But Juda was smytten before Israel, and they fled euery one vnto his tent.

D And Joas the kynge of Israel toke Amasias ỹ kynge of Juda, the sonne of Joas ỹ sonne of Joahas, at Beth Semes, & broughte him to Jerusalem, & brake downe the wall of Jerusalē, from ỹ porte of Ephraim vnto the corner porte, euē foure hundreth cubites longe: and toke with him all the golde, and siluer, and all the ornamentes that were foūde in ỹ house of God with Obed Edom, and in the treasures in the kynges house, and the childrē to pledge vnto Samaria. And Amasias the sonne of Joas kynge of Juda, lined after the death of Joas the sonne of Joahas kynge of Israel fiftene yeare.

What more there is to saye of Amasias (both the first and last) beholde, it is written in ỹ boke of the kynges of Juda & Israel. And frō the tyme forth that Amasias departed from the LORDE, they conspyred against him at Jerusalem. But he fled vnto Lachis. Thē sent they after him vnto Lachis, & slewe him there. And they brought him vpō horses & buried him beside his fathers in the cite of Juda.

The XXVI. Chapter.

A Then all the people of Juda toke Osias, which was syxtene yeare olde, and made him kynge in steade of his father Amasias. 4. Re. 15. He builded Eloth, & brought it agayne vnto Juda, after that the kynge was fallen on slepe with his fathers. Sixtene yeare olde was Osias whan he was made kinge, and reigned two and fiftie yeare at Jerusalē. His mothers name was Jechalia of Jerusalem. And he did right in the syght of the LORDE, as his father Amasias had done, and soughte God as longe as Zacharias lyued, which taughte in the visyons of God: and as longe as he sought the LORDE, God made him to prospere.

For he wente forth, and soughte agaynst the Philistynes, and brake downe ỹ walles of Gath, and the walles of Jabne, and the walles of Asdod, and buylded cities aboute Asdod, & amonge the Philistynes. For God helped him agaynst the Philistines, against the Arabians, agaynst them of Gur Baal, & agaynst the Meunites. And ỹ Ammonites gaue Osias presentes, & his name came in to Egipte: for he was exceadinge stronge. And Osias buylded towres at Jerusalem vpon the cornerporte, and on the valley gate, and on other corners, and made them stronge. He buylded castels also in the wylderneesse, and dygged many welles: for he had many catell, both in the medewes and in the playnes, hußbandmen also and wynegardeners on the mountaynes and on Carmel: for he delyted in hußbandrye.

And Osias had an hoost of men of warre goynge forth to the battaill, which were nō bred vnder the hande of Jeiel the scrybe & of Maesa the offycer, vnder the hāde of Hananias of the kynges rulers. And the nombre B of the chefe fathers amonge the stronge mē of warre, was two thousande and fyre hundreth. And vnder the hande of the hoost thre hundreth thousande, and seuen thousande and fyue hundreth mete for the battayll, in the strength of an armye to helpe the kinge agaynst the enemies. And Osias prepared for all the hoost, shyldes, speares, helmettes, brestplates, bowes and slyngstones. And at Jerusalē he made ordinaunce cōningly, to be vpon the towres and in the pynnacles, to shute arowes and greate stones. And the fame of him came farre abrode, because he was specially helped, tyll he became mightie.

C And whan his power was greate, his hert arose to his awne destruccion: for he trespaced agaynst the LORDE his God, and wente in to the temple of the LORDE, to burne incense vpon the altare of incense. But Asarias the prest wente after him, and foure score prestes with him, valeaunt men, and withstode kynge Osias, and saide vnto him:

2.Par.26.a * It belongeth not vnto thy office (Osias) to burne incense vnto the LORDE, but vnto the prestes belongeth it, euen vnto the children of Aaron, which are halowed to burne incense. Go forth out of the Sanctuary: for thou offendest, and it shall be no worshippe vnto the before God the LORDE.

D And Osias was wroth, and had a censoure in his hande. And whyle he murmured with the prestes, the leprosy sprange out of his foreheade in the presence of the prestes in the house of the LORDE before the altare of incense. And Asarias the chefe prest turned his heade towarde him, and so dyd all the prestes, and beholde, he was leper in his foreheade. And they put him out from thence. Yee he made haist himselfe to go forth, for his plage came of the LORDE. Thus became Osias ỹ kynge a leper vnto his death, and dwelt full of leprosye in a fre house: for he was put out of the house of the LORDE. But Joram his sonne had the oversight of the kynges house, and iudged the people in the lende.

What more there is to saie of Osias (both first and last) Esay the sonne of Amos hath wrytten it. And Osias fell on slepe wt his fathers, and they buryed him with his fathers in the pece of grounde beside ỹ kynges sepulcres: for they sayde: He is leprous. And Jotham his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XXVII. Chapter.

A Re.15.f JOtham was fyue and twentye yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and reigned sixtene yeare at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Jerusa the daughter of Sadoc: & he dyd righte in the sighte of the LORDE as did Osias his father: sauynge ỹ he wente not in to the temple of the LORDE, and the people yet marred them selues. He buylded the hye porte of the house of ỹ LORDE, and on the wall of Ophel buylded he moch, and buylded the cities vpon the mountaynes of Juda, and in the wodes buylded he castels and towres.

And he fought with the kinge of the children of Ammon, and ouercame them, so that the childrē of Ammon gaue him ỹ same yeare an hundreth talentes of siluer, ten thousande quarters of wheate, and ten thousande of barlye. So moch dyd the children of Ammon geue him also in ỹ seconde & thirde yeare. Thus became Jotham mightye, for he gyded his wayes before the LORDE his God.

What more there is to saye of Jotham, & all his warres, vnd his waies, beholde, it is wrytten in ỹ boke of the kinges of Israel & Juda. Fyue and twentye yeare olde was he whan he was made kynge, & reigned sixtene yeare at Jerusalē. And Jothā fell on slepe wt his fathers, & they buryed him in the cite of Dauid, and Achas his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XXVIII. Chapter.

ACHas was twentye yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and reigned sixtene yeare at Jerusalem, and dyd not that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, as did Dauid his father, but walked in the wayes of the kinges of Israel, and made molten ymages vnto Baalim, and brent incense in the valley of the children of Hennon, and brēt his awne sonnes in ỹ fire, after the abhominacions of the Heithen, whō the LORDE expelled before the childrē of Israel. And he dyd sacrifice and brent incense vpon the hye places and vpon the hilles, and amōge all grene trees.

Therfore dyd the LORDE his God delyuer him in to the hande of the kynge of Syria, so that they smote him, and caryed awaye a greate multitude of his men presoners, and broughte them to Damascon. He was geuen also vnder the hande of the kynge of Israel, so ỹ he dyd a greate slaughter vpon him. For Pecah the sonne of Romelias smote in Juda an hundreth & twentye thousande in one daye (which all were valeaunt men) euē because they had forsaken ỹ LORDE God of their fathers. And Sichri a mightie mā of Ephraim slewe Maeseia ỹ kinges sonne, & Asrikam the prynce of the house, & Elkana the nexte vnto the kynge. And the children of Israel caried of their brethren presoners two hundreth thousande, wemen, sonnes and doughters, and toke a greate spoyle from them, and broughte the spoyle vnto Samaria.

B But euē there was there a prophet of ỹ LORDE, whose name was Obed, which wēte out to mete ỹ hoost that came to Samaria, and sayde vnto them: Beholde, because the LORDE God of youre fathers is wroth at Juda, therfore hath he geuen them ouer in to youre handes: but ye haue slayne them so abhominably, that it is come vnto heauē. Now thinke ye to subdue the children of Juda and Jerusalem, to be bondmen and bond maydens vnto you. Is not this a trespace then ēb you agaynst the LORDE yo' God? Herken now vnto me, and sende ỹ presoners hence agayne, whom ye haue caried awaye from youre brethren: for the wrath of ỹ LORDE is fearce ouer you.

Then gat vp certayne of the chefe of the children of Ephraim, Asarias the sonne of Johanan, Barachias the sonne of Mesillemoth, Ezechias the sonne of Sallum, & Amasa ỹ sonne of Hadlai, agaynst them ỹ came from ỹ battayll, & sayde vnto them: Ye shal not brynge the presoners in hither, for youre mynde is but to make vs trespace before the LORDE, to make oure synnes and offences the greater: for the trespace is to moch allready, & the wrath is fearce ouer Israel. So the hoost lefte the presoners & the spoyle before ỹ rulers and before the whole cōgregacion.

C Then stode vp the men (which now were rehearced by name) and toke the presoners, and as many as were naked amonge them, clothed they with ỹ spoyles, & decke them, and put shues vpon their fete, and gaue thē to eate and drynke, and anoynted them, and caried them vpon asses (as many as were feble) and broughte them to Jericho to ỹ palme cite vnto their brethren, and came agayne to Samaria. * At the same tyme sent kynge Achas vnto the kynges of Assur, ỹ they shulde helpe him. And the Edomites came agayne, and smote Juda, and caried some awaye captyue. The Philistynes also fell in to the cities in the playne, & towarde ỹ south parte of Juda, & wanne Beth Semes, Aialon, Gederoth, and Socho with the vyllages therof, Timna with the vyllages therof, & Gimso with the vyllages therof, and dwelt therin. For ỹ LORDE subdued Juda for Achas sake ỹ kynge of Juda, because he made Juda naked, and rebelled agaynst the LORDE. And Teglatpilneser the kynge of Assur came agaynst him, and beseged him, & he was not mightie ynough for him.

For Achas spoyled the house of the LORDE, and the kynges house, and of the rulers, to geue vnto ỹ kynge of Assur, but it helped him not. Moreouer kinge Achas trespaced yet more agaynst the LORDE euen in his trouble, and dyd sacrifyce vnto the goddes of them of Damascon, which had smitten him, & sayde: The goddes of the kynges of Syria helpe them, therfore wil I offre vnto them, that they maye helpe me also, where as the same yet were a fall vnto him and to all Israel. D

And Achas gathered the vessels of ỹ house of God together, and brake the vessels in ỹ house of God, & * shut the dores of the house of ỹ LORDE, and made him altares in all corners at Jerusalem, and euery where in the cyties of Juda made he hye places to burne incense vnto other goddes, and prouoked ỹ LORDE God of his fathers vnto wrath. a. Pa. 29.

What more there is to saye of him and of all his wayes (both first and last) beholde, it is wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Juda and Israel. And Achas fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buried him in ỹ cite of Jerusalem: for they broughte him not amonge the sepulcres of the kynges of Israel. And Ezechias his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XXIX. Chapter.

EZechias was fyue & twentye yeare olde whan he was made kynge, & reigned nyne & twentye yeares at Jerusalem. His mothers name was Abia ỹ doughter of Zachary. And he dyd that which was right in the sight of the LORDE, as did his father Dauid. * He opened the dores of ỹ house of the LORDE in the first moneth of ỹ first yeare of his raigne, & made them stronge, & broughte in the prestes and Lenites, and gathered them together vnto the East streate and sayde vnto them: Herken vnto me ye Lenites, sanctifye youre selues now, ỹ ye maye halowe the house of the LORDE God of yo' fathers, and put fylthines out of the Sanctuary: for oure fathers haue trespaced, and done ỹ which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE oure God, and haue forsaken him. For they turned their faces from the habitacio of ỹ LORDE oure God, & turned their backes on it, and shut the dores of the porche, and put out the lampes, and brent no incense, & offred no burntsacrifyces in the Sanctuary vnto the God of Israel. A 4. Re. 18. 2. Pa. 28.

Therfore is the wrath of the LORDE B come ouer Juda and Jerusalem, and he hath geuen them ouer to be scatred abrode, desolate and to be hyssed at, as ye se with yo eies. For beholde, euen for the same cause fell oure fathers thorow the swerde, oure sonnes doughters and wyues were caryed awaye captyue. Now am I mynded to make a couenaunt with the LORDE God of Israel, y he maye turne awaie from vs his wrath & in-dignacion. Now my sonnes, be not ye neglilum 18.a gent: for the LORDE hath chesen you to stō-de before him, and to be his mynisters and to burne incense vnto him.

Then rose the Leuites: Mahath the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the sonne of Asaria of the children of the Kahathites. Of the children of Merari: Cis the sonne of Abdi, & Asaria the sonne of Jehaleleel. Of the children of the Gersonites: Joah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Joah. And of the childrē of Elizaphan: Simri & Jeiel. And of the childrē of Assaph: Sachary and Mathania. And of the children of Heman: Jehiel and Simei. And of the children of Jedithun: Semaia and Vsiel.

C And they gathered their brethren together, and were sanctified, and wente in acor-dinge to the kynges commaundement at the worde of the LORDE, to clense the house of y LORDE. And the prestes entred within in the house of the LORDE to purifye, and put out all the vnclennes that was founde in the tēple of the LORDE, in the courte of the LOR-DES house: and the prestes toke it vp, and ca-ryed it out in to the broke Cedron. The fyrst daye of the fyrst moneth beganne they to sanctifye them selues, and on the eight daye of the moneth wente they in to the porche of the LORDE, and halowed the house of y LORDE eight dayes, and fynished it on the fyrteuth daye of the fyrst moneth.

And they wēte in to the kynge Ezechias, and sayde: We haue clensed all the house of the LORDE, the altare of burntofferynges, and all his vessels, the table of the shewbred and all the apparell therof: and all the orna-mentes that kynge Achas cast awaye whā he was kynge, what tyme as he trans gressed, those haue we prepared and halowed. Beholde, they are before the altare of the LORDE.

D Thē the kynge Ezechias gat him vp early, and gathered together the Elders of the cite, and wēte vp vnto the house of the LOR-DE, and they broughte seuen bullockes, seuen rammes, seuen lambes, and seuen he goates to be the synofferynge, for the Sanctuary, & for Juda. And he spake vnto the prestes the children of Aaron, that they shulde offre vp-on the altare of the LORDE.

So they slewe the bullockes, and the pres-tes toke the blonde, and sprenkled it vpon y altare: and slewe the rammes, and sprenkled the blonde vpon the altare: and slewe the la-bes, and sprenkled the blonde vpon the alta-re. And y goates to y synofferynge brought they before the kynge and the congregacō, and layed their handes vpon them: and the prestes slewe them, and sprenkled their blode vpon the altare to make attonemēt for all Israel: for the kynge commaunded to offre burntsacrifyces and sinofferinges for all Israel.

And he set the Leuites in the house of the E LORDE with Cymbales, Psalteries and har-pes, as Dauid had commaunded, and Gad the kynges Seer, and the prophet Nathan for it was the commaundement of the LOR-DE by his prophetes. And the Leuites stode with the musicall instrumentes of Dauid, & the prestes with the trompettes. And Ezechias commaunded them to offre burntsacri-fyces vpon the altare. And aboute the tyme that the burntsacrifyce begāne to be offred the songe of the LORDE beganne also, and y trompettes, and dyuerse instrumentes of Da-uid the kynge of Israel and all the congregacion gaue praise & thankes: and the songe of the Musicians, and y blowynge of the trompetters, endured all tyll the burntofferynge was fynished.

Now whan the burntofferynge was per-fourmed, the kynge and all they that were with him, bowed them selues, and gaue praise and thankes. And Ezechias the kynge & the rulers commaunded the Leuites to praise the LORDE with the songes of Dauid and Assaph the Seer. And they gaue prayse tyll they were ioyfull, and they bowed them sel-ues, and worshipped.

And Ezechias answered and saide: Now haue ye fylled youre hādes vnto the LORDE steppe forth, and brynge hither y sacrifyces and thankofferynges vnto the house of the LORDE. And the congregacion broughte sa-crifyces and thankofferynges, and euery mā of a fre wyllinge hert brought burntofferynges. And the nombre of the burntofferynges that the congregacion broughte, was thre score bullockes and ten, an hundreth ra-mes, and two hundreth lambes, and all these for the burntofferynge vnto the LORDE. And they sanctifyed sixe hundreth bullockes, and thre thousande shepe.

But the prestes were to fewe, and could not pluck of the slynnes of all the burnt offerynges, therfore toke they their brethren the Lewites, tyll the worke was fynißhed, and tyll the prestes were halowed (for the Lewites are easier to be halowed then the prestes) and many of the burnt offerynges were with the fat of the thankofferynges and drynkofferynges to the burntsacrifices. Thus was the ministracion of the house of the LORDE prepared. And Ezechias reioysed with all the people, that they were prepared with God: for it was done righte haistely.

The XXX. Chapter.

A AND Ezechias sent into all Jsrael and Juda, and wrote letters vnto Ephraim and Manasses, that they shulde come to the house of the LORDE at Jerusalem, to kepe easter vnto the LORDE God of Jsrael. And the kynge helde a councell with his rulers, and all the cõgregacion at b,b Jerusalem, *to kepe Passeouer in the seconde moneth: for at that tyme they coulde not kepe it, because the prestes were not sanctified ynough, and the people were not yet come together vnto Jerusalem. And it pleased the kynge well and all the cõgregacion. And they appointed it to be proclamed thorow out all Jsrael from Berseba vnto Dan, that they shulde come to kepe Passeouer vnto the LORDE God of Jsrael: for they were not many to kepe it as it is wrytten.

And the postes wente with the letters from the hande of the kynge and of his rulers thorow out all Jsraell and Juda, at ỹ kynges commaundement, and sayde: Ye chil
B dren of Jsrael, turne you vnto the LORDE God of Abraham, Jsaac and Jacob, and he shal turne to ỹ escaped, which are lefte ouer amonge you from the hande of the kynge of Assur: and be not ye as youre fathers and brethren, which rebelled agaynst the LORDE God of their fathers, and he gaue thẽ ouer into desolacion as ye se youre selues. Be not ye hardnecked now as were youre fathers, but offre youre hãde vnto the LORDE, and come to his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the LORDE youre God, & so shal the indignacion of his wrath turne awaye from you. For yf ye turne vnto the LORDE, then shal youre brethren and c,c children haue mercy in the sighte of them which holde them in captiuyte, that they maye come agayne in to this londe: *for the LORDE youre God is gracious and mercifull, and shal not turne awaye his face from you, yf ye conuerte vnto him.

And the postes wente from one cite to C another in the londe of Ephraim and Manasses, and vnto Zabulon. But they mocked them and laughed them to scorne. Yet were there some of Asser and Manasses, and of Zabulon, that submytted them selues, and came to Jerusalem. And the hande of God came in to Juda, so that he gaue thẽ one hert to do after the commaundement of the kynge and the rulers at the worde of the LORDE. And there came together vnto Jerusalẽ a greate people, to kepe the feast of vnleuended bred in the seconde moneth, a very greate congregacion.

And they gat them vp, and put downe ỹ
* altares that were at Jerusalem, and all 2.Pa.27.d
the incense put they awaye, and cast it in to the broke Cedron, and slewe the Passeouer on the fourtenth daye of the secõde moneth. And ỹ prestes and Lewites were ashamed, and halowed them selues, and broughte the burntofferynges to the house of the LORDE, and stode in their ordinaunce, as it was acordinge, after the lawe off Moses the man of God. And the prestes sprenkled the bloude from the hande of the Lewites: for there were many in the cõgregacion which were not sanctified, therfore dyd the Lewites kyll Passeouer for them which were not clensed, that they might be sanctified vnto the LORDE.

There were many people also of Ephra- D im, Manasses, Jsachar and Zabulon, which were not cleane, but ate the Easter lambe not as it is wrytten: for Ezechias prayed for them, and sayde: The LORDE, which is gracious, shalbe mercifull vnto all them that prepare their hertes vnto God, to seke the LORDE God of their fathers, though they be not clensed after the holy purificacion. And the LORDE herde Ezechias, and healed the people. Thus the children of Jsrael that were founde at Jerusalẽ, helde ỹ feast of vnleuended bred seuen dayes with greate ioye. And the Lewites and prestes praysed the LORDE euery daye with the loude instrumentes of the LORDE. And Ezechias spake hertely vnto all ỹ Lewites, which had good vnderstondinge in the LORDE, and they ate the feast seuen dayes, and offred thãkofferynges, and gaue thankes vnto ỹ LORDE God of their fathers.

And all the congregacion deuysed to ke- E pe the feast yet other seuẽ dayes, and so they helde it those seuen dayes also with ioye: for Ezechias the kinge of Juda gaue an heue-offerynge for the cõgregacion, euen a thousande bullockes, and seuen thousande shepe. But the rulers gaue an Heueofferinge for ye congregacion, euen a thousande bullockes, and ten thousande shepe. And many of the prestes sanctified them selues.

And the whole congregacion of Juda reioyced, the prestes and Leuites, and all the congregacion that came out of Israel, and the straungers that were come out of the londe of Israel, and they that dwelt in Juda, and greate ioye was there at Jerusalem: for sence the tyme of Salomon the sonne of Dauid the kynge of Israel, was there no soch (ioye) at Jerusalē. And the prestes and Leuites stode vp and blessed the people, and their voyce was herde, and their prayer came in to his holy habitacion in heauen.

The XXXI. Chapter.

A AND whan all this was fynished, all the Israelites that were founde in ye cities of Juda, wente out, and brake the pilers, and hewed downe the groues, and brake downe the hye places and altares out of all Juda, Ben Jamin, Ephraim and Manasses, tyll they had destroyed thē. And all the children of Israel wente agayne euery one to his possession vnto their cities.

But Ezechias set the prestes and Leuites in their ordinaunces, euery one after his office, both the prestes and Leuites, for the burntsacrifices and thankofferynges, to ministre, to geue thankes and prayse in the gates of the hoost of the LORDE. And the kynge gaue his porcion of his substaūce for the burntofferynges in the mornynge and euenynge, and for the burntofferynges of the Sabbath, and of the newmone and of the feastes, as it is wrytten in the lawe of the LORDE.

B And he spake vnto ye people which dwelt at Jerusalem, that they shulde geue porciōs vnto the prestes and Leuites, ye they might the more stedfastly endure in the lawe of the LORDE. And whā ye worde came forth, the childrē of Israel gaue many fyrst frutes of corne, wyne, oyle, hony, and all maner increace of the felde, and broughte in moch of all maner tithes. And the children of Israel and Juda which dwelt in the cities of Juda, broughte the tithes also of oxen and shepe, and the tithes of soch thinges as were sanctifyed, which they had halowed vnto the LORDE their God, and made here an heape, and there an heape. In the thirde moneth begāne they to laye vpon heapes, and in the seuenth moneth dyd they fynisshe it.

And whā Ezechias with the rulers wente in, and sawe the heapes, they prayed the LORDE, and his people of Israel. And Ezechias axed the prestes and Leuites concernynge the heapes. And Asaria the prest the chefe in the house of Sadoc, sayde vnto him: Sence the tyme that they beganne to bringe the Heueofferynges in to ye house of the LORDE, we haue eaten, and are satisfied, and yet is there lefte ouer: for the LORDE hath blessed his people, therfore is this heape lefte ouer. Then commaunded the kynge, that they shulde prepare chestes in the house of the LORDE. And they prepared them, and put in the Heueofferynges, and tithes and that which was halowed, faithfully.

And the oversighte of the same had Chanania the Leuite, and Simei his brother the seconde, and Jehiel, Asasia, Naglath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Josabad, Eliel, Jesmachia, Mahath and Benaia, ordeyned of the hande off Chanania and Simei his brother, accordinge to the commaundement of kynge Ezechias. But Asaria was prynce in the house of God. And Core ye sonne of Jemna the Leuite the porter of the Eastgate was ouer the frewyllinge giftes of God (which were geuen for Heueofferynges vnto the LORDE) and ouer the Most holy. And vnder his hande were, Eden, Miniamin, Jesua, Semaia, Amaria, and Sachania in the cities of the prestes vpon credence, that they shulde geue vnto their brethrē accordinge to their courses, to the leest as to the greatest.

And vnto them that were counted for men childrē from thre yeare olde and aboue, amonge all thē that wēte in to the house of the LORDE, euery one vpō his daye to their office in their attendaunces after their courses. And they that were rekened for prestes in the house of their fathers, and the Leuites from twenty yeare and aboue, in their attendaunces after their courses. And they that were rekened amonge their children, wyues, sonnes and doughters amōge the whole congregacion: for that which was halowed, sanctifyed they vpon credence. There were men also named by name amonge Aarons children the prestes vpon the feldes of the suburbes in all ye cities, that they shulde geue porcions vnto all the men children amōge the prestes, and to all them that were nombred amonge the Leuites.

Thus dyd Ezechias in all Juda, and dyd that which was good, righte and true in the sighte of the LORDE his God. And in all the busynes that he toke in hãde concernynge the seruyce of the house of God, acordinge to the lawe and commaundement, to seke his God, that dyd he with all his hert, and therfore prospered he well.

The XXXII. Chapter.

A Nacr. AFter these actes and faithfulnes came Sennacharib the kynge of Assur, and wente in to Juda, and pitched before the stroge cities, and thoughte to pluck them vnto him. And whan Ezechias sawe that Sennacherib came, and that his face stode to sighte agaynst Jerusalem, he deuysed with his rulers and mightie men, to couer the waters of the welles that were without the cite, and they helped him: and there gathered together a greate people, and couered all ỹ welles and water brokes in the myddes of the londe, and sayde: Lest the kynges of Assur fynde moch water whã they come. And he toke a corage vnto him, and buylded all the walles where they were in decaye, and made towres theron, and buylded yet another wall without, and strengthed Millo in the cite of David. And made moch ordinaunce and shyldes, and set captaynes of warre ouer the people.

B And gathered them vnto him vpon the brode strete by the gate of the cite, and spake hertely vnto them, and sayde: Be stronge and bolde, feare not, and be not afrayed for the kynge of Assur, ner all ỹ multitude that is with him: for there is one greater with vs
b then with him. With him is a * flesshly arme, but with vs is the LORDE oure God, to helpe vs and to sighte for vs. And ỹ people trusted vnto the wordes of Ezechias kynge of Juda.

nac. Afterwarde sent Sennacherib the kynge of Assur his seruauntes vnto Jerusalem (for he laye before Lachis, & all his hoost wt him) to Ezechias ỹ kinge of Juda, & to all Juda that was at Jerusalẽ, sayenge: Thus sayeth Sennacherib ỹ kynge of Assur: Wherin put ye youre trust ye that dwell in the beseged Jerusalem: Ezechias diseaueth you, that he maye delyuer you vnto death, hõger and thyst, and sayeth: The LORDE oure God shal delyuer vs from the hande of the kynge of Assur. Is it not Ezechias, that hath put awaye his hye places and altares, and sayde vnto Juda and Jerusalem: Before one altare shal ye worshippe, and burne incense theron?

C Knowe ye not what I and my fathers haue done to all ỹ people in the londes? Haue the goddes of the heythen in the londes bene able to delyuer their countrees fro my hande? What is he amonge all the goddes of these heythen (whom my father dammed) that was able to delyuer his people fro my hande? ỹ youre God shulde be able to delyuer fro my hande. Therfore let not Ezechias now disceaue you, and let him not persuade you eny soch thinge, and beleue him not. For yf no god of all the heythẽ and kyngdomes might delyuer his people fro my hande and from the hande of my progenitours, then shal not youre goddes be able to delyuer you fro my hande.

His seruaũtes also spake yet more against the LORDE God, and agaynst his seruaunt Ezechias. And he wrote a letter to blaspheme the LORDE God of Jsrael, and spake of him, and sayde: Like as the goddes of the heythen in their londes haue not bene able to delyuer their people from my hande, euen so shal not the God of Ezechias delyuer his people fro my hande.

And the cryed with loude voyce in the D
Jewish langage vnto the people of Jerusalem that were vpon the wall, to make them fearfull and to be fayntharted, that they might wynne the cite. And they spake agaynst the God off Jerusalem, euen as agaynst the goddes off the nacions vpon earth, which were but the workes of mens hondes.

But contrary wyse the kynge Ezechias and the prophet Esay the sonne of Amos prayed, and cryed vnto heauẽ. And the LORDE sent an angell, which destroyed all the mightie men of the hoost, and the princes and rulers in ỹ tentes of the kynge of Assur, so that he departed agayne with shame in to his owne londe. * And whan he wente in 4. Re. 19. h to his gods house, they ỹ came of his owne body, slewe him there with the swerde. Thus the LORDE helped Ezechias and them at Jerusalem, out of the hãde of Sennacherib ỹ kynge of Assur, and of all other, and mayntayned thẽ frõ all on euery syde, so ỹ many broughte presentes vnto the LORDE to Jerusalem, and Jewels vnto Ezechias the kynge of Juda. And afterwarde was he exalted in the sighte of all heythen.

At ỹ same tyme was Ezechias deed sicke, GE and he prayed vnto the LORDE, which made him promes, and gaue him a wonder token. But Ezechias recõpensed not acordinde as was geuen vnto him, for his hert was lifted vp: therfore came the wrath vpon him,

4. Re. 20. a
Esa. 38. a

and vpon Juda and Jerusalem. Neuertheles Ezechias humbled him selfe because his hert had bene exalted, with them at Jerusalem: therfore came not the wrath of the LORDE vpon them, whyle Ezechias lyued.

And Ezechias had very greate riches and worshippe, and made him treasures of syluer, golde, precious stones, spyces, shyldes, and all maner costly vessell, and corne houses for the increace of corne, wyne and oyle, and stalles for all maner catell, and foldes for the shepe, and buylded him cities, and had many catell of shepe and oxen: for God gaue him very moch good.

¶ It is the same Ezechias that couered the hye water condyte in Gihon, and conveyed it vnder on the west syde of ỹ cite of Dauid: for Ezechias prospered in all his workes. But whan the interpreters the chefe of Babilon were sent vnto him, to axe question at him (concernynge the wondertokē that had Deut.8.a happened in the londe) God lefte him * to be tempted, that it might be knowne what soeuer was in his hert.

What more there is to saye of Ezechias, and of his mercifulnes, beholde, it is wryttē in the vision of the prophet Esay the sonne of Amos, and in the boke of the kynges of Juda and Israel. And Ezechias fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buried him ouer the sepulcres of the children of Dauid, and all Juda and they of Jerusalē dyd him worshippe in his death: and Manasses his sonne was kynge in his steade.

The XXXIII. Chapter.

A 4.Re.21.a MAnasses was twolue yeare olde whā he was made kynge, and reigned fyue and fiftye yeare at Jerusalem, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE (euen after the abominacions of the heythen, whom the LORDE expelled before the children of Israel) and turned bācke, and buylded the hye places, 4.Re.18.a (* which his father Ezechies had broken downe) and set vp altares vnto Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the hoost of heauen, and serued them. He buylded altares also in ỹ LORDES house, where- 2.Par.7.c of the LORDE had sayde: * At Jerusalem shal my name be for ever. And vnto all the hoost of heauen buylded he altares in both the courtes of ỹ house of the LORDE. And in the valley of the sonne of Hennon caused he his awne sonnes to go thorow the fyre, and chosed dayes, & regarded byrdescryenge, and witches, and founded soythsayers and expounders of tokens, and dyd moch that was euell in the sighte of the LORDE to prouoke him vnto wrath.

Carued ymages also and Idols (which he caused to make) set he vp in Gods house, wherof the LORDE saide vnto Dauid and to Salomon his sonne: In this house at Jerusalem which I haue chosen out of all the trybes of Israel, wyl I set my name for euer and wyl nomore let the fote of Israel remone frō the londe that I appoynted for their fathers, so farre as they obserue to do all ỹ I haue commaunded them, in all the lawe, statutes and ordinaunces by Moses. But Manasses disceaued Juda and them of Jerusalē, so that they dyd worse then the heythen, whom the LORDE destroyed before the children of Israel. And the LORDE spake vnto Manasses and his people, and they regarded it not.

Therfore dyd the LORDE cause the rulers of the hoost of the kynge of Assur to come vpō thē, which toke Manasses presoner with bōdes, and bounde him with cheynes, & broughte him vnto Babilon. * And whan he was in trouble, he made intercession before the LORDE his God, and humbled him selfe greatly before the God of his fathers, and prayed and besoughte him. Then herde he his prayer, and broughte him agayne to Jerusalem to his kyngdome. And Manasses knewe that the LORDE is God.

Afterwarde buylded he ỹ vttemost wall of the cite of Dauid, on the west syde of Gihon by the broke, and at the intraunce of the Fyshgate, and rounde aboute * Ophel, and made it very hye. And layed captaynes in ỹ strōge cities of Juda, & put awaye ỹ straunge goddes & Idols out of ỹ house of ỹ LORDE, and all the altares which he had buylded vpō the mount of the house of the LORDE, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the cite, and buylded the altare of the LORDE, and offred slayn offerynges and thanke offerynges theron, and commaunded Juda, that they shulde serue the LORDE God of Israel. Neuertheles though the people offred vnto the LORDE their God, yet offred they vpon the hye places.

What more there is to saye of Manasses and of his prayer to his God, and the wordes of the Seers that spake vnto him in the name of the LORDE God of Israel, beholde, they are amonge the actes of the kynges of Israel. And his prayer and intercession, and all his synne and offence, & the rowmes wherin he buylded the hye places & groues and founded ydols, afore he hūbled himselfe, beholde, they are wrytten amonge the actes of the Seers. And Manasses fell on slepe with his fathers, and they buried him in his house, and Amon his sonne was kynge in his steade.

Two and twētye yeare olde was Amon whā he was made kynge, and reigned two yeare at Jerusalē, and dyd evell in the sighte of the LORDE, as Manasses his father had done. And Amon offred vnto all the Idols that his father Manasses had made and serued thē. Yet dyd not he humble himselfe before the LORDE, as Manasse his father had submitted himselfe: but Amon trespaced euer more and more. And his seruauntes cōspyred agaynst him, and slewe him in his house. Then smote the people in the londe all them that had conspyred agaynst kynge Amon. And the people in the londe made Josias his sonne kynge in his steade.

The XXXIIII. Chapter.

A JOsias was eight yeare olde whan he was made kynge, and reigned one and thirtye yeare at Jerusalem, and dyd that which was righte in the sighte of the LORDE, and walked in the wayes of Dauid his father, and turned not aside, nether to the righte hande ner to the lefte. For in the eight yeare of his reigne whā he was yet but a childe, he beganne to seke the God of his father Dauid: and in the twolueth yeare begāne he to clense Juda and Jerusalē from the hye places and groues, and carued Idols, and molten ymages: and caused the altares of Baalim to be broken downe before him, and the ymages that were theron, hewed he downe. And ỹ groues and carued Idols and moltē ymages brake he in peces, and made them to dust, and scatred it vpon the graues of them that had offred vnto them. And the bones of the prestes brent he vpō the altares, and so clēsed he Juda & Jerusalē, & in ỹ cities of Manasses, Ephraim, Simeon, and vnto Nephtali in their wyldernesses on euer yside. And whā he had broken downe the altares and groues, and smyten the Idols in peces, and hewed downe all the ymages in all the londe of Israel, he came agayne to Jerusalem.

B In the eightēth yeare of his reigne whā he had clensed the londe and the house, he sent Saphan the sonne of Asalia and Maeseia the Shreue of the cite, and Joath the sonne of Joahas the Chaunceler, to repayre the house of the LORDE his God. And they came to Hechias ỹ hye prest, and there was delyuered vnto them the money that was broughte vnto the house of God, which the Leuites (that kepte the thresholdes) had gathered, of Manasses, Ephraim, and of all the residue in Israel, and of all Juda & Ben Jamin, and of them that dwelt at Jerusalē, and they delyuered it vnto the hādes of the worke men in the house of the LORDE, and gaue it vnto those that wrought in the house of the LORDE, where it was in decaye, ỹ they shulde repayre it. And the same gaue it forth vnto the carpenters and buylders, to bye fre stone and hewen tymber for the balkes in the houses, which the kynges had destroyed. And the men laboured faithfully in the worke.

And ouer them were ordeyned, Jahath C and Obadia the Leuites of the children of Merari: Zachary and Mesullam of the children of the Kahathites, to further the worke, and they were all Leuites that coulde playe vpon instrumentes. But ouer them that bare burthens and furthured all maner of worke in all the offices, there were scrybes, officers and dore kepers of the Leuites. And whā they toke out the money that was broughte vnto ỹ house of the LORDE, Helchias the prest founde the boke of the lawe of the LORDE geuen by Moses. And Helchias answered, and saide vnto Saphan the Scrybe: I haue founde the boke of the 4.Re.22.b lawe in ỹ house of ỹ LORDE. And Helchias delyuered the boke vnto Saphan. And Saphan bare it vnto the kynge, and broughte ỹ kynge worde agayne, and sayde: All that was geuen vnder the handes of thy seruauntes, that make they: and ỹ money that was founde in ỹ house of the LORDE, haue they gathered together, and delyuered it vnto ỹ officers, and to the workmen. And Saphan the Scrybe tolde the kynge, and sayde: Helchias the prest hath delyuered me a boke.

And Saphan red therin before the kynge. D And whan the kynge herde the wordes of the lawe, he rente his clothes. And the kynge commaunded Helchias and Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micha, and Saphan the Scrybe, and Asaia the kynges seruaunt, and sayde: Go youre waye, aske councell at the LORDE for me and for the remnaunt in Israel, and for Juda, concernynge these wordes of the boke that is founde. For greate is the indignacion of the LORDE that is gone forth ouer vs, because oure fathers haue not kepte the worde of the LORDE, to do acordinge as it is wrytten in this boke. Then wēte Helchias (with the other that were sent from the kynge) vnto the prophetisse Hulda the wife of Sallum the Sonne of Thecoath the sonne of Hasra the keper of the clothes, which dwelt at Jerusalem in the secōde parte, and they spake this vnto her.

And she sayde vnto them: Thus sayeth the LORDE God of Israel: Tell the man ỹ sent you vnto me: Thus sayeth ỹ LORDE: Beholde, I wil bringe plages vpō this place and the inhabiters therof, euē all the curses which are wrytten in the boke, that was red before the kynge of Juda: because they haue forsakē me, and brēt incēse vnto other goddes, to prouoke me with all the workes of their handes. And my indignacion shal go forth vpon this cite, and shal not be quenched.

And after this maner shal ye saye vnto the kynge of Juda, that sent you to axe counsell at the LORDE: Thus sayeth ỹ LORDE God of Israel concernynge the wordes that thou hast herde: Because thine hert is moued, and because thou hast humbled thy selfe in the sighte of God, whan thou herdest his wordes agaynst this place and the inhabiters therof, and hast submytted thy selfe before me, and rent thy clothes, and wepte before me, therfore haue I herde the, sayeth ỹ LORDE. Beholde, I wil gather the vnto thy fathers, and thou shalt be layed in thy graue with peace, so ỹ thine eyes shal not se all the euell that I wyl bringe ouer this place, and the indwellers therof. And they broughte the kynge worde agayne.

Then sent ỹ kynge, and caused all the Elders in Juda and Jerusalem to come together. And the kynge wente vp into the house of the LORDE, and all the men of Juda and inhabiters of Jerusalē, the prestes, the Leuites, and all the people both small and greate: and all the wordes in the boke of the couenaunt that was founde in the house of the LORDE, were red in their eares. And ỹ kynge stode in his place, and made a couenaunt before the LORDE, that they shulde walke after the LORDE, to kepe his cōmaundementes, his testimonies, and his statutes with all their hert and with all their soule, to do acordinge vnto all the wordes of the couenaunt that are wrytten in this boke.

And there stode all they that were founde at Jerusalem and in Ben Jamin. And ỹ inhabiters of Jerusalem dyd acordinge to the couenaunt of God the God of their fathers. And Josias put awaye all abhominacions out of all the londes that were the childrē of Israels, and caused all them that were founde in Israel, to serue the LORDE their God. * As longe as Josias lyued, departed they not from the LORDE the God of their fathers.

The XXXV. Chapter.

And Josias kepte passeouer vnto the LORDE at Jerusalem, and slewe the passeouer on the fourtenth daye off the first moneth, and set the prestes in their offices, and strengthed them to their mynistracion in the house of the LORDE, and sayde vnto the Leuites that taughte in all Israel, and were sanctified vnto ỹ LORDE: Put the holy Arke in the house that Salomon ỹ sonne of David kynge of Israel dyd buylde. * Ye shal beare it nomore vpon youre shulders. Se that ye serue now the LORDE youre God, and his people of Israel, and prepare the house of youre fathers in youre courses, as it was appoynted by David the kynge of Israel, and by Salomō his sonne: and stonde in the Sanctuary after ỹ course of the fathers houses amonge youre brethren the childrē of the people, And after the course of the fathers houses amonge the Leuites, and kyll passeouer, sanctifye and prepare youre brethren, that they maye do acordinge to the worde of the LORDE by Moses.

And Josias gaue lambes and yonge kydes which were males, to the heueofferynge for the comontye (all to the passeouer for euery one that was founde) in the nombre thirtye thousande, and thre thousande oxen, all of the kynges good. And his prynces of their awne good wyll gaue to the heueofferynge for the people, & for the prestes and Leuites (namely, Helchias, Zachary and Jehiel the prynces in ỹ house of God amōge the prestes) for the passeouer, two thousande and fire hundreth, And thre hūdreth oxen. But Chanania, Semaia, Nathaneel and his brethren, Gasabia, Jeiel and Josabad the chefe of the Leuites gaue the Leuites to the heue offerynge for the passeouer, fyue thousande shepe, & fyue hundreth oxen.

Thus was the Gods seruyce prepared, and the prestes stode in their place, and the Leuites in their courses acordinge to the kynges commaundement. And they kylled the passeouer, and the prestes toke it off their handes, and sprenkled it: and the Leuites toke the slynnes off them, and remoued the burntofferynge there from, to gene te amonge the porcions of the fathers hou ses in the multitudes of their congregacion to offre vnto the LORDE, * as it is wrytten in ỹ boke of Moses, Euen so dyd they with the oxen also. And they dighte the passeo-uer at the fyre * acordinge to the lawe. And that which was halowed, dighte they in pottes, kettels, and pannes, and made haist for the comon people. Afterwarde prepared they for them selues also and for ỹ prestes:

for the prestes the children of Aaron were occupied in the burntofferynges and sat vn tyll the nighte. Therfore must the Leuites prepare for them selues and for the prestes the children of Aaron.

And the syngers the children of Asaph stode in their place (acordinge to * Dauids commaundement) and Asaph and Heman, and Jedithim the kynges Seer, and the por ters at all the gates. And they departed not from their office. For the Leuites their bre thren prepared for them. Thus was all the Gods seruyce prepared the same daye, that the passeouer mighte be kepte, and the burntsacrifices offred vpon the altare off the LORDE acordinge to the commaunde-ment of kynge Josias.

So the children of Israel that were at hande, helde passeouer at that tyme, and the feast of vnleuended bred, seuen dayes.
Sence ỹ tyme of Samuel the prophet, was no passeouer kepte in Israel like this: and no kynge of Israel had holdē soch a passeo uer as Josias dyd, and the prestes, Leuites, all Juda, and soch as were founde of Israel, and the inhabiters of Jerusalem. In the eightēth yeare of the reigne of Josias was this passeouer kepte.

After this, whan Josias had prepared the house, Necho the kynge of Egipte wen te vp to fighte agaynst Carcamis besyde Euphrates. And Josias wēte forth agaynst him. But he sent messaungers vnto him, sayenge: What haue I to do with the O kynge off Juda? I am not come now agaynst the, but I fighte agaynst another house: and God hath sayde, that I shal ma ke haist. Ceasse from God which is with me, that he destroye the not. Neuertheles Jo-sias turned not his face from him, but prepared himselfe to fighte with him, and her-kened not vnto the wordes of Necho out of the mouth of God, ỹ came to fighte wt him vpon the playne besyde Mageddo. But the Archers shot at kynge Josias. And the kyn ge sayde vnto his seruauntes: Cary me awaye, for I am sore wounded. And his seruauntes toke him from the charet, and caried him vpon his seconde charet, and broughte him to Jerusalem. And he dyed, and was buried amonge the sepulcres off his fathers.

And All Juda and Jerusalem mourned for Josias, and Jeremy bewayled Josias, and all the synginge men and wemen, spake their lamētacions ouer Josias vnto this daye, and made a custome therof vnto this daye. Beholde, it is wrytten also amonge the Lamentacions. What more there is to saye of Josias, and his mercy acordinge to the scripture in the lawe of the LORDE, and of his actes (both first and last) beholde, it is wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Israel and Juda.

The XXXVI. Chapter.

4.Re.23.
2.Esd.1.d

AND the people of the londe toke Joa-has the sonne of Josias, and made him kynge in his fathers steade at Je rusalem. Thre and twentye yeare olde was Joahas whan he was made kynge, and reigned thre monethes at Jerusalem. For the kynge of Egipte deposed him at Jerusalem, and condemned the londe in an hun-dreth talentes of syluer, and one talent off golde. And the kynge of Egipte made Elia chim his brother kynge ouer Juda and Jerusalē, and turned his name Joachim. But Necho toke his brother Joahas, and caried him in to Egipte.

Fyue and twentye yeare olde was Joachim whā he was made kynge, and reigned eleuē yeare at Jerusalē, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE his
God. * And Nabuchodonosor the kynge of 4.Re.24.
Babilon wente vp agaynst him, and bounde him with cheynes, to cary him vnto Ba-bilon. And Nabuchodonosor broughte cer-tayne vessels of ỹ house of the LORDE vnto Babilon, and put them in his temple at Babilon. What more there is to saye of Jo achim, and off his abhominacions which he dyd, and that were founde in him, beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Israel and Juda. And Joachim his sonne was kynge in his steade.

B

Eight yeare olde was Joachim whan he was made kynge, and reigned thre mone-thes and ten dayes at Jerusalē, and dyd ỹ which was euell in the sighte of ỹ LORDE.
But whā the yeare came aboute, Nabucho donosor sent thither, and caused him be fetched vnto Babilon with the costly vessels and Jewels of the house of the LORDE, and made Sedechias his brother kynge ouer Iuda and Ierusalem.

Iere.52.a 4.Re.24.d One and twentye yeare olde was Sedechias whan he was made kynge, & reigned eleuen yeare at Ierusalem, and dyd that which was euell in the sighte of the LORDE his God, and submytted not himselfe before the face of the prophet Jeremy, which spake out of the mouth of the LORDE. He fell awaye also from Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon (which had taken an ooth of him by God) and was stysnecked, and hardened his hert, that he shulde not conuerte vnto the LORDE God of Israel. And all ye chefe amonge the prestes, and the people, multiplyed their synnes, accordinge to all the abhominacions of the Heythen, and dyfyled the house of the LORDE, which he had sanctified at Ierusalem.

C * And the LORDE God of their fathers
Iere.25.a sent vnto them early by his messaungers (for he spared his people and his habitacion) but they laughed the messaungers of God to scorne, and despysed his wordes, and had his prophetes in derision, so lōge tyll the indignacion of the LORDE increased ouer his people, and there was no remedye of healinge. 4.Re.25.a * For he broughte the kynge of the Caldees vpon them, and caused yo to slaye all their yonge men with the swerde in the house of their Sanctuary, and spared nether yongemān ner virgin, nether aged ner graūd father, but gaue them all in to his hande. And all the vessels in the house of God, greate and small, the treasures in the house of ye LORDE, and the treasures of the kynge and of his prynces, all this caused he to be caried vnto Babilon. And they brent the house of God, and brake downe the wall of Ierusalē, and all the palaces therof brent they with fyre, so that all the costly ornamentes of it were destroyed.

D And loke who escaped ye swerde, hi caried he awaye vnto Babilon, & they became his seruaūtes, & the seruauntes of his sonnes, tyll
Iere.25.b the Persians had the empyre: * that ye worde of the LORDE by the mouth of Jeremy mighte be perfourmed, euen vntyll the londe had ynough of hir Sabbathes: for all the tyme of the desolacion was it Sabbath, vntyll the seuentye yeares were fulfylled.

1.Esd.1.a 2.Esd.2.a But in the first yeare of Cyrus the kynge of Persia (that the worde of the LORDE spoken by the mouth of Jeremy mighte be fulfylled) the LODDE rayed vp the spirite of Cyrus the kynge of Persia, that he caused it be proclamed thorow out all his empyre, yee and by writinge also, sayenge: Thus sayeth Cyrus the kynge of Persia: The LORDE God of heauen hath geuen me all the kyngdomes in the londe, and hath commaunded me to buylde him an house at Ierusalem in Juda. Who soeuer now amonge you is of his people, the LORDE his God be with him, and let him go vp.

Chap. X. They make a couenaunt to put awaye their Heythenish wyues.

The first Chapter.

A IN the first yeare of Cyrus kynge off Persia (that the worde of the LORDE spoken * by the mouth of Jeremy might be fulfilled) the LORDE stered vp the spriete of Cyrus kynge of Persia, ỹ he caused it be proclamed thorow out all his empyre, yee and by wrytinge also, sayenge: Thus sayeth Cyrus the kynge of Persia: The LORDE God of heauē hath geuen me all the kyngdomes in the londe * and hath commaunded me to buylde him an house at Jerusalem in Juda. Who soeuer now amonge you is of his people, the LORDE his God be with him, and let him go vp to Jerusalem in Juda, and buylde the house of the LORDE God of Israel. He is ỹ God that is at Jerusalē. And whoso euer remayneth yet in eny maner of place (where he is a straunger) let the mē of his place helpe him with syluer and golde, with good and catell of a good frewill, for the house of God at Jerusalem.

B Then gat vp the pryncipall fathers of Juda and Ben Jamin, and the prestes and Leuites, and all they whose spriete God had raysed to go vp, and to buylde the house of the LORDE at Jerusalē. And all they that were aboute them, strengthed their hande with vessels of syluer and golde, with good and catell, and Jewels, besydes that which they gane of their awne frewill. And kynge Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the LORDES house, * which Nabuchodonosor had take out of Jerusalem, and put in his gods house. But Cyrus ỹ kynge of Persia brought thē forth by Mithriedath the reasurer, and nombred thē vnto Seßbazar the prynce of Juda. And this is the nombre of them: thirtye basens of golde, and a thousande basens of syluer, and nyne and twentye knyues, thirtye cuppes of golde, and of other syluer cuppes foure hundreth and ten, and of other vessels a thousande. So that all the vessels both of golde and syluer, were fyue thousande and foure hundreth. Seßbazar broughte them all vp, with them that came vp out of the captiuyte off Babilon vnto Jerusalem.

The II. Chapter.

A THese are the childrē of the londe that wente vp out of the captiuyte (whō Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon had caried awaye vnto Babilon) and came agayne to Jerusalem and into Juda, euery one vnto his cite, and came with Zorobabel, Jesua, Nehemias, Seraia, Reeleia, Mardachai, Bilsan, Mispar, Begeuai, Rehum and Baena. This is now the nombre of the men of the people of Israel: The childrē of Phares, two thousande, an hūdreth, and two and seuentye: the childrē of Sephatia, thre hundreth and two and seuentye: the childrē of Arath, seuen hundreth and fyue and seuentye: the childrē of Pahath Moab amonge the childrē of Jesua Joab, two thousande, eight hundreth and twolue: the childrē of Elam, a thousande, two hundreth and foure and fiftye: the childrē of Sathu, nyne hundreth, and fyue and fortye: the childrē of Sacai, seuē hundreth and thre score: the childrē of Bani, sixe hundreth and two and fortye: the childrē of Bebai, sixe hundreth and thre and twentye. B the childrē of Asgad, a thousande two hundreth and two and twentye: the childrē of Adonicam, sixe hūdreth and sixe and sixtye: the childrē of Bigeuai, two thousande and sixe and fiftye: the childrē of Adin, foure hundreth and foure and fiftye: the childrē of Ater of Ezechias, eight and nynetye: the childrē of Bezai, thre hundreth and thre and twentye: the childrē of Jorath, an hundreth and twolue: the childrē of Hasum, two hundreth and thre and twentye: the childrē of Gibbar, fyue and nynetye: the childrē off Bethleem, an hundreth and thre and twentye: the men off Netopha sixe and fiftye: the men off Anathot, an hundreth and eight and twentye: the childrē off Asmaueth, two and fortye: the childrē off Kiriath Arim, Caphira and Beeroth, seuen hundreth and thre and fortye: the childrē off Rama and Gaba, sixe hundreth and one and twētye: the men off Michmas, an hundreth and two and twentye: the men of Bethel and Ai, two hundreth and thre and twentye: the childrē

C of Nebo, two and fyftye: the children of Magbis, an hūdreth and fire and fiftye: the childrē of the other Elam a thousande, two hundreth and foure and fiftye: the children of Harim, thre hundreth and twentye: the childrē of Lodhadid and Ono, seuē hūdreth and fyue and twētye: the childrē of Jericho, thre hundreth and fyue and fortye: the children of Senaa, thre thousande, fire, hundreth and thirtye.

The prestes. The children of Jedaia of the house of Jesua, nyne hundreth and thre and seuentye: the childrē of Jemmer, a thousande and two and fiftye: the children of Pashur, a thousande and two hūdreth, and seuen and fortye: the childrē of Harim, a thousandē and seuentene.

The Leuites. The children of Jesua and Cadmiel of the children of Hodauia, foure and seuentye. The syngers, the children of Asaph, an hundreth and eight and twentye. The children of the dorekepers. The children of Sallum, the children of Ater, the childrē off Talmon, the children off Acub, the children off Hatita, and the children off Sobai: alltogether an hundreth and nyne and thirtye.

D The Nethinims. the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabaoth, the children of Ceros, the children of Sieha, the children of Padon, the children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Acub, the childrē of Hagab, the children of Samlai, the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the childrē of Reaia, the children of Rezin, the children of Necuba, the children of Gasan, the children of Usa, the children of Passeah, the children of Bessai, the children of Asna, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephussim, the children of Bacbuc, the childrē of Hacupha, the children of Harhur, ỹ childrē of Hazeluth, ỹ childrē of Mehira, the children of Harsa, the children of Barcom, the children of Sissera, the children of Thamah, the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

The children of Salomons seruauntes. The children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Pruda, the children of Jaela, the childrē of Darcon, the childrē of Giddell, the childrē of Sephatia, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Ami. All the Nethinims and the children off Salomons seruauntes were alltogether, thre hundreth and two and nyentye.

And these wēre vp also, Mithel, Melath, Thel, Harso, Cherub, Addon and Immer. But they coulde not shewe their fathers house ner their sēde, whether they were of Israel. The children of Delaia, the children of Tobias, the children of Necoda, fire hundreth and two and fiftye.

And of the children of the prestes. The children of Habaia, the children of Hacom, the children of Barsillai, which toke one of the daughters of Barsillai the Gileadite to wife, and was counted amonge the same names: these soughte the register of their byrth, and founde none, therfore were they put from the prestlode. And Hathirsatha sayde vnto them, that they shulde not eate of the most holy, tyll there rose vp a prest with the * lighte and perfectnesse.

The whole congregacion as one man, was two and fortye thousande, thre hundreth and thre score: besyde their seruauntes and maydēs, of whom there were seuē thousande, thre hundreth and seuen and thirtye. And they had two hundreth singinge men and wemen, seuē hundreth and fire and thirtye horses, two hundreth and fyue and fortye Mules, foure hūdreth and fyue and thirtye Camels, and fire thousande, seuen hundreth and twentye Asses.

And certayne of the chefe fathers, whan they came to the house of the LORDE at Jerusalem, they were well mynded vnto the house of God, that it shulde be set in his place, and gaue after their abilyte vnto the treasure of the worke, one and thre score thousande guldens, and fyue thousande pounde of syluer, and an hundreth prestes garmentes. So the prestes and the Leuites, and certayne of ỹ people, and the syngers, and the porters, and ỹ Nethinims dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

The III. Chapter.

AND whan the seuenth moneth came, and the children of Israel were now in their cities, the people came together euen as one man, vnto Jerusalem. And there stode vp Jesua the sonne of Josedec and his brethren the prestes, and Zorobabel the sonne of Saalthiel and his brethren, and buylded the altare of the God of Israel, to offre burntofferynges theron, as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moses the man of God, and the altare set they vpon his sokettes (for there was a fearfulnes amonge them because of the nacions and lōdes) and offred burntofferinges theron vnto ỹ LORDE. in the mornynge and at euen. And helde the feast of Tabernacles * as it is wrytten, and offred burntsacrifices daylie after the nombre as acordinge was, euery daye his sacrifice. Afterwarde the daylie burntofferynges also, and of the new Mones and of all the feast dayes of the LORDE that were halowed, and allmaner of fre wyllinge offeringes, which they did of their awne fre wyl vnto the LORDE.

B * Vpon the first daye of the seuenth moneth beganne they to offre burnt sacrifices vnto the LORDE. But the foundacion of the tēple of the LORDE was not yet layed. Neuertheles they gaue money vnto ỹ masons and carpenters, and meate and drynke and oyle vnto them of Zidon and of Tyre, to bringe thē Cedre tymbre from Libanus by See vnto Joppa, acordinge to the cōmaundement of Cyrus the kynge of Persia.

In the seconde yeare of their commynge vnto the house of God at Jerusalem in the seconde moneth, beganne Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Jesua the sonne of Josedec, and the remnaunt of their brethren the prestes and Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuyte vnto Jerusalem, and appoynted the Leuites frō twentye yeare olde and aboue, to se that the worke of the house of the LORDE wēte forwarde. And Jesua stode with his sonnes and brethren, and Cadmiel with his sonnes, and the children of Juda, to furthur the workmen of the house of God, namely the childrē of Henadad with their children and their brethren the Leuites.

C And whan the buylders layed the foundacion of the temple of the LORDE, the prestes stode in their araye, with trompettes. And the Leuites the children of Asaph with Cimbales, to prayse ỹ LORDE * with the Dytie of Dauid kynge of Israel. And they sunge together, geuynge prayse & thankes vnto ỹ LORDE, because he is gracious, and because his mercy endureth for euer vpon Israell. And all the people shouted loude in prayysinge the LORDE, because the foundacion of ỹ house of the LORDE was layed. Neuertheles many of the olde prestes and Leuites and awncient fathers, which had sene the house afore in his foundacion, and this was now before their eyes, wepte loude. But many shouted with ioye, so that the noyse gaue a greate sounde, in so moch that the people coulde not knowe ỹ ioyfull sounde for the noyse of the wepinge in the people: for the people shouted loude, so that the noyse was herde farre of.

The IIII. Chapter.

A BVt whan the aduersaries of Juda and Ben Jamin herde, that the children of the captiuyte buylded the tēple vnto the LORDE God of Israel, they came to Zorobabel & to the pryncipall fathers, and sayde vnto them: We wyl buylde with you: for we seke the LORDE youre God like as ye do. And we haue done sacrifice vnto hym, * sence the tyme that Assar Hadon the kynge of Assur broughte vs vp hither. But Zorobabel and Jesua and the other awnciēt fathers of Israel, answered them: It is not mete for vs and you to buylde the house of oure God, but we wyl buylde alone vnto the LORDE God of Israel, * as Cyrus the kynge of Persia hath commaunded vs. 4.Re.17.c 1.Esd.1.a

Then the folke of the londe hyndered the people of Juda, and made them afrayed to buylde, and hyred councelers aganst them and hyndered their deuyce, as longe as Cyrus the kynge of Persia lyued, vntyll the reigne off Darius kynge off Persia. But whan Ahasuerus was kynge, in the begynnynge off his reigne wrote they vnto him a complaynte agaynst them of Juda and Jerusalem.

B And in the tyme of Artaxerses, wrote Bisellam, Mithudath, Tabeel and the other of their councell vnto Artaxerses the kynge of Persia. But the scripture of ỹ letter was wrytten in the Syrians speach, and was interpretated in the langage of the Syrians. Rehum ỹ chaunceler, and Simsai the scribe, wrote this letter agaynst Jerusalem to Artaxerses the kynge.

We Rehum the chaunceler, and Simsai the scribe, and other of the councell of Dina, off Arphasath, off Tarplat, off Persia, off Arach, of Babilon, of Susan, of Deha, and of Elam, and other of the people * whom the greate and noble Asnaphar broughte ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other on this syde the water, and in Canaan. And this is ỹ summe of the letter that they sent vnto kynge Artaxerses: 4.Re.17.c

C Thy seruauntes the men on this syde the water and in Canaan. Be it knowne vnto ỹ kynge, that the Jewes which are come vp from the to vs vnto Jerusalē in to that sedicious & wicked cite, buylde the same, and make vp ỹ walles of it, & bringe it out of ỹ foundacion. Be it knowne now therfore vnto ỹ kynge, ỹ yf this cite be buylded & the walles made vp agayne, thē shal not they geue tribute, toll, and yearly custome, and their deuyce shal do ỹ kynge harme. But now that we all are therby which destroyed the temple, we wolde no longer se the kynges dishonoure. Therfore sent we out, and caused the kynge to be certified therof: That it maye be soughte in ỹ Cronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou fynde in the same Cronicles, and perceaue, that this cite is sedicious and noysome vnto kynges and londes, and that they cause other also to rebell of olde, and for the same cause was this cite destroyed. Therfore do we certifie the kynge, that yf this cite be buylded, and the walles therof made vp, thou shalt kepe nothinge on this syde the water by the reason of it.

D Then sent ỹ kynge an answere vnto Rehum the chaunceler, and Simsai the Scrybe, and to the other of their councell that dwelt in Samaria, and vnto the other beyonde ỹ water. Peace and salutacion. The letter which ye sent vnto vs, hath bene opēly red before me, and I haue commaunded to make search: and it is founde, that this cite of olde hath made insurreccion agaynst kynges, & how ỹ vpro' and rebellion hath bene commytted therin. There haue bene mightie kynges also at Jerusalē, which haue reigned ouer all that is beyonde the water, and toll, tribute and yearly custome was geuen vnto them. Do ye now after this commaundemēt, forbyd the same men, that the cite be not builded, tyll I haue geuē cōmaundemēt. Take hede now that ye be not necligent here in, lest the kynge haue harme therethorow.

Now whā kynge Artarerses letter was red before Rehum the chaunceler and Simsai the Scrybe and their councell, they wente vp in all the haist to Jerusalem vnto the Jewes, and forbad them with the arme and auctorite. Then ceassed the worke of the house of God at Jerusalem, and continued so vnto the seconde yeare of Darius kynge of Persia.

The V. Chapter.

A The prophetes, Aggeus and Zacharyas ỹ sonne of Jddo, prophecied vnto ỹ Jewes that were in Juda and Jerusalē, in the name of the God of Israel.
Agg. 1 c Then gat vp Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Jesua the sonne of Josedec, and beganne to buylde the house of God at Jerusalem, and with them the prophetes of God which strengthed thē. At the same tyme came to thē Thathnai the debite on this syde the water, and Sethar of Bosen, and their councelers, and sayde thus vnto them: Who hath commaunded you to buylde this house, and to make vp the walles therof? Then tolde we them the names of the men, that made this buyldinge. But the eye of their God came vpon the Elders of the Jewes, that they were not inhibyte, tyll the matter was brought before Darius, and tyll then came a wrytinge therof agayne.

This is the summe of the letter ỹ Thathnai the Debyte on this syde the water, and Sethar of Bosen, and their councellers of Apharsach (which were on this syde the water) sent vnto kynge Darius. And these are the wordes that they sent vnto him: Vnto Darius the kynge, all peace. Be it knowne vnto the kynge, that we came in to Jewry to the house of ỹ greate God, which is buylded with all maner of stone, and balckes are layed in the walles, and ỹ worke goeth fast forth, and prospereth in their handes. Neuertheles we axed the Elders and sayde vnto them: Who hath cōmaunded you to buylde this house, and to make vp the walles therof? We axed their names also, that we might certifye the, and haue wrytten the names of the men that were their rulers.

But they answered vs wt these wordes, and sayde: We are the seruaūtes of the God of heauen and earth, and buylde the house ỹ was buylded many yeares ago, * which a greate kynge of Israel buylded and set vp. Howbeit whan oure fathers prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, * he gaue them ouer in the hande of Nabuchodonosor the kynge of Babilon the Caldee, which brake downe this house, & caried ỹ people away vnto Babilon.

* Neuertheles in the first yeare of Cyrus the kynge of Babilon, ỹ same kynge Cyrus commaunded to buylde this house of God: for the vessels of golde and siluer in the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the temple at Jerusalē, and brought the into ỹ temple at Babilon, those dyd Cyrus the kynge take out of ỹ temple at Babilon, * and deliuered them vnto Sesbazer by name, whom he made Debyte, and sayde vnto him: Take these vessels, go thy waye and bringe them vnto the temple at Jerusalem, and let the house of God be buylded in his place. Then came the same Sesbazar, and layed ỹ foundacion of the house of God at Jerusalem. Sence that tyme hath it bene in buyldinge, and yet is it not fynished. Yf it please ỹ kynge now, let there be search made in ỳ kynges treasure house which is at Babilon, whether it have bene kynge Cyrus commaundement, that the house of God at Jerusalem shulde be buylded: & sende vs ỳ kynges mynde concernynge the same.

The VI. Chapter.

A Then cõmaunded kinge Darius, that search shulde be made in ỳ library of ỳ kynges treasure house, which laye at Babilon. So at Egbathanis in a castell that lyeth in the londe of the Medes, there was founde a boke, & in it was there an acte wrytten after this maner: In the first yeare of kynge Cyrus, cõmaunded the same kynge Cyrus to buylde ỳ house of God at Jerusalem, in the place where the sacrifice is made, & to laye the foundacion to beare thre score cubites heyght, & thre score cubites bredth, & thre walles of all maner of stones, and one wall of tymber, & the expences shalbe geuen of the kynges house. And the goldẽ and syluer vessell of ỳ house of God (which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple at Jerusalem, and broughte vnto Babilon) shalbe restored agayne, ỳ they maye be broughte vnto the temple at Jerusalẽ to their place into the house of God.

Get you farre from them therfore, thou Thathnai Debyte beyonde the water, and Sethar of Bosen, & youre councelers which are beyonde the water. Let them worke in ỳ house of God, that the Debyte of ỳ Jewes and their Elders maye buylde the house of God in his place. I haue commaunded also, what shalbe done to ỳ Elders of Juda for the buyldinge of the house of God, that there shal diligently be takẽ of the kynges goodes, euen of the rentes beyonde the water, & geuen vnto the men, and that they be not hyndered.

And yf they haue nede of calues, lambes, or goates for the burnt offrynge vnto ỳ God of heauen, wheate, salt, wyne and oyle, after the custome of the prestes at Jerusalem, there shalbe geuen them daylie as is acordinge: and se that this be not done necligẽtly, that they maye offre swete sauoures vnto ỳ God of heauen, and praye for the kynges lyfe, and for his children. This commaundement haue I genẽ. And what man so euer he be that altereth these wordes, there shal a balke be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shal be hanged theron, and his house shalbe pryed for the dede.

C But the God that dwelleth in heauen, destroye all kynges and people, that put to their hãde to alter and to breake downe the house of God at Jerusalem. I Darius haue commaunded, that this be diligently done.

Then Thathnai ỳ Debyte beyonde ỳ water, and Sethar of Bosen with their councelers (to whom kynge Darius had sent) dyd their diligence. And ỳ Elders of the Jewes buylded, and they prospered thorow the prophecienge of Aggeus the prophet and Zachary the sonne of Jddo: and they buylded, and set vp the worke, acordinge to the commaundement of the God of Israel, and after the commaundement of Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerses kynges of Persia. And they performed the house vnto the thirde daye of the moneth Adar, that was the sixte yeare of the reigne of kynge Darius.

* And the children of Israel, the prestes, 1. Par. 7.
the Lewites, and the other children of ỳ captyuite helde the dedicacion of the house of God with ioye, and offred at the dedicacion D of the house of God, an hundreth calues, two hundreth lambes, foure hundreth goates: and for the synofferynge for all Israel, twolue he goates, acordinge to the nombre of the trybes of Israel, and set the prestes in their courses, and ỳ Lewites in their offices, to mynister vnto God which is at Jerusalẽ, as it is wrytten in the boke of Moses.

And the children of the captyuite helde passeouer vpon the fourtenth daye of the first moneth: for ỳ prestes and Lewites had purified them selues, so ỳ they were all cleane as one man, and kylled passeouer for all the children of the captyuite, and for their brethrẽ the prestes, and for them selues. And the childrẽ of Israel which were come agayne out of captyuyte, and all soch as had separated them selues vnto them from the fylthinesse of the heythen in the londe, to seke the LORDE God of Israel, ate & helde the feast of vnleuẽded bred seuen dayes with ioye: for the LORDE had made them glad, and turned the hert of the kynge of Assur vnto thẽ, so that their handes were strengthed in the worke of the house of God, which is ỳ God of Israel.

The VII. Chapter.

A Fter these actes in the reigne of Artaxerses kynge of Persia, there wente 1. Esd. 8. B vp from Babilon, Esdras the sonne of Seraia, the sonne of Asaria, the sonne of Helchias, the sonne of Sallum, the sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Achitob, the sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Asaria, the sonne Meraioth, the sonne of Serahia, ỳ sonne of Vsi, the sonne of Buki, the sonne of Abisua, the sonne of Phineas, the sonne of Eleasar, the ſonne of Aaron the cheſe preſt, which was a 10 10.a quycke ſcrybe in the lawe of Moſes, ꝑ which the LORDE God of Iſrael dyd geue. And ꝟ kynge gaue him all that he requyred, acor dinge to the hande of the LORDE his God vpon him.

And there wente vp certayne of the children of Iſrael, and of the preſtes, and of the Leuites, of the ſyngers, of the porters, and of the Nethinims vnto Jeruſalem, in the ſe uenth yeare of kynge Artaxerſes. And they came to Jeruſalem in the fifth moneth, that is the ſeuenth yeare of the kynge. For vpon the firſt daye of the firſt moneth, deuyſed he to go vp from Babilon: and on ꝟ firſt daye of the fifth moneth came he to Jeruſalem, acordinge to the good hande of God vpon him: For Eſdras prepared his hert to ſeke the lawe of the LORDE, and to do it, and to teach the precepte & iudgment in Iſrael.

B And this is the ſumme of the letter, that kynge Artaxerſes gaue vnto Eſdras the preſt, the ſcrybe, which was a teacher in the wordes of the LORDE and of his ſtatutes ouer Iſrael. Vnto Eſdras the preſt and ſcry be in the lawe of the God of heauen, peace and ſalutacion. I haue commaunded, that all they of the people of Iſrael, and of the preſtes and Leuites in my realme, which are mynded of their awne good wyll to go vp to Jeruſalem, that they go with the, beynge ſent of the kynge and of the ſeuen lordes of the councell, to vyſet Juda and Jeruſalem, acordinge to the lawe of God, which is in thy hãde: And that thou ſhuldeſt take with the, ſyluer and golde, which the kynge and the lordes of his councell geue of their aw-ne good wyll vnto the God of Iſrael (whoſe habitacion is at Jeruſalem) and all the ſyl uer and golde that thou canſt fynde in all ꝟ countre of Babilon: with it that the people and preſtes geue of their awne good wil vn to the houſe of God at Jeruſalem.

C Take thou the ſame, and bye diligently with the ſame money, calues, lambes, goates, and meatofferynges and drynkofferyn-ges, to be offred vpon the altare of the houſe of youre God at Jeruſalem. And loke what it lyketh the and thy brethren to do with the remnaunt of the money, that do after the wyll of youre God. And the veſſels that are geuen the for the mynſtracion in the houſe of thy God, thoſe delyuer thou before God at Jeruſalem.

And what ſo euer thinge more ſhal be ne-defull for the houſe of thy God, which is ne-ceſſary for the to ſpende, let the ſame be geue out of the kynges chamber. I kynge Artax erſes haue commaunded all the treaſurers beyonde the water, ꝟ loke what ſo euer Eſ dras the preſt and ſcrybe in the lawe of the God of heauẽ, requyreth of you, that ye ſe fyll the ſame diligently, vntyll an hundreth talẽtes of ſyluer, and tyll an hundreth quar ters of wheate, and tyll an hũdreth Barthes of wyne, and tyll an hundreth Barthes of oyle, and ſalt without meaſure. What ſoeuer belongeth to the lawe of the God of heauen, let the ſame be done with diligence for the houſe of the God of heauẽ, that there co me no wrath vpon the kynges realme & his children.

And knowne be it vnto you, that ye ſhall haue no auctorite to requyre taxinge & cuſto me, and yearly rentes vpon eny of the preſ tes, Leuites, ſyngers, porters, Nethinims and myniſters in ꝟ houſe of this God. But thou Eſdras (after the wyſdome of ꝟ God that is in thy hande) ſet thou iudges and ar biters, to iudge all the people that is beyon de Jordane, euen all ſoch as knowe the lawe of thy God: and them that knowe it not, re ſe ſe that ye teache. And who ſo euer wyl not diligently fulfyll the lawe of thy God, and the kynges lawe, ſhall haue his iudgmẽt ſpe the dede, whether it be vnto death, or to ba banyſhed, or to be condemned in good, or to be put in preſon.

Prayſed be the LORDE God of oure fathers, which ſo hath inſpyred ꝟ kynges hert to garnyſh the houſe of God at Jeruſalem:
and hath enclyned his mercy vnto me in the preſence of the kynge, and his counceleres, and before all the kynges hye eſtates. And I was comforted (acordinge to the hãde of the LORDE my God ouer me) and ſo gathered I the heades of Iſrael together, ꝟ they mighte go vp with me.

The VIII. Chapter.

These are the heades of their fathers that were named, which wente vp with me from Babilon, what tyme as kyn ge Artaxerſes reigned. Of the childrẽ of Phi neas, Gerſom: of the children of Ithamar, Daniel: of the children of David, Hattus: of the childrẽ of Pareos, Zachary, and the men childrẽ nombred with him, an hundreth and fiftye. Of the children of Pahath Moab, Eleoenai the ſonne of Serahia, and with him
two hundreth males.

Of the children of Sechania, the ſonne of Jehaſiel, and with him thre hundreth ma les. Of the children of Adin Ebed, the ſon ne of Jonathan, and with him fifti males.

Of the children of Elam, Jeſaia the ſonne of Athalia, and with him ſeuentie males. Of the children of Sephatia, Sebadia the ſonne of Michael, and wt him foure ſcore males.

Of the children of Joab, Obadia the ſonne of Jehiel, and with him two hundreth & eighteene men children. Of the children of Selomith, the ſonne of Joſiphia, and with him an hundreth and thre ſcore males.

Of the children of Bebai, Zachary the ſonne of Bebai, and with him eight and twentye males. Of the children of Aſgad, Johanan the yongeſt ſonne, and with him an hundreth and ten males. Of the laſt children of Adonicam, and theſe were their names: Eliphelet, Jeiel and Semaia, and with them thre ſcore males. Of the children of Bigeuai, Vthai and Sabud, and with them ſeuē males. And I gathered them together by the water that renneth towarde Aheua, & there abode we thre dayes,

And whan I loked amonge the people & the prieſtes, I founde no Leuites there. Thē ſent I Elieſer, Ariel, Semaia, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Natha, Zachary and Meſullam the rulers, and Joiarib and Elnathan the teachers, and thoſe ſent I vnto Iddo ỳ cheefe at Caſiphia, that they ſhulde fetch us mynyſters for the houſe of oure God, and I tolde them what they ſhulde ſaye vnto Iddo and to his brethren the Nethinims at Caſiphia.

And (acordinge to the good hande of oure God vpon us) they broughte us a wyſe man from amonge the children of Maheli the ſonne of Leui the ſonne of Iſrael, euen Serebia with his ſonnes and brethren, eighteene. And Haſabia, and with him Jeſaia of the children of Merari, with his brethren & their ſonnes, twentye. And of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes gaue to mynyſter vnto the Leuites, two hundreth & twentye, all named by name.

And euen there at the water beſyde Aheua, cauſed I a faſtinge to be proclamed, ỳ we mighte humble oure ſelues before oure God, to ſeke of him a righte waye for us, & oure children and all oure ſubſtaunce. For I was aſhamed to require of the kynge, ſouldyers & horſmen, to helpe us agaynſt the enemye in the waye. For we had ſayde vnto the kynge: The hande of oure God is for the beſt vpon all them that ſeke him, and his violence and wrath vpon all them that forſake him. So we faſted, and ſoughte this at oure God, and he herde us.

And I toke out twolue of the cheſe prieſtes, Serebia and Haſabia, and ten of their brethren with them, and weyed them there the ſylver and golde and veſſels for the Heue offeringe vnto the houſe of oure God, which the kynge, and the lordes of his councell and princes, and all Iſrael that were at hande, had geuen to the Heue offerynge: and there weyed I them vnder their hande ſixe hundreth and fiftye talentes of ſylver, and in ſylver veſſell an hundreth talentes, and in golde an hundreth talentes, twentye cuppes of golde of a thouſande guldens, and two coſtly ornamentes of good braſſe, as cleare as golde, and ſayde vnto them: Ye are holy vnto the LORDE, therfore are the veſſels holy alſo, and ſo is the ſylver and golde that is geuen of a good wyll vnto the LORDE God of youre fathers: Watch ye therfore and kepe it, tyll ye weye it downe before the cheſe prieſtes and Leuites, and awncient fathers of Iſrael at Jeruſalem in the cheſtes of the houſe of the LORDE. Then toke the prieſtes and Leuites that weyed ſylver and golde & veſſell, to bringe it to Jeruſalem vnto ỳ houſe of oure God.

So we brake vp, from the water of Aheua on the twolneth daye of the firſt moneth, to go vnto Jeruſalem: and the hande of oure God was vpon us, and delyuered us frō the hande of the enemies and preuy waytinges by the waye. And we came to Jeruſalem, and abode there thre dayes. But on ỳ fourth daye was the ſylver and golde, and veſſell weyed in the houſe of oure God vnder the hande of Meremoth the ſonne of Vrias the prieſt, and with him Eleaſar the ſonne of Phineas, and with them Joſabad the ſonne of Jeſua, and Noadia ỳ ſonne of Benui the Leuites, acordinge to the nombre & weight of euery one. And the weight was all wrytten vp at the ſame tyme.

And the children of the captiuyte, which were come out of preſon, offred burntofferinges vnto ỳ God of Iſrael: twolue bullockes for all Iſrael, ſixe and nynetye rammes, ſeuen and ſeuentye lambes, and twolue goates for a ſynofferynge, all to the burntofferinge of the LORDE. And they delyuered the kynges commyſſion vnto the kynges officers, & to the Debytes on this ſyde the water. And they promoted the people and the houſe of God.

The IX. Chapter.

When all this was perfourmed, the rulers came to me, and ſayde: The people of Iſrael, and the prieſtes, & Leuites are not ſeparated from the nacions in the londes as touchinge their abhominacions, namely of the Cananites, Hethites, Pheresites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egipcians, and Amorites. * For they have taken the doughters of the same, & their sonnes, and have myxte the holy sede with ye nacions in the londes: and the hande of the rulers and lordes of councell hath bene principall in this trespace.

Deut. 7. a and 12. d Iosu. 23. c Iudic. 3. a

Whan I herde this, I rente my clothes and my rayment, and plucte out the heer of my heade and of my beerd, and sat mournynge. And there resorted vnto me all soch as feared the worde of the LORDE God of Israel because of the greate transgression. And I sat mournynge vntyll the euenynge sacrifyce. And aboute the euenynge sacrifice I rose vp fro my hewynes, and rente my clothes and my raiment, and fell vpon my knees, and spred out my handes vnto the LORDE my God, and sayde:

B

My God, I am ashamed, and darre not lifte vp mine eies vnto the my God: for oure wickednesses are growne ouer oure heade, & oure trespaces are waxen greate vnto ye heauē. Sence the tyme of oure fathers haue we bene in greate trespace vnto this daie, * and because of oure wickednesses haue we and oure kynges bene delyuered in to the hande of ye kynges of the nacions, in to the swerde, in to captiuyte, in to spoyle, and in to confusion of face, as it is come to passe this daye.

Deu. 28. d

But now is there a litle and sodane graciousnes come from the LORDE oure God, so that some of vs are escaped, that he maie geue vs a nayle in his holy place, that oure God maye lighte oure eyes, and geue vs a litle lyfe in oure bondage. For we are bondmen, and o God hath not forsake vs though we be bondmen, and hath enclyned mercy vnto vs in the sighte of the kynges of Persia, that they shulde geue vs lyfe, and promote the house of oure God, and to sett vp the desolacion therof, and to geue vs an hedge in Juda and Jerusalem.

C

O oure God, what shall we saye now after this? that we haue forsaken thy commaundementes, which thou hast commaunded by thy seruauntes the prophetes, and saide: The londe wherin ye shal come to possesse it, is an vncleane londe thorow the fylthines of the people of the londes, in their abhominacions wherwith they haue made it full of vnclennes on euery syde. * Therfore shal ye not geue youre doughters vnto their sonnes, and their doughters shall ye not take vnto youre sonnes, and seke not their peace and welth for euer, that ye maye be stronge, and enioye the good in the londe, and ye and youre children maye haue the inheritaunce of it for euermore.

D

And after all this that is come vpon vs (because of oure euell dedes and greate trespace) thou oure God hast spared oure wickednesses, and hast geuen vs a delyueraunce as it is come to passe.

As for vs, we haue turned backe, & haue let go thy commaundementes, to make contracte with the people of these abhominacions. Wilt thou then be wroth at vs, tyll we be vtterly consumed, so that nothynge remayne, and tyll there be no delyueraunce? O LORDE God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remaine yet escaped, as it is this daie. Beholde, in thy presence are we in oure trespace, for because of it is there no stondinge before the.

The X. Chapter.

AND whan Esdras prayed after this maner and knowleged, wepte, and laie before the house of God, there resorted vnto him out of Israel a very greate congregacion of men and wemen, and children: for the people wepte very sore. And Sachania the sonne of Jehiel one of the children of Elam, answered, and sayde vnto Esdras: We haue trespaced agaynst the LORDE oure God, in that we haue taken straunge wyues of all the people of the londe. Now there is hope yet in Israel cōcerninge this, therfore let vs make a couenaūt now with oure God, that we shal put awaye all the wyues (and soch as are borne of them) acordynge to the councell of ye LORDE, and of them that feare the commaundement of oure God, ye we maye do acordynge to the lawe. Get the vp therfore, for the matter belongeth vnto the. We wyll be with the, be of good comforte, and do it.

Then rose Esdras, and toke an oth of the rulers, prestes and Leuites, and of all Israel, that they shulde do acordynge to this worde: and they swore. And Esdras stode vp before the house of God, and wente in to the chamber of Johanan the sonne of Eliasab. And whan he came thither, he ate no bred, and dranke no water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had bene in captiuyte.

And they caused a proclamacion be made thorow out Juda and Jerusalem, vnto all the children which had bene in captiuite, ye they shulde gather them selues together vnto Jerusalē: And that who soeuer came not within thre dayes acordinge to the deuyce of the rulers and Elders, all his substaunce shulde be forfett, and he put out from the cōgregacion of the captiue.

C Then all the men of Juda and Ben Jamin gathered them selues together vnto Jerusalem in thre dayes, ẏ is on the twentieth daye of the nyenth moneth: and all the people sat in the strete before the house of God, and trembled because of the matter, and for the rayne. And Eſdras ẏ prest stode vp, and sayde vnto them: * Ye haue transgressed, ẏ ye haue taken straunge wyues, to make the trespace of Israel yet more: confesse now therfore vnto ẏ LORDE God of youre fathers, & do his pleasure, and separate youre selues from the people of the londe, & from ẏ straunge wyues. Thē answered all the cōgregacion, & sayde with loude voyce: Let it be done as thou hast sayde. But the people are many, & it is a raynye wether, & they cānot stōde here without, nether is this a worke of one daye or two, for we are many ẏ haue offended in this transgression. Let vs appoynte oure rulers therfore in all the congregacion, ẏ all they which haue taken straunge wyues in oure cities, maye come at the tyme appoynted, and the Elders of euery cite and their Judges with them, tyll the wrath of oure God because of this matter be turned awaye from vs.

Then were appoynted Jonathan the sonne of Asahel & Jehasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter. And Mesullam and Sabthai the Lenites helped them. And the children of the captiuyte dyd euen so. And Eſdras the prest, and ẏ awncient fathers thorow the house of their fathers, and all that were now rehearsed by name, separated thē selues, and sat them downe on the first daye of the tenth moneth, to examē this matter. And on ẏ first daye of ẏ first moneth brought they the matter to a conclusion, concernynge all the men ẏ had takē straunge wyues.

E And amōge the childrē of the prestes there were men founde ẏ had takē straunge wyues, namely amōge the children of Jesua the sonne of Josedec & of his brethrē, Maeseia, Elieser, Jarib and Godolia. And they gaue their hādes there vpon, that they wolde put awaye their wyues: & for their trespace offe tynge to geue a rāme for their trespace. Amōge the children of Immer, Hanani & Sabadia. Amonge the childrē of Harim, Maeseia, Elia, Semaia, Jehiel, and Osia. Amonge ẏ children of Pashur, Elioenai, Maeseia, Ismael, Nethaneel, Josabad & Eleasa. Amonge the Lenites, Josabad, Simei and Celaia, he is that Celita, Pethahia, Juda & Eleasar. Amonge the syngers, Elyasib. Amonge the porters, Sallum, Telem and Uri.

Of Israel. Amonge the children of pareos, Ramia, Jesia, Malchia, Melamin, Eleasar, Malchia & Benaia. Amonge ẏ children of Elam, Mathania, Zachary, Jehiel, Abdy, Jeremoth & Elia. Amonge the children of Sathu, Elioenai, Eliasib, Mathania, Jeremoth, Sabad & Asisa. Amonge the children of Bebai, Johanan, Hanania, Sabbai & Athlai. Amonge the children of Bani, Mesullam, Mailuch, Adaia, Jasub, Seal and Jeremoth. Amonge the children of pahath Moab, Adna, Chelal, Benaia, Maeseia, Mathania, Bezaleel, Benui and Manasse. Amonge the children of Harim, Elieser, Jesia, Malchia, Semaia, Simeon, Bē Jamin, Malluch & Samaria. Amonge the childrē of Hasum, Mathnai, Mathatha, Sabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasse & Simei. Amōge the childrē of Bani, Maedai, Amram, Huel, Benaia, Bedia, Chelui, Naia, Meremoth, Eliasib, Mathania, Mathnai, Jaesau, Bani, Benui, Simei, Selemia, Nathan, Adaia, Machnadbai, Sasai, Sarai, Asareel, Selemia, Samaria, Sallum, Amaria, & Joseph. Amonge the childrē of Nebo, Jeiel, Mathithia, Sabad, Sebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaia. All these had taken straunge wyues. And amonge the same wyues there were some, that had borne children.

These are the actes of Nehemias the sonne of Hachalia. It fortuned in ỹ moneth Chisleu in ỹ twētieth yeare, that I was in the castell at Susan: and Hanani one of my bretheren came with certayne mē of Juda, and I axed them how the Jewes dyd that were delyuered and escaped from the captiuyte, & how it wente at Jerusalē. And they sayde vnto me: The remnaunt of the captiuyte are ther in the londe in greate myssfortune & rebuke. * The walles of Jerusalem are broken downe, and the portes therof are brent with fyre. Re.25.b

Whā I herde these wordes, I sat me downe & wepte, & mourned two dayes, & fasted & prayed before the God of heauen, & sayde: O LORDE God of heauen, thou greate & terrible God, * thou ỹ kepest couenaunt & mercy for them ỹ loue the & obserue thy cōmaundementes: let ỹ eares marke, & let thine eies be open, ỹ thou mayest heare the prayer of ỹ seruaunt, which I praye now before ỹ daye and nighte for the children of Jsrael thy seruauntes, & knowlege the synnes of the children of Jsrael, which we haue commytted agaynst the. 2. Ro. 20. a 2. Ind 14. a Deut. 7. b

B And I & my fathers house haue synned also. We haue bene corrupte vnto the, in ỹ we haue not kepte the cōmaundementes, statutes & lawes, which thou cōmaundedst ỹ seruaunt Moses. Yet call to remembraunce ỹ worde that thou cōmaundedst thy seruaunt Moses, and saydest: * Yf ye trāsgresse, then wil I scater you abrode amonge the naciōs. But yf ye turne vnto me, and kepe my commaundementes & do them: though ye were cast out vnto the vttemost parte of heauen yet wyl I gather you from thence, and wyll bringe you from thence, eue vnto the place, that I haue chosen for my name to dwell there. They are thy seruauntes, and thy people, Deut. 30 a whom thou hast delyuered thorow thy greate power & mighte hande. O LORDE, let thine eares marke the prayer of thy seruaunt, & the prayer of thy seruauntes, whose desyre is to feare thy name, & let thy seruaunt prospere this daye, & graunte him mercy in the sight of this mān: for I was the kynges butler.

The II. Chapter.

IN the moneth Nisan of the twentieth yeare of kynge Artaxerses, whā the wyne stode before him, I toke vp the wyne, and gaue it vnto ỹ kynge, and I was heuy in his presence. Then sayde ỹ kynge vnto me: Why lokest thou so sadly? Thou art not sicke, that is not ỹ matter, but thou art heuy harted. Nevertheles I was sore afrayed, & sayde vnto the kynge: God saue the kynges life for euer, shulde I not loke sadly? the cite of my fathers buryall lyeth wayest, & the portes therof are consumed wt the fyre. Then sayde the kynge vnto me: What is the thy requeste? Then made I my prayer to the God of heauē, and sayde vnto the kynge: yf it please the kynge, and yf thy seruaunt be fauoured in thy sighte, I beseke the sende me into Juda vnto ỹ cite of my fathers buryall, that I maye buylde it.

And ỹ kynge sayde vnto me, & so dyd the quene ỹ sat by him: How lōge shal thy iourney cōtynue, and whā wilt thou come agayne? And it pleased ỹ kynge to sende me, and I set him a tyme, & sayde vnto the kynge: Yf it please the kynge, let him geue me letters to the Debites beyonde ỹ water, ỹ they maye conueye me ouer, tyll I come in to Juda: & letters vnto Assaph the lorde of the kynges wod, ỹ he maye geue me wodd for balkes to the gates of the palace, which are harde on the house & harde on the walles of the cite, & for the house that I shal entre in to. And ỹ kynge gaue me accordinge to the good hande of God vpō me. And whan I came to ỹ Debites beyonde the water, I gaue them ỹ kynges letters. And the kynge sent captaynes and horsmen with me.

But whan Saneballath the Horonite, & Tobias the seruaunt of the Ammonites herde ỹ, it greued them sore, ỹ there was come a man which soughte the welth of the children of Jsrael. And whan I came to Jerusalem, & had bene there thre daies, I gat me vp in ỹ night season, & a fewe men with me, for I tolde no man what God had geuen me in my hert to do at Jerusalem: & there was not one beest wt me, saue it ỹ I rode vpon. And I rode by nighte vnto the valley porte beſore the Dragon well, & to the Dongporte, & conſidered ỳ walles of Jeruſalem that were broken downe, & the portes therof conſumed wt the fyre. And I wente ouer vnto ỳ Well porte, & to the kynges condyte, & there was no rowme for my beeſt, ỳ it coulde go vnder me. Then wēte I on in the nighte by the broke ſyde, & cōſidered ỳ wall, & turned back, & came home agayne to ỳ valley porte.

And ỳ rulers knewe not whither I wēte, or what I dyd: for hither to had I not tolde the Jewes & the prieſtes, the councelers & the rulers, & the other ỳ laboured in the worke, & I ſaide vnto thē: Ye ſe the myſerye ỳ we are in, how Jeruſalē lyeth wayſt, & how ỳ gates therof are brent wt fyre, come, let vs buylde vp ỳ walles of Jeruſalē, ỳ we be nomore a rebuke. And I tolde thē of the good hāde of my God which was vpō me: And ỳ kynges wordes ỳ he had ſpokē vnto me. And they ſaide: Then let vs get vp. And we buylded, and their handes were ſtrengthed to good.

But whan Saneballat ỳ Horonite, and Tobias the ſeruaunt of ỳ Ammonites, & Gosem the Arabian herde it, they laughed vs to ſcorne, and deſpiſed vs, & ſayde: What is this that ye do? Wyll ye fall awaye agayne from the kynge? Then anſwered I them, and ſayde: The God of heaven ſhal cauſe vs to proſpere: for we his ſeruauntes are gotten vp, & are buyldinge. As for you, ye haue no portiō ner right, ner remembraunce in Jeruſalē.

The III. Chapter.

AND Eliaſib the hye prieſt gat him vp with his brethren the prieſtes, and buylded the Shepegate. They halowed it, and ſet vp the dores of it euen vnto the tower Mea halowed they it, namely vnto the tower of Hananeel. Nexte vnto him buylded ỳ men of Jericho. And beſyde him buylded Sachur the ſonne of Imri. But the Fyſhporte dyd the children of Senaa buylde, they couered it, and ſet on the dores, lockes and barres of it. Nexte vnto him buylded Meremoth the ſonne of Uria the ſonne of Hacoz. Nexte vnto him buylded Meſullam ỳ ſonne of Barachias ỳ ſonne of Meſeſabeel. Nexte vnto him buylded Sadoc ỳ ſonne of Baena. Nexte vnto him buylded they of Thecoa. But their greate mē put not their neckes to ỳ ſeruyce of their lorde.

The Oldgate buylded Joiada ỳ ſonne of paſſeah, & Meſullam the ſonne of Beſodia: they couered it, and ſet on the dores, lockes & barres of it. Nexte vnto them buylded Melacia of Gibeon, and Jadon of Mozono, mē of Gibeon and of Miſpa, for the ſeate of the Debyte on this ſyde the water. Nexte vnto him buylded Uſiel the ſonne of Harhaia the goldſmyth. Nexte vnto him buylded Hanania ỳ Apotecarys ſonne, & they repayred Jeruſalē vnto the brode wall. Nexte vnto him buylded Rephaia the ſonne of Hur, the ruler of the halfe quarter of Jeruſalem. Nexte vnto him buylded Jedaia the ſonne of Harumaph, ouer agaynſt his houſe. Nexte vnto him buylded Hattus the ſonne of Haſabenia. But Malchia the ſonne of Harim, and Haſub the ſonne of Pahath Moab buylded ỳ other pece, and the tower beſide the fornace. Nexte vnto him buylded Sallum the ſonne of Halohes the ruler of the halfe quarter of Jeruſalem, and his daughters.

The valley gate buylded Hanum, and the citeſins of Sanoah. They buylded it, and ſet on the dores, lockes and barres therof, and a thouſande cubytes on the wall, vnto the Dōgeporte. But the Dongeporte buylded Malechia the ſonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth parte of the vynyardes: He buylded it, & ſet on the dores, lockes & barres therof. But the Wellgate builded Sallum ỳ ſonne of Chalhoſe, the ruler of the fourthparte of Miſpa: He builded it, & couered it, & ſet on ỳ dores, lockes, & barres therof, & the wall vnto the pole of Sybah by the kynges garden, vnto the ſteppes that go downe from the cite of Dauid. After him builded Nehemia the ſonne of Aßbuk, the ruler of the halfe quarter of Bethzur, vntyll the other ſide ouer agaynſt the ſepulcres of Dauid, and to the pole Aſuia, & vnto the houſe of the mightie.

After him buylded the Lenites, Rehum the ſonne of Bani. Nexte vnto him buylded Haſabia ỳ ruler of the halfe quarter at Regila in his quarter. After him buylded their brethrē, Banai the ſonne of Henadab, the ruler of the halfe quarter of Segila. After him buylded Eſer the ſonne of Jeſua ỳ ruler of Miſpa, the other pece hard ouer againſt the Harneſſe corner. After him buylded Baruc the ſonne of Sabai the other pece worſhipfully & coſtly, frō the corner vnto ỳ dore of ỳ houſe of Eliaſib ỳ hye prieſt. After him buylded Meremoth the ſonne of Uria the ſonne of Hacos the other pece, frō ỳ dore of Eliaſibs houſe, vnto the ende of the houſe of Eliaſib. After him buylded the prieſtes, the mē of the countre. After him buylded Ben Jamin and Haſub ouer againſt their houſe. After thē buylded Aſaria the ſonne of Maeſeia the ſonne of Anania nexte vnto his houſe. After him buylded Benui ỳ ſonne of Henadad the other pece from the houſe of Aſaria vnto the turnynge, and vnto the corner.

After him buylded Palal the sonne of Vsai, ouer agaynst the corner & the hye tower, which lieth out ouer frō the kynges house, be syde the courte of the preson. After him Pedaia the sonne of Pareos (As for ỳ Nethinims they dwelt in Ophel, vnto ỳ Watergate, towarde the east where ỳ tower lieth out) After him buylded they of Thecoa ỳ other pece ouer against ỳ greate tower, ỳ lieth outwarde, and vnto the wall of Ophel. a. Pa. 32. c

F But from the Horsgate forth buylded ỳ prestes, euery one ouer agaynst his house. After them buylded Sadoc ỳ sonne of Immer ouer against his house. After him buylded Semaia the sonne of Sachania ỳ keper of the eastgate. After him buylded Hanania the sonne of Selemia, & Hanum the sonne of Zalaph ỳ sixte, ỳ other peace. After him buil ded Mesullam the sonne of Berechia ouer against his chest. After him builded Malchia the goldsmythes sonne, vntyll ỳ house of the Nethinims. and of the marchauntes ouer against the councell gate, and to the perler in the corner. And betwene the perler of the corner vnto the Shepegate builded the gold smythes and the marchauntes.

The IIII. Chapter.

A BVt whan Saneballat herde that we builded ỳ wall, he was wroth, & toke greate indignacīō & mocked ỳ Jewes & saide before his brethrē & the mightie men of Samaria: What do the impotēt Jewes? shall they be thus suffred? shall they offre? shal they perfourme it in one daie? shal they make ỳ stones whole againe, ỳ are brought to dust, & brent? And Tobias the Ammonite beside him saide: Let thē builde on, ỳ a fore go vp, he shall breake downe their stonye wall. Heare O thou oure God, how we are despysed, turne their shame vpon their awne heade, ỳ thou mayest gene them ouer into despisinge in the londe of their captiuite. Co uer not their wickednesse, & put not out their sinne frō ỳ presence: for they haue prouoked the buylders. Yet buylded we the wall, & ioy ned it whole together, vnto ỳ halfe heigth. And the people were well mynded to labo².

B But whan Saneballat, & Tobias, and ỳ Arabiās, & Ammonites, & Aßdodites herde, ỳ the walles of Jerusalem were made vp, and that they had begonne to stoppe vp ỳ gappes, they were very wroth, and cōspyred all together, to come and fight against Jeru salem, & to make an hinderaunce therin. Ne uertheles we made o² praier vnto oure God, & set watchmē vpō the wall daye & night ouer against them. And Juda saide: The strēgth of the bearers is to feble, & there is to moch dust, we are not able to builde on the wall. And ỏ aduersaries thought: They shall not knowe nether se, tyll we come in the myddes amonge thē, and slaye them, & hynder ỳ wor ke. But whan the Jewes that dwelt beside them, came out of all the places where they dwelt aboute vs, and tolde vs as good as ti tymes, then set I the people after their kyn reds with their swerdes, speares & bowes be neth in the lowe places behynde the wall, & loked, and gat me vp, and sayde vnto the che semen and rulers, & to the other people: Be not ye afrayed of them, thynke vpon ỳ grea te LORDE which ought to be feared, & fighte for yō brethren, sonnes, daughters, wyues, & houses. Neuertheles whan ỏ enemies herde ỳ we had gotten worde of it, God brought their councell to naughte, and we turned all againe to the wall, euery one vnto his labō, And from that time forth it came to passe, ỳ the halfe parte of the yonge men dyd the la boure, & the other halfe parte helde the spea res, shyldes, bowes, and brestplates, and the rulers stode behynde all the house of Juda, which buylded on the wall, & bare burthēs, from those that laded thē. With one hande dyd they ỳ worke, and with the other helde they the weapen. And euery one ỳ buylded, had his swerde girde by his side, & so builded they. And the trompetters stode beside me.

And I sayde vnto the pryncipall men, & rulers, and to ỳ other people: The worke is greate & large, & we are separated vpon the wall one farre from another. Loke in what place now ye heare the noise of ỳ trompe, re sorte ye thiter vnto vs. Oure God shal fight for vs, & we wil be labourīge in ỳ worke. And the halfe parte of thē helde ỳ speares frō ỳ morninge springe, till ỳ starres came forth. And at ỳ same tyme sayde I vnto ỳ people: Euery one abyde with his seruaunt at Je rusalem, ỳ in the night season we maye gene attendaunce to ỳ watch, and to laboure on the daye tyme. As for me and my brethren, & my seruauntes, and ỳ men of the watch be hynde me, we put neuer of oure clothes, so so moch as to washe oure selues.

The V. Chapter.

AND there arose a greate complaynte of ỳ people, & of their wyues against their brethren the Jewes. And there were some ỳ sayde: oure sonnes and doughters are to many, let vs take corne for thē, & eate, that we maye lyue. Some saide: Let vs set o² londes, vynyardes & houses to pledge, & take vp corne in the deith. But some saide: Let vs borowe money of the kinge vpō vs

ry for oure londes and vynyardes. Now are oure brethrens bodies as oure awne bodies, and their children as oure children: els shulde we subdue oure sonnes and doughters vnto bondage, and some of oure doughters are subdued allready, and no strength is there in oure handes, and other men shal haue oure londes and vynyardes.

But whan I herde their complaynte and soch wordes, it displeased me sore, and I aduysed so in my mynde, ℣ I rebuked the counceilers, and the rulers, and sayde vnto them: Wyl ye requyre vsury one of another? And I broughte a greate congregacion agaynst them, and sayde vnto them: We (after oure abilyte) haue boughte oure brethren the Jewes, which were solde vnto the Heythen. And wyl ye sell youre brethren, whom we haue boughte vnto vs? Then helde they their peace, & coulde fynde nothinge to answere.

And I sayde: It is not good that ye do. B Oughte ye not to walke in the feare of God, because of the rebuke of the Heythen oure enemies? And my brethrē, and my seruaunts haue lent them money and corne: but as for vsury, let vs leaue it. Therfore this same daye se that ye restore thē their londes agayne, their vynyardes, oyle gardens and houses, and the hundreth parte of the money of the corne, wyne and oyle that ye haue wonne of them. Then sayde they: We wyl restore them agayne, and wyl requyre nothinge of them, and wyl do as thou hast spoken. And I called the prestes, and toke an ooth of thē, that they shulde do so. And I shoke my lappe, and sayde: God shake out euery man after the same maner frō his house and labour, that maynteyneth not this worde: euen thus be he shaken out, and voyde. And all ℣ congregacion sayde: Amen, and prayſed the LORDE. And the people dyd so.

C And from the tyme forth that it was commytted vnto me to be a Debyte in the londe of Juda, namely from the twentieth yeare vnto the two and thirtieth yeare off kynge Artaxerses (that is twolue yeare) I and my brethrē lyued not of soch sustenaunce as was geuen to a Debyte: For the olde Debytes that were before me, had bene chargeable vnto the people, and had take of thē bred and wyne, and fortye Sycles of syluer: Yee and their seruauntes had oppressed the people. But so dyd not I, and that because of the feare of God. I laboured also in the worke vpon the wall, and boughte no lōde. And all my seruaūtes came thither together vnto ℣ worke. Moreouer there were at my table an hundreth and fiftie of the Jewes and rulers, which came vnto me, from amonge the Heythen, that are aboute vs. And there was prepared me daylie an oxe, and sixe chosen shepe, and byrdes, and euer once in ten dayes a greate summe of wyne. Yet requyred not I the lyuynge of a Debyte for ℣ bondage was greuous vnto ℣ people. Thynke vpō me my God vnto ℣ best, accordige to all that I haue done for this people. 2.Esd.1.3.6

The VI. Chapter.

A And whan Saneballat, Tobias and Gosim the Arabian, and the other of oure enemyes herde, that I had buylded the wall, and that there were no mo gappes ther in (howbeit at the same tyme had I not hanged the dores vpon the gates) Saneballat and Gosem sent vnto me, sayenge: Come and let vs mete together in the vyllages vpon the playne of the cite Ono. Neuertheles they thoughte to do me euell. Notwithstondynge I sent messaungers vnto them, sayenge: I haue a greate busynes to do, I can not come downe. The worke shulde stonde still, yf I were necligent, and came downe to you. Howbeit they sent vnto me as good as foure tymes after the same maner. And I gaue the same answere.

Then sent Saneballat his seruaunt vnto me the fifth tyme, with an open letter in his B hande, wherin was wrytten: It is tolde the Heythen, & Gosem hath sayde it, that thou and the Jewes thynke to rebell: for ℣ which cause thou buyldest the wall, and wylt be their kynge in these matters, and hast ordeyned the prophetes to preach of the at Jerusalem, and to saye: He is kynge of Juda.

Now shal this come to the kynges eares: come now therfore, and let vs take oure councell together. Neuertheles I sent vnto him, sayenge: There is no soch thinge done as thou sayest: thou hast fayned it out of thine owne hert. For they were all mynded to make vs afrayed, and thoughte: They shal withdrawe their handes from the worke, ℣ they shal not laboure. Howbeit I strēgthed my hande the more.

And I came vnto ℣ house of Semaia ℣ sonne of Delaia the sonne of Mechetabeel, & he C had shut him selfe within, & sayde: Let vs come together in to ℣ house of God, euē vnto ℣ myddes of ℣ tēple, & sparre ℣ dores of ℣ tēple: for they wyl come to slaye ℣, yee euē in the night wyl they come to put the to death. But I sayde: Shulde soch a mā flye? Shulde soch a mā as I am, go in to ℣ tēple, to saue his life? I wyl not go in.

For I perceaued, that God had not ſent him: Yet ſpake he prophecye vpon me, neuer tyheleſſe Tobias and Saneballat had hired him for money. Therfore toke he the money, that I ſhulde be afrayed, and ſo to do and ſynne, that they might haue an euell reporte of me, to blaſpheme me. My God thynke thou vpon Tobias and Saneballat, accordynge vnto theſe their workes, and of ỹ prophet Noadia, and of the other prophetes, ỹ wolde haue put me in feare

D And the wall was fynyſhed on the fyue & twentyeth daye of the moneth Elul, in two and fyftye dayes. And whan all ỏ enemies herde therof, all the Heithen ỹ were aboute vs, were afraied, and their corage failed thē: for they perceaued, that this worke came of God. And at ỹ ſame tyme were there many of ỹ chefe of Juda, whoſe letters wēte vnto Tobias, & from Tobias vnto them (for there were many in Juda that were ſworne vnto him: for he was the ſonne in lawe of Sachania the ſonne of Arah, and his ſonne Johanan had the doughter of Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia, and they ſpake good of him before me, and tolde him my wordes) And Tobias ſent letters, to put me in feare.

The VII. Chapter.

A NOw whan we had buylded the wall I hanged on the dores, and the porters, ſyngers and Leuites were appoynted. And I cōmaunded my brother Hanani, and Hanania the ruler of the palace at Jeruſalem: for he was a faithfull man, and feared God more then dyd many other) and I ſayde vnto them: Let not the gates of Jeruſalē be opened vntyll the Sonne be whote. And whyle they are yet ſtondinge in the watch, the dores ſhall be ſhut and barred. And there were certayne citeſyns of Jeruſalem appoynted to be watchmen, euery one in his watch, and aboute his houſe. As for ỹ cite, it was large of rowme, and greate, but ỹ people were fewe therin, and the houſes were not buylded.

And my God gaue me in my hert, that I gatherd together the prynciſpall men and ỹ people, to nombre them, and I founde a regiſter of their nombre, * which came vp afore out of the captiuyte (whom Nabuchodonoſor ỹ kynge of Babilō had caryed awaie) and dwelt at Jeruſalem and in Juda, euery one vnto his cite, and were come with Zorobabel, Jeſua, Nehemias, Aſaria, Raamia, Nahaman, Mardachai, Bilſan, Miſpereth, Bigenai, Nehum and Baena. And the preſtes and Leuites, the Porters, the ſyngers, and the other of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Jſrael, dwelt in their cities.

The VIII. Chapter.

NOw whan the ſeuenth moneth dwe nye, and ỹ children of Jſrael were in their cities, all the people gathered them ſelues together as one man vpon the ſtrete before the Watergate, and ſayde vnto Eſdras the ſcrybe, that he ſhulde fetch the boke of the lawe of Moſes, which the LORDE commaunded Jſrael. * And Eſdras the preſt brought ỹ lawe before the congregaciō both of men and wemen, and of all that coulde vnderſtonde it, vpon the firſt daye of the ſeuenth moneth, and red therin in the ſtrete that is before the Watergate, from ỹ light morynge vntyll the noone daye before men and wemen and ſoch as coulde vnderſtonde it: and the eares of all the people were inclyned vnto the boke of the lawe. And Eſdras the ſcrybe ſtode vpon an hye pulpit of wod, which they had made for the preachynge, & beſide him ſtode Mathithia, Sema, Anania, Uria, Ezechias, and Maeſeia on his right hand: And on his left honde ſtode Pedaia, Miſael, Malchia, Haſum, Haſbadana, Zachary and Meſullam.

And Eſdras opened ỹ boke before all ỹ people, for he ſtode aboue all ỹ people. And whan he opened it, all the people ſtode vp. And Eſdras prayſed the LORDE the greate God. And all the people anſwered Amen, Amen, with their handes vp, and bowed thē ſelues, and worſhipped ỹ LORDE with their faces to the grounde. And Jeſua, Bani, Serebia, Jamin, Acub, Sabthai, Hodaia, Maeſeia, Celita, Aſaria, Joſabad, Hanam, Plaia, and the Leuites, cauſed ỹ people to gene hede vnto the lawe, & the people ſtode in their place. And they red in the boke of the lawe of God diſtinctly and planely, ſo that men vnderſtode the thinge that was red. And Nehemias (which is Hathirſatha) and Eſdras the preist and scrybe, and the Lewites ỹ caused the people to take hede, sayde vnto all the people: This daye is holy vnto the LORDE youre God: be not ye sory therfore, & wepe not. For all ỹ people wepte, whā they herde the wordes of the lawe.

C Therfore sayde he vnto them: Go youre waye, and eate the fat, and drynke the swete, and sende parte vnto them also that haue not prepared themselues: for this daye is holy vnto oure LORDE, be not ye sory therfore: for the ioye of the LORDE is youre strength. And the Lewites stylled all the people, and sayde: Holde youre peace, for the daye is holy, vexe not ye youre selues. And all the people wente their waye to eate and drinke, and to sende parte vnto other, and to make greate myrth, for they had vnderstonde the wordes that were declared vnto them.

And on the nexte daye were gathered together the chefe fathers amonge all the people, and the prestes and Lewites, vnto Esdras the scrybe, that he shulde teach them ỹ wordes of the lawe. And they founde writ Leui. 23. f ten in the lawe, how that the LORDE had commaunded by Moses, that the childrē of Israel shulde dwell in bothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth. And so they caused it be D declared and proclamed in all their cities, & at Jerusalem, sayenge: Go vp vnto ỹ mount and fetch Olyue braunches, Pynebraunches, Myrtbraunches, Palmebraunches, & braunches of thicketrees, to make bothes as it is wrytten.

And ỹ people wente vp, and fetched thē, and made them bothes, euery one vpon the rofe of his house, and in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the strete by the Watergate, and in the strete by Ephraims porte. And all the congregacion of them that were come agayne out of the captyuite, made bothes, and dwelt therin: for sence the tyme of Josua the sonne of Nū vnto this daye, had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very greate gladnesse. And euery daye from the first daie vnto the last, red he in the boke of the lawe of God. And seuen dayes helde they the feast, & on the eight daye the gatheryng together, acordynge vnto the maner.

The IX. Chapter.

A IN the foure and twentieth daye of this moneth came the children of Israel together with fastinge and sack clothes, and earth vpon them, and separated the sede of Israel from all the straunge children, and stode and knowleged their synnes, and the wyckednesses of their fathers, and stode vp in their place, and red in the boke of the lawe of the LORDE their God foure tymes on the daye, and they knowleged, and worshipped the LORDE their God foure tymes on the daye. And the Lewites stode on hye, namely Jesua, Bani, Cadmiel, Sebania, Buni, Serebia, Bani, and Chenani, and cryed loude vnto the LORDE their God. And the Lewites, Jesua, Cadmiel, Bani, Hasabenia, Serebia, Hodia, Sebania, Pethahia, sayde: Stonde vp, prayse the LORDE oure God for euer: and let thankes be geuē vnto the name of thy glorye, which excelleth all thankesgeuynge and prayse. LORDE, thou art alone, thou hast made heauen, and the heauen of all heauens, with all their hoost, the earth and all that therin is, the See and all that is therin: thou geuest life vnto all, and ỹ hoost of heauen bowe themselues vnto the. Thou A art the LORDE God, that hast chosen Abrā, Ge and broughte him out of Vr in Chaldea, & Ge called him Abraham, and founde his hert faithfull before the, and madest a couenaūt Ge with him, to geue vnto his sede the londe of the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pheresites, Jebusites, and Girgosites, and hast made good thy wordes: for thou art righteous And hast considered the mysery of oure fa Le thers in Egipte, and herde their complaint by the reed See, and shewed tokēs and wonders vpō Pharao, and on all his seruaūtes, and on all his people of his londe: for thou knewest ỹ they were presumptuous & cruell Ge against them, & so madest thou the a name as it is this daie. And the reed See partedst thou in sunder before them, so that they wēte thorow the myddes of the See drye shod: & their persecuters threwest thou in to the depe as a stone, in the mightie waters, and ledest them on the daye tyme in a cloudy pyller, and on the nighte season in a piler of fyre, to shewe them lighte in the waye ỹ they wente.

Thou cameste downe also vpō mount Si C naj, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and Ex gauest them righte iudgmentes, true lawes, De good commaundementes and statutes, and declared vnto them thy holy Sabbath, and commaunded them preceptes, ordinaunces, and lawes, by Moses thy seruaunt: and gaNeh uest them bred from heauen whan they were hongrye, and brought forth water for Nu them out of the rock whan they were thyrstye: and promysed them, that they shulde Ge go in, and take possession of the londe, where ouer thou haddest lyfte vp thine hande for to gene them.

Neuertheles oure fathers were proude and hardnecked, ſo that they folowed not ẏ cõmaundementes, and refuſed to heare, and were not mynde full of the wonders ẏ thou dyddeſt for them: but became obſtynate and heady, in ſo moch that they turned back to their bondage in their diſobedience. But thou my God forgaueſt, and waſt gracious, merciſull, pacient, and of greate goodneſſe, and forſokeſt them not. * And though they made a molten calfe (and ſayde: This is thy God, that brought the out of the londe of Egipte) and dyd greate blaſphemies, yet forſokeſt thou them not in the wyldernes, acordinge to thy greate mercy. * And ẏ cloudy piler departed not from them on ẏ daye ty me to lede them the waye, nether the piler of fyre in the night ſeason, to ſhewe them lighte in the waye that they wente.

And thou gaueſt them thy good ſprete to enfourme them, * and withheldeſt not thy Manna from their mouth, * and gaueſt thẽ water whã they were thirſtie. Fortye yeares longe madeſt thou prouyſion for them in the wylderneſſe, ſo that they wanted nothinge: * their clothes waxed not olde, and their fete ſwelled not. And thou gaueſt thẽ kigdomes ⁊ nacions, ⁊ partedſt thẽ acordinge to their porcions, ſo that they poſſeſſed * the londe of Sihon kynge of Heßbon, ⁊ the londe of Og ẏ kynge of Baſan. * And their childrẽ mul tiplyedſt thou as the ſtarres of heauen, and broughteſt thẽ in to the londe wherof thou haddeſt ſpoken vnto their fathers, that they ſhulde go in to it, and haue it in poſſeſſion.

And ẏ children wente in, and poſſeſſed the londe, * and thou ſubdudeſt before thẽ the inhabiters of the londe, euen the Cananites, ⁊ gaueſt them in to their hande, and their kyn ges and ẏ people of the londe, ẏ they might do with them what they wolde. And they wanne their ſtronge cities, ⁊ a fat londe, and toke poſſeſſion of houſes ẏ were full of all maner goodes, welles dygged out, vynyar des, oylgardens, ⁊ many frute full trees: and they ate ⁊ were fylled, ⁊ became fat, ⁊ lyued in welth thorow thy greate goodnes. Neuer theles they were diſobedient, and rebelled a gaynſt the, and caſt thy lawe behynde their backes, * and ſlewe thy prophetes (which ex horted them ſo earneſtly, that they ſhulde cõ uerte vnto the) and dyd greate blaſphemies. Therfore gaueſt thou them ouer in to the hãde of their enemies that vexed them.

And in ẏ tyme of their trouble they cried vnto the, and thou hardeſt them from hea uen: and thorow thy greate mercy thou ga ueſt them ſauiours, which helped thẽ out of the hande of their enemies. But whan they came to reſt, they turned back agayne to do euell before the: therfore leſteſt thou them in the hande of their enemies, ſo ẏ they had ẏ dominion ouer them. So they cõuerted, and cryed vnto the, and thou herdeſt them from heauen, and many a tyme haſt thou delyue red them acordinge to ẏ greate mercy, and teſtified vnto them, that they ſhulde turne agayne vnto thy lawe.

Notwithſtõdinge they were proude, and herkened not vnto thy cõmaundementes, but ſynned in thy lawes (which a man ſhulde do, ⁊ lyue in them) ⁊ turned their ſhulder awaye, ⁊ were ſtyffnecked, ⁊ wolde not heare. And many yeares dyddeſt thou forbeare them, ⁊ teſtified vnto them thorow ẏ ſprete, euen by the office of ẏ prophetes, ⁊ yet wolde they not heare. Therfore gaueſt thou thẽ in to ẏ hãde of ẏ nacions in the londes. But for thy greate mercies ſake thou haſt not vtterly cõ ſumed them, nether forſaken them: for thou art a gracious and merciſull God.

Now oure God, thou greate God, mighty and terrible, thou that kepeſt couenaunt and mercy, regarde not a litle all the trauay le ẏ hath happened vnto vs, ⁊ oure kynges, prynces, prieſtes, prophetes, fathers ⁊ all thy people, ſence the tyme of the kynges of Aſſur vnto this daie. Thou art righteous in all ẏ thou haſt broughte vpõ vs: for thou haſt done righte. As for vs, we haue bene vngod ly, and o᷑ kynges, prynces, prieſtes ⁊ fathers haue not done after ẏ lawe, ner regarded ẏ cõmaundementes, ⁊ thy earneſt exhortacions wherwith thou haſt exhorted them, ⁊ haue not ſerued ẏ in their kyngdome, and in thy greate goodes ẏ thou gaueſt them, and in the large and plenteous lõde which thou ga ueſt them to good, and haue not conuerted from their wicked workes. Beholde, therfore are we in bondage this daye: Yee euen in the lõde that thou gaueſt vnto oure fathers, to enioye the frutes and goodes therof, behol de, there are we bondmen. And greate is the increaſe of it vnto the kynges, whom thou haſt ſet ouer vs becauſe of oure ſynnes, and they haue dominion ouer oure bodies and cã tell, and we are in greate trouble.

And in all this made we a ſure couenaunt, ⁊ wrote it, ⁊ let o᷑ prynces, Leuites ⁊ prieſtes ſeale it.

The X. Chapter.

The ſealers were: Nehemias (that is) Hathirſatha the ſonne of Hachalia and Sedechias, Seraia, Aſaria, Je remy, Pashur, Amaria, Malchia, Hattus, Sebania, Malluch, Harim, Meremoth, Obadia, Daniel, Sinthun, Baruch, Mesullam, Abia, Meiamin, Maasga, Bilgai and Semaia: these were prestes.

The Leuites were: Jesua ỹ sonne of Asania, Binui amonge the childrē of Henadad, Cadmiel. And their brethren: Sechania, Hodia, Celita, Plaia, Hanan, Micha, Rehob, Hasabia, Sachur, Serebia, Sebania, Hodia, Bani and Beninu. The heades of the people were: Pareos, Pahath Moab, Elam, Sathu, Bani, Buni, Asgad, Sebai, Adonia, Bigenai, Adin, Ater, Hezechias, Asur, Hodia, Hasum, Bezai, Hariph, Anathot, Nenbai, Magpias, Mesullam, Hesir, Mesesabeel, Sadoc, Jaddua, Platia, Hanan, Anaia, Hoseia, Hanania, Hasub, Halohes, Pilha, Sobek, Rehum, Hasabna, Maeseia, Ahia, Hanan, Anan, Malluch, Harim and Baena.

And the other people, the prestes, Leuites, porters, syngers. Nethinims, & all they that had separated them selues from ỹ people in the lōdes vnto the lawe of God, with their wyues, sonnes and daughters, as many as coulde vnderstonde it, and their lordes that had rule of them, receaued it for their brethren.

B * And they came to sweare, and to bynde them selues with an ooth to walke in Gods lawe, which was geuen by Moses the seruaunt of God, that they wolde obserue and do acordinge vnto all the commaundementes, iudgmentes and statutes of the LORDE oure God: * and that we wolde not geue oure doughters vnto the people in the lōde, nether to take their doughters for oure sonnes. * And yf ỹ people of the lōde broughte ware on the Sabbath, and all maner of vytayles to sell, that we wolde not take it of them on the Sabbath and on the holy dayes. * And that we wolde let the seuēth yeare be fre concernynge all maner of charge.

C And we layed a statute vpon oure selues, to geue yearly ỹ thirde parte of a Sycle to the mynistracion in the house of oure God, namely to the shewbred, to the daylie meatofferynge, to the daylie burntofferynge of ỹ Sabbathes, of the new mones and feast dayes, and to the thinges that were sanctified, and to the synofferynges, to reconcyle Israel with all, and to all the busynes in ỹ house of oure God.

And we cast the lot amonge the prestes, Leuites and the people, for offerynge of ỹ wod, to be brought vnto ỹ house of ỹ God from yeare to yeare, after the houses of oure fathers, that it might be brent at tymes appoynted, vpon the altare of the LORDE oure God, as it is wrytten in the lawe: and yearly to brynge the firstlinges of ỹ londe, & the firstlinges of oure frutes of all trees, yeare by yeare, vnto ỹ house of the LORDE: and the firstlinges of oure sonnes, and of oure cattell, as it is wrytten in the lawe: and the firstlinges of oure oxen and of oure shepe, that we shulde brynge all this to the house of oure God vnto the prestes that mynister in the house of oure God: and that we shulde brynge the firstlinges of oure dowe, and of oure heueofferinges, and the frutes of all maner trees, of wyne also and of oyle, vnto the prestes to the chestes of the house of oure God. And the tithes of ỹ lōde vnto the Leuites, ỹ the Leuites might haue the tithes in all the cities of oure mynistracion.

And the prest the sonne of Aaron shal be the Leuites haue also of the tithes of ỹ Leuites, so that the Leuites shal brynge vp the tithes of their tithes vnto the house of oure God to the chest in ỹ treasure house. For the children of Israel and the children of Leui shall brynge vp the heueofferynges of the corne, wyne and oyle vnto the chestes, there are the vessels of the Sanctuary, & the prestes ỹ mynister, and the porters & syngers, ỹ we forsake not the house of oure God.

The XI. Chapter.

AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem. But the other people caste lottes therfore, ỹ that amōge ten one parte wente to Jerusalem in to the holy cite to dwell, and nyne partes in the cities. And ỹ people thanked all the men that were willinge to dwell at Jerusalem.

These are the heades of the londe that dwelt at Jerusalem. In the cities dwelt Juda euery one in his possession ỹ was in their cities, namely Israel, the prestes, Leuites, ỹ Nethinims, and the children of Salomons seruauntes. And at Jerusalē dwelt certayne of the children of Juda & of Ben Jamin.

Of the children of Juda: Athaia the sonne of Vsia ỹ sonne of Zachary, the sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Sephatia, the sonne of Mahelaleel, of the children of Phares. The XII. Chapter.

A These are & prestes and Lewites that wente vp with Zorobabel & sonne of Saalthiel and with Jesua: Seraia, Jeremy, Esdras, Amaria, Malluch, Hattus, Sechania, Rehum, Meremoth, Iddo, Ginthoi, Abia, Meiamin, Maadia, Bilga, Semaia, Joiarib, Jedaia, Sallu, Amok, Helchias & Jedaia. These were the heades amōge the prestes and their brethren in the tyme of Jesua. The Lewites were these: Jesua, Bēnui, Cadmiel, Serebia, Juda and Mathania, ouer the office of thanke sgeuynge, they & their brethrē: Bacbuchia & Vnni and their brethrē, were aboute them in the watches.

Jesua begat Joachim. Joachim begat Eliasib. Eliasib begat Joiada. Joiada begat Jonathan. Jonathan begat Jaddua. And in the tyme of Joachim were these the chefe fathers amonge the prestes: namely of Seraia was Meraia, of Jeremy was Hanania, of Esdras was Mesullam, of Amaria was Johanan, of Malluch was Jonathan, of Sebania was Joseph, of Harim was Adna, of Meraioth was Helcai, of Iddo was Zachary, of Ginthon was Mesullā, of Abia was Sichri, of Miniamin Moadia was Piltai, of Bilga was Sammua, of Semaia was Jonathan, of Joiarib was Mathnai, of Jedaia was Vsi, of Sallai was Callai, of Amok was Eber, of Helchias was Hasabia, of Gedaia, was Nethaneel. B

And in the tyme of Eliasib. Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, were the chefe fathers amonge the Lewites, and the prestes wrytē vnder the reigne of Darius & persian. The children of Leui the pryncipall fathers were wrytten in the Cronicles, vntyll the tyme of Johanan the sonne of Eliasib. And these were the chefe amōge the Leuites, Hasabia, Serebia and Jesua the sonne of Cadmiel, & their brethren ouer agaynst them, to geue prayse and thankes, acordinge as Dauid ỳ mā of God had ordeyned it, one watch ouer agaynst another. Mathania, Bacbuchia, Obadia, Mesullam, Talmon and Acub were porters in the watch at the thresholdes of the gates. These were in the tyme of Joiachim the sonne of Jesua the sonne of Josedec, and in the tyme of Nehemias the Debyte, and of the prest Esdras the scrybe.

C And in the dedicacion of the wall at Jerusalem, were the Leuites soughte out of all their places, that they mighte be broughte to Jerusalem, to kepe ỳ dedicacion in gladnesse, with thankesgeuynges, with synginge, with Cymbales, psalteries and harpes. And the children of the syngers gathered thē selues together from the playne countre about Jerusalem, and from the vyllages of Nethophathi, and from the house of Gilgal, & out of the feldes of Gibea & Asmaueth: for ỳ syngers had buylded them vyllages about Jerusalem. And ỳ prestes and Leuites purified them selues, and clensed the people, the gates and the wall.

And I caused the prynces to go vp vpon the wall, and appoynted two greate queres of thankesgeuynge, which wēte on the right hande of the wall towarde the Donggate, and after them wēte Hosaia, and halfe of the prynces of Juda, & Asaria, Esdras, Mesullam, Juda, Ben Jamin, Semaia and Jeremy: and certayne of the prestes children wt trompettes, namely Zachary ỳ sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Semaia, the sonne of Mathania, the sonne of Michaia, the sonne of Sachur, the sonne of Assaph, and his brethren, Semaia, Asareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathaneel and Juda and Hanani, with the musicall instrumentes of Dauid ỳ man of God.

D And Esdras ỳ scrybe before thē towarde the Wellgate, and they wente vp ouer agaynst them vpon the steppes of the cite of Dauid at the goynge vp of the wall to the house of Dauid, vnto the Watergate Eastwarde.

The other quere of thankesgeuynge went ouer against them, and I after them, and the halfe parte of the people vpon ỳ wall, towarde ỳ Fornacegate vpwarde, vntyll ỳ brode wall, and to ỳ porte of Ephraim, and to the Oldgate, and to ỳ Fyshgate, and to the tower of Hananeel, and to the tower of Meah, vntyll the Shepegate. And in ỳ prisongate stode they styll, and so stode the two queres of thankesgeuynge of the house of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me, and the prestes, namely Eliachim, Maseia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elioenai, Zachary, Hanania, with trōpettes, and Maeseia, Semaia, Eleasar, Osi, Johanan, Malchia, Elam and Aser. And the syngers songe lowde, and Jesrahia was the overseer.

And the same daye were there greate sacrifices offred, & they reioysed: for God had geuē them greate gladnesse, so that both the wyues and children were ioyfull, & the myrth of Jerusalem was herde farre of.

At the same tyme were there men appoynted ouer the treasure chestes (wherin were ỳ Heue offerynges, the firstlinges and the tithes) that they shulde gather them out of ỳ feldes aboute the cities, to destribute thē vnto the prestes and Leuites acordinge to the lawe: for Juda was glad of the prestes, and Leuites, that they stode and wayted vpon the office of their God, and the office of the purificacion. And the syngers & porters stode after the commaundemēt of Dauid & of Salomon his sonne: * for in the tyme of Dauid and Assaph, were the chefe syngers founded, and the songes of prayse and thankesgeuynge vnto God. In the tyme of Zorobabel and Nehemias, dyd all Israel geue porcions vnto the syngers and porters, euery daye his porcion, and they gaue thinges halowed vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites gaue thinges that were sanctified, vnto the childrē of Aaron.

The XIII. Chapter.

AND what tyme as the boke of Moses was red in ỳ eares of the people, there was founde wrytten therin, * ỳ the Ammonites and Moabites shulde neuer come in to the congregacion of God, because they mett not the children of Israel wt bred and water, * and hyred Balaam against thē, that he shulde curse them: neuertheles our God turned ỳ curse in to a blessynge. Now whan they herde the lawe, they separated from Israel euery one that had myxte himselfe therin. And before this had the prest Eliasib delyuered the chest of ỳ house of our God vnto his kynsman Tobia: for he had made him a greate chest, and there had they afore tyme layed the meate offerynges, frankencense, vessell, and the tithes of corne, wyne and oyle (acordinge to the commaundemen gewen to the Lewites, ſyngers and porters) and the heue offerynges of the prieſtes.

B But in all this was not I at Jerusalem: for in ỹ two and thirtieth yeare of Artaxerxes kynge of Babilon, came I vnto the kynge, and after certayne dayes optayned I lycence of the kynge to come to Jerusalē. And I gat knowlege of ỹ euell that Eliasib dyd vnto Tobia, in that he had made him a cheſt in the courte of the house of God, and it greued me sore, and I caſt forth all the veſſels of Tobias house out of the cheſt, and commaūded them to clense the cheſt. And thither broughte I agayne the veſſels of the house of God, the meat offerynge and the incense.

And I perceaued, that the porcions of ỹ Lewites were not gewen them, for the which cause the Lewites and ſyngers were fled, euery one to his londe for to worke. Then reproued I the rulers, and sayde: Why forsake we the house of God? But I gathered them together, and set them in their place. Then brought all Juda the tithes of corne, wyne and oyle vnto the treasure. And I made treasurers ouer ỹ treasure, euen Selemia ỹ preſt, and Sadoc the scrybe, & of the Lewites Pedaia, and vnder their hande Hanan the sonne of Sachur the sonne of Mathania: for they were counted faithfull, and their office was, to destribute vnto their brethren.

C Thynke vpon me O my God here in, & wype not out my mercy, that I haue shewed on ỹ house of my God, & on the offices therof.

At the same tyme sawe I some tredinge wyne preſſes on the Sabbath, and bryngynge in clusters, and asses laden wyth wyne, grapes, fygges, and bryngynge all maner of burthens vnto Jerusalem, vpon the Sabbath daye. And I rebuked them earneſtly ỹ same daye that they solde ỹ vytayles. There dwelt mē of Tyre also therin, which brought fyſh and all maner of ware, and solde on the Sabbath vnto the childrē of Juda and Jerusalem. Then reproued I the rulers in Juda, and saide vnto them: What euell thinge is this that ye do, and breake the Sabbath daye? Dyd not oure fathers euen thus, and oure God broughte all this plage vpon vs & vpon this cite? And ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the Sabbath.

D And whan the portes of Jerusalem were drawen vp before the Sabbath, I commaūded to shutt the gates, and charged that they shulde not be opened tyll after the Sabbath: and some of my seruauntes set I at the gates, ỹ there shulde no burthē be broughte in on the Sabbath daye. Then remayned the chapmen and marchauntes once or twyce ouer nighte without Jerusalem with all maner of wares. Then reproued I them sore, & sayde vnto them: Why tary ye all nighte aboute the wall? Yf ye do it once agayne, I wil laye handes vpon you. From that tyme forth came they nomore on the Sabbath. And I sayde vnto the Lewites which were cleane, that they shulde come and kepe the gates, to halowe the Sabbath daye. Thynke vpō me (O my God) cōcernynge this also, & spare me acordynge to thy greate mercy.

And at the same tyme sawe I Jewes, that maried wyues of Asdod, Ammon and of Moab, and their children spake halfe in the speache of Asdod, and coulde not speake in ỹ Jewiſh language, but by ỹ tonge mighte a mā perceaue euery people. And I reproued E them, and cursed them, & smote certayne men of thē, and pluckte them vp, and toke an ooth of them by God: Ye shal not gene youre daughters vnto their sonnes, nether shal ye take their daughters vnto youre sonnes, Deut. 7. or for youre selues. Dyd not Salomon ỹ kynge of Israel synne ther in? & yet amonge many heythen was there no kynge like him, & he was deare vnto his God, and God made him kynge ouer all Israel, and the outlandiſh wemen. 3. Re. 11.

And one of the children of Joiada the sonne of Eliasib ỹ hye preſt, had made a cōtracte wyth Saneballath the Horonite: but I chaced him fro me. O my God, thynke thou vpon them that are quyte of the preſthode, and haue deſyled the couenaunt of the preſthode and of the Lewites. Thus clensed I them from all soch as were outlandiſh, and appoynted the courses of the preſtes and Lewites, euery one to his office, and to offre the wod at tymes appoynted, and the firſt frutes. Thynke thou vpon me (O my God) for the beſt.

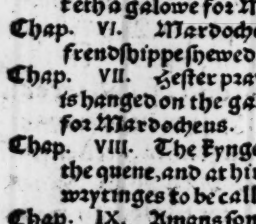
Chap. X. Of the auctorite of Mardocheus vnder the kynge.

The first Chapter.

A



N the tyme of Ahasuerus, which reigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundreth and seuen and twentye londes, what tyme as he sat on his seate roiall in the castell of Susan in the thirde yeare of his reigne, he made a feast vnto all his prynces and seruauntes, namely vnto the mihgtie men of Persia and Media, to the Debities and rulers of his countrees, that he mighte shewe the noble riches of his kingdome, and the glorious worshippe of his greatnesse, many dayes longe, euen an hundreth and foure score dayes.

And whan these dayes were expyred, the kynge made a feast vnto all the people that were in the castell of Susan, both vnto greate and small, seuen dayes longe in the courte of the garden by the kynges palace: where there hanged whyte, reed & yalow clothes, fastened with coardes of lynnen and scarlet in siluer rynges, vpon pylers of Marble stone.

The benches were of golde and siluer wode vpon a pauement of grene, whyte, yalow and black Marble. And ỳ drinke was caried in vessels of golde, and there was euer chaunge of vessell. And the kinges wine was moch acordynge to the power of the kynge. And noman was appoynted what he shulde drinke: for the kynge had commaunded all the officers of his house, that euery one shulde do as it lyked him. And the quene Vasthi made a feast also for the wemen in the palace of Ahasuerus. And on the seuenth daye whan the kynge was mery of the wine, he cōmaunded Mehuman, Bistha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Sethar and Charcas, the seuen chamberlaynes (that dyd seruyce in the presence of kynge Ahasuerus) to fetch the quene Vasthi with the crowne regall, that he might shewe ỳ people and prynces hir fairnesse: for she was bewtifull. But the quene Vasthi wolde not come at the kynges worde by his chamberlaynes. Then was the kynge very wroth, and his indignaciō kyndled in him.

And the kynge spake to ỳ wyse men that had vnderstondinge in the ordinaunces of the londe (for the kinges matters must be hādled before all soch as haue knowlege of the lawe and iudgment: And the nexte vnto him were, Charsena, Sethar, Admatha, Tharsis, Meres, Marsena and Memuchan, the seuen prynces of the Persiās, and Meedes, which sawe the kynges face, and satt aboue in the kyngdome) What lawe shulde be executed vpon the quene Vasthi, because she dyd not acordynge to the worde ōf the kynge by his chamberlaines. Thē saide Memuchā before the kynge & the prynces: The quene Vasthi hath not onely done euell agaynst the kinge but also agaynst all the prynces and all the people in all the londes of kynge Ahasuerus for this dede of the quene shall come abrode vnto all wemen, so that they shall despyse their hußbandes before their eyes, and shall saye: The kynge Ahasuers cōmaunded Vasthi ỳ quene to come before him, but she wolde not. And so shall the prynceses in Persia and Media saye lykewyse vnto all the kynges prynces, whan they heare of this dede of the quene, thus shall there aryse despytefulnes and wrath ynough. Yf it please the kynge, let there go a kyngly commaundemēt from him, and let it be wrytten acordynge to the lawe of the Persians and Medians (and not to be transgressed) that Vasthi come nomore before kynge Ahasuerus, and let the kynge geue the kyngdome vnto another that is better then she.

And ꝑ this writinge of the kynge which shalbe made, be published thorow out all his empyre (which is greate) that all wyues maye holde their hußbandes in honoure, both amonge greate and smal.

This pleased the kynge and the princes, and the kynge dyd acordynge to the worde of Memuchan. Then were there letters sent forth in to all the kynges londes, in to euery londe acordinge to the writinge ther of, and to euery people after their lāguage, ꝑ euery man shulde be lorde in his awne house. And this caused he be spoken after the language of his people.

The II Chapter.

A AFter these actes whan the displeasure of kynge Ahasuerus was layed, he thoughte vpon Vasthi, what she had done, and what was concluded concernynge her. Then sayde the kynges seruauntes: Let there be fayre yonge virgins soughte for the kynge, and let the kynge appoynte ouerseers in all ꝑ londes of his empyre, that they maye brynge together all fayre yonge virgins vnto the castel of Susan to the Wemens buyldinge, vnder the hande of Hegai the kynges clamberlayne, that kepeth the wemen, and let him geue them their apparell. And loke which damsell pleaseth the kynge, let her be quene in Vasthis steade. This pleased the kynge, and he dyd so.
